Thousands Flee Jackson Flood

JACKSON, Miss. (AP)—Workers frantically piled sandbags along muddy levees today to try to contain record flooding of the Pearl River which has forced thousands from their homes and inundated the city's new $48 million sewage treatment plant.

"We're sandbagging and praying," said Steve Spotts, administrative assistant to Mayor Dale Danks, as the Pearl's worst flooding in history surged rooftop-high in some places and sent five feet of water into parts of the downtown area.

The mayor's office estimated that 17,200 persons have fled their homes in Jackson, a city of 250,000, but state civil defense officials said only about 8,000 were homeless across the state.

The river was at 42.6 feet at Jackson today, up only two tenths in the last 12 hours, and officials said the levee system, keeping even more water out of the city, was holding.

The National Weather Service said the river was expected to crest between 42.6 feet and 42.8 feet, about 25 feet above flood stage. The previous high water record at Jackson was 37.5 feet in 1902.

President Carter declared the region a disaster area after Gov. Cliff Finch asked for federal aid.

City officials said the state's new $48 million sewage treatment plant was flooded early today despite almost constant sandbagging operations since the flood waters began last week.

"This is a major loss," said city spokesman Carroll Fulgham. "The plant is lost to the city for operational purposes until the waters go down. We don't know what's salvagable right now."

Fulgham said the city was converting to a sewage lagoon system and service would be continued.

Among those forced to flee as the river went on its rampage over the weekend was Larry Blunt, an attorney, who said he had no flood insurance on his $85,000 home. He complained that he got no warning that the water was rising.

"We heard somebody say, 'We're going to sue somebody.' But who are you going to sue, the Lord?" Blunt asked.

Mildred Sullivan, 67, whose husband died in a fire eight years ago, returned to her recently-redecorated, $135,000 trilevel home in a rowboat Sunday to find "everything ruined, absolutely gone."

Final Arguments

FORT WORTH (AP)-Final arguments were ordered today as the long and stormy divorce trial between industrialist Cullen Davis and his estranged wife, Priscilla, nears its end.

District Judge Clyde Ashworth has promised a final decision by April 23 in the 5-year-old case, which has been delayed by a shooting spree at the Davis mansion and two criminal trials against Davis.

Property settlement is the only issue at stake in the trial.

Emergency Landing

DALLAS (AP)-A shattered outer windshield forced a Braniff jetliner to make a "precautionary landing" Sunday at Dallas' Love Field. None of the 39 passengers on board were injured.

The pilot of the Boeing 727, Robert Kammeyer, elected to land the damaged aircraft at Love Field instead of Dallas-Fort Worth Regional Airport, approximately 20 miles away.

Bomb Injures Ten

BRUSSELS, Belgium (AP)-Four Arab terrorists hurled hand grenades into the arrival hall of Zaventem International Airport here today just after an Israeli airliner landed, police said. Up to 10 persons were injured, two of them requiring hospitalization, the police said.

Officials said the terrorists engaged in a gun battle with police after throwing the grenades and the four were captured.

Plane Missing

CROWELL (AP)-Spotters in airplanes, helicopters and mounted on horseback were still searching the rugged terrain of Foard County today for a missing small plane carrying two prominent North Texas ranchers.

Glyndon Johnson, 44, and Billy Johnson, 46, have not been seen since 6:30 p.m. Friday when they took off in a two-seat, green-and-white Bellanca aircraft.

No Campus Protesting

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)-President Anwar Sadat prohibited students from participating in national politics on campus and warned student protesters that police would "shoot immediately and without discussion" anybody caught destroying state property.

He said he would not tolerate students carrying weapons and would not permit universities to "graduate cowboys instead of educated people."

Gas Price Jumps

NEW YORK (AP)-The average price of a gallon of gasoline has jumped about 12 percent, from 67.99 cents to 76.22 cents, since Jan. 1, according to an authoritative newsletter that follows the gasoline industry.

That increase is not quite as large as the 18 percent rise in the first three months of 1974 during the Arab oil embargo, when prices rose from about 38 cents a gallon to about 45 cents a gallon. But the 8.23-cent price boost so far this year is greater than the 6.88-cent increase in the first three months of 1974.

Hayes To Be Sentenced

DALLAS (AP)-Formal sentencing was set today for former Dallas Cowboy wide receiver Bob Hayes, who must serve at least 10 months in prison for selling cocaine to an undercover agent.

State District Judge Richard Mays sentenced Hayes to five years' imprisonment March 23 but prosecutors said the former Olympic sprint star could be free in 10 months on good behavior.

Hayes, 36, admitted he twice sold cocaine to an undercover officer. The judge sentenced him to five years in prison on each count, but the two terms will run concurrently.

3 Guards Shot

WATERBURY, Conn. (AP)-Three Purolator Security Inc. guards were robbed and shot to death around 4:30 a.m. today shortly after their armored truck arrived at the company's Waterbury office with money from Hartford, police said.

The amount of money taken was not immediately known.

The armored truck was in one of the plant's two bays and police said 11 bullet holes had shattered the glass and wood garage door. Officers said they found the bodies nearby at around 7 a.m.

First Session Tonight On Pairing Of Schools

First of three public meetings scheduled by the Snyder School Board to discuss a proposal for "pairing" elementary schools will be held at 7:30 p.m. tonight at North Elementary School.

Similar sessions have been set for Tuesday night at Central Elementary and for Thursday night at West Elementary.

Although anyone will be welcome, tonight's session has been set primarily for comment by patrons in the North and Northeast attendance zones. These two schools would be paired under the proposal now being studied.

Other pairings would link East and Central Elementaries, and Stanfield and West Elementaries.

Pairing has been under study here off and on for the past five years or so as a possible method of strengthening the elementary educational program and reducing the number of teachers required. It would establish a primary elementary and an upper level elementary in each "pair" of elementary buildings, which would mean that grades 1-3 would go to one building and grades 4-6 would go to the other.

Estimates are that pairing would reduce the elementary faculty by some 14 teachers and result in a savings of some $200,000 next year, based on current enrollment projections.

Trustees received a report on pairing at their regular meeting last Tuesdday night and set dates for the three public hearings following brief discussion at that time.

July 4th Panel Meets Tonight

The July 4th Committee will meet at 7:30 p.m. tonight in the conference room at the Chamber of Commerce.

The committee is working on plans for the annual July 4th celebration this year. Bill Wilson III is the chairman.

Sales Tax Rebates Still Behind 1978

Snyder sales tax rebates for the period ending March 29 showed a slight gain over the corresponding report last year, but still had not made up the decrease registered earlier in the year, State Comptroller Bob Bullock reported.

Snyder's rebates for the one per cent city sales tax amounted to $29,455 for the last reporting period, compared to $29,294 for the same time last year. This ran the total for the year to $142,099, compared to $148,067 a year ago. Snyder continued to lead other area cities in its population bracket for the year.

