B.C.D. Invites Women's Derby To Stop Here

EVEN MAY DEDICATE CITY'S AIRPORT; OFFER PRIZE

Directors of the Lubbock Board of City Development voted unanimously this morning at a called session to invite officials of the Women's National Air Derby to route flight of the event to include this city as a stopping point and agreed to appropriate $500 as lap prizes for the contestants.

Amarillo, it is understood, is appropriating $1,000 for prizes.

To Be In August

George Benson, chairman of the aviation committee of the board outlined the proposal and said that hangars at the municipal airport, five miles north of this city, will be complete when the derby is held, date for which will probably be August 20 to 25.

"Such an event would be an appropriate occasion for dedication of the local port," said Mr. Benson. "In addition to the 20 or more entrants in the derby, there will be at least 25 attendant planes of manufacturers, representatives of various firms and relatives of the fliers. By virtue of the thousands who will flock to Lubbock for the event, business men of the city would receive adequate returns for the Chamber of Commerce's investment in cash prizes.

C. F. Lensen, of Los Angeles, manager of the aviation department of the Union Oil company of California, and also route manager for the derby, was in Lubbock yesterday discussing the proposition with officials of the chamber.

Two routes are now used for commercial flying, the southern following the Texas & Pacific railroad and the northern, which follows the Santa Fe from Los Angeles to Amarillo and thence northeast. The northern route is shorter, but the southern is less hazardous. Directors of the Chamber of Commerce are endeavoring to prove that use of the southern route from Los Angeles to El Paso and thence to

ELECTION AT FOURTH STAGE

CANDIDATES SLATED TO MAKE ADDRESSES AT CELEBRATIONS

(By Associated Press)

Texas' biennial primary election contest today had about reached the all-important "Fourth" of July period, and many of the candidates, especially those participating in the democratic 11-man free-for-all gubernatorial derby were all set for Independence Day exhortations.

Republican aspirants for nominations in the so-called "mud" party in Texas were more or less satisfied to take a back seat and let "nature take its course," while the democratic horses ran their heads off.

Paul Loven of New Braunfels who claims second-cousin kinship to United States Senator Morris Sheppard, one of the original drags, was to take to the air tomorrow—not via the radio microphone—but a Lindbergh-style biplane. He made a whirlwind speaking tour of the state. He was to speak in San Antonio at dawn, hustle himself into an airplane, fly to Abilene for a speech, at 10 a. m. hop to Fort Worth for an appearance at 3 p. m. jump to Denton for 8 p. m. and wind up the day's brush-beating in Houston at 11:30 p. m.

Jim Young of Kaufman had a Fourth of July speaking engagement in his home town; the Ferguson-former Gov. Miriam A. and James E. were booked for the Independence Day political attraction at Conroe; Senator Earle B. Mayfield planned a double-header, at Denton in the afternoon and Deatur at night; Senator Thomas B. Love was to speak three times, at Mother Neff's park in Navarro county in the morning, Corsicana afternoon and Mexia night; Lieut. Gov. Barry Miller had selected Stephenville for his freckle-cracker appearance; Senator Clint C. Small was to appear at Bertram in the morning and Mason at night, and R. G. Sterling was listed for Gainesville afternoon and Denison at night.

IT'S DEATH FOR THE WINNER

HARVEY, III, July 3. (AP)—There's to be a celebration by the American Legion here tomorrow, and the merchants are furnishing prizes.

One of the rewards—the offer is by an undertaker—is a free funeral.

MAY BE ON HIS WAY TO GOTHAM

Captain Dieudonne Coste, below, French flier and his mechanic Maurice Bellonte, may be on a flight from Le Bourget Field to New York today. They went aloft to Coste's plane "The Question Mark" today on a "test" flight over France. Coste had previously announced intentions of his Trans-Atlantic flight but friends said the 700 gallons of gasoline he carried today was not sufficient for the ocean hop. Officials of the Curtiss Wright airport at Valley Stream, New York, are preparing to receive the flier, however, they said today, believing he is on his way over. Coste's greatest desire was to complete his American trip on July Fourth.

JURY GIVES NEGRO DEATH FOR ATTACKS

RAINEY WILLIAMS MUST DIE, VERDICT SAYS IN BEAUMONT

(By Associated Press)

BEAUMONT, July 3.—Death in the electric chair was the prospect today of Rainey Williams, 38, a negro, convicted last night by a jury on charges of criminally assaulting Joyce Elias, 20-year-old negro, on the night of May 1.

The jury deliberated 18 minutes.

Follows Testimony

Conviction followed rapidly after the testimony of two white girls that the negro had attacked them at the same scene where the Keller woman was shot and assaulted. Joyce Keller lay helpless on an

LAW AND OUTLAW SEEKING JACK ZUTA; LAW WANTS HIM TO TALK WHILE GANG GUNS AWAIT HIM IF OUTLAW SUCCEEDS

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 3.—The law and the outlaw hunted Jack Zuta, the gangster, today.

If the law found him first, it meant to put some pointed questions to him concerning Jake Ling's murder.

CHICAGO, July 3. (AP)—Jack McGurn, dapper hoodlum and reputed Capone gunman, was sentenced to county jail for one year and fined $200 for carrying concealed weapons by Judge Sam I. Frankfurter today in criminal court.

The law had Zuta—resort keeper and Moran-Allejo gang ally—as late as Tuesday night, but let him go.

Hunter Boys Seek To Hold Court In Clouds

REQUEST IS MADE SO THEY MAY STAY UP

BOYS SAID TO HAVE $100,000 CONTRACT FOR MOVIES

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, July 3.—In an unusual request that hearing in a receivership suit against them be held in a 21-passenger transport plane, the Hunter brothers today indicated they intended to remain in the air over Sky Harbor for perhaps another week, on their record-breaking endurance flight.

At 1:40 a. m., C. S. T., they passed the 526th hour aloft and were 104 hours ahead of the previous record.

Judge Michael Feinberg in circuit court today refused to interfere with the endurance flight for the time being, setting aside until Tuesday the injunction proceedings started yesterday by stockholders who claim to be original owners of the record-making ship. The suit called for a receivership and accounting of the "City of Chicago's" earnings.

Have $100,000 Contract

Counsel for the Hunter brothers told Judge Feinberg the fliers have a $100,000 contract to appear with the plane in a motion picture after the flight. He said various contracts would be handicapped seriously if court action tied them up.

B. L. Mewski, flight secretary, sent the following telegram to Judge Feinberg:

"Upon continuance of the matter involving the Hunter boys until Tuesday I rushed to the airport and communicated your action to them. The note from them commenting on your action follows:

"Dear Barney—Pleased to receive your report on what happened in Judge Feinberg's court this a. m. looks like if judge insists upon our being in court Tuesday, we'll have to come down Monday afternoon."

GEORGE WASHINGTON'S GREAT STONE FACE TO BE UNVEILED TOMORROW

RAPID CITY, S. D., July 3. (AP)—George Washington's great stone face, carved in Black Hills granite, will be unveiled Fourth of July noon.

Drilled on Mount Rushmore by Gutzon Borglum, the sculptor, the head is three score feet from wig to chin, scaled to the size of a man 420 feet tall—equivalent to a 42-story skyscraper.

Borglum compared the unveiling to the completion of the sphinx by the Egyptian pharaohs. However, the sphinx could perch on the shoulder of the granite figure and scarcely reach to Washington's ear.

DIARY BEING STUDIED BY OFFICIALS OF NAVY SAID TO BE EXPLANATION OF DISAPPEARANCE OF COLLIER CYCLOPS

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Disjointed extracts from the diary of a man who was supposed to have claimed partial credit for the disappearance of the Collier Cyclops in West Indian waters during the World war were being studied today by the navy.

The way the naval Collier went has remained a question unanswered since the ship was last seen bound for Baltimore in March 1918. None of the 293 men aboard has been heard from since. The navy has traced numerous clues and found nothing.

CHINA SPILLS BLOOD, MONEY

TEN THOUSAND KILLED IN BATTLE; COST $350,000 DAY

(By Associated Press)

NANKING, July 3.—A picture of nationalist China being drained of blood and money by the civil war. Some of the northern alliance is disclosed by survey of various official quarters.

Fighting along the Haichow-Tungkuang railway the last ten days is estimated to have cost the nationalists 30,000 casualties, including 10,000 killed. Financial circles estimate the cost of this battle to the nationalists at $1,000,000 Mexican (about $350,000) a day, not including expenditures for munitions.

