Ruby May Face Jury In 2 Weeks

By JERRY PILLARD
DALLAS, Tex. (AP) — Jack Ruby, who shot the accused assassin of President John F. Kennedy as thousands watched on television, may go to trial on a murder charge within two weeks.

County grand jurors indicted Ruby Tuesday in the shooting of Lee Harvey Oswald. Ruby's trial is tentatively set for Dec. 9.

Dist. Atty. Henry Wade said he will ask the death penalty. Defense lawyer Tom Howard of Dallas said the highly emotional Ruby had settled down somewhat since the shooting in the City Hall basement as police started to move Oswald to the county jail.

"He was much more calm than he was yesterday," Howard said. "He talked in more normal tones but he is still an excitable person when he talks normally."

The lawyer said Ruby mentioned seeing a picture of Mrs. Kennedy with blood on her dress.

"Tears came to his eyes," Howard said. "He showed tremendous concern for the Kennedy or his wife."

Ruby, 32, who owns a downtown strip tease establishment and a dance hall in Dallas, told Howard he stopped Sunday at the spot where Kennedy was shot two days earlier. This was shortly before Ruby went on to the city jail where Oswald was killed.

Ruby, known to many Dallas policemen, waited outside the jail with newsmen Sunday. As Oswald was being escorted to an armored car, Ruby lunged from the crowd and fired.

Texas Atty. Gen. Waggoner Carr and a congressional committee have ordered probes of both the Kennedy and Oswald slayings.

Howard said he knew of no connection between Ruby and Oswald. He said that as his client told it, Ruby first saw Oswald Friday night. This was a few hours after the assassination when Oswald was charged first with killing a Dallas police officer and taken before newsmen.

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson told the nation and the world today that the ideas and ideals of John F. Kennedy "must and will be translated into effective action."

The new President appealed at the same time for "an end to teaching and preaching of hate and evil and violence. Let us turn away from the fanatics of the far left and the far right, from the apostles of bitterness and bigotry, from those defiant of law, and those who pour venom into our nation's bloodstream."

Johnson expressed the hope that "the tragedy and torment of these terrible days will bind us together in new fellowship."

Johnson said he is determined to probe for any sign of U.S. uncertainty or weakness in Asian policy following the death of President Kennedy.

The Chinese swiftly denounced Johnson as a supporter of Kennedy's "various reactionary policies." This has been followed by hostile appraisals of Johnson from North Vietnam and the Pro-Communist Pathet Lao of Laos.

North Korea has not rejected the American offer of a change of leadership. But it has stepped up the virulence and volume of its anti-U.S. campaign.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The long strike-threatened railroad dispute toward the courts today and a new legal tangle over an arbitration ruling permitting the elimination of thousands of firemen's jobs.

The ruling handed down Tuesday by a special panel, was ordered by Congress to forestall a nationwide strike last August and settle the key issues in the union-railroad struggle over work rules.

Two of the unions announced they will challenge the arbitration decision and its legal basis in the courts.

Thus a new snarl appeared to be added to the four-year dispute and negotiations on what Congress figured were secondary issues also bogged down. Each side blamed the other for the lack of progress in the talks.

Snyderite Serves As MP At Dulles

Bobby W. (Mokey) Hale, 20-year-old Snyderite and son of Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Hale, 2214 Forty-second Street, has informed his parents in a telephone conversation, that he has been participating in a vital part of the activities in Washington, D. C. brought about by President Kennedy's death. Pvt. Hale is assigned as a military policeman at Fort Belvoir, Va.

Hale is one of the nine MPs picked as security guards for Washington's Dulles International Airport. Working on a round-the-clock basis since Friday, the group is being quartered on the airfield until completion of the assignment. The special duty is expected to end by Thursday.

Calling from Dulles, Hale stated that his duty included meeting the planes of arriving dignitaries and escorting them to the terminal gate where other security personnel take over. Hale's team then board the planes, removing any parcels or personal items left behind.

This is a measure for providing easier detection of any possible object being later placed aboard that might threaten the safety of the plane's occupants. Periodic checks of the plane's interior are made by the group and a guard posted outside for further precautions.

Birthday Party Not As Expected

By FRANCES LEWINE
WASHINGTON (AP) — Today is Caroline Kennedy's sixth birthday. She had expected to have an ice cream-and-cake party in her White House home for the third year in a row.

She could have expected her smiling, handsome father to come and watch the fun for at least a moment. He always did. She could have expected a surprise, like the clown and the real live monkey her mother had provided for two birthdays in the past—and cartoon movies in the White House projection room.

She probably had her party dress all ready. White House emissaries had bought the party favors.

Five days ago, Caroline and her brother John Jr., were suddenly taken to their grandmother's Aachenloch for dinner.

They were had in their own beds at 4:30 a.m. when a Navy ambulance pulled up to the big front porch of their home amid television floodlights and their mother came up the steps with blood spattered on her clothes.

Next day, White House spokesmen said Caroline and her brother learned the news that meant their father would come to no more of their happy parties.

Their mother took them by the hand into the huge East Room where they had watched dancing and receptions and entertainment and where their father had stood stiffly in the doorway while the scarlet-coated Marine Band they loved played "Hail to the Chief."

This time, there were black ribbons in the huge glittering crystal chandeliers and a big coffin stood in the center of the room.

Their mother took them by the hand—in their pale blue coats, red shoes and white socks—to ride in the limo to the Capitol. When they climbed the long steps with her, the coffin was there again draped with a big American flag.

They were taken to the mortuary where they were to lie in state. They were taken to the mortuary where they were to lie in state.

Johnson Clarifies Position On Vital World Questions

By REILMAN MORIN
Associated Press Staff Writer
WASHINGTON (AP) — The towering domestic problem in the United States today, and a tricky political issue in the battle for the presidency next year, is the question of full equality for the Negro.

President Johnson is a Southerner.

But speaking last Memorial Day on the site of the Battle of Gettysburg Johnson said: "Until justice is blind to color, until education is unaware of race, until opportunity is unconcerned with the color of men's skins, emancipation will be a proclamation but not a fact."

Johnson helped guide some civil rights legislation through the Senate in 1957 and 1960.

As a political realist, he knows his position on civil rights can cost him the likely vote that he is the Democratic nominee in 1964. In Texas, only a few hours before President Kennedy was assassinated, Johnson said, "the civil rights issue is going to hurt us."

It may be a factor in parts of the North too. Some Northern politicians call civil rights an "iceberg issue"—meaning there is more hidden than visible opposition to Kennedy administration proposals in this field.

Where does Johnson stand on other issues?

Johnson's voting record shows:
Labor—In 1947, he voted to override President Truman's veto of the Taft-Hartley Labor Relations Act. In 1952, he voted to request the President to invoke the injunction provisions of the Taft-Hartley act in the steel strike. In other votes, he supported requesting unions to elect their officers by secret ballot every four years and republicize our diplomatic corps and ambassadors who know their language and have qualifications other than contributing to campaign chests.

Public Will Likely Hear Evidence
DALLAS (AP) — The Dallas News said today that FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover is expected to take charge of this evidence. It said Hoover is expected to announce, probably this week, that:

1. The evidence shows conclusively that Lee Harvey Oswald was the assassin of President Kennedy and seriously wounded Gov. John Connally here Friday.

2. There is no proof of a Communist conspiracy.

3. Investigators lack evidence which would prove that Oswald had helped the show which is expected to take charge of this evidence. It said Hoover is expected to announce, probably this week, that:

whom we differ; and generous and loyal to those who join with us in common cause."

He said "those who test our courage will find it strong and those who seek our friendship will find it honorable."

In a general assertion of foreign policy, Johnson said: "Let all the world know, and none misunderstand, that I re-dedicate this government to the unwavering support of the United Nations — to the honorable and determined execution of our commitments to our allies — to the maintenance of military strength second to none — to the defense of the strength and stability of the dollar — to the expansion of our foreign trade — to the reinforcement of our programs of mutual assistance and cooperation in Asia and Africa — and to our Alliance For Progress in this hemisphere."

