Cotton Outlook Still Good Across Mitchell County

How Many Will There Be?

EDUCATED GUESSES are putting the 1965 Mitchell County cotton crop in the range of a production of 30-45,000 bales. Where the tatal finally end up of course will depend on the weather and insect conditions during the coming weeks.

Boll Weevils On New Rise

Outlook for one of the best cotton crops in the past several years is still bright in Mitchell County.

Conditions are favorable all over the county unless some major change in weather or insect population develops in the near future.

Most cotton gins in the county are seeing some activity and a few fields are occupied by laborers pulling bolls.

"The bolls are popping real good," said County Agent Buddy C. Logsdon Friday.

The county agent noted that the warm weather of the last few days was improving the maturity of the crop despite the cool nights which slows maturity down.

One black spot in the picture is the increase in the boll weevil populations in certain areas of the county particularly east of Colorado City to the eastern county line.

Logsdon noted that the insects had been on the upsurge in the last three weeks. Infestations of other harmful insects are not proving to be much of a problem according to Logsdon.

The county agent noted that the cool temperatures slowed down the bollworm population in the area.

"Most of the more "educated" guesses on the total production in bales still range from 30,000 up to 45,000. At any rate it should be an improvement over last year's production of 24,000 bales.

"If we can get some more warm days, it will sure up production," Logsdon commented..

Range and ranching land is reported to be in good condition through this type terrain and can almost always use moisture.

The hay crop totaling around 10,000 acres in Mitchell County is nearing bumper proportions. "Some timely rains that fell at the right stages of the hay's growth really helped," Logsdon said.

Barring the coming of more wet or cold weather and an upswing in the insect population Logsdon forecasted the cotton crop should come through in good shape.

STUN ANSON 21-10

Wolves Spurt To Second 5-AA Win

The spendid Wolf defenders repeatedly jarred the Tiger offense to a halt just feet away from their goal.

And finally, as the time moved swift in the final quarter, they tore the Tigers from the ball and ignited the spark that shoved Coach Truman Nix' rebounding Wolves goalward for an important 21 to 10 triumph in District 5-AA.

It was a thrilling come from behind victory.

For Anson, seeking to return to winning ways after losing a week earlier to potent Winters, led 10 to 0 as the fourth quarter opened.

But Donnie Higginbotham, the fine Wolf halfback, jolted Anson's Mike Pueschel just as the Tiger wingback grabbed a Huber Craig pass and attempted to lateral the ball.

That was it. That was the turn—where the Wolves grabbed the initiative, the game and kept themselves right up there as undefeated co-leaders of District 5-AA.

Just 189 seconds later the Wolves were bushy tailed with three touchdowns and Anson — stunned, battered — was trying vainly, but unsuccessfully to put their Tiger back into its offensive tank.

The Wolves, passed over in 5-AA championship predictions after plenty of experimenting in pre-district games and derided only days ago in a statement by Texas Tech Coach J. T. King, walked off Anson's dimly lighted field with victory No. 3 in a row.

In District 5-AA they now are atop the scramble — tied with the two big pre-season favorites, Winters (2-0) and Ballinger (1-0).

Quarterback Wayne Snowden and Larry Currie, C-City's dependable end, teamed together on a perfectly executed pass play to break the night's scoring drouth for the Wolves 7 minutes 34 seconds to go in the fourth quarter.

One minute 59 seconds later David Way, the 185-pound Wolf fullback whose offensive and defensive talent was cheering all the game, thrust over for touchdown No. 2. And the Wolves were in the lead.

Then, only 63 seconds later, tough little David Aycock grabbed an Anson pass near mid-field and raced 44 yards for another touchdown.

It was lightning quick, Terrific play that burst into triumph, simply kayoed the Tigers.

It couldn't have turned the tables, though had it not been for the sturdy, decisive defense effort that time and again blunted the Anson attack and, at last, shoved the Wolves goalward.

Right from the start, pressure was on the Colorado defense. Anson recovered Snowden's fumble on the C-City 15 soon after the opening kickoff.