Hundreds Wounded

Hospitals of Nanking and Pukow bear evidence China's war was no longer are fought with umbrellas and similar harmless instruments as generally believed concerning past conflicts. The survey shows hundreds of wounded soldiers clogging the inadequate hospital facilities.

The large number of wounded in Nanking and Pukow are reported to comprise only a small portion of those from the front.

INDIANS BLOW CONCH SHELLS TO GODDESS

CALCUTTA, Bengal, July 3. (AP)—Calcutta, shaken twice before dawn by earthquakes, resounded for hours to the blasts of conch shells, blown by Indians to propitiate their serpent goddess, Bhaskuti.

It is their belief that the goddess, who holds the universe upon her hood, sometimes changes her position, thus causing an earthquake which is supposed to be a punishment for the sins of the people. She is especially fond of conch shell music, which lessens her anger.

RANCHER UP FOR SHOOTING

X. B. COX CHARGED IN ATTACK ON ANOTHER ANGELO COWMAN

SAN ANGELO, July 3.—X. B. (Major) Cox, veteran ranchman living near here, under $1,000 peace bond by J. T. Mathison, Tom Green county judge, and under $1,500 bond on charges of assault with intent to murder, in connection with an attack upon Mark Nasworthy, San Angelo ranchman.

Nasworthy suffered a slight wound in the left hand and another in the forehead when a pistol bullet passed through his hat.

At a hearing Tuesday, he testified that Cox, with a revolver in his overalls, jumped into his automobile at the Santa Fe railway station Tuesday and demanded that Nasworthy sign a $5,000 note made payable to Cox.

Indictments Attempted

Nasworthy said he refused, and the shooting followed. Nasworthy further testified that at three separate grand jury sessions here, Cox had unsuccessfully tried to have him indicted upon a charge of burning Cox's barn.

Nasworthy also asserted that D. I. Durham, district attorney, had a document, purportedly written by Mrs. Nasworthy relating a story told her by another to the effect that Nasworthy, and a sister, Mrs. R. S. Johnson, had offered to pay Cox $1,500 if Cox "put Nasworthy out of the way." Nasworthy said he did not believe this.

Found Car and Notes

Officers found only Nasworthy's abandoned car containing his bullet-torn hat, and two unsigned notes made payable to Cox when they reached the scene of the alleged shooting. One note, they said, was made out for $5,000 and the other for $7,500.

A boy named Stroud testified that he saw a man in overalls running south with a gun in his hand, from the scene of the alleged shooting. Nasworthy had testified that Cox was wearing overalls at the time.

Cox offered no defense at the hearing and his counsel indicated that a preliminary hearing before a justice of the peace, set for next week, would be waived.

FUND ASKED FOR EDUCATION WORK

COLUMBUS, Ohio, July 3.—(P)—A suggestion that the United States government set aside the $143,000,000 it will receive from Germany for the Rhineland occupation to promote international education and fellowship was made Tuesday at the annual convention of the National Education association.

The request came from Augustus C. Thomas, of Augusta, Maine, president of the World Federation of Education associations.

"A world civilization is being built up with startling rapidity," he said. "Our country could well afford, on the precedence of the boxer indemnity, to set aside the $143,000,000, coming from Germany, as a payment of expenses incident to the occupation of the Rhineland, the income to be used for educational research, fellowship, exchange of students and teachers. It should be applied to all countries."

Railway company survey, was a diagonal north offset to Beall and Hagan's No. 1 Byrnes a greater one-half mile east of J. D. O'Malley's No. 1 Butz, a 40-barrel well, and one-half mile southwest of the Messenger No. 1 Byrnes, recently completed at 1,325 feet for an initial production of 80 barrels daily.

OLDER WORD

"Apple-Jack" Appeared Before "Anti-Saloon"

CHICAGO, July 3.—(P)—"Apple-Jack," says Prof. William Craigie of the University of Chicago, is an older word than "anti-saloon."

Compiling a historical dictionary of the United States, Prof. Craigie found that "apple-jack" was a standard hyphenate as far back as 1840 while "anti-saloon" crept into usage in 1888.

Prof. Craigie's investigators have turned in 400,000 words and phrases and the date of their known first usage. This work required four years; in another four years, he expects to go to press with the volume.

The investigators are now tracking "American" down through the periodicals of the Seventeenth Century.

GRAVE OF JESSE CHISHOLM IS FOUND AFTER MANY YEARS; INDIAN LORE IS USED IN DETERMINING ITS LOCATION

(By Associated Press)

OKLAHOMA CITY, Okla., July 3.—The unerring and traditional information in Indian lore has led a searching party to the long sought grave of Jesse Chisholm, pioneer trail driver who followed cattle herds from Texas to Kansas over a route that bears his name to this day.

J. B. Thoburn, curator of the Oklahoma Historical society, and T. U. Taylor, dean of engineering of the University of Texas, returned to Oklahoma City Wednesday from a visit to the valley of the north Canadian river, near the boundary line between Blaine and Canadian counties where the grave was found and identified. An Indian led the party to the spot where Chisholm was buried. The locality of the grave was known but only the Indian knew the exact spot. Once it was pointed out, identity was established.

Although the grave was unmarked, its identity and location were easily determined from the description recorded by Chisholm's fellow trader, the late James R. Mead of Wichita, Kansas, who was present when interment was made. Mead was one of the founders of the city of Wichita.

Chisholm was the noted mixed blood Cherokee trader among the Indians of the wild tribes of the plains during the last part of the past century. Few of the men who rode with him behind the bellowing herds of Longhorns are living.

Thoburn left last night for Kenton, Cimarron county, where he has been directing the operations of an archaeological field expedition, under the auspices of the Oklahoma Historical society.

Wild Horses Being Taken From Ranges

BOISE, Idaho, July 3.—(P)—Five thousand wild horses have been shipped to Portland canning factories by wranglers operating in the Owyhee range in Idaho, Nevada, and Oregon. A. J. Dickman, director of animal industry, was advised today.

The horses are being taken off the range to save the feed for more valuable stock as well as to prevent the spread of a disease which is running rampant among the animals. Federal veterinarians are cooperating with state officials in branding the animals as they are rounded up.

PAT NEFF COMING

Governor Pat M. Neff, Chairman of the Texas Railroad Commission, and a candidate for re-election, will make a non-political public address at Lubbock, Wednesday night, July 9th, at 8 o'clock, at a place to be announced later.

Governor Neff has always been a strong believer in and a supporter of West Texas, and as Governor he signed the bill creating Texas Technological College, carrying an appropriation of one million dollars. He is the most polished orator in Texas today, and his address will be a treat to the Plains people. Everybody is invited to hear him.

RALLS READY FOR SECOND CELEBRATION

CROSBY TOWN WILL BE HOST TO THOUSANDS ON 4TH AND 5TH

(By Staff Correspondent)

RALLS, July 3.—Last minute preparations were being made today for the big two day picnic which Ralls, aided by the chamber of commerce, will stage Friday and Saturday, July 4 and 5.

It is the second annual Fourth of July picnic and at the request of a good many farmers and business men, is being held over another day.

There will be several sections of the picnic. The main event on Friday will be the basket dinner to be given at noon in the city park in the center of the town.

Guy To Make Talk
Preceding the dinner, which is to include good old fashioned home fried chicken, Charles A. Guy, editor of the Avalanche-Journal will speak on "The Power of the Press in West Texas." His address begins at 11 o'clock.

Following Mr. Guy Clifford B. Jones of Spur, chairman of the board of regents of Texas Technological college at Lubbock and head of the S. M. Swenson and sons interests in Texas, is to speak. Mr.

Jones is former president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce and is a director of that organization.

Farrish, Pharr to Talk
In the afternoon two well known Lubbock speakers have been invited. Senator Pink L. Farrish will be one of the speakers, if he can make the arrangements and Judge Homer L. Pharr will be the other.

Charlie Mickliff, a staid and sober business man of Ralls, who used to be a cowboy, will manage a two day rodeo at Jackrabbit park. Charlie last year staged the rodeo for the picnic and so insistent were the demands for another one that he consented to do it this year.

"Charlie sure staged a good rodeo for us last year and we had to have him this year," A. W. Bullock, of the chamber of commerce, explained. "I didn't know of any better rodeo manager in all of West Texas than Charlie. He knows his stuff. He's got real horses and good riders."