Figures for some of the area cities and towns with the March 29 report and the total for the year, in order, follow: Levelland, $32,834 and $110,782; Sweetwater, $30,358 and $123,185; Brownfield, $26,300 and $91,141; Pecos, $23,501 and $101,728; Lamesa, $21,850 and $90,141; Monahans, $20,783 and $59,895; Colorado City, $10,669 and $26,034; Roscoe, $1,146 and $5,863; Rotan, $1,751 and $13,598.

Roby did not receive a rebate check this time, but has received $2,974 for the year.

SNYDER TEMPERATURES: High Saturday, 86 degrees; low, 52 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. Sunday, 60 degrees. High Sunday, 86 degrees; low, 56 degrees; reading at 7 a.m. today, 60 degrees; precipitation, none; total precipitation for 1979 to date, 2.97.

WEST TEXAS-Partly cloudy tonight and Tuesday with scattered showers and thunderstorms mainly south. Not quite so warm Tuesday. Lows tonight lower 50s to the mid 60s. Highs Tuesday upper 70s and lower 80s except low 90s lowlands of the Big Bend.

Ask Us

Q--In these days of rising prices for everything, we are told that our school taxes may double and then I heard last week that beef prices have gone up 90 percent the past year. Is this true?

A--You apparently heard a report attributed to Alfred E. Kahn, who heads President Carter's Council on Wage and Price Stability, to the effect that beef prices have gone up 90 percent the past year and a half. We did some checking and found that a year ago you could buy round steak in Snyder for $1.89 per pound, and now it is $2.29. That's an increase of only 22 per cent. However, a year and a half ago, round steak was selling here at $1.19, which means it is up around 110 percent from that figure, while ground beef was selling for 68 cents a pound a year and a half ago, but now sells for $1.59, an increase of 134 percent.

Easter Travelers Found Little Gas

By The Associated Press Writer

American motorists taking an Easter day drive found tight supplies of gasoline in some parts of the country, leading to empty fuel tanks and pleas for help.

Phones "were running over" with calls from drivers looking for an open gas station, the emergency road dispatcher for the American Automobile Association in Seattle said Sunday.

"We can't keep up with it."

State police in the Seattle area were giving motorists one or two gallons to limp into gas stations, but some stations ran out of gasoline.

"Mostly we're getting calls from people nearing empty," said state patrol communication officer Mike Hart in Seattle. He said stations were open, but many were low on gas.

Andrew Bozek, a spokesman for the Chicago Motor Club, said the office had gotten 10 to 20 calls this weekend from motorists stranded because of empty tanks. He said not many stations were open over the weekend, but mostly because of the holiday, not a lack of gas. Many service stations decided to close on Sundays following recent delivery cutbacks by suppliers. The American Petroleum Institute said last week that gasoline inventories are about 11 percent below 1978 levels, largely due to the Iranian crisis and high demand. Most oil companies have limited the amount of fuel they will sell dealers to about 90 percent of last year's levels, although gasoline demand is rising at an annual rate of 4 percent.

Pope Makes Special Plea

JERUSALEM (AP)-Christians around the world celebrated Easter Sunday with appeals and prayers for peace, freedom and human rights.

Cheered by 350,000 pilgrims and tourists jamming St. Peter's Square, Pope John Paul II voiced his hope for peace in the Middle East, Africa, Asia and Latin America. He made a special plea, in honor of the 1979 International Year of the Child, for "those who suffer hunger, and above all for the little children."

Information Act Issue Before Supreme Court

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Supreme Court agreed today to decide whether Henry A. Kissinger can bar public access to transcripts of his telephone conversations while he was secretary of state and White House national security adviser.

The justices voted to study two separate appeals -- one from Kissinger and one from several organizations seeking access to the transcripts - in reaching a decision.

Lower court rulings cleared the way for public access to at least a portion of the transcripts of conversations Kissinger had while secretary of state.

Those rulings, however, barred public release of the transcripts made for Kissinger in his job as national security adviser for Presidents Richard M. Nixon and Gerald R. Ford.

At issue is the scope of the Freedom of Information Act.

In other action today, the high court:

-Turned away a Nashville, Tenn., woman's attempt to persuade the Nuclear Regulatory Commission to take "emergency" action and shut down virtually all U.S. nuclear power facilities as poisoning the environment.

-Refused to hear appeals of two former Democratic congressmen from Brooklyn, N.Y., both convicted of felonies, who claimed their constitutional rights were violated by their automatic disbarment under New York state law.

-Left intact a lower court ruling in a Virginia case that threats made by prison officials, even if not carried out, may violate an inmate's constitutional rights.

-Let stand an appeals court ruling that a California man's burglary conviction was invalid because he was denied the right to act as his own trial lawyer.

-Ended former quarterback Joe Kapp's seven-year legal battle against the National Football League in defeat when it left intact two lower court rulings that Kapp is not entitled to any money damages in his antitrust suit against the NFL.

In Peking, a wall is just a wall again.

After a heady half year, the authorities have had enough of plain speaking in public. They have declared Democracy Wall off limits to the amazingly candid wall posters through which Chinese everymen let each other and a fascinated world know what they thought of the current state of affairs.

The surprising thing is not the curbing of the phenomenon, but that it was allowed to continue as long as it did. Given the opportunity of free expression, a generation reared under socialism seized it to speak out strongly for even more freedom. The shock to the leadership must have been great.

The posters clearly did serve a purpose. They provided an outlet for widespread public discontent and an opportunity for a pragmatic leadership to redress some grievances. And by establishing communication between Chinese and world public opinion, they facilitated China's rapid re-entry into the mainstream of world affairs.

The reimposition of controls on expression is regrettable, but nowhere near so regressive as the suppression of the "hundred flowers" movement in the late 1950s. Peking's Democracy Wall is expected to continue as a visible symbol of public expression, but with access to it carefully controlled.

Less easily controlled, however, will be the attitudes of millions of Chinese toward the development of their society and the performance of its leaders. The habit of critical thought, once encouraged, is not so easily turned off — or walled in.

satelliteswatchicebergs

Icebergs, which remain one of the mariner's chief hazards across the expanse of the heavily-traveled North Atlantic shipping lanes, now are being watched by Earth-orbiting satellites.

The experiment began last summer under the auspices of the Coast Guard Research and Development Center at Groton, Conn.

Too many icebergs manage to elude more conventional means of surveillance. Ships still collide with the huge ice masses, although fortunately not with the impact which took the liner Titanic to the bottom with a loss of more than 1,000 lives on her maiden voyage.

Satellites track the bergs by zeroing in on radio transmitters dropped to the ice by parachute. It is a project which seems destined to keep the Coast Guard busy. Hundreds of bergs may be sighted in a single season.