Appealing for help from all Americans in carrying out his new responsibilities, Johnson said: "An assassin's bullet has thrust upon me the awesome burden of the presidency. I am here today to say that I need your help. I cannot bear this burden alone. I need the help of all Americans."

Declaring that the nation "has experienced a profound shock," Johnson said it is a national duty of this time "to do away with uncertainty and to show that we are capable of decisive action — that from the brutal loss of our leader we will derive not weakness but strength — that we can and will act and act now."

In addition to calling for top priority action on civil rights and tax cut legislation, Johnson said action also is needed on pending education bills, the youth employment opportunities bill, the foreign aid program and the remaining appropriation bills.

"We will carry on the fight against poverty and misery, ignorance and disease — in other lands and in our own," he pledged. "We will serve all of the nation, not one section or one sector, or one group, but all Americans."

Stating his own philosophy toward government fiscal policy, Johnson said that, "in particular I pledge that the expenditures of the government will be administered with the utmost thrift and frugality."

Cabell Wants Monument For Kennedy

DALLAS (AP) — Mayor Earle Cabell wants Dallas to start and lead a drive to place a suitable monument in Washington, for President Kennedy.

He made this suggestion in a national television appearance Tuesday as Dallas leaders advanced a variety of ideas for the City to provide a monument or memorial plaza.

Mayor pro tem Carle Welch urged at a city council meeting that a location near the scene of Kennedy's assassination here Friday be transformed into "President John Fitzgerald Kennedy Plaza."

"My proposal and recommendation would not be for a monument to be erected in Dallas," Cabell said later.

More fitting, he said, would be a "monument erected in our national capital that would belong to all of the people, where other national heroes have been enshrined and commemorated."

Joe Ratcliff, a former Texas legislator, said about 70 civic and business leaders have begun a "John F. Kennedy Memorial Foundation."

"We will finally have 300 joined together in this and we are thinking of a park and memorial and maybe even an annual scholarship," Ratcliff said.

Councilman Joe Moody demanded a city investigation of the circumstances surrounding the killing of Lee Harvey Oswald, the accused assassin, in the "The whole nation and world is watching us — they will judge us if we don't judge ourselves," Moody asserted at the city council session. The council took no action.

Patterns Of Education Heard At Meeting Here

"Changing Patterns in Our Educational World" was the program topic of the recent meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honor society for women educators. The topic was discussed by a panel of teachers, members of Zeta Lambda Chapter; Agnes Kunkel, Vestal Maner, and Dorothy Miller.

Mrs. Kunkel discussed John Conant's recommendations for the changing patterns of education. Dr. Conant has written several books and many magazine articles on schools. He has recently been engaged in a study of American teacher education. Dr. Conant states that a university unless he is capable of independent thought. The job of education is to train the mind to cope with new situations and new complications, to develop critical judgments of new problems as they present themselves for solution.

Dorothy Miller closed the discussion with illustrations on building bridges of understanding between administrators and teachers.

Mrs. Miller gave the qualifications of a good teacher as the superintendent sees him and the qualifications of a good superintendent as the teacher sees him as published in the National Education Association publication April 1960.

Common factors of a good teacher are scholarship, patience, ambition, professional competency, love of children, and insight.

The ideal superintendent has the quality of leadership, educational instruction, vision to accept new methods, allows staff to express opinions, and is an example in courage, integrity, professional responsibilities. In order to bridge the gap between administration and teachers many ideas are being tried throughout America. It was pointed out that in the local level we have a handbook of policies set forth by the board and superintendent. Cooperation is needed between all concerned if the gap is to be bridged.

The meeting was called to order by Virginia Grove, president of Zeta Lambda Chapter. This was followed by a season of silent prayer for our nation in this time of tragedy. The professional affairs committee report was given by Laura Holiday and Delia McPherson.

Hostesses for the meeting were: Johnny Cogdell, Esther Boren, Joyce Gorman, and Mabel Brock.

Members attending the meeting other than those on program and hostesses were: Ruby Anderson, Vela Bell, Barbara Biglum, Zaida Brown, Maydelle Burns, Rita Carter, Georgene Galloway, Virginia Grove, Hazel Hanback, Laura Holladay, Marcene McCollum, Delia McPherson, Lida Rhoades, and Reta Traugott.

Plum Pudding For Thanksgiving

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor
NEW ENGLAND families often serve plum pudding, along with the traditional pies, for Thanksgiving dinner.

If this custom appeals to you, we urge you to try our favorite modern recipe for a steamed pudding of this kind. To us, this pudding is more appealing than the old-time English-type plum pudding because it's lighter in texture and flavor. Try this recipe and see if you don't agree.

You can make this pudding ahead, remove it from its mold, wrap it appropriately and freezer-store. When you're ready to serve the dessert—whether this is to be at Thanksgiving or Christmas—unwrap it, turn it back into its original mold, defrost and resteam for about an hour.

HOLIDAY PUDDING
1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
1/2 cup orange juice
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup (one 8-ounce jar or package) diced mixed candied fruit and peels
1 large apple, pared and chopped (1 cup)
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
2 eggs
1/2 cup ground suet, packed down
1/4 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts
1/2 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon each salt and cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon each allspice and cloves

In a small bowl stir together the molasses and orange juice; stir in the raisins, candied fruit, apple and orange rind; let stand 1 hour. In a large mixing bowl beat the eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; mix in suet, bread

FOR OUR MANY BLESSINGS

Antique Shopping A Hazard

By LOUIS MILLNER
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Antique shopping is one of the hazards a husband must expect when he takes his wife to a convention in New Orleans. Antique stores are not on the sightseeing tours but any woman can find them. Set a woman down in an uncharted wilderness and in a few minutes she can be found prying spinning wheels at Ye Olde Shoppe in some hamlet. Place her blindfolded in New York City and soon she will be at a 3rd Avenue antique shop.

By the time the husband has found the convention headquarters here and has an identification label pinned to his coat lapel his wife already has window-shopped half a dozen stores and earmarked items for further consideration.

While the delegate is being exhorted by the convention speakers to put his shoulder to the wheel or help put his house in order, the wife is rummaging through silver inkwells, brass firescreens and marble-topped tables.

Among some groups, antique buying is a game with a definite set of rules.

If you play the game, rule No. 1 is not to announce your intention upon entering the store. Go in casually. You are "just looking, thank you."

The next move is to price one or more items, depending upon how much time is left. Then start to leave. Now is the time to start to work.

"Oh, by the way, how much are those old pewter candlesticks?" The dealers, relieved to learn the actual object of affection, quotes a price. There may be discussion, offers, counter-offers before the ultimate sale.

But the shopper now not only has pestered candlesticks but an accompanying story, which undoubtedly will be embellished, to relate when she returns home.

A bit of advice—be on guard. A shopper once entered a store with the intention of working up to a quotation on a large mirror in a gilded frame. Observing rule No. 1, she asked the price of the first object in sight, an enormous bookcase. Then, stunned by an unexpectedly low price, she forgot her battle plans and bought the bookcase. The bookcase now covers the spot where the mirror would have gone.

Meader To Cease 'Spoo' Recordings

NEW YORK (AP)—Vaughn Meader, who rose to fame with his recordings spoofing Kennedy and his family, says he never expects to do the imitation again. Meader said through his manager Tuesday that in respect for the late President, he has requested postponement of two night club appearances scheduled for later this month and next.

In his night club routine, Meader devoted about five minutes of his hour-long stint on stage doing imitations of Kennedy.

McDowell's widow Margaret and daughter Rebecca, 2, lived at Webb AFB.

Webb Based Pilot Dies

BIG SPRING (AP)—Lt. Harry M. McDowell of Bonham died in the crash of his jet fighter plane here Tuesday.