Gary Don Boyd and Daril Pineda, Anson's power runners with their 160 and 202 pounds, chugged for only 3 yards in two tries. Quarterback Huber's pass to End Freddie Lollar was tipped away by Higginbotham.

On fourth down, Eddie Andrus, the 200-pound tackle and kicking specialist, booted a field goal from a slight angle to send Anson into a 3 to 0 lead with 7:33 minutes remaining in first quarter.

Top Exhibits Set For Fair Showing

Among the more outstanding exhibits scheduled will come from the National Aerospace Administration (NASA), and two prominent exhibits secured in connection with Sun Oil Co. concerning the petroleum industry.

One of the oil exhibits is a "Drilling Risk Spinner" that dramatizes the risks faced by oilmen in drilling for oil and gas.

When operating the machine, viewers at the Fair will face the same odds against success when they "drill" their own wells by activating the spinner.

The other oil exhibit is a model drilling rig that is a scale model rotary drilling operation with lighted base strata.

The U. S. Navy will have its trailer exhibit of naval history and current innovations at the fair.

Among the other exhibits will include those brought by Boy Scouts of America, Civil Defense, 4-H Club of Mitchell County, Mitchell County Cancer Society, Colorado High School, county home demonstration clubs and the Texas Dept. of Parks and Wildlife.

A number of commercial exhibits are also slated for the three-day event.

Bob Reily and Dale Mathis headed the committee to set up physical arrangements for the two buildings and grounds.

Junior Sadler co-ordinated the educational exhibits.

Numerous groups of civic clubs and organizations have concession stands at the fair serving drinks, food and some featuring games.

In this group of participants are the Jaycees, Kiwanis Club, Do Si Do Square Dance Club, Lions Club, Zeta Delta Study Club, Mitchell County 4-H Club, 1949 Study Club, Colorado High Band and Mitchell County Home Demonstration Clubs.

Carnival and midway attractions are again being furnished by Gene Ledel of Fort Worth who has worked with the county fair in the past. This year's ride section is under supervision of James Hull.

Ringo will also be played as another fair activity.

SATURDAY EVENING

Miss Lynda Kay Carter Wed To David Redwine

Mrs. David Heston Redwine
. . . Nee Miss Lynda Kaye Carter

Wedding vows exchanged by candlelight made Miss Lynda Kaye Carter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arthur Carter of route 2, the bride of David Heston Redwine, of Forsan, Saturday evening, Oct. 9.

Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. William Heston Redwine of route 3, Colorado City.

Marriage ceremony for the couple took place at 7:30 p. m. in the Plainview Baptist Church with Rev. Caddo Matthews, pastor, hearing the double ring vows.

Altar of the church was marked with an arch of tapers in tall candelabra. Arrangements of pink gladioluses flanked the arch. Candelabra also decorated the pews for the candlelight ceremony.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a bridal gown of beige peou de soie, a Mary Quant design, in empire style. The empire bodice of champagne beige Chantilly lace was fashioned with a deeply scooped neckline and long sleeves tapering to points over her hands. Appliques of Chantilly lace accented the front of the slender skirt. Her fingertip veil of beige tulle flowed in bouffant style from a crystal tiara. She carried a lavender Cattleya orchid topping her white Bible.

Attending the bride as maid of honor was Miss Sheila McAdams. She wore peau de soie in brilliant rose, a Mary Quant design, with empire bodice, scooped neckline and short sleeves. A fuchsia velvet bow accented the empire line with velvet streamers falling to the formal-length hemline. Her brief veil of satapeau chiffon was fastened to a fuchsia hair band and bow. She carried a single deep pink rose with bow and streamers.

Miss Ladonna Sue Hamrick, of San Angelo College, was bridesmaid. Miss Hamrick wore brilliant rose peau, identical to the gown of the maid of honor, and carried one long stemmed rose.

Best man for the ceremony was Gary Wayne Parnell of Loraine. Don Redwine of Colorado City attended his brother as groomsman. Wedding ushers were Sanford Bowlin and Morris Wayne Hammond, brother-in-law of the groom.

Soloist was Mrs. Caddo Mathews, who sang "Through the Years," and "Wedding Prayer," with Mrs. Alta Miles as organ accompanist.

Mother of the bride wore a two-piece amber green silk suit with matching hat and camel accessories. The bridegroom's mother chose a three-piece knit suit of blue, matching hat, and black accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages of pink roses.

Lace over brilliant rose covered the bride's table at the wedding reception in Fellowship Hall. Bouquets of pink roses decorated the refreshment table which held the three-tiered cake and appointments of silver and crystal.

Assisting in serving were Miss Gayle Hart and Miss Carla Britton. The maid of honor presided at the guest registry.

For a short trip to San Angelo the bride traveled in a two-piece wool suit in brilliant rose, fashioned with a hip-hugging belt. Her accessories were beige, her rose corsage a gift from the bridegroom.

The couple will live in Forsan where Mr. Redwine teaches in Forsan High School. He is a graduate of Texas A&M University and received his B.S. degree in 1964. He completed high school in Loraine with the class of 1959. His bride, a 1962 graduate of Colorado High School, has been attending Howard County Junior College.

Wedding Plans Told For Sharon Allard

Announcement of the engagement of Sharon Allard and Elton Kelley was made in Colorado City this week.

Historical Survey to Meet Here

Mitchell County Historical Survey Committee will meet at 2 p.m. Tuesday in the Court house.

Mrs. Witt Hines, chairman of the survey committee, is hoping soon to complete the survey of this county's cemeteries.

As a major project of the Texas observance of Civil War Centennial, 254 county survey committees are surveying and marking graves of men who took part in the Civil War.

Mrs. Hines urges anyone with information regarding Civil War veterans buried in Mitchell County to get in touch with her. She now has applications for photostatic copies of Civil War service records. The completed forms are used to order markers for graves of the Civil War Veterans.

There is no charge for the government grave stones.

Information leading to the location of Civil War Graves in any cemetery in this county, town or rural, is considered valuable to the public's general knowledge of Texas history, Mrs. Hines said.

Ruth Coffey's CONVERSATION CORNER

SOMETIMES it does the heart good just to take stock of all the things you haven't got . . . and don't want.

Ever try listing the things you can absolutely live without? It's nearly as much fun as counting your blessings:

Sample inventory sheet of things I can do without might start with a mink hat. Not that mink isn't lovely. Am not allergic to fur. But it's consoling to remember how funny a mink hat would look with the last's year tailored sports coat this year.

Can live without owning a horse. It took three days in bed to get over the last gay day in the saddle, jogging down a Ft. Worth bridle path.

Can do very well without a jewel-encruated lorgnette . . . a wig . . . white boots . . . black lace stockings . . . a pink telephone . . . false eyelashes . . . a set of golf clubs . . . caviar . . . an electric shoe-shiner . . . a ruffled cap to cover hair-rollers' . . . and a movie camera.

BEST WAY in the world to keep from feeling "deprived" is to be fully aware that lots of things you don't have you don't want in the first place . . . and wouldn't buy if you inherited a cool million, after taxes, tomorrow.

What would you buy, anyhow? If you suddenly struck it rich? A yatch? A Rolls Royce? A three carat diamond? A swimming pool? A ticket to Paris? A helicopter?

No. None of those. Make my first exalted, extravagant purchase . . . a great big color TV!

AND THAT is a reminder. Have finally found somebody who's been asked to take part in a TV show rating poll!

Been wondering and wondering all this time just "who polls who." That is whom, of course.

Verdie and Virgil Moser were called long distance from Ft. Worth by an NBC representative. They're to have the fun of watching and rating TV programs for a week. Gosh.

The Mosers have another distinction, too. They're grandparents of the most adorable identical twins, seven months old, named Julie and Jerri. The little beauties are daughters of the Moser daughter Laureen and her husband David Morgan. They live in Abilene.

HEAR TELL that Fred and Addie Ruth McKay are spending the weekend in Pueblo, Colorado, where their younger son David is in college.

Nell Scott (Mrs. Bennett) rode to Pueblo with them to see her sister who is hospitalized after a fall.

Hear, too, that our deputy, Forrest Smith, is getting stronger by the minute . . . and that the Record's Annie Dixon is improving. She's been a patient in Root Memorial.

BRIEF ENCOUNTERS brought a chat with Mrs. Witt Hines . . . Charlie Godwin . . . Mrs. Sam L. Majors, Sr. . . . Mrs. Luke Nichols . . . and Delores Boles (Mrs. Lacy.)

In C-City until Sunday are Fred A. Green, A 1-C, and his wife Mary Frances (Vest.) The couple are guests in the home of Mary's parents Mr. and Mrs. Marcus Vest, 932 East 13th St.

DOWNTOWN: Saw Wyone Jameson (Mrs. Myrle) and Janice Blassingame (Mrs. Murrel) . . . Don McClennen and Dink Reese . . . Christine Easterwood . . . Mrs. B. B. Lee . . . and Gwen Brown.

Out at the Villa saw Mayme and Roy Dozier dining . . . Beauteous Loraine Rogers (Mrs. Nathan) . . . Betty Ginzel (Mrs. Frank) and her cute daughter Carol, junior in CHS now.

At the Baker were Rev. and Mrs. M. A. Smith Jr. and the visiting preachers Rev. Lynn Odom of Port Arthur and Dr. Robert E. Smith of Dallas, here for the First Baptist revival.

OFFICE visitors to brighten the week were Eldon Mahon, the former D.A., now of Abilene . . . Buddy Logsdon, the county agent, and Lela Price (Mrs. Oscar) busy with reunion plans.

Also Mrs. Bob Nobles, beaming over her surprise anniversary party; Ann Sellee Nobles (Mrs. Bobby) and her cute little son, brown-eyed Tim.

LITTLE BUSINESS MAN

Business hasn't been too good today. But in a minute someone will come along for a shine. Johnny will have a dime, bright and inviting, lying in his palm.

What's he going to do with that dime? As he sits in the sun, visions dance in his mind. He could buy candy, ice cream, a new magazine. He could even save it for Sunday School . . . but then what good could a dime do.

Suddenly Johnny remembered a Sunday School lesson. Jesus had told how precious was the penny offering of a poor widow.

Johnny's gift wasn't very much. It won't do a great deal to help the Church meet its financial needs. The important thing is: It helped Johnny! Going to Sunday School has put him on the road to becoming a real Christian businessman.

IT'S MORE THAN JUST LUCK

Some of Harvey's friends call him "lucky". He hasn't lost a minute of time due to equipment breakdowns.

We think it's more than luck, though.

Harvey's smart. He learned a long time ago that regular preventive maintenance on all of his equipment saves both time and money in the long run.

Maybe operating without any "down time" is a little bit lucky. But Harvey knows that if something does go wrong, we can get him back in the fields in jiffy time because we stock genuine parts and employ qualified servicemen.

Touchdown Bound!

David Aycock gathers speed as he begins a 44-yard touchdown romp down the sidelines after intercepting an Anson pass in the fourth quarter. The touchdown was Colorado City's third in their exciting, come-frm-behind 21 to 10 District 5-AA victory over Anson High in Anson Friday night.

FOOTBALL –

ter the Wolves put their shoulders together and turned back Anson's attack within the 5-yard line. Once on the 1-yard line with Currie leading, the tackling brigade and again on the four with the entire right side of Colorado's line blocking the way.

C-City's offense, after fumbling and sputtering in the shadow of its own goal, flared briefly in the final 46 seconds of the first half. Higginbotham, after the Wolves took over from an Anson punt on C-City's 44, started it with a romp to the 20. Way added 4 more for a first down.

Two passes from Snowden to Currie sent the Wolves racing to the Anson 35 as the first half ended.

Anson took the second half kickoff and four plays later — with the assist of a personal foul penalty — were on the C-City 9.

The Tigers lost to the 12, then Boyd rammed left tackle to the 7. But he was knocked for a loss on the next play and, on fourth down, Huber's pass to Wingback Mike Pueschel carried to the one.

Colorado City took over, but two plays later Snowden's fumble was recovered inside the 1-yard line by Anson. Speedily, Huber sneaked through the center of the line for a touchdown and Andrus added the extra point for a 10-0 Anson lead.

That was it for the Tigers. The rest was for the Wolves, starting in the fourth quarter after Lamb recovered Anson's fumble lateral attempt on the Anson 45.

Higginbotham, on a pitch-out, toured right end for 5 yards. Way hit right tackle for 11 more and a first on the Tiger 29. Artie Butler managed only 1 yard and Way was held for no gain by Anson's Andy Garcia and 217-pound Willy Isbell.

Then, on perfectly executed pass pattern, Currie raced into the open, took a pass over his shoulder from Snowden on the 5 and raced across untouched.

Glen Nix, who divided quarterbacking duties with Snowden, looked like he was trapped on the extra point try, but passed to Higginbotham for 2 points.

Bie Miles raced back up field to the Anson 27 where C-City's Robert Jameson jacknifed the Tiger wingback with a shattering tackle that knocked the ball tumbling to the turf. David Aycock, right on the spot recovered for the Wolves.

Five more plays — Colorado was in the lead.

Higginbotham started the new thrust with a 7-yard burst at right tackle. Way inched to the 19. On third down the Wolves moved to the 15 and a first.

Higginbotham dented the Anson defense to the 11. And Way knifed his way over the right side of the line for the Wolves' second touchdown. Snowden's place kick was wide, but the lead was there — 14 to 10 with 5:33 seconds to go.

Anson tried a run and an unsuccesful pass after the kickoff. On third down, from the Tiger 32-yard line, Huber fired a pass to his right end, Lollar, and Aycock leaped in front, intercepted at midfield and raced down the sideline just ahead of the chase.

This time Snowden's extra point kick was good — 21 to 10.

7th Takes Third Straight Victory

In their third straight win of the season the Colorado City 7th grade walloped Coahoma 26-0 Thursday in Wolf Stadium.

C-City kicked off to the Bulldogs and took over on downs early in the first period.

On the first play from scrimmage, Quarterback Steve Vest lofted a 10-yard scoring aerial to Barney Brewton and the local team was off and running after their third win.

Vest made the extra points on a keeper play.

The local team got on the scoreboard again in the next period as Joe Kirschbaum and Tommy Boyd hauled down a Coahoma back in the end zone for a two-point safety.

Vest wound up scoring in the first half going five yards on a rollout and Darwin Cox plunged over for the two points after.

After a scoreless third period Vest took a Coahoma punt and returned it 35-yards to paydirt in the fourth quarter. Stoney Stone ran over the two extra points.

The stingy Colorado City defensive unit was headed up by Ray Sanchez, Steve Plunkett, Gillis Ellis, Boyd and Kirschbaum.

The 7th graders battle Lamesa there at 5 p.m. Thursday.

C-City 8th Edged Out By Coahoma

Coahoma Eighth Grade gridders scored early and hung on for an 8-6 win over Colorado City.

Coahoma tallied first in the opening period on a 10-yard end sweep and then ran over the two extra points.

Wesley Smith crossed the goal line for the C-City crew in the third quarter only to have it nullified by a penalty.

Fred Guerrero finally hit paydirt for the Colorado City team also in the third period. A pass for the two points was deflected and Coahoma held on to their 8-6 lead the rest of the way.

Heading up what Coach Benham described the best running attack of the season for C-City were Randy Hill house, Joe Hudson, Charley Williams and Fred Guerrero.

Other top performances were turned in by guard Tony Way, end Dick Thomas and defensive halfback Gary Redwine.

Next tilt on tap for the eighth graders is a contest with Lamesa at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.