Past methods of tracking have proved inadequate. A satellite which can detect a missile site should have no trouble following the course of an iceberg on the open sea. The trick will be in informing all the ships traveling the danger zone where each of the hazards is at a given moment.

Carter Gets New Speech Writer

CALHOUN, Ga. (AP)—President Carter's getting a new speech writer - Dr. R.L. Maddox, minister of the First Baptist Church of Calhoun.

The 42-year-old minister told his congregation at Easter Sunday services that he will join the White House staff May 15. He has been pastor of the north Georgia church for 7½ years.

Among the 850 members of the congregation are Jack and Judy Carter, one of the president's sons and his wife.

Saying he is "cut from the same cloth" as the president, Maddox said he accepted the position "out of a sense of call and responsibility."

Carter is also a Baptist. Maddox said he met the president in the mid-1960s during church activities.

political chess game

There is a political chess game going on between Jimmy Carter and Sen. Ted Kennedy (D-Mass.), and sick people are the pawns.

Nobody likes the high cost of hospitalization so Kennedy, on that issue, may try to capture the White House for himself.

"Put a lid on hospital costs," says Sen. Kennedy.

And President Carter, in an effort to checkmate this Kennedy move, is himself advocating the same thing: "Put a lid on hospital costs."

The American Hospital Association--recognizing that self-discipline was the only alternative to more government snoopervision--launched an effort in November of 1977 to curtail the escalating costs of hospitalization voluntarily.

And there had been some fat in the budgets. There had been unnecessary duplication of services and unnecessarily extravagant equipment purchases.

And one year after our hospitals went on a diet, they slimmed down substantially.

Where hospital expenses had been increasing at an annual rate of 19.1 percent in 1976, by 1977 they were increasing only 15.5 percent, by 1978 at a rate of only 12.8 percent.

That is an improvement of 2.7 percent points in less than one year.

Said another way, it's an 18 percent improvement in less than one year.

Said another say, by voluntarily holding down the costs of hospitalization, hospitals in fifty states have saved you and me almost $1.5 billion in one year!

And the presently projected improvement this current year will hold the inevitably increased cost of hospitalization to 11. 6 percent.

That is a lesser rate of cost escalation than almost anything else you are likely to buy.

One Syracuse hospital is saving $800,000 a year.

Patient bills at a Southfield, Mich. hospital were cut in half by initiating outpatient surgery.

A Des Moines hospital found it could cut seven hours off its average length of stay, saving those patients $1.5 million a year.

Philadelphia hospitals, conserving energy, are saving $5 million a year.

A Daytona Beach hospital found it could save $100,000 a year on its phone bill.

And on and on.

Now the politicians talk of a "cap," a legal limit on the hospital cost increase.

In the first place, a "cap" on costs rewards those who have been least efficient at the expense of the efficient ones.

But worse, further regulation means more regulators.

The one wasteful, counterproductive extravagance which hospitals have not been able to correct is the average $38.86 per patient per day which is added to your hospital bill just to pay the cost of compliance with the already immense overlay of federal, state and local regulations.

And now the politicians, to get at one another, are willing to add to that cost.

WASHINGTON (NEA)—It would be premature to push the panic button, but a danger light is flashing for public education in this country.

For a variety of reasons -- some admirable, some not - a growing number of parents coast to coast are choosing to send their children to private schools, even when the decision entails painful financial sacrifice.

It is happening in the affluent suburbs surrounding New York City, where the reputation of the public schools is what originally lured many families to the area in the first place.

It is evident throughout California, where the white exodus that followed last year's Los Angeles busing order merely accelerated the growth in private school enrollment that had been under way for the past several years.

It is apparent right here in Washington, where school board members are increasingly worried about the departure of middle-class black students for the private schools.

"The trend is there, all right, and if not arrested, it would be tragic," Ernest L. Boyer, U.S. Commissioner of Education, told a recent Senate hearing. "The quality of public education is central to the quality of this nation. If the public schools are forsaken by the people who care most deeply, something vital will be lost."

The trend Boyer spoke of is exceedingly difficult to calibrate, for the simple reason that no reliable statistics exist on private school enrollment nationwide. Many private schools, especially the rapidly growing fundamentalist Christian schools, refuse to report their enrollment figures to either state or federal government agencies.

Federal officials estimate that about five million youngsters, or 10.3 percent of total school enrollment, were attending private schools in the fall of 1977. Roman Catholic schools, always the largest segment of the private school universe, accounted for about two-thirds of the enrollment.

During the decade from 1965-75, Roman Catholic school enrollment dropped steadily, by more than two million pupils. But in the last year or so, that decline has stopped and enrollment has leveled off. At the same time, all other private schools - both religious and independent - have registered small enrollment increases, and this at a time when both school-age population and public school enrollments have been dropping steadily.

Why the apparent disenchantment with the public schools: Again there is no hard data available, but public opinion surveys offer some useful clues.

The 10th annual Gallup survey of attitudes towards public education last year showed that the percentage of adults giving their local public schools a grade of A or B had dropped from 48 percent in 1974 to 36 percent in 1978. During that same period, those giving the schools either a D or a "failing" mark increased from 11 to 19 percent.

Significantly, people living in large cities showed the least confidence in the public schools - a 21 percent A or B rating compared with a 30 percent D or F. And blacks in the north were unhappiest of all - with 43 percent rating the schools either D or F.

The top five problems perceived by the public were: lack of discipline, use of drugs in the schools, lack of adequate financial support, integration and busing plans, and poor standards or curriculum.

Some of these problems lie beyond the ability of the schools themselves to address; most busing, for example, has been court-imposed and there is nothing the schools can do about it. But other criticisms can and must be faced by the public schools themselves, and by the taxpayers who support them. This nation has an enormous investment in public education - financial, moral and philosophic - which is too precious to write off.

Linda Ronstadt Denies Rumors Of Marriage

LONDON (AP)—Linda Ronstadt watchers note: she says he hasn't proposed to her, she hasn't married him, and she doesn't want to hear anymore about such "absurd rumors."

He, of course, is California Gov. Edmund G. Brown Jr. But when the 32-year-old singer arrived at London's Heathrow Airport from Kenya on Sunday night, it was "Governor who?" when reporters asked if she and the 41-year-old Brown had gotten married.

"I don't know him, really. Why are you asking me these questions?," she replied.

"No, I haven't married him, and I would like to know how these absurd rumors get about."

And, as for those rumors, she said: "Would you marry somebody you'd known for just two years? I know some rock stars have reputations for whirlwind romances, but I don't."

Brown and Ms. Ronstadt arrived in Nairobi, Kenya, on Friday after spending two days at a wildlife camp in southern Kenya.

Brown also was expected to arrive in London from Tanzania, where he attended Easter services at a Roman Catholic church with President Julius Nyerere.

Oswald: "Here is an example of cruel and inhuman punishment for a mere misdemeanor."

