UPPER HOUSE SUPPORTS CZAR

Deputies Refuse to Take Up Douma's Demands

ROYAL VICTORY

Emperor Refuses to Receive Answer Except Through Ministry

Special to The Telegram.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 21.—The czar has won his first fight with the douma. The deputies by an almost unanimous vote this morning adopted a resolution to proceed with the order of the day, thus ignoring the challenge of the emperor in refusing to receive the delegation from the douma with a reply to the address by the throne. The reply must be presented through the ministry, from the fact that the douma surrendered its right as representatives of the people to address the czar direct.

This embodies considerable loss of prestige among the people and strengthens the bureaucracy. Only a couple of fiery speeches were made against the surrender.

DEPUTATION IGNORED

Czar Demands Douma to Send Addresses Through Ministry

By Associated Press.

ST. PETERSBURG, May 21. — A bomb was thrown into the parliamentary camp Sunday afternoon by a note received by President Mouromtseff of the lower house from Peterhof, which, instead of making an appointment for an audience at which he and the deputation could present the address in reply to the speech from the throne, contained the information that Emperor Nicholas would not receive the deputation and that the addresses must be presented through the ministry of the court. Disconcerted, utterly at this unexpected development, the leaders of the majority in the house hastily summoned a caucus of the constitutional democratic deputies. President Mouromtseff, instead of sending the address to Baron Fredericks, minister of the imperial house, immediately issued a call for a meeting of parliament today.

The first disposition of the caucus of constitutional democrats, which was in session during the afternoon and evening and at midnight had not been concluded, was to regard the refusal to receive the deputation as a challenge and an open affront which was only answered by a counter declaration of war. The deputies were red with rage, but after the first passion had cooled the leaders realized the danger of too precipitate action and set for themselves the task of bringing their enraged followers under control.

Outsiders were not admitted to the caucus, but through the doors of the hall of the Constitutional Club, where the caucus was held, it could be seen that Professor Milukoff, Prince Petrdolgoroukoff and others were on their feet time and again, pleading with and commanding their auditors to act deliberately and firmly and not ruin all by unreasoning passion. The cooler counsels seemed ultimately to be prevailing, but it is almost certain that the radical group, accompanied by a portion of the peasant, will break away tomorrow and endeavor to force the house into some fiery decision against the emperor and the government which might compel an immediate rupture, entail dissolution and civil war.

An interesting constitutional point is involved in the refusal of a personal audience by the emperor. According to the parliamentary law, "the president submits to the consideration of the emperor the transactions of the lower house," but it is not stated whether he does so personally, and the deputation is nowhere authorized.

OPPOSITION TO HUGE WARSHIP

Several Senate Committeemen Said to Express Doubt

LARGEST BOAT AFLOAT

Plans for War Vessel to Eclipse Dreadnaught Are for a Dozen Twelve-Inch Guns

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, May 21.—The naval program, providing for the construction of one great battleship of a tonnage equal to any afloat, or now building, will meet opposition in the senate, but not of such stubborn character as is thought likely to endanger its passage. There are several members of the senate committee on naval affairs who express themselves as being opposed to building "a great, unwieldly type like the Dreadnaught," now being constructed for the navy of Great Britain. These men have announced that they express a doubt, although they are not determined to record votes against the policy of the administration.

The battleship proposed by the program and provided for by the bill as it passed the house, in some features, will be greater than the Dreadnaught. The tonnage must be as great as the biggest battleship now planned. This is estimated at about 20,000 tons. Its speed must be at least twenty-one knots and the draft twenty-eight feet. Its armament will surpass the Dreadnaught.

According to the plans for this giant defender for the British navy, it will have ten twelve-inch guns. Chairman Foss of the house committee on naval affairs, said the battle for the United States should have twelve twelve-inch guns.

The South Carolina and the Michigan, plans for which have recently been completed, are the biggest ships now authorized for hte United States, and they will have eight twelve-inch guns.

The annual appropriation bill will not be taken up by the senate committee until the last of the week.

RIO GRANDE TREATY SIGNED

ENDS OLD DISPUTE

Mexican Government Agrees to Protect U. S. Against Claims for Damages

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—Secretary Root for the United States and Ambassador Casasus for the Mexican government today signed the treaty for the regular use of the waters of the Rio Grande, which, if approved by the senate, will remove what has been for years past a source of friction in the relations of the two countries. It is estimated that the waters impounded by the treaty will be sufficient to irrigate about two hundred thousand acres of otherwise arid land, and it is stipulated that of this a total of 60,000 feet of water, which is to make arable about twenty-five thousand acres of land, will be delivered on the Mexican side of the border each year. On its part the Mexican government guarantees the United States government against any suit for liability on account of the claims of individual Mexicans who have so far suffered through the diversion of water. Opposition to the treaty is expected on the part of some of the western senators, who express the belief that either the United States is entitled to all the water without compensation in view of the great expense to which it has been put by the work of constructing irrigating dams and canals or that if the Mexican right is to be recognized at all its title should be purchased outright by cash payment.

BIRMINGHAM, Ala., May 21.—The fifteenth quadrennial general conference of the Methodist Episcopal church, South, which has been in session here since May 3, will in all probability close finally this afternoon. The session is rewarded as one of the most important ever held by the church.

The three new bishops of the church were formally ordained Sunday afternoon, the ceremony being in charge of Senior Bishop A. W. Wilson. The candidates were J. J. Tigert, Seth Ward and James Atkinson. All of the bishops took part in the services, and each of the new men was escorted to his place on the rostrum by two ministers of the gospel.

The ordination sermon was preached by Bishop Wilson.

At the conclusion of the sermon the candidates knelt and were presented with Bibles. Then came the "laying on of hands," which consists in each bishop laying his hands on the candidate's head while the ordination is pronounced by the senior bishop. Bishop Candler presented the parchments which officially conferred upon the candidates the authority to act as bishops. Birmingham pulpits were again occupied by visiting pastors.

Special to The Telegram.

WACO, Texas, May 21.—The county commissioners have fixed the tax rate for this, McLennan county, for another year at the old figure, 45c on the $100 valuation. The county has expended over a quarter of a million dollars in a new court house and jail in the last three years and the rates provides for the interest and sinking fund on these items of indebtedness.

An election was ordered for Aug. 15 to determine whether there should be a special tax of 15 cents additional levied for the improvement of the public roads of the county.

As to the crop conditions, Judge Dudley said that the excessive rains which have prevailed in Lamar and adjacent counties have practically ruined the early crop, and in most instances the farmers will have to replant the cotton and corn crops.

UNION PLANNED

Baptists and Free Baptists Likely to Join

Special to The Telegram.

DAYTON, Ohio, May 21.—Definite steps to bring about union of the Baptists and Free Baptists were taken by the American Baptist Home Mission Society, in session here, yesterday.

The committee appointed last year to consider a plan for co-operation and possible union reported that after conferences a point committee unanimously agreed that since the two denominations are closely related and the original cause of separation has disappeared, the committeed should recommend a free interchange of members and ministers and the extension of a cordial invitation to the Free Baptists to co-operate in eangelistic, educational, missionary and all other denominational work in the hope that a complete organic union of these bodies might be consummated in due time.

This recommendation was unanimously adopted by the home mission society which declared its readiness to co-operate in its work with the Free Baptists wherever it can legally be done.

The home mission society, in view of the vote to raise $175,000 to help rebuild the wrecked and burned churches in California, will begin a vigorous campaign throughout the north and northwest. The reports show the greatest year in its history, with receipts of over $800,000. Two missionaries from Cuba and Porto Rico report good progress in the islands, where in the last five years over fifty churches have been established, with more than 3,000 members. The annual sermon was preached by Dr. W. C. Bitting of St. Louis. Nine great evangelistic meetings were held in different parts of the city.

Powerful influences have been brought to bear to modify the order, but without avail.

Don't burn the candle at both ends. It is an extravagance for which you will have to pay the doctor.

WOUNDED MAN DIES SUNDAY

Joseph Cree Fails to Rally from Effect of Shot

WOMAN IS SOUGHT

Police Send Description to Neighboring Cities—Revolver Found

Death relieved the sufferings of Joseph S. Cree of 928 Humboldt street, at 7:30 o'clock Sunday evening, at St. Joseph's Infirmary, after several physicians had failed after long search to find the bullet which had entered his back.

From the first the attending physicians had but little hopes of the man's recovery, but made a gallant fight for his life. Internal bleeding set in Sunday afternoon and an operation was decided upon. Mr. Cree was taken to the infirmary in a dying condition and expired soon after he was placed upon the operating table. Although conscious to the last, he made no further statement than was published in Sunday"s Telegram, to the effect that the fatal shot was fired while he was kneeling on his bed in the act of pulling down a window curtain.

Mrs. Ella Tallaferro, Cree's sister-in-law, who disappeared after the shooting, is being sought for by the police department.

A 38-calibre revolver with one chamber empty was found in the back yard of Mrs. Ralph Buchanan near the Cree home Sunday evening.

Chief of Police Maddox states that a description of the missing woman has been sent to many other cities with instructions to hold if found.

Joseph S. Cree, the dead man, had lived in Fort Worth since 1901. He was employed as a boilermaker by the Southwestern Machine Company of North Fort Worth. He was born near Mobile, Ala., and has been a resident of this state since 1886. For a time he lived at Walnut Springs as a stock raiser. Later he moved to Temple where he entered the service of the Texas Central railroad. Mr. Cree was a member of the order of Knights of Honor.

The funeral was scheduled to take place Monday afternoon from the residence, 928 Humboldt street, at 4 o'clock in Oakwood cemetery.

NEGRO NEARLY HUNG IN GOTHAM

Strikes Policeman Who Has to Fight for Prisoner's Life

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A negro was probably nearer to being lynched in the city of New York yesterday than a negro has been here in several years. The negro was Thomas Jefferson, who lives in the heart of the district known as San Juan Hill. He has Policeman Carmody to thank for his life. He has also the distinction of having escaped the marksmanship of three citizens who successively blazed away at him with their revolvers. Carmody had arrested the negro and two colored women while the three were engaged in a fight. He landed the women at the station house in West Sixty-eighth street, but Jefferson suddenly struck the officer and made a dash for Broadway. As he did so, a pedestrian pulled a revolver.

"Don't shoot," shouted Carmody; "I'll get him."

"Sure, I'll shoot," responded the man. He blazed away twice, but missed Jefferson, who continued to run. Just then an automobile containing four men came up Broadway. One of them stood up at his seat and pulled a revolver.

"Don't shoot," again shouted Carmody, waiving his club. "I'll outrun him."

"You won't have to," responded the man in the automobile. He also shot twice at the fleeing figure.

In the middle of the block pursuer and pursued passed a man backed against a lamp post. When he saw that the policeman was trying to catch the negro he also drew a revolver.

"Let him alone," shouted Carmody as he passed the man, "you'll shoot me by mistake."

