Quail Graduates Meet Saturday For Reunion

Plans are complete for the third annual banquet of the Quail Alumni Association Saturday night, at the Quail gymnasium, beginning at 7:30, Jack Brisbin, president, said this week.

Approximately 300 graduates and their families, coming from throughout the Panhandle and adjoining states, are expected for the big event.

For the most part, the gathering will be informal, giving the graduates an opportunity to visit with friends.

Musical entertainment will be furnished by three students of Frank Phillips College, Borger one of them a former Quail student. Vocalists will be Miss Claudia Brown of Borger, and Harold Brisbin, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Brisbin of Borger, formerly of Quail. The pianist is Marilyn Vaughan, also of that city.

"We hope every graduate who can make the trip will be present," Mr. Brisbin said. "Ours is one of the few active alumni associations in this section of the Panhandle, and we feel that our work is valuable to the school and to the community."

The school has had 344 graduates since the first class received diplomas in 1936.

S. R. Pinkston Has Heart Attack

The condition of S. R. Pinkston, who suffered a heart attack early Saturday morning, was described as good by a staff member of St. Joseph's Hospital Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. Pinkston had been at his work as usual Friday.

Only members of the family are being admitted to see him at present, since he is needing rest, it was explained. Mrs. Ben Boston of Vernon, his only daughter, is here at Mr. Pinkston's bedside. Mr. Boston, here during the week end, has returned home.

Mrs. Bill Leach Visiting Here

Mrs. Bill Leach, who for the past eight and one half months has been under treatment at the National Jewish Hospital in Denver, Colorado, has been released and is here visiting her mother, Mrs. Ed Ward, and her parents-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Leach, and her children, Andrea and Bill Leach.

She will leave within a short time for Winters, where Mr. Leach is stationed for a short time on construction work. After about three weeks, they will go on to their home in Houston.

Andrea and Bill Jr. will remain here to complete this term of school.

Chapter Member Has High Office

Mrs. Ball, Eastern Star Officer, Presides at School

Mrs. Ruby Ball, Deputy Grand Matron for the Grand Chapter of the Order of the Eastern Star, will preside over the school of instruction to be held in Childress Monday, April 14.

This will be a highlight of her term for Mrs. Ball, a member of the Wellington Chapter, who holds one of the state's top offices in the order.

Attending the school will be members of the Eastern Star from section five of District Two, which covers this section of the Panhandle, and includes 14 chapters.

Mrs. Ball will introduce the Worthy Grand Matron, Mrs. Flora Bess Boone, the Grand Examiner, Mrs. Elsie Bills, and District Deputy Mrs. Molly Goodpasture, who will conduct the school and instruct members of the 14 chapters. The Worthy Matrons of these chapters will be officers during the day and night sessions.

Mrs. Ball, before becoming a state officer, had a distinguished record in the Wellington Chapter No. 238, of which she had been a

ENTERTAIN AT QUAIL

Miss Claudia Brown and Harold Brisbin of Borger, vocalists, will entertain at the third annual Alumni banquet at Quail Saturday night, April 12. Brisbin is a former Quail resident, and attended school there. Both he and Miss Brown are now students in Frank Phillips College, Borger.

Rockets Win District 3A Track Championship

Rocket athletes continue to pick up honors apparently for the asking, but with a skill that reflects credit to their own disciplined training and the coaching ability of Maxey McKnight and the men who have assisted him.

The Wellington boys Saturday took the district interscholastic league 3-A track crown at the Memphis contests, almost doubling the score of their nearest opponent, Memphis.

The Rockets won 60 1/2 points, while Memphis, with second place, has 32 1/2. Winners of the first three places in all events are qualified to enter the regional interscholastic league contests at Lubbock during the week end of April 19.

Coach McKnight will take seven of his athletes to Amarillo Saturday, April 12, to participate in the Sandy Relays, an annual invitation event.

In sports events besides the track and field at Memphis, the Wellington senior boys won the volleyball tournament, and the junior girls placed second.

District track and field winners from Wellington were:

High Hurdles: first, Hoot Gibson; second, Virgil White. Time 15.8.

100 yard dash: second, Seldon Wood; third, Clyde Ingram; fourth, Tommy Wood.

180 yard low hurdles: first, Gibson; second, T. Wood.

440 yard relay: first, Wellington, time 44.6. Members of the team were Ingram, White, Gibson and S. Wood.

220 yard dash: first, Seldon

Wood; third, White.

Mile Relay: second, Wellington. Team members, Douglas Duncan, Hiett, Kenneth Covey and Beam.

Shot put: second, Charles Johnson; fourth, Gibson and Jenkins of Memphis, (tie).

Discus: second, Johnson; fourth, Gibson.

High jump: first, White, height five feet, 10 inches.

Broad jump: second, White.

Pole vault: third, Wood.

Attend Purina Foundation Clinic

Four Wellington men are in St. Louis, Mo., where they attended the Purina Foundation Clinic for feed dealers and others interested in livestock and poultry feeding.

Going from here were Jones, Singley, Taylor Lowrie, County Agent J. W. Thomas and Temple Slay.

The meeting was held Monday and Tuesday.

This Is Super Delivery Service

Delivery service on this order of groceries wasn't a matter of a few minutes drive to the other side of town.

Lewis Tingle, owner of the Tingle Grocery on the old Quail Highway in the west part of town, recently drove the round trip of 48 miles to get a bill of groceries to H. C. Carter.

The customer lives four miles north of Ring School house, in the extreme western part of the county.

Majority of School Trustees Re-Elected

A majority of the present trustees were re-elected in the county-wide elections held Saturday, April 5, returns revealed.

Wellington returned all three of the board members whose terms expire, Jim Wood, Drury Lacy and Fred Cox. The vote for the district was: Wood, 232; Lacy, 222; Cox, 209; Gene Craig, 127; Willie Smith, 102; Durant McInnis, 97 and E. C. Puryear, 41.

The Dodson Independent School District also returned its old members: J. C. Howell, Joe Birchfield and Ernest Nipper, by votes of 15, 14 and 25 respectively. Other candidates received the following vote: Kenneth Hudson, 11; P. M. Scott, 5; Truitt Holland, 9; W. E. Reynolds, 3; and Ed Crowder, 2.

Quail voters returned to their board Bill Clay with 39 votes, Fred Bourland, 26 and Travis McGuire with 30. Other candidates were Raymond Ross, 19, A. C. Patterson, 16; and Ted Maddox, 5.

Sannorwood re-elected one present member and two new ones in a surprise vote. Robert Baxter, with 72 votes, went back on the board. New trustees are Jim Jones and Doyce Cochran. Alex Coleman and Pat Bradley, who were defeated for re-election, polled 41 and 56 votes respectively; and Raymond Ledbetter got 59.

In the election for trustee at large, W. S. White was returned from Precinct 1 with 259 votes and Wallace O'Rear from Precinct 3 with 43 votes. L. D. McMinn was re-elected trustee at large with 260 votes. Write-in votes went to Sam Thompson, J. C. Hartman Jr., W. E. Brewster and Rufus Sweat.

OPS Restaurant Meeting April 16

A meeting of all operators of restaurants and other eating and drinking establishments, including drug stores with soda fountains, has been called for 8:00 p.m. Wednesday, April 16 in the County Court Room, sponsored by the Wellington Chamber of Commerce. Out of town cafe operators of this area are also urged to attend the meetings.

The new Ceiling Price Regulation (CPR 134) which covers the operations of eating and drinking establishments, effective April 7, will be explained by officials of the Lubbock district OPS office. Representing the price stabilization agency will be Luther Gray, restaurant pricing specialist.

He reminded cafe operators that ceiling prices must be posted not later than April 25 by restaurants in a place where they will be easily visible to customers.

The new regulation freezes restaurant prices at the level shown on menus or charged during the week of February 3-9, 1952.

Price officials pointed out that the new regulation specifically applies to restaurants, European-plan hotels (including room service), taverns, cafes, cafeterias, soda fountains, catering establishments, field kitchens, lunch wagons and delicatessens.

Dining cars, boarding houses and American-plan hotels will continue under CPR 11. However, sales of food or beverages by these hotels and boarding houses where a separate charge is made will be covered by the new regulation. Institutions, hospitals and colleges are excluded.

Winter-Long Drouth Broken With Rains Up to Two Inches in County

The winter-long draught was broken in Collingsworth Tuesday night, when rain began falling about 10:00 p. m. and after several hard showers, continued in a drizzle for several hours.

The moisture varied sharply over the county, with some sections getting as much as two inches, while other areas receiving only half an inch or less.

Rain in Wellington measured .65 inch, according to J. M. Strong, who is in charge of the government rain gauge. Other reports in the Wellington area showed some parts got as much as 1.1 inch.

The rainfall was heavier to the north and lighter to the south and east.

Mrs. C. W. Fritts, Wellington Leader correspondent in the Sannorwood area, said that Theo Parker of that town reported 1.1 inch in his rain gauge. At the Fritts farm, three miles south of Norwood, one inch fell, and H. C.

Morrow, a mile farther south, also received an inch. Odis Bradley reported an inch.

Tom Cunningham and Guy Lindley, who lives two miles west of the Plymouth cemetery, got an inch of rain and some hail and also reported strong wind.

Several men around Lutie reported two inches in that vicinity.

Alan Graves, driving from Shamrock during the rain, reported it heavy through the central section of the county.

Most of the land was plowed and all the rain soaked in. Mrs. Fritts said. She compared this year to 1927, when no rain fell in the Plymouth area until the 21st of May, and a good crop was raised.

At Dozier and through that vicinity, .7 inch was recorded, according to Mrs. J. E. Throckmorton.

At Dodson, Mrs. Nadine Birchfield of the First State Bank said that one-half was measured, and a similar amount fell at the Birchfield farm several miles north of Dodson.

East of Dodson, however, the rain was lighter, and several farmers reported they got only an estimated quarter of an inch.

Guy Bumpas, northeast of Wellington, reported that 1.8 inch was measured at his place, and there was 1.75 at the Davidson Gravel Pit.

The rain varied in the west part of the county. Zook Thomas of Lillie measured one inch in his rain gauge. At Quail, Mrs. W. L. Pace said an inch was received. East of there, however, Ira Morgan reported less rain, and David Brim, three miles east of Quail, said his rain gauge measured one-half inch. One report from east of Quail, however, said 1.7 inches was received.

Mrs. Joe Keller of Cross Roads reported one and three-quarters inches.

The Swearingen area got a good rain, and A. L. Adcock reported more than an inch.

