Congress Breaks Tax Bill Deadlock

Roosevelt And Borah Unite For Anti-Monopoly Battle

Licensing Plan Upon Business Is Suggested

Long-Awaited Message To Be Sent Congress; No Definite Plans Have Been Revealed

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 22.—Senator Borah's proposal for enforcing the anti-trust laws through federal licensing of corporations assumed new importance tonight in the light of a statement by President Roosevelt that he and Borah were in substantial agreement on the monopoly issue.

Announcing that before another week elapsed he would send to congress his long-awaited message on tightening the anti-monopoly laws, the president told reporters he had discussed the question with the senator and that their opinions on all its phases coincided largely.

No Positive Word Received

There was still no positive word as to whether the president would ask legislative action at this session or merely suggest a congressional investigation.

Borah, veteran Idaho Republican, said after a conference with Mr. Roosevelt yesterday he wanted to shape his anti-monopoly bill "in harmony with the administration's program so we can get somewhere."

The president disclosed also at his press conference today that he would send to congress shortly a previously-announced message on making state and federal salaries and the income from future issues of state and federal bonds taxable by both the states and the federal government.

To Complete Program

These two communications, following his message of last week calling for a government lending and spending program involving outlays of $4,500,000,000, will complete all the recommendations now expected of him, affecting business.

It is Borah's contention monopoly and monopolistic price-fixing cause most of the nation's economic troubles. He holds, too, that a constantly increasing proportion of the national wealth has been coming under control of a diminishing number of corporations, and argues such a concentration of wealth in corporate hands impairs the powers

Rotund Mayor Of New York Dons Boots And Big Hat

(By The Associated Press)

GUTHRIE, Okla., April 22.—New York Mayor Fiorello H. LaGuardia, in cowboy boots and hat, celebrated in pioneer fashion with nearly 100,000 Oklahomans here today and predicted a new and potent political alignment of farmers and laborers in the 1940 presidential campaign.

The farmers of the midwest, LaGuardia said, would furnish the backbone of a new liberal political movement. He said small business men would join in the alignment which would transcend party lines.

Revelling in an atmosphere of painted Indians, bearded plainsmen and pioneer women in buckboards and covered wagons, New York's rotund mayor chuckled, had a good time, insisted on riding a fine white horse in the parade.

He was guest of honor on the occasion of the fete celebrating the 49th anniversary of the opening of Oklahoma territory to home seekers.

To approximately 300 mayors and invited guests he asserted:

"Some of the newspapermen asked me if I had a solution for the depression. Well, I'm not that good. But I'll tell you who is going to solve this problem—the American people themselves.

"We will get out of debt, if we can only keep out of Europe and mind our own business for awhile. I went to Europe once to save democracy, but I do not want to go back under the

WPA Inquiry In State Primary Being Staged

Cross-Fire Of Charges Hurled In Pennsylvania; Political Coercion Of Workers Cited

(By The Associated Press)

PHILADELPHIA, April 22. — A cross-fire of charges in Pennsylvania's Democratic factional primary fight tonight resulted in an investigation by the Work Progress administration.

Several hours after John B. Kelly, chairman of the Philadelphia Democratic organization, accused Senator Joseph F. Guffey (D-Pa) of political coercion among WPA workers in Pennsylvania, Aubrey Williams, deputy WPA administrator, announced in Washington "any specific charges will be immediately investigated and if found true, summary action will be taken."

Inquiry Is Asked

Williams acted after the White House had turned over to him a telegram from Kelly to President Roosevelt asking for an inquiry by the federal bureau of investigation, so that "facts may be ascertained and prosecutions instituted."

"I'm satisfied that the WPA is starting it," said Kelly tonight when he learned of Williams' action.

The telegraphed appeal to the president topped a day highlighted also by these developments:

Probe To Be Made

1. Attorney General Charles J. Margiotti, candidate for the Democratic gubernatorial nomination, made ready to investigate the State Authority, which is spending $65,000,000 on new state construction.

2. Governor George H. Earle, campaigning for the Democratic nomination for the U. S. senate at the May 17 primary, declined comment on the investigation — which was asked by his opponent, Mayor S. Davis Wilson of Philadelphia. At Harrisburg, however, Earle's office announced state police stood ready to help.

Battle For Control

The day's sensations focused national attention anew upon the battle for control of the state Democratic organization which in 1934 elected Pennsylvania's first Democratic governor (Earle) in 40 years —and now is split wide.

The fight broke out when Senator Guffey differed with the senate democratic committee over a gubernatorial choice. The committee settled on a Pittsburgh lawyer, Charles Alvin Jones. It headed its ticket with Earle for senator.

Betty Grable Stoutly Claims That She Only Married Jackie Coogan For Love

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, April 22. — Betty Grable, $500-a-week film dancer, told today of ignoring a warning by her mother-in-law that she was marrying a "pauper," if she married Jackie Coogan.

As Betty described what she said were Mrs. Lillian Coogan Bernstein's efforts to break off her son's two-year engagement, Wallace Beery, a friend of Jackie's kid days in the movies, rallied to his support in his legal fight for a share of his screen fortune.

Hearing Was Scheduled

A hearing was scheduled in court today on the petition by Mrs. Bernstein and Jackie's stepfather, Arthur L. Bernstein, to dismiss the receivership declared on the Coogan estate when the 23-year-old former star filed a $4,000,000 accounting suit against the couple last week.

To "The Kid's" cause, Beery, a veteran star, added his word today, rubbing his jaw in a characteristic meditative gesture as he spoke:

"Not once, but many times—more than a dozen, I think—Jack told me that he had never used or intended to use a cent the boy earned.

"Every penny the boy was making was being put away and saved for him. Jack said on several occasions. He was careful at all times to impress everyone that Jackie's money would be all his—and rightfully—when the kid reached a man's estate."

Miss Grable, who became Coogan's bride last November, said that after their engagement was announced in December, 1935, her mother received a telephone call from Jackie's mother.

Said To Be Pauper

"If Betty thinks she's marrying a rich boy she is very much mistaken. He hasn't a cent. Jackie is a pauper!" Miss Grable quoted Mrs. Bernstein as saying.

"I remember I had hardly met Jack when she began to intimate that he had no money," the bride

Leaders Claim Substitute To Aid Business

Scale Of Rates Ranging From 16½ To 19 Per Cent Ordered; To Be In Effect Two Years

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 22. — A senate-house deadlock over repeal of the undistributed profits tax broke today with a decision by a joint conference committee to retain a modified version of the levy for two years.

The conference group agreed on a scale of corporation income tax rates ranging from 16 1-2 to 19 per cent, depending upon the amount of profits a corporation distributes to its shareholders.

Differences Ironed Out

The house had approved a 16 to 20 per cent undistributed profits tax range. The senate had voted to discard such levies and substitute a flat rate of 18 per cent on corporation income.

Under both the house and senate bills, special treatment was provided for corporations with income of $25,000 and less. The conference committee voted today to accept house provisions exempting such corporations from the profits levy, and imposing instead rates ranging from 12 1-2 to 16 per cent, depending upon the amount of income.

Levy Endorsed By FDR

The hot fight over the undistributed profits levy had arrayed business spokesmen against it and had drawn a statement from President Roosevelt endorsing the levy.

The agreement today provided that the compromise bill should continue only through 1938 and 1939, and opponents of the profits levy contended some substitute tax would be enacted by the end of 1939.

Chairman Harrison (D-Miss) of the senate finance committee, leader of the drive for complete repeal of the levy, asserted the compromise was "the very best that could be effected."

Chairman Doughton (D-NC) of the house ways and means committ-

Passage Of Labor Bill Being Urged

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, April 22. — An appeal for bi-partisan support of the revamped wage-hour bill to prevent a "vicious spiral of deflation" came today from the house labor committee.

Formally recommending that the house pass the legislation, the committee said it would go far toward checking wage cuts because it would establish a floor for wages and a ceiling for hours and abolish child labor.

Southerners Are Rebellious

Southern foes of the legisation remained adamant in their opposition, however, and planned a vigorous floor fight against the bill in the event it gets past the house rules committee which blocked consideration of the original wage-hour bill last year.

Chairman O'Connor (D-NY) declined to forecast what the rules committee would do about the revised bill but declared the bill was sure to pass if it reached the house floor.

President Roosevelt has called for passage of a wage-hour bill at this session.

Lower Rates Wanted

Southern Democrats for the most part are opposed to its provision for uniform wage minima throughout the country, contending lower rates should be permitted in the south.

The revised measure would fix a graduated minimum wage, starting at 25 cents an hour and increasing to 40 cents at the end of three years. It would provide a maximum work week starting at 44 hours and declining to 40 hours in two years.

"At the end of three years the minimum wage . . . will be $16 a week," the labor committee said. "It is hoped that within that time, the several states will adopt similar if not higher standards for employers within their jurisdiction."

