Gov. Shivers Not Planning To Testify

EDINBURG (AP) — Gov. Shivers has declined to testify before a grand jury due to probe the now-disbanded Rio Grande Democratic Club, Dist. Atty. Jim Bates said yesterday.

Bates received a letter from Shivers which said "It does not appear that any useful purpose would be served."

The governor, in a speech made April 30 in Fort Worth, asked Atty. Gen. John Ben Shepperd to investigate contributions made to the club which he said had been made by the State Federation of Labor, the CIO-UAW and the American GI Forum.

The club said the contributions were for a poll tax drive in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

Shepperd said he was sending an investigator to the valley to determine if any state or federal laws on contributions by labor unions and other organizations had been violated.

Bates said he does not plan to have Shivers subpoenaed but would present Shivers' reply to the grand jury for action.

The Rio Grande Democratic Club inquiry was carried on by the state and Hidalgo County and were requested by both Shivers and McAllen attorney R. P. Sanchez.

Sanchez, former chairman of the steering committee of the Democratic Club, asked Shepperd to join with Bates in the investigation because Sanchez wanted to know how Shivers got the copies of the deposits, Sanchez said. Shiver sdisplayed reproduced copies of three deposit slips during his Fort Worth speech.

Miss Mangum Pleads Guilty

NORFOLK, Va. (AP) — Accused embezzler Minnie Mangum pleaded innocent today to the first of a series of indictments involving her three million dollars that wrecked the Commonwealth Building & Loan Assn.

The 52-year-old spinster made her plea in a low voice in a crowded courtroom to the count that she gave false information about the assets of the firm to the Virginia Corporation Commission. The face of the plump woman once known for her charity and kindness was almost devoid of expression.

Miss Mangum wore a navy blue dress trimmed in white at the neck and sleeves, a small navy blue straw hat and small white pearl earrings.

Miss Mangum is charged with stealing more money than any other woman in U.S. history.

"But she can remember things and people I have long forgotten," said Mrs. Fannie Miller, a 71-year-old daughter with whom she lives at Frankford, Mo.

At Least 15 Die In Canadian Air Crash

OTTAWA (AP)—A jet fighter rocketed from 33,000 feet into a rest home for Roman Catholic nuns last night, killing 15 persons.

Most of the victims were aged and bedridden nuns. They perished in an inferno lit by the Royal Canadian Air Force CF100 jet.

The plane smashed like a bomb into the three-story brick convalescen thome of the Grey Nuns of the Cross, alongside the Ottawa River, seven miles east of Ottawa.

The bodies of three nuns and a priest had been recovered from the smouldering debris early today.

Sister Marie Edmond, assistant general of the order, said there were 36 sisters in the convent.

She said 8 were missing and presumed dead. Twenty-two other nuns, including three injured, escaped.

Also missing and presumed dead are the two-man crew of the plane and a woman cook employed at the home.

The tragedy was the worst of its kind in Canada. An RCAF bomber crashed into a Montreal tenement district in 1944, killing 16 persons.

Within seconds after the jet hit, the convent was a pyre. The explosion was heard 15 miles away.

Said one eyewitness:

"They never had a chance."

"The whole building seemed to burst into flames at once," said Sister Louise Auguste, a survivor.

"It was horrible. I think everyone on the top floor must have been burned. Many on the ground floor also were unable to get out. It happened so fast . . . The whole building seemed to go up like a torch."

Screams of the trapped shrilled from the blazing building. Some of the nuns fought their way through flames to safety.

At least one jumped. Rescuers saved others.

The two airmen were returning to the Ottawa's Uplands Airport after identifying an unknown aircraft. There was no indication what caused the crash.

Hours after the crash, coal stored in the convent basement still fed the fire. Fire-blackened walls and a 40-foot chimney remained standing. A warped steel fire escape clung crazily to one wall.

The convent, a rest home of the order of the Grey Nuns of the Cross, was located on the Ottawa River. It was valued at a million dallars.

Firemen rushed to the blazing building from nearby communities, the air force base and Ottawa. There was little they could do.

Crowds clogged the roads. Police kept thousands of onlookers a safe distance from the blaze.

Man's Antics Are Too Much

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mrs. Phyllis C. Brumfield testified in a divorce hearing that her husband had a genius IQ, but he "was always performing juvenile antics," such as crawling all over his convertible while it was in motion.

This, the 21-year-old wife told Superior Judge A. A. Scott yesterday, constituted cruelty, and her counsel agreed.

"When we'd go out in the car I'd be driving," said the pretty wife, "and he'd be climbing and crawling all over the convertible —out on the hood, over the windshield, behind the seat, making remarks at passers-by. It made me nervous."

She added that John R. Brumfield, also 21, wouldn't work, wouldn't establish a home, had no interest in their 20-month-old son Jonathan.

Mrs. Brumfield got the divorce decree and custody of Jonathan.

Brumfield is supervisor of a nut and bolt factory.

Bond Issue Fails

TEXARKANA, Tex. (AP)—Voters rejected 1,329 to 1,150 yesterday a $3,849,000 bond issue for street improvements.

Korean Vote Won'By Rhee

SEOUL, Korea (AP) — Syngman Rhee won his expected third term as South Korea's president today but strong opposition cut his vote to only about 55 per cent of the total ballots cast.

The 81-year-old conservative, South Korea's only president since the republic was established in 1948, polled 72.6 per cent of the total vote in the 1952 election.

In the separate vice presidential ballots Rhee's running mate, Lee Ki Poong, was trailing Democratic party candidate Chang Myun, a former ambassador to the United States. However, Lee was still given a good hance to pull ahead in the rural counting.

Because of Rhee's advanced age many politicos think the next vice president may well turn out to be the old man's presidential heir.

Rhee piled up a big lead in the country districts. In the big cities of Seoul and Taegu he trailed the combined total of his opponents—a dead man and a former Communist—and ran a poor second in the capital.

With nearly 95 per cent of the ballots from yesterday's election counted, unofficial returns from the national police gave Rhee 4,504,725. His living opponent on the three-man ballot, reformed Communist Cho Bong Am, polled 1,949,013.

Patrick Henry Shinicky, Democratic party candidate who died of a cerebral hemorrage May 5, was the choice on most of the 1,645,456 ballots declared invalid. Votes for Shinicky were automatically thrown out.

An estimated 8,600,000 voters — 90 per cent of those registered — went to the polls in South Korea's second national presidential election. Rhee, a fiery old patriot who crusaded for years abroad for his country's independence from Japan, was elected by the National assembly for his initial four-year term in 1948.

Counting of the vice presidential vote, cast on a separate ballot, lagged far behind the presidential. With more than 40 per cent tallied, Chang was ahead with 1,753,284 and Lee was in second place with 1,425,793. Four other candidates trailed behind, but no majority is necessary and the job goes to the high man.

The million-plus vote for the dead Shinicky and Chang's strong showing were interpreted as expression both of sentiment over the presidential candidate's death and support for the Democrats' "time for a change" appeal.

Otherwise Rhee's Liberals and the Democrats campaigned on similar conservative platforms. The Progressives urged more spending of foreign aid on economic rehabilitation and less on arms.

The opposition charged police intimidation during the campaign and irregularities at the polls and in vote counting. Speoksmen for Rhee's Liberal party government denied the charges or said they had no information about them.

Dallas Talk Is Scheduled By Goldwater

DALLAS (AP)—Sen. Barry Goldwater (R-Ariz), who will speak here tonight at a $100-a-plate fund raising dinner, said yesterday Sen. Lyndon Johnson doesn't have a chance of getting the Democratic nomination.

"I don't think Sen. Johnson, or any other Southerner, has a chance for the Democratic presidential nomination by a convention that is controlled by Harry Truman, the Americans for Democratic Action and Walter Reuther," he said. Reuther is head of the United Auto Workers Union.

"Southerners must ultimately realize—and the sooner the better —that their Democratic party is controlled by Northern liberals, with no sympathy for either the south or the principle of states' rights," he said.

"The Republican party is much more sympathetic to states' rights."

Reminded that the Supreme Court's recent rulings against states' rights principles occurred during a Republican administration, he said:

"When a man becomes a Supreme Court justice, he is supposed to cast aside party. And besides, most of the men now on the Supreme Court were Democratic appointees."

Woman Freed In Shooting

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Mrs. June Joy Milton, attractive 26-year-old divorcee, was acquitted of murder by reason of insanity in the slaying of her politician friend, 59-year-old Walter A. Siebert.

Circuit Judge Raymond E. LaDriere told the jurors last night their verdict was "the only one possible under the circumstances." The judge is to issue an order committing her to the St. Louis State Hospital. She must remain there until declared sane.

Her attorney, Merle Silverstein, didn't challenge the state's evidence, telling the jury he couldn't do so because he was unable to obtain any coherent information from his client.

Siebert, a widower, was fatally shot in his bed and the bed was set afire at his suburban Webster Gorves home last Feb. 12.

Huff was taken to Cogdell Memorial Hospital by Bell ambulance. He was being treated there for a broken leg.

State Polio Aid

DALLAS (AP)—The National Polio Foundation said today more than $100,000 had been distributed in Texas during the first four months of 1956 to supplement local funds in caring for polio victims. The foundation reported the number of Texas cases May 5 totaled 249, compared to 188 last year.

Farm Issue Is Watched

OMAHA (AP)—President Eisenhower outscored Sen. Kefauver (D-Tenn) nearly 2-1 yesterday on the basis of still incomplete returns from a Nebraska presidential preference primary election.

It was about par for Nebraska's political course, and Democrats looking for signs of a rural revolt against administration farm policies got little cause for encouragement here.

Neither the Republican chief executive nor the Tennessee Democrat was opposed on his party's ballot. Write-ins were permitted, but their numbers proved inconsequential.

