U. S. Heavies Pound Berlin

19 Bombers, Six Fighters Lost; 34 Nazis Destroyed

By W. W. HERCHER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Wednesday, April 19.—A force of probably 2,000 U. S. Flying Fortresses, Liberators and fighters broke through comparatively weak enemy fighter forces guarding Berlin and its environs yesterday and rained high explosives on targets vital to the Nazi aircraft industry.

Nineteen of the big American bombers and six fighters were lost in the attack. At least 34 German planes were reported destroyed. Bomber gunners shot down 10 Nazi planes and the fighters three. At least 21 others were destroyed on the ground, returning fighter-pilots said.

Invasion Coast Pounded

In addition to the forces which hit Berlin and the capital's environs, Thunderbolt-escorted Liberators bombed the Pas De Calais area and Marauders, accompanied by Thunderbolts, blasted Charleroi, bringing the number of Allied aircraft in operation from the British Isles to more than 2,500. Three of the Marauders were reported missing

Indicating the Allied aerial assault was continued into the night, the Berlin radio reported "nuisance planes" were over northwestern Germany and the Bordeaux radio left the air, raising the possibility of a night assault

Nazis Blame Weather

The German radio complained the weather interferred with successful defensive operations yesterday and a communique by the U. S. Army Air forces reported only one division of the attacking force encountered "significant enemy air opposition." It is known that this division went to Berlin. The Axis radio said "a large number" of Yank airmen parachuted into the Reich capital from their burning planes.

One of the American heavy bomber forces blasted the Heinkel bomber production center at Oranienburg, 20 miles northwest of Berlin, while another tackled an aircraft component factory at Rathenow, 35 miles west of Berlin. "Both of these targets were bombed visually with good results," air headquarters announced tonight.

Run Flaming Gantlet

Using a favorable turn in the weather after five days of rest, the crews of the sky giants flew 600 miles over the North Sea to their targets ,running a flaming gantlet of Nazi fighters which hurled rockets and cannon shells while Nazi ground gunners threw up tons of bursting projectiles.

One group of Fortresses which penetrated to the Berlin area brought back accounts of a savage battle with about 200 Nazi fighters, and other groups reported meeting between 50 and 75 enemy fighters as they moved in on their objectives.

Twin Blow Gets 91 Nazi Planes

22 More Damaged In Budapest Raid

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Naples, April 18 (AP)—At least 91 enemy planes, most of them rocket-firing Messerschmitt-410s used for intercepting bomber formations, were destroyed on the ground in twin raids by the U. S. 15th Air force on the Tokol and Vecses airfields near Budapest April 13, it was announced officially tonight.

Another 22 grounded planes were damaged in the devastating assault on Hungary which seriously crippled the German Air force power to strike back at American, British and Russian bombers which have been pulverizing Balkan communications upon which Hitler is dependent for bolstering the southern front against the Russians.

Rail Yards Battered

Heavy and medium bombers struck Bulgar rail yards at Plovdiv, 85 miles southeast of Sofia last night and other planes struck railways and bridges northeast of Rome. In operations against rail yards in Sofia and Belgrade yesterday, Allied planes destroyed 26 German craft, losing two heavy bombers and eight fighters.

On the quiescent land fronts in Italy, beachhead troops fought their way into a German outpost on the western flank in the Anzio sector.

A strong German raid north of Cassino was beaten back in hand-to-hand combat. Some Allied troops patrolled deeply west of the Sangro river without encountering the enemy. Nazi artillery and mortar fire was active on the Garigliano front near Minturno.

Thousands of fragmentation bombs knocked out 51 planes, of which 20 were ME-410s at the Vecses field and damaged 11 others. At Tokol, 40 planes were knocked out, including 29 ME-410s, and 11 others were damaged.

New Invasion Rumors Pop Up In Sweden

STOCKHOLM, April 18. (AP)—As the British virtually sealed off their country from the rest of the world with new security regulations a fresh crop of invasion speculation popped up today in the Swedish press under Berlin datelines.

The dispatches all quoted a German high command spokesman or military circles and took the line that "invasion from the west is imminent."

All reported a comparative lull in RAF heavy bomber operations in recent weeks while the Americans were engaged in intense air activity and left the impression this fact might be significant as an invasion barometer.

"German military circles are convinced the attackers will succeed in gaining a foothold and establishing strong bridgeheads at various places on the continent," one correspondent wrote. "The Germans are prepared for possible initial successes for the Allies but have unlimited optimism concerning the final outcome."

Fire Packing Plane Credited To U. S.

(By The United Press)

The British radio said today that the Americans had developed a secret weapon for use in the coming invasion of Europe.

The broadcast, recorded by CBS in New York, described the weapon as a speedy plane fitted with a special tank filled with an incendiary liquid."

"When the plane arrives over its target," the broadcast added, "the tank is dropped and the objectives is immediately covered with flames."

Vegetable Price Ceilings Change

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—In a move which officials said would mean a savings for consumers, the Office of Price administration today put new price ceilings on peas, carrots, spinach and snap beans in terms of cents-a-pound and cents-a-bunch "mark-ups" by retailers over wholesale prices.

The same type of mark-ups also was specified for three other food items not previously under price control. These are eggplant, coconuts and field-grown cucumbers.

First Time Plan Used

The dollars-and-cents mark-ups are the first to be used on retail food items except for fresh fish and seafood. The system is expected to prevent excessive prices to householders which OPA said resulted from the earlier percentage mark-up system. Under the latter, the amount of the mark-up increased every time the cost to the grocer increased.

In another action, OPA provided a 40 per cent mark-up at retail on sweet potatoes, which have been under a temporary price "freeze."

The new cents-per-pound mark-ups are effective April 27, and, OPA said, will allow a normal profit margin for retailers.

Community Prices

Community prices in each area will be set by the district OPA office, but OPA said typical retail prices of some of the items are expected to be:

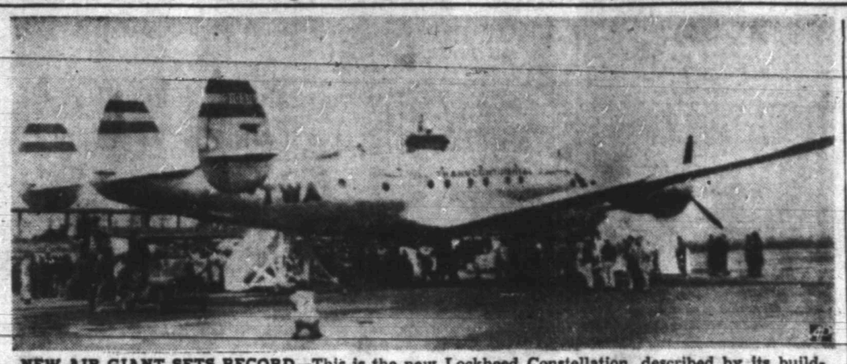

Chicago: Snap beans, 21 cents a pound, carrots, 9½ cents a bunch; eggplant, 15 cents a pound; spinach, 14 cents a pound; green peas, 23 cents a pound.

New York: Snap beans, 20½ cents a pound; carrots, 10 cents a bunch; eggplant, 14½ cents a pound; spinach, 14½ cents a pound; green peas, 23½ cents a pound.

Two Men Die When Fire Destroys Hotel

BARNHART, April 18 (AP)—F. M. Joslin, about 76, operator of the Joslin hotel here for two decades, and Tom McLaughlin, about 38, a guest, burned to death in a fire which destroyed the 20-room hotel today.

The fire started shortly before 6 a. m. and the bodies were recovered four hours later.

French Asked To Store Up Food As "Invasion Nears"

By ALEX H. SINGLETON
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, April 18.—The British advised the French people by radio today to store up as much food as possible in preparation for the Allied invasion from the west because "the time is getting short," and the Germans told troops of the vaunted "Atlantic wall" to prepare for "zero hour."

The worldwide guessing game on the invasion date intensified sharply in the wake of Britain's sudden extension of censorship to the traditionally immune diplomatic pouches, but the answer remained a priceless military secret guarded by the Allied command alone.

The action produced a quick crop of German rumors that invasion is imminent. The London press hailed the British move as one of common sense, and it did no guessing on its own.

In the latest of a stream of pre-invasion broadcasts the French were told by the British to store as much food as possible because "at least until the day of liberation comes, you must live on what is stored." Even after liberation the Allies will not be in position to distribute much food, the French were told.

The French listeners were advised also to memorize the London broadcast details because the Germans, it was said, may soon confiscate radio sets.

The German radio was heard here warning the German armies of the west to be on its toes "in the weeks to come," and to be prepared to fight heroicaly against the expected Allied attack.

The Berlin correspondent of the German-controlled French news agency said he was told by a high German military official: "The German high command takes the Allied measures on the Atlantic coast so seriously that invasion operations are now regarded here as about to begin."

Other indications of German apprehension came from Stockholm, where many stories appeared under Berlin datelines quoting German high command spokesmen or military circles as saying that "invasion from the west is imminent."

Britain's clamping of restrictions on all but American and British diplomats ruffled the feelings of the representatives of some nations, but informed British circles said there had been no official reaction.

Nazis Fight Desperately In Sevastopol Death Ring

Lower Anchor For Defense Captured

By TOM YARBROUGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, Wednesday, April 19—Gen. Andrei I. Yeremenko's independent coastal troops cracked Sevastopol's lower defense anchor yesterday by capturing historic Balaklava and plunged onward two miles, where they seized a village only five miles southeast of the prize Crimean stronghold, Moscow announced last night.

On a shrinking 25-mile semi-circle around Sevastopol the Germans pinned against the Black Sea were fighting desperately, a midnight bulletin said.

Romanians Are "The Goat"

In several sectors the Germans were using Romanians as covering troops with detachments of Nazi automatic riflemen and machine-gunners placed behind them, Moscow said. At the least effort of the Romanians to go over to the side of the Red Army or retreat, the Hitlerites open fire on their Romanian 'allies'," said the late bulletin.

The fall of Balaklava, linked with Sevastopol by a seven-mile highway and tramline, opened up the valleys leading into the larger city from the south and outflanked German troops dug in on Malakhov hill and Inkerman heights opposite Gen. Feodor I. Tolbukhin's Fourth Ukraine Army attacking on the eastern side of Sevastopol.

Astride Two Highways

Yeremenko's tough Marines were astride two highways leading into Sevastopol from the southeast, the Balaklava-Sevastopol road and the upper section of the main Yalta-Sevastopol route. Soviet airmen spearheaded the ground advance by strafing and bombing every Axis concentration outside Sevastopol.

Balaklava has changed hands four times. The Germans first captured it Nov. 29, 1941, lost it again Jan. 11, 1942, and reconquered it July 1, 1942, just two days before Sevastopol fell.

The only other battlefront mentioned in an unusually brief communique was in the area east of Stanislawow in southeastern Poland where the Russians said their

Bread Rationing By Christmas Predicted

BALTIMORE, April 18 (AP)—A prediction that bread would be rationed before Christmas was made today by B. B. Derrick, secretary-trasurer of the Maryland and Virginia Milk Producers' association.

Derrick said in an interview after an address before the annual meeting of interstate farmers' council, composed of farm organizations from five middle Atlantic states, that bread rationing this year "was inevitable" because reserve stocks of wheat had been largely exhausted, and because this year's planting had been curtailed.

Negro Fitting Description Of Houston Attacker Held

HOUSTON, April 18 (AP)—A negro who fits the description of the man seen talking to Mrs. Dollie Garrett Richardson shortly before she was bludgeoned to death in her home yesterday was being held by Galveston police tonight as Houston Detective Inspector C. V. Kearn disclosed that a second negro suspect was taken from a local hospital today to the city jail for questioning.

Kern said the second suspect was treated at Jefferson Davis hospital this afternoon for scratches on the face. Police have theorized that Mrs. Richardson in fighting for her life probably scratched her assailant.

To Be Examined Today

The negro was jailed tonight and will be examined tomorrow by the homicide division, Kern said.

Law enforcement officers throughout the state meanwhile contined to search for two men reported at the Richardson home Monday morning as police here sifted every minor clue available. One suspect was a negro, the other a middle-aged white man.

Police disclosing that a mass of fingerprints found at the home were being examined, said that a quick solution of the murder probably hinged on the results of the fingerprint tests.

Dead In Pool of Blood

Mrs. Richardson was found dead in a pool of blood in her home in an exclusive residential section. She had been stamped, slashed and choked.

Particles of skin found under her fingernails and strands of hair clutched in her hands were sent to the state department of public sefety's laboratory in Austin today for analysis. The results of this examination have not been disclosed.

Dr. Louis A. Crapitto, county health officer who performed an autopsy, reported that Mrs. Richardson's death possibly was due to choking. He said he found her throat severely bruised. She also was struck many times on the head and face with a sharp instrument and was stomped on the face and body, he said.

12 Assigned To Case

Tabbing the slaying the "most vicious crime" committed here in many years, chief Heard assumed personal charge of the investigation and assigned 12 detectives to work full time on the case.

The murder weapon has not been found. Inspector C. V. Kern said the instrument used by the killer could have been a sharp-pronged weeder of the type used by yardmen. Sharp V-shaped wounds were found on Mrs. Richardson's face.

Police discounted the possibility that robbery was the motive for the killing. They reported that the house was not ransacked and that Mrs. Richardson was wearing her diamond ring and wedding ring when found.

Shipping From Eire To Britain Stopped

LONDON, April 18. (AP)—Cross-channel shipping from the southern Irish port of Cork to Britain is suspended and Eire passenger trains will be permitted to run only Mondays and Thursdays beginning next week, it was announced today.

The order—probably the result of a critical fuel shortage—will sever another link between invasion-conscious England and neutral Eire, which has permitted the Axis maintain legation listening posts in Dublin.

Heavies Smash Big Jap Base Unopposed

Satawan Lashed At Midday; All Attackers Return

By CHARLES H. McMURTRY
Associated Press Staff Writer

ALLIED HEADQUARTERS, Southwest Pacific Wednesday, April 19. — Solomons-based Liberators temporarily neutralized the Satawan air base on the southern approaches to Truk Sunday with the first strike in force on the Nomoi group of Caroline islands.

The raiders knocked out the airstrip in the midday strike and returned to base without having encountered either enemy fighters or anti-aircraft fire.

Rabaul was handed another in the series of blows tearing up that bypassed New Britain base and off the New Guinea coast near Aitape, air patrols damaged a 2,000-ton freighter and sank two supply luggers Sunday and Monday.