"Wouldn't shoot you for the world," answered the man, "but I'll stop him."

He leveled his revolver and shot three times. The shots did not strike Jefferson, but they attracted the attention of a crowd of men and boys. They got in front of the negro and tripped him up.

"Hang him," they shouted as Carmody ran up.

"Get a rope," another yelled.

"Here's one," cried a milkman, who drove up and leaned out of his wagon with a rope ten feet long in his hands. Half a dozen men made a rush for it, while twenty more bore Jefferson to the ground and began to beat and kick him. Carmody drew his revolver.

"The first man who puts a rope to that prisoner gets shot through the heart," he shouted. "Let's lynch him!" the crowd continued to yell as they crowded around the policeman and the negro with the rope being jerked from hand to hand. Carmody began to fight to get to the negro, but the crowd was resisting him when the reserves arrived. The squad of officers with drawn weapons forced their way through the crowd and finally secured a seriously hurt and bleeding prisoner.

MEMORIAL HELD

Confederate Veterans Have Services in New York

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Services were held yesterday at Mount Hope cemetery, near Yonkers, by the Confederate Veterans' camp of New York, in memory of the Confederate dead buried there. The Daughters of the Confederacy of New York assisted. The services are held annually at this cemetery. There are twenty-four Confederate soldiers buried there, the graves being about the fifty-foot granite monument given by Charles Broadway Rouse in memory of the members of the Confederate Veterans' camp who lost their lives during the Civil war. On a sloping hill, amid unusually beautiful surroundings, the services, conducted in the open air and attended by several hundred southerners of New York, were particularly impressive.

Major Edward Owen, commander of the Confederate Veterans' camp, presided. During the services prayer was offered for the recovery of Mrs. Jefferson Davis.

J. O. Boone of Georgia, whose father was an officer in the Fourth Georgia regiment of the Civil war, sang, and William S. Kelly, a comrade of the veterans' camp, delivered the oration.

Following the benediction the graves were decorated by the Daughters of the Confederacy.

S. A. D. PUTER UNDER ARREST

Man Finally Taken at Alameda, California

OREGON LAND FRAUDS

Charge Against Him Is Connection with Cases—Escaped from Boston Detectives Last Summer

By Associated Press.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 21.—S. A. D. Puter, accused of complicity in the Oregon land frauds and who has been hunted for months by the federal authorities, since he escaped from detectives at Boston, was arrested at Alameda yesterday by secret service men. Puter did not willingly submit to arrest, but attempted to draw a revolver. The detectives quickly covered him yith their pistols, but even then had much trouble in getting their prisoner to the police station.

Puter arrived from New York three days ago and went to Alameda. He took a room in a lodging house in Park street. Last night he visited his wife at Berkeley and after remaining there several hours returned to his lodging house. The secret service men learned of Puter's whereabouts by shadowing a woman. He was on his way to keep an appointment with this woman when arrested.

Puter had taken the name of James William Barr and traveled under that alias since August last. He informed the detectives that he had engaged passage on a steamer for China and intended leaving for that country in a few days. According to the secret service men, Puter's room in Park street resembled an arsenal. Over his bed hung a rifle and in a drawer was a heavy revolver, beside the one found in his possession when captured.

NEW YORK, May 21.—A special to the Times from Tarrytown, N. Y., says:

There was a shooting affray last night on John D. Rockefeller's place at Pocantico Hills, as a result of which one man is dead and another dying. It is said that another wounded man disappeared. The police have not been able as yet to get details of what led to the shooting.

There have been several fights about here among the Italians who are employed in laying out roads. According to a witness of the trouble last night, A group of men were talking in an excited manner, when suddenly there were several shots and the men scattered.

One man fell and died almost instantly. He was John Content, and was shot through the forehead. A second man, who will probably die, is named Tony Dollinick. He was shot in the head and also in the side. The opinion here is that the men quarreled over cards.

WILL ATTEND RACES

Frederick William of Germany Coming for Yacht Contest

By Associated Press.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The Herald today says:

Foreign advices state that Crown Prince Frederick William of Germany will attend the German-American races off Marblehead next September, whether the boat he is building to contest for the right to represent Germany wins in the trial races at Kiel in July or not.

The prince is keenly interested in the racing of small boats, and his attendance at the German-American races is another evidence of the kaiser's temper toward yachting and the German-American entente cordiale in the sport.

It is not settled whether the prince will sail his boat Angela II himself or give the tiller to another Kiel yachtsman.

GIRLS TO STRIKE

Hundreds to Quit-Book Binding in Chicago

By Associated Press.

CHICAGO, May 21.—A strike which may involve hundreds of working girls in the book binderies of Chicago is scheduled to begin today. Orders already have been issued calling out 150 girls employed by the Robert O. Low Company at noon.

The girls assert they are striking against a reduction in wages. Two weeks ago the Law company brought thirty-five non-union girls from the east and put them to work. Shortly afterward, it is said, wages were cut. It is planned to cause a general walkout of the employes in the plant today and simultaneously institute a fight for better wages and conditions all over the city.

A struggle of this extent, it is said, may involve between 5,000 and 6,000 workers.

POLITICS DULL AT CAPITAL

Present Campaign Is Quietest in Years

LITTLE INTEREST

Old Timers Say They Cannot Account for Apparent Lethargy

Special to The Telegram.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—The lack of interest which is being manifested in the gubernatorial contest this year has been the cause of considerable comment in political circles here. Especially is this noticeable when it is taken into consideration that there are five candidates in the field. The old politicians here do not know how to account for this apparent lethargy on the part of the people.

It cannot be said that it is yet too early for the contest to get real warm, as there is now only about two months before the primaries are held, and in the old days for several months before the primaries the different candidates were not only shelling the woods and their friends tearing their shirts in behalf of their respective candidate, but even the atmosphere itself was charged with politics and the merits and demerits of the different candidates was being discussed on the street corners, joint debates were being held and even some times the contest had reached a personal stage, where the candidates indulged in personalities. The politicians are pleased, however, that the campaign has not degenerated into personalities, but they are wondering why so much apathy is being manifested about who will be the next governor of Texas.

The five candidates have made their opening speeches and all are billed to make speeches for at least six weeks to come, but outside of the fact that the candidates generally have spoken to fairly good audiences, there has been no fireworks or other exciting incidents to mark the progress of the campaign.

This campaign cannot hold a candle to the memorable Hogg-Clark campaign, which culminated in the car sheds at Houston in 1892, or even half way come up to the campaign eight years ago, when Governor Sayers received the nomination and caused all other candidates to seek the woods, as it were.

In almost every instance where prominent residents and office holders throughout the state have been here, and asked how the campaign is progressing in their counties, they will reply, that the people are not taking much interest in the campaign, and it does not make much difference to them who is elected the next governor of Texas.

Picnic at Moody

From present indications the big barbecue and picnic which is to be given at Moody, McLennan county, on May 30, will be one of the largest, if not the largest political rally of the present campaign, according to S. Hundley of Moody, who has charge of the big affair.

Mr. Hundley says that Bell, Brooks, Colquitt, Moore and Campbell, the five gubernatorial candidates for governor, will be on hand, besides all the candidates for other state offices. He confidently expects at least 20,000 people to be present on that day.

The Farmers' Union will be represented by Hon. E. A. Calvin, state president of that organization. It is also expected that many of the members of the union will also be there. A number of other attractions have been arranged for and will mark that day one of the greatest in the present campaign.

Many beeves will be slaughtered to feed the people, which are expected to come from all portion of the state.

TROUBLE LIKELY IN CANAL ZONE

U. S. S. Columbia Taking Marines to Vicinity

By Associated Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., May 21.—Although an official statement to that effect cannot be had, it is known that the marines now being shipped on the cruiser Columbia at League Island, Pennsylvania, are bound primarily for Guantanamo, Cuba, there to be kept in readiness for any emergency that may arise on the Isthmus of Panama.

Elections that take place there next month may be accompanied by revolutionary disorders, in fact certain inquiries that have been directed by Governor Morgan by discontented party leaders has been followed by threats of an uprising against the Amedor administration. These led Secretaries Root and Taft to serve notice upon the malcontents that no such manifestation will be permitted anywhere near the canal zone, or at any place where the peace of the zone may be threatened. To give to effect this notice the navy will have a sufficient force of marines on either side of the isthmus to maintain order, and to this end the Columbia is going to a convenient port for observation and action, if necessary, on the gulf side, while the Marblehead is nearing Panama on the Pacific coast.

"Truly yours,

"W. M. REA, President."

Mr. Rea was asked if he would again be a candidate for president of the association, and he said that he would not be.

"I have been honored by the association,'" he said, "as much as I merit and I propose to give way to some man who is in official harness. City Marshal John Dobbins of Waco has been mentioned in connection with the office I now hold and he is fully qualified to make a good president. My name will not be before the convention for re-election."

To Visit Here

Chief of Police J. H. Maddox states that he will issue a circular soon, inviting all of the members of the state association of Chiefs of Police and City Marshals to visit Fort Worth a day or two prior to the state convention, which will be held at Amarillo June 12, 13 and 14. It is expected that a large number will avail themselves of this opportunity and preparations will be made by Chief Maddox for their entertainment.

A committee will show the visitors through the different packing houses and factories of North Fort Worth. The Denver Road has informed the executive committee of the association of which Chief Maddox is chairman, that free transportation will be furnished to all of the delegates from this city to Amarillo. Chief Maddox will participate in the convention program.

NO MANDATE IN MARTIN CASE

Local Officers Write for Instructions

The mandate in the Rufus Martin murder case has never reached Fort Worth from Washington. Martin was convicted of the murder of Charles Schwackhammer and given the death penalty. The case was taken to the criminal court of appeals, where the finding of the jury was affirmed and the case was then taken to the Supreme court of the United States on a writ of error. Last March the supreme court passed on the case, refusing to interfere with the finding in the state courts, and since the decision of the supreme court the time has expired in which a motion for a rehearing could be filed; yet no mandate has been issued or received authorizing the verdict of the jury that convicted Martin to be carried out.

Some time ago Chief Deputy District Clerk Mart Hardin wrote to the clerk of the United States supreme court on the subject of the mandate and in answer the clerk of that court assured him that the mandate would be issued without delay. This was a month ago, yet no mandate has been received.

Saturday Mr. Hardin wrote to the attorney general of Texas on the subject, but as yet has received no answer from him as to his proper course.

Cause of delay is unknown here.

Seventeenth District Court

Forty-Eighth District Court

The criminal docket was taken up by Judge Irby Dunklin in the Forty-eighth district court Monday morning. Upon call of the docket the case of state of Texas vs. Jim Irwin was announced ready for trial, and the morning session was consumed by the trial of it. At noon Judge Dunklin charged the jury and adjourned court until 2 p. m.

