Around Town

Running far out front as far as conversation Around Town goes this week is the fine rain the county has been blessed with. Joe Brown, architectural assistant with the State School Plant Division, who was in town to meet with the School Board, said everywhere he went it rained. He was asked by several board members to hang around for as long as he cared. In fact, some of the members were trying to get him to spend a few days at their farms.

Anyone wishing to contribute to the fund for assisting the Barnhart family may do so by mailing their checks to J. B. Snead, Box 612, Hereford, or by leaving their contributions at The Brand office for Mr. Snead.

Moms and pops of next year's first graders are asked to attend a special meeting next Tuesday at the High School auditorium. The meeting will be in the form of a "what to expect" affair. Booklets which answer a lot of questions of first graders' parents will be passed out.

Deaf Smith County's quota for the Highway 51 Association this year is 40 members.

The High School choirs, mixed choir and girls choir, ensembles, boys quartet and girls sextet will present their Spring Concert at 8 p.m. tonight in the High School auditorium. The public is cordially invited.

Winners in the Piggly Wiggly Mother's Day contest were announced this week. Clara Adams won the electric mixer, Mrs. O. C. Williams the electric skillet, Mrs. Glenn R. Roberts the deep fryer, and Mrs. G. L. Bumpass the carving set and steak knives.

Baccalaureate services will be held here Sunday night. Bob Wear will deliver the address.

Hereford Jaycees are in a traveling mood. Last Saturday night they were in Borger where John Aiken installed new Junior Chamber of Commerce officers for the coming year. Among those making the trip were Mr. and Mrs. Bill Howard, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Hale, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Aiken, Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Lomas, Clarence Veazey, Dick Axe and Richard Alston. Tuesday night a large number of local Jaycees went to the Pampa installation banquet and Saturday they will go to Amarillo for their banquet.

Don Little won an all-expense paid trip to Las Vegas, Nev., recently. The contest, sponsored by Motorola, was used to boost sales. Little is to fly out by TWA.

Hub Homer recently returned from Dallas where he attended the shoe market there.

Folks wondering why the steam locomotives have returned to the scene in Hereford were told this week by Santa Fe officials that it just shows an increase in business. The old locomotives were pressed into use to aid the diesels they were replaced by several years ago.

Mr. and Mrs. Townsend Douglas plan to leave Friday for Fort Worth, where they will attend the Texas Banker's Convention Sunday, Monday and Tuesday.

MOTHER'S DAY

Mother's Day guests of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McGee were their daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Stark of O'Donnell, another daughter, Mrs. R. O. Hupp of Long Beach, Calif., and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dines of Kress, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cowart of Olton, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Patton of Hale Center and Mr. and Mrs. Ralph White of Clovis, N. M. Commissioners Let Contract For Audit

Deaf Smith County commissioners Monday authorized Pester and Co., of Amarillo to audit county records up to Jan. 1, 1955.

By unanimous vote, the Commissioners Court agreed to terms offered by a representative of the company to do the work. The Amarillo firm is to begin the audit before the first of June, "as soon as possible."

In other Court action, commissioners heard a ruling to the effect that County Hospital employees do not have to be under social security, transferred $30,000 from the road and bridge fund to the general fund, accepted a bid on a road magnet, heard monthly reports from various county offices and approved payment of monthly bills.

The firm estimates that it can complete the audit, which will include County Hospital books, in approximately 30 days. The members of the firm are expected to work on the books, one drawing $35 a day plus expenses and the meals and lodging. Also appearing before the Court was Harvey Todd, also of Amarillo. Todd, who with Pester, made the last county audit, offered to do the audit at the same price, but said that since he would be involved in making the county audit in Amarillo for possibly the next two or three months, he could not say when he could begin the work.

Social Security Ruling

The Court also received a ruling from James B. Atlee, director of the Social Security Division of the State Department of Public Welfare, saying that social security could be offered to county workers without including County Hospital employees.

The ruling said, in part, "It is our opinion that since the County Hospital is considered as an instrumentality of Deaf Smith County, that it may be excluded from the coverage agreement for Deaf Smith County personnel. At some date in the future, if it is desired, a separate coverage agreement may be completed extending the coverage to the employees of the County Hospital as an instrumentality of the County."

The Hospital Board is expected to decide in the near future if employees of the hospital will be included.

Fund Transfer

The $30,000 transfer to the general fund was made to help boost the fund, which was $43,095.77 in the red. Each precinct gave a percentage of the $30,000. The general fund, which is tapped for unexpected county expenses, was $39,629.74 in the hole at the beginning of the year. Commissioners indicated that they planned to get the fund back on a sound basis.

Experiment

Fred Berryhill Equipment Co., of Lubbock was the only bidder on the road sweeping magnet. The Bid was $4030.20 plus freight. The purchase includes two six foot sweeping magnets with one 5 KW motor generator set and control panel. Delivery on the unit is expected in the next three or four weeks.

The magnet will be used in Precinct 1 on an experimental basis.

Wheat Acreage Is Available

Farmers on land on which no wheat was seeded for grain for any of the years 1953, 1954 and 1955 may apply for a 1956 wheat acreage allotment, according to Walter N. Hodges, chairman of the county Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

To be considered for an allotment on a farm which had no wheat seeded for grain for any of those years, the farmer must apply in writing to his county ASC Committee by July 15.

Blank application forms are available at the county ASC office for use in filling requests for allotments.

Architect Is Hired To Plan New Grade School

School Board Names Trew, Sullivan New Principals

Trustees of the Hereford Rural High School district gave the go-ahead sign on a new grade school Tuesday night at their regular monthly meeting. First actual step toward building the school was the hiring of B. R. Cantrell of Pampa as architect.

Supt. George Graham was told to contact Cantrell, who drew up plans for the new high school building, and have him meet with the Board May 19. The Board met with Joe Brown, architectural assistant of the State School Plant Division, for more than two hours studying colored slides of schools throughout the state. No definite plans were made other than the hiring of Cantrell, however.

By unanimous approval the Board also named Pat Sullivan as new principal of the high school and Dan Trew as new principal of Shirley School. Sullivan will replace Don T. Martin and Trew will take the place of O. D. Lowry. Both Martin and Lowry resigned. Lowry's resignation was announced only Tuesday night. He plans to take a teaching position in Lubbock.

A delegation of Walcott School Board members also appeared before the Board asking that Walcott students continue to be transferred to Hereford as they were last year. Both members of the Hereford and Walcott boards said the arrangements had worked very satisfactorily, and the Hereford Board agreed unanimously to continue the plan next year. The Walcott board estimated that 17 students from that area would attend Hereford High School next year.

The Board was told that flameproofing of Central School and Junior High is almost completed. Total cost of the operation for both buildings was $4458. Members voted against taking a bid on fireproofing the Dawn School "at that price." Thompson Flame Proofing Co. of Amarillo had bid $960. A 1% percent fire credit is awarded for flameproofing the buildings.

The Board unanimously agreed to allow Supt. Graham to conduct a three week short course at Hardin-Simmons University this summer from June 1-21. Graham told the group that he would be willing to pass up the offer if they thought the building program would need his attention during the period.

The Board also voted to replace $120 stolen from the Junior High School about two months ago. The money is owed to Colonial Arts Co., which had presented a display the night the money was stolen.

Supt. Graham asked that the special meeting be held Thursday, May 19. He said at that time he would recommend a number of new teachers for employment next year.

Only friction to arise during the meeting came when Mrs. Earl Plank asked about several variations in bills as approved by the Board at the last regular meeting and the way they appeared in the minutes. It was explained that the bills as paid were correctly listed in the minutes and that the list as approved by the Board in April was "hurriedly prepared." Don Zimmerman made a motion that the minutes not in question be approved and that those questioned be cleared up at the next meeting. The motion passed unanimously.

FLAMEPROOFERS -- Junior High and Central Schools should be safer places for Hereford students next year because of work done this week at the two schools by the Thompson Flame Proofing Co. of Amarillo. Those attending were Mr. and Mrs. Howard Armstrong, Mr. and Mrs. E. Ramey, Mr. and Mrs. Carlos Vaughn, Mr. and Mrs. Owen Stagner, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Young and daughter Mary Ann, and Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Foot of Petersburg, guests.

Catholic School To Be Dedicated Sunday

Members of St. Anthony's Catholic Church will hold dedication service Sunday for the new St. Anthony's School, convent and rectory. Dedication service is to be held at 3:30 p.m. at the school. Open house will be held from 1:30 to 6:30.

Cost of the three new buildings, which with the church building completed two years ago form one of the most beautiful church plants in this area, was $275,000. The school alone cost $170,000.

Among dignitaries who will be present for the dedication service are Bishop Fitzsimon of Amarillo and Monsignors Steinlage of Amarillo, Bottoms of Amarillo, Bosen of Littlefield, Maythiesen of Amarillo, who is editor of The Register, Catholic paper printed in Amarillo; Father Bonaventore of Graymoor, N. Y., son of Mrs. John Koelzer of Hereford, and many other visiting clergy.

The new school has eight classrooms, office, cafeteria, kitchen and social hall. It is a fire proof building equipped with a public address and intercom system, broadcasting and tape recording facilities and many other modern educational equipment. The building, which has a floor space of 16,500 square feet, is expected to house 175 students next year. The school now has five teachers and plans call for a sixth next year. A kindergarten class is also being planned for the 1955-56 school year.