Unoffical returns from 1,709 of 2,127 precincts gave Eisenhower 76,665, Kefauver 41,296.

In the 1952 Nebraska primary Republican balloters outnumbered Democrats about 65-35. Two years ago the GOP margin swelled to 67-33.

Write-ins for Adlai Stevenson and Averell Harriman siphoned some votes from Kefauver but only a sprinkling of write-ins showed up on the Republican side.

Most observers figured that farmer discontent, if strong enough in the state, might show in a switch from Republican to Democratic ballots. Party line crossing at the polling place was permissable in all except the 13 cities of 7,000 or more.

No campaign to encourage ballot switching ever developed, however, and leaders of both parties, including Kefauver's backers, had predicted the outcome would signify little.

Results of the presidential preference voting are not binding on the 18 Republican and 12 Democratic national convention delegates chosen yesterday. Delegate candidates run unpledged but nearly all the Republican bidders had expressed themselves for Eisenhower. Kefauver was the frontrunner among Democratic candidates expressing a preference.

Besides casting presidential and delegate votes, Nebraskans also nominated candidates for all statehouse posts from governor on down, four seats in the U.S. House of Representatives, the Legislature and a host of lesser offices.

Every major elective officer in the state is held by a Republican and virtually every incumbent appeared to have won renomination.

Gov. Victor Anderson easily staved off the bid of Edwin L. Hart, a Lincoln businessman new to competitive politics. Frank Sorrell, a Syracuse auctioneer and twice a Democratic nominee for governor, apparently won the right to oppose Gov. Anderson in the fall.

State Convention Plans Being Made

By The Associated Press

Candidates were busy stumping this midweek while in Dallas preparations were made for the state Democratic convention Tuesday.

Fireworks at the convention are due to start Monday at 11 a.m. when the State Executive Committee's subcommittee on credentials starts hearing rival county delegations.

Although supporters of Sen. Lyndon Johnson for state delegation leader and favorite son nomination will be clearly in control as result of sweeping victories in the precinct and county conventions, friends of Gov. Shivers still dominate the executive committee.

Officials at the state Democratic headquarters in Austin said rival delegations favoring Johnson and those favoring Shivers for the job of leading the Texas delegation to the national convention would be heard Monday. It was not known how many contests there would be.

The credentials subcommittee will prepare a temporary roll of delegates and hear the contests and make recommendations to the committee. The final say on who may be seated will be up to the convention itself.

Speaker Sam Rayburn, who helped guide the Johnson forces to victory over Shivers, will be in Dallas for a Democratic rally Monday night. Johnson has said he plans to attend the state convention.

Candidates were busy.

W. Lee O'Daniel, who at 66 is seeking to return to Austin as governor, spoke at Sherman, Denison and McKinney Tuesday and moved moved into Texarkana Wednesday. Ralph Yarborough, another candidate for governor, spent Tuesday in Denton and met with his backers in Dallas Wednesday.

Three candidates for lieutenant governor were active. John Smith of Lubbock opened his campaign in a statewide radio and TV address. C. T. Johnson of Austin spoke at Yoakum. Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr. of Paris spoke at Corpus Christi.

From his red firetruck O'Daniel lashed at his opponents for what he called "pussyfooting on the segregation question." He repeated his claim made at his Waco opening that "blood will run in the streets" of Texas cities and towns if de-segregation is enforced.

Old Veteran Lives It Up

DE WITT, Ark. (AP) — A 104-year-old bridegroom — who says he fought Yankee soldiers when he was in his teens — knows how to keep the peace at home.

"I don't mind my wife's business," said J. D. Manis. "And I always try to buy what she wants."

He and Mrs. Willie Manis celebrated their first anniversary last month.

Manis says he is "enjoying every minute of marriage" — just as he did with his first two wives.

Manis, who calls himself a Confederate veteran, is a former coal miner. Mrs. Manis used to work on a farm near here. Gardening takes up most of the time at their home.

Manis, unusually active for his age, still has 11 natural teeth. Never a drinker, he stopped smoking cigarettes and chewing tobacco about 55 years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Manis have known each other since 1930. They dated five months before Manis proposed. Both of Manis' former wives are dead. The second died about four years ago.

Red Military Cut Challenges Western Power's Leadership

By JOHN M. HIGHTOWER

WASHINGTON (AP)—Russia's announced decision to cut its military manpower by about 25 per cent has challenged U. S. leadership of the free world at several critical points:

1. It has increased the difficulties of maintaining Western military strength. Although such a cutback is not likely to affect Russia's capacity for atomic war, the move will almost certainly be regarded in many countries as evidence of peaceful Soviet intentions lessening Western defense needs.

2. It generates new pressure on the Eisenhower administration to regain the initiative from the Russians through some bold new move. Not all these pressures come from Democratic critics; there apparently is some such concern inside the administration.

3. The problem of keeping cold war neutrals alert to the dangers of expanding Soviet influence through political and economic infiltration is intensified.

4. The ground seems to have been cut from under one of this country's strategies for pressuring Russia to agree to the reunification fo Germany, and the solution of that outstanding East-West problem therefore becomes more difficult.

Concern over these problems apparently motivated the skeptical line taken by administration officials yesterday in discussing Moscow's announcement Monday that military personnel would be reduced by 1,200,000 men. The Soviets never have published figures on their mobilized strength. Western estimates put the figure at about 4½ million.

Secretary of State Dulles told a news conference the proposed cut could not be verified. He summed up his attitude this way:

"I'm merely warning that I believe what has happened can be explained by economic factors and the desire of the Soviet rulers to strengthen their economy in terms of agriculture and industry—perhaps to have more people in the factories which produce modern weapons rather than to have them standing around doing guard duty or training duty in the army."

Secretary of Defense Wilson said at a later session with newsmen the move seemed to be a "step in the right direction" but that it did not alter materially Russia's real military power.

Wilson said he would not say that the Moscow announcement "means nothing," but that it does not appear to "justify any appreciable change in our present military strength" or in worldwide U. S. military alliances.

British Communist Party Admits Faults

LONDON (AP)—Britain's Communist party has made an admission of mistakes, including attacks on Yugoslav Communist leaders.

Harry Pollitt, 65, staunch Stalin supporter, resigned last week as general secretary of the British Communist party. John Gollan, 45, promoter of Communist youth units, replaced him.

Cool Front Blows Itself Out In Gulf

A cool front that brought hail, torrential downpours and high winds to Texas earlier in the week, had blown itself out into the Gulf by early Wednesday.

Oil Report Is Released

AUSTIN (AP) — Purchasers' oil nominations, the barometer of market demand for Texas crude, are 26,070 barrels per day less for June than for May, the Railroad Commission said yesterday.

The nominations total is 2,869,502 barrels daily.

The decline indicated a probable cut in allowable production for the fourth consecutive month. The commission holds its proration hearing and issues its June order Friday.

Fifteen statewide producing days, one less than for May, are expected for the shorter month of June although some purchasers are nominating only on a 14-day basis. Fifteen days of flow would mean a cutback of 70,000 barrels.

The allowable last Saturday was 3,336,255 barrels a day. Underproduction is averaging about 12.8 per cent, which would give actual production of 2,909,215 barrels. The normal buildup from allowables for new wells is about 10,000 barrels a day per week.

Archbishop Gives Views On Divorce

LONDON (AP)—The Archbishop of Canterbury, an outspoken opponent of divorce, has warned Anglican Church leaders against a proposed ban on church marriage of a divorced person whose former spouse is still alive.

The archbishop, Dr. Geoffrey Fisher, told the church's top legislative body it should continue to express its disapproval of such marriages by resolution rather than outright ban.

He said Parliament might challenge the state-supported church in a ban that went beyond the civil law.

He added that some clergy value their liberty under civil law to remarry such divorced persons.

3 Indicted On Thefts

BALLINGER (AP)—Three persons were indicted for theft of oil field equipment yesterday. A fourth person was sought. Sheriff Don Atkins said $20,000 in equipment was recovered.

Those indicted were R. D. McDaniel, 49, of Albany; Mrs. Lois Maurine Chatwell, 50, and Euna Henderson, both of Abilene. The fourth person is an Abilene resident.

Atkins said the indictments involved theft of $33,000 in drilling bits from the D. L. Rose Drilling Co. of Albany.

McDaniel was named in two indictments charging theft. Mrs. Chatwell was charged with receiving and concealing. Theft was charged in the other indictment.

Atkins said his investigation indicated the group operated in Texas, Utah, Kansas and New Merico. The three were in the Runnels County jail.

Canadian Bill Is Criticized

OTTAWA (AP)—The Canadian government's controversial bill to help finance a 375-million-dollar transcontinental natural gas pipeline was introduced in Parliament just before dawn today after 12 tumultuous hours of preliminary wrangling.

The administration Liberal party forced through a rarely used closure rule limiting each speaker to 20 minutes. Opponents charged the bill is a sell-out to an U.S.-controlled pipeline company.

The vote introducing the bill was 156-55.

The next test comes tomorrow with debate on the bill. The measure must go through three readings.

June 7 is the date by which a proposed government loan of up to 80 million dollars must be made to Trans-Canada Pipe Lines Ltd. If it is to meet its commitment to build the Alberta-to-Winnipeg section of the cross-Canada pipeline by Dec. 31.

COTTON PLANTING REMINDER GIVEN

Farmers here are being reminded during cotton planting time that the federal government has strict requirements on measurement of crops and that these requirements must be followed by farmers closely to insure good measurement of acreage later.

The county Agriculture Stabilization and Conservation Committee said this week that on any row arrangement, there must be at least as much fallow in width as in width of rows. If cotton is planted on 40-inch rows, there must be a 40-inch fallow.

In no case, however, may the fallow be less than 36 inches. Otherwise the skip rows would be counted as cotton.