Irwin is charged with assault to murder in two cases, the specifications being that he stabbed two women in a row in the rear of a saloon in Eleventh street. Erwin was arrested in Dallas. Both women have recovered from their injuries.

STORM CAUSES GREAT DAMAGE

Woman Paralyzed and Negro Killed at Jefferson

Special to The Telegram.

JEFFERSON, Tex., May 21.—During the wind, rain and electrical storm which prevailed Saturday, Miss Hortense Rives, who had just administered some medicine to her mother, who was ill, turned and stepped to the window when a bolt of lightning struck near by and entered the Rives home through the electric light wire, shattering the chandelier, darting across the hall and striking Miss Rives and Mrs. J. W. Sedbury, who stood by the bedside of Mrs. Rives. Both were prostrated. Mrs. Rives was not affected by the lightning.

Miss Rives was rendered unconscious and remained so until early today, when she regained consciousness.

Mrs. Sedbury was badly stunned, but is reported resting easy today.

The doctors state that, as a result of the shaft which struck Miss Rives, she has sustained partial paralysis and is in a critical condition, but that the paralysis may eventually wear off.

A negro was also struck by lightning and had his leg broken by a flying sign board. He died this morning.

A mule hitched to a tree was killed when the tree was blown down.

Benefield's feed store had its roof ripped off and damage to stock by rain is said to be $2,000.

Eugene Meyers, hardware merchant, reports $3,500 damages by the roof being torn from his store and warehouse, where a large stock of lime was stored. This took fire and for a time threatened a serious fire. However, by rolling the barrels of lime from the warehouse the fire was extinguished.

The OK saloon was unroofed, as was the St. John barber shop, where the estimated damage is $500.

Telephone and telegraph wires were put out of commission, the long distance not getting their lines working into the storm-swept district until noon Sunday.

Much damage was done to fruit and shade trees, as well as to crops and garden truck.

GRAIN DEALERS MEET THIS WEEK

Program Issued for Annual Convention

HOLD TWO DAY SESSION

Interesting Topics to Be Discussed at Annual Gathering by Members of Organization in This City

The eighth annual convention of the Texas Grain Dealers' Association will open in Fort Worth Thursday, May 24, at Imperial Hall, for a two days' convention. The Texas Association, when organized eight years ago, counted its grain elevators in numbers under a dozen; today elevators number in the hundreds. This not only shows the rapid growth of the grain dealers' association, but points to the fact that a good part in business circles is played by grain men in Texas.

It is shown by the railroad commission's reports that as to revenue and tonnage, grain shipments rank second, being exceeded only by lumber.

NEW INDUSTRIES LOOK THIS WAY

Factory Club Has Orders for Locations

Many communications are being received daily from industrial interests desiring to locate in Fort Worth. A. N. Evans, secretary of the Fort Worth Factory Club, is a busy man, looking up locations for jobbers and manufacturers.

Among those whose coming is certain is a wholesale dry goods and notions house from Michigan. Mr. Evans has been instructed to secure location for a large and complete stock of this line. They will require a two-story building with not less than 50x100 feet floor space.

A concern distributing carriages and buggies has also authorized the Factory Club to secure a location for them. They will have to have a two or three-story building with floor space of about 200 feet square. Interest is now being shown by city property owners in the building of such a repository that can be rented for a price satisfactory.

It was announced Monday that the cotton mill which is expected to be opened in this city will be represented here within the next few days.

The Factory Club is now in correspondence with a distributing house handling bicycles and automobiles, which is looking for the right location.

LETTER TO C. BARR & CO.

Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Sirs: We manage to get some fun out of paint. J. H. Kohlmeyer, Grove City, Pa., put in Devoe. Along came a salesman of somebody else's paint before ours had got there. Salesman said ours was short-measure. Kohlmeyer weakened, hung fire and flopped; stopped ours and took his.

It was our turn now. We emptied our can into his and his into ours. The short-measure was his, not ours; and we kept our man.

And, ever since then, that paint-manufacturer gives full-measure; his paint is not pure, but his gallon contains four quarts.

Go by the name; and the name to go by is Devoe lead-and-zinc.

Yours truly,

MAIL WEIGHING TO END

Period to End June 5 Unless Department Orders Extension

The mail weighing period is to come to an end throughout the United States June 5, unless the postal department decides that a further test is desired and orders a continuance of the weighing work. It has made a great deal of extra labor aboard mail cars and at postoffices, and a small army of laborers will be released when the test service ends.

Upon the average weights, as ascertained by the records compiled in the tests, will be based the contracts with the railroads for hauling mails for the next four years.

LITTLE DEBT ON BAPTIST CHURCH

New House of Worship Dedicated Sunday

Contributions made at dedication of the new Broadway Baptist church leave a debt of but a few thousands dollars upon the magnificent church edifice in which the first service was held Sunday afternoon.

Rev. George W. Truett of Dallas preached the dedicatory sermon, being introduced by the pastor, Rev. C. A. Stewart. He later made an appeal for funds to leave the building free of debt, being followed by W. D. Harris, mayor and member of the building committee of the church.

Mayor Harris made a report of the financial conditions of the church, showing total indebtedness, including all finishings, to be $29,610. Of this $13,668 had been paid and $3,395 remained in unpaid pledges, leaving a deficit of $12,544.

Mayor Harris subscribed $1,000, as did Giles Connell, the Aid and Missionary Society and E. L. White. W. S. Bogert and J. A. Lee contributed $500 each. A large number of smaller contributions followed.

The church building is one of the most beautiful and imposing structures in the south. Situated on the corner of St. Louis avenue and Broadway, it is in the center of one of the city's most attractive neighborhoods and is easily accessible from almost any part of the city. The building is of red brick with white stone facings, the entrance being guarded by stately southern pillars of white. The interior finish is beautiful, being tastefully arranged in semi-amphitheater form. The walls are tinted in pink and lavender shades most agreeable to the eye. The pipe organ is one of the finest in the country. The building has a seating capacity downstairs of about 900 and is crowned by a gallery which will seat about 500.

A special feature upstairs is the Sunday school library, with nearly 1,000 good books. About 120 Sunday school children patronize the library every Sunday. F. E. Webb is in charge of this special feature and says he hopes soon to have 2,000 volumes in the library for the benefit of the Sunday school and church. It was stated that in designing the building comfort and convenience were desired more than architectural beauty, but the completed structure embodies both ideas.

RELIEF SOCIETY NAMES OFFICERS

Annual Meeting of Hebrew Organization Held

The annual meeting of the Hebrew Relief Society was held Sunday afternoon at the Jewish synagogue in Taylor street.

The large audience was much interested in the record of work done during the year, as read by the secretary-treasurer of the organization. This showed that many Jews coming here from northern states were helped with work or placed in business, and many given transportation to different places. Few residents of Fort Worth applied for assistance except in certain cases of sickness, when hospital and nursing attendance was given. There were also few cases of business predicaments, in which cases the society loaned amounts of money, which were also promptly repaid.

The report shows that the society is now well organized and that the majority of Jews of Fort Worth are members and contributors, but an urgent appeal was made for larger yearly contributions, as more funds were declared needed for this relief work. The report shows that the disbursements amounted to $594.55, while the receipts were $583.15, showing a deficit of $11.40.

The organization very heartily thanked the secretary-treasurer, Israel N. Mehl, for his work for the organization and unanimously re-elected him for the same office.

Officers elected are: S. Gilbert, president; Rabbi Joseph Jasin, vice president; I. N. Mehl, secretary-treasurer; trustees, M. Shamblum, A. Salsberg, B. Levinson, M. Ginsberg and H. Brodky.

A resolution was passed thanking Rabbi Joseph Jasin for assistance rendered the organization during the year.

MAN ABOUT TOWN

Ex-Governor Bob Taylor of Tennessee, who attained a world wide reputation for his fiddling campaign many years ago in that state, was in Fort Worth Sunday on his way to Amarillo and Wichita Falls to lecture.

Ex-Governor Taylor, who but recently defeated Senator Carmack for re-election, reports that the fiddle has taken a back seat in his political work, not being used in the last campaign. "It has been fifteen or twenty years since I have played," said ex-Governor Taylor.

Hon. John A. Hendricks, special United States attorney, returned Sunday from Sherman and Howe, Texas, where he has been engaged in taking depositions on behalf of the government in the claim of Robert Smithey against the United States and Kiowa and Comanche tribes of Indians, pending in the United States court of claims. This claim involves the loss of about three hundred stock horses and 12,000 buffalo hides valued at $36,000, in Shackelford county, Texas, at the hands of the Kiowa and Comanche Indians between the years of 1871 and 1877. L. H. Evridge, a comissioner of the court of claims, accompanied him on the trip.

Batteries were—White City, McDonald and Thompson; Iron Workers, Bailey and Jones.

On the second Sunday in June the White City team will play the Sioux Indians on the Rosen Heights diamond.

The Sioux records show 1,558 games played from the year 1898 to 1905, with but 304 games lost. They travel in their own cars and carry with them canvas fencing and bench seats.

ROBBER WORKS SUNDAY

Two Commandments Violated by Entry of First Street Residence

George W. Norton, residing at 601 East First street, returned home from the country Sunday afternoon to find his house had been entered and a small sum of money stolen.

Every room had been searched, drawers and closets ransacked and left in disorder. A window in the rear of the residence had been forced open, through which it is supposed the robber effected an entrance. Both front and back doors were standing open when Mr. Norton returned. He is convinced the robbery occurred during the day. Mr. Norton left home Saturday night. The police department has been notified.

STRAWBERRIES STILL TO COME

Texas Truck Growers Hopeful of Prospects

The strawberry crop of North and East Texas suffered extensively during the recent rains. The crop, up to that period, had been the most fortunate of any of the agricultural ventures of the year. The last of the winter frosts came early enough to find the strawberry plant advancement so slight that no harm was done. The early spring rains were just in time to start the berry on a most promising course of maturity. The early ripenings were almost perfect in quality of fruit and the yield was of gratifying proportions.

The strawberry plots around Terrell, Tyler, Troupe, Jacksonville and Dallas comprise the heart of the strawberry belt of North and East Texas. Many hundreds of crates were marketed by growers with commission houses, at an average of $3 per crate, before the recent rains came. The storm caught the industry just at the zenith of picking time—in about the middle of the harvest. Hundreds of crates of ripe berries were on the plants, waiting for the pickers to gather them. The rain suspended picking for more than a week, and all these berries became water soaked and overripe.

The price of berries that are thus deteriorated drops about as largely as any injured crop well could. The crates that were going readily at $3 in local commission houses before the rain, have had to be sold at an average of $1.

It costs, including boxing, 83 cents per crate to harvest strawberries. The price of $1 per crate will not nearly cover the season's expense of growing the strawberries, when value of land, labor expense in cultivation before maturity and various incidentals are taken into account.

The price of $3 per crate, however, leaves a handsome margin of profit. There are many hundreds of crates of late strawberries to ripen within the next two weeks. With warm, sunshiny weather, the strawberry growers of Texas hope et to realize better than an average year's financial results.