No Jap Interference

Satawan, just southeast of Truk, was hit with 34 tons of explosives, a sizeable weight considering the long overwater hop made by the Liberators from the Solomons and back again. Although hitting in daylight, the bombers encountered neither air interceptors nor ground fire as they hit the airdrome and bivouac areas.

Rabaul, visited almost daily by South Pacific planes, was hit in the latest raid to be reported by 125 tons of bombs dropped by Mitchells and light bombers on airdrome supply areas.

Runways were cratered. Five gun positions were damaged. Supply dumps were blasted. In the same sectors, night raiders spread fire along the wharf.

Near the northwestern tip of New Guinea in the Mapia islands, Allied air patrols shot down a Japanese four-engined flying boat.

Northwest Of Darwin

In the sector northwest of Darwin, Liberators dropped 21 tons of bombs on the airdrome and supply areas at Faan in the Kai islands. Eight enemy fighters intercepted and one was believed shot down. All the Liberators got back.

The Rabaul raid was made by more than 150 planes. A headquarters spokesman said the enemy resistance at the New Britain base was noticeably weaker. The runways of its five airdromes have been repeatedly neutralized and gun emplacements knocked out.

The presence of a freighter east of the bombed-out enemy base of Hollandia, New Guinea, was regarded as unusual. The Japanese have been relying on luggers to supply Aitape, not daring to risk larger vessels. The presence of a freighter possibly indicates that Aitape is desperately in need of supplies.

H. B. Bryan And Lewis Honored

DALLAS, April 18 (AP)—Howard B. Bryan, Lubbock county Tax assessor and collector, was elected grand captain of the guard of the Grand Commandery, Knights Templar of Texas, at the 91st conclave here today.

Harry B. Tuer of Dallas was elected grand commander. The installation of officers was made by John Temple Rice of El Paso, deputy grand master of the grand encampment, who is due to become head of the Knights Templar of the United States at the next grand encampment.

Bryan, Nat Pace of Houston and Guy Sinolair of Wichita Falls were candidates for captain of the guard. Bryan and Pace tied on the first ballot with 89 votes each. In the runoff, Bryan won. In the ordinary course of events he will become grand commander in 11 years.

Tuer appointed Dr. Jack Lewis, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, Lubbock, grand prelate for the coming year. Denison will be the site of 1945 convention.

Japs Stopped Cold In Eastern India

Nip Casualties Estimated 10 To 1 And Supply Line To Area Menaced By Allies

(By The Associated Press)

KANDY, Ceylon, April 18.—Allied infantry and tanks are locked in heavy fighting against Japanese invasion troops around the entire jungle perimeter of the rich Imphal plain in eastern India, with the Japanese either being stopped cold or thrown back at every point of contact, Admiral Lord Louis Mountbatten's headquarters disclosed today.

The Japanese, shorn of the protection of the jungle and hills through which they infiltrated from western Burma, were estimated to be suffering 10 casualties to each one for Mountbatten's troops as they tangled with the powerful Allied defenses around Imphal, the Manipur state capital. Allied authorities consider Imphal's fortifications impregnable.

Allies Take Offensive

Going over to the offensive northeast of Imphal, Allied forces were reported in today's communique to be making "satisfactory progress." Other counter-attacking British and Indians threw the Japanese from a commanding position near the Bishenpur-Silchar jungle trail some 18-20 miles southwest of Imphal and were reported staving off enemy efforts to retake the point.

The Bishenpur-Silchar trail or "track," is believed to have represented the Imphal garrison's last overland communication with the Bengal-Assas supply railroad

Fighting raged in the mile-high hills a short distance northwest of Kohima, 60 miles to the north of Imphal, where Allied forces two days ago drove the Japanese from several road blocks on the 35-mile highway between Kohima and Dimapur on the Bengal-Assam rail line. Mountbatten's communique conceded that Japanese pressure was increasing in the Kohima area.

Claims By Tokyo

(A Tokyo broadcast declared that Japanese units, "released by the occupation of Kohima," had penetarted within six miles of Dimapur and were "on the verge of cutting the Bengal-Assam railday." The Japanese have insisted for more than a week that they were in possession of Kohima —a claim as strongly denied by the Allies).

Indicative of the desperate fighting outside Imphal, one of Mountbatten's officers told of a struggle for a hilltop overlooking the plain in which a Japanese force of 120 men held out for 18 days before British troops, aided by planes and artillery, occupied the position. Only one Japanese survived. Forty-five Japanese bodies were impaled on

U.S. Subs Sink 15 More Ships

Total Now 532 In Pacific, Far East

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—American submarines whittling at Japanese sea communications have sunk 15 more enemy ships, the Navy announced today, to run the total to 682 sunk, probably sunk or damaged. The number definitely sunk is 532.

A medium-sized naval repair ship and three tankers, all of vital importance to the enemy's fleet, were included in the newest sinkings. The other ships included seven medium-sized cargo vessels, two medium-sized cargo-passenger vessels, a small cargo ship, and a small cargo-passenger ship.

Area Not Specified

The Navy did not disclose the area where the ships were sunk except to say it was in "the Pacific and Far East."

The newest report of submarine actions followed a week-end report from Adm. Ernest J. King, Navy commander in chief, that Japan's merchant fleet has been reduced to two-thirds of its tonnage at the time of Pearl Harbor.

JAPS OPEN NEW DRIVE AGAINST CENTRAL CHINA

CHUNGKING, April 18. (AP) — The Japanese have launched a new drive in Honan province just east of Chengchow, strategic junction of the Peiping-Hankow and the east-west Lunghai railways, the Chinese command announced tonight, and there were indications the invaders may be attempting to drive the Chinese from a section they hold on the Peiping-Hankow line.

The Japanese drive is based on Chungmow, a town on the Lunghai railway 23 miles east of Chengchow, and was launched at 3 a. m. today after arrival of "considerable fresh reinforcements," the Chinese bulletin said.

A spokesman for the Chinese Army estimated recently it would require four divisions for the Japanese to clear the Peiping-Hankow railway and ten divisions to drive the Chinese from the railway south from Hankow to Canton.

Japanese control of all of both railways would cut China in half and neutralize the value of Allied bases east of the railways and give the Japanese a badly-needed overland route to replace the crippled shipping route of the China coast.

Hospital Bombed, Set Afire By Germans

LONDON, Wednesday, April 19 (AP)—One of the largest hospitals in London was blasted and set ablaze by a direct bomb hit early this morning as German raiders attacked the British capital for the third time in April's "dark of the moon" period.

Nearly 2,000 patients were in the building, and a number of them were feared casualties.

The fire was extinguished quickly, however, and rescue squads clawed their way into the wreckage to free trapped victims. One ward housing male patients was completely destroyed.

Production Of Faster Wildcat Planes Begins

LINDEN, N. J., April 18 (U.P.)—General Motors corporation today announced—with Navy department approval—production of a new, faster Wildcat fighter plane, specially designed for shorter take-off and slower landing speed on aircraft carriers.

The company demonstrated it for newspaper men at its airport here.

L. C. Goad, vice-president of the company and general manager of its faster aircraft division, said operational reports reveal that the plane can climb faster than its predecessor, the FM-1. The new Wildcat is designated as the FM-2

Rear Admiral D. C. Ramsey said the improvements in the Wildcat resulted from experience in their use against the Japanese.

Miller Renews MacArthur Plea

By D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

The stir over the correspondence between General Douglas MacArthur and Rep. Miller (R-Neb) was carried a step further yesterday when Miller assumed full responsibility for making it public and again called for the officer's presidential nomination by the GOP.

"I take full responsibility for my act and ask that criticisms for it be directed entirely at me," said the congressman in a statement inserted in the Congressional Record. Rep. Bulwinkle (D-NC) had questioned the propriety of publishing the exchange.

Many Letters, Calls

Miller said yesterday that he had received about 300 letters and telephone calls, this response convinced him, he added, that MacArthur has the "qualifications and experience to make a great president and that the Republican party should present his name to the people as its nominee."

One of MacArthur's original supporters, Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) was the indicated choice at Chicago today for keynoter of

Engineers Keep Up Beachhead Roads In Spite Of Heinie And His Bomb Forays

By KENNETH DIXON
Associated Press Staff Writer

ANZIO BEACHHEAD, April 12. (Delayed)—To keep the beachhead roads and bivouac areas in condition the over-worked engineers have set up their own rock quarries, which, like everything else here, are within range of enemy guns.

The marshy texture of the soil requires plenty of rock for topping purposes, so the quarry crews work from dawn to dark, turning out hundreds of loads of crushed rock daily, despite German shelling.

Two rock crushers operate in a combination sandstone and limestone area covered with five to eight feet of dirt which has to be scraped off before quarrying can begin.

"We scrape the dirt off and then play a little game with the Germans every day," said the colonel in charge of the engineers." We plant some blasting charges and then everybody clears out of the area. Then we blast. Then the Germans see the explosions and throw in a few shells. Then we go back to work.

"It's like the old even and odd game. The Germans know what we are doing but each day we have to keep outguessing them about when we are coming back to work. Sometimes they outguess us and throw their shells in while we are at work. Then the boys have to hit the dirt and sweat them out."

Lt. Albert E. Richteer, 27, of Minneapolis, in charge of one crusher, said it could turn out 100 to 150 loads of crushed rock daily, plus that much more big chunks for various uses.

"Most of our output goes into road building," said Pvt. William Walters, 28, of Schuylkill Haven, Pa. We travel over some of the roads ourselves, going and coming between the bivouac area and the quarry. It's funny—we live closer to the front than where we work, but we really are in less danger there. We catch more shells here than we do there."

Sgt. Donald W. Miller, 31, of Lyons, Ind., who actually bosses the operation of the crusher, said the beachhead rock is of a curious quality.

"It's a little like sandstone, a little like limestone, but it makes pretty good road-building mate-

DEAR Miss Turner:

Since reading the article you had in your column several days ago I wish to tell you who the little old lady is and more about the "sunshine bag." She is Mrs. J. R. The bag was made from gay colored cretonne and filled with gifts tied with vari-colored ribbons to which were attached cards bearing the days of April.

During the month we have had special gifts and cards for Easter and also for her 88th birthday, April 10. She has received gifts from many neighbors and friends in Lubbock. Her first remark when we gave it to her was "Well, this will be better than a doctor's bill."

Mrs. Foster also received gifts from Carbon, her former home.

SPRING INSPECTION

SPRING is the best time of year to inspect and if necessary, clean and repair chimneys. Dirty or faulty chimneys are a fire menace. It's suggested you check for the following defects:

Falling mortar, which soon results in open joints and loose brick, cracks in the chimney, loose-fitting smoke-pipe connections and unused smoke-pipe openings left open or stuffed with inflammable material.

Fires in chimneys are often due to soot accumulations. When soot burns in the chimney, there is danger that the sparks will fall on the roof or find their way through cracks in the chimney wall.

Don't try to burn the soot out with chemicals.

BLACK MARKETS

IT isn't as surprising that scarcities and rationing have brought on black markets but it is somewhat of a shock to realize that perfectly "nice people" patronize those markets.

These upstanding citizens justify their cheating by charging that rationing is "plain nonsense" and they intend to have whatever their money can buy. They make hazy remards about Washington "bureaucrats" and then they say they are doing all they can for the war effort and they are entitled to an extra tankful of gas once in a while or more meat for company dinner than their ration books allow.

If these nice people would admit once and for all that cheating on rationing is unpatriotic and unlawful, the only ration violators would be out-and-out crooks. Then black markets wouldn't be much of a problem.

Women To Sponsor Home Clinic Today

A Home Conservation clinic will be sponsored this afternoon from 2 until 5 o'clock by Social Studies group of the American Association of University Women in the West Texas Gas company auditorium.

Local specialists will be present for consultation on individual questions relating to homemaking, clothing, food preparation and preservation, nutrition, gardening, home and child management, home furnishings and other subjects. Women of the town and county are invited to come at any time and to bring as many questions as they wish.

There will also be demonstrations and exhibits to be seen. Government bulletins on food, home safety, etc. will be distributed.

Miss Mayme Twyford, associate professor of foods and nutrition at Texas Technological college, is chairman of the clinic.

Members of the reception committee who will help receive guests, show exhibits and answer questions are Miss Doris Nesbitt, Mesdames C. D. Doggett, R. M. Chitwood and T. F. Weisen. They will be assisted by students of the home economics department at the college.

Connors-Day Vows Read At Chapel

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Day, 1917 Thirteenth street, are announcing the marriage of their daughter, Miss Dorothy Day, to Lt. Patrick Michael Connors, son of Sen. and Mrs. W. J. Connors, Chicago, Ill. The ceremony took place April 15 in the post chapel at Ft. Riley, Kan.

The bride wore a beige suit with turquoise and black accessories and a corsage of white orchids.

Mrs. Connors is a graduate of Lubbock High school and attended Texas Technological college where she was a member of Las Vivaracha social club. Lt. Connors is a graduate of Culver Military institute.

High School P-TA To Have Program

"Freedom From Fear" is the subject Mrs. F. B. Malone will discuss for Senior High School Parent-Teacher association this afternoon at 3:45 o'clock in the school auditorium.

Before the program officers will be elected and a report from the student advisory committee will be made.

Evelyn Carpenter Marries Officer

Miss Evelyn Carpenter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bedford F. Carpenter of 1915 Dixie Drive, became the bride of F/O Herbert Lyons Waldrop, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Waldrop, Richmond, Va., in a ceremony performed Sunday evening at 8 o'clock in Clovis, N. M. Rev. W. P. Barbee, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiated.

The couple was attended by Lt. and Mrs. J. S. Moore, Lincoln, Neb.

The bride wore a RAF blue dressmaker suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. She is a graduate of Lubbock High school and attended Texas Technological college. For the past several months she has been a civilian employe at South Plains Army Air field.

The bridegroom graduated in the last class at SPAAF. Before entering the service he attended Virginia Military institute, Lexington, Va.

The couple will be at home in Maxton field, N. C., where F/O Waldrop has been assigned to duty.

Children's Program Postponed By Club

Because of cold weather, Lubbock Child Study club members worked at the Red Cross Tuesday instead of having the children's day program at the park as was planned.

Those attending went to the home of Mrs. Lindsey Thompson, 2314 Eighteenth street, afterwards for a social hour and business.

