Hewes Re-Elected Sheriff, Commission Races Into Runoffs

Incumbent Robert Hewes was re-elected Aransas County Sheriff in a clear victory over challenger Jim Pridgen in Saturday's May 3 Democratic primaries -- and both county commissioners' races will go to run-offs.

In Pct. 1-1A, the Saturday, June 7, run-off will be between John M. Lee and Rachel Garcia. In Pct. 3, the run-off contenders will be challenger Jimmy Woods Jr. against incumbent Raymond Owens.

Hewes, sheriff of Aransas County for the past 11 and a half years, defeated Pridgen, criminal investigator for the county, by a margin of 2046 to 765.

Mrs. Garcia was the high vote-getter in the Pct. 1-1A county commissioner's race, picking up a total of 197 ballots. Lee, with 192 votes, was a close second.

Together, Lee and Mrs. Garcia pulled just under half of the 847 votes cast in this race in Pct. 1-1A.

Remaining candidates in the Pct. 1-1A race, and the votes they received in complete but unofficial totals available Monday afternoon, were Grace Stanick, 127; Roy Hinton, 121; Raulie Irwin Jr., 134; and Dan Nelson Adams, 76.

In the Pct. 3 race, Woods received 427 votes and Owens 383 to win their spots on the run-off ballot. Pat Farley received 107 votes and Roy Biggs Jr. 62 in that election.

IT'S A BOY.. TWICE!

Benny Joe and Vel McLester of FM 1781 really got a surprise last Saturday morning. Their quarter horse mare, Bullet Slash, was ready to give birth just any day and she finally did, to twin boys. Vel says that it is very rare to have healthy twins that live for long. These seem to be in very fine shape according to their veterinarian. The pair has already been named: one is called Bullet's Misfit after the mother and the other is called Holly's Mischief after the daddy! Vel said that people are welcome to come by and look at the colts, but please don't come into the pen.

GOP Supports Concklin, Reagan

Aransas County Republicans came out strong for Presidential hopeful Ronald Reagan and U.S. Representative candidate C.L. Concklin in last Saturday's, May 3, primaries.

James E. "Buster" Brown took a less commanding lead in the race for State Senate 17th District, but still led in totals over his two opponents.

These and the race for a six-year term on the railroad commission were the only contested races on the county Republican ballot.

More than 500 voters cast ballots in the GOP primary.

Reagan took a comand-

ing 352 votes in the presidential primary, with 167 ballots cast for George Bush and 18 "uncommitted."

Since the Republican presidential primary is binding, Aransas County delegates are committed to Reagan in the upcoming Republican national convention in August.

In the Republican race for U.S. Representative, 14th District, Concklin received 342 votes in Aransas County, Gerald D'Unger received 46 votes in that race and Russ Baird took 89.

This matches a general trend in the 14th District where, by Monday, D'Unger and Baird were both conceding this race to Concklin.

The State Senate race for 17th District was closer, with Brown pulling 189 votes, James Parker 184 and Ed Stuart 79.

In the only other contested race, that for railroad commissioner, Henry C. (Hank) Grover led with 299 votes followed by John Thomas Henderson, 134, and E.W. (Billy) Kidd, 89.

In county races, all uncontested race, there were no surprises. Jim Anderson received 434 votes for county attorney, Bill Wilson got 72 votes for county commissioner pct. 1 and Pete

He worked for a time at The Pilot and then they moved to Gonzales. Gene and Louise returned to Rockport in 1942 and he returned to the newspaper as a printer.

He remained with The Pilot for 37 years until March of 1979, when health forced his retirement.

In an interview last year, Mr. Shults said that during his years with the paper he "did anything there was to do in back. I was what they called an all-round country printer -- operator, pressman, anything mechanical. I sold office supplies, answered the phone, did everything else, but the mechanical part (printing) was the attraction."

'FLOATING MOTEL'

Jack Bohn is shown aboard the barge that he and others have been working on. They have fixed it with a kitchen, sleeping quarters and restroom facilities and plan on anchoring it in Copano Bay and renting it out to fishing parties like a motel room.

'Floating Motel' In Operation Soon

A new "floating fishing pier" will soon be in operation in Copano Bay.

