

JFK Maps Appeal For Treaty

30 Nations Sign Pact

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Kennedy polished up an appeal to the Senate for resounding approval of the new East-West limited test ban pact today while representatives of at least 30 nations signed the treaty in Washington, London and Moscow.

The presidential message asking ratification and placing the pact officially before the Senate was due at the Capitol in late afternoon.

Senate approval by the necessary two-thirds vote is expected in about a month, but not before some reservations to the ban on atmospheric, outer space and underwater blasts are registered.

Sen. Henry M. Jackson, D-Wash., for one, is calling for scientific testimony on Soviet progress toward neutralizing hostile missiles before he makes up his mind on the agreement.

The United States has asked other nations to support the pact, which is scheduled for Monday in the Soviet Union. With Australian Ambassador Howard Beale leading the procession, representatives of 26 nations will call at the State Department at 15 minute intervals to sign.

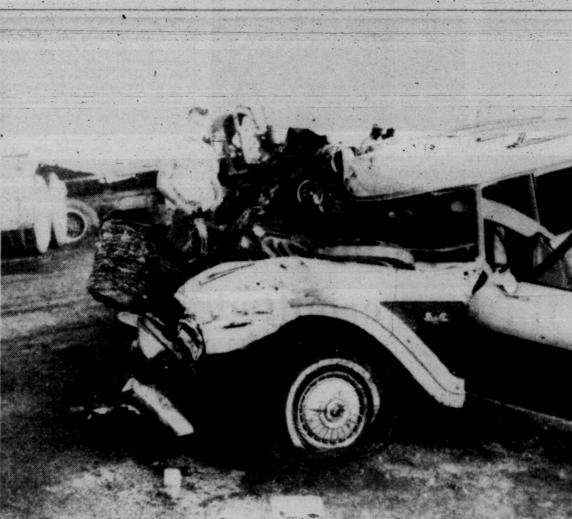

In Moscow and London, the treaty will be signed by other nations and in some cases by the same nations signing in Washington. The State Department estimated 56 nations in all will join.

Claims Are Disputed In Haiti Revolt

By ROBERT BERRELEZ. PORT AU PRINCE, Haiti (AP)—President Francois Duvalier's government claims the invasion of Haiti by Haitian exiles has been crushed, but exile sources in the Dominican Republic insist the invaders are advancing.

Information Minister George J. Figaro said in a communique that Duvalier's troops had crushed the invasion after several hours of fighting in north Haiti Monday. He claimed the rebels, led by Gen. Leon Cantave, a former chief of staff, had been driven into the neighboring Dominican Republic.

Private sources in Port au Prince claimed Cantave was still on Haitian soil pressing his drive to topple Duvalier.

A rebel spokesman in the Dominican Republic accused Duvalier's regime of issuing false victory claims to try and discourage Haitians from joining the invaders.

By The Associated Press. NEW YORK (AP)—A federal jury convicted three men Wednesday of defrauding small investors in Texas oil stock sales totaling about $2.5 million.

The men are Cecil Hagen of Houston, former president of Gulf Coast Leaseholds; Roy Kelly of Washington, former Texas oil lawyer; and Milton Shuck of New York, a former broker. Sentences will be passed Oct. 8.

The indictments charged that through fraudulent means, including dissemination of false information, the defendants ran the price of Gulf coast stock up to $16 a share.

Kennedy Baby Still In Serious Condition

BOSTON (AP)—Patrick Bouvier Kennedy, one-day old son of the President, was listed in serious condition today, but doctors said the way he spent his first night gave some encouragement.

The White House put wraps on release of medical information directly at Boston Children's Hospital where the 4-pound, 10-ounce baby is fighting breathing difficulties.

The President visited his new son this morning at the Boston Children's Medical Center and moments later, presidential press secretary Pierre Salinger issued this statement.

The baby's condition remained about the same through the night. "It was a source of some encouragement to doctors who felt the baby's condition would get worse."

The Gardeners Corner

By EARL ARONSON
AP Newsfeatures

When it comes to roses, All-America time is gone - and the winners this year are two fragrant new varieties, Granada and Saratoga.

