Both are daughters of Silver Lions. Odom is holding a bell-shaped gong, gavel and Lions bank, presented by the sponsoring Colorado City Club.

Heavy, soaking rains over almost all the county this week practically assured a full cotton planting for Mitchell County.

Farmers, especially sandy land owners and operators, reported good soil conditions at least temporarily.

Range land got a boost too with shiniery soaking the rain best of all.

Rains covered the entire county. Heavy downpours in some areas broke field terraces.

Only the county's southwest corner and a strip along the county's southern edge failed to get at least an inch of moisture.

Other areas of the county reported from 1.30-inch to more than four inches of rain. And most communities measured more than two inches on rain gauges.

Big factor toward increasing the benefits of this week's rain were two previous rains last month—about one inch each—that allowed farmers to work their crop acreages and ready their fields for the heavier moisture.

Here in Colorado City the official rain gauge on Courthouse lawn counted a total of 2.82 inches of rain. Just north of the city, however, in some Buford areas the rain amounted to more than four inches.

Rain reports compiled by the Record from communities across the county are:

Renderbrook Ranch in the county's southwest corner—65 inch, according to Wright Hook.

Spade Community southwest of Colorado City—1.30 inches, according to Robert Bolin.

Plainview, southwest of Colorado City—total of 2.75 inches, according to Mrs. E. G. Banks.

Conaway Community, 4.5 miles south of Westbrook—1.9 inches, according to Mrs. D. J. Barber.

Longfellow Community, northeast of the city—more than 3.5 inches, according to Mrs. J. C. Barkley Jr.

Fairview, northwest of Colorado City—three inches, according to Mrs. W. C. Berry.

Buford area, two miles northeast of Buford store—3.4 inches, according to J. W. Blessingame.

Payne Community, south of Colorado City—total of 2.5 inches, according to Mrs. Charles Williams.

Cuthbert, northwest of Colorado City—2.80 inches, according to Mrs. Cecil Erysh.

Westbrook, in the town at Green Top Cafe—total of four inches, Mrs. M. Alvis reports.

Loraine, in the town—total of 2.5 inches, according to Kirk Taylor at First State Bank.

North of Loraine, eight miles from town—total of four inches, according to Mrs. Bill Bowles.

South of Loraine, 10 miles out of town—approximately four inches, Mrs. Lester Finley reports.

Shepherd community, just east of Colorado City—more than three inches, according to Travis Turner.

Landers community, southwest of Loraine—from two to 2.5 inches, according to Mrs. Forrest Porter.

Some farms in the Seven Wells community reported more than three inches, but near the Mitchell-Coke County line in the Silver vicinity the moisture was generally light.

Harold Stephens, unit technician here for Soil Conservation Service, said moisture condition for sandy (medium) soils was "looking pretty good" after this week's rain.

There was more runoff on heavier type soils, he said, and those heavier soils will need more regular rains for good crop conditions.

Shiniery acreage utilized the rain best of all since only about .7-inch of rain is needed to soak down into a foot of dry land.

About 2.25 inches of rain is needed for a foot of sandy soil and three inches for heavier soils.

New terraces in this area withstood heavy downpours fine, Stephens said, except in one location where outside water caused damage. Some old terraces were reported in various areas of the county.

The SCS technician said that the two previous rains that allowed farmers to bed down their crop land was a big asset for the new moisture.

"If the crop land had not been bedded down," Stephens said, "the crop would have been bedded down."

HERE SATURDAY AFTERNOON

Precinct 1 Convention to Set Democratic Trend for County

Democrats participating in their Precinct 1 convention here Saturday will be the big factor in shaping Democratic Party policy for Mitchell County.

That's because they have the most voters, and delegations to the county Democratic convention next week will be based on the number of votes cast for governor in the last general election.

All four Democratic precinct conventions in Mitchell County are scheduled for 2 p.m.

Precinct 1, which includes Colorado City and Buford and McKenzie, will meet in the Court-house here.

