FOUR OLD AGE PENSION EXAMINERS CONCLUDE INSPECTIONS IN COUNTY

R. N. Dillard, R. S. Williams, S. H. Twaddell and A. A. Rhea, district investigators for the Texas Relief Commission, from the Plainview district headquarters office, have left the county, after inspecting applicants for the Texas old age pension in Hall County for the past two weeks.

A Turkey man has been appointed as Hall County investigator, Mr. Williams stated last week-end; and the local investigator will be able to visit in every pension applicant's home in the county before next July.

The Texas Old-Age Assistance Act was approved last week by the Social Security Board in Washington, which means, Governor James V. Allred said, that pension payments will start not later than July 1.

The federal government will match Texas contributions up to $15 for each pensioner. Some 160,000 applications have been filed, but only 60,000 will qualify. Already the state has $1,500,000 pledged for pensions from liquor revenues and expects to have between $3,000,000 and $5,000,000 available when the plan becomes effective next July. An average monthly grant of $20 per person is contemplated.

Dr. Dickey compared a person's life with a bookkeeping ledger, balancing the assets and liabilities divisions of the ledger with attributes and shortcomings of personal characteristics. He outlined honesty, courage, thoroughness and cheerfulness as desirable assets and stated that their antonyms

STOMACH SUFFERERS

If you are suffering from indigestion, atonic dyspepsia, sour stomach, gas pains, "raw stomach," inflammation of the intestines (enteritis), gastric acidity and sick headaches, due to excessive acidity, you can't afford to ignore these warning signs. You should try at once the Doctor's Prescription, known as Gasa Tablets. If you allow these conditions to become worse, the acids may eat into the delicate mucous membrane of your stomach and intestine and possibly cause dangerous ulcers. Gasa Tablets soothe the raw, inflamed lining of the "acid stomach" and help convert starchy foods into dextrose, which is so essential to energy of the body, and preservation of health. Take just one or two Gasa Tablets and see how they help your stomach to "tackle a hearty meal." The first bottle must produce results or money back. Get it at

This has become an annual affair of West Ward and the children are very enthusiastic because it is their program and will be disappointed if you, mother, dad, and friends, fail to respond.

'Red' Campbell Enters Race For Sheriff's Office

The Democrat is authorized to announce the candidacy of J. L. (Red) Campbell for the office of Sheriff of Hall County, subject to the action of the Democratic primaries.

Mr. Campbell is well known to the people of Memphis, Plaska and other communities of the county. He has lived in the county for 15 years, most of that time at Plaska.

This is the first time Mr. Campbell has asked for a public office at the hands of the voters, and he is now asking for an investigation of his life and his fitness for the office to which he aspires.

"I believe I am capable of attending to the duties of sheriff, and if elected, will do so in a fair and business-like manner. I believe in law enforcement, and if the voters see fit to place me in the responsible position as head of the county's law enforcement department, I will do my best to uphold the laws without fear or favor. Give my candidacy earnest and careful consideration," Mr. Campbell stated.

Black-Draught Relief Is Prompt and Refreshing

It's a good idea that so many people have — to keep Black-Draught handy so they can take a dose for prompt relief at the first sign of constipation.

"I have used Black-Draught a long time, about as long as I can remember, and have a package on my shelf now," writes Mr. Sherman Sneed, of Evensville, Tenn. "I take Black-Draught for constipation which causes headache, a bad, tired feeling and for biliousness, bad taste in the mouth and sluggish feeling. Black-Draught, taken about two nights, clears up this trouble and I get all right."

Black-Draught is made of medicinal herbs, dried and finely ground, but no other change in their natural condition. It is a laxative that men and women like so well because of the refreshing relief it brings in constipation troubles.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Fleming of Amarillo spent Saturday and Sunday here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Hattenbach.

Mr. and Mrs. John C. Myers are leaving this morning for Amarillo, where Mr. Myers will probably accept a position with the Rural Resettlement Administration. Mr. Myers has been assistant cotton adjustment man here for the past year and a half.

J. S. Edwards of Hedley was a visitor in Memphis Tuesday.

Palo Duro State Park Ready For Big 1936 Crowds

With the opening of spring picnicking weather, hundreds of car loads of people are visiting the Palo Duro State Park each week. The attendance so far this spring has greatly surpassed that of last spring. 65,000 people visited the Palo Duro State Park during 1935, and it is anticipated that fully 100,000 people will visit the Park during 1936.