Granada is a gay, bright red, pink and yellow hybrid tea. Saratoga is a white floribunda. The All-America Rose Selections are determined by leading professional horticulturists in exacting tests.

Granada and Saratoga were the 62nd and 63rd winners since the awards were inaugurated in 1940. Granada is the first multicolored hybrid tea to win the AARS title. It was developed by Robert Lindquist, who won his first All-American award at the ages of 27 in 1954 with the floribunda Lilbet. He won again in 1955 with the orchid pink hybrid tea Tiffany.

E. S. Borener was responsible for Saratoga, his fifth winner. Other All-Americas developed by Borener - who reportedly has had more roses patented under his name than anyone else in this country - include the floribundas Fashion, Vogue, White Bouquet, Gold Cup, Ivory Fashion, and the hybrid teas Diamond Jubilee and Katherine T. Marshall.

Saratoga was named for the New York city of Saratoga Springs, which this year is observing the centennial of the Saratoga horse race track. Granada was named by a little girl when it was a seedling.

The two winners outscored competitors in 24 official test gardens for fragrance, vigor, flower production, foliage, disease resistance and adaptability to all sections of the country, judges reported.

Granada's semi-double, classically-shaped flower averages four inches across. Saratoga's double blooms are high-centered and open to 4-4 1/2 inches across.

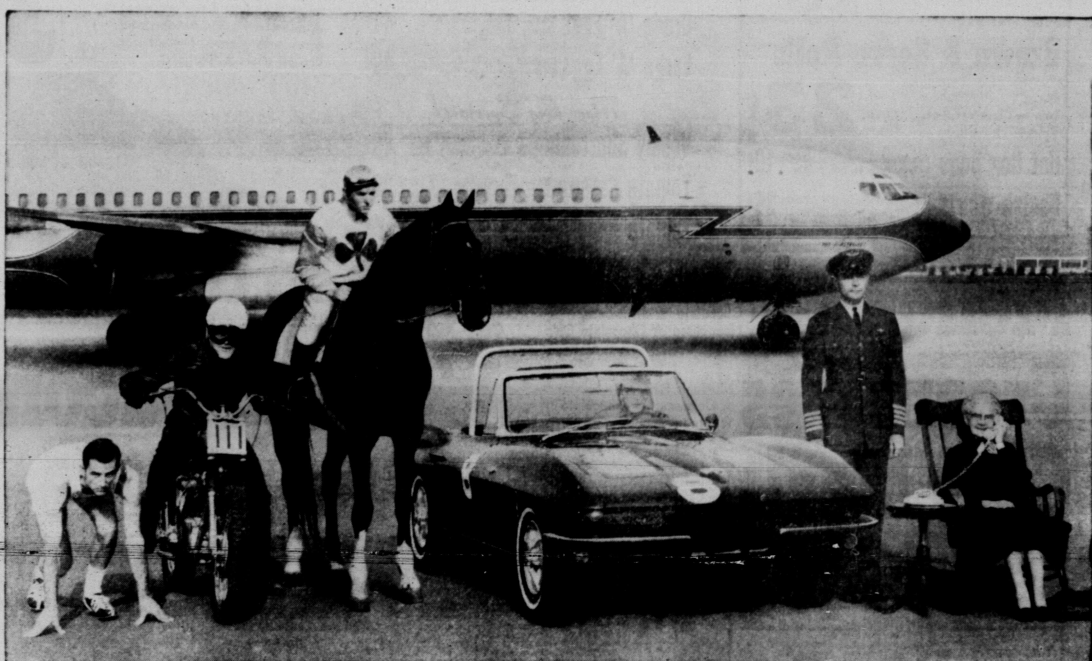

Saratoga is a cross between White Bountiful, the 1957 AARS winner, and a white seedling of Garnette, a small-greenhouse rose distinguished for its firm petals and long-lasting flower.

Lindquist, who searches for the unusual, crossed the little-known floribunda Cavalcade and the proven Tiffany to bring forth Granada. Eight thousand seedlings resulted from the original cross, pollination made seven years ago. A great-great-grandparent of Granada is the old favorite Tallman.