The rain became lighter east toward Rolla, however, and John Trew of Wellington, who drove to his farm a mile south of Rolla Wednesday morning, said one inch of rain and a little hail was reported by L. A. Davis at the Rolla Gin. Mr. Trew said that the rain was heavier on the north side of his farm than on the south side, where he estimated half an inch fell.

Nearer Wellington, along Buck Creek, however, C. L. Harrison reported two inches and Sam Smith reported one and three-quarters inches.

Norwood Church Plans Revival

A gospel meeting will begin at the Church of Christ at Sannorwood Sunday, April 20, and continue one week, through Sunday, April 27.

Minister M. C. Brooks of Borger will be in charge of the preaching. There will be night services only, beginning at 8:00 p.m.

"Brother Brooks needs no introduction to the people of the Sannorwood area. He held a meeting here once before and we all know him," A. L. Honeycutt, who is helping with plans, said.

The public is invited to attend.

Special Services Planned By County Churches for Easter

A church dedication, an all day program, and the closing of revivals will mark the Easter services of Wellington churches.

Unusually large attendances are anticipated by all the pastors, as they extended invitations to all people to worship with them.

Services already announced included:

First Christian

Morning, afternoon and night services are planned at the First Christian Church, with the new pastor, the Rev. Jack Garrett preaching at the morning service.

A special program of music, directed by Mrs. Guy Clay, is planned for the 11:00 o'clock hour, in addition to the Easter sermon.

Following the service, members will gather for a basket lunch and Easter Egg hunt for the children of the church. The location and exact hour will be announced.

A candlelight service, directed by Mrs. Clay and Mrs. J. M. Strong is planned for the evening worship.

Rev. Garrett, who follows the Rev. Archie Gray, who resigned recently to become pastor of the church at Littlefield.

He is now a student in Texas Christian University and will drive to Wellington for the Sunday services until the end of the school term, when he will move his wife and baby here.

Rev. Garrett's home town is Crisco.

Methodist Church

Easter Sunday will be the last day for the revival services now in progress at the Methodist Church, the Rev. J. F. Michael said.

Baptism of a large number of infants, and the reception of members into the church is planned for Sunday morning.

There will also be three special numbers by the choir and the Rev. Mr. Michael will preach the Easter sermon.

The last service of the meeting will be held Sunday night.

First Baptist Church

Two guest speakers will be at the First Baptist Church Easter Sunday, Judge C. C. Bishop, chairman of the pulpit committee, said.

An Hour of Comedies

Kiwanis, Ritz Give Traditional Show for Children Saturday

Children of the Wellington trade area will gather Saturday morning, April 12, for the traditional Easter Show at the Ritz Theatre, given by the Ritz and the Wellington Kiwanis Club.

This is the annual Easter entertainment for the kiddies of this section, and every child in the area is invited, Howard Oliphint, Kiwanis president, said.

The show will be made up altogether of comedies, Emmett Passmore, Ritz manager, said. It will begin at 10:00 a.m. and little will be a little more than an hour in length.

There will be an Easter treat for every child as he leaves the show.

"It wouldn't be Easter for the Kiwanis Club without this show. It's for children, and the comedies will appeal to everyone of them," Mr. Oliphint said.

Kiwanians assisting Mr. Passmore and Mr. Oliphint with the show are Jack Gibson, Fleet Pruden, Ed Miller, Cameron Beam, J. W. Holder, Arrell Cummings, Mack Saied Jr., Bobo Castleberry, Ansel McDowell, James Sullivan, J. B. Stevenson and Morris Reed.

VFW Installs Officers In April 1 Ceremony

J. N. Glasgow was installed as commander of the Glynn Moore Post 6439, Veterans of Foreign Wars at the regular meeting of the post Tuesday evening, April 1.

He succeeded Russell Yates, commander for the past year.

Other officers installed to serve with Mr. Glasgow, were Ross Swift, of Dodson, senior vice commander; Kelly White, junior vice commander; James R. Bowne, Jr., quartermaster; Ed Poole, judge advocate; Durant McInnis, chaplain; Dr. Dale Watkins and Dr. Tom Hunter, post surgeons; and Jack Wood, trustee for the three year term. Past Commander Jake Leach was the installing officer.

Commander Glasgow named the following as appointive officers for the year: Howard Hunt of Dodson, adjutant; Mr. Leach, officer of the day; Mr. McInnis, patriotic instructor; Billie E. Wallace, historian; Mr. Poole, service officer; Jim Leach, legislative officer; J. M. Strong Jr. and David Robinson, color bearers; Jack Scott, guard; Judge Raymond Horton, bugler; Donald Curry, public relations officer; and Buster Hughes, employment officer.

A community service committee was appointed with Mr. Poole as chairman, and these members: Paul Spillman, Mr. Yates, Mr. Hunt, William W. McClaskey, Lewis Berg, Mr. Curry, R. T. Savage, Mr. McInnis, Mr. Bowne, Mr. Robinson, Mr. Scott and John Bevers.

John Pound, Scout Field Executive for the Southern district of the Adobe Walls Council spoke to the members, explaining what would be necessary for the Post to do in order to sponsor a Boy Scout troop.

A breakfast for the Post and Auxiliary was planned for May 4; from 8:00 to 9:30 a.m. The committee to prepare the food includes Jake Leach, Mr. Robinson, Commander Glasgow, Mr. Bowne, Mr. McInnis, Mr. White and Blayne Brannum.

Present for the installation were Jim Leach, Joe Alec Coleman, Mr. Berg, Mr. Brannum, Taylor Lowrie, Jake Leach, Mr. Yates, Mr. White, Mr. Glasgow, Mr. Bowne, Mr. Poole, Mr. McInnis, Mr. Wood, Mr. Bevers, Mr. Scott, Mr. Robinson, and Mr. Savage.

Light Earthquake Felt Here Wed. Morning

A slight earthquake was felt in Wellington Wednesday morning, April 9, a part of the one which shook the area from Kansas City westward to Tulsa and Dallas.

Only tremor was so light in this area that many local residents didn't notice it at all. It occurred at about ten o'clock, and most of those who did feel it thought nothing of it until radio reports began coming in.

The first local person to report it was Miss Katherine Boverie, county librarian, who said she felt a light tremor but didn't mention it to others in the room with her at the time.

Mayor L. B. Bratten inquired about the quake a short time later.

A jeweler, he was working on a watch at the time and noticed some of the delicate parts trembling.

Mrs. Warland Brummett reported that she and Mrs. J. M. Orr were drinking coffee at the Orr home at the time.

"It wasn't bad but it gave you the feeling that the house might explode. We rushed to the door to see if a tornado were coming. Later we mentioned that was the way we'd imagined an earthquake to feel, but we didn't dream it was one," Mrs. Brummett commented.

Others had reported the tremor to The Wellington Leader by press time. In general, it was noticed only by those who were seated or standing still.

PRINCIPAL DISCUSSES HOME WORK VS. NO HOME WORK FOR STUDENT

By LEE PLANTE
Principal, Wellington Jr. High

Teachers have a battle over homework too. It is a controversial subject with teachers as well as parents and students.

How much homework should be required of a junior high school student? This question has as many answers as there are people answering. It is agreed by most school people today that there is little benefit from old fashioned drill type homework. The chief complaint of some parents is that the teachers have expected the parents to teach and the teachers to do the testing. Another complaint is against the teacher who sends homework home for the parents to teach or for punishment purposes.

Some parents demand homework. Others ask that children be relieved of it. Still others who voice no opinion, make it nearly impossible for a child to carry out any kind of extra class activity at home. Some homes are overcrowded which permit no privacy and without sufficient lighting that makes study impossible. Then there are the parents that provide a desirable place for study, set aside a specific time for it, and are on hand to lend encouragement.

Another objection to homework is the health angle. The child who needs homework often is the one who needs more fresh air and exercise, and needs to learn to play and get along with a group of children. If a business man is warned by doctors not to take his work home with him, should a 10, 11, or 12 year old take home extra work after a 6 hour day? In many instances homework is drilling for the Friday test then forgetting it by Monday.

A number of experiments have been conducted in schools throughout the nation but produced no evidence that homework was beneficial or that it impaired learning.

Homework usually is given in your junior high school but more especially when a child has been absent from school and needs to do make-up work; then drill home work is given. We have lengthened the periods so the pupils can do supervised study and eliminate a great deal of formal homework.

Home work will be given as long as parents demand it. Some insist on it because they had to do it themselves, and others contend that anything a child is made to do builds character.

Some educators believe that homework should be voluntary whereby interest in a subject or field carries over into the home. They believe that desirable work has parents and children working together.

Shanks Burned by Electric Wire

Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Shanks were in Littlefield at the bedside of their son, J. D. Shanks, who was severely burned March 25 when the telephone line with which he was working came in contact with an electric wire. He is an employee of the Southwestern Associated Telephone Company at Littlefield.

Mrs. Shanks, who returned here for a few days last week, said her son was standing on the ground and threw the line over a tree, but beyond this, he doesn't know what happened. An assistant was working with him and a highway patrolman arrived at the scene of the accident within a few minutes.

The injured man was taken to the Amherst hospital for emergency treatment and later moved to the Payne-Shockwell Hospital at Littlefield.

His mother said that he will be hospitalized for some time yet, and it is not known when he can return to his work.

Shanks was burned on the chin and neck, right arm, on the left side below the wrist, and from his thigh to ankle on the right side.

North Dakota and South Dakota were admitted to the Union on the same date, November 2, 1889.

This Is How Red Cross Helps

RED CROSS HELPS REBUILD TORNADO DESTROYED AREAS

LITTLE ROCK, ARK. — As the period of emergency mass care for victims of last week's southern tornadoes neared its close, the American Red Cross moved into high gear to rebuild the shattered lives and homes of the disaster sufferers.

For about three months, more than 150 trained disaster workers now in the stricken region will help the hurt and the homeless, the orphaned, the aged, the widowed, and the ill.

"Two categories of victims will receive special attention," James T. Nicholson, Red Cross Executive Vice President, said today. "One group will be survivors of the dead. Among these will be many dependent children for whose support and education we will make long-range plans where other resources are not available.

"The other category is the seriously injured. This disaster has caused an extremely large number of injuries — 1,281 persons — of whom 731 are hospitalized. In spite of expert care, a number will be physically handicapped, needing medical treatment for months or years, and assistance not only for their injuries but for their livelihood as well. This we are prepared to give them where necessary."

In White County, Arkansas, thousands of dollars worth of strawberries for which the region is famous may be lost. The crop will be ready to harvest in two or three weeks, according to the growers, but many shelters for housing berry pickers and the transportation to bring them to the farms were destroyed.