Webb Air Force Base officials said the fighter was an F104 single engine jet of the 331st Fighter Interceptor Squadron. It crashed south of U.S. 80 shortly after the pilot radioed he had trouble.

McDowell's widow Margaret and daughter Rebecca, 2, lived at Webb AFB.

Johnson's Political Record Reveals Determined Person

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—If President Dwight D. Eisenhower's record with Congress looked good at all—in getting things done and programs through—he owed a lot of thanks to Lyndon B. Johnson, the new President.

For six of Eisenhower's eight White House years the Democrats ran Congress and Johnson, a man of tremendous drive, ran the Senate. This tall Texan was the most effective Senate leader in the century, probably in history.

It was not the result of personality. He lacked the immediate charm of President John F. Kennedy. He was not a distinguished speaker. But he did his homework and did it prodigiously.

Because he is that kind of man, he will work enormously at the presidency. Any mistakes will be mistakes of judgment. They won't come from lack of trying.

He was a master of detail. He knew where every senator stood on every issue and, before voting time where every senator was or was going to be. He befriended all of them when he could and thus was able to expect their support when he needed it.

His egotism, and he has a lot of it, didn't stand in the way of his accomplishment. Because Dwight D. Eisenhower's egotism is a natural part of him, he carries it into the White House with him.

Just because of his egotism—because it makes success necessary for him—he will be hard-driven to succeed. When he is in charge, there is never any doubt who is boss. He showed this in the Senate.

While it was resented by some of his fellow-Democrats—particularly the liberals—it was one of the keys to his effectiveness. He can't leave this part of his personality behind him at the White House door, either.

Johnson, sensitive to criticism will now, like any other president, get a lot of it. His Senate years prepared him for it, although he may not take it lying down.

Johnson proved himself a master of politics and of handling men in his Senate years. But handling foreign affairs has been outside his experience. He faces here a new challenge in which to prove himself.

Of all the leadership arts he used in the Senate—a place full of prima donnas with strong feelings on many issues—the one Johnson used most visibly was compromise, like grease to get a bill through warring factions. His technique was to get both sides to make some concessions, even though both sides were less than pleased with the result. For example: It happened once in a struggle between Southern Democrats and Northern liberals.

At the end of the captain of the Southerners, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., said it was a sad day. The captain of the liberals, Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., called it a victory for the South.

But it was Johnson—and not one but Johnson could have done it—who steered through the Senate the first two civil rights bills since Reconstruction days in the 19th century. They weren't much, but they opened the door to stronger measures later.

Kennedy this year wanted a stronger one. Johnson supported him. Since he is no longer in the Senate, one of the first big steps of his presidency will come on the civil rights issue.

Junior Editors Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: Why does the flame of a candle stand up against gravity?

ANSWER: Gravity certainly does tend to pull things down but as you study our diagrams you'll understand why the flame on the candle stands up. When air is warmed, it tends to expand as the molecules become more active. This makes it less dense than cold air, and thus lighter. Since cold air is heavier, it sinks, while warm air goes up. Like warm air, a flame is also light and tends to rise. Another reason it rises is that the air above it gets heated, and this air then expands, leaving a partial vacuum which helps suck the flame upward.

When air becomes warmed over certain heated spots on the earth's surface, colder air sinks below it and pushes it up. It is the movements between these warm and cool air masses which cause the winds.

FOR NOT TO DO: Tear a ribbon of tissue paper and hold it over a hot radiator by one end; the other end will start to move and lift up. This will prove that hot air rises.

(Margery Gorb of Wichita Falls, Tex., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Eulogized 2 Presidents

HOUSTON (AP)—An 89-year-old theologian eulogized President Kennedy Tuesday, 62 years after delivering a similar memorial address for assassinated President William McKinley. Students overflowed onto the lawn outside Cullen Auditorium at the University of Houston as Dr. Winfred E. Garrison spoke at a memorial service. He did not mention a similar service for McKinley at the then Central Christian Church in St. Louis. He said the dastardly deed that took President Kennedy's life does not prove society is decadent nor has grounds for national humility. "The possibility of such a crime," he said, "is part of the price society pays for a concentration of political importance in the person of one trusted and able leader and a concentration of potentially destructive physical power in such a small package that one man can use it recklessly."

Garrison said security measures can only approximate safety and "there remains a fatal margin of possibility." He said the nation, must do three things in these times of sorrow and stress: "1. We must feel it, deeply and poignantly. . . . 2. We must take it with fortitude and stamina, without letting sorrow prevail over courage and stability. . . . 3. We must go on, undimayed and unafraid, with renewed commitment to our country's cause and unshaken in its future. . . ."

No Sign Of That Sign
CHATTANOOGA, Tenn. (AP)—There's not a sign of a 1,000-pound billboard stolen from the side of a Chattanooga building. City detectives said the sign, owned by Service Auto Parts Co., was 15 feet high, 25 feet long and was lit by four shaded, flashing flood lamps.

This Thanksgiving Not Joyous Day

By The Associated Press
 With heavy hearts and prayerful resolve, Americans prepare to observe Thanksgiving Day, while still mourning the death of President John F. Kennedy.

"Our president's death has created an empty place at every dinner table," said a New Yorker busy shopping for Thursday's dinner.

"The 'empty place' is surely to be more keenly felt at Hyannis Port, Mass., where the Kennedy family will gather.

Mrs. Kennedy, the President's widow, has announced plans to fly to Hyannis Port Thanksgiving Day with her two children. Perhaps the nation's mood was best summed up by the Rev. John W. Regan, a curate at St. Francis Xavier church in Hyannis Port, when he said last Sunday:

"Here in America, this Thanksgiving will be different. This year, as the Pilgrims did, we will turn again to God. We have a great deal to be thankful for—the men who fought and died for us in the hot wars and in the cold war. We should be grateful for the great men God has given us."

President Johnson has urged that the Thanksgiving proclamation issued by President Kennedy Nov. 5 be read in churches Thursday.

The proclamation said in part:

"On that day let us gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection to express our gratitude for the glorious gifts of God; and let us earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished tasks of achieving peace, justice and understanding among all men and all nations and of ending misery and suffering wherever they exist."

President and Mrs. Johnson plan to have a family dinner at their home in Washington. Their daughters, Lynda Bird and Lucy will be there and so will Lynda's fiancé, Bernard Rosenberg.

In Massachusetts the traditional Pilgrim progress observance at Plymouth will pay tribute to two assassinated presidents—Kennedy in a special memorial service, and Lincoln, on the 100th anniversary of his proclamation making Thanksgiving a national holiday for the first time.

Kennedys Especially Burdened

By CORNELIUS F. HURLEY
 HYANNIS PORT, Mass. (AP)—The bereaved parents of assassinated President John F. Kennedy looked forward today to a Thanksgiving family reunion marred by grief.

The Kennedys, traditionally, have joined former Ambassador Joseph P. Kennedy and Mrs. Kennedy for Thanksgiving dinner and a family reunion at the seaside house which has been their summer home for years.

The late President's two surviving brothers and three sisters and their families are expected for the customary turkey dinner on Thursday. So is Jacqueline Kennedy, the young widow, and her two children, Caroline, 6 today, and John, 3.

The Thanksgiving reunions have been a big thing for the elder Kennedy, despite the crippling effects of the stroke which paralyzed him in 1961.

No other man ever had three sons who held the offices of president, attorney general and U. S. senator at the same time.

The shattering blow of the pointless slaying of their President son has been borne with grief, but without hysteria, according to an old family friend, the Rev. John Cavanaugh, president emeritus of Notre Dame University.

Word came Tuesday night that the President's widow would interrupt the task of packing for her move from the White House, to fly to Cape Cod Thursday morning with her two children to visit their grandparents for Thanksgiving Day.

Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and Sen. Edward M. Kennedy, D-Mass., who occupies the Senate seat once held by the late President, are expected at Hyannis Port either late today or Thursday morning, with their families.

John F. Kennedy was the third of the senior Kennedys' children to die violently.

Joseph P. Kennedy Jr., a Navy flier in World War II, was killed in 1945 in the explosion of a bomber over the English Channel.

A daughter, Kathleen, was killed in a plane crash in Europe shortly after the war.

Minister Is Under Guard

By PEGGY SIMPSON
 DALLAS (AP)—Police stood guard today outside the home of a minister who said in a nationwide television interview that some public school pupils cheered at word that President Kennedy had been shot Friday.

The Rev. William Holmes, pastor of the Northaven Methodist Church, made the statement Monday.

Sgt. W. A. Johnson said subsequent threats against the minister caused police to station two patrolmen at the Holmes residence.

A public school teacher, Miss Joanna Morgan, 22, also said part of her junior high school pupils applauded the news that Kennedy had been assassinated on a Dallas street.

Radio stations here quoted other teachers as denying there had been any such demonstration. Miss Morgan then said she was speaking out not to criticize her school or students but to support the minister's account.

The cheers were heard as the word came just before classes changed, she said.

"This was not the majority of opinion by any means—it's just that this was some students' first reaction," Miss Morgan said.

The Rev. Mr. Holmes, repeating part of his Sunday sermon, asserted much of the blame for the assassination of the President lay with middle-of-the-road moderates who failed to speak or act against radical groups, right or left.

Pupils who cheered were too young to know hate firsthand and were mirroring their parents' views, the minister said.

Miss Morgan said most pupils were grieved when they heard Kennedy had been shot, but "you certainly could tell which ones came from a background where there was no respect for the office of president."

She is an honor graduate of Southwestern University at Georgetown and the daughter of a Methodist minister, Dr. James William Morgan of Austin.

THE MODERN WAY TO GET NEEDED AUTO PARTS is demonstrated here by Bill Baldwin, owner of Bill's Auto Salvage on the East Highway. The teletype machine Baldwin is shown operating is part of a 14-station hookup connecting yards in Texas and New Mexico. The availability of any part can be determined in minutes by use of the teletype network.

Parts Available From 14 Salvage Yards Via Teletype

"I don't know how I'd get a long without it."

It was with these words that Bill Baldwin, owner of Bill's Auto Salvage described the teletype network which links the salvage yard here with thirteen other wrecking yards in Texas and New Mexico.

Baldwin admitted that when the opportunity to join the network was first presented, he was less than enthusiastic about it. As a matter of fact, it was some time before he joined on an experimental basis.

But now, after seeing what it can do for his customers and for the yard itself, Baldwin is a firm believer in the teletype network.

"It's a two-way street," Baldwin said. "Our customers benefit, but then so do the customers of every member of the network," he added.

For example, last week as we were watching the messages moving on the teletype, Midland asked about a transmission for a Simca. One of two yards were able to say "yes."

It's not too hard to put oneself in the position of that customer in Midland. Finding a Simca transmission all by yourself might be a long expensive process.

But with the free teletype

offered by the members of the network, it was just a matter of minutes.

It doesn't have to be a rare part like a Simca transmission. Parts for virtually any car on the road can be found at Bill's either on the yard or through use of the teletype. And the best part is that the purchase will save 50 per cent or more on each part.

And, as Bill pointed out, every car on the road is made out of used parts. Why not save the money when good used parts are just as serviceable as new?

"Only parts which are un-worn and in like-new condition are saleable and usable as replacement parts, and those kind come only from cars which were in good mechanical condition when they were wrecked or burned," Baldwin said.

That is why Bill's Auto Salvage is always on the lookout for good, late-model wrecked or burned cars. So successful has Baldwin been in buying this type of car, that the wrecking yard here is among the top 10 auto salvage firms in the state based on quality and variety of parts available.

Actually Bill's Auto Salvage is the largest in the state in area, with more than 22 acres used in storing of over 2,000 cars.

"It's because of this selection that the firm can back up their slogan — 'Call us — Chances are we have it.'"

Bill's Auto Salvage is located at the traffic circle on the East Highway.

Farm-accident fatalities are not declining in proportion to the decline in farm population.

Highland Park Cleaners Has Summer Clothes Storage

When clothes closets fill up with unused clothing each time the season changes, and cause the clothing in current use to become wrinkled from being crowded, what's the best answer to that problem?

A simple solution is offered by Highland Park Cleaners on the Big Spring Highway.

Shelby Coker, owner of Highland Park Cleaners, said that all summer clothing taken to the plant for cleaning and pressing now will be stored in the firm's large temperature-controlled vault until it is needed next spring. The only charge is the regular charge of the cleaning.

"We believe this service will not only offer our customers a completely insect free winter storage for their summer clothing, but it relieves the crowding of their closets," Coker said.

The free storage of summer clothing is just one of the many services offered by Highland Park Cleaners.

Another, and possibly the most important service offered is one that the customer would normally never know about, except that he would recognize the superior quality of cleaning his garments received at Highland Park Cleaners.

It is the constant quality check made at the plant of all solvents used and all the cleaning department facilities. The check is made every three months by Harry Stephens of Dallas, one of the leading cleaning solvent and cleaning plant experts in the Southwest.

"His checks are made only to assure us that the daily checks our plants make are keeping our service and cleaning processes at top efficiency," Coker said.

Experienced personnel in the plant assure the best possible cleaning service on each garment, Coker added.

Experience is especially important in the handling of "difficult" garments such as the increasingly popular knit dresses.

Knit dresses require special attention and special know-how. Part of the know-how is provided in bulletins received from the National Institute of Dry Cleaning.

The Institute's advice on proper procedures, along with the experience and skill of Highland Park Cleaners operators, are the customer's guarantee of top quality cleaning on every garment cleaned at Highland Park.

For customer convenience the firm offers free pick-up and delivery, a handy drive-in window, and an after-hours display.

Expert Says Killer Made 'Hard Shot'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A gun expert says it is possible for "a true expert" to fire three shots in about five seconds with the type of rifle allegedly used to kill President Kennedy.

But he said accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, on the basis of his Marine Corps record, "didn't seem to be" that type of gunman.

Leonard Davis, a National Rifle Association official, gave these opinions Tuesday night in response to newsmen's questions.

As a Marine, Oswald barely qualified in the "sharpshooter" class, middle of three corps grades for marksmanship.

Pentagon officers, joined by Davis, said Oswald would have required considerable practice since his release from the corps four years ago to have maintained and increased his small arms proficiency.

The weapon used, police say, was 6.5-mm bolt action rifle. It apparently was of Italian make but had no identifying marks. It was advertised for sale as a Carcano, an Italian modification of the German Mauser.

Ex-Marine Davis said four motions are required to fire each shot from a bolt action weapon—raise the bolt lever, draw it back, push it forward and move bolt lever down to lock the cartridge in the breach.

Kennedy was shot from a sixth floor window at a range estimated less than 100 yards.

Davis said the Carcano had a maximum accuracy of about 600 yards and the rifle's scope sight magnified the target image four times.

The Kennedy motorcade was moving only a few miles an hour, but Davis said the downward angle from the sixth floor made the shots more difficult than horizontal aiming.

School Board Hears Audit Report; Pays 1931 Salary

The Snyder school board met Tuesday night in a special closed session to receive the audit report for the year ending Aug. 31. The auditors complimented the school system on the progress made in setting up an equipment inventory since the last audit was made a year ago. The auditors had criticized the system at that time, but now said that the improvement in progress in a reasonable manner although there is still room for improvement. A few minor discrepancies were noted. These included a deficit of $595.79 in the building fund which was a carryover of accrued interest from some two years ago when the fund was closed out. It was suggested that the current maintenance fund take over the debt. It was also noted that for a few days last year, pledged securities at the bank were insufficient for the balance carried by the school. Also the vocational nurse program was shown to be $1,595.75 in the red as of Aug. 31. The tax assessor-collector bond was found to be $25,000 rather than the $50,000 which the statutes call for. Since these discrepancies were noted in the past several weeks...