Granada and Saratoga will be available for fall planting.

Sanford's Luck Is Getting Worse

By MURRAY ROSE
Associated Press Sports Writer
About this time a year ago Jack Sanford had won seven straight games in a streak that eventually stretched to 16 and an outstanding 247 record with the San Francisco Giants.

In that long victory run, the husky right-hander completed only five games, getting relief help and assistance in support to enable him to earn credit for the other 11 victories. This was mighty nice and was reflected in a fat $87,000 salary for 1963, beating the star pitcher of a National League championship team.

Somehow, all of the little pieces that fitted so neatly together last year are all out of whack this year. For instance take Wednesday night in Houston. The 34-year-old ace hurled a masterful three-hitter against the Colts but lost 1-0.

Sanford's mates got nine hits but couldn't dent the plate against Dick Farrell and relief star Hal Woodeshick. It looked like they might in the ninth when Orlando Cepeda and Matty Alou singled off Farrell to put men on first and third with one out. But Woody stepped in then for his 40th appearance of the year and got the hitless Harvey Kuenn to hit into a double play.

So now Sanford has a 1912 record against a mark of 144 at the same time in 1962, which is a big difference and a good reason as to why the Los Angeles Dodgers have a six game lead over the Giants as well as the St. Louis Cardinals.

The Dodgers upped their advantage by a full game over all of the first division clubs by nipping the Cubs in Chicago 9-0 on Tommy Davis' homer in the 11th inning. The New York Mets clubbed the Cardinals, 7-3, the Phils edged Cincinnati 2-1, and Pittsburgh topped Milwaukee 5-4.

In the American League the front-running New York Yankees clubbed Washington 9-1, Chicago thumped Kansas City 7-3, Cleveland bused Baltimore 4-1, Detroit edged Boston, 5-4, and Minnesota led Los Angeles 6-4.

...Davis' belted homer in the 11th inning against reliever Lindy McDaniel proved the winner at Chicago although the Dodgers got another to make sure. This gave the victory to Ron Ferraro who took the loss over for Sandy Koufax after the fireballer had yielded a tying run in the 10th inning.

Koufax, bidding for his 19th victory and 11th shutout of the year, and Chicago's Dick Ellsworth had waged a scoreless duel for nine innings. The Dodgers scored first in the 10th off Ellsworth on Manny Willis' single which scored Marvin Breeding from second. The Cubs got that back from Koufax on a walk and singles by Leo Burke and Ellis Burten.

Sandy got himself another mention in the record book, however, by fanning 11. This gave him 210 whiffs for the season and enabled him to tie Christy Mathewson's National League record of three consecutive 200-strikeout seasons. Jim Hickman became the first New York Met ever to hit for the cycle—single, double, triple and home—in pacing the aroused cellar-dwellers to a 7-3 triumph over the contending Cards. Veteran Duke Snider lashed three singles in the Mets' 11-hit attack against four Card pitchers, starting with loser Eric Broglio, 4-8-8. Tracy Stallard led the Reds to eight six hits for his fifth victory against 10 defeats.

Wild pitches resulted in winning runs for both the Pirates and Phils. Believer Frank Funk facing his first batter in the ninth inning with two out and the bases loaded, heaved one out of reach while facing Jim Rice, Fred Spivey and Bob Lyle. Funk also pitched with the run that gave the Pirates a 5-4 win over the Milwaukee Braves.

Jim Maloney, a 17-game winner for Cincinnati, cost the Reds a 2-1 decision to the Phils. With the score tied 1-1 in the seventh, Tony Taylor and Johnny Callison singled. Then the young right-hander uncorked the wild pitch that scored the tie-breaker. The defeat was Maloney's fourth and snapped his victory streak at six. Veteran Ed McClellan led the Reds to eight six hits for his 11th victory. He has lost seven.

Butts' Attorneys Begin Rebuttal

ATLANTA (AP)—Attorneys for former Georgia coach Wally Butts, begin the rebuttal of the charges of a federal judge's declaration that a magazine article charging Butts and Alabama coach Paul 'Bear' Bryant rigged a football game was libelous on its face.