Mississippi Judge Speaks In Texas

MT. PLEASANT (AP)—Judge Tom Brady of Mississippi told 200 residents from northeast Texas last night that the people of Texas should rise up and fight any movement by the federal government to usurp the powers of the state.

Brady is an outspoken foe of the Supreme Court's segregation ruling.

Referring to the Supreme Court as black robed socialistic judges, he told the gathering, "If we can't get the court to reverse its decision on integration, then we must remove them by impeachment, form the nation into nine judicial districts and elect one member of the court from each of these districts to serve terms of no more than eight years."

Grandfather Of Local Woman Dies In Avery

Dr. and Mrs. Hargrove left this morning to attend funeral services. The body is in a Clarksville funeral home, and services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday.

New Romance For Margaret

LONDON (AP) — A new romance rumor cropped up today around Britain's Princess Margaret.

The Daily Express quoted German-born Prince Christian of Hanover as saying "I can neither confirm nor deny" rumors that he and Margaret will announce their engagement.

The rumors also were noted by the Daily Mail, but it said it "understands there is no truth in these reports."

Buckingham Palace declined any comment, following its usual pattern in matters involving the private affairs of the royal family.

Margaret and Christian are distant cousins, both descended from Queen Victoria.

The prince, fair-haired, six feet tall and 35 years old, is well known in New York society, where he has spent much time in recent years. He is a director of a London shipping company.

Defendant's Wife Changes Sentence

TULSA, Okla. (AP)— A 39-year-old Tulsa man's assault and battery fine was hiked in Municipal Court when his wife showed up — even though she was a silent witness.

After fining Claude Harrell $10 and costs, Judge James P. Goeppinger looked around the courtroom and saw a woman with black eyes and bruised face.

"Is this the defendant's wife?" he asked.

Informed it was, the judge said: "The sentence is changed to a fine of $100 and 30 days in jail."

Marinade Meats To Improve The Cooking

Grilled meats taste best when they are not dried out on the outside and raw on the inside. This may be the fault of too hot fire, but it is usually because the other part of the meat is too dry to start with.

A marinade made of half a cup of good Spanish olive oil in which the meat is soaked, not only prevents the meat from sticking to the grill, but keeps it from drying out. By adding the juice of a lemon or half a cup of red wine or vinegar, you improve the flavor of the meat and make it tender. Meat can be left in the marinade overnight, but soaking for only half an hour improves its flavor.

Easy Apple Topping

When baking your favorite plain cake, try this easy apple topping. After the batter is in the pan, quickly grate a pared apple over the top, then sprinkle with 2 tablespoons brown sugar and ½ teaspoon cinnamon mixed together. When the cake is baked, it's frosted with a deliciously crisp fruit topping.

Check Your Lighting

The longer and brighter daylight hours that come with spring and summer necessitate checking on your lighting for TV viewing. A soft light is easiest on your eyes, according to a study made recently. Avoid intense darkness or bright light. The study showed that bad lighting causes squints and frowns that not only mar eye beauty but can cause permanent changes of facial features as well.

Instead, soak oily mops promptly in a pail of hot soap or detergent suds to loosen the greasy oil. Then launder in clean suds, rinse, and dry. The clean mop will do a better joy of floor waxing, next time

Platform And Nominee

The Eastern press has made a discovery that this newspaper pointed out numerous times during the recennt Johnson-Shivers contest for leadership of the Texas delegation to the Democratic convention in Chicago; namely, that as leader of the Texas delegation and favorite son candidate, the Democratic majority leader in the Senate will be in position to influence very strongly the platform and the naming of a presidential nominee.

Some Eastern observers are saying that Johnson will be in position to exercise a virtual veto over an extremist civil-rights plank some of the left-wing party leaders instist must go into the platform, as well as commanding enough votes to block a candidate unpopular with conservative Democrats, of whom Keafauver and Harriman are conspicuous examples. Incidentally the controversial ADA has given the word that either of these two men plus Stevenson would be acceptable to it, thereby proscribing Johnson himself, on whom the ADA leaders had already turned thumbs down.

The senator, as week's end, let it be known that he is not "foreclosing" himself as a potential nominee until he can be relatively certain that it will go to a "moderate." This may be significant for this reason: neither Kefauver nor Harriman is considered a moderate, but Stevenson is.

Just how immoderate some of the ADA crowd can be was illustrated over the weekend by Walter Reuther, president of the Auto Workers, who called on the Democratic party to "expel" some of its Democratic members of Congress if they do not support party policy on civil rights and other issues.

He suggests some Southern Democrats be shorn of their party standing when Congress convenes next year if they don't "get right" on the party's civil-rights platform plank. A cocky Reuther seems to take it for granted that the civil-rights plank will be just what the ADA crowd orders, but he seems to ignore the powerful conservative or moderate bloc which will be led by Lyndon Johnson at the convention. That bloc will have quite a lot to say about platform and nominee.

Some Odds And Ends

At East Lansing, Mich., Dr. J. S. Frame, a mathematician, has figured out a way to reduce the national debt to understandable terms. That debt stands at $279 billion, and Dr. Frame says if you earned $1 a second, 24 hours a day, with no time off for Sundays and holidays, you would need 8,841 years to earn that much money. If you joined a string of $1 bills end to end you'd need 279 billion of them to reach the moon. If you stacked them one on top of the other it would form a stack 25,000 miles high. (Seems to us the doc's last two sets of figures are out of focus, but who are we to instist each bill be counted?) . . .

Marine Recruiter Ralph D. Coffman, in Oklahoma City, got a letter from a Clifton House inquiring about Marine service in such eager and optimistic tones that the recruiter drove 85 miles to interview the prospect. At Holdenville he discovered Clifton House was 9 years old.

We don't aim to offer any comment on it, but in Long Beach, Calif., the Community Welfare Council sent questionnaires to a cross section of the city's 30,000 elderly people as to why they don't attend church and came up with this conclusion: "Transportation difficulties and low income, combined with socal pressure for financal support of the churches, have offset church attendance by elderly retired people."

Into each life some rain must fall. At Denver Albert W. Cook, described as the chief meteorologist there, says the drouth cycle gripping the Great Plains will not end until 1966, at best . . .

Police sometimes get some strange reports, none stranger than when Detriot cops received a telephone call from a man who said: "A big alligator is lying in the street staring at me." The report was perfectly true, but the alligator was stuffed. . .

The General Idea

America's Foreign Policy Toward Reds Has Failed To Shift Since Stalin Reign

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP)—Its easy — and in this country it has become a habit which may prove dangerous—to look coldly upon each new move the Russians say they make to ease tension.

It has been both popular and safe in this country to be anti-Russian to the extent of belittling the actions taken over the past year by Stalin's heirs, shrugging them off as propaganda, or claiming American policy forced the Soviet actions.

But no one in this country can honestly say he knows the full significance of the changes which have occurred in Russia and the satellites, internally and externally, or how far they will go or where they will end.

There is no reason to believe the Russian dictatorship in the foreseeable future will melt away or collapse. There can be no illusion about the ultimate hopes of the Soviet leaders: A Communist world. They have talked of it frankly.

Communist party boss Khrushchev said in February the Communists everywhere would try to take over where they could peacefully by parliamentary means but, if necessary in a few stubborn countries, by violence.

That frankness provided justifiable suspicion about every Soviet move made thereafter. But suspicion alone can beome a paralyzing force by acting as a substitute for detached appraisal and imaginative response to Soviet actions.

It is possible — perhaps only barely possible—that changes occurring behind the Iron Curtain will let loose forces which, once unleashed, may turn Russia into a more benevolent path then the present leaders intend or imagine.

The more rigid the American attitude remains, the less able this country will be to take advantage of Russian changes or event spot the real ones when they happen. It takes no imagination to say automaticaly: The Russians can do no good.

This government's present foreign policy is the one laid down by President Truman—who himself remains highly skeptical of Russian intentions—to meet Stalins threatening policy in the 1940s: military alliances and foreign aid.

Both may be necessary indefinitely. But the Eisenhower administration has produced no major variations on the Truman theme to meet Russian policy shifts even though the Truman program was a reaction to Stalin.

His heirs are even better armed than in Stalin's day but they have publicly repudiated him and proclaim their intensions as peaceful. That may not be convincing in this country.

But the more the Russians work at their apperance of peacefulness the more they are bound to affect and influence Amerian allies and neutral nations who, living next door to Russia, know they might be reduced to powder in an American-Russian war.

To them American rigidity, if it continues, may look sophomoric, dangerous and unattractive. The effect may be to weaken American leadership.

MARIANNE THORNTON: A Domestic Biography. 1797-1887. By E. M. Forster. Harcourt, Brace.

Marianne Thornton, as the frontispiece in this fond recollection by her great-nephew shows, had a pretty, round face, a clear and dominating gaze, and hair parted in the middle; and for this occasion, with George Richmond painted her a few years before her death, she wore a frilly bonnet tied under her chin.

She was the oldest of the children of Henry Thornton and Marianne Sykes, who brought up their brood near London at Battersea Rise; besides a beautiful garden, and a library designed by William Pitt, it had 34 bedrooms, or plenty of space for even more children than the Thorntons' nine. Father Thornton was a banker, and M. P. William Cowper was a friend, and Thorntons were painted not only by Richmond but by Gainsborough and Hoppner.

Marianne's parents both died in 1815; one daughter, Laura, was married in 1830 to the Rev. Charles Forster, and in turn one of their sons, Edward, married Alice Whichelo, whose son is this loyal biographer.

There are some absorbing details in this book, derived from family records and Forster's recollections. This does not pretend to be front-page history — though the account of George III in his dotage addressing Parliament as "My Lords and Peacocks," and some other incidents are epochal in their way. Forster says he owed a dept to great-aunt Marriann; and so do we all if this book is his way of paying it. The story runs along fascinatingly just below the level of kings and queens, just above the bourgeois and the middle classes; here is a creative writer's background, heritage and habitat.

