Marine Posts Battered By Heavy Red Barrage

SAIGON AP) — Heavy Communist rocket and artillery fire pounded U.S. Marine outposts and sweeping forces today just below the demilitarized zone where ground fighting or gun duels have raged for four days.

The U. S. Command said 15 Leathernecks were killed and 51 wounded in eight enemy barrages in the past 24 hours. This brought the unofficial four-day casualty toll to 106 killed, 321 wounded and 6 missing.

The Marines have reported 168 North Vietnamese killed but believe the total enemy casualties are far higher.

Each North Vietnamese barrage was answered by the Marine guns, but the Red batteries were evidently well dug in at solidly prepared sites. Associated Press correspondent Steve Stibbens reported from the battle area that the forces of the 90th North Vietnamese Regiment, which had been fighting the Marines since Sunday, had pulled back at least temporarily.

Pushing forward to recover the bodies of Marines killed in the big battle last Sunday, the Marines ran into a rabbit warren of abandoned, battered bunkers.

Sweeping forces protected by tanks, two of which were knocked out by gunfire, have now recovered most of the missing from the opening battle Sunday. The official toll now stands at 78. Marines are still in that fight, in which the Marines reported at least 68 North Vietnamese killed.

While the threat along the border zone overshadowed action elsewhere, there were skirmishes and small-scale battles throughout the country Tuesday. Despite this almost all American units took a few minutes off for Fourth of July observances.

Only miles west of Saigon, American soldiers and South Vietnamese rangers hit a guerrilla band with a sudden helicopter assault. In the melee, a recoilless rifle shell exploded beside a descending helicoptr and wounded eight U. S. soldiers. In all, 22 Viet Cong were killed, and the assault force had one man killed and 15 wounded.

American pilots, after one day of bad weather, found fair skies over much of North Vietnam Tuesday and flew 9 missions, most of them against the rail, highway and waterway network around the heavily defended Haiphong-Hanoi area.

Although returning pilots reported two MIG sightings and several barrages of Soviet-built surface-to-air missiles, no losses were reported. Hanoi radio claimed three American plane were downed.

Thousands In Park For July 4th Event

It was a typical Fourth of July observance in Towle Memorial Park Tuesday as thousands of local residents and out-of-town vistors thronged into the park to join in the many festivities.

It all began at 9:30 a.m. with a patriotic speech made by Don Wooten, president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. It concluded with a brilliant fireworks display at 9:30 p.m.

In between these two events, the happy crowd participated in several special events in addition to enjoying helicopter demonstrations, bingo games and a carnival. Local civic clubs dispensed cold drinks, hamburgers, snow cones and watermelon to the hungry, thirsty throng.

Included among the special events was a parade through the park participated in by several riding groups, boys and girls on bicycles, two fire trucks and the replica of the white buffalo killed by J. Wright Mooar. The parade went off smoothly along the route east from the Farm League baseball field past the reviewing stand at the armory, past the pond, around the swimming pol, and back past the pond and tennis courts.

Several local dignitaries were seated around the reviewing stand, including Renal Rosson, state representative; Wayland Holt, district attorney; and Sterling Taylor, county judge.

The parade signaled the beginning of a fishing rodeo participated in by the younger boys and girls and sponsored by the Snyder Jaycees. Earlier, firecrackers heralded the arrival of the hundeds of family groups that arrived in the park to enjoy picnic lunches and an all-day outing.

A tennis tournament, baseball games and an art show attracted huge gatherings.

The Miss Towle Pool beauty contest was cancelled because of a lack of entrants.

Three grand awards were presented at the art show. Winners were Jess Everett of Snyder (adult amateur division) Elsie Fomby of Sweetwater, (adult professional division), and Jack Terry of Victoria (junior division).

Everett won his grand award with a landscape painting of a tree and Elsie Fomby won tops among professionals with a landscape painting of an old farm house and adjacent building. Terry's painting, "Cowboy's Delight," was overall best in the junior division. He also copped second place in the junior original landscape division with a Colorado scene.

Persons who visited the art show cast ballots for the pictures they thought were best. The public's choice included a painting of the old J. Wright Mooar farmhouse by Mary Dulaney (best adult), and a landscape canyon scene by Daphne Merritt (best junior).

Rosalie McGlaun's portrait of Louise Thompson was judged the best of its division among professional artists, and the runnerup prize went to Liz Bell for her portrait of Sgt. Donald T. Deere, Snyder soldier who was killed in Vietnam.

Judge of the art show as Mary June Holton of Lubbock. She has won numerous awards and prizes and has presented two individual shows. She has studied under many well-known instructors, including Ray Helburg of Lubbock, De Forrest Judd of Dallas, Dr. Emilie Caballero of Canyon, and Emily Guthrie Smith of Fort Worth.

UN Envoys Seek Save-Face Move

By WILLIAM N. OATIS

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — Diehard diplomats at the United Nations cast about today for a face-saving token resolution on the Middle East after rival demands for Israel's withdrawal from Arab soil failed to pass the General Assembly.

Assembly President Abdul Rahman Pazhwak of Afghanistan called an afternoon meeting to "finalize" the work of the emergency session that began June 17.

But some delegates expressed belief that if the assembly recessed for a few days, they could muster the needed two-thirds majority for a vaguely worded draft expounding general principles and shunting the real issues back to the Security Council.

The 122-nation assembly defeated four resolutions Tuesday calling on Israel to withdraw its troops from land occupied in Egypt, Syria and Jordan during the June war.

The assembly overwhelmingly approved a resolution calling on Israel to rescind its annexation of the Old City of Jerusalem and a Swedish proposal appealing for aid for Arab refugees and other victims of the Arab-Israeli war.

As the delegates gathered to vote, an Israeli military spokesman announced in Tel Aviv that Israeli antiaircraft fire hit and apparently downed an Egyptian jet fighter and drove off a second plane in the eastern Sinai near Suez.

An Egyptian military spokesman in Cairo denied the Israeli claim.

The assembly's failure to call for Israeli withdrawal in the climactic votes Tuesday night was viewed as a sharp setback for the Soviet Union, which had called for the emergency session and sent Premier Alexei N. Kosygin here to press its case.

'I'm In' Drive Is Progressing

"I'm In For A. M.," a strictly volunteer campaign to raise funds for the Scurry County Industrial Development Corp., apparently was moving along this morning.

However, due to the nature of the campaign, it was impossible to determine exactly how things stood. There are no workers, no team captains, in fact no formal organization in the drive. Instead local citizens have been told of a major industry's plans to establish a plant in Scurry County, with work due to start by Sept. 1.

"They didn't ask us (the industrial board) to buy any land for them, but we insisted on it to show that our entire community is interested," said Bill Wilson, chairman of the industrial board.

The "I'm In" cards and progress certificates are available at both banks. Special booths sold them Tuesday in Towle Memorial Park and the sale at the banks will continue for the remainder of the week. Everyone who contributes $10 gets one of the "Progress Unlimited" certificates and an "I'm In" lapel card.

500 Students Reunited With Parents

RANGOON (AP) — More than 500 Chinese students who were forcibly detained by pro-Peking ringleaders have been reunited with their parents.

The government had looked after the students, all naturalized Burmese, at a protection camp during the past week of violent anti-Chinese rioting.

With the situation in Rangoon returning to normal, the government notified parents and guardians to collect the students.

But 12 ringleaders, said to be trained in Peking, barricaded the doors and shouted, "We have no need of parents! We want to see only the representatives of Chinese Embassy!"

Parents hearing their children's pleas to be released, threatened to storm the building. One student escaped by leaping out of a 20-foot high window, and 48 others broke through a barricade.

Commandos Invade Congo

KINSHASA, the Congo (AP)— Two unidentified planes landed a group of foreign commandos today at the airport of Kisangani in the northeast Congo, President Joseph D. Mobutu said.

The Congo radio had claimed Tuesday night that 200 Belgian mercenaries were ready to fly to the Congo and free Moise Tshombe if the ex-premier is extradited from Algiers, where he is being held.

Kisangani, formerly Stanleyville, is about 775 miles northeast of Kinshasa. It is a former rebel stronghold.

In a radio address to the nation, Mobutu said foreign settlers had attacked Bukavu, near the Rwanda border 320 miles southeast of Kisangani.

The situation throughout the eastern Congo is tense, the Congo radio said.

Mobutu made no attempt to link the reported landings with Tshombe, but the official Algerian news agency implied that they were part of a plot to overthrow Mobutu and reinstate Tshombe, who faces death if he is handed over to the Congo by Algeria.

Tshombe was on a plane flying from Spanish territory last week that was hijacked and landed at Algiers. He has been held there while Algeria decides whether to grant extradition.

Tshombe was sentenced in absentia to death for treason March 13 by a military court in Kinshasa. He has been in exile since he was dismissed as premier in October 1965 and had been living in exile in Europe.

Mobutu said the commandos —he did not give their number —landed at 6:30 a.m. and occupied Kisangani Airport. Earlier the Congo radio said foreign mercenaries had been dropped by parachute both at Kisangani and Bukavu.

The president said that at Bukavu, Congolese national army troops were defending themselves from attacks by foreign settlers.

Mobutu said he has decreed a state of emergency over the whole of the Congolese territory.

The radio said the situation in the eastern part of the Congo is tense.

The broadcast did not give any immediate indication whether the parachute drops were tied in with former Premier Moise Tshombe, who is under arrest in Algeria. The Congo is seeking his extradition to face a death penalty here as a traitor and plotter against Mobutu's regime.

Congolese newspapers and radio recently have been reporting on what they called the Kerilis plan. They said the plan was to re-establish Tshombe as head of the government.

Officials also have claimed that a wave of sabotage in Katanga, the province Tshombe once led in secession, was part of a plot by pro-Tshombe elements to unseat Mobutu. The plot, they said, had the back of international financial groups.

Turbulence Continues In Texas

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Rowdy thunderstorms zeroed in on parts of East and North Texas with brilliant electrical displays and heavy rains Tuesday night and early today.

One of the most violent pummelled the Marshall area in the east edge of the state with winds estimated by some residents of that vicinity at 80 miles per hour — exceeding minimum hurricane force.