Rails Dispute In New Legal Tangle

By NEIL GILBRIDE WASHINGTON (AP) — The long strike-threatened railroad dispute rolled toward the courts today and a new legal tangle over an arbitration ruling permitting the elimination of thousands of firemen's jobs. The ruling handed down Tuesday by a special panel, was ordered by Congress to forestall a nationwide strike last August and settle the key issues in the union-railroad struggle over work rules. Two of the unions announced they will challenge the arbitration decision and its legal basis in the courts. Thus a new snarl appeared to be added to the four-year dispute and negotiations on what Congress figured were secondarily also have bogged down. Each side blamed the other for the lack of progress in the talks...

Red Chinese Pledge Crises

TOKYO (AP) — Red China has thrown down the gauntlet to President Johnson. He faces the prospect of stepped-up warfare in South Viet Nam and Laos and possibly new crises in Korea and Cambodia. The Peking regime has made it clear it is determined to probe for any sign of U.S. uncertainty or weakness in Asia following the death of President Kennedy. The Chinese swiftly denounced Johnson as a supporter of Kennedy's "various reactions" and "any policies." This has been followed by hostile appraisals of Johnson's foreign policy in Laos and the pro-Communist Pathet Lao of Laos. North Korea has not reacted officially to the American change of leadership. But it has stepped up the intensity and volume of its anti-U.S. campaign...

Red Chinese Pledge Crises

The war in South Viet Nam is a prime proving ground for China's tough revolutionary theories. North Viet Nam, which directs and assists Communist subversion in the south, quickly announced the fighting would continue as it had when Kennedy was directing U.S. assistance to South Viet Nam's anti-Communist forces. To underline this threat, the Viet Cong guerrillas mounted powerful attacks on strategic hamlets in the south, dealing the young military regime some of the heaviest blows of the war. In Laos, the Pathet Lao Tuesday removed all doubts about where its allegiance lies. Once supported by the Russians, it now echoes Peking's line. The Pathet Lao radio said: "The U.S. imperialists will continue their policy of intervention in Laos and become more invidious. Under such circumstances the Laotian people should never harbor any illusions about Johnson. No matter who becomes president, the nature of U.S. imperialism remains unchanged and its policy will continue to be aggressive and belligerent." This means that the Pathet Lao will no longer respond to Soviet attempts to check its aggressive moves. Kennedy's death was the signal for harsh, new attacks from North Korea. The North Koreans, without apparent reason, have staged several shooting incidents on the 38th parallel in recent months. Now they may again test military reactions in their sector.

Patterns Of Education
Heard At Meeting Here

"Changing Patterns in Our Educational World" was the program topic of the recent meeting of Delta Kappa Gamma, international honor society for women educators. The topic was discussed by a panel of teachers, members of Zeta Lambda Chapter; Agnes Kunkel, Vestal Maner, and Dorothy Miller.

Mrs. Kunkel discussed John Conant's recommendations for the changing patterns of education. Dr. Conant has written several books and many magazine articles on schools. He has recently been engaged in a study of American teacher education. Dr. Conant states that broad education, dedication to teaching, and a sensitivity to the relationship between teacher and pupils at any level are the principal factors that make for good teaching.

Mrs. Kunkel gave several recommendations put forth by Dr. Conant in his report "The Education of American Teachers." She quoted the Texas Outlook by saying that many of the recommendations set forth by Dr. Conant were already in effect in Texas.

Vestal Maner followed with a discussion of Robert M. Hutchins evaluation of present day educational systems. Mr. Hutchins states that an ideal education is one which develops intellectual power and that educational institutions were the only institutions capable of developing that power.

Mr. Hutchins states that is for federal aid to education so that equal opportunities for an education may be had by all citizens regardless of the locality. He thinks that a single grave, overwhelming defect of the American character is the lack of respect for the mind. In the future the need will be for intellectual power and the immediate task for our country should be in the development of that intellectual power.

In speaking of the college of today Mr. Hutchins thinks that nobody should be admitted to a university unless he is capable of independent thought.

The job of education is to train the mind to cope with new situations and new complications, to develop critical judgments of new problems as they present themselves for solution.

Dorothy Miller closed the discussion with illustrations on building bridges of understanding between administrators and teachers.

Mrs. Miller gave the qualifications of a good teacher as the superintendent sees him and the qualifications of a good superintendent as the teacher sees him as published in the National Education Association publication April 1960.

Common factors of a good teacher are scholarship, patience, ambition, professional competency, love of children, and insight.

The ideal superintendent has the quality of leadership, educational instruction, vision to accept new methods, allows staff to express opinions, and is an example in courage, integrity, professional responsibilities.

In order to bridge the gap between administration and teachers many ideas are being tried throughout America. It was pointed out that in the local level we have a handbook of policies set forth by the board and superintendent. Cooperation is needed between all concerned if the gap is to be bridged.

The meeting was called to order by Virginia Grove, president of Zeta Lambda Chapter. This was followed by a season of silent prayer for our nation in this time of tragedy. The professional affairs committee report was given by Laura Holiday and Delia McPherson.

Hostesses for the meeting were: Johnny Cogdell, Esther Boren, Joyce Gorman, and Mabel Brock.

Members attending the meeting other than those on program and hostesses were: Ruby Anderson, Vela Bell, Barbara Bigham, Zaida Brown, Maydelle Burns, Rita Carter, Georgene Galloway, Virginia Grove, Hazel Hanback, Laura Holladay, Marcene McCallum, Delia McPherson, Lida Rhoades, and Reta Traugott.

Plum Pudding
For Thanksgiving

By CECILY BROWNSTONE, Associated Press Food Editor

NEW ENGLAND families often serve plum pudding, along with the traditional pies, for Thanksgiving dinner.

If this custom appeals to you, we urge you to try our favorite modern recipe for a steamed pudding of this kind. To us, this pudding is more appealing than the old-time English-type plum pudding because it's lighter in texture and flavor. Try this recipe and see if you don't agree.

You can make this pudding ahead, remove it from its mold, wrap it appropriately and freeze-store. When you're ready to serve the dessert—whether this is to be at Thanksgiving or Christmas—unwrap it, turn it back into its original mold, defrost and resteam for about an hour.

HOLIDAY PUDDING

1/2 cup unsulphured molasses
1/2 cup orange juice
1 cup seedless raisins
1 cup (one 8-ounce jar or pack) aged sliced mixed candied fruit and peels
1 large apple, pared and chopped (1 cup)
1 tablespoon grated orange rind
2 eggs
1/2 cup ground suet, packed down
1/2 cup fine dry bread crumbs
1 cup coarsely chopped nuts
1/2 cup sifted flour
1/2 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon baking soda
1/4 cup sugar
1/2 teaspoon each salt and cinnamon
1/4 teaspoon each allspice and cloves

In a small bowl stir together the molasses and orange juice; stir in the raisins, candied fruit, apple and orange rind; let stand 1 hour. In a large mixing bowl beat the eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; mix in suet, bread

PLUM PUDDING from your own kitchen is perfect for Thanksgiving or Christmas and it can be prepared ahead.

Club Has Salad Supper

Approximately forty - five members were present at the TOPS Club at the barn in Towle Park Tuesday evening at 5:30. As soon as the members arrived and were weighed in they left for Sallie's where a salad supper was waiting.

The day-time TOPS Club is being organized and they have announced that they will meet next Tuesday morning at 9:00 at the Boys Club.

"Password" was enjoyed by the members. But the salad supper proved to be the highlight of the evening.

Guests are invited, also anyone wishing to join may do so anytime.

Various committees have been appointed but as of yet there have been no outside activities planned.

Meeting place for next week's meeting will be announced later in the week.