Saturday as well as Friday, the rodeo will be held. It is to start at 2:30 in Jackrabbit park.

Preceding the rodeo there will be some pony races at the park. A new stunt for the rodeo will be tournament riding, something that has not been used for several years in this section.

Friday afternoon in the city auditorium a piano contest for women over 45 years of age and a number of other contests will be held.

Races Scheduled
Also down town, there will be sack races, potato races and the like, a greased pole stunt and the like.

Old fiddlers on Friday afternoon will have a contest at 5:30 in the city auditorium. A large number have entered the lists.

SECOND SET BORN

Mother Gives Birth To Twins Again

ENGLISH, Ind., July 3. (P)—The second twin babies in a year were born to Mrs. Dana Riley, aged 24, here last night. She is the mother of nine children, seven of whom are living.

The first twins arrived July 23, 1929, and died shortly afterward. Both the mother and the newest twins were reported to be progressing satisfactorily.

HOUSTON MAN KILLED
HOUSTON, July 3. (P)—J. D. Taylor, 34, was killed last night when his automobile collided with an interurban near here.

dinner, a couple of bevers will be barbecued. Also a sheep or two. These are expected to supplement the meals which the farm women will bring in.

Last year's celebration had an attendance estimated at around 6,000. This year that many, if not nearly 10,000 will attend. The local committee is confident if weather conditions are right that the larger figure will be more nearly correct.

Hundreds of farmers from the territory around Ralls as well as many from as far away as Spur, Dickens, Floydada, Lubbock, Petersburg, Tahoka, Abernathy and Hale Center are expected.

CHICAGO VOTERS APPROVE SYSTEM

CHICAGO, July 3. (P)—By an overwhelming majority, Chicago voters have approved the ordinance for unifying the city's traction systems, extending surface and elevated lines and building a subway.

The ordinance provides for improvements of transportation facilities to cost not less than $200,000,000 within ten years. It also provides for a merger of transit companies involving $261,000,000.

The project was submitted to the voters after decades of discussion, years of anticipation and months of financial, legislative and engineering action. Briefly, the plan approved will pool the management of the surface and elevated line system in a new directing organization; extend the surface tracks by 245 miles, the elevated tracks 315 miles and create 44 miles of subway through the congested downtown localities.

The two companies now operate 1,000 miles of street car lines and 100 miles of elevated trackage, managed by the Insull interests.

One Unemployed Is Claimed By County

EVERGLADES, Fla., July 3. (P)—With a population of 2,756 and 32 farms under cultivation, Collier county, Florida, has only one unemployed person, the census report shows.

Barron Collier, New York capitalist who owns the majority of the county's land and enterprises, claims a county record for employment.

It's True — GASOLENE can GUM-UP YOUR VALVES

"What's the matter?" asked the motorist. "Sticky valves," answered the repair man. "What's the reason?" was the next question.

We'll tell you—gum in gasoline!

Cities Service experts were among the first to discover the harmful effects of excessive gum in gasoline—and to provide a remedy.

The remedy is Koolumotor Gasolene—a gas that is free from harmful gum. Extra care and extra refining—known as the Cities Service mini-gum process—have reduced the gum content in Koolumotor Gasolene to a harmless minimum.

This superior motor fuel is powerful and clean burning. It is eager to go—full of speed—provides mile after mile of smooth, knock-free performance. It keeps your valves clean, free moving—it guards against loss of compression and power.

Don't burden your motor with sticky, gummy, clogging gasolene. Insist on Koolumotor Gasolene, the original high test, anti-knock green gas. Then your motor will be free to do its best.

HOOVER SAYS PASSAGE OF TREATY VITAL

PRESIDENT ANSWERS LETTERS OF 24 SENATORS

WASHINGTON, July 3.—President Hoover has written the 24 senators who last week requested postponement of consideration of the London naval treaty that the national interest demands that the pact be dealt with at the earliest possible date. The letter says:

"I have your letter of June 24 enclosing the request of a number of senators that the proposed extra session of the senate be deferred until next December.

"I realize fully the great strain which has been placed upon the senate by the long continued session. On the other hand, the national interest in having the naval treaty brought to a conclusion is so great I feel that I must ask that it should be dealt with at the earliest possible date."

Wheat Coming In Is Finest Grown

PORT WORTH, July 3 (P)—The finest wheat ever grown in the southwest is the verdict of growers, shippers, dealers and inspectors on the 1930 crop now flooding terminal market elevators.

In weight the present crop is setting a new mark, with an average test running close to 63 pounds to the bushel. But it is not in the increased weight alone which puts the present crop above those of the past. The wheat is clean, dry and fully matured. These three qualities in the grain are it is said going to result in better flour and eventually better bread.

Louisiana produced 808,825 bales of cotton in 1929.

'GRUMPY' PLEASES AUDIENCE AT TECH

Wills Hall's portrayal of the role of "Grumpy" was enough alone to pronounce success in presentation of the four-act English play, second number of the summer artist course, last evening in the gymnasium of Texas Technological college.

As an old criminal lawyer, Grumpy solved the mystery of who attacked his nephew and stole a valuable diamond which had been entrusted to his care. Hall's portrayal of a grouchy old gentleman, who was displeased with everything done for him was superb.

Others included in the cast were "Earnest," the nephew, the maid, "Sarah," who helped the old lawyer in solving the mystery, "Jarvis," the thief, and the old antique dealer who was to have bought the stolen diamond.

The play was set in England and the action centered around "Grumpy," who found fault with everything and everyone but who was really lovable and only interested in seeing his granddaughter married to his nephew, "Earnest," who was his favorite.

"Grumpy" was written by Horace Hodge and T. Wigney Percival, and was originally produced at the Theater Royal, Glasgow, and afterward at the New Theater, London. It was later played with success in New York, Chicago and other of the larger cities of the United States.

Third number of the summer productions will be given on July 15. This entertainment will be "A Light Opera Mirror," featuring scenes in costume from famous light operas.

MANAGERS SQUABBLE OVER SCHMELING'S PAY

IN THE REALM OF SPORTS
WITH ALAN CARNEY
Journal Sports Editor

Tomorrow's holiday games in the South Plains baseball league find the Hubbers at home, withstanding an assault from an ambitious Brownfield aggregation; Southland at Lamesa and Levelland at Dalhart. Both Brownfield and Levelland will be seeking to break into the win column after dropping their first two starts. The Hotchkiss county entry has failed thus far to come up to advance predictions but Manager Bailey's crew of sluggers is due to get going this week.

Lack of pitching reserves lost for the locals Sunday in the slugfest with Southland. Hoyt weakened in the late innings and there was no relief to turn to on hand to stop the tide. With both Scott and Hoyt available for service tomorrow, Luenberger's forces should be able to advance a notch in the league standings.

Thus far the hitters appear to hold a decided edge over the pitchers in the Plains circuit. Lefty Squires at Tahoka, Hoyt of Lubbock and Gregory at Southland have been the most effective chunkers. Lamesa and Tahoka have led the way in chugging and the opposing hurlers aren't likely to silence their bats any time soon. Lamesa's mound strength is sadly lacking this season, with no Leonard Rose to carry the burden. The club's hopes lie in its ability to outscore the opposition.

Among the many interesting records in the 1929 football guide just released by Spaulding is one set by Cy Leland last fall when the Champion Horned Progs defeated the Baylor Bears on the Cotton Palace gridiron in Waco, 34 to 7. Although not an all-time record, Cy's feat in returning a punt 95 yards against the Golden Bears was the outstanding performance of its kind turned in during the 1929 season. It will be remembered that the former Lubbock athlete made the spectacular run after it appeared to be completely blocked up by Baylor tacklers. The run actually started from nothing. Cy picked up Jake Wilson's long, rolling punt inside T. C. U.'s own 10-yard line and was immediately enveloped by Green jerseys. It appeared as though he had been stopped cold before he could take two steps. But he wasn't stopped. Sifting his way through a wave of Baylor tacklers, side-stepping and cutting back, Leland rounded up the field for a touchdown, in a game against Creighton. Leland's two great sprints came on successive Saturdays.

Under another classification, Leland came within 10 yards of the season's best. It came in the crucial game with the University of Texas Longhorns. Cy received a Texas kick-off on his own 5-yard line and galloped 95 yards through the entire Longhorn eleven, for a touchdown. Louis Weller, of the Haskell Indians, holds the season's record with a 106-yard punt, a kickoff in a game against Creighton. Leland's two great sprints came on successive Saturdays.