Third Party Is Forecast When Liberals Meet

(By The Associated Press)

MADISON, April 22.—Governor Philip F. La Follette tonight issued a call for a meeting of liberals in Madison Thursday night which may be the forerunner of a national third party.

The governor announced the meeting in the last of four radio speeches in which he called for organized public action to rout the depression, and for the third time rapped the trend of the Roosevelt administration's recovery policies.

Many Are Invited

La Follette said he had invited between 3,000 and 4,000 persons with whom he had talked in the last three months.

At a press conference, the governor said he expected the attendance would be mainly from the midwest but there might be others from eastern states, including New York.

The governor was non-committal on whether he would seek a fourth term or run for the United States senate. Possibility of a third party in 1940 led observers to speculate whether he might retire from office and devote his time to new party organization work.

Leadership Is Praised

La Follette praised the "brilliant leadership" of the Roosevelt administration for showing the necessity for organized teamwork, but said:

"Instead of organized action to produce more, the main line has been organized action to produce less—on the one hand a policy of restricting production on the farm and in the factory, and on the other hand keeping millions of people out of production through relief, doles and made-work."

Road Projects Being Ordered

The Texas Highway commission, in approving an estimated $3,674,400 expenditure for a state-financed construction program and earmarking other allotments, took action in seven counties of this area, according to an Associated Press report from Austin Friday.

Actions of the commission included:

Highway Designated

Andrews, Martin and Howard—designated a state highway from Andrews to Big Spring and ordered a survey to establish its location so counties might obtain right-of-way.

Elusive Bandit Again Slips Through The Fingers Of Law But Wife Is Captured

(By The Associated Press)

SAN ANTONIO, April 22.—After spending 15 hours combing the hills and wooded section 10 miles north of San Antonio, a battery of tired highway police and deputy sheriffs returned this afternoon satisfied the Robert "Bill" McDonald, 29, wanted in three Texas cities and a number of New Mexico communities on felony warrants, had made good another escape from the law.

The intensive search began early today when Highway Patrolmen William Dreuger and Elmer Nichols gave chase to the elusive McDonald after observing him as he drove an alleged stolen automobile from a filling station on the Fredericksburg road.

As the officers, traveling south towards San Antonio to report for fiesta duty, turned their motorcycles to give chase, McDonald accelerated his car and swung into a side road. It was a "dead end" lane and the patrolmen gained rapidly upon him. As the car came to a sud-

Long Years Of Bickering End

(By The Associated Press)

LONDON, April 22. — Great Britain and Ireland today reached an agreement they hoped would end years of bickering.

An announcement by the dominions office said the accord had been concluded, but gave no details.

To Be Signed Monday

Drafted after three months of negotiations headed by British Prime Minister Neville Chamberlain and Irish Prime Minister Eamon De Valera, the agreement will be signed Monday.

Reliable but unofficial sources in Dublin said the new agreement settled the long-standing land annuities and tariff differences between the two countries. It was believed, however, one major issue—De Valera's dream for a united Ireland—was left untouched, at least for the present.

Date Back To 1932

Economic differences between the two countries date back to 1932, when De Valera, then Irish Free State president, withheld payment of land annuities to Great Britain to enable Irish tenants to buy land.

In the settlement today, Ireland was said to have agreed to spend a specified annual sum for defense in lieu of the annuity payments.

Wild Flower Show Postponed A Week

State highway department's third annual wild flower show for Lubbock district has been postponed from April 30 and May 1 to May 7 and 8.

The event will be held at district headquarters at 105 East Broadway, with Wilson B. Holden, jr., district planning foreman of the landscape division of the department, in charge of preparations. George M. Garrett is district engineer.

Delay was decided upon, Holden said, because of the belief that more flowers will be available for display than on the earlier dates. Last year, he recalled, approximately 100 different varieties of wild flowers native to varicus of the 19 counties of the district were exhibited.

Chairmen, he said, have been named for each of the counties to supervise the collection and preparation of exhibits. Mrs. Jewell Walton is general chairman for the district.

Bedroom Programs Given For Clubs

Bedroom interiors are being studied this month by women of Lubbock county home demonstration clubs. Miss Clara Pratt, agent, has been meeting with the women and making practical suggestions for bedroom improvement.

"Individuals who use the room, position of the room in the home and furnishings already in the room should be considered when a color is selected for the bedroom," the Murray Home Demonstration club learned Friday afternoon. The club, a new organization in the northwest corner of the county, met with Mrs. A. B. Meador.

Pastels Suggested

Miss Pratt also suggested that light, pastel colors usually are considered more restful than darker colors in a bedroom. The agent's talk was followed by a business meeting with the following results:

Mrs. W. D. Lackey was selected council member to fill a vacancy; Mrs. Meador was elected bedroom demonstrator, and Mrs. H. K. Wilson was elected home food supply demonstrator. Mrs. Vernon Bartlett was received as a member.

Guests were Mesdames Jerry Biffle, L. M. Biffle, S. I. Medford and M. E. Stevens. Members attending were Mesdames D. C. Hale, J. T. Lackey, J. W. Richerson, W. D. Lackey and the hostess.

Canyon Club Meets

Reading and sewing centers in the bedroom were discussed by Miss Pratt at a meeting of the Canyon community club Thursday in the home of Miss Nancy Ann Sides. "Pictures should be hung so that the center of interest is on a level with the eye."

In business discussion, presided over by Mrs. W. C. Pierson, an auction sale was planned for the next meeting, May 5, in the home of Mrs. Bay Simmons. The hostess served angel food cake and punch.

Attending were Mesdames Pierson, F. L. Bell, B. L. Davis, Simmons, Miss Gladys Simmons and the hostess.

So And Such Club Meets In Gee Residence This Week

Those attending were Mesdames Alton Abbott, W. G. Alderson, Otis J. Felty, Herman Fink, C. H. Hamilton, S. A. Hamilton, R. V. Mullenix, H. A. Padgett, and Thomas E. Pirtle.

Mrs. George M. Garrett will be hostess at the next meeting, May 4.

Value Of Tin Cans Will Get Boost On Market May 7

Value of tin cans will rise appreciably May 7.

That day all Lubbock boys will be guests of the Cactus theater management and the Lubbock cleanup committee at a morning matinee. Fifteen cans will be price of admittance.

Cans gathered from alleys and vacant lots should be brought to the theater on strings.

The wood used in piano manufacture is seasoned from three to five years before being used.

Bethany, Cecil Strawn, L. G. Bell, C. E. Milliner, V. R. Brady, A. A. Cathey, Troy Vest, J. T. Hart, Jesse Jones, Chic Sanders, F. M. Pogue and Edith Mullins.

Avenue Opened Here Friday

An improvement characterized by city officials as one of the most badly needed in Lubbock was realized Friday when Texas avenue was opened.

After having been delayed almost a year by controversies and technicalities, a dirt fill was completed at a Fort Worth and Denver railroad switch.

The street still is rough and will be extremely muddy at unpaved portions in time of rain, but city officials predicted this morning that it will be paved before next autumn from Nineteenth street, the end of present paving, southward to its juncture with Avenue H near Thirtieth. The newly opened portion of the thoroughfare is from its former "dead-end" at Twenty-sixth southward.

Must Sign Contracts

A federal WPA allocation for the paving already has been made for the paving, but otherwise, officials explained, the improvement must start from the beginning. Property owners must sign contracts asking that the paving be done and then curb, gutter and caliche base work must be completed before the actual surfacing can be done.

The paving, however, probably will be placed ahead of some of the other projects in the city because of Texas avenue's new importance as a major artery into the business district from highways and from residential areas in the south and southwestern parts of the city, officials said.

Started Last Summer

Active effort to bring about the actual opening of the street was started by the city commission early last summer. The first step was the purchase of a right-of-way on that portion of the newly opened thoroughfare which curves from Texas at Twenty-eighth to the juncture with Avenue H. Texas and H are parallel streets one block apart.

Attempts then to open the street were blocked by George E. Smith, head of Smith Implement company, owner of property which extended from a front on Avenue H across Texas. Opening of the street, he contended, cuts his property in two, leaves one small triangular section which is virtually without value to him and cuts off the main yard and buildings of the business from a railroad loading platform.

Lost In Proceedings

Smith was loser in condemnation proceedings brought by the city in county court. A jury there directed that he be paid $200 for the portion of his property used for the street. His suit against the city for approximately $27,000 damages subsequently was filed by his attorney, Benjamin Kucera, and is pending in county court.

Further delay was caused by the time-taking technicality of securing a right-of-way from the Fort Worth and Denver over the switch crossing Texas a short distance south of Twenty-sixth.

Three Accomplishments Cited

Three major accomplishments the opening is expected by officials to bring about include:

Relief of congestion on Avenue H by providing the new through outlet into the business district.