Other meeting places will be: Precinct 2, in Green Top Cafe at Westbrook; Precinct 3, in Lions Club Building at Loraine; and Precinct 4, in county barn on Ritchey's Place at Spade.

The precinct conventions will select delegates and act on resolutions and party policy that might be proposed at the county convention.

R. H. (Harry) Ratliff Sr., county Democratic chairman, emphasized Thursday that each precinct can name one delegate to the county convention for every 25 votes cast for governor in the last general election.

Precinct 1 cast 657 votes in the last general election—231 more votes than were cast in the other three precincts combined.

It is that vote total which entitles Precinct 1 to the largest delegation at the county convention and the controlling delegation.

Guest in the J. A. Buchanan home is Miss Claudia Rogers of Dallas, who is here for the anniversary celebration of the First Presbyterian Church.

The new state association president will serve for the 1956-57 term.

DOCTOR TELLS CLUB

Public's Outlook Aids Mental Ills

A new outlook on mental illness is providing better treatment for mental patients.

Dr. W. S. (Bill) Rhode told Kiwanians here Tuesday that a new outlook on mental illness is providing better treatment for patients.

Citizens are realizing that mental illness is a sickness, just as pneumonia is a sickness, and not a family stigma, he said.

"And because you want to do something about this illness," the doctor emphasized, "you have influenced the state to spend more money."

The public awareness and increased state spending has provided new mental hospital buildings, salaries for competent psychiatrists and specialists, better pay for nurses and attendants.

All those add up, Rhode explained, to improved treatment.

Exact cause for the development of mental illness has never been determined. Some specialists believe the development may some day be traced to body chemicals.

However, pressures and tensions of present-day living conditions are credited with being one of the "triggers" for setting off the condition into abnormal thinking.

The doctor reported that statistics show that one out of every 20 persons in Texas today will spend part of his life in a state mental hospital.

"And I wonder," Rhode said, "if we ought not to stop and ask ourselves where we are going. Maybe take a lesson from the citizens south of the border and take a few minutes off each day.

"We have hobbies, but they are not hobbies. They are work. He pointed out golf as a recreation that often works just the opposite for the player.

"You don't go out to the golf course to relax," the doctor explained. "You go out to beat somebody and come back tense."

Dr. Rhode urged continued education toward the awareness of mental illness as a sickness and as an illness that needs early attention.

And as advice for the individual faced with the stress and strain of modern life, he advised: "Slow down. Live just a little bit more common life."

Abilene Civil Defense Director Speaks to HD Club and Guests

Guest speaker for the Fairview Home Demonstration Club last Thursday in the Lone Wolf Electric Co-Operative building was Lew Holle, director of civil defense for the city of Abilene.

Holle defined civil defense as helping a neighbor when he is in serious trouble.

Some people can't see the importance of looking ahead and preparing for an emergency, he said.

"Last year more than 38,000 people were killed in traffic accidents," the group heard. "White tornadoes over the country took less than 400 lives."

"We face the dangers of the highways because we are prepared for these dangers," the speaker continued.

Plan in advance for tornadoes, he advised. Plan where to go and what to do. Go to a shelter or if at home, a hall way is the safest place. Plan with your family just what to do in an emergency.

"Keep a three-day food supply of canned foods adequate for a balanced diet ready," the group was advised. "and keep one gallon of water per person stored, changing it every 90 days."

An important thing is getting a warning, he explained. First aid is one of the biggest answers to the problems in a disaster, the director said.

"Advance preparation is the only solution we have," Holle continued. "Spend less time thinking and worrying about it, get busy and do something about it."

He explained that there would always be a loss of property, buildings, etc. and that could not be helped. We can rebuild the buildings.

"But we have to save lives before they are lost."

In closing he cited storms at San Angelo and Bryan, Holle said there was not a life lost in school buildings due to advanced preparation and warnings.

Leon Yeager, local chief of police, spoke about the local situation. "The main thing is to obey all traffic rules," he said.

County Judge Sam Bullock announced that there is to be a film available to civic and study clubs in the near future.

Mrs. T. L. Holman was hostess for the afternoon meeting. Mrs. J. C. Womack, president, introduced the speakers.