Wilmor Allison, a product of the University of Texas, has been the big name in the British tennis championships under way at Wimbledon. The flashy Texan started the entire world Tuesday when he turned back Henri Cochet, the French ace recognized as the world's best in doubles competition. The Fort Worth boy rose to new heights in beating the crafty Frenchman at his own game. He advanced to the singles finals yesterday by defeating his teammate, Johnny Doherty, of Santa Monica, Calif. Today Allison meets Big Bill Tilden, the American champion, for the men's singles crown. In the latest ratings of American tennis players, Allison ranks No. 7. A victory over the veteran Tilden today should place him at the top of the list, especially since his brilliant victory over Cochet. It was the first defeat for Cochet since 1927. Since that time the French ace has crushed all comers, including Tilden, himself.

SPUDS ABLE TO HIT AT RIGHT TIME

RECEIPTS OF BOUT IN JUNE UP IN TANGLE

SEPTEMBER FIGHT MAY NOT BE HELD WITH JACK SHARKEY

(By Associated Press)
NEW YORK, July 3—A complicated financial argument in which Joe Jacobs and Arthur Buelow appear to be endeavoring to outwit each other, has suddenly terminated plans for a return bout between Max Schmeling and Jack Sharkey at the Yankee stadium in September.

Yesterday Madison Square Garden had Sharkey's name on a contract and had hopes of getting Schmeling's signature through Jacobs, when Buelow, the German's designated manager, bobbed up with an eight page document that was entirely unsatisfactory to Jacobs, who now is in charge of Maxie's interests.

Contracted Until Oct. 13

When Schmeling first offered to give the Boston Salfar a return bout he did so with the proviso that he be given an out and out release from Buelow, to whom he is under contract until Oct. 13 of this year. Sharkey agreed to see that Buelow got his 25 per cent of the net gate receipts, but in his lengthy document, Buelow retained the right to sue Schmeling for any other remuneration he thought might be coming.

And upon that clause hangs the failure of the match to go through as Jacobs said nothing doing. Schmeling made a positive release.

Check Awaits

In the office at the Garden awaiting delivery is a check for $31,137 per cent, the managerial cut, of the June fight between Sharkey and Schmeling. Seven and one-half per cent of this amount is due Jacobs under an old agreement while the remainder goes to Buelow.

Buelow already has taken legal steps to recover from Schmeling his share of the German's earnings since his fight with Paulino Uzcudun last July. Since that time Maxie has appeared in a moving picture and made an exhibition tour of the United States and Germany.

It seems that Buelow is willing to waive his right to his cut in all of Schmeling's ventures except in his June fight with Sharkey. Jacobs is willing that Buelow get his 25 per cent of this amount. If there is one, and which Sharkey will pay, but he wants Buelow to forget about the check being held in trust by the Garden.

Mexicans To Play San Angelo Stars

SAN ANGELO, July 3 (AP)—Here to represent Mexico in an international polo tournament with an all-star San Angelo team, five Mexican army officers today prepared for the first matches to be played tomorrow, in a series of games extending over a period of two weeks.

Play was planned on the new half million dollar polo field of George A. Henshaw, Jr.
General Joaquin Amaro, secretary of war and marines, selected the Mexican team. Personnel of the party which arrived yesterday from San Antonio included General Festeiro Quinones, Major and Third Lt. Campesino, Major and Mrs. Tullio Miller and Colonel T. Kenidy and Captain A. Nava.

EASTERN CLUBS WINNING MAJORITY OF HOME STANDS; WASHINGTON MOVES UP TO SECOND; ROBINS ARE BACK ON TOP

BY HUGH S. FULLERTON, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer
Of 65 games played in their recent home stands, the eastern clubs of the American league won 46, losing only 19 victories for the western clubs.

Washington put the big squirt into the finish of the interleague play yesterday, moving into second place in the standing and bringing its record to 12 wins and 3 losses by winning both games of a double header from the St. Louis Browns, 5 to 4 and 5 to 3. The first contest went 12 innings.

Texas Net Stars Predominate In Chicago Tourney; Allison Loses

BRALLEY, BARNES AND KAMRATH ARE IN QUARTER-FINALS

(By Associated Press)
CHICAGO, July 3—Tennis as played in sunny Texas, particularly in Austin, dominated the tussle for the Western men's singles championships today on the hard courts at River Forest.

As the title fight entered the quarter-final bracket, three Austin stars were very much in the running and going strong. They were Karl Kamrath and Joe Bill Bralley, junior stars, and Bruce Barnes, one of the sturdiest players in the west. None of them had much difficulty reaching the round.

One of them was certain to be eliminated in the quarter-finals, however, as the luck of the draw aligned Barnes and Kamrath against each other.

Chicago Is Next
Chicago ranked second to Austin in placing two of its stars, George Jennings and Charles Lejek, in the quarter-finals. Des Moines, Ia., had another in Harris Coggeshall while the other two places in the bracket were up for decision today. Coggeshall is paired against Bralley in the quarter-finals.

For the two open places in the quarter-final bracket, Cliff Sutter of New Orleans, National intercollegiate champion, and Maurice Bayton, of the Tulane university star, were heavy favorites.

As the women's singles championship entered the quarter-final round, all the favorites who played their matches were still present. They included Clara Louise Zinke of Cincinnati, first ranking western woman star; Catherine Wolf, Indianapolis; Mrs. Ruth Riese, Saginaw, Mich.; and Mary Michale, Dallas, Texas.

ALLISON LOSES FIRST TEST IN TOURNAMENT

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 3 (AP)—Wilmor Allison of Austin, Texas, and Miss Edith Cross of San Francisco were eliminated in the quarter-final round of the British tennis championships by the Australian-American combination of Jack Bralley and Elizabeth Ryan. The scores were 6-2, 3-6, 6-3.

The defeat in mixed doubles today marked the first reverse of the entire tournament for Allison who has reached the final in singles and the semi-final in mixed doubles with his young American partner, John Van Ryn.

COCHET AND PARTNER BEAT TILDEN TIMMER

WIMBLEDON, England, July 3 (AP)—Henri Cochet and Jacques Brugnon, French Davis cup doubles team, reached the semi-final round in the British tennis championships today by defeating Bill Tilden and the Dutch partner, Hans Timmer. The score was 6-2, 6-3, 6-3.

Pioneer Film Actor Dies On Wednesday

BEVERLY HILLS, Calif., July 3 (AP)—Anders Randolf, 60, pioneer screen character actor, died Wednesday. He underwent an operation recently and was believed to be recovering.

Randolf was born in Denmark coming to the United States in 1893. He secured a success immediately on the New York stage. His first film roles were played for the old Viagraph company of Brooklyn, and included a leading part in "The Lion and the Mouse." He is survived by his widow and a daughter. The body will be cremated and the ashes sent to Denmark.

eight runs. Ruth made a great attempt to catch the second homer and only succeeded in entangling his hand in the wire guarding the bleachers and injuring it painfully. One finger nail was completely torn off and the damage may keep the Babe out of the coming series with the Athletics.

Boston put on a fine late rally to take a single game from the sadly slipping Cleveland Indians, 5 to 4.

National Race Complicated
The National league pennant race became more complicated than ever as the New York Giants and Brooklyn Dodgers, a great display of civic spirit before starting their own private fray. The Giants defeated the Chicago Cubs, 9 to 8, by putting on the battle rally in the ninth inning, while the Robins pulled out a 6 to 5 decision over the St. Louis Cardinals on the strength of Ray Phelps' pitching.

The result put Brooklyn in first place once more by the margin of less than half a percentage point although another method of reckoning shows the Robins still a half game behind. The Cubs have three more victories but have lost two more games to bring about this odd result. The Giants also benefitted, going a game and a half ahead of St. Louis.

BOBBY JONES TURNS HIS FACE TOWARD AMERICAN OPEN AS NEXT GOLF WORLD TO CONQUER; GIVEN ROYAL RECEPTION

GETS CHANCE

NEW YORK, July 3 (AP)—George Wuestling was considered more or less excess baggage in the trade that sent Walter Hoyt and Mark Koenig to the Detroit Tigers. The players the Yankees really were angling for were Harry Rice, outfielder, and Owen Carroll, pitcher.