The school replaces the old Catholic Church across from the courthouse, which was built in 1922. The old school had four rooms and a basement and cafeteria. There are 185 families in the parish.

Father Bartholomeu said that everyone is invited and urged to attend the open house and dedication ceremony.

First Uranium Class Tuesday

The first class in "Uranium Prospecting" will be held in the County Courtroom in Hereford on Tuesday evening, May 17, according to announcement of William Soule, representative of the Amarillo College Vocational Department today.

Plans for the class were made, despite the fact that only 15 names had been pre-registered. Soule said that experience in other areas indicated that the necessary 30 people will probably be on hand at the meeting and register for the 10-hour course. In case the minimum number does not appear, however, the classes will probably be dropped after the first meeting.

As previously announced, the cost of the entire course will be $5 per person. Classes will meet each Tuesday evening for a period of four weeks and will continue approximately two and one-half hours during each session. A member of the Atomic Energy Commission will be included on the teaching staff and various types of equipment will be demonstrated and explained, along with other phases of uranium prospecting.

Persons desiring to enroll for the course may call The Brand office in advance, or may come to the County Courtroom at 7:30 Tuesday evening.

District Crown At Stake Today In Herd-Wolves Tilt

By BILL KNOX

The Dalhart Wolves and the Hereford Whitefaces clash today (Thursday) for the District 1A championship. The two teams split a doubleheader last Wednesday creating a tie and causing a playoff.

The Wolves will probably use Jim Wilson against the Herd. Wilson has had untold success against the Whitefaces in the last two years, defeating them twice last year and once this year. Homer Hershey, the probable Hereford starter, also holds a triumph over the Wolves. Hershey's victory came in the first game of the twinbill Wednesday.

Despite the fact that the game is being played on the Whitefaces' home grounds, the Wolves will be given a small advantage. They were definitely playing below par when they lost to the Herd (6-4) as they proved when their big bats started booming and they paralyzed Hereford 15-2.

But Hereford possesses power, and a Whiteface victory would not be termed an upset. Danny Elliston, sophomore outfielder, presently is hitting .538 and leads in RBI's with 11. Elliston's sensational catch in left field probably saved the game for Homer Hershey and the Whitefaces Wednesday. Also, Jack Burrus, Taylor Sims, and Richard Hagar are dependable hitters.

Dalhart's main power lies in Harvey Compton and pitching ace Jim Wilson. If both teams click as they are capable of doing, the battle between the two squads should create quite a spectacle here. Game time is 4 o'clock.

The Hereford - Panhandle game scheduled to be played at Panhandle Tuesday afternoon was forfeited to Hereford by the Panthers. Wet grounds and high winds had caused postponement of the game twice previously, and the Panhandle team forfeited so that the Whitefaces could meet the Dalhart Wolves for the district championship Thursday.

Senior Trip Fun, Students Report

Fun was apparently had by everyone that was among the 81 students and six sponsors who went on the Senior trip this past weekend.

The students left Thursday morning at 7 o'clock for Ruidoso and arrived there at 4:30 that evening. The group was gone until Sunday when they returned home at 7 o'clock that night.

The girls stayed at the Navajo Lodge and the boys stayed at Vaughnland.

There were all kinds of entertainment—skating, bowling pool, miniature golf, hiking, horseback riding and other sports. Friday, a group went to Mon Jean lookout tower and Saturday, some went to White Sands.

Sponsors who went along were D. C. Martin, Pat Sullivan, L. L. Clisum, Mrs. Billye Buck, Mrs. Marie Ratcliff and Miss Sadye Rigler.

Funeral Services For Bob Barnhart Are Still Pending

Funeral services were still pending late Wednesday for R. W. (Bob) Barnhart, 38, former resident of Deaf Smith County, who died early Tuesday morning when fire destroyed his farm home 10 miles south of Pullman Switch.

Witnesses said Mr. Barnhart's wife awakened about midnight and smelled smoke. She awakened her husband and he, his wife and four children fled from the burning house through a window. Mr. Barnhart then returned to the house in an attempt to get a fire extinguisher. He never returned. Mrs. Barnhart drove to neighboring farms for help, but the walls were falling in before the neighbors arrived. The victim apparently was overcome by smoke.

Mrs. Barnhart is a niece of Bob Lindsey of Hereford. The Barnharts had lived on the Lindsey place six miles north of Hereford in the Progressive Community and on the Clinton Jackson place four miles north on Highway 51 until 1951.

Funeral arrangements are under the direction of Blackburn-Shaw Funeral Home in Amarillo.

Survivors include his wife, three sons, Bobby, 13, Jimmy, 12, and Billy Art, 8; one daughter, Terri Lynn, 18 months; two brothers, James Gordon Barnhart, Long Island, N. Y., and Art Barnhart, Great Lakes, Ill.; one sister, Mrs. L. N. Gardiner, Ogden, Utah; and his mother, Mrs. Mildred Barnhart, Billington, Wash.

Secretary Benson was right. All this country needed was a good rain." Jim Lipscomb was just by and he was all smiles. "We sure told 'em right," said Jim. All I have to add is that if anybody watered their grass, it was their own fault. It sure was.

We didn't have any downpour, but we at least got that yellow Colorado dust washed off the sidewalks. The nicest thing about the moisture, though, is the way it fell on the dry land country. We needed rain here in the shallow-water area, but those folks out in the dry land country HAD to have it.

Future Weather: No Comment! On second thought, though, I believe I will predict some more showers between now and May 15. It's a 50-50 chance, and that's better than we usually have.

Things are really beginning to pick up. Little's will have their formal opening this weekend—and they do have one of the nicest store fronts in the Panhandle. New fixtures, new carpet and all that goes with it. Mrs. Arthur Thompson, manager, along with Mr. and Mrs. Little, deserves a big hand for the improvements. The remodeled store is really outstanding.

I also notice that the Hereford State is adding a fancy, new front door which will help spruce up the north end of town.

Mr. Hershey was in the other day to register a formal complaint because we have not published anything about these old steam-type locomotives which the Santa Fe is pushing through here these days. About all we can learn is that the engines were pulled out of moth balls and put back on the road to take care of the increase in cargo. That, at least, is what the Santa Fe propaganda machine is grinding out. Around a year ago we had a picture of what was supposed to be one of the last of the old oil burners. It was on its way to the scrap heap. I also understand that the City of Hereford has applied for one of these locomotives to be placed in a park in order that all may see. Mr. Hershey is right, though, all you have to do to see one these days is just hang around the depot—and watch them wheel through.

Quite a few people are interested in the "Uranium Prospecting" classes proposed by Amarillo College. Fifteen signed up for the course. I just talked with Bill Soule director, and he said that they do plan to start the classes, despite the lack of interest. The first class will meet Tuesday night, May 17, in the County Courtroom at 7:30 o'clock. If at least 30 people do not attend they will be dropped, however. Thirty is the minimum according to Mr. Soule, for them to break even. If you are interested, call The Brand and give us your name. He is going to call back Saturday to find out if we have any more. However, they will hold the first class next Tuesday night.

Another big deal for Sunday is the dedication of St. Anthony's new parochial school. This will draw people from all over this neck of the woods. What with the church, school rectory and nun's home, St. Anthony's now has one of the best planned and most modern layouts in West Texas. Possibly more important, however, is the fact that they have room to expand.

Abe Martin bought himself an airgun the other day. Abe says he is going squirrel hunting back around Wichita Falls, where he spent his boyhood.

These changing times are reflected from day to day. Back when I was a kid and anyone asked, "Who was the greatest American?" I always said Abraham Lincoln. A few years ago the answer changed to Franklin D. Roosevelt—and now it has changed again. Ask the small-fry these days and, without hesitation, they will answer: "Davey Crockett." All of the kids, young, old and medium, go around singing the Davey Crockett song. To the best of my knowledge there are 23 verses. Maybe more, but that is all I have yet heard.

How about someone writing a verse about Davey Crockett and Hereford—or Deaf Smith County? It should be a cinch. Mail them in to the Bull Column. We will give a show ticket for every one published; also a prize of $5 cash for first place, $3.50 for second place, and $1.50 for third place. They have to rhyme like the song and fit the tune, of course. The cuter they are, the better chance you have of winning. Be sure to include your name and address with the verses.

Some people grow old gracefully, but not me. I have been doing my best to land a place on one of these soft ball teams. I saw where Piggly Wiggly trounced Coopers 26-1, and talked to Neil about a job as pitcher. He offered me a pretty good deal—provided I would pitch for Piggly-Wiggly. However, Gayford Newell says he is satisfied with his present pitching staff which leaves me out in the cold. I wish the league would pass a rule that the sponsor must also be a player. If I could get that deal over, it might kill softball but, at the same time, I know of a couple of prune peddlers who would also be in pretty bad shape.

When you can't make a baseball nine like Coopers, when people start mistaking you for Sam McLallen, when you get to the point where you are foolish enough to predict the weather—and are lucky enough to be right—then you are getting old. There's no use to kid yourself about it, but you still don't have to like it.