PANTHERS KEEP IT UP

Defeat Temple in Opening Game by 9 to 2

Vance's unsteadiness and infield errors at critical times helped the Panthers take the first game from Temple Sunday. Boles and Cavender had their batting clothes on, each landing three safeties out of four times at bat. One of Boles' hits was a three-bagger. Clayton also found Vance for a triple. The score:

Irregular, Suppressed or Painful Periods, Weakness of the Stomach, Indigestion, Bloating, Nervous Prostration, Headache, General Debility quickly yield to it. Deranged organs, causing pain, weight and backache, instantly relieved and permanently cured by its use. Under all circumstances it invigorates the female system.

It quickly removes that bearing-down feeling, extreme lassitude, "don't care" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feeling, excitability, irritability, nervousness, dizziness, faintness, sleeplessness, flatulency, melancholy or the "blues" and headache. These are sure indications of Female Weakness, or some derangement of the organs, which this medicine surely cures. Chronic Kidney Complaints and Backache, of either sex, the Vegetable Compound cures.

Those women who refuse to accept anything else are rewarded a hundred thousand times, for they get what they want—a cure. Sold by Druggists everywhere. Refuse all substitutes.

ECZEMA SKIN RAW AND FEVERISH—ITCHING INTENSE

Eczema is a tormenting, stubborn disease caused by an acid humor in the blood coming in contact with the skin and producing redness, inflammation and almost intolerable itching. An inactive state of the system and sluggish condition of the eliminative members leaves the waste and refuse matter of the body to collect and sour instead of passing them off through nature's channels of bodily waste. The blood in its efforts to purge the system of all foreign matter absorbs this acid and throws it off through the pores and glands of the skin. The acrid humor seems to ooze out and set the skin on fire, the straw colored, sticky fluid drying and forming crusts, and the itching is intense. When these pustules are scratched off the skin is left raw and feverish and often a solid sore is formed and kept up by the constant escape of acids from the blood. Local applications of salves, powders, lotions etc. are desirable and should be used because they allay the itching and give the sufferer temporary comfort, but are in no sense curative, because they cannot reach the seat of the trouble, which is in the blood.

S.S.S. PURELY VEGETABLE.

S. S. S. goes down into the blood, cleanses the circulation of all acids and humors, builds up the thin, sour blood and by removing every vestige of the cause cures Eczema permanently. The irritating eruptions disappear, the itching and burning cease, and the acid fired skin, being fed by a fresh, cooling stream of blood, becomes soft and smooth again. S. S. S. is made of healing, purifying roots, herbs and barks that will not damage any part of the system. Book on skin diseases and any medical advice free.

THE CANDIDACY OF JUDGE BELL

Judge Bell is not in favor of administering reform to Texas in homeopathic doses. He is in favor of reform that is reform—not the kind that is advocated by the place hunters for the sake of advancing their own interests. He would punish every guilty grafter in the state. If grafters there be, but he would not continually slander his home state and his home people in order to obtain political preferment.—Fort Worth Telegram.

Artful dodger, shrewd politician, this man Bell, and there are just hundreds like him all over the country. "He would punish every guilty grafter in the state if——" It is the custom of peace officers to plead ignorance of certain crimes, but claim they are more than willing to prosecute provided citizens will get the evidence and make the affidavit for arrest. That's Bell's dodge. He would sit supinely down and wait for some citizen to produce evidence and cause the arrest of a grafter. If convicted he would pocket the fee and claim the credit for the conviction, if credit was due. If there should be censure he would shift responsibility on the man who made the affidavit and justify his action by claiming that the law required him to take action.—Beaumont Journal.

The Beaumont paper is too prejudiced against Judge Bell to do justice to his character. That prejudice is largely based on the supposition that he is the administration candidate, and the Journal is so opposed to Lanham that it develops mild indications of hydrophobia at the bare mention of his name. The Journal believed because Lanham is favorable to the nomination of Judge Bell that it is the duty of every pro-Lanham influence in the state to fight him, and that is an exhibition of narrowness that does not comport with the proper idea of journalism or justice.

Judge Bell dodges no issue in the pending state campaign. His declarations on every issue were as clean cut and well defined as it was possible for the English language to portray them. He stands for every essential and proper reform, and declares in unmistakable terms not only for the enforcement of the laws, but in addition thereto, he would strengthen the laws where such action is necessary.

Did Judge Bell sit supinely down when serving as attorney general of the state? The records at Austin show more activity on his part than on that of any of his predecessors. He not only fathered the present anti-trust law of Texas, but he enforced it. The records of the department at Austin will show that more penalties were collected under Bell's administration than under that of any of his predecessors. That is the way Bell dodged.

Because Judge Bell does not join in the chorus of place hunters who are daily maligning the state is no indication that he would sit supinely down and make no effort to enforce the state laws. The man who has the greatest lung capacity and the widest facial aperture does not possess all the elements of true statesmanship. Judge Bell is making a dignified and manly campaign for governor of Texas, and a winning campaign. He is having to fight the field, but that will not affect the result. The people of Texas know Judge Bell and they honor him for his manliness and high order of statesmanship that insists on getting above the groveling things of dyspeptic place hunter, and maintains a course that proclaims him the peer of any of his competitors.

Texas democrats will please take notice that Fort Worth is an applicant for the state democratic convention this year, and respectfully insists that no other Texas city can put forward greater reasons for the granting of the favor. Just a word to members of the state executive committee may be of advantage to the convention city at this juncture.

The Tyler peach crop is already beginning to ripen and some early shipments have gone to market by express. That Tyler section is as great on truck farming and fruit production these days as it formerly was in the production of politicians. And the Tyler gang is now prospering more abundantly than in the days when its aspirations were so largely political.

The Missouri railways have served notice on all the politicians this year that they must pay fare to the various state conventions. The time honored pass system has been cut out and there will be no exceptions. It is a good rule and should be generally emulated.

The excessive rains of the past few days have done considerable damage to growing crops over a considerable portion of North Texas, but there is some consolation in the realization that hard winds and big hailstones were quite generally omitted.

The fact that Winfield Scott is preparing to build another big hotel down in the vicinity of the Texas and Pacific passenger station, would seem to indicate the passing of his desire to leave Fort Worth and settle down to a dreamy existence in California.

Texas lands are in active demand, and from every section of the state there comes the same story of steady and rapid advancement in values. The home buyer is losing money daily through the process of procrastination.

Albert T. Patrick has obtained another respite until some time in June, and it seems as easy for Patrick to get favors of this kind as it was for the Republican party to obtain insurance money in recent Presidential campaigns.

The first shipment of Texas peaches has already found its way to market, and the men who said we would have no peaches in Texas this year have very considerately gone into hiding.

Commissioner Garfield has filed an additional and fuller report on Standard Oil, and his action in the premises seems to have been anticipated by a heavy advance in the price of gasoline.

The assistant attorney general of Texas is following octopus signs all the way to Missouri, and it is expected he will come back home loaded with quite an accumulation of evidence.

Uncle Joe Cannon is not saying much about that Presidential boomlet, but it is a foregone conclusion that he will not over exert himself in an effort to get out of its immediate vicinity.

The market house proposition seems to be resting quietly under the incubus of that offical vote, but there is a sentiment being manifested in the direction of trying to resurrect it.

Fort Worth should lose no time in the matter of trying to secure the state Democratic convention. While we are waiting for developments our competitors are working like beavers.

President Roosevelt is making some very good democratic medicine these days, in spite of the fact that he turned his back so unceremoniously on his late democratic colleagues.

Comptroller Stephens is having a walkover so far in the matter of opposition for re-election. Has the Gray Fox of Lamar gone into his hole and pulled the burrow in after him?

Colonel C. Arthur Williams has passed up another glowing and glittering opportunity to nominate Senator Joseph Weldon Bailey for the Presidency.

The Texas Press

Chairman Andrews says he does not know just where the committee will meet June 11, and just where the state convention will be held is not known yet, but no matter. Colquitt can be nominated one place just as well as another.—Terrell Transcript.

Chairman Andrews is not the man to say where the convention shall be held, as that is a matter to be determined by the executive committee, of which he is the chairman. And Colquitt can also fail to get the nomination at one place as well as another.

That the state convention hall will be filled with Bell rooters, no matter where the convention is held, is an assurance of the Fort Worth Telegram. The declaration will not be disputed by the Journal. Railroads will doubtless furnish free transportation not only to Bell delegates, but to all those who are deemed qualified to render assistance in securing his nomination for governor.—Beaumont Journal.

The state convention will be filled with Bell rooters by virtue of the fact that the majority of its members will be instructed for him. And they will pay their fare over the railways just as all good democrats usually do.

The press with almost complete unanimity favors the sidetracking of all the members of the legislature who promised to serve in the special session without compensation and then drew their per diem and mileage. And they should be. No excuse should be accepted. They simply promised to serve gratis and when they broke their promises they proved themselves unworthy to remain in the legislature.—Childress Post.

The people of Texas feel that those members of the state legislature who violated their agreement with regard to the special session are no longer worthy of trust, and it is a pretty safe assumption.

The railroads that pass through Texas to the gulf are the railroads that will show the greatest earning if that Panama ditch is ever digged. That is the reason the railroads are hustling to get to the gulf, and are traveling this way to get there.—Sherman Register.

The railways are making preparations for the coming changes to be wrought by the Panama canal, and Galveston is the Mecca for all of them. All Texas will benefit by this great enterprise, and it is to be hoped that work will progress rapidly on its construction.

❖ ❖ ❖ ❖

C. K. Bell of Fort Worth opened his campaign for governor at Hamilton, May 3. We are in receipt of his speech, which is a masterly effort. While we have not had time to read it carefully, but have read many extracts therefrom, and have come to the conclusion that Mr. Bell is the man Texas needs in the executive chair. —Snyder Light.

And that is the conclusion the people of all Texas are rapidly coming to. Judge Bell's Hamilton speech has made a fine impression from one end of the state to the other.

CALL ISSUED TO DEMOCRATS

State Chairman Summons the Committee for June 11

THE CONVENTION CITY

Must Be Selected at Meeting—Fort Worth a Strong Favorite for Place

Special to The Telegram.

HOUSTON, Texas, May 21.—The first official move in the direction of getting the machinery of the democratic party in working order was made Saturday by Frank Andrews of Houston, chairman of the state democratic executive committee. Given herewith is his call for a meeting of the democratic executive committee, to be held at Austin Monday, June 11.

In the call Chairman Andrews states that the main thing which the executive committee will consider will be the determining of the convention city. The time for the state convention is fixed by the Terrell election law. It must be held on the second Tuesday in August. The executive committee will name the place. There are already several cities in the candidate class, with Fort Worth a leading favorite.

A matter which Chairman Andrews stresses as being of special importance is that relating to the holding of democratic primaries in counties where no local provision is made.