Wuestling was wanted by the Yankees purely for utility duty. The club figured that Lyn Lary, the smiling Coast kid, amply could hold down the shortstop post left vacant by Koenig.

Almost immediately Wuestling was utilized and the former Portland player, who has been out of college, won the game for the Yankees yesterday. He batted in the ninth and tied the score with a home run. Another run in the tenth gave Atlanta the sixth straight victory over the Bears, 3 to 2.

The win put the Crackers within a few percentage points of the third position in the Southern Association as Birmingham lost to New Orleans, 9 to 1. Paul Anderson, making his debut for the Barons, was routed as his teammates made four errors. The Pals scored 9 runs in the third while Blakesley hit for the circuit.

Making four tallies in the third frame and adding one each in the second and eighth, gave Chattanooga a win over Nashville 6 to 3.

BRUSHING UP ON SPORTS BY LAUFER

HITTING IN THE CLINCHES IS NOTICEABLE

STEERS ARE BEATEN IN LAST FRAME; WACO WINS ANOTHER

By GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

There have been all sorts of theories advanced in an effort to explain the phenomenal success of the 1930 Wichita Falls Spudders, most of them fairly sound, but the best one seems to lie in the fact that Carl Williams' young men can bust the baseball a mile when they need to most.

The record is not at hand, but it is safe to say that the first half champs have won a score of games this season by the simple expedient of knocking a sphere or two out of the lot in the closing innings. Not a player in the Spud line-up is listed among the league's first ten hitters, but every man-jack of them is dangerous, capable of hitting for distance in the clinches.

Steers Had It Won
A pair of circuit smashes in the last two frames provided the north countrymen with a 4 to 3 victory over Dallas in an overtime tussle yesterday squaring their series. The Steers apparently had the bout won in the ninth, 3 to 2, but Jack Bradbury, Spud catcher, smothered over the palings to knot the score and Jack Kloss duplicated his feat after two were out in the tenth to wind up the mole.

It was a tough loss for Walt Taucher, who had given up only seven scattered knocks until Bradbury rang the bell in the ninth. The Spuds scored their first two off him in the fourth after Gene Moore had lost a fly ball in the sun. Milt Steingard hurried steadily for the winners after the first inning, when the Steers scored twice.

Walkup Pitches Good
Some flimsy pitching by Jimmy Walkup, the league's premier curve ball artist, and the vicious slugging of his mates enabled the Beaubien Exporters to wallop San Antonio, 9 to 1, and break a five-game losing streak. Hamilton's homer in the first frame was the only run off Walkup, who whiffed five Indians. Mullen, Shiver and Easterling hit circuit blows for Beaumont in the third, sending old Tom Estel to the showers.

Falling on Dick McCabe and his successor, Lil Stoner, for seven runs in the eighth, the Sports came from behind to make it two straight over Fort Worth, 8 to 2. Stoner gave the season's prize exhibition of punch-hitting after relieving McCabe. He tossed to six batters, and the result was five hits, one walk and four runs. Egan finally went to put out the fire.

Kelly Hits Homer
Bill Morrill held the Cats to eight hits and a pair of runs until he went out for a pinch hitter in the eighth, but through one of those dizzy twists of the scoring rules was not credited with the victory. The honor went to Moulton, his successor. Bill Kelly, Panther first sacker, hit his twenty-first homer.

The Houston Buffs, dropping their second straight night tilt to Waco, 11 to 4, skidded back into a tie with the Spudders for the league lead. Until they ran into Del Pratt's ace light specialist the Buffs had won their first six starts in the second half. The Pratmen, incidentally, have dropped only one out of the seven nocturnal battles.

Inability of Floyd Rose, Buff right-hander, to locate the plate was a big factor in the Cub victory. He tossed 11 passes to spoil an otherwise fine performance, while Thurman did not hand out a single free ride. A homer by Gene Rice with two on featured a six-run Waco rally in the fourth.

TAX DISTRIBUTION AND HIGHWAY BONDS ISSUE IN STATE RACE

SMALL, LOVE AND STERLING GIVE VIEWS

STERLING TELLS OF HIS BOND ISSUE AT CORSICANA

(By Associated Press.)
CORSICANA, July 3.—Pointing out what he claimed were advantages of taking the burden of taxation off lands and real property in the smaller counties and causing the larger cities and the users of the roads to pay the cost of highway construction, R. S. Sterling of Houston, candidate for the democratic gubernatorial nomination, in an address here Wednesday dwelt at length with his proposal to issue state highway bonds.

He stressed the desirability of equitable taxes on the mineral wealth of the state along with real property instead of what he described as the unequal system now in use.

Would Be Great Aid
"My critics claim that my bond issue plan would put a burden of taxation on unborn generations," he said. "However, in content the bond issue way of constructing highways would help the present generation and provide for the future generations in the matter of obtaining adequate highways, and at the same time eliminate the existing unequal system of taxation."

LOVE CHARGES OUTSIDE MONEY IN TEXAS

TERRELL, July 3 (AP)—State Senator Thomas B. Love injected a new issue into the gubernatorial campaign in a speech here Wednesday afternoon, involving what he termed the attempt of outside capital to control Texas life insurance companies.

The senator, who helped to write the present Texas insurance laws, said "the time has come when we must decide whether Texas life insurance companies can be kept in Texas under the control of the Texas government and laws."

He criticized the political stand of former Congressman Jim Young of Kaufman, one of his opponents. Replying to Young's charge that "Tom Love is not a democrat," the senator said that "the difference between us is that he is a Raskob-follower. Smith-supporting democrat and I am the only anti-Tammany democrat in the race and the only candidate in the race who has

"SOAPY" MOODY PROMISES PEOPLE MUCH IF HE'S ELECTED GOVERNOR

FORT WORTH, July 3 (AP)—A promise that he would run the highway across the borders of Texas by sundown the day he was inaugurated governor, that he would build highways all over the state, large court reform, and erect more schools while he was strictly to economy was made last night by C. C. "Soapy" Moody, Fort Worth gubernatorial candidate, who opened his radio speaking campaign with a 30 minute talk over radio station KTAT.

Known as the laundry wagon driver candidate, Moody invited his invisible audience to "make a trip through the state with him" while he took "dirty politics" for a cleaning.

Charles Holder, barber, at whose shop Moody has his headquarters, introduced the candidate.

In the governor's office Moody said he would condemn extravagance. He said he believed the same practical methods used in running his laundry wagon would be sound if used in running the governor's office. He asserted that if he wasted a dime in his laundry business every time the governor wasted $100,000 he wouldn't have enough money left to buy a set of tires and a tank of gasoline to get out on his run tomorrow morning.

"What we need in Texas is food, shelter, clothing and jobs and what we don't need is hot check grafters and paper suit case promoters with a typewriter and fountain pen signing bonds to be gobbled up by Wall Street promoters," Moody said.

MIX SEEKS TO CUT DAUGHTER'S FUND

LOS ANGELES, July 3 (AP)—Tom Mix's petition for discontinuance of his $225 monthly allowance to his daughter, Mrs. Ruth Mix Gilmore, was taken under submission today by the Superior Court. The film cowboy filed the action after his daughter's recent runaway marriage to Douglas Gilmore, film actor, in Yuma, Ariz.

Yesterday the bride testified she had undertaken purchase of a Hollywood home of $13,000 and needed the income. Today she was put on the stand to answer one question: "Is Gilmore able to support you?"

"Yes," was her reply.

Attorneys for Mix argued that Gilmore, as the young woman's husband, is fully liable for her support.

Small declared that proposals to move the Texas penitentiary system to a Central Texas location were prompted by persons wishing to buy at a low price the present prison lands which lay over rich oil deposits, others, he asserted, wished to sell a new location at an exorbitant price. He suggested greater industrialization of the prison system.

He spoke briefly of the purposes of the Red River bill, opposed a state highway bond issue and asked for laws aiding Texas labor.

Cotton Exports Are 177,587 In June

NEW ORLEANS, July 3 (AP)—United States cotton exports to foreign countries, exclusive of Canada, totaled 177,587 bales during June, against 263,365 bales the same month a year ago, it was reported today by Secretary Hester of the New Orleans cotton exchange.

Great Britain received 17,220 bales against 26,677 a year ago; France 9,673 against 16,025; Germany 46,201 against 47,869; and remainder of Europe 61,843 against 129,747. Exports to Japan, China, and Mexico amounted to 42,680 bales against 73,296 a year ago.