Jack and Kathy Bohn and Roger and Mamie Ballard have fixed up a barge into a nice houseboat and are planning to rent it out to people who want to go fishing or just get away from it all.

The group plans to anchor the boat in Copano Bay, near the west shore, in a sheltered area. Parties using it can go out in their own boat, or transportation to and from there will be provided.

The vessel will sleep six, but the owners will take any size party up to that amount. Each trip will be for a general 24-hour period.

The houseboat has a kitchen, restroom, sun/fishing deck, life jackets, fire extinguisher and a light plant that furnishes 110-volt outlets.

Paper goods, dishes, pots and pans will be supplied. Food, coolers, linens, soaps and personal articles are provided by the renters.

Anyone interested in trying this novel "motel" can get more information or make reservations by contacting the Sandollar Motel Marina.

Contributions Coming To Enterprise Rock Fund

Some 27 area residents have contributed to the Enterprise Medical Clinic "Rock Fund" — and donations are still being accepted, says Bertie Cone, project chairman.

Purpose of the fund is to raise money to pay for rocks that will be used in landscaping the grounds of the clinic. A large rock costs $10, says Bertie, pointing out that a $10 donation "will buy you your very own 'pet rock'."

Contributions to the Rock Fund to date include Wes and Babs Muecke, Marguerite Johnson, Joann Haskell, Wanda Sorem, Kate Veters, Sara Bates, Dollie Slocum, Helen McCague, Joan Rowe, Carol Filmore, Billie Borden.

Also contributing are Dot Le Blanc, Delores Griffith, Christine Stark, Hildegard Ogle, George Shirey, Thyra Russell, Mary Casey, Carolyn Behee, Vi Street, Peggy Bloch, Ima Jean Sloan, Glen Bundick, Tonie Muecke.

Winding up the list of contributions are Velma Tyler and Bertie Cone.

The landscaping around

Enterprise Medical Clinic will be very low-maintenance, says Bertie, and small or crushed rocks will be used to cover large portions of the grounds.

Also needed are some large boulder-type rocks which will be placed strategically to break up the flatness of the area and provide accents.

Bertie said anyone who wants to donate to this worthy cause can do so by contacting her at 729-5750.

Nursing Home News

The Aransas Pass Nursing and Convalescent Center was a very busy and exciting place during the week of April 21 through April 27.

Reality orientation and exercise classes were held each morning, Tuesday through Friday. Coffee and social hours were also held each morning and afternoon.

Virginia Hillis and Phyllis Seals were at the center doing volunteer work on Monday. Monday afternoon was "Blue Grass Music" time with Altie Lee Albers and John Blair.

Sandra Lee visited the center on Tuesday, and that afternoon, the residents and employees were treated to a supper at the Aransas Pass Dairy Queen. Eighty-two orders were sent to the center, and 47 of the residents went to Dairy Queen. Thanks to all of the Dairy Queen employees and the volunteers who helped make the outing possible.

Wednesday morning, Delma Rodgers was out doing volunteer work. She read to the residents, wrote letters for them, and visited. During the evening, Hope Rangel of the Aransas Pass Chapter of LULACs was out to hold a game afternoon.

On Thursday, Phyllis and Adele Asbury were out to visit the residents.

On Friday morning, Lyla and Frankie held the paint class, and later in the morning, Pat Townsend, Ruth Crenshaw, Faye Cantrell, and Dorothy Cravy passed out snacks to the residents.

On Friday afternoon, Father James Hamilton of St. Mary's Star of the Sea Catholic Church of Aransas Pass held Mass for the Catholic residents, and on Sunday morning, church services were held by Reverend Al Bankert.

On Sunday afternoon, the members and friends of the First Christian Church of Ingleside held a "Sing Along."

The residents extend an open invitation to anyone who is interested in visiting the center during their coffee and social hour each morning and afternoon.

Trim Lawn Helps Air Conditioner

Trim your lawn to help your air conditioner work more efficiently.

Keep grass, weeds and other growth away from the unit to allow free air flow and top efficiency, says Sue Young, a housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Of course, trees over the unit to shade it also will help, since they keep the unit itself cool, she adds.