Alan: "The Stayman convention in response to notrump openings is generally so effective that some players use it automatically any time their partner opens in notrump and they have any four-card major suit holding."

Oswald: "A better practise is to leave the convention alone when your distribution is 4-3-3-3; your four-card suit is a bad one and you have honors in the other three suits."

Alan: "With this in mind, North should simply have looked at his eleven high card points and raised South to three notrump."

Oswald: "The punishment resulted when spades broke 4-1 against South at the four-spade contract that resulted from North's use of Stayman. However, suits 3-2 only 68 percent of the time."

Alan: "The cruel and inhuman feature came when West was not only able to double, but scored 100 points for honors in addition to the penalty for a one-trick set."

EH Plans Garage Sale

The Knapp Extension Homemakers Club met at 9:30 a.m. Tuesday, April 10, at the Knapp Community Center. Mrs. Virginia Drake was hostess. The table was set with tiny Easter baskets and an Easter egg and flower centerpiece. Each member present answered roll call with what she does in her leisure time. The program was presented by Blanche Chisum, county extension agent, on latch hook and punch hook rugs and wall hangings.

The announcement was made that there will be a garage sale, May 18, at the Towle Park barn. All EH Clubs of Scurry County will participate. The hostess gifts were won by Veleri Dunn and Nina Blankenship, and Joe Eldridge, grandson of Virginia Drake. Other members present were Virginia Bloom, June Greenway, Wanda Horn, Freida Murphy, Pat Miller and Agnes Sorrells. The next meeting will be Thursday, May 3, at 9:30 a.m.

Fashion And Beauty Tips

Add New Spice To Cookouts

By Aileen Claire
NEA Food Editor

This is the time of year when the outdoor grills, smokers and hibachis get a great deal of attention. With summer on the horizon, it's cookout time!

To accompany barbecued meat or chicken, try variations on such standbys as summer bean salad and fresh vegetable party platter.

The bean salad has India relish and tomato bisque soup in its dressing, while the vegetable platter is served hot with a dressing combining cream of celery soup with sour cream.

FRESH VEGETABLE PARTY PLATTER
¼ cup finely chopped cucumber
1 tablespoon chopped green onion
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1 can (10¾ ounces) condensed cream of celery soup
½ cup sour cream
¼ cup water
2 cups sliced cooked beets, cut in strips
1 cup cooked carrots, cut in sticks (about 2½ inch)
1 cup cooked sliced zucchini squash

For sauce, melt butter in saucepan. Cook cucumber and onions until tender. Add soup, sour cream and water. Heat, stirring occasionally. Arrange hot vegetables on serving platter. Serve with sauce. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

SUMMER BEAN SALAD
1 can (11 ounces) condensed tomato bisque soup
1½ cups cooked cut wax beans
1½ cups cooked cut green beans
3 tablespoons finely chopped onion
3 tablespoons India relish
2 teaspoons lemon juice
¼ teaspoon celery seed

Combine ingredients in bowl. Chill. Makes 3½ cups or 6 servings.

Aroma-Less Cigar Being Introduced

CINCINNATI (AP)—To anyone who was ever trapped in an smoke-shrouded elevator with a cigar smoker, the nation's leading cigar manufacturer says - relax. The age of the sweet smellin' stogie is upon us.

The Consolidated Cigar Co. unveiled the "aroma-less" cigar Wednesday and expects to market it nationwide within the year. It's available now only in Ohio.

Cigar sales have plummeted in recent years, from 8 billion in 1973 to 4½ billion last year, a company official said. The industry conducted a survey to find out why.

"People said it's the aroma," said Consolidated President Alexander Brainard. "Women don't like it on the drapes, and men are becoming more responsive" to non-smokers' complaints.

Brainard said the non-smelly cigar, called "Flite," has a built-in filter that "captures chemicals that impart aroma." The cigar still produces a perfumed scent, but not the objectional "cigar smell."

"I don't expect a typical cigar smoker to find it the new cigar as enjoyable as his present cigar," he said, "because it's milder in taste."

Women who drink heavily during pregnancy risk having babies with physical and mental defects, according to the National Foundation-March of Dimes. More than 1 million women of childbearing age are alcoholics.

Stroke Kills 'Cisco Kid'

COSTA MESA, Calif. (AP)—Herbert Stanley Dunn, who played the original Cisco Kid in silent pictures from 1913 to 1915, has died of a stroke.

Dunn, 87, who starred in about 100 Cisco Kid films, apparently suffered a stroke as he prepared for bed Friday night. He was taken to a hospital by paramedics after his secretary found him unconscious, but he died shortly after 1 a.m. Saturday.

Their Wedding Needs Referee

By Abigail Van Buren

© 1979 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: My wife and I divorced after a 20-year marriage. My girlfriend has been living with me for the last nine months.

My eldest son, 19, has his girlfriend living with him, and the problem is that his girlfriend does not like my girlfriend at all. My son and his girlfriend told me they are getting married in July. They've made wedding plans and have decided that my ex-wife and I will be invited, but neither of us is allowed to bring a date. This plainly means the girl I live with is not invited.

I am ready to tell them that if I can't bring my girlfriend I will not attend, either. My girlfriend is so hurt that I'm not even sure she'd go if they changed their minds and invited her.

I'm leaving the decision up to you.

MIXED-UP MESS

DEAR MIXED-UP: First find out whether your son and his fiancee will change their minds and invite your girlfriend. If they won't, and you want a good relationship with your son, go without her. If they DO invite her, try to persuade her to attend with you. If she refuses, go alone.

DEAR ABBY: With the rising divorce rate and the trend toward total truthfulness these days, I firmly believe that the marriage vows should be changed from "till death do us part," to "till something better comes along."

What do you say?

TELL IT LIKE IT IS

DEAR TELL IT: I say that it will never play in Peoria.

DEAR ABBY: The letter about getting rid of door-to-door religious pitchmen reminded me of how I got rid of the first team I encountered.

I had just moved from New York to California, after growing up under two religious influences—Episeopalian and Quaker.

A young mother, I was having one of those hectic days. The baby had just thrown a bowl of Pablum on the floor, the older boy was smearing the dog with honey, the cat had just given birth to kittens on the clean clothes in the linen closet, and the vacuum cleaner had given up the ghost. At that point the doorbell rang. I answered it and was faced with two obese women, the daughter as wide as the mother. The mother, with no introduction whatsoever, sang out, "How would you like to live on this earth forever?"

My instant response was: "GOD FORBID!"

Talk about being stopped cold! They were totally speechless!

E.A.J.: HUNTINGTON BEACH, CALIF.

CONFIDENTIAL TO M.J.M. IN GARDEN CITY: Yes, I know obesity is unhealthy. But I refuse to starve myself to death in order to live a little longer.