Relief of congestion on Nineteenth street by enabling traffic bound for the south and southwest residential sections to reach their destinations by routings south of Nineteenth.

And the encouragement of improvements in large residential sections which, in the past, have been difficult of accessibility.

Lubbock Man Is Convicted In Robbery Of Carlsbad Store

CARLSBAD, N. M., April 22. (Special)—Echoing a robbery of a grocery store Sept. 24, formal sentence will be pronounced on John R. Morris of Lubbock, convicted here Wednesday.

Morris sought to prove he had not been in Carlsbad at the time of the robbery, but admitted being here later in the night.

Walter Bryan identified Morris as the unmasked bandit who entered the store and robbed the cash register while confused customers looked on, believing a joke was being perpetrated.

Twenty dollars in pennies subsequently had been found on Morris by Oklahoma City police, but Morris said a Lubbock brother who owns peanut machines had given the money to him.

Shirley Temple Will Get A Fortune 11 Years From Today; Extent Unknown

By ROBBIN COONS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD — Eleven years from Saturday, which is her ninth birthday anniversary, Shirley Temple will come into a fortune.

How great a fortune is a riddle. All her earnings—minus expenses and taxes—are being saved for her in trust funds and annuities.

Has Sealed Contract

Nobody besides the Temples and their immediate circle knows exactly what Shirley makes. Shirley has a "sealed contract."

But Mrs. Temple admits freely that Shirley is in the 70 per cent income tax bracket, and that last year every cent the child received for endorsements—dresses, dolls, books, and so on—went to the government, plus $20 extra from her film earnings.

Greatest Since Coogan

Everybody else having guessed—and wrongly, Mrs. Temple insists—I will guess too: Shirley's gross income is around $650,000, her taxable income after deductions around $500,000, and her taxes—or receipts from endorsements—around $360,000. She gets at least $100,000 a picture. (Hollywood figures it's closer to $125,000.)

Shirley is the greatest child star since Jackie Coogan, who left the screen with $2,000,000 in the bank. The Coogan fortune, by investment, increased substantially through the years. (His recent suit against his parents set the present figure at $4,000,000.) But Shirley, who may earn as much as Jackie did, probably won't have that much in the end. Taxes, you know.

Shirley was three when she first faced a camera, but she was five before she got a contract at $150 a week. She was six before her salary approached her importance at the box-office, and seven before it attained real "big money" proportions. At nine she has two and one-half years to go on her present contract.

It's Up To Shirley

Then what?

"As I've always said," Shirley's mother affirms, "the moment Shirley seems to be tiring of picture work she will stop it. As long as she enjoys it, and the public wants her to, Mr. Temple and I will let her keep on. We haven't any definite plans for her next few years—those will depend on Shirley."

Many in Hollywood believe that Shirley, if she wishes, can continue as a star right through the "awkward age."

Recently the Temples refused an offer of $10,000 a week—for 26 weeks—for personal appearances by Shirley. They likewise rejected $100,000 for radio work. They think pictures are enough. The "endorsement money" doesn't require any work on Shirley's part.

Shirley at nine is in grade 5B, a year ahead of her age level. She lives in a pleasant, unpretentious Brentwood home, which doesn't boast a guest room. It has a swimming pool, in which Shirley is just learning to swim. The household includes a housekeeper, a chauffeur and bodyguard, a cook, a part-time gardener, and a high school boy who helps take care of Shirley's extensive collection of pets.

Shirley's Charities

Shirley knows now that she's famous—but the realization has come so gradually that it hasn't affected her. Mrs. Temple has stressed—as part of her "unspoiled Shirley" system—the thought that Shirley is applauded for hard work she's done, not because she is a glamor child.

As tight-lipped about their charities as about Shirley's earnings, the Temples nevertheless devote a substantial part of their income to helping others. A boy's camp is supported each Summer by Shirley.

In the past year Shirley's most important acquisition has been a new coiffure.

Plans For Entertainment Of Dallas Visitors Are Made

Plans were partially completed Friday morning for the program to be followed when a Dallas goodwill delegation visits Lubbock Wednesday, said J. H. Beasley and Ed D. Allen, co-chairmen of the good neighbor committee of the chamber of commerce.

F. Z. Williams, chairman of the visiting delegation, advised that their special train will arrive here at 4:20 p. m. and will depart at midnight. They will parade from their special through the business district to Broadway and Avenue K, where a portion of the street will be roped off. In the line of march will be the official band of the trippers and one representing Lubbock.

A platform will be erected at the roped off section of the street from which a program will be presented by the visitors. Numbers will be given by radio performers who are members of the party. Alex Kees, program director of radio station WFAA of Dallas will be master of ceremonies.

The program during the remainder of their stay is yet to be completed. One plan contemplated, however, was disclosed as being a night program by the visitors, probably at Senior High school auditorium.

District Winners Compete In Regional Meet At Canyon

Victors in district Interscholastic league contests conducted the last two weekends at Texas Technological college will compete today in the regional meet at Canyon.

Students from various schools in the 14 counties in this district will enter. Thirty students from Senior High school, the all-around district champion, will compete.

Winners in the regional meet will compete in the state contests May 6-7.

Child Born Here To 15-Year-Old Mother

If she should need advice in rearing her 7 pounds 4 1-2 ounces daughter born Friday morning at Lubbock sanitarium, Mrs. Robert Pittman, 15-year-old mother of Seminole, can turn to seven grandmothers.

The baby, born at 4:55 o'clock Friday morning, is a member of the fifth generation of the Pittman family and has two grandmothers, four great grandmothers, and one great-great grandmother.

A check of hospitals Friday morning failed to reveal record of birth to any younger mother in Lubbock, one of the larger hospital centers of the state.

The baby's weight was slightly higher than the average for female infants.

Her mother, who reached her last year of high school at the age of 15, sewed baby clothes with the neat stitches she learned last year in home economics classes. The 20-year-old father is a Seminole service station employe.

Youthful motherhood is not unusual in the family. Mrs. Pittman's mother, Mrs. C. L. Wesley of Canyon, became a mother when 18 and a grandmother Friday morning at the age of 34. The paternal grandmother, Mrs. R. W. Pittman of Seminole, became a grandmother the third time Friday morning at the age of 44.

Parents more easily may be companions to their children if they still are young when the children grow up, said the youthful father.

The couple was married when she was 14 and he 19, on April 4, 1937, at Andrews. The mother had made "straight A" grades in school, said one of the grandmothers. She had been promoted from the fourth to the fifth grade after only three weeks in the fourth grade, and she had planned to complete her work in Seminole High school this year by enrolling for both junior and senior classes.

Great-grandmothers of the infant are Mrs. R. M. Pittman of Lafayette, Ga., and Mrs. J. W. Miller of Chloride, Ariz., paternal and Mrs. Dora Folk of Seminole and Mrs. A. J. Clifton of Tatum, N. M., maternal.

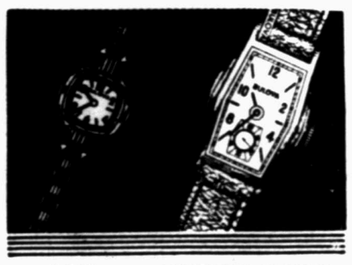

The great-great grandmother is Mrs. W. J. Miller of El Paso, grandmother of Mrs. R. M. Pittman.

The Sahara desert has an area of 3,459,500 square miles, nearly as large as the continent of Europe.

Hubbers Come From Behind To Beat Littlefield 7-4; Play At Amherst Today

Six-Run Sprint In Eighth Is Turning Point

BY COLLIER FARRIS
Avalanche Sports Editor

The Littlefields were getting along famously against the sluggish Hubbers yesterday until the "master minds" of each side started pulling strategy on each other. It worked out very nicely for the Hubbers, who had been sloshing along behind a 3-run deficit, but not so nicely for the Littlefields, who had been doing mighty fine behind the chunking of Slim Lefty Craddock.

But when the firing had ceased in the stormy eighth, the Hubbers were ahead, 7 to 4, and that's the way the exhibition game ended.

Today the Hubbers challenge the same hornet's nest that buzzed so industriously here last Sunday—the Amherst Reds, in the Reds' back yard. The game is to start around 3 o'clock, and big Lefty Bus Dorman, who almost stood the Hubbers on their ears last Sunday, probably will face them again this afternoon.

Except for Joe Gedzius' mighty wallop over the left field wall in the third, Pitcher Craddock had the Hubbers on his hip for the better part of seven innings. They had nicked him for only three hits up to the seventh; he loaded the sacks then, on Mosel's single and passes to Pitcher Casamir Kaliski and Gedzius. But between Mosel's single and Kaliski's walk he had retired Watkins and Stevens. He purposely walked Gedzius, the homer clouter, and the hassocks were occupied.