One CCC company is located at the Park, with work mapped out for two years in advance.

Four rock cabins are finished and fully equipped, and another double cabin is nearly completed. It is planned to construct 20 additional rock cabins in the Park.

125 picnicking units are constructed along the eight mile drive on the floor of the canyon, so that thousands of people may be accommodated at one time with the greatest of comfort. The 15,500 acre Park is rapidly assuming shape for a great gathering center for Northwest Texas.

The first big gathering of the year comes early in May when several hundred Boy Scouts will camp in the Park for three days. Other large gatherings are being planned during the summer.

The National Park Service calls the Palo Duro the greatest Regional Park in the Southwest, and everything constructed must be according to the high standards of this organization.

A paved highway from Canyon, and hard surfaced roads in the Park make this play ground accessible to the people of this section throughout the year. The entrance to the Park is 12 miles east of the Museum of the Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, another great attraction to the people of Northwest Texas.

Salisbury Winner Of Baseball Game

Ted Barnes, ace pitcher of the Salisbury baseball club, won his second shutout in as many starts of the year Wednesday afternoon against the Estelline Red River Valley League ball club in Estelline.

He kept his hits well scattered, with the third inning being the only occasion when two Estelline hits came in the same inning.

Salisbury jumped on Blanchard in the third for three hits and a walk for one run. Two runs in the fifth and three in the seventh augmented the score.

FORD V-8 TRUCKS DO MORE WORK AT LESS COST . . .

because they have

RESERVE POWER AND EXTRA STRENGTH!

ON long or short hauls—up steep grades—through gravel or gumbo, Ford V-8 trucks have the reserve power to deliver their loads on schedule and no favors asked.

The mighty V-8 engine is conservatively rated by Ford at 80 horsepower—more than is needed for most work. And this is one of the main reasons for a Ford truck's economy. Because, with so much reserve power, the Ford V-8 does its work easier, with less effort. The engine operates efficiently and at low cost because it is usually below "peak." The whole truck, straight through to the rear axle, gives you longer life than would be possible with a relatively underpowered, over-worked unit.

And V-8 power is coupled with extra strength in the Ford truck . . . Frame, clutch, rear axle—in fact, the whole chassis, including springs, is ruggedly built to insure users the greatest possible freedom from servicing cost.

But the best way of all for you to learn for yourself exactly what a Ford V-8's reserve power and extra strength means, is to ask for a demonstration. Call your Ford Dealer today. Put it up to him to prove this great Ford truck's advantages to you.

FORD V-8 TRUCKS and Commercial Cars and here's the proof!

Benj. Cain of Cain's Truck Lines, Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, says: "The first trip to Franklin, Pa., and return with a 12,000 lb. load of oil well drilling equipment more than substantiated your claims and now I am telling you the Ford truck is making me more money than I ever expected to make in the trucking business."

M. C. Rogers of Enid, Oklahoma, says: "The regular load on my Ford V-8 truck consists of a 2,500 gallon semi-trailer gasoline tank. Operating cost has been very low. Total expense for repairs at 40,000 miles was $15.60 and gasoline mileage an average of nine miles to the gallon."

O. E. Mullman of Mullman Bros., Oklahoma City, Oklahoma, says: "These are two of my five Ford delivery cars which I am at the present using. They are very economical as to gas and oil consumption and I might add that the last car traded in ran 62,000 miles with absolutely no repairs being made."

L. D. Shannon, owner of the Shannon Feed Co., Tulsa, Okla., says: "We operate seven Ford trucks and I want to say they are most satisfactory in every way. We previously operated heavier and more costly units but are planning to replace them as quickly as possible with Fords as they are doing the job better and more economically."

A. D. Stoddard, Chief Engineer of the Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co., says: "For a number of years our company has been using Ford cars and pickups as standard equipment for employees engaged in the cementing of wells.

"We have found that the block exchange by the Ford Motor Company and also the purchase of replacement engines is an aid in giving the service we desire. We are able to replace motor, front and rear ends, and various parts with very little delay and feel that all of this has been a great aid."