Mesdames Clyde Owens and K. S. Blackford were taken in as new members.

Present were Mesdames Owens, Ruel Martin, W. G. Alderson, B. T. Formby, L. L. Kelso, W. H. Logan, C. E. Moreman, J. B. Rountree, Lewis Mills and John Daly.

May 2 the children's program will be held at the park if weather permits, if not, it will be given in the home of Mrs. John E. Toles, 1909 Twenty-ninth street.

Knox Says Kuriles Will Be Invaded But Time Not Set

By HAMILTON W. FARON
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 18—American plans for closing in on Tokyo, Secretary Knox said today, call for invasion of the Kurile islands which stretch in stepping-stone fashion northward from the Japanese homeland along the short route from Alaska.

The Navy secretary was discussing at a press conference the current increasingly heavy aerial bombardments of enemy positions in the island chain and was asked specifically if invasion is planned.

"Sometime, sure, but nobody knows when," he replied

Weather Is Important

Know went on to observe that weather is an important factor in military operations in the North Pacific. Because of fog, he remarked, it frequently is impossible to observe results of bombing missions against the Kuriles.

"The best weather ordinarily is found about this time of year between the close of the Artic winter and the beginning of summer with its heavy and unpredictable fogs.'

Matsuwa island in the Kuriles, attacked five times in as many days by American bombers, is less than 500 miles from the Japanese mainland. In addition to Matsuwa, bombers flying across the North Pacific from bases in the Aleutians, have been pounding regularly at Parambushiro, northermost of the enemy bases, and at Onekotan and Shumushu.

Rear Admiral George S. Hussey, chief of the Navy's bureau of ordnance sat with Knox at the conference. Without referring specifiaally to any areas, Hussey said that his bureau now is concentrating upon shore bombardment. In the Pacific, he said, the enemy is "learning to fear the effecte of shore bombardment."

New Services Effective

Hussey also deported that the development of ordnance material, particularly aiming devices, have made it possible for the American fleet to move with relative safety far into hostile waters.

Because of improvements, he said, American ships are able now to shoot down enemy planes with an expenditure of "only one-third as many" anti-aircraft shells as were required shortly after the war began and "are running out of targets."

Hussey also said that development of rocket guns is moving ahead "very rapidly," asked about "secret weapons," he said some new weapons are in process but would not even hint at their nature.

News Briefs

The War department announced Tuesday the names of 417 United States soldiers wounded in action in the Meditarranean area. including S/Sgt. George L. Petty, Petty, son of Mrs. Beulah Petty of Brownfield.

J. L. Suits of oPiersburg and Mrs. J. D. Norris of Slaton were at the bedside of their mother, Mrs. J. A. Suits of Slaton Tuesday at St. Mary's hospital. Mrs. Suits underwent a major eye surgery Tuesday morning.

Members of the Parent Teachers association of the George R. Bean school reported Tuesday that war stamp sales totaled $42.30 in that school Tuesday. Totals since September now stand at $1,896.15 in stamps and $9,625 in bonds. Conducting the sales in the school Tuesday were Mrs. Acie Cope, Mrs. Ira Owens and Mrs. C. H. Burton.

Workings of the social security program were explained by Erton Tate, manager of the local Social Security board office, and a film on the same subject was shown at the luncheon Tuesday noon of the Lions club in the Hilton hotel. W. L. Phillips and Donald L. Webb were program chairmen. The speaker was introduced by Phillips. The film was shown by A. H. Maas. Tate answered questions propounded by members regarding phases of the Social Security program.

"Our 40-Year Growth in Missions" will be the subject of Rev. Price Billingsley of Nashville, Tenn., at the Walnut Street Church of Christ tonight at 8:30 o'clock. He is in this area on a mission campaign among churches of Christ and will speak on his experiences of 40 years in mission work. He spends his summers in Canada, 200 miles north of Toronto, on mission work.

Members of the Optimist club were entertained at their luncheon in the Lubbock hotel Tuesday noon by elementary Spanish pupils of the George R. Bean and George M. Hunt schools, under the direction of Mrs. David Foreman. The group presented songs, a reading and dramatization of "The Three Bears" in Spanish and two Spanish dances.

Landon In Favor Of Hull Policy

KANSAS CITY, Mo., April 18. (AP)—Alf M. Landon today was on record with qualified support of Secretary of State Cordell Hull's recent outline of American foreign policy.

Speaking at a Pan-American day observance here last night the 1936 Republican presidential nominee and former Kansas governor termed Hull's statement "a new and on the whole constructive start toward laying a sound foundation of a national policy for a workable peace."

"Greatest Contribution"

Landon described Hull's proposal for creation of bipartisan congressional committees to participate in international post-war discussions as "perhaps his greatest contribution" toward a national policy.

"It is no longer a matter of the world's being uncertain as to our position" Landon said. "We have made it plain that the bulk of Americans are desperately anxious to participate in the organization of the world on a basis that gives the most hope for a durable peace."

In regard to Latin America, Landon said the only workable program must be based on interchange instead of "spending or exploitation."

Death Of Pcf. James W. Baber In Japanese Prison Camp Revealed; Was On Corregidor

Pfc. James W. Baber, son of Mrs. L. A. Rogers of route one, Shallowater, died in Osaka, Japan a Japanese prison camp, according to word received by his mother from the War department. His death occurred Oct. 27, 1943.

Pfc. Baber, 25, was on Corregidor when it fell to the Japanese and had been a prisoner of the Japs ever since April, 1942. Mrs. Baber had never received word from her son after the island fortress' fall.

Pfc James W. Baber

Was in Philippines

Pfc. Baber enlisted in the Army two years before the war started and was serving in the Philippines at the time the Japs invaded the islands. He had attended Lubbock High school prior to going into service.

Mrs. Rogers had been informed that her son was missing in action and then later that he was a prisoner of war. She also had been notified by the War department that he had been transferred to a camp in Japan where the death was said to have taken place.

Radio Telephone Is Tested On Train

GLENWOOD SPRINGS, Colo., April 18 (AP)—Thundering toward Denver from Salt Lake City, a Denver & Rio Grande Western "red ball" freight train equipped with a new radio telephone was making a record run through the Rockies today.

It was the first time engine-to-caboose communication was used on a Western railroad. D. & R. G. W. officials aboard the fast freight said the new system slashed much time from regular schedules.

Grateful to son's wife for tip about MOUNTAIN GROWN FOLGER'S COFFEE

BECAUSE SHE WAS GENEROUS AND SMART ENOUGH TO TAKE A SUGGESTION FROM HER SON'S NEW WIFE, MRS. BRYAN LEE OF BEEBE, ARKANSAS, DISCOVERED THE BEST COFFEE SHE'D EVER TASTED.

Dear Sirs:

One morning my boy remarked to his bride, "Honey, I hope you will learn to make as good coffee as Mom does. Boy! It sure gives me a lift!" She replied, "I can make as good coffee as anyone if you will buy the kind my Aunt Mable uses." I asked, "What kind of coffee does your Aunt Mable use?" She said, "Folger's". So that afternoon, at her suggestion, I bought my first pound of Folger's Coffee. That night I made the best coffee I ever made in my life and every pound since has been Folger's.

Sincerely,

Mrs. Bryan Lee

Why women are so faithful to Folger's

You'll notice that women who use Folger's talk about its flavor to their friends and relatives . . . feel that no other coffee in the world can compare with it. And it's true that Folger's has a special flavor found in no other coffee.

You see only the Folger people know how to select and blend precious coffees from the World's Coffee Growing Paradise to produce the miracle of flavor that has made Folger's loved by millions, and preferred above all other brands.

You can almost measure the difference in Folger's flavor—women write they use ¼ less than of ordinary weaker flavored brands and get the best coffee they've ever tasted! So the very goodness of Folger's makes it a real economy in the long run. There's a mountain of flavor in every spoonful of Folger's!

FBI Arrests Lone Missing Conspiracy Case Defendant

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—The missing refendant among 30 accused of conspiring with the Nazis to dominate the United States was taken into custody today, removing one of the blocks that have delayed the trial for two days.

The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced that Edward James Smythe of New York City, identified by the FBI as publisher of "Our Common Cause" and a contributor to "Publicity," edited by Elmer J. Garner, another defendant, had been arrested at Au Sable Forks, in northern New York about 40 miles from the Canadian border.

The announcement did not come, however, before Justice Edward C. Eicher recessed the case in U. S. District court until tomorrow while federal agents hunted Smythe.

Bond Forfeited

Smythe, whose bond of $1,000 was forfeited yesterday, will be brought immediately into the jurisdiction of the court.

Whether that means selection of a jury can start was undetermined tonight. Justice Sicher still had under advisement a motion, concurred in by all defense counsel, to dismiss the whole jury panel unless the court and the lawyers can be convinced of the propriety of a Justice department investigation of prospective jurors.

Upon failure of Smythe to appear today his attorney, John J. Laughlin, told the court that he felt compelled to explain his relations with his client.

He asserted that Smythe had not paid his retaining fee or lived up to other terms of their contract, that he had not been in personal contact with Smythe and had received only a few letters from him, some time ago. Laughlin said Smythe telephoned his (Laughlin's) secretary last week to say he would be present for trial on April 24, but that he had no idea where the defendant got that date.

Wanted Judge Changed

Laughlin said Smythe had asked him by letter to seek to have the case tried by some other judge, but that he, Laughlin, had refused to move for removal of Justice Eicher. Smythe, Laughlin continued, had held the justice was too friendly to O. John Rogge, prosecutor and special assistant to the attorney general.

There were repercussions of two incidents yesterday involving Miss Lois de LaFayette Washburn of Chicago, the only woman defendant besides Mrs. Elizabeth Dilling, also of Chicago.

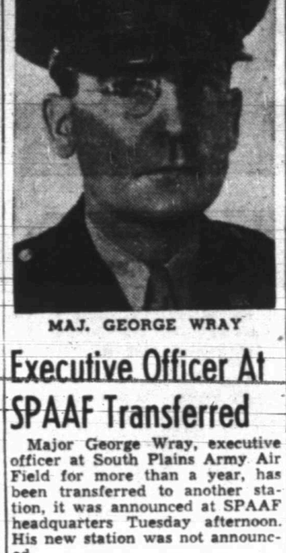

Yesterday Miss Washburn cried out in the court: "LaFayette, we are here to defend what you gave us—freedom from tyranny." Later she posed in front of the courthouse, once with thumb to nose and again in outthrust arm salute.

P. Bateman Ennis, attorney for Gerhard Wilhelm Kunze, identified by the Justice department as leader after 1939 of the German-American Bund and under sentence for espionage and for counseling evasion of the Selective Service act, decried "making a mockery of this trial," and asserted: "For Kunze we do not subscribe to such antics."

He was joined in this by Ben Lindas, attorney for George Sylvester Viereck, who is serving a sentence for violating the foreign agents act. Lindas disclaimed "any connection with any defendant who will leave this court and give a Nazi salute in the streets." Other defense attorneys agreed.

Lindas requested attorneys to refrain from even "jokingly" suggest that Adolf Hitler, Paul Joseph Gobbels, Prime Minister Churchhill and like persons be called as witnesses or depositions be sought from them.

Miss Washburn told the court her gestures were intended only for "those scandal scavengers who smeared me from coast to coast" and who she said blocked her exit from the building.

MAJ. GEORGE WRAY

Executive Officer At SPAAF Transferred

Major George Wray, executive officer at South Plains Army Air Field for more than a year, has been transferred to another station, it was announced at SPAAF headquarters Tuesday afternoon. His new station was not announced.

Major Wray, whose home is in San Antonio, is a veteran officer at the Nation's largest advanced glider pilot training center, having assumed duties in Lubbock in August, 1942. Before taking over the job as executive officer and right hand man to Col. Norman B. Olsen and later to Col. James A. DeMarco, commanding officers, Major Wray was administrative inspector at SPAAF.

In civilian life he was associated with one of the largest insurance agencies in San Antonio, at one time was a cotton buyer with a large company. He was prominent in civic and business circles in San Antonio for several years before entering the service in the summer of 1942.

Yanks 'In The Groove' In Raid On Berlin

LONDON, April 18 (AP)—Stories of good bombing and good weather were brought back today by airmen returning from the American daylight blow on Berlin.

Staff Sgt. Frank R. Scarpace, waist gunner, Buffalo, N. Y., said: "After the 'bombs away' order came we pulled away from our target and as we made a left turn we saw it in flames. A column of smoke and fire rose at least 2,000 feet. For at least half an hour after we left we still could see the flames.

"Northwest of Berlin we also saw another place which another group had got. A building hit by bombs still was bursting with explosions. There were fires burning all around.

Inductee Succeeds In Attempts At Suicide

EL PASO, April 18 (AP)—Haywood Lillard, 36, A Navy inductee from Ada, Okla., was found dead in the El Paso country jail Saturday night, and Coroner R. E. Crawford ruled that Lillard hanged himself.

Lillard wts lodged in the jail after firemen and police coaxed him from his perch atop a factory water tower Saturday at the western edge of the city.

En route to a naval sattion, Lillard jumped from a train and climbed to the top of the tower. A crowd of several hundred watched as Lillard threatened to jump. Fireman Russell Wyckoff climber a ladder up the tower and finally persuaded Lillard to come down.

Sherman Man In Governor's Race

AUSTIN, April 18. (U.P.)—Gov. Coke R. Stevenson of Texas had an opponent for re-election today.

Numerous prospective candidacies have been announced but W. J. Minton, Sherman editor, was the first opponent to place the $10 filing fee with Sec. Chas. E. Simons of the State Democratic Executive committee to assure a place on the Democratic party primary ballot.

Two Others Announce

Former Rep. Virgil Arnold of Houston, John H. Titsworth, a Houston furniture dealer who favors horse racing, and Gene Stratton Porter, Waco haberdasher, have announced prospective candidacies.

J. Frank Dobie, author of Southwestern stories, now lecturing at Cambridge University, England, has discouraged a "draft Dobie" movement.

Stevenson filed for a place several weeks ago.

Favors $60 Pension

Planks in Minton's announced platform include a return of state-wide liquor prohibition; $60 a month old age pensions and repeal of the poll tax requirement for voting. He proposes also release of homesteads from all taxes.

Minton mailed the governor a copy of his announcement.