Minyard To Mound

The score was 4 to 1, favoring Littlefield at the moment, and Al Carr, capable southpaw center fielder who regards lefthanded pitchers in the same light as one John King, was coming up. He had struck out once, waited out a couple of walks, but did not seem a dangerous threat at the moment.

As young Dorsey took Carr's place at the plate for an all-important attempt, Manager Puss Ballard of Tickets for "opening day" of professional baseball in Lubbock go on sale today under the direction of the American Business club.

Members of the club will offer a three-in-one ticket for sale. The pasteboard, costing one dollar, admits one person to the opening day game and to two others on any days except Sundays. Regulation single game tickets sell for 40 cents.

The tickets are also on sale at Bowen's Drug, Jarrett-West Drug, Clark's Drug, Pinson Drug, Hilton and Lubbock hotel cigar stands.

Littlefield waved Craddock from the box and brought in E. Minyard, the righthanded fast ball pitcher who has toiled considerably in these parts.

Well, things worked beautifully right then, because Dorsey hoisted a high fly to Mueller in left to end the inning and keep Littlefield ahead.

But the left-handed Hubber sluggers welcomed Minyard with a barrage of basehits, including a home run over the right wall by Mosel, in the eighth, and that's where Manager Ballard's strategy went wrong. The Hubbers scored six times that frame as the bat went around once and two over. It required another lefthander, Hoffman, to finally get the Hubbers out.

Kaliski Fares Well

Once more the Hubber outfit was caught rocking on its heels, not anticipating the kind of game the semi-pros play in these parts. Pitcher Kaliski turned in a fair job of chunking, although giving up one hit in every inning—no more, no less. He struck out batters in every inning, too—a total of 13 for the afternoon, and made but one costly mistake—that was when he tossed his change of pace at Ballard, one of the smartest and most capable ball players who ever came down the pikes to play ball around here. Ballard swung into it, and the ball cleared the left field wall. Catcher Bennett of Amherst was on base, Pope Mize having missed his lazy fly to right which had allowed Boots White to score. That untied the 1-1 deadlock and gave the Littlefields the lead they nursed up to the eighth.

The Hubber defense was ragged and spotty, three of the choice players—Thirdbaseman Taylor, Shortstop Gedzius and Outfielder Mize—making bobbles that a bit more hustle would have prevented.

Lumpkin, first up for Littlefield, singled to right. Jack Thompson, Lubbock semi-pro hero of seasons past, struck out. White was safe when Gedzius booted one. Bennett flied to Mosel at first and Ballard walked to fill the bases. Kaliski then, to make it a complete first inning, hit Al Mueller to force in Lumpkin. Bus Dorman, playing a great defensive game in right field for Littlefield after pitching a great game for Amherst here last Sunday, grounded to Gedzius to end the weird start.

Ballard Leads Hitters

Lubbock didn't get its first run until the third when Gedzius smacked his homer. The bases were unoccupied and two were out.

Ballard had a perfect day at bat for his Littlefields, walking twice, hitting safely three times, including his homer and a double.

Manager Miller of Lubbock led his side in hitting with a brace of singles, scoring on Mosel's tee-shot over the fence in the eighth.

It was the consensus of fans, not many of whom turned out, that the Hubbers would have to show a lot of improvement by Sunday if they expect to hold the walloping Borger semi-pros down to a decent score.

The Sunday game, starting at 3:30, marks the close of the exhibition season here.

Ponies And Aggies Split Two-Header

DALLAS, April 22. (AP)—Southern Methodist university and Texas A. and M. halved a double-header baseball tussle here today, the Mustangs taking the first game 9 to 6 and dropping the nightcap 1 to 0.

Big Billy Dewell, S.M.U.'s right handed ace, allowed but one hit through the first six innings of the second game. Williams, Aggie first baseman, doubled in the seventh and scored the winning run on successive sacrifices by Nolen and Bell, after he stole second.

Cooper High Wins Baseball Tilt From Roosevelt, 18-6

Cooper High school pounded out 18 sound base hits Friday afternoon to defeat Roosevelt, 18 to 6, on the Cooper diamond.

It was the first game for the Pirates and the second loss in three starts for Roosevelt in the Lubbock County league. Lefty Huckabee was in rare form to limit the visitors to four hits although errors by the Cooper lads allowed a half dozen runners to cross the platter for Roosevelt.

Wayne Richardson, Cooper catcher, connected for four bingles in as many trips to the plate. Montgomery hit safely twice in three attempts for the invaders.

Roosevelt chased all their runs across in the fifth inning on one hit, passes and errors. Searcy hurled for the losers and Weaver caught. Cooper scattered scoring over every inning.

It's Nice To Be On Uncle Sam's Walker Cup Team

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—It would pay one-third of Joe DiMaggio's salary, but $9,000 still is a lot of money. It also is a fairly accurate estimate of how much it will cost the United States Golf association to send its 1938 Walker Cup team to Scotland and bring them all home again.

The team, captained by Francis Ouimet and including eight others, will sail for England at midnight, May 10, aboard the Bremen. They'll play in the British amateur that opens at Deal May 23 and the Walker Cup matches at St. Andrews, Scotland, June 3-4.

The U.S.G.A. foots all the bills for its internationalists. Therefore the golfing fathers are grateful to Captain Ouimet and Billows for living no farther away than Boston and Poughkeepsie, N. Y., Their budget will help balance those of such long-distance travellers as Marvin (Bud) Ward of Olympia, Wash.; Reynolds Smith of Dallas, Amateur Champion Johnny Goodman Omaha, Fred Haas, jr., of New Orleans, Charley Yates of Atlanta, Johnny Fischer of Cincinnati and Charles (Chuck) Koesis of Detroit.

All You Do Is Play

The average outlay of $1,000 a man includes round-trip railroad fare and pullman accommodations to New York; $5 a day travelling expenses; first-class steamship passage; passport and passport photographs; railroad fares and sleepers in England; $10 a day for May 10 and June 14, the two days spent in New York; hotel accommodations and meals while abroad, tips all along the line and a cash allowance while in England to cover caddie fees and incidentals.

The only bill the players are asked to pay is the $10 entry fee for the British amateur championship.

The only thing the U.S.G.A. does not provide for are extra-curricular excursions.

The U.S.G.A. will give the cup defenders a send-off the night they sail at a small, private dinner to be attended by team members, the executive committee and past presidents.

Longhorns Trounce Baylor Nine, 5-0

WACO, April 22. (AP)—John Garnett, University of Texas southpaw, turned back Baylor with one scratch hit here today as the Longhorns outclassed the Bears 5 to 0 in the opening of their crucial Southwest conference series.

The teams play here again tomorrow.

Billy Patterson, Baylor center fielder, ruined Garnett's perfect pitching performance by shoving a single through the infield. The Steer sophomore also had a big day at the bat with a triple, double and single in five appearances.

Tom Fine, fireball artist, was in the box for Baylor and was nicked for 11 safeties by the Bovines, one of them a home run by Hill, slugging first sacker.

Horned Frogs Take Two From Owls

FORT WORTH, April 22. (AP)—TCU took both ends of a doubleheader from Rice here today, winning the first game behind Durward Horner, 6-0, and the second behind Paul Tankersley, 4-3.

Horner allowed but one hit and fanned five while issuing only one walk.

Tankersley was in trouble in the final inning when the bases were filled with one in and two down but a good play by Ralph Corbett, Frog second baseman ended the game. Both games were 7 innings by agreement.

Hot Putter Eliminates Paul Leslie In Southern Joust

ATHENS, Ga., April 22. (AP)—The game of golf has produced many "hot" putters, but today Tommy Barnes of Georgia Tech was "king of the greens."

The slender Georgia youngster dropped putts from all angles and distances in a 3 and 1 quarter-final triumph over Paul Leslie, Louisiana State university's favored delegate.

That convincing victory over the tournament medalist sent Barnes into the semi-finals of the fourth annual Southern Intercollegiate golf championship. Tomorrow the Georgia Tech captain will play Bill Haverstick, sophomore from Swarthmore.

Red Raiders Parade In Preview Before Small Crowd Here

World premiere of the 1938 Red Raider football team Friday night at Texas Tech field, corner of Eighth street and College Avenue, gave a handful of Raider fans first-hand observation on what to expect this fall.

Director P. W. Cawthon furnished the talking sequences, the Red Raider band the music. Members of the Matador club were in the orchestra pit, next the sidelines, guests of the team.

Short subjects included calisthenics and introduction of players by Cawthon. Over-conditioning of air in the arena cut short the crowd midway in the program.

The Double Feature

A double feature polished off the night's program, four teams battling in regular scrimmage. Second and third squads opened play, then gave way to the first and third teams.

Little in the way of superior strength could be said of either team, although the second stringers pushed over a pair of touchdowns within 20 minutes of play. The preview did, however, convince witnesses that arduous study will be necessary to learn names of all the newcomers.

Up from the freshman team are a score of boys ready to step into the breach as evidenced by their hard tackling, deadly blocking, and ball toting Friday night.