Sheriff's officers received reports of a tornado striking 4 to 5 miles northwest of Marshall, but they said it apparently was wind blowing in a straight line instead of a writhing twister.

As an estimated 3 to 4 inches of rain descended within an hour and a half, the storm knocked down a transformer and uprooted trees outside Marshall and dropped one big tree across a street inside the city, blocking it temporarily.

Showers and thunderstorms likewise roved parts of the Panhandle, South Plains and other areas in the north half of Central and East Texas. Much of the shower activity centered on the sector from Wichita Falls and Mineral Wells eastward, also extending into Southern Oklahoma.

Water filled streets in Bonham curbfull and lightning set fire to a house 7 miles south of there in North Texas. Lights failed in parts of Bonham for a time.

MORE THAN ONE AN HOUR

Texas Leads Nation In Holiday Highway Carnage

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Violent death claimed victims at the rate of more than one an hour in Texas over the four-day 102-hour Fourth of July holiday weekend. The state led the nation in carnage.

"This is the worst ever," said a Texas Department of Public Safety spokesman in comparing the figures with previous Independence Day fatalities.

The Associated Press tabulated 107 violent deaths during the holiday, with traffic accidents accounting for 70 persons killed. Four more died in boating accidents, 13 drowned and 20 perished from miscellaneous causes, mainy shootings.

The tragic toll, recorded between 6 p.m. Friday and midnight Tuesday, was heavier than in any other state.

As far as traffic was concerned, state police blamed "carelessness and a lack of awareness" among drivers.

"Almost all the preliminary reports show some notation of some violation of the law," the Department of Public Safety spokesman said.

Before the holiday arrived, DPS experts had estimated traffic accidents would claim 55 lives at the worst during the 102-hour weekend. During last year's three-day holiday 43 were killed.

Among the lastest victims were:

Mrs. Nolan D. Norman, 22, of Athens drowned Tuesday when she was thrown from a boat into Lake Athens after it passed too near the wake of another craft. Her husband and a friend, also tossed into the water, were rescued.

A head-on collision of two cars on U.S. 59 north of Queen City in Cass County killed Cynthia L. Arnold, 20, of Houston.

Curtis Williams was shot and killed Tuesday night during an argument outside a tavern at Granger. Sheriff's officers held another young man for questioning.

Otis Ballard, 50, of Paris, Tex., died at a hospital Tuesday night of injuries suffered in a Dallas automobile accident the evening before.

An 11-foot homemade boat carrying five persons sank Tuesday in Lake Hawkins, 5 miles north of Tyler and Virginia Walton, 23, Rt. 1, Hawkins, drowned.

Windell C. McCall, 20, of Orla, Fla., suffered fatal injuries Tuesday in a two-car accident 3 miles west of Killeen.

W. A. Hinkle Dies Today

Wilson A. Hinkle, 87, died at 7:15 a.m. today at Snyder Hospital.

A native of Tennessee, Mr. Hinkle had lived here for about two years. He was a retired farmer.

Surviving are two daughters, Mrs. Jay Rogers of Snyder and Mrs. Lodie Gilmore of Lamesa; a son, O. B. Hinkle of Tulia; six grandchildren and seven greatgrandchildren.

Funeral service will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday at Wallace Chapel in Tulia. Burial will be in the Greenland Cemetery there.

Bell-Seale Funeral home is in charge of arrangements here.

Kremlin Says Aid To Be Limited

MOSCOW AP) — The Soviet Union's top leader indicated today that the Arabs still can expect no Soviet military action to aid them against Israel.

Communist party chief Leonid I. Brezhnev defended Soviet policy in the Middle East after informed sources reported division within the Kremlin high command over how far to go in support of the Arabs.

Brezhnev told a Kremlin reception for military academy graduates that "looking back, we can say with certainty today that our actions were correct in the crucial days of the Middle East crisis."

The Soviet Union, he continued, "firmly and resolutely supports the Arab states and is rendering them all-round assistance." But he appeared to limit this assistance by saying President Nikolai V. Podgorny's recent talks in Egypt, Syria and Iraq "will undoubtedly facilitate the coordination of joint action in the political struggle in defense of the rights and interests of the U.A.R. Egypt, Syria and other Arab countries."

By assistance, Brezhnev presumably also referred to the weapons which the Soviets reportedly have shipped to Egypt and Syria since their defeat by Israel. But his defense of the lack of Soviet military action in support of the Arabs during the war indicated that Moscow's aid will continue to be in the form of materiel and in the political spehre.

It was Brezhnev's first speech to be made public since the Middle East war.

No-Man's Land Becoming Viet's Bloodiest Battlefield

SAIGON (AP) — The mountains, rolling hills and flatlands just below the demilitarized zone, the border with North Vietnam, have become Vietnam's bloodiest battle ground.

About 1,000 Marines have been killed and about 7,000 wounded this year in ambushes, pitched battles, artillery barrages and rocket and mortar attacks. This is roughly two-thirds of the 12,000 combat infantrymen in the 75,000-man 3rd Marine Amphibious Force, but many of the wounded were treated in the field without leaving their units or were out of action a few days or a few weeks.

Because of politics, terrain and the nature of guerrilla war, the Leathernecks are fighting with severe tactical disadvantages that may get worse as the war goes on.

In theory the Marines are on the border to prevent massive infiltration into South Vietnam by large North Vietnam guerrilla units. They have not been able to do this to any degree and have repeatedly been forced into battle at a time and place picked by the enemy.

The fighting this week around Con Thien is a good example.

The Marine outpost there is one of four in a boxlike pattern that has been nicknamed Leatherneck Square.

Lokouts from Con Thien Sunday spotted a moderate sized force of North Vietnamese moving south from the border zone. Two companies were sent after them. The force the Marines spotted was bait for a massive ambush. One Marine company was hit, cut into three segments and virtually wiped out. The second company took high casualties.

In all 58 Americans were killed, 170 were wounded, and 27 were missing, apparently dead and their bodies left on the battlefield.

The 27 were bait for another trap. It was not until Tuesday that the Leathernecks could get close to the bodies. Then the North Vietnamese struck hard again, knocking out two tanks, killing Marines and wounding

The Marines had to pull back again. Wednesday they finally got their dead comrades back.

This time there was no fighting. The North Vietnamese had pulled back to their deep bunkers in the demilitarized zone to plan their next move.

Nearly everything seems to favor the enemy along the demilitarized zone. Since the area is just over the border, he has a short and solid supply line. The Marines are at the furthermost end of theirs.

The North Vietnamese have artillery buried and carefully camouflaged north of the border. U.S. planes have not been able to silence it. American B52s have not been used in the immediate area for months because of the danger from Soviet-made surface to air missiles.

When the Marines launch sweeps, the enemy fades until he feels the Americans have maneuvered into terrain that gives the Communists the advantage. If the Reds don't want to risk an infantry attack, they call in their artillery.

The land around Con Thien is open and fairly flat. There is no place to hide from the big shells, rockets and mortar roundsm

An offensive could be launched to silence the artillery. Israel did this in its Syrian campaign. But the artillery is north of the border, and the political implications of an American invasion of North Vietnam have ruled against such a move.

Dear Abby

DEAR ABBY: When our 16-year-old daughter went to the school prom, she had to have a fancy garter to wear that night so she could give it to her escort as a souvenir afterward!

We suggested she give him a ribbon from her hair, or a flower from her corsage as we have always considered garters as a part of underwear.

Maybe the next move will be for the boy to ask his date for her girdle or bra!

What is happening to our young people anyway?

LACKAWANNA MOTHER

DEAR MOTHER: Giving one's escort her garter for a souvenir is not new, and really not very wicked. Don't worry about the other. Were a young man to ask for a girdle or a bra, he'd probably wind up with a snappy comeback.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Last year we put in a swimming pool and we told all our neighbors they could come to swim any time.

Most of them have, on occasion, but they have all had the good sense to phone first.

Our problem is a young mother. She came every morning bringing her two small children and their lunches. They stayed all day. Not once did she phone to ask if we were having guests, etc. When we were not home she'd come anyway and use our kitchen and bathroom (Our housekeeper told us.)

Then the rainy season set in and we didn't see her for 4 months.

Today, the first nice day, she's back! And from her conversation she plans to spend the summer around our pool again.

I suppose we should have said something to her long ago. But we didn't. Now what do we do?

POOL PROBLEM

DEAR PROBLEM: Say something now! If you object to her coming without phoning first, say so. If you'd rather she didn't use your pool when you weren't home, let her know it. The same goes for your "facilities."

Since you made no ground rules when you invited all your neighbors to swim "any time," you're lucky she's your only problem.

• • •

DEAR ABBY: Lots of people read your column, Abby, so maybe if you put this in the paper they will see it and learn something.

Some people think it is a big joke to say, "He can't even get elected DOG CATCHER." Like dog catcher is the worst job in the world.

Well, my father is a dog catcher, and he wasn't elected. He had to pass some very hard tests from the Civil Service commission.

I hope lots of people will see this and quit laughing at dog catchers. Thank you.

N-Blast Eyed To Gouge New Canal

By FRED S. HOFFMAN

WASHINGTON (AP)—U. S. engineers are considering underground nuclear explosions with a force of up to 10 million tons of TNT to blast out a new sea-level canal across Central America, it was learned Tuesday.

An Atomic Energy Commission source said that would be 50 times bigger than any underground atomic explosion yet tested by the United States.

The AEC source said Army engineer specialists, making preliminary studies, believe the largest single excavation explosion might range up to 10 million tons, or 10 megatons.

The smallest might be the equivalent of 200,000 tons of TNT—about the size of the largest below-ground test in Nevada.

Attention was focused on the canal question anew last week when it was announced that the United States and Panama concluded agreement on new treaties dealing with the possible building of a new sea-level canal and operation of the present Panama Canal.

There has been no decision yet on which of four possible sites to use for a new canal. Two are in Panama—one of them the present 46-mile Panama lock canal which could be converted. A third possible route runs through Colombia and a fourth along the border of Nicaragua and Costa Rica.

The excavating method to be used also has not been determined.