MAYFIELD HAS BOTH ISSUES IN PLATFORM

EX-SENATOR HEARD IN DENISON LAST NIGHT

By HARRELL E. LEE
Associated Press Staff Writer
DENISON, July 3. (AP)—Leaving personalities for the most part to his opponents in the governor's race, former United States Senator Earle B. Mayfield last night continued to hammer on the two most stressed planks of his platform—a redistribution of tax burden and opposition to a state highway bond issue.

Mayfield's hearers, reclining in the grand stand at Forest Park, applauded energetically when he urged that "a large part" of the tax burden be shifted from the bending backs of the farmer and home owner to "wealthy" public service corporations and purchasers of luxuries.

Is Applauded
They applauded again when he declared "the $300,000,000 bond issue" would mean mortgaging of your property when "not one dime of the money will be spent in Grayson county unless the state highway commission says so."

The former state senator, railroad commissioner and United States senator was introduced by C. C. Foster, city judge, as "our next governor."

He plunged immediately into his "tax equalization" program.

"Do not listen to a candidate who says he will reduce the property tax but does not say how he will bring this about," Mayfield warned. "The expenses of state government are growing and they will continue to grow."

From Two Sources

He pointed out that the state's revenue was obtained from two sources, property taxes and special taxes. "As we increase special taxes we can decrease the ad valorem tax," he said.

Tax experts say that if the intangible value of corporations, based on their net income, were subjected to an increase in taxable property values of from four billion to eight billion dollars, that would mean the rate would be cut in half and the same revenue would be obtained.

"The franchise tax should be increased so as to yield from one to two million dollars more yearly. The charter tax should be raised to obtain an additional increase in revenue of a like amount. A tax of one cent a bottle on ginger ale would produce more than $5,000,000, a tax of one cent on each cigar and each package of cigarettes would produce nearly $6,000,000."

YOUTH TAKES LEAD IN INDIA BOYCOTT

By JAMES P. HOWE
Associated Press Correspondent
BOMBAY, July 3. (AP)—Youth played a prominent role in India's dramatic unrest today.

In numerous cities and towns boys and girls students refused to attend school, protesting against the sentencing of Pandit Motilal Nehru and Sayed Mahmud at Allahabad. They organized and marched through the streets, waving the tricolor national flag and shouting for a boycott of British-made goods.

Twelve municipal schools closed in Bombay, as did a number of colleges. Students of Wilson college, headed by twenty girls, marched from one college to another, urging the pupils to join processions and picketing those schools where the students refused to leave classes.

The sentencing of Nehru and Mahmud to six months simple imprisonment each, which followed their arrest yesterday for their civil disobedience activities, came at a time which added intensity to the "boycott week" proclaimed by Bombay nationalists against British goods.

Boycotting processions and picketing activities began yesterday, but word of the arrest of the two prominent leaders spurred Congress officials to declare a two day hartal, or cessation of work.

As a result nationalists estimated today that 30,000 workers were idle, that some 42 mills and factories were closed, and that all native theaters as well as exchanges, markets, bazaars and shops were locked.

Cheatham Suspended For Edwards 'Frame'

HOUSTON, July 3. (AP)—The Chronicle today says it has learned from an authoritative source that D. R. (Dick) Cheatham, federal prohibition agent, under whose state liquor indictment in connection with an alleged "framed" liquor charge against the late W. L. Edwards, has been suspended.

The agent could not be reached today, but it was understood the paper adds that he had not been notified of the suspension late yesterday.

Federal officials here would not say whether the indictments against the agent were responsible for his being dropped—temporarily, at least—from the department.

Thought For Today

When all is done, the help
of good counsel is that which seteth
business straight.—Bacon.

In the multitude of counselors
there is safety.—Proverbs 11:14.

Let's Be Sane

Life has always been the most precious gift in the world. Throughout the ages men have gone on quests as far-flung as the boundaries of civilization would permit
in an unending effort to find the chalice that would bring a healing
balm for life's physical calamities.

Men today have achieved greater
wisdom in their quest for the supreme boon. They have learned that if life would be prolonged it must first of all be safeguarded and protected. Therefore it is with something of a shock that we must realize that there were 97,000 deaths
due to accidents in America last year, 2000 more than in 1928. Accidents in homes took an additional 32,000 lives.

It is undoubtedly true that a large percentage of this waste of life
might have been counteracted if sufficient safety and precaution had been taken. Unnecessary risks are responsible for too many deaths.

Life presents enough risks to everyone without including unnecessary hazards. A life laid down in the promotion of some principle or service to mankind is not accidentally lost, but one that is sacrificed
carelessly has no virtue to redeem
the needless waste.

The coming of the Independence Day celebrations make it timely that people should consider this problem.
That safely propaganda and education are accomplishing worthwhile
results is evidenced in the decreasing mortality rate which surrounds the Fourth of July. Twenty years ago
or more thousands of families
were left in an aftermath of sorrow when the flaming lights of the celebration died away. The number is diminishing every year but there are still a large number of deaths
that could be avoided.

Accidents which cripple the body,
although they do not destroy life,
are another problem of the celebration which goes with the revival of the spirit of 75. Unless we strongly and ably-bred life cannot be lived to the fullest.

Children will most often be the dangerous fireworks of course. They always have. They will light firecrackers back of the barn and in alleys. There will be many a child unless an older, wiser generation is able to throw a ring of caution and prevention around the powder explodes.

Every child has a right to keep his body strong and free and perfect
in order that his days may be long upon the earth, even as they were meant to be at the beginning of time.

Experts Disagree

When experts and patriots disagree, the common man can hardly be blamed for being rather badly puzzled.

This London treaty now, Admiral
Pratt, commander of the fleet, says that the fleet that it gives us "a
me," adding that he is the chap
who will have to fight with it if war comes. But Admiral Jones excoriates the treaty bitterly, declaring that it condemns us to a position of inferiority.

While all this is going on, British conservatives rise in the House of Commons to condemn the treaty
from another standpoint. They say precisely what Admiral Jones is saying, only they say it in a different way, that is, they attack it because it "condemns Britain to a position
of inferiority as sea."

Well, what's the answer? Can the common man be blamed for putting the whole business out of mind and devoting himself to worrying about the baseball games?

Congressmen who became excited
when Representative Edith Rogers
of Massachusetts appeared at a recent session in a smock-
stock are apparently unaware that it is proper attire for House-work.

The boy who refused to play
croquet because it was a "sissy"
game has grown up to spend his time putting on the miniature golf course.

THE PLAINSMAN

Says:

That Girl on Broadway says
endurance flier is the only fellow who profits by getting up in the air.

SPEAKING of endurance fliers,
legal action is going to be taken against the Hunter brothers, John and Kenneth, who at the time of this writing have been soaring around over Chicago for more than 520
hours. Court efforts to rob the lads
of their laurels comprise the maximum of optimism.

Regardless of who owns the plane and of who planned to go up in it to set a new consecutive hour flying mark, the public is going to look upon the Hunter boys as the champions.
Lawyers may orate and judges
may ponder but the man in the street will merely grin. The lads
who have been flying for more than three weeks without a stop
aren't going to lose their prestige with the people, suits or no
suits.

The fellows who are taking the court action against the Hunters are poor sports and shouldn't expect to succeed anywhere. Nothing succeeds like a demonstration. The Hunter boys have flown an airplane for more consecutive hours than any other human beings before them
and are entitled to the credit for the job. Those who devised the legal loophole should be hung in it.

RAINEY WILLIAMS, Port Arthur
negro charged with criminally assaulting six white women and one of his own race, was handed the death penalty after a Beaumont jury deliberated only 18 minutes. The legal punishment was applied only after officers had stretched every effort to save the negro from threatening mobs.

The occurrence is a credit to Texas and to law and order in the Lone Star state and the Southern Texas authorities deserve credit for their handling of the case. How different it is from the Sherman episode
which shocked the nation and handed Texas a beautiful black eye. More power to the Beaumont and Port Arthur officers.

Wheels of justice have ground
rapidly against Williams thus far.
Other officials, including Governor
Dan Moody who will probably receive an appeal from the defendant, should make sure that nothing
comes up to hinder further rapidly in the disposal of the case.
The way it has been handled to date is the best argument against mob rule that this state has seen
in many a day.

The Plainsman is of the opinion that mob action will wither away and die. He thinks people find that they can put their faith in court and jury.
When it becomes an axiom that
the guilty shall be punished,
with accuracy and dispatch,
Texas will be satisfied. They will have the desire to take matters into their own hands illegally.