The Raiders tackle Sul Ross Teachers in the same playhouse as a climax to their spring training next Saturday night. Then they will pack their moleskins away to await the roadshow season this fall.

Tech Netters Beat New Mexico, 5-1

The largest crowd of the tennis season watched Texas Tech's racqueteers pound out a 5 to 1 victory over the University of New Mexico on the varsity courts at Tech Friday morning.

The Red Raiders lost but four sets while dropping one singles match. They copped both doubles settos.

Wilson Chapman, elongated Border conference champion, outstroked Burnet, New Mexico No. 1 player, in straight sets, 9-7, 6-4. Sidney Moore, Tech sophomore star, topped Conroy, 6-4, 6-2, and Harry Jordan gained the third Raider singles triumph, defeating Thompson, 6-3, 6-2.

Rowe, New Mexico, beat Aubrey McCarty, 2-6, 7-5, 6-4.

With a convincing margin in the third set Moore and Jordan defeated Burnet and Conroy, 6-4, 2-6, 6-1. Chapman and McCarty ended the matches with a victory over Thompson and Rowe, 6-3, 6-2.

Texans Figure Strongly In Kansas Relays

LAWRENCE, Kas., April 22. (AP)—Hundreds of young athletes from 21 universities, 30 colleges and a dozen junior colleges converged on Lawrence tonight, determined to take a tuck in a few records at the sixteenth Kansas Relays tomorrow.

Interest centered on the special mile race involving Glenn Cunningham, Archie San Romani, Don Lash and Gene Venzke, with a new world record rated a possibility and a new meet record a probability. Cunningham set the track mark of 4:12.7 in 1934.

Last year's relay victories were split among only five schools due to monopolistic tendencies on the part of the University of Indiana and North Texas Teachers.

Rideout Twins Present

Indiana brought in another strong team this year, with Don Lash and sprinter Bob Collier the only 1937 stars missing. North Texas is a rugged contender again, with the Rideout twins, Wayne and Blaine, the standouts.

Renewal of a broad jump feud between Hubbard of Minnesota and Atchison of Texas will be watched with interest. Hubbard edged out Atchison by one-fourth of an inch a year ago with a leap of 24 feet 1 3-4 inches.

The speedy 100-yard dash field hardly can hope to touch the meet record of :09.4 set by Leland of Texas in 1930. Wolcott of Rice, Toribio of Oklahoma, Greer of Michigan State, Verran of Minnesota and Burrus of Oklahima A. & M. all better 10 seconds. Wolcott has a :09.6 century to his credit.

Entries included five from Texas Tech.

Slaughter Loses In 20-Hole Match At Mineral Wells

MINERAL WELLS, April 22 (AP)—Obie Bristow, Big Spring star, bowled aside two favorites today in the Mineral Wells invitation golf tournament, while other upsets interested good-sized galleries.

Bristow whipped the medalist, Roy Farrell of Vernon, 4-3, in the morning round and by the same margin eliminated Bob Alexander of Munday in the afternoon.

Iverson Martin, prime favorite of the tournament, wilted before the sub-par golf of Raymond Woodson, Mineral Wells city champion, 3 and 2. Martin previously defeated Dean Wood of Mineral Wells 8 and 7.

A large crowd watched Jo Dick Slaughter, Lubbock, and Gidd Faircloth of Ranger go 2 holes before Faircloth won with a birdie. The winner was one down at 17, won the next, halved the next with a birdie and slipped in another bird while Slaughter worked out of a trap.

Pairings tomorrow: Bristow and Faircloth; Woodson and Frank Foxall of Vernon; James Dixon of Crowell and Buddy Wheeler of Seymour; Saxon Judd of Vernon and Doug Jones of Big Spring.

of labor to bargain with the corporations.

Long a crusader for strict enforcement of adequate anti-trust laws Borah fought a conspicuous battle for inclusion of an acceptable plank on monopoly in the Republican platform of 1936.

Licensing Act Introduced

A corporate licensing act was introduced more than a year ago by Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo). When, just before the convening of the present session of congress, administration officials delivered a series of addresses on monopoly, Borah and O'Mahoney got their heads together and worked out a revised version of the bill to prohibit issuance of a license to any corporation which is a trust, or combination in violation of the anti-trust laws, or which is a party to any contract, or combination, or conspiracy in restraint of free competition. Without a license a corporation could not do interstate business, either directly or indirectly.

Borah has said many times he thought the present anti-trust laws, if rigidly enforced, were sufficient to meet the situation.

dreds of tons of slate and earth had been spilled in the shattered entries.

Flames Shoot Out

Witnesses said flames shot 200 feet from the mouth. Seven motorists going along a nearby road were endangered by the explosion which shook their automobiles.

The mine, opened last fall, employs 300 men normally and is one of the largest operations in this mountainous section.

(In Pittsburgh, J. J. Forbes, district chief of the U. S. bureau of mines, said he was informed the blast occurred at the time shifts were changing around 4:30 p. m. He said reports that smoke and flame came from the mine's mouth indicated a "widespread explosion.")

At 8:30 o'clock, four hours after the blast whipped through the entries, company officials said rescue crews had been assembled and were ready to start through the smoke and deadly fumes.

George Dupree, jr., will be host at a dinner for senior electrical engineering students of Texas Technological college at 7 o'clock tonight at his home at 2314 Seventeenth street.

The yen of a 10-year-old boy for a yo-yo, those string and wood contraptions that jump out at the public from almost every doorway these days, was so great he reached out and grabbed one. He was hailed before police after a shoplifting complaint had been voiced by a variety store. No disposition had been announced.

After hearing of testimony Friday in the case of Ben Eskridge against John McKinzie, suit for damages, Judge J. J. Dillard of county court took the decision under advisement.

"Every person in Lubbock county interested in helping the state's aged in receiving the full amount of $30 a month" is asked to meet in the district courtroom of the county courthouse at 1:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, according to announcement Friday. Homesteads should be rendered for tax purposes before the April 30 deadline, said H. B. Bryan, county tax assessor-collecter, who pointed out exemptions thus might be obtained as allowed by law.

Three Are Dead After Shooting

CLEVELAND, April 22. (AP)—Two men and a woman were shot to death today by a 43-year-old negro, who police said apparently went suddenly insane.

Police listed the victims as H. Getslaff, 33, Mitchell Paser, and Lily Traylor, about 24, a negro maid.

The two men were killed in a fashionable apartment within 15 minutes after the woman was thrown from the slayer's car near the apartment building.

Police captured the slayer after an 80-mile-an-hour automobile chase which ended in a gasoline filling station lot.

William Peters, 43, was booked.

Police said Peters' wife, Annabelle, had been an elevator operator at the apartment for 14 years but was discharged last week and they believed the shooting was due to Peters' resentment of the discharge.

Getslaff was the building custodian and Paser the engineer.

Before the police were able to leave their motorcycles, McDonald leaped from the automobile and escaped in the underbrush which covers a large section of the hill slopes in this area.

The woman was taken into custody and brought to the county jail. She said she was the wife of McDonald, having married him four months ago. She told officers McDonald wanted her to flee with him, but this she refused to do.

She also admitted, the officers' written report states, that she was with McDonald two weeks ago when he escaped in a running gun battle with police in Wichita Falls. Bullet holes in the car corroborated this statement, the officers said.

Should Go To Motorists

IT is regrettable that a new road map to be distributed to captains of the state highway patrol will not be made available also to the motoring public.

In many respects, it will be a gruesome document. Tombstone markers will be used to indicate those spots where fatal accidents have occurred. Skull and cross bones will denote those stretches of highway where speeding has been discovered to be most prevalent.

Probabilities are that such maps in general circulation might prevent many accidents; might save many lives. Certainly the very gruesomeness of the markers would cause an avid examination by most persons. Taken as a class, the type of persons to whom it would exert the most morbid appeal would be those most likely to drive recklessly. It might even make them do a little thinking, though that is doubtful.

Just why the map will not be distributed more widely is not clear. Probably the expense of printing them in large numbers has been an important consideration. If that is the reason, we believe that the vast majority of taxpayers would approve an expenditure for that purpose.

Was Fate Really Kind?

ONE is inclined to wonder whether fate has been kind to the two men in death cells at Huntsville who were given another week of life because of an electrical failure in the "chair."

If it should happen that new evidence may be discovered to win freedom or further reprieve for either of the men, the question will have been answered. If that should happen, deeply religious people everywhere will be convinced that interference in behalf of the men came from God. They will recall the statement of one of the men that he was praying that something would happen to the death chair. They will forget that probably the last thought of every man who has been strapped in that seat has been a last prayer that something still might happen to save him.

The possibility that something may happen again to save the men is so remote as to be almost non-existant. Every possible recourse already has been exhausted in their behalf. There is no reason to suppose that any of those agencies may now change their minds. And we may be sure that the electrical equipment will be in working order next time.