Johnson's Political Record Reveals Determined Person

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—If President Dwight D. Eisenhower's record with Congress looked good at all—in getting things done and programs through—he owed a lot of thanks to Lyndon B. Johnson, the new President.

For six of Eisenhower's eight White House years the Democrats ran Congress and Johnson, a man of tremendous drive, ran the Senate. This tall Texan was the most effective Senate leader in the century, probably in history.

It was not the result of personality. He lacked the immediate charm of President John F. Kennedy. He was not a distinguished speaker. But he did his homework and did it prodigiously.

Because he is that kind of man, he will work enormously at the presidency. Any mistakes will be mistakes of judgment. They won't come from lack of trying.

He was a master of detail. He knew where every senator stood on every issue and, before voting time where every senator was or was going to be. He befriended all of them when he could and thus was able to expect their support when he needed it.

His egotism, and he has a lot of it, didn't stand in the way of his accomplishment. Because the egotism is a natural part of him, he carries it into the White House with him.

Just because of his egotism—because it makes success necessary for him—he will be hard-driven to succeed. When he is in charge, there is never any doubt who is boss. He showed this in the Senate.

While it was resented by some of his fellow-Democrats—particularly the liberals—it was one of the keys to his effectiveness. He can't leave this part of his nature behind him at the White House, nor, either.

Johnson, sensitive to criticism will now, like any other president, get a lot of it. His Senate years prepared him for it, although he may not take it lying down.

Johnson proved himself a master of politics and of handling men in his Senate years. But handling foreign affairs has been outside his experience. He faces here a new challenge in which to prove himself.

Of all the leadership arts he used in the Senate—a place full of prima donnas with strong feelings on many issues—the one Johnson used most visibly was compromise, like George to get a bill through warring factions. His technique was to get both sides to make some concessions, even though both sides were less than pleased with the result. For example: It happened once in a struggle between Southern Democrats and Northern liberals.

At the end the captain of the Southerners, Sen. Richard Russell, D-Ga., said it was a sad day. The captain of the liberals, Sen. Paul Douglas, D-Ill., called it a victory for the South.

But it was Johnson—and no one but Johnson could have done it—who steered through the Senate the first two civil rights bills since Reconstruction days in the 19th century. They weren't much, but they opened the door to stronger measures later.

Kennedy this year wanted a stronger one. Johnson supported him. Since he is no longer in the Senate, one of the first big steps of his presidency will come on the civil rights issue.

Webb Based Pilot Dies

BIG SPRING (AP)—Lt. Harry M. McDowell of Bonham died in the crash of his jet fighter plane near here Tuesday.

Webb Air Force Base officials said the fighter was an F104 single engine jet of the 31st Fighter Interceptor Squadron. It crashed south of U.S. 80 shortly after the pilot radioed he had trouble.

McDowell's widow Margaret and daughter Rebecca, 2, lived at Webb AFB.

Junior Editors Quiz on SCIENCE

QUESTION: Why does the flame of a candle stand up against gravity?

ANSWER: Gravity certainly does tend to pull things down, but as you study our diagrams you'll understand why the flame on the candle stands up. When air is warmed, it tends to expand as the movements of its molecules become more active. This makes it less dense than cold air, and thus lighter. Since cold air is heavier, it sinks, while warm air goes up. Like warm air, a flame is also light and tends to rise. Another reason it rises is that the air above it gets heated, and this air then expands, leaving a partial vacuum which helps suck the flame upward.

When air becomes warmed over certain heated spots on the earth's surface, colder air sinks below it and pushes it up. It is the movements between these warm and cool air masses which cause the winds.

FOR YOU TO DO: Tear a ribbon of tissue paper and hold it over a hot radiator by one end, the other end will start to move and lift up. This will prove that hot air rises.

(Margery Gorth of Wichita Falls, Tex., wins today's grand prize of a 20-volume set of the World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in care of this newspaper.)

Antique Shopping A Hazard

By LOUIS MILLNER
NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP)—Antique shopping is one of the hazards a husband must expect when he takes his wife to the convention in New Orleans.

Antique stores are not on the sightseeing tours but any woman can find them.

Set a woman down in an uncharted wilderness and in a few minutes she can be found prying spinning wheels at Ye Olde Shoppe in some hamlet. Place her blindfolded in New Orleans City and soon she will be at a 3rd Avenue antique shop.

By the time the husband has found the convention headquarters here and has an identification label pinned to his coat lapel, his wife already has window-shopped half a dozen stores and earmarked items for further consideration.

While the delegate is exhorting by the convention speakers to put his shoulder to the wheel or help put his house in order, the wife is rummaging through silver inkwells, brass firecreens and marble-topped tables.

Among some groups, antique buying is a game with a definite set of rules.

If you play the game, rule No. 1 is not to announce your intention upon entering the store. Go in casually. You are "just looking, thank you."

The next move is to price one or more items, depending upon how much time is left. Then start to leave. Now is the time to start to work.

"Oh, by the way, how much are those old pewter candlesticks?"

The dealers, relieved to learn the actual object of affection, will discuss, offers, counter-offers before the ultimate sale.

But the shopper now not only has pewter candlesticks but an accompanying story, which undoubtedly will be embellished, to relate when she returns home.

A bit of advice—be on guard. A shopper once entered a store with the intention of working up to a quotation on a large mirror in a gilded frame.

Observing rule No. 1, she asked the price of the first object in sight, an enormous bookcase. Then, stunned by an unexpectedly low price, she forgot her battle plans and bought the bookcase. The bookcase now covers the spot where the mirror would have gone.

Eulogized 2 Presidents

HOUSTON (AP)—An 89-year-old theologian eulogized President Kennedy Tuesday, 62 years after delivering a similar memorial address for assassinated President William McKinley.

Students overflowed on the lawn outside Cullen Auditorium at the University of Houston as Dr. Winfred E. Garrison spoke of a memorial service.

He did not mention a similar service for McKinley at the then Central Christian Church in St. Louis.

He said the dastardly deed that took President Kennedy's life does not prove society is decadent nor has grounds for national humility.

"The possibility of such a crime," he said, "is part of the price society pays for a concentration of political importance in the person of one trusted and able leader and a concentration of potentially destructive physical power in such a small package that one man can use recklessly."

Garrison said security measures can only approximate safety and "there remains a fatal margin of possibility."

He said the nation must do three things in these times of sorrow and stress: "1. We must feel it, deeply and poignantly... 2. We must take it with fortitude and stamina, without letting sorrow prevail over courage and stability... 3. We must go on, undismayed and unstrait, with renewed commitment to our country's cause and unshaken in its future..."

This Thanksgiving Not Joyous Day

By The Associated Press
With heavy hearts and prayerful resolve, Americans prepare to observe Thanksgiving Day while still mourning the death of President John F. Kennedy.
"Our president's death has created an empty place at every dinner table," said a New York City diner.
The "empty place" is sure to be more keenly felt at Hyannis Port, Mass., where the Kennedy family will gather.
Mrs. Kennedy, the President's widow, has announced plans to fly to Hyannis Port Thanksgiving Day with her two children.
Perhaps the nation's mood

President Johnson has urged that the Thanksgiving proclamation issued by President Kennedy Nov. 5 be read in churches Thursday.
"On that day let us gather in sanctuaries dedicated to worship and in homes blessed by family affection to express our gratitude for the glorious gifts of God; and let us earnestly and humbly pray that He will continue to guide and sustain us in the great unfinished tasks of achieving peace, justice and understanding among all men and all nations and of ending misery and suffering wherever they exist."
President and Mrs. Johnson plan to have a family dinner at their home in Washington. Their daughters, Lynda Bird and Lucy will be there and so will Lynda's fiancé, Bernard Rosenbach.
In Massachusetts, the traditional Pilgrim progress observance at Plymouth will pay tribute to two assassinated presidents—Kennedy in a special memorial service, and Lincoln, on the 100th anniversary of his proclamation making Thanksgiving a national holiday for the first time.