A thinning of the prospective candidates for attorney general was looked for before the end of the end of this week with possibility that there may be a four-way race for this office among Atty. Gen. Grover Sellers, Sens. Jesse Martin of Fort Worth and Weaver Moore of Houston, and Gregg County Criminal District Attorney Fred Erisman of Longview.

June 5 Is Deadline

Stevenson continued a speaking trip in East Texas this week, but said his addresses will not be political.

Candidates have until June 5 to file for places on the Democratic primary ballot in state-wide races.

Earl Rogers of San Marcos was reported to have entered the race for state school superintendent today.

Grocery Totin' Mama, Don't Throw That Paper Bag Away

You buy your food at the grocery store,
You do it every day;
You take the paper bag home,
And then throw it away.

Save that paper bag, Babe,
Save that paper bag;
Grocery totin' mama,
Save that paper bag.

The above lyric to the tune of "Pistol Packin' Mama" contains timely advice to Lubbock housewives as, in all probability, they will have to devise other means of carrying home the daily or weekly supply of groceries within the very near future.

The supply of paper bags is fast diminishing in Lubbock, and they are about to become "extinct."

A recent survey of local food stores, wholesale grocery houses and paper companies revealed the supply is fast deminishing and there is no hope of replenishing the supply this month—maybe not until June 1, according to a representative of one of the paper companies

As to other means of transporting the groceries home it was suggested by one store operator that everyone should save the sacks as they get them; then when the supply at the store has been used up, take a sack or two to the store when buying food items and have the groceries put in these sacks. It was pointed out that this could be done only if the person bringing the sacks used them to transport his own food items. In other words, the grocer would not be permitted, under the existing state law, to use the sack for another person's groceries.

Another suggestion offered was to import baskets from Mexico and offer them for sale, while others say this would be impractical.

Several housewives here already have grocery "perambulators" which they wheel to the store to cart the groceries home According to dealers there are some of these still available in Lubbock.

A manager of a local hardware store pointed out that ration-free ladies' bicycles, equipped with baskets, are being manufactured and a shipment is expected in Lubbock within the next few days.

Another store manager pointed out that people who have cars can have their groceries or other items taken to the cars in shopping baskets from the stores and carry them home without using bags.

Shopping Bags Suggested

One grocer suggested using shopping bags, but upon checking with the paper companies it was revealed than none of these are available at the present time.

That the paper sack situation is much worse than a year ago, was evidenced by the fact that an out-of-town paper salesman said that his allotment for last year for this territory was 18 cars, while this year's allotment was ony three cars.

The manager of one paper company here said that four-pound bags are the largest he has. However, he said he has a supply of waterproof wax bags ordered which should arrive within the next few days, but the price of these bags is so high that store operators would be forced to charge the consumer a deposit of approximately ten cents on them.

He stated that paper bags were bought by the wholesale paper houses on monthly allotment basis and his April allotment had been cancelled, adding that, in all probability, his May allotment would also be cancelled. He said it is certain that this shortage would continue until September and possibly fo duraion of the war.

Housewives of Lubbock can do much to relieve the situation by cooperating with their dealers, not only grocers, but dealers in other commodities. Store operators will welcome any suggestion for relieving the situation.

Water Storage Gains In Texas Reservoirs

AUSTIN, April 18. (AP)—Water storage in nine major Texas reservoirs increased two and one-half per cent in March, the surface water division of the U. S. Geological Survey reported today.

Approximately 85,000 acre feet of water was added to the reservoirs, while a number of streams were carrying unusual flows of water.

A six-inch rain in the Lavaca and Navidad basins caused medium floods, and rains extended east and west to cause minor floods in the lower Colorado and Guadalupe rivers

The Guadalupe at New Braunfels carried more water than in any March since 1928, the geological survey found, and run-off of the Neches river was 145 per cent of normal.

Death Takes Veteran Texas Peace Officer

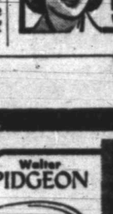

AUSTIN, April 18 (AP)—Jerome D. Wheatley, 77, former Texas Ranger captain, sheriff of Moore county and Amarillo police crief, died at his home here today.

Funeral services will be held tomorrow with burial in Austin.

Survivors are his widow, Mrs. Mattie Wheatley; a daughter, Miss Roma Wheatley of Austin, four nephews and one niece.

A native of Ennis, Wheatley headed the norcotics section of the public safety department in 1939 and retired from that position in 1940.

Congress Passes 4-F Deal Back To Executive Groups

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 18.—Congress tossed the 4-F problem back into the laps of executive agencies today.

At a closed meeting climaxing weeks of study of how best to utilize the services of draft-age men rejected for military duty because of disabilities, the House Military committee decided against pushing 4-F legislation.

The committe, Chairman May (D-Ky) announced, felt that government agencies already have ample power to deal with the situation.

Unanimous Decision

The action, which May said was unanimous, followed a verbal report by Rep. Costello (D-Calif), who heads a sub-committee that has been studying the 4-F situation. Costello said a formal report, embodying the group's views that legislation now is not needed, would be filed Thursday.

The Californian earlier had indicated that the need for legislation to force 4-Fs into essential jobs with the alternative of induction into Army or Navy labor battalions had lessened since Congress began showing interest in it. Many of the estimated 3,000,000 4-Fs of draft age, Costello said, already are in war or essential civilian jobs and many others have indicated a desire to get into such jobs once they find them.

Others Easily Handled

The remaining few who would have been affected by legislation, he explained, can be dealt with through selective Service mechanism which permits the recalling of rejected men for induction examination and their assignment, if necessary, to limited service duty.

The committee's action, while subject to reconsideration, virtually killed the bill of Rep. Luce (R-Conn) to organize work battalions for the armed forces through conscription of 4-Fs and others for assignment to necessary industries when needed. It also underscored the committee's previous stand against consideration of any compulsory work legislation including national service, at this time.

rial," he said.

The texture of the rock makes much dynamiting unnecessary. Many workers break the shale up into chunks small enough to throw in the crusher with jack hammers —their din adding to the quarry's noises and making the scene seem like some big construction job back home.

"It's not quite like home, though, when we start hauling the rock out," grinned Pfc. Doyle W. Oli, 23, a truck-driver from McKinney, Texas. He was waiting for his turn to pull in under the crusher's dusty mouth and get a load.

As soon as Odil's truck is loaded he drives as far forward as possible while it is still light. Then he pulls the truck under some sort of camouflage and waits until nightfall to finish his trip. He is hauling crushed rock almost to the actual combat line so the various motorized and armored units can be utilized to their fullest extent without bogging down in the soft soil.

"When we get up there they are willing to waste their mortar shells even on one truck," the young dusty-faced driver said. "So it's better not to let them see you. They still hear you after dark, but even the supermen don't shoot so well by ear."

Then it came his turn to pull into line so he loaded up and started on his nightly haul to the front.

Supply Line Menaced

Renewed indication that Japanese forces fighting around Imphal are in danger of being cut off from their Burma supply bases came in an announcement that Allied air-borne forces operating from the Burmese interior had blown up a bridge on a main route supplying the enemy invasion troops.

Lt. Gen. Joseph W. Stilwell's Chinese forces, continuing their dogged advance down the Mogaung valley in northern Burma, were reported in today's communique to have pushed patrols into the Japanese stronghold of Warazup, only 25 miles northwest of the town of Mongaung on the Mandalay-Myitkyina railway. These Allied troops now have penetrated some 140 miles into Burma.

Louisiana voters ratified at a state election the Democratic ticket nominated at a recent primary, headed by Jimmie H. Davis, 42-year-old band leader and public service commissioner of Shreveport, for governor.

Nazis Claim Rome Is Fully Demilitarized

LONDON, April 18 (AP)—A DNB broadcast recorded by the British ministry of information tonight declared the Germans had completely demilitarized Rome, thereby suggesting that the next move to save the city from war damage was up to the Allies.

Prime Minister Eamon De Valera of Eire was reported by the Nazi agency to have expressed his nation's "deep concern" in a note to Berlin last March 20 over the danger which threatened Rome "because of the lack of any measures by the belligerent powers to assume its security."

DNB said De Valera's premise had been officially rejected so far as Germany was concerned in a reply which stated German measures had "led to the complete demilitarization of Rome." The Italian capital was referred to as an "open city," a unilateral designation which the Allies have not accepted.

troops beat off enemy infantry and tank counter-attacks, inflicting heavy losses.

One Soviet unit alone wrecked 18 Nazi tanks and killed 700 Germans in repulsing 15 attacks, the bulletin said, indicating perhaps another big German counter-offensive aimed at relieving steady Russian pressure on Lwow.

The capture of Alsu, less than two miles from Verkhny-Chorgun, seized yesterday by Tolbukhin's forces, virtually effected a junction of the two armies, whose weight now will be hurled against the last pocket of German resistance.

Thousands of trapped German and Romanian troops now have been hurled into a 50-square-mile pocket around Sevastopol, the bulletin disclosed.

Bricker Urges Close Watch On U. S. Japs

LOS ANGELES, April 18 (AP)—Deportation of disloyal Japanese-Americans after the war and determination by each community on return of former Japanese residents were advocated today by Gov. John W. Bricker of Ohio, candidate for the Republican presidential nomination.

Remarking that 93,000 of the 127,000 Japanese in the United States formerly lived in California, the Ohio governor told a town hall audience.

"We had good reason to suspect that the espionage among the Japanese in this country prior to the war was well organized and widespread."

He declared that admitted disloyaltists among the Japanese should be kept under strictest surveillance for the duration of the war and afterwards deported, and that Japanese released from relocation centers should be closely watched.

Still Bigger Planes Foreseen For Future

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—The fast, high-flying Lockheed Constellation, capable of carrying 80 passengers in comfort, was described today as "just the beginning in the development of large airplanes" for commercial operation.

Jack Frye, president of Transcontinental Western Air, Inc., who with Howard Hughes yesterday piloted the sky giant from Burbank, Calif., to Washington in six hours 58 minutes, told reporters the Constellation would be "a small plane among the large planes within ten years."

STOCKS TAKE TUMBLE

NEW YORK, April 18 (AP)—Stocks, accompanied by bonds, stumbled today in one of their most substantial relapses on active dealings since early November as selling urgency appeared in the wake of revived nervousness over possibly imminent European war developments.

The Associated Press 60-stock average as off .9 of a point at 50.9, widest slipup since Nov. 8. Transfers of 1,103,350 shares compared with 537,720 Monday and were teh largest since March 28. It was the broadest market since November, 980 issues appearing. Of these 802 were off, 63 up and 116 unchanged.

NEW YORK FUTURES

NEW YORK, April 18 (AP)—Nervous commission house and New Orleans liquidation caused cotton futures prices today to break $1.25 a bale.

Continued talk of invasion was attributed by traders as the reason for the decline. The liquidation met only scale-down price-fixing and local covering support.

Final prices were off 90 cents to $1.25 a bale—about in line with levels prevailing at the beginning of April.

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 18 (AP) — Cotton futures closed barely steady $1 to $1.10 a bale lower here today. Most of the selling pesaure, which brought the drop, came from holders of long contracts who took profits on a surmise that the European invasion was near.

Some liquidation was in sympathy with weakness in grain.

Germans Said Pulling For Roosevelt Defeat

LONDON, April 18 (AP)—The London News Chronicle declared today that the Germans "are pinning their faith on the defeat of Mr. Roosevelt in the forthcoming presidential elections."

"If they can only hold the invaders and stave off a decisive defeat until Mr. Roosevelt has been turned out (which they seem to regard as a certainty)," the paper said, "then they calculate that his Republican successor will be less interested in prosecuting the war in Europe and so will be ready to talk peace.

"Incidentally, Mr. Roosevelt might send Hitler a cable of gratitude for giving him the best election boost of the campaign," the News-Chronicle said, referring to this German belief.

The newspaper's views were expressed in an editorial.

Slaughters Producers Discuss Allocations

HOUSTON, April 18 (AP)—West Texas crude oil producers met here today with district 3 representatives of the Petroleum Administration for War to discuss allocations to the Stanolind Pipeline company and to the Magnolia Pipeline company.

The Stanolind line, from the Slaughter field territory to Drumright, Okla., was allocated 65,000 barrels of crude daily and the Magnolia line, Midland to Corcicana, 42,000 barrels daily.

Crude oil producers will make their May nominations to the Texas Railroad commission in Austin Thursday.

Top-Ranking U.S. Aces Grounded

(By The United Press)

The field is wide open for a new leading American fighter ace.

Four of the top-ranking fliers today were grounded for various reasons. These aces and their records are:

Capt. Don S. Gentile, Piqua, Ohio, credited with 30 planes including seven destroyed in daring sweeps over enemy airdromes in the European theater.

Major Richard I. Bong, Poplar, Wis., credited with 27 air victories in the Southwest Pacific area.

May Get More Credit

Major Joe Foss, Sioux Falls, S. D., credited with 26 victories in the Southwest Pacific.

Capt. Bob Johnson, Lawton, Okla., who has shot down 25 Nazi planes in combat. Only 22 of them have been confirmed, however, with three pending.

Should he eventually receive credit for those three, Johnson, along with Bong and Foss, would top Gentile if only planes shot down in combat were counted. But fliers contend this would not be altogether fair because fighters take even greater proportionate risks to bag planes on enemy airfields than they do in dogfights in the sub-stratosphere. The danger from anti-aircraft fire, they say, justifies counting ground destructions even though this is not done in other theaters.

Gentile To Take Rest

Gentile is going away for a short rest starting sometime today. It is possible that his superior officers will prevail upon him to go home to Piqua for a long-earned rest because he has served his tour of duty several times and has more than 350 combat hours behind him. Officers said it was possible the strain of his recent flying and his designation by Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower as a "one-man air force" had excited him unduly and caused the crackup in which he was shaken and cut slightly last week at his home field.

Bong likewise has been ordered to rest after running up his "ace of aces" string of 27 combat victories in Gen. Douglas MacArthur's theater—a record topping Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker's World War I string.

Foss Is Instructor

Foss has been given a ground and instructional assignment utilizing his experience as a teacher, after returning to the Southwest Pacific from home leave. The chances are against his getting many more opportunities to increase his total.

Johnson, like Gentile, has completed his tour of duty and is not likely to return to active service.

Sen. Bone Holds Out Against GOP Blasts

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Senator Bone (D-Wash), under Republican fire for retaining his Senate seat after being confirmed as a federal judge, said today his plans are yet to be determined."