Thus, for a second time, the two men likely must steel themselves for a death march. They will see their hopes diminish day by day, hour by hour and finally, second by second. Their final disappointment will be all the keener because of the very fact that once they had been saved. Theirs indeed will be an agonizing week of waiting.

No one, of course, begrudges them another week of life. Something might happen. But the probabilities are that if they do have to pay the penalty, dying will be less terrifying than their final days of living.

WHAT IS A BERRY?

President Roosevelt's Story Of The New Deal

Article No. 24: How The Administration Attacked Labor Problems

SOON after the enactment of the National Industrial Recovery act, it became apparent that some agency would have to be set up to handle the labor disputes which were continually arising.

In order to meet that need, I appointed the first National Labor board on August 5, 1933. Its function was to consider, adjust and settle differences and controversies that might arise through differing interpretations of the labor provisions of the codes, or the President's Reemployment agreement.

The board soon found it necessary to expand its activities, in order to take care of the large number of disputes which were arising under Section 7-A of the National Industrial Recovery act, which provided for collective bargaining between employer and employees.

Twenty Boards Established

The board established 20 regional boards, composed of representatives of labor and industry, with representatives of the public as impartial chairmen, to adjust cases and hold hearing in the regions where the controversies arose. In this way the cases could be expedited; and the parties involved could avoid the burden of coming to Washington.

There were several flagrant cases of defiance of the board by large employers of labor. To strengthen the hand of the board, my executive order of December 6 gave it the right to adjust all industrial disputes arising out of the operation of the President's Reemployment agreement or the various codes, and to compose all conflicts threatening the industrial peace of the country.

Subsequent executive orders approved and ratified the previous orders of the board, and gave it specific authority to hold elections to determine the employee's choice of representatives for the purpose of collective bargaining with their employers, and to publish the names of such chosen representatives.

Board Given More Authority

The board was further authorized to present its findings of violations of Section 7-A to the Attorney-General for possible prosecution. During the existence of this first National Labor board, to July 9, 1934, it settled 1,019 strikes involving 644,200 employees, and was successful in averting strikes in 498 cases involving 481,600 employees.

The first National Labor board, therefore, had a decidedly beneficial effect on labor relations and on recovery in general, by saving money and preventing industrial strife and suffering, through peaceful settlement of disputes. It was equally valuable in providing experience for later federal legislation in connection with labor relations.

New Board Created

(Editor's Note—A number of seperate labor boards, each charged with jurisdiction over labor relations in a given industry, were also created during the life of N. R. A. Industries thus specifically covered included bituminous coal, petroleum, newspapers, textiles generally and cotton, silk, and wool separately, longshoremen on the Pacific coast, and steel.

(To put this new machinery of the government "upon a firm statutory basis," the National Labor board was discontinued and a new "National Labor Relations board" created on June 29, 1934, by executive order. Its first chairman was Lloyd Garrison of Wisconsin.

The appointment of the board for the iron and steel industry, the concurrence of both the employers and workers in accepting its good offices, and the general terms of its powers, had the effect of preventing a general strike in this field.

However, the National Labor Relations board made a study and concluded that separate boards for the various industries were not desirable. They reported that it was preferable to have one impartial national board to determine, in the last instance and subject only to court review, all labor questions; and that sub-agencies should handle the cases in the first instance in the various regions and localities.

The first National Labor Relations board commenced operations on July 9, 1934. Under its procedure, complaints of violations of Section 7-A of N. I. R. A. were filed with the various regional boards which were continued from the days of the old National Labor board. Attempt was then made to adjust the matter by mediation; if that failed, a hearing was held.

Law Is Invoked

FINDINGS of fact were made, and if there was refusal by the employer to comply, the case was forwarded to the national board in Washington, which after further oral argument, or submission of briefs, or in some cases, further reading, issued its decisions. If no compliance resulted the cases would be sent to the Attorney-General for prosecution and to the Compliance division of the N. R. A. with a recommendation that the employer's Blue Eagle be revoked.

The life of the National Labor Relations board was extended to August 27, 1935, although, of course, the active work of the Board ceased immediately upon the decision of the Supreme court of the United States on May 27, 1935, declaring Title I of the N. I. R. A. unconstitutional.

The record of the accomplishments of this Board again clearly proved the beneficial effect of federal intervention in the field of labor relations, and the necessity of a government board for this purpose.

Wagner Act

(Editor's Note — The Supreme court decision in the Schechter case struck all federal labor legislation a body blow. Many labor cases were included in the 411 NRA code cases dismissed by the Attorney-General after the decision. Seven labor boards became immediately inoperative.

(At a conference with legislative leaders, the President suggested the passage of the Wagner act to set up new labor tribunals. Meanwhile some of the national labor boards' functions were continued by the Department of Labor and by the skeleton NRA, as described below.)

In order to remove any doubt as to whether the Supreme court decision affected the jurisdiction of the National Labor Relations board, my executive order of June 15 was issued, reestablishing it and fixing its functions and duties under the Senate resolution extending a skeleton N. R. A.

On August 24, 1935, the board set up by the National Labor Relations (Wagner) act was created.

This act was the result of the cumulative experience of many years with various methods of government dealing with labor relations, which extended as far back as 1888 when the congress provided for the investigation of railroad labor disputes threatening to interrupt interstate commerce.

Other Information Available

In more recent years, since March 4, 1933, there had been the experience of the National Labor board, the first National Labor Relations board, and the separate labor boards for different industries.

This new statute provides for a new National Labor Relations board of three members to administer the act. It again asserts the rights of employees to bargain collectively through representatives of their own choosing.

It defines as an unfair labor practice any act by an employer to interfere with, restrain or coerce employees in the exercise of such rights, or to interfere with labor organziations or discriminate against members thereof, or to refuse to bargain collectively with the representatives of his employees.

Administration Of Act

UNDER the act the board has two main functions: (1) to prevent unfair labor practices affecting interstate commerce; and (2) to investigate any controversy affecting interstate commerce which has arisen concerning the representation of employees and to certify the representatives that have been selected.

About the beginning of October, 1935, after the completion of its organization and the appointment of its staff, the board began to accept cases. Two types were submitted: charges that employers had engaged in one or more of the unfair labor practices designated by the Act; and petitions for investigation and certification of representatives of the employees.

In the 27 months ending December 31, 1937, the National Labor Relations board handled 11,179 cases, covering 2,997,826 workers. These figures include action on charges of unfair labor practices and petitions for elections received by the board and its 22 regional offices.

Of all cases acted upon, 7,760 or approximately two-thirds were closed, leaving 3,419 cases pending on January 1, 1938. Of these 7,760 cases, 4,440 were closed by agreement of both parties, involving 1,046,326 workers.

The board handled 1,256 strike cases, involving 234,749 workers, and of these 957 were settled and 165,278 workers were reinstated after strikes or lockouts. Through the board's action 489 threatened strikes, involving 125,243 workers, were averted.

There were 948 elections held in which 339,373 valid votes were cast.

An analysis of the causes of complaints show that 3,501 of the cases which came before the board and its regional offices in the 27 months of its operation, concerned Section 8 (3) of the act, which makes it an unfair labor practice to discriminate against workers because of their union affiliation or activities.

In 2,481 cases the main cause of complaint was based upon Section 8 (5) of the act, the failure of the employer in good faith to bargain collectively with the representatives chosen by the employees to deal with the management.

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

WHEN the president wrests three more reforms from Congress, he will feel that he has finished the really serious spade work of building a permanent New Deal structure. His closest aides have slipped that word to key men on Capitol Hill.

Mr. Roosevelt figures that he still requires a tax system forcing capital to distribute profits more generously so as to maintain buying power—which explains his insistence on enactment of the House revenue bill. He wants new legislation breaking up monopolistic price arrangements, as a sharp message in preparation will reveal. He demands at least a gesture toward laying a floor under hourly wages and fixing a maximum work week. The bill recently reported in the House fits that description. It's only a feeble beginning.

The President is desperately anxious to obtain these grants before adjournment, suspecting that the next Congress may be even more hostile than the Seventy-fifth. That would also enable him to campaign in the fall as having won every essential point in his original program. It would likewise permit him to consolidate his lines and coast along quietly while preparing for the 1940 showdown.

LEVIES: Congressional listeners take these professions with a liberal dose of political salt. They suspect that the Rooseveltians are making a virtue of necessity, presenting an alibi for the 1937-1938 series of reverses on Capitol Hill.

But F.D.R.'s bright young men present plausible arguments from their standpoint. They insist the New Deal influence will persist—"live permanently" is their phrase—on the basis of five major reforms. The agencies counted on to continue Mr. Roosevelt's philosophy are, in the order of importance, the S.E.C., the N.L.R.B., the A.A.A., the S.S.B., the T.V.A. and Holding Company act. These bodies, they maintain, will redistribute wealth in a broad, general fashion, furnish security to the masses, work economic wonders, right ancient wrongs.