South Choice To Win In All-Star Tilt

HOUSTON (AP)—The South became the favorite today to change the trend of the Texas Coaching School all-star football game—an annual tussle that has seen the North win seven of the last nine contests.

Sports writers picked the South by a three-to-one margin as the squads wound up training in checked out only two injuries of importance and looked toward the clash Friday night at Rice Stadium, where 25,000 are expected to turn out.

Pro Teams Have Full Week Ahead

By The Associated Press
For those fans who think sports is spelled f-o-o-b-a-l, there are happy tidings starting tonight and for the entire week.

Within a seven-day span, opening with tonight's Dallas Cowboys-Los Angeles Rams game at Los Angeles, the teams in the National and American Football Leagues will engage in 11 exhibitions for the purpose of conditioning, finding out which players to keep or drop—and for making money.

On Saturday Boston plays the Chargers at San Diego, on Sunday it is Denver at Oakland, and Wednesday finds Boston opposing Houston at Lowell, Mass.

The AFL already has had three exhibitions in which all of the favorites were beaten. San Diego thumped Kansas City 24-14, Denver topped Houston 27-14, and Oakland, which won only one game in 1962, edged Boston 24-17, all last weekend.

Killebrew Takes Over Home Run Lead In AL With 26

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Quick-firing Harmon Killebrew ruled murderers' row today after a power struggle at Los Angeles in which he disposed kingly Bob Adam issued a warning to the guy who shoved him from the No. 1 spot.

Hammerin' Harmon, who along with Allison and Earl Battey, forms Minnesota's power triumvirate, took over the American League home run lead Wednesday night with a three-run eighth inning shot that catapulted the Twins to a 9-4 victory over the Angels.

Killebrew's 26th homer gave him one more than Allison and put him five up on Battey. Killebrew, who led for the home run championship with 42 in 1959 and captured the crown with 46 last year, is trying to become only the third player in league history to hold or share the title three or more times.

Allison was forced to the sidelines for two consecutive days with a fracture of the ring finger on his right hand. He was struck by a pitch from Los Angeles' Dean Chance in Tuesday night's game. Warned Allison at the time.

That's the third time he has hit me this season and I'm getting tired of it," Allison was forced to the sidelines for two consecutive days with a fracture of the ring finger on his right hand. He was struck by a pitch from Los Angeles' Dean Chance in Tuesday night's game. Warned Allison at the time.

By The Associated Press
Oklahoma City's Jerry Nelson turned in the top pitching performance in the Pacific Coast League Wednesday night. Nelson went the distance on the mound for the 89ers, limiting Denver to one hit in his first game as a doubleheader. The 89ers won the game 4-0. In the nightcap Denver jumped back to beat the 89ers 7-4.

El Paso Colt Team To Play Fort Worth

ABILENE (AP)—Undeclared El Paso and once beaten Fort Worth will battle for the Colt League's Western region championship tonight.

If Fort Worth wins, they'll play another game Friday night. Abilene pitcher Mike Choate did nearly as well, fanning nine and giving up five hits. Pinch hitter Jim Wehman singled, Big Francis home from second base for Fort Worth's lone run in the last half of the seventh.

Three-run homer in the ninth for the Twins to pad the final margin. Lew Wagner hit No. 22 for the Angels.
Kaline greeted Red Sox relief ace Dick Rickard with a three-run home run against Steve Ridenick in the seventh inning. The following second loss on Radatz's losing streak to five hits for an 8-0 record with his 14th victory.

Craig Desperate, May Wear No. 13

NEW YORK (AP)—The way Roger York's luck is running he'll probably slip on a four-leaf clover and trip over a rabbit's foot on the way to the Polo Grounds Friday night.

Craig, who may wear uniform No. 13 and pitch from under a ladder while kicking a black cat, took a step closer to the major league record for consecutive losses Wednesday without throwing one pitch.

Craig got the lucky break when the major league records committee made a thorough check of past games and reduced the number of consecutive losses credited to John Nabors of the 1916 Philadelphia Athletics from 20 to 19.