Wrestle Royal To Be Featured In Local Ring

There will be a semi-final and a main event on Saturday night's wrestling card at the Hereford Bullbarn—but nobody will know who will battle whom until after the preliminary.

Five strong and agile men, all fairly well liked in Hereford, will enter the ring at the same time Saturday night and fight for survival. It's an "old fashioned" free-for-all, or "rassle royal," with every man for himself and each trying to hang on for a crack at main event top money.

The lineup:

Jim LaRock, former AAU champ and Olympic finalist, from Ithica, New York; Chet Wallick, powerful young brother of Leo Wallick, from Detroit; Rey Urbano, bronze Filipino strong man from Manila and Los Angeles; the Amazing Zuma, quick-moving jumping jack and aerialist from Buenos Aires, Argentina, and King Kong Cox, Jr., husky, vicious gorilla-type athlete from Lodi, Calif.

In the legitimate free-for-all, each will be on his own. First man to be pinned or otherwise defeated or eliminated will be sidelined for the rest of the evening.

Second and third wrestlers to lose will return for the semi-final contest, two best falls of three or one hour.

That will leave two survivors for main event contention. They will appear in the finale, two best falls of three or one hour.

While a departure from the usual, wrestle royals have proved popular in most of the mat centers of the country—with everybody except referees.

Social Security Expert To Be Here Wednesday

A representative from the Social Security office in Amarillo will be in Hereford, Wednesday, May 18 at 9:30 a.m. He can be contacted at the Commissioners Room in the courthouse.

This representative can furnish any information or assistance that would be available at the District office in Amarillo. He will receive applications for retirement or survivors insurance under the Social Security Act; applications for original, duplicate, or change of name social security cards; and applications for employer identification numbers for new employers or employers recently becoming liable for making social security returns.

Any farm workers or self-employed farmers wishing information on the new provisions of the Law applicable to farmers are also invited to contact this representative.

Cars Collide; Damages Slight

An accident occurring Tuesday afternoon caused minor damages when two cars collided at the corner of Third and Sampson Street.

A 1951 Chrysler driven by Vyron Sawyer hit the left front fender of a 1954 Ford driven by Douglas Adams when turning from Sampson onto Third Street. He failed to see the other car when starting through the intersection. Damages were estimated at $25.

Vyron Sawyer was charged with failure to grant right-of-way.

Spring Musicale Is Slated Sunday

A group of older members of the Voco Club of the Mattie Mae Swisher Studios, will be presented in a spring musicale Sunday afternoon in Ward Hall of the First Methodist Church at 3 p.m.

Singers will include Glenda Robbins, Elizabeth Biddle, Pluma Metcalf, Sue Nell Sumner, Charlotte Calvert, LaNelle Blanton, Georgine Blanton, Patricia Caywood, Raymond Wells, Joe Landers, Clarence Caywood, and Lynda Noland. Mrs. Cliff Estes will assist as accompanist.

Guest performers on the program will be Dorothy Williams, piano student of Mrs. Ellis Coombes, and Don Lewis of Friona, soloist.

Interested friends are invited to attend.

MUSIC STUDENTS IN KPAN PROGRAM

Members of the Junior Music Clubs of the city presented a program over Station KPAN last Thursday morning. The program was sponsored by the Music Study Club and Mrs. H. A. Close, president served as narrator.

The group, who are students of Mrs. Glenn Snyder, Mrs. Olive Hinds, Mrs. Ellis Coombes and Miss Mattie Mae Swisher, included Mary Beth Gililland, Zell Crump, Sheila Williams, Verita Sanders, and LaNelle Short, who gave piano solos, Lucy Beth Miller, Betty Snead and Ann Wagner who played a trio, and Raymond Wells, soloist, with Mrs. Cliff Estes as his accompanist.

Log houses were first introduced into America by Swedish settlers in what is now Wilmington Del., in 1638.

Spending Mother's Day in Dumas with Mr. and Mrs. Owen Neel were: Mrs. J. W. Vick and Harlin, Mr. and Mrs. Offos Vick, Mr. and Mrs. O. R. Neel and Lilith.

Mrs. Homer Brumley who underwent major surgery in Dallas last week, is reported in satisfactory condition. She will remain in Dallas for a few more days for treatment.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. D. Hawkins and children of Tulia were recent visitors with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Hicks, and his mother, Mrs. D. W. Hawkins.

Girl Wheelchair Singer's Album Rated Four-Star

By JANET YALLUM
Syracuse Herald Journal

SYRACUSE, N. Y. — Anna Marie Genovese has made the big time — singing from her wheelchair. She has been paralyzed by polio since she was a year old.

She has been singing in and around Syracuse since she was a youngster and has just recorded her first album, a prompt hit.

"Downbeat" magazine recommends the album, giving it a four-star rating, the highest usually attained by a popular recording, and says of Anna Marie:

"She has felt empathy with a number of modern jazz artists, like Sarah Vaughan. She has a good full voice, with a serviceable ear and a musicians' way of phrasing. The album is pleasant listening as is and is certainly quite superior to most female vocalizing these days."

"Interlude with Anna Marie" includes some of the ballad-type songs she likes to do best. It's songs are:

"It Could Happen to You," "These Foolish Things," "Love is Here to Stay," "Willow, Weep for Me," "I'm Glad There's You," "What More Can a Woman Do?," "Lullaby of the Leaves," and "Interlude."

Anna Marie says she can't read music or play the piano. She's never had any formal musical training. But she makes her own arrangements — "mostly as I go along."

The album was recorded by a new local corporation headed by Maury Goldberg who also acts as Anna Marie's agent. Backing her up for the album was the trio of Billy Rubenstein, pianist; Wally Melnick, bass, and Buddy Pabst, drummer.

Anna Marie, now 24, won the Ted Mack Amateur contest when she was 18 and later sang for three months at Tony Pastor's and the Hotel Edison in New York City.

She shies away from the currently popular "Shake, Rattle and Roll 'em" songs and calls them "Corny, harsh and loud—not good music."

She says she will continue with her melancholy ballads about the much-debated subject of love.

FBI MAN AT WORK

FBI agent covers crime suspect with gun while another G-man searches him for weapons.

1. Family waves goodbye to FBI agent as he leaves for day's job. Field office called him to proceed to home of hijacked truck driver. Agents are on call 24 hours a day and must keep office advised as to whereabouts at all times.

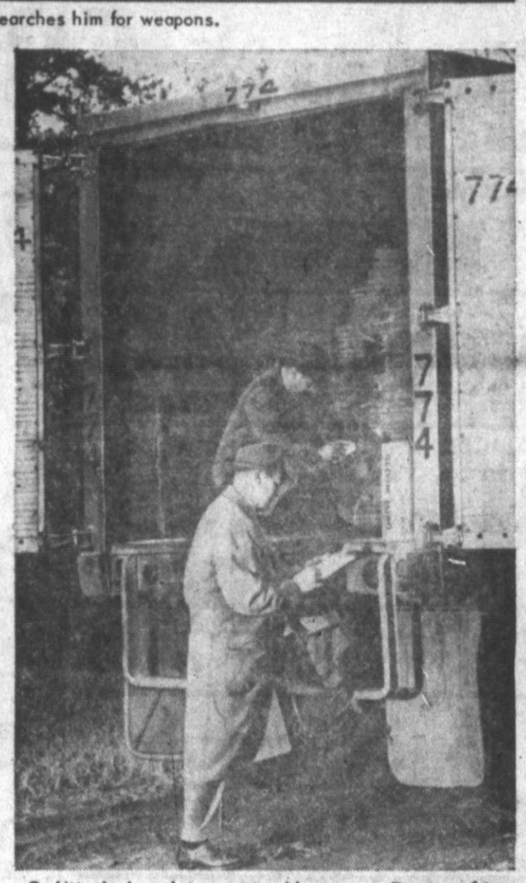

For the 6,257 Agents of the Federal Bureau of Investigation, crime-busting is an art, a science and a dedicated job. As their chief, J. Edgar Hoover, puts it, "they all have a life goal—to serve and protect their country." The G-man is a determined fellow. The most hardened criminal quakes when he learns that he's "wanted by the FBI." There are no set hours for the G-man. He sometimes works months, even years, to solve a crime. And he works in almost complete anonymity. Very few know his name.

To become an FBI man is not easy. Before getting a chance at the job, he must have a degree in law or accountancy. Even among those meeting the educational requirements, only 10 per cent are finally accepted. The new FBI man undergoes a six-week intensive training course during which he learns to shoot straight and think hard. He learns how to handle weapons, from a .30-caliber to the powerful .357-caliber magnum revolver. At the laboratory in Washington, he learns all about crime detection and is trained to spot valuable pieces of evidence for analysis by experts. Wherever he is later on, he goes back to Washington for a refresher course in the newest methods of fighting crime.

Re-enacted here is how an FBI man and his partner track down and capture a gang of hijackers. (The names of the G-men cannot be divulged.) During the 1954 fiscal year, the FBI obtained 646 convictions in cases of thefts in interstate shipments, the most common of which was hijacking.

2. FBI agents interview truck driver who was hit across head as he left lunchroom to re-enter truck. Criminals left him unconscious on road.