Acting Minority Leader White (R-Maine) has disclosed that Senate Republicans are considering lodging a formal protest against Bone's failure to resign from the Senate. Bone's resignation would open the way for appointment of a Republican successor, by Gov. Arthur B. Langlie.

Bone, in a statement given out through his office, said nobody in the Senate has ever talked to him about his plans and he did not know where White could have heard reports he did not intend to resign until after the next election.

Bone was in the naval hospital at nearby Bethesda, Md., when he was nominated and confirmed and has been there ever since.

Leading contenders in the European theater include Lt. Col. Francis Gabreskie, Oil City, Pa., who has shot down 18 planes in combat and has been credited with destroying two on the ground; Col. Glen Duncan, Houston, Texas, who has a 17 total, 16 of them in combat, and Lt. Col. David Schilling, Detroit, who has shot down 15.

It is estimated the United States will spend 100 billion dollars on the war in the fiscal year ending June 30, 1944.

Churchill O.K.'s Hull's Policy

LONDON, April 18. (U.P.)—Prime Minister Winston Churchill gave a qualified endorsement today to the world peace principles outlined by U. S. Secretary of State Cordell Hull in his recent foreign policy statement, but refused to speculate on the possibility of a post-war peace organization patterned after the League of Nations.

Speaking at the first post-Easter session of Commons, Churchill said Hull's statement had been "most helpful in every respect" and expressed the belief that Britain and the United States are following the same general line of thought in their plans for organization after the war.

The prime minister said preliminary exchanges of opinion on post-war questions are taking place constantly among members of all 34 United Nations, but emphasized that announcement of a comprehensive agreement on that subject cannot be expected in the near future.

"It is a topic which will not suffer at all from thought or well-considered discussion," he said.

Laborite Capt. Frederick John Bellenger recalled Hull's statement that much of the planning for the organization and maintenance of peace has already been accomplished, and asked whether these plans would confirm with the League of Nations' covenant "which, I take it, is still operative."

Churchill replied that no definite decisions on postwar organizations will be reached until the end of the war, although the official British viewpoint is that "the great work achieved by the League of Nations . . . ought not to be lost."

During a brief exchange of questions and answers on post-war aviation, the prime minister minimized the significance of "concessions" which Lord Beaverbrook said Great Britain had made to the United States.

He emphasized that both nations had made concession in their recent discussions and that sufficient agreement had been reached to warrant the holding of an international conference on the question, possibly sometime this year.

Replying to Laborite Emanuel Shinwell's suggestion that specific concessions granted by Britain in the aviation conferences be included in a government report, Churchill said:

"I should not be prepared to specify particular concessions. The other side might say 'that wasn't a concession. We were going to agree to that anyway.'"

He told the House that no particular policy on post-war aviation has yet been formulated and that Russia has been fully informed about the Anglo-American exchange of views.

SWEDISH CHIEF CRASHES

NEW YORK, April 18 (AP)—Gen. Bengt G. Nordenskiold, chief of the Swedish Air force, crashed in his own plane today and was taken to a hospital in Sweden, but the American-Swedish news exchange said he apparently was not seriously injured.

Wyoming Enacts Vote Law For Service Men

CHEYENNE, Wyo., April 18 (AP)—Wyoming today claimed to have established some sort of record in enacting soldier-vote legislation—complete with the governor's signature—in 13 hours.

Both the Senate and the House, called in special session, approved without dissent a measure providing that service personnel shall use the same form of ballot as that given other electors in general county, state and national elections. The bill does not authorize use of a supplementary short federal ballot.

Governor Lester C. Hunt signed the measure at 11 p. m. last night, 13 hours after the legislature convened.

Vandenberg In Keynoter Lead

CHICAGO, April 18 (AP)—Senator Arthur Vandenberg, Michigan's coiner of catch phrases, appeared to be the leading candidate tonight for the Republican national convention keynoter after party chieftains reportedly discouraged a move to select Rep. Clare Boothe Luce.

The attractive Mrs. Luce was kept in the running by a one-man campaign conducted by J. Kenneth Bradley, Connectcut national committeeman.

A proposal to delay selection of the keynoter until the Republican presidential contest jells more was vetoed by party leaders.

The Connecticut congresswoman's ability to make a crackling speech has been impressed on committee members but some of them were said to feel her selection might be interpreted as a patent attempt to make the convention "a good show" instead of a sober, serious nominating meeting.

Eric Johnston Mentioned

The name of Eric Johnston, president of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, will be formally laid before the committee by Mrs. Paul Henry of Washington, who said she thought the west coast should have representation in the convention's official lineup.

Although Vandenberg was one of the original sponsors of the drive to draft Gen. Douglas MacArthur for the presidential nomination, he has warmed up recently to supporters of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York.

While Vandenberg apparently was the front-runner, supporters still were active for other candidates, including Rep. Charles Halleck of Indiana and Gov. Dwight Griswold of Nebraska. Ernest M. Morris of Indiana said he thought Gov. Dwight H. Green of Illinois would make a good keynoter.

DUCE'S HEALTH SAID GOOD

LONDON, April 18. (AP)—Berlin radio broadcast a report by the DNB German news agency today declaring that reports of Benito Mussolini's ill health have been branded "sheer invention" by informants close to the German government who insisted "there is proof that Mussolini is enjoying the best of health."

Divorce Granted Mrs. Roosevelt

FORT WORTH, April 18 (AP)—Custody of the three children and half the community property was given to Mrs. Ruth Googins Roosevelt in a decree granting her a divorce from Col. Elliott Roosevelt, second son of the President.

The divorce was granted by Judge Bruce Young after a quiet hearing in chambers late yesterday. Col. Roosevelt, with the air forces in the European theater, had waived service in the action.

Mrs. Roosevelt testified briefly that her husband had said he did not care for her any longer and had asked her to institute proceedings. Judge Young said her testimony also covered the allegations of desertion and cruel treatment included in the divorce petition filed March 16.

Private Agreement

Mrs. Roosevelt and the colonel have a private agreement covering his contributions toward support of the children, she testified. Judge Young told the Star Telegram that while it was not in the record he was informed Col. Roosevelt would deed his share of the community property to his former wife in trust for the children.

Included in the property is the 1300-acre Dutch Branch ranch near here and capital stock in the Alamo Broadcasting Co., Tarrant Broadcasting Co., Fort Worth Broadcasting Co., and Texas State network.

Roosevelt and Miss Googins were married on July 22, 1933, five days after he was divorced by his first wife, Elizabeth Donner Roosevelt.

Capt. Hal Thompson Is Married In England

DALLAS, April 18. (AP)—Friends were informed here that Capt. W. Hal Thompson, former sports and special events announcer for radio station WFAA, and Miss Jean Sexton of London were married April 12 in England.

Thompson, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Thompson of Fort Worth, is in the U. S. Strategic Air Forces in Europe. His bride is in the British Auxiliary territorial service.

Count Ten before you use
THAT GAS RATION COUPON

Your most important business, and ours, is to help win the war. And one of the major Allied weapons in military action on every front is oceans of petroleum.

That is why your government asks you to do two things:

1. Endorse the face of every coupon in your possession.
2. Use the gasoline you buy for essential driving only.

The simple truth is . . . and we pledge you this upon our good name . . . that the supply of gasoline for civilian use is short. Every day brings ever-increasing need for gasoline and oil for planes, tanks, jeeps, PT-boats, and landing barges . . . for petroleum products used in synthetic rubber, explosives, and other war chemicals.

When you endorse your gas ration coupons, you do your part to help smash the black market which sells gasoline, that your soldier son needs, to people who use it for their own pleasure.

Remember, if every car-owner saves only one gallon of gasoline a week, the national saving will total at least 85,000,000 gallons a month.

As a major producer of butadiene (the chief ingredient in synthetic rubber) and 100-octane aviation gasoline, we publish this message as a contribution to the general understanding of the current gasoline situation.

House Group Balks At Hike In Taxes On Some Classes

By FRANCIS M. LeMAY,
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 18. —The tax-devision House Ways and Means committee balked today at increasing burdens on some classes of taxpayers under the tentatively approved tax simplification program, and decided to see of some adjustments can be made.

Rep. Knutson (R-Minn) pointed out that the proposed schedules would mean an increase of about 200 per cent in the tax liability of a $1,200-a-year married man with no children — from $21 to $61 a year.

In general, Chairman Doughton (D-NC) explained, the "streamliner" plan maintains burdens at about their present weight, but the committee wants to see if further leveling out can be done.

Members of the congressional tax staff maintain that simplification, consolidating the special treatment various groups oftaxpayers get under the present law, cannot be accomplished without some variations in tax burdens.

Notwithstanding the difficulty, Knutson predicted the committee would report out the bill probably on Friday, and send it to the House floor for consideration next week. Chairman George (D-Ga) of the Senate Finance committee expects the legislation to be disposed of in about 10 days after it reaches that body.

The ways and means group today sent over the first draft of the tax simplification bill, designed to relieve 30,000,000 persons of having to compute returns after this year, and to provide simplified procedures for the other 20,000,000 taxpayers.

The measure contemplates, effective next January 1, an adjustment of the withholdings against wages and salaries to take the total tax libility of persons earning up to $5,000.

Applications On File For Television Units

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP) — Latest available figures show that 33 applications for commercial television stations are now on file with the Federal Communications commission at Washington. But due to war production which restricts availability of civilian materials for new stations, television or otherwise, the commission is awaiting developments before taking action.

Meanwhile, there has been a steadily increasing concentration on the part of the prospective television industry to direct attention to what radio pictures should be like when things get going. In fact there has been more activity to that end in recent weeks than has been apparent since the days before the war when television began its first efforts at developing an audience.

This activity, to a certain extent, has been as great, if not more so, than that being paid to the possibilities of the noise-free frequency modulation sound broadcasting system on the ultra short waves.

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)— The "D" in "D-day" stands for "date"—the date which even the highest authorities never mention needlessly among themselves when discussing plans for an important military move, as in the case of a planned invasion.

New Recreation Head Takes Over

Duties as the first superintendent of the new city recreation department were officially assumed by Mrs. Grace Dyess Tuesday morning.

An immediate call, following her arrival from Orange, Texas, was issued by Charles Whitacre, chairman, for a meeting of the city recreation council with Mrs. Dyess in the chamber of commerce office this morning at 11 o'clock.

Office Being Established

Expectation is, various of the officials said, that the shaping of a definite recreation program will begin at this meeting, and will proceed rapidly.

Offices for the new department are being established on the first floor of the city hall in the space formerly occupied by the municipal courtroom.

One of her first task, Mrs. Dyess said, will be the organization of the department personnel. But she cautioned that she will not be prepared to proceed with this step until after the meeting with the council. Until then, it was explained, no one will know with certainty what the personnel will be.

However, the full-time employes of the department will be few, although the operation of the summer phase of the program will require a number of seasonal playground supervisors. Belief is that this summer employment will appeal to school teachers or perhaps to advanced college students.

Mrs. Dyess' arrival in Lubbock to reside was in the nature of a home-coming. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. Y. Thompson of Tahoka. She is a graduate of Lubbock Senior High school and Texas Technological college, as well as a post-graduate from Southern Methodist university, Dallas.

Her professional experience has been extensive, including approximately 15 months in civil service employment in recreational directive work in Alaska and organization of a new department of recreation in Temple. She taught school in Tahoka four years and for six months was in Abilene as coordinator between McMurry college and the three Methodist churches in tha' city. She resigned as a civil service director of recreation in a war project at Orange to accept the position here. Mrs. Dyess has a son, Clark, 11, now enrolled in San Marcos Military academy, who will join her during vacation.

Home Front Claims More Lives Than The War, Council Says

CHICAGO, April 18. (AP)—Accidents since Pearl Harbor have put the war in second place as a killer, the National Safety council said today, releasing figures showing that twice as many persons have died or been permanently disabled in home front mishaps as in battle.

Accidents have reduced 350,000 wartime workers to industrial 4-F's with permanent disabilities, the council said. In addition, 102,000 workers have been killed and 9,500,000 injured compared with war casualties of 42,081 deaths and 66,121 wounded, and 37,415 missing.

The all-accident toll since Pearl Harbor now is 220,000 killed and 22,000,000 injured, the council said. Traffic accidents have killed 61,000 and injured 2,100,000, while accidents in the home have killed 75,000 and injured 11,000,000.

Yanks And Cards Open Up Season By Shutout Wins

Lindell's Homer Starts Yankees

BOSTON, April 18 (AP)—Hank Borowy turned in a glittering opening day five-hit performance today as the world champion New York Yankees whitewashed the Boston Red Sox, 3 to 0, before 8,520 at Fenway park.

Borowy kept his hits well scattered with the exception of the fourth when Jim Tabor and Leon Culberson singled successfully with one away. But he settled down to throw out Roy Partee and fan Yank Terry to end the threat.

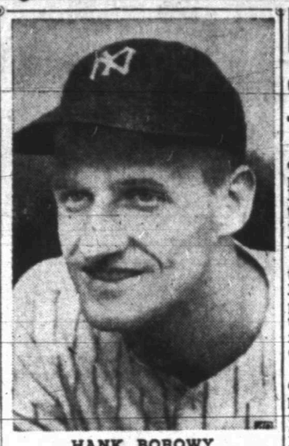

Big John Lindell got the Yanks off to a good start as he homered in the second inning. The Champions settled it decisively with a pair of runs in the seventh.

Ed Levy opened the frame with a single and came all the way home when Oscar Grimes doubled to deep center and Bobby Doerr threw wildly to the plate on the relay. Grimes made third and came home on Mike Garbark's single to left.

HANK BOROWY

MAX LANIER

BOTH WIN SHUTOUTS — Opening the baseball season yesterday, the New York Yankees and St. Louis Cardinals, foes of the 1943 World Series, and favored to repeat, opened the season with shutout victories. Hank Borowy, above, Yankee star, turned in a five-hit performance against the Boston Red Sox for a 3 to 0 victory. Lefty Max Lanier, below, limited the Pittsburgh Pirates to two hits to win his opening masterpiece, 2 to 0.

BROWNS WIN OPENER

DETROIT, April 18 (AP)—The St. Louis Browns defeated the Detroit Tigers, 2 to 1, in an American League opener before 28,034 spectators today. Each team got six hits. Vernon Stephens of St. Louis and Pinky Higgins of Detroit hit homers. Jack Kramer, the winning pitcher, fanned eight Detroit batters.