The official call follows:

Chairman's Call

Houston, Texas, May 19, 1906.—In accordance with section 109 of the general election law, notice is hereby given that the state democratic executive committee of the state of Texas is called to meet in the city of Austin, at the Driskill hotel at 9 o'clock a. m. on Monday, June 11, 1906, for the purpose of deciding upon the place of holding the next state democratic convention on the second Tuesday in August, and for the transaction of such other business as may come before said meeting.

Matters of importance to the party organization under the new primary election law will be considered, and especially matters in relation to methods of holding democratic primaries in counties where no provision may be made by local party authority, in the event that such contingency should arise, and all other matters considered within the jurisdiction of the committee, and for the good of the party which may be brought before it.

Each member of the committee is urgently requested to be present; each candidate for a state office is personally requested to attend such meeting. All democrats interested in the success of the party and who desire to do so, are invited to be present at said meeting. Respectfully submitted,

FRANK ANDREWS,
Chairman State Democratic Executive Committee.

TO CUT SALARY OF CO. TREASURER

Bell County to Curtail Other Expenses, Also

Special to The Telegram.

TEMPLE, Texas, May 21.—Considerable consternation has been created in court circles at Belton by the announcement that the Bell county commissioners' court would, at a meeting to be held early this week, reduce the salary of the county treasurer to such a figure that it would no longer prove attractive to candidates for office.

The plan of the commissioners is to have the county depository, which pays interest on public funds, practically superseding the treasurer.

There are three avowed candidates for the office of treasurer.

The commissioners are also to consider the advisability of lopping off certain ex-officio salaries that have been allowed county officers in increasing amounts from year to year, until it has been claimed that several Bell county officials were drawing a larger salary than the governor of Texas. The probable action of the court has created consternation in the ranks of the official family, but the public enjoys the situation.

Fifty Converts at Methodist Meeting in Hillsboro

Special to The Telegram.

HILLSBORO, Texas, May 21.—The big revival meeting, which has been in progress at the First Methodist church here for the past two weeks, closed last night. Rev. Hubert D. Knickerbocker of Dallas preached two sermons a day, and about fifty converts resulted. At the Sunday morning service a subscription list was started for a $3,000 pipe organ to be installed in the church, and $2,000 of the amount was raised at the service.

Special to The Telegram.

ITALY, Texas, May 21.—F. L. Hawkins, now county judge, and G. C. Grace, candidates for judge of the Fortieth judicial district, engaged in a joint discussion at Milford Friday night and again at Boyce Saturday night. This marked the opening of the county campaign.

The present district judge, J. E. Dillard, has announced that he is not a candidate for re-election, but will retire to private life after fourteen years of continuous public service.

The Fortieth judicial district is composed of the counties of Ellis, Kaufman and Rockwall.

SUPPLY SCHEDULE FOR PUBLICATION

Contracts to Be Let for Eleemosynary Institutions

Special to The Telegram.

AUSTIN, Texas, May 21.—State Purchasing Agent Anderson has just completed the compilation and placed in the hands of the state printer the estimates of supplies for the nine eleemosynary institutions of the state. This is a great task, as for the past several weeks the superintendents and heads of the different institutions have been furnishing to the department a schedule of what they want for the fiscal year, and these items are compiled and made into one schedule and sent to the prospective in and outside of the state. State Purchasing Agent Anderson announced that this schedule will be ready for distribution about June 1 and those who wish to bid for furnishing supplies will have an opportunity to do so.

The bids will be opened on June 28 and the awards of the contracts will be made. This will take some time and it is expected that deliveries will be made in September for the fiscal year beginning Sept. 1, 1906, and ending August 31, 1907.

This method of buying supplies for the different state institutions has so far proved quite a success, as the purchasing power is confined and concentrated into one head and thus one price is obtained and the state by being such a large purchaser it is possible to have better rates than would otherwise be obtainable if each of the institutions went into the market on its own hook. The law creating the state purchasing department was passed during the administration of Governor Sayers and was a recommendation from the chief executive.

BOOM ALONG THE NEW ORIENT ROAD

Development of New Towns Continues

Special to The Telegram.

DALLAS, May 21.—Reports from West and Northwest Texas on crop conditions and genera materia deveopment continue to be most gratifying. F. B. Balio is back in Dallas from a trip of observation as far west at Odessa, south to San Angelo and northwest into the Stamford county. Mr. Ballio gives expression to his enthusiasm as follows:

"I never before witnessed such a boom as is going on along the route of the new Orient railroad system. That new country is being opened up as if by magic. The boom is different from that generally characterizing new countries, in that there is a total absence of the 'temporary.' Everything in the way of construction has the appearance of permanency. There are no 'mushroom' towns, to be occupied for a short time and then disappear, the population going to the 'front,' as the end of the railroad track is generally called. Take the town of Rule, north of Stamford, for exampe; sixty days ago there was not a house on the townsite; now the permanent popuation exceeds 1,100 and the foundation has been competed for a $25,000 hotel. Farmers are settling in the surrounding country proportionately numerous to the population in the towns. Crop conditions could not be better. Wheat, oats, corn, cotton and fodder crops are as near perfect as can be found anywhere in the country. There seems to be no limit to the disposition to plant cotton in the northwest and middle west Texas."

THE MARATHON MYSTERY

BY BURTON E. STEVENSON

COPYRIGHT 1906, BY HENRY HOLT & COMPANY

An unknown man is killed at the Marathon, an apartment house, Godfrey, a reporter, and Simmons, his detective friend, finding Grace Croydon, an acquaintance of the newspaper man, standing in the room with a smoking pistol in her hand. She proves her innocence of direct connection with the crime and is freed from suspicion.

Part II

Lester, an attorney who knows Godfrey, takes apartments at the Marathon, the two thinking that Tremaine, who lives there and who becomes acquainted with Lester, has some connection with the murder. Cecily, the woman companion to Tremaine, so Lester learns in the course of their acquaintance, keeps a small pet snake, called Fefe, whose species is such that a bite kills the person bitten in a very short time.

Part III

Tremaine visits the Delroys. Grace Croydon is there. Tremaine makes love to her and Drysdale, also one of the house party, becomes enraged as he is engaged to Grace. It is proposed to immerse a pearl necklace belonging to Mrs. Delroy in sea water, to restore its lost brilliancy, two men being engaged to guard it. The elder man thus engaged is killed and investigation shows that Drysdale was the only person supposed to be out of the house during the time just preceding the finding of the dead man. He is arrested, charged with murder and taken to jail in New York city.

Lester finds some clippings under a carpet in his room at the Marathon, the same room in which the first murder was committed. He thinks they have some connection with the first murder. He shows them to the newspaper reporter.

"Now we reconstruct the whole story. Tremaine, a defaulter and robber, escapes from prison, leaving his partner in the lurch, treacherously, no doubt, since it awakened his violent anger. Tremaine finally goes back to France, entangling Edith Croydon, then only about 16, in a marriage. Of course he wants money, and so she writes to her father, who comes and takes her home—no doubt paying Tremaine a handsome sum to take himself off—in fact, mortgaging his home to do it.

"Miss Croydon gradually recovers; but she is Tremaine's wife. Yet in 1900 she marries Delroy. She must, therefore, have had good reason to believe Tremaine dead."

"Don't you see?" I cried. "That's the meaning of that item about the foundering of the Centaur, with all on board. Tremaine was a passenger and she knew it."

"Good!" nodded Godfrey. "That's undoubtedly it. Let me see," and he turned back to the clipping; "that was in 1892. His name, perhaps, appeared among the missing; she waited eight years, and at last, believing his death established beyond a doubt, married again.

"Now let us see what Tremaine was doing. In 1896 he was in Australia, planning a bank robbery. He meets Thompson, now a common sailor, and takes him in on the plan; and Thompson, to get even for that treachery at Sing Sing, gives him away. Tremaine, no doubt, got a penitentiary sentence. He probably broke jail again, for in 1899 he appears in Martinique, supposedly from South America. He has considerable money, which he no doubt stole somewhere, and perhaps he chose St. Pierre as a safe place to stay in hiding.

"Thompson learns where he is—perhaps even sees him at St. Pierre—and puts a bouquet to his revenge by driving him into fits of rage by reminding him of that Australian treachery. But at last he sends him a message, which brings him to New York.

"We know what Tremaine came here to do—he came to blackmail Mrs. Delroy. It's pretty safe, then, to suppose that the message told him that she was blackmailable—in other words, that she had married a rich man.

"Now," he continued, "let us review the scene which occurred in this room. Tremaine establishes himself in the suite across the hall, and spends a week or two in looking over the ground, ostensibly boosting his railroad scheme. Thompson, who has been in jail, joins him and takes these rooms.

"At last Tremaine writes a note to Mrs. Delroy. She has, of course, been thrown into a panic. He writes again: In despair, she seeks the advice of her sister, and Miss Croydon, who is by far the stronger of the two, offers to come here herself.

"She arrives promptly, despite the rain, and we can imagine that the dialogue which followed was not of a milk-and-water kind—both of them are full of fire, and they made the sparks fly.

"Thompson is aroused and coming from the other room, interferes. He is still half-drunk; perhaps he threatens Tremaine. At any rate, Tremaine picks up the iron pipe and knocks him down; then, in a sudden black frenzy of anger, remembering Australia, seeing how Thompson will always stand in his way, he draws his revolver and shoots him through the heart.

"That," he concluded, "is my idea of the story. There's one person who can fill in the details. I'm going to apply to her as soon as I get back from Boston."

"You mean Miss Croydon?"

"Yes," he nodded, "and I think Tremaine is pretty near the end of his adventurous career."

"There's one thing," I remarked, after a moment, "that diamond I found on the floor here didn't come from Tremaine's pin. I tried it last night and it didn't fit."

Godfrey smiled as he placed the clippings carefully in his pocketbook.

"I know it," he said; "I meant to tell you. It came from a ring belonging to Jimmy the Dude. I saw him tonight across the street and I noticed the ring on his finger. He said he'd lost the diamond somewhere the night Thompson was killed. He probably dropped it here as he was helping Thompson to bed."

"That's it, no doubt," I agreed; "but it breaks one thread of evidence."

"We don't need it!" declared Godfrey confidently, as he arose to go. "We've got a chain about Tremaine, Lester, that he can't break—and we'll compel Miss Croydon to forge the last rivet."

CHAPTER IV:
Cecily Says Good-Bye

When I left the office at noon next day I took the elevated to the Grand Central station and bought a ticket to Ossining. Once there, I went direct to the gray old prison and stated my errand to Mr. Jones, the subwarden, whom I found in charge.

"I've come up from New York," I said, "to see if you can identify this man," and I handed him the photograph of Thompson. "We've rather imagined," I added, "that his real name was Johnson and that he served a term here for robbery, beginning in 1885."

He looked at the photograph, then consulted the index.