However, on the basis of comparative cost, nuclear explospons apparently are being given considerable support except for the present Panama Canal route. If chosen, it probably would be excavated by conventional explosives because of the population in its vicinity.

HEARTY MAN-STYLE SANDWICHES of ham; cheese and canned pimientos—the pimientos a "must" for moisture, flavor and piquancy—are French-fried in a skillet.

These Sandwiches Are Very Different

By CECILY BROWNSTONE
Associated Press Food Editor

IT'S HARD to find a new idea in sandwich making. But here's one you may not have come across.

Hearty main-dish sandwiches are dipped in an egg-and-milk mixture and given a coating of cornflake crumbs. Then into hot butter in a big skillet they go to be delectably heated and browned and their outsides made crispy.

The filling for the sandwiches is one that is sure to be popular. It's a combination of ham and cheese with whole canned pimientos to add moisture, flavor and piquancy. Prepared mustard and mayonnaise are also used for good flavor. In the following recipe we give you some latitude in using these last two ingredients. But if you are the meticulous kind of cook who likes specific amounts, you might like to use — as we did in testing this recipe — six teaspoons of mustard for six bread slices and six teaspoons of mayonnaise for the remaining six bread slices.

FRENCH - FRIED COMBINATION SANDWICHES

12 slices white bread
Prepared mustard
Mayonnaise
6 sandwich-size slices cooked ham
1 can (7 ounces) whole pimientos, drained and dried on paper toweling
6 sandwich - size slices cheddar cheese
3 eggs
½ cup milk
¼ teaspon salt
Dash seasoned pepper
1 cup packaged cornflake crumbs
½ cup (1 stick) buter

Spread 6 slices of bread with mustard, 6 slices with mayonnaise. Makes 6 sandwiches using a slice of bread with mustard, a slice of ham, a whole pimiento spread flat, a slice of cheese and a slice of bread with mayonnaise. In a shallow utensil beat eggs enough to combine yolks and whites; add milk, salt and pepper and beat to combine. Dip sandwiches into egg mixture, then into crumbs. Sandwiches should be evenly coated with crumbs; shake or brush off any wet lumpy bits. In a 10 inch skillet melt ¼ cup (½ stick) of the butter. Add 3 of the sandwiches and brown moderately slowly on both sides. Use remaining butter for browning 3 remaining sandwiches. Serve at once. Makes 6 servings.

Note: For the ham we find it convenient to buy a 5-ounce package of cooked ham, cutting 3 of the slices in half crosswise to make the 6 sandwich-size slices needed in this recipe.

Beauty Not Enough

By VIVIAN BROWN
AP Newsfeatures Writer

NEW YORK — At this time of year, a girl may go into a spin over the compliments she receives for her class photograph.

By the time relatives and friends finish padding her ego, she may have one foot on the bus to Hollywood.

Hold that impulse, advises actress Pamela Austin. Things have changed out there in that movie colony. You've got to have something more than good looks.

Girls aren't discovered for their beauty as they walk along the street, although that's what they all believe will happen.

About 300 female actresses arrive in the city every day with that idea; but, the majority gives up before they ever get break."

FRIENDS FAILED

Pamela, 25, has been in Hollywood for 5 years. She is married and has one child 3. She has made quite a few movies. But, most of her friends who arrived with her, could not afford to wait for breaks. They left either to get married or to return home to their families.

"Even if you can cope with the frustrations, you need money to wait for a break," she explains.

Pamela lived at the YWCA studio club for actresses where she paid $25 a week for room, two meals a day and switchboard answering service.

"The great thing about living at a place like that was that I was not really alone while I was trying to find my way around. Girls who have been there awhile show you the ropes," she explains.

BE CONFIDENT

Pamela also was in her home state. She had gone to Sacramento State College. She didn't fell homesick.

A "meanwhile" job is important and her first break came when she saw a notice on the "Y" bulletin board about auditions for a Tony Martin night club act.

"At first, I thought all the dancers would be so great that I wouldn't fit in; but, I decided to go and observe for future guidance. I noticed the applicants weren't really so terrific, they were pretty average. I jumped up for an audition and got one of the jobs."

That experience taught Pam a lesson. If you don't have confidence enough to try, you can never get any place.

TURN ON CHARM

The same idea applies to being interviewed for a movie role, she says. You must really turn on the personality. It's the 80 per cent of the interview, she says. The other 20 per cent is the experience you've had — college, community projects, summer you've ever done.

No matter how long one waits for that big Hollywood break, it seems to take you overnight from nothing to a lot.

ALL NUMBER CALLING coming here

"HI 3" Prefix To Change to "573" Next January

EFFECTIVE with the issuance of a new telephone directory here in January, 1968, all Snyder telephone numbers will be changed from two letters and five numerals to seven numerals.

Snyder thus will join many other Southwestern Bell exchanges which have this new numbering system, known as All Number Calling. ANC is already in use in many other parts of the nation.

The present prefix, "HI 3," will be changed to "573." In most cases, the last four digits of each telephone number will remain unchanged.

For example, HI 3-3099 will become 573-3099.

Some Other Changes Due

However, in addition, numbers between HI 3-4000 and HI 3-4999 will be changed to the corresponding number in the 573-2000 series.

For example, HI 3-4691 will become 573-2691.

These changes are necessary for technical reasons, to pave the way for future telephone improvements in Snyder.

All the new seven-numeral numbers will be included in the next telephone directory.

Why the change to All Number Calling? The reason we're eliminating central office names is simple. On a nationwide basis, we're running out of suitable, easy-to-pronounce-and-understand names. All Number Calling gives us about 50 percent more usable telephone numbers. We need these new numbers to keep up with the demand for service.

Faster, Easier Dialing

There are several things you'll like about All Number Calling. Confusion between letters and figures (such as I and one, O and zero) and between central office names (such as HUbbard and HObart) will be eliminated. This means fewer wrong numbers.

Also your dialing of local calls will be faster and easier, with only numbers to look for on the dial.

Customers who use printed material bearing their telephone numbers will want to be sure to remember to use their new numbers in ordering material to be used after the change.

WE believe that you will find this new up-to-date numbering system simple and more trouble-free to use. And Snyder, as in the past, will continue to be in the forefront of telephone progress.

Changes In Foreign Policy Slow To Take Direction

By JAMES MARLOW
AP News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — U. S. foreign policy is at a turning point although, like other turns in American history, at the moment it seems more sensed than seen.

The New Deal is a good previous example of how this country, when it has to break with the past, must feel its way along. A new direction had to be found when the depression hit over 30 years ago.

It was learned only gradually that the government must take responsibility for the general welfare. All the social legislation since has been based on that concept although it wasn't until 1946 that Congress said so flatly.

When the United States got into World War II it seemed likely, but not certain, it would now at last shake off its ancient isolationism, something it did not do after World War I.

Its first gesture toward a new internationalism was helping create the United Nations in 1945. But it wasn't until 1947, with Greece and Turkey under Communist pressure, that a new, far-ranging foreign policy was laid down.

President Harry S. Truman did it with his doctrine that this country would support "free people who are resisting attempted subjugation" and trying to work out their "own destiny."

Truman could afford to be so sweeping at that time when, in a way, the United States was master of the world. It alone had the atomic bomb in 1947. But all that followed had its roots in the Truman Doctrine: the Marshall Plan of economic aid, breaking Stalin's Berlin blockade, the defense of South Korea against invasion from North Korea, sending troops into the Dominican Republic and involvement in Vietnam.

The United States became extremely cautious about knocking heads with the Soviet Union after Moscow developed its own hydrogen weapons. This was a two-way street. The Soviets became cautious about the United States, except for Nikita Khrushchev's one big goof when he tried to put missiles in Cuba.

A good example of this double caution was the way the United States and the Soviet Union pussy-footed around the crisis in the Middle East where, if they got directly involved, they would have been on opposite sides.

But the sorest chapter in the Truman Doctrine—for Americans, at least—has been the Vietnam involvement, a slow, gradual thing until now almost 500,000 U. S. troops are in the war.

For Americans it's bad enough to be in a war at all. But this is a totally frustrating war. It is against a primitive people and the United States is fighting with one hand tied behind its back. It is not using anything like its full power. Nuclear bombs, for instance.

Not only American lives and money have been spent in Vietnam, but the criticism at home and elsewhere has been intense. For one thing, this country can't afford continuous wars like this, even though its purpose is to prevent a Communist takeover.

That's enough to make Congress and the policy-makers reluctant to get involved in anything like it often or soon again.

But something else has happened. The United States would never permit Moscow or Red China to intrude in its own backyard, like Latin American. When the United States barged into China's backyard in this war in Southeast Asia, the Chinese were no match, except in ground forces, for American military power.

But now they have had their hydrogen explosions and in a few years no doubt will have enough hydrogen bombs and missiles to risk a war with this country. The United States will have to be far more cautious than it was when it decided to go into Vietnam.

In time China will almost certainly feel about an American intrusion anywhere in the Asian area as this country would feel about American foreign policy is inevitable.

Junior Editors Quiz on LICORICE

QUESTION: Where does licorice come from?

• • •

ANSWER: Although licorice can be spelled in the two ways shown in the drawing, many people pronounce the word "lik-o-rish." It is most familiar to us in the form of the rubbery black candy the children are chewing on in our picture. As this suggests, some go for it, others dislike it heartily. Licorice is obtained from a plant belonging to the pea family (upper right) which grows in southern Europe, Asia and parts of Louisiana and California. The long root of this plant is the part from which the sweet-tasting licorice juice may be extracted. The roots are often mashed and boiled over an open fire. The liquid is evaporated into a solid form, often rolled into sticks. Not all the licorice flavoring goes into candy; it is used to conceal the disagreeable taste of drugs in certain medicines as well as to flavor tobacco and some kinds of soft drinks.

Memory Is Golden Chain Of Life

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — Memory is a golden chain.

Without it, our lives would be a series of unconnected episodes that held no lasting meaning to us, and we would be to one another no more than stones are in a common pasture.

It is hope that makes us human, but it is memory that keeps us human. It joins the nows of our existence with dear links to what has gone before and, in time, to what is yet to happen to us.