FOLK FESTIVALS ARE MAJOR CULTURAL EVENTS—SERVE AS RECORD OF SOCIAL LIFE

(by Mrs. George Williams, Amarillo)

A THOUSAND AND ONE years of dancing memories tap off the tempo; a people's heart beats throb in the plucked string; forgotten banners flutter in traditional customs. Thus are old times, old ways, old customs preserved in the revival of community contests which found their climax in the National Folklore Festival and the International Folk Festival in London, last May and June.

Back in sequestered coves rangy mountaineers sit on hickory stools and saw away on wheezy fiddles, turning out tunes that had their sources in long ago British balladry. Under moss-drapped oaks on Louisiana Bayous Cajun children gather to hear The' Old 'Un tell his tales of Campair Lapin, who worked his will by cunning and craftiness.

From purple and blue mesas the flute-note sounds, the rhythmic thud of drums, the shuffle of moccasined feet and eerie on the desert air rises a theme stretching far beyond the memory of man. From ancient beginning of a red skinned people it brings a melody which echoed among multicolored canyons long before Coronado pushed his way toward the fabulous cities of Cibalo.

In 1541 Coronado led a colorful expedition through what we now call the Panhandle and undoubtedly stopped on the banks of the Canadian River near Miami or in Roberts County.

He camped in the Palo Duro Canyon nearly four hundred years ago while seeking the Seven Cities. These mythical cities existed perhaps in some great degree at least, because we find ruins of the Pueblo Indians in the Panhandle. Some of these ruins contain houses of a hundred rooms or more.

We have a heritage that few know.

We were part of "the Frontier," now called "the Great Southwest."

The Spaniards sent their [illegible] educators to Christianize and civilize. [illegible] missions and schools established, they found music was a valuable means of soothing, pacifing, and influencing the Indians. Spain spared no expense in cultivating music in New Spain. A music school was established in Mexico City in 1521 in which many musicians were trained for pioneer work in the frontier regions.

The first music teacher was in the Southwest by 1604. At that time Jamestown was founded, and thirteen years before the Pilgrim Fathers set foot on Massachusetts coast could boast of a music teacher, was in possession of an organ and instrument not seen in Boston until 1714, and not welcome then.

The Southwest Spanish territory until almost the middle of the nineteenth century can claim having the first music teachers, the first organs, and the first boy choir in the present United Sates.

The Panhandle Pioneers came and settled in our multicolored canyons, built their homes, brought their cattle, formed stock [illegible] ranches.

[illegible] last [illegible] settlers heard the rhythmic thud of drums, and Georgia [illegible] moccasined feet and fought great battles with [illegible]

[illegible] prairies neighbors were miles apart. They went through hardships and suffering but it was that same sturdiness and strength of character that has built our nation and this great Panhandle.

Some of the older ranches are having re-unions every year, the old cowboys meet with the new ones and tell tales of the ranges. They sing songs they employed to stir up lagging cattle, some of the songs of the long night-guards as they rode around and around the herd, quieting the cattle. Some of the best songs were used to prevent cattle stampedes.

These are the things of which folk lore is made. Sponsors of the International Folk League point out that folk lore is not a thing of the nursery or the kindergarten, but rather something that teaches the very center of civilization.

The object of the National Folk Festival is to bring together the groups with their folk expressions peculiar to the different regions, knowing that participation will keep alive the fine traditional customs associated with the founding of this nation. In addition to serving as a record of the social life of early America, the Festival furnishes a basic cultural leisure-time activity program upon which many of our future artistic creations will be based.

The National Festival, the third ever held in the United States, will be a Centennial celebration at Dallas June 14-21.

The Memphis Folk Festival, in which towns of several adjoining counties will take part, is planned for May 18-19. Here winners are selected to take part in the National Festival.

RAINS SOAK UPPER RED RIVER VALLEY

THE whole southwestern Panhandle country has been saturated more or less the past week or ten days with showers and heavy rains. Practically every section of Hall and adjoining counties received ample moisture for starting off planting of crops.

Grass, which has been backward about growing this spring, will have grown enough for grazing purposes in a short time. Wheat and other small grain crops were greatly benefitted by the timely precipitation.