"Here he is," he said, opening a compartment in one of the wall cases. "It's the same man, only changed a lot. I suppose they took his Bertillon measurements at the morgue, and we've only to compare them with ours."

And he had changed, indeed. The Johnson of the prison photograph was, of course, smooth-shaven; his face was alert, intelligent; there was no trace upon the temple, nor did the features show the bloating of continued dissipation. But it was the same.

"I remember him now," said Johnson, looking from one photograph to the other. "He had been captain of a little tramp steamer, I believe. He tried to escape, but his pal went back for him and left him layin' out yonder on the wall. His pal was a bad one, he was; he got away and I've often wondered what become of him. Guess he is."

He swung open another compartment, and I found myself staring at Tremaine.

Not until I was quite near New York did I notice the cry of the train boys as he went through the coaches with the evening papers.

"All about th' Edgemere murder!" he was crying, and the name caught my ear.

"Edgemere," I repeated to myself. "Edgemere. I've heard that name somewhere."

Then in a flash I remembered; and in a moment more the whole story—the tragedy of the night before—the murder of Graham and the theft of Mrs. Delroy's necklace—lay before me. With what intensity of interest I read it can be easily imagined.

Tremaine's alibi was perfect. On the other hand, the evidence against young Drysdale seemed complete in every link. Coroner Heffelbower ought in for the lion's share of praise—every one agreed that he had conducted the case with rare skill and acumen. Of course, the Record had his photograph.

Drysdale, it appeared, had been lodged in jail at Babylon, and had stubbornly refused to make any statement or to explain his absence from the house.

At my door I paused a moment; then I crossed the hall and knocked at Tremaine's door. Perhaps Cecily had forgiven me, and in an evening's talk I ought to be able to find out something more.

But it was Tremaine who opened to me.

"Oh, Mr. Lester," he cried, with outstretched hand, "how are you? I wanted to see you—I've been listening for your step. You must join us here this evening."

"I shall be glad to," I said, returning his clasp. "But why so particularly this evening?"

"Because we've planned a little celebration. Cecily is going away."

"Going away?"

"Yes—back to St. Pierre to get the house in order. She leaves early in the morning by the fruit boat. And by the way, I want you to go down with me to see her off. She'll appreciate it."

"Why, certainly—but isn't it rather sudden?"

"In a way, yes. You see, I've arranged for a committee from New York to go down to Martinique and look over the ground, and I want to take them before they have a chance to cool off. I've got to get my house there in order and engage some servants, for that will be our headquarters, and if Cecily doesn't leave by the boat tomorrow she can't go for ten days. Ten days from now I'm going to have the committee ready to sail—but I'll tell you at dinner."

LEE CAMP MEETS

Interesting Session Held Sunday Afternoon—Confederate Veterans

There was not a large attendance at the regular meeting of R. E. Lee camp, United Confederate Veterans, Sunday, but the meeting was one of interest to the veterans, and the musical program was more than usually enjoyable. There were present several visitors from other camps, including G. T. Norwood, who was a member of Wheelace's Arkansas regiment; S. H. Hilburn of Parson's Brigade, and John Farquhar of Wichita Falls.

Applications for membership were read from James M. Blanks and J. J. Reger. Both applications were referred to the membership committee.

Adjutant McConnell read a communication from C. Irvine Walker, commander of the department of Northern Virginia, referring to the efforts being made to raise a fund for the purpose of erecting a memorial to the memory of the heroic women of the south. The matter was discussed, but action was deferred until next Saturday.

Resolutions on the death of Mrs. R. Keith, wife of Comrade Keith, were read by W. T. Shaw and adopted.

B. C. Kirtley, J. S. McDonough and W. D. Ferris were appointed a committee for resolutions on the death of B. B. Damon.

C. C. Cummings, historian of the camp, stated that he had been invited and had accepted an invitation to deliver an address before the Granbury chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, June 2, on the life, character and services of Jefferson Davis, president of the Confederate States of America.

Resolution commending the efforts of Daughters of the Confederacy in Missouri to erect a monument in St. Louis, was adopted.

Under the direction of J. E. Gaskell the following program was rendered: Vocal solo, Rowland D. Williams; violin solo, Master Philip Lopp; recitation, Miss Bessie Carder, and recitation, Miss Cameron Boone.

An announcement was made that at the next meeting of the camp an address will be delivered by A. J. Bonkin.

TO HAVE SECOND PICNIC

Committee Meets Monday Afternoon to Make Arrangements

President Mack Bergman has called a meeting of the picnic committee of the Retail Grocers' and Butchers' Association to be held Monday afternoon to decide upon proposed repetition of the annual picnic of the organization.

The picnic was arranged for Tuesday, May 15, the parade held and a large number of the members gathered at the picnic ground, when festivities put an end to the day's outing and sports.

Final action will probably be taken at regular meeting of the organization Tuesday night. Thursday has been suggested as the time for holding the picnic.

BURNS PROVE FATAL

Mrs. M. E. Clarady Dies Sunday From Effects of Accident

After suffering more than a week from burns received while driving flies from her home by burning papers, Mrs. M. E. Clarady died Sunday morning at her residence, 708 Crawford street. The funeral was held Monday morning at 9 o'clock with interment in Oakwood cemetery.

Mrs. Clarady's clothing caught fire from the blaze she had made and in a few seconds she was a mass of flames. She rushed into the back yard, where cries attracted the attention of J. P. Hall, who threw a quilt around her, smothering the flames. Her body was burned about the waist and limbs. At first it was thought she would recover but the burns were so serious the attending physicians could do but little for her relief.

Mrs. Clarady was 22 years of age and is survived by her husband and three children.

CHIEF TO ASK IMPROVEMENTS

Annual Fire Report Ready for Council

It is understood that heavy expenditures for fire protection will be asked of city council in the annual report of Fire Chief Bideker, which has been filed with the city secretary, with instructions that the report be kept private until its submission to council at the regular meeting Monday night.

Report will also be made at this time of the fire loss for the past year; the causes of the various blazes; the amount of insurance and other matters. The loss, however, will not include the total destruction of the Wadsworth-Cameron Drug Company plant near the Jennings avenue viaduct.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS

A Kansas City, Mexico & Orient special of three Pullmans and a baggage car arrived at Fort Worth Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock en route to Sweetwater. The special came in over the Rock Island, having in charge W. W. Sylvester, vice president and R. C. Hibbell, purchasing agent of the Orient system.

On board the train were sixty New York and Philadelphia capitalists, some of whom are stockholders in the Orient, who are now out on a tour of inspection of the entire system in Texas and old Mexico. The special left Fort Worth at 3 o'clock for Sweetwater, from which place the party will tour the completed portion of the Orient in Texas and from there will go to El Paso, thence to Chihuahua, Mexico, out of which city the road is being built to the Pacific and to a northern connection of the track that is being built in Texas.

Improving Stations

Frank W. Kane, architect and signal engineer for the Texas & Pacific was in Fort Worth Monday en route to Sweetwater, where the company is erecting a new combination freight and passenger station, which, when completed, will be one of the most complete and substantial depot buildings in the state. Talking to a Telegram reporter Mr. Kane said:

"The station the Texas & Pacific is building at Sweetwater will be absolutely fireproof. It will be of concrete from the top to bottom, even the roof being of that material, and the entire structure will be steel reinforced. The dimensions of the buildings will be 60x200 feet and is designed for both passenger and freight purposes. The concrete work will be finished Monday or Tuesday and I expect that it will be ready for occupancy in thirty days. There is no building on the line between Fort Worth and El Paso that is better than the Sweetwater building."

Mr. Kane was at one time engineer of Fort Worth, and afterwards city engineer of Shreveport, La., for six or seven years. It was during his administration as city engineer of Fort Worth that the present water works system was begun.

He then became general agent of the Frisco, going to Denver a number of years ago.

New Katy Connection

New schedule on the Katy from Parson, Kas., gives an additional train to Kansas City, connection being made at Parsons between the flyer leaving this city at 8:35 o'clock in the morning and a train which will reach Kansas City at 11:55 o'clock the same night.

Under new schedules the flyer now has an additional sleeping car for St. Louis and Austin. The car arrives here from St. Louis on train No. 1 going to Austin and returns through from Austin to St. Louis.

Trainmen's Outing

Announcements have been issued of the annual outing of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, to be held at Bluffdale June 3. The excursion will be run over the Frisco.

NEW YORK STOCKS

Staonation Continues Only Feature. Very Dull Money Session.—Price Changes for Worse

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Today's session of the Stock Exchange was a fit sequel to that of Saturday, with the dullness somewhat more accentuated as a feature for the reason that ordinarily the market meets a fair volume of trade at the beginning of a week, which was not forthcoming today, as shown by the sales to noon, which were only 229,000 shares. Nothing transpired over the holiday of sufficient interest to attract any outside following or cause the market to throw off its mantle of stagnation. Trading was entirely among professionals. The opening was tame and without feature, only fractional price changes being noted. At the start there was some rather good buying of American Locomotive and also of Smelter, the first named working up more than a point before midday, while the latter was only slightly affected. The usual Monday morning ups on Brooklyn Rapid Transit were in circulation, but despite the fact that the road's earnings were large yesterday, the stock acted heavy. There was a very narrow market for Reading. After opening firm, selling by active commission houses broke the price in this stock a point before noon. Union Pacific behaved badly during the early trading, declining more than ½ point.

Nothing occurred during the afternoon to relieve the monotony and the trading was as featureless as that during the early part of the session. However, Reading took on a little more activity and reacted from the early depression, working up 1½ points from the low mark.

Union Pacific also regained its early loss, and the balance of the list ruled very steady. The market closed dull and steady and but few price changes of importance were noted.

Call money rates ranged from 3 to 2½ per cent.

Bulls Start Selling Movement—Bears Fear Manipulation and Are Wary—Prices Off

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The cotton market ruled rather dull for a Monday session, but price fluctuations covered a fairly wide range, and although there was but little actual short selling, the net result of the day's proceedings was a victory for the bears.

There was some indication of strength at first, the Liverpool news being responsible for an initial advance of 1 to 4 points, but there was heavy selling on the call for the account of an international house, which has been bullish for quite a while past. The market weakened under this and soon the local bull crowd in general began to unload July, commission houses followed the leaders and probably the only reason a serious decline was not recorded is because of the timidity of those constituting the bear crowd, who would not follow their inclination owing to fear of manipulation. Prices eased off gradually, eventually touching a level 12 to 13 points under the best of the day. The May premium at the best was 30 points. The market closed steady with prices at a net loss of 9 points.

Spots were quiet with prices 5 points lower at 11.90c for middling. Sales, d. o. c., 3,000 bales.

Special to The Telegram.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—The cotton market encountered considerable liquidation, which not only weakened prices, but being in the old crop month and by brokers who have hitherto acted for the New York bull interests fostered the belief that the bull leaders had renounced their former plans and were trying to unload their holdings of the old crop. Advices from New York, where it was stated the bulls were heavy sellers, tended to corroborate this theory and caused selling by professionals.