Longhorns Win Over San Marcos Airmen

AUSTIN, April 18 (AP)—The University of Texas Longhorn nine defeated San Marcos Army Air Field, 10-7 here today with Bobby Layne, Dallas freshman, and Bob Dalzell, of last year's team, sharing mound duties for the Steers.

Layne pitched five innings, giving up three hits and two runs. Dalzell permitted eight hits and five runs.

Bob Campbell, Longhorn captain, hit a home run with three aboard in the second inning.

Lanier And Roe Stage Big Duel

ST. LOUIS, April 18. (AP)—The chunky southpaw who pitched the pennant-winning game for the St. Louis Cardinals last season started them off with a victory today in their race for a third straight National League championship.

Lefty Max Lanier, taking over the opening-day assignment from Morton Cooper, turned in a 2-hit pitching performance to shut out the Pittsburgh Pirates 2 to 0, defeating a courageous rookie, Elwin (Preacher) Roe.

The victory went to Lanier's craftsmanship but the drama was provided by Roe. He matched Lanier's efforts through the first five innings but weakened in the sixth when the Cardinals set the stage for a big rally.

Lanier opened the inning by drawing a pass on four straight pitches. He was forced at second on Emil Verban's bunt but Johnny Hopp doubled off the right-field screen. Stan Musial singled to score Verban, Hopp stopped at third and Musial raced to second on the throw home. An intentional pass to Walker Cooper filled the bases. Roe struck out both Ray Sanders and Whitey Kurowski to end the inning without further damage.

Roe yielded two hits in each of the subsequent innings with the Cardinals adding a run in the eighth on Stan Musial's second single, an error and a single by Kurowski.

CUBS BLANK REDS

CINCINNATI, April 18 (AP) — Hanky Wyse and the Chicago Cubs blanked Cincinnati 3-0 today as the teams opened the 1944 season before a standee crowd of 30,154. Two fourth innings singles to Don Johnson and Bill Nicholson with a walk sandwiched between, and Phil Cavarretta's ninth inning triple, with Nicholson flying him home, were enough to hand Bucky Walters his first defeat.

BREWERS SELL STAR

MILWAUKEE, April 18. (AP) — Hy Vandenberg, Milwaukee Brewer right handed pitcher who was slated to work the opening game of the season tomorrow against St. Paul, was sold today to the Chicago Cubs.

Batters Have Tough Day Against Opening Day Pitching Feats

NEW YORK, April 18. (AP)—The pitchers had their day as Major league baseball launched its third war-time season today, the hurlers holding the wood-wielders to a puny .196 average.

No team was able to get into double digits in the hit column, three failed to score a run, three counted but once, four scored twice, three scored three times, and only one was able to get four markers. Only 88 were registered in 450 times at bat.

Pudgy Max Lanier, St. Louis Cardinal southpaw, came up with the No. 1 effort as he held Pittsburgh to two singles in racking up a 2-0 shutout for the National league champs. Cincinnati's Bucky Walters was the day's hard luck guy, his three-hit effort going for naught as the Chicago Cubs beat the Reds 3 to 0 behind the five-hit hurling of Hank Wyse.

Another Hank, Borowy of the World Champion New York Yankees, also came up with a 3 to 0 whitewash job as he held Boston to five hits, among which a double and triple proved harmless. Johnny Lindell clinched the game with a homer in the second—his first time up.

Bill Voiselle, who won 10 and lost 21 at Jersey City last year, hurled the New York Giants to a 2 to 1 verdict over Boston's Braves, and became the first rookie ever to hurl and win an opener for the Gotham club.

At Detroit, Jack Kramer of St. Louis missed a shutout over the Tigers by a single strike, Pinky Higgins tagging him for a homer with two out and two strikes in the last of the ninth, but the Browns took the tilt 2 to 1.

Philadelphia's Athletics needed 12 innings to eke out a 3 to 2 victory over the Washington Senators at the nation's capital, tacking together two singles, a sacrifice and an infield tap to clinch it in the extra heat and starting Connie Mack away victorious on his 50th year as a big league skipper.

Fat Freddie Fitzsimmons' Phillies amassed the heaviest scoring total of the day—four runs—in beating Brooklyn's Dodgers 4 to 1 as Dick Barrett held the Bums to six hits.

A total of 57,782 fans saw the openers in the National league—4,030 at St. Louis, 30,154 at Cincinnati, 10,128 at Philadelphia, and 13,470 at New York. The three American league tilts drew 63,554, with 8,520 at Boston, 27,000 at Washington, and 28,034 at Detroit.

Sub Depot Softball Club Blasts Idalou

The Lubbock Army Air Field Sub Depot girls softball team won a 14 to 4 victory over the Idalou All-Stars Tuesday afternoon at Mackenzie park.

Combining the steady pitching of Bradshaw with the lusty three-homer clouting of Mangold, the LAAF girls were never in any danger as they piled up the lead over the Idalou club. Dewey pitched for Idalou.

Red Raiders Awarded Grid And Cage Letters Tuesday

Football and basketball stars of the Texas Tech Red Raiders were awarded letters Tuesday night at a dinner held at the Hilton Hotel, with all members of the squad that last week completed the spring football camp being present.

The toll that has been taken in the ranks of the Red Raiders was noticed with strong force as the letters, and football "Double T" jackets were handed out to all those who remained at the campus to claim their rewards.

Six football lettermen, a student manager, and five basketball players were among those attending the dinner, and many of these are now waiting a final call to the colors.

The awards were handed out by H. C. Pender, member of the Texas Tech Athletic Council, and in football went to Hubert Bechtol, Don Dudley, T. M. Cox, Bobby Hays, Buster Melton, Tom Pirtle, and student manager Bill Barnett. The basketball letters went to Bechtol, Tex Wallis, Guy Ragland, Jay Kerr and Don Grove.

Coach Dell Morgan spoke only briefly in complimenting the fine spirit shown by the boys, and in speaking of the great pleasure he gained by his chance to work with the boys for at least one season, and closed by wishing them "good luck and God speed" in their futures, either in the civilian life or in the armed services that lay ahead of them.

H. F. Godeke, another member of the athletic council, Coach Polk Robison, assistant football and head basketball coach, Morley Jennings, Texas Tech athletic director, and Mack Turner, Avalanche-Journal sports editor, were introduced by Coach Morgan.

Callahan Is Honor Graduate At Athens

AUSTIN, April 18. (AP)—J. R. Callahan, Wink star formerly with the Texas Tech Red Raiders, and tailback on the 1943 Longhorn football team, was the No. 1 man out of his battalion in the class that graduated this week at the Naval Pre-Flight school at Athens, Ga., Lt. W. R. Priddy, resident Naval officer of the University of Texas, revealed today.

Callahan went into the Navy from Texas Tech and was assigned to Texas University where he spent five months in Naval aviation training last fall and winter.

Callahan was given permission to play football at Texas, and was named on the All-Southwest Conference team, received mention for All-American honors, and was rated one of the greatest ball carriers in the Southwest.

The next steps in Callahan's Naval career remained unannounced.

Dub Wooten Accepts Post With All-Stars

NORMAN, Okla., April 18. (AP)—W. G. "Dub" Wooten, end and co-captain of the University of Oklahoma's 1943 Big Six football champions, has accepted an invitation to play in the 11th annual All-Star game at Chicago Aug. 30, officials said today.

The Sooner end, a junior who was chosen on the All-Conference team last autumn, played high school football at Amarillo, Texas.

COACHING CHANGE

JACKSONVILLE, Tex., April 18. (AP)—J. M. Moorman of Bryan has been named athletic coach of Jacksonville High school and will report here Aug. 1. He succeeds C. P. Mosley, who will continue as a teacher in the school.

Moorman formerly coached at Rockdale and Brenham.

NOVA WINS BOUT

OMAHA, Neb., April 18. (U.P.)—Lou Nova, Van Nuys, Cal., heavyweight continued along his comeback path today, having disposed of his latest rival, Paul Hartnek of Omaha with a sixth round technical knockout last night.

Pro Grid Loop Plans Changes

PHILADELPHIA, April 18. (AP)—The National Football league's rule committee recommended today two major changes in the pro grid code and several minor alterations, after sifting through a list of 43 suggestions made by the coaches and club owners who will open their annual meeting here tomorrow.

The two big changes, which still must be adopted by the league by a four fifths vote, will permit coaching from the bench and virtually eliminate out-of-bounds kickoffs.

As an experimental measure, for the 1944 season, the committee proposed to permit coaches to communicate with players on the field by any means, provided that they remain within a zone measuring ten yards in each direction from the middle of the bench and do not encroach upon the field.

To prevent intentional out-of-bounds kickoffs, the committee suggested a five yard penalty on each kickoff until the ball is legally handled by the receiving side. This also applies to kicks that fail to travel ten yards, unless the ball is recovered or touched by the receiving team.

The new rule also provides that on kickoffs in the last two minutes of each half, time will not be in until the ball has been legally handled, thus preventing the use of out-of-bounds kickoffs to kill time.

Less important changes from the spectator standpoint are the renewal for one year of the free substitution rule, with the proviso that players no longer need to report on entering the game; a change in timing of time-outs so that in most cases the ball actually will be put into play after two minutes; and alterations in the rules concerning the shifting of players between the line and backfield and in the penalty for interference by the offensive team on forward passes.

Westerner Gridiron Camp In Full Action

The Lubbock Westerners and Cowhands were down to the head butting stage Tuesday afternoon at Chapman Field as spring football training continued under the watchful eyes of Coaches J. Mule Davis, Dixie White, Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst and George Philbrick.

Tuesday found 110 boys out on the field battling for starting positions on the two teams with Coaches Davis and White working with 49 Westerners while Hayhurst and Philbrick toiled with the younger Cowhands.

Several shifts in the probable lineup of the Westerners are being worked out by the coaches, and two moves that look to be likely to pay off well under fire is the bolstering of the wing positions by the shift of a couple of veterans.

Clinton Benefield, a stalwart in the center of the line, and Billy Bob Harris, a backfield man, were working at the wing posts Tuesday and looking good at the new positions.

A real battle looms in a couple of spots with a couple of promising new comers offering a stiff battle for the starting role.

T. J. Price, an all-around athlete, is ready to give Roy Grimes and R. W. Moyers a real battle for the fullback role, while Haney is pressing Charles Pressley for his starting post at center. Price and Haney were both ineligible last season, but are ready to go this year.

Hayhurst and Philbrick were loud in their praise of the Cowhand hopefuls, and were firm believers that they had a number of top notchers in their squad.

PELICANS SHOW POWER

OUR PLEDGE

WE pledge allegiance to the flag of the United States of America, and to the Republic for which it stands: One Nation, indivisible, with Liberty and Justice for all.

Some Facts, Versus Fancies

MEMBERS of the U. S. Senate who have declared they would oppose delays in demobilizing the Armed Forces after victory have taken the practical view of this very difficult problem of the immediate post-war period.

Their promptness in stating their position on the proposition may allay considerably any harm that may have been done to morale by the injudicial proposal of Maj. Lewis B. Hershey that men be retained in uniform after victory until civilian jobs are available for them.

Without question, General Hershey's suggestion contains more than a little theoretical merit. Doubtless he feels that it would be better for the men themselves to have the security of membership in the Armed Forces than to be turned back, jobless, into civilian life. Serious problems of many kinds—crime among others—are sure to result if large numbers of veterans are unable to obtain employment after their discharges from the military service.

"But the fact to face is that most of those now in uniform are going to want their discharges, jobs or no jobs, as soon as possible after victory. Their families will feel the same way about it. They accept the restraints and discipline of military service now because war is in progress. That feeling will change when the war is won. They won't listen with patience to the argument that they will be better off in the military service until a civilian job is "available." More likely their attitude will be: "How in hell can I find a job if I am not allowed to hunt for one?"

Members of the Senate apparently realize that human forces too powerful to be restrained will force an immediate start of demobilization after victory—probably at a rate that will be unwise for the economic good of the nation.

Even so, the senators seem to be facing virtually certain probabilities with realism and frankness. General Hershey, in contrast, has proposed something that probably would be impossible in this democracy. One talks facts, the other theory. When that happens, facts invariably prevail.

MacArthur Isn't Fooled

IT reflects credit on General MacArthur's common sense that he has not allowed himself to be deceived by the enthusiasm of some of his admirers as to his chances of becoming the next President.

His statement, as revealed the other day, that he does not "anticipate fulfilment" of certain "flattering predictions" made by Rep. A. L. Miller of Nebraska seemed about as accurate as an evaluation could be at this time of the MacArthur presidential prospects.

The statement was contained in the reply to a letter in which the congressman predicted that General MacArthur would be the Republican nominee and would "carry every state in the nation." Mr. Miller obviously allowed his enthusiasm to lead him into an absurdity.

It is true, of course, that General MacArthur is not a declared candidate for the nomination. He may never become a formal candidate. But, in view of his expressions at various times—including those in the letter to Miller—it is ridiculous to suppose that General MacArthur would refuse the nomination if it should be offered to him. Either he is receptive to the nomination, or his expressions have been incredibly deceiving.

Clearly, however, he does not regard his prospects through rose-tinted glasses. The only interpretation possible of his "fulfillment" statement is that he does not expect to be the nominee. This is the view shared almost unanimously by the reputable observers at home. The best that can be said of the MacArthur prospects at the moment is that they are of the dark horse variety. While it is not particularly unusual for either major party to choose a dark horse as the nominee, the pre-convention chance for any given dark horse invariably is very slim, indeed.

The cheering note in various of the MacArthur expressions has been the clear indication that, although he might be receptive to the honor, he is not allowing illusive political possibilities to interfere with his far more urgent job of prosecuting the far in the Southwest Pacific. He seems to be content to let political possibilities take care of themselves while he does his best to take care of the more pressing duties of war.

