MRS. THAW AND HER SON DISAGREE OVER COUNSEL

Mother Retains Olcott in Spite of Objections

DEFENSE PLANNED

Son Persists in Keeping Personal Friend as Attorney in the Case

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Following the announcement yesterday, despite her son's objections, Mrs. William Thaw insists that the firm of Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge continue as counsel for Harry K. Thaw, in connection with the killing of Stanford White. Mrs. Thaw said:

"I had Mr. Delafield see Judge Olcott and insisted that they remain in the case and continue in active charge of the plans for the defense of my son. The conference which we arranged for this afternoon with Judge Olcott and Mr. Delafield was postponed until tomorrow at 5 o'clock, when it will be held at Mr. Delafield's office."

It is said by a person close to Mr. Olcott that no objection will be made by his firm to Harry Thaw engaging any lawyer he sees fit, so long as Black, Olcott, Gruber & Bonynge are recognized as the senior counsel.

Hartridge Stays on Case

"I am counsel for Harry Thaw," said Clifford W. Hartridge, who recently was retained by the prisoner, after being told last night what Mrs. Thaw said. "I have been regularly retained by Harry K. Thaw. He is the defendant in the case and knows whom he wants. If it is true Mrs. Thaw wants Judge Olcott or any other attorney to look after her son, then Mrs. Thaw has a perfect right to engage such counsel. Harry Thaw retained me to defend him. I will do so and the defense will not be insanity, and I am confident he will be acquitted."

SHERMAN, Texas, July 17.—The 1-year-old infant of Mr. and Mrs. Senter, residing five miles north of Sherman, died yesterday morning as the result of being burned with carbolic acid. The shocks are local and are caused by earthslides in the Magdalena mountains.

KANSAS PROBES PACKING HOUSES

State Will Force Plants to Clean Up

By Associated Press.

TOPEKA, Kan., July 17.—A meat slaughtering house near Wellington inspected by the state board of health has been found to be in such a filthy condition, that Dr. J. S. Crumbine, secretary of the board, sent notices to the county commissioners of every county in the state directing them to examine slaughter houses in their districts and if not found to be in a sanitary condition to allow five days for cleaning up, as permitted by law.

The order applies to some big packing houses at Kansas City, whose plants are located in Kansas.

BIG FIRE AVERTED

Lampblack Is Saturated and Spontaneous Combustion Is Result

Special to The Telegram.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 17.—Spontaneous combustion caused by a barrel of lampblack becoming saturated came very near destroying by fire the hardware establishment of Heusinger & Co. of this city, with its stock of $50,000. The recent rains had leaked into the barrel, which was in the cellar. Combustion resulted and when the firemen reached the scene the flames were licking around a big lot of powder in the basement and the cans were becoming heated. The fire was extinguished with small loss.

CLEMENCY DENIED BANK WRECKERS

Men Who Robbed Denver Institution Must Serve Terms

Special to The Telegram.

DENVER, Col., July 17.—From indications Leonard Imboden and James A. Hill, who are serving ten-year sentences in the state penitentiary at Canon City under conviction for attempting to wreck the Denver Savings bank, will not soon be released. Recently they made application to the state board of pardons to obtain recommendation for executive clemency. The board of pardons promptly squelched the attempt of the bank wreckers to secure their freedom and announce that it will not consider the case, at least for many months to come.

In the application for a hearing of the case by the board of pardons the statement is made that both Imboden and Hill are victims of a conspiracy. Imboden and Hill have been advised by the board that their applications have been placed on file subject to any supplementary proofs of their innocence and in the course of time may be brought up for consideration at a later date. As to when the matter will be considered by the board there is doubt. Important revelations are said to be contained in the affidavits of both Imboden and Hill, but members of the pardon board decline to discuss them or their import at this time. The two men have appealed to the supreme court on a writ of error, a supersedeas having been denied them. It will be some time before the higher court will pass upon the appeal. Their attorneys will ask to have the case advanced upon the docket. Being a criminal case it has precedence over civil actions.

ELK TRAIN WRECKED

Engine Runs Into Landslide and Engineer Is Killed.

Special to The Telegram.

TRINIDAD, Colo., July 17.—Passenger train No. 7 on the Colorado & Southern Railway, carrying hundreds of Elks to the convention in Denver, was wrecked three miles north of Forbes Junction early yesterday. Engineer Martin J. Cullen was killed and Fireman Charles T. Jarrett badly hurt. That the whole train was not carried into a deep ravine, resulting in serious loss of life, was due to the fact that it was running slowly on account of the very heavy rains.

The train ran into a landslide while rounding a curve and the engine rolled over, carrying the two baggage cars with it. None of the passenger cars left the track. Cullen was caught under the locomotive and his body was crushed to a pulp. Fireman Jarrett jumped, thus escaping death. Though severely injured, he walked three miles and notified the officials here. Two special trains from the south, carrying Elks to the Denver convention, are held here on account of the wreck.

HAHN COMING SOUTH

"Noodles" to Take Vacation—May Secure Release.

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Pitcher Frank (Noodles) Hahn has asked Manager Clark Griffith of the Highlanders for his release, which was reluctantly granted.

"I feel that I am not going to give you value for the salary I am receiving," said Hahn, "and if you are willing I will take a little turn out home. The cold winds at Hillside park cause a stiffness of the throwing wing and probably with some team located in a warmer climate I'll do better."

"Sorry to lose you, old man," replied Griffith, "but if you are determined to go I hope you will do well wherever you get planted again."

Hahn will probably get an unconditional release.

Texas Congressman Says Nebraskan Will Receive Democratic Nomination.

Special to The Telegram.

TYLER, Texas, July 17.—Congressman Gordon Russell, who has just returned home, says that there can be no doubt but that William Jennings Bryan will head Democracy in the presidential campaign of 1908, and he thinks Bryan will then have the best chances for election that have faced Democracy in many years. In Judge Russell's judgment President Roosevelt will not accept a nomination for a third term. Taft, Fairbanks and Cannon are the Republican favorites for nomination, says Mr. Russell.

BLOW TO CAVALRY

Ministry Opposed the Measure. Soldiers Who Mutinied Have Standard Taken Away

By Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, July 17.—The emperor last night approved a bill of the lower house of parliament which was adopted by the upper house, appropriating $7,000,000 for the famine relief, thus supporting the contention of both houses of parliament against his own ministers.

This law is the first enactment of the Russian parliament and represents the net legal result of a session of over two months.

Coalition Cabinet Wanted.

Papers today say the authorities at Peterhof are again asking M. Shipoff, former president of the Zemstvo council, and M. Yarmoloff, leading member of the conservative center party, to renew attempts to induce the constitutional democrats to enter a coalition cabinet.

Emperor Degrades Regiment.

Emperor Nicholas degraded the Seventh cavalry, which recently mutinied at Tamboff, by taking away the imperial standard, conferred on the regiment two years ago. The assassination of General Kozlov, who was killed Saturday evening in English park at Peterhof, is not yet identified, but the Novoe Vremya declares his physiognomy shows he is of Hebrew extraction and says a few days before the crime he was seen at Peterhof in company with three Jews, who spoke English.

Officials of Russia declare there is no doubt the assassination was planned by terrorists and appeal to all good citizens to uphold the authorities in the effort to put an end to the spirit of lawlessness which threaten to overwhelm the country in anarchy.

AMERICANS FEAR RIOTS

Many Leave Mexico to Escape Outbreaks in September

Special to The Telegram.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 17.—American residents from Mexico are of the unanimous opinion that serious outbreaks will occur among the lower class of Mexicans during the progress of the celebration of independence day in September.

They say that the anti-American feeling is very strong among the lower and the peon class and that even with the preparations being made by the government something serious may happen.

The government is favorable to the American labor, but the rurales may prove unreliable in an attack upon their own countrymen. Many Americans are already leaving Mexico and looking for positions elsewhere rather than take chances on trouble with the Mexicans.

Most of the conversation turned upon political lines and the work of the last congress.

STOCKMEN HURT IN SANTA FE CRASH

Five Cars and Engine Are Completely Wrecked

Special to The Telegram.

TEMPLE, Texas, July 17.—About 9 o'clock last night the Santa Fe had a serious wreck near Belton. A double-header stock train crashed into the west bound local. No one was seriously hurt, although several sustained injuries. Five cars of the local and the head engine of the stock train were wrecked.

The local had stopped at the quarry siding, and the engine had been detached to go into the siding after some cars. The track is a straight stretch at that point, and when the double-header came along at full speed all the men jumped.

Stockmen Injured

Three stockmen in the caboose of the train were bruised and one, Tom Williams, had his ribs broken. An engineer and a fireman were bruised in jumping.

Jake Hollingsworth was in the caboose of the local, but he had warning in time to get out of harm's way, as did all the local crew.

MANY TEXANS WANT OFFICE

Large Number Seek to Be Sent to Congress

CONTESTS WARM

In Sixth and Twelfth Districts Conventions Likely to Be Necessary

Reports from various points over Texas seem to indicate that the contests for congressional seats are not attracting so much attention as is the race for governor, but interest attaches to the fact that it is considered likely that, in the Sixth and Twelfth districts the democratic primary may not be final as to the choice of the voters for men to represent them at Washington. The race is likely to be quite close in both districts and it may take conventions to decide them.

In the Sixth district Scott Field, the present incumbent, is not a candidate for re-election. The candidates are Mays and Hardy of Navarro and Henderson of Milam.

In the Twelfth district there are three candidates, all of Fort Worth. They include the present incumbent, O. W. Gillespie, ex-Mayor Thomas J. Powell, and J. W. Swayne, a well-known oil man.

The closest race in all of the sixteen districts is doubtless being run in the Second, where Brook, the present incumbent, is opposed by Cooper, who served the district in congress for many years.

There are contests in the Seventh, Ninth and Sixteenth districts, but the chances seem to be decidedly favorable to the present incumbents.

First District

Special to The Telegram.

TEXARKANA, Texas, July 17.—Morris Sheppard, the present congressman from the First district, has no opposition for renomination and it is not probable that he will have any at the polls. He entered congress a little more than four years ago, succeeding his father, the late John L. Sheppard.

Second District

Special to The Telegram.

BEAUMONT, Texas, July 17.—The race for congress in this, the Second congressional district, has aroused more interest than any other in the history of this section of the state. There are two candidates on the democratic ticket, M. L. Brooks, the present incumbent, and Sam Cronson Cooper, who served this district for twelve years in congress. At the last primaries he received a majority of the popular vote, but in the convention Mr. Broocks received the nomination.

Mr. Broocks is a resident of San Augustine county and is unmarried. Mr. Cooper lives in this city and has a family.

Sixth District

Special to The Telegram.

CAMERON, Texas, July 17.—There are three candidates for congress in this, the Sixth congressional district, F. S. Henderson, Cameron; Judge Rufus Hardy, Corsicana, and Richard Mayes, Corsicana. Mr. Henderson being a Milam county man, will in all probability carry the county.

A short time later, while working to apprehend the man who shot Barr, Policeman Patrick Kennedy shot and killed Frank Moody, a 14-year-old runaway boy, who was sleeping in an outhouse behind a saloon in the neighborhood of where Barr was shot.

HARGIS FOUND NOT GUILTY

Jury Acquits the Men Charged With Marcum Murder

ENDS LONG FIGHT

Callahan Also Escapes—Both Another Trial for Murder of Cockrill

By Associated Press.

BEATTYVILLE, Ky., July 17.—The jury in the Hargis-Callahan trial returned a verdict of not guilty after being out twenty-two minutes. The case was one of the most desperately fought battles in Kentucky court for years. The men were charged with the murder of J. B. Marcum.