Minister Is Under Guard

By PEGGY SIMPSON
DALLAS (AP)—Police stood guard today outside the home of a minister who said in a nationally televised interview that some public school pupils cheered at word that President Kennedy had been shot Friday.
The Rev. William Holmes, pastor of the Northaven Methodist Church, made the statement Thursday night.
Sgt. W. A. Johnson said sub-sequence threats against the minister caused police to station two patrolmen at the Holmes residence.
A public school teacher, Miss Joanna Morgan, 22, also said that her junior high school pupils applauded the news that Kennedy had been assassinated on a Dallas street.
Radio stations here quoted other teachers as denying there had been any such demonstration. Miss Morgan then said she was speaking out not to criticize her students but to support the minister's account.
The cheerers were heard as the word came just before classes changed, she said.
"This was not the majority of opinion by any means—it's just that this was some students' first reaction," Miss Morgan said.
The Rev. Mr. Holmes, repeating part of his Sunday sermon, asserted much of the blame for the assassination of the President lay with middle-of-the-road moderates who failed to speak or act against radical groups, right or left.
Pupils who cheered were too young to know fate firsthand and were mirroring their parents' views, the minister said.
Miss Morgan said most pupils were grieved when they heard Kennedy had been shot, but "you certainly could tell which ones came from a background where there was no respect for the office of president."
She is an honor graduate of Southwestern University at Georgetown and the daughter of a Methodist minister, Dr. James William Morgan of Austin.

Tigers Challenge Steers In Bi-District

Kickoff At 2 In Abilene

The Snyder Tigers will meet the Graham Steers in bi-district tomorrow at 2 p.m. in Abilene's Public Schools Stadium. Snyder is the champion of District 3-AAA and Graham is winner of District 4-AAA.

The Tigers will be gunning for their first bi-district victory in 32 years. They have not won a playoff game since they beat Stanton in 1931.

Since that time Snyder has played five bi-district games and has lost all five of them. Included in those losses was a 6-7 defeat at the hands of Graham in 1956. The other playoff losses were to Wink, 6-7 in 1932; Littlefield, 12-25 in 1936; Garland, 18-18 in 1955; and Brownwood, 20-29 in 1960.

Chance For Revenge

This will be an opportunity for the Tigers to avenge the 1956 loss to Graham. In that year the Tigers swept through their regular season undefeated and were ranked number one in the state by the United Press.

In the bi-district game against Graham the Steers led the Steers in penetrations, first downs, yards rushing and yards passing. However, the Steers scored with just 20 seconds remaining in the contest to win 7-4. The touchdown was set up by a 57-yard pass by quarterback Sonny Gibbs who went on to win national recognition at TCU.

The current Snyder Tigers swept through their five district contests without a defeat, and are 8-2 for the year. Graham has won 8, lost 1, and tied 1. The Steers won district in their last game as they beat Wichita Falls Rider on penetrations, although the contest ended in a 7-7 deadlock.

The Snyder team will be out-weighted by Graham, although the Steers are used to that by now. The Steer line will average about 190 pounds, and this weight is fairly evenly distributed.

Graham's line is headed by E. A. Gresham, 204 pounds, Mike Lochner, 220 pounds, and 210-pound George Hayes. Gresham plays center on offense and linebacker on defense. He does everything well and is considered by many as the best all-around player on the team. He is also one of the co-captains.

Lochner is listed at left tackle on offense and right guard on defense. He is considered one of the top linemen, and stands six feet seven and a half inches tall. Hayes plays right tackle on offense and left guard on defense. He is thought to be the strongest guard on the team.

Another top lineman for the Steers is left end Gordon News. He is an excellent receiver and knows what to do after he catches the ball. He plays the other end on defense and is thought to be a real good player.

The Graham backfield is an extremely versatile one. The Steers, in winning their district, have developed a balanced offense that uses speed, power and a good passing game. They have rolled to 235 points in ten games.

Against Breckenridge the Steers piled up 121 yards passing and 157 yards rushing. They completed 11 passes during the contest, which is the same number they connected with in the Brownwood game. The Steer offensive rolled for over 300 yards on the ground and in the air against Weatherford.

Steer Backs

Starting at the quarterback spot is P. D. Shabay, who weighs 190 pounds and stands 6'1". In the Brownwood contest he scored one touchdown and passed for another. He is one of the team's co-captains.

At right half will be either Kenneth Powell or Freddy Gough. Powell has been at that position much of the season, and his running has been outstanding. In the game against Vernon he ran 68 yards for one tally and 15 for another. Gough has started in recent games. Besides doing much of the running, he also usually kicks the points after touchdowns.

The left halfback will be Johnny Mills or Jimmy Henderson. Each has been the star in various contests. Bill Ingram, a

Flurry Of Bowl Bids Due To Emerge In Next 10 Days

By MIKE RATHET

Associated Press Sports Writer

Army and Navy will meet in their traditional football battle - but a week later than scheduled - and will bring down the curtain on a 10-day period beginning Thanksgiving that figures to find bowl offers frantically flung around the country.

The decision on the Army-Navy game came Tuesday from the Pentagon and overshadowed two other major developments - the naming of Navy's Roger Staubach as the Heisman Trophy winner and Louisiana State University's acceptance of the Bluebonnet Bowl bid.

The Army-Navy game will be pushed back to Dec. 7 - Pearl Harbor Day - in deference to the memory of the late President Kennedy. The Pentagon said the Kennedy family intercession so that the annual service classic would not be canceled.

The official statement said the game will be dedicated to his memory.

The announcement further scrambled a puzzling major college bowl picture currently filled in at only three spots - top-ranked Texas in the Cotton Bowl, seventh-ranked Nebraska in the Orange Bowl and LSU in the Bluebonnet Bowl.

The Thanksgiving Day program and this Saturday's schedule, including many key games that were postponed from last week due to the assassination of President Kennedy, were expected to wrap up most of the holiday. But the Army-Navy postponement complicated the situation.

The second-ranked Middles and Staubach, now dubbed the best player in the country by the Heisman voters, were expected to tangle with Texas in the Cotton Bowl providing they beat Danny Crowder 10, Jacky Payne 2, Melvin Crawford 2, Aaron Crawford 3 and Bill Alexander 1.

For Ira B girls, Renoka Hooker had 21, Muffett Kimbrell 13, Jan Williams 3 and Jackie Bishop 5. For Anson B girls, Diann Morrison had 2, Evelyn Edwards 25, Nancy Dooftrey 8, Rhonda White 2 and Sammie Jo Bialent 1.

Richard Contreras and Bobby Hall, with 19 and 16 points, respectively, paced the Fluvanna boys. Oralia Yungano, with 13 points, was high for Fluvanna girls.

SPORTS

Quarterback Club Plans Its Banquet

Plans for the annual banquet were made by the Snyder Quarterback Club at its weekly session last night.

Following a discussion of two proposals, members of the club voted to have an all-sports banquet on Jan. 11. At that time, all athletes in the junior and senior high schools, including football, basketball, baseball and track team members, will be honored.

The other proposal submitted at the meeting called for an informal social event later in the year, also honoring all athletes.

Following the business session the Quarterback Club members saw the film on last week's Snyder - Lake View game and heard scouting reports on the Graham Steers, the Steers' bi-district foes.

AFL Ready For Draft

NEW YORK (AP) - A total of 200 college jans, including such eligibles as Navy quarterback Roger Staubach, the 1963 Heisman Trophy winner, and Scott Appleton, outstanding Texas tackle, are expected to be chosen in the American Football League draft Saturday.

Cotton To Delay Pick

DALLAS (AP) - The only things certain about the Cotton Bowl are that Texas will be the home team and that the visiting team won't be picked until after Dec. 7.