Squaw Valley Ski Accident Recalled

SQUAW VALLEY, Calif. (AP)-As a blizzard raked the Squaw Valley Ski Resort, a cable crashed through the red tram car, killing four skiers and injuring 30 others.

David Penning of Menlo Park, Calif., was one of the injured. As his wife and daughter watched. Penning was sucked from the wrecked car and blown to the ground below. Penning, who was 47 on the day of the accident a year ago this past Sunday, limped to safety.

He thought he would die," said his wife, Mary. "But he has a marvelous facility to take care of himself and I knew he'd think of something. He did. He used every bit of his training as a private pilot and positioned himself just right for the fall."

Penning broke a rib and a cheek bone and injured a leg ligament. The injuries have interfered with his previous interest in skiing and other sports.

"As a family, skiing was what we did best until the accident. Now, we don't do it a lot any more," Mrs. Penning said.

The wind has been blamed for contributing to the accident, but the exact cause has not been pinpointed. Scores of lawsuits have been settled out of court or are pending. A new tram meeting specifications intended to assure its safety has been in operation since January. Business is good, resort officials say.

Thoughts Of Taxman On Tax Day

By MIKE FEINSILBER
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)—Here, on tax day, is what the taxman thinks:

-He thinks most Americans, on reflection after getting over their "emotional reaction to this tax system," will agree it is fair, and that taxes, after all, are not so steep.

-He thinks a man from Mars would be amazed that Americans, by and large, pay what they owe without trying to cheat. They do it on the honor system and, by and large, it works.

-He thinks, however, that honesty would not be so rampant if the Internal Revenue Service didn't check some tax returns and didn't occasionally send someone to jail for cheating - 500 out of 90 million taxpayers in an average year.

-And he'd like to double the tax returns that are audited, although, even at that, only three or four of every 100 returns would be looked at. Today it is two of every 100.

-But, like most of his predecessors, the taxman can't sell that viewpoint to the Office of Management and Budget despite the fact that every additional dollar invested in tax enforcement is sure to return many times that much in taxes collected.

The taxman is Jerome Kurtz, 47, appointed IRS commissioner two years ago by President Carter.

He is a gourmet cook who hasn't had time to go into the kitchen since he got here. He gets to the office at 8:45 a.m. and leaves at 6:45 p.m. with a briefcase of things he must read into the night.

In an interview, Kurtz said the average American is not cranky about his taxes when he thinks about them for a while.

"A lot of people have an emotional reaction to the tax system because obviously it costs money, but I think in their more reflective moments most people have to say that it's a fair system and that it is not by any objective standard a very steep tax system," he said.

People in many other countries pay far more, he noted.

As for enforcement, he has not been able to get all the money he would like from the government for his 80,000-person agency. The budget people say they cannot increase the IRS budget while holding down the budgets of programs people care about.

Kurtz says he's always prepared his own tax returns.

"I did it on a Sunday at home about six weeks ago," he says. "It took the better part of a day. I used the long form, and now I'm waiting for my refund."

Increase In SS Likely To Be Near 10 Percent

WASHINGTON (AP)—The cost-of-living increase Social Security beneficiaries will automatically begin receiving in July will likely be a record of about 10 percent, government sources predict.

The exact increase will not be known until April 26, when the Labor Department reveals the Consumer Price Index for March. Social Security benefits climb automatically each July if the index for the first three months of the year is 3 percent or more above the figure for the same period of the previous year.

Double-digit inflation in January and February already has helped boost the index to 9.3 percent above its level in the first quarter of 1978. The index's March jump, which is inevitable, will push it close to 10 percent, said the sources, who asked not to be identified.

Last July the nation's 34 million Social Security beneficiaries got a 6.5 percent increase. The highest previous automatic hike was 8 percent in 1975, following a year in which inflation hit a postwar high.

The trustees of the Social Security trust funds, meanwhile, were releasing their annual report to Congress today.

Last year the trustees, Health, Education and Welfare Secretary Joseph A. Califano Jr., Treasury Secretary W. Michael Blumenthal and Labor Secretary Ray Marshall, reported higher taxes had put the system's retirement and disability trust funds on a sound footing until the early 21st Century.

However, they said the Medicare hospital insurance trust fund will go broke by 1990 unless it receives additional revenues.

The cost-of-living increases, which have been automatic since 1975, are one reason the system has been thrown into the fiscal crisis that led Congress to pass higher taxes in 1977.

The maximum social Security benefit for a worker retiring at age 65 in 1978 was $489 a month, so a 10 percent increase would boost his benefit to $538 a month, or $6,456 for 12 months. A spouse of retirement age is entitled to an extra 50 percent for a total benefit for the couple of $9684.

But the average Social Security benefit for a single retired worker last year was $254 a month; for a couple, $433.

Railroad Retirement checks and Supplemental Security Income payments will go up by the same percentage in July.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare expects all its income security programs, including Aid to Families with Dependent Children, to cost $130 billion in fiscal year 1980, a $14 billion increase in one year. Fiscal 1980 begins Oct. 1.

Califano told Congress in February that for every 1 percent of inflation, HEW's spending on these programs automatically shoots up more than $1.4 billion.

What is Valley fever?

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB — I am 65 years old and have been in good health most of my life. About 10 months ago on a routine physical examination, the chest X ray showed a spot on my lung. The doctor decided to operate to determine if it was malignant or benign. Fortunately, it turned out to be benign. The pathological report of the tissue showed a trace of coccidioidomycosis (Valley fever).

I didn't get much information from my physician and he said not to worry about it too much, that I would not have any more symptoms. I asked if I should move out of where I live since I live in the San Joaquin Valley of California. He said he didn't think that was necessary.

About the only thing I could get out of him concerning the treatment of this disease if it should recur was that it was not a pleasant treatment. He said the only thing to do right now is to check on it periodically. I wonder if you can give me any more information about this disease and what causes it? Also is there anything I can do to guard against this disease? I haven't smoked in over 35 years.

DEAR READER — Coccidioidomycosis is also known as San Joaquin Valley fever, named after the valley in which you live. That's because the illness is fairly common in that area. It's a fungus disease. You inhale the fungal spores and they involve the lungs. About 60 per cent of the patients who develop this disease don't have anything more significant than an upper respiratory infection at the very most. In the other 40 per cent they may develop a flu-like illness or even pneumonia.

Cavities and nodules do develop in about five per cent of the people who have the initial infection. Less than one-half of one per cent of the individuals with the disease progress to anything that's more dangerous. Most people infected with the disease recover entirely. That's why your doctor isn't very enthusiastic about doing anything for it.

Probably one of the most frequent complications of the disease is that someone sees a nodule or spot on the lung on a routine chest X ray and they can't be certain what it means. In this case sometimes it is absolutely necessary to take it out to find out, as in your case, whether it is benign or malignant.