No sane man condones mob rule.
By its very methods it attacks one of the rights of Americanism. Swift sure punishment in the courts can be arranged and should become a practice. Then it would be necessary for Texas to hang their heads in shame over an outburst such as that enacted on Sherman two months ago.

That Man on Avenue Q
Fourth of July is tomorrow. It reminds him that a fellow with a red-headed wife has fireworks all the year round.

FROM all parts of the state come reports that Senator Clint Small
is gaining, gaining, gaining in a sensational manner. Politicians admit that should the West Texas
race all right, but I don't want to waste my vote. The statement is not only preposterous but is unfair to the candidate.

Every democrat owes it to himself
and to his party to vote for the man whom he considers the best candidate, whether or not he runs a chance of having his vote. Personally, the Plainsman believes no
vote is wasted if the voter, himself,
is satisfied with his choice.

PEOPLE out in this neck of the woods have told themselves for so many years "we'll never elect a West Texas Governor" that they've come to believe it. The idea, of course, is false and this year offers a wonderful opportunity to prove the falsity. The stage is set for Clint Small and the burden is on the backs of his neighbors. If West Texas swings into line for Small
it is should, the Wellington man will pick up enough votes in other sections to put him in the run-off.
When he gets to the run-off it's going to be easy sailing from then on out.

Small's slogan "Let's Adjourn Politics and Develop Texas" describes a practice which Texas needs. The average citizen, if he stops to consider it, will realize.

Insull's Effort To Keep Sackett From Attacking High Cost Of Electricity May Start Fight On 'Power Trust'

By RODNEY WITMER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON, July 3.—Ambassador Sackett told the World Power Conference at Berlin that the difference between the cost of production and the selling price
of electricity was something like
two steps and one step, and thereby created more of a sensation than he ever stirred up
in the United States Senate.

The ironical phase of the incident was that Sackett's speech would not have attracted such international attention
if Samuel Insull, the Chicago public utilities magnate, hadn't tried to persuade the ambassador not to make it.

Insull not only put over Sack-
ett's speech for him in a big way,
he also gave the Senate progressives some fine ammunition to use
against the "power trust" which,
according to Senator Norris of Nebraska, is now following Americans
all over the world and attempting to muzzle them even the highest diplomats.

Furthermore he called attention
all over again to what is known here as the power fight and the frequent charges that electric power companies are making exorbitant
profits despite their status as public utilities.

Many Agree With Him
Leaving aside the question of government ownership it has been demonstrated that there are many in the power industry itself who agree with Sackett, a public utility veteran himself, by the way. The ambassador's speech was loudly applauded at the Berlin conference.
At home here there are many who think that the utilities have to make so much money they can do it just as well by lowering the cost per kilowatt hour and profiting by the resultant increased volume of business.

The experience of the Ontario
Hydro-Electric Power System, most often used to demonstrate the eagerness with which domestic consumers of electricity increase their use as the cost goes down.

The last figures available showed that in 1914 there were 64,866,000
kilowatt hours for the year, at an average cost of 3.08 cents a kilowatt
hour, with an average monthly
bill of $1.06 and an average monthly consumption of 21 kilowatt hours.

In 1928 there were 408,000,000
kilowatt hours at an average of 17 cents, with an average monthly
bill of $1.97 for an average monthly consumption of 115.3 kilowatt hours.

Those figures applied to all municipalities, including smaller villages where higher overhead tended to keep the general average cost
higher than in the larger municipalities.

Low Rate Firm Propers Commissioner C. A. Maguire of the Ontario Hydro-Electric Power system that politics, as played by the "war horses," doesn't get him
a thing. It's another case of "everything going out and nothing
coming in" for the taxpayer who pays the freight.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.

Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

LEARN RESUSCITATION. YOU MAY BE THE MEANS OF SAVING A LOVED ONE

Going to the beach to celebrate the Fourth? All going in swimsuits? Suppose one of your party should be drawn out of the water? You know what to do to save a life? How unhappy would be all your life if you didn't know
and through your ignorance lost a loved one? I am going to give you the best method of resuscitation
and this applies not only to drowning but to heavy electric shocks or to asphyxiation by gas. Practice it immediately, after you read this article. Practice it over and over.

1. Quickly examine the mouth
and remove anything that is removable, false teeth, tobacco, chewing gum, etc.
2. Lay the patient on his back,
with both arms extended over his head. Turn his face to one side so that his nose and mouth are free
for breathing.

3. Kneel astride the patient over his hips.
4. Place the palms of your hands on the small of his back so that the tips of your fingers are just out of sight around his side with the little finger just touching the last rib.
Hold your arms straight.

5. Swing the arms of your body forward on the patient keeping your arms stiff while you count one,
two—about the time of a second a count.

6. While counting three, return to the upright position, removing your weight and pressure from the patient, but do not remove your hands. Rest long enough to count
four, five.

Repeat these procedures, the Commission recently reported that the commission now had a reserve
of $86,000,000.

Demand for power at the low rates, from both domestic and industrial consumers, had been so great that the commission doubted whether
its program for obtaining power
would be sufficient to cover as far as 1936, as was intended. Power has been brought in from other provinces and the commission has been especially careful in guarding
against the actual possibility of not having enough power to go around.

"The other day I met a gentleman from Pennsylvania who has located here," Maguire remarked.
"He uses only a small block of power. I asked what brought him here,
and he said, 'In my line of business this is the only place where I could hope to build up with the aid
of cheap power.'"

"Every day new industries are coming here because we're able to place the resources of our entire water power development at their service."

A year previously, Maguire said,
the commission had thought that 80,000 horsepower would take care of the year's load increase. But the figure went up to 153,000.

Ambassador Sackett is not a government ownership advocate,
but he knew what had been demonstrated in Ontario. Consequently,
he was able to talk to the power
men with the belief that no one would be able to controvert him.

In New York

With
Swan
Gilbert Swan

NEW YORK, July 3.—For some time I've suspected that I'm no
Rudy Vallee.

Perhaps my voice would have had more of a nation that I had my mother been less casual about my whooping cough when I was five.
But it's too late now. Somehow my radio tones have some sort of relationship to the frog family. It's just as well to know this before old age overtakes me and I acquire hopeless ambitions to be a great broadcaster.

Still and all, it had occurred to me that if Moses Vallee could write a book perhaps I could do something on the air. At this moment
I have a notion that, recalling Vallee's book, the breaks may be about
even when we get outside our particular lines.

All this is ament my appearance
the other evening on the Columbia network 32 stations—count em, 32. What you didn't hear me? That may account for the meager amount of fan mail received. On the other hand, it's probably just as well
that some of the hearers didn't write in. They're probably being kind about it. Perhaps my best friends wouldn't tell me.

Being something in the nature of a maiden air speech, I made several mistakes—rather serious ones,
I've been told.

For instance, when I entered the broadcasting room, a very charming young lady with a southern accent had just finished singing
something about the birds and the bees. And she was urging her "sensible audience" of "you-ahs" to write her letters. I should have taken a cue from that. But I have no pride to think of. I've always wanted actors who pan-dered a place.

Later, however, I learned that one's voice around a broadcasting shop is taken largely on the number of sacks of mail received daily.
This may be all very well, but suppose that all the letter writers
are penning notes of praise to Rudy and the rest of them at the very moment when the writer's performers, like myself, are stammering out on halting sentences?

If a fan sends three or four a day, he may miss a new program
quite worth waiting home about.
Well, such is the custom of the air—and, if I don't like it, why don't you go back to your typewriter?

At any rate, my first great mistake lay in making gestures. Having attended two or three presen-tational conventions and followed orators around the country, I have cultivated a left hand swing aimed to hit all adverse arguments below
the belt.

I forgot that a piano was at my immediate left. The same piano but recently abandoned by the charming southern lass. My notes were on the top of the piano. A breeze came playfully into the room.
My top papers turned upside down
and danced over the piano top. Here was at the very moment of opening and my rapidly planned opening sentence was flying away. What was worse, I couldn't remember it.
I made a right hand swing for the papers and banged the piano top.

"That's all right," Bill Schudt,
the announcer later told me. "It merely sounded like a thunder
storm to the listeners."