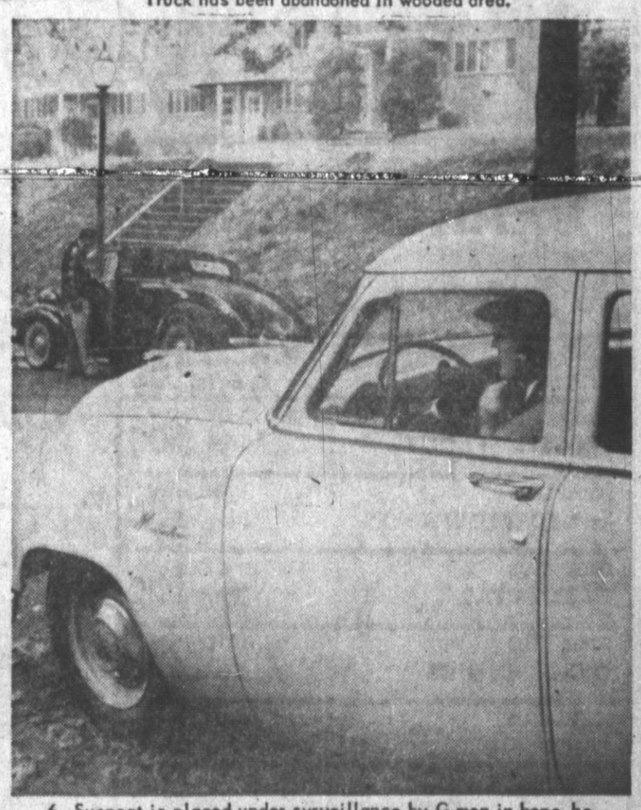

3. Hijacked truck is examined by agents. Portion of its cargo consisting of machine tools has been removed. Truck has been abandoned in wooded area.

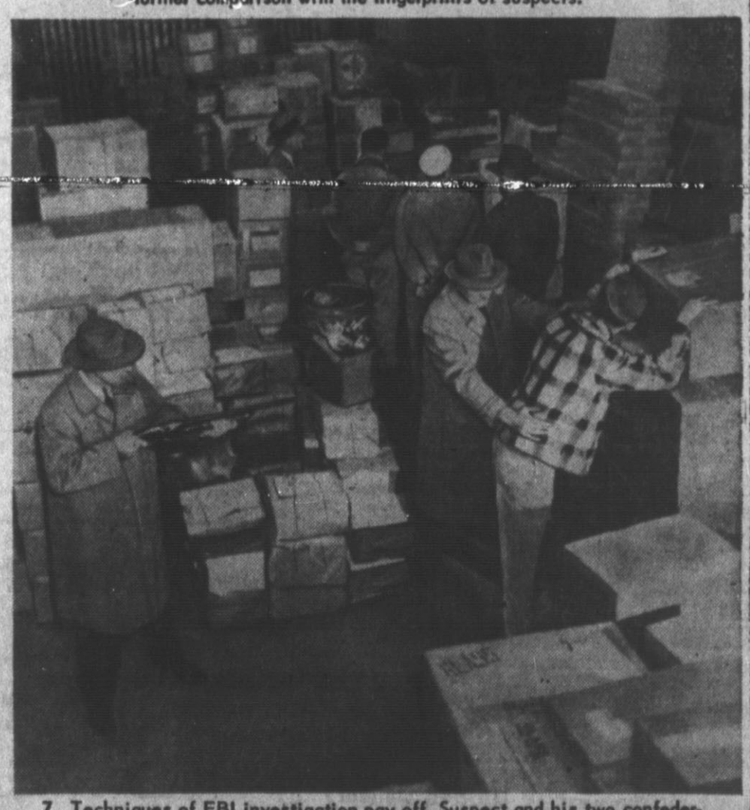

4. Telltale fingerprints may have been left in the cab of the truck. FBI agent dusts window for fingerprints. All prints will be photographed and lifted for further comparison with the fingerprints of suspects.

5. Plaster cast of tire track in vicinity of abandoned truck is taken to FBI laboratory where examiner identifies tire as to make and size.

6. Suspect is placed under surveillance by G-men in hope he will lead them to his confederates and location of the loot.

7. Techniques of FBI investigation pay off. Suspect and his two confederates are rounded up by Agents. Stolen tools are recovered.

NANCY KELLY
Her stage tears are real

Nancy Refuses To Tell How She Can Cry So Easily

By FRANCES LEWINE

It's a "mystic and strange" thing that makes actress Nancy Kelly cry real tears eight performances a week on schedule in the Broadway drama "Bad Seed."

It would be almost like psychoanalyzing to tell how she does it. It's quite confidential — esoteric, Miss Kelly maintains—and basic to her trade, acting.

The job she has done with the role of the mother of a child murderer rated Miss Kelly a coveted "Tony" (Antoinette Perry Award of the American Theater Wing) for the best dramatic leading lady of the 1954-55 season on Broadway.

If you get a front row seat, you see the slow buildup of the tension, the perspiration and finally the welling, brimming tears — real tears.

It's something to see in the theater.

But Miss Kelly brushes it aside as a job she has trained herself to do, "a rare part" and an "exciting one."

"It's hard work, but then it's my job," she says.

A performer since she was a child, in movies at the age of 17, a veteran of the stage and lately television, 34-year-old Miss Kelly thinks there's a world of illusion for the theater audience and they shouldn't rub off that glow by looking backstage too closely.

She doesn't want to spoil the glamor by telling the steps she uses to prepare for her tears. It might even seem "ridiculous." But she admits she gets to the theater more than an hour before curtain time "to prepare."

Miss Kelly, like many other famous actresses, is a devotee of the Stanislavski method of acting, whereby the actor calls upon the wellsprings of his own emotional experiences, employing tricks of association, almost a hypnotic mood, to reproduce at any given time a similar emotion on the stage.

Many people in the audience are too far away to see Miss Kelly's real tears, but it doesn't matter because they see the whole physical emotion which led to it.

"If the emotion is going, the impact is real," she points out.

Sometimes unexpected things do happen to break the actress' mood. Like the "catastrophe" when the laden bar wagon she was about to wheel onstage collapsed. And the dress rehearsal discovery that the front row of seats was so close to the stage that patrons and actors became self - consciously aware of each other's presence.

The management ripped out the whole row of seats for opening night.

The average human being doesn't go through the kind of emotional trial Miss Kelly experiences six nights a week and two matinees. It can be kind of wearing.

The play opened last December and now Miss Kelly finds her voice getting scratchy. It seems to add to the part, but she doesn't like it. She concludes:

"I'll have to shut up offstage."

CHEBOYGAN, Mich. (AP)—Cecil Adams was growing a lush beard to wear to Cheboygan County's centennial celebration. But Mrs. Adams didn't like it. One day while Cecil slept, his wife cut a swarth down one side of his face with his electric razor. Adams shaved off the rest when he woke up.

MILK SHORTED

WARREN, Ohio — Farmer Ralph Gallant wondered why the milk output of his big dairy herd had been dropping off. He found out when seven cows were electrocuted. A short circuit had charged the water bowls alongside each stanchion. Apparently enough of the current had been reaching the cows for some time before they were killed to make them leery of drinking.

Simplicity Has Become Style In Wedding Gowns

By DOROTHY ROE

As brides grow younger, wedding gowns grow simpler and prettier.

The statuesque bride who goes up the aisle in ancestral lace and antique satin is becoming a rarity, outnumbered by the bright-eyed young brides who choose an inexpensive dress cut on simple, youthful lines, for the most important occasion of their lives.

Though there are many new miracle fabrics available for today's bride, the old favorites remain in high demand—fabrics such as cobweb-sheer organdie, veil-like batiste, old - fashioned eyelet-embroidered sheer cotton—all as well loved in grandmother's day as today.

New finishes and treatments make these traditional wedding-gown fabrics even more beautiful and durable today. The new Swiss organdies come in many versions —embroidered, embossed or plain, cute pastels. Eyelet-embroidered in snowy white or a range of delicate batiste also is newly popular, and even old-fashioned lawn is staging a comeback.

Many of today's bridal gowns are so designed that they may be transformed into summer dance dresses after the ceremony, by such expedients as removing a bottom tier of ruffles or train, subtracting a bolero or switching skirts or tops, the case of the increasingly popular wedding separates.

The short circular veil of nylon tulle, attached to a simple head dress, is the choice of most brides today, rather than the long veil of priceless lace.

Since so many current brides are still under 20, youthful charm rather than ostentation has become the new fashion in wedding gowns and veils.

Rocking Chairs Get Dose Of H.D. Womens' Talents

By ROBERTA CAMPBELL

Some people are concerned about the old rocking chair getting them, but women from several of the home demonstration clubs in the county who attended a special class in upholstering were more interested in getting the old chair before it was beyond repair.

The all day meeting was held at the J. G. Fortenberry home in the Bippus Community May 9 and several chairs were rejuvenated in the course of the day's work.

Argen Draper, who instructed the women, had already given a list of materials which would be necessary and had advised the women to have all chairs repaired and painted.

Steps which the workers carried out were: application of webbing as a base for springs, tying springs placing burlap, making the edge rolls and finally the padding and upholstery material.

The finished chairs will be exhibited at the Bippus Community house the fifth Sunday in May.