Area Assistant Director At Convention

Mrs. Pat Works, an Assistant State Director of the American Association of Retired Persons, will represent District 12 in South Texas at the AARP in Phoenix, Arizona, June 9-12.

Mrs. Works is one of three delegates from Texas dedicated to the best selection and election of national leaders.

This convention is the primary business meeting of delegates from all 50 states.

New by-laws will be considered and elections for National Officers and Board Members held. All new resolutions will be discussed, promoted, and voted upon.

This is Mrs. Works' third year to represent District 12 at the Biennial Convention.

Troop 361 Makes Donation

Members of Cadet Troop 361 in Rockport held a garage sale on Friday, May 2, and Saturday, May 3.

Carol McEwen Chosen Mrs. America, 1980

Carol Ann Lutz McEwen of Austin, daughter of Charles Lutz of Holiday Beach was crowned Mrs. America, 1980, in Las Vegas last month.

Mrs. McEwen, a contact lens technician, is a firm believer in positive thinking.

"As a child I didn't like myself," she told reporters in an interview held in New York recently. "My thoughts were always negative. But now becoming a positive thinker changed my life."

Contestants were judged by poise, beauty and personality in the April beauty pageant. Besides winning the over-all pageant, Mrs. McEwen was also named Most Photogenic and received second place in the state costume competition.

Mrs. McEwen, the mother of two sons, will be representing America's 51 million wives throughout the year in different activities, including tours, speaking engagements and modeling.

"Just because a woman gets married doesn't mean she has to get dowdy and ugly," said Mrs. McEwen.

At 34 years old, weighing 115 svelt pounds, with brown hair and big green eyes, Mrs. America is far from either of those.

Pet Talks

By Dr. Hap Lutz
Dr. Lutz is a graduate of Baltimore City College and Texas A&M University. He specializes in small and exotic animal practice. He was an instructor of small animal diseases and surgery in the Veterinary School at Texas A&M and was in private practice in Waco for 25 years.

GET ME TO THE CHURCH ON TIME

I have read accounts in the newspapers of women who have been pregnant without knowing it. No one is more surprised than the mother when the infant is delivered.

Usually, this sort of tale is accepted with much skepticism. However, it has been known to happen in the best of canine circles, too. Perhaps, in these cases, the mother dog is not so surprised, but the unsuspecting owners are.

Stranger than this, is the mistaken notion of the dog that she is pregnant.

I had a good example of this in my practice in Waco.

My patient was a pedigree Peke named "China Town." She was no hussy. She lived with her master, Mr. Dupuy, in a large home in the best section of town.

During the previous weeks, her owner had noticed the dog's abdomen thickening. Her nipples became more and more swollen. Mr. Dupuy was distressed for he had not intended to breed the dog. As far as he knew, she had never been with another dog.

Mrs. Dupuy explained to me when she brought the dog to the clinic, "She's so small, I was afraid to breed her, and now look at her!"

I placed China Town on the examination table and said, "Well, girl, you got caught with your pants down, didn't you?" She looked up at me with an innocent, "I didn't do anything!" expression.

I asked Mrs. Dupuy how she had been acting. She told me that the dog had spent the entire morning making a bed in her husband's favorite lounge, had put her favorite toy there, climbed in "the nest" and tried to nurse it. "Then an hour ago she began to grunt and labor. She even has milk oozing from her breasts."

I have China Town a complete examination, including a deep palpation of the abdomen. "I have news for you," I said. "My tentative diagnosis is your dog is not pregnant."

Mrs. Dupuy's face was filled with doubt at my diagnosis. Mr. Dupuy spoke up then, "I told my wife if she was pregnant there had to be a canine Virgin Mary. She was always on a leash outdoors when she was in heat."

To confirm my diagnosis, I suggested an X-ray — just to be sure. No pregnancy. I explained that this was a pseudo or false pregnancy resulting from a hormone imbalance.

"I will give the dog a hormone injection and in several days everything should be back to normal. However, I want to check her again in five days."

Five days later, when I examined the dog again, everything had assumed a normal appearance.

When Mr. Dupuy left, he turned to me and said, "Thanks Doc, I never did want to be a grandfather!"