Fight Was Bitter

The verdict of not guilty in the Marcum trial is the culmination of a long and bitter fight in the court in attempts to convict James Hargis and Ed Callahan as the chief conspirators of one of the darkest crimes in Kentucky's history. James B. Marcum, was a mountain Republican lawyer of excellent standing. He was engaged three years ago as attorney in a contest against Hargis and Callahan respectively Democratic county judge and sheriff elect to oust them from offices on the allegation of corrupt election.

Jett Shot Marcum

Much bitterness was aroused and frequent open ruptures occurred in 1903 when Marcum was shot to death from behind in Jackson court house. Curt Jett and Tom White were convicted and given life terms for the murder. It was charged they were tools of Callahan, Hargis and others.

Confesses Crime

Jett, after conviction, confessed he shot Marcum and his act was inspired by Callahan and Hargis. On the witness stand, however, he repudiated the confession and said he alone was responsible. The acquittal followed largely on this repudiation.

Another Murder Charged

A jury of Clark county citizens returned a verdict of $6,000 damages a year ago against Hargis on the allegation he caused Marcum to be killed. The suit was filed by Mrs. Marcum. Hargis and Callahan are yet to be tried in Lexington court for killing James Cockrill under similar circumstances.

Lake Shore Official Asked to Assist in Government's Fight

Special to The Telegram.

CLEVELAND, Ohio, July 17.—Basing his opinion upon the testimony already submitted to the Federal grand jury in this district, Attorney General Moody believes that the government has at last secured the evidence which will lead to bringing the Standard Oil Company to its knees.

The return of District Attorney Sullivan this morning from an all-day conference with the attorney general yesterday at New York will make a complete change in the plans of the government in connection with the fight to stop trade discriminations in favor of giant corporations.

The plans include a complete reversal regarding G. J. Grammar, vice president of the Lake Shore and Michigan Southern. Grammar will not be indicted in this or any other Federal district. Instead, he will be asked to assist the government in forging a chain of evidence about the necks of some of the biggest Standard Oil officials in the country.

DALLAS, July 17.—John E. Davis, who has a contract for printing the official ticket of the Dallas county primary, submitted proofs of the same to Chairman Ford today. There is talk of a verbal test at the polls, but even the legality of this is doubted by some.

Special to The Telegram.

CLEVELAND, July 17.—Captain Grammar, general traffic manager of the Lake Shore, who will likely get immunity for helping the government run down the Standard Oil Company, believes the new rate law will prove an inestimable benefit to the common carriers. He thinks shippers will be the first to demand a repeal because it makes it as great an offense to ask a special rate as to give one.

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, July 17.—The big floating dry dock Dewey, which went half way round the world on a voyage to the Philippines, is now anchored off Rivera Point, Olongepo Station. At this place there is sixty-five feet of water, so that all vessels which may be sent into dock may reach it in perfect safety. The Dewey will be anchored with four huge mushroom anchors at each end, and as the tide rises only about one foot at Olongopo there is little danger of the huge structure being moved.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 17.—The Record-Herald today says:

The first practical step toward delivering Cook county to William J. Bryan for the democratic presidential nomination in 1908 was taken today by local politicians who covet front seats in the band wagon. Articles of incorporation were filed at Springfield for the resurrection of the William J. Bryan League of Cook county, which was organized in 1896, when the Nebraskan was first nominated, but faded away and crumbled into the dust after the "First Battle." The officers of the league are:

W. W. SLOAN IN CHARGE

Assumes Management of the Touraine Hotel

Management of the Touraine hotel has been assumed by W. W. Sloan, owner of the building, and he expects hereafter to look after the details of the business personally. As heretofore stated, the cafe upstairs has been closed for the summer months, but it will be reopened in the fall.

Mr. Sloan expects to conduct a general hotel business on the European plan, and although he took charge of the hotel management on short notice, has thus far had gratifying success.

"The idea or impression which some seem to have that the Touraine is a family or private hotel is incorrect," said Mr. Sloan Tuesday. "We intend to cater to the regular hotel trade."

Boers Hired to Stir Up Salvador Malcontents

LIFE IS SOUGHT

Alleged Three Republics Entered Conspiracy Against Caberera's Government

By Associated Press.

NEW ORLEANS, July 17.—The alleged coalition of three Central American republics against Guatemala is reported in a special from City of Mexico to the Times Democrat today.

The dispatch, which quotes a friend of General Barillis as authority, says: "Some time last March Salvador, Honduras and Nicaragua entered into an offensive and decisive coalition against Guatemala, agreeing the moment there was infringement by Guatemala of territory rights, either of the three confederates' declaration of war against Guatemala should follow."

The dispatch also says John Jenkins of Omaha, Neb., consul general of the United States at San Salvador, at the request of the Salvadorean government, presented President Roosevelt with a copy of a diplomatic circular issued by Salvador claiming the present troubles began last March when Dr. Fortin, charge d'affaires of Salvador at Guatemala City, found his mail being tampered with.

Boers Sent to Country.

Later, the circular is alleged to say, Dr. Fortin reported to his government that President Caberera of Guatemala secured sixty Boers at Chicago, St. Louis and New Orleans to go to Salvador and join the malcontents there in an attempt to disrupt the government. In the circular is quoted also copies of telegrams from President Caberera to the minister of the Salvadorean foreign department, charging General Regalado and President Escatan of Salvador with conspiracy with the end of procuring Caberera's assassination.

A copy of this circular is said by the dispatch to be now in the hands of the Mexican department of foreign affairs. It is further stated that posters have been placed about in Guatemala City calling for the assassination of President Caberera and some of these missives are even placed on opposite walls of the president's residence, which is guarded by about 2,000 policemen. Caberera is said to be practically a prisoner in his residence and has his food tested for poison before eating.

Police Find Victim and Mob Hunts Guilty Parties

Special to The Telegram.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 17.—It has developed that Mamie Larsen, a 14-year-old girl, the daughter of Mrs. Minnie Meyers, living just outside the city limits, was abducted Sunday night by three negroes.

The girl had stepped outside of her home to call her mother, when she was met by a negro woman who told her that Mrs. Meyers had walked in the direction of a thicket near by. Mamie went after her mother, when she was seized by three negroes. The girl says she lost consciousness after this occurrence and when she revived was lying badly bruised in a thicket.

The police and a large number of neighbors, after a long search, found the girl at an early hour this morning. Every effort is being made to apprehend the negroes, and threats of lynching are freely made.

Abutments Ready for Marine Creek Span

City Engineer J. M. Hall of North Fort Worth is now finishing up his work for the new steel bridge over Marine creek, in North Main street. The abutments are practically in readiness for the steel span and today Mr. Hall is engineering a breakwater wall along the north side of the North Side livery barn, which will protect the premises in time of high water. The wall is constructed of two-inch planks nailed lengthwise on cedar posts, reaching the floor level of the building. The posts are set three feet in the ground in cement bases to avoid danger of washouts. From the northeast corner of the barn the wall extends across the open space to the concrete abutments, a distance of thirty-six feet, thus closing the entire south side of the creek against overflows. The city bears the expense of eighteen feet of this thirty-six feet of wall connecting to the abutment, the property owner bearing expense of entire remainder.

Mr. Hall stata Monday that the expense to the city is slight, as the city already owns the material being used for its share. The cost of labor will be practically the only cause of cash expenditure.

ELKS TO REVISE CONSTITUTION

Denver Reunion Is Now On in Full Swing

EIGHT MORE ARE NEEDED

Total in Fort Worth Is Twenty-one. Qualifications for Position Are Lowered

By Associated Press.

DENVER, Colo., July 17.—About 25,000 Elks and ladies accompanying them in attendance at the twentieth annual reunion of the order have registered at local headquarters and others are still coming on every train. The weather is superb. The city is in gala attire and all indications point to a most enjoyable and memorable reunion. Entertainment suited to all tastes has been provided for the visitors. For three hours a reception to visiting Elks and their families was held in the park and Elks' rooms at St. Anthany's hospital. Band contests, a feature of the Elks' reunion, began today and will continue tomorrow.

To Revise Constitution

The grand lodge will hold its first business session this afternoon. A revision of the constitution is one of the most important matters to come before the convention. The order was established as a social organization and "good fellowship" was one of the prerogatives for membership. So rapid has been the growth of the order that it has been found necessary to broaden its scope and place it upon a more solid foundation. By the adoption of the proposed new constitution three forms of government will be established: Executive, judicial and legislative.

Divides Power

This will put all the executive power in the hands of the grand exalted ruler, while the judicial duties, such as arbitration of all questions pertaining to the order, will be placed in the hands of the board of governors or a similar body. The legislative power, of course, will devolve upon the delegates in convention. A new ritual also has been prepared.

RAILROAD WANTS TO EXTEND TRACK

Rock Island to Circulate Petition for 7th Street Spur

The Rock Island will soon petition the city council for the right to lay a track from its present line to and in the freight house and yards just north of Ninth street, along Seventh street, to Rusk street. This has long been contemplated by the Rock Island, and it is a practical certainty that early action will be taken.

The track, if laid as contemplated, will be up the middle of Seventh street, and there will then be chances for the building of switches to any wholesale house or manufacturing industry which might seek location on the line of the road on that street. It is a fact that, for months past, some parties, evidently possessed of some inside knowledge, have been trying to buy property with Seventh street frontage and some of the figures offered were high.

It is understood that the franchise asked for by the Northern Texas Traction Company on the same street and for a part of the distance over the same ground can be otherwise provided for, so there will be no conflict between the two companies or their trackage rights or privileges.

In this connection it can be said that a sale of a large tract of land, 200x100 feet, fronting on Seventh and extending from Calhoun to Jones streets, has been made to William Capps and the consideration is stated at $16,000. When all of the Denver and Rock Island improvements are made it is certain that an effort will be made to get the right to extend tracks from Front street up some of the north and south streets, so that the Texas and Pacific can come in for some of the benefits also.

AFTER ICE TRUST

Suits Filed Against Three Companies in St. Louis

By Associated Press.

ST. LOUIS, Mo., July 17.—After an investigation of three weeks Circuit Attorney Sager today filed suits in the circuit court against the Polar Wave Ice and Fuel Company, and the Merchants Ice and Coal Company on the allegation these companies are in an alleged combination to restrain trade and fix and maintain the price of ice.

Asks $71,000 Fine

The suits ask that a judgment for $71,400 be assessed against each company as fines for the seventy-one days the alleged agreement has been in effect and it further asks the charters under which they have been doing business be declared null and void. The charges are based on three sections of the revised statutes of Missouri.

MORE GRAVEL NEEDED

Would Improve Sidewalk Near the City Hall.

It is the subject of remark that a few loads of gravel, well distributed on the sidewalk, between that part of the brick sidewalk in front of the city hall and the brick pavement by the central fire station, would add to the comfort of those who have to walk thereon in wet weather. There is a fine foundation for broken rock and the surfacing of gravel is all that is needed to make the walk good.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system, thereby destroying the foundation of the disease, and giving the patient strength by building up the constitution and assisting nature in doing its work. The proprietors have so much faith in its curative powers that they offer One Hundred Dollars for any case that it fails to cure. Send for list of testimonials.