Guests included Holle, Yeager, Bullock, Mrs. A. F. King and Mrs. A. A. Herrington.

Also, Mrs. Warren Anderson, Mrs. A. K. McCarley Jr., Mrs. W. W. Cooper, Mrs. J. P. Nunn, Mrs. Charles Goodlett and Mrs. Jim Bodine, members of the Buford-China Grove Home Demonstration Club.

Mrs. Bill Cooper and son, Danny, of the Plainview Home Demonstration Club.

Fairview club members attending were Mrs. George Davis, Mrs. C. C. Berry, Mrs. R. E. McMillan, Mrs. W. C. Berry, Mrs. Ed Bodine, Mrs. E. T. Strain, Mrs. L. A. Strain, Mrs. Preston Morris and sons, Mrs. Womack, Mrs. P. H. Pace and Mrs. Holman.

"about 50 per cent of the heavy downpour would have been lost."

If more rain falls this month and in June, crop conditions definitely will be on the upturn, according to most farmers, and will carry crops better than last year when moisture conditions were fairly good up through June and then skidded with dry summer months.

Economy Test Set Saturday For Drivers

Are you an economical driver? If you are uncertain, you will get a chance to find out.

And if you think you are, you'll have a chance to prove it Saturday at the Griffin Truck and Tractor Co.

It's Griffin's gas mileage contest in the new International S-100 pickup truck.

Objective of the contest is to drive the greatest distance on one-tenth of a gallon of gasoline.

Prizes will be awarded to the two top drivers with $15 for first prize and $10 for second.

O. L. Griffin, owner of Griffin Truck and Tractor Co., said the results of this contest always are amazing and they provide plenty of fun for those who participate.

Each of the pickups to be used in the contest is completely standard equipment except the metering device which contains the meter.

The meter is mounted on the instrument panel of the test vehicle so that the driver may watch the consumption of fuel and check the distance covered at all times during his drive.

Entrants of course may use any streets or public roads in the vicinity of the Griffin Truck & Tractor Co.

Also to be given away as a door prize is a Sunbeam toaster. Everyone is invited to register for the prize.

The vulture is said to fly at times at the rate of over 100 miles per hour.

Former Resident Here Wins College Honors

Miss Sandra Cooper, a former resident of Colorado City, has recently been elected secretary of the Student Union Program Council for 1956-57 at Texas Tech College in Lubbock.

Miss Cooper—the granddaughter of Mrs. W. H. Rogers, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Blackard of Colorado City—is president of her sorority, Delta Delta Delta for 1956-57, feature editor for the year-book and a member of the Panhellenic Council.

She is also the legislator of the women's dormitory, Horn Hall, and is chairman of the entertainment committee this year.

SIX-MAN SQUAD LEAVES FOR AUSTIN

Wolves Have Good Chance To Win State Track Title

This could be Colorado High's year in the state track meet. Wolves have been knocking out at the door for the past three seasons and have finished no lower than third place during the three-year stint.

And for two of Colorado High's current track stars it will mark the third consecutive trip to the Texas state interscholastic track meet at Austin.

They are Frank Mackey and Don Fite, who as sophomores in 1954 helped the Wolves finish second.

It will mark the second trip to Austin for quartermiler Doyle Herring who with Mackey, Fite and Hollis Gainey last year took third place in the Class A division.

Others leaving Thursday for the state meet with Coach Bob Reily are Bancker Cade, relay runner; Jim Windham, ace shot-putter and Delbert Lewis, alternate relay runner.

Colorado High's current string of state victories began back in 1953 with sophomore Hollis Gainey and senior Don Maynard carrying the Wolves to third place behind Brenham and Refugio.

Maynard that year set a state record in the 180-yard low hurdles, running a 19.4.

Wolves finished second behind Andrews in 1954 with Gainey winning both dashes.

Last year, the Wolves took third behind Fort Stockton and Boling with Gainey again breaking the tape in both dashes. He tied a state record in the 220 with a time of 20.9 seconds.