WASHINGTON LETTER

Daughter Of Leading Capital Hostess Wed

By JANE EADS

WASHINGTON—It didn't make the headlines, not even in the local papers. There was too much going on on the political front and other nuptials of more celebrated personalities copped the front pages, but one of the most elegant and costly weddings took place right here in the capital.

Mrs. Merriweather Post, breakfast food heiress and one of the world's richest women, also one of the nation's top hostesses, spared not a hundred dollar bill for the even uniting her eldest granddaughter, Marjorie Merriweather Durant, and Donald Bowles Waller, professional football player.

The glamorous, 28 - year - old blonde University of Southern California student and the handsome, dark-haired star halfback on the Los Angeles Rams professional football team took their vows before an upper-crust gathering of top socialities and diplomats in St. Thomas' Episcopal Church here. There were 27 attendants accompanying the bride down a swath of heavy white satin ceremoniously rolled out from the entrance to altar.

The richly - endowed bride, a champion swimmer, auto-racing and ski enthusiast, on the arm of her father, Thomas W. Durant of Washington, Conn., wore a simply-fashioned gown of white silk faille with full train and a voluminous tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of white orchids and lilies of the valley.

The 12 bridesmaids, who came from various parts of the country, wore lace trimmed white organza and circlets of purple velvet and fresh violets on their hair and carried immense bouquets of fresh violets and gardenias.

The church and the nearby hotel ballroom where the huge reception was held were transformed into bowers of fragrant, freshcut white blooms. The hotel got out its gold service, reserved for the most chi-chi doings, and the long buffet boasted the most lavish fare. Buffets and bars, where champagne and highballs flowed freely, were even set up in the corridor to accomodate the hundreds of guests, which included Waller's entire Maryland's University fraternity chapter.

Races In 10 States Appear To Hold Key To Control Of U.S. Senate Next Year

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON, May 12 (AP)—Ten states which will elect 11 senators appear to hold the key to control of next year's Senate. In all there will be 35 contests this fall involving seats now held by 18 Republicans and 17 Democrats.

Although both parties wil campaign vigorously in other areas in an effort to chip away the other's strength, opposing strategists feel the outcome largely will be settled in these states:

New York, Connecticut, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Kentucky (two seats at stake) Ohio, Iowa, Idaho, Nevada, and Oregon.

In these vital contests, Republicans will be risking six and Democrats five seats they now hold.

The Senate now is divided 48-47, with one vacancy to be filled by appointment of Democratic Gov. A. B. (Happy) Chandler of Kentucky. To gain control, Republicans would have to take a net of one seat away from their opponents and re-elect Vice President Nixon. Nixon then could break a 48-48 tie vote and give the Republicans organizational control of the Senate.

Outside of the 10 crucial states, there are at least six in which the GOP is expected to have some difficulty in retaining its present hold. These include California, Colorado, Wisconsin, Indiana, Illonols, and Utah.

Democrats face Republican opposition in varying degrees in Washington, West Virginia, Oklahoma, Missouri and Arizona but GOP hopes are not particularly high in those areas.

Democrats apparently can rack up as certain to remain in their hands seats in North Carolina, South Carolina (2), Arkansas, Georgia, Alabama, Louisiana and Florida.

Republicans are confident of retaining seats they now hold in North Dakota, South Dakota, Kansas, New Hampshire and Vermont.

With some candidates not yet nominated and the general election five months away, here is how the situation seems to stand in the critical 10 states:

NEW YORK — Democratic Sen. Herbert H. Lehman will be the object of an all-out Republican attempt to defeat him. If Eisenhower's popularity holds up, Republicans think they can gain a seat with a strong candidate. Underground efforts still are continuing to get former Gov. Thomas E. Dewey into the race.

KENTUCKY—Two Senate seats are at stake since the death of Democratic Sen. Alben Barkley. Republican John Sherman Cooper, ambassador to India and former senator, is almost sure to go after one. Republicans think they can gain one, possibly both, if Eisenhower comes close to carrying the state as he did in 1952.

OREGON — President Eisenhower is credited with judging Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay into the race for the Republican nomination to oppose democratic Sen. Wayne Morse. Philip Hitchcock is giving McKay a battle for the nomination. Republicans want to beat Morse, a former Republican, more than any other candidate. Eisenhower power policies are an issue. Democrats now top the GOP in vote registrations.

CONNECTICUT — Democrats think they have a real chance of turning out Republican Sen. Prescott Bush. Eisenhower's popularity and business conditions in October may play a large part in the result.

MARYLAND—This will be a battlefield with Democratic former Sen. Millard Tydings campaigning vigorously against Republican Sen. John Marshall Butler. It will be a vindication battle for Tydings against Butler, who defeated him six years ago with the help of Sen. Joseph R. McCarthy.

PENNSYLVANIA — Democrat Joseph Clark, former mayor of Philadelphia, is lined up for a vigorous campaign against Republican Sen. James Duff. On the basis of their 1954 victory in the governor's race, the Democrats have high hopes of sinking Duff.

OHIO—Democratic Gov. Frank J. Lausche is generally believed to have an edge over Republican Sen. George Bender. An unanswered question is whether Lausche can attract in the Senate race the Republican votes credited with helping him gain five terms as governor.

IOWA—Democrats say Eisenhower's popularity is suspect in the state and predict that a revolt against low farm prices will unseat Republican Sen. Bourke B. Hickenlooper. Republicans say the farm situation is better, believe Hickenlooper will roll through.

NEVADA—Democrats are making desperate efforts to get Sen. Alan Bible to reverse his decision not to run again. Republicans probably will settle on Rep. Clifton Young as their candidate; they believe they have a good chance to pick up a seat.

IDAHO — Republican Sen. Herman Welker has primary opposition and some trouble within his own party. The GOP hopes the Democrats Nominate former Sen. Glen Taylor, who won the nomination in 1954 but was defeated handily by GOP Sen. Henry C. Dworshak. Both sides say this one is up in the air.

Higher Prices Expected On Many Items By Next Fall

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Consumers can expect higher prices on autos, shoes and men's and boys' suits next fall.

"If goods don't move at present prices," some ask, "how can they expect to sell the new ones at higher prices"

Merchants and dealers know that some customers always buy their clothing at the markdown sales at the end of the season. They know that the auto factory's list price is only the point at which the bargaining begins. But they also know that many people will pay the higher prices next fall because they want to be the first to have the new styles, the new models.

As for cars: In a sense this fall's boost, if it comes, will be the result of the inflation of the 1940's still catching up. It works this way:

Steelmne say they must spend hundreds of millions of dollars a year just to replace these old furnaces, let alone build new capacity the need. The furnace that may have cost 10 million dollars to build will cost 64 million to replace. Inflation may have been halted some time back, but its delayed effects are still popping up. This inflated cost of building steel mills is one of the many reasons steelmen give for needing to hike steel prices. If the price of these steel items go up, auto makers say that will be one of a number of reasons that the price of the new models must be higher next fall.

The reason given for a price hike in men's and boys' suits this fall, of from 75 cents to $2.50 at retail, is that on May 1 there was a general wage hike in the industry of 12½ cents an hour.

These workers are now turning out next fall's suits. With few exceptions, clothing manufacturers have hiked their prices by 3 to 6 per cent. Retailers are reported ordering in good volume and showing little fear of buyer resistance in the fall.

Rising wage scales don't always

Rising wage scales don't always mean a corresponding price rise. Offen productivity rises at the same time, holding costs down. And when sales are booming, as now in many lines, a little margin on each unit adds up to a satisfactory gross profit.

In the American economy there'll always be price changes. At the same time there'll always be markdowns, clearance sales, and bargains to hunt for.

Vacation Rain Insurance Could Clip Divorce Rate

By INEZ ROBB

Think of all the Sad Sacks you have known who have returned water-logged from a vacation and spent the ensuing 50 weeks decrying fate and wet weather

Here, obviously, is a fifth freedom — freedom from rain on vacation — that man has failed to master on his upward climb. But there is good news today in this best-of-all-possible though watery worlds.

Man has not yet learned to control the weather, even in the good, old summer time. And what's good about it when it rains on a beach barbecue? Give him another ten years and doubtless he will have this problem licked, too. But in the interim there is hope and help for the vacationer who is neither Esther Williams nor Donald Duck.

A group of American insurance firms has just announced that it is now offering a vacation rain insurance policy. It — the policy — will cover you and me like a silver-lined umbrella in any of more than 100 of the most popular vacation sports in the U. S. A.

If there is precipitation in Miami or Martha's Vineyard, in Los Angeles or Late Tahoe, it won't be raining rain or even violets. On a vacation, who needs violets? To the man, woman or child with such insurance, it will be pouring greenbacks, and never mind the cats and dogs.

Hell hath no fury like a woman scorned unless it is a vacationer inundated. It is one woman's opinion, based on her observations as resort editor of a New York newspaper in the sweet long ago, that nothing is so apt to unhinge old Homo sapiens as continuous rain on his own time and money.

The most sober citizen, shooting his wad on a vacation in such deluxe resorts as Miami or Palm Beach, is transformed into a maniac depressive after 10 days of continuous rain. If this mental state merely led to simple solutions like suicide or murder, it could be condoned.

But it is my observation that it is more apt to lead to hanky-pank, especially in the fancier resorts. Any vacationer who feels that fate is unfairly casting him in a revival of "Rain" is apt to start acting like Miss Sadie Thompson or the Rev. Davidson.

I remember one soggy season in Palm Beach that wound up in 23 divorce suits, nine for separate maintantenance and two for alienation of affections.

This new vacation rain insurance is bound to lead to increased domestic tranquility and public probity. The vacationer who feels he is merely wasting the boss' time and no this own money will regard the rain as an inconvenience rather than a personal affront.