Texas got into the bowl for the third straight year by clinching a tie for the Southwest Conference championship and holding a decision over the team that might tie it - Baylor.

Lincoln Wins One Of Trio

Lincoln City boys walloped Colorado A and B basketball teams here last night, but Lincoln girls turned the tables and capped their sixth victory in a row.

The Lincoln girls triumphed, 70-29, while Colorado City boys A team won, 100-57, and Colorado City boys B team took a 33-19 decision.

For Lincoln girls, Pearl Scott had 20 points, Evelyn Brazil 14, Mary Goosby 12, Yvonne Sanders 8, Emma Garrett 7, Johnnie Goosby 6, Louise Brooks 2 and Rozelle Louie 1. Lomie Williams had 16 of C-City.

In the boys A game, Joseph Crayton had 20 points for Lincoln, Linwood Durst 17, Billy Cobbs 6, Vernon Clay 6, Curtis Clay 2, Lonell Brown 6, Frank Biggers paced C - City with 26.

In the boys B game, M. C. Powell had 7, Curtis Clay 6, Paul Barnes 4 and Langston Powell 2. Howard Belvin was high scorer for C-City with 13.

Right wingman Gordie Howe of the Detroit Red Wings is in his 18th National Hockey League season. He is 35 and has been the league's most valuable player six times.

A blocked field goal sometimes has disastrous effects. Against Illinois, Harold Wells of Purdue recovered such a blocked kick and went 62 yards for a touchdown.

THE MODERN WAY TO GET NEEDED AUTO PARTS is demonstrated here by Bill Baldwin, owner of Bill's Auto Salvage on the East Highway. The teletype machine Baldwin is shown operating is part of a 14-station hookup connecting yards in Texas and New Mexico. The availability of any part can be determined in minutes by use of the teletype network.

Parts Available From 14 Salvage Yards Via Teletype

"I don't know how I'd get a long without it."

It was with these words that Bill Baldwin, owner of Bill's Auto Salvage described the teletype network which links the salvage yard here with thirteen other wrecking yards in Texas and New Mexico.

Baldwin admitted that when the opportunity to join the network was first presented, he was less than enthusiastic about it. As a matter of fact, it was some time before he joined on an experimental basis.

But now, after seeing what it can do for his customers and for the yard itself, Baldwin is a firm believer in the teletype network.

"It's a two-way street," Baldwin said. "Our customers benefit, but then so do the customers of every member of the network," he added.

For example, last week as we were watching the messages moving on the teletype, Midland asked about a transmission for a Simca. One or two yards were able to say "yes."

It's not too hard to put oneself in the position of that customer in Midland. Finding a Simca transmission all by yourself might be a long expensive process.

But with the free teletype

offered by the members of the network, it was just a matter of minutes.

It doesn't have to be a rare part like a Simca transmission. Parts for virtually any car on the road can be found at Bill's either on the yard or through use of the teletype. And the best part is that the purchaser will save 50 per cent or more on each part.

And, as Bill pointed out, every car on the road is made out of used parts. Why not save that money when good used parts are just as serviceable as new?

"Only parts which are un-worn and in like-new condition are saleable and usable as replacement parts, and those kind come only from cars which were in good mechanical condition when they were wrecked or burned," Baldwin said.

That is why Bill's Auto Salvage is always on the lookout for good, late-model wrecked or burned cars. So successful has Baldwin been in buying this type of car, that the wrecking yard here is among the top 10 auto salvage firms in the state based on quality and variety of parts available.

Actually Bill's Auto Salvage is the largest in the state in area, with more than 22 acres used in storing of over 2,000 cars.

"It's because of this selection that the firm can back up their slogan—"Call us—Chances are we have it."

Bill's Auto Salvage is located at the traffic circle on the East Highway.

Highland Park Cleaners Has Summer Clothes Storage

When clothes closets fill up with unused clothing each time the season changes, and cause the clothing in current use to become wrinkled from being crowded, what's the best answer to that problem?

A simple solution is offered by Highland Park Cleaners on the Big Spring Highway.

Shelby Coker, owner of Highland Park Cleaners, said that all summer clothing taken to the plant for cleaning and pressing now will be stored in the firm's large temperature-controlled vault until it is needed next spring. The only charge is the regular charge of the cleaning.

"We believe this service will not only offer our customers a completely insect-free winter storage for their summer clothing, but it relieves the crowding of their closets," Coker said. The free storage of summer clothing is just one of the many services offered by Highland Park Cleaners.

Another, and possibly the most important service offered is one that the customer would normally never know about, except that he would recognize the superior quality of cleaning his garments received at Highland Park Cleaners.

It is the constant quality check made at the plant of all solvents used and all the cleaning department facilities. The check is made every three months by Harry Stephens of Dallas, one of the leading cleaning solvent and cleaning plant experts in the Southwest.

"His checks are made only to assure us that the daily checks we ourselves make are keeping our plant and cleaning processes at top efficiency," Coker said.

Experienced personnel in the plant assure the best possible cleaning service on each garment, Coker added.

Experience is especially important in the handling of "difficult" garments such as the increasingly popular knit dresses.

Knit dresses require special attention and special know-how. Part of the know-how is provided in bulletins received from the National Institute of Dry Cleaning.

The Institute's advice on proper procedures, along with the experience and skill of Highland

Expert Says Killer Made 'Hard Shot'

WASHINGTON (AP)—A gun expert says it is possible for "a true expert" to fire three shots in about five seconds with the type of rifle allegedly used to kill President Kennedy.

But he said accused assassin Lee Harvey Oswald, on the basis of his Marine Corps record, "didn't seem to be" that type of gunman.

Leonard Davis, a National Rifle Association official, gave these opinions Tuesday night in response to newsmen's questions.

As a Marine, Oswald barely qualified in the "sharpshooter" class, middle of three corps grades for marksmanship.

Pentagon officers, joined by Davis, said Oswald would have required considerable practice since his release from the corps four years ago to have maintained and increased his small arms proficiency.

The weapon used, police say, was 6.5-mm. bolt action rifle. It apparently was of Italian make but had no identifying marks. It was advertised for sale as a Carcano, an Italian modification of the German Mauser.

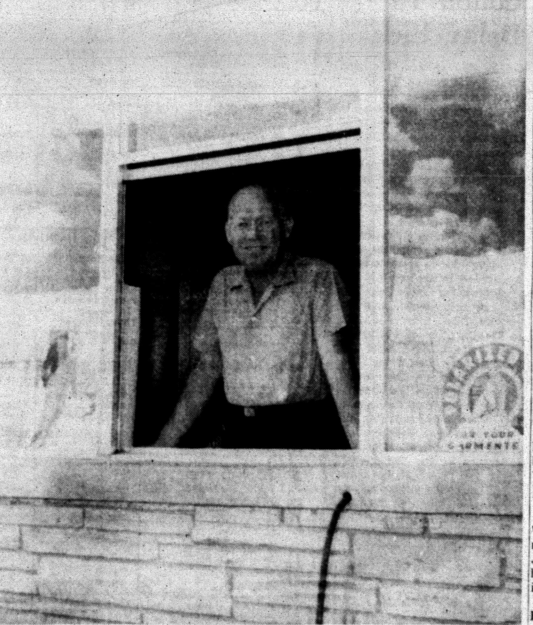

Ex-Marine Davis said four motions are required to fire each shot from a bolt action weapon—raise the bolt lever, draw it back, push it forward and move bolt lever down to lock the cartridge in the breach.

Kennedy was shot from a sixth floor window at a range estimated less than 100 yards.

Davis said the Carcano had a maximum accuracy of about 600 yards and the rifle's scope sight magnified the target image four times.

The Kennedy motorcade was moving only a few miles an hour, but Davis said the downward angle from the sixth floor made the shots more difficult than horizontal aiming.

The grand jury returned similar indictments against J. A. Windham and Ray Ellis, who were identified as Tenn-Tex salesmen.