Wolves were knocked out of a possible championship when Herring injured an ankle in the mile relay preliminaries and the Wolves were forced to withdraw from the finals, since an alternate could not be used in the finals.

But that rule has been changed this year and if a Wolf runner is injured, he can be substituted for in the finals.

From past performances this season, the choices for the state Class A crown at Memorial Stadium are Brady, Stamford, El Campo, Graham and Colorado City.

Brady and Stamford are given the largest backing for the crown by most scribes.

But we'll take a long shot and pick Colorado City.

If you consider the overall strength of the Wolves, especially in the relays, it isn't such a long shot.

True, Stamford is practically a cinch to pick up 20 points from Mike McClellan in the 100 and 200-yard dashes and very likely to grab quite a few points from the mile relay.

And Brady has a good chance to take 20 points in the shot and discus with top boys in Tracy Byrd and Bobby Weise.

But neither of these schools have two good relays teams as does Colorado High, plus a couple of individual standouts.

The relays count 16 points for first and 10 for second at state, while individual events count 10 points for first, eight for second, etc.

Stamford has the best mile relay time in the state in Class A this year with a 3:26.5.

But Colorado High has an equal chance to take the relay with their best time of 3:26.7. And the Wolves whipped Stam-

If the Wolves picked up 16 points there, they could well be on their way to the crown.

El Campo and Andrews in Class A have better times than C-City in the 440-yard relay this year.

Wolves have beaten Andrews so there's a chance for a second place finish in that event, good for 10 points.

If Herring picked up third or fourth in the 440-yard dash, that would mean an additional six or four points. His best time this season is 50.7. Richers of Bay City and Bobby Matecha of Gonzales—defending state 440 champion—both have times of 50 flat.

The Wolf quartermiler—who also runs anchor on the mile relay—was ill early this week but was expected to be ready for the Austin trip.

Windham may hold the key to the Wolves' victory. The C-City junior will be competing in a strong field of shot and discus throwers.

Shot putters with better marks than Windham's 55-1 this season are Byrd with 57 even, Oliver of Refugio with 55-4, Cline of Belton with 55-4. Cline won the state title last year with a toss of 54-1.

Windham almost beat Byrd in regional and could possibly take second at Austin, good for eight points.

Windham might be good for several points in the discus. He has improved constantly all season with his best throw of 146 feet coming at Lubbock last week. That would total 30 or 32 points and Fort Stockton won the title last season with 34.

A school that many track observers have overlooked is Andrews.

Coach Bob Reily said this week that he wouldn't be surprised if

Andrews "didn't finish second or third."

They have the defending state broad jump champ in Donnie Benham. He leaped 22 7/8 at Austin last year and has matched that performance this season.

Their sprint relay has a time of 43.8 and Dwight Sensabaugh is one of the best Class A pole vaulters in the state with a 12-foot effort.

If the points are split enough and the chips fall just right, Wolves could bring home the big state champion cup.

WINDHAM WINS SHOT

Wolves Take Third At Lubbock Relays

Although they competed in only three events, Colorado High track team won third place in the Class A division of the second annual Raider Relays at Lubbock Saturday.

Jim Windham paced the Wolves with a first in the shot put and a fourth in the discus.

Windham won the shot with the comparative short throw of 51 feet 11 1/2 inches with Rayford McIlhane of McCamey second. It was the first loss for the McCamey tosser this year.

Windham's winning throw was considerable short of the 55 feet. 1 inch throw turned in at Region II meet.

Windham threw over 146 feet in the discus, his best throw of the year, but it was good for only fourth place. Gene Cox of Amarillo set a new record with a heave of 156-9 1/2.

Wolves competed in the sprint relay but withdrew from the mile relay finals when two of the Wolf runners became ill.

Doyle Herring, who was suffering with an infected throat, didn't run his specialty—the 440-yard dash.

Don Fite was also "feeling puny" according to Coach Bob Reily so the Wolves decided not to run in the finals of the mile relay. In the Saturday morning prelims, Wolves ran an excellent 3:26.9 mile relay, beating Stamford's time of 3:27.7. Frank Mackey turned in a sparkling quarter in the relay prelims, circling the track in 50.6 seconds. Fite started the race with a 52.2 quarter followed by Cade with a 52.8.