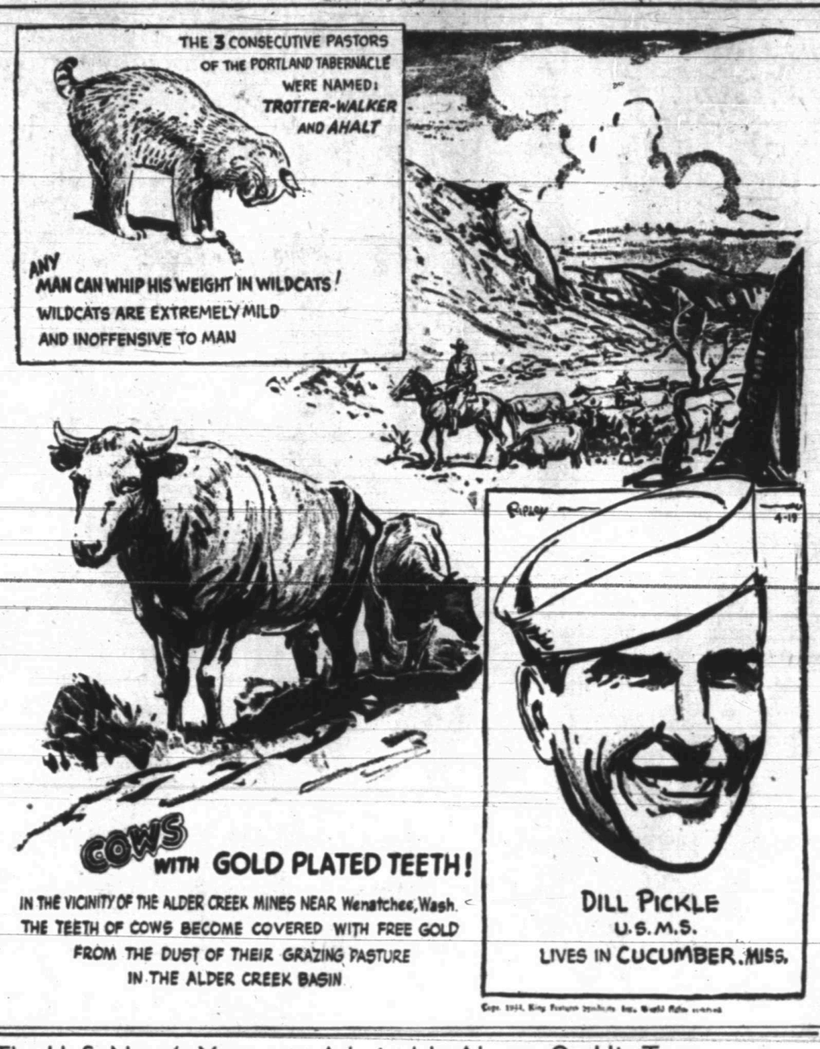

A psychologist for children says spanking misses its aim. It didn't when we were on the receiving end of it.

According to a recent survey, "more persons take chances in church-conducted lotteries, raffles, etc., than in any other form of gambling." This is rather difficult to believe, unless rummage sales and weddings were included in the survey.

The U. S. Navy's Youngest Admiral Is Always On His Toes

Spruance Catches The Japs Flat-Footed

By NEA Service

WASHINGTON, April 18 — It was the youngest full admiral in the Navy, 57-year-old Raymond Ames Spruance, who was in over-all command of air and amphibious forces which have scored two series of sensational victories in the Pacific. In February, his Kwajalein and Roi, then Eniwetok. And a few days ago, reaching within 550 miles of the Philippines in a series of raids, his forces rolled up the greatest success since the battle of Midway.

Spruance had been confirmed as a full admiral only on February 10. But in his brilliant strategy, catching the Japs flat-footed, he proved his right to wear four stars.

As a vice-admiral, he had shown his tactical skill in all the operations on the central Pacific. He was in command at Tarawa and Mankin in the seizure of the Gilberts.

Before that, he was out of the news for over a year. He had been in command of a task force at the Battle of Midway, in the late summer of 1942, when a big Jap invasion force was caught and turned back with heavy losses. He got a Distinguished Service medal for that, but along with it he was appointed chief of staff to Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, and he had to give up his bridge for an office in Honolulu.

PLANNED NEW ATTACKS

BUT it was there that he worked out the plans which he himself was to carry out as commander-in-chief at the Gilbert and Marshall Islands invasion, and later in the attacks on Palau, Yap, Woleai and Ulithi. For his job at the Gilberts he was awarded a Gold Star in lieu of a second DSM.

Among Navy men Admiral Spruance is rated highest as a master technician. Unlike most of the higher officers in the Pacific area, he is not an airman, but his handling of combined amphibious and air forces has set the pattern for all such operations.

He is lean and of medium heigth. His eyes have the gray of the sea and his strong face the tan that goes with service in the tropics. He drives all the time, himself as well as his men. He is restless, pacing up and down an office when he is ashore, doing five miles or more on deck when he is at sea When he does relax, to sit in a chair, it is usually while he is listening to a recorded symphony.

He came up through the Navy with considerable service as an engineer officer. Appointed to Annapolis in 1903, although his father had tried to interest him in West Point, he saw his first service on the old Iowa. Then he was assigned for engineering instruction. He was made a lieutenant commander in 1917, and during part of the war was executive officer on the USS Agamemnon, hauling troops back from France. That was interesting, he once confided, but no way for a fighting man to make a living.

CAPTAINED BATTLESHIP

THERE followed the usual run of assignments given Navy officers as part of their training and experience to fit them for any situation. He finally commanded the USS Mississippi, his first battleship captaincy, in 1938.

Outbreak of the Second World War found him in Puerto Rico as head of the new 10th Naval District. He didn't get to Pearl Harbor until early in 1942, but there he saw the wreckage of Pearl Harbor rebuilt into the greatest fleet ever to put to sea, with himself as its commander.

Admiral Spruance was born in Baltimore, but his permanent home ashore is in Indianapolis. His wife and their daughter

SPRUANCE

Margaret, named after Mrs. Spruance, are now in Monrovia Cal.

He believes in luck. At Tarawa, luck was bad. But he learned from the mistakes and the bad luck there. At Kwajalein, Roi, Eniwetok, Palau, Yap and the rest, luck was good. And he never leaves of working to improve his luck.

His other precept is that no one branch of the service can do it all. Working together is what wins.

Nearly Everybody But The Horse Collapses

NEW YORK, Apri 18 (AP)—A runaway horse galloped down a Brooklyn Street, stumbled over a curbstone and sprawled headlong onto a carriage in which 11-months-old Aimee Ullman was sleeping.

Passers-by ran to the scene and extricated the child who was unhurt. Then, the infant's mother, seven other women and the horse's owner fainted.

Looking At Life - - - - - By Erich Brandeis

EVER since the first of the month I have taken a daily trip through my garden looking for spring.

It seems such a long wait, that gap between the snow and the tulips—each day seems like a week.

Right now, as I am writing this, I am looking out of my window, at a little birch tree, planted four years ago.

That birch tree is looking for spring, too, and so is the robin sitting in one of its branches. There are little swellings on the tree—soon those swellings will be leaves, and soon the robin will shun my birdhouse in which he and his colleagues, the sparrows and bluejays and the wrens still find welcome food when worms are yet a rare delicacy.

There is impatience in the air. The forsythias are anxious to bloom and the lilac and the dogwood are almost ready to burst.

All around me is the impatience of youth—impatience to bloom, to develop, to do things.

I am glad that I still share that impatience. As long as there is still expectancy and looking for the spring and summer, there is also hope and the promise of beautiful things to come.

Whenever I hear and read of juvenile delinquency, I wonder whether the solution is not much simpler than we adults see.

Youth wants to burst and bloom and develop.

Leave your garden alone and you'll have weeds and pests and disease.

Cultivate it properly. Give it care and nourishment and you'll have lovely flowers and succulent vegetables that will nourish you in turn.

How can you expect to throw a child into the gutter, to let it starve for love and kindness and spiritual nourishment and then to have it bloom and flourish?

How can you blame the rose for not blossoming in all its potential richness if you let it die by your neglect?

WHAT water and fertilizer and the rake and hoe and spade are to your garden, love, kindness, education, building of character and spiritual guidance are to the child.

Show me a place with many flowers, and I'll show you that in that place there is no juvenile delinquency.

Spring is important—so much more reason for you and me to be patient.

Delinquent youth is not the fault of spring but of delinquent gardening.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

JOHN L. LEWIS recently warned Lord Halifax that England might make fertile soil for postwar Communism unless working conditions and wage scales on the Isles were bettered, out of gratitude for the laborers' sacrifices for victory.

When the British ambassador guessed that "most of our people would not join the Communist party", the United Mine Workers' president replied with a grim smile:

"No, you would not be permitted to sign up! As a large property owner, you would be liquidated!"

LABOR: Despite this lugubrious exchange, the conversation was friendly. The meeting had been sought by Halifax for many weeks. He finally persuaded Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean to bring them together at one of her famous Sunday suppers, and the two strolled off to a corner for a chat.

The ambassador, who is not an especially genial spirit, broke the ice by explaining that, inasmuch as he was the absentee operator of a mine in Yorkshire, he had long desired an acquaintance with the American union leader.

Although he did not elaborate on the point, Halifax also wanted an interview because of John L.'s isolationist attitude and his frequently expressed criticism of the Churchill ministry.

In fact, organized labor's growing importance in the United States and its new-found political consciousness, as reflected in its demand for an official seat at the peace table, have led all foreign diplomats to cultivate men like the UMW boss, AFL President William Green and Philip Murray, head of the CIO.

FAILED: The discussion eventually brought out one reason for the backward conditions in the British coal industry.

Although the Britisher and the Welshman did not emphasize this feature specifically, Lewis knew more about the details of operation and management of England's black diamond region than did the ambassador.

Rolling out figures on British productivity, which is far lower than it is in this country, Lewis asked how men making an average of only $20 a week could be expected to work as efficiently as their American colleagues, whose basic pay is approximately $42 a week, or $1 an hour. Incidentally, this conversation took place during the recent coal strike in Yorkshire and other places.

Besides criticizing Downing Street for not taking steps to improve things, the UMW head also complained about the inertia of British labor leaders. According to him, they have failed to present their plight to London and demand a definite and permanent solution.

PROFITS: Lewis also asked why mine proprietors abroad still refused to install machines for extracting ore, explaining that mechanization over here had meant greater production and fatter pay envelopes.

When the ambassador answered that the workers in his country had fought the installation of machinery underground, believing that it might reduce work and wages, John L. characterized that attitude as "shortsighted."

"If the men will demand that they get their share of greater profits resulting from mechanization, he said, "and if the owners will recognize that right, the opposition will disappear. But the government should take the lead in that movement for its own good."

Rubbing his lean chin thoughtfully, the diplomat promised to place the matter before the proper officials in London.

WRECKAGE: The most battfling political mystery in the capital today is why Sen. Guy Gillette of Iowa has not made public the "Dear Guy" letter he received from the President after he had announced that he would run for re-election. Ordinarily a candidate flashes and flourishes such an endorsement, especially if he was a near-victim of the 1938 purge, as was the white-haired legislator.

Gillette has shown the epistle to a few colleagues, and Steve Early admits that it was written and dispatched. But in so far as publication is concerned, the letter might be nonexistent.

The explanation is that the Iowan does not believe a Roosevelt boost will aid him in Vice President Wallace's home state. It would be what is known to politicos as "the kiss of death" rather than a reinforcement. For Iowa was one of the first agricultural commonwealths to break away from the New Deal, despite the millions in AAA checks poured into the area.

Moreover, Gillette has been anti-White House and anti-fourth term, and although others can abandon their allegiances or prejudices in accord with political necessity, he cannot. Ironically, the man whom the administration almost ran against him in 1938—ex-Rep. Otha D. Wearin—is now an officer on the Democrats' Anti-New Deal committee, once headed by former Secretary of War Harry Woodring of Kansas.

The senator's real motive in running, although he entertains slight hope of victory, is to remain as political boss of Iowa. Then, when and if the Roosevelt-Wallace faction is swept out of power, he will have charge of the wreckage.

WINNING THE WAR
By Albert Leman

BESIDES the implications of a political brush-off in the Wallace mission to China, other factors, among them the safeguarding of lives of American soldiers, are involved.

Inflation, devastating famine and virtual civil war are hampering our men already heavily engaged in fighting the Japs. So acute is the crisis that Washington is sending a troubleshooter with the impressive title of Vice President to influence bickering Chinese generals to patch up their long squabble before we are dragged into the family row.

Recently the press reported brief and sharply censored news of the feud. It is time to speak frankly and more extensively about this running sore and reveal data obtained from the highest possible sources:

We Americans are prone to generalize about our Oriental Allies. The graciousness of Madame Chiang Kai-Shek, the friendliness of our own Chinese-American citizens and the matchless patience of our Asiatic partners in the face of prolonged adversity have hidden less favorable features of the situation abroad.

Yet these veiled liabilities may affect the security of our own soldier sons unless eliminated in the near future.

BESIEGED: Thousands of Chinese infantrymen, who could be better employed helping Stillwell, are pinned down to watch their own Communist brothers-in-arms in at least two provinces. Top-ranking statesmen here fear that the hour may come when United States troops in China may be used to fight these alleged rebels in order to uphold the generalissimo.

Bad blood has existed for a long period between the Kuomintang and the Chinese Red armies in central China. (Incidentally, although these groups have ideological ties with Moscow they are not part of its political system.) The division was widened after the fall of Nanking in 1938. War weariness allowed radical doctrines to spread in the lower Yangtze region in 1940.

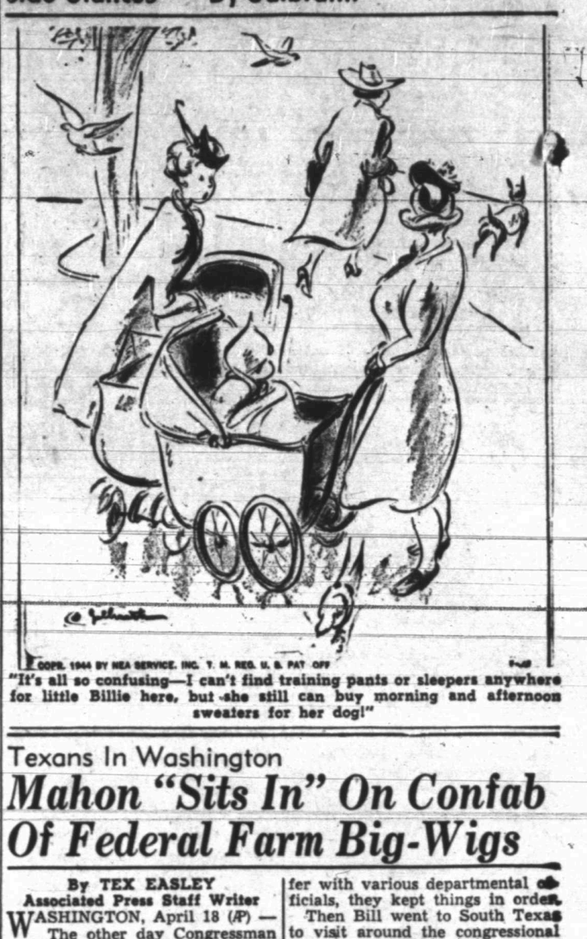

The Communist Fourth Army was attacked by General Ku Chu-tung of China's Third Army and crushed in January, 1941. It is charged that the Reds stood aside and allowed the Japanese to batter Chungking's forces in Shansi in the Spring of that year. Clashes have occurred since between the Eighteenth Route Army and government forces.