Since you've already had the infection, there is probably no reason for you to move. I might add that the disease is also very common in other counties in southern California, southern Arizona, New Mexico and southwestern Texas. The fungus that causes the illness is just under the surface of the ground and, of course, it's carried by the air and inhaled into the lungs. The only patients who are treated medically for this disease are those who have complications or a relatively severe course. I'm certain that your doctor is following the right course and periodic check-ups at this point is all that need be done and it's probably all that you'll ever require.

Readers who want information on how the lungs work can send 50 cents with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for The Health Letter number 2-4, Keeping Your Lungs Fit. Send your request to Dr. Lamb in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

Little Change In Rig Count

There was little change in drilling activity in Permian Basin oil fields last week, according to Reed Rock Bit Company's weekly survey.

Last week's count showed 224 rigs running, compared to 225 the week before. At this time last year, 285 rigs were in operation in the Basin.

Eddy County, N.M., regained the lead with 31 active rigs. Ward County, with 15, was the leader in the Texas side of the Basin.

Scurry County had four rigs running, the same as the week before.

Figures for other area counties, with last week and the week before, in order: Borden 3 and 4; Dawson 2 and 1; Garza 2 and 1; Howard 7 and 4; Kent 1 and 1; Mitchell 2 and 1.

Easter Earthquake Puts Thousands Out In Open

BELGRADE, Yugoslavia (AP)—Tens of thousands of Yogoslavs spent the night in the open after an earthquake Easter morning devastated more than 60 miles of Adriatic coastline in southern Yugoslavia and Albania and killed at least 235 persons.

Aftershocks continued through the night.

Belgrade Radio said there were more than 200 known dead in Yugoslavia. It said the Albanian news agency reported at least 35 persons killed and 350 injured in Albania, Yugoslavia's southern neighbor.

Doctors flown in from across Yugoslavia treated hundreds of injured in makeshift relief centers. Rescue workers, using specially trained dogs, searched more than a dozen coastal towns and villages for survivors or bodies buried in the rubble. Frogmen probed the coastal waters for persons whose homes slid into the sea.

The Seismological Institute in Belgrade said today that the original quake registered 6.5 on the Richter scale, revising previous reports that gauged the quake at 7.2 on the ground motion scale. It was the strongest quake ever recorded in Yugoslavia, although the toll was far less than that of the 1963 quake in Skopje, 100 miles to the east, in which more than 1,100 were killed.

Officials at the institute said the quake, which occurred at 7:20 a.m. Sunday, had the power of 10 million tons of explosives. Hardest hit was a coastal strip in southern Monte-negro from the town of Herceg-Novi on the north to Ulcinj, 10 miles from the Albanian frontier.

The initial 50-second shock tore open hotels, hospitals, factories and homes along the coast. Buildings and roads slid into the sea. There were waves of violent aftershocks, and by evening more than 80 tremors had been reported.

"There is not a single house that has not been damaged in one way or another in Herceg-Novi," said Dusko Seferovic, mayor of the resort town on Kotor Bay.

Local officials said the quake leveled virtually all older buildings in 13 towns along the coast, a popular, sun-drenched tourist area.

All roads and most rail lines in the area were damaged and telephone, water and power lines were broken.

"The blow was tremendous," said the captain of a ship anchored a mile off the coastal town of Bar when the quake struck. "At first I thought some other ship had collided with us or we ran aground."

Diamond Sells To Movie Producer

FORNEY (AP)-A tear-shaped, 64-carat diamond was sold at auction for $360,000 Sunday, but the buyer did not attend the sale, held in a tin shed in this town on the North Central Texas prairie.

The gem, billed by the auctioneer as the world's 96th largest polished diamond, was sold to an anonymous motion picture producer who placed the winning bid by telephone.

Charles Clements, president of the corporation that owns the Clements Auction Gallery, declined to identify the buyer, but Clements said he was a producer connected with the film, "Superman."

Auctioneers entertained nine bids in three minutes from the crowd of 300. But the only two serious contenders dropped out of the bidding when the price tag topped $350,000.

"Come on people," said the girl displaying the diamond. "You act like we're selling a pair of shoes."

Crowds jammed the one-story corrugated-tin building for a look at the diamond.

'I was disappointed it didn't sell in the audience," Clements said. "There would have been more excitment and better publicity."

Though the diamond itself is glimmering and clear, its lineage is not. It is thought to have been mined in India's Bolconda region around the turn of the century.

Its "sister," the $1.5 million Transvaal Diamond, is on loan to the Smithsonian Institute.

Bengals, Cubs Try Once More

BROWNFIELD--The front-running Snyder High School Tigers were to battle the Brownfield Cubs at 4:30 here today, weather permitting.

The game had been scheduled for last Thursday, but was cancelled after a single inning when wind-blown dust made it difficlt for the umpire to call pitches.

Sid Everton, 5-2, will open on the mound for the Tigers, who lead the conference with a 3-0 record. Roy Lee Tealer will start for the Cubs.

Due to the make-up game, Snyder will play three times this week. Coach Albert Lewis' squad will travel to Lamesa for a 4 p.m. game Tuesday, and conclude round-one by hosting Brownfield at 4 on Friday.

Round-two action will begin at Brownfield on April 24.

Hinton Named To All-Region

Greg Hinton - voted the most valuable basketball player in District 3-3A this season - has been chosen First Team All-Region by the Texas Association of Basketball Coaches (TABC).

Hinton joins Lance McCain of Andrews, Kelly Edwards of Wichita Falls Hirschi, Darrel Milton of Mineral Wells and Winston Gipson of Lubbock Estacado as a member of the elite team.

Rueben Stinbron of Lamesa and Mark Duncan of Sweetwater were named to the Third Team.

Hinton, a 6-3 senior who plans to attend Texas A&M, was named earlier to the TABC Third Team All-State.

Tigers Find Tough Competition At Meet

LEVELLAND -- Snyder High School boy's track participants placed sixth here with 36 points and made a discovery they had known all too well beforehand. The regional meet April 28 in Odessa is going to be tough.

Snyder grabbed three second places here but ironically, two ribbon-grabbers did not qualify at last week's District 3-3A meet.

Robert Schooler took second in the mile with a time of 4:41.2 and Don Chandler was second in the pole vault competition with a vault of 12-0.

Thomas Selmon - who did qualify for regionals - took second place in the long jump with a leap of 21-6, but Tommy Peek, placing fourth in the shot with an effort of 140-1, will not be eligible for regionals.

The rest of the pack - all headed for the meet in Odessa - grabbed fifth place or lower. Snyder's sprint relay team ran its fastest of the season, a 43.9, but wound up fifth. The mile relay team also took fifth with a time of 3:30.2, and Ronnie Collins was fifth in the 100 meters with a 10.8.

Speedster teams of Ector and the Lubbock schools pulled down most of the running honors, and comprise much of the competition Snyder will face in the regionals.