If you have any questions about the health and care of your pet, please send them to the Rockport Pilot, Dr. Lutz will answer them in the week-end edition.

Avoid Leftovers With A Tasty Gumbo For Two

"Jambalaya, a piece of pie and a file gumbo" have been Southern favorites, honored in both song and legend. This super supper soup is a canned pasta in tomato sauce which gives it extra body and flavor. Add a bit of chicken and okra and the Southern accent comes forth.

This version of the famous gumbo will make just enough for two people. It avoids having leftovers that often go to waste. It can be ready in just minutes using off-the-shelf convenience foods.

GUMBO MACARONI SOUP
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/4 cup chopped celery
1/4 cup sliced carrots
1/4 cup chopped fresh or drained canned tomatoes
1 tablespoon butter or margarine
1/4 teaspoon salt
1 cup water
1 can (7 1/2 oz.) Chef Boy-ar-dee Beefaroni (macaroni with beef in tomato sauce)
1/2 cup chopped leftover chicken or shrimp
1/4 cup defrosted frozen okra or drained canned okra
2 tablespoons parsley
Dash hot pepper sauce

In 2 quart sauce pan saute onion, celery, carrots and tomatoes in butter. Add salt and water. Cover, simmer for 10 minutes. Add Beefaroni, cover and simmer for 10 more minutes. Add chicken, or shrimp, okra, parsley and pepper sauce; simmer for 10 minutes. One serving for two, or two servings for one.

You table-for-twoers try something new and interesting from one of the world's oldest cultures. In addition to inventing pasta, Oriental cooks have always known how to conserve fuel by cooking foods quickly. This dish cooks in just minutes and makes liberal use of vegetables and minimal use of shrimp or chicken.

An off-the-shelf canned ravioli in rich tomato sauce that the Chinese would be proud of is the base for this dish. Here's a substantial, unusual main course for two people, that's easy to prepare as well as economical.

FAR EAST RAVIOLI
1 cup chopped raw chicken or shrimp
1/4 cup chopped onion
1/2 cup sliced celery
2 tablespoons butter or margarine
1/2 package (10 oz. size) frozen Chinese pea pods
1 cup bean sprouts, drained
1 jar (2 1/2 oz. size) Chef Boy-ar-dee Mini Ravioli
2 tablespoons toasted almonds (optional)

Saute chicken, onion and celery quickly in butter in a medium size (8") skillet. Adding remaining ingredients, except almonds. Cover; cook for 5 to 7 minutes. Garnish with almonds. Serves two.

Rockport-Fulton Wins By 4-2

By Bob Crawford
Using the three-hit pitching of Pee Wee Solis, the Rockport-Fulton Pirates nipped the Sinton Pirates in Sinton 4-2 last week. Solis pitched no-hit ball through one out in the seventh inning before the Sinton team rallied for two runs. Rockport got on the scoreboard in the third inning to take a 1-0 lead. Solis scored the first run for Rockport after he reached first on an error and then stole second. With one away, Mark Goodin lifted a fly ball to the outfield. Solis tagged up and advanced to third. A most unusual situation occurred at that point. Sinton wanted to appeal the play claiming that Solis had left second too soon. The ball went to the pitcher who stepped on the pitcher's rubber and threw to second base. The ball got away and Solis easily scored. The Pirates added three runs in the sixth. With a man gone in the sixth, designated hitter Wayne Childers singled. Mark Setterbo followed with another hit. Dennis Hull laid down a sacrifice to move the runners up. Then Chris Butler came through with a double to score both runners. Adding to his cause, Solis dumped a double which scored Butler to take care of Rockport's scoring.

Solis tired in the seventh, giving up three hits and a walk to account for Sinton's two runs. With one out, and in serious trouble, Solis retired the side on two ground-outs.

New Dove Zone Alignment Proposed

AUSTIN—The Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has proposed to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service a change in the federal regulations which would allow the department the option of dividing the state into three zones for dove hunting during the coming season.

Currently, the 60-day mourning dove season is set according to a two-zone arrangement, with the North Zone opening September 1 and the South Zone opening on the first Saturday after September 19.