BABY'S VOICE

Is the joy of the household, for without it no happiness can be complete. How sweet the picture of mother and babe! Angels smile at and commend the thoughts and aspirations of the mother bending over the cradle. The ordeal through which the expectant mother must pass, however, is so full of danger and suffering that she looks forward to the hour when she shall feel the exquisite thrill of motherhood with indescribable dread and fear. Every woman should know that the danger, pain and horror of childbirth can be entirely avoided by the use of Mother's Friend, a scientific liniment for external use only, which toughens and renders pliable all the parts, and assists nature in its sublime work. By its aid thousands of women have passed this great crisis in perfect safety and without pain.

Gregg, congressman from this district, is running for re-election, and has an opponent, J. J. Blount, who was representative from this district last year. He was also dubbed "the Alarm Clock Statesman." Mr. Gregg has the best chance for re-election, but Blount will receive a good number of votes from the farmers.

Eighth District

Special to The Telegram.

RICHMOND, Texas, July 17.—The present congressman, John M. Moore of Richmond, was elected June 6, 1905, to fill the unexpired term of John M. Pinckney, deceased. In the brief time that he has represented this district his efforts in behalf of his constituents have been so fruitful of results that the democrats have determined to give another term without opposition.

Ninth District

Special to The Telegram.

VICTORIA, Texas, July 17.—George F. Burgess of Gonzales, at present representing the Ninth congressional district in congress, is a candidate to succeed himself. He is being opposed for the democratic nomination by W. W. Glass, also of Gonzales.

Tenth District

Special to The Telegram.

BRENHAM, Texas, July 17.—Albert Sydney Burleson, the present incumbent, will be returned to congress from this district. There is no opposition in the democratic field and the republicans case is hopeless. The record of Mr. Burleson has been particularly brilliant and his constituents in the district hope to some day vote for him for a higher position.

Eleventh District

Special to The Telegram.

WACO, Texas, July 17.—For the first time since he has been making the race for congress there is no opposition to Congressman R. L. Henry, and he will succeed himself without having to make a campaign. He has never been defeated, though he has had strong opposition two or three times.

Twelfth District

A complex political situation exists in this, the Twelfth congressional district of Texas, in that the present representative in congress, O. W. Gillespie, a resident of this city, is a candidate for re-election, while T. J. Powell, former mayor of Fort Worth, and James W. Swayne, also of this city, are also in the race. No other candidates have filed applications with the chairman. The district is composed of Tarrant, Johnson, Erath, Hood, Comanche, Parker and Somervell counties.

Fourteenth District

Special to The Telegram.

SAN ANTONIO, Texas, July 17. — During the present struggle of candidates for office in the political campaign of Bexar county there are at least two who have a clear field before them, and they will be elected without opposition, so far as the democratic party is concerned, and this means that they will be elected next November. They are James L. Slayden, candidate for re-election to congress, and Judge R. B. Green, candidate for the state senatorship.

Fifteenth District

Special to The Telegram.

UVALDE, Texas, July 17.—John Nance Garner, democrat, of Uvalde, was born in Red River county, Texas, Nov. 22, 1869; was elected to the Fifty-eighth congress, receiving 16,512 votes, to 10,707 for J. C. Scott, republican, and 51 for D. C. Crider, and was re-elected to the Fifty-ninth congress. There are a good many republicans in his district, but they have not as yet become sufficiently numerous to menace his return to congress.

Thirteenth District

Special to The Telegram.

VERNON, Texas, July 17. — John Hall Stevens, democrat, of Vernon, was born in Shelby county, Texas; was educated at Mansfield, Tarrant county, Texas; graduated from the law department of Cumberland University, Lebanon, Tenn., in 1872, and has practiced law since at Montague, Montague county, and Vernon, Wilbarger county, Texas; served as state senator in Twenty-first and Twenty-second legislatures of Texas; was elected to the Fifty-fifth, Fifty-sixth and Fifty-seventh congresses, and re-elected to the Fifty-eight congress, receiving 24,027 votes, to 2,034 for R. O. Rector, republican, and 123 for Schmidt socialist. He was re-elected to the Fifty-ninth congress.

Sixteenth District

Special to The Telegram.

EL PASO, Texas, July 17.—W. R. Smith of Colorado, congressman from this, the Sixteenth district, and candidate for re-election, has opposition from Abilene in the person of Judge J. F. Cunningham.

El Paso county is going solid for Mr. Smith, however, as he is very popular here because of the hard work he has done in the interest of the great Engle irrigation enterprise.

It is not generally believed that Cunningham has much of a show anywhere in the district, but he is still in the race.

Third District

Special to The Telegram.

TYLER, Texas, July 17.—Congressman J. Gordon Russell has no opposition in this district for re-election. He has served two terms in congress, and the people appear pleased with his services. His recent speech in the lower house of the railroad rate bill, which was recognized as the best on that floor, has strengthened his standing in the district and added to the ardor of his supporters.

Fourth District

Special to The Telegram.

SHERMAN, Texas, July 17.—Choice B. Randell, the present congressman from this district, will probably go back into office without opposition. He has served three terms in congress, making a record as a safe, sane and conservative statesman. He is a native Georgian, and was born New Year's Day, 1857, and moved to Texas at the age of 22.

Fifth District

Special to The Telegram.

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, July 17.—The congressional campaign in this district is not attracting any interest this year. Jack Beall, the present representative of the district, is a candidate for re-election, with no opposition in the ranks of the democrats. It is understood, however, that the republicans will hold a congressional convention and nominate a candidate.

Rounds Them Out

Three years' experience with one food is a severe test.

What can be done when it is the proper food, Grape-Nuts, is proved by the statement of a woman who says:

"Up to three years ago I had sick headaches every week, and although I had heard and read about how food affected one, I never thought that could have anything to do with my trouble until one day a friend came in and found me suffering from a frightful headache and suggested that it might be the food, telling me I should change my food for breakfast at least.

"'Breakfast,' I said, 'why, I never have any appetite for breakfast, there's nothing I would relish.' She said, 'Did you ever try Grape-Nuts? We use the food every morning and find it just what we relish and we know our health is better since we have eaten it.'

"This was news to me, so that very day I got two packages and ate only Grape-Nuts and cream or milk for two weeks at breakfast and became so fond of the food I soon found myself eating it for supper also. The result was my headaches lessened quickly and finally disappeared, and for the past two years I have only had a couple and I have gained about 30 pounds in weight. I can't get along without my Grape-Nuts and cream for breakfast at least.

"My husband is just as fond of the food as I am, and he makes his entire breakfast on it, and today I looked over our old grocery orders just for fun and found we have used 512 packages of Grape-Nuts food since we began eating it three years ago. My husband's health has improved wonderfully, for he used to be a frail little man as white as a ghost, but now he has fine appetite, good color, and has rounded out in flesh nicely."

CITY COUNCIL SESSION BRIEF

Death in Mayor's Family Is Cause of Adjournment

ARGUMENTS HEARD

Attorneys Address Police Committee on Cases Against Police Officers

As forecast in The Telegram Monday afternoon, the meeting of the city council Monday night was a brief and formal one.

All aldermen were present, the mayor presided during the calling of the roll to demonstrate the presence of a quorum, and then Alderman Zurn, in a few appropriate remarks presented to the council the fact that a death had occurred in the mayor's family and, in respect to the mayor's affliction, moved an adjournment until Saturday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Alderman Waggoman was called to the chair and he suggested that there might be perfect propriety in the appointment of a committee to draft suitable resolutions of condolence and Alderman Zurn agreed with him; that addition was made to the motion and it was carried.

Alderman Waggoman appointed Aldermen Zurn, Armstrong and Lehane on the committee and the council was then declared adjourned until Saturday at 7:30 p. m.

Police Committee Meets

Arguments by counsel for Night Captain Blanton and Officers Davis, Porter and Howard before the police committee of the Fort Worth council took place in the office of the mayor Monday afternoon. The arguments were by Attorneys Moreland and Samuels. The city was not represented. Owing to the fact that death had entered the family of a brother to the mayor, it was suggested that the matter be disposed of as shortly as possible, and this was done. The speeches were in connection with the charges recently preferred against the police officers named, alleging unbecoming conduct in several specifications, and the first speaker was Q. T. Moreland.

Mr. Moreland's remarks were made for Night Captain Blanton and Officers Davis and Porter. He dwelt but slightly on the cases of Officers Davis and Porter and paid the greater part of his attention to the charges made against Captain Blanton. Regarding a receipt given to the mayor by a woman, Mr. Moreland said it was preposterous to think that the captain would have stooped to such foolishness as to perform this kind of grafting, when, he said, it had been proven that he had refused large sums to allow others to go in peace.

"Brotherhood of Man"

Mr. Moreland, in talking of the alleged brutality toward a prisoner who had cursed the captain, related an amusing incident of former days and earlier times in years now passed and made a part of Panther City history forever. He said a certain city official thought the police were too strenuous in their physical dealings with petty offenders and related that this official had gone down to the city hall to "show the boys" how to treat a prisoner under arrest. While he was busy explaining the "Brotherhood of Man" to mounted officers seated about the headquarters, Mr. Moreland said, the patrol wagon drove up with a prisoner "billin' drunk," who was making the welkin ring with whoops and howls, curses and informal maledictions. The city official followed the policemen out to the stoop, where prisoners are received to be ushered into the waiting room of headquarters and it was found that the prisoner, a large, strong man, was inclined to be boisterous, as well as antagonistic and pugilistic, toward everybody coming within the limits of his field of endeavor. A burly cop planted a well directed blow on the pate of the drunkard and he was about to subside when, Mr. Moreland said, it is said that the city official rushed in and placed his arm around the prisoner's "gurgle channel," saying: "Boys, don't hit a man because he's your prisoner —here's the way," and then to the drunken sot: "Come, brother, go in with me; we shall do you no harm." About this time, said Mr. Moreland, the forefinger of the city official dangled in the vicinity of the chops of the prisoner and the prisoner's teeth sank into the flesh of the first joint, the city official screaming in his pain: "Kill him! Kill him! Kill him!"

Regarding the shooting of a prisoner by the captain, the attorney said it had merely been an error in judgment for the officer to shoot into a hole where prisoners had been working in the endeavor to escape and he presumed that the committee ought to reprimand the officer and caution him as to future course in the matter.

Sidney Samuels Talks.

Sidney Samuels made a short but effective address for his client, Police Officer Pete Howard. He took up the character of the man and his record, showing to the committee that he had never been charged with wrongdoing in the past and assured them of his belief in the impossibility of the officer's ever doing the same thing again. He assured the committee that his client had shot into the wall and not into the hole and that if the bullet from the officer's pistol struck the hand of the boy it had done so in rebounding and said that the proof showed most conclusively the officer had no reason to think the boy at the hole at the time he fired his pistol.

Mr. Samuels pleaded with the committee not to deprive Officer Howard of his rank, dismiss him from the service and strip him of the office, but suggested that a suspension at the discretion of the committee would probably conserve the ends of justice, which, be tempered with mercy in view of the fact that, in his belief, the occurrence was but an error in judgment and not likely to occur again.

Discussion Private.

The arguments being closed the public and the newspaper men were requested to remove themselves from the mayor's office while the committee and the mayor could discuss the matter. Mr. Lehane was present. The public and the newspaper representatives withdrew and the discussion was quickly carried forward and disposed of.

Before he heard the arguments of counsel Mr. Waggoman said he had his mind made up. Chairman Zurn said the same thing. The committee desired to have argument made for the benefit of Alderman J. F. Lehane, who had not been present at the hearing. The testimony was furnished to Mr. Lehane and he is expected to finish the same in time to join with the committee in a recommendation to the council at its meeting Saturday night.

To Reprimand Police.