Dunbar won the meet with 102 points, Estacado followed with 95 and Ector and Vernon came up with 76 each.

Dunbar's winning sprint relay time was 42.1 while Estacado came in at 42.2, one and seven-tenths seconds faster than Snyder.

"We'll probably have to run close to two seconds faster at the regionals to have a shot at it," commented Coach Winfred Shipp. "But it's a matter of speed, not handoffs or things like that. They are just out running us."

Meanwhile the Tigers will work on tuning up their abilities for the upcoming meet, in hopes of faring better two weeks from now. Also, it should be noted, Snyder did not send a full crew to the South Plains Relays here, but one comprised of primarily regional qualifiers (and not all of them made the trip) and a few other athletes.

Tigers Claw 'Em In The Ninth

Ranger String Broken...And How!

ARLINGTON (AP)-With two outs and the bases empty and Sparky Lyle on the mound with a 6-4 lead in the ninth inning, the Texas Rangers were counting their seventh consecutive victory Sunday.

But nine batters later, the Detroit Tigers not only had erased a two-run deficit, but were ahead 11-6, and Ranger Manager Pat Corrales was on his way to his first major league loss.

When the previously unbeaten Rangers fell - they fell hard.

The Tigers bounced ace reliever Lyle, making his fifth straight appearance in as many days, after he loaded the bases with two walks and a single.

Corrales called on Jim Kern, who had been spectacular during the home stand, but had been hit in the wrist by a line drive Friday night.

Kern yielded three straight singles, and coupled with an error and Lance Parrish's three-run pinch double, the Tigers scored seven runs in the inning.

"Well, there's only one explanation for the way the Tigers hit Lyle and Kern," said Corrales. "They are human beings. Detroit got some seeing-eye hits."

Detroit Manager Les Moss said, "This should be a big help to our team. We have been down. That was wild and woolly. What's the odds on something like that happening?"

Moss pointed to a three-run homer in the seventh inning by Steve Kemp as the big blow of the game.

"That's the hit that got us back in it," said Moss.

Kemp said, "Maybe things are going to work out our way now."

Reliever Sheldon Burnside 1-1 picked up the victory while Lyle lost his first game in two decisions.

"Walks got me into trouble," said Lyle. "I don't do that very often."

Asked if pitching for five straight days had hurt him, Lyle said, "If I couldn't have done it, I would have said no. But in this game, you're only as good as tomorrow."

Ranger hitter Al Oliver said of the Texas collapse, "I don't think anybody should be shocked that we finally lost a game."

Then he quipped, "161 and I should win it."

The Rangers got early homers from Oscar Gamble, who hit a three-run shot, and Mike Jorgensen, who hit a solo blast off starter Kip Young.

It' A Giant Misfortune

Astros Out To Good Start

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)-"We've got hitting, pitching and guys who can run," declared Houston Astros' left fielder Jose Cruz. "If we put it all together, we're going to be tough."

The San Francisco Giants surely are believers after Cruz blasted two homers and knocked in eight runs Sunday as Houston posted a 4-3, 9-1 doubleheader sweep to climb into first place in the National League West.

Besides Cruz's power show, which gave him 10 runs batted in after 10 games, the Astros stole seven bases and exhibited stout pitching by reliever Joe Sambito and spot starter Joaquin Andujar.

"We've forgotten about last year," said Cruz. "We know we have to get off to a good start if we're to stay in it. That's why the sweep was so important - we had to split this series."

The Astros were off to a 0-5 start last year and were 4-6 after 10 games. They entered tonight's opener of a 3-game series in Los Angeles with a 7-3 record after dropping the first two games against the Giants.

It wasn't our day," admitted manager Joe Altobelli, whose Giants were idle today. "We let them use their speed. Cruz got the big hits and Sambito and Andujar really shut us down."

Cruz's two-run homer staked starter J.R. Richard, 3-0, to a 3-1 lead in the opener. The giants tied it in the fifth on Bill North's walk. Terry Whitfield's double, Bill Madlock's run-scoring single and Richard's wild pitch.

Houston scored the go-ahead run in the sixth off John Montefusco, 1-2. Terry Puhl singled, stole second, advanced on a ground-out and beat third baseman Darrell Evans' throw to the plate on Denny Walling's grounder.

In the seventh, Sambito held the Giants to one infield single, retiring the final eight batters while earning a save. Andujar, making his first start of the season, continued the parsimonious pitching in the second game.

Andujar, 1-0, allowed five singles while going the distance. Cruz provided most of the punch with a 425-foot, three-run homer and two singles, bringing in six runy. Tom Griffin, 1-1, was the loser.

Zoeller Wins 43rd Masters Tourney

AUGUSTA, Ga.—Fuzzy Zoeller birdied the second extra hole and beat Tom Watson and Ed Sneed for the title in the 43rd Masters golf tournament at the Augusta National Golf Club course.

Zoeller rammed in a 6-foot putt to win the first sudden death playoff in the history of this tournament.

Sneed, who squandered a 5-shot lead, bogeyed the last three holes of regulation play and finished with a 76 and a 280 total, 8 under par. Zoeller got into the playoff with a closing 70 while Watson closed with a 1-under-par 71.

7,800 Flood This Year's Revised Boston Marathon

BOSTON (AP)-Way back in 1897, a hardy band of 15 distance runners toed the starting line for the first Boston Marathon.

Dodging dust-raising bicycles and horse-dawn carriages, John J. McDermott of New York plodded the 26 miles, 385 yards in what was considered a remarkable time of 2 hours, 55 minutes, 10 seconds.

Today, on the 83rd birthday of one of the world's most prestigious marathons, McDermott would barely qualify, with a rigid standard of three hours for men and 3½ hours for women and men over 40.

However, a whopping field of more than 7,800 qualifiers, including 517 women, traveled to the little town of Hopkinton today for the start at high noon of the run to the Prudential Center in Boston.

Even officials of the sponsoring Boston Athletic Association described the field - 3,000 more than last year - as "frightening." Less than 15 years ago, the normal field was 250 with no qualifying restrictions.

Today's starters included 90 runners who could boast of running a marathon in 2:20 or better, heralded by Boston race officials as "an unequalled quality of talent in the history of amateur marathoning." No fewer than 28 foreign countries were respresented, plus a South African delegation running unofficially after being barred by the AAU.

Easter Recess Time Of Congressional Journeys

By JAY PERKINS
Associated Press Writer

WASHINGTON (AP)— At least 115 members of Congress are journeying overseas this Easter recess in tax-paid quests for knowledge of world affairs.

Air fares alone, assuming all 106 representatives and nine senators are traveling tourist class on commercial airliners, would top $180,000, just for some of the most popular one-destination trips. And that doesn't count air fares for the staff aides, Defense Department guides and others considered essential on such fact-finding missions.