Sinton Rates Top Choice In Class AA

HOUSTON (AP)—Sinton, Rockdale, Dallas Lake Highlands and Quanh are rated the top teams in Class AA school football. Sinton is picked as the probable champion.

Coaches interviewed at the Texas Coaching School ranked the teams and came up with many successors to Jacksboro, the unbeaten and untied champion. Sinton, which went to the semifinals last year, is back with a veteran-packed squad.

TOKYO (AP)—There's a story about a young Japanese who went to the United States and was taken to a baseball park.

"Why," he exclaimed, "they've copied the game from the Japanese."

His observation was an accurate indication of how baseball has become a part of Japanese life in the 60 years since it was introduced to this country — by Americans. And today American ball players are playing important roles in the sport in this baseball happy land.

HIGH NOON'S GOT TO COME SOMETIME

Glorious Month Of August Noted For Table Pleasures

BY INEZ ROBB

Now, if ever, come perfect days, and never mind all that old propaganda about June. True, June is the month of peaches and their peacans, of rhymes and roses, of brides and sweet girl graduates, and of graduate students with a Ph.D. and a $8,000 job contract tucked into pants pocket underneath the silken doctorate gown.

But let us sing a song to August, the gourmet's delight, and the gourmand's paradise. Let us strike the lyre and hymn the month in which the horn of plenty is tipped and running over, pouring its lavish benison of fresh garden and orchard bounty into the market bags of the nation.

What still life can compare with the beauty of a highway fruit and vegetable stand, slyly set by the side of the road where the race of men, far from going by, halts to raid the premises as if food had been outlawed?

And what does a week-end invitation from friends with a country home mean to New Yorkers, long in city pent? Frankly, it means not only an opportunity to commune with nature, plus bed, for the breakfast and findings, but a market and are never seen in New York. They have nothing in common with the peaches, hard as stone, that flood the New York shops in August; and that the customer buys in fond hope that they will ripen before they wither.

The juicy beauties are brought back to New York with prayer and loving care. For a day or two they carry us transplanted New Yorkers back to the family orchards of Ohio and Kansas, of Idaho and California, and the warm, August days of droning bees and barefoot watermelons.

There are little watermelons, no larger than the field-ripe cantaloupes beside them. And we who knew only the big, red, meaty watermelons of our youth eye them with suspicion and pass on to the old-fashioned muskmelons.

Little new potatoes, not more than an inch in diameter, lay in wait to trap the Executive Suite type cun - Nebraska. Does he buy them? I wonder, dreaming of tiny new potatoes creamed with fresh peas, like manna used to make? Or does he remember new potatoes, boiled in their jackets in water into which a handful of fresh dill had been thrust?

Potatoes are only come - ons. Oh, the city type buys a basket of them and of the beefsteaks, all right, and a mound of the peaches, so beautiful that they cry out to be touched, and three pounds of string beans and a half dozen cucumbers (does he yearn for Aunt Hattie's cold cucumber soup?).

But these are not the reason he stopped the big car. What he stopped for, and there can be no doubt of it, is that crown of August's bounty, the pinnacle of America's gastronomic delights: roasting ears.

He picks up the ears hungrily and, no matter how long he has been separated from Iowa, he says delightedly, "It's ready. See, the tassel is brown."

Junior Editors Quiz on GOLF

QUESTION: Why is the pin the golf ball rests on called a "tee"?

ANSWER: You've probably heard people say - "That's it - to a T!" - when they meant something was exactly right. The letter T is often used as a symbol to show the exact placement of something, and this comes from the draughtsman's instrument, the "T-square," which we show in the upper left-hand corner. Draughtsmen use T-squares to place or measure things perfectly and exactly. The word "tee" has the same meaning of an exact or precise position. Golfers start their game by hitting the ball away from some small elevation, often made of wood or rubber and, since this is an exact spot, it came to be called a "tee" and the act of driving the ball from it became "teeing off."

Golf has become amazingly popular. It is said to be America's favorite outdoor sport. Perhaps this is because skill is more important than brute strength, and this makes golf popular with all ages. It takes plenty of walking, which is splendid exercise. The golfer's purpose is to drive his ball into a distant hole in the fewest possible strokes. There are plenty of things which happen to make it exciting; his ball may land in the "rough," or in a "sandtrap," or a "water hazard." And there's always the thrill of reaching the "putting green" and "sinking" your ball into the hole.