Such is the case of 17-year-old James Black, operating the family farm near Bald Knob while his father is in the hospital. He has nine acres of strawberries. The twister destroyed his home and the house built for berry pickers and ruined his truck. The Red Cross will do what it can to aid Black, as well as other farmers who are storm victims.

Earl Wilson is a barber in Judsonia, Arkansas. He lives with his wife and three small children at Bald Knob, five miles away. When the tornado ripped through both communities, Wilson was a two-time loser — both his home and the barber shop were destroyed. Wilson, like many of his neighbors, has registered with the Red Cross for assistance.

For these and hundreds of other victims, the Red Cross has opened general relief operation headquarters in Little Rock, Ark., with additional offices in the stricken counties.

This week, Red Cross chapter officials in the tornado area are appointing local advisory committees.

Telephone Co. To Sell Shares

Southwestern Associated Telephone Company's offering of 75,000 shares of 5 1/2 per cent Cumulative Preferred at its par value of $20 per share has created considerable interest in financial circles.

Unlike most offerings, the stock is being offered by the company, instead of by underwriters, through a selected group of investment dealers who are acting as its agents. The company is assisting dealers by mailing to its users, as well as residents in adjacent territory, cards informing them of the issue. The recipients may secure a prospectus and supplementary information by signing and returning the cards to the company. Such inquiries are then turned over to dealers who, in turn, contact the prospect with the view of consummating a sale.

A plan similar to this was originated by Associated Telephone Company, Ltd., which serves in Southern California and which is controlled, as is Southwestern Associated, by General Telephone Corporation. During the past five years, Associated Telephone Company has had phenomenal success using this method, having disposed of $17,000,000 of its 5 per cent Preferred to approximately 10,000 stockholders, a large percentage of whom are its subscribers or residents of adjacent territory.

This announcement is neither an offer to sell nor a solicitation of an offer to buy any of these securities. This offering is made only by the Prospectus.

tees on rehabilitation to work with the Red Cross disaster workers, building advisers, accountants, doctors, and nurses. Local committee members will review individually each application for rehabilitation and advise on each Red Cross rehabilitation plan. Use of these local committees in relief operations is standard Red Cross practice, Mr. Nicholson said, for they are indispensable in interpreting local conditions to the Red Cross workers and explaining Red Cross functions and the limitations on them to prospective beneficiaries and to the public.

Red Cross disaster relief is always a direct grant — never a loan, Mr. Nicholson said. It is a gift of the American people, with no obligation of repayment by the individual or the community. The disaster-caused needs of the individual or family, rather than extent of loss, are the basis upon which assistance is given. A person who has lost heavily in a disaster but who is able to stand the loss financially, without unreasonable hardship, is not eligible for Red Cross aid. The relief funds are expended to meet actual needs which the sufferers cannot meet from their own resources. Thus, two neighbors who have suffered practically identical losses may receive widely different help from the Red Cross, depending on their respective abilities to meet their own disaster-caused needs, Mr. Nicholson explained.

Red Cross rehabilitation assistance includes rebuilding or repairing of homes; replacement of furnishings; medical and nursing care; repair and replacement of farm equipment, supplies, and livestock; and rehabilitation of small family-owned businesses and other specific needs.

According to Red Cross estimates, 3,743 families were affected in the tornadoes, of whom an estimated 2,246 will register for rehabilitation aid. Red Cross surveys show 1,117 homes destroyed and 2,218 damaged.

SAMNORWOOD

By MRS. C. W. FRITTS

Odis Bradley was ill several days the past week with flu and sore throat.

Mr. and Mrs. Augustine Gonzales' 2 year old son was quite ill the past week in the Shamrock hospital, but was brought home Sunday. He is much better now.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Clement moved recently to one of the school houses in Norwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Odie Offutt and daughters are living in one of the school's houses, while a new modern 5 room house is being built for them on the farm owned by Mrs. Grover Young of Arlington. The Offutt's have farmed the Young farm for 16 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Luther Owen Thompson and small son moved Saturday to the Pink Sullivan farm just east of Norwood. It is better known as the Daffron farm. Luther Thompson moved to the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Thompson.

Orville Cunningham purchased a 5 room house in Norwood, where the Thompsons have lived, from Henry Daffron. He is moving the house to his farm just west of Norwood.

Charles Young of Camp Chaffee, Arkansas is home on furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Young and children, of west of Wellington, and other friends and relatives here. Charles is to be shipped overseas soon. A group of relatives met in the Jess Young home Sunday to visit with Charles. From here was Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Young, and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Young, Jenny and Tommy.

Much interest was taken in the school trustee election here Saturday. More votes were cast than in the history of the school. The new trustees elected were Robert Baxter, Jim Jones, and Doyce Cochran.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morrow returned home Wednesday from Alba where they visited his mother, Mrs. Lottie Williams, who was ill, and with other relatives there. They also visited Mrs. Morrow's father, W. H. Lindsey, who is ill in the home of her sister near Sherman and with relatives in Sherman.

Farmers Show Greater Interest In Building Soil

By MILLARD BROWN
Accomplishments of Collingsworth County farmers in 1951 through the Agricultural Conservation Program are given below. This shows the interest being manifested by farmers of the county in taking the necessary measures to protect and build up soil for expanded production which is necessary to maintain our high standards of living and to afford ample products for export to those nations who are so badly in need. Farmers are to be commended for their efforts in carrying out these worthwhile conservation practices.

The following list is a summary of the practices for which assistance was given:

Standard Terraces, 1,238,960 feet, 70 farms; Diversion Terraces, 41,698 cubic yards, 23 farms; Subsoiling, 6,986.6 acres, 84 farms; Deep Plowing, 10,962.3 acres, 200 farms; Water Wells, 1,138 feet, 9 farms; Stockwater Dams, 88,753 cubic yards, 39 farms; Superphosphate, 329,385 pounds, 57 farms; Winter Cover Crops, 15,693 pounds, 30 farms; Rye Cover Manure, 1,547.0 acres, 39 farms; Control of Sagebrush, 1,624.3 acres, 13 farms; Pasture Seeding, 18,933 pounds, 69 farms.

Many more practices were carried out during the year for which no assistance was made for the practice.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holtor spent the week end visiting her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Trave Rasco and family at Stanford.

Mr. and Mrs. Eddie McClaskey and Mr. and Mrs. Darrel Tompkins have moved to Lawton.

Parents of Mrs. A. L. Nowlin Ill

Mrs. A. L. Nowlin has been in Denton for the last two week ends at the bedside of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Portwood, both of whom are seriously ill.

Mr. Portwood developed a serious case of pneumonia and is still in Flow Memorial Hospital at Denton.

Mrs. Portwood is at the home of their son, Hayden Portwood, in that town. She also suffered an attack of pneumonia earlier. Although she is recovering from that, she also suffers from a heart condition which makes her condition serious.

Mrs. Nowlin went to Denton alone for the week end of March 29-30. She and Mr. Nowlin drove there this week end, accompanied by Bobby Cotton of Clarendon.

When both are away, Mrs. Nowlin said that it is sometimes necessary for them to close the Nowlin Wholesale Company office for the time they are out of town.

Guests of Mrs. Mary Stall and Jean recently were Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Vandagriff and sons, Henry and Allen, of Aransas Pass, Mrs. Plevna Wynn and Kay of Amarillo, Mrs. Louise Harber of Dallas, Mrs. Billy Joe Hunt and Brady of Dumas, Mrs. Thompson and Paula from Borger, and Mrs. Annie Blossom of Amarillo.

CARD OF THANKS

We take this means of expressing our deepest appreciation to our many friends for their thoughtfulness, their words of consolation, and their prayers for our comfort at the death of our mother, Mrs. A. C. Vandagriff.

We are grateful for each thing that was done in our behalf at this time.

May God bless each of you.
The family of Mrs. A. C. Vandagriff

United Gas Corp. Views 1951 Income, Expense

The 22nd annual report to stockholders of United Gas Corporation showed the year 1951 as one of major increases in revenues and operating expenses, and major investments in new pipe lines and other properties.

Twenty-two additional communities in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi obtained natural gas service from United during the year, to bring the total number served either at wholesale or retail to 461. The distribution divisions of the corporation were serving 430,305 customers in 301 of these communities at year end, and increase during 1951 of 29,651 customers.

Natural gas sales increased 94 billion cubic feet over the previous year, to a total of 690 billion cubic feet. Revenues from natural gas sales were up $14,589,000, to $89,646,000.

The System's expenditures for construction, development and exploration aggregated $113,310,000. This was far more than in any previous year, and is almost equal to the total expenditures for these purposes in the four preceding years. Principal item in the capital expenditures was $9 million dollars invested in pipe line properties. Others were approximately 13 million dollars in production properties, six million in distribution properties and five million in sulphur and potash properties.

N. C. McGowen, president of the United Gas companies, pointed out that the expanded facilities were in only limited operation in 1951 and therefore did not contribute to the earnings for the year. He stated in a letter to the stockholders that the current expansion program should be completed by the middle of 1952.

The consolidated net income of the System amounted to $1.63 per share on the average number of shares outstanding during the year, as compared with $1.57 per share for the year 1950. Dividends were paid at a rate of 25 cents quarterly per share on the stock outstanding at the various record dates. This is the same quarterly rate per share as that paid since mid-1947.

In addition to its sales of natural gas, the System sold approximately 159 million gallons of natural gasoline and other liquid products extracted from natural gas. This was an increase of six million gallons over 1950.

Union Producing Company, production subsidiary of United Gas Corporation, sold 6,241,040 barrels of crude oil during the year, an increase of 745,931 barrels over 1950.

Costs of doing business continued to climb during 1951, the report showed. Total operating and maintenance expenses increased $14,645,000 over the previous year. Of this amount, the cost of gas purchased represented more than eight million dollars, more than half of which was the result of an increase in the average unit cost of gas purchased.

Producers and owners of land or royalties in Texas, Louisiana and Mississippi were paid more than $39,000,000 for gas United purchased or for royalties on gas or gasoline. This was about nine million dollars more than in 1950.

State and local taxes paid by the System during 1951 amounted to $8,945,000, more than a million dollars higher than in 1950. Federal taxes were nearly seven million dollars in 1951, for a total tax bill of $15,925,000.

There were 5,702 employees on the payroll at the end of the year. Salaries, wages and payments for the account of employees amounted to $22,354,000, an increase of $2,142,000 over the previous year.

Mrs. Mary Alice Marchbanks and daughters spent Saturday night in Childress with her aunt, Mrs. Tom Holton.

PRICE DANIEL LETTERS POURING IN

Price Daniel, Texas' fighting attorney general, is shown with some of the 45,039 letters and pledges of active support received thus far in his race for the United States Senate.