Unbroken drouths in the eastern section of the belt helped the new crop options some, but there was also promiscuous selling of these.

The only indication of strength was at the opening, when, in response to favorable Liverpool news, prices advanced 1 to 2 points, after this time the decline was gradual, reaching its climax during the last hour, with prices at a level 13 to 16 points under the best.

The market closed steady with prices at a net loss of 9 to 11 points. Spots were quiet with prices 1-16c lower, at 11 5-16c for middling. Sales, 2,350 bales, including 1,500 f. o. b.

COL. I. T. PRYOR HERE

Says Conditions in South Texas Are Excellent

Col. I. T. Pryor, president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, arrived in Fort Worth Monday on his way north. His visit was on private business and it was announced that no meeting of the Cattle Raisers' Association executive committee would be held while he is here. Colonel Pryor said that conditions in South Texas are flourishing following excellent rains over the range area and that these rains were the best that have fallen in many months.

Colonel Pryor said that he had not read a sensational story recently published in Fort Worth to the effect that the action of San Angelo cattlemen in endorsing Judge J. P. Lightfoot for his anti-trust suits was likely to lead to disruption in the ranks of the Cattle Raisers' Association, but said he did not anticipate any such an eventuality.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Bulls Hold Full Sway in All Pits Until Last Hour When Bears Take Hand

Special to The Telegram.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Wheat traders, almost to a man, were bullish today and the few scattered adherents of the short side were not in the running at any time during the session.

The market was very active and the volume of business larger than that experienced at any time recently. Further complaints of damage by the drouth was the principal feature of the day's news and the chief cause of alarm to the shorts. The Liverpool news was indifferent, but the market opened firm with prices ⅛c to ¼c higher, and the local crowd bulled it from the start, no opposition being encountered, prices showed no hesitancy as to which course to pursue, exhibiting pronounced strength within a short space of time. Shorts were eager purchasers of the July and, although the prediction of rains in the belt tonight and tomorrow caused some selling, there was no reaction worthy of mention before midday. Visible statistics when given out helped the advance along as they showed a decrease of 2,323,000 bushels, and the prices eventually touched a net gain of 1⅛c to 1⅜c for July and September, while May advanced 2¼c.

Sharp profit taking during the final trading caused a recession wiping out a considerable portion of the gain, the close being steady with prices ⅝c to ⅞c net higher.

Corn

Corn prices sympathized with the course of the wheat market and under a liberal volume of buying, chiefly by broken acting for the Cudahy interests the market ruled strong throughout. Net gains of more than a cent were recorded during the day and the market closed firm with prices at a net gain of ⅞c.

Oats

Oats were no exception to the general list of cereals and enjoyed a liberal trade, bringing about substantial price gains. The close was firm, prices being ½c to ⅝c higher.

Provisions

Provisions were in good demand and ruled strong under liberal buying by packing interests and shorts.

CATTLE AND HOGS

Heavy Steer Receipts With Slow Movement—Cows Steady, Also Calves—Hogs Lower

The run of cattle today was about half of the supply received a week ago, reaching 3,600 head. Out of 125 loads of cattle on the early market, 100 were grass steers, ten showed the result of more or less feeding, six were calves and the rest were mixed more or less. Some dozen loads of grassers were on through billing.

Steers

With such a flood of steers to select from packer buyers took their time in making a choice. Good dry lot cattle and the best of cake on grass steers along with the cream of the grassers received steady bids early, while the medium steers and those below that class were neglected. Heavy steers sold from $4.60@4.65, cake fed from $3.55@3.70. An outsider took a long string of grassers at $3.70.

Sales of steers:

Butcher Stock

Butcher cows were very scarce and no improvement was noted in prices. Three loads sold at $2.70, and a load of good heifers at $2.90.

Bulls

Bulls were not numerous and selling steady with last week's decline. Sales:

1s..	1,070	$3.60	3...	1,306	$2.30

Calves

No such flood of vealers came today as overran the market a week ago. Receipts were about 400 head in full car lots, with a sprinkle of heavy calves in mixed loads. All the car receipts were southern calves. Bidding was fully steady with last week's close, tops being $4.75, with the bulk at $3.85@4.25. Sales:

No.	Ave.	Price.	No.	Ave.	Price.
75...	194	$4.75	24...	253	$3.85

44...	336	3.85	22...	155	4.75
76...	207	4.00

Hogs

Hog receipts were fairly liberal, around 2,000 head, and nearly all showing evidences of corn feeding. Very few Texas hogs were in the pens.

Early bidding was steady, with $6.37½ as the top, but by half the supply had moved northern wires told of a decline of a dime, and trading stopped. Buyers began offering 10c to 15c lower on the second round and met with a flat refusal to sell at these figures.

VIEWS ON THE MARKET

Vivion Commission Company

FORT WORTH, May 21.—Cotton contracts in New York, that is the old crop options, were selling some 10 to 12 points below the opening figures at midday. The principal cause of the slump was the selling of July by some of the bull crowd. Aside from this, the trading was featureless. Just why the bulls should deem it necessary to get out of their holdings in the old crop months is not clearly apparent, but with the consummation of the May deal near at hand from the selling today it looks as though the attempt to further increase the value of old crop months would be abandoned. On the decline the May premium was increased to 30 points.

THE TELEGRAM'S DAILY FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL REPORT

NEW YORK STOCKS

Stagnation Continues Only Feature. Very Dull Money Session.—Price Changes for Worse

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, May 21.—Today's session of the Stock Exchange was a fit sequel to that of Saturday, with the dullness somewhat more accentuated as a feature for the reason that ordinarily the market meets a fair volume of trade at the beginning of a week, which was not forthcoming today, as shown by the sales to noon, which were only 229,000 shares. Nothing transpired over the holiday of sufficient interest to attract any outside following or cause the market to throw off its mantle of stagnation. Trading was entirely among professionals. The opening was tame and without feature, only fractional price changes being noted. At the start there was some rather good buying of American Locomotive and also of Smelter, the first named working up more than a point before midday, while the latter was only slightly affected. The usual Monday morning tips on Brooklyn Rapid Transit were in circulation, but despite the fact that the road's earnings were large yesterday, the stock acted heavy. There was a very narrow market for Reading. After opening firm, selling by active commission houses broke the price in this stock a point before noon. Union Pacific behaved badly during the early trading, declining more than ½ point.

Nothing occurred during the afternoon to relieve the monotony and the trading was as featureless as that during the early part of the session. However, Reading took on a little more activity and reacted from the early depression, working up 1½ points from the low mark.

Union Pacific also regained its early loss, and the balance of the list ruled very steady. The market closed dull and steady and but few price changes of importance were noted.

Call money rates ranged from 3 to 2½ per cent.

NEW YORK COTTON

Bulls Start Selling Movement—Bears Fear Manipulation and Are Wary—Prices Off

Special to The Telegram.

NEW YORK, May 21.—The cotton market ruled rather dull for a Monday session, but price fluctuations covered a fairly wide range, and although there was but little actual short selling, the net result of the day's proceedings was a victory for the bears.

There was some indication of strength at first, the Liverpool news being responsible for an initial advance of 1 to 4 points, but there was heavy selling on the call for the account of an international house, which has been bullish for quite a while past. The market weakened under this and soon the local bull crowd in general began to unload July, commission houses followed the leaders and probably the only reason a serious decline was not recorded is because of the timidity of those constituting the bear crowd, who would not follow their inclination owing to fear of manipulation. Prices eased off gradually, eventually touching a level 12 to 13 points under the best of the day. The May premium at the best was 30 points. The market closed steady with prices at a net loss of 9 points.

Spots were quiet with prices 5 points lower at 11.90c for middling. Sales, d. o. c., 3,000 bales.

New Orleans Cotton

Special to The Telegram.

NEW ORLEANS, May 21.—The cotton market encountered considerable liquidation, which not only weakened prices, but being in the old crop month and by brokers who have hitherto acted for the New York bull interests fostered the belief that the bull leaders had renounced their former plans and were trying to unload their holdings of the old crop. Advices from New York, where it was stated the bulls were heavy sellers, tended to corroborate this theory and caused selling by professionals.

Unbroken drouths in the eastern section of the belt helped the new crop options some, but there was also promiscuous selling of these.

The only indication of strength was at the opening, when, in response to favorable Liverpool news, prices advanced 1 to 2 points, after this time the decline was gradual, reaching its climax during the last hour, with prices at a level 13 to 16 points under the best.

The market closed steady with prices at a net loss of 9 to 11 points.

Spots were quiet with prices 1-16c lower, at 11 5-16c for middling. Sales, 2,350 bales, including 1,500 f. o. b.

COL. I. T. PRYOR HERE

Says Conditions in South Texas Are Excellent

Col. I. T. Pryor, president of the Texas Cattle Raisers' Association, arrived in Fort Worth Monday on his way north. His visit was on private business and it was announced that no meeting of the Cattle Raisers' Association executive committee would be held while he is here. Colonel Pryor said that conditions in South Texas are flourishing following excellent rains over the range area and that these rains were the best that have fallen in many months.

Colonel Pryor said that he had not read a sensational story recently published in Fort Worth to the effect that the action of San Angelo cattlemen in endorsing Judge J. P. Lightfoot for his anti-trust suits was likely to lead to disruption in the ranks of the Cattle Raisers' Association, but said he did not anticipate any such an eventuality.

CHICAGO GRAIN

Bulls Hold Full Sway in All Pits Until Last Hour When Bears Take Hand

Special to The Telegram.

CHICAGO, May 21.—Wheat traders, almost to a man, were bullish today and the few scattered adherents of the short side were not in the running at any time during the session.

The market was very active and the volume of business larger than that experienced at any time recently. Further complaints of damage by the drouth was the principal feature of the day's news and the chief cause of alarm to the shorts. The Liverpool news was indifferent, but the market opened firm with prices ⅜c to ¾c higher, and the local crowd bulled it from the start, no opposition being encountered, prices showed no hesitancy as to which course to pursue, exhibiting pronounced strength within a short space of time. Shorts were eager purchasers of the July and, although the prediction of rains in the belt tonight and tomorrow caused some selling, there was no reaction worthy of mention before midday. Visible statistics when given out helped the advance along as they showed a decrease of 2,323,000 bushels, and the prices eventually touched a net gain of 1½@c to 1⅝c for July and September, while May advanced 2¼c.

Sharp profit taking during the final trading caused a recession wiping out a considerable portion of the gain, the close being steady with prices ⅝c to ⅞c net higher.

Corn

Corn prices sympathized with the course of the wheat market and under a liberal volume of buying, chiefly by broken acting for the Cudahy interests the market ruled strong throughout. Net gains of more than a cent were recorded during the day and the market closed firm with prices at a net gain of ⅞c.