No direct expression for publication can be secured from either the mayor or any member of the police committee, but it is understood that there will be a severe reprimand for carelessness in handling weapons.

It is also learned that the chief of police will probably be instructed to especially caution his men as to the handling of prisoners. This, it is taken, will not in any way interfere with the discharge of the usual police duties, nor prevent a police officer from protecting himself and preventing prisoners to escape, but it is probable that special attention will be paid in the report to alleged ruthless and indiscriminate punching the heads of petty offenders, instead of filing new complaints against any such who persist in disobeying law in cursing any persons, officers or others, either before or after their arrest on any charge.

NEGRO MASONS MEET

Grand Lodges of State Convene at City Hall

The various colored Masonic grand bodies, grand lodge, Royal Arch, Knights Templars and all, came to Fort Worth in full force Monday night and Tuesday morning and when the opening exercises began at the city hall Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock the auditorium of the city hall was crowded almost to capacity.

The affliction which has come to Mayor Harris prevented him from making the address of welcome and that formality fell to the lot of J. C. Scott of this city.

Otherwise the program as published in The Telegram was followed and it was so long that 1 o'clock had come before the exercises were over.

Practically all the proceedings of the grand bodies are in executive session and there is but little for publication.

The most important matter, so far as the general public is concerned, is the determination of the question of loans of grand lodge funds, or the formation of a loan company by the colored Masons of the state, to loan funds for the relief of the farmers who may have suffered a back set from crop failures or other unavoidable causes.

WEATHER IS VARIED

Wet and Dry Conditions Scattered Over United States

Tuesday's weather map presents a very mottled appearance with high and low barometric areas scattered almost promiscuously over the United States and Canada. Four low centers and three high ones are shown on the map, the high areas, however, covering by far the greater part of the country, one centering at Yankton, S. D., extending over the whole central western states north and south. Rain continued general Monday and was heavy in some regions. Temperatures were not high, the maximum at Fort Worth being 87, Chicago 70, Abilene 84, Omaha 76, Denver 78, and Pittsburg 86. Excessively heavy rains fell in Tennessee, Florida, Arkansas and Pennsylvania. The cotton belt is cloudy in the coast states but generally clear in the northern portion. Texas reports heavy rains at Ballinger, Brownwood, Lampasas, Greenville, Waco and Waxahachie.

Yale Professor Searches Fossil Beds for Bones of Dinosaurus

Special to The Telegram.

DENVER, Colo., July 17.—A peculiar looking stone weighing less than four pounds has led Professor J. L. Wortman, former field curator of Yale, half way across the continent. In pursuit of the fossil from which this fragment came, Professor Wortman is now delving in the fossil beds of the Gray Bull river country, Wyo., exultant in his endeavor to discover what he is sure will prove the largest specimen of the long-extinct dinosaurus.

The small stone was picked up on the river bank this spring by a homeseeker from Washington, who exhibited it to his friends in the east. Coming to Professor Wortman's notice, he at once recognized it as a fragment of the pre-historic monster and from one much larger than any yet discovered. Professor Wortman will put in the entire summer hunting for the mammoth monster.

APPLICANTS MANY FOR EXAMINATION

Fifty-nine Men Would Be Meat Inspectors

A government position with Uncle Sam as the paymaster and a salary of $1,000 a year with but one year of experience required and promise of increase in salary—these are sufficiently attractive inducements to lead fifty-nine young men in and about Fort Worth to call at the Fort Worth postoffice and ask for application blanks for the civil service examination for meat inspectors, which will be held in Fort Worth and many other places in the United States next Saturday, July 21.

W. R. Banner, chairman of the local board of the civil service commission, said Tuesday morning that this number had applied to him and that probably several more had written to Washington for blanks. His supply of blanks is exhausted. Out of the fifty-nine applicants for blanks, Mr. Banner thinks there should be about forty-five qualified for the examination. There are already thirteen inspectors employed at the Fort Worth packing houses, and, under the new law, eight more are to be appointed.

Qualifications Lowered

At the examination for this same position some weeks ago there was but one applicant at Fort Worth. The number was correspondingly low in other cities of the country, and there seemed to be no way of filling the 400 positions made by the passage of the meat inspection bill. The requirements for applicants at that time included a veterinary education and degree from some recognized college of veterinary medicine. The civil service commission saw that in order to get men they must lower the qualifications for the position. Accordingly this was done, and those who have had at least one year's experience in a packing house and can fill the usual requirements of a federal employe will be allowed to take the examination Saturday. However, the men who have had more than a year's experience will fare better when the papers are graded and if, during the period of their employment in a packing house they have worked in several different departments, they will be still more likely to win over those of less experience. For instance if a man has worked one year and in one department he will receive 25 per cent on experience, while if he has worked four years, and during that time had been in four or more departments, he would probably get 100 on experience. But with the lessened qualifications comes a lower salary, and whereas the position formerly paid $1,200 the first year, it will now pay but $1,000.

Aug. 1 the plants of the Fort Worth packers will have to be in condition to comply with the requirements of the meat inspection law, as to sanitary conditions in the houses, and those failing to do this will not be allowed to do business on interstate shipments of meat.

Dr. A. H. Wallace, chief inspector here, has been in Chicago to attend the conference with Secretary Wilson. The conference was a sort or school of instruction on the new inspection law, and inspectors were present from all packing centers.

Another Examination

Another civil service examination, which will be taken by a great many men, is the one for clerks and carriers to be held Aug. 1. Already Mr. Banner has given out 123 application blanks and there is still time for those desiring to try for a position to make application.

The eligible list in Fort Worth is very nearly exhausted and the examination is for the purpose of replenishing this list. There is an application in the postoffice department at Washington now from the Fort Worth office for four additional carriers here and, should these be allowed, some of the successful contestants in the coming examination will likely be put to work at once.

There will not likely be any applicants for the examination for railway mail clerks, to be held here Aug. 8, as the Texas list of eligibles is filled, but in the Indian Territory, Oklahoma, Lopislana and Arkansas the eligible lists are nearly or quite exhausted and persons living in those states will be at liberty to take the examination.

COMBINING TO DEFEAT BELL

There have been a number of rumors in circulation for several weeks to the effect that an effort was being made to combine all the opposition against Judge Bell and prevent his nomination if possible. This has been repeatedly denied, but one of the politicians of the state has been found who has the courage to speak out. The Austin Statesman says:

Bell's defeat will be secured if it is necessary to sacrifice every one of the other three candidates and their personal ambitions. I am a Campbell man myself, but I feel that Colquitt has gained considerably in the past few weeks and that he is now in the lead of Campbell or at least running him close to the shore. Brooks is of course in the rear. Bell is a long ways in the lead. I admit that and so do all the other fellows that are telling the truth, but I want you to bear well in mind my prediction that we will compass Bell's defeat. I don't believe that there is any one of the candidates now running but who would cheerfully give up his chances if by doing so he could lick Bell. They must be sure, however, that they can do this before quitting the race and that is one reason why there has been no change in the line up to the present time. This information you can rely upon.

In this manner spoke a prominent Central Texas politician who was in this city last week and who is in a position to be pretty well posted as to conditions and likely results. He was an avowed Campbell man, but was willing to admit that even the Campbell men conceded that Bell was in the lead and that to compass his defeat they would have to combine forces before the meeting of the convention. Once the convention is in session and a ballot is taken the low man must be dropped and thus it would be possible after the second if not the first ballot for Bell to get enough votes to make him the nominee by the dropping of the low candidate after the ballot had been cast and counted Once a candidate is dropped and the votes cast for him are drifting around for a location, should they locate on Bell with his great big lead, then it will be good bye to all the lesser lights in the race for governor. These are the reasons that make it so necessary for the Brooks, Campbell, Colquitt people to stay friendly clean up to the convention if the primaries do not settle the matter. Friendship even of such an order as it will be between the trio will be most necessary if the defeat of Bell is to be compassed and as that seems to be the resolve of all three candidates according to their spokesmen there can be no questioning the vigorousness of the campaign that is to be waged to accomplish Bell's defeat.

The Telegram does not doubt that there are men actively at work in Texas today to bring about the state of affairs revealed by the Austin paper, but it does not believe they will be able to accomplish their unholy design. In the first place, Judge Bell is the second choice of thousands of Texas Democrats who are tied to the support of the other three candidates for various reasons. There are many men supporting Campbell who would be for Bell if Campbell were out of the way. There are some who are supporting Brooks who would be for Bell if Brooks were out, and the same way with Colquitt. And all of these will be given an opportunity to vote for Bell at the proper time.

Under the Terrell election law, the lowest candidate must be dropped after each ballot until a nomination is made, and Colquitt, Brooks and Campbell will pass out in one, two, three order. As these men are dropped the support they have in the convention will go to Bell, and he will be the nominee of the Democratic party as he should be. There may be a desperate effort made on the part of the politicians to hold this support away from Bell, but fortunately for the good of the people the reign of these gentlemen in Texas is over. There was a time when they might have hoped to manipulate conventions and defeat the will of the people, but that time is happily passed. The people are in the saddle this year and riding hard.

Truly, it would be a nice situation, to witness a cabal of sore-headed politicians take charge of the great Texas state Democratic convention and run it to suit themselves, defeating the will of the people and setting up a state government of their own in defiance of the masses. It is a great scheme these schemers have on hand, but they are up against something that they cannot get around. The best thing they can do is to call off their combination yelpers and prepare to accept the will of the people.

Judge Charles K. Bell, of Fort Worth, will be the Democratic nominee for governor of Texas, and he will make the people one of the best executives in the history of the state.

BROTHER CRANFILL FOR BELL

Rev. J. B. Cranfill, of Dallas, well known to the people of Texas for his pugnacious qualities, and who is one of the most ardent prohibitionists in the state, as well as an uncompromising opponent of the Democratic party has declared in favor of Judge Bell for governor. Brother Cranfill has long had something of a penchant for combining a little politics with his religion, and has been heard from in several Texas campaigns. The fact that he can lay aside his dislike for Democracy and take up the fight for the leading Democratic candidate for governor is a fine tribute to the sterling qualities of Judge Bell. It discloses those qualities are sufficient to win not only the respect and admiration of the opposition, but also to command their support. Brother Cranfill is editor of a religious publication known as the Texas Baptist-Tribune, and has a large following among the Baptists of the state. In a recent issue of his paper Brother Cranfill says:

One of the things that has been urged here and there against Judge Bell has been that he is not as good a prohibitionist as Judge Brooks, Judge Campbell, etc. As a matter of fact, neither one of the Democratic candidates for governor is a prohibitionist. Every one of them has declared himself against prohibition in unmistakeable terms. They have varying views on local option, but all of them have declared that if elected they would enforce the local option laws. The attitude of these candidates is but a confirmation of what I have repeatedly said both in public and private concerning the position of the Democratic party on the prohibition question. No real Democrat is a real prohibitionist. The Democratic party, bota in its organization and traditions, has always been opposed to prohibition. It is thoroughly aligned with the liquor traffic in every state and territory where it is in power, and it always has been. It is true that in Texas the people are allowed the privilege of voting in the precincts and counties on the liquor question, but this is an inalienable right and was engrafted in the Texas constitution before any of the present candidates were known in public life.

Judge C. K. Bell has been in public life in Texas most of the time for twenty-five years. He is a man of the highest personal integrity, purity of life and fidelity in public service. He has been district attorney, district judge, a member of the state senate, congressman and attorney general, and he has so faithfully discharged every public duty that no man can truthfully point to a single flaw in the work that he has done. If the Democratic readers of the Tribune will believe me, they will vote for this man for governor. He has not in him one atom of the political demagogue.