Mackey sprinted his 50.6 and Herring closed with a 51.3.

Winning time in the finals was 3:25.9 by San Angelo with Amarillo second and Stamford third. Stamford's time was around 3:30.7.

Wolves finished third in the 440-relay finals behind San Angelo and Amarillo with a time of 44 flat. Angelo's winning time was 43.4 for a new record.

In the preliminaries, Wolves had the pleasure of beating Ballinger's sprint relay team twice. Ballinger edged past C-City for first in the Region II meet at Brady April 21.

Christ's Suffering Brings Fellowship

WHEN Jesus hung upon the cross, one of the two thieves reviled Him, urging Him to save Himself and them.

The other thief, rebuked his fellow reminding him they were suffering justly for their misdeeds, whereas Jesus was suffering for His innocence and goodness.

The penitent thief had the reward of hearing Jesus say, "This day thou shalt be with me in Paradise."

It is the distinction between two kinds of suffering which Peter emphasizes in his writings that does so much to encourage suffering Christians.

The Christian who suffers is a partaker of the sufferings of Christ. Instead of being embittered, he may well glorify God. Certainly as we observe life we can not very well say that the ideal life is entirely free from suffering.

We have seen those who have accepted the way of suffering patiently and in submission to the will of God ennobled by their experience, finding a deep satisfaction in life often denied to those whose ways have been easier and more pleasant.

Peter brings this philosophy of endurance of suffering into the realm of Christian faith and practice, emphasizing the part of humility and the strength that comes to men through casting all their cares upon God.

The mystery of pain has never been solved. We do not know why the innocent suffer with and for the guilty. We do know, however, that there is a fellowship in Christ's suffering which has brought to suffering Christians happiness and peace. And this, too, is a mystery.

Farm Veto Tabbed As Empty Promise

JOHN WHITE, Agriculture Commissioner bill this session. Administration claims of immediate price boosts on some commodities will be bogged down by laws now in effect, and the old farm enemy the sliding parity scale will likely stay with us.

Texas farmers are tired of promises. They haven't forgotten those made by the President at Waco during the last presidential campaign. The supports promised then were no more real than the "economic boosts" our farmers are now being promised.

Our Agricultural population loses most through this tragic act. But in the long run, they won't suffer alone. Sound farm economy is essential to national well-being, and continued depression of agriculture is eventually sure to affect us all.

SALARIES RANGE UP TO $25,000

'Help Wanted' Signs Still Out for Several Capitol Offices as Filing Deadline Looms

By—VERN SENFORD Texas Press Association
 If you have a bit of imagination, you can see a huge "help wanted" sign hanging over the capitol dome.

Some mighty important jobs are to be filled. Salaries up to $25,000 a year. And some of the jobs are as yet unclaimed.

Top jobs of course is that of Governor. It is a two year job paying $25,000 a year. The incumbent, Allan Shivers, has announced his resignation.

Next highest in the pay bracket is that of Attorney General. There is a vacancy there too. John Ben Shepperd also is resigning Jan. 1. The pay is $20,000 a year and is a two-year job.

There are four good jobs at $17,500 a year. These positions include: Land Commissioner, Comptroller, Treasurer, and Railroad Commissioner. Here the incumbents, J. Earl Rudder, R. S. Calvert, Jess and W. O. Murray, have either little or no opposition. Just ask for it and the job is theirs. They are in like Flynn, unless other jobs applications arrive before the May 7 deadline.

There are several $15,000 jobs available, such as Agriculture Commissioner, three places on the Supreme Court, and one on the Court of Criminal Appeals. The Agriculture Commissioner's job is another two-year contract, but the court jobs are for six years.

Ag Commissioners John White hasn't said whether or not he wants to be re-hired, but most of the Justices have. Re-applying are R. W. Calvert and Meade Griffin on the Supreme Court, and W. A. Morrison on the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Not an applicant for re-hiring is Supreme Court Judge Will Wilson. He has filed for John Ben Shepperd's job as attorney general. It pays $5,000 more a year.