He can then settle down to ping-pong or canasta while the rain and the money roll in. Apres insurance, le deluge. But who cares, if it's money in the bank?

Sweetness-And-Light Role Is Boresome Task For Star

NEW YORK (AP)—True angels may never become weary in paradise.

But actresses who play angelic roles get good and sick of them. One right now is Martha Scott, suffering from a bad case of too much sweetness and light.

Martha has been wearing wings on stage and screen for some years now, and she'd like to shed them for a while.

I have known Miss Scott from the time she was a schoolgirl in Kansas City. When I met her for lunch the other day I told her, "Martha, you're still just as pretty as the girl next door."

Martha has a fragile beauty that never fades. But my remark had the same effect on her as if I had stepped on her small toes with my big size ten shoes.

"You're as bad as all the others," she said, her eyes clouding.

"What do you mean?"

"I mean that little-girl-next-door business," she said. "I've had about all I can take of being the little girl next door. I want to try playing that mean but fascinating lady who lives in the penthouse."

Martha, who actually does hail originally from a small Missouri town with the unlikely name of Gee's Creek, started her radio career as "a ten-buck scream" in a ghost story starring Orson Welles.

Earlier, as a member of a Shakespearian repertory at the Chicago World's Fair, she had enjoyed blackening her teeth to play one of the witches in "Macbeth."

The sweetness-and-light blight descended on her when she first starred on broadway as Emily Webb, the sweet doomed young heroine of Thornton Wilder's "Our Town."

In a recent Robert Montgomery TV show she strayed from her own real life character. She portrayed the self-centered, possessive, over-sexed wife of a plantation owner, who destroyed the lives of all those around her.

"I never had more fun," said Martha.

RADIO-TV REPORT

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP)—Sheldon Reynolds, who five years ago caused the nations dry cleaners considerable pain by glamorizing the dirty trenchcoat, is over from Paris for 10 days in connection with a new challenge for the TV audience.

Reynolds, for the benefit of those viewers who go into the kitchen during the period when the credits are rolled on their screen, is the producer of a three year-old popular adventure series called "Foreign Intrigue."

Last year Reynolds, who just passed his 32nd birthday and has a low boring point, got fed up with the missing-papers-and-kidnapped-prime minister routine and produced a series of Sherlock Holmes adventures as a change of diet.

None of this, however, means that Foreign Intrigue has disappeared. In second and, sometimes it seems, fifth re-runs, they are still showing all over the lot. So is the Sherlock series. And all this means that Reynolds is a very wealthy young man. He is also the spitting image of Frank Sinatra in the pre-Ava Gardner swoom era.

Recently Reynolds, after four wildly successful years of spinning adventure and detection yarns with cameras all over Europe, has indulged in a brand new departure. He has made an hour-long TV film, sort of a test case for a theory, which will be shown come fall on ABC. It is called "International Theatre," and if the pilot film goes over it will be a series of unrelated dramas, running the gamut from comedy to tragedy.

He has also made a full length motion picture, starring one Robert Mitchum, called—surprisingly enough—"Foreign Intrigue."

So far, he has worked out three types of Foreign Intriguers in his TV series.

The first had Jerome Thor as the dirty-trench-coated wandering newspaperman, who apparently never wrote a story but sure saved the world from a lot of evil nations.

BUCKIN' THE LINE

By BUCK FRANCIS
News Sports Editor

The All-District 4-AA baseball team released out of Wichita Falls in the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal yesterday isn't to be confused with the "official" all-district team.

The team released was the "Wichita Falls Times All - District team" and not THE all-district team as the Lubbock paper stated. Bud Worsham, who covered the Wichita Falls baseball games for that city's newspaper, was the sole selector of the team released yesterday in the Lubbock publication.

Worsham saw fit to put two Tigers on his All-District 4-AA team but, as co-champions, we believe the Tigers warrant more recognition than that on the mythical team.

The two Tigers making Worsham's all-district team are first baseman Milton Ham and outfielder Ronnie Baker. Both, of course, are deserving of the honor.

But what about catcher Don McNew, who led the district in hitting with a hefty .611 mark; pitcher-third baseman Alan Snead; and shortstop Tommy Prichard.

At these positions, Worham picked Glynn Gregory of Abilene, catcher; Robert Carothers, Abilene, shortstop; and Freddie Green of Abilene at third.

Figures Don't Lie

We are a firm believer in facts and figures and these three Eagles were all outhit by Tiger players during the conference race. McNew outhit Gregory, .611 to .444; Prichard outhit Carothers, .273 to .211; and Snead outhit Green, .308 to .300.

We realize hitting isn't all there is in determining the merits of a baseball player. But in our opinion, McNew, Prichard, and Snead aren't far behind, if any, in defensive play of the Eagles named.

Gregory, of course, has a magic name in sports since he was an All-State football player. But this shouldn't sway one's vote for all-star honors in baseball although Glynn, to be sure, is a fair hand in the diamond sport. We think he belongs on the team but not as catcher. There's room for him in the outfield.

Prichard is just as a good a glove man as Carothers. While Prichard possibly can get his throws off quicker than Carothers, Tommy doesn't have as strong an arm as Carothers. But, everything considered, Tommy would appear to have the upperhand at the shortstop all-star position.

Snead and Green, third base candidates, ran along about the same in hitting with the Abilene third sacker perhaps holding the defensive edge.

We would leave Green at third and employ Snead as an All District utility man. Snead can be called on to man an infield or outfield position and, of course, he is a top-flight pitcher.

News' All-District Team

Well, now that we've raked Worsham's selections over the coals, we'll give him a chance to ridicule ours.

Here is the way we see 'em on the all-district team:

Catcher, Don McNew, Tigers.
First base—Milton Ham, Tigers
Second base — David Bourland, Abilene.
Third base—Freddie Green, Abilene.
Shortstop — Tommy Prichard, Tigers.
Outfield — Glynn Gregory, Abilene; David West, Wichita Falls; and Ronnie Baker, Tigers.
Pitchers — Altus Scott, Abilene; Howard Franklin, Wichita Falls.
Utility — Alan Snead, Tigers.

The official all-district team, by the way, was originally slated to be released Sunday. But the ballots to coaches and sports scribes around the district haven't been mailed out yet by all-district chairman, Harless Wade of Abilene, and it's unlikely the team will be released this Sunday.

We don't know if a "Coach of the Year" is included in the all-district balloting but if there is, Tiger coach Speedy Moffett should win this honor hands down.

The Tigers, before the season underway, weren't giving much of a chance by the critics around the district to keep up with the Abilene Eagles who returned eight starters from last year's state finalist outfit.

But the Bengals surprised everyone, perhaps, but themselves in tieing the Eagles for the 4-AA title.

Much of this credit certainly belongs to Moffett and his right hand man, Horrace Bostick.

Rigney Plans 'Shakewell'

NEW YORK (AP)—Mystified at the sad state of affairs on his team, rookie manager Bill Rigney of the New York Giants ordered a "semi-shakewell," treatment for today's game with the Chicago Cubs.

Rigney is convinced the Giants are not a sixth-place team. Hes equally convinced that Willie Mays is not a .209 hitter.

The shakewell system was popularized by Leo Durocher, Rigney's predecessor. When the club wasn't going well, Durocher pulled all stops and shuffled the players around willy-nilly.

Rigney doesn't want to go to that extreme, so he is concentrating on the batting order for he momen. Al Dark (0-for-13) is the new leadoff man, and Whitey Lockman (1-for-22) drops to No. 7. Don Mueller is No. 2.

"Maybe Mueller will get on base ahead of Mays," said Rigney, "and Willie will knock him in."

On the subject of Mays, who has just one hit in his last 14 trips to the plate, Rigney is hopeful that he is about to snap out of his slump.

"And if he does what I hope he will, the hits ought to start coming right away," said Rigney. "He's got to start hitting to right field, and I had him take advantage of our day off yesterday by working out. He's been trying to pull everything into the left field seats."

Snead To Seek British Title

By WILL GRIMSLEY

NEW YORK (AP)—Sam Snead has decided to shoot for the British Open Golf Championship at Liverpool July 2-6, but Ben Hogan will skip it.

Snead, winner of the title in 1946 at St. Andrews, today formally filed his application with the required two pounds, approximately $5.60 in Yankee cash.

"Sam doesn't shell out even a small fee like that unless he's deadly serious," a friendn remarked. "He's playing very good golf and he'd like to win the British Open again."

Hogan, who will team with Snead in the Canada Cup and International Trophy matches at Wentworth late next month, won't remain in Britain to try to duplicae his historic truimph at Carnoustie in 1953.

"My competitive plans are confined to the international matches and the National Open at Rochester," Hogan, who is in semiretirement, said. "The National Open is scheduled at Rochester, N.Y., June 14-16.

Snead and Hogan's dominant figures in American golf through the last decade, will leave for Britain on June 18, the Monday following the National Open at Rochester.

They will team to play rivals from 27 other nations in the Canada Cup matches and will seek the international individual trophy put up by John Jay Hopkins, American industrialist.

The two veteran Yanks, with scores of tournament victories behind them, will be stoutly favored. Strongest opposition is expected from the Australian team of Peter Thomson, who holds the British Open championship, and Norman von Nida, a longtime campaigner on the U.S. pro tour.

Snead played in his first British Open in 1937 while he was a member of the U.S. Ryder Cup team. That tournament at Carnoustie was won by England's Henry Cotton. Sam won in 1946 with a 290 at St. Andrews.

The list of Americans who will compete in the British Open probably isn't complete but already is imposing.

It includes Gene Sarazen, who won in 1932; Mike Souchak of Durham, N.C., the year's leadingt money winner among the pros; Bob Sweeny; Jim McHale, and Ray Graham, three amateurs.

Peter Thomson of Australia has won the British crown the last two years.