How unutterably precious to us are those treasured bonds that make us what we are! For our identity as individuals is, to a degree we rarely realize, shaped by the memories we hold and their impact upon us.

Your own warehouse of memories is pretty well stocked if you can look back and remember when:

A juvenile delinquent was a kid who soaped a neighbor's window on halloween.

Farmers were afraid to have a daughter go to work in a big city for fear she would fall into the clutches of a white-slave ring and be smuggled to South America.

Only business executives and other important people could afford to wear glasses with genuine tortoise shell rims.

It was easy to tell an old man wore false teeth because they always made a clacking sound when he talked.

All small boys wore steel caps on the heels of their shoes to make them last longer.

A girl thought the fates had been unkind to her if she was born with straight instead of curly hair.

At railway terminals flocks of "red caps" jostled each other for the privilege of carrying your luggage at 10 cents a bag.

The music during the silent era of the movies was provided by a big-bosomed, middle-aged, gum-chewing, frizzly blonde, who pounded the piano up front. Any young ruffian who dared to throw spitballs at her was immediately flung out of the theater.

Every Yale student was expected to have at least one love affair with a Manhattan chorus girl before getting his degree.

There were more Harvard professors at Harvard than there were in the government.

Back in 1927, a slip of a girl named Helen Hayes won Broadway stardom in "Coquette."

Al Smith ran for president in 1928, and many a hinterland voter decided he didn't want a man in the White House who not only was a Catholic but also pronounced radio "raddio."

More beer was sold in pails than in either bottles or cans.

If there was a light in a home after midnight, it usually meant somebody was sick.

In small towns, people rarely locked the front door, even when they went on vacations.

Those were the days! Remember?

Three Way Tie For TL First

A three way tie resulted Tuesday in the Junior Teenage League when the Rebels downed the league leading Buffs 4-2.

Going into the game, the Buffs held a ½ game lead over the Braves and a game lead over the Rebels. Now all three teams have 6-3 record on the season.

The Rebels had to come from behind in the seventh inning, however, to take the victory. The Buffs had built a 2-1 in the fifth inning, but a three run out break in the seventh by the Rebs was the difference in the game.

Jesse Speers opened the seventh frame with a triple, Gary Harless doubled, Jim Patrick doubled, and Patrick came in on a Buff error.

The Buffs took their only lead of the ball game in the fifth when Jim Province, Mike Hodge, Mike Morris and Stewart Sims put together a rash of singles.

Patrick was the winning pitcher for the Rebels. He struck out 15 batters in the seven innings he worked. After the Rebels had taken their lead in the seventh frame, Patrick struck out the side to end the game.

He was only in trouble in the fifth inning when he allowed two runs to score, but no Buff was able to reach third base in any other inning.

The Buffs will have a chance to move back into first place by themselves next Thursday when they tangle with the fourth place Dodgers. The Braves and the Rebels will be idle Thursday, but the Braves will play the last place Sports Friday. The Rebels do not play until next week.

Buckpasser Beats Odds In Stretch

By ORLO ROBERTSON

NEW YORK (AP) — "I wouldn't have given you 1,000 to 1 for his chances at the quarter-pole. At the eighth pole I thought we had a chance for second but to win—never. Remember we were giving that other horse 22 pounds. It was his greatest race."

"I didn't think he could make it. But he did. I don't know how."

"He must be the greatest. What a finish. I'm limp."

The first quotes were those of trainer Eddie Neloy. The second were those of jockey Braulio Baeza and the third came from owner Ogden Phipps.

They probably were repeated hundreds of times among the 49,282 fans at Aqueduct Tuesday. And they all concerned one subject—Buckpasser, whose amazing finish carried him to a half-length victory in the 1¼-mile $109,800 Suburban Handicap.

Four lengths back and not making up much ground with one-eighth mile remaining, still not much closer with one-sixteenth to go, the strapping 4-year-old suddenly turned on all of his thoroughbred power and a few yards from the finish line swept past the front running Ring Twice.

"The jock hit him once at the top of the stretch, and I think he resented it," said Neloy. "Then he personally took charge of the situation."

"It is asking a lot for a horse to carry 133 pounds and give 22 to a horse the caliber of Ring Twice," Neloy added.

It was another 2½ lengths back to Yonder, third in the field of seven.

Perhaps Baeza best described this great piece of thoroughbred machinery, who now has chalked up 25 victories, 21 in stakes, in 29 career starts, earned $1,419,114, and has been syndicated for a record $4.8 million.

Sonics Widen Texas Gap

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

If the Amarillo Sonics were excused from further participation, the Texas League would have a real scrap on in the last half of the season.

The Sonics, a farm club of the last-place Houston Astros in the National League, are in a league of their own as far as the Texas loop is concerned.

Amarillo widened its lead to 10 games Tuesday by beating Arkansas 5-2 for the Sonics' eighth consecutive victory.

After Amarillo in the standings only seven games separate second-place El Paso from last-place Dallas-Fort Worth. The Sun Kings, in the midst of a six-game losing streak, are the only other team in the league with more victories than defeats for the season.

Dallas-Fort Worth pinned an 8-5 setback on El Paso Tuesday night and lowered the Sun Kings' won-lost percentage to .507.

The Austin Braves moved from fifth to third place by edging Albuquerque 7-6. Although Austin, Arkansas and Albuquerque are 12 games behind Amarillo and two back of El Paso, the Braves have a one percentage point lead over the Travelers, who have the same margin over Albuquerque.

Keith Lampard's three-run double and Nate Colbert's 20th home run featured Amarillos triumph over Arkansas. The Travelers' Sal Campisi suffered his first loss in five decisions. It was Arkansas' seventh straight defeat.

Austin scored twice in the ninth inning off starter Mike Kekich and overcame Albuquerque's 6-4 lead which was built around a five-run third inning. The Dodgers' Adrian Garrett hit his 19th homer.

Relief pitcher John Upham drove in the go-ahead run in the fifth inning and shut out El Paso the last four frames in Dallas-Fort Worth's victory. Upham also batted in another run in the seventh.

Stanky Says Cubs In Contention

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago White Sox' American League lead has been shaved to three games by the onrushing Minnesota Twins, and some earlier predictions may be shaved a little, too.

After the Sox averted a three-game losing streak by blanking the Baltimore Orioles 4-0 Tuesday night behind Tommy John's two-hitter, Manager Eddie Stanky was asked:

"About a month ago, you were quoted as saying if the White Sox were leading the league by July 4, they would go on to the pennant because pitching was such a big factor in the last half of the season. Do you still reason this way?"

Stanky had a snapping reply.

"First, let's get it straight on what I really said," he commented. "I said, and I still say, that if this club is ahead, or if it is even out of the lead by two games, by the All-Star break, it would be in strong contention the rest of the way because of its pitching staff and its custom of winning close games."

After setting the record straight, Stanky added that "this club has been bouncing back all year.

"There have been a lot of mortuary people around the league digging a hole for the White Sox but they won't go in it. They are getting oxygen from somewhere. We haven't had more than a three-game losing streak — and that only twice—all year and that's what is saving us.

"John is a much better pitcher than his 7-5 record shows. He has been victim of such things as bad-hop singles. But last night he said he could follow the game pattern as planned and got the ball where he wanted it.

"His going the route couldn't have come at a more opportune time," Stanky continued. "Our bullpen is exhausted and needs rest, especially with the four-game weekend with Minnesota coming up."

Clippers Slip Past Sweetwater

The Snyder Clippers slipped past the Sweetwater Blues 1-0 Monday in Sweetwater, and the victory insured Snyder at least a share of the Senior Teenage League championship.

The Clippers only have to win one game out of their last four for the outright crown.

David Lester, who provided plenty of base running, gave the Clippers the winning margin. He scored in an inning where there were no hits and Henry Denson, losing pitcher, struck out three batters.

After two were out in the sixth inning, Lester walked, promptly stole second, raced to third on a wild pitch, and scored on a passed ball. That proved to be all the Clippers needed for the close victory.

Bobby Clardy provided the shutout pitching for the Clippers. He struck out 15 batters, and allowed only four hits — two of them were of the infield variety.

The Clippers have a season record of 10-1.

TWINS SWEEP YANKS, GAIN 2ND

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Tommy John's staying power has helped the Chicago White Sox cheat the undertaker again.

But Minnesota's rampaging Twins won't let the American League leaders catch their breath.

John pitched a two-hitter and singled home Chicago's first run in 31 innings Tuesday, leading the White Sox to a 4-0 victory over Baltimore. The slim left-hander's full-route performance was the first for the Sox in their last seven games.

Minnesota's Tony Oliva, meanwhile, drove two more coffin nails into the New York Yankees, stroking the key hits in an 8-3, 7-6 doubleheader sweep that carried the Twins into second place, three games behind Chicago.

The double setback dropped the eighth-place Yankees eight games under .500. After last July 4 they were seven under the break-even mark and headed for the cellar.

Elsewhere, Detroit whipped Cleveland 6-1 behind Earl Wilson's two-hitter, California checked Boston's four-game winning streak 4-3 and Kansas City blanked Washington 4-0 after losing the doubleheader opener 4-3.

Atlanta swept a day-night twin bill from Chicago 8-3 and 4-2, Philadelphia took a twi-night pair from Houston 9-0 and 4-3 in 11 innings, New York outlasted San Francisco 8-7, Cincinnati nipped St. Louis 1-0 and Pittsburgh beat Los Angeles 5-2 in National League action.

John, 7-5, stymied the Orioles except for a leadoff triple by Luis Aparicio in the fourth inning and a sixth-inning single by the Baltimore shortstop. He struck out six and did not walk a batter.

"His going the route couldn't come at a more opportune time," said Manager Eddie Stanky. "Our bullpen is exhausted and needs rest, especially with the four-game weekend with Minnesota coming up." The Sox collide with the Twins, who have won seven in a row, at Chicago over the weekend.

Stanky had used six pitchers in Saturday night's 14-inning 1-0 loss to the Orioles.

"This club has been bouncing back all year," the Chicago pilot added. "There have been a lot of mortuary people around the league digging a hole for the White Sox, but they won't go in it. They are getting oxygen from somewhere."

