GETTING READY FOR SCHOOL -- work has gone on all summer at Hart schools getting facilities in "A-One" order for the '74 and '75 school year.

Maroon Longhorns Picked As District Runners-Up

"Top-O-Texas Football" magazine placed the 1974 Longhorns in the runner-up slot back of the Vega Horns. The publication also cites the Maroon Squad as "definite threats to possibly get into the 3-A throne room."

Some 15 lettermen will be returning for the Longhorns including last year's starters, center Kent Irons; ends, Danny Carson and Randy Finch; tackle Jesse Perez; guard Freddy Mancias and tailback Barry George.

Barry George, Terry Hill and Kent Irons are cited for potential All State honors. Irons is listed in the magazines Top 22 Class A players.

Cotton, Inc. To Sponsor Top Speakers, Program

J. Dukes Wooters, President of Cotton, Inc., New York and seven top executives of the firm will be in Lubbock July 24, 1974 at the South Park Inn to present a program on the marketing and research programs of Cotton, Inc.

Cotton, Inc., with offices in Raleigh, N.C. and New York, is the dollar-per-bale program to which 98 per cent of all cotton farmers throughout the cotton producing states are contributing. The dollar-per-bale goes into research and marketing activities aimed at increasing cotton producer profits.

The program, which is open to the public at no charge, is sponsored locally by the District Women's Cotton Promotion Association, with representation in ten counties on the High Plains and Rolling Plains.

According to Mrs. L.E. McDowell, publicity chairman of the women's group, the program is to give the West Texas cotton producer a better understanding of how the dollar-per-bale contributed to Cotton, Inc., is spent.

In addition to Wooters, speakers from New York and Raleigh will include: Dr. G.A. Slater, Dr. W.H. Wessling and J.K. Jones, Agriculture Research; Hal Brockman, Textile Research and Development; Dave Cox, Economic Research and Development; J. Nicholas Hahn, Marketing; and Don Kleckner, Advertising.

As an extra added attraction, a demonstration on belly dancing featuring the "dance of the seven veils" will be presented. The veils are of "all-cotton" material, of course. The program gets underway at 7:30 p.m.

Sherwood Oglesby, 1974 graduate of Hart High School and son of the Rev. and Mrs. Carl Oglesby, is a member of the hospitality staff.

Lynn Myers

Youth Receives Serious Injuries

Doctors credited it "a miracle" Tuesday night that the accident which injured Lynn Myers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Myers, did not claim his life or result in more critical injuries.

Still seriously hurt and "in for a lot of pain," according to a phone call Wednesday morning from his father, young Myers is in Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo. He underwent surgery Tuesday night.

Myers, who will celebrate his seventeenth birthday Saturday, was injured in a Tuesday evening accident when he was run over by a front end loader which he jumped from when he feared it would jack-knife.

Surgery Tuesday night corrected a dislocated shoulder and repaired a kidney injury. He suffered severe bruises to his legs but x-rays revealed no broken bones.

DONNA WELTY

Cook Of The Week

A pert little blonde who has been vitally interested in the fields of medicine and nursing for at least four years, Donna Welty, is our Cook of the Week.

Donna has found an outlet for that consuming interest in the Candy Stripe organization, a teenage volunteer group sponsored by the Ladies Auxiliary.

Although she has only received officially the 100-hour bar, signifying that much volunteer work, Donna has really compiled about 500 hours of volunteer work. So sincere in her genuine love of nursing and medicine, she would "spend all her time at the hospital," said her mother a year ago.

Donna, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Welty, will begin pre-nursing studies at LCC beginning Aug. 19. She is a 1974 graduate of HHS and was co-editor of the 1973 Longhorn annual and editor of the 1974 yearbook. She has also been active in FTA and FHA.

She has just completed a course in the micro-term at Wayland Baptist College.

Cooking is one of her favorite pastimes. She shares an unusual recipe for preparing granola which she got from a friend. The soy beans, she says, may be purchased at health food stores. The Mexican casserole is a favorite.

Donna is a member of the Church of Christ.

BEE'S GRANOLA

1½ c. mixed nuts
1 c. coconut
1 c. wheat germ
7 c. oats
1 c. soybeans
1 c. sunflower seeds
1 c. pecans
¼ c. honey
½ c. oil
¼ c. water

Mix cereal type ingredients and nuts; stir thoroughly. Completely mix honey, oil and water; add this mixture to cereal mixture and stir well. Place in 2 large (long) shallow pans and bake at 350° for 35 minutes to 45. Stir every 10 minutes to 15 to eliminate the possibility of burning or clumping. Serve as a breakfast cereal with hot or cold milk or as a snack. Optional: after baking and cooling 1½ c. raisins may be added. Makes 13½ c. of cereal.

MEXICAN CHICKEN CASSEROLE

1 stewed, seasoned and boned chicken (drained)
1 sm. can whole chiles, drained and chopped
1 large onion, chopped
1 can of cheddar cheese soup
1 can of cream of chicken soup
pepper and salt to taste
1 sm. jar of pimentos, drained and chopped

Mix all ingredients well. Add one bag of regular Frito Corn Chips (10 oz. size). Crush small amount of Fritos on bottom of greased pan and pour chicken mixture into pan. Crush small amount of Fritos on top. Cook at 350° until bubbly hot.

Add color to your life! Try a flattering new hair shade and you'll discover a whole new facet of your personality. Even a few lighter streaks around the face can lighten your approach to the world.

To decide which color or highlighting suits you best, try wigs on in different shades. (Why not invest in one and live in it a week or so before taking your first color step?)

With your new hair shade you'll need a new make-up palette. That's why I include, with the wigs I've designed for Sears, a guide that cues make-up color to hair shade.

ARE YOU PRAYING?

Since Communists do not believe in prayer (for they believe they have no soul), we can and should and must ceaselessly use this mighty weapon, asking God on the one hand "to break and hinder every evil counsel and will which would not let us hallow God's name nor let His kingdom come," and on the other hand to bless the preaching of His holy Word for the salvation of countless souls throughout the world.

In God's name, let us Christians go forward and we shall be "more than conquerors through Christ who loved us" (Romans 8:37).