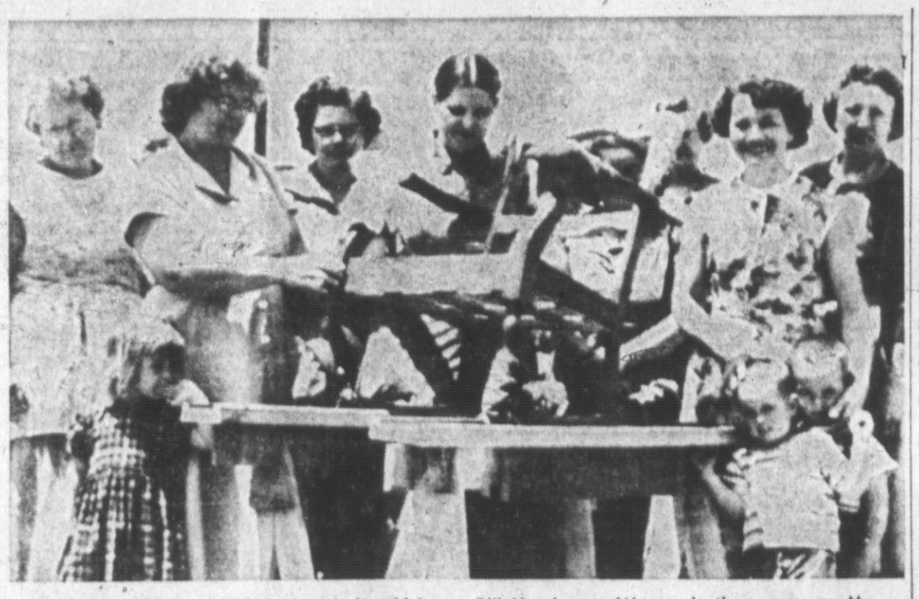

Club women working on the projects were Mesdames Draper, J. C. Morrison, Glenn Hetzler, M. M. Henderson, R. L. Wilson, R. J. Colean, Elmer Northcutt, C. F. Homfeld, O. B. Sumner, Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry and Christine.

Sack lunches were shared at noon and the Bippus Club furnished the drinks.

Making a pan of baking-powder bran bread to serve with coffee? Dot the batter with orange marmalade—leaving several inches between each spoonful—before baking.

Springtime rhubarb pie benefits from the addition of grated orange rind. Use four cups of the diced rhubarb and a half-teaspoon of the orange rind for a nine-inch pie with a lattice crust.

IN THE GROUP AROUND the chair which has been repaired and painted, Mrs. Tom Draper, CHDA, is pointing out the importance of putting a protective covering over the ends of the rocker to protect the finish until the job is completed. Children in the front row are Judith Morrison on the left and Sid and Bill Henderson. Women in the group are Mrs. J. C. Morrison, Mrs. J. G. Fortenberry, Mrs. Draper, Mrs. M. M. Henderson, Mrs. O. B. Sumner, Mrs. R. L. Wilson, Mrs. C. F. Homfeld, Mrs. Glenn Hetzler, Mrs. Elmer Northcutt, Mrs. R. J. Coleman and Christine Fortenberry. (Staff Photo)

WEBBING WHICH is being replaced in the first picture is an important factor in the foundation of a chair. Since it forms a base for the springs it must be tight. Mrs. Glenn Hetzler is tacking the webbing as Mrs. O. B. Sumner stretches it with a webbing stretcher. (Staff Photo)

A COLLAPSIBLE upholsterers saw horse and the assembly and the various sections that may be taken apart for easier carriage are shown by Mrs. Draper who gave the plans to Jasper Cockrell and G. T. Williamson for the construction. Mrs. Northcutt and Mrs. Coleman are also shown. (Staff Photo)

MRS. R. J. COLEMAN and Mrs. Elmer Northcutt team up on the spring tying. This is sometimes a rather tedious job as the springs must be fastened securely. (Staff Photo)

WORKING ON THE FRAME of the chair to see that all repairs have been made before the upholstering is begun are Mrs. C. J. Homfeld and Mrs. M. M. Henderson This work should always be done first to prevent any damage to the upholstery materials. (Staff Photo)

County HD Women Told Bread Is Basic In Diet

For centuries man has recognized bread as the "Staff of Life." It has been basic in man's diet throughout history but there are still certain methods which must be followed for really good bread. Such procedure is being given in demonstrations by Argen H. Draper, county home demonstration agent, for Home Demonstration Club women in the county.

Clubs reporting recent meetings are:

Progressive

"Really good bread begins with good ingredients," Mrs. Draper told members of the Progressive H. D. Club, who met with Mrs. H. L. Hershey May 3.

Mrs. P. L. Carmichael, foods demonstrator for the group, introduced Mrs. Draper and she and Mrs. V. E. Dodson, Mrs. T. J. Parsons and the hostess assisted in making different types of rolls.

Mrs. Draper also stressed the importance of standard measuring equipment and temperature in preparation of any yeast product. Kneading, she explained, is to trap the bubbles of gas produced by the yeast. Around the world women have traded their favorite recipes to experience the joy and excitement of baking really different breads, they were told.

Mrs. Hershey presided at the business meeting. Mrs. Carmichael showed pictures and told of a new type of refrigerator which hangs on the wall and becomes a part of the cabinet installation in the home. She also showed new type electric burners which fold into the wall when not in use. This was followed by the Council report. Mrs. Alton Kemp discussed tornado safety rules. Mrs. Earl Plank gave the Federated Club report. Members voted not to Federate for the coming year.

Refreshments were served to Mrs. B. E. Estes, a visitor, and Mesdames D. Y. Edwards, Cecil Boyer, Floyd McGee, Harold Beauchamp, Ira Ricketts, C. V. Burges, Leon Coffin, Fred Saltzman, Bert Coffin, Forrest Ricketts, Earl Plank, Alton Kemp, Tom Draper, V. E. Dodson, T. J. Parsons, P. L. Carmichael and the hostess.

North Hereford

Mrs. O. C. Williams was hostess for members of the North Hereford H. D. Club on May 5.

Miss Naomi Hare, who is home on leave of absence from Lima Peru, assisted by her mother, Mrs. A. A. Hare, showed colored slides to the group and told them about her work in the schools there.

Those attending were: Mesdames Otto Olson, Harold Pettyjohn, Mary Bodkin, Fred Barrett, R. E. Barrett, Otto Massie, R. A. Fullwood, C. L. Whitehead, Frank Brinkman, Tony Hoffman, Paul Hagar, A. A. Hare, Paul Hoff, E. E. Bishop, Miss Naomi Hare, Roberta Campbell and the hostess.

The next meeting will be on May 9 at the home of Roberta Campbell for a demonstration on yeast breads. Mrs. Paul Hagar will be co-hostess.

Dawn

"Bread will always be an important part of every meal," Argen Draper told members of the Dawn H. D. Club at their regular meeting May 5. Mrs. Walter Galley was hostess.

"Bread," she continued, "combines the energy giving carbohydrates and the body-building proteins in a tasty, well-liked product that is low in cost.

At the business meeting, the resignation of Mrs. Marion Russell as reporter was accepted and Mrs. Muriel Little was elected to replace her.

Mrs. Jo Evans and Mrs. Billie Jo Evans and Mrs. Tom Draper were visitors. Members attending were: Mesdames H. S. Fuller, Muriel Little, Larry Loerwald, Cecil Payne, Zed Stewart, J. M. Carathers, Orval Galley, W. T. Beavers, T. L. Sparkman, L. W. Tooley, Annie Harder, Marion Russell and Miss Lulu Botsford and the hostess.

Westway

Mrs. S. T. Loerwald and Mrs. George Turrentine had charge of the program when members of the Westway H. D. Club met with Mrs. Phillip Miller April 27. Demonstrations on hair styling and diet and exercise were given by the women in charge. Mrs. Paul Rudd was the model for Mrs. Loerwald, who pointed out that one should blot the hair instead of rubbing briskly.

Mrs. Turrentine reminded the women that losing weight is a slow process and one shouldn't become discouraged if immediate results are not evident.

Mrs. J. C. Morrison gave a very interesting talk on Tornadoes. She reminded the women to be calm in such an emergency.

Recreation was conducted by Mrs. Rudd using the word MOTHER in a contest. Mrs. J. B. Thomas won the contest.

Mrs. P. B. Sowell gave the council report and announced that Mrs. Bess Werner, citizenship leader, would represent the club at Commissioner's Court, May 23.

Refreshments were served to one visitor, Mrs. Elmer Combs and the following members: Mesdames J.

A letter from Mrs. R. M. Hobdy asking about a song that the Hereford Music Club Chorus sang at the Federated Club Convention two years ago. It was 'Song of Joy" and she said she had not been able to find a company to buy the songs and wanted some information about it. She said she remembered the tune and thought it would be good for a quartet.

Have you had your potato today? The Texas Food Standard—Texas homemakers' guide for planning meals—lists one serving of potato a day. Potatoes supply food energy at low cost. They also yield a small amount of protein and if properly prepared, furnish vitamin C, the B vitamins, thiamine, and riboflavin and some iron. Boiling potatoes in their jackets or baking them is the best way to retain vitamin and mineral content.

It is not a fact that potatoes are fattening and must always be omitted from a weight control diet. A medium sized potato supplies only about 100 calories—about one-third the amount supplied by a piece of pie or a piece of iced cake. It is the butter, margarine and gravy added to the potato that add calories to the serving.