Sun Oil Downs Furniture, 7-5

Sun Oil came from behind to down Snyder Furniture, 7-5, in City League play last night at Towle Memorial Park.

The Oilers trailed 5-2 going into the fourth but erupted with a five-run rally to win the game.

Snyder Furniture had gone ahead with a four-run first inning.

Alan Snead and Bill Whiteside divided mound chores for the Oilers while Junk Bowers and Dwayne Prince split mound duties for the Furniture nine.

Whilden Has Broken Hand

HOUSTON (AP)—The 400-meter and 100-meter events will feature the Southern United States Track and Field Championships here Saturday night.

The 400-meter dash matches J. W. Mashburn of Oklahoma AM, considered the top quarter-miler in the country, with Eddie Southern, Texas' great freshman. Each man has done the quarter in under 47 seconds.

If Bobby Whilden of Texas is able to compete, the 100-meter dash will pit the Texas flash against Bobby Morrow of Abilene Christian College. Morrow beat Whilden in their only meeting, downing the Longhorn star in 9.5 in the 100-yard dash. Whilden last week ran a wind-aided 9.2.

Whilden broke a finger when a bus door closed on his hand Sunday. He may not be able to compete.

Chisox Catch Fire; Near Lead

Clip Sens For Fifth Win In Row

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

What's gotten into the Chicago White Sox? All of a sudden they're belting the ball like crazy in support of a pitching staff that takes its lumps but somehow has managed to fashion a five-game winning streak.

Before the Sox started the fuss they lost seven of nine and any talk of American League pennant contenders stopped with Cleveland, New York and Boston.

Then boom! The Sox began clubbing the ball to make up for some shaky pitching, and now that the mound staff looks to have found itself, the hitters are still at it. In the five games, Chicago has collected 65 hits—an average of 13 a game—including nine doubles, two triples and seven home runs.

Last night they poked 14 hits off four Washington pitchers and beat the Senators 5-1. Bob Keegan, in his first '56 start, pigeon-holed nine Nat hits. The only Washington run was unearned.

The victory pushed the Sox to within 1½ games of the AL lead, virtually held on a joint basis by Cleveland and New York, who were rained out last night. Baltimore clipped Kansas City 9-5 and Detroit battered Boston 6-3.

In the National, Brooklyn used four unearned runs for a fifth straight victory in a 7-5 decision over St. Louis. Philadelphia, behind ex-Cardinal Stu Miller, beat Milwaukee 3-1 to end a 10-game losing streak. And the New York Giants outlasted the Chicago Cubs 6-4. Cincinnati and Pittsburgh were rained out.

Bob Nieman hit his second homer to get the White Sox started on a two-run second against Chuck Stobbs, then singled to open the fourth as Chicago made it 3-0. An error and doubles by Sherm Lollar and Ron Jackson provided two unearned runs in the fifth for the Sox.

The Orioles scored three in the third and four in the fourth off Lou Kretlow and Ed Burtschy at Kansas City as Jim Wilson won his fourth.

Detroit ended a three-game slump by knocking Willard Nixon from the mound after eight hits scored five runs in 3 2-3 innings. Paul Foytack won his second, although needing help from Steve Gromek.

Rookie shortstop Don Blasingame contributed two errors and Pee Wee Reese unloaded a three-run homer as the Dodgers scored their four unearned markers in the fourth to hand Tom Poholsky his first loss. He had won three. Gil Hodges homered in a three-run Brooklyn first, while Bill Virden delivered a three-run blow for the Cards. Reliefer Clem Labine was the winner.

Milwaukee, in the NL lead by 36 percentage points over St. Louis and only a game ahead of third-place Brooklyn, got a run off Miller in the seventh at Philadelphia, but the little right-hander hung on to win his first complete game since Sept. 15, 1953. Lew Burdette gave only two hits for six innings, but a triple by Jim Greengrass tied it and Willie Jones' single put the Phils into the lead in a two-run seventh.

Willie Mays and Don Mueller each homered and collected three hits, for five RBIs between them, as Johnny Antoneli hung on to dump the Cubs into the celar.

McCallum 9 Wins Title

By The Associated Press

Austin McCallum became the fifteenth district champion of Texas schoolboy baseball Tuesday night, leaving only one decision to come. Tyler and Lufkin will settle the sixteenth championship.

McCallum beat Austin Travis 5-0 to win the District 14 title.

Meanwhile, Abilene was moving toward the state tournament with a 11-2 victory over Midland. It was the opening game of the bi-district series. Abilene ran its season record to 22 victories against 3 losses.

Amarillo, Austin of El Paso, Fort Worth Paschal, North Dallas, Bryan, Dallas Highland Park, Paris, Port Arthur, Pasadena, Houston Reagan, Corpus Christi Ray and Edinburg are the other district champions.

Ponca City Moves Up In Sooner State

By The Associated Press

The Ponca City Cubs swept a doubleheader from Ardmore Tuesday night to move ahead of the Cardinals into a third place berth in the Sooner State League. The other six teams divided twinbills.

Shawnee went on a hitting rampage and downed the Paris Orioles 16-6 in the second game of the doubleheader to recover the league lead. The Orioles had grabbed the top spot by winning the opener 6-5.

McAlester downed the Lawton Braves 9-6 in the first game, but the Braves bounced back to take the nightcap 10-4. Muskogee split a doubleheader with Seminole, winning 5-1 and losing 8-6.

WELCOME HOME—It was a big welcome at home plate in Cleveland for Indian's rightfielder Al Smith after he hit a home run in the ninth inning to beat the New York Yankees 3-2 and put the Tribe in first place. There to greet him was Rocky Colavito (38), Bobby Avila (1), Al Rosen (7), and the bat boy.

Abilene Captures Bi-District Tilt

MIDLAND, May 16 — The Abilene Eagles, although held to six hits, romped to an easy 11-2 victory over the Midland Bulldogs in the first game of a bi-district series here Tuesday.

Midland pitcher Larry Cooper was bothered with control throughout the afternoon, issuing 10 free tickets to first in 6 1-3 innings of work. The Bulldog defense also chipped in with seven costly errors.

Altus Scott went the distance for the Eagles and gave up only two hits, both to Arthur Adams.

Second game of the series will be played at Abilene Friday. If a third game is necessary, it will be played at Abilene Saturday.

The line score:

ABILENE	200	003	6—11-6-5

Paul Gambles On Castoffs

BALTIMORE (AP)—Manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles, who sometimes shuffles his playing personnel as frequently as a deck of cards in a gambling casino, yesterday took a chance on two discarded pitchers.

In a move akin to drawing for an inside straight in poker, Richards purchased sore-arm Billy Loes from the Brooklyn Dodgers and veteran Johnny Schmitz from the Boston Red Sox.

Loes, who compiled a 10-4 record with the world champions last year, is only 26. But the eccentric right-hander has been sidelined most of this season with a sore shoulder muscle, diagnosed as tendonitis.

In his only appearance, he gave up six runs and five hits to the Pittsburgh Pirates in 1 1-3 innings. In practice since then observers said he "didn't have a thing." He had a 50-26 record with Brooklyn for five seasons.

Schmitz presents a different problem. His record shows 93 victories and 111 losses over a 12-year major league career. During that stretch, he has played for seven different teams.

The 35-year-old left-hander had a 7-10 record for the last-place Orioles were believed to have paid about $20,000 for Loes and about $15,000 for Schmitz.

Richards, in Kansas City with the Orioles on a road trip, said he didn't know too much about Loes but observed:

"He's never had a losing year since he has been in baseball so I'm willing to gamble on him. I know his arm has been sore, but he's still young enough to recover."

As for Schmitz, who is slated for spot duty, Richards said, "I'm probably the only one who thinks that guy can still pitch, but I feel like he's still a pretty good man and might be able to help us."

HOWDY PODNER!—The reviewing stand at the annual Los Banos, Calif., May Day celebration was the scene of this meeting between Sen. Estes Kefauver (D-Tenn) and Adlai Stevenson, two aspirants for the Democratic party's presidential nomination. Stevenson is decked out in cowboy gear and Kefauver in a silk suit. Both appeared at the celebration in the central California farming center —and their meeting brought generous cheers from the crowd estimated at 50,000. Both are campaigning for the state's 68 Democratic convention votes in the June 5 presidential primary.

IT WAS 68 YEARS AGO

State Capitol Has A Big Day

AUSTIN (AP)—It was 68 years ago, on May 16, 1888, when the capitol of Texas was dedicated.

"Never in the history of the city, never in the history of the state, was there another such day," the Austin Statesman of that day reported. The people poured into town.

At 9 a.m. that day the military that had been camping down by the Colorado River started marching up Congress Ave. to the looming new Capitol, 12 blocks away.

At the front gate in the iron picket fence around the Capitol grounds awaited Gov. Sul Ross, flanked by veterans of Texas' War for Independence.

A. W. Terrell stepped out and cried: "Welcome, thrice welcome to this imposing Capitol of our state Whenever, in all time, a son of Texas shall behold its vast proportions, pride will come around him like a mantle and crystallize devotion to his state."

Texans swelled with pride. At that time it was generally recognized that their Capitol was the seventh largest public building in the world. The lady on the Texas Capitol dome rose seven feet higher than the National Captiol in Washington.

The celebration went on for a week.

Now 68, the Capitol has grown graceful, growing old.

Preliminaries to building the Capitol started in 1875. In 1879 the governor signed an act providing for the sale of 3 million acres of public land in 10 counties of the Panhandle to pay for the building.

Charles and John Farwell, Chicago brothers, signed the contract to build the Capitol Jan. 1, 1882. The land they accepted in payment was valued then at 50 cents to $1.50 an acre. It became the famous XIT Ranch.