Congressmen get up to $75 a day in living expenses plus taxi fares and other incidentals on such foreign trips. Most trips this 11-day recess last from seven to 10 days, so the living expenses could total anywhere from $60,000 to $86,000.

Sen. Jacob Javits, R-N.Y., asked before leaving for 11 days in China why so many congressmen were going overseas when President Carter is urging Americans to save energy, said:

"We spend $125 billion preparing for war, making what you are talking about - this trip and any other trips like it - penny ante. So we should spend those billions for war, but we shouldn't spend anything for peace or to enlighten the men who will determine whether there is war or peace? It just doesn't make any sense."

There could be even more members of Congress overseas than The Associated Press survey of congressional committee shows.

For example, the chief clerk of the Senate Armed Services Committee, John Ticer, refused to say if that panel had authorized any overseas travel. He would say only that the committee "has a policy not to discuss members' travel."

And while calls to the Senate Finance Committee elicited a response of no travel, Sen. William Roth, R-Del., announced in a press release that the committee was picking up the tab for part of his trip to Jordan, Egypt, Israel, Saudi Arabia and Japan.

Only one of 17 senators who have joined to cosponsor legislation to cut government travel is going overseas during the Easter recess. Sen. Paul Sarbanes, D-Md., is with Javits and three other members of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee in China.

None of the five representatives sponsoring legislation to sharply curb congressional travel is taking a foreign trip during the recess.

Congressional leaders have often defended such trips as worthwhile because they give members firsthand knowledge of what is happening abroad.

However, a big critic of such trips, Rep. Ron Paul, R-Texas, said, when he introduced legislation to curb overseas congressional travel, "Some of these trips may be in the national interest - although I seriously doubt it since this is what we have ambassadors for."

Police Nab Jailbreakers

COMANCHE (AP)— Comanche County authorities recaptured two prisoners during the weekend. The inmates escaped from jail by overpowering a jailer and a trusty Friday night.

Deputies arrested Louis Gonzalez, an ex-convict accused of unauthorized use of a motor vehicle, shortly after midnight about 10 miles north of this Central Texas town.

The other jailbreaker, Mike Williams, was captured Saturday night about three miles north of Comanche hiding under a house trailer. He had been accused of attempted capital murder.

The two inmates, both in their 20s, did not offer any resistance.

Deputies said the escapees slugged and choked jailer Eddie Carr and then struck a trusty who came to Carr's aid. Carr was treated for a bump on the head and released from a local hospital.

About 50 officers from Comanche, Hamilton, Brown, Erath and Mills counties helped hunt the fugitives.

County Court Plea Entered

Kenneth Duane Lampert this morning in county court was assessed a $200 fine and a 30-day jail sentence that was probated six months on a charge of driving while intoxicated.

The sentence was based on a guilty plea.

THAT'S NO RUBBER ducky. It's a real live alligator in a state of semi-hibernation. "Other people have dogs; I have an alligator," says Gernot Hoelscher, the animal's West German owner. Even the family cat seems to prefer the alligator to its natural adversary.

Variety Of Calls Keep Police Busy

Snyder police were kept busy this morning and during the weekend investigating several complaints.

Saturday, Beverly Wright told officers someone stole her purse while she was at TG&Y. Reports did not list any money being in the purse, but did indicate the purse contained personal papers, keys, and credit cards.

On West 30th St. early Sunday morning, Randy Price reported that a rock had been thrown through the windshield of his vehicle.

Luther Williams told police Sunday afternoon his vehicle had been broken into and that a $50 stereo and about $140 in cash had been removed. The incident is alleged to have occurred while the vehicle was parked in the 3600 block of College.

The weekend's first traffic accident was at 11:25 a.m. Saturday in the parking lot of the Varsity Square Shopping Center. Involved in it were a 1974 Oldsmobile driven by Karen Bollinger and a 1976 Subaru driven by Josephine Shaw.

The next traffic accident was reported about 6:10 p.m. Sunday in the 2100 block of Ave. N. There, reports show, a parked 1969 Dodge owned by Frank Fierro Jr. was struck by a 1974 Mercury driven by Gilbert Ray Cadena.

Vehicles driven by Lamesa and Sweetwater men collided early Monday morning in the 400 block of East Highway. Reports show the collision involved a 1978 Chevrolet pickup driven by Vernon Grose of Lamesa and a 1976 Chevrolet pickup driven by James McDonald of Sweetwater. That wreck occurred at 5:45 a.m.

At 8:10 a.m. today, a 1976 Chevrolet driven by Roger Ray Wheelus and a 1977 Chevrolet driven by David Kent May collided at the Handy Hut parking lot.

Minor damages were reported in all the traffic mishaps.

Chinese May Ok BC Pill For Men

BOSTON (AP)-Men and women in China may begin swapping responsibilities for taking birth control pills once a contraceptive tablet is approved for men, possibly later this year, a Chinese professor says.

Dr. Lei Haipeng said the pill for men, which Chinese researchers say is 99.8 percent effective, is made from an extract derived from cotton seeds. He said over the weekend that by alternating responsibility for taking the pill, "each partner would have a time when their reproductive systems would be working normally."

School phobia misnamed

By Karen Blaker, Ph.D.

DEAR DR. BLAKER — I am worried about one of the students in my 4th grade class. Because she is new in the school, I don't know her very well. But she is consistently absent one or two times each week.

When she does come to school, I try to find out how she feels about her experiences here. I guess I am afraid she is staying away because something is happening in our class that she finds very unpleasant.

From what she says, however, that doesn't seem to be the case. She says she likes school.

I have tried calling her mother, but she is always out or busy. And she never returns my calls. She has not kept one appointment for a conference.

I'm confused. If this is a case of school phobia, wouldn't the child hate to come to school?

DEAR READER — Children who are phobic about school usually hate to attend. Unlike what the name connotes, however, the reason more often lies at home than at school.

School phobia really means fear of leaving home, not fear of attending school.

Experts say that in classic cases of school phobia, the mother is communicating in words or actions that she wants the child to stay home. Her own psychological disturbance probably makes it terrifying for her to be separated from her child.

Once the school psychologist is consulted, a diagnosis can be made and treatment begun.

In the process of making the diagnosis, you and the psychologist will want to consider other reasons for the child's unexplained absences.

Does the family have financial problems? Perhaps your student must stay home with younger children while the parents work. Or they may keep her at home because they can't afford all the necessary school supplies.

It's even possible the mother does not offer any explanations for the absences because she does not speak English.

One thing is clear: Your consistent caring attitude about the child will help her through whatever crises may be occurring at home. For some children, school is a haven.

Although school phobia may be a misnomer, most phobias are clearly defined irrational fears of certain objects, people or situations. Find out how to handle these crippling psychological problems by writing for my hotline, "If You Are Phobic."