Mrs. H. L. Hershey and Mrs. Walter Galley both recommend the yeast roll recipe that we are using in club this month and they are both very good cooks.

A long time ago Lucile Park gave us a punch recipe which has proved very popular when served. Here it is: 2 cups water, 1 cup sugar; boil and cool. Just before serving add one No. 2 can pineapple juice, 4 Cokes and juice of 3 lemons. This makes 10 servings. Family Life Education Specialist, will be in Hereford for a program as planned May 30. Details will be given later.

There were four Home Demonstration Clubs represented at the Upholstering training school held at the Jack Fortenberry farm Monday. These club leaders will teach an upholstering class if club members are interested. Those clubs represented were Bippus, Cultural, Messenger and Westway. Mrs. Glenn Hetzler was a visitor. The Bippus Club has planned an exhibit of the reupholstered furniture soon.

New taste sensation: Sprinkle lamb chops with a suspicion of ground mace before broiling.

Want to keep cabbage green when you are cooking it? Steam the shredded vegetable in only enough water to keep it from sticking; there should be practically no liquid left in the pan by the time it is tender-crisp. Cover the saucepan while you are cooking the cabbage, but lift the cover several times; this uncovering the pan will help retain the green color.

Muffin Change: add two-thirds cup of finely-cut pitted dates to a standard two-cup muffin recipe.

Margaret Burrus New Walcott 4-H Vice President

The Walcott 4-H Club met in regular session Friday, May 6. The meeting was called to order by Mary Dufur, president. Roll was called and the minutes were read by Kay Pruit.

During the business meeting, Margaret Burrus was elected vice president to finish out the term.

A demonstration on "placing and cutting your pattern" was given by the clothing demonstrator, Royce Lee Pruit. Also a demonstration on marking was given by the leader, Mrs. Roy Pruit.

Refreshments were served to: Margaret Burrus, Mary Sue Patton, Mary Dufur, Royce Lee Pruit, Janell Weaver, Merry Kay Pruit, Cecelia Burrus, Hazel Lewis, Pauline Cole, Betty Sue Lockhart, Marilyn Lumpkins, Geneva Cates, and Gail Hall.

The next meeting will be in the home of Royce Lee and Merry Kay Pruit May 25.

Two young juicy beeves had been barbecued, 30 gallons of steaming coffee, rich in pleasing aroma, appetizing salads, pickles, rolls and dozens of delicious cakes had been prepared to supplement the piece-de-resistence.

Long Time Ago

Forty-five Years Ago

We notice that some of the papers of the country are criticizing the commissioners' court of Deaf Smith County for putting $125,000 in their new court house, said to be one of only three marble court houses in the United States. If these papers will send representatives to Hereford and Deaf Smith County, they will learn that nothing short of $125,000 would be sufficient to provide a temple of justice commensurate with the needs of the people and in keeping with the other improvements being made.

This week the ladies of the Mother's Club began work on a new park a gift from the city. It is the three cornered block in West Hereford at the end of Fourth Street on 25-Mile Avenue. As a starter to improve the grounds, Messrs. Murchison, Britain, Bercuts, Warren and Sayles each gave $5 in cash. Work has begun and it is the purpose of the ladies to dedicate the park on Wednesday May 18, in honor of Halley's comet, which will visit the earth on that day.

Twenty-five Years Ago

The Amarillo good-will trippers composed of 100 business men and the high school band of 40 members, spent two and one-half pleasant hours here Tuesday, arriving on their special train at 10:35 in the morning. Earl W. Wilson, county judge, welcomed the visitors, after they had been escorted from the train by the fair ladies of the town, up Main Street to Fourth and back to Third. The ladies met the train flaunting "Hello, Boys" badges that bore their first names only, and the parade formed in twos. Judge Wilson deftly dodged one of those all-incorporating speeches by telling the guests that they were welcome and could have anything in the city if they paid enough for it, and turned the platform to A. P. Jarret, dean of the College at Canyon.

A barbecue of banquet proportions and a merry barn-dance were enjoyed by 150 people from widely scattered districts last Friday when they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Womble and Sons at the latter's ranch 20 miles north of Hereford in the valley of the Palo Duro creek. Two young juicy beeves had been barbecued, 30 gallons of steaming coffee, rich in pleasing aroma, appetizing salads, pickles, rolls and dozens of delicious cakes had been prepared to supplement the piece-de-resistence.

Members present were: Mesdames Eldon Craig, John Hacker, J. P. Slaton, Adam Flowers, Ada Holl baugh, Viola Woodson, John Draper, Ed Dziuk, S. S. Williams, Clyde Cocanougher, Roy Manning and the hostess.

Wyche

"One important step in making yeast breads is to let the dough rest 10 minutes before shaping," said Mrs. Tom Draper when she gave a demonstration to members of the Wyche H. D. Club May 5, when they met in the home of Mrs. C. F. Newsom.

Mrs. E. C. Hewitt Jr. presided over the business meeting. Mrs Ira Ott gave the report of the finance committee. She reported a profit of $8 was made on the plant sale held recently. The club voted to have a guest speaker at the next meeting, May 19. A guest will also be invited to attend. Those attending were: Mesdames G. W. Newsom, C. C. Ellis, Wayne Newsom, J. V. Pickens, E. C. Hewitt, C. R. Damron, Curtis Traweek, Ira Ott and the hostess.

The next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Ira Ott with Mrs. Hewitt as co-hostess.

Play Pen Can Be Mother's Best Helper With Junior

By Dorothy V. Whipple, M. D.

A play pen is a marvelous device to help a busy mother. Get one when your baby is quite young. Two months is not too early to begin using a play pen.

Don't use the baby's crib for a play space. It's a good idea to get your baby conditioned to going to sleep as soon as he goes to bed. If sometimes he is put into his crib to sleep and sometimes to play he is confused. A bed should be for sleeping only.

As the weeks slip into months your baby will be awake more hours of every day. He will begin to have long waking periods and he needs a safe place to play.

When your baby is only a month old, you can put him on a blanket on the floor for play periods. Never, never, put him on your bed to play. Don't do this even if you have a big double bed and you feel quite sure he cannot fall off. Maybe he can't the first time you do it, but babies develop new abilities very fast. Before you know it your baby can turn himself over and roll to the edge of the bed and onto the floor!

I'm sure you'd be surprised how many phone calls I get from frantic mothers who almost scream into the phone: "My baby has just fallen off the bed—what'll I do?" Many of these babies are not seriously hurt, but every once in a while a youngster will really hurt himself in such a fall. Don't let it happen to your baby.

You will want a play pen sooner or later.

At 2 months your baby will lie down all the time in his pen. Have a few toys within reach. He will enjoy toys that are hung on cords across the pen. He will bat them with his hands and with his feet. Another word of caution. Make sure those cords are very firmly tied to the sides of the pen. We do not want a baby playing with a long cord that he might twist around his neck.

If you start your baby in a pen long before he can crawl and move about he will become accustomed to the bars and will play happily in the pen. If he's never put into a play pen until he has discovered the joys of crawling all over the room, it's quite likely he will object to the confinement.

While a play pen is a good safe place for your baby to play, don't abuse it.

Put him into the pen while you are busy doing your housework. When your work is done, take him out of the pen and let him have a little free time to explore. You will have to be right there to see he doesn't hurt himself nor injure your things.

Your Congressman Reports

Yesterday and today the House has been embroiled in bitter debate concerning the future of the American farmer. The bill under discussion is K. R. 12, which primarily fixes supports on the six basic commodities, cotton, corn, wheat, peanuts, tobacco and rice at 90 percent of parity for the crop years 1955, 1956 and 1957. Under the economy as it presently stands in this country, the American farmer is entitled to the passage of this bill. However, you will know the fate of the legislation by the time this letter reaches you. I sincerely hope that it is good. I will introduce an amendment to the bill in a very few hours which will increase the price supports on grain sorghums. This is very important to our section of the country, because grain sorghums are the major cash crop in our section of Texas and in many portions of Kansas, Oklahoma, Colorado and New Mexico. I expect great opposition to the amendment from people who understand more about arithmetic than they do human beings. The amendment will probably fail because it is designed to contribute to the economic equality of the American farmer. There has been a propaganda campaign going on in many of the urban areas against the American farmer. He has been portrayed as a scoundrel who has been milking the public treasury and is responsible for the consumer prices of food products. This vicious campaign is, in my opinion, closely akin to treason. It is false, it is deliberate and it is malicious. Some of the accusations and innuendoes directed against the American farmer would lead one to believe that the beads of sweat on a man's brow have now become badges of dishonor. God forbid that we ever reach that state. It would definitely denote the complete failure of Christianity and civilization.

What happens to the American farmer during our generation may well determine the future of this country. We have during the past few years permitted the farm income to drop tragically, while at the same time the cost of living was increasing. This not only jeopardizes the farmer, but it puts the small independent American business man in the farm supported communities in a squeeze from which he cannot free himself and must face eventual bankruptcy. The decrease in farm income has resulted in a substantial decrease in the farm population. The records will reflect that this emigration from the farm has turned into immigration to the metropolitan areas and a resulting increase in the general labor market. In other words, the former consumer of the products of labor is fast becoming the producer of consumer thereof. This can result in nothing except an unbalance of the general economy. This means unemployment, it means social problems, and it means subsequent demands for expansions of present government social programs. This cannot contribute to the perpetuation of the free country visualized by those who signed the Declaration of Independence. Destroy the American family-sized farm, and you destroy America.