FOR YOU TO DO: "Par" is the number of strokes officials decide is average for experts to hit the ball into a hole. Learn these golf terms to teach yourself more about the game: a "birdie" is making a hole in one stroke under par; but a "bogey" is bad - that's when you take one stroke more than par to reach a hole.

Checkup Is Not What It Used To Be

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Getting an annual medical checkup is a leaping status symbol today—particularly if it turns up a rare ailment no one else has.

I wondered why old acquaintances were cutting me dead in the street, and strangers fled from me at cocktail parties. Finally, an old friend took me aside and said:

"I hate to be the one to have to tell you this, but it's your own fault. People have begun to avoid you. You've let our set down dreadfully by failing to get your annual medical checkup."

"This is a very common ground for discussion."

I protested that after my last checkup five years ago the doctor told me I was "medically uninteresting."

"I'd be rather than let word of that get around in our crowd," I said.

"Oh, surely, there's something wrong with you by now," replied my friend cheerfully. "Get another checkup."

So I did.

Remember when all the doctor did was to make you stick out your tongue and say "ah," thump you on the chest, listen to your ticker, and then tell you to take a dose of Epsom salts?

Those simple days are past. Medicine is on the assembly line now. My doctor didn't make me say "ah" at all, but examined me from stem to stern with instruments. I'd never seen before and don't want to again.

"Well," I asked, when he had finally put me back on my bare feet again.

"You don't have athlete's foot, and your scalp seems okay," he said. "But everything in between is suspect."

"And that means—" I whimpered.

"Just a few routine hospital tests," he answered consolingly, as I tried to remember the name of my friendly neighborhood undertaker.

They X-ray you, stare at you through a fluorescent scope, pour liquid chalk and other chemicals into you, run your symptoms through data processors and computer gadgets.

Then a pretty technician needles you and draws off enough blood to put the American Red Cross over its national collection goal for 1963.

Finally they strap you into an electrocardiograph that snitches on your madly pounding heart. As you lie there listening to the pretty technician talk about her vacation, you try vainly to think up some famous last words.

The only phrase that comes to mind is—"pray now—pay later."

Several days later, after the doctor had reviewed all this medical machine gossip, I crept cringingly into his office for the verdict.

"Well, if you give up your boisterous and profligate ways, and settle down to a calm and sensible way of life," said the doctor, "you should last for a long time yet. But, of course, this is no guarantee. I don't have a pipeline to the Lord."

"Yeah, doc," I mumbled. "But just what exactly is wrong with me?"

"Specifically, you're at least 20 pounds overweight, and you have a protuberant verruca on your forehead."

"What's a protuberant verruca?" I pleaded, wiping my brow.

"A big wart!"

I should be the life of the party in my set from now on. All they have is colitis, ulcers, hypertension, or here and there a rampant thyroid or a cobblestone-littered gallbladder.

Statistics Show Scurry Has Big Stake In Oil Business

With oil and gas production worth about $93.8 million a year, Scurry County citizens have a financial stake in the worldwide demand for energy and the complex economic and political problems involving the petroleum industry, according to statistics released this week by Texas Mid-Continent Oil & Gas Association.

"We have pulled together some figures from the most authoritative sources so residents of Scurry County can see how local pocketbooks are affected by some of the issues which involve our industry," said J. Clyde Tomlinson, Association president.

"Issues of current concern include the proposals to cut percentage depletion rates, extension of federal controls over prices at which Texas producers sell their gas, and development of laws and production methods that will help Texas compete with other states and nations for markets."

The latest year for which U.S. Bureau of Mines figures are available, 1961, shows Scurry County producing more than 31.1 million barrels of crude oil, valued at about $92.5 million; and 103 billion cubic feet of natural gas, with a value of $4.3 million. Scurry ranks 5th among Texas counties in value of oil and gas production. In 1961 there were 4,344 producing oil wells in the county, according to the Texas Railroad Commission. The Diamond M. Kelley - Snyder and Cogdell Fields are classified by the Oil and Gas Journal as three of the nation's "giant" fields, with an estimated ultimate recovery in excess of 100 million barrels each since discovery.