Huge bodies of Communist warriors are now encircled by regular soldiers who prevent munitions from reaching them. In explaining Chungking asserts that the besieged have attempted to negotiate with the Japanese.

Texans In Washington

Mahon "Sits In" On Confab Of Federal Farm Big-Wigs

By TEX EASLEY
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP) — The other day Congressman George Mahon of Colorado City was at the Agriculture department talking to his fellow Texan and friend, Undersecretary Grover B. Hill of Amarillo, when the latter said he was sorry but he had to be getting into the regular daily staff conference.

"So this is one of those huddles that goes on all the time when I try to get you and the rest by phone," dryly commented Mahon. "I'd like to see what goes on in one."

He got a chance to see. Hill took him into a long room where the heads of every major bureau and unit of the War Food administration, such as the Commodity Credit corporation and Soil Conservation service, were seated. Another Texan, WFA Administrator Marvin Jones, presided.

Lasting about an hour, the meeting was devoted to a review by each man present to affairs in the division under his supervision so that all would have an up-to-date picture of the over-all agricultural situation. For instance, one official told how steps were being taken to bolster the price of eggs by having the WFA buy up large quantities in Texas. At previous sessions complaints were heard of eggs being offered for 20 cents a dozen and still no market.

Senator Plays Cupid

An exceedingly nervous young sailor came into Senator Tom Connally's office and said he was a Texas boy and had to see the senator, it was urgent. The secretary, Mrs. A. S. E. Carr, told him senator wasn't in just then.

"The poor kid looked desperate and seemed almost in tears," related Mrs. Carr. "I asked him if there wasn't anything I could do for him."

There was. He wanted some information on how to go about getting a marriage license. She directed him to the District of Columbia building, and a few minutes later looked out the window to see him and his girl, who had been waiting outside Connally's office, catching a street car in apparent bliss.

THERE undoubtedly wasn't another congressional secretarial team on Capitol Hill like that of Bill and Mary Elliott.

It was about five years ago that they came up from Corpus Christi to be aides of Congressman Richard Kleberg. Parents of two beautiful daughters, Freddy Jane and Eleanor Ann, they were an efficient and friendly secretarial staff.

With Mary in charge of the "outside" office to welcome constitutuents, place phone calls and arrange appointments, and Bill on the "inner" office to work with the congressman and confer with various departmental officials, they kept things in order.

Then Bill went to South Texas to visit around the congressional district. A few days later a phone call came through telling of his death from a heart attack at Corpus Christi.

Young in appearance for his 39 years, Elliott will be missed by a host of friends here and in Corpus Christi, where he worked on the Caller Times.

Has Texas Interests

Colorado's new congressman, Dean Gillespie of Denver, knows a lot about Texas and has a particular interest in West Texas.

The Republican legislator has a financial share in the Mead White Truck company of Odessa, and says that Col Perry A. Mead of Odessa is a warm friend. For years Gillespie travelled for the company throughout West Texas and Mexico. Still a businessman, he won out in a special election to succeed the late Representative Lawrence Lewis, Democrat.

CONGRESSMAN Luther A. Johnson of Corsicana says "the American people are very much upset by the refusal of the Irish government to accede to the requests of our government to remove German and Japanese diplomatic representatives for the safety of our armed forces."

He read into the Congressional Record an editorial from the Fort Worth Star-Telegram entitled "Hard-Headed De Valera."

After calling attention to the friendship America has had for the Irish, the editorial argues that Eire now is letting itself become a spy post and assumed an insupportable position, then adds:

"The Southern Irish are still fighting Cromwell, who has been dead nearly 300 years. They are still fighting the Tudors and the Stuarts, the last of whom passed to his reward even earlier . . . But what is of more importance right now is that actually, if not ostensibly, covertly if not openly, they are fighting America and Americans."

Texas Projects Set

Three Texas projects were included in the Postwar Flood Controll bill (HR4485) recently introduced in the House.

They include $4,800,000 for the North Concho river and $1,500,000 for Pecan bayou, both in the Colorado river basin, and $15,000,000 for the Whitney reservoir in the Brazos river basin.

Missouri Woman Assured First Lady Does Not Have 4 Cars And 2,000 Gallons A Month

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—Mrs. W. R. Hubbard of Arrow Rock, Mo., can rest assured that Mrs. Eleanor Roosevelt doesn't have four automobiles and a monthly gasoline ration of 2,000 gallons.

The assurance is contained in two letters placed in the Congressional record today by Sen. Harry S. Truman (D-Mo).

Wanted Real Facts

One letter was from Mrs. Hubbard, who wrote that a man of her acquaintance said he had read in a newspaper that the First Lady had "four cars and a gasoline rationing of 2,000 gallons per month." She said she didn't believe it but would like to have the real facts.

The second letter was from H. G. Crim, head usher at the White House. He wrote that Mrs. Roosevelt owns one automobile which she keeps at her Hyde Park, N. Y., home.

Has Only An "A" Book

"For this car she has an 'A' gasoline ration book," Crim wrote. "For her use in Washington, only one White House car has been assigned to her and no other White House car is used by her. Accurate records are kept at the White House garage of the mileage of each car.

"Mrs. Roosevelt has spent most of the month of March, 1944, on her Caribbean trip, and therefore I have taken the figures for the month of February, 1944. Her car was driven a total of 168 miles during that month. During the same month a year ago her car was driven 184 miles."

3 Keys to HIGH EGG PRODUCTION

1. Buy Good Chicks
2. Practice Good Management
3. Feed Stanton's Manamar Chick Starter

Most poultry authorities agree that profitable poultry raising depends largely on three important factors . . . good chicks, good management and good feed. Our job is to produce good feed that will combine with your good chicks and good management to get your flocks off to a flying start on the road to high production and profit. We have just such a feed in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter. A blend of locally-grown grains, ManAmar and B-G Plus, it is rich in the vitamins minerals and proteins which promote vigorous growth in baby chicks.

B-G PLUS

is a patented vacuum concentrated extract from fish, resulting from ten years of ceaseless research and experiment. It supplies extra trace minerals and vitamins in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter.

MANAMAR

in Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter supplies the hard-to-get feeding essentials—fish proteins, food minerals and vitamins, including the important Vitamin B "Complex," necessary for fast growth.

ManAmar and B-G Plus have been developed and are produced in the laboratories of Philip R. Park, famed live-stock nutrition authority. These laboratories have approved the formula for Stanton's ManAmar Chick Starter. Let the records of users tell the rest of the story. Get all the facts today.

Galati Takes Spotlight As Crimean Carnage Roars On

By KIRKE L. SIMPSON
Associated Press War Analyst

The victory guns of Moscow may roar out before the week end to signal the recapture of Sevastopol and the end of the Nazi invasion of southern Russia, but it is west of the Dnestr that an even more critical situation is fast shaping up for the defeat-ridden German high command.

SIMPSON

The battle of the Galati gateway to the Balkans in southeastern Romania is approaching a crisis. The Russian air attacks on Galati seems the certain preliminary to a two-Army Russian drive to break through into the Danube valley, without awaiting the final cleanup in the Crimea.

The air hammering of the Danubian port city indicates Russian hopes of shattering enemy communications sustaining the 300-mile defensive arc from the Dnepr estuary to the Pascant area in the upper Siret valley. It is fed via the road and rail network converging on the Galati hub. There is no other adequate supply line once the Galati communications bottlenecks is knocked out.

Bomber Groups Diverted

Diversion of Russian bomber groups from the business of breaking up the Nazi escape by sea from Sevastopol implies that the Second and Third Ukrainian armies are now well deployed about the German defense arc. With its communications sapped, that line cannot long be held. Its collapse will bring on the decisive battle in the southeastern European theater.

A Russian surge through the Galati gap to Ploesti and Bucharest and on westward in the Danube valley would cut Bulgaria off from her Nazi associates. Since she is not at war with Russia, it is questionable to what extent the Nazi command can even now count on Bulgarian rail and road connections for a round-about service behind the front in Romania.

Invite Retaliation

Open Bulgarian aid to Germany against Russia would invite Russian retaliation. Moscow is obvously avoiding that as long as possible in hope of a Bulgarian break-away. For that reason Angelo-American bombing attacks from Italy on Bulgarian communication and supply hubs may have a double purpose.

They certainly harrass any German war traffic moving over Bulgarian routes more or less clandestinely. Even more than that, they tend to bring home to the disaffected and pro-Russian Bulgarian people the plight into which their association with Germany has brought them.

Bulgaria's case is growing desperate and it could cause little surprise if Bulgaria becomes the first Balkan associate to desert Germany and even join the war against her. The beginning of Axis collapse in the Balkans might well come that way, with Allied bombers helping it along.

Tech's Spring Play Scheduled Thursday

Drama of the dissension among girls of various countries in a Lucerne, Switzerland school for girls during this war, will be presented in a three-act play entitled "Letters to Lucerne," Texas Technological college's spring play, it the Lubbock High school auditorium Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The play is sponsored by Tech's speech department.

Erna Schmidt, a German girl, will be portrayed by Louise Ince, according to Miss Helene Blattner, speech professor and director of the play. Other portrayals will be Gusta by Maxine Hennersdorf; Olga Kirinski by Ned McCleskey, Gretchen Linder by Anita Hale; Margarethe by Mary Findley; Mrs. Hunter, by Marguerite Nobles; Bingo Hill by Mary Mixon; Felice Renoir by Jodie Wofford; Sally Jackson by Fae Beth Hill; Marion Curwood by Marjorie Holmes; Francine by Lois Chambliss; and Fraulein Koppler by Jane Wilson.

Recent newspaper comments on the play include—"Fritz Rotter Rotter and Allen Vincent have written a tender play about a harsh topic"—New York Times. "With sensitivity, good taste and genuine feeling the authors describe the wreckage that results to human decency through the horrors that the Nazi spirit brought upon us"—New York Herald Tribune.

TRANSFERS HEADQUARTERS

CALCUTTA, April 17. (U.P.)—Maj. Gen. George Stratemeyer has transferred his Eastern Air command and USAAF headquarters from New Delhi to Calcutta, bringing his operational center 1,000 miles closer to the Burma-India fighting front, it was announced today. The Eastern Air command is composed of RAF combat units and the American 10th air force.

Employment On Farms Declines

WASHINGTON, April 18. (U.P.)—The Agriculture department reported today that farm employment as of April 1 totaled 9,080,000, or about 228,000 less than a year before.

The slump was reported at a time when urgent military manpower demands were threatening to make heavy inroads into the supply of experienced young farm workers.

The farm labor supply was 54 per cent of the pre-war average, the department said, but only 2 per cent lower than on April 1, 1943. The number of hired workers showed the greatest decline—10 per cent—while the number of unpaid family workers was only slightly less than last year.

Meantime, farm wages rose sharply as workers received an average of $69 a month with board and $81 a month without board. This compared with the average wage on April 1, 1943, of $63 with board and $76 without.

PAMPA CHILD KILLED

PAMPA, April 18. (AP)—William Robert Glaxner, 17 months old, was killed yesterday by the automobile being backed from the driveway by his father, Daniel Glaxner, district superintendent here for the Columbian Carbon company. Glaxner said he thought the child was in the house.

A. & M. Muster To Encircle The Globe

COLLEGE STATION, April 18 (AP)—Ten thousand or more former students of Texas A. & M. college will answer present Friday evening at the annual muster of Texas Aggies held each year on April 21 in honor of the heroes of San Jacinto and in keeping with a tradition originating here 41 years ago.

This year's annual muster adopted the slogan, "The 1944 muster follows the sun," suggested by Major Vernon L. Wimberly of Houston who heads the meeting plans on Guadalcanal. Starting just over the international date line in the Pacific the event will follow the sun around the globe, ending in Hawaii and in the Aleutians.

Among the six hundred separate meetings which have been announced will be gatherings at hundreds of military posts. The greatest attendance doubtless will be on the A. & M. campus where the present student body will meet for its own gatherings.

Solons To Look Into Vivien Kellems Case

WASHINGTON, April 18 (AP)—Chairman McKellar (D-Tenn) said today the Senate postoffice committee will meet Friday to consider Senator Reed's (R-Kan) request for an investigation into publication of correspondence of Vivien Kellems, Westport, Conn., war contractor.

Reed has asked an inquiry into Miss Kellem's charge that postal regulations were violated when portions of letters she wrote to Count Frederick Karl von Zedlitz who she said was a personal friend and representative of German industrial firms, fell into the hands of a newspaper columnist and Rep. Coffee (D-Wash). Coffee charged in a House speech that the count was a "Nazi agent."

Jones Warns Against Dropping FSA Plan

WASHINGTON, April 19 (AP)—War Food Administrator Marvin Jones has told a Senate appropriations subcommittee that abandonment of the Farm Security administration rural rehabilitation program would lead to "utter chaos."

Subcommittee Chairman Russell (D-Ga) said Jones' warning was voiced at a closed hearing on a $567,995,779 agricultural appropriations bill.

The House, in passing the measure, rejected Jones' request for a $26,000,000 operating appropriation and $97,500,000 in borrowing authority with which it did provide funds for tenant-purchase of farms under the Bankhead-Jones act.

Wharfage, Dockage Rate Meetings Set

WASHINGTON, April 18. (AP)—The Maritime commission today ordered hearings to begin in San Francisco before the middle of May on proposed increases in wharfage and dockage rates at San Francisco and Oakland.

The announced higher rates—up about 60 per cent for wharfage and varying substantial rises in dockage charges—which were to have become effective last Sunday, voluntarily were deferred 60 days by the port authorities, the commission said.

Port authorities in San Francisco and Oakland contend the increases are necessary because of need for greater revenue to establish adequate depreciation resrves and to meet extraordinary maintenance costs due to intensive war use of piers.