Then there are nine places on the Court of Civil Appeals, each paying $12,000 a year. Most of these incumbents are seeking a renewal of their contracts.

Jobs of 15 State Senators expire too, along with 150 House Members. These are just part-time jobs paying $25 a day for 120 days, normally only every other year. The Senate job lasts four years, however, to the House's two.

Along with the House and Senate jobs is that of Governor. His salary is the same as the legislators'. Ben Ramsey who holds the position says he likes the work and would like to re-hire. Because most of these jobs pay well and carry with them honor and recognition, there is a penalty attached. You have to pay to apply, and the application fee is in proportion to the salary. Unfortunately you don't get a refund if you aren't selected for the job. This discourages a lot of applicants.

Those filling for the Governor's job pay an application fee of $1,250, for Attorney General, $1,000, Land Commissioner, Comptroller, Treasurer, Railroad Commissioner, $875; Agriculture Commissioner $750 and the same for Judges of the Supreme Courts and the Courts of Criminal Appeals. Civil Appeals Court Judges pay a fee of $600, as does the Lt. Governor.

Applicants for House and Senate jobs pay $1 to $100 per county, the amount being determined locally.

There are several other jobs of a similar nature opening soon—such as that of the position now. Incidentally, it is the highest paying job next to the Governor's. Salary is $22,500 a year with a two-year contract.

Texas has 21 Congressional job openings coming up too. It varies with each area. These are two-year jobs.

Another job opening possibility is that U. S. Senator from Texas. Here there are some "ifs" attached. If Price Daniel resigns—and maybe Lyndon Johnson too. Both are campaigning now for other openings—Daniel for Governor and Johnson for President. U. S. Senators draw $22,500 a year for six years; filing fee, $1,125.

Applications for statewide jobs are filed with George W. Sandlin of Austin, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee. If you want to apply for any one of these positions, you'll have to fill your application not later than Monday, May 7, and pay your application fee not later than May 10.

State Senators and Representatives and applicants for the U. S. Congressmen file in each county in their respective districts.

These jobs differ radically from labor and industry posts in that the job holder must apply again and again of he wants to keep the job indefinitely. And he must compete with all comers. Of course the application fee is just the beginning of the expense of getting the job. Also there are more bosses than employees because the public, after all, has not only the first but the final say.

However, the pay is good, and there is a guaranteed annual wage.

Personnel will be selected in July, August and November—with the public making the selection.

POLL TAXES INCREASE
 Texas potential voting strength hit an all-time high this year. According to the state comptroller the 1956 total ran 2,410,188. Previous record was 2,338,261 in 1952.

PRECINCT CONVENTIONS
 Saturday will tell the story on who controls the Texas delegation to the national Democratic convention. Large turnouts are expected at precinct conventions. Tension is mounting as spokesmen for each faction barnstorm the state. In some cases rival rallies have been held in the same town only hours apart.

Probable key to the outcome lies in the way some 10 or 12 counties go. These are the ones in which major cities are located. They control about 1,000 of the state's 1,388 delegate votes. Harris County (Houston) alone has 270. But rural counties are not being neglected. In a photo finish not unlikely—they might make the difference.

BAR PROPOSES REFORMS
 Three measures, aimed principally at limiting activities of lawyers in the legislature, are proposed by the State Bar of Texas: (1) Raising legislators pay to $50 a day for a 120-day session; (2) Prohibiting any legislator or candidate from appearing before any state agency; (3) Abolition of the automatic continuance of law suits for which legislators are employed as counsel.

CREDIT INSURANCE RATES LOWERED
 Texas credit insurance purchasers stand to save more than two million dollars a year as a result of rate changes made by the Insurance Commission. Rates were reduced approximately 10 per cent by the Commission.

The American Antiquarian Society, Worcester, Mass., has a reference library of nearly 1,000,000 titles, covering 20 miles of shelving.