Close Truman Friend Tells About Loan

ST.LOUIS (AP)—A close friend of former President Truman testified a $750 loan obtained by Truman's former appointments secretary to buy an oil lease was repaid the next day by a tax dodger's lawyer.

Tom L. Evans, Kansas City businessman, told a federal jury yesterday he loaned the money to Matthew J. Connelly, onetime White House appointments secretary.

He said it was repaid by Harry I. Schwimmer, then attorney for Irvin Sachs, a St. Louis shoe manfacturer.

Connelly, Schwimmer and T. Lamar Caudle, head of the Justice Department's Tax Division under Truman, are on trial on charges they conspired to fix the tax evasion case against Sachs.

Evans testified Schwimmer said to him on a plane ride to Washington in 1949:

"Tom, I'd like to do something for Matt Connelly. He's been so wonderful and nice to me."

Evans said he replied there was nothing the attorney could do. Schwimmer later suggested buying an oil lease "that would produce about $40 to $50 a month for him."

The government contends Schwimmer bought a $3,600 lease in Connelly's name.

Evans said he told Schwimmer Connelly would repay the loan but Schwimmer replied: "No, I will repay it. Remember, I want to do a favor for Mr. Connelly."

After Connelly was indicted, Evans testified he received a letter from Connelly's attorney Jacob M. Lashly enclosing a cashier's check for $750 "for purchase of an oil royalty through Harry Schwimmer."

The letter said:

"Both you and Mr. Connelly were of the opinion that he had paid this loan. However, after looking up your records after you testified before the grand jury, you discovered it had not been paid. . . . We understand repayment of the loan was made by Mr. Schwimmer but this repayment was not authorized by Mr. Connelly."

Eisenhower Calls For Memorial Day Prayer

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower has called on all Americans to join in prayer on Memorial Day, May 30, for "an enduring peace founded on mercy and justice."

In a proclamation, the President noted that Congress in 1950 passed a resolution providing that Memorial Day annually should be observed as a day of nationwide prayer for permanent peace.

The President designated the hour beginning in each locality at 11 a.m. on May 30 "as a period in which we may be united in humble petition" for divine help in achieving a permanent peace.

Murder Case Scheduled To Be Reopened

NEWBURYPORT, Mass. (AP) — Mrs. Lorraine Clark, 30, serving life after admitting she killed her husband, is scheduled to go before a grand jury today in a unique reopening of the spicy murder case.

The four Boston morning papers say Mrs. Clark is expected to tell the jury that her "lover," Arthur Jackson, 24, had a hand in her husband's death.

Jackson is serving three yeors in Salem jail for adultery with Mrs. Clark, a mother of three.

State Atty. Gen. George Fingold told newsmen last night: "We feel we have gathered some very strong evidence indicating the participation of someone else" (in the slaying).

Fingold reopened the case after Jackson was taken from his cell in Salem jail to the women's reformatory in Framingham to confront Mrs. Clark.

Judge Charles Fairhurst, in sentencing Jackson, accused him of "half the responsibility for wrecking the (Clark) family . . ."

Jackson met Mrs. Clark at a party through her husband Melvin W. Clark Jr., 29.

A few months later, Clark's weighed body was found in the salt flat. He had been shot in the Lake Attitash cottage, Amesbury, where he lived with his wife and children.

Man Not Holding Grudge, Pays Court

ROCKLAND, Maine (AP)—Robert Dow is not one to hold a grudge. He and Donald Day pleaded innocent in Municipal Court Monday to charges of affray, stemming from a street fight.

Judge Alfred Strout dismissed the case but ordered Day to pay $6 court costs. Day didn't have the money. Dow paid it for him.

Illinois Cab Driver Gets Gigantic Fare

OAKLAND, Calif. (AP)—Taxi driver Raymond F. Gilbert drove his Waukegan, Ill., cab to California with a $1,350 fare—"a woman in her 50's and a millionairess.'

Gilbert told police officers about his trip after asking their advice on a good place to stay.

Gilbert, refusing to disclose the identity of his passenger, said she called him to make the drive to Oakland so she could visit friends.

"This is the kind of thing that every cab driver dreams about when he is sitting o nthe line," Gilbert said.

Sunday School On Wheels Being Held

AMMAN, Jordan (AP)—Americans here belong to a mobile Sunday school class. Each sabbath morning, 25 to 30 form a convoy of automobiles and travel to the site of the Bible lesson being studied on that particular day. They recently crossed the Jordan to visit the remote site of an Essene monastery, where the famous Dead Sea Scrolls were discovered a few years ago.

Jordan's antiquities director, G. L. Harding, said the Americans represented the biggest foreign invasion of that remote site since Roman legions attacked it 2,000 years ago.

Some biblical lessons involve strenuous expeditions. To scale the Mount of Temptation —where Satan offered Jesus "all the ctiies of the earth" — the group had to leave their cars at the foot of the mountain and climb almost 2,000 feet.

At times the trip gets dangerous. The Jordanian rural population generally is friendly and hospitable, but last month the Sunday schoolers nearly got mobbed.

They went to visit Mt. Nebo, a peak on the desert plateau from where Moses looked across at the Promised Land. On the way to the mountain, the convoy had to pass through Madaba, a town which the day before had been a battleground between two feuding Bedouin tribes. When the Sunday school convoy started back, the road was blocked by a bad-tempered gang of Bedouins armed with clubs and stones.

The cars made a dash for it and got through with no casualties.

Plane Crash Being Probed

JEFFERSONVILLE, Ind. (AP) — Investigators examined the twisted and scattered remains of a private airliner today trying to learn the cause of its tragic plunge to earth.

Eight persons, including six business executives en route to a convention in Louisville, Ky., died yesterday when the plane roared out of low-hanging clouds into a muddy field.

Witnesses said the twin-engine, 14-or 15-passenger Lockheed Ventura plunged to earth in a spin and exploded.

It was owned by the Crane Co. of Chicago. Two vice presidents of the firm, George Erwin Jr. and James A. Dwyer, were among the victims.

The pilot, Randolph Muhlerin, radioed into Louisville's Standiford Field for landing clearance a few minutes before the crash. There was no indication then the craft

Graham Gets Death Sentence In Bombing Of Airline Plane

CANON CITY, Colo. (AP)—John Gilbert Graham joined three other condemned murderers in death row today for his first full day behind the sandstone walls of the Colorado Penitentiary.

One hundred feet from his small cell is the state's lethal gas chamber, where he is sentenced to die the week of Aug. 26.

Graham, 24, convicted of bombing an airliner which plunged his mother and 43 others to death, was sentenced in Denver District Court yesterday by Judge Joseph M. McDonald.

Judge McDonald passed sentence after hearing Graham spurn his court-appointed lawyers' motions for a new trial.

"I don't see why I should have to make a political rally or something out of this," said Graham, married and the father of two children. "I don't see why it can't stop right here. I believe I had as fair a trial as could be had under the circumstances."

However, the judge ordered Graham's lawyers to ask the Colorado Supreme. Court what disposition should be made of their new trial motion, which Judge McDonald rejected. It claimed 36 points of alleged errors in Graham's trial, which ended May 4.

If the court accepts jurisdiction, it could order an appeal and stay the execution. Otherwise, the evecution would proceed as scheduled.

Graham was convicted of murdering his mother Mrs. Daisie E. King by placing a dynamite time bomb in her luggage shortly before she bearded a United Air Lines plane at Denver last Nov. 1. The craft exploded and crashed 11 minutes after takeoff near Longmont, Colo.

Still stolid and apparently unconcerned, Graham was led through the main gate of the prison here at 2:37 p.m.

After shackles were removed from his legs, he lolled against a wall, under guard, while Warden Harry Tinsley and Denver officers exchanged pleasantries and admission formalities were quickly completed.

A reporter approached Graham, and he turned away. "I don't want to talk to anyone," he said.

Prison guards led Graham toward a receiving room. One of his escorts from Denver called, "So long, 'Jack.'" He half turned, smiled and waved.

As Prisoner 29625, he was taken to his 8x10-foot cell, one of six in death row.

Loudspeaker Scares Away Edgy Intruders

WINCHESTER, Ky. (AP) — Even in an age of electronics, a bodiless voice has a way with edgy intruders.

Burglars looting E. F. Cheatham's store at Pine Grove fled when a voice from the dark commented: "Get out of that store"

They dropped a bag of intended loot, taking only some cigarettes.

Mrs. Cheatham, awakened by the break-in, used the nitercom system from her nearby home to panic the intruders.

Legislature Will Have 'New Look'

AUSTIN (AP)—The next Legislature could be loaded with a record number of new faces in January.

A possibility of 111 new House members and 12 new senators is shown by extraordinary heavy filing for ballot places and by an unusual number of drop-outs.

A Texas Legislative Service list disclosed a pattern that was anticipated when sharp statewide criticism was levelled at the Legislature for its part in the Texas insurance and veteran's land scandals. The Senate in particular drew much criticism because of fees paid some of its members in insurance affairs.

The figures show 70 members of the House will be opposed; 41 members will not run; and only 39 are without opposition.

Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock, regarded as an almost certain winner for the speakership, has an obstacle: He must win reelection.

In the Senate, 15 of the 31 members are holdovers. One is Sen. A. M. Aikin Jr., of Paris who is running for lieutenant governor. If Aikin wins, a special election would have to be called to fill his North Texas post.

Four senators have no opposition; nine have opposition; and three are dead or not seeking reelection.

Thus there would be 12 new senators, if all who have opposition lose, which seems improbable. There could be 111 new House members if all the 70 present members facing opposition lose That also seems improbable.

The chances are good that turnover could be unusually heavy, and it might set a record.

British Ready For Violence In Singapore

SINGAPORE (AP)—British rulers of this crown colony braced themselves today for an outbreak of violence believed developing in the wake of the collapse of independence talks in London.

Some British residents predicted bloodshed and rioting would break out on a scale comparable to the Cyprus violence in the Mediterranean.