And later, while two frantic announcers held up fingers telling me
how many minutes were left for talking purposes, I swung my oratorical left whamming the piano
just about the midriff and causing
what, according to my friend Bill,
again might possibly have passed
as a cyclone hitting Texas, once
it went on the air.

And oh yes, my notes blew away
and I had to add no almost everything. My subject was to have been
"Bagebrush to Subways." But I fear
it spent most of its time in Flatbush.

A Chinese matador was chased
from a Madrid bull ring on his initial appearance. Proving conclusively that bull fighting is an old Spanish and not a Chinese custom.

We suppose that when that child
which was born on a ship passing through the Panama canal begins
to walk it will start first with the lock-step.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY HAL COCKE PICTURES BY KING

(READ THE STORY, THEN COLOR THE PICTURE)

The Tinymites had seen a lot of queer Odessa. Soon they got quite anxious to be moving on. The Travel Man said, "Well, we'll get a good night's sleep tonight so you all will be feeling right. Tomorrow I will have another wondrous plan to tell."

"Oh, goodie, goodie!" Glimmy cried. "Beneath the blankets we will hide and close our eyes real tight until another morning's here. Then we will eat to start the day and shortly we'll be on our way. I hope the plan you have in mind will fill us full of cheer."

So, everyone turned into bed in a hotel. Each sleepy head was buried deep in slumberland in most no time at all. The Travel Man was first to rise. He shouted, "Open up your eyes. It's morning!" and the Tinymites jumped, cause they all heard him yell. He then said, "We are Persia bound. My what a place to look around. Across the Black Sea we will sail and then we'll take to land. The ship and then soon found a ship and shortly they were on their trip. We're heading now for Persia," shouted Glimmy. "Gee, that's grand."

For hours and hours and hours they sailed and then the shore was hoody hoody. The boat docked and they all ran off. "Now, what's new Carpy cried. The Travel Man said, "You will see. And, boy, surprised you all will be. We take an auto. Then we change and ride a caravan."

The auto ride was very short but really quite a lot of sport. They reached the Persian border.

Then the real good fun began. The caravan was odd, indeed. "Oh, look," cried Sooty, "all we need to do is jump in baskets." So up to some mules they ran.

(The Tinymites have an interesting trip in the next story.)

We Hope You Enjoy "The Fourth"

Regardless of your plans for this Holiday, clothes will play an important part. Most likely you will be in contact with well dressed people. You will naturally prefer to look your best.

One of the prime objects of the services of this store is to enable you to make a good appearance. It is reflected in the care with which we study style—the thoroughness we use in making selections—the thoughts we give to color blending.

If your "Fourth" this year includes "clothes from Hemphill-Wells Co.," you take with you an assurance of being well dressed.

NEW JERSEY HAS STRICTLY WET PARTIES

REPEAL IS PLATFORM OF BOTH IN COMING ELECTIONS

(By Associated Press)

TRENTON, N. J., July 3.—The republican and democratic parties in New Jersey, for the first time since prohibition became operative, were in accord today in advocating repeal of the eighteenth amendment. Ratification by both state conventions of tentative platforms favors repeal of the amendment virtually eliminated prohibition as a major issue in the senatorial campaign between Ambassador Dwight W. Morrow, republican, and Alexander Simpson, democrat.

The republicans followed the leadership of Ambassador Morrow, supporting his repeal stand and going on record as favoring return of liquor control to the states. The democrats reiterated their plea for repeal.

Funds Requested For Agricultural Work
AUSTIN, July 3. (AP)—Appropriations of $25,000 annually for the administration of the pink boll weevil law and $20,000 each year for the eradication of citrus canker and other fruit and plant diseases were asked today of the state board of control by the department of agriculture.

The budget also contained an appropriation of $2,000 annually for an assistant entomologist. The department asked $233,525 for the first year of the 1933-34 biennium and $232,929 for the second year.

The Texas school for the blind submitted requests for $277,050 for each year of the biennium. The Texas conference Home asked $221,280 for the first year of the biennium and $199,430 the second year.

ACTION COMPLETED

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—Final congressional action was completed in that portion of the second deficiency bill carrying $10,660,000 for the initial work on Boulder Canyon Dam today when the house agreed to a partial conference report on the measure.

H. D. ENCAMPMENT

POST, July 3. (Special)—Home demonstration club women from Garza and Lynn counties will hold their annual encampment at Two Draw lake July 9 and 10. A record attendance is predicted.

HAS SOME USE

J. L. Suits, sometimes known as Jack and sometimes as Lance, is the editor down at Lorenzo. In his newspaper work he receives from various and sundry advertisers a number of electroplates and advertising services. The metal of some of these he is able to melt up and use in the linotype pot but some of the others have to much copper in the metal. Lance has found a means of using these cuts, mounted as they are on wood blocks. He places them, metal face downwards, on the dirt in front of his office, which is on a side street. The result is he always has a dry place for people to stand on and walk on while passing his office.

BIG GERANIUM PLANT

What is said to be the biggest geranium plant in this section of the state, if not in all Texas, is found in the lobby of the Ralls Inn. Mrs. M. D. Lacey, wife of the proprietor, has a blooming geranium in a tub that is more than eight feet tall. The first of the week it was eight feet five inches and had grown an inch in three or four days. The plant has two large blooms and has been blooming regularly for several months. Mrs. Lacey used castor oil in making the plant grow, giving it about a teaspoonful every 21 days, according to directions from the U. S. department of agriculture.

A REGULAR FELLOW

Walter Curry, editor of the Crosbyton Review, is one of the popular men of his town and is an active member of the Rotary club (most of the editors on the South Plains are members of their home town Rotary club, so this is nothing new). He is one of the regulars in a club that has a regular attendance of 100 per cent for several months. Mr. Curry has been a booster for the amusement attractions of Crosby county ever since he went there some six years ago. The annual Hank Smith celebration at the old Hank Smith farm the middle of August is the next big event after the Fourth of July celebration at Silver Falls.

EVEN MINISTERS

A minister once in a while gets a "cold check." Rev. A. Ashley, pastor of the Lorenzo M. E. church, reports. Several months ago the minister performed a wedding ceremony and received in return for his remuneration a five dollar check. It went to the bank and was returned "insufficient funds." Now the minister is hunting the bridegroom. "I got a $40 hot check," he explained the other day. "I took me several months to get it. Went into the bank once and found the man had more than enough in his account to pay my check so I ran it through. He got mad at me and said I done him wrong."

Builds Castle

HAMBURG, N. J.—A fairy castle is open to all children of all ages. It is built of cement colored to look like gingerbread, being and pepperment candy. Elephants, knights in armor and giants are there. Mr. Bennett went to hear the opera "Hansel and Gretel" and was so charmed with the gingerbread house that he had Joseph Urban, stage designer, make him one.

NEW YORK—Pleasant vacation! Some $600,000,000 in dividends and interest is on the way to those who have faith in American corporations. Semi-annual dividends are $325,000,000, representing 1,300 dividends, and $715,000,000 in bond interest and maturities.

POWER IS RAISED

WASHINGTON, July 3. (AP)—The Federal Radio commission today approved the application of station KFI, Los Angeles, for permission to use 50,000 watts power instead of 3,000.

How I coaxed him to eat!

"ONCE I was worried. Meal-time was getting on my nerves. I prepared many appetizing dishes, but John simply would not eat—just 'mimed' at his food. Perhaps sometimes a little grouchy. I began to fear he was 'slipping.' What was I to do? Love, home, happiness, business success—all depended upon an improvement in his condition. The blood-boosting idea suggested itself to me. My Druggist recommended S.S.S. He told me that S.S.S. was a great blood tonic; that it had been successful for over 100 years; that it was made from strictly fresh vegetable drugs and was beneficial to the most delicate system. Also that it would build up the blood and improve the processes by which the body is nourished. I brought home a large size bottle. John agreed to try it. Well, in just a few days I could see the difference. His improvement has been so rapid he is going to take several more bottles, and not only that, but he is now telling his friends to take S.S.S."

It is a known fact that when a man's system gets "run-down," he hasn't the resistance to ward off disease. Loss of appetite is only a symptom. General weakness pervades the entire body. There is no desire to work or play. It is dangerous to let the red-blood-count remain below normal. S.S.S. is daily helping people to regain their strength. Thousands of users have testified to its benefits in unsolicited letters of gratitude. It promotes a keen appetite, gives vitality to the body, clears the skin and wards off diseases. All Drug Stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Ask for the larger size. It is more economical.