"With written pledges still pouring in at the rate of several hundred each day, Price Daniel will have the biggest group of active campaigners Texas has ever seen in a political race," Campaign Manager Everett Hutchinson said in Austin.

News of Men in Service

Private William W. Welch, who was inducted into the Marines March 19, 1952, is stationed at San Diego, California for 9 weeks training. He will be at home on a 10 day furlough when this training is completed and expects to be promoted to private first class.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. McClaskey received a letter from their son, Staff Sgt. Richard McClaskey of Shaftesbury, England, this week, and he said he would sail for the States in July.

WITH THE 45TH INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA — Sergeant First Class Billy H. Norman, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Norman, Arlie Route, Dodson, Texas, recently left the 45th Infantry Division in Korea to return to the United States under the Army's "phase out" program for National Guardsmen.

He was called to active duty with the Oklahoma National Guard unit in September 1950 and trained at Camp Polk, La., and on Hokkaido, Japan. The division arrived in Korea last December.

SFC. Norman, a mess steward in Company D of the 120th Engineer Combat Battalion, has been awarded the Korean Service Ribbon and the Army of Occupation Medal for his service in Japan.

Legion, Auxiliary To District Meet

Members of the Frank King Post of the American Legion and the Auxiliary Unit were in Clarion Saturday night and Sunday to attend the District 18 Convention.

Legionnaires attending were John Bevers, Riley Dunson, Commander John Coleman, Ernest Lewis, Frank Hajek and Guy Clay.

In the meeting of the Auxiliary units, Mrs. Guy Clay served as the 18th District secretary. Others representing this unit were Mrs. Bevers, Mrs. Dunson, Mrs. Coleman and Mrs. Wall.

The next meeting of the District will be held at Hereford in October.

Mrs. Darwin Nix and Mrs. Donnita Jones and daughter, Linda Carol, were Amarillo visitors Monday.

Eleven Teams Compete

CLARENDON, ESTELLINE SCOUTS TAKE FIRST AID CONTEST HONORS

Teams from the Clarendon American Legion's Explorer Scout Post No. 37 took first, third, and fourth place honors; while a team from the Estelline Lion's Club's Explorer Scout Crew No. 33 took second place, at the Southern District Explorer Scout First Aid Meet last Friday night, Dr. Tom Hunter, Chairman of the Health & Safety Committee announced.

Eleven teams, comprising 55 young men, and approximately 45 per cent of the total Explorer membership of the District took part. Explorer Units from four towns, Clarendon, Estelline, Hedley, and Wellington, entered teams in the test of real First Aid proficiency. The first three place teams earned the right to represent the Southern District at the Adobe Walls Area Council First Aid Meet to be held in Pampa, 18 April, and to compete for the prizes of equipment to be offered there for winning teams.

Personnel of the winning teams were: First Place: Team 3, Post No. 37, Clarendon, Chilton McNabb, captain; Loyd Martin, patient; Jimmy Lambreth, Bill Pittman, and Don Moore, team members. Second place: Team 2, Crew No. 33, Estelline, Kenneth Crump, captain; Charles Oldham, patient; Monty Richerson, Dwayne Kennedy, and Eddie Mabry, team members. Third place: Team 2, Post No. 37, Clarendon, Donald Smith, captain; Wesley Stewart, patient; Bobby Johnson, Frank White III, and Glen Wallace, team members. Other teams and units entered in the meet, and their ranking was as follows: Fourth, Team 1, Post No. 37, Clarendon; Fifth, Team 1, Crew No. 33, Estelline; Sixth, Team 1, Crew No. 36, Hedley; Seventh, Team 1, Post No. 32, Wellington; Eighth, Team 3, Post No. 32, Wellington; Ninth, Team 2, Post No. 32, Wellington; Tenth, Team 4, Post No. 32, Wellington; and Eleventh, Team 2, Crew No. 36, Hedley.

Judges and officials for the meet were: Dr. Tom Hunter, Director; Ed Poole, Physical Arrangements, assisted by John Lee; Hiram Cudd, Riley Dunson, Bill McDonald, Dr. Dale Watkins, Dr. E. K. Jones, Maxie McKnight, Herman Moseley, and Russell "Bo" Yates, Judges; Bura Handley, Scorekeeper; and Charles Allen, Timekeeper.

News of Men in Service

136TH FIGHTER - BOMBER WING, KOREA — Sergeant Jay W. Beattie of Wellington, recently arrived in the Far East and has joined the 136th Fighter-Bomber Wing in Korea as an aircraft and engine mechanic.

The 136th Wing is engaged in Fifth Air Force's "Operation STRANGLE," the round-the-clock bombing of the Communists' rear-area rail and transportation facilities. F-84 Thunderjets of the 136th Wing have destroyed or damaged 1,515 rail cars, 35 locomotives and 262 enemy supply trucks in less than nine months of combat. During the same period, 136th pilots have accounted for 3,581 rail cuts, 110 vital bridges and 29 tunnels. In addition to these low-level attacks, the wing is credited with 80 enemy MIG-15 jet fighters destroyed or damaged in air-to-air combat.

Sergeant Beattie enlisted in the Air Force in August, 1946 at Enid, Oklahoma. After completing basic military training he attended the Air Force aircraft and engine mechanics school at Sheppard AFB, Texas. Upon graduation he was assigned to Eglin AFB, Florida where he served until his recent transfer.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel I. Beattie, Wellington.

WITH THE 45TH INFANTRY

DIV. IN KOREA — Sergeant First Class Donald L. Ayers, whose wife, Shirley, lives in Dodson, recently left the 45th Infantry Division in Korea to return to the United States under the Army's "phase out" program for National Guardsmen.

The 45th Division, Oklahoma National Guard unit, arrived in Korea last December after extensive combat training in Japan. It was called into federal service in September 1950.

SFC Ayers is a squad leader in the 120th Engineer Combat Battalion's Company D. He has been awarded the Korean Service Ribbon and the Army of Occupation Ribbon for service in Japan.

McLean Plans Big Celebration

McLEAN — Four big rodeo performances, a free barbecue, two dances, a gigantic parade, and a get-together for pioneers of the area will be highlights of the three-day celebration in McLean April 13, 19 and 20.

The celebration, officially entitled the American Legion Annual Rodeo and Jaycee Pioneer Day, will open Friday night, April 18, with an amateur rodeo performance and a dance following at the American Legion Hall.

The parade will be held Saturday morning, April 19, followed by the free barbecue, afternoon and night rodeo performances, and the second of the two dances.

Saturday will be the homecoming day for the pioneers of the area, and a registration place will be set up, as well as special entertainment. Sunday afternoon's rodeo performance will conclude the celebration.

Rodeo performers will take away a purse of $1,200 in prizes, plus a jackpot prize in the cutting horse contest. Events, other than the cutting horse contest, include saddle bronc riding, bareback bronc riding, bull riding, bulldogging, calf roping, and ribbon roping. Two go-rounds will be held. Entries close at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Stock is being furnished by Tom Harlan of Kellerville, and Bob Sherrod will be arena director.

On April 12, a caravan of boosters will visit Claude, Clarendon, Hedley, Memphis, Childress, Wellington, and Mangum, Sayre, and Erick, Okla. On April 14, the boosters will call on Groom, Pampa, Borger, Pampa, Miami, Canadian, Wheeler, and Shamrock. The zinnia was adopted as state flower of Indiana, by General Assembly on March 1931.

Want a lot of mileage for your money?

WE'LL admit that the price tags of automobiles—all automobiles—are what they used to be.

But it's just as true today as ever before that some price tags are lower than others, and some cars cost less to own than others.

So let's see how a Buick SPECIAL fits into the picture.

Take first cost. If you put the price tag of this Buick against price tags of cars that have always been tagged as belonging in "the low-priced field"—you'll find that, in actual dollars, a Buick's surprisingly close to these cars of lesser size and horsepower.

But that's just the beginning.

What you're getting here is Buick quality—this SPECIAL comes down the same assembly line as SUPERS and ROADMASTERS.

Its heft tells you it has extra sturdiness in frame and structure.

Its Fireball Engine delivers extra power. It is an eight, a valve-in-head, with high compression, and the miles you can get from a gallon of gas make it a thrifty performer.

You get Buick's Million Dollar Ride, which protects you—and the car—from jars and jolts.

Even the tires are bigger—which, any tire man will tell you, lengthens their wear.

And if you pay a bit extra for Dynaflo Drive* you're easing the strain on the engine, the rear end, the tires—and eliminating clutch repair bills.

So when we talk about "mileage for your money" we're talking about the miles you'll get from your car—including the unused miles that are what you have to sell when you trade it in.

Maybe that's why Buick's doing so well in the present market. Why not come in and see what a great car this is for you?

Equipment, accessories, trim and models are subject to change without notice. Wheel Covers standard on ROADMASTERS, optional at extra cost on other Series. White side-panels optional at extra cost when available. *Standard on ROADMASTERS, optional at extra cost on other Series.

Some farmers prefer to catch their seed, and this cuts down on their checks a little, since the gin also makes a profit from the sale of its seed.

The Farmers Co-op Gin is paying $35,455.19 in rebates to growers who ginned with us during the past season.

Every officer, director and employee of the gin is grateful for the wonderful patronage and co-operation that the customers have given us during the ginning season.

The 25th annual meeting will be held in the Community Building Saturday, April 12, starting at 2:00 p. m. Dividend checks will be paid at this time and the new directors of the society will be elected.

At this time the financial affairs of the gin will be explained in detail. We urge your attendance. Since a tremendous cotton acreage is in sight which may mean a very large crop in the number of bales, we are glad to advise you that our equipment is the best that money can buy and by fall all of it will be in first class condition to better serve your needs.

And at this time we would like to thank you for the wonderful support you have been giving our seed delinting, grading and treating plant.

We will be looking for you Saturday.

Easter. A film depicting this will be shown, the pastor, the Rev. Samuel Sparks, said.

Rev. Sparks will preach at the morning hour on "The Resurrection," the traditional Easter sermon. There will be Easter music given by members of the Church.

Preceding the Sunday observance, there will be Easter Egg Hunts for the children of the church. Friday afternoon at 4:00 p. m., the pre-school age children will go to the Horace Holleman farm northeast of Wellington for a hunt. Saturday afternoon, the older children will go to the Earl Yarborough farm at Shinnery for their egg hunt.

Assembly of God Services Easter afternoon, April 13, will mark the dedication of the new building of the Assembly of God, at the corner of 8th and Dahlhart Streets. Rev. Austin Jolliff, pastor announced this week.