Farmers, stockmen and all others directly or indirectly concerned have become very optimistic over the outlook for a big crop year in this section of country.

Junior class members and mothers of junior students were congratulated on all sides on the success of the banquet, which was one of the most elaborate affairs seen here in recent years. Setting of the banquet scene was in nautical surroundings, with all decorations suggestive of the sea.

The long tables formed a massive anchor and were adorned with ships of assorted sizes. Windows were decorated as port holes, with automobile tires acting as life-savers. Paper decorations hung from lights and from strings criss-crossed above the large banquet tables. Spring flowers and ferns helped to enliven the atmosphere Miniature ships were favors, and place cards were small sailors. The nautical effects were furthered in the programs and napkins.

Bill Joe Boren was toastmaster for the occasion. Invocation was by Supt. W. C. Davis. Greetings were given by Pat Noel, and response was by J. D. Roden. Two songs were sung by the high school male quartet, composed of Buc McAbee, Kermit Monzingo, Rayford Harris and Dennis Walker The senior will was read by Harold Hightower. A chorus of junior girls gave a song and dance number.

The menu consisted of tomato cocktail, celery curls, pickles, roast chicken, dressing, giblet gravy, fruit and nut salad, buttered new potatoes, string beans, rolls, iced tea, angel food squares and brick ice cream.

Those who have not received their money should call at the county farm agent's office, Mr. Pattillo said.

The county agent and part of his office force were to be in Turkey today (Friday) in order to issue the tag checks to farmers in that section.

A large number of the 2,100 Hall County cotton producers who received the benefit payments had almost given up hope of ever getting their tag money, and receipt of the money put them in good spirits. Coming at planting time, large part of the money will be used in the spring cotton and seed plantings, although most farmers in the county are said to have plenty of seed.

J. E. Roper is one person who believes 100 per cent in advertising. He states that his volume of business during the first four months of 1936 has been better than any four months of 1935, including the fall months. "I attribute this chiefly to my advertising space in The Democrat," he said.

My friend, Cleve Bownds, is dead. Just a few days ago we were discussing the fine rain that visited this section Sunday, and Cleve was optimistic, believing Hall County to be on the threshhold of better crops and better times.

The Grim Reaper is no respecter of persons. During the past few years it seems that more of my personal friends have answered the final summons than ever before in the same space of time.

We live a few days, form acquaintances and friendships, then pass out of the picture leaving sad hearts behind. Such is life.

Memphis produces more winners than any other town in Texas. Her people, from pupils in school to the mature citizens, win recognition and fame wherever they enter into competition with those of other sections. They win in speaking, spelling, essay writing, song writing, play writing, cooking, dressmaking, music, and others.

The idea that one must be from another town to be worth a tinker's durn is all wrong, especially when applied to Memphis.

Take for instance the Home Ec representatives who went to the State Rally at San Angelo last week and walked off with second place, although they went up against all the schools of the larger towns and cities of Texas.

Hats off to our home people—the best on earth!

Memphis has been selected by Texas Centennial officials as the central place for holding a Folk Festival where winners may be chosen to represent the Upper Red River Valley area at the Centennial Festival to be held in Dallas in June.

Clarendon, Hedley, Wellington, Lakeview, Turkey, Quitaque, Matador, Paducah, Crowell, Quanah, Kirkland, Childress and Estelline, and all other towns nearby have been invited to participate in the festival here about May 18 and 19. The town that puts on the best act depicting early days in West Texas will be the representative of this area at Dallas, spending a week there and putting on the act for the benefit of the thousands of Centennial visitors. The Centennial officials will send a competent judge to the festival here to select the winner.

This is not to be a Memphis affair, but one for the whole area. Instead of competing with larger cities the folk festival to be held here gives all the towns in the area an even break with their neighbors.

Let's all get behind the movement to make the affair the best show in West Texas.

Heavy Rains—

entire county Sunday afternoon, with the exception of the Turkey vicinity. The downpour was accompanied in some sections by light hail, which did no damage.

The Deep Lake community reported the heaviest rans, with a torrential downpour of well over three inches having fallen there. All farm terraces and earth dams were broken as the Deep Lake vicinity received the best downpour it has had in several years. Shallow Lake and Deep Lake almost met, Del Wells of that section reported.