Although its first field was discovered 40 years ago, Scurry County is the scene for the industry's continued search for oil and gas. Some 91 wells were drilled in Scurry County last year, with 21 being wildcat exploratory wells, according to the Oil and Gas Journal. The Association estimated that more than $4.9 million was spent on drilling in the county this past year and some $1.1 million of this went for dry holes. Close to $60,000 was spent last year on geophysical crews using seismic devices to probe the underground formations of Scurry County for possible drilling locations.

Leasing adds many thousands of dollars to the county's economy. Tabulations by the International Oil Scouts Association show major companies in 1961 were paying rentals on about 99,000 undeveloped acres, which comprise about one-sixth of the county's area.

Royalty payments to Scurry County farmers, ranchers and other landowners are running at more than $1.7 million annually, the Association calculated.

Scurry County producers and royalty owners also make a sizeable contribution to the support of state government, with production tax payments of more than $4.3 million a year.

Industry taxes likewise are important to the county government and school districts in the county. For instance, 98 per cent of the local property taxes collected for the Snyder Independent School District come from oil and gas operators.

Some impact on the Scurry County economy has been registered by petroleum industry payrolls. According to figures from the Texas Employment Commission, the industry payroll is more than $7.2 million a year, with the average employe receiving more than $5,500 annually.

Four natural gasoline plants are operated in the county, handling some 184 million cubic feet of gas a day.

Gang Robs Mail Train In England

CHEDDINGTON, England (AP)—A gang of 20 to 30 masked men held up the Glasgow-London mail train today and the postoffice said the loss may exceed a million pounds ($2.8 million).

The bandits made off with about 120 bags of registered mail. Included in it was a large quantity of used but valid currency which was being returned to be reprocessed.

A shipment of diamonds also was believed lost.

It was the biggest and boldest train robbery in British history.

The bandits stopped the train about 3 a.m. at a rural crossing 40 miles northwest of London. They covered the green signal at the crossing with a glove and put batteries behind the red signal to light it. They also cut railway telephone wires.

When engineer Jack Mills, 57, stopped the diesel engine, some of the gang attacked him and his assistant while others smashed windows of the first two mail coaches and climbed aboard. They tied up the four mail sorters.

The gang then uncoupled the two coaches from the remaining 10 on the train, which had about 50 postal workers aboard. The engineer and his assistant were handcuffed together and forced to drive the engine and the first two coaches a mile farther south.

The gang unloaded the registered mail bags on a bridge over a narrow country road and dropped them to cars waiting on the road 15 feet below. Then they made their getaway.

Flash Floods Hit Southern California
LOS ANGELES (AP)—Thunder showers deluged parts of Southern California Wednesday, causing flash floods which washed out highways, swept away cars and flooded two communities.

Up to three feet of water flooded Victorville and Apple Valley in the Mojave Desert. Residents and businessmen piled sandbags, brooms, shovels and rags in front of their homes and stores to stem the flood, sheriff's deputies said.

LIGHTEST MEXICO

BY JOHN ABNEY

COZUMEL, Mexico — Snares in aboard a CMA flying machine with a group of colleagues to witness the laying of the cornerstone of Mr. Cesar Balsa's newest hotelery which is now underway.

And as we stepped off the plane in the bright, Caribbean sunshine, Mr. Balsa called me over and introduced me to Gov. Aaron Merino Fernandez of the Quintana Roo Territory. I almost fainted.

For it was worth all the ensuing hardships of banquets and inspecting the beach and swimming facilities. In my youth, I got within about six yards of a governor of Texas. But as a rule, the closest I get to high political figures is the desk of the receptionist who says, "He is very busy. Any messages?"

From now on the procedure will be different. I will say sternly, "Ma'am, this hand has not been washed since Gov. Merino grasped it firmly and gave me a warm smile. Tell the Minister I am here."