Oliva, sound again after a series of injuries and ailments, lifted Minnesota past the Yankees in their nightcap with a run-scoring single in the ninth. Earlier in the game he had tripled a run home and singled.

In the opener, he belted a bases-empty homer, drove in another run with a sacrifice fly and also had a single. While extending his hitting streak to five games, Oliva's 5-for-9 day lifted his batting mark to .250.

Lost in the Twins' sweep were a pair of first-game homers by Mickey Mantle that sent the Yankee slugger past Mel Ott into the fifth spot on the all-time list with 512.

Wilson brought his record to 9-7 by limiting the Indians to a fourth-inning homer by Leon Wagner and an eighth-inning struck out nine and was backed by Bill Freehan's two-run homer and Dick McAuliffe's solo shot.

Tom Satriano's two-run single capped a three-run burst in the second inning as the Angels built a 4-1 lead, then held off the Red Sox. Reliever Minnie Rojas survived a two-run ninth to preserve rookie Rick Clark's fourth straight victory.

Frank Howard's 20th homer, a three-run wallop in the fifth, powered Washington past the A's in their opener but Jim Nash blanked the Senators on six hits in the nightcap. The split enabled each club to snap a four-game losing streak.

Casper Seeks More Lucre

INDIANAPOLIS, Ind. (AP) — Billy Casper, his hip pocket bulging from that $30,000 playoff victory in the Canadian Open, headed a field of professionals tuning up today for the $100,000 Speedway Open Golf Tournament.

Forty-seven pros played over the 7,179-yard Speedway Course in a pro-am event. The tourney begins Thursday.

Casper, regarded as one of the best putters on the tour, won top money in the Canadian Open Monday when he blistered Art Wall.

Playing out of Peacock Gap, Calif., Casper won the Speedway last year and also in 1962.

Arnold Palmer and Jack Nicklaus are not playing in the Speedway this year.

Clubhouse talk has been spiked with the feud between the touring professionals and the Professional Golf Association.

Doug Ford, a member of the tournament committee, said he felt the problem will be settled. He talked Tuesday night with PGA president Max Elbin.

"We're very close now...just dickering on a technicality," Ford said. "It's just a matter of two or three words." The PGA have given in a little. The players plan to vote tonight on whether to participate in the PGA sponsored Denver Championship July 20-23.

The hassle came to a head when the PGA executive committee vetoed the proposed $175,000 Frank Sinatra golf tournament.

The players had voted to add the tourney to the tour. The PGA said the Sinatra session would clash with the Bob Hope Classic.

Tennis Tourney Produces Stars

Max Falls, John Phillips and Deanna Boles stole the show in the July 4 Tennis Tournament in Towle Park Tuesday.

In the 14 year Boy's singles, Falls defeated Mike Boles, 6-0, 6-1 in the finals, and Falls teamed with Mike Shearburn to defeat Bruce Almond and Boles in the doubles.

Phillips defeated Gordon Stokes, 6-1, 6-2 in the 18 year boy's singles, and Phillips and Stokes defeated Almond and Falls in the division doubles, 6-4, 6-1.

In the men's doubles play, Stokes and Ken McAllister teamed up to beat Phillips and Bill Boles, 6-3, 6-1.

Finals in the men's singles were not completed, and were scheduled for this afternoon. The finals will match Phillips against McAllister in today's play.

Linda Miller defeated Patsy Miller, 6-2, 6-3 in the girl's 18 year singles. Miller and Jane Wall defeated Boles and Cindy Spires, 6-4, 6-1 in the division doubles play.

In the girl's 14 year singles, Boles defeated Vonee Reneau, 6-4, 6-2, and in the doubles play Spires and Boles defeated Kathy Martin and Reneau, 6-4, 6-2.

Trophies were given to the winners by Bullard's Athletic Center, and they also sponsored the one day affair.

A's, Clip Sox, Braves Top Cards

The last place Athletics upset the White Sox 5-4 and the Braves, trying for an undefeated season, plastered the Cardinals 14-3 in Little League games played Tuesday.

The A's scored a run in the seventh inning to break a 4-4 tie, and moved within one game of third place. Gilbert Ramirez scored on a single by David Jones to give the win to the A's.

The A's scored two runs in the first inning and two runs in the third frame. Jones delivered key hits in each of the important innings. He collected three singles on the night.

The White Sox had tied the game in the sixth inning when Jurell Riggins delivered a timely hit with two runners on base. They scored their other two runs in the fifth inning.

The Athletics have a 4-9 record and the Whie Sox have a 5-8 mark.

The Braves remained undefeated by exploding with 16 hits and 14 runs in five innings. They scored in every inning including two four run frames and one five run inning.

Steve Talbott, Mark Hargrove and Ralph Lewis each boomed out three hits apiece. Jimmy Dyess and John Boren each had two hits to lead the Brave guns.

Dyess seemed to be the main spark plug in the Brave attack. He got two hits, scored twice and won the game with a fine pitching performance.

The Braves have a 14-0 record, and have already wrapped up the National League championship. The Cardinals have a 6-7 record, and are in a second place tie with the Giants.

ATLANTA SNUFFS OUT CUBS' FIREWORKS!

By MIKE RECHT
Associated Press Sports Writer

Brother turned on brother and Juan Marichal was beaten by his cousins, but the Chicago Cubs' family fireworks fizzled when they blew a chance to turn their backs on the rest of their National League relatives.

The Cubs, baseball's Cinderella team of 1967 after finishing last in 1966, needed only one victory Tuesday to stand alone in first place. Instead they lost a day-night doubleheader to Atlanta 8-3 and 4-2.

Even when Joe Niekro lost to brother Phil—the first time in major league history brothers started on the mound against each other—in the opener, the Cubs still had a chance as St. Louis dropped its single game to Cincinnati 1-0.

But the second-game defeat dropped the Cubs out of a tie for first and left them a half-game behind the Cardinals at the Fourth of July milestone, in which 58 per cent of the league leaders on that date have gone on to win the pennant.

Marichal also got his comeuppance as the New York Mets outslugged San Francisco 8-7 and beat the Giant ace for the first time in their history after losing to him 19 times.

Elsewhere in the league, Pittsburgh outlasted Los Angeles 9-7 and Philadelphia swept a pair from Houston 9-0 and 4-3 in 11 innings.

In the American League, Minnesota beat the New York Yankees 8-3 and 7-6, the Chicago White Sox blanked Baltimore 4-0, Detroit halted Cleveland 6-1, California nudged Boston 4-3, and Washington tripped Kansas City 4-3 before losing 4-0.

The Cubs managed just four hits off Phil Niekro's knuckleball while his younger brother left after Mack Jones' first of three homers for the day and Rico Carty's first of two had broken a 2-2 tie in the third.

Carty hit a two-run homer in the nightcap and Jones a solo shot, to complete the disappointing day for the Cubs.

Rookie Gary Nolan, 7-2, slammed the door on the Cardinals with a three-hitter, outdueling Larry Jaster. Deron Johnson drove in the run with one out in the ninth inning as the Reds ended a four-game losing streak.

The Mets hammered Marichal for 14 hits, the last a two-run single by Ron Swoboda in the sixth for an 8-3 lead.

Jose Pagan's sacrifice fly and Roberto Clemente's fourth hit, a run-scoring single, snapped a 7-7 tie and lifted Pittsburgh past the Dodgers. Los Angeles had rallied from a 7-3 deficit with four eighth-inning runs, the last three on Al Ferrara's homer.

Chris Short hurled a three-hitter for his second straight complete game victory since coming off the disabled list as Philadelphia won its opener.

John Callison singled in the winning run in the second game of the twi-nighter after two walks. Callison had singled in a two-run first and doubled home a run in the fifth, but Houston's Jim Wynn knocked out Jim Bunning with a two-run homer in the eighth and John Bateman singled in another run in the inning.

CANYON GUN CLUB RANGE NEWS

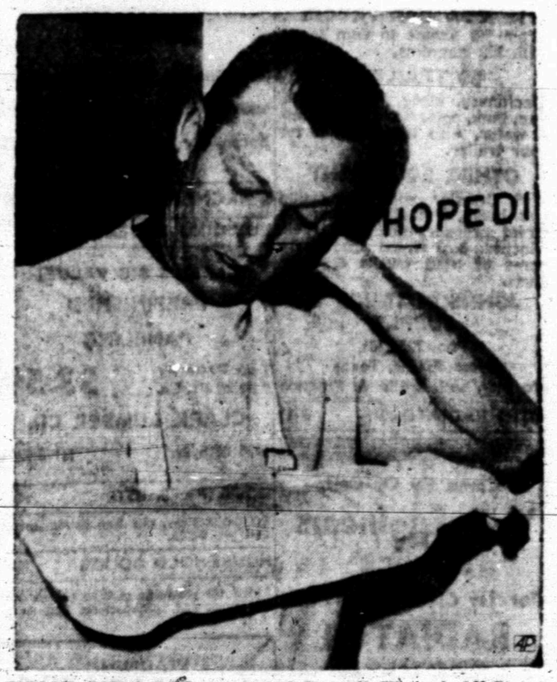
Thirteen contestants entered the 25 bird handicap match trap shoot Sunday at the Canyon Gun Club Range.

Bill McLennan was the first place winner with a score of 24-x25 from 17 yards.

Second place was given to Buddy Trevey with a score of 23x25 from 19 yards.

Ken Armstrong received third place honors with a score of 23x-25 from 16 yards.

Trevey outlasted Armstrong in a sudden death shoot off from 23 yards to take second place.



WHAT DID I DO? — A sad Detroit Tigers' All-Star outfielder Al Kaline bows his head as he adjusts strap of sling over cast on his fractured right hand on leaving hospital. Kaline broke his hand in a rare fit of temper when he slammed bat rack after striking out in game with Cleveland Indians. He will be out of action for three weeks and miss playing in the All-Star game. (AP Wirephoto)

THEY'RE OFF — Shown here are four members of the Snyder Swiim Team who gave an exhibition of swimming to a large group of July 4 spectators. Members of the team staged several races in the annual affair. Also, there was a clown act on the diving boards and a special under water swim given at Towle Pool Tuesday.