It is untrue that he is in close sympathy with the corporations. He is a man who stands for equality and exact justice for all men of every class and condition of life. He would favor fair dealing and justice to the corporations as well as fair dealing and justice to all the people. He believes in a square deal for every man and every interest, and he would not shield John D. Rockefeller or Andrew Carnegie if these men were in default, nor would he unduly punish or harass the poorest, most ignorant and humblest artisan in the broad state of Texas. It has not been given me to know very many of our public men as intimately as I have known and now know Judge C. K. Bell. He is worthy of the suffrages of the Texas Democrats and ought to be our next governor.

It will be remembered that some of Judge Bell's opponents have charged him with being a prihibitionist in one place and an anti-prohibitionist in another. The support of one of the leading prohibitionists in the state would seem to indicate that Bell's prohibition record is at least sufficiently clear to cause one of the most rabid of that ilk in the state to do him justice, and Judge Brooks' effort to monopolize the front seat on the water wagon will not be suffered to go unchallenged.

Brother Cranfill may have his peculiarities, but he is right in the position he takes toward Judge Bell, and all he says will be indorsed by the masses of Texas people who know Judge Bell and love him for the manly principles he has displayed since his first entrance in public life. He is a man who stands strictly for a square deal all around and truly deserves the recognition he is asking at the hands of his people.

If Brother Cranfill will but continue to preach a little of this Bell doctrine to the good Baptists of Texas he will be pointing them in the proper direction. Judge Bell is the man every patriotic and fair minded citizen should support for governor. He will measure fully up to every possible requirement.

Fort Worth will do all that is necessary to obtain that great auditorium and Fat Stock Show building contemplated by J. Ogden Armour, for Fort Worth fully realizes it is one of the big things she needs in her business. This great building will insure the future of the Fat Stock Show, and the Fat Stock Show will in turn insure the future meetings of the Texas stockmen. It is a combination of much moment to Fort Worth.

There is revolt raging down in Central America, and it is an opportune time for Uncle Sam to step in and take the necessary steps to insure those people a stable form of government. It will have to be done sooner or later and the longer it is delayed the more expensive it will become.

In his sickness which has compelled the cancellation of all his dates for campaign speeches, Colonel Tom Campbell has the sympathy of all Texas. He has made a game fight, and it must be very disappointing to face such conditions almost at the close of the campaign.

When Ogden Armour said Fort Worth was to become the second largest live stock market in the country he was dangerously near the truth. The only mistake made was in not placing Fort Worth first. The time is not far distant when Fort Worth will lead all the others.

Come on with that $175,000 building, Mr. Armour. Fort Worth will meet any proper and legitimate demand, for Fort Worth has always been capable of recognizing a good thing when it crosses her vision.

Nomination to office as a Democrat in Texas is nearly always tantamount to election, and the primaries Saturday week will settle the question in many important cases.

The pecan crop in Texas this year promises to be unusually large according to reports from all portions of the state, and the Texas pecan crop brings much money into the state annually.

There should be no let up this time on that Mineral Wells interurban project. We need it in our business.

If Mr. Bailey had had as great an ambition to serve his state and district since he has been in congress as he has had to serve himself, his district and state might be better off. Mr. Bailey has grown very rich since going to congress. He has made a success of his job that far. We can point to nothing that he has done for his state since he has been in the senate.—Wichita Herald.

Senator Bailey will be re-elected by the state legislature next January, but six years later he is going to encounter some very serious opposition. Plans are already being formulated in that direction.

Loraine is located in Mitchell county, about 230 miles west of Fort Worth, and the development of coal mines in that section will mean much for West Texas.

The Texas melon crop is always a big thing and brings joy to the hearts and a feeling of satisfaction under the ribs of millions of people. It was an old West Texan who originated the expression that "there is lots of good vituals in a 5-cent watermelon."

THE REPUBLICAN VIEW

It was cruel in George Gould to let Colonel Tom Campbell's contract as manager of the International & Great Northern railroad expire just after the colonel had declared for Bryan, but it could not be avoided. Still, opportunity has thereby been given Colonel Campbell to make of himself a small martyr in Bryan's behalf, and he is working the gag for all it is worth. And no further evidence is needed to establish the fact that Colonel Tom Campbell is a pretty smooth piece of political lumber.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Gentlemen of the Democratic press in Texas, these men, Bell, Brooks, Colquitt, Campbell, et al, are your candidates, not those of the Republican party. Damn and redamn them to your heart's content, it is all in the Democratic family. But, ye gods and little fishes, what a picture you Democratic papers make of the candidates you have before the state, and whom you have honored with your confidence and support on previous occasions.—San Antonio Light.

THE FITNESS OF BELL

From printer's devil to road overseer, justice of the peace, district attorney and attorney general to the governorship, was the career of James S. Hogg. From ditch digger to county attorney, state senator, district judge, member of congress and attorney general to governor of Texas will be the career of Charles K. Bell. He has been just and true to every confidence reposed in him by the people and just as faithful to their every interest as was the great leader whose loss we all deplore. And an appreciation of this fact accounts for the unswerving loyalty of the people to his cause. The people of Texas are for Bell for governor because they know he is made out of the material of which faithful public servants is composed, and there will be no wavering in the loyalty and appreciation that is to land him in the gubernatorial chair. The people are for Bell and the calamity clackers and pettifogging politicians cannot affect the result.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Judge Bell, both by nature and training, is a man of rugged honesty, inured to hardship and hard work, and is possessed of that caution and solid stability of character that makes him the man fit to be governor of this great state.—San Antonio Express.

OOLOO, OLIVER'S OSTRICH

That Reminds Me

SPIRIT OF 1906

That there is a startling difference between the temper of the rising generation and that of the youth whose young ideas shot up according to the teachings of Mrs. Hannah More and Sanford and Merton has recently been proved by a little 7-year-old girl, who was laboriously spelling her way through a reading lesson.

"Always speak the truth," she read, "and o-bey your parents.

"Be gentle and quiet. Nev-er slam the doors or shout and scream a-bout the house.

"At the ta-ble eat slowly; not in a greed-y man-ner, like a pig."

Suddenly the little girl shut the book with a portentous bang, and announced with firmness and decision:

"I'm not going to let any old Third Reader boss me like that!"

❖ ❖ ❖ ❖

A GENTLE ONE

There is going to be a wedding in Baltimore soon. It happened this way, according to the young lady's very dearest friend, who, of course, wouldn't breathe a word of the world.

They were sitting on a couch, along about 11, when she inquired earnestly:

"George, do you think girls should propose?"

"Of course not!" he said decidedly. "It-er would not be modest, and-er all that kind of thing, you know."

"Well, that is what I always said," she continued. "But papa says that if a girl had been having calls four times a week for two years, and the young man generally dropped around in time for tea on Sunday, and always remembered where the box of cigars was kept, and acted so rudely if he happened to find another man at the house that the other one never came again, and had about stopped bringing the girl candy or flowers, and taking her to the theater occasionally—well, papa says he believes in girls being modest and all that, but that if such a condition should ever exist, he wouldn't blame the girl for at least a gentle hint."

Half an hour later George was measuring the size of her ring finger.

THE BURDEN BEARERS

Say, growler, with the loaded hod,
You think you carry weight
Enough to crush you to the earth,
And curse the cruel fate
That puts the heavy load on you
While other men go free
Of all the burdens that you bear—
As far as you can see.

You think because a man is rich
And does not lug a hod,
That he has nothing else to do
But live and loaf and nod,
And wear fine clothes and eat fine food,
And whoop it up for fair—
Well, you don't know a little bit
About a rich man's care.

Look at the wrinkles in his face,
And note those tired eyes,
And see him turn away from food
That you would think a prize;
And see the marks of age on youth
The gray hair on his head—
You lay your burden down at night,
He carries his to bed.

Say, growler, would you like to sleep
With that hard hod of yours,
And have it scrape you down the back
And spoil your soothing snores?
And give you dreams to make the night
A wretchedness that brought
You to your morning work again,
An old man overwrought?

Your load is heavy, none denies;
Your days are hard and long,
And labor in excess, no doubt,
Seems little short of wrong;
But wealth is not a cure for that,
Whatever it may do—
Thank God you do not have to take
Your hod to bed with you.

ROAD WILL USE ANOTHER TRAIN

Missouri, Kansas and Texas Business Increasing

The Missouri, Kansas & Texas railway finds its Texas business has so grown and is growing, that another through train is necessary or will be soon. Therefore, the company is considering the advisability of putting on another train to relieve the Flyer of some of its work and shorten the time of the new trains by running them through San Marcos and Austin, instead of detouring via Smithville, as has been the rule, and until the arrangement was made with the International.

Considerable time can be saved by the use of the cutoff and if that is used for the fast trains they can make the run through from San Antonio to Fort Worth in about nine hours, maybe less.

The time by way of Smithville is about eleven hours or more. If the speed that is safe is adopted and the trains run through by way of Austin, the time to St. Louis would be about twenty-two hours.

A suggestion is that the fast train leave San Antonio at noon. That train could be in Fort Worth by 8 or 9 p. m., and in St. Louis about the middle of the next afternoon, reaching Kansas City a few hours earlier.

The growth of the business between Texas cities and Kansas City and St. Louis warrants the service. This service, if adopted, would include Galveston, Houston and San Antonio, as well as the important intermediate points in its benefits.

WORK TRAIN WRECKED

Conductor and Fireman Hurt on Texas and Pacific

Monday afternoon about 3:30 o'clock or a little later a work train on the Texas and Pacific, about a mile east of the city, was derailed and the conductor and fireman injured. The accident took place about a mile east of the city, just opposite Stop 1 on the Interurban. An Interurban car passing at the time brought news of the accident to the city.

Conductor S. N. Anderson had two ribs broken and Fireman E. W. Henderson was badly bruised. The engine, when it went off, partly turned over and that and the jar of the sudden stoppage of the train caused the two men to be hurt. Both of the men were brought to the city for surgical attendance.

Missouri Traffic Agent Finds Many Opportunities

H. B. Kooser, with headquarters at Dallas, the general agent of the freight traffic department of the Iron Mountain and the Missouri Pacific systems, is in the city. He left Dallas Tuesday morning and is looking over this part of the territory he has in a way, under his control. Mr. Kooser has had no previous residence in Texas, and yet, though he has been here but a few weeks, he has come, as he said today, to realize that it needs a few years study to know all about Texas. He is devoting all of the time he can to the study. He is much impressed with the business possibilities of Texas and made wondering comment on the great amount and the high character of the improvements visible even to the casual observer in Fort Worth. He thought the character of the buildings, erected and now being constructed, a credit to any place and many of them, would be of distinction in cities of much larger size.

The attendance was slim and the business done about as slim. The main points to be considered were the holiday rates, and the interchangeable excess baggage books, to be issued in conformity with the interchangeable mileage books. These questions were referred to a meeting of the same associations to be held at Eureka Springs, Ark., early in October when, it is hoped, the attendance of the passenger agents will be so large these questions can be settled.

He is back in Texas simply on a personal trip to mix with his old-time friends. His sojourn in the north has benefited him physically and he shows it.

"The country, commercially," said he, "is in better fix than it has ever been and there are evidences everywhere that the present prosperity will continue indefinitely.

NEW BUILDINGS SHOW HOW FT. WORTH GROWS

Plastering will be started on the first floor of the new building for the medical department of Fort Worth university. The lathers are busy there now and are making good headway. The plumbers are in control of the upper floors and will have to complete their work before the lathers can get in.