Cozumel has been slowly growing into a resort for several years. It has the most gorgeous, clear water you have seen anywhere. Aqualing divers suffer from mild convulsions merely looking at it.

And Mr. Balsa's new Hotel Presidente Cozumel is expected to give the little island off the Yucatan Peninsula some high voltage in the drive to make this one of the world's top resorts.

Now for people like you and me, a gentleman with a multi-million dollar corporation merely buys some real estate and tells his aides, "put me up a good hotel around here, men."

Not so with Mr. Balsa and the problems Cozumel presents for such a project.

First of all, he studies the tourist industry and things like potentialities. After he figures it all out he takes his feet of architects, each one a specialist in something, and after they inspect the territory he says, "Let's build it here."

Comes then Mr. Juan Sordo Maldeno, the chief architect, who gives the real estate a good going over and says, it should be this type of hotel.

The Balsa Hotels normally go up in the air. This one will be completely different. Mr. Balsa found himself an ancient pirate lagoon that sweeps inland and is crystal clear all the way down. At the entrance is the remnant of a stone looking tower where the buccaniers kept a sharp watch for passing candidates as well as for their fellow industrialists.

Then the architect who specializes in wood work says this type of wood for Mr. Sordo's design would go well. And pretty soon everybody gets ideas together and they build a model that is indeed startling and new.

El Presidente Cozumel will be a long, low tropical building draped over the rim of the big lagoon.

A golf course, yacht club, night spots, tennis courts and everything for above and below the water. A whole city that occupies about 175 acres. Balsaville.

To complete this project the Balsa crew will have some first class problems to solve. A jungle of hard, hard wood has to be leveled and landscaped by the flower architects.

Then they have to build a camp for the workmen; import food and water, set up an electric power plant and since Cozumel is a sparsely populated island they must bring in several hundred workmen from the mainland.

Gov. Aaron Merino, a promotion-minded gentleman, says just tell us what you need, which is about all there is, building a hotel out in the wilderness.

Mr. Balsa announced his Presidente Cozumel would open in December, 1964. And the governor and architects nodded with confidence.

Woman Says Bribe Offer Was Made

GALVESTON (AP)—Mrs. Mona Craft testified in federal court Wednesday that David Stephens offered her a $2,500 bribe in the sale of rice acreage allotments.

Mrs. Craft reported the irregularities in the Matagorda County office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service. She told the jury Stephens made the bribe approach to her at Galveston in April of 1962.

She testified that Carl Lively, then in charge of the Matagorda office, was not expected to live long, when Stephens approached her. Lively died two months later.

Mrs. Craft quoted Stephens as saying: "You'll have an opportunity to keep $2,500 immediately if you keep on doing transfer reports of rice acreage allotments as Mr. Lively has been making you do."

Defense lawyer Percy Foreman asked if the conversation did not take place in a bedroom at the beachfront Galvez Hotel here. She replied that it took place before about 25 other ASCS employees in a small sitting room.

Foreman then asked if it was not true that she had consumed at least 10 drinks, had danced the twist for those present and had sat in the laps of at least five men. She answered no on each point but said she had two drinks.

Several rice farmers testified they bought or sold rice allotments and that Stephens in one way or another was involved.

One of the farmers is Harrison Steward of Edna, a former All America halfback at the University of Texas in the 1930s.

Stephens' trial began Tuesday. The former manager of the Brazoria County ASCS is under indictment for offering a bribe, accepting a bribe, making a false statement and of conspiracy.

All the counts involve rice production acreage allotments which Stephens is accused of buying, transferring or selling illegally in Matagorda, Brazoria and Jackson counties.

Gambler's Body Found

DENVER, Colo. (AP)—Police say Robin R. Roberts, a Denver gambler, was shot to death because he lived up to his nickname, "Walkie Talkie."

Roberts' bullet-riddled body was found Wednesday in a shallow ditch west of Denver. He had been beaten severely and shot four times in the right side.

He had given information to police on several occasions, including once in a case that resulted in conviction of two underworld characters.

"He had a sharp wit and glib tongue," one patrolman said of Roberts, 33.

No arrests have been made in the case, police said.