There will be morning, afternoon and night services at the church, with the dedication at 2:30 p. m.

A former Wellington resident will preach the dedication sermon, the Rev. Jack Thomas, district superintendent of the West Texas District of the Assemblies of God. Many of the long-time residents will remember him as a funeral director here for several years.

There will be an old fashioned basket dinner served at the noon hour, at the church prepared by members and friends of the church, Rev. Jolliff announced.

"The church, though not finished, will, we believe, be a great asset to the community of Wellington," the pastor said. "We plan to finish it as soon as it is humanly possible. Many who have not seen inside will be surprised when they do so."

"There has been $4,800 of the Assembly of God Church bonds sold, and most of them have been sold locally. The Assembly of God church, its board, its pastor, wish to express appreciation to all who have been so kind and considerate in helping make the new building possible."

Visitors from several churches outside the city are expected Sunday afternoon, and a cordial invitation to attend has been extended to public by the pastor.

A Special Easter Pageant, sponsored by the Christ's Ambassadors, the Assembly of God youth organization, will be presented at the Church Friday night, April 11. The public is invited.

The Rev. Frank Finkenbinder of the Latin American Bible Institute, Ysleta, near El Paso, will be the guest speaker in a special service Tuesday night, April 15.

Quail Baptist Church The Intermediate and Young People's Union of the Quail Baptist Church will be in charge of a special Easter Program to be presented April 13th at 7:30 p. m. in the Church. The public is cordially invited to attend the services.

Quail Church of Christ The Church of Christ is entertaining their pre-school age children with an egg hunt, Thursday eve, at the Church under the direction of Mrs. Fred Bourland.

Former Resident, Now a Louisianan, Subscribes to Leader

A subscription to The Wellington Leader came this week from W. H. Lynn, long-time city resident now living at Monroe, La.

Mr. Lynn was with the Mill Iron Ranch office here for approximately 11 years and before that was with the City State Bank. In March 1944 he joined the Tennessee Gas Transmission Company, one of the larger pipe lines companies of the nation. After living at Houston and also traveling for the company several years, he was assigned to Monroe, where he is now assistant head of the land department.

Children Already in School

German DP Family Now Settled at Quail

One of the last families to come to the United States under the Displaced Persons program will live southwest of Quail, working for J. F. McIntush on his dairy farm.

Anton Schedl and his wife, Rosina, and their three children, Stefanie, 15, Anton, 9, and Erika, 3, reached New Orleans recently, then came on to Memphis, where they were met by Mr. McIntush and taken to his farm. Their home originally was in Salica, now in the East Germany sector, controlled by Russia.

Only Stefanie speaks English, but she and her brother, Anton, will enroll in the Quail rural high school Thursday, she as a high school freshman and he in the fifth grade.

A decade ago Schedl and his family never dreamed that they would cross an ocean and travel many thousands miles to set up housekeeping in West Texas. They tended their six milk cows and cultivated their small farm near Namslau in Eastern Germany with their two draft horses.

They lived a peaceful life — these hardy people from Silesia — even though their countryside had been the scene of many battles of many wars. The district had been owned by Germany, Poland and Czechoslovakia at various times. After World War I, most of it was given to the latter two countries. Then Hitler came through the area in 1939, defeated the Poles, and annexed half of the country, including Silesia.

In late 1944 and early 1945 things began looking bad for the citizens around Namslau. The Germans were being mauled in the east and in the west by the Russians and by the Allies. Then the roof fell in. As the Russians advanced ever nearer, the people were warned to vacate their homes. In two hours after this proclamation had been decreed, over a thousand men, women and children of the village and left everything they owned and fled to the west, most of them never to return again.

The Schedls never saw a Russian soldier. They, like their fellow countrymen, were afraid of being taken captive. They had heard that they would be sent to Siberia if the Russians ever caught them. When they left Namslau and their farm, they carried with them only the clothes they were wearing.

Dates for Two Scouting Events Announced Here

The dates and places for two coming Scouting events in the Southern District, were definitely established at the regular meeting of the Southern District Committee, in Memphis, last Thursday night, D. E. Scott, District chairman, announced to the Leader this week.

Friday night, May 9, in Clarendon, the district advancement committee is going to hold a District-wide, Court of Honor for all Scouts in the Southern District. It is expected that almost every rank available to a boy in Boy Scouting will be presented — ranging all the way from a mass Tenderfoot investiture, to the presentation of the Eagle Award. The actual place in Clarendon, where the Court will be held, will be announced later, Guy Wright, Donley County sheriff, and district advancement chairman, added.

Wellington will be the site, May 16-17, of the spring Southern District Camporee for all Boy Scouts of the district, Henry Sullivan, district camping and activities chairman announced. This event will open on Friday evening, May 16, with a public campfire ceremony, and will continue through Saturday evening with competition, demonstrations of Scouting skills, and training in basic skills making up the program for the Scouts participating.

Attendance at the Region IX Annual Meeting, to be held in Waco, April 25-26 was also discussed, and several members of the District Committee indicated their intentions of attending this meeting. Air transportation is to be available to members of the District Committees and Executive Board of the Adobe Walls Council through the courtesy of the Phillips Petroleum Co.'s DC-3, and the Cabot Carbon Company's 10-passenger Lockheed airplane.

Those attending this meeting and traveling by air from the Southern District will be picked up at the Childress airport.

Down to Earth Advice

MAKE CHILDREN RESPONSIBLE FOR ACTIONS, PARENTS URGED

Down to earth advice to parents on better relations with their children was given members of the Rotary Club and visitors by Mrs. Elwood P. Striet, of the Hogg Foundation for Mental Hygiene at the regular luncheon meeting Tuesday.

Brought here by the Senior high school PTA to address both parents and children, Mrs. Street bases the advice she gives, not only on her training and experience as a family relations consultant, but on her experience rearing four daughters.

Pointing out that one in every four marriages ends in divorce, Mrs. Street said that the most important question was how to save the homes of the future.

"Put more responsibility from the parent onto the child," she urged. "Make them more and more responsible for their own behavior."

A little later, she pointed out that the child that is dissatisfied with his home and thinks his town is the dull place in the world is simply going through a natural phase of growing up. "Your child is not ready for the love relationship with the man or woman chosen for a mate until it is through with the love relationship with the home," she commented.

She urged her listeners to live a well-rounded life, reminding them that all life is not lived on a physical level and all life is not lived on an economic level.

"The kind of life your child is to have in its own home depends on the kind of life you and your husband or wife may have in your home," she said.

Describing Americans as the most marrying people in the world, Mrs. Street said, "More of us marry, we marry younger than any western people, and we marry more often than any other people," but she added that she believes that 90 per cent of the divorces could be prevented.

Mrs. Street touched briefly on the written questions asked by the juniors and seniors of the four high schools, whom she addressed Tuesday morning. Most of the questions boiled down to three points: How to get a date? What do you do when you get one? and How do you hold him (or her)? But other questions show a knowledge over a range of subjects that many parts do not know their children have, Mrs. Street said.

cessed products, as established by the general price freeze of January, 1951, may be lower than the announced support prices.

Because the Defense Production Act specifically prohibits OPS from issuing any regulation that conflicts with the Agricultural Act of 1949 — the law governing farm price supports — OPS said it is incumbent upon the price control agency to provide ceilings for sales of supported commodities to the CCC no lower than announced support prices.

OPS pointed out that the CCC, in supporting prices of processed agricultural commodities, in effect, not only fixes producer prices but also the processor margins.

Issuance of the regulations had been requested by the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Electric hour meters—to tell you how many hours your tractor has run—are now on hand to fit any Farmall H or M tractor. Makes it easy to keep track of when to change filters, how your fuel consumption is showing up, and whether it's time to quit or not.

The big refrigerator deal we told you about last week end—our stock of brand new 1951 International Harvester refrigerators at special prices—is being grabbed at by folks who know a bargain when they see it. Three of these refrigerators sold first two days after the paper came out. But we still have a few—BIG 8-foot boxes, freezers across the top—only a little different in looks from the 1952 models—regular price $274.95 and we'll sell for $154.95 and your old refrigerator.

Shop has been busy the last week—Hayden Williams, John Eron Forbis, Emory Hunter, Lloyd Holloway, James Doneghy, C. Lanning, R. J. Holland, J. L. Moody, L. C. Hill, Raymond Ford and several others bringing or sending their tractors in for major and minor jobs.

Raymond Ford had us paint his tractor after doing some work on it, but I will not tell you what kind of tractor it is because Mr. Buske and Mr. Harvey are not paying for any of this advertisement.

We have several of those Blue Fertilizer Distributors left—can be attached to any kind of planter or cultivator—have proved satisfactory to a lot of users—easy to adjust for just exactly the right amount of fertilizer.

Humble Expansion Over Billion Since World War II

HOUSTON — By mid-1952, Humble Oil & Refining Company will pass the billion-dollar mark for expenditures on new facilities since the end of World War II.

The huge postwar total became known when Hines H. Baker, Humble President, announced that the Company plans to spend this year $245 million for drilling wells and other facilities, including the cost of dry holes. Since the Company has already spent $872 million for similar purposes during the past six years, the plans for 1952 will raise total expenditures to more than a billion dollars about the middle of this year. The program projected for 1952 is substantially larger than in 1951.

Last year the Company spent $188 million on new facilities, including $29 million in dry holes. These expenditures exceeded those of the previous record year, 1948.

Humble's large investments have been part of the $13 billion capital expenditures made by the petroleum industry during six postwar years. These industry investments were necessary to meet the increasing demands for petroleum products. Total demands in 1952 will exceed those of 1949 by 25 per cent, and will be more than double the amount required by the American people in 1940. The oil industry is currently supplying about two gallons of oil products each day for every man, woman, and child in the nation.

These enormous investments by the oil industry provide the additional oil wells, the new pipe lines, the added refining capacity and distribution facilities to make available the oil for normal requirements and to provide for national security.

All this new capacity is being added at a much higher cost than before the war. For example, the average well drilled by Humble last year cost more than three times as much as it did ten years ago. This 1951 average was $81,500 per well, but some dry holes cost as much as $500,000 and one producing well cost more than a million dollars to complete.

Humble's tax payments in 1951, excluding gasoline taxes collected by the Company for federal and state governments, amounted to $85 million and have added up to more than $335 million during the postwar years.

Mrs. Jimmy Kelso and Miss Rita Duncan spent the week end in Dallas visiting friends and relatives.

Mabel Walker Willebrandt served the government as assistant attorney general, in charge of all cases in the United States arising out of the Federal tax laws and prohibition. She also supervised the Bureau of Federal Prisons.