United States Covered By Crazy Quilt Liquor Laws

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — A fellow who goes out to get a drink in a strange town is apt to get confused—and maybe not a drink.

The reason, an Associated Press survey shows, is that the United States is covered by a crazy quilt of liquor laws.

Take, for example, Texas. Texas laws are pretty complex, based on local option, even by precincts.

For instance: Part of Dallas sells beer over the bar and liquor in package stores, while in other parts of Dallas you can't buy anything to drink. Some counties or parts of counties can sell beer at the bar, but no package stores are allowed, and some have package stores but no beer bars.

You can't drink standing up in a club, hotel cocktail lounge, restaurant or beer parlor in Maine. But the statutes do permit taverns for men only in which everyone must drink standing up at a bar.

Indiana's Legislature decided this year to allow a licensed woman bartender to work on the serving side of the bar, a function that had been restricted to a female owner or wife of an owner. But an unescorted woman is not permitted to sit on the drinking side of the bar.

Liquor frequently has been on the minds of state lawmakers since repeal, in 1933, put an end to national prohibition of the manufacture and sale of such spirits. Mississippi adopted a local-option liquor law last year, becoming the last state to shift from dry to wet.

Thus aridity has been ended on a nationwide or statewide scale. But there still are many dry pockets.

Look, for instance, at Kentucky, a state long identified with bourbon. Of its 120 counties, 86 are completely dry, 26 are wet, and 8 are divided, i.e., wet cities in dry counties.

Down there dry means no sales of alcoholic beverages are allowed. But in many places around the country the thirsty man can get beer but no stronger stuff across the bar.

In Georgia, only 6 counties of 159, including Fulton, with Atlanta, actually have legalized the sale of liquor by the drink.

Only eight of Tennessee's 95 counties have legalized liquor to the extent of allowing it to be sold at package stores.

A study made in 1962 by the Distilled Spirits Institute showed: 15 states had some liquorless counties and, for the United States as a whole, 749 counties forbade liquor and 2,329 did not.

The switching from dry to wet or vice versa is done in local-option elections. They vary in scope from a residential neighborhood and a precinct to town, township and county. And nine states make no provision for them at all.

Regulations in that sphere, like those in the others are a potpourri.

Bottled liquor is sold in state owned stores in 16 states and in private stores in the others.

Sales are limited to package goods only in North Carolina, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Tennessee.

The closest the states come to uniformity is on election days, when liquor purveyors shut up shop, at least during polling hours, in all but five states.

The Legislature in North Carolina, which bars liquor by the drink, approved legislation this year to legalize the old custom of "brownbagging." Thus, a man can buy a bottle in a state-controlled store in any one of the 68 wet counties and take it to a restaurant, where he can buy the complementary ice and mix. This sort of thing is out, however, in 32 dry counties. He also can brownbag it in Utah, another state that won't allow purchase by the drink.

Texas is another brownbag state. At a late count, about 115 of the 254 counties were totally dry. In the wet oases stores-bought liquor can be conveyed in a paper sack to a restaurant or night club. Public bars sell only beer and light wine. Private clubs began handling in recent years.

Gov. John Connally of Texas recommended the sale of mixed drinks, but the bill lost.

West Virginia made the first major change in its liquor laws in a generation. Private clubs are now licensed to serve liquor to dues-paying members and guests.

A new law in Colorado enables hotels and restaurants to buy an extra $200 license which permits them to sell liquor until midnight on Sunday. Other bars must close at 8 p.m.

Wyoming gave permission to bars to stay open from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Sundays.

A perennial bill to permit limited Sunday sales in Maine lost. But the Vermont Liquor Board decided to allow the sale of drinks on Sunday.

Boston Red Sox pitcher Jim Lonborg set a spring high in strikeouts. He recently fanned 13 Kansas City Athletics.

Regulation Of Industry To Provide Hot Controversy

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —Federal regulation of industry is going to provide some of the hottest national controversies for many months to come and could lead even to a new look at the regulatory agencies themselves.

The chief subject will probably be cigarettes, but the implications will go much farther and include many industries. That much has been assured by two recent events.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has proposed that radio and television stations balance cigarette commercials with public service announcements warning of the dangers of smoking.

The Federal Trade Commission has found the health-hazard warning sign on cigarette packages to be ineffective and has recommended to Congress that the message be made to sound more deadly by adding "may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

These two actions, though important, are merely like ripples that later could become waves. That, at least, is the immediate reaction of some businessmen in advertising, communications and tobacco who have felt the first shock waves.

First, they ask, if radio and teleision are to state the other side of the cigarette story—the one that features bed-ridden cancer paients instead of playful young men and womun—who is to determine what is a "reasonable" number of announcements?

At stake in such a decision would be the rights and good health of Americans, the rights of broadcasters, the rights of cigarette manufacturers and the rights of the federal government.

The second decision, by the FTC, indicates that cigarettes do cause death by cancer and other diseases, a finding that the cigarete industry still does not concede as factual.

This decision opens the possibility, critics say, that an endless assortment of products, some of which have not yet been invented, may be required to carry warningsithat will dampen consumer enthusiasm.

Such problems as these cannot be worked out without fireworks, and so the sparks will fly in testimony and court cases before resolutions are achieved. But understandings and compromises have been achieved in numerous previous cases.

In previous years, other industry spotlight, among them railroads before the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), the stock market before the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), utilities under the Federal Power Commission (FPC) and corporate mergers probed by the Justice Department.

Americans cannot ignore the fact that these agencies were set up for the very purpose of keeping business practices within certain limits and that, legally and morally, they have an obligation to act in the public good.

Many of their activities, in fact, follow what is deemed to be a failure of industry's self-regulation.

Romney In New England

MIRROR LAKE, N.H. AP) — Michigan Gov. George W. Romney has arrived for a four-day visit at the summer estate of a friend, and for political talks with New England Republicans.

Romney, who arrived Tuesday night by plane, made plans for an early morning round of golf with his host, J. Willard Mariott, a Washington, D.C., restaurant operator.

At a stop in Boston en route, the Michigan governor told newsmen he had not decided whether to enter the New Hampshire primary—the nation's first—but that if he did, he did not want Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe as an opponent.

Volpe has indicated he may attempt to be a Massachusetts favorite-son candidate at the Republican National Convention and has said he may seek suppor from other New England states.

Meredith Completes 11-Day Trek

By VERNON GUIDRY JR.

CANTON, Miss. AP) — James H. Meredith characterizes his march through Mississippi as, "at best, the beginning of the end for fear and injustice."

The last steps of the 165-mile walk brought the 34-year-old civil rights figure to the courthouse square here on Independence Day.

Meredith said the completion of his 11-day march "does not signal a victory. It is a greater manifestation of the black world's historical, traditional and more fundamental defeat."

He said he had failed in one of his primary purposes because "the fear that permeates the life of the Negro in the United States has not been eliminated." But he said he exposed that fear.

"If Negroes no longer fear," he told about 40 Negroes who gathered as he spoke, "then the whites have only two choices: to kill them or let them be free."

No crowds greeted Meredith when he walked into Canton on Liberty Street. A handful of Negroes across the street from the square shook his hand when he reached the nearly deserted center of town. Along the way, small groups of whites in parking lots and service stations stared silently at the 16 marchers.

Meredith said he would "be going a lot of places" but intended to return to Mississippi before the Aug. 8 primary elections to expand a campaign for political activism by Negroes.

Meradith's march began June 24 south of Hernando on U.S. 51 at the spot where a blast of birdshot felled him on his first trek last year. Other civil rights leaders took up the walk and, after he recovered, he rejoined them at Canton for a march to Jackson.

He had planned originally to walk to Jackson, 25 miles south, again this year but has been bothered by a sore ankle and blistered feet.

An aide said he would return to his home in New York by car.

Emergency Session Leaves Soviet Union Empty Handed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union emerges as the obvious loser in the failure of the U.N. General Assembly to find a formula for dealing with the explosive situation left in the wake of the Arab-Israeli war.

There were other losers, including the Arabs and the United Nations itself. But as the initiator of the move for the emergency session, the Kremlin came out empty handed.

If the session was intended as a propaganda project to divert attention from the Soviet setback in the Middle East, as some have said, it proved to be a boomerang.

To measure the extent of the Soviet setback, it is necessary to recall that the emergency assembly was convened because the Russians said the Security Council was unable to cope with the situation.

The implication was that the Soviet Union expected to get the assembly to do what the council refused to do:condemn Israel and call for unconditional withdrawal of Israeli trops from Arab territory.

The United States opposed the move, contending that the council had not exhausted all possibilities for action. The Russians looked even worse because they brought Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and the heads of a number of allied governments to New York to lend prestige to the session.

The assembly not only refused to condemn Israel; it refused to adopt any proposal calling for the withdrawal of Israeli forces.

If the Arabs felt the Russians had let them down by failing to send them military aid during the war with Israel, they must have felt similar frustration when Moscow proved unable to muster any action in the assembly.

Long before the Soviet Union began soft-pedaling its demands for condemnation of Israel, the Arabs were lining up behind the nonaligned resolution which made no mention of condemnation.

In the end, both the Russians and the Arabs would have been happy to settle for a simple call for withdrawal of Israeli troops, but they were unable to get even that.

The United Nations suffered because the voting demonstrated that the emergence of the new Asian and African nations had created a split that could block effective action on the Middle East—a problem which had been handled successfully by the assembly in the past.

Thus the Middle East was added to the list of issues outside the range of effective U.N. action.