The proposed three-zone alignment would feature a Panhandle Zone covering the Panhandle and South Plains, a Central Zone consisting of most of the state's mid-section, and a Rio Grande Zone which would stretch from the Trans-Pecos southeast along the Rio Grande, including South Texas.

Dove Program Leader Jim Dunks said the proposed realignment is intended to provide the department greater flexibility in setting seasons responsive to local situations. Dunks said one reason for the three-zone proposal is to allow a slightly later opening date for areas in North Central Texas where hunters periodically complain about the body and feather conditions of the birds bagged. The delay is not expected to alter the harvest significantly.

The proposal calls for the Panhandle Zone to open as early as allowed (September 1) and continue for 60 consecutive days.

The opening of the Central Zone would be the first Saturday after September 8. Actual opening dates would vary from September 9 through September 15, depending on the calendar year. The season would end on November 7 through November 13 unless the option of splitting the season was selected.

The Rio Grande Zone would continue much as the South Zone has in the past, opening on the first Saturday after September 19.

Dunks said this proposal was approved by the Central Flyway Council, which coordinates seasons on migratory game birds in the Central U.S., and has been presented to the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service. The USFWS is expected to notify the Parks and Wildlife Commission by early July whether it will allow the option. If approved by the USFWS, the commission then will decide during its July public hearing whether or not to adopt a season using the three-zone setup.

All of the proposals represent a departure from tradition, but hunters are requested to evaluate carefully the potential seasons, if selected, and how they might be affected.

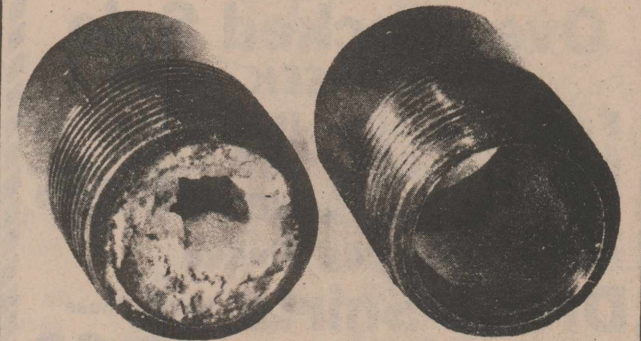

The public may comment on the proposal by writing the Parks and Wildlife Department, 4200 Smith School Road, Austin, Texas 78744.

Eyes And Answers

VISUAL PERFORMANCE
 Dear Dr. Pettey: My nine-year-old son wasn't doing well in school and when the new optometrist in town examined the boy's eyes he said he had perfect vision at distance, but needed studying glasses. I thought just older people had reading glasses, but my son is now doing real well in his grades. How come?

Many years ago, man was adapted to tasks outdoors — hunting, farming, and the like. There were no books to read, only grinding foods, sewing animal skins, and keeping their hunting tools in shape. It took little sharp vision to sweep the cave and go to the watering hole. There were no long periods of time spent at close-range seeing.

But, then along came "civilization" with gradually more complicated vision tasks to perform and a need for more critical near-point focusing. It apparently took centuries for the human focusing system to adapt and the wonder of it all is that it did adapt.

Just as some of us cannot easily perform some of the highly developed physical skills — playing piano, tennis, typing, etc., neither can others (at any age) perform very easily the job of focusing at near, without some help from reading glasses.

Good, clear vision at distance is no guarantee that near vision is as good as it needs to be. Determining the visual skills at near is just about the most important thing in eye examinations of children.

Eyes and Answers is a copyrighted public service feature of the Texas Optometric Association. Readers may address Dr. Pettey in care of this paper or the Texas Optometric Association, P.O. Box 4574, Austin, TX 78765.

A child who craves snacks between four and six in the afternoon would be nourished if he had half his supper at three p.m. — "Feed Your Kids Right" by Lendon Smith, M.D.

Mollenhoff explains some early misgivings about candidate Carter: I voted for Jimmy Carter in November, 1976. . . . In December, 1975, a half-dozen Democratic candidates for nomination as President were invited to the annual Little Dinner of the Gridiron Club in Washington. Carter was then "Jimmy Who?" to most of the journalists attending.