New laws taxing the wealthy and destroying monopolies, however, are needed to round out the program. Those measures are relied upon to force capital to pay the bills—work relief outlays, farm subsidies, Social Security benefits, pump priming. Like everything else, the New Deal needs money to make it go.

CONFLICT: Secretary Ickes' refusal to approve the sale of helium to Germany is rapidly becoming a serious international problem. Foreign diplomats and correspondents regard it as a test of the administration's attitude toward "dictators", especially in view of the joint Roosevelt-Ickes attack on them.

Backing Hitler are the American State department, the chairman of Secretary Roper's Air Commerce Planning committee—Col. R. G. Elbert of New York—important aviation and commercial interests. Der Fuehrer, using every American agency at all amenable, has turned on terrific heat. In Mr. Ickes' corner are Congressional constituents shocked at Hitler's methods, including Catholics, Protestants and Jews. Liberals will yell if F.D.R. sanctions the sale after refusing to invoke the Neutrality act on behalf of the Chinese or Spanish loyalists. G.O.P.-ers will also make an issue of it in anti-German centers.

Mr. Ickes will not sign the contract unless the President orders him to do so. The cabinet member relies on the section of the law forbidding export if it is found that helium has a "military importance", and on the testimony of navy and army officers that the gas answers that description. So it's up to F.D.R. himself.

THRUST: Railroad labor and management might eventually come to terms on the vexing problem of wage cuts. But the shadow of John L. Lewis falls over their deliberations at the White House and elsewhere. In the past they have solved the question by agreement.

Now the C.I.O. chieftain has his eye on the rich and powerful brotherhood organizations. He would like to enroll them in his army as he prepares for a political putsch next fall and in 1940. It would strengthen him enormously in his battle with the Democratic machine in Pennsylvania. Therefore, the railroad labor heads, some of whom face reelection this year, must watch their step. For them to submit to pay cuts at this particular time might drive their followers into Lewis' arms. It might also cost them their cushy jobs.

Mr. Lewis has made no overt move to gather the railroad unions into his arms, but everybody knows he would relish this thrust at William Green's outfit. Moreover, certain minority groups seeking to oust the brotherhoods' present leadership have flirted with the C.I.O.-er. And a wage slash might furnish the signal for a labor controversy in this important sector.

PARTED: Presidents can't—or don't—solve their problems by holding a plebiscite of their immediate advisers. But if Mr. Roosevelt should follow that system, it is probable that a majority would vote against his new pump priming and inflationary program. Here is how his most important aides are supposed to line up:

For:- Ickes, Hopkins, Eccles, Cohen, Corcoran, Perkins.

Against:- Garner, Morgenthau, Wallace, Hull, Roper, Jones, Farley.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

A committee has been working hard behind the scenes to dope out a formula for reducing the number of memberships in the New York Stock Exchange. Everyone agrees that 1375 members is altogether too many under present-day conditions. The problem is to squeeze out several hundred of them with minimum anguish to all concerned.

RESISTANCE: President Roosevelt's proposal to abolish the tax exemption feature of future issues of Treasury securities is not new, but never before has it been treated so seriously in high quarters.

Banks are chief buyers of government issues these days. Removing the exemption would have about the same affect as reducing the yield on federal bonds 3-8 of 1 per cent. Therefore future offerings would have to carry coupons that much higher to maintain market parity with outstanding issues. The latter would presumably go to a sharp premium. The adjustment might be a bit difficult for the Treasury, but would be easier to handle now, when money rates are low, than at a time when rates are high.

F.D.R. made no mention of state and municipal tax-exempt securities, which are the real heart of the problem. There will be strenuous political resistance to any attempt to eliminate the feature which is their chief attraction to investors.

COG: Great Britain's "shadow factories"—an experiment begun two years ago to speed up production of war supplies—are proving a success. Each of them is erected adjacent to another permanent factory and is operated by the same management.

The government foots the bill for construction and retains title to the land, buildings and machinery. It also pays the wages of the workers and buys the finished product. The factory owners furnish the material. When the government is stocked up on the products of a "shadow factory", operations are curtailed to a minimum and the men are sent to another plant.

The idea was first tried out in auto and airplane parts factories and is now being extended to munitions plants. So far His Majesty's government has sunk upwards of $1,500,000,000 in the 14 "shadow factories" now in existance. The plan is not compulsory and more than one big industrialist has turned it down. However, it is proving to be an important cog in Britain's rearmament program and industrial mobilization scheme.

The high-pressure Japanese military clique is finding more and more difficulty in selling the war—as a national life insurance policy—to the Japanese Diet, in view of the prohibitive premiums.

Side Glances---By George Clark

"Hadn't we better start for home? It's two-thirty and our host has gone to bed."

The Plainsman Says:

That Girl on Broadway says human beings are funny. If you tell a man there are 306,997,864,347 stars, he'll believe you; but if he sees a sign reading "fresh paint" he has to make a personal investigation.

"Mama," asked Willie, "can I go to the zoo to see the monkeys?"

"The very idea!" snapped the mother. "Imagine wanting to go to the zoo to see the monkeys when your Aunt Betsy is visiting us!"

DON'T let anyone tell you that the thriving, inviting little New Mexico city of Carlsbad has outgrown the oldfashioned Western Hospitality.

No, sir!

The folks over there are so hospitable that husbands are being loaned to members of the Southeastern New Mexico Teachers association for a dance honoring that organization in the Caverns City Saturday night.

* * *

It seems that hospitable Carlsbad arranged for an orchestra and a hall for a big dance to close the teachers' convention there and then realized, after invitations had been accepted, that there would be more "she" school teachers than there would be "he" pedagogues.

After a bit of head-scratching, the good wives of Carlsbad were approached to help out.

According to the Carlsbad Current-Argus, husbands have been rounded up, scrubbed behind the ears and otherwise prepared for the big party and that wives are gladly "farming 'em out" for the evening.

That's hospitality of the first water!

Only one thing puzzles The Plainsman in connection with the affair:

Either the wives of Carlsbad are belittling the charms of the visiting school marms, or they're too darn sure of their own prestige!

In either case, they're courting danger!

HERE are today's "brain twisters"—another set of true and false questions. Which of the following statements are true—and which aren't?

1. "The Manassa Mauler" was the name given to the first mechanical rock-crusher.

2. An Ionic capital is a seat of government in a time of national distress.

3. Hans Christian Andersen was a Danish writer.

4. "The Tenderloin" refers to a city's area either devoted to amusements or notorious for its vice.

5. William Frederick Cody was an Indian fighter and scout.

6. Only one college in the history of the U. S. has had an enrollment of more than 1,000 students for its opening term.

We see by the papers that President Roosevelt will confer with Henry Ford concerning the state of U. S. business. Maybe a little Model-T horse sense will improve the administration's streamline policies.

BUSINESS men in Littlefield are casting about for better mail connections to the East.

As a matter of fact, a move is on to get the Postoffice department to rearrange a Star route which, it is claimed, will give Littlefield business interests an 18-hour quicker delivery in Chicago and New York, as compared to the present setup.

If the facts are as The Plainsman is advised, it should be an easy matter for the Postoffice department to follow the Littlefield suggestion and certainly it should be followed if at all possible.

Here's the dope, from the Littlefield angle:

At present a morning Star route out of Lubbock goes to Muleshoe and stops there, at 11 a. m., the deliveryman staying in Muleshoe until 4 p. m., when he starts out again.

If the route were extended to Farwell, a distance of approximately 21 miles, mail out of Littlefield would make connections with Santa Fe mainline trains and a great time saving would result.

At present, Littlefield airmail to the North and East goes to Ft. Worth before it gets on a plane. Under the new setup it could reach planes at Amarillo, Albuquerque or El Paso much quicker.

This is a new and growing country and the government should make every effort to accelerate the expansion of our territory. Doubtless there are other chances—not only in mail service but along other lines—which should be made so that all this section can march forward with the least possible resistance.

MISS MARY L. COX, of Plainview, was in Lubbock the other day in the interests of her book, a history of Hale county.

Her presence here reminds us that someone in every South Plains county—some person capable and with the necessary energy and foresight—should write a similar history of his or her county.

In the last decade and a half, this whole country has gone through great changes and before long all living links with the early days will be gone.

The time to compile histories is now.

Do not think that the compilation of a history—even over a half-century and covering but one county—is a cinch.

Miss Cox spent 11 years spare-time research in the compilation of her facts and figures and it must be said to her credit that her book mirrors the fact.

Not only does it contain ordinary historical facts, but it also presents in charts and graphs crop production figures, rainfall data and many other valuable pieces of information not usually found in historical works.

FOR the most part, histories such as Miss Cox's represent the labor of love.