ROCKETS COMPETE IN SANDY RELAYS AT AMARILLO APRIL 11, 12

Seven members of the District 3-A championship track team will enter the Sandy Relays, an annual invitation event in Amarillo Saturday, Coach Maxey McKnight said this week.

Only top track and field athletes of the Panhandle are eligible to participate.

Entering from here will be the relay team composed of Clyde Ingram, Virgil White, Hoot Gibson and Seldon Wood.

Tommy Wood will enter the pole vault, low hurdles and broad jump.

Charles Johnson will go into the shot put and discus throw events. Tommy Beam will participate in the 440 yard dash.

Members of the relay team will also enter other events, with Ingram in the 100 yard dash; White the high jump; Gibson the high hurdles; and Seldon Wood the 100 and 220 yard dashes.

On the following week end, April 19, these boys will go to Lubbock to enter the Regional Interscholastic League track and field meet.

Three other men not entering the Amarillo will go to Lubbock. These will be three members of the mile relay team, Douglas Duncan, Calvin Hiett and Kenneth Covey. Beam is the fourth member of the team.

GARDENING IS FUN

Gardening is fun for the youngsters, but it's even more fun in a new cotton gardening dress, says the National Cotton Council. Made of washable, crease-resistant cotton, the dress is zipped down the back for perfect fit.

MISS SUNSHINE

Beaming her smile of approval for the new romper suit she is wearing is little Miss Sunshine. Made of sturdy washable cotton seersucker that is gay and charming, this sun and fun playsuit is neatly fastened with a Talon zipper. The National Cotton Council reported the pattern is available for children six months to one year.

Marry in Double Ceremony Here

In a quiet double wedding Saturday, April 5, in the First Methodist Church with Rev. J. F. Michael officiating, Miss Shirley Vaughn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. SWIM, ANYONE?

Who wouldn't with this lovely pool mermaid. She's wearing hand bra and scants from White Stag's latest addition to its fabric list—Sun Bonnet Chambray. White shoe-laces braided around top of halter, waistband and bottoms of shorts contrast gaily with orange ice, lemon ice, mint ice, blue ice and licorice colors.

SPANISH INFLUENCE

The Spanish influence is seen in this sports outfit by Rose Marie Reid. The fashionable toreador pants are done in cotton poplin. They're topped with a strapless sash waist in a Hope Skillman cotton stripe.

Miss Patsy Doebner Weds Billy Lacy In Double Ring Ceremony at Loco

By MRS. G. W. ADKINS
In a wedding of quiet simplicity performed Tuesday night, March 18, at 6:00 p.m., in the Loco Baptist Church, Miss Patsy Doebner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Doebner, Sr., became the bride of Billy Lacy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Lacy.

Rev. R. L. Melton performed the double ring ceremony before an altar banked with baskets of white gladiolus flanked by potted palms laced with white satin ribbon.

Stately white tapers in branched candelabra provided light for the ceremony. They were lighted by Misses Genevieve Bartlett and Virginia Lacy, sister of the groom. They wore spring shades with corsages of white carnations.

Miss Mary Sue Crawford was pianist, playing the traditional wedding marches.

L. B. Bratten, vocalist, sang "Because" and "Always" and was accompanied by Mrs. Frank Anderson.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a street length dress of blue salina cloth fashioned with a fitted bodice and circular skirt. The bodice was embroidered in cut work outlined with satin ribbon. Rhinestones were caught to the material. Her hat was of bluish pink flowers on net. Navy accessories completed her attire.

Her bouquet was of pink carnations tied with white satin streamers atop a white Bible. The tradition of something old, new, borrowed, and blue was carried out. For something old, she wore a rhinestone necklace and earrings.

Maid of honor was Miss Georgia Ann Durfey, who wore a dress of rose pink silk shantung. She carried a nosegay of rose pink and white carnations. White accessories completed her attire.

Miss Veda Joyce Preston was flower girl. She wore a pink taffeta and carried an orchid basket of pastel pansies.

Thomas Doebner, Jr., brother of the bride, was ring bearer. The rings were placed on a white satin pillow.

Dennis Preston, cousin of the groom, was best man, while Calvin Lacy, brother of the groom, was usher.

Mrs. Doebner chose for her daughter's wedding a dress of pale pink taffeta with an overskirt of nylon net with raised flowers. She wore a corsage of blue carnations, with navy accessories completing her attire.

Mrs. Lacy, mother of the groom, wore a dress of grey silk shantung with navy accessories. She wore a corsage of white carnations.

Mrs. Lacy is a member of the Junior class of Wellington High School, and will continue her studies there.

Mr. Lacy is a graduate of Wellington High School with the class of 1951. At the present he is engaged in farming.

The young couple are at home near Loco.

RECEPTION

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held in the church parlor.

The bride's table was laid with an ecru lace cloth over pink. The centerpiece was a pink maline heart surrounded with pink carnations and fern. A miniature bride and groom were standing under a heart shaped arch with "Patsy and Billy" written in gold.

Mrs. W. F. Harbin served the three tiered wedding cake, while Mrs. C. B. Bearden poured fruit punch. They were assisted by Miss Doris White.

Miss La Rue Monney of Kirkland, cousin of the bride, registered the guests in a bride's book made by Mrs. Herman Belew.

The couple left following the reception for a short wedding trip.

Miss Barnett Hostess To Blue Bird Club

Miss Jo Marie Barnett was hostess to a Easter luncheon at Jay's Dining Room honoring her Blue Bird Club Monday, March 31.

The tables were decorated with yellow and blue Easter baskets with each guest's name hidden among the eggs as place settings.

Tiny colored chickens with fortunes bound to the legs were drawn from a hat and read by each blue bird. A prize was given to the chicken and fortune with an X. The prize went to Myrna Henry.

Fried chicken ala carte, fountain drinks, and fruit jello were served to the following members: Sharon Campbell, Myrna Henry, Glenn Elbert, Patricia Sullivan, Kay Peoples, Lynda Orr, Cecilia Ray Anderson, guest, Joy Hartman, and the hostess, Jo Marie Barnett.

Family Reunion In Wright Home

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL
Mrs. G. C. Wright had a happy surprise for her April fool.

About dark the cars began driving in at the Wright and Isbell home.

The first to arrive was Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bolton, Nell and Richard, of Dumas. Mr. and Mrs. Bill Clifton of Wellington came next. Then the C. A. Wrights arrived and no one knew the others were coming.

All the Wright children were together for a few hours except Mrs. Nellie Gillespie of Roaring Springs, but she had remembered Mom Wright and sent her a very nice vacuum sweeper.

New Blouses in Stunning Colors Herald Spring

NEWS in nylon, billowing sleeves, garden colors—these are the characteristics of spring blouses.

The Gibson Girl look, so important for spring, is easily achieved through the addition of a blouse or two to your wardrobe. These might be in tissue chambray with billowing, push-up sleeves, high neckline and fluffy ruffles. Or, you've a choice of similar silhouettes in plaid, candy stripes or printed glazed cotton.

Nylon, essential to any blouse wardrobe, turns up in new guises this year. Nylon linen, nylon shantung, nylon batiste, ribbed nylon pique, yarn-dyed checked nylon tricot—all of these have miraculous nylon's wonderful properties.

Among the blouses designed for Judy Bond's spring collection is a group of silk taffeta shantungs, inspired by Parisian imports. Modestly priced, these are in the soft, iced pastels and in the vivid colors, such as purple, too.

Pleats and tucks are prominent in both tailored and dressy styles. Tucks are sometimes accented with lace, ric-rac or cording and braiding.

The delicate colors—pinks, lilacs, pale blues and maizes are best loved for these blouses. But the perennial and now-classic white makes a strong showing, too.

Project Show Spotlights Need for Education in Agriculture

Saturday after next is the date for the annual project show in Wellington. This is the time when the boys and girls of Collingsworth will have their big day as they exhibit their livestock and homemaking articles.

To use an old circus expression, the show will be bigger and better than ever this year. But the old bromide has a useful purpose when it happens to be true as will be demonstrated here on April 19.

The growth of the project show has been remarkable. In the beginning it was merely a livestock show for boys and there were not too many entries. In a few short years it has grown to the extent that it represents the best work of hundreds of our future farmers and farm wives. The various exhibits of both the boys and girls represent long hours of careful work and they should be appreciated as such.

There is something about the finished product that gives a sense of deep satisfaction to the creator of that product whether it be a beautiful dress, an enticing array of canned foods, a champion calf, a prize lamb or a big red sow with a cute litter of pigs. The sense of achievement is not the most important thing that the project show represents, and it should be remembered that the show is only a presentation of something more significant.

The show is important in itself. It gives color to what could be long and tedious hours of toil if there were nothing to show for it and no sense of approval from others. It gives the public a chance to see in concrete form what the young people are doing and learning. It gives the young people themselves a chance to compare their work and evaluate its excellence in comparison to what others have done and are doing. It provides the thrill and excitement of competition and showmanship.

But the real importance of the project show lies deeper. It is the symbol that proclaims the need for education of those who intend to be farmers and farm wives. Whether they receive the foundation for this education from a practical father and mother or whether they receive another good part of it from ag teachers, home economics teachers, county agents or whom is immaterial. The fact remains that the successful farmer of today is an educated and intelligent man and those who have succeeded in all aspects of life have intelligent and educated wives.

The farmer of tomorrow must know more technically than his father did if he is to be a success. The land itself is not as vigorous as it once was unless it has been made so by a careful, experienced and understanding husbandman. Economic problems are more complex. What were small matters to his grandfather are most important to the farmer of today. Profiting by the wisdom of their elders, it is to be expected that the young people of today will meet these new problems courageously and competently. But it is also obvious that the task will require education and training.

That is the importance of the project show. It is not the store. It is the show window that invites those who will to seek the values that are inside. It is not the airport, but it is the signal light that tells those who approach how and when to come and go safely. And the sign in the window and the signals of the light keep saying: Education, Understanding, Faith.

OTHER EDITORS SAY:—

There's No Substitute For Practical Training

The United States Government is paying an unusual tribute to an organization that flourishes in Bedford County and is building a better future for this community. The Post Office Department placed on sale commemorative stamps celebrating the fiftieth anniversary of the 4-H Club. No one who has seen the progress on our farms, the lifting of rural standards of working achieving and living, in the last decade or two, will question the fitness of this recognition. As generation after generation of boys and girls from our farms have graduated from the 4-H Clubs to adult responsibilities they have carried with them training, skills and ambitions that are transforming life in rural Virginia and rural America.