"One reason I and others remember that Jimmy Carter spoke at the December, 1975, dinner was because of the tasteless bathroom joke that he told in a feeble effort at humor. The speech was an embarrassment to the audience. But it went unreported under Gridiron tradition." — "The President Who Failed: Carter Out of Control" by Clark R. Mollenhoff

Peaches 'N Cream Pudding Cake

Just try to say "peaches and cream" without your mouth watering! Satisfy that craving with this quick and easy dessert that combines those two compatible foods in a moist pudding and cake combination.

Peaches and canned pudding create a saucy base topped with cake. For an even creamier version of this dessert, cream cheese can be blended with the canned pudding.

PEACHES 'N CREAM PUDDING CAKE

- 1 can (17 1/2 oz.) Vanilla Pudding
- 1 can (16 oz.) peach slices
- 1 package (9 oz.) single layer yellow cake mix

Drain peaches, reserving juice. Arrange peaches in oiled 9x9-inch (or 7x11-inch) baking dish. Peaches may be cut into thinner slices if necessary. Spread pudding over peaches. Prepare cake batter according to package directions, substituting peach juice for water. Spread batter over pudding and peaches. Bake at 350°F. (325°F. if using glass pan) for 45-55 minutes or until cake tests done. Serve warm. Makes 7-8 servings.

Peaches 'n Cream Pudding Cheesecake: Combine 3 oz. package softened cream cheese with pudding before spreading over peaches in above recipe.

HOW SUPERMARKETS SERVE THE PUBLIC INTEREST

A Low Margin Of Profit

With soaring inflation and escalating food prices, it is difficult for many consumers to understand how our supermarkets can continue to operate on a net profit of only a penny on the sales dollar.

Hard as it is to conceive, it's true that only a dime out of your $10.00 grocery order goes to net profit for the owners of the business.

The key is that the supermarket business counts on high volume of sales. That, according to the Food Marketing Institute, is the reason that the self-service supermarket system has been so widely imitated in other forms of merchandising from drugstores to department stores.

It's based on the idea that a man who sells ten cans of peas ten times during the year can afford to take a lower profit on each can of peas than a man who sells only one can.

That tiny profit margin means the pennies multiply during the year to cover the investment in the store and its equipment and parking lot to return an average of 13 percent on the dollar of invested capital—still a modest amount in these days of high interest rates.

Supermarket profits are the lowest in retailing. In 1979 sales, according to figures from Forbes Magazine, department stores realized 2.9 percent profits; drug chains, about 2.3 percent; discount and variety stores, about 1.5 percent—while supermarket retailing was 1.2 percent.

Hints For Homeowners

According to Cooper the Toolmaker, one of the handiest tools for the home handyperson may be a pair of snips. Well-suited to heavy duty jobs like cutting sheet metal and screening,

It's good sense not to cut corners when you choose tools that will last a lifetime.

they will also make easy work of cutting shingles, linoleum and leather. MetalWizz snips, users say, cut with half the effort of conventional ones. They work on a compound action principle in which two additional small levers increase the pressure exerted by their handles.

Good cutting tools can cut even big jobs down to size!

For sheer utility, shears, snips and scissors are hard to match.

To get the most from your cutting tools, keep them sharp and in good repair. Sharp scissors are safer to use than dull ones; they're less likely to slip and require less force or pressure to get the job done.

Attempting to use a single pair of scissors for all your home needs will be hard on both them and you. Specialized scissors, such as those designed for dress-making, paper, embroidery, pinking, skalloping, or kitchen utility do their tasks especially well. It always makes good sense to have the right tool for the job at hand.

With reasonable care, good scissors can be expected to last virtually a lifetime, so money spent for quality can be well-spent. Fine shears and scissors made by Wiss, are designed with cutlery steel blades hardened to hold a keen edge.

Party Line

By Betty Paul

Carita and Jim Gould made a trip to Houston for business and pleasure.

Mrs. Marian Oliver, her son Bill Oliver and Dee Ann King went to Grand Prairie to visit Mrs. Oliver's other son, Robert Oliver, and his family. Robbie Jo, Robert's daughter, won two ribbons in the Tri-State Ice Skating competition that was held in Grand Prairie while her grandmother was there.