FOREIGN VISITORS

Madame Georgette Barbizet, of Paris, France, and Dr. Olga Monsani, of Florence, Italy, who had visited in Phillips, Texas, as guests of the Phillips Garden Club, honored my office with a visit before returning to their native lands. Both are lawyers and are leaders in a large number of organizations in their respective countries. They were most gracious and high in their praise for the Panhandle of Texas, and especially those people whose hospitality they enjoyed. I asked them what impressed them more than anything else in their whole trip. Both agreed that it was not the vast expanse of this country, the great industrial capacity, nor the standard of living which we enjoy, but the fact that they found everyone in this country, whether residing in Texas, New York, or some other state, to be an American first. They told me that they had thought that the people in the different states of the United States were more or less divided in their general philosophies, mannerisms, and so forth, but found during their visit that a Texan in New York was an American first, just as a New Yorker would be in Texas. This is a point that I think should be enlarged upon by the Voice of America and all other mediums through which America can be advertised to foreign countries. If these two outstanding personages were surprised at finding that a Texan feels at home in St. Louis or Oklahoma City, the same as a Virginian would feel in Chicago or Portland, it should certainly be good information for all of the world. It could very easily clarify in the minds of the Russians or other Red followers any question as to the unity of this country.

It was very noticeable that these two fine women found this country and Texas people invigorating and refreshing. They both appeared reluctant to end what must have been a most pleasant visit. Thanks to the fine ladies in the Phillips Garden Club, and your good neighbors, for striking such a splendid blow for good foreign relations.

THE SQUIRREL ISSUE

Very little has been heard lately about the squirrel problem at the White House. Perhaps they have solved it. However, the pigeon peoblem at the Rogers house is getting worse. The pigeons apparently realize that they are in very little danger from a BB-gun in my hands. They now wait for me on the front porch and appear to be challenging me to do anything about it. It is becoming rather embarrassing. One consolation I have is that they are not parrots.

VISITORS

Other visitors in my office this past week included W. E. Swenson, of Amarillo, and W. T. Durant, of Dallas.

AUSTIN — Right down to the wire, the Legislature fought out the battle of taxation.

Pay of the legislators—$25 per day—stopped May 10. So there was all the more reason, from their point of view, that the toughest, most complex and controversial problem of the session be solved as soon as possible.

First, the House passed a tax bill, increasing or putting new levies on gasoline, cigarettes, snuff, tobacco, natural gas, trading stamps, uranium, and wine and beer dealers.

When this bill went to the Senate amendments were introduced to tax auto storage and parking lots, jewelry, furs and clothing, storage warehouses, airlines, real estate brokers, chemical manufacturers, hotels, tourist lodges, department stores, and chain stores.

Committee Hearings

Sen. Dorsey Hardeman, chairman of the Senate State Affairs Committee, scheduled hearings almost as fast as amendments were introduced.

First witness was E. H. Thornton Jr., chairman of the State Highway Commission. He asked that the state tax on gasoline be set at six cents per gallon, instead of the present four cents. (The House bill increased the gasoline tax to five cents.)

Gov. Allan Shivers had advocated a two-cent increase in the gasoline tax to provide for the state's highway needs.

He continues to express the hope that there be no income or sales tax.

That the Legislators will complete the tax bill and adjourn within two weeks is Shivers' guess.

Big question is whether the House will accept what the Senate does—especially if it changes the gas levy.

Political Aspect

While they were discharging their legislative duties, some members were thinking seriously about the political campaigns of a year hence.

Mentioned often as potential candidates for Governor have been John Ben Shepperd, U. S. Sen. Price Daniel, Lt. Gov. Ben Ramsey and Sen. Jimmy Phillips.

But a new face entered the picture this week when Sen. Ottis Lock of Lufkin was approached by friends who urged him to give serious condideration to the race for Governor, in 1956.

Shivers Returns

Gov. Allan Shivers brought much news back with him from Washington.

In a long press conference he made the flat assertion that the Democratic Party cannot nominate another left-wing candidate and win.

He repeated that he did not intend to support Adlai Stevenson as the nominee for President next year.

He praised the work of U. S. Sen. Lyndon Johnson as Senate majority leader.

He stated that he had started negotiations with U. S. Interior Secretary McKay, looking to the solution of technical problems involving control of tidelands oil and gas leasing—and he expressed the opinion that Texas' tideland problems were more technical than legal.

Shivers may ask the Legislature to set up state control over the distribution of polio vaccine. His decision will follow a conference with Dr. Henry Holle, state commissioner of health.

One of Shivers' first visitors on his return from Washington was 12 year old Bernard Andrews. He is spelling champion of the Negro elementary schools of Houston.

Young Andrews told the Governor and Rep. Charles Murphy of Houston that the hardest word he had to spell in winning the championship and a trip to Austin by aeroplane was "zephyr."

Park Bill Passes

Ready for Governor Shivers' signature is the long fought parks bill.

Jointly sponsored by Rep. Chas. Murphy of Houston and Sen. Carlos Ashley of Llano, the measure provides for $25,000,000 worth of bonds to build tourist accommodations in state parks.

It calls for the erection of lodges at Inks Lake in Central Texas, Eisenhower State Park on Lake Texhoma, and Atlanta State Park on Lake Texarkana.

Scheduled for construction first is a 101 unit resort hotel and lodges on Roy Inks Lake, to cost approximately $1,000,000.

Later construction would be at Possum Kingdom Lake, Lake Whitney, and Falcon Reservoir.

The entire program is self-liquidating.

Veterans Land Program

Loopholes in the veterans land program will be plugged if bills by Rep. Dolph Briscoe and Rep. Buckshot Lane meet with Senate approval.

These two House-passed measures would set up stiff requirements and regulations for land purchases and place full responsibility for administration of the program on the shoulders of the chairman of the Veterans Land Board.

Land Records

Land Commissioner J. Earl Rudder says there have been no changes in the minutes of the veterans land board.

At the April 27 meeting of the board, Governor Shivers and Attorney General Shepperd released affidavits saying that the minutes of 80 previous sessions contained gross mistakes — and Shepperd moved that notations be made showing that the minutes had been corrected.

"You can read the original minutes just as they were written in the record," Rudder told the House special investigating committee.

Montana has gained 54,000 in population since 1950 and now has 645,000 people.

MEET THE TEACHER—Born in Stonewall County, Miss Erma Walker attended college at Sul Ross and West Texas. She has taught at Shirley for the past five years in the third grade.

What a frame!

Underneath Ford's long, low Thunderbird-inspired lines lies one of the strongest reasons why the swing is to FORD: Ford's rugged, 5-cross-member-frame!

We're proud of Ford's Thunderbird-inspired styling . . . its Trigger-Torque pep . . . its smooth Angle-Poised Ride. But, in many ways, we're proudest of the way a Ford is built.

Ford's husky K-bar frame has five cross members—more than any other car in its field. Ford bodies are welded to eliminate rust-inviting seams. Ford finishes are baked on to keep their showroom complexion. Ford engines are deep-block, low-friction engines . . . built to stay smooth, quiet, and savingful. Ford's Angle-Poised Ride makes rough roads easy on the ear, too!

HORTICULTURAL CONFUSION

HAPEVILLE, Ga. (AP)—B. L. McLeroy says he is confused. He reports he transplanted a wild cherry tree from a field to his yard. The first year it bore cherries much larger than the usual wild ones. Next year, he insists, it produced apples which were small but at least grew like apples should, singly. Then it began producing apples clustered together like cherries. McLeroy won't be surprised if it comes up next with cherries the size of apples. But he can't explain the tree's habits.

Egg noodles taste extra good when they are sprinkled with bread crumbs that have been fried in butter to a golden-brown. Serve with veal chops or veal cutlets and tomato sauce!

Ever try french-frying green pepper rings to serve with steak or chicken? Just dip the rings in seasoned flour, then in milk and drain slightly; now dip in flour again and cook in hot deep fat until golden-brown.

It's Performance That Counts!
CAPTAIN I. R. OLSON tells why he uses Flite-Fuel

"I'm a Captain for Continental Air Lines. We use Phillips 66 Aviation Gasoline regularly in our airplanes. It contains the super-power component Di-isopropyl, and that makes it a very high performance fuel.

"In my car, I like to get the best performance possible so I use Phillips 66 FLITE-FUEL. It's the only automobile gasoline that contains added Di-isopropyl. It gives me what I want... power, smoothness and long mileage."

6 TEST QUESTIONS

THE Great Teacher painted a picture of the final Judgment. To the amazement of His hearers, He said the test questions would be six:

Did you feed the hungry? Did you give drink to the thirsty?
Did you welcome the stranger? Did you clothe the naked?
Did you visit the sick? Did you help men in prison?

Had there been a seventh question, surely, it would have been — "Do you attend church regularly?" See the two faces . . . simple, but a great transaction is taking place. If you have been sick a week, or two, or three — then you understand. Living eyes are always hungry and to serve them is rich living. Why wait to give expensive wreaths and sprays until those eyes have closed in death? Attend church this week.