Chief Minister David Marshal said in London he is coming home to resign, a move which could bring the leftist People's Action party into power.

"This is a great victory for Communism," Marshall asserted in a voice trembling with anger.

The three-week-old talks broke off yesterday over British insistence on retaining final control of internal defense on this island base. Marshall's delegation would agree only to a supreme security council on which the British would be represented but would not dominate.

Marshall described the British offer to grant limited selfgovernment as "a Christmas pudding with arsenic sauce."

"We were willing to make concessions all the way," he added, "but we were not prepared to subject ourselves completely."

British Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd said Britain "would always be ready to try again."

U. S. Auto Sales Expected To Drop

DETROIT (AP)—The president of General Motors, who last year accurately forecast record auto sales, has scaled down his 1956 prediction for the industry.

Harlow Curtice had said the current year would be the auto industry's second best with retail sales of 6½ million cars. Last night, at a news conference, he cut the figure to 5,800,000.

This is 1,600,000 under 1955. It would be the third highest sales total, exceeded in 1950 and 1955.

Curtice, under questioning, said General Motors now has 500 fewer hourly employes than it did last June. He did not go into detail. He said some additional layoffs are planned for this week and that he hoped these would be the last for the 1956 model run.

He said the industry as a whole had run into several difficulties in selling cars this year. But, he said, as far as General Motors is concerned, overproduction in 1955 was not one of the difficulties.

A questioner suggested that Walter Reuther, president of the United Auto Workers, and others had laid some of the blame for the poor market on overproduction and oversupply of cars in 1955.

Curtice said: "We have not indulged in overproduction at any time."

Among the difficulties, he said, were the Federal Reserve Board's policy of tighter credit and the great amount of speculation that 1957 models would be revolutionary.

Curtice said the credit controls were bad and should be reversed. He admitted his new sales figure was based on the assumption credit will be eased sometime while 1956 models still are on sale.

He said predcitions of revolutionary changes just weren't so.

He said 1957 models will cost more than 1956 models. He said labor and all raw materials are somewhat higher and that the price of steel is expected to rise.

Big Political Pot Expected To Be Raised

ATLANTIC CITY, N.J. (AP) — David Dubinsky expects the labor movement to raise some three million dollars for political purposes this year with more than half a million coming from his own International Ladies Garment Workers Union.

Dubinsky, president of the ILGWU, told the union's triennial convention yesterday he believes both major political parties will spend at least 30 million dollars on the presidential campaign.

The Republican outlay alone may reach that figure, the labor leader said.

He rapped those who attack unions' role in raising political funds and said the amount contributed by union members is smal compared with that raised from other sources.

The convention earlier adopted a resolution calling on the 440,000 ILGWU members to make voluntary contributions to the union's campaign fund to insure a "liberal victory" in the November elections.

Dubinsky said he expects the fund will receive more than $250,000 in voluntary contributions from members. Added to the balance of voluntary contributions from other years, this will boost the total ILGWU political kitty to more than $538,000, he said.

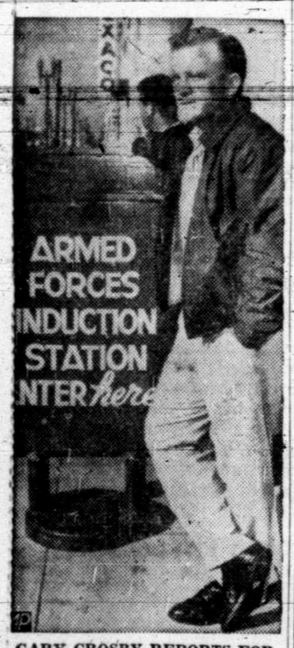
Arms Sent To Germany

BREMERHAVEN, Germany (AP)—The first large scale shipment of heavy arms equipment from the United States for West Germany's armed forces arrived Tuesday aboard the U.S. transport Kingsport Victory.

In a dockside address, U. S. minister to Germany Walter J. Dowling said these arms and other shipments to come would be a dominant factor in raising NATO's shield of defense against any aggression.

Lt. Gen. Adolf Eusinger of the West German army called the first shipment a "historic act." He said the republic would do its best to meet military obligations based on defense treaties with the West.

Today's shipment included 23 light M41 Walker Bulldog tanks, self-propelled artillery, and 20 tank recovery vehicles. All equipment is of the most modern type and similar to that currently in use by the U. S. armed forces and armies of other NATO countries. It is supplied under the U. S. mutual defense aid agreement.



GARY CROSBY REPORTS FOR INDUCTION—Gary Crosby, 22, eldest of Bing Crosby's sons, waits for the doors to open at the Armed Forces induction station in Los Angeles. Gary found the notice to report upon his recent return form a tour of Australia and is being assigned to the Army where his younger twin brothers, Philip and Dennis, already are serving.

Boy And His Dog Die Together In Ice Box

HUTCHINSON, Kan. (AP)—A six year old boy and his dog died together inside an ice chest.

They were found curled up inside the upright metal chest. The tiny dogs body was covering the one small air vent into the box.

Dead was Throyal L. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald L. Johnson. The mishap occurred on the farm of Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Sorenson, north of Hutchinson.

The boy and his dog were missing three hours before they were found in the chest in the yard.

Killed By Lightning

OKLAHOMA CITY (AP)—A lightning bolt, skimming across Lake Overholser, struck and killed Bob Ramsey, 17, of Oklahoma City as he fished with two companions last night.

Chemical-Repellent Uniforms Are Shunned

DALLAS (AP)—Postmaster W. B. Hudson said Monday that a plan for chemical-repellent uniforms for letter carriers to ward off attacking dogs has met with objection.

Some carriers say they are dog lovers and don't want to repel the pooches they meet on their routes.

Hudson said the uniforms were bieng considered because 20 to 25 complaints about vicious dogs are filed each month by carriers.

Light Rains Hit In East

By The Associated Press

Showers sprinkled the eastern quarter of the nation today but dry weather prevailed in all other sections of the country.

Scattered light showers extended over the eastern Great Lakes region southward through the Ohio Valley and eastward through the Middle Atlantic Coast states and into New England. Light rain fell in parts of Tennessee, Mississippi, Alabama and Georgia.

Skies were mostly clear west of the Rockies and generally fair weather was reported over the plains states, the Mississipp iValley and most of the Southeast.

There was a cooling trend over the Great Lakes region and the upper Mississippi Valley with early morning temperatures mostly in the 30s and 40s. It was a little below freezing in some northern Midwest areas.

Cooler weather also was reported in the Ohio Valley, Tennessee and the lower Mississippi Valley

Boy Suffocates

NEW YORK (AP) — A 5-year-old boy suffocated yesterday when he crawled into a refrigerator and the door slammed shut behind him. Searching policemen found the body of Iveson Austin Jr. crouched in a refrigerator on the porch of an empty summer house across the street from his home.

'Atomic Device' Is Tested By Great Britain Near Australia

CANBERRA, Australia (AP)—Britain exploded an "atomic device" today in a test in the Monte Bello Islands off the coast of west Australia. The test was termed successful but there was no indication of the nature of the device.

British spokesmen said last month the blast would be detonated on a tower. There have been reports it might be a type of "trigger" for a hydrogen bomb test Britain is expected to hold late this year.

Supply Minister Howard Beale announced that an "atomic device was successfully exploded" at 1:31 p.m., Eastern Australian Time, and said "all safety precautions are in operation." He added that "scientific records are being collected for accurate evaluation."

The current series of atomic tests is the third conducted by Britain. The first British atomic blast was set off in the Monte Bellos in 1952. The second test series was carried out at the Woomera rocket range on the Australian mainland in 1953.

An announcement last month said the radioactive fall-out from the third test would be less than occurred in the 1952 explosion in the island chain.

Reports from the explosion area said the blast sent an atomic cloud soaring high into the air and prevailing winds swept it out over the Indian Ocean, away from the mainland.

Reporters at the town of Onslow, 80 miles from the explosion site, said the blast gave off a bright flash followed by a mushroom-shaped cloud. The rapidly swelling cloud took the shape of a woman's head, they reported, and "favor trails from jet planes roaring in to investigate the cloud became visible.

Seven minutes after the reporters saw the flash, they said a thunderous rumble rolled in across the ocean, causing a slight vibration in Onslow. A quarter of an hour later the cloud had drifted into a giant "Z" formation extending from the horizon upward into the clouds.

Only a handful of scientists and officials knew the real significance of the blast. Speculation included the theory that it might have been an atomic bomb warhead for a guided missile.

Radio Stations Go Off Air In Idaho

BOISE, Idaho (AP)—Idaho's radio stations went off the air for 15 minutes yesterday in a statewide broadcast blackout during National Radio Week.

Broadcaster said they wanted to show listeners what life would be like without radio.

Stations reported their switchboards were flooded with calls from listeners asking what caused the silence.

One radio repairman in Boise, unaware of the observance, was called to fix a radio during the blackout. He said he took the set apart and installed a new set of tubes before he discovered nothing was wrong with it.

BODY BY FISHER

The meaningful emblem of Body by Fisher

When you see "sterling" on silver you know what it means—solid silver, all the way through.

And when you see the medallion "Body by Fisher" on an automobile it means much the same thing—quality all the way through, in things unseen as well as on the visible, gleaming surface.

The significance of this emblem cannot be tested on the showroom floor. Its meaning was not built up in a day but only after long years in which buyers learned that "Body by Fisher" was a veritable symbol of solid, enduring satisfaction in automobile ownership.

Only one who has owned a Chevrolet for several years can fully know the deep sense of satisfaction this emblem pledges. It is the maker's warranty of an inner soundness that your eye or your touch cannot test. And only Chevrolet in the low-price field is entitled to wear the small, proud plaque that proclaims "Body by Fisher."