Danger Is Eased Some

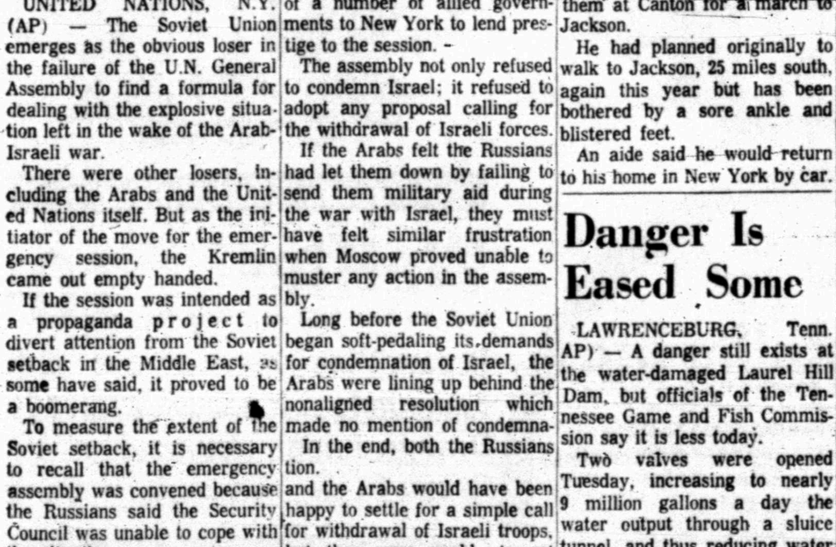
LAWRENCEBURG, Tenn. AP) — A danger still exists at the water-damaged Laurel Hill Dam, but officials of the Tennessee Game and Fish Commission say it is less today.

Two valves were opened Tuesday, increasing to nearly 9 million gallons a day the water output through a sluice tunnel, and thus reducing water pressure which threatens to break the earthen dam.

The 24-inch valves, along with another valve which has been partially open since Friday, will lower the water to a safe level within two weeks, Les Haun, a commission engineer, predicted.

The lake has been closed to all activities. About 200 residents of three communities have been alerted to vacuate in event of a break. The lake held about three billion gallons of water.

RAISE FUNDS — Ladies of the Police Auxiliary sold snow cones and soft drinks at a booth in Towle Park during the 4th of July to raise funds for club projects. The Auxiliary was one of many civic and club groups that operated concession stands in the park .



FIRST NEGRO IS ONE OF NEW ASTRONAUTS — The Air Force has appointed four new aerospace research pilots, including the nation's first Negro astronaut, to be trained for the Manned Orbiting Laboratory program. They were introduced at a press conference in Los Angeles where they are pictured with a model of the Titan 3C. Left to right: Maj. James Abramson, 34, Portland, Ore.; Lt. Col. Robert T. Long Journey By Bicycle

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP) — "It started out as a kind of brain storm," says Joyce Lindquist of the bicycle trip she and her children made from Orangeville, Calif., to Beatrice.

"We drive back to Nebraska every year to see grandma, and it is always a nonstop trip. We wanted to go some way that we could see more of the country and we did," said Mrs. Lindquist.

She and her children, Dennis, 8, Pamela, 9, and Debra, 10 and Linda Lobdell, 70 rode 880 of the 1,400 miles after training for the trip a year.

Linda's mother, Shirley Lobdell, drove a van which carried the group's camping equipment and food.

They said they would stay in Beatrice about two weeks before heading back to California —by car.

United States Covered By Crazy Quilt Liquor Laws

By WILLIAM J. CONWAY

CHICAGO (AP) — A fellow who goes out to get a drink in a strange town is apt to get confused—and maybe not a drink.

The reason, an Associated Press survey shows, is that the United States is covered by a crazy quilt of liquor laws.

Take, for example, Texas. Texas laws are pretty complex, based on local option, even by precincts.

For instance: Part of Dallas sells beer over the bar and liquor in package stores, while in other parts of Dallas you can't buy anything to drink. Some counties or parts of counties can sell beer at the bar, but no package stores are allowed, and some have package stores but no beer bars.

You can't drink standing up in a club, hotel cocktail lounge, restaurant or beer parlor in Maine. But the statutes do permit taverns for men only in which everyone must drink standing up at a bar.

Indiana's Legislature decided this year to allow a licensed woman bartender to work on the serving side of the bar, a function that had been restricted to a female owner or wife of an owner. But an unescorted woman is not permitted to sit on the drinking side of the bar.

Liquor frequently has been on the minds of state lawmakers since repeal, in 1933, put an end to national prohibition of the manufacture and sale of such spirits. Mississippi adopted a local-option liquor law last year, becoming the last state to shift from dry to wet.

Thus aridity has been ended on a nationwide or statewide scale. But there still are many dry pockets.

Look, for instance, at Kentucky, a state long identified with bourbon. Of its 120 counties, 86 are completely dry, 26 are wet, and 8 are divided, i.e., wet cities in dry counties.

Down there dry means no sales of alcoholic beverages are allowed. But in many places around the country the thirsty man can get beer but no stronger stuff across the bar.

In Georgia, only 6 counties of 159, including Fulton, with Atlanta, actually have legalized the sale of liquor by the drink.

Only eight of Tennessee's 95 counties have legalized liquor to the extent of allowing it to be sold at package stores.

A study made in 1962 by the Distilled Spirits Institute showed: 15 states had some liquorless counties and, for the United States as a whole, 749 counties forbade liquor and 2,329 did not.

The switching from dry to wet or vice versa is done in local-option elections. They vary in scope from a residential neighborhood and a precinct to town, township and county. And nine states make no provision for them at all.

Regulations in that sphere, like those in the others are a potpourri.

Bottled liquor is sold in state owned stores in 16 states and in private stores in the others.

Sales are limited to package goods only in North Carolina, Utah, Virginia, West Virginia, Arkansas, Kansas, Oklahoma, South Carolina and Tennessee.

The closest the states come to uniformity is on election days, when liquor purveyors shut up shop, at least during polling hours, in all but five states.

The Legislature in North Carolina, which bars liquor by the drink, approved legislation this year to legalize the old custom of "brownbagging." Thus, a man can buy a bottle in a state-controlled store in any one of the 68 wet counties and take it to a restaurant, where he can buy the complementary ice and mix. This sort of thing is out, however, in 32 dry counties. He also can brownbag it in Utah, another state that won't allow purchase by the drink.

Texas is another brownbag state. At a late count, about 115 of the 254 counties were totally dry. In the wet oases store-bought liquor can be conveyed in a paper sack to a restaurant or night club. Public bars sell only beer and light wine. Private clubs began handling in recent years.

Gov. John Connally of Texas recommended the sale of mixed drinks, but the bill lost.

West Virginia made the first major change in its liquor laws in a generation. Private clubs are now licensed to serve liquor to dues-paying members and guests.

A new law in Colorado enables hotels and restaurants to buy an extra $200 license which permits them to sell liquor until midnight on Sunday. Other bars must close at 8 p.m.

Wyoming gave permission to bars to stay open from 1 p.m. to 8 p.m. Sundays.

A perennial bill to permit limited Sunday sales in Maine lost. But the Vermont Liquor Board decided to allow the sale of drinks on Sunday.

Boston Red Sox pitcher Jim Lonborg set a spring high in strikeouts. He recently fanned 13 Kansas City Athletics.

Regulation Of Industry To Provide Hot Controversy

By JOHN CUNNIFF
AP Business Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) —Federal regulation of industry is going to provide some of the hottest national controversies for many months to come and could lead even to a new look at the regulatory agencies themselves.

The chief subject will probably be cigarettes, but the implications will go much farther and include many industries. That much has been assured by two recent events.

The Federal Communications Commission (FCC) has proposed that radio and television stations balance cigarette commercials with public service announcements warning of the dangers of smoking.

The Federal Trade Commission has found the health-hazard warning sign on cigarette packages to be ineffective and has recommended to Congress that the message be made to sound more deadly by adding "may cause death from cancer and other diseases."

These two actions, though important, are merely like ripples that later could become waves. That, at least, is the immediate reaction of some businessmen in advertising, communications and tobacco who have felt the first shock waves.

First, they ask, if radio and teleision are to state the other side of the cigarette story—the one that features bed-ridden cancer paients instead of playful young men and womun—who is to determine what is a "reasonable" number of announcements?

At stake in such a decision would be the rights and good health of Americans, the rights of broadcasters, the rights of cigarette manufacturers and the rights of the federal government.

The second decision, by the FTC, indicates that cigarettes do cause death by oancer and other diseases, a finding that the cigarete industry still does not concede as factual.

This decision opens the possibility, critics say, that an endless assortment of products, some of which have not yet been invented, may be required to carry warningsithat will dampen consumer enthusiasm.

Such problems as these cannot be worked out without fireworks, and so the sparks will fly in testimony and court cases before resolutions are achieved. But understandings and compromises have been achieved in numerous previous cases.

In previous years, other intory spotlight, among them railroads before the Interstate Commerce Commission (ICC), the stock market before the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), utilities under the Federal Power Commission (FPC) and corporate mergers probed by the Justice Department.

Americans cannot ignore the fact that these agencies were set up for the very purpose of keeping business practices within certain limits and that, legally and morally, they have an obligation to act in the public good.

Many of their activities, in fact, follow what is deemed to be a failure of industry's self-regulation.

Meredith Completes 11-Day Trek

By VERNON GUIDRY JR.

CANTON, Miss. (AP) — James H. Meredith characterizes his march through Mississippi as, "at best, the beginning of the end for fear and injustice."

The last steps of the 165-mile walk brought the 34-year-old civil rights figure to the courthouse square here on Independence Day.

Meredith said the completion of his 11-day march "does not signal a victory. It is a greater manifestation of the black world's historical, traditional and more fundamental defeat."

He said he had failed in one of his primary purposes because "the fear that permeates the life of the Negro in the United States has not been eliminated." But he said he exposed that fear.

"If Negroes no longer fear," he told about 40 Negroes who gathered as he spoke, "then the whites have only two choices: to kill them or let them be free."

No crowds greeted Meredith when he walked into Canton on Liberty Street. A handful of Negroes across the street from the square shook his hand when he reached the nearly deserted center of town. Along the way, small groups of whites in parking lots and service stations stared silently at the 16 marchers.

Meredith said he would "be going a lot of place..." but intended to return to Mississippi before the Aug. 8 primary elections to expand a campaign for political activism by Negroes.

Meradith's march began June 24 south of Hernando on U.S. 51 at the spot where a blast of birdshot felled him on his first trek last year. Other civil rights leaders took up the walk and, after he recovered, he rejoined them at Canton for a march to Jackson.

He had planned originally to walk to Jackson, 25 miles south, again this year but has been bothered by a sore ankle and blistered feet.

An aide said he would return to his home in New York by car.