YOU IN THE CHURCH
THE CHURCH IN YOU

Character is a by-product of the church. It is here that young and old alike are showered with benedictions that fortify and influence for a better citizenship and a stronger democracy. In the church the ministerial arc molding religious character. Statesmen today declare that the church alone can furnish leadership to handle the affairs of state in these perilous times. Then we with our children should go to the church of our choice on Sunday. "You in the Church and the Church in you" form a combination for good. Be a regular CHURCH-GOER and a daily BIBLE READER.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

First I want to say how much I enjoy my subscription to The Brand. I take the two daily Shreveport papers and the Sunday Dallas News, but always seem to enjoy each page of The Brand.

I am well informed about the drought problems in West Texas and have often wondered if it would be profitable to hire the rain makers to encourage more rain. It seems that they have been successful in Dallas and Shreveport, why not in Hereford?

Enclosed clipping is out of the morning Shreveport Times.

Sincerely,
Mrs. A. B. Quinn

The clipping:

"Shreveport's 'rain makers' have been ordered back into action even though Cross Lake, source of the city's water supply is still full and spilling over by two inches.

"Public Utilities Commissioner L. E. Phelps said Thomas L. Amiss, superintendent of the water and sewerage department, requested by phone at 11 a.m. yesterday that the Water Resourcese Development Corp. of Denver resume operations immediately.

"The Denver firm, hired by the city in January to boost the amount of rain falling over the then parched 264-square mile Cross Lake watershed, was ordered to discontinue operations, subject to further notice, on March 21.

"The lake, which had fallen to its lowest level in history as a result of the severe droughts of 1953 and 1954, flowed over the top of the spillway on that date for the first in nearly two years.

"The lake even then continued to rise until at one time it was 22 inches above the top of the spillway gates. Two inches of excess water are still continuing to spill over the gates, Phelps said.

"The diminishing amount of excess water is the reason that he has ordered the Water Resources Development Corp. to resume its cloud-seeding operations in this area, Phelps said.

"The excess water has been more than providing the city with its water needs without even tapping the lake's regular capacity, Phelps said.

"He said he would like the excess water level raised again so that there will be no immediate need for using the regular lake supply. The full capacity of the lake, if the excess water level can be raised once more, will thus be held in reserve in the event of another dry summer similar to those of the past two years.

"Phelps said the Denver weather modification firm, upon being told yesterday to resume operations, informed him that its long-range weather forecasts indicated that conditions will be ripe in this area Tuesday for going back into action.

"The city has a $20,000 12-month contract with Water Resources Development Corp. It was authorized by the City Council Jan. 11."

Hotel, Piggly Wiggly Take Wins In Softball Contests

By BILL KNOX

Young Bill Callaway smashed three home runs, one with the bases jammed, and two in the same inning yet Hotel Jim Hill raced past Callaway and Rutherfords 22-12 in the feature softball attraction Thursday night. The powerful Piggly Wiggly team emptied the bench while pulverizing the hapless Popular Store team 38-6 in only five innings in the second contest.

Rutherfords displayed a need for pitchers as they were overcome by the Hotel crew. Two pitchers tried their luck, and neither was successful. Booming Jim Hill proved too powerful.

The game started off as if it would be close. Both teams were blanked in the first, as Rutherfords failed to score in the second. But Hotel rallied for seven big runs in their half of the second. Wildness by Jim Russell, shabby fielding, and a tremendous homer by Johnny Renner were responsible.

Jim Hill made it 10-0 in the third after Rutherfords was again held scoreless. The first two men were retired, but Bounds and Carroll got on on two errors, and Howard and Lucky Timberlake got back to back doubles for the runs.

The top of the fourth was when Rutherfords exploded. Callaway as a leadoff hitter blasted a homer into left-center, then batting again in the same inning clouted another, this time with the bases jammed. Rutherfords scored 10 runs in this inning and Callaway was personally responsible for five.

Hotel quickly retained their lead with a single score in the last of the fourth. Onias Carroll drove in Dick Ross with a base hit after Ross had walked to score the run.

Rutherfords went down in order in the fifth, but Jim Hill sent two more men across the platter. Two walks and two doubles accounted for the tallies. Owners of the two keystone hits were John Winkler and Dick Ross.

Rutherfords managed to pick up a single tally in the sixth, but Hotel sent a barrage of 9 men across home plate in their half of the inning to practically put the game on ice. Rutherfords scored one in the seventh to make the score 22-12.

The second game resembled something like a track meet. Piggly Wiggly completely mauled the Popular Store 38-6 for their second straight victory. In the slaughter they scored one in the first, three in the second, six in the third, 8 in the fourth, and 10 in the fifth. Their opponents scored only one in the first and five in the fifth

District Race Thrown In Tie By Twin Bill Split

By BILL KNOX

The Dalhart Wolves avenged a first-game defeat with a resounding triumph over the Hereford Whitefaces in the afterpiece of the twinbill here to throw the District 1A race into a tie for first.

Homer Hershey pitched the Whitefaces to a 6-4 victory in the first game, while Jim Wilson extended his jinx over the Herd, and Dalhart bats pounded out a 15-2 triumph in the second game. The two teams will play for the district championship here on Thursday provided the Whitefaces stop the very weak Panhandle Panthers.

Thanks to a sensational catch by Danny Elliston, who also went three for four at the plate, the Herd snuffed out a Dalhart rally in the top of the seventh to take the initial victory. Dalhart ran the second game, but Hereford couldn't solve Wilson. Shabby Hereford fielding also contributed to the second-game loss.

Hershey consistently pitched his way out of jams created by himself. However, Boyd was not so fortunate. The Wolves got 19 hits off him, while they got only seven off of Hershey. Hereford pounded out 11 in the first and seven in the latter.

The first game was close and quickly played. Both pitchers had no trouble retiring opposing teams in the first two innings, but after Dalhart had again been blanked in the top of the third, the Whitefaces started things rolling with a pair of runs in their half of the third.

Jack Burrus led off with a double, and Homer Hershey struck out. Bybee popped to the pitcher, but Taylor Sims drove Burrus home with a single and scored himself on a series of errors by Dalhart catcher Gene Lewis.

In the top of the fourth Dalhart threatened mildly. Devers got on on an error to lead off and went to second of Corbitt's single. However, returning to old form, Hershey whiffed the next three men.

But the Whitefaces added three more in the fourth. Callaway whiffed as a lead-off hitter, and Albracht flied to left field, retiring the first two men, but Kenny Waltherscheid smashed a triple to right field. He scored when Pete Cassio erred on Jack Burrus' grounder, then Burrus scored on Homer Hershey's double. Bybee drew life on an error, and Taylor Sims scored Hershey on a single to drive in his second run of the day.

The Wolves first scratched in the top of the fifth, scoring two tallies. Palmer led off with a double, but Cassio grounded to second, and Montano fanned. However, Lewis singled, and after Devers and Corbitt had walked, Wilson singled to drive in the second run.

Hereford countered with their last tally in the sixth. After Burrus and Sims had both singled, Danny Elliston drove Burrus in with another single, his third hit of the day and his third RBI.

The determined Wolves fought fiercely to hold on in the top of the seventh. Montano led off with a single to start the rally. Lewis was hit by a pitch, and both runners advanced to second and third on a wild pitch. Devers scored them both on a single but was thrown out trying for a double to make the score 6-4, the final count. Corbitt and Wilson both walked and again advanced to second and third. Morse was fanned by Hershey, but Harvey Compton drove a tremendous drive to left-center field which was tagged base hit in everybody's but Danny Elliston's books. Elliston made a great running catch to end the game and give Hereford the victory.

Elliston and Taylor Sims both had three hits for the Herd, while Richard Hagar and Jack Burrus both had two. Palmer was the only Wolf with two hits.

The second game was never in question. After the Wolves had taken an early lead in the first and held Hereford scoreless, they continued to pour on more steam. They tallied one in the first, three in the second, one in the fourth, two in the fifth, and eight in the seventh. The only two Hereford runs came in the sixth.

The winner was Jim Wilson who pitched all the way. Francis Boyd, the loser, had to be relieved by Homer Hershey in the seventh.

with Torsion-Level Ride

A truly distinctive fine car — the new Packard.

Distinctive in having exclusive Torsion-Level suspension . . . providing a ride so smooth, so level, so comfortable on any road it has created a higher concept of motoring pleasure! Distinctive in its quiet magnificence, with color harmonies both refreshing and sophisticated and interiors designed for your personal luxury.

Torsion-Level Ride — Packard's newest achievement in creative engineering leadership — eliminates conventional coil and leaf springs. In other cars, twisting forces due to wheel shock are transmitted to the frame with resulting pitch and bounce of passengers and wracking of car body and frame. With the new Packard these same twisting forces are transmitted along the new torsion bar system and absorbed before they can reach frame or passengers.

Distinctive, too, are Packard's new "free-breathing" V-8 engine, developing up to 275 horsepower . . . and the agile automatic response of Packard's two-in-one Twin Ultramatic Transmission.

Here, in all its distinction, is a fine new car with a fine old name.

"Ask the Man Who Owns One."