Oats

Oats were no exception to the general list of cereals and enjoyed a liberal trade, bringing about substantial price gains. The close was firm, prices being ½c to ⅝c higher.

Provisions

Provisions were in good demand and ruled strong under liberal buying by packing interests and shorts.

The principal trading was in ribs and lard. Closing prices showed gains of 12c to 15c for pork and 8c for lard and ribs.

Visible statistics: Wheat, this week, 33,613,000; last week, 35,936,000; December, 2,323,600; last year, 22,429,000.

Corn, this week, 2,580,000; last week, 2,860,000; December, 542,000; last year, 4,322,000.

CATTLE AND HOGS

Heavy Steer Receipts With Slow Movement—Cows Steady, Also Calves—Hogs Lower

The run of cattle today was about half of the supply received a week ago, reaching 3,600 head. Out of 125 loads of cattle on the early market, 100 were grass steers, ten showed the result of more or less feeding, six were calves and the rest were mixed more or less. Some dozen loads of grassers were on through billing.

Steers

With such a flood of steers to select from packer buyers took their time in making a choice. Good dry lot cattle and the best of cake on grass steers along with the cream of the grassers received steady bids early, while the medium steers and those below that class were neglected. Heavy steers sold from $4.60@4.65, cake fed from $3.55@3.70. An outsider took a long string of grassers at $3.70.

Butcher cows were very scarce and no improvement was noted in prices. Three loads sold at $2.70, and a load of good heifers at $2.90.

Calves

No such flood of vealers came today as overran the market a week ago. Receipts were about 400 head in full car lots, with a sprinkle of heavy calves in mixed loads. All the car receipts were southern calves. Bidding was fully steady with last week's close, tops being $4.75, with the bulk at $3.85@4.25.

Hogs

Hog receipts were fairly liberal, around 2,000 head, and nearly all showing evidences of corn feeding. Very few Texas hogs were in the pens.

Early bidding was steady, with $6.37½ as the top, but by half the supply had moved northern wires told of a decline of a dime, and trading stopped. Buyers began offering 10c to 15c lower on the second round and met with a flat refusal to sell at these figures.

VIEWS ON THE MARKET

Vivion Commission Company

FORT WORTH, May 21.—Cotton contracts in New York, that is the old crop options, were selling some 10 to 12 points below the opening figures at midday. The principal cause of the slump was the selling of July by some of the bull crowd. Aside from this, the trading was featureless. Just why the bulls should deem it necessary to get out of their holdings in the old crop months is not clearly apparent, but with the consummation of the May deal near at hand from the selling today it looks as though the attempt to further increase the value of old crop months would be abandoned. On the decline the May premium was increased to 30 points.

STUDENTS HEAR ANNUAL SERMON

Dr. Boeye Preaches to Graduates of University

The graduates of the Fort Worth university attended services at St. Paul's Methodist church Sunday morning at which Dr. J. G. Boeye delivered the baccalaureate sermon.

Dr. William Fielder, president of the university, who has just returned from an extensive trip in the North in the interest of the university, was in charge of the exercises of the day. When he rose to make the opening announcement, the students gave him the Chautauqua salute. Dr. J. F. Boeye, pastor of St. Paul's church, discussed "The Making the Most of Life." He advised the graduates who were just starting in the battle of life, how to gain by the experience of those who were already well advanced in years. He also advised the students to look out not only for their personal well-being but to always be of use to all mankind, saying: "You are to make the most of life by being sensitive to the truth and beauty as a photographer's prepared plate is sensitive to light."

Sunday night services were held at St. Paul's church at which time Dr. E. L. Parks delivered the annual sermon to the Y. M. C. A. and Y. W. C. A. circle of the Fort Worth university. Dr. Park's text was: "Upon this rock I will build my church." In his sermon the objects of the Christian church, the methods of Jesus and His teachings were outlined and a comparison of the methods of Christianity with those of the other great religions was made.

Dr. E. L. Parks will deliver an address to the students at St. Paul's church, Wednesday night at 8 o'clock, when his subject will be "The Educational and Life Object."

AMUSEMENTS

White City Opened

Sunday was the formal opening day for White City on Rosen Heights. The weather was ideal, and large crowds went out on every trip of the Fort Worth & Rosen Heights Street Railway Company's cars until late in the evening.

Work on the buildings in White City has been pushed to the limit of a large force of men in order that all might be in readiness on the twentieth, and no expense has been spared in beautifying the grounds.

White City presents a most pleasing appearance with all buildings of pure white with green roofs. The flower beds and the graveled walks are also in perfect order.

As was announced some time ago the White Rose theater would open on this date with "Mikado," the first performance was given to a good sized and very appreciative audience. Much applause was given the principals, Miss Henderson as Yum Yum; Miss Fisher, C. E. Huntington, F. O. Burgess, F. A. Wade, J. C. Taylor, F. W. Cleveland, also the chorus of many and strong voices.

Tuesday night will end the "Mikado" and Wednesday "Fra Diavolo" will be given.

A decidedly attractive feature of the skating rink will take place Thursday night at the Fort Worth skating rink. It will be a two-mile amateur race, and all the other rinks of the city are cordially invited to send participants.

J. C. Walton will give to the winner a beautiful gold medal, very uniquely designed and showing a tiny pair of skates in the center.

The contest is open to all, and the victorious one may hold the medal until taken away by another champion amateur skater. Considerable interest is being manifested in the continuous event.

"SIGNAL VICTORY" SAYS FIELDER

Improvements Assured for University

RETURNS FROM NORTH

Second Trip Will Be Taken by President During Summer to Complete Fund for Institution

Dr. William Fielder, president of the Fort Worth University, returned Sunday morning from an extended trip to northern cities for the purpose of enlisting aid from capitalists and philantropists in the interest of the Fort Worth University.

"I discovered in all sections that large amounts of money are being raised for local institutions. The explanation is in the fact that Andrew Carnegie, D. K. Pearsons and other philanthropists have recently offered a large number of conditional donations. Nevertheless, I was able to interest quite a number of persons in the Fort Worth University and large amounts have already been promised, and I expect that by the time I have reached the end of my second trip the efforts of the year will be crowned with complete success. The amounts already promised are sufficient to guarantee a signal victory."

Dr. Fielder visited Minneapolis, where he lived for eleven years before coming to Fort Worth; Chicago, Cincinnati, Cleveland, Pittsburg and other places.

It was his intention to visit Boston, New York, Rochester, Philadelphia, Baltimore and Washington, and he expects to be able to start on a second trip to visit these towns about the middle of June.

In regard to the general feeling toward the state of Texas, Dr. Fielder said that he discovered a deep and wide interest in the future of Texas, and that people everywhere regarded the state as the coming great commonwealth.

"Many people," said Dr. Fielder, "are looking in this direction for opportunities to invest their surplus capital and for chances to establish themselves here in business and agricultural pursuits. It is my judgment that judicious advertising of the state by the railroad companies in the newspapers and magazines all over the county will yield increasing returns."

Dr. Fielder said that his impressions of the city of Fort Worth on reaching home were decidedly more favorable than on the occasion of his first arrival here last October. He has great faith in the future of the state and this city, and hopes to see the university well established in the very near future.

At the annual meeting of the board of trustees of the university, which will be held soon, he will give a full report of his trip.

A fund of $15,000 to be used in conjunction with sums gathered by Dr. Fielder in northern cities was recently raised by subscription in Fort Worth.

SCHOOL GROUNDS TO BE IMPROVED

North Fort Worth Planning Attractive Park

"We are going to have a number of municipal improvements, but I think that the purchase of the additional lots for school purposes was about the best investment we could have made," said Mayor Davis of North Fort Worth Monday. "We already owned the principal part of the Woods district which adjoins the school grounds on the west and the purchase of these additional lots gives the city absolute control and ownership of the whole grove, which adds so much to the pleasure and comfort of the children. It is the intention of the city to improve this property by placing a fence around it, have the trees trimmed a sufficient height so as not to interfere with the amusements of the children, and still not to interfere with the beauty of the grove, and have seats placed all about for the convenience of the scholars. When we are done with it we hope to have the prettiest and most convenient grounds of any school in the state, and one that North Fort Worth will point out with a glow of pardonable pride to visitors. The North Fort Worth bank will soon be completed and when the improvement of the streets is finished, you will see one of the youngest of Texas' cities dressed out in her city garb."

CANDIDATES WANT PLURALITY CHOICE

Matter to Be Decided by the County Commttee

Whether the nominations for the different offices in Tarrant county will be made by a majority vote or a plurality vote will be decided by the county executive committee at the meeting to be held June 18. What the decision of the committee will be is not known, and as many of the members live in the country, The Telegram has not been able to interview enough of them to predict what the verdict of the committee will be. If the wishes of the candidates will have any weight with the committee, however, the indications are that the primaries will be held under the plurality rule.

William Capps, chairman of the county committee, said Monday:

"I do not know what the committee will decide, whether to have the majority or the plurality rule prevail in the primaries. It appears to me, however, that the plurality rule would be the best. Should a majority primary be decided on it would entail too much expense and too much work on some of the candidates who might survive the first primary. I think the plurality primary would be the proper thing."

John L. Terrell, candidate for county judge, said: "It is immaterial to me of which horn of the dilemma the committee takes hold. If they decide to have a majority primary, all right; if they decide to have a plurality primary, all right. Its six of one and half dozen of the other to me."

John A. Martin, candidate for district clerk, said: "I am in favor of a plurality primary. One primary election is enough, and the man who gets the most votes in it for the office for which he is a candidate should have the nomination. I don't believe the voters would indorse a majority primary."

John Honea, candidate for sheriff, said: "I want to get through with the business as quickly as possible, and for that reason I favor a plurality primary, at which it will be decided at one primary election who shall be the nominees. The people of the county have enough bother with one election, without putting two on them. Besides the cost and work the majority plan would entail on the candidates would be a little too much."

R. E. Bratton, candidate for justice of the peace, said: "I am ferninst a majority primary. The man who gets the most votes should have the nomination."

R. L. Rogers, candidate for county clerk, remarked: "I am opposed to a majority primary for the reason that the cost to candidates would be too heavy. The work would be unnecessarily increased and because the people of the county would be subjected to additional annoyance."

BIG GRAIN CROP

Prediction Made That Panhandle Crop Will Break Record

R. S. Houssels of R. S. Houssels & Co., Seventh and Main streets, this city, returned on Sunday from the Panhandle country, where he has been visiting with his parents at Vernon. Mr. Houssels said on Monday morning:

"The Panhandle country is going to have the largest grain crop this season ever known to North Texas.

"There will also be a one-third larger cotton acreage this year, which speaks well for Texas as a farming country. Cattle are doing very well, and grass is fine."

Speaking of land values in North Texas, Mr. Houssels said: "In and around Vernon land has doubled itself in value within the last six months."