In Bedford County there are 38 4-H Clubs with a total membership of about one thousand. This means that a very large proportion of the young people in our farming areas are receiving the benefit of this down-to-earth, out-of-the-classroom practical training in meeting actual problems of farm life. They form part of a band of nearly two million boys and girls across the nation united with their motto—"Head, Heart, Hands and Health"—for the betterment of country life. Members of the 4-H receive the various benefits of lectures, debates, fairs, contests, trips, educational and cultural facilities and the important, encouraging feeling of belonging to a strong and useful youth organization.

In Bedford County the 4-H Clubs are keenly alive, filled with enthusiastic ambitious young folk, guided by trained, intelligent and sympathetic adult directors. They form a mighty agency for progress in one of the most vital phases of American life and deserve fully the salute which the nation makes on the golden anniversary of their organization—The Bedford (Va.) Democrat.

The Buck Creek Philosopher

Editor's note. The Buck Creek Philosopher on his Johnson grass farm is about half-way serious this week, we suspect. Dear editor:

While it looks like one of the hardest things on earth to do nowadays is to find somebody who has a good enough record of his own to be investigated somebody else's record, I don't think the President ought to give up. There ought to be somebody.

Surely there is somebody left in this country who hasn't been in on a surplus ship deal, hasn't dealt with any Washington mystery men, hasn't sold oil to the enemy, hasn't become a millionaire two years after getting a government job, isn't getting a government pension he isn't entitled to, hasn't got a wife who's a stenographer to a big shot, hasn't borrowed from the RFC, hasn't helped somebody borrow from the RFC, hasn't cheated on his income tax, hasn't tried to help somebody who has, hasn't been fired from a tax collection job, hasn't been a character witness for a convict, hasn't beat his hotel bill, isn't behind on his house rent, hasn't had any lush war contracts, isn't afraid to give a financial statement, and who has the brains to recognize a suspicious situation when it arises.

Some people may be pessimistic but I still have faith in this country. I believe there are a lot of people with records clean enough to hold down this job, even to stand up to Congress, but I suspect they're hidin' out. Of course, I can't name any off-hand, as I ain't familiar with everybody in Washington, but surely there must be plenty around there. And if not, there are a lot of other places in the country where some honest man may be lurkin'.

Personally, I don't hanker for the job myself. Investigatin' Congress just ain't no job with a future to it. And besides, my record won't stand up. I ain't been in on any big deals, but when I was a boy, while I didn't play marbles for kumps, I did stake a few friends who were pretty good and later on we may have split the loot. My memory ain't clear on the matter. I got sort of a Congressional memory.

Maybe investigations are a poor way to make changes. Maybe voting is the answer. But who to vote for is something you'll have to answer for yourself.

Yours faithfully,
J. A.

Christ's Resurrection Brings New Faith

The Resurrection of Jesus of Nazareth is the one great ray of light, hope, faith and inspiration in what, without that fact, would be a dark and gloomy world.

It is in the presence of death that we seek some evidence that can assuage its sadness and create some overpowering hope and confidence that can bring light into darkness and tragedy. There is no evidence in nature, life, or history, except the evidence of the Resurrection of Jesus. It is the one supreme fact.

And what evidence have we of that Resurrection? The evidence of disciples whose own lives, outlook and actions were changed by the fact that they saw Him after His crucifixion.

They were affected by His death just as we all are affected by the death of one we love. They were sad beyond measure, and they were bewildered by the blow that had been struck.

But beyond their sadness was the intensity of a great disappointment and discouragement, the blasting of hopes that had been great enough to induce them to leave everything and follow a Master about to establish a kingdom.

Then suddenly their complete despair was transformed into a revival of faith that, in itself, was as the resurrection of something that had died. In that new-found faith their vain ambitions and their disputations about who should be first were all left behind.

Vision and courage of a new comprehension of the meaning of Christ and His Gospel inspired them to go forth to their spiritual conquest of the world.

The miracle of what happened to the disciples is the miracle of the Resurrection. And faith in the Risen Lord has been the power

Looking Ahead With George S. Benson

LOOSE SPENDING CRIPPLES CONGRESS

With very little assistance from the Federal government, the United States made tremendous progress during the half century from 1850 to 1900. There were some depressions and hardships but these conditions only temporarily slowed down the dynamic power of private enterprise with its incentives and competitive market system. During the 50 years preceding 1900, the Federal government was hardly noticeable; it scarcely touched the lives of businessmen and employees, housewives, doctors, lawyers and candlestick makers. The citizenry as a whole was law abiding and possessed of high moral integrity.

The relationship existing between the Federal government and the states and citizens in 1900 might be likened to the relationship that exists today in many nationwide service organizations. For instance, a local civic club—Lions, Kiwanis, Rotary—holds membership in a national organization. There is a national headquarters. But it is far away and participates scarcely at all in the local club's affairs.

LOCAL INDEPENDENCE
The local civic club subscribes to the principles set forth in the national charter of its organization, occasionally gets one of its members elected to a national office, sends two or three members to the organization's national convention, and levies an assessment of $2 or $3 a year on each member to defray the cost of operating the national headquarters. Otherwise, the local club runs its own business, hardly aware of the existence of the national headquarters. That's about the kind of relationship our citizens and states had with their Federal government 50 years ago.

In 1900, members of the civic club "U. S. A."—the American citizens—were paying an average of only $3.88 each in taxes per year to defray the total cost of operating the Federal government. A family of five thus was paying an average of $19.40 a year in all forms of Federal taxes. Today that's hard to believe. On the basis of the present Federal budget, the bite placed on each citizen is averaging $477 a year; and a family of five, $2,375. That's an increase since 1900 of 12,200 per cent in the cost of Federal government to the individual citizen!

SMALL GOVERNMENT
In 1900, after a period of the greatest economic progress a people had ever known, the nation's debt was only $1,263,000,000, amounting to a mere $15 per person for the 76,000,000 population of that day, or $75 for a family of five. Thus, in these 1900 figures on per capita debt ($15) and cost of government ($3.88 a year) we see that the activities of the Federal government were small, an insignificant factor in national progress. A growing nation, a progressing nation was scarcely aware of the existence of a Federal government. That's an important fact to remember.

In contrast today, our Federal

Soil Conservation Week Set for May 4 Through 10

Landowners throughout the Collingsworth area are making plans for observing Soil Conservation District Week, a special period set aside by the Texas Association of Soil Conservation District Supervisors to emphasize the importance of conservation in all its phases.

The March issue of "Soil and Water," the magazine published by the landowners of Texas, gives prominent display to the special week by publishing a proclamation by Gov. Allan Shivers, along with pictures and articles.

In his proclamation Gov. Shivers, pointing out that "Texas landowners have organized 164 soil conservation districts under State Law covering approximately 95 per cent of the land area of Texas," says that "these districts and the Texas landowners who operate them, assisted by the many organizations concerned with conservation of our soil and water resources, are proving that known conservation techniques and practices will stabilize our soil, conserve our water and render each acre of land more productive."

Soil and water conservation, he said "is bringing economic benefit to Texans, and it is fitting that all groups and individuals, whether government, civic or private, should assist in this program and its observation."

The week of May 4 to May 10 has been designated by the Governor as "Soil Conservation District Week," and district cooperators throughout this area are making plans now for joining with cooperators throughout the state in observing the week locally.

Civic clubs, women's organizations, churches, schools, etc. will be asked to cooperate, and detailed plans for informing the public more fully on the benefits of soil and water conservation in this area will be announced later.

No Extension of Deadline

4 Approved Inspection Stations in County

AUSTIN — "Get your vehicle inspected and avoid the delay and inconvenience of having to wait in line," said Chief G. W. Busby, Motor Vehicle Inspection Division, Department of Public Safety, Austin, Texas.

The 2700 official inspection stations licensed in Texas so far are inspecting some 50,000 cars per week and in order to inspect all the cars in this State by the deadline, September 6th, the number of cars inspected per week will have to be doubled.

There can be no further extension of the deadline and operators of vehicles not inspected on September 7th will be subject to arrest. The law provides a fine of not to exceed $200.00 for any person guilty of operating a vehicle after September 7th when such vehicle has not been inspected and approved.

More and more stations are being licensed in Texas daily and the operators of these stations are waiting to faithfully and honestly inspect your car at your earliest convenience. Take your car to the inspection station of your choice and get your approval certificate while there is plenty of time and no waiting.

When you get your approval certificate on your car, you will take pride in knowing that your car is safe to operate and that you are helping to contribute to a safer Texas.

At the present there are four approved inspection stations in Collingsworth County. These are Collingsworth Motor Co., Kendrick Oldsmobile, Castleberry Motor Co., and Clark Chevrolet.

There are 4,503 vehicles in Collingsworth County which will be required to have this inspection. Approximately 500 of these vehicles have been inspected which leaves about 4,000 to be inspected between now and September 6.

Have Your Car Inspected Early

AUSTIN — Motorists are urged to have their motor vehicles safety inspected while there is a lull before the expected rush to inspection stations.

G. W. Busby, chief of the Motor Vehicle Inspection Division of the Texas Department of Public Safety, said 2,400 inspection stations have been certified to aid motorists in complying with the new state law. September 6 is the final deadline for having all motor vehicles certified for safe driving. Busby said the movement of vehicles to inspection stations is lagging, with only about 40,000 being inspected weekly. If a bottleneck is to be avoided before the deadline, he said, at least 100,000 vehicles a week will have to flow through the stations.

Requirements under the new safety law have been modified considerably following an anticipated rush to inspection stations when the law became effective a few months ago. Safety Department officials said many new inspection stations are being certified weekly to aid in avoiding another bottleneck.

"We earnestly hope that motorists will take advantage of the lull we are now having and avoid a last-minute rush in order to comply with the September 6 deadline," Busby said.

Bolton Recovering From Injuries Received at Dumas

By MRS. R. H. ISBELL
Here during the week end were Mr. and Mrs. U. S. Bolton and children, Nell and Richard, of Dumas. Mr. Bolton was seriously injured a few weeks ago while working on his oil field job. A heavy pipe came loose, striking him in the chest and stomach and knocking him backward quite a few feet.

His back struck some heavy timbers, almost breaking it. He is doing very well now and doctors removed the cast last Monday morning. He hopes to return to work in a week or so.

Mrs. Bolton is employed, at the Dumas Hospital.

They visited in the Salt Fork community and also at Dodson with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Sherd Bolton. Mrs. Bolton wasn't as well as she had been and Mrs. U. S. Bolton brought her to Wellington Monday to see her doctor.