Architect L. B. Weinman has secured a permit to build a two-story brick store building on Thirteenth street, between Throckmorton and Jennings avenue. His lot is No. 7 in block U, Daggett's addition. The building will contain twelve rooms.

Workmen on the old medical school building at Rusk and Seventh streets are putting up the partitions on the first floor and placing supports for the upper floors. August Miels is the contractor on this job, which includes the addition of two stories to the old walls, making it a four-story structure.

Ed Seibold, the owner of the property is having it improved for hotel purposes and when completed it will be used as an annex to the Worth hotel.

The plasterers are nearly through with their work on the walls of the new quarters of the Farmers & Mechanics' bank in the Hoxie building and the decorators have begun frescoing. The ceiling is being finished in very ornate style and the rooms will be among the most handsome banking rooms in the South.

The fourth story walls are nearly completed on the addition to the Burton-Peel building. This job is being pushed, as the Burton-Peel Company is anxious to get into the new floors, and with good weather the contractor, Wilson Bros., will have the outer walls completed in two weeks.

The rooms of the Traders' National bank in the new Trammell building on Houston streets, between Seventh and Eighth streets, are rapidly being put in readiness for occupancy. The tile floor is being laid at the entrance and most of the fixtures are in place. Decorators are at work on the interior walls.

John F. Teddly has secured a building permit to erect a five-room dwelling on lots 12 and 13, block 3, Grandview addition, to cost $1,600.

LUMBERMEN DENY TRUST

Dealers Resent Attack That They Caused Raise in Prices

Special to The Telegram.

DENVER, Col., July 17.—At a meeting this week here of the Colorado and Wyoming Lumber Dealers' Association, there was a warm discussion of the attack recently made upon the association that it was in a trust and that it was responsible for the high price of lumber being charged all over Colorado and Wyoming.

Officers of the association denied that it was in any way connected with the trust. They admit, however, that it is their rule to sell to retail dealers and not to consumers.

VALUABLE BREED OF CATTLE FOUND

Cross Resembles Buffalo in Many Respects

Special to The Telegram.

DENVER, Colo., July 17.—The creation of an entirely new breed of cattle, with the primary object of securing an animal with a coat and hide closely resembling that of a buffalo, is being attempted by Colonel J. L. Torrey of Rough Rider fame, a resident of Meeteetse, Wyo.

Colonel Torrey claims to have discovered a cross producing such an animal, and in fact fifteen head of the new breed—called "Bufftory"—may be seen at the colonel's ranch at Embar, Wyo. He has been quietly experimenting on the propagation of the species for several years at the Embar ranch and at his cattle feeding ranch at Bassett, Neb. To secure the new breed of cattle Colonel Torrey has crossed Polled-Angus with Shorthorns, a large percentage of the offspring being of a dull brown color, with a hide resembling that of the buffalo.

Calves Same Color

Five of the fifteen "Bufftory" breed have recently had calves at the Embar ranch and every calf is the exact color of its mother—proof to Colonel Torrey that within a few years he will have a herd of animals not only the equal of others for beef but the hides of which will bring him twice the amount received for the beef. Colonel Torrey believes that he has made a very important discovery in the stock industry—the breeding of "Bufftory" cattle exclusively.

Cooper's Success in the South

Those who have followed the stories of the remarkable work that L. T. Cooper has been accomplishing with his two new medicines will be interested in the report that comes of his invasion of Nashville, Tenn., after nearly four weeks of phenomenal success in New Orleans.

Since Cooper's arrival in Nashville a few days ago, says a dispatch, the city has been in an uproar of excitement. The newspapers print detailed accounts of his every move, and recent issues contain names of several prominent persons said to have been cured by the use of his preparations.

The cases thus far made public seem to be confined largely to Stomach trouble, although the names of several persons have been mentioned as having received excellent results in cases of Kidney trouble and Rheumatism. One thing that has done much toward creating the present excitement is the theory advanced by Cooper that about fifty per cent of the so-called stomach trouble is due to immense parasites or tape worms and which indeed seems true, if one can judge from the number of cases that are being continually made public.

Reports from New Orleans say that upwards of fifty of these parasites were expelled from the systems of persons who thought themselves suffering from stomach trouble. So far there have been reported seven cases in Nashville, and in almost every instance the patient was unaware of the real cause of the trouble. Mrs. M. Murry, 1605 James street, Nashville, a well known and respected lady, who, according to her story, had been sick for several years and had been using Cooper's Medicines since his arrival in Nashville several days ago, was among those whose names recently appeared in the daily papers. When seen and asked about her experience, Mrs. Murry said: "I had been a victim of stomach trouble for years and doctored in vain. I suffered greatly from an irregular appetite, sometimes not being able to eat at all, and other times not being able to eat enough. I used to feel tired and worn out all the time, lost all ambition. I did not seem to gain any strength or nourishment from what I ate. I was nearly always troubled with constipation and frequently suffered from severe headaches. Sometimes I would have queer dizzy spells and could see dark spots floating before my eyes. After eating I would invariably experience a pain and bloating sensation in my stomach. I had doctored for a long time and have used every remedy I ever heard of without any benefit. When this man Cooper came to Nashville and every one was talking about what his medicines were doing I secured a trial treatment. I had taken only a few doses of the New Discovery medicine when a horrible tape worm passed from my system. Soon I felt better and have improved very rapidly ever since. That is the whole story. Now I am feeling much stronger and better in every way. I eat well and never have headaches any more. I am more than grateful for what Mr. Cooper's wonderful medicine has done for me and I am satisfied that my suffering of all these years was caused by nothing but that awful worm."

Cooper, it will be remembered is the man who created a sensation in St. Louis a short time ago, at which time the newspapers all over the country were full of the reports of his work. The sale of his preparations has reached enormous proportions wherever introduced, and, although he has never visited Fort Worth, it is said at H. T. Pangburn & Co.'s, where the medicines are sold in this city, that the demand for them is startling and that several of our prominent citizens have received great benefit from their use.

ANOTHER ESCAPED PRISONER FOUND

Man Supposed to Be John Butler Convicted in Omaha

John Clark was arrested in Fort Worth under the name of John Butler and after trial and conviction to serve six years in the penitentiary of Texas on the charge of diamond robbery here, escaped jail Oct. 29, 1905. According to a letter received by J. H. Maddox, chief of police, dated Omaha, Neb., July 13, and signed J. J. Donahue, chief of police, the same man was tried and convicted on the charge of diamond robbery in that city June 5 under the name of Jack Jennings and sentenced to serve seven and one-half years in the Nebraska state prison.

Attention was called to the facts related in the letter from the Omaha chief by reason of the publication of the picture of Clark, who was known to the Nebraska authorities.

The Fort Worth jail delivery of Oct. 29, 1905, resulted in the escape of six prisoners, as follows:

Walter McMillan and Joe Wolf, robbery of firearms—Wolf sentenced to forty years, McMillan, forty.

G. W. Callahan, swindling, ten years.

William Oxxe, diamond robery, ten years.

Henry Phillips, being held for trial on the charge of theft of over the value of $50.

John Butler, diamond robbery, six years.

After four months Walter McMillan was arrested in Kansas City and identified by Sheriff John T. Honea. He was returned to Tarrant county jail and is now in the Texas penitentiary.

The others, except John Butler, have never been heard of since their escape. This is the first trace that has been had of Butler.

According to law, Clark, upon the proper identification, can be returned to Texas and made to serve his term when his sentence in Nebraska expires.

POLICE COURT

Four white men and one white boy eleven years of age were gathered together in the prisoner's dock in Fort Worth corporation court Tuesday morning when Assistant Chief Day opened court. Three adult male persons mentioned to the judge that, as a matter of course they had, each one, partaken of stimulants and had felt the effects of their partaking to such an extent that dull care had taken its flight from their simple souls and they had dedicated a wee mite too much of their time to the service of Bacchus. As Bacchus had not been arrested, they each were forced to pay money to the city because of such service and revelings.

Mollie Thompson told the court plainly that she had not disturbed the peace. The court heard testimony about this matter. Mollie also testified, after a bluecoat had explained matters to the satisfaction of the city prosecutor. Mollie remarked that she was not guilty, but the court imposed a fine, to which counsel for the defendant took exception and the same was noted and an appeal taken.

Following the formal closing of the court an informal meeting was held, Judge Prewett presiding and W. J. Estes, assistant city secretary, being guest of honor. Resolutions were then passed, read by Attorney Walter B. Scott, congratulating Mr. Estes upon the ——th anniversary of the occasion of his birth. The resolutions, which were feeling in their references, were adopted by a rousing and rising vote.

COTTON CROP GOOD

Fair Reports Over Tarrant—Denton County Staple Fine.

The general condition of the cotton in Tarrant and in those parts of adjacent counties so near as to be in the Fort Worth territory, is good or fair, and over only a few localities is damage reported, and that is largely from the late hailstorm, which caused so much destruction of glass in this city.

Handley and vicinity cotton suffered much from the hail, but other than that every other part of the county makes a generally satisfactory showing.

Denton makes an even better showing than Tarrant and no damage from hail is reported.

Wise county reports rather poor conditions and the trouble is attributed to the excess of cold washing rains and the unseasonable weather, for cotton growing, that has marked so much of the spring and the very early summer.

Some parts of Johnson county also report bad conditions, but in other parts of the county the crop is above the average.

As a rule the crop is late. To this time practically no damage has been done by insect ravages and while there is plenty of time for that to come, it is not usual for the plant to escape insect injury so generally as it has this season to date.

Both teams played good ball and fine bat work was executed by Pilgrim and Baker for Temple, and Andrews and Honeycutt for Belton.

CANDIDATES NEAR END OF CAMPAIGN

Closing Week's Speeches Begin in Third Ward

The closing week of the county campaign was inaugurated in the Third Ward Monday night, the candidates accepting the hospitality of the Third Ward Club and speaking in the handsome club building that has just been completed there. The crowd that assembled to hear the spellbinders from candidates for constable up to candidates for the legislature, was larger than the hall would hold, a large number being ladies, and outside the building people stood and listened to the speakers.

Speaking did not begin until nearly 9 o'clock and it was midnight before it ended. The chief interest, as has been the case since the campaign began, was centered in the debate between the candidates for county attorney, which was the last number on the program and did not begin until after 11 o'clock, Jordan Cummings leading off. The speeches of both Cummings and McLean were repetitions of their speeches made heretofore with a few exceptions in the speech of Cummings. Among other things, while discussing the anti-trust suits and County Attorney McLean's connection therewith, he charged that the judgment taken against the Cassidy Southwestern Commission Company was antedated to a time prior to the organization of that company so as to bring it under the law that was in force in 1899, which gave prosecuting officers in a case 25 per cent of any fine imposed, while the law in force at the time the judgment was taken gave them nothing, he said.

In reply Mr. McLean did not mention this charge. A great portion of his speech was in the nature of a defense of his action in the anti-trust suits in getting hold of the books of the Live Stock Exchange for the grand jury and afterward turning them over to the assistant attorney general for use in preparing the anti-trust suits.

Both candidates were applauded at times, and there was a perfect storm of it where Cummings, in answer to the question, "When will there be any more screen raids?" asked by a saloon man, said:

"Whenever the law regulating that matter is violated, if I am elected county attorney!"

Both speakers, and all the candidates for that matter, were given the closest attention from the time they opened until they closed; and, notwithstanding the temperature in the hall was fearfully warm, the crowd evidenced great staying qualities and stayed to the finish.