Bob Stephenson and his wife Dottie spent the weekend at Surf Court Motel. Mr. Stephenson has a daily radio program on KTRH in Houston. He is also known as "The Outdoor Sportsman."

David Blankinship went to Galveston on research work on pelicans.

Tina Monroe was feted with a surprise birthday party celebration on her fifth birthday Sunday at Memorial Park. Twenty of her friends attended the occasion and all reported having a good time.

Donnie and Ronnie Noster are entertaining Joan and Earl Erickson from Wisconsin.

Mrs. Ruth Blankinship has as her guest her sister-in-law, Mrs. Margaret Nordmeyer from Corpus, and a friend, Mrs. Harold Powell. Mrs. Powell is a great granddaughter of Col. Fulton who built the Fulton Mansion.

Amy Bailey will be in a recital May 24. She will be one of the "Big Baby Dolls" in a ballet number. The recital will be in the Sinton High School auditorium.

Shirley Farley is back at home and at work after being in Physicians and Surgeons Hospital for several weeks for tests.

Tootsie Guido, stained glass artist, just returned from a successful show at Buffalo Gap. Her work is being featured at Sundail II in Rockport.

Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Fowler and their children Tami, Becky and Jenny from San Antonio are here on their yearly visit.

Mrs. Ruth Dokey has her daughter-in-law visiting her. Suzanne Dokey is from Niagara Falls, New York, and she came to Rockport "to get a tan."

The Shelton's—Carla, Tony and Becky from Houston—are visiting Fran and Suzanna Lyons.

Cheryl and Steve Russell have been on a 10-day trip to the J.R. Tiller Ranch in Gonzales. They were painting on location.

Mrs. Hooper Barton went to Selma, Alabama, with Edie Barton and Dr. M. Kirkpatrick. Mrs. Barton presented a paper there at the National Historical Society Convention on "The Guntersville, Alabama, Area."

Estelle Stair and a group of her friends from Rockport who co-founded the "Watermelon Thump" in Luling are looking forward to participating in this year's 27th anniversary event, June 26 through 29.

Jane Goodrich was gone for several days on a buying trip.

Betsy and Al Moer spent a day in Houston in the office of the Houston Oilers, watching the NFL draft of college football players.

Tony Shelton from Houston got his foot cut quite severely at the Rockport beach while he was visiting his grandmother, Fran Lyons.

Coach Brian Connolly of Rockport-Fulton High School was interviewed on KYOT in a Refugio-based radio station Saturday. He sounded mighty good and optimistic about the school's football team next year.

Betty Thomas was surprised "beyond words" on her 39th birthday. A party was given in her honor by the staff of Security Real Estate and several other friends. The party was held in the home of Martha Lewis, and Betty was given "gag" gifts and a birthday cake in the shape of a bikini.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS!

AM I COVERED?

"Ten years ago I bought my home for $20,000 and I figured the value of it today somewhere in the area of $40,000 to $50,000 based on what my neighbors have been able to sell their homes for. If my home were to burn down, would the insurance company pay the $20,000 that I originally paid for my home, or the $40,000 to $50,000 that it's worth now?"

The answer to this question and others is here in this little booklet.

Look for an EER or SEER of

An Efficiency Rating of 8 or more will help reduce air conditioning operating costs.

With the many brands, types and models on the market today, it can be difficult to decide which air conditioner will help you save on electricity.

So here's a reliable rule that should help simplify your task: just remember to look for a unit with an EER (Energy Efficiency Ratio) or SEER (Seasonal Energy Efficiency Ratio) of 8 or above. An Efficiency Rating is to air conditioners what miles per gallon is to cars; it tells you how much cooling the unit will provide in relation to the amount of electricity it uses. The higher the efficiency rating number, the more efficiently the air conditioner operates—and the more you can save on electricity bills.

An air conditioning system with a high EER/SEER may cost more to buy, but the total cost is less in the long run because you'll be able to run it with less electricity. That's an important factor in this part of the country where we use air conditioning so many months of the year.

If you're shopping for air conditioning this season, ask about EER/SEER—and consider a model that rates 8 or more. It can cost you less to cool your home.