GIRAFFES FEATURED WITH AL G. KELLY-MILLER CIRCUS COMING FRIDAY, MAY 2ND

Above: shown a herd of giraffes, who are said to be the tallest of all animals. Giraffes are a recent addition to the large collection of animals carried by the Al G. Kelly-Miller Bros. Circus, scheduled to play an afternoon and night engagement at the Old Fair grounds in Wellington on Friday, May 2nd.

Big Circus Brings First Giraffes To City

The average circus that visits Wellington have carried or boasted of exhibiting a herd of giraffes. Al G. Kelly-Miller Bros. is the only American circus now exhibiting Giraffes, and only seven zoological institutions in the nation have them as an attraction.

Giraffes which are found only in the continent of Africa are the tallest of all living creatures. They belong to the Ruminants, of Cud-chewers and naturalists are inclined to place them somewhere between the Deer Family and the Hollow-Horned Ruminants, in which are to be found oxen, buffalo and antelopes.

The towering height of the giraffe is entirely attributable to the great length of the neck and limbs. A full-grown giraffe will measure approximately nineteen feet in height. Giraffes live mostly in forests or wooded country.

Undoubtedly, this will be the first time any circus has ever brought giraffes to Collingsworth County.

The Al G. Kelly-Miller Bros. Circus boasts this year of having the second largest herd of performing elephants in America and the most varied selection of wild animals ever with any circus. The management cordially invites the public to visit the show grounds upon arrival of the circus to see the many animals fed and watered, especially school students. This feeding and watering is usually done at nine a.m., show day.

Soil Conservation Everybody's Job YOUTHFUL CONTESTANTS TELL WHY SAVING LAND NECESSARY

Here are the three essays that tied for third place in the county essay contest under the Save the Soil and Save Texas contest. These three winners have had their essays entered in the state contest, along with the first and second place winners, whose stories were published earlier.

SOIL CONSERVATION IS EVERYBODY'S JOB

Beatrice Clauch
Soil Conservation everybody's job? Yes, I mean just that! If people long, long ago had not made it their job, just think what the world would be today. It might be a regular dustbowl or waterway.

If it were not for soil conservation, there would be a possibility that we would know hunger and want. When food was planted, the power of water or wind could destroy it. This same thing could happen to the seed that we plant to produce the materials to make our clothing.

Today, because of soil conservation, our land produces almost two times as much. We have helped our soil produce more by building terraces and dams to prevent water erosion and also by planting cover crop and deep breaking to prevent wind erosion.

So you see, this thing called soil conservation is really a wonderful meaning to it.

Jo White, English III
Quail High School

The need for conserving the soil in our Nation has received a lot more recognition the last few years from agriculture leaders, farmers and the general public. The general public has agreed that it is not only the farmers alone to conserve our resources but the general welfare of the people. The whole nation helps support it now.

The Federal Government bears a part of the cost of carrying on the needed soil and water conservation practices which otherwise probably would not be carried out. The farmers have the greater part of the cost of conservation measures.

The government realizes more every day how important the soil is to everyone. This is the reason we need to study and learn how to protect the soil from the weather.

There are many ways farmers can preserve the soil from which we get everything we live on from day to day.

The farmers terrace their land to keep down water erosion. The government helps conserve the soil by helping the farmers pay for a certain per cent of having the land terraced. If the farmers did not terrace the land, good rich top soil on hillsides or slightly rolling land would be washed down into creeks or ditches. The land then would be poor land that would not grow anything.

The farmers strip crop to keep from having wind erosion and to build up the soil. There are certain crops that will take minerals out of the soil and the next crop will put it back and use some other one.

The farmers plant wheat, rye, barley and grasses for a cover crop after they have gathered their row crop to keep the land from blowing away. Farmers will sometimes turn under rye, wheat, barley and grasses while they are still green where they will decay and the ground will be fertilized. The government will pay the farmers to do this also.

The government put the shelter belts out to protect the soil from wind erosion in the year of 1934. When they first put them out, they paid the farmers to work them and keep them clean.

The farmers chisel their land after they have harvested their crops. This makes the land hold moisture for the next year's crop. Subsoiling permits the penetration of water. This would make the crop grow better and produce more products. Farmers fertilize their crops that have not had other improvements for the soil.

Deep breaking is the most common way of conserving the soil. It is the best way to keep down wind erosion and it turns up a fertile top soil for crops. It turns up a fertile soil that has all the needed minerals that plants must have to grow and produce as they should. It turns under the old top soil that later will build up. Breaking land brings clod-forming subsoil to the surface of the sandy cropland to prevent wind erosion. The government pays a per cent on this type of conserving the soil.

The important thing is to conserve the soil all the people depend on and will continue to live on.

By Don Kennedy
English 3, Quail High School
The soil is the life of this United States, for if there were no soil there would be nothing to do. There would be nothing for people to live on.

Let us start at the first. The farmer is first to do his job. He raises the crop and tends the land. The most of the worry is his for he has to tend the soil because if he does not he will not make a crop.

The next man to handle the crop is the manufacturer. If the farmer does not tend the land and make a crop, the manufacturer has nothing to do. Then his laborers do not have jobs.

If it were not for the soil, there would be no reason to send a congressman or senator to Washington from a farm area as there would be nothing for him to do. Then it is to his interest to help the farmer to get help to carry on soil conservation.

According to a survey, if the soil keeps depreciating as it is now, by 1974 the United States cannot feed its own population. That is another great reason why it is the job of everyone to help preserve the soil.

It is the interest of the laborer who works in a mine or any other industry to help preserve the soil because all the food he eats comes from the farm. If the soil is poor the less it produces and the higher the price of products becomes.

CHRYSLER C-200 MAKES DEBUT

Newest American experimental car, Chrysler Corporation's C-200 convertible, is being shown for the first time in New York City after arriving from Europe aboard the liner S.S. Constitution. Conceived and designed in Detroit by Chrysler engineers, the C-200 was built in Italy in a further experiment to explore the blending of sports car styling with practical automobile design and engineering features. Picture at top shows the C-200 being unloaded from the liner in New York after a fast trans-Atlantic crossing. Below, a close-up view of the experimental convertible.

Then there is the thought, if the land gets too poor, everyone will go hungry. That is the great reason it is everyone's job to help in every little way to preserve the soil.

Mrs. J. P. Gilbreth of Hedley is a surgical patient in St. Joseph's Hospital. She was admitted April 2. Mrs. Gilbreth is the sister of Otto Russell, Mrs. W. C. Killingsworth and Mrs. Rudell Wood of Wellington.

CHRYSLER FirePower is so much more than HORSEPOWER

+ It's worth remembering that today's Chrysler V-8 is not a "warmed-over" engine, but basically brand new... the first truly new type engine of modern times. It does, indeed, open new horsepower potentials, but what it can mean to you goes way beyond just that...

+ FirePower gives your gasoline a better place to work... the first hemispherical combustion chamber in a stock-car engine. It makes possible more power from every drop of gas. You feel it the minute you open up a Chrysler, in greater accelerating power than you've ever had at your command...

+ FirePower is also a better-built engine throughout. It doesn't require premium fuel. It runs with less waste, less heat, less wear, less carbon deposit than other type engines can do. More of your gasoline's energy is turned into actual road power, greater reserve for passing and top speeds when needed...

+ Why not drive this revolutionary new-type engine, and feel its wonderful difference for yourself? Let your Chrysler dealer show you how much more than horsepower your money can buy in the engine Chrysler has designed from scratch to do an engine's job better, longer, and more efficiently than previous engines can hope to do!

Daniel to Hold Conference on Organized Crime

Attorney General Price Daniel announced today a second annual State-wide conference on organized crime to be attended by the State's 315 prosecuting attorneys and other law enforcement officers. Daniel said he has invited every County Attorney and District Attorney in Texas to attend the meeting in Dallas April 16, 17, and 18.

"The fight against commercial gambling and organized crime is a continuing battle," Daniel said. "Our crime conference last year did much toward keeping racketeers and hoodlums out of this State. This year we must let them know that Texas is still on guard and will not tolerate their unlawful activities."

The first State-wide conference of prosecuting attorneys at Austin last year was attended by most of the State's prosecuting attorneys, and has been credited with helping to bring about new legislation and better enforcement of laws against organized gambling in Texas, Daniel said. The Kefauver Senate Crime Committee gave special praise to the 1951 conference in its final report.

This year's conference in Dallas is jointly sponsored by the Attorney General and the Southwestern Legal Foundation at Southern Methodist University as a part of the annual Lawyers Week. Col. Robert G. Storey, President of the Southwestern Legal Foundation, and other business and professional leaders will join in the conference, discussing means to combat be donated to the building fund of the Dawn church.

Sunrise is at 6:18 Easter morning, but the light will be good by 6 o'clock. Visitors are urged to time their arrival at the park before 6 o'clock to allow for a leisurely drive down the Goodnight Train road to the scene of the service.

Sunrise Easter Service at Palo Duro Canyon

CANYON — The annual sunrise Easter Service in Palo Duro Canyon State Park will be conducted by the Dawn Community Baptist church beginning at 6 o'clock Sunday morning.

Site for the service is the Number One Crossing area which will accommodate several hundred parked cars. The Rev. Paul McClung, pastor of the Dawn church will deliver the sermon from the top of a hill which rises out of the red bluffs of the Prairie Dog Town Fork of the Red River. A choir will be stationed some 100 feet below and it is estimated that a crowd of 10,000 can see and hear the service.

Officials of the Dawn church will have charge of the arrangements and additional employees are being readied to handle the admissions at the gate. All facilities at the park will be closed until after the service. The usual admission charges will be made and the concessionaire's part, will immorality in government, Daniel stated.

Prominent speakers include Senator Estes Kefauver, who will address a public meeting on the night of April 16, Mayor de Lesseps S. Morrison of New Orleans, D. A. Huley, President of the U. S. Chamber of Commerce, Virgil Peterson, Director, Chicago Crime Commission, Col. Homer Garrison, Jr., Director of the Department of Public Safety, Hon. Fred V. Meridith, Chairman of the Texas House Investigating Committee on Organized Crime, President M. E. Sadler of Texas Christian University, District Attorney R. L. Whitehead of Longview, Criminal District Attorney Henry Wade of Dallas, Criminal District Judge Robert A. Hall of Dallas, Sheriff

C. H. (Charley) Meyer of Beaumont, Constable Kal Segrist of Dallas, Chief of Police J. W. Dellinger of Taylor, and representatives of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Allison from Compton, California are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Lasater and family and Mr. C. F. Allison, and other relatives and friends here.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Duke of Dimmitt and Mr. Lawrence Gillespie of Clovis, New Mexico visited Mr. and Mrs. Luther McPherson over the week end. They all attended their uncle's funeral, Mr. J. A. Duke, in Wheeler Sunday.