Railroad Man Causes Stir

Some excitement was occasioned during the debate between the candidates for assessor by a railroad man making a charge against one of the candidates that was indignantly repudiated. The candidate had just finished his speech and taken his seat when a railroad workman in the rear end of the hall waved his hat to attract the attention of the chairman of the meeting and said:

"I want to make a statement; that man who spoke last said: 'The railroad vote is no good.'"

"Who makes that charge against me?" said the candidate, springing to his feet. "Show me the man!"

"I make the charge," was the answer.

"Did you hear the words come from my lips? Show me the man that said he heard me make such a remark. I deny it."

There was considerable confusion in the hall for a time, but order was eventually restored and the speaking went on uninterrupted to the end.

Only two legislative candidates spoke at the meeting, W. B. Fitzhugh, candidate for floater, and W. P. Lane, candidate for representative against Clarence E. Stewart. Mr. Stewart and A. J. Raskin were both absent. Mr. Fitzhugh's talk was an outline of his platform and pledges of what he would do, if elected.

READ AND YOU WILL LEARN

That the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice endorse and recommend, in the strongest terms possible, each and every ingredient entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery for the cure of weak stomach, dyspepsia, catarrh of stomach, "liver complaint," torpid liver, or biliousness, chronic bowel affections, and all catarrhal diseases of whatever region, name or nature. It is also a specific remedy for all such chronic or long standing cases of catarrhal affections and their resultants, as bronchial, throat and lung diseases (except consumption) accompanied with severe coughs. It is not so good for acute colds and coughs, but for lingering, or chronic cases it is especially efficacious in producing perfect cures. It contains Black Cherry bark, Golden Seal root, Bloodroot, Stone root, Mandrake root and Queen's root—all of which are highly praised as remedies for all the above mentioned affections by such eminent medical writers and teachers as Prof. Bartholow, of Jefferson Med. College; Prof. Hare, of the Univ. of Pa.; Prof. Finley Ellingwood, M. D., of Bennett Med. College, Chicago; Prof. John King, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. John M. Scudder, M. D., late of Cincinnati; Prof. Edwin M. Hale, M. D., of Hahnemann Med. College, Chicago, and scores of others equally eminent in their several schools of practice.

The "Golden Medical Discovery" is the only medicine put up for sale through druggists for like purposes, that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any number of ordinary testimonials. Open publicity of its formula on the bottle wrapper is the best possible guaranty of its merits. A glance at this published formula will show that "Golden Medical Discovery" contains no poisonous or harmful agents and no alcohol—chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine being used instead. Glycerine is entirely unobjectionable and besides is a most useful ingredient in the cure of all stomach as well as bronchial, throat and lung affections. There is the highest medical authority for its use in all such cases. The "Discovery" is a concentrated glyceric extract of native, medicinal roots and is safe and reliable.

THE TELEGRAM'S DAILY FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL REPORT

NEW YORK STOCKS

Market Continues Healthy with Covering by Shorts Cause of Strength

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, July 17.—Trading on the stock exchange today was along much the same lines as that of yesterday, covering by shorts being the principal feature. Over-night developments were not important and the London market for Americans was heavy, nevertheless the local market lost none of its strength, opening prices being generally fractionally higher. Although a portion of the short interest no doubt got out yesterday, it has not been materially reduced and further covering during the early hours resulted in sending prices above yesterday's high point for the general list before midday. There was but little increase in outside trading, however, and sales to noon were only 281,400 shares.

Trading did not increase during the afternoon, but the market maintained its strength and final figures in most instances were near the best of the day. Barring a few exceptions, however, gains were of small proportions. Of the exceptions the Copper stocks were the most prominent. Anaconda gaining 4¼ and Amalgamated 1⅞ points. Call money rates ranged from 1¾ to 2 per cent.

FARMERS ARE BUSY

Field Work Continues Daily Every Hour That Permits

Special to The Telegram.

WACO, Texas, July 17.—The recent numerous rains, including the one of yesterday, are making it hard on the farmers of the county. Crops are badly in the weeds and every hour that will permit finds then and hired help working like Trojans. A large number of wagons came in from the country Sunday and yesterday and every available negro was transported to the farms. The price charged by these colored people for their services is rather high, but the farmers pay it and seem thankful to secure labor even at advanced wages.

Aside from the weeds and grass, which of course can be gotten rid of, the crops of this county are very promising.

NEW YORK COTTON

News Favors Bears and They Take Opportunity to Sell, Sending Prices Lower.

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The cotton market had an easier tone today, due to realizing by scalping longs, who were rather disappointed over the day's developments. Liverpool prices were fully up to expectations and the market opened unchanged to 3 points higher, heavy buying of July by a local firm being the initial feature. Although bulls claimed that the weather conditions favored their side of the controversy, inasmuch as general showers were again reported, a private report concerning Texas, Indian Territory and Oklahoma conditions, showing favorable progress of the crop, cooled their ardor somewhat and caused selling by local bears, which was well taken at first, but increased after the Giles report, placing the condition at 83.5, a deterioration of only .8 per cent from last month, was issued, this being a distinct disappointment to longs. The weekly weather report was also more favorable than expected and the weight of influences as a whole was too much for the bulls, consequently prices eased off, losing about 9 points by midday.

The market was dull the balance of the session and prices recovered a little of the loss, the close being steady with prices at a net loss of 5 to 8 points. Spot cotton market ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 11c for middling. Sales, 75 bales.

NEW YORK, July 17.—The cotton future market ruled as follows:

New Orleans Cotton

Special to The Telegram.

NEW ORLEANS, July 17.—The upward movement of prices on the local cotton exchange was impeded today by the action of scalping longs, they being disposed to take profits on all hard spots. The news of the day was rather mixed, but probably a little more in favor of the bears than otherwise. Bullish features were, further showers in the belt, with a forecast for more favorable Liverpool advices, and a circular in the morning papers from the bull leader, also in connection with the above, the government weekly report and the Giles report were expected to show unfavorable conditions. At the start the market was stimulated somewhat by the influences above mentioned, but a flattering report in a Texas daily regarding the condition of the Texas, Oklahoma and Indian Territory crops, allayed bullish sentiment somewhat on the new crop months, and receipt of the first shipment of spot cotton from New York amounting to 1,003 bales, presumably for delivery on July contracts, had a slight effect on old crop months.

Opening prices were 4 to 5 points higher for old and 2 points lower to 1 higher for new crop options. The market was dull during the early session and prices displayed a sagging tendency, which was accentuated after the issuance of the Giles and the government report, neither of which was as favorable from a bullish standpoint as anticipated.

Prices eventually recovered a level of 7 to 10 points under the opening figures and the market closed easy, final figures being near the lowest. Spot cotton market ruled quiet, prices being unchanged at 11c for middling. Sales, 900 bales on the spot and 300 f. o. b.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Wheat Prices Slump — Selling By Yesterday's Buyers Causes the Reaction—Other Cereals

Special to The Telegram.

CHICAGO, July 17.—Foreign news again dominated the wheat market, but today's news unlike that of yesterday was rather bearish, Russian weather conditions being reported as better, while Liverpool prices reflected the improvement, losing ½ to ⅝d on the day.

Yesterday's session left the crowd long and the early news imbued them with an eager desire to get out, consequently their unloading weakened the market. Opening prices were ¼ to ⅝c lower, and little support was awarded the market. Liquidation furnished the principal feature although there was some selling. Prices declined steadily, eventually reaching a net loss of 1¼ to 1⅜c. The close was weak with prices near the lowest. Local receipts, 774 cars, against 84 cars this day last year.

Bradstreet's report shows a decrease of 4,377,000 bushels in the world's available supply.

Corn

Corn traders were not active and the market ruled dull, fluctuations being narrow and the close steady with prices showing practically insignificant net losses, except for the July option, which lost ½c. Local receipts 381 cars, against 450 cars this day last year.

Bradstreet's report showed a decrease of 1,333,000 bushels in the world's vailable supply.

Oats

Oats market ruled dull and featureless, commission house trade being about equally divided. Final figures were unchanged to ¼c lower.

Local receipts 163 cars against 225 this day last year.

Bradstreet's report showed a decrease of 421,000 bushels in the world's supply of available.

Provisions

Provision trading was featureless and closing prices were unchanged for pork, 3c lower for lard, and 2c to 3c lower for ribs.

CANDIDATES ARE ON HOME STRETCH

Voters Line Up for Election in Ellis County

Special to The Telegram.

WAXAHACHIE, Texas, July 17.—The county candidates are now on the home stretch. They started out yesterday on their last week's speaking campaign. They began the week at Alma and will wind up in Waxahachie Saturday night. Next week will be devoted to repairing weak places in the fences. The only county contests which are attracting very much interest are the races for sheriff, county clerk and county attorney, and at the head of these is the contest for county attorney. The present incumbent, Mark Smith, is a candidate for his second term, opposed by Captain J. D. McRae.

No Change Expected.

The supporters of the different candidates for governor have about lined up and no material changes will be made between now and the election. The contest in the county is between Campbell and Brooks. Bell and Colquitt were the last to come to the county to speak and their speeches made them many votes.

There are times when we like to meet enthusiastic men—and there are other times when we are just as anxious to get away from them.

CATTLE AND HOGS

Steer Market Active With Undertone of Strength—Hogs Open Steady. Close Weak

Today's cattle market nearly doubled that of Monday by assembling 3,900 head, the half of which were calves.

Steers

Beef steers were more plentiful than on the opening day of the week, and the quality showed marked improvement, the supply having a heavy choice end. The bulk was made up of a medium to good class of killers, with thin steers very scarce. Shippers have doubtless learned after two week's trial that this and off grade steers cannot be sold to advantage on this market.

Demand for good beeves was broad, and the bulk of the supply was taken early at fully steady prices, tops being $4.50, with the bulk of sales at $3.50@4.15.

Sales of steers:

Butcher Stock

Butcher cows came by rail in good numbers and some 250 head were driven in. The quality was about the same as on Monday, with a larger number of good killers. The demand for butcher stuff was strong, particularly in the absence of thin steers, and the supply was quickly absorbed at steady prices. Car lot tops made $2.50, with a few choice cows going higher, but the general run of sales was between $2 and $2.30.

Sales of cows:

LOCAL LIVE STOCK NEWS

IN SANTA ANNA COUNTY

Rhome Shields Reports Good Rainfall in the Santa Anna country

Rhome Shields returned this week from a visit to the Santa Anna country and things are much better now than they were a few weeks ago. Grass is fine and cattle getting along well. Crops are in good condition and cotton is getting along as well as it ever does and no bugs or other truck to hurt it. "I presume," said he, "that the rain that has fallen here reached there since I left, as it came from the west, and reports say that it extended over a big space of country.

BACK FROM CONGRESS

Captain J. B. Mitchell Reports Excellent Meeting

Captain J. B. Mitchell returned from a visit to the Agricultural and Mechanical College during the meeting of the Farmers' Congress. He reports having had a delightful time. "Everything passed off very smoothly," said Captain Mitchell, "and with more ease than heretofore, and with, I expect, more real benefit to those who attended than any one prior to this. It was a real school to those who came to learn and the various associations held continuous meetings and no one interrupted the other. There was no crowding or confusion and it was systematically carried forward by those in charge. Great thanks are due to Professor Harrington, president of the Agricultural and Mechanical College, and his competent corps of assistants, for the preparations made for the entertainment of the guests and the efficient manner in which the program was carried out. Heretofore at these annual meetings the crowds have been so immensely greater than the capacity of the college to entertain that there was much inconvenience. This year by arrangement prior to the meeting it was agreed to furnish the college all the transportation and let it send out invitations in the ratio of the capacity of the college to accommodate. This was done and the result was that instead of 3,000 visitors to accept hospitality that could be furnished six or seven hundred, only enough visitors came to comfortably fill the accommodations.