There isn't much money to be made in the work.

Yet for those who seek to leave a lasting mark upon the life of their home-land, The Plainsman can't think of any work which could be called more worthwhile.

It's too bad every county in this section can't have a similar volume.

That Man on Avenue Q says most of us believe in law and order as long as we can lay down the law and give the orders.

Here are the answers to today's "brain twisters":

1. False. "The Manassa Mauler" was the nick-name given to Jack Dempsey during his ring career.

2. False. An Ionic capital is an architectural term.

3. True. Hans Christian Andersen was a Danish writer.

4. True. An amusement or vice area is sometimes referred to as "The Tenderloin."

5. True. William Frederick Cody, better known as "Buffalo Bill," was an Indian fighter and scout.

6. True. Texas Tech is the only college in the United States which opened with more than 1,000 students.

Was A Rheumatic Cripple 5 Months; Gly-Cas Miraculous

Mr. Clemons Finds New Herbal Remedy To Be Just What He Had Needed For Years; Freed Of Awful Suffering

"Gly-Cas is one medicine that does not disappoint with the results it gives," said Mr. R. L. Clemons, Route No. 1, Burlington, Texas, (near Temple). "For twenty-five years I had suffered so badly with rheumatism and lumbago I often wished I was dead. Sciatic rheumatism developed in my left limb and from my knee down it was emaciated and I could only move my toes on my left foot the slightest. The dreadful lumbago would come and go but when the sciatic rheumatism hit me it actually got me clear down and I was an awful cripple. I was confined to bed for five months at one time, unable to do a day's work. My daughter learned of this new Gly-Cas and persuaded me to give it a trial. I too, found Gly-Cas to be just as miraculous in its action as everyone said it would be."

"Gly-Cas actually seemed to give results that were too good to be true," continued Mr. Clemons. "That dreadful rheumatism has been relieved even in the short time I have been taking it. I am again able to do my work, have my former strength and energy and can do as much as when I was twenty-five years younger. My appetite has been restored too, eat like a growboy, and I cannot say half enough for such a remarkable remedy as Gly-Cas."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

TARZAN—THE MAGNIFICENT No. 83 By Edgar Rice Burroughs

"Follow me," Tarzan commanded, and led his companions and the Kaji captains from the castle to the gates of the city, where raged a bloody battle between the warriors of Kaji and Zuli. With a phenomenal leap, the ape-man mounted the high stone ramparts.

Then he held aloft the two sacred gems—the diamond and the emerald—and shouted in a voice of authority. "Mine is the power of the mighty jewels. I command you, cease fighting!" Hardly were the words out of his mouth when the din of battle died.

"There are many of you who wish to go into the outer world," the ape-man resumed. "You may follow us. And you, people of Kaji, you may send with us three warriors. When we are safely out of your land, we shall give them the great diamond to return to you."

"Gee," whispered Spike to Troll; "did you hear that? He's going to give the big rock back to those devils!" "No he won't," snarled Troll; "We'll be set to grab it. Besides, I've got a score to settle with that bossy guy, and it'll take his blood to do it!"

Wall Street . .

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)— Aggressive buying support got behind the stock market today and lifted leading issues 1 to more than 5 points although profit selling chipped down top marks at the close.

Rails touched off the rally in the morning, but other groups soon joined and passed the carriers.

The Associated Press average of 60 issues held a gain of 1.3 points at 40.6. Transfers expanded to 1,116,200 shares compared with 595,240 yesterday. It was the best day's turnover in about two weeks.

Utilities continued to attract a following in response to the administration's friendly gesture in proposing loans for equipment.

Slump in French francs in terms of the dollar proved a negative influence on markets.

Stocks prominent on the rise included U. S. Steel at 46⅝, Bethlehem 50, Allied Chemical 146, Westinghouse 78½, Anaconda 29⅞, Consolidated Edison 21⅝, Chrysler 46, U. S. Rubber 28¼, International Telephone 8⅝, American Telephone 130, Santa Fe 28, Southern Pacific 12½, Sears Roebuck 59¼, Du Pont 103½ and Pullman 28⅞.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, April 22. (AP)—Aided by securities upturns and export purchases of 350,000 bushels from Canada, the Chicago wheat market late today virtually overcame 1¼ cents earlier losses.

Contributing to transient price setbacks was the fact heavy British export takings appeared at first to have consisted altogether of Australian wheat. An additional depressing factor was that no export business from the United States was in evidence. Only negligible damage by last night's frost in Kansas developed, with warmer weather forecast.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were unchanged to ⅜ lower compared with yesterday's finish, May 83⅞@84, July 82@82¼, corn unchanged to ¼ higher, May 59⅛@59⅜, July 61¼, oats unchanged to ¼ up, rye unchanged to ⅜ advance, and provisions unchanged to 7 cents bulge.

Tending further to bring about late rallies were dispatches from R. O. Cromwell, a leading crop specialist, saying the recent freeze had done extensive damage in Texas, and that growing weather might disclose the harm extended into Oklahoma and Kansas.

The Modern Miller, a recognized authority, said: "While official reports tend to minimize early April damage to the Texas crop, our advices indicate that there have been heavy losses in parts of that state."

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, April 22. (AP)—Prospects for early passage of a favorable tax bill and higher securities induced fair buying support in cotton today but full advances were not maintained and the close was steady at net gains of 2 to 5 points.

Private reports from Washington said conferees on the tax bill had agreed on all differences and trade circles believed at least a modification of the undistributed profits levy would be retained in the final draft of the measure.

The buying came from trade sources for fixing purposes and there was more or less covering by shorts for over the weekend. At the best of the day active positions showed advances of 6 to 9 points but subsequent realizing by recent buyers brought partial reactions.

May contracts closed at 9.05, July at 9.11, Oct. at 9.20, Dec. at 9.21, Jan. at 9.23 and March at 9.29.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, April 22. (AP)—Cotton prices advanced slowly today until net gains of 8 to 11 points were touched but reacted under realizing and the close was 2 to 6 points net higher. July which had sold up from 8.96@9.04 closed at 8.98.

Foreign orders were mostly on the buying side and with local and scattered buying promoted by the action of stocks, prices rallied from a narrow opening on moderate demand. Some of the support in new crop deliveries was credited to continued unfavorable weather in the belt.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, April 22. (AP)—The average price of middling cotton today at ten southern spot markets was 8.95 cents a pound, average for the past thirty market days 8.72 cents a pound.

Plans were perfected for Boy Scouts' participation in the city-wide cleanup-paintup campaign in Lubbock May 4-17 at a meeting in scout headquarters in the Myrick building Friday morning, said W. B. Irvin, general chairman.

Hugh Anderson, assistant county attorney, was named chairman of the nail pickup May 14, climaxing event of scout participation in the campaign.

As was the case last year, the city will be divided into four districts, each of which will be assigned to designated scout troops working under the supervision of a district chairman. Named as such chairmen were W. Rex Blackburn, Carl Turner, C. M. Guess and Wyatt L. Hester.

The district chairmen are to meet again at 7:30 a. m. Monday at scout offices, at which time territorial assignments will be made by Joe S. McIlhaney, chairman of Scout participation.

Responsibilities of district chairmen, it was announced, will be to supervise two inspections by scouts. The first, on May 9, will be to ascertain and recommend improvements of back yards and alleys which should be made by individual property owners. The second, on May 16, will be to ascertain whether recommendations have been followed.

Prizes will be awarded, the chairman said, to each troop which measures to a designated standard of excellence in cleanup work. Other prizes will be given to troops making the best records in both inspections and the nail pickup.

Contest Prizes Are Announced

Letters will be mailed to sponsors of West Texas high school newspapers this morning from Texas Technological college announcing the awards that will be presented in May to newspapers adjudged best in a contest sponsored by the West Texas Scholastic Press clinic.

The newspapers are being judged by advanced journalism students of Tech and will be checked by Lubbock High school and college journalism teachers for accuracy in judging.

Awards Are Listed

The letters, prepared in the offices of Cecil Horne, head of the journalism department, list awards as follows:

Best printed newspaper, Royal standard portable typewriter, $64.50 value donated by Hester's Office Supply company; best mimeographed newspaper, $40 in mimeograph supplies, by A. B. Dick company; best high school page in downtown newspaper, $5 in office equipment by Baker company; best annual, $15 camera by Reeves Photo and Engraving company.

Since annuals will not be issued until last of the school year, judging in that division will not be completed with judging of newspapers. The newspaper awards will be announced before end of the school year and will be presented at the fall clinic meeting, probably in October.

Approximately 50 schools are members of the clinic which was organized at Tech. This is the first year of the contest.

Judging will be based partially on improvement during the year, thus allowing all newspapers a chance to win regardless of their facilities, stating otherwise will be based on news value and sources, news writing and editing, headlines, typography and make up, department pages and special features copies turned throughout the year are judged.