Romney In New England

MIRROR LAKE, N.H. AP) — Michigan Gov. George W. Romney has arrived for a four-day visit at the summer estate of a friend, and for political talks with New England Republicans.

Romney, who arrived Tuesday night by plane, made plans for an early morning round of golf with his host, J. Willard Mariott, a Washington, D.C., restaurant operator.

At a stop in Boston en route, the Michigan governor told newsmen he had not decided whether to enter the New Hampshire primary—the nation's first—but that if he did, he did not want Massachusetts Gov. John A. Volpe as an opponent.

Volpe has indicated he may attempt to be a Massachusetts favorite-son candidate at the Republican National Convention and has said he may seek suppor from other New England states.

Emergency Session Leaves Soviet Union Empty Handed

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP) — The Soviet Union emerges as the obvious loser in the failure of the U.N. General Assembly to find a formula for dealing with the explosive situation left in the wake of the Arab-Israeli war.

There were other losers, including the Arabs and the United Nations itself. But as the initiator of the move for the emergency session, the Kremlin came out empty handed.

If the session was intended as a propaganda project to divert attention from the Soviet setback in the Middle East, as some have said, it proved to be a boomerang.

To measure the extent of the Soviet setback, it is necessary to recall that the emergency assembly was convened because the Russians said the Security Council was unable to cope with the situation.

The implication was that the Soviet Union expected to get the assembly to do what the council refused to do:condemn Israel and call for unconditional withdrawal of Israeli trops from Arab territory.

The United States opposed the move, contending that the council had not exhausted all possibilities for action. The Russians looked even worse because they brought Premier Alexei N. Kosygin and the heads of a number of allied governments to New York to lend prestige to the session.

The assembly not only refused to condemn Israel; it refused to adopt any proposal calling for the withdrawal of Israeli forces.

If the Arabs felt the Russians had let them down by failing to send them military aid during the war with Israel, they must have felt similar frustration when Moscow proved unable to muster any action in the assembly.

Long before the Soviet Union began soft-pedaling its demands for condemnation of Israel, the Arabs were lining up behind the nonaligned resolution which made no mention of condemnation.

In the end, both the Russians and the Arabs would have been happy to settle for a simple call for withdrawal of Israeli troops, but they were unable to get even that.

The United Nations suffered because the voting demonstrated that the emergence of the new Asian and African nations had created a split that could block effective action on the Middle East—a problem which had been handled successfully by the assembly in the past.

Thus the Middle East was added to the list of issues outside the range of effective U.N. action.

Danger Is Eased Some

LAWRENCEBURG, Tenn. AP) — A danger still exists at the water-damaged Laurel Hill Dam, but officials of the Tennessee Game and Fish Commission say it is less today.

Two valves were opened Tuesday, increasing to nearly 9 million gallons a day the water output through a sluice tunnel, and thus reducing water pressure which threatens to break the earthen dam.

The 24-inch valves, along with another valve which has been partially open since Friday, will lower the water to a safe level within two weeks, Les Haun, a commission engineer, predicted.

The lake has been closed to all activities. About 200 residents of three communities have been alerted to vacuate in event of a break. The lake held about three billion gallons of water.

Long Journey By Bicycle

BEATRICE, Neb. (AP) — "It started out as a kind of brain storm," says Joyce Lindquist of the bicycle trip she and her children made from Orangeville, Calif., to Beatrice.

"We drive back to Nebraska every year to see grandma, and it is always a nonstop trip. We wanted to go some way that we could see more of the country and we did," said Mrs. Lindquist.

She and her children, Dennis, 8, Pamela, 9, and Debra, 10 and Linda Lobdell, 70 rode 880 of the 1,400 miles after training for the trip a year.

Linda's mother, Shirley Lobdell, drove a van which carried the group's camping equipment and food.

They said they would stay in Beatrice about two weeks before heading back to California —by car.

Johnsons Tour Sentimental Landmarks Of Hometown

By FRANK CORMIER

KARNACK, Tex. (AP) — Lyndon B. Johnson took his bride-to-be, Lady Bird, away from this crossroads hamlet 32 years ago in an old coupe. He brought her back Tuesday in a jet-powered presidential helicopter.

The Johnsons spent about 1½ hours touring sentimental landmarks in the area of Mrs. Johnson's hometown and visiting with old friends before returning to their LBJ Ranch near Johnson City. They may remain there through next weekend.

Earlier in the holiday the First Family witnessed the baptism of their first grandchild, Patrick Lyndon Nugent.

Mrs. Johnson asked the President to take her back to her home town since they planned to be in Texarkana, just 50 miles to the north, for the funeral of Mrs. Wright Patman, wife of the Texas Democrat who is chairman of the House Banking and Currency Committee.

The Chief Executive obliged with the helicopter trip to Karnack, near the Louisiana border in the piney woods country of East Texas.

Here the most prominent landmark is a dilapidated, two-story brick building—once a general store—that still bears the name, in fading red paint, of Mrs. Johnson's father, who died in 1960.

The sign reads: "T. J. Taylor —dealer in everything."

Taylor was the community's biggest landowner and cotton planter. His widow, Ruth Taylor, the First Lady's stepmother, still occupies the family home—an antebellum mansion on the outskirts of town built with slave labor and plantation-made bricks in 1854.

Mrs. Taylor welcomed Mrs. Johnson there.

From Karnack, the Johnsons flew by helicopter to Barksdale Air Force Base at Shreveport, La., then flew nonstop by jet to the ranch.

Publicly, the Johnson day began in late morning when members of the family drove a couple of miles up the road from the ranch to St. Francis Cavier Roman Catholic Church in Stonewall.

The center of attraction was Patrick Lyndon Nugent, born 13 days earlier to the President's daughter Luci and her husband, Patrick J. Nugent.

The baptismal service was private. But the Johnsons and Nugents willingly passed the baby around like a football afterwards for the benefit of photographers.

In early afternoon, the President, Mrs. Johnson and their home district Democratic congressman, Jake Pickle, flew to Texarkana, Ark., then drove to the Texas community of the same name for Baptist funeral services for the 73-year-old Mrs. Patman. They followed the body to the cemetery from the church, then boarded the helicopter for Karnack.

No Charges Filed On Youthful Driver

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) — The parked station wagon of Carl Fisher of Riverview suffered $10 damage when it was struck Monday by a car owned by Dolores Escribano of Tampa on a supermarket parking lot.

Behind the wheel of the car, officers found Carlos Escribano, the owner's son who will celebrate his third birthday July 5. He had started the engine and the car rolled across the lot and into the station wagon.

Policeman F. F. Bateman filed no charges.

Word Gets Around When Bass Biting

CHARLOTTE, N.C. (AP) — Word got out quickly Monday that six-pound bass were jumping out of a pond near Charlotte.

Soon 65 persons were on the banks and in the six-acre pond. Cars parked along the highway attracted other passing motorists. Four men caught 10 bass and 10 bream in two hours. The catch for others was about the same.

The pond was being drained and the water was only a foot deep.

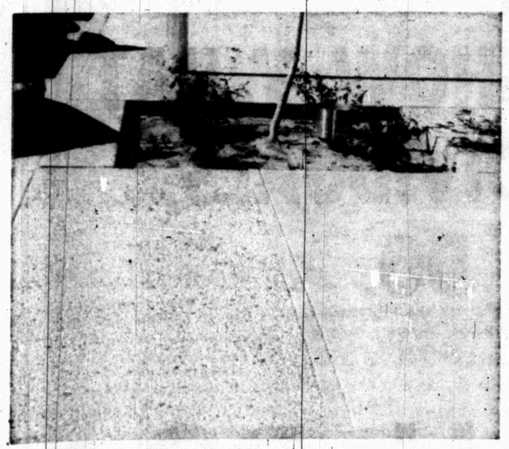
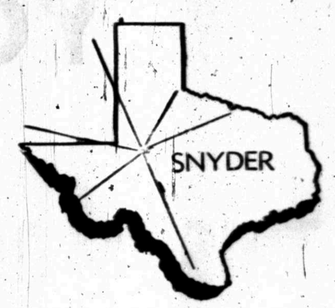
VOL. 18, NO. 56 | SNYDER, TEXAS (79549) WEDNESDAY, JULY 5, 1967 | SECTION B

SPARKLE VALUE DAYS IN SPARKLE CITY

NOT EXACTLY CONVENIENT — This is how things look around part of Snyder's square these days, but things definitely are getting better. Yep. We're sprucing up things in Snyder and progress is being made daily. You may find it takes a little longer to get into stores where the construction work still is in progress, but we can promise you one thing: It will be worth your while. Then, a lot of us already have most of our new sidewalks, curbs and even trees and shrubbery.



THIS IS HOW IT ALL WILL LOOK — Here's some of the finished product in Snyder's new "Operation Sparkle" downtown improvement project. It's being done for the convenience of people who like to do their shopping in Snyder, plus the fact that it boosts our own morale and keeps things humming around the stores and shops. So, come on over and see what's going on in Snyder.



. . . DETERMINED TO BE WEST TEXAS' FRIENDLIEST CITY!

We, the merchants of Snyder, are determined to merit your patronage by making Snyder a better place to shop. The very latest fashions, greater values and a strong pledge for improved service are a few of the guiding factors shoppers will always find in our city.

READ CAREFULLY FOR THE GREATEST VALUES FOUND ANYWHERE!

EFFECTIVE THURS., FRI. & SAT. — JULY 6-7-8

I'M IN FOR AM...

HOW ABOUT YOU?

THIS IS OUR ONE BIG CHANCE TO SHOW WHAT WE, AS INDIVIDUALS, CAN DO.

LET'S ALL DO OUR PART!

OUR THANKS

To the fine people of Scurry County and surrounding areas for the fine patronage given us over the years. If you have not visited our No. 2 store on the square, we invite you to come in and look around at the most complete line of color and black & white televisions — record players — a full display of all kind of musical instruments and related accessories. Visit our big record and tape department. See our large variety of tape players for home, car, boat or, plane. M&M No. 1, our electronic service department, Snyder's largest and most complete, always welcome the opportunity to be of service to you. Once again, let us say from the bottom of our heart, THANKS!
