EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT.

Austin, August 23d, 1870.

To A. Siemering & Co.,

You are hereby notified that I have this day appointed you paper, "The San Antonio Express," the Official Journal of the twenty-third Judicial District.

In testimony whereof, I have hereunto signed my name and caused the Great Seal of the State to be affixed, at the City of Austin, this 23d day of August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and seventy, and the Independence of Texas, the thirty-ninth.

EDMUND J. DAVIS, Governor.

JAMES P. NEWCOMB.

ecutive Committee for the 23rd Judicial District, and calls upon the county Executive committees of Bexar, Comal and Wilson, to at once report to him the condition of their respective counties, and the names and post office addresses of the members of the County committees. More by Circular.

A. SIEMERING.

The Party of the Unsuccessful

Departures.

Anyone who has had occasion to peruse the immortal work of the great Cervantes, and who has paid any attention to the political history of the country, cannot fail to have observed the many amusing points of resemblance between the idiosyncrasies of the Knight of the Rueful Visage and the insane movements of the Democracy.

Both, for instance, were honestly impressed with the idea that they alone represented the true chivalry; both were crazy on the subject of chivalry; both were constantly running a tilt against the more peacefully inclined, and both were perpetrually coming to grief in consequence.

Both were attempting to carry out what belonged to a past age; the idea of traversing the world as a knight errant in search of adventure, was not a whit more ab-hold furniture with them. We have no information of reviewing the war, but the departure was not a success.

A second departure occurred immediately after the war, when the chivalry needed to shake the dust from their feet and depart forever for the more congenial climes of Mexico and Brazil. But even this departure was a failure, and they came all back and returned "like a dog to his vomit."

The third departure occurred not long since, under the auspices of the late Mr.

Vallandigham; and this, too, has proved a failure.

We think, therefore, that the title of "The Party of the Unsuccessful Departures" is very appropriate.

Now let the party initiate the Knight of the Rueful Visage (who, however, was in-elligent and opposed to Ku-Klux) have one lucid interval before death, repent of its folly, and be buried out of sight and memory, and the people will endeavor to forget that it ever existed.

An Election this Fall.

Let us by all means have an election for members of the Legislature this fall. The present Legislature have certainly fulfilled the full tenure of their term, two years, and have sat longer in session than ever was contemplated in law. They have held two annual sessions, and have no right to hold a third session, under the express terms of the constitution. They have no authority to call an adjournment "recess," or to do a "recess," as other than an "adjournment." They have done enough for one legislature; the State should not expect more service from them. Some of their legislation will remain long years to their credit and honor. Our State Treasury is dry—let it have a rest and replenish in order that the machinery of government may be run without impediment.

The Legislature should not meet again this year. The State cannot stand the expense. The last session cost $400,000; it ought to suffice for 1871.

The Governor is looked to by the people and he will be sustained if he thinks proper to proclaim an election this Fall.

The mass meeting of the Republicans of San Antonio (Precinct No. 1) took place last night for the purpose of selecting delegates to represent them in the county convention, which is to meet next Saturday.

The meeting, which was a very large one, was held in the Firemen's Hall, and was attended by men of all nationalities and creeds, and of every station in life.

The assembly was first called to order by Mr. Siemering, who explained in a few words the object of the meeting, and suggested the necessity of a chairman.

Julius W. Van Slyck, Esq., was then called to the chair.

Mr. Van Slyck, upon taking the chair, made a few pertinent remarks upon the necessity of unity of action; he called attention to the fact that they were not there to favor the nomination of any one man, nor the individual interest of anybody; they were here worshippers, but were imbued with the truth that the Republican party was not one of men, but a party of principle, whose motto was equal and exact justice to all men; that the objection that some Republicans might have to individual representative Republicans, was justified in one in deserting his colors; that the peril was great, that should the party be defeated we might expect sooner or later, a repetition of the horrors of 1861.

Dr. Slocum having been chosen secretary, the meeting proceeded to business.

It was resolved, on motion of Judge Gamble, that a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to select the delegates and alternates to represent the sense of the meeting at the county convention, the selections of the committee to be subject to the approval of the meeting, whereupon the chairman appointed the following gentle meeting in a very eloquent and emphatic manner.

The committee returned with the following list of delegates and alternates, which was accepted by the meeting:
