HEY, NONE OF THAT!—Spooks and goblins are concentrating on school carnivals and a downtown parade and many of them have no patience with the old custom of painting on Lubbock store windows. The "spook" above was dragging a little boy away from a store window on which the finishing touch was being put to a painted figure. One of the aims of the downtown parade is to do away with Halowe'en vandalism. Bert White, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. N. White of 3414 Twenty-fifth, was acting the part of the spook. Prevention Of Port Tie-Ups Sought By Shippers And Union

(By The United Press)

Houston construction workers lit the fuse of the Texas labor firecracker early today, walking out on $80,000,000 worth of building projects.

Some 3,000 common laborers, members of the construction and general laborers union (AFL) failed to report for work at 7 a. m.

Harry McPheeters, business agent for local 18, hinted that 150 pickets were ready to hit their walking stride around a dozen major projects that dot Houston.

Others Involved

McPheeters said he was "confident" that the strike would be honored by other building trades unions, idling approximately 15,000 more workers.

"There's no turning around now," McPheeters said.

Federal labor conciliator Willis Ray has asked the union and contractors' representatives to meet for negotiation sessions later today to attempt to bridge the gap in the lone point of dispute—wages.

The Gulf coast construction employers council has offered a five-cent pay raise while the union asked a 12½-cent increase from the current $1.07½ per hour.

Houston felt longer shadows of labor strife, although aircraft company employes at Dallas also threatened to strike.

Negotiators Optimistic

Port Houston buzzed again today after a week-end "fishing holiday" indulged in by 2,000 longshoremen.

The men, members of the International Longshoreman's association (AFL), were loading 20 cargo vessels by 8 a. m., while negotiations were scheduled between union delegates and representatives of the Houston-Galveston Maritime association in an effort to sidestep a walkout of 10,000 dockhands in Texas ports.

The deadline was set tentatively at 12:01 a. m. Tuesday.

J. E. Davies, chairman of the shippers' labor committee, was optimistic about reaching agreement with the stevedores before midnight tonight. The same sentiment was expressed by A. J. Wilson, president of local 872, ILA.

Strike Date Pending

An ILA strike would paralyze shipping throughout the western Gulf of Mexico, from Lake Charles, La., to Brownsville, Tex.

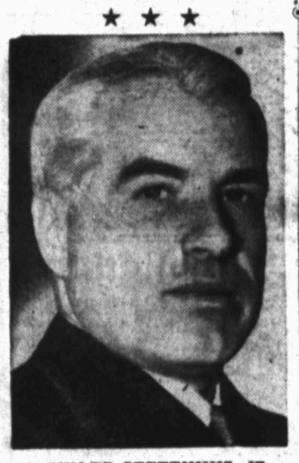

Meanwhile, in Dallas, 4,100 members of the UAW-CIO fail-

FORMER SECRETARY OF STATE

Edward Stettinius Is Taken By Death

EDWARD STETTINIUS, JR.

(By The Associated Press)

GREENWICH, Conn., Oct. 31—Edward R. Stettinius, jr., wartime head of lend-lease and U. S. secretary of state when the United Nations came into being, died today at the age of 49.

The white-haired, handsome Stettinius, who at 37 became board chairman of the U. S. Steel corporation, was his country's first U. N. delegate. He was named rector of the University of Virginia after leaving the U. N. post in 1946.

At Home Of Sister

Death came at 7:30 a. m. (EST) at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Juan Trippe here. Mrs. Trippe is Stettinius' sister. Her husband is head of Pan-American World Airways.

A rich man's son, Stettinius went into government service and shortly became administrator of the $60,000,000,000 lend-lease program that played a major role in the final defeat of Nazi Germany.

The former cabinet member's secretary said members of the household found Stettinius unconscious in bed this morning. He died soon after a physician arrived at the house.

Wife Was Present

Stettinius had suffered from a heart condition since last spring, his secretary said, and had been

Three Injured In Accidents

Three persons were injured, one seriously, in three of the many auto mishaps that dotted the area this morning.

Most seriously injured was Dr. Glenn B. Payne, about 32, of Slaton, who suffered back and possible internal injuries in a car-truck crash about 10:30 a. m. one mile south of cemetery curve on the old Tahoka highway.

He was taken in a Bryan McDonald & Son ambulance to Lubbock Memorial hospital. Attendants said he suffered no broken bones and described his condition as satisfactory.

Police said George W. Bradford, 56, of 2310 Twenty-eighth suffered a cut on the right side of his head and that three sutures were taken at St. Mary's hospital in closing the wound.

He was taken by McDonald ambulance after his car and one driven by Henry Monroe Wilgus, 32, of 2816 Merthel were in collision at Twenty-sixth and Ave. T. Police fixed the time at 9:25 o'clock, and said Wilgus was handed a summons to appear in corporation court on a charge of negligent collision by failure to yield right of way.

Mrs. Myrtle Jean Nettles, 18, of 3701 Ave. H was released after examination at West Texas hospital, police said. She was a passenger in a car driven by her husband, Lloyd Keith Nettles, 19,

Negro Is Riddled By Shotgun Blasts

A 36-year-old negro, Robert Johnson, was slain about 8:30 a. m. near a gasoline service station at 106 Broadway.

Known as "Mus'hav'it", Johnson was riddled by three loads from a 12-gauge shotgun.

Nodie Lockett, 42, another Lubbock negro, surrendered in connection with the case. He signed a statement before A. W. Salyars, assistant district attorney, admitting the shooting.

He told Salyars he had stopped his car to have its battery charged when Johnson drove up. He said he began firing after Johnson made what the defendant believed was a threatening gesture. Other witnesses said the principals had gambled all night at Johnson's house and had quarreled. Lockett, they said, became indebted to Johnson for $170 and had been told to pay by 9 a. m.

Both had misdemeanor records, Salyars said, and each had been charged, but not convicted, in connection with shooting cases.

Bond of $5,000 had not been posted by Lockett at 1:30 p. m.

Crashed Plane Is Not Found

An air search of the Buffalo Lakes area this morning failed to reveal any sign of an airplane reportedly seen crashing in flames there Sunday afternoon.

Meanwhile, attendants at West Texas hospital said Vol R. Harris, 28, of 2101 Thirtieth, was "almost out of danger" of possible internal injuries, a broken ankle, cuts and bruises he suffered Sunday afternoon when the Vultee BT-13 airplane he was piloting crashed into a cotton field four miles east of Idalou.

Accident Witnessed

He was taken to the hospital by Troy Lindsey of Munday, a passing motorist who saw the crash and pulled Harris from the wreckage of the demolished airplane.

T. E. Bradshaw of 1109 Sixteenth reported seeing a plane crash in flames in the Buffalo Lakes area as he was driving into Lubbock on the Tahoka highway

Break In Steel Strike Is Due

Bethlehem And CIO Reported In Agreement

Company Will Pay Employes' Pension On Expanded Scale

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31—Steel industry sources said today a strike-ending agreement has been reached between Bethlehem Steel Corp. and the CIO steelworkers union.

These sources said an announcement of the agreement will be made at Cleveland this afternoon (4 p. m. EST) by Philip Murray, head of the CIO and its striking steelworkers union.

They said a major feature of the agreement calls for expansion of the corporation's existing pension plan, with the employer still paying the entire cost of pensions.

Not Confirmed

(In Bethlehem, Pa., officials of Bethlehem Steel Corp., declined to confirm or deny reports that it was about to come to terms with the steelworkers union.)

There were also rumors of a settlement in the offing on coal, but nothing to indicate that they were more than rumors.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross told reporters he had no information on either coal or steel peace moves.

There were hints from other government officials, however, that some action—possibly a call for a conference here—might be taken in coal.

Other Agreements Hoped For

Government officials felt that a Bethlehem-steel workers settlement might be followed by agreements between the union and a number of other steel companies. Bethlehem is the no. 2 steel producer, ranking only behind U. S. Steel.

The argument whether employes should share in pension costs has been the principal issue in the steel strike. Most other steel companies, including U. S. Steel, have been insisting that workers should contribute toward pension costs.

Bethlehem's settlement agreement was reported to provide that workers would pay half the cost of health and other types of insurance.

The workers already pay part of Bethlehem's existing insurance plan, except pensions.

Plan Term Agreed

Other important features were reported to include:

1. An agreement that the pension-insurance plan would be

Navy Fighting Strength Will Be Pared For Rigid Economy

(By The United Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—The navy got ready today to cut its fighting strength by 11 per cent in an effort to comply with Defense Secretary Louis Johnson's rigid economy order.

It revealed that, by July 1, it plans to put into its stand-by "mothball fleet" fully 77 vessels—35 warships and 42 auxiliaries. The cutback would affect five aircraft carriers, six cruisers, 14 destroyers, nine submarines, and one destroyer escort.

To Reactivate Others

In order to compensate the fleet for the loss of these vessels, however, the navy plans to reactivate one light aircraft carrier and one submarine and to commission two new submarines.

The action means that the fighting strength of the navy would be cut from 268 ships on Sept. 1 to 237 ships—an overall drop of 11 per cent. The Atlantic fleet would be slashed 12 per cent and the Pacific fleet nine per cent.

But even with these cuts, the U. S fleet would still be the mightiest in the world.

Program Made Public

The navy made public the cutback program yesterday. It was reported that Johnson tried unsuccessfully to get the navy to recall its announcement, but its wide distribution made this possible.

The mothballing program is merely tentative. Johnson has informed Navy Secretary Francis P. Matthews that the navy will be given a hearing on possible revisions in the planned cutbacks in navy expenditures during the current fiscal year.

If Johnson later decides to allow the navy more money, some of the ships now scheduled for mothballing may be kept in the active fleet.

Under present orders, the navy has to cut its expenditures $350,000 below congressional appropriations in order to allow Johnson to operate on a $13,000,000,000 defense budget next year.

Fliers Are Upset

Navy fliers were particularly upset by the loss of the five carriers, the Rendova, Siboney, Bairoko, Kearsarge and the Leyte. The cutback, it said, means that the navy air arm would be cut by 22 per cent, or from 18 to 14 ships.

The mothballing program was one of the big factors behind the recent outburst of navy fliers against the unification policies of Johnson—a row which led to the ouster of Adm. Louis E. Denfeld as chief of naval operations.

Matthews has offered Denfeld another job, an admiral's rank, but Denfeld has not as yet decided whether to take it or not. It was reported that the admiral, if he wants, can be the U. S. naval representative on the North Atlantic pact defense set-up.

It appears likely that Vice Adm. Forrest P. Sherman, commander of the sixth task force in the Mediterranean, would succeed Denfeld as the navy's top officer. Unlike the other admirals, Sherman has refused to criticise the present unification policies.

Wreath On Back And His Faith In Lord

Miner Starts Pilgrimage To Pacific Where Son Was Killed

(By The Associated Press)

KNOXVILLE, Tenn., Oct. 31—With a wreath on his back and his faith in the Lord, a coal miner planned to leave here today afoot on a pilgrimage to Guadalcanal, where his sailor son met death seven years ago.

The 54-year-old miner, David Wallen of Woodbine, Ky., began his trek from Corbin, Ky., Monday. He plans to walk to San Francisco, carrying the green-enameled, aluminum wreath on his back.

Wallen said he will cast the wreath on the ocean at Guadalcanal in tribute to his son Pershing, 24, and the valliant seamen who went down with the USS Juneau in November, 1942.

The wreath, two feet in diameter and mounted on a metal disc, is of a cypress leaf and bud design, ancient symbol of mourning. A plaque in the center commemorates the death of Wallen's son. Tiny wreaths on the disc are for each of the other 689 men on the Juneau's last crew,

PRIZES TO BE GIVEN WINNERS

Hallowe'en Parade Is Slated Tonight

Grotesque masks and costumes will be donned by adults and children for the annual Hallowe'en parade which will open at 7 o'clock tonight and move through downtown Lubbock.

Several hundred adults and children are expected to participate in the annual parade, competing for cash prizes totaling $160.

To Divide Prizes

Prizes will be divided among 54 contestants judged to have the funniest, the most original and the best character costumes.

"Judging and awarding of prizes will be finished by 8:00 p.m. so that contestants will have most of the evening free," said A. C. Hamilton, superintendent of the recreation department.

Judges will be Miss Quepha Rawls, Holland Cox, and Charles Lutrick.

Entries To Receive Numbers

Contestants will form for the parade at the Sears, Roebuck and company parking lot. After the downtown parade, contestants will receive a large printed number as they return to the parking lot. Judges will identify contestants by these numbers until the final decision.

As contestants pass the judges stand, those with outstanding costumes will be called out for final judgment. No team entries will be allowed, and individuals entered must be on foot unless physically handicapped.

Civic clubs assisting the recreation department by donations to be used for prizes are the Rotary, Lions, American Business, Optimist, Kiwanis, Exchange and 20-30 clubs and the Junior Chamber of Commerce. Baldridge bakery

Four Dead In Car Accident

HALE CENTER, Oct. 31 (Special)—Robert Jackson (Uncle Bob) Ritchey, 69-year-old carpenter, died at 1:30 a. m. today in the Hale Center hospital of injuries suffered near here Sunday afternoon in a headon collision which snuffed out three other lives and injured four others.

Killed outright in the crash eight miles southwest of Hale Center were Maregilde L. Gaytan, 50, of 221 Ave. P, Lubbock, and his two-year-old daughter, Nuevens Gaytan. Gaytan's brother-in-law, Grejorio Castillo, 53, died in Plainview hospital at 11:55 p. m. Sunday.

In Serious Condition

Mrs. Gaytan, 40, remained in serious condition today in the Plainview hospital with head injuries and possible internal injuries. A daughter, Agrora Gaytan, 18, was in the same hospital with a cut over here right eye but attendants said her condition was good.

Another daughter, Orolia Gaytan, 16, remained in the Hale Center hospital today for observation of possible internal injuries. Attendants said her condition was not serious. A cousin, Joe Marti-

Mercury Dips To 25 Early This Morning

Slight Reduction In Bumper Cotton Crop Is Expected

Witches and goblins better wear sweaters tonight, for Hallowe'en may be a nippy affair.

A frosty 25-degree minimum early this morning brought the South Plains its first killing freeze before a bright sun started warming the area up to an expected maximum of 60 degrees by mid-afternoon.

Cotton observers indicated a bumper cotton crop may be reduced somewhat by the earlier-than-usual killing freeze, but it has its good points too.

May Speed Picking

With leaves withered off the mature cotton stalks, pickers may speed up the cotton-picking operations by use of "stripping" methods, increasing their output materially and hastening the harvest of an all-time record crop.

Following this afternoon's high of about 56 degrees, the mercury is expected to plunge to the freezing point, 32, tonight again. Skies are expected to remain clear.

Lubbock's minimum at 6:30 this morning was one of the coldest in the state. The 25-degree reading compared with 26 at Amarillo, 34 at Wichita Falls, 30 at Big Spring, 35 at Abilene and 34 at San Angelo. At Tucumcari, the reading was 25, with 23 at Clayton, N. M., and 24 at Dalhart.

Would Reduce Estimate

K. N. Clapp, Lubbock representative of Anderson, Clayton & Co., and longtime cotton observer, had estimated the South Plains cotton crop at 1,523,000 bales if a freeze did not come before the "normal" freeze date of about Nov. 10. He said a freeze the second week of November would reduce his estimate by 40,000 to 70,000 bales and that an earlier freeze would reduce the total figure even further.

Last night's situation was perfect for a new low for the season. Heavy cloudiness during the day kept the area cold during the day, and then, as the sun set, the clouds suddenly dissipated, allowing earth heat to escape by radiation and the temperature to plunge rapidly. Cloudiness at night usually serves to hold heat close to the earth.

Blood Points Out Suspect

A 20-year-old Lubbock man who recently appealed from a judgment of five years in the state penitentiary for burglary was named in a new burglary complaint this morning, after allegedly having been tracked by bloodstains.

The complaint, sworn to by Pete Hubbard, city policeman, before E. G. Pharr, assistant district attorney, accuses J. A. Avery of 3300-block Ave. A, of burglary of F&W New and Used store, at 1415 Ave. F.

Was Leaving Hotel

He was arrested as he left a hotel in 1300-block Ave. F and was about to step into a taxicab.

Blood on a sidewalk connecting the store and the hotel was followed by police investigators, after they had found stains under a broken window at the store resembled blood.

The defendant had a handkerchief around a cut hand.

Upstairs in the hotel, he showed officers where two pistols that later were identified as having been taken from the store were hidden under the cushions of a chair.

At a hospital he was treated. He voluntarily gave a blood specimen to be sent with other evidence to a state laboratory. It will be compared with the stains found at the scene of the burglary.

Avery "verbally admitted" to

"He Wanted Me To Love Him," She Says

Girl Booked On Suspicion Of Slaying Los Angeles Furrier

(By The Associated Press)

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31—"He said he wanted some loving. I told him "all right, I'll give you some loving." And I pulled out the gun and shot him."

On the basis of that signed statement to police, blonde Patsy Rogers, 25-year-old switchboard operator, today is booked on suspicion of murder in the Saturday slaying of furrier Harry Lapides, 71.

Lapides' body, five bullets through the heart, was found yesterday under a pile of fur coats in his Hollywood store. Lapides came here two years ago from South Bend, Ind., where he had been in the fur business 30 years.

Miss Rogers said she had known Lapides about 18 months and that he had been trying to sell her a fur coat. She was arrested about midnight Saturday in a downtown parking lot on suspicion of drunkenness. She broke away from officers at central police station but was downed by a detective's flying tackle. Her purse fell open and out rolled

Vows Read In Orange

Miss Zora Anne Outlaw, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. C. Outlaw of Post, was married Friday, Oct. 21 at 8:30 p. m. to Joe William Evans of Lanesville, at the First Methodist church in Orange.

Rev. Herman T. Morgan, pastor of the First Methodist church of Orange, performed the ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The bride wore a teal blue crepe afternoon dres with burnt orange accessories and a bridal spray of white carnations.

Sister Is Attendant

Miss Alma Outlaw, a junior at Baylor university, attended her sister as maid of honor. She wore a blond satin afternoon dress with brown accessories and a spray of bronze mums.

A. E. Mize of Orange served as best man.

Music for the ceremony was provided by Miss Dorothy Compton, organist, who played a medley of wedding songs including "Because," "One Alone," "Ah, Sweet Mystery of Life," and "I Love You Truly."

Mrs. Evans and her husband are graduates of Baylor university. She was graduated from Post High school. She is teaching in the Junior High school at Texas City. Mr. Evans served four years in the Army in the European Theater. He is employed by the DuPont company at Orange.

The bride's parents entertained with a dinner for the wedding party immediately after the ceremony at the Holland hotel.

Out-of-town guests in addition to relatives included Misses Johnnie Lee Fewel and Betty Ann Turner of Fort Worth, friends of the bride.

P-TA President Wonders How To Deal With Member; Brings Charges Against Child

DEAR MARY HAWORTH: I am proud to be the president of our local Parent-Teacher group, although since holding this office I find I do get talked about by some members who don't approve of my way of doing things.

I was prepared for some unfavorable comment, but an incident last week was the last straw. We have one member who just doesn't agree on anything and she thrives on gossip, and when she found that her talk didn't bother me, she turned her attack on my child, who is in the third grade.

The woman went so far as to call my child's teacher with false charges of misconduct, reports that I found to be false after checking and double-checking. Fortunately the teachers understood the situation and didn't believe the tale in the first place, but the woman has done a thorough job of gossiping to the children in the neighborhood, and the story got bigger as they passed it along.

PLAYMATES ALSO ABUSE CHILD NOW

ALL this commotion has had a effect on my child, who comes home crying about mistreatment from playmates since the woman's accusations got around. I know the children will forget in time, but what will this troublemaker do next? I just couldn't bear to have my child hurt again; and I have thought of resigning for the child's sake; but of course that is just what the troublemaker wants me to do.

How do you handle a person like her? I am confident you can come up with the answer, because I have all the confidence in the world in your judgment. So please advise me, and please answer soon, for this matter mustn't be allowed to go on any longer.

Signed R. C.

ALL CLUB WORKERS KNOW THIS PICTURE

DEAR R. C.,: Any reader who has ever taken part in women's club work will recognize familiar territory in this picture you paint, and will think at once, "Oh, I know her," as they scan today's version of Mrs. Gossip peddling her poison against the new president.

Almost without exception it seems that women's organizations hatch and harbor the species, either as a lone firebrand if the group is small, or more often as ringleader of more like her, ready to coagulate into an obstructionist minority with a new line of attack against each administration—even against office holders whom said species voted for.

Why the dirty opposition? Well obviously the aim of the chronic soreheads is to stay in the limelight in each regime and do their bit to make the president pay through the nose for her season of glory, because they unconsciously begrudge her the "honors" due her position. But of course they always profess that "it's the good of the club" they're working for.

USE LEGAL MEANS TO CURB OFFENDER

WHAT the Mrs. Gossip type of woman can't bear is watching a sister member enter upon and enjoy (note I said enjoy) an office that stands for achievement, public approbation, etc. And the reasons will be found in Mrs. G's own personal history, related to the fact that she unconciously rates herself a rejected personality, thus smarts enviously on seeing any woman associate become a feted, accepted figure. Being insatiably hungry for attention herself, she tries figuratively to massacre the woman who puts her in the shade.

So much for what makes these unhapy creatures tick. And now about your distress. From what you say, your child's emotional health is jeopardized by the woman's hostile discourse, and since you anticipate recurrent attacks unless she is curbed, I feel you have just cause to take legal action to shut her up. Do this quietly, letting your husband and the family lawyer act on the child's behalf, thus treating it as a family matter and sparing the club a cat-fight—for which intelligent members will commend you.

Also, since the child is disturbed (and to strengthen your legal hand), go over the story with your family doctor (if he has a feeling for children), or with a reputable psychologist, in order to discover how much injury the child has suffered, and to get good guidance in helping him safely weather the nasty commotion. Spanish Teachers Elect And Plan Spring Fiesta CANYON, Oct. 31 WTNS)—The Llano Estacado Chapter of the American Association of Spanish and Portuguese met at Wayland college in Plainview, recently to elect officers.

Mrs. Tommie Montfort, teacher of Spanish in the West Texas State College Demonstration school, was elected president. Other officers are Dr. Leon Reynolds, Texas Technological instructor, vice president; Agnes Charlton, West Texas State, secretary-treasurer; and Cora Russell, Amarillo High School, corresponding secretary.

Mrs. Ray Swafford of Lubbock Junior High school discussed the teaching of beginning Spanish in the Lubbock schools, as the highlight of the program. Miss Wysleta Nuss, Amarillo Junior College, described the reorganization of the first year Spanish course in the college.

Dr. Pies Harper, head of the Modern Language Department at West Texas State, showed the colored movies taken at the 1949 Spanish Fiesta on the campus of West Texas last spring which was sponsored by the organization.

Using Dr. Harper's films as an example, Mrs. Scotti Mae Tucker from Texas Tech gave a demonstration lesson on the use of pictures in teaching foreign languages.

This year the organization plans to take as their major project the Fiesta which will be held at Texas Technological college in Lubbock on April 15. The committee in charge of the festival includes the Spanish faculty at Tech and Lubbock Public Schools, headed by Dr. Strehli of Tech as chairman.

At the invitation of Dr. Harper, the group voted to hold their spring meeting in the form of a Peruvian picnic at Canyon.

Two-Year-Old Feted With Birthday Party

Joe Bob Winfrey, two-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Winfrey, 715 Thirtieth, was honored Friday afternoon at 2 p. m. with a birthday party given by his mother at their home.

A Hallowe'en motif was carried out in favors and refreshments.

Guests were the young man's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Ed Greer; his paternal grandmother, Mrs. J. A. Wisfrey; Mrs. Parl Simpson, Mrs. Ray Williams, Mrs. C. L. Fitzgerald and daughter, Linda Sue; Karen and Marsha Sparkman and Johnnie Moyers.

Gifts were sent by Beverly Landers, Eddie Greer, Faye Price and Eddie McCombs.

1942 Needlers Meet With Mrs. Patrick

Mrs. C. T. Patrick, 2312 Sixth, was hostess to a Friday meeting of the 1942 Needle club. Plans were made for a Thanksgiving dinner to be held Nov. 17, in the home of Mrs. Howard Galloway, route 7.

Refreshments were served to 11 members.

Next meeting will be in the home of Mrs. Earl Atkins, 614 Ave. N.

Ten per cent of films shown in Manila now must be of Philippine origin.

COME ON, JACK FROST! These two young ladies don't mind cold weather. It gives them a chance to wear their swank new coats in Hockanum's yarn-dyed gray flannel.

Maxine Spivey Is Bride Of Eugene Gray In Midland

MIDLAND, Oct. 31 (Special) — Miss Maxine Spivey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. P. Spivey of Midland and Eugene Gray, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gray of Lubbock, were married at 7:30 p. m. Saturday in the home of the bride's parents. A double ring ceremony was performed by Rev. Troy Denton, of First Baptist church in Seminole.

The ceremony was read at an altar before the fireplace. Pink asters and white candelabra decorated each side of the mantel.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length dress of ice-blue lace over taffeta, with a wide, oval neckline and rolled collar. The pointed bodice extended into a full skirt, and long sleeves came to points over her hands. Her shoulder - length veil of illusion was attached to a small halo. The bridal bouquet was a white orchid surrounded by stephanotis and showered with white satin ribbons.

Trio Sings Medley

Traditional wedding marches were played by Mrs. Yates Brown, who also accompanied Misses Nellivee Clark, Vernalee Gions and Anna Joyce Streeter as they sang "Because" and a medley of other selections.

Attending the bridegroom as best man was Floyd Boles of Lubbock. The maid of honor, Miss Helen White of Midland, wore a dress of palomino lace over taffeta, fashioned with a short jacket complemented by self-covered buttons. Her veil was of palomino lace fashioned similarly to the brides. The candlelighter, Miss Jeanie Spivey, younger sister of the bride, wore a royal blue velvet dress made like the bride's, and had pink rosebuds in her hair.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Spivey home. The table was laid with a white satin cloth, centered with candelabra entwined with fern and pink carnations. Mrs. James Johnson cut the three-tiered cake, and Mrs. Dan Fletcher poured. Miss Billie Middleton of Galveston presided at the bride's book.

To Live In Odessa

For a wedding trip to Denver, Colo., the bride chose a teal blue wool gabardine suit with black velvet trim, black accessories and an orchid corsage. The couple will be at home in Odessa.

The bride is a graduate of West Columbia High school and attended Texas State College for Women in Denton for three years. She was formerly employed by Texas Employer's Insurance in Midland. Mr. Gray is a graduate of Lubbock High school, and after serving two years in the Navy attended Texas Tech college. He is a plumbing contractor for his father in Lubbock.

Out of town guests were the bridegroom's parents; his sister, Mrs. Floyd Reed and her husband; his grandmother, Mrs. Sallie Johnson; Mr. and Mrs. Homer Lawson, Tom Pirtle, Frank Liddell, Robert Barrier and George Rick, all of Lubbock. Others attending were Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Wilson of Brookhaven, Mass., aunt and uncle of the bride; Mrs. Cora Wilson of Houston, the bride's grandmother; and Mrs. Leo Middleton, Galveston; Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Chism, Odessa; Mrs. Troy Denton, Seminole; and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Claver, Fort Stockton.

Officers Chosen For Dog Show Circuit

Earl Witt of Amarillo was elected president of the West Texas Dog show circuit at a meeting Sunday in Lubbock hotel.

Others elected were: First vice president, W. C. Boyd, Lubbock; second vice president, Mrs. Aletha M. Conner, Odessa, and secretary and treasurer, C. V. Harwood, San Angelo.

Plans for dog shows to be held next fall were discussed. Shows will be conducted in September in the following order: Lubbock, Odessa, San Angelo, Abilene, Wichita Falls and Amarillo.

H. A. Allen of Lubbock, outgoing president, presided for the session, which opened Sunday morning and ended about 4 p. m. Luncheon was served.

MEASLES HIT

An epidemic of measles, to which they have little resistance, has hit Indians in British Quiana, in some villages affecting 90 per cent of the population.

Party Series Continuing

A series of courtesies is being given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Porter who are leaving in the near future to make their home in Colorado Springs.

A dinner party was given Saturday night in compliment to the Porters by Mr. and Mrs. Ben Peek and Mr. and Mrs. Tom C. Ingram.

Other guests were Dr. and Mrs. W. J. Howard, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Harvey and Mr. and Mrs. M. D. Temple.

Girls Unconcerned About "Beefcake" Craze In Filmland

By BOB THOMAS
Associated Press Staff Writer

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 31. — The latest thing on the exploitation front in Hollywood is "beefcake", the exposure of famous male frames. And what do the glamor girls think of it?

This male counterpart of cheesecake has been much in the movie news lately. Bare-chested pictures of Alan Ladd, Richard Conte, Victor Mature, Kirk Douglas, Robert Ryan, Lex Barker and others have been widely circulated to help advertise films.

The question: Are the female stars concerned about the men muscling in on their territory? To determine this I asked a number of actresses how they feel about beefcake. The replies:

Ava Gardner—"It's sensational! Imagine if they showed Montgomery Clift that way! Really, though, I don't think it will replace cheesecake. Women like men's minds."

Joan Crawford—"Why not? I think it's about time men were given the chance to get in on cheesecake."

Eleanor Parker—"I guess it's all right to show a man's chest when the situation in a picture calls for it. But I don't think it will have the appeal of cheesecake."

Ella Raines—"Beefcake doesn't impress me. But if the men want to expose themselves, let them."

Jeanne Crain—"Frankly, I think it's what's is a man's mind that makes him attractive."

Pat Neal—"It's lovely."

Virginia Mayo—"I guess it's okay for those men who have builds good enough to expose. But men can't wear falsies."

TO BE HOSTESS

Mrs. Carden Green will be hostess when the 1928 Luncheon club meets Thursday at 1 p. m. in the Hilton hotel.

COFFEE CROP DROPS

SAO PAULO (AP)—Forest fires and a long drought are ruining next year's coffee crop, Silvio Pacheco, of the farmers' association, reported after a tour of the interior areas of Sao Paulo. There are forest fires almost everywhere, he said, and the continued heat has killed flowering coffee plants. Sao Paulo is the greatest coffee producer in Brazil. A reported crop of seven and half million bags has been estimated now at only five.

American Businessmen Warned World Trade Must Be Boosted

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—American businessmen were told today what further sacrifices they must make if a stalemate in world trade and its possible threat to peace, are to be avoided. In return, they reminded Europe that concession no longer would be a one-way street.

More than 1,800 leading manufacturers, bankers and shippers, attending the opening session of the 36th national foreign trade convention, were told that:

Must Import Goods

1. The United States must import 2½ billion dollars more of goods from Europe, even if 1½ billion of that would be in direct competition with American-made products—William C. Foster, deputy administrator of the Economic Cooperation administration, laid that on the line.

2. Trade between sterling and dollar countries will drop in the next year or two in spite of Marshall plan aid—Sid Sydney Caine, British minister for financial affairs, told Americans that, and added that how far it dropped depended largely on how much Americans would buy from the sterling area, and how much they would cut tariffs.

Investments Poor Risks

3. Americans would like to help other nations by investing private capital abroad, but see little evidence that many of these lands are willing yet to make it attractive—Eugene Holman, president of Standard Oil Co. (New Jersey), added in making this point that in most places such investments are poor risks today.

4. And all three agreed that Erope must raise its volume of production, its rate of productivity, and standards of living, if the world's trade problems are to be solved and Europe taken off the U. S. taxpayers' neck.

Randolph Scott Plans Western Film For Young Fans; Butch Jenkins Is To Return

By LOUELLA O. PARSONS
INS Staff Correspondent

HOLLYWOOD, Oct. 31—Statistics, if you are interested in anything as Gallup-y or dull, prove that the youngsters are our greatest patrons of westerns.

Randolph Scott tells me that he is giving these young fans a western all their own in William S. Warren's "Ride Cowboy, Ride." The hero is a 13-year-old boy whose father takes him on his first roundup. Butch Jenkins will get a comeback chance as the boy. Randy, of course, will play the father.

Director Edwin L. Marin suggested the book after he heard his wife reading it to their eight-year-old son.

Idea Kept Secret

The idea that Norman Mailer, author of "Naked and the Dead," and Jean Malaquais, French novelist, have in "Night Wind," which they have sold to Samuel Goldwyn, is being kept secret.

I hear it is a drama laid in a broadcasting station—but that is all I know. At any rate, Mailer and Malaquais, who has four novels in English brought out by Doubleday, are working now at the Goldwyn studio.

With Rita Hayworth's plan to only make one picture a year, and not to make that one for some time, Columbia is in the market for another big female star. That is why I am not surprised that a term contract is being discussed with Margaret Sullivan.

Richard, the little son of Veronica Lake and Andre de Toth, goes into the hospital for an emergency throat operation. That is why Veronica called off her trip to New York.

Another member of the famed Winston Churchill family, Diana, his niece, is on the London stage. She plays opposite Michael Redgrave in "Love's Labor Lost."

Carl Sandburg, the poet, is in town consulting with MGM biggies about his story, "Remembrance Rock," which MGM has already bought.

White Satin Shimmers

Ruth Warrick and Carl Neubert, the interior decorator, also at a table for two, same place. Ruth with the same escort at the opera, looked beautiful all in shimmering white satin.

Jeannette Mac Donald was another one who looked more beautiful than I've ever seen her, in a low-cut white gown.

Sophie Tucker's pals really went to town on getting reservations for her opening night at Ciro's. Phil Harris and Alice Faye, Lou Costello, Dean Martin and Jerry Lewis, the Keenan Wynns, Jack Oakie were some of those who wired Sophie they would be among those present.

Sophie received a wire from Sheldon Brooks, who wrote "Some of These Days," telling her that on Nov. 8 it will be 40 years since he handed his song to her to introduce. It is still her favorite and most successful number.

Quick Return Advised

Irene Wrightman McEvoy had better come back from New York. Bob Stack is seen everywhere with beautiful Claudette Thornton. They were in the party at the Mocambo which Lynn Wood gave for Peggy Kennedy, daughter of Joe Kennedy. Lex Barker was with Rose Marie Keil again, Ann Miller came with Charles Isaacs, and Dru Mallory, the Irish actress, was escorted by Tim Tennock.

Lex "Tarzan" Barker is taking Chita, the chimp, on a personal appearance tour. Their routine consists of Chita doing everything contrary to what Tarzan orders. Well, that ought to be easy.

Charles Farrell and Virginia Valli among those present when Ernst and Jeanne Geiserman opened the Sea Horse in Palm Springs. Mrs. Geierman was formerly on the New York stage and in radio under the name of Jeanne Hart. The bright idea to serve sea food in the desert is hers:

Mexico's National Lottery held a contest to determine the "healthiest child," winners being six babies ranging from four to seventeen months.

Noted Throat Specialists report on 30-Day Test of Camel Smokers...

NOT ONE SINGLE CASE OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS!

Yes, these were the findings of noted throat specialists after a total of 2,470 weekly examinations of the throats of hundreds of men and women who smoked Camels—and only Camels—for 30 consecutive days!

THE TEST BEGINS in their well-run home. Though the Coles have smoked other brands in the past—it's Camels exclusively for the next 30 days. Each will make a weekly visit to the doctor for a careful throat examination.

IT'S FUN! Smoke Camels, and only Camels, for 30 days. Compare them in your "T-Zone" (T for taste, T for throat). Let your own throat tell you about Camel's cool, cool mildness. Let your own taste tell you about Camel's wonderful flavor.

Visit Mr. and Mrs. Cole of Fresh Meadows, N. Y. (left), who made the 30-Day Camel Mildness Test under the observation of a noted throat specialist!

DICK COLE is a manufacturer and his own boss. As he interviews a salesman, he pauses to light a Camel. "I didn't know how much fun smoking could be", he confides, "until I changed to Camels!"

LILLIAN COLE'S hobby is interior decorating and her home shows it. She reports: "I don't know who's enjoying this test more—my husband or me! Every Camel tastes so good and smokes so mild!"

30TH DAY—Their throat specialist's findings: NO SIGN OF THROAT IRRITATION due to smoking CAMELS! "This was no surprise to me", says Mr. Cole. "Camels agreed with my throat from the start". Mrs. Cole adds, "I've changed to Camels for keeps!"

POLITICAL PARTIES WAIT FOR SIGN

Elections In Key Areas May Mirror Congressional Trend

By JACK BELL
Associated Ptess Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 — A hammer-and-tongs race for governor in New Jersey, a U. S. Senate contest in New York, and six strategic mayor elections next week may reflect advance political trends of the 1950 congressional campaign.

In New Jersey, Republican Gov. Alfred E. Driscoll is battling to keep in the GOP ranks a state that contributed 16 electoral votes in 1948 to Gov. Thomas E. Dewey of New York, the losing presidential candidate.

Driscoll is opposed by Democratic State Senator Elmer H. Wene. A Democratic victory in the race would be certain to be considered a sign that the Republicans would have extremely tough going in their uphill battle to regain control of Congress next year.

GOP Hopes For Dulles

Next door a mayor's race in New York City is sharing national interest with a special Senate election. Other municipal elections being watched closely for national trends include those in Louisville, Boston, Detroit, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

Republican strategists are placing their highest hopes on electing John Foster Dulles over Herbert H. Lehman, former Democratic governor, as New York senator for the next year remaining in the term of Democrat Robert F. Wagner. Dulles now holds the seat by appointment of Gov. Thomas E. Dewey.

In New York City Newbold Morris, the Republican-Liberal-Fusion candidate who ran third in 1945, is trying to unseat Democratic Mayor William O'Dwyer. Rep. Vito Marcantonio is in the race, too, on the American Labor party ticket. There are three other minor party nominees.

Off-Year Surges Sought

O'Dwyer has been telling his audiences that a Democratic defeat in the city election would be interpreted as a repudiation of President Truman's "fair deal."

Most politicians thought that was laying it on a bit thick. Nevertheless, an unexpected Republican victory in New York City would be certain to be tabbed as marking a trend against the Democrats that could be expected to carry over into the 1950 congressional campaign.

In Louisville the Republicans are trying for the sort of off-year surge that almost carried them over in 1945, when they lost the mayor's office by only 221 votes. To carry Kentucky in 1950, they will have to do well in Louisville.

Kentucky elects a senator next year to replace Senator Withers (D-Ky), serving by appointment, as well as seven Democratic and two Republican House members. It's the kind of a border state the Republicans will have to make hay in if they are to regain control of Congress.

Curley Is Watched

Boston's city election is interesting nationally principally on the basis of what happens to Democratic Mayor James M. Curley. The colorful Curley is opposed by five candidates on a ballot that is technically non-partisan.

Detroit has the same kind of ballot. However, Albert E. Cobo, city treasurer and a former business executive with reported Republican leanings, led all other candidates in a September 13 primary.

He is opposed by George Edwards, president of the city council and a member of the CIO united automobile workers union.

Cleveland, which has the habit of producing mayors who go on up the political scale, has another potential aspirant for national attention in Democratic Mayor Thomas A. Burke, running for re-election.

There has been some talk of Burke as a possible opponent for Senator Robert A. Taft (R-Ohio) next year. Burke is opposed by Republican Frank A. Polk. The Democrats have won by margins of from 50,000 to 80,000, so a victory for Burke would be expected.

The Republicans seem to have a better chance in Pittsburgh, however, where Timothy T. Ryan is opposing Democratic Mayor David Lawrence.

Lawrence won by nearly 13,000 in 1945. Republicans, who carried Pennsylvania for Dewey last year, would like to turn Lawrence out of office as a sign that their victory in a special congressional election in the state earlier wasn't just a flash in the pan.

28 Guests Escape In Marshall Hotel Fire

MARSHALL, Oct. 31 (AP)—Twenty-eighth guests escaped safely yesterday when fire gutted the top floor of a fourt-story hotel annex.

One lderly guest was overcome by smoke, but a policeman saved him. A blind man was led out of the building by a hotel clerk. Two firemen received minor injuries.

The blaze broke out in the annex of Hotel Marshall. It was confined to the fourth floor and did not damage the adjoining seven-story hotel. Three floors of the annex received smoke and water damage.

Fire Chief Carl Bechtold said the blaze started in a fourth floor room. He said its cause had not been determined.

Leonard H. Smith of Amarillo was overcome by smoke. Policeman R. T. Munden tied a rope around him and lowered him down a fire escape. Smith received treatment at a hospital.

Tom Nelson, a clerk, found blind Alec Pitts, 65, Greenville, wandering around the third floor. He led him out of the building.

Pete Harrison, a volunteer fireman, received a cut on the head. Fireman Frank McNeill fell 15 feet to the roof of an adjoining building.

Widow Goes On Trial For Hubby's Slaying

MANILA, Oct. 31. (AP)—Trial of pretty Mrs. Ester Del Rosario Murray, 32, on a charge of slaying her American husband opened today.

The husband, George C. Murray, 27, formerly of Kansas City, Mo., was shot to death as he slept in his home the night of Aug. 13. He had been out earlier with film actress Carol Varga.

The prosecution charged Mrs. Murray, mother of four children by a previous marriage, killed Murray in a fit of jealousy. She entered a plea of innocent.

Murray was a U. S. Army counter intelligence agent during the war. After the war he became an arms and war surplus dealer here.

His father, Jerry Murray of Kansas City, has opposed an attempt by the widow's attorney to have her named administrator of the American's estate, estimated at $200,000.

EAT PLENTY AND TAKE OFF UGLY FAT

When you buy Barcentrate, you buy a preparation for taking off weight. You do not pay for any printed diet or for vitamins to fortify you against weakness while on a starvation diet. You need never know a hungry moment while taking this preparation. Barcentrate is the original grapefruit juice recipe for weight reduction.

Just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. That's all there is to it.

If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, easy way to take off ugly fat, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Lost 56 pounds

Here is what Mrs. L. J. Bryant, P. O. Box 56, Whitewright, Texas, wrote us:

"I want to tell you what Barcentrate has done for me. I weighed 268 pounds when I started taking it. I now weigh 212.

"I have taken my dress size down from size 50 to 44 and never felt better in my life and everybody tells me how much nicer I look than I did.

"I am still taking Barcentrate as I want to get my weight down to 165 or 170 pounds."

Teams Pushing Scoring Mark

Army Setting Blazing Pace

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (AP)—It's no longer sufficient to say those gridiron gargantuas—Notre Dame, Army and Oklahoma—won again. The pertinent point is: By how much?

As if jealousy watching the scoreboard in their drive for national honors, these three top-ranking elevens are gorging themselves on touchdowns and pushing the modern record for scoring.

Army's Black Knights of the Hudson, second to Notre Dame in the current standings, are setting the point-production pace among the leaders with a total of 267 in six games, as average of 44½ per Saturday.

Top Powers Win

The Fighting Irish have registered 197 in five games, an average of 39 plus, while the third-ranked Sooners have 229 in six games, a bit over 38 for each afternoon's sport.

They are not apt to wreck the listed all-time record of 504, established by Army in 1944, but they'll be mighty close at the end of this "point-crazy" campaign.

All three of the titans won games Saturday by robust margins. Notre Dame crushed Navy, 40-0, at Baltimore. Army overwhelmed Virginia Military, 40-14. Oklahoma smashed Iowa State, 34-7.

These were the other developments of the late October weekend:

1. Pennsylvania, ninth ranked nationally, was tumbled from the unbeaten ranks by Pittsburgh, which scored a last minute safety to prevail, 22-21.

2. Perfect records were maintained by 11 other major teams—Notre Dame, Army, Oklahoma, California, Cornell, Baylor, Boston U., Virginia, Fordham, Wyoming and College of the Pacific.

3. Bowl hopes rocketed for California, Baylor, Pitt and Boston university.

Bowl Hopes Shattered

4. Bowl hopes were shattered for North Carolina, Minnesota and UCLA.

5. Fordham, once an eastern giant, came back to the big leagues with a 42-0 triumph over Georgetown.

The Rams get a real test next Saturday when they line up against the Army steamroller.

California's Golden Bears just about clinched the Pacific coast championship and the Rose Bowl bid by humbling UCLA, 35-21. The nation's fourth-ranked team now has won 17 regular season games in a row and has only Washington State, Oregon and Stanford to play.

But the possible Pasadena foe from the Big Ten became a greater puzzle as oft-whipped Purdue rose up to smile seventh-ranked Minnesota, 13-7, and Michigan, No. 6 tripled Illinois, the conference leader, 13-0.

That put Ohio State and Iowa in the middle of the Rose Bowl picture. Ohio State vanquished Northwestern, 24-7, and Iowa won an intersectional fray from Oregon, 34-31.

Baylor Is Threat

Iowa takes on Minnesota Saturday in the game taht can buoy or bash its bowl chances. Ohio State is at Pittsburgh, a returning power in the national football scene.

Baylor, a dark horse that just keeps on winning, became a stout bidder for the Cotton Bowl spot by overwhelming Texas Christian, 40-14, for its sixth straight victory. The Bears, however, must yet dispose of Southern Methodist and Rice, No. 5 in the ratings won over Texas Tech, 28-0.

Tensessee's once-beaten and once-tied Vols, another oldtime gridiron great making a postwar comeback, throttled North Carolina's great Charlie (Choo Choo) Justice and handed the Tar Heels their second straight setback, 35-6.

Cornell's eighth-ranked big red won its sixth in a row, rolling over Columbia, 54-0. Harry Agganis fired four touchdown passes as Boston U. lashed Scranton, 46-6. Wyoming sailed past Brigham Young, 45-0.

College of the Pacific, the other unbeaten-untied major eleven, subdued San Jose State, 45-7, Friday and now has a staggering total of 322 points for seven games.

WESTERNER PLAYER HONORED

Stroud Listed On Grid "Honor Roll"

FORT WORTH, Oct. 31 (AP) — Don Low, versatile Brownwood back, gets the nod as the outstanding high school player on the Fort Worth Star-Telegram's "honor roll" roundup this week.

Low, a 160-pound senior, threw three touchdown passes, passed and ran for 318 of the 420 yards gained by Brownwood, and scored another touchdown on a plunge through the line as the Lions played a 33-33 upset tie with San Angelo Friday.

Wayne Stroud, Lubbock back, plunged two yards for one touchdown, ran 98 yards for another and intercepted two passes to set up two more tallies as the Westerners rolled past Lamesa, 41-14.

Charles Thompson, Sweetwater's 6-2, 230-pound tackle, made several outstanding stops and played a good offensive game as his team bowed to Abilene, 12-27.

Galusha Is Named

Bill Galusha, Abilene back, accounted for most of the Eagles' between-the-line yardage and booted three out of four extra points.

Eddie Hodges, Abilene tackle, recovered two Sweetwater fumbles for the Eagles and was a key factor in spoiling the Mustangs' usually potent passing attack.

Freddie Muniz, Harlingen fullback, averaged 27 yards on 12 punts, kicking from a field described as a quagmire, as his team lost to Alice, 13-20.

Amarillo Back Praised

Wayne Bilco, Edinburg fullback, plunged for one touchdown and was the chief offensive threat on the ground as his team defeated McAllen, 12-6, on a muddy field.

Jack McMurry, Marshall back, scored two touchdowns on quarterback sneaks, and lateraled to Delbert Rowland on a 13-yard play for the winning tally as the Mavericks defeated Henderson 21-14.

Sammy Morrow, Paris back, scored on runs of seven and one yards as his team tripped Denison, 27-0.

E. G. Sanders, 130-pound Amarillo scat back, crossed the goal line after runs of eight, seven, and 61 yards as the Sandies deyeated Ysleta, 26-6.

Cold Wind Hampers Tourney Finalists

Chick Trout Noses Out Jimmy Goldman For City Golf Crown

Chick Trout is the new City Open Golf champion following Sunday's 1-up victory over Jimmy Goldman in a 37-hole battle at Lubbock Country club.

Trout fought an uphill battle nearly all the way after going behind by six holes after 15 holes in the morning. At the end of 18 Goldman's lead had been pared to three holes, and on the 27th Trout went ahead, with Goldman winning the 33rd to even the match.

The two golfers halved the final three regulation holes, with Trout shooting a birdie three on the par four, 395-yard 37th hole to take the crown.

Trout suceeds Lindsey Telford as city champion. Telford lost in the quarter-finals to Goldman.

Winner in the first flight was E. A. Hindman, and he defeated Dick Willbanks in the 18-hole finals, 3 and 2. Saturday, A. C. Jackson won the second flight title by downing Jack Cole, 1-up.

In the consolation flights T. N. Burton dropped Roy Cooper, 1-up, in 19 holes with a birdie. First flight consolation winner was Houston Trammel, with a 2 and 1 win over Sid Claiborne, and Dean Cole dropped M/Sgt. Leo Hess 2 and 1, in the second flight consolation finals.

Dinner For Contestants

All contestants in the tourney are invited to a free dinner at 7 p. m. Tuesday at the club. Others interested in attending may make reservations by calling the club.

A permanent trophy for the tournament has been donated by Powers Sporting Goods company, and individual prizes are being given by Hemphill-Wells. Presentations will be made at the dinner.

In winning the tournament championship Trout played steady golf after an early lapse which permitted Goldman to win six of the first 15 holes. Trout took 15, 16 and 17 and halved 18 to go three down.

But in the afternoon Goldman lost control, allowing Trout to win numbers three and five. Goldman won six, but dropped seven, eight and nine, allowing Trout to go ahead for the first time in the match. Trout dropped number 15 and the next two were halved, leaving the last hole as the deciding one.

Trout drove out of bounds on his first shot to lose one stroke and give Goldman a decided advantage, but Goldman went beyond the cup on his approach, parring the hole with a four. Trout was 10 feet from the cup on his third shot and ran down the putt for a half, winning with a birdie on the 37th hole.

All golfers were hampered considerably by the cold 30-mile-per-hour wind that blew most of the day.

Rams Tangle With Eagles On Sunday

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP)—The Los Angeles Rams, only unbeaten team in the National Football league, and the Philadelphia Eagles, 1948 champions, clash in next Sunday's outstanding pro game of the week.

In the All American conference, the New York Yankees and Cleveland Browns, still tied for first place, and the San Francisco 49ers, closest to that pair, all appear to have welcome breathers coming up Sunday. The Yankees play host to Buffalo, the Browns take on the Chicago Hornets and the 49ers visit Baltimore.

Of the seven games played in both leagues yesterday, only one was a lopsided affair—that in the NFL which saw the Eagles routing Pittsburgh, 38-7. The Rams edged the Chicago Bears, 27-24.

In the AAC, the New Yorkers, after stealing a three-touchdown advantage over the luckless Baltimore Colts, had to stave off a late rally to win, 21-14.

Cleveland kept pace with the Yankees by earning sweet revenge over San Francisco, 30-28. The tied-up leaders now have six triumphs and one loss each.

In other National league games, the New York Giants eked out a 41-38 win over the downcast Chicago Cardinals; Green Bay squeeked to a 16-14 decision over Detroit, and the New York Bulldogs, still biteless in the win column, did their best to date by tying Washington, 14-14.

ROBINSON'S NINE WINS

HOUSTON, Oct. 31. (AP)—Jackie Robinson's All-Stars blasted the negro American League All-Stars, 9-4, yesterday, using two four-run innings to wrap up the exhibition baseball game.

Argentine "strong man" Eduardo Nasep hung by his neck from a helicopter circling Buenos Aires and drank a cup of tea.

Cowboys, Tech Tied For Lead

(By The United Press)

Weekend events in the Border conference set the stage today for a title meeting Nov. 26 involving Hardin-Simmons and Texas Tech at Lubbock.

Hardin-Simmons' 33-14 victory over previously unbeaten, untied Texas Western left the Cowboys riding toward a possible conference championship. Their record in conference play is four wins, no losses.

The game marked Texas Western's first setback in seven contests and its only loss in four conference starts.

Rice Drubs Tech

Tech, with a record of two conference games won, was beaten by an outside foe, Rice Institute administering a 28-0 drubbing.

Tempe State won its second of three title games, taking New Mexico 28-19.

Arizona lost to Denver 20-6 and New Mexico A&M won a 40-12 victory over Highlands U. in other interconference affairs.

This week, Tech takes on TWC at El Paso, West Texas goes to Flagstaff State, Tempe State will be at New Mexico A&M and Arizona will play host to New Mexico in conference matches.

Standings Are Given

Outside the conference, Hardin-Simmons travels to Los Angeles for a Friday night game with Loyola.

Pampa Tests Sandies

Grand Prairie Battles Scots

By HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Editor

Important games dot a jammed schedule of conference play this week in Texas schoolboy football. A half-dozen district titles will be in the balance with the feature at Grand Prairie where one of the state's five undefeated, untied teams meets its greatest test.

Highland Park of Dallas plays the first serious contender for honors in its district in years and Grand Prairie is likely to bring to a halt the iron-fisted reign the Highlanders have held.

Lubbock Is Idle

Grand Prairie has the hardest row to hoe of any of the unbeaten elevens. The others are Wichita Falls and Lubbock, which have open dates this week, and Port Arthur and Corsicana. Port Arthur plays South Park (Beaumont) in a game matching unbeaten teams in conference play in District 11 of Class AA. Corsicana takes on Waxahachie in District 13.

Two titles are on the line in the city conference. At Dallas Adamson meets Sunset in the game expected to determine the District 1 championship. At Fort Worth Arlington Heights plays Paschal in what is likely to be the championship struggle of District 2.

Amarillo's Golden Sandies open the District 1 Class AA race against Pampa, the team figured to give the Sandies the most trouble.

Marshall and Texarkana get together at Terarkana in District 9. Marshall is the only undefeated team left in conference play but Texarkana long has been rated the team most likely to upset the Mavericks. If Texarkana wins it will throw the race into a tie.

Top Games Slated

Port Arthur and South Park are unbeaten in District 11 warfare but it appears this condition will last only until Friday when South Park tries to stop mighty Port Arthur.

In District 12 Galveston and Freeport, two of three teams unbeaten in conference competition, get together at Galveston. Baytown, the other one, plays twice-beaten Galena Park.

Despite the fact that Highland Park has lost a game—a non-conference affair with Wichita Falls—the District 8 struggle between the Scots and Grand Prairie is the top tilt of the state. The winner not only will be acknowledged as district champion but will be expected to go far in the state playoff.

Two teams in the state are undefeated but have been tied. They are John Reagan of Houston in the City conference and Baytown.

MUSTANGS CLASH WITH AGGIES

Bears Face Tough Steers This Week

By ED FITE
United Press Sports Writer

Baylor's rampaging Bears and the high-flying Rice Owls put their Southwest conference co-leadership on the line this week against foes apparently capable of providing ample tests of their hard-won top rankings.

For the Bears, the opposition will be furnished by the stubborn, "lose-em-late" Texas Longhorns, a high-geared outfit that has been outscored by only three points in its last two games yet lost both of them.

Porkers Are Dangerous

Confronting the Owls will be an Arkansas team that can be as rugged as they come in the Southwest—especially if the Porkers can take the field at full strength, including their rock-em, sock-em, Fullback Leon Campbell.

One other will be on the conference slate, but it will have to take a back seat to the pair involving the pace-setters. It will match the hapless Texas Aggies against Southern Methodist, the only other team with much of a chance to share in the title honors SMU has won outright for the past two seasons.

Texas Christian will have an open date.

Baylor will be operating at a bit of disadvantage in that it must meet the Longhorns away from home, while Rice will have a distinct advantage over the Porkers, who must travel from the Ozark highlands to the humid Houston climate.

Ponies Are Favored

SMU will be a firm favorite over the Aggies on paper, but that fact hasn't taken seriously by the College Station club in the past and the same may not be true this week, especially since the game will be on their own Kyle field.

Baylor wiped away any doubts of its right to fame last Saturday when it stopped TCU's famed Lindy Berry cold and sailed to an easy 40-14 victory with Adrian Burk's passing dominating the game.

SMU kept its hopes alive and blotted out the Longhorn's aspirations at the same time as the Mustangs came from behind in typical fashion to pull out a 7-6 victory over Texas on Doak Walker's educated toe.

Results of these two games left Baylor with a 3-0 conference record, SMU with a 1-1 mark and Texas and TCU with 1-2 records, practically dealing them out of the hand. Rice has won two and lost none.

Arkansas Beats Ags

Arkansas shoved the Aggies deeper into the cellar with a 27-6 win at Fayetteville without Muscles Campbell to give it a .500 mark in four title games.

Rice, taking a well-deserved breather after overhauling SMU and Texas on successive Saturdays, coasted to a 28-0 win over Texas Tech in last week's other game.

Randall Clay of Texas was held scoreless for the first time this season by SMU, but held to his individual scoring lead on a day that saw few of the leaders contribute to the day's scoring efforts.

Clay has 61 points to 41 for his nearest competitor, James Williams of Rice, who got four extra points for the only scoring done by last week's six leaders. Kyle Rote of SMU climbed into fourth place with 32 points and Bobby Lantrip moved into the multiple tie for fifth at 30 points.

Between the Lines by Joe Kelly

We haven't had a chance to call K. N. Clapp and thank him for the postcard he sent us. But we can pass on the source of the material that caused him to write: "I gotta chuckle outta this." The chuckle-provoker is apparently from some writer's column and we also found it mirth-provoking. Here 'tis: Johnny Toker, the Brooklyn sports fan, having recovered from a mild apoplexy caused by the loss of the Dodgers in the World Series, emerges long enough to comment: 'How come nobody ever 'wins' a football game any more? They crush, sink, crumple, upset, swamp, annihilate, squeeze, eclipse, trap, trample, smash, KO, top, drub, romp, rout, roll over, rip, tear, repulse and slaughter', Dear Johnny: "You win."

As you all know, Littlefield's powerful Wildcats beat Sundown's Roughnecks by the far from narrow margin of 66-0 last Friday night. From Dunk of The County Wide News comes information that he thinks is worth passing on. We do too. Referee Paul Featherngill, who worked the game, said that without a doubt during his 19 years of refereeing he had never seen or appreciated working with a team of better losing sports than the Sundown Roughnecks. "Lagging by 66 points, this fine bunch of boys certainly reflected the sportsmanship coaching of Jess Davis," he declared. "And if there is such a thing as the Sportsmanship Team of the week, Sundown should win it hands down." We're glad to extend our praise to any team that continues to fight back even though being beaten soundly and which displays outstanding sportsmanship. Power to 'em.

We have no desire to carry on a Post-Slaton vendetta through this column, but since we published a Slaton fan's letter, we'll do the same for a Post fan. After that, everyone will just have to wait until Nov 11. "After reading your article in The Evening Journal Oct. 24, I feel that it is my duty, as a supporter of the Post Antelopes, to let you know, or rather the Slaton reader know, that I do not believe in miracles! We, here at Post, realize that Slaton has a very good team and we also realize we lost 27 boys from our 1948 squad. To the irritated fan of Slaton, we do not believe in counting a team out of the race until the deciding game has been played. We play that deciding game Nov. 11 at Post.

"I am not so narrow minded as to think we have a cinch of winning that game, but I am sure that the Post Antelopes will show up by game time ready to play. To you Mr. Kelly, I will personally see that you have one of the best seats in our stands to see who will defend the South half of 4A. To my good friend at Slaton I hope that you will come early in order not to miss anything."

We appreciate the joint invitations, both Slaton and Post unofficially having invited us. If we possibly can get away from the rush and turmoil of Friday in the office, we'd like nothing better than to see what will be the South Plains' biggest game of the day.

George Brewer, Lubbock's speedster, finally was given another chance at Oklahoma when the Sooners met and defeated Nebraska 48-0. Brewer drew rave notices from Coach Bud Wilkinson, Big Seven sportswriters and fans for sparking the Sooners to their victory. He teamed with another back to lead drives of 54, 90 and 84 yards, compiling a 5.1 average per carry. But just as important were the sharp blocks that he threw. He also had several long runs, one of 48 yards, and scored one of the Sooner touchdowns. Brewer was on his way to a great year in 1948, scoring the Sooner's first touchdown against Santa Clara. Out of a pile-up he came with a broken leg and that finished him that season. This year he started slowly, but his performance showed that he may be on his way back to the top again.

Texas Tech is faced with three more games this year, but at least they now begin to travel within their class. No one was fooled seriously into thinking that the Red Raiders were going to beat any of hte Southwest Conference teams, with the possible exception of Texas A & M. They were gate games, games that brought in the vulgar coin of the realm with which the athletic program could be enlarged. But the games also served to give the Raider players experience that may stand them in good stead when they play Texas Western, New Mexico and Hardin-Simmons. The Raiders should win all three games and finish another Border Conference season undefeated. They should, but we aren't sure that they will.

The first test comes this week against a Texas Western eleven that is bound to be smarting from two things: 1, they lost their first game of the year Saturday night; and 2, they haven't forgotten the humiliating 46-6 licking by Tech last year. The Miners have made this game homecoming, which will be an additional spur to Jack Curtice and his crew. The Saturday statistics show that Texas Western had 18 first downs to 12 for Hardin-Simmons and rolled up 258 yards rushing, compared to 246 for the Cowboys. But the Abilene team had 115 yards through the air and that made the difference. The Miners might have a good passing attack, but Saturday they completed only three of nine attempts. The game this week could be a battle of ground offensive elevens, neither of which have much to offer in the air.

Grid Club To See Army-Navy Movies

Color movies of the 1948 Army-Navy football game are to be shown at tonight's weekly Quarterback club meeting at 8 o'clock on the main ballroom of Hotel Lubbock.

Speakers at the meeting will be C. R. (Pat) Pattison, Lubbock Westerner coach; Del Morgan, Texas Tech mentor, and Damon Hill, coach of the Dunbar Panthers. Each will discuss his team's performance last week, and prospects for approaching games.

All interested persons have been cordially invited by Quarterback club officials to attend tonight's meeting.

Coach Praises Bear Players

WACO, Oct. 31. (AP) — Bob Woodruff says his Baylor team has done much better than he expected before the season started but he's not surprised.

"If you know the kind of boys I have playing on this team you wouldn't wonder that they're undefeated and untied today," Woodruff declared as he looked back over the crashing 40-14 victory Saturday over Texas Christian.

"Mainly, we have great leadership. And then there's the finest group of assistants a coach ever had. We intercepted nine passes Saturday. We did it against the nation's No. 1 passer—Lindy Berry. Chuck Stone, my guard who ought to be named lineman of the week, rushed Berry so hard he couldn't get them off right. My halfbacks and linebackers gobbled them up. I don't believe any college team ever intercepted nine passes before playing against such a passer as Berry. And you know, nine pass interceptions is equal to gaining about 400 yards. My scouts and my assistants were responsible for the great pass defense we threw at T.C.U."

He praised the leadership of Captain Don Mouser and the fighting qualities of his team. "Take J. D. Ison," Woodruff said. "He got knocked out and when I sent in a sub he wouldn't come out. He just waved him away. T.C.U. had pounded Ison; boy did they work him over! But you know, that guy got up and caught another pass."

Woodruff lauded his quarterback, Adrian Burk, whose passing shot down Texas Christian. "He's one of the finest ball-handlers in the business and a great quarterback."

WORKS WITHOUT BICYCLE

TOLEDO, O. (AP)—Ralph Smith, 18, of Toledo was stubborn about paying a 25-cent license fee for his bicycle. Municipal Judge Homer A. Ramey fined him $5 and costs for operating his bicycle without a license. This amounted to $8.70. Smith couldn't pay the fine. He was sent to the workhouse to work it out at $3 a day.

Hardin College Is Gulf Loop Leader

(By The United Press)

The Hardin college Indians today had only the Trinity Tigers to worry about getting in their way of a Gulf Coast conference championship.

The Indians brought pass interception into full play Saturday in their Wichita Falls game with the University of Houston, defeating the Cougars 33-21 in the only conference game of the weekend.

Trinity hasn't played a conference game as yet, which marks the Tigers as Hardin's only obstacle toward winning the first crown of the newly formed league.

Trinity Is Winner

In outside games last week, Trinity edged Howard Payne 21-12 at San Antonio and North Texas slaughtered Southwest Texas 41-7 at Denton.

Trinity will meet its first conference opponent this week when it plays North Texas at San Antonio. Other games will find Hardin invading Huntsville against Sam Houston of the Lone Star conference and Houston going to New York to play St. Bonaventure.

Conference standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Hardin	2	0	0	1.000
North Texas	0	1	0	.000
Houston	0	1	0	.000
Trinity	0	0	0	.000

Season standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.

North Texas	5	3	0	.625
Houston	3	2	1	.583

Kilgore And Lamar To Clash This Week

(By The Associated Press)

Kilgore and Lamar, both undefeated, clash at Beaumont Saturday night in the showdown of the Southwestern Junior college conference football race.

It will not officially determine the conference championship but the winner will become an overwhelming favorite to skip in with it.

Should Kilgore win, the Rangers could safely hang up the trophy because they already have met and beaten Tyler, the only other team with a chance left. Lamar still has to play Tyler.

Last week Kilgore downed Schreiner 23-7 in a conference test while Lamar journeyed to Mexico City and whammed University of Mexico 40-0.

San Angelo licked Tarleton State 37-12 and Tyler ran over Arlington State 61-0 in conference games. Paris beat the Murray Aggies of Oklahoma 14-12.

Thursday night Tyler entertains University of Houston freshmen. Friday night Schreiner plays Southwest Texas of the Texas Junior college conference at Kerrville, Paris plays Tarleton State a conference game at Stephenville, and San Angelo goes to Arlington to engage Arlington State.

East Texas Clinches Tie For Loop Title

Only Southwest Texas of San Marcos stood today between East Texas and the undisputed championship of the Lone Star conference.

East Texas clinched a tie for the title Saturday with a 20-13 victory over Sam Houston.

Rivalry between the Lone Star and Gulf Coast leagues turned to the Gulf Coast circuit last weekend, with North Texas beating the San Marcos entry of the Lone Star loop, 47-7.

Stephen F. Austin knocked off Louisiana college in an intersectional affair.

This week, Sam Houston meets Hardin in Huntsville and Stephen F. Austin plays Daniel Baker at Nacogdoches.

Sul Ross Leading New Mexico League

(By The Associated Press)

Sul Ross State, (Alphine, Tex.) and Adams State of Alamosa, Colo., are in a virtual tie for the lead of the New Mexico college football conference.

Sul Ross' three victories in circuit play give it a perfect record. Adams also has won three, but tied 13-13 with Eastern New Mexico.

Adams State over the weekend trimmed New Mexico Military Institute of Roswell, N. M., 23-15.

Sul Ross dropped its second nonconference tilt, taking a 46-6 trouncing from Texas A. & I.

Eastern New Mexico squeezed by New Mexico Western 21-20.

Panhandle A. & M. of Goodwell, Okla., blanked St. Michael's (Santa Fe, N. M.) 49-0. Tommy Bice of Borger scored three Panhandle touchdowns.

Indochina has imposed a one per cent pepper export tax to pay for a testing station.

McMurry Tops Texas Circuit

(By The United Press)

McMurry college still reigned today as leader of the Texas conference—but it realized that Austin college had thrown a pre-Hallowe'en scare into the team.

Long the league doormat, Austin nearly upset McMurry Saturday night. With the Ben Harmon-Mack Thompson combination responsible for most of the Kangaroos' 311 aerial yards, Austin pulled up to 20-19. But McMurry won finally, 34-19.

Underdog Texas A&I startled its most loyal supporters by running over Sul Ross of the New Mexico conference at the Lobo homecoming, 46-6. Gene Green accounted for three Javelina touchdowns.

McMurry Meets Lobos

Howard Payne was a victim Saturday of Trinity university 21-12.

This week, Austin plays Southwestern at Sherman, Abilene Christian goes to Kingsville for a game with Texas A&I, Howard Payne will take on East Texas Baptist at Marshall and McMurry plays Sul Ross at Monahans.

Conference standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
McMurry	3	0	0	1.000
Howard Payne	0	2	0	.667
Texas A&I	1	1	0	.500
Abilene Christian	1	1	0	.500
Austin	0	2	0	.000
Southwestern	0	2	0	.000

Season standings:

Team	W	L	T	Pct.
Texas A&I	5	1	0	.833
McMurray	5	2	0	.714
Howard Payne	4	4	0	.500
Abilene Christian	3	3	0	.500

YELLOW CAB

Legion Mound Star Is Signed By Reds

By HUGH FULLERTON, Jr.
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Query from North Carolina asks: "If the Cincinnati Reds paid $30,000 for left-hander Gerald Blackburn, former Legion star from Kannapolis, what will the majors bid for Billy Joe Davidson?" . . . The questioner goes on to explain that Davidson, a southpaw fastballer from Marion, N. C., struck out 28 of the state championship Gastonia batters in a 14 inning game . . . But maybe the reason the Reds went so high for Blackburn was that his name sounds something like Blackwell . . . and Pittsburgh's Vince Johnson wants to know if "Doc" Luke Sewell will perform the kind of miraculous cure of Ewell Blackwell's arm that he promised to do on Joe DiMaggio's heel . . . The new Reds' manager, you recall, sprang that gag last spring about making DiMag's heel as good as new for a mere 50,000 bucks. . . . And Boston's Art Siegel asks if Bucky Harris gets permanent possession of the Washington managerial job by winning it three times.

Error Is Noted

Harry Lawrence, Bucknell coach, was showing game pictures to his squad recently when he noted a glaring error. . . Guard Bob Bucher, who pulled out of the line to lead interference for Jim Ostendrap on an end run, went galloping down the field without touching anybody while Osterdrap was piled up by three tacklers . . . "What were you doing there, Bucher?" Lawrence yelled. . . . "Why, coach," Bucher innocently replied, "I thought if I got through those guys, Jim ought to be able to get through them too."

Takes Star Pupils

If Fordham's footballers should give Army trouble Saturday (and who thinks they will?) you can blame Fordham backfield Coach Vince Lombardi . . . When Vin went from St. Cecelia's High in Englewood, N. J., to Fordham he took four pupils, Dick Doheny, Larry Higgins, John Langan and Bill White, as well as a few neighbors . . . Torchy Peden, now a sedate looking bike race official, admits the development of post-war six-day racers in America has been retarded because the racket has so little to offer amateur riders. . . Pooley Hubert, jr., son of the old Alamaba star, is a standout passer as much good baseball talent in New England as anywhere else in the country in spite of the weather there. But maybe he's judging talent by White Sox standards.

Ike Gilbert, Penn State graduate manager of Athletics, figures if he can't boast about his football squad, he can always talk about the soccer team, unbeaten in 12 of the last 24 seasons . . . So when a friend asked Ike what he was goisg to do with all the unused space in State's newly-enlarged football stadium, Gilbert replied: "We're just going to reverse the east stands so they'll face the soccer field."

Bulls' heads of lead, weighing 300 pounds each, have been stolen from the gates of the town of Bridge Castle, England.

Three Seeking Job In House

By BO BYERS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Oct. 31 — A hammer-and-tongs campaign for the state senatorship in District six East Texas, is being waged by Phil Willis of Kaufman and George O. Nokes, jr., of Corsicana.

This is the big race, the one that will hold most attention in the statewide special election 10 days hence, Nov. 8.

Willis and Nokes resigned as state representatives to try for the higher post vacated by James E. Taylor of Kerens this summer. There is competition for both their places.

Two representatives' places also will be filled in West Texas, but only one of them has produced a contest.

Holt's Place Open

I. B. Holt, formerly of Littlefield, resigned shortly before the end of the legislative session this year to accept the postmastership at Olton. A trio of candidates are going after votes in the eight-county district.

William S. Jameson turned in his resignation as El Paso's No. 2 representative, and Woodrow Bean, a former representative, was the only candidate to file for the job.

In addition to scattered legislative races, contests for election to the 21-member state board of education and 10 proposed constitutional amendments will attract voters to the polls.

Editors of the Corsicana Sun, Kufman Herald and Terrell Tribune, in separate messages to the Associated Press, agreed that the Nokes-Willis battle is an intense one. They described the campaign as "strong." "Heated," and "Hammer-and-tongs."

Counties comprising the senatorial district are Anderson, Freestone, Henderson, Kaufman and Navarro.

Both Are Veterans

Both men are veterans, and each is a husban dand father. Nokes is 25; Willis 30. Both were serving second terms in the House when they resigned.

Four ex-service men are seeking Nokes' post from the 58th district, Navarro county. They are Billy Ragan Barry, law student in Houston; Kenneth Douglas, route 1, Corsicana, law student in Baylor; James Sewell, Bloomington Grove, senior law student in the University of Texas; and Rogerk Montgomery, Corsicana, retired Navy captain and veteran of both World Wars.

Montgomery is a graduate of Texas A. & M. college and Harward university. Sewell is blind.

Fred V. Meredith and Maples Cate, both of Terrell, are candidates for Kaufman county representative, District 59. Both are attorneys. Meredith is a former county attorney.

Three-Way Race Underway

The Plainview Herald reported a sharp three-way contest for representative of District 120.

Harold M. LaFont and Joe Jennings, both of Plainview, and Tom Deen of Floydada are the candidates.

LaFont, an attorney, served as Hale county judge from 1933 to 1939 and was prosecuting attorney for the 64th judicial district from 1942 to 1949. He was president of the West Texas county judges and commissioner's association in 1935 and president o fthe state association in 1937.

Deen, former Floyd county judge, was state representative for two terms, 1943 through 1946.

Jennings, a farmer, had made two unsuccessful campaigns for the post.

will furnish a sound truck.

Anyone living in the city is eligible to enter the parade and parents and adults especially are urged to wear costumes and accompany their children as they march through town, it was stated.

"Everyone should carry a noisemaker to add Hallowe'en spirit."

Cash prizes will be awarded the winners as follows: First place, $20; second, $15; third, $10; fourth, $5: The next five winners will receive $4 each; the next 15, $2, and the next 15, $1.

The parade will start its march at Sears Roebuck parking lot, 1625 Thirteenth, coming down Thirteenth to Avenue M where it will turn left to Broadway, proceeding down Broadway to Ave. G where the spooks will again turn left to Main. They will continue up Main street to Ave. K, where they will turn left back to Broadway, following Broadway to Ave. M. The parade will go down Ave. M back to Thirteenth and the parking lot, where it started.

The route was changed this morning on one block. The parade will be routed on Ave. M rather than Ave. N.

Crash Report

about the same time as the Harris plane crash.

Planes from Wes-Tex Air Craft Sales searched for the possible crash this morning with Bradshaw aboard one of the ships to point out the approximate place he believed he saw a plane crash.

To Await Reports

Earl Horton of the Wes-Tex company said the semi-rugged country was given a careful search for more than an hour "but we didn't see any sign of a crash."

"However, if there is a crash," someone will probably be reported missing in a day or two and we will search again," he said.

CAA officials said two unidentified hitchhikers had given a similar report corroborating Bradshaw's. They also pointed out that Harris's ship had not caught fire when it crashed, eliminiating the possibility that his plane was mistaken for the mystery plane.

PROFITS TAKEN

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP) — Reports from responsible sources said Bethlehem Steel and the steel workers union were near agreement on a new contract and Wall Street took the opportunity to realise profits today.

It was an application of the old adage —"sell on good news."

As profit-taking got under way, offerings dried up so that volume fell substantially from the recent pace when the market was advancing.

Net losses extending to a point or more were spread over a broad list, notably in special issues, rails, farm implements, oils and rubbers. Steels held better than other sections. Gold miners enjoyed a strong market in the early trading when homestake mining equaled its high. Motors sagged after Chrysler had made a new high and General Motors equaled its top.

During the period of the steel strike so far — the month of October — the market has risen in 14 sessions and declined or held steady in 11 others. During the month ending today, the share list has been enhanced on paper by around $2,000,000,000.

At the high earlier today, the industrial average was at a 15-month high. The utility average recently set a new three-year high. The rail average still is well under its high for the year.

Cotton Market

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Oct. 31 (AP) — Cotton futures were irregular today. Aggressive mill buying held nearby deliveries firm. Mills appeared to have raised their buying limits in the face of a good demand for goods. Sentiment also provided that supplies of good quality cotton will tighten as a result of the loan and unfavorable weather in the cotton belt which has lowered grades. Attention was drawn to low temperatures in parts of the western belt where much cotton remains to be harvested. Forecasts of freezing temperatures tonight in that area were made. New crop deliveries were hesitant, pending administration's action on the farm bill recently approved by Congress. Hedge selling was light.

Heavy mill buying and short covering in the final hour of trading lifted prices to the best levels of the day.

Futures closed 45 cents to $1.15 a bale higher than the previous close.

East Germany Subsidies Cut

BERLIN, Oct. 31 (AP) — Residents of Eastern Germany today faced the prospect of marked price increases for necessities after the Communists cancelled the subsidies that had kept down the cost of rationed goods.

The move, announced yesterday, was designed to stimulate trade in Eastern Germany's stores dealing in unrationed goods. Those Russian-style stores announced a broad cut in prices, ranging in some cases up to 60 per cent.

The two types of stores have existed side by side in the Soviet-occupied portion of Germany for some time. The ration-free stores have sold goods, mostly of the luxury type, at prices much higher than those in stores dealing in rationed foods, clothing and fuel. Their business has been ebbing.

Will Save Money

The average Eastern German is unable to pay the prices in the unrationed stores. A man's shirt, for instance, costs a month's salary.

Cancellation of the subsidies on rationed goods will have the East German government 200,000,000 east marks a year (about $8,500,000). This means that the consumer will pay several marks more monthly for meat, coal, fish, butter and milk. The average worker calculates his rationed food costs him 25 marks a month.

Newspapers in Eastern Germany promised the wage earner better quality for his higher prices and said pensioners unable to pay the increase have the promise of Chancellor Otto Grotewohl that they will be helped where needed.

U. S. Strikes

frozen for five years.

2. A continuation of the present wage and other contract terms for several years beyond the present contract's expiration date next May. However, the matter of wage rates could be reopened at the end of 1950.

Industry men said no round figure of the worth of the reported Bethlehem settlement for each worker could be calculated.

A presidential fact-finding board had recommended employer-paid pension and insurance benefits costing 10 cents hourly per worker with any existing pension-insurance plan costs discounted from the 10-cent cost.

The Bethlehem plan was said to be based on a sliding scale. The pension each would get, less his social security benefits from the government, would depend on each worker's average earnings over a period of years.

A usually well-informed government official said at Cleveland that announcement of Murray's settlement was being held up to allow simultaneous strike-end signals in steel and John L. Lewis' 43-day-old coal strike.

Well-placed Washington officials said they believed the time is near for the government to call the off-again-on-again coal talks to Washington.

For at least two weeks the government has centered all its peacemaking efforts on steel. Cyrus S. Ching, top federal mediator, has spent most of that time talking with officials of U. S. Steel Corp., biggest steel producer in the nation.

More Speed Wanted

Ching, it was learned, still believes that any settlement of the twin strikes in basic industries must start in steel, since many of the coal mines are owned or dominated by steel firms.

However, the coal talks have hit bottom. Negotiations in West Virginia between John L. Lewis' striking miners union and northern and western operators have been broken off entirely by the operators. Talks between Lewis's union and southern operators have gotten nowhere.

Ching was represented as feeling something must be done this week to spur the coal contract talks to a faster pace.

The 73-year old mediation chief scheduled talks tomorrow with officials of three steel firms, Republic, Jones & Laughlin, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube.

His plan is to explore possibilities with major producers toward possible meeting of the terms of Philip Murray's striking CIO steelworkers.

Ideas Explored

Those terms were a pension-insurance plan costing up to 10-cents an hour per worker, financed wholly by the employer as recommended by a presidential board. The steel industry was demanding that workers pay some additional amount in contributing to the pension-insurance costs.

Ching was exploring these ideas: (1) that steel firms might go along with Murray on employer-paid pension-insurance plans in return for a commitment that the welfare program be fixed for a number of years, and (2) that the companies agree to some sort of wage boost to be effective next spring.

This would prohibit changing the pension-insurance plan for some time. The Ford Motor company agreement barred any such changes for five years, but steel contracts expire next spring. Workers then are expected to demand a wage boost. Thus the possibility of making a wage increase now, effective next spring, in order to avoid another labor showdown then.

Farmers May Obtain Loans To Construct Or Repair Buildings

South Plains farmers who want to construct homes or other farm buildings or make improvements to their properties may now borrow from funds just made available to the Farmers Home administration, John E. Key, county supervisor of the FHA, said this morning.

Congress last week appropriated money for an extensive improvement program, of which Texas is scheduled to receive $17,737,400.

It is not yet definite how much of the Texas fund will be available to West Texas farmers, but if the Lubbock district, one of 10 in the state, receives one-tenth of the sum, then $173,740 would be available to farmers of the area.

Must Own Farm

These loans are made by the FHA to finance new construction and to improve, alter, repair or replace a dwelling or other buildings essential to farm operation. To be eligible for a loan, an individual must be a farm owner, unable to get a loan elsewhere and lack the necessary capital to make the needed improvements. One must be able to repay the loan from farm and other income, on a five, ten, fifteen, twenty or thirty-three year basis.

Farm laborers and tenants are not eligible for the loans, but an owner may borrow money to build or repair houses and other buildings for his tenants.

The loans are payable at four per cent on the unpaid principal balance.

Certification Necessary

All applicants and farms must be certified by a local committee before the district FHA supervisor approves the loan. Charles M. Richter is district supervisor for this district, which extends roughly on a line from San Angelo to Roby, north to Lubbock, and west to the New Mexico line and El Paso.

The committeemen in Lubbock county are R. C. (Judge) Hopping, Cecil I. Brashear and W. R. Sage.

Applications will be accepted in the office of the Farmers Home administration in room 208 of the federal building.

The appraised value of the farm unit will determine the amount of each loan that may be made. Funds provided by the act may not be used to refinance any existing indebtedness, and a first mortgage is not required. The loans will be secured by a mortgage on the farm subject to existing liens, if any.

Hub City Kiwanis

Members of the Hub City Kiwanis club will go to the American Legion home in a body Tuesday noon to take the chest X-rays in the mobile X-ray unit sent here by the State Department of Health under sponsorship of the club. The X-raying will take the place of the club's regular luncheon program. The mobile X-ray unit will be here until Nov. 12 in a Lubbock county chest survey for tuberculosis.

Graveside services were conducted Sunday afternoon in Eastlawn cemetery for the infant son of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Whitehead of 2515 Ruby street. The infant was born in West Texas hospital and lived only a few minutes. Hershel Dyer, minister of Pioneer Park Church of Christ, officiated. Rix Funeral home directed burial.

Dr. Alton Boone, chiropractor, has announced he is taking over the practice of his mother, Mrs. Lillian Boone, who was injured in a fall last week. His office is at 1520 Broadway.

"The Practicality of Christianity" will be the subject of a sermon to be given tonight by Ruel Lemmons of Cleburne, Church of Christ minister who is conducting services in a revival this week at the Broadway Church of Christ. The revival opened Sunday with Mr. Lemmons preaching at 8:30, 10:45 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. A total of 194 persons attended this morning services at 10 a. m. Services will continue daily at 10 a. m. and 7:30 p. m. throughout the week, Dr. M. Norvel Young, minister, said.

A plea of privilege hearing was being conducted this afternoon before 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue in the damages action of J. N. Hamilton and others against Coca Cola Bottling company. A civil jury panel was to present itself at 7:30 p. m. to 72nd District Judge Dan Blair, but no announcement had been made of which case was most likely to go to trial. Attorney Grady West represented Hamilton and others before Judge Pardue, E. L. Klett of the law firm of Klett, Bean, Evans and Justice the defendant.

Car Accident

nez, 19, of Hondo, had regained consciousness this morning but his condition was still believed to be serious by attendants.

Ritchey, who lived near Hale Center, was alone and driving south towards his home in a 1948 Plymouth coupe when his car collided with a northbound 1941 Chevrolet coach reportedly driven by Martinez on the Hale Center-Cotton Center paved road, a county farm-to-market project.

Investigating Texas Highway patrolmen said the cars were a total loss. Papers found in Gaytan's pocket indicated the car had been purchased only Saturday in Lubbock.

Members of the Gaytan family said they were looking for cotton pulling jobs when the mishap occurred.

Ritchey's body was taken to the Roy Woods Funeral home at Plainview. Arrangements had not been made this morning.

Survivors are two sons, B. C. of Grand Junction, Colo., and R. J. Ritchey, jr., of Ft. Bidwell, Calif.; five daughters, Mmes. Harvey L. Beauchamp of Phoenix, Ariz.; L. A. Perdew of Vale, Ore.; Clarence Vogelsang of Denver, Stanley Hernaick of Concordia, Calif., and Clarence Miller of Belleflower, Calif.; his father, H. N. Ritchey of Hale Center; four brothers, Benton of Floydada, G. E. of Hale Center, H. B. of Albuquerkue and Willie Ritchey of Sudan, N. M.; three sisters, Mrs. Maggie Gibson of Hale Center, Mrs. G. R. Fletcher of Kohler, N. M., and Mrs. A. A. Reynolds of Lubbock; 15 grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The mishap brought the weekend traffic toll on the South plains to four dead and 12 injured in four separate accidents. On Saturday, four were hurt near Seminole, two near Three-Way in Bailey county and one in Lubbock. None were critically injured.

four officers of the police that he had broken and entered the store and stolen the pistols, the official report said.

Al Davis, owner of the store, had not reported any other property taken.

Avery and two other young Lubbock men were convicted recently of a burglary of Palace Drug and Jewelry company here. He entered into a $5,000 recognizance with 99th District Judge G. V. Pardue in connection with the appeal.

Police said two cases of permanent type antifreeze valued at $15 had been reported stolen in a burglary of S&W garage at 710 Thirteenth. Bud Fredler, owner, said a padlock had been pried open on a front door.

Three exploders were reported by J. C. Lusk, supervisor, to have been taken in a burglary of Republic Exploration company's storage house at 1411 Nineteenth. He said D. M. Collins, foreman, had gone there to get equipment and found four boys, who told him they had spent the night camped out there. Several hours later he returned to find that a door had been pried open and the property taken, the sheriff's department was informed.

Asia Marshall Plan Possible

PARIS, Oct. 31. (AP) — United States experts are drawing preliminary plans for a Marshall plan in Asia designed to help halt the spread of Communism in the Orient.

This was disclosed yesterday by an American official who predicted that the project would win support in Congress. The projected program for the Orient would not involve as large an outlay of money as the system of American aid now functioning in Europe.

Red Menace Seen

Early estimates contemplate a request to Congress next summer for $1,000,000,000 to $1,250,000,000 for the first year of the proposed Asia program, said the informant, who preferred not to be identified. Smaller requests would taper off the program in the next two or three years, just as it is intended to ease off Marshall plan appropriations for Europe.

The information said the experts believe the following countries should be invited to participate: India, Pakistan, Ceylon, Burma, Australia, New Zealand, the Philippines and perhaps Indonesia and Viet-Nam, the Indo-Chinese state recently given increased self-government by France. Emphasis would be placed particularly on aiding those countries which have the Chinese Communists at their doorstep.

Free Enterprise Is Termed Key To Oil Industry Success

G. L. Maciula, area engineer for the Stanolind Pipe Line company, today told Jaycees "Why the Oil Business is a Success."

Speaking at a luncheon meeting in the Hilton hotel, he said free competitive enterprise has been the keynote of success in the industry.

He said one goal of the oil industry is "to get people to like us."

Losses Are Cited

However, he warned Jaycees that all in the oil business is not a bed of roses.

"It's just like shooting craps when it comes to drilling dry holes," he compared. "Of the 65 wells completed in this area last week," he said, "12 were dry holes and each dry hole was the result of a wildcat venture." He estimated the cost of gambling for oil on the wildcat ventures at $3,000,000.

Blankenship Is Chairman

In closing, Maciula said one-eighth of all oil production in the United States is currently in West Texas.

Jack Blankenship was program chairman and R. S. Wilkinson presided.

L. D. Whiteley, a national Jaycee director and chairman of the annual fall state board meeting to be held here Saturday and Sunday, outlined briefly the activities and program to be available to the visiting Jaycees who are expected to number approximately 500.

Stores On Avenue Q Damaged By Fires

Firefighting equipment was called to Ave. Q twice Sunday as blazes caused an undetermined amount of damage in two stores fronting on the thoroughfare.

The first fire, reported at the House of Magic at 1711 Ave. Q about 1:45 p. m. gutted the front of the store, burning a large quantity of merchandise. Origin of the fire was not immediately learned.

A passerby noticed smoke and turned in the alarm, firemen said.

The second blaze occurred on the roof of the Bob's Frigidway market at 1901 Ave. Q about 9:30 p. m. Firemen said the fire started by a faulty neon sign on the side of the building, was confined to a rear section of the roof. While the flames did not spread to the store, water damage to stock was heavy. The ceiling over one room of the establishment was badly damaged.

Proprietor of the market is Leon Hale.

"He was standing across the table. He wanted me to love him.

"He looked kind of funny when I shot him.

"He asked me why I did it and then he flopped into a chair. I didn't know he was dead. I sat down and smoked a cigarette."

Lapides' body was discovered by his niece and her husband. Lapides' wife had become alarmed when her husband failed to return home at the usual time.

Miss Rogers' statement related that she took a fur coat, Lapides' wallet, his diamond ring and his automobile. The automobile was found on the parking lot where she was arrested.

He was the uncle of Mrs. Paul Turpen of 2915 Nineteenth, Lubbock. Funeral services are planned for Tuesday at 2:30 p. m. in Shamrock, Mrs. Turpen was informed.

Northerly winds up to 56 miles an hour hit Wichita Falls, knocking two radio stations off the air for about an hour after the wind snapped an electric wire.

The season's first "whistling norther" whipped across the 700-mile sweep of Texas from the Panhandle to the coast in 24 hours. Riding on winds that reached 56 miles an hour at times, the norther moved into the upper Panhandle late Saturday afternoon and by late Sunday had reached the Gulf coast area, tumbling the mercury 10 degres or more, the United Press reported.

By this morning, the winds had calmed to a 19-23 mile-an-hour pace along the coast and skies were clear throughout the state except in deep southeast Texas.

Four other shutdowns and threatened shutdowns confronted Houstonians.

More than 2,500 steelworkers continued to strike at Sheffield Steel corporation. The stoppage bore a direct connection with the nationwide steel and coal strikes.

Jury Finds Alabama Defendant Innocent Of Flogging Charge

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., Oct. 31. (AP)—One man has been acquitted of night riding terror tactics in the Birmingham area, but state and defense attorneys met today to set a trial date for the next of 17 other defendants.

Coleman A. (Brownie) Lollar, first of the group to be tried, was acquitted Saturday of a charge that he and other robed and masked marauders manhandled Mrs. Hugh McDanal the night of June 10. Lollar still faces flogging charges in four other cases.

Seventeen others face charges of masked flogging and similar crimes. Solicitor Emmett Perry said they will be brought to trial "one by one."

Court attaches predicted the next flogging case would be set for either Nov. 7 or Nov. 14. The solicitor said all those indicted will get "a fair and impartial trial in open court."

Klan Denies Charges

The Ku Klux Klan was linked with the whippings and cross burnings by state investigators. The Klan, however, denied any part in them. Most of the acts of violence were in the hilly, coal-mining section west of Birmingham last April, May and June.

Hooded mobsters broke into the home of Mrs. McDanal, a 42-year-old grandmother, struck her twice and forced her to watch a cross burning.

Mrs. McDanal identified Lollar as one of her attackers. Lollar, and three of his neighbors, testified he was at a baseball game that night.

Since passage of a state anti-masking law June 28, no further night riding activities have been reported.

Police Announce No Arrests In Robbery

Police said this afternoon there had been no arrests in connection with their investigation into the early Sunday robbery of Richard Moore, an attendant, at Ince Oil company station, 2803 Ave. H.

Approximately $100 was taken from Moore by a man who had a pistol. Another man, masked, was in the station at the same time, Moore told officials.

The attendant was forced to open a cash register, then was tied and left on the floor of a washroom.

Two persons answering general description of the bandits had been in the station earlier, in efforts to cash a check, Homer Willitt, another attendant of the station told police.

The station attendants gave rather complete description of the suspects.

More extricated himself after hearing a car depart from vicinity of the station.

Five Persons Fined After Guilty Pleas

Six pleas were entered this morning in county court.

Judge Walter Davies assessed a fine of $75 and costs and ordered revocation of driver's license in each of the following cases; J. O. Thomas, 35, of Lubbock, L. G. Garrett, 34, of Kerens, Jesus Amador, 51, of San Antonio, and Jose Garza Malnado, 23, of Aspermont. All pleaded guilty.

Roy Aldrich, 30, of Lubbock, was fined $100 and costs on a plea of guilty of illegal possession of a pistol.

Carl W. Blackburn, 30, of Lubbock, pleaded innocent of drunk driving, and will post trial appearance bond, officials said.

convalescing here.

His wife and her mother, Mrs. W. J. Wallace, were with him when he died.

Stettinius started his industrial career with General Motors, becoming a vice-president in 1931. He went to U. S. Steel three years later and succeeded Myron C. Taylor as board chairman in 1938.

He did not hold the post long. President Roosevelt made him chairman of the War Resources board the following year and kept him in similar high posts in the face of charges by some New Dealers that Stettinius was too "big business minded."

Stettinius was 43 when Roosevelt named him under secretary of state, a surprise appointment. He took over the top cabinet post youngest secretary of state in American history.

Carrying on the work of his predecessor, Cordell Hull, Stettinius was permanent chairman of the Dumbarton Oaks security conference that gave birth to the United Nations.

17 Injured In Train Mishap

AZUSA, Calif., Oct. 31 (AP)—The Santa Fe's El Capitan, luxury all-coach streamliner, jumped the tracks at 60 miles an hour but caused only minor injuries to 17 passengers.

The leading unit of the diesel oil burning locomotive overturned and caught fire yesterday as it hit a broken rail. Several hundred feet of track were plowed up and power lines were torn down.

Cars Leave Track

Five cars of the extra-fare Los Angeles to Chicago train left the rails, tilting along the right of way. There were 206 passengers aboard the 15 coaches. Some of the passengers in the rear coaches of the chrome streamliner were unaware of the derailment, feeling only a grinding stop.

An eyewitness reported that the engine and cars "just seemed to float off the track." Then, he added, great clouds of dust obscured everything.

Dining car waiter William Brantley said he was serving eight people at the counter when "the dishes started sliding."

Slams Air Brakes

"That," he added, "is the time to get scared."

Engineer Henry Mayer of San Bernardino said he slammed on the emergenc yair brakes when he the emergency air brakes when he broken rail.

"Then I just rode her down."

One of the passengers, Edna Mae Mitchell, 40, Kansas City, Mo., suffered a heart attack and was in serious condition at nearby Covina hospital. All but three of the 17 passengers injured were released by last night.

Wreckage will not be cleared until sometime today. Trains, meanwhile, were rerouted. Azusa is about 30 miles east of Los Angeles.

Abilene Board Sees Schools In Lubbock

Members of the Abilene school board today inspected the O. L. Slaton Junior High school, the M. C. Overton and Cottage schools here to gain new ideas before starting on a construction program for improving the school system in their own city.

Making the tour were Horace M. Condley, president of the Abilene school board; W. E. Traley, vice president; Mrs. George Swinney, board secretary; R. B. Leach and Mrs. Thomas Roberts, board members; S. C. Olds, Abilene architect, and Nat Williams, superintendent there.

They were shown the schools by Lubbock School Superintendent R. W. Matthews. They left for Brownfield shortly before noo nto continue their two-day tour of South Plains schools.

Snyder Law Officers Have Busy Weekend

SNYDER, Oct. 31 (Special)—The Scurry county sheriffs department reported a busy weekend, with more than the usual number of arrests.

A local man posted bond of $4,000 Sunday afternoon after his arrest Friday on a charge of raping an 11-year-old girl here.

A negro, Jimmy Williams, was arrested and jailed on a charge of shooting his brother, and five drunk driving arrests were made.

One liquor charge has been filed and five more are to be recorded as a result of raids in the county.

Nine gamblers and 10 to 15 drunks were handled by the sheriff's department in addition to the more serious charges.

Ruling On Chapel At WTS College Given

AUSTIN, Oct. 30 (AP)—A chapel to be built from donations to the West Texas State college at Canyon must be non-sectarian and under the full control of the board of regents of the Texas state teachers colleges.

That was the opinion today of the attorney general who was asked to rule in the matter before the board proceeds with construction.

American Industry Profits Are Hiked In Third Quarter Of '49

(Copyright, 1949, By The Associated Press)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31—Profits of American industry turned upwards in the third quarter of this year for the first time in 12 months.

They stand only slightly below the all-time high mark of a year ago, when third quarter earnings were the peak in the record year of 1948.

An unusual feature of the third quarter was the substantial increase in earnings of automobile companies which offset a sharp decline in oil company profits.

The compilation by the Associated Press of earnings reports of 314 leading corporations in all major fields showed today a total net profit of $1,003,644,061 in the July-September quarter.

Upturn Not Surprise

That is 4.3 per cent higher than the total of $962,102,819 reported by the same corporations in the second quarter of this year.

It is only 4.1 per cent lower than the $1,046,983,291 earned by these companies in the third quarter of 1948.

Corporate earnings slid lower in the final quarter of 1948 from their third quarter peak, and the decline continued in the first and second quarters of this year.

The upturn was not surprising to those who watched the recession of early 1949 give way gradually to an economic recovery around mid-year. The present profit trend confirms that rebound.

Largely responsible for the overall good showing are the earnings of two automobile companies.

The increase in their earnings more than balanced the decline in profits shown by the oil companies.

Auto Firms Boosted

Chrysler and General Motors increased their earnings by more than $98,000,000 in the third quarter of this year over a year ago, while the earnings of 22 oil companies fell nearly $97,000,000 below the level of the third quarter of 1948.

A comparison of the third quarter of this year with the previous quarter shows the two motormakers added more than $41,000,000 to their earnings, while the companies fell back only by some $13,000,000.

Out of the 24 principal groups of companies, only seven showed increases in earnings in the third quarter over the second quarter.

Groups advancing from year to year included automobiles, utilities, chemical companies, air transport and aircraft, brewers and distillers, food products and bakers and confectioners, and drug and cosmetic and soap manufacturers.

Steel Industry Slumps

Those increasing their earnings from quarter to quarter included chemicals, air transport and aircraft, drug and cosmetic and soap makers, metal fabricaters, printing and publishing, containers, automobiles and trucks, building and building materials, metal mining and processing, food products and bakers and confectioners, radio and television and electrical products, textiles, tobacco, and a miscellaneous group of 30 companies covering a wide field.

Those with declining profits in the third quarter from a year ago include steel, auto parts, coal, metal fabricaters, miscellaneous, railroad equipment, office equipment, printing and publishing, containers, pulp and paper products, building products, metal mining radio and television and electrical products, textiles, tobacco, oil, and machinery.

Companies with a decline in profits in the third quarter from the second quarter include steel, utilities, auto parts, coal, brewing and distilling, railroad equipment, office equipment, plup and paper products, oil, and machinery.

Percentagewise the changes were great, with gains going above 1,000 per cent and losses running as much as 67 per cent.

The four automobile and truck manufacturers accounted for the biggest dollar profit of any of the groups, with the 22 oil companies in second place and 21 steel companies in third place.

Auto earnings were up 19.5 per cent in the third quarter from the second quarter and 65 per cent higher than a year ago.

Oil companies fell back 6 per cent from quarter to quarter and 32 per cent from a year ago.

Coal Income Down

Steel companies were down 11 per cent from quarter to quarter and 9 per cent from a year ago.

Coal companies showed the inroads of work stoppages and competition from oil and natural gas, declining 42 per cent from quarter to quarter and 58 per cent from a year ago.

Metal fabricaters and metal mining had a recovery in the third quarter after being shaken by unsettled markets following sharp price cuts earlier in the year. Metal fabricaters increased their profits 1169 per cent from quarter to quarter but remained 61 per cent under a year ago. The big increase results from a comparison with second quarter earnings which were reduced sharply by reserves set aside to offset inventory losses due to price declines. Mining climbed up 24 per cent from quarter to quarter but held to 52 per cent under a year ago.

Textiles appeared to be coming out of the slump of earlier in the year with profits 17 per cent higher than the previous quarter as against a decline of 67 per cent from a year before.

Fourth quarter profit reports this year are so far a big question mark. The rise in activity after mid-year was choked off by the coal strike starting Sept. 19 and the steel strike starting Oct. 1. Industrial activity and retail and wholesale trade have slowed down markedly in the past few weeks, and continuation of the strikes undoubtedly will knock profits down.

How fast industry can snap back to normal when the strikes end, and how much it can pull on its reserves to cushion the shock of the loss, will determine fourth quarter profits.

About one-third of the continenti United States is forest land.

U. S. Bankers At Convention

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31 (AP)—Speakers at the American Bankers association convention today foresaw possibility of further government encroachment in the banking field and of another period of trade restrictions.

The convention attracted more than 4,000 bankers.

Association president, Evans Woollen, jr., told the press last night the nation is teetering on the edge of a severe economic decline.

Bankers are unable to help, he said, until the coal-steel strikes are settled. Before those strikes again unbalanced the situation, he declared, the business recession, primarily an inventory adjustment, had nearly run its course.

Continued strikes he saw as curtailing consumer buying.

Dual System Backed

Authorities in various fields will speak on the domestic and international aspects of current economic problems at convention sessions opening today.

Maurice C. Sparling, California state superintendent of banks, told the state bank division both state and national bankers have an equal interest in protecting the dual banking system.

"Should all banks be nationalized," he said, "it would then be comparatively simple for all of them to be taken over by the federal government, just as was done in England—in which event our present national bankers would no longer continue to be independent bankers."

W. L. Hemingway of St. Louis spoke on the international trade situation. He is chairman of the board of the Mercantile-Commerce Bank and Trust Co., St. Louis. He recently returned from a world trip as a member of the world Town Meeting, conducted by the Town Hall of New York City and the Town Meeting of the Air.

Hemingway said in a prepared address reduction of tariffs will not prevent another period of extension of trade restrictions in the face of the current growth of nationalism throughout the world There are other means of restraining international trade, he said, listing quotas, import and export licenses and exchange permits.

Frosh's Pantsless Speech Is Success

EAST LANSING, Mich., Oct. 31. (AP)—Freshman Bill Bucell began a recent assignment before a Michigan State college speech class by faking off his trousers.

Then, equipped with a flatiron, he gave an illustrated talk intitled "Press Your Own Pants and Save Money."

Buccell's speaking ability, polka-dot shorts and bright green garters apparently impressed the instructor. He got an "A".

WRESTLES 38-POUND PIKE

TOPINABEE, Mich., (U.P.) — Joseph Mayer dived into the lake to catch what he thought was a piece of driftwood. It turned out to be a 38-pound great northern pike. The Mayers said the ensuing fish dinner was a great success.

Posse Hunts Escaped Felon

BEEBE, Ark., Oct. 31. (AP)—An armed posse today tackled the rugged Ozark foothills in a search for a gunman who may be Jack Tatum, 26, the lone fugitive from a daring jailbreak at Phoenix, Ariz.

The manhunt was launched yesterday after a farmer identified an early morning caller as Tatum, one of five desperadoes who smashed their way out of the jail Oct. 22.

Several Arkansas state troopers, peace officers and armed citizens combed the rugged hill county nearby for hours yesterday. The search was called off last night because of darkness.

Two blood hounds flown here from the Arkansas penal farm at Cummins, Ark., were to join the search today. Beebe is about 32 miles northeast of Little Rock.

Deputy Sheriff Mack Edwards said the farmer, Bennie Huff, gave a stranger breakfast early yesterday. Huff, who described the man "as a tough character," later told officers the man was carrying a pistol.

Edwards said Huff identified the man as Tatum from an FBI information circular.

Five inmates crashed out of the Phoenix jail cell in a break for freedom. Two prisoners were shot down in a gun battle with officers; two others surrendered. Only Tatum escaped. He crawled out a window.

Four Held In Ambush On Truck Post Bonds

CULLMAN, Ala., Oct. 31 (AP) — Four men, whose arrest on a charge of ambushing a coal truck brought an anonymous threat that they would be freed by force, were out of jail today on bond.

State Investigator Ed Miller said the sheriff's office received a telephone call Saturday warning that a gang would try to free the men. The threat was not fulfilled, however, and the men were released yesterday when they posted $10,000 bonds on charges of assault with intent to murder.

The four were listed as James H. Stewart, 38; Walter Hight, 32; Leslie Williams, 25, and James A. Creel, 27, all of Sipsey in adjoining Walker county. A hearing has been set for Nov. 12.

Miller said the unknown caller dared him and Cullman county officers to go back into Walker county to make more arrests.

The investigator said Stewart, Hight and Creel admitted shooting up a coal truck Oct. 25. They implicated Williams and two other men now being sought, he added.

The ambush, which occurred at night, was one of four violent outbreaks in north Alabama aimed at coal trucks since the coal strike began.

15-Month-Old Boy Is Roller-Skater

SYRACUSE, N. Y., Oct. 31. (AP)—Mrs. Michael Galucci, sr., put roller skates on her 15-month-old son a few days ago "for a gag."

Mike calmly balanced himself and took off.

Now, says Mrs. Galucci, her kitchen has become a dangerous place "with Mike zooming in and out at an age when many babies are just creeping or toddling."

HOME WINES POPULAR

CHICAGO (AP)—Making wine in the home is becoming increasingly popular in Chicago, according to Daniel J. Conerty, head of the alcohol tax unit here. He said his office has issued three times as many free permits for homemade wines in the past three months as in the preceding year.

CIO Opens Convention Torn By Worst Feud In Its History

CLEVELAND, Oct. 31 (AP)—The CIO opens its 11th convention today torn wide open by the worst factional war in its history.

Ouster of at least three unions under left-wing leadership was indicated, and a roaring right-wing majority, angered by pro-Communist efforts to bore into the CIO, clamored for the purge of a dozen unions by the end of the week.

President Philip Murray was caught in one of the most trying dilemmas of his career: should he preside over the carving up of the mass - industry federation which he, John L. Lewis, Sidney Hillman and others created more than a dozen years ago?

The usually mild - mannered Murray seemed to have given his answer as he opened the convention with a blast at the "small but noisy clique" in the CIO he said was adhering to the Communist labor program.

"I want none of that," Murray said in a report to the 600 delegates. "The CIO wants none of that."

Casting out the 12 unions would not necessarily mean shearing off the nearly 1,000,000 members of thse unions. Plans are ready to move in fast and set up rival right-wing units in the contested fields.

The action, if it actually occurs at the convention or just after the five-day conclave, will touch off drives to recapture the leftwing's rank and file membership for the CIO. That would be certain to be resisted—possibly by creation of a third labor federation, even though such a step is pooh-poohed by the left wing leaders now.

The slam-bang organizational warfare already has begun. That is part of the reason for a last-minute weakening of the left-wing front.

Harry Bridges, west coast longshore boss, and leaders of the United Electrical workers made 11th hour appeals to Murray to give them a face-saving way to remain in the CIO. Murray listened in private, but pointed to the convention floor for the answer.

Some cautious right - wingers counselled that Murray go slow—that he shouldn't throw out all 12 of the unions under fire. But theirs appeared to be a wee voice in the anti-leftist crescendo.

The three unions most likely to be booted out are the United Eelctrical workers, Mine, Mill and Smelter workers, and Farm Equipment workers. Merger of the UE and FE unions last week gave the rightists one more argument for removing those two unions, because FE almost a year ago had been ordered by the CIO executive board to merge with Walter Reuther's United Auto workers.

Reuther Heads Group

The red-headed Reuther, firmly planted in the right-wing column, is chairman of the convention resolutions committee which will recommend how and what to do with UE and FE.

A constitutional committee led by Frank Rosenblum of the Amalgamated Clothing workers will make the changes in the constitution needed to carry out the ouster of the other nine unions—if that is called for by the convention.

The other unions are Bridges' Longshoremen, Marine Cooks and Stewards, American Communications association, Food, Tobacco and Agricultural workers, Fur and Leather workers, Furniture workers, Fishermen and Allied workers, United Public workers, and United Office and Professional workers.

The only factional struggle approaching the one to be fought here this week came from the split between John L. Lewis on the one hand and President Roosevelt, Hillman and gradually Murray on the other.

It was never patched up—even though Murray and Lewis have ironically been thrown together in twin strikes this fall. Murray has said the steel strike he is leading is paramount even to the big CIO problems this week, and he scheduled a news conference for 4 p. m. (EST) to talk about it. That led to speculation that both coal and steel shutdowns may soon be over.

After Murray's key note speech, Secretary of State Dean Acheson was scheduled to address the delegates.

"VEEP" IS LUCKY IN LOVE

Barkley To Marry Widow On Nov. 18

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 31. (AP)—Vice President Alben W. Barkley, who has scored many successes in a long political career, has also proved himself lucky in love.

Mrs. Carleton S. Hadley, the comely young widow whom he courted diligently for nearly four months, announced last night that the two would be married here Nov. 18.

The announcement was made informally in the presence of a few friends and newspapermen in Mrs. Hadley's apartment as the vice president stood by smiling.

Details Not Given

Wedding details were not made public. Friends expected the ceremony would be a simple one and would be performed in one of the local Methodist churches. Both the 71-year-old Kentuckian and his 38-year-old bride-to-be are members of that faith.

The wedding announcement, set for 7 p. m., was delayed nearly 30 minutes while the veep, as he likes to be called, put through a phone call to President Truman at Washington. The President seemed "pleased and happy" at the news, Barkley reported.

The former senator then turned to those present and said chivalrously: "The vice president yields —shall we say—to the senator from Missouri."

To Announce Plans

Mrs. Hadley, with eyes sparkling, said simply: "The vice president and I are going to be married on the 18th of November. The plans will be announced later."

Friends then rushed up to congratulate the couple, while photographers' bulbs flashed.

"I certainly deserved to be congratulated," Barkley commented. "I regard myself as greatly honored by the announcement Mrs. Hadley has just made."

About 40 persons, who had gathered on the lawn outside, were admitted to the apartment to congratulate the couple, who seemed as shy and gay as a couple of youngsters who had just told their folk there was going to be a wedding.

The vice president said he would remain in St. Louis until tomorrow when he will leave for Pennsylvania to keep a speaking engagement.

He and his bride-to-be planned to go shopping for a wedding ring today.

Met Last July

Barkley and Mrs. Hadley met last July 8 while she was visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clarke Clifford in Washington. Clifford is a presidential aide. The two were introduced during a cruise down the Potomac.

After that Barkley was a frequent visitor to St. Louis, usually making the trip by air. He parried reporters' question on the budding romance with evasive but polite answers. And all the while the dark-haired Mrs. Hadley smilingly declined comment.

ACTRESS ELOPES — The New York World Telegram said that Robert Goelet, heir to one of America's great fortunes, eloped to Paris with Lynn Merrick, Hollywood actress. Charles Ventura, the paper's society editor, said young Goelet immediately was disinherited by his mother, the Duchess de Villarosa, who is living in Rome.

Mrs. Hadley's husband, who died in 1945 at the age of 42, was general counsel for the Wabash Railroad Co. She has two daughters, Jane, 14, and Anne, 17, who is a student at Sophie Newcomb college, New Orleans.

She is a native of Keytesville, Mo. Her maiden name was Jane Rucker. Her mother, Mrs. Estle Rucker, is a professional pianist. Her father, Roy Rucker, an attorney, is now ill in a Kansas City hospital. Mrs. Hadley attended Washington University in St. Louis and married Hadley in 1931. She is now employed in a secretarial capacity at the Wabash headquarters here.

Wife Died In 1947

Barkley is a widower. His wife, whom he married in 1903, died in 1947 in Washington. There were three children, David M. Barkley, Mrs. Max Truitt and Mrs. Douglas MacArthur II, wife

Chrysler Plants Will Close

Lack Of Steel Brings Action

DETROIT, Oct. 31 (AP) — The auto industry's first major shutdown resulting from the steel strike is set for Friday, when Chrysler Corp. plans to close three divisions indefinitely.

The move will throw a majority of 35,000 Detroit area Dodge, De Soto and Chrysler plant employes out of work.

Chrysler officials said they hoped to maintain production of Dodge trucks until Nov. 11, and to keep assembly lines moving at the Plymouth plant "as close to Thanksgiving as possible."

Steel All Gone

The last of the dwindling steel supplies will go into Plymouth cars, the corporation said.

"After all our steel is gone, we won't be able to call our people back on any substantial basis for at least a month after the steel strike is settled," a spokesman added.

A few of the Dodge, De Soto and Chrysler workers will be retained for inventory, parts and engine work.

The Ford Motor Co., also running short of steel, expects to start closing down its big Rouge plant Nov. 11.

"By Nov. 15, when the assembly lines there stop," reported Ford Vice President Ernest R. Breech, "we'll have 115,000 off the payroll."

Some Already Closed

General Motors Corp., third member of the automobile industry's "big three," already has closed a few of its plants temporarily for reallocation of steel supplies. Two Chevrolet and one Fisher body plant in Flint were affected by that move.

GM is expected to put some of its factories on a four-day week starting today.

Among other auto producers, Nash Motors announced Saturday it would suspend assembly of cars at its two main plants in Wisconsin about the middle of November because of the steel and coal stoppages.

About 12,000 workers will be idled.

Man In Diapers Says It's Hallowe'en Gag

SOUTH PORTLAND, Me., Oct. 31. (AP)—A grown man in diapers —and nothing else—walked calmly along Main street early today.

It was just a gag, he told police. The towel, neatly pinned where his pants should have been, was a Hallowe'en costume and he was wearing it home from a party.

Police speeded him home by patrol car.

THE QUESTION

What do you like to do best on Hallowe'en? (all children answering this question are first grade students at the Cottage School).

THE ANSWERS

JAMES ARTHUR GAMBLE, 101 N. Uvalde, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Gamble: "I like to march in the parade out in the street downtown. Sometimes you win a prize in the parade. After the parade, I like to go trick or treats."

DON MARSHALL, 2413 Walnut, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don A. Marshall: "I like to go out and see the parade. I like to see the people who are all dressed up in costumes. I don't like to ring doorbells and things like that."

PHIL EDWARD LANGLEY, 2406 Sanders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Langley: "I like to go out and trick or treat best. I always get lots of candy and bananas to eat. I like to see the Hallowe'en parade, too."

SANDRA LOUISE ISBELL, 108 Temple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Isbell: "I like to go trick or treat. I like it because it's more funner than anything else. I always get lots of stuff to eat."

JEANNETTE SESSUMS, 114 Uvalde, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sessums: "I like to go trick or treat. I like it because it's so much fun. The people usually give me lots of candy and sometimes even bubble gum. I like to dress up in scary costumes, too."

DORIS CAMERON, 106 Temple, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Cameron: "I like to go out and knock on people's doors. I like to do this because it's fun. I like to trick or treat, too. I always get lots of candy and things".

Gunmen Take $1,180 From Baltimore Man

BALTIMORE, Oct. 31 (AP) — Langdon C. Hutson's personal plan for old-age security suffered a $1,180 setback early today.

Hutson, 58, of Elkridge Md., reported to Maryland state police that he was robbed of that amount by three gunmen after his car stalled on the Washington road near Elkridge shortly after midnight.

It was money he had planned to take to Anne Arundel county early tomorrow to close a deal for a building lot, he said. He wanted the lot for a home site when he retires seven years hence.

Hutson has been employed by the Pennsylvania Water and Power company for 24 years.

Three Villages Are Destroyed

BOGOTA, Colombia, Oct. 31 (U.P.) — Renewed political fighting claimed 103 more lives in the destruction of three villages over the weekend, press reports said today.

Nearly 700 have been killed in local clashes this autumn, 338 since Friday.

Rioting spread from Valle province in the southwest to the area of Cucuta in the northeast near the Venezuelan border.

Caused Near Panic

The fighting caused a near-panic in Bogota, depositors made a run on Bogota banks, withdrawing 8,000,000 pesos ($4,140,000) Saturday alone, an average of $10 each for Bogota's 350,000 population.

Press reports said the withdrawals were to buy and hoard food in anticipation o fa paralyzing general strike or worse disorders.

Press reports said the villages of Batatal, La Cuchilla and San Miguel, in the Cucuta area of northeastern Colombia, were destroyed in clashes over the weekend similar to the destriuction of Ceilan in Valle province last week.

Ceilan, a liberal stronghold, was reported burned to the ground by conservative supporters from a nearby village. It was understood the fighting in the northeast followed the same general character.

The liberal newspaper El Tiempo said that police shot and killed four rioters and wounded 15 in Medellin, Colombia's second largest city. The newspaper El Liberal said 100 persons were killed in destruction of the three villages near Cucuta.

Charles Volney Kerr Dies In Los Angeles

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31. (AP)—Charles Volney Kerr, 88, noted mechanical engineer who is credited with inventing the first steam turbine to be used in merchant ships, died here yesterday.

A native of Miami county, Ohio, he had served on the faculties of the Arkansas Industrial university, Fayetteville, Ark., and Armour Institute of Technology, Chicago. He also had been president of the Kerr Auxiliary company of Chicago and of the National Pump and Motor Co.

He leaves his widow, a daughter and a son.

Residents Gave Up In Despair

105-Year-Old Lone Survivor Of Accursed Town Now Dead

By BEM PRICE
Associated Press Staff Writer

OLIVER, Ga., Oct. 31 — The lone survivor of Jacksonboro—the accursed town that was—is dead.

Out of that once damned, now desolate region on Beaver creek came word today that Richard Bryant, 105-year-old ex-negro slave, had died Friday night.

He was the only man alive who saw the terrible curse of a little hunchbacked itinerant minister, Lorenzo Dow, come true.

He saw the once bustling town disappear, house by house, store by store until but one house remained—the house specifically spared by Dow.

Repentance Not For Town

When Bryant was just three years old, he saw the white residents give up in despair at the freaks of fire, water and wind and move lock, stock and barrel five miles away to found another town, Sylvania.

It was in 1794 that Jacksonboro, half way between Augusta and Savannah, was founded. It flourished as a coach stop and county seat.

Jacksonboro was a rough, tough town near the hill country in a rough, tough time.

For 36 years the town went its boisterous way. Then in 1830 Dow drifted down and called upon its citizens to repent. People laughed. They pelted him with eggs. And they would not let him preach.

The tormented little minister with the burning eyes turned this way and that until a powerful man, Seaborn Goodall, gave him sanctuary in his home.

Vengeance Predicted

When the purposeful Dow strode to meet his tormentors again the following day, a mob drove him rustic bridge and bade him never return.

Scornfully, Dow paused on the span, removed his shoes and shook the dust of Jacksonboro from his feet.

He turned and swore that God would bring swift vengeance, the

Prime Minister Of India Continues Tour

Nehru Determined That India Shall Have Plenty Like U. S.

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31. (AP) Window shopping in a land of plenty with a very thin international pocketbook. That's about the position of India's prime minister, Jawaharlal Nehru, on his tour of the United States. India is rich in rupees, Britain owes her a fortune in pounds sterling, but she is short of dollar credits.

Nehru has more than one thing in mind. He is appraising the American standard of prosperity, and probably judging how much of it would be practicable and desirable for his country. His tour brought him here last night for a three day visit.

An Impatient Man

The Indian statesman is a bit paternal in his love for India and his people. He sees no reason why they should not be entitled to the best. He has experienced, now, the bounty that Americans enjoy. There can be little doubt that he will go home grimly determined that if Indians work for it, they can build a comparable economy—and that they shall work for it.

Nehru is a stubborn, never-give-up worker with a great capacity for firing enthusiasm. He is an impatient man, but a practical one.

Through most of his adult life he has been a man in a hurry.

He explained: There is so much to do that every moment of his life must count. First he was working to free the people from British rule. Now that they are independent, he is working to free them from poverty and to win for them a place among the leading nations in the world. In his younger years—he is 59—he always ran up stairs. He does not enjoy resting now, and usually sleeps only a few hours a night.

Nehru probably is the most practical idealist you could meet. He expounds the non-violence theories of Mahatma Gandhi, his beloved leader, but says hard practicality must go along with the theoretical. He is believed to be angling, on his tour of America, for materials to strengthen his army and navy..

Nehru has seen American factories pouring out production that would solve many problems for his country. He has seen middle class farms that would seem fantastically lush to the poor tillers of India's overworked soil.

He has seen shops filled with foods and finery that would amaze the patrons of an Indian bizaar.

He commented wistfully at one point of the trip that Americans have so much they can afford to waste food. Food is the crying need of his people, who live in the constant shadow of famine. They don't waste food there.

Youth Says Hatred Of Chores Caused Stabbing Of Baby

ALTURAS, Calif., Oct. 31. (AP) Twelve-year-old Dale Jennings didn't like doing household chores so, he told probation officer E. R. Server, he turned his wrath on his 18-month old cousin.

Dale is held in the Modoc county jail while authorities investigate the stabbing and beating of Tommy Rightnour, infant son of Mrs. Jessie Rightnour.

Server said the baby was found Saturday night in a haystack suffering from an abdominal stab wound and a beating. Tommy was given a 50-50 chance to recover.

Dale was picked up at a ranch 20 miles away.

Server said Dale admitted the attack, explaining he was "mad" at the Rightnours, with whom he lived.

No charges have been filed against Dale, son of Greeley Jennings, of Shafter, Calif. His mother is dead.

STRICTLY A BUSINESS PROJECT

Ocean-Going Industrial Fair Will Advertise U. S. On Trip

By LEO TURNER
United Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 31. (U.P.)—A 20,000-ton ocean liner, the former President Taft, is being outfitted today to carry an American industrial fair around the world.

The idea is to sell America—from beer to bulldozers.

"It's a private enterprise representing my 15-year-old dream," said Arthur H. Herts, who has been an exporter for the last 35 years.

'.W'e have been received enthusiastically by the Army and the Maritime commission and the State department's Voice of America has called us about our plans. But it is a business project by business men for the purpose of getting foreign business."

Herts is the president of Exhibition Ships, Inc., with a suite of offices on Wall street. Vice president is J. R. Groundwater, well-known shipping architect who is in charge of designing exhibition space for the floating fairs.

"We plan to start the President Taft around the world in May to show foreign buyers that American products can do their jobs better than those of any other country. We will spend a week in each port. We plan to hold dances for the American colony at each port and give our exhibitors the same opportunities to meet, entertain and sell prospective buyers that they would have at a convention in this country."

An exhibitor will buy floor space on the ship. The cost will include accommodations for one representative of each exhibitor for the entire cruise.

Second Trip Planned

"The itinerary for our first ship will include Portugal, Spain, Northern Africa, Southern France, Italy, Trieste, Greece, Turkey, Syria, Lebanon, Israel, Egypt, India, Burma, Ceylon, Malaya, Indonesia, Australia, New Zealand, Philippine republic, Hong Kong, China, Japan, Hawaii and San Francisco," Herts said.

The trip will take about one year.

"As soon as our first ship sails we will organize our second ship for a six months cruise to the West Indies and South America," he said.

"This is a medium of advertising for future sales," Herts said. "The little fellow who buys space and expects to return from the cruise with a handsome profit is going to be disappointed."

Groundwater said his plans provided space for 500 exhibitors.

Herts reported that he had received requests for space from makers of heavy building equipment, agriculture and road building equipment and beer.

Globe-Circling Race Via Airlines Slated

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 31. (AP)—Chicago pen maker Milton Reynolds tonight plans the latest of his round-the-world speed flying trips—this one as a passenger via scheduled airliners.

He is due to leave here tonight at 10:55 p. m., PST, on a TWA plane (flight 88) for New York. He hopes to be back here in four days and 23 hours, which he says is 30 hours better than the present scheduled air liner record. He also will use Pan American airways.

He was passenger and sponsor of the late Bill Odom's 1947 globe circling record flight of 78 hours, 35 minutes and 30 seconds. They made the trip then in a reconverted army plane.

Coffee Deficit Seen In Brazil

RIO DE JANEIRO, Brazil, Oct. 31 (U.P.) — Experts said today that Brazil will have a deficit of 3,000,000 bags of coffee this year because of the recent drought.

The deficit, and a marked increase in world consumption, is responsible for runaway prices in New York and other markets.

Coffee is becoming so expensive even in Brazil, the world coffee center, that the poor and middle classes are beginning to regard it as a luxury.

Official ceiling prices were raised a year ago to about 37 cents a pound for ground coffee. Another stiff raise in retail prices is expected shortly to compensate increases of nearly 100 per cent in export green coffee prices.

Surplus Burned

Brazil burned 80,000,000 bags of coffee a few years ago to keep up the price in an era of overproduction. Brazilian production now averages about 15,400,000 bags a year.

Green coffee now is quoted at about $550 a ton compared to $324.50 last December. For the first half of this year, coffee accounted for 50 per cent of the foreign exchange brought into Brazil. This was mostly in dollars, as the United States buys more than 70 per cent of all coffee exports.

Floods in Guatemala also have effected the world coffee price by destroying a large part of the crop there. Another factor is the political instability of Colombia, the world's second largest producer with an average of 5,400,000 bags a year.

NO matter how much of a shark you think you are at playing Canasta, you do not play good Canasta—unless you learned the game in South America, where it originated.

At least, that is the opinion of personable Bill Johnson, of Dallas, head of the seven-man Life, Time and Fortune staff in Texas.

Before taking over his Texas post a year ago, Mr. Johnson represented the three magazines in Argentina for a couple of years. While Canasta (a Portuguese word meaning "basket") was born in Montevideo, Uruguay, it became a bigger rage in neighboring Argentina. It was from that country that it was "imported" to the U. S. to become a virulent disease.

Mr. Johnson, who learned Canasta in Argentina and admits that he can't win at it, says the rules under which the game is being played here are very different from the original. Jacoby's rules, under which most Americans are playing are especially dissimilar to the original regulations, he says.

Incidentally, to end all arguments about the pronunciation of "Canasta," here's the dope—by Mr. Johnson, who speaks Portuguese and lived among Portuguese-speaking peoples; and also by Mrs. W. B. Gates, of the Tech faculty, generally conceded to be the outstanding authority on Portuguese in Texas:

It's "Con-AH-stah," not "CON-ah-stah," or "Can-AS-ta."

PARDON us all to pieces for musceling in on Mrs. Emily Post's good-manners racket, but we feel we must say a word to the hostesses here-abouts, to wit:

When you send out invitations to teas, receptions and other "mob-action" parties and specify the time guests are to leave, you're violating one of the sacred rules of hospitality.

In short, when you send a friend an invitation telling her she's welcome only between 2 and 2:30, or 4:30 and 5, you are being very, very rude.

Who says so?

Henry Robinson Luce, erudite editor and principal owner of Time, Life and Fortune.

Cosmopolite Luce was shocked beyond words to learn of the practice of setting time limits at social functions when the subject came up the other night at a lovely party, given for him by Mr. and Mrs. C. T. McLaughlin at their Diamond-M ranch near Snyder. He believes what to him is a most barbaric custom is not known—and certainly not followed—outside of Texas.

Mr. Luce might know what he's talking about.

He was born in China, reared in exclusive boarding schools in the U. S., studied at Yale and Oxford, in addition to a half dozen other colleges here and abroad. A Blue Book socialite, Mr. Luce has traveled constantly about the world for the past quarter century; has been entertained everywhere from embassies to the tents of Arabian sheiks.

In other words, the guy has been around.

"PEOPLE," he said, "are expected to know when to leave a social affair. But they are never told when to leave. That is, they are never told to leave in polite circles. Never before have I heard of such a thing!"

However, Mr. Luce learned something else, socially speaking, at the McLaughlin party—something he'd never learned at Newport, on Park avenue, or even at Bucking'am palace. He heard about the "morning coffee" as a social event and he swears that such gatherings, too, are solely indigenous to Texas. But instead of shocking his innate sense of propriety, "morning coffees" intrigued him.

Bushy-browed, ebullient, sometimes irascible and always outspoken Editor Luce (as his own Time might describe him if its sub-editors weren't fearful of the consequences) is a morning coffee tippler himself. He is struggling manfully to encourage the custom in New York, where he offices.

"I learned in Texas," he deposes, "that a morning coffee 'break' is helpful both physically and mentally. I wish it were the custom everywhere."

Like a cub reporter on his first assignment, Editor Luce, at dinner, pumped from Mrs. French Robertson, of Abilene, every drop of information about "morning coffees." He wanted to know whether most of them are planned; what percentage of them are "drop-in" affairs shared by neighbors; how large are the larger ones; how women dress for them, and whether or not they are "general, in their appeal." But, particularly, he wanted to know "what excuse women find for entertaining in such a fashion."

Mrs. Robertson did a fine job of filling Mr. Luce in on all the other intricacies of the "morning coffee," but when she got to the "excuse" angle, he had her on the ropes.

Finally, she had to admit that women just don't need any excuse to get together socially; all they need is just an idea.

NOT ever having been entertained by any Arabian sheiks, (although we did go to an embassy party in Paris once) we didn't argue the "morning coffee" subject with Mr. Luce.

He may be right. Maybe such gallivantin's are peculiar to Texas.

But what about the old German kaffee klatches? Weren't they held in the mornings, sometimes? And weren't they also social affairs, in the broad sense of the term?

Maybe we West Texans can add further to Editor Luce's knowledge of sassiety by passing on to him some further information along this line. Readers who've come in here from other states and countries are invited to advise us about "morning coffees" elsewhere, if any.

THOSE who shake their heads over the derelictions of the younger generation will agree with this observation, by a famous teacher:

"Children now love luxury, they have bad manners, they show disrespect to elders and love chatter in the place of exercise. Children are now tyrants, not the servants of the household. They no longer rise when elders enter the room. They contradict their parents, chatter before company, gobble up the dainties of the table, cross their legs and tyrannize their teachers."

Yep, that's a pretty good summary of the faults of our children. But the fellow who made it wasn't talking about the kids of the day.

BY DREW PEARSON: WAREHOUSE WORKER GETS TAX LIEN SLAPPED ON PAY MISTAKENLY

Equitable Prosecution Of Tax Frauds Questioned

WASHINGTON. — Last week this column told how various big-shot tax-evaders managed to delay or squirm out of criminal tax-fraud prosecution, sometimes because of leniency on the part of politically-minded or easygoing U. S. attorneys.

PEARSON

It was pointed out that U. S. attorneys are appointed on the recommendation of senators or congressmen, and sometimes appear to work more for the senators than for the Justice department.

In contrast to the smooth sailing enjoyed by some big-shot tax-evaders, here is what happened recently to a little fellow who got into a misunderstanding over his taxes. This taxpayer, Francis J. Massey of 220 2nd Street, a displaced government war worker, found a job after the war as a warehouse worker for Lansburgh and Brothers, a Washington department store.

In 1948 treasury agents checked Mr. Massey's tax returns for the war years and found proper returns had been filed and taxes paid. Then suddenly it was discovered that a Frank J. Massey had received $150 in dividends from stock owned in the Washington Gas Light Co., and the treasury promptly assessed Francis J. Massey additional taxes.

Tax Lien On $28 Salary

Actually, Francis J. Massey never owned the stock and never received any dividends. It belonged to his father, now deceased. Edward T. Stafford, secretary of the Washington Gas Light Co., certified that Francis J. Massey never owned the stock and never received the dividends owed to his father, but this made no difference to the U. S. treasury.

It demanded that he pay just the same. Mr. Massey's salary was only $28 a week, and he had a wife and two small children to support. But, under protest, he paid in small driblets of $2 a week up to a total of $18.92. This, however, wasn't fast enough for the treasury and it slapped a tax lien on his salary for the remaining $15.59.

This got him into trouble with his employer who did not want to be suspected of harboring a tax dodger and he was fired.

Thus, unable to get a recommendation from his last employer—except with a tax-dodging record—Massey was unable to find full-time employment. His youngest child become ill, the family doctor had not been paid for past services and would not come when urgently needed. The child died and was buried in Potter's field at government expense.

This burial expense probably about equaled the improper tax assessment of $34.51 wrung from Mr. Massey. So, in the end, the treasury department gained nothing.

Finally the office of Deputy Collector J. Ellis Bowen apologized for the mistake, which they said was made in Baltimore. "We promise it won't happen again," Massey was told. "If you are assessed again, just ignore it."

That's the experience of one little taxpayer who had no money to hire lawyers.

ON THE other hand, here is the experience of a man who had the money to hire lawyers and to live in luxury abroad—one Henry K. Blackmer, multimillionaire oilman who fled to France to escape being questioned in the Teapot dome scandal.

Some of the others who remained in the United States went to jail for their connection with Teapot dome and the Continental Trading company. Albert Fall, secretary of the interior in the Harding cabinet served his sentence. Harry Sinclair served time for refusing to answer the questions of the Senate committee. But Blackmer ducked for France, later was indicted on six counts for perjury and tax evasion to the tune of about $2,000,000.

Blackmer, then president of the Midwest Refining Co., together with Sinclair and Robert Stewart of Standard Oil, formed the Continental Trading company which purchased about 7,000,000 barrels of oil for $1.50 a barrel and then sold it to their own companies for $1.75. Sinclair used $230,000 of the profits from this deal to bribe Secretary Fall. Another $180,000 of profits went to the Republican national committee in the form of liberty bonds, and the committee tried to get high ranking Republicans to exchange the bonds for cash. Andrew Mellon was sent $50,000 of the bonds, but sent them back, accompanied by a gift of $50,000 in cash.

Blackmer's share of the boodle was found in the form of $750,000 in liberty bonds in a New York strongbox after he had fled to France.

The government made various efforts to bring Blackmer home, but the French government refused to extradite him and he remained there, living in the lap of luxury for 25 years, thumbing his nose at the nation which had made him rich and which he had cheated.

Last summer, Danny Sullivan, former G.O.P. Colorado politician who dug up the income-tax evidence against Blackmer, told friends in Washington:

"Henry Blackmer will never come back to this country while I'm alive."

Tom Walsh's Fight

Sullivan died shortly thereafter, and almost immediately Blackmer's lawyers arranged to bring him back—reportedly with an understanding that he would escape a jail sentence. Now 80 years old, but in excellent spirits and good health, Blackmer flew back on a stratoliner.

Blackmer has powerful friends in the U.S.A., among them G.O.P. Senator Millikin of Colorado, who was a partner in the law firm that originally handled Blackmer's affairs. Millikin, despite a difference in politics, is close to ex-Senator Ed Johnson, Colorado Democrat, who recommended the appointment of the U. S. attorney in Denver, Max Bulkeley.

And it was Bulkeley who informed newsmen in Denver that it would be "inhuman" to send Blackmer to jail.

"He has paid his penalty," the U. S. attorney pleaded. "He has made good all the income taxes he evaded and paid heavy penalties and fines. I will not ask that he be sent to jail."

The venerable Senator Tom Walsh of Montana, having spent a good part of his senatorial life unearthing the skulduggery of Henry Blackmer and his cronies, had joined with a Senate committee in describing that skulduggery as:

"The ill-gotten gains of a contemptible private steal, the speculations of trusted officers of great industrial houses, pilfering from their own companies, robbing their own stockholders, the share of the boodle coming to one of the freebooters serving as part of the price of the perfidy of a member of the president's cabinet."

Fortunately, Tom Walsh was not alive to hear what U. S. Attorney Bulkeley had to say.

The Bear Is A Bear At Conniving

BY ROBERT C. RUARK

Little Hope Held For Peace As A Result Of Man's Greed

NEW YORK, Oct. 31—Mr. Truman's brave words, on the occasion of planting the cornerstone at the United Nations' fourth birthday party, were, it seems to me, little better than lip service, and not very convincing lip service, at that.

RUARK

Mr. T. asked a UN ban on the big bomb, which is a nice thing to say, and we have been saying it right along for some time. It is a statement, in light of today, roughly comparable to the United Nations' ladies committee's pronunciamento against polygamy, everywhere, and Mr. Newbold Morris' stirring battle against sin in the big city.

About the safest thing you can say aobut the atom bomb is that as long as one nation has it and nobody else does, that owner-nation will keep it for insurance. And when the big apple starts to grow on another man's tree, both owners will cling even more firmly to the deathly fruit, and strive madly to increase its production.

The United Nations is a lovely concept and it has only one thing wrong with it. It is administered by people. Until God can do something about his own production-line and endow all people with saintliness at birth, I have little faith in their ability to do anything but wrangle with each other to fulfill their own selfish interests.

History Is Recalled

This cynicism was not born of hangover, but from hurried inspection of the history of mankind since the first cave-kid hurled the first rock at a neighbor. Man not being noted for the clarity of his foresight, no amount of level and lofty thinking has ever deterred him from hurling himself at his own ruin. He flies to self-destruction with the same desperate urgency of the bird into the lighthouse, always thinking that he is the one bird who won't bash out his brains on the glittering glass.

We mumble about eternal peace while rearming as frantically as our own cleft military will allow us, in the intermissions between their own backyard bickering. We muster love words to Russia while Russia calmly knocks off the east. We invite Mr. Nehru here to fall at his feet in worship, and Mr. Nehru says coolly he hasn't decided which way he'll swing India—that he would rather place his bet on the international horse after the race is won.

TRUMAN can't control either his cabinet or his Congress. Louis Johnson and Forrestal before him couldn't ride any semblance of herd on the military machine, business can't get any sense out of unions, and vice versa. People scrag each other happily all over the globe, for gain, glory and inflated ideas of personal superiority. Everything becomes more complicated daily. Man fights with maid, and maid with man.

We have tried to win, and then to buy, a facsimile of love-thy-neighbor all over the globe, and have reaped a subsidized pandemonium instead. The doers of good scratch and claw as fiercely as the doers of evil, for the right to impress their goodness on everybody, everywhere. If necessary they will kill you to reform you.

Man Is "Powerless"

Everybody, it seems, is a member of a committee for or against something, and committee battles valiently with committee. There is oration and essay and the flailing of arms, and nothing ever seems to come of it but confusion. Taxes lift and liberties flee and the aspect of international monkey-house increases.

To assume that there is sufficient trust and cooperation loose on the globe to permit an international amity now seems almost completely ridiculous. No guns will be checked at the door, without the derringer remaining in the sleeve and the knife in the garter, because people, on the record, have just been naturally ornery since Eve and the apple.

Mankind, I firmly believe, has finally maneuvered himself into a deadly quagmire, and is powerless to do anything but thresh his arms and mutter high-sounding phrases as he sinks deeper into the slough.

BY RUTH MILLETT: TO THE LADIES

The Feminine Viewpoint

A FATHER should take his son to his office, shop, or factory rather than to the movies or a baseball game because it is important for a boy to know what a man's world is like and to feel that he understands it, says Dr. Paul Popenoe, director of the American Institute of Family Relations.

MILLETT

Sure, and it's important for a mother to take her daughter into the kitchen, too, and otherwise acquaint her with the job of home-making for the same reasons.

A home economist says that we will have to start glamorizing the job of Home-making, if we want girls to look forward to becoming home-makers and feel satisfied with home-making as a career.

That is one job the schools can't do. A girl gets her ideas about home-making at home.

It's her mother who can give her a real respect for the job of home-making. But she can't do it by letting the girl remain ignorant of the skills that go into home-making.

GIVE HER THE KNOW-HOW

SHE has to teach her how to run a house and tell her why she does a certain thing one way instead of another.

She has to let her daughter see that she takes pride in her job—that it isn't just a weary routine, or one that anyone could do as well—but a job requiring many different talents.

Above all, she can't expect her daughter to look forward to being a home-maker if she herself says, "Mary doesn't know the first thing about cooking or cleaning up a house. But I figure she'll be tied down soon enough to housework—so she might as well have 'un while she can."

So while her husband is teaching their son how important a man's world is—a woman should see that her daughter is taught how important a woman's world is, too.

Today's Thought

The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the table of their heart, and upon the table of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars.—Jeremiah 17:1.

"Try And Stop Me"

A MANHATTAN miss, ardent be-bopper and jive addict, told her father airily, "Better get used to my new beau Elliot around the house. We have discovered that we send each other." The father scowled and said with obvious disgust, "Elliot heh? Awful young whipper-snapper! The next time you send him, couldn't you do your poor father a favor and arrange not to have him return?"

WHEN old Van Cartmell hit his hundred and fourth birthday, a Roslyn reporter found him rocking gently in his chair, as was his time-honored custom and asked him for the secret of his longevity. "Conservation of my energies," answered old Van promptly. "You'll notice as an example, young feller, how I rock in this chair: always with the grain.

Today's Journal Editorial

THANKS TO THE PROP!

The parliamentary vote of confidence in the British Labor government the other day, like that of a few weeks previously, was a foregone conclusion. The Labor party has a majority in the House of Commons. The voting in both confidence tests followed strict party lines. To have refused the confidence vote would have been a condemnation by the Laborites of their own political party, regime and policies.

For the fact of his survival, Prime Minister Clement Attlee can thank American taxpayers. They are supplying and, apparently, will continue to supply most of the cash for the socialistic program which has placed Great Britain in the most desperate financial plight—despite billions of U. S. help—in the history of the Empire.

Let that prop be withdrawn and, in the virtually unanimous opinion of qualified authorities, the British Labor regime probably would not last another week.

OLD BLINDS RECONDITIONED

Flexalum Venetian Blinds Featured At Vent-O-Lite Co.

Homeowners, why let shabby, discolored venetian blinds mar the appearance of your rooms? Especially when it's so easy and so economical to have Vent-O-Lite Venetian Blind Manufacturing Co. recondition them and make them look like new?

The trained workmen at Vent-O-Lite Venetian Blind Manufacturing Co., 1108 Twenty-Fifth, can repaint chipped blinds, replace worn and soiled cords and tapes, and renovate faulty pull mechanisms.

And — best of all — the low cost of such a reconditioning job will be the surprise of the day.

For you who are moving into new homes and want new venetian blinds custom-fitted to each individual window, there's good news, too.

Vent-O-Lite features blinds made with famous Flexalum aluminum slats and Levolor hardware, and within a price range lower than many less durable makes of venetian blinds.

Vent-O-Lite uses plastic tapes, thus assuring longer wear and greater ease in cleaning and maintenance.

Also featured at the local manufacturing firm are cornice blinds which permit use of all types and widths of cornices.

In addition to high-quality venetian blinds and cornices, Vent-O-Lite also carries a line of durable and attractive window shades which offer a maximum of good looks at the kindest and most considerate cost to your pocketbook.

Need more be said? The wise shopper will make a prompt trip down to Vent-O-Lite Venetian Blind Manufacturing Co., located on Twenty-fifth street, one and one-half blocks west of Texas Ave., for the answer to her venetian blind, cornice, or window shade needs.

And in case she can't make the trip down, she can simply pick up her telephone and dial 2-5865 for more information from the courteous employes at Vent-O-Lite.

Moose and caribou are the principal meat producers among Canadian game animals.

LOCAL VENETIAN BLIND MANUFACTURING FIRM—An exterior view of the Vent-O-Lite Venetian Blind Manufacturing Co., 1108 Twenty-fifth. The company reconditions shabby venetian blinds at low cost and offers custom workmanship on new blinds made with Flexalum aluminum, according to Richard G. Richards, manager.

Avinger Offers Most For Your Lumber Dollar

Want to know just how far your lumber dollar will go these days?

Then trot out to Avinger Lumber Co., 126 East Broadway, and be prepared for a pleasant surprise. Avinger can supply you with the best in building materials and help you stay within your budget, too.

The experienced sales force at Avinger Lumber Co., will be glad to discuss your building needs with you, and can offer expert advice in planning your new home or remodeling your present residence.

The company has for sale ready-built houses of all sizes which give the most comfort, space, and beauty possible for the least money.

Stansell's Products Fresh, Wholesome

Stansell's 1504 Ave. H, is the only roaster and processor of restaurent coffee in the South Plains area.

The coffee with the fine aroma and wonderful flavor that your favorite restaurant uses is more than likely Stansell's own brand, for Stansell's processes the coffee and ships it out to cafes and resturants of the region as soon as possible — before it has a chance to lose its freshness and flavor.

Another of the featured products of the Stansell company is potato chips, which are made from high-grade potatoes and cooked in the finest edible oils.

The manufacture of Stansell's potato chips is done entirely by machines which are operated under the most sanitary standards. The potato chips are distributed in most grocery stores throughout West Texas.

Stansell's which has been in business and Lubbock for 16 years, also prepares distilled vinegar, salad dressing, waffle syrup, and prepared mustard for institutional use.

Household condiments and spices also are prepared by the firm.

Most of the food products for resturant and institutional use are prepared in a separate plant at 1960 Texas Ave. At Stansell's modern main plant at 1504 Ave. H, coffee and potato chips are processed.

ESPIONAGE FAVORITE CHARGE

American Citizens "Pushed Around" By Red Satellites

BY EDWARD V. ROBERTS
United Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31 — Causing Americans to lose face is now standard operating procedure among the Soviet satellites.

That is becoming increasingly apparent from the treatment accorded U. S. officials, military personnel and plain civilians in all lands of the Soviet orbit, from Manchuria to Czechoslovakia.

Far out in the lead in attempts to gain favor with the Kremlin by such tactics are the Chinese Communist officials.

The Chinese reds keep thinking up new ways to push Americans around — prevent them from doing their jobs, deprive them of communications, involve them in phoney "labor" scrapes — even refuse them permission to leave.

Jobs Are Difficult

In eastern Europe, the best way apparently to get top rating with Moscow is to figue out a way to charge an American with "espionage."

A State department official acknowledged that it is "increasingly difficult, almost to the point of impossibility, for our people to carry out their normal functions" behind the iron curtain and in red Asia.

Take the case of the U. S. consulate in Mukden, Manchuria. Consul Angus Ward, Chassel, Mich., was ordered by the State department to close up shop last May 18, after the reds had taken his radio and limited his freedom of movement. But Ward and his 10 staff members are still in Mukden. The Communists won't let them leave.

In Nanking, U. S. military attache Brig. Gen. Robert B. Soule, Laramie, Wyo., asked for an exit permit on Oct. 6. The reds told him he couldn't leave until claims of his office's ex-employes for exhorbitant "severance" pay had been met. That's an old racket.

Consulates Are Closed

The U. S., so far, has ordered six consulates closed in Communist-held China. Four — in Shanghai, Nanking, Peiping and Tientsin — are still operating, but under stringent restrictions.

When the Tihwa consulate in western China was closed Aug. 15 Consul J. Hall Paxton, Danville, Va., had to travel out by caravan across the Himalayas, 2,000 miles into India to escape the Communists. It took him and his staff 71 days to reach Kashmir. An assistant, who left later, is still enroute —by mule.

The consulate in Dairen, Manchuria — which is under Russian control — closed Oct. 21 because of what were politely called Russian "restrictions." Consul Paul E. Paddock, jr., Des Moines, Ia., and Vice Consul Culver Gleysteen, Jenkintown, Pa., reported the Russians jailed them once for driving their jeep to the waterfront.

They were charged with signaling ships with their headlights, although they pointed out that it was broad daylight and the jeep was parked back to the waterfront.

Navy Fliers Held

The roughest deal of all went to two navy fliers, attached to the former U. S. navy base in Tsingtao. Their plane crashed in Communist territory in October 1948, and they were interned by the reds. Communist authorities ignored a series of requests for information and finally last week sent word that their whereabouts was "unknown." But an American sailor who had been temporarily imprisoned by the reds, said after his release that he had seen the fliers in a Communist jail in Shantung province. The fliers are chief electrician William C. Smith, Long Beach, Calif., and Marine Sgt. Elmer C. Bender, Cincinnati, O.

In Europe, present harassment of Americans centers in Czechoslovakia. Two embassy attaches, Isaac Patch, Gloucester, Mass., and John G. Heyn, Springdale, Conn., have been expelled in the past week. One embassy clerk, who does not have diplomatic status — Samuel Meryn, New York, N. Y.—is under arrest.

Ecpionage Is Charged

As usual, the charge is "espionage."

Elsewhere in the Balkans, Hungary ousted five American officials Romania six, and Bulgaria two, within the past year — for "espionage," of course.

The strangest case of all involves the disappearance of three American civilians. Herman Field, Cleveland, O., architect; his brother Noel Field, a refugee worker; and Mrs. Noel Field, all vanished behind the iron curtain during the past summer.

Repeated American requests for information regarding the Fields have been ignored or brushed off in Warsaw, Budapest and Prague. Many officials believe they were kidnapped by Soviet secret police.

Barkley is an attorney and has been in politics since 1905. He served in Congress as representative and senator from Kentucky for 36 years before being elected vice president last fall.

The nation's No. 2 Democrat crossed party lines in his selection of a bride because Mrs. Hadley is—or was—known as a Republican. In 1940 she worked at Wendell Willkie's campaign headquarters here.

Friends say she was rather staunch in her support of the Republican presidential nominee. They relate that she queried her milkman as to his political leanings. He finally admitted he was for Roosevelt.

The next morning, so the story goes, the milkman found a note from Mrs. Hadley in a milk bottle on the back porch. It read:

"No Willkie, no milkie."

HALLOWE'EN LILY?—A rare sight indeed is this Easter Lily in bloom in front of the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. McClendon of 706 Ave. W, shown here admiring their horticulture. Lubbock florists say it's very unusual for an Easter Lily to bloom this late. The beautiful flower was given the elderly couple by a friend last Easter. They keep it under wraps at night. Accursed Town same that overtook Sodom and Gomorrah. The townsfolk laughed again.

But then, unaccountably, fires broke out, windstorms tore off roofs, the placid creek through the middle of the town became wild and unruly, sweeping away homes in flash floods.

The remaining settlers finally gave up and moved their county seat to Sylvania. Time removed all traces of the town but the Goodall place which still stands.

Here Bryant was born into slavery. He was a young man when Sherman marched through, burning all houses along his route—but the Goodall home.

The night old "Uncle" Richard died, so they say, by the light of a flickering kerosene lamp, there was an awful rustling in the trees. And an old hound howled.

Actress Hits Rumors Of Marriage Breakup

MIAMI, Fla., Oct. 31 (AP) — Florida-born movie actress Wanda Hendrix yesterday denied reports that her marriage to war hero-actor Audie Murphy is breaking up.

"I don't know exactly what the papers here have been printing about our difference, but I'm confident we can work things out," Miss Hendrix said in an interview at the home of an aunt.

Miss Hendrix was accompanied by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Hendrix. They planned to leave today for Jacksonville. Murphy, most decorated GI of World War II, is in Texas.

WAY OF HOBBLING DISEASE FOUND

New Field Of Medicine Eyed As Hormones Shrink Cancers

By HOWARD W. BLAKESLEE
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A new field in medicine was opened here with a report to the American Cancer society yesterday that two new hormones shrink certain cancers.

The hormones are acth and cortisone. This pair earlier this year caused dramatic relief of pain in arthritis, gout and rheumatic fever.

Their effects on cancer were much the same. The patients felt and ate better, and cancers shrank, only to enlarge after the medicine was stopped. To date, two cancers have remained smaller for ten weeks, with no signs of swelling again.

The doctors said they gave these hormones for cancer not because they expected cures, but because here is a new way of hobbling the disease and perhaps finding out what really will be a cancer treatment.

Discovery May Be Vital

Considering the sensational effects of the hormones on quite unrelated diseases, particularly arthritis, gout and rheumatic fever, doctors said this might be the greatest discovery since Pasteur found germs.

What happens is due to some as yet mysterious action of the adrenal glands in the back. These glands make cortisone and probably more than a dozen other still unknown hormones. Acth governs the hormone production of these glands.

The cancer study was reported by Doctors C. H. Pearson, L. P. Eliel, Rulon W. Rawson, Konrad Dobriner and C. P. Rhoads of the Sloan-Kettering institute and department of medicine of Memorial Cancer center, New York.

They have given the hormones to eight persons. Two of the tests were flat failures. One of these patients had cancer of the prostate gland, the other cancer of the breast. The other six cases all were incurable cancers of the family known as lymphatic, and all six got smaller almost right away.

More Hormones Needed

These lymphatic cancers were one lymphosarcoma, one Hodgkins disease and four chronic leukemia, (so-called blood cancer). One of the four died of pneumonia not connected with cancer. The other five are alive and well, but they weren't very sick when the hormones started a few months ago.

Neither of these hormones can be used on more than a few dozen persons, because there isn't enough of either. Many pharmaceutical houses are working to produce them faster.

Either hormone when given for more than a month is likely to cause a serious disease known as Cushing's syndrome.

X-ray treatments where the patient is slowly rotated, like a beef roast, has lengthened some lives by five years. These were dying cancer patients who lived comfortably after the x-ray roasting.

New Surgery Used

Dr. Theodore R. Miller, of Memorial center, New York, explained that the rotation made it possible to give more x-rays.

Numerous persons now recover from cancer of the gullet, once considered hopeless. The recoveries are due to new surgery that lifts up the stomach into the chest so as to attach it to what remains of the food tube after the cancer portion has been cut out. This report was made by Dr. John H. Garlock, Mt. Sinai hospital, New York.

A new operation that can cut out the middle part of bowels, and then pull the ends together was reported by Dr. Harry F. Bacon, of the Temple university school of medicine. He called it the "pull-through." He said it does away with the necessity for making a new bowel exit somewhere in the abdomen.

GOOD SHOOTING

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Mrs. James M. Humphrey had never considered herself a good pistol shot. But when a six-foot, 17-rattle snake threatened her two small children, the housewife took careful aim from 20 feet away and blew the reptile's head off.

A communist bandit leader shot dead with his girl friend by Malayan jungle police had the nickname of Tai Kwee—"Big Devil."

City Cotton Buyer Claimed By Death

W. A. (Add) Clark, 60, Lubbock cotton buyer, died at 5 p. m. Sunday at his residence, 2418 Twenty-seventh street, after suffering a heart attack.

Born Oct. 12, 1889, Clark had lived in Lubbock since he was six months old.

One of the earliest cotton buyers in Lubbock, Clark operated the Clark Cotton company with offices in the Rogers building.

Funeral services will be held at 10:30 a. m. Tuesday at Sanders Funeral home. Dr. J. Ralph Grant, pastor of the First Baptist church, will officiate.

Survivors include his wife, of the home address; two sisters, Mrs. George Hall of Lubbock and Mrs. Sameuel E. Ross of Evanston, Ill.; a brother, Sid Clark of Lubbock; a daughter, Mrs. Marion F. Harris of Muleshoe; and two granddaughters.

Why "BC" Relieves Headache and Neuralgia So Quickly

● Many people wonder what there is about the "BC" formula that enables it to relieve simple headaches, neuralgic pains and minor muscular aches so quickly. The answer is simple. In "BC" Headache Powders and Tablets you get the full relief-giving effectiveness of not just one, but several of the world's most popular pain-relieving ingredients. In combination these quick-dissolving, fast-acting and medically tested "BC" ingredients are remarkably effective—far more so than either would be alone.

Remember this important fact the next time you have a headache. Also remember that when taken as directed, "BC" can be safely used. "BC" has stood the test of time. It is a preparation you can use with complete confidence. You'll find that nothing is more comforting or relieves faster. And now you may have "BC" in either tablet or powder form. In both you get the same famous "BC" formula—the same fast relief. Two "BC" Tablets equal one "BC" Powder. Convenient 10c & 25c sizes.

Farmer Shoots Negro Suspected In Attack

MONTICELLO, Ky., Oct. 31. (AP) — A young negro, sought by a 200-man posse in connection with the raping of a 12-year-old white girl, was shot to death by a farmer yesterday.

Bryan Keeton reported to Sheriff Joe Burnett that he discovered the negro, Sam Sloah, jr., sleeping in an unused farm building. He said he asked Sloan to surrender but had to shoot him when the youth made a move toward his gun.

The sheriff said he had placed no charge against Keeton but would follow whatever legal procedure is necessary.

The girl was raped when she and three companions, two boys and another girl, were stopped Friday night on their way home from church. They reported the boys were ordered to leave their automobile and one girl was attacked while the other remained in the auto.

County Attorney W. C. Dabney said all four identified the attacker as Sloan, who formerly lived in Lexington.