RAIN IN NEW MEXICO

Good Grass Crop Reported in Portales Region

W. W. Odom, who ranches at Portales, N. M., passed through on his return from Kansas City Monday. "I live near the line of Texas at the point where the Capital Syndicate lands are. We have had ample rain and grass is good with us. Cattle in consequence are doing extremely well and are in good flesh. A good many cattle have been shipped out early to the Kansas pastures, mostly 2-year-olds. The calf crop is not much; never is, as our country has never been noted for large increase crops. Don't know why, but it is so, nevertheless. There are not many horses raised in our section, because there is so much loco grows there. It does not seem to attract cattle to the extent that it does horses; at least they have never taken to it to the extent the latter have. The western part of the county, which, by the way, is a new county and is named Roosevelt—contains several large sheep ranches and a big lot of sheep are raised. Lands for farming purposes are selling for from $5 to $12 per acre raw, and good demand at those figures. The Capital Syndicate sold some of the land held by it at $10 to actual settlers."

FELL FROM CAR

Boy Killed by Falling From Window of Train

Special to The Telegram.

BASTROP, Texas, July 17.—Sunday morning T. T. Lynch, manager of the water and light plant here, left on a Katy excursion train with his two children, boy and girl, aged 11 and 8, respectively, for Galveston. On reaching Smithville the father was aroused from sleep and missed his son.

The child could not be found. About 10 o'clock Monday morning he was advised that the dead body of a child had been found near the railroad track sixteen miles south of Houston, which fitted the description of his missing son.

The body was positively identified as the missing boy. The body was bruised only about the head and face, and the only theory that can be advanced as to his death is that the child either fell from a window or was thrown from a platform.

QUARREL MAY BE FATAL

One Man Has Bullet Wound and Another Skull Fractured

Special to The Telegram.

SHERMAN, Texas, July 17.—As the result of a quarrel Sunday, Henry Mauldin, aged 32 years, and Tom Sartin, aged about 60 years, both of Whitemound, a village twelve miles southeast of Sherman, are in a dying condition. Mauldin was shot through the abdomen with a 45-caliber pistol, which he wrested from Sartin's hand after the bullet had entered his abdomen and inflicted upon Sartin injuries that physicians say may prove fatal. The trouble arose over a very trivial matter.

Mauldin was brought to Sherman and placed in a sanitarium. His abdomen, which is filled with blood, will be opened and every effort to save his life will be made. Sartin is at his hime in Whitemound in an unconscious condition. His right side is paralyzed and hs physician says that his skull has probably been fractured. The desperate condition of both men has made it unnecessary to take either of them into custody.

The vitality of Mauldin in inflicting, after he had been shot, such serious injuries upon Sartin is considered remarkable. Mauldin has a wife and Sartin has a wife and several children.

PANTHERS WIN BY SCORE OF 3-2

Merkel Keeps Hits of Visitors Down to 5

The Fort Worth Panthers won from Waco Monday by the score of 3 to 2. Merkel and Hiatt were on the firing line and they both worked well, the hits being 5 to 7 in favor of Merkel, the Frisco kid.

Waco made the first run in the second. It was the result of a base on balls, an error and a hit by Bero. Fort Worth tied the score in her half of this inning. It was the result of a base on balls, an error, a sacrifice hit, a stolen base and a long fly to center, hit by Clayton. Wilson made the tally.

The second run of the game was made in the fifth, after two men were out and nobody on bases. Boles' double to right and Bero's error were responsible for the run.

Waco's second run came in the sixth. A base on balls, a stolen base by Bero and a hit by Doyle did the work for Waco.

Waco came near breaking the game up in the eighth, only the good work of Cavander in left field saving the score and probably the game.

Fort Worth went the Navigators one better in this inning. She broke up the game. An error by Stovall, a stolen base by Clayton and a hit by Erwin were responsible for the score and the game. The score:

BAD COMPLEXIONS

AND THE BEST REMEDY FOR NINE CASES OUT OF TEN.

Depraved Blood Causes Pimples and Boils—Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Make New Blood and Cure Follows.

"I abused my stomach, my blood got out of order and then my face broke out with pimples and boils," says T. E. Robertson, of 197 Addison street, Washington, Pa. "This was over two years ago. My stomach was in bad shape. After eating I would have to rest awhile or I would suffer the most severe pains in my stomach. On arising I would often be so dizzy that I could hardly stand up. The slightest exertion would start my back aching so that I often had to sit down and rest awhile. At times I experienced a pain around the heart which alarmed me but which I suppose came from my stomach trouble.

"I began to break out on the face with pimples and later with boils which confined me to the house a week or more at a time. One day I saw Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People advertised in a pamphlet which was left at the door and I thought I would give them a trial. I took several boxes of the pills before all the pimples and boils left me, but I am now glad to say that my blood is good. I do not have any eruptions and I no longer have the head and stomach troubles I have described. I am very grateful for what Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have done for me and I have recommended them and always will advise those who are suffering from bad blood or stomach trouble to try them."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are guaranteed to be safe and harmless to the most delicate constitution. They contain no morphine, opiate, narcotic, nor anything to cause a drug habit. They do not act on the bowels but they actually make new blood and strengthen the nerves. If you want good health you must have good blood. Bad blood is the root of most common diseases like anaemia, rheumatism, sciatica, neuralgia, St. Vitus' dance, nervousness, indigestion, debility, general weakness, paralysis, locomotor ataxia and the special ailments that only women-folk know.

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or sent, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c. per box, 6 boxes for $2.50, by the Dr. Williams Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

BARBERS AGREE TO COMPROMISE

Hours Shorter, But Shops Remain Open

A well-attended meeting of the union barbers of the city was held in the basement of the Wheat building Monday evening and the main principle of the compromise proposition of the employers accepted.

C. W. Woodman, general organizer of the American Federation of Labor, looked after the interests of the journeymen barbers, and the proceedings were entirely harmonious.

The compromise offered by the employers was set forth in an article and an advertisement in the last Sunday issue of The Telegram. To recapitulate: The employing barbers offer their men the shift system, that is to say, they will agree that some of the men shall get off at 7 o'clock instead of all at 8, as is now the rule; the proposition is, that in shops where there are two chairs, the employer may retain one man during the hour from 7 to 8 p. m., and where there are four chairs, or more, the employer may keep two men on duty and, in each and every instance the employers may do journeymen's work themselves, making a possibility of two men in the two-chair shops and the possibility of three men in the larger shops, with four or more chairs, during the hour asked for by some of the journeymen; that is from 7 to 8 in the evening.

At the meeting Monday evening this idea was accepted.

The position of the men is that their hours are long and confining, and they need the additional time for rest and recreation.

Will Try Experiment

The employers hold that they are justified in keeping the shops open for the reason that with many of the better class or 15-cent shops, as they are sometimes called, the busiest hour of the day is between the hours named. They agree to try what is with them the experiment of earlier closing, in part, for three months, to educate their customers to the 7 o'clock closing hour and, if it is successful, they will interpose no objections to the adoption of that hour generally. One objection to the early closing is that a goodly proportion of the custom they get in the early evening is transient and that will all be lost by the earlier closing. But they are very willing to make the experiment and will test it fairly.

It is believed the compromise will be generally accepted by all, or most of the union shops.

CONCRETE SLAB HITS CARPENTER

Workman at St. Ignatius Building Painfully Injured

While N. E. Harlan, a carpenter, 37 years of age, was working at the casement of a first-floor window in the St. Ignatius auditorium and dormitory at 9 o'clock Tuesday morning, a portion of concrete used in the walls fell from the top of the third story, narrowly missing the workman's head, striking him a glancing blow on the left shoulder and breaking the shoulder blade. Assisted by Policeman Denny Loyd, the man walked from the building to the police emergency hospital, where he received medical attention. His injury will not prove fatal.

The new building of the academy is being erected at the southeast corner of the old building, and the walls are already up. Workmen were busy all over the structure. Harlan was working on a platform about ten feet in height. He was engaged in putting in a window casing, and had no warning of the fall of a piece of concrete that had become detached from the wall directly above the point where he was working. The piece of concrete was some three feet long and a foot in thickness.

Glancing from the shoulder of the man, who fell to the ground, stunned by the blow, the piece of concrete smashed the platform, on which Harlan had been standing at work, as if it had been an egg shell.

After the dressing of the wound, Harlan was sent to the infirmary, where he will probably remain for several weeks. Harlan rooms at 911 Stella street.

YOUNG MEN PLAN REPUBLICAN CLUB

To Have Social and Political Purposes

In an effort to help bring out the republican vote in Tarrant county, steps are being taken by a number of young men in the city looking toward organization of a Young Men's Republican Club. The club is to be composed entirely of young men, acting in conjunction with the Roosevelt Central Republican Club.

Those interested in the new movement claim there are at least several hundred young men in Fort Worth who would vote the republican ticket, at least 100 of these being counted upon to come from the employe force at the packing houses. It is proposed that the club be social as well as political. Plans of similar northern organization will form the foundation of the proposed club.

A meeting is to be called in a few days for the purposes of organization. Paul Hurley or Francis Buckeridge have the matter in charge. The former can be reached at phone 3652 and the later at phone 3208.

TO THE TELEGRAM

To The Telegram.

An article appeared in a Fort Worth paper the Fourth of July last headed: "Tyler's Lake Sold," stating on hearsay that more than one had sunk to meet their death by drowning in the lake. The truth is no one was ever drowned in Tyler lake. The article further states: "The lake was a paying proposition for many years, but when other resorts were established the competition became too intense and hence the sale." That is the tax sale. How is it that when on that same sale day for delinquent taxes a large amount of property was sold for taxes the paper only publishes the sale of Tyler lake?

I wish to say that this sale was not on account of the lack of funds with which to pay the taxes, but that the failure to pay the same was purely from neglect, which was no doubt the case in many of the other sales. The article further shows that other lakes and parks remote from the city are paying investments. Then why should not Tyler's lake be a paying investment when it is only a short distance from the center of the city? A street car line is being operated within two and a half blocks of the park. All that is needed is a car line to run to the lake, which is expected before many months roll around. The article above referred to is a great injustice to the owner of Tyler's lake and park in conveying the idea to the public that they were not able to pay their taxes "and hence the sale." While the owners of the property are nonresidents of Texas, they are entitled to the same consideration as those residing within its borders. They should not be branded with insolvency in the absence of facts to justify the same. The owners of real estate sold for taxes have two years to redeem the same and the owners of this property are prepared to redeem the same when they may see fit. J. L. TYLER, Agent of Owners.

FENCIBLES NO MORE

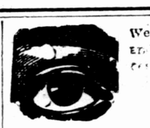

Military Company Mustered in as D, First Regiment

The Fort Worth Fencibles are no more, officially. The new designation of the company is now Company D, First regiment of the Texas National Guard.

Monday night, in the armory of the company at the court house, the Fencibles assembled and were mustered in by Major C. O. Elliott, who is the commander of the battalion of the First regiment.

The new assignment makes Company D a part of the regiment of which Colonel Cecil A. Lyon is the commander. Major Elliott is the officer in charge of the first battalion of this regiment.

The company will have four or five drills a week from now on, and Aug. 5 will go to Austin for the annual encampment, which will be one of the most important ever held in the state. Many regular troops will be present for the maneuvers, which will extend over a period of two weeks.