Memphis received slightly more than an inch precipitation, J. J. McMickin's official rain gauge showed. Approximately .25 inches fell Saturday afternoon and night, and .78 inches fell here Sunday.

Farms of the Eli territory benefited greatly from the heavy rains Sunday. All listed furrows and barrow ditches in that section were reported filled with water, and farmers were in Memphis Monday morning discussing the rain and waiting until they could get into their fields.

Only one-half inch of precipitation was reported by Roy Russell at Turkey, with two good rains having fallen at Wolf Flat and Bridle Bit. Those communities received an inch and a half.

Bethel received an inch and a half. Giles farmers and ranchmen benefited greatly from the good rain. The much-needed rain at Antelope Flat fell Sunday afternoon. Light showers Saturday night and a good heavy rain Sunday were reported at Pleasant Valley. Almost an inch of rain fell at Lakeview Sunday, and Lesley received about the same amount, as did Brice. Plaska, Fairview and Friendship farmers were rejoicing over the inch rains.

Most of this week has been cloudy in this section, with a heavy fog hanging over Memphis Tuesday morning. Wednesday, however, was sultry, but it is thought that additional rains will fall within a fortnight. Predictions have been made that this section will receive considerable moisture during May.

Child Health Day To Be During May

AUSTIN, April 29.—Call has gone out from the State Department of Health to county health officers to act as chairmen and organize committees for observance of Child Health Day during May. Dr. J. W. E. H. Beek, field director of the maternal and child health division, is State chairman by designation of Dr. John W. Brown, State Health Officer.

Although May Day is Child Health Day by act of Congress, communities are free to choose any day for the observance.

This slogan has been officially adopted for Texas Child Health Day:

"Annual physical examination by your physician and dentist. Immunization against diphtheria, typhoid fever, and smallpox. Safe water and property sanitary equipment for home and school."

These suggestions are set forth in Dr. Beck's letter to county health officers:

"May Day—Child Health Day is a challenge to all parents to take stock of the health needs of their children, with special reference to immunization of those of the pre-school age. The records of this office reveal that during the year of 1935: 64 per cent of the deaths caused by diphtheria occurred before the child reached 5 years of age, 23 per cent between the ages of 5 and 9 years, 6 per cent between 10 and 14 years, and 7 per cent were over 15 years of age. Therefore it is imperative that you have your children immunized against diphtheria during that first year of age.

"We recommend an annual examination for each child, by your family physician and dentist now, and hereafter this annual examination should precede the opening of your fall school term. Your physician and dentist may find some serious defects. If so, they are in position to advise the parents of the proper treatment, and by doing so serious illnesses will be prevented.

"It is suggested that the parents of the children in Texas take special interest in pure drinking water for their homes and schools, and make every effort to secure for their children the proper sanitary disposal equipment.

"We strongly urge that provisions be made throughout the State for suitable places where children may have proper exercises, sanitary swimming pools, and places for play and pleasure."

LOCAL BUSINESS MEN CITE VIEWS ON TRAITS WHICH MAKE SUCCESS

According to the answers received from Memphis business men on the questionnaires sent out by the commercial department of the local high school, the general characteristic or trait most necessary for one who is to enter the business world is honesty.

Very close in importance is a friendly and courteous manner. In fact, this attribute was marked desirable by more men than was honesty. Third in importance was dependability with ability and willingness to learn ranking fourth. Other traits were ranked in the order named: (5) accuracy, (6) ability to keep business confidential, (7) cooperativeness, (8) neat personal appearance, (9) punctuality, (10) initiative, (11) speed, and (12) leadership.

Of the subjects listed for study, good English was marked most important; spelling was second, and accurate and rapid calculation, good penmanship, typewriting, correct punctuation, filing, and shorthand followed in the order named.

"These conclusions are based on the ideas expressed by some 65 Memphis business men," Arthur Howard, head of the commercial department at the local high school, stated. "While we realize that this is not a complete representation of all the business houses, we do feel that it is fairly representative of the town as a whole," he said.

"If, in taking this survey, we failed to call on any business man, we are sorry, and if he will let us know, we will be glad to send him a copy of the questionnaire to be filled out. We also wish to thank each person who did fill out one of these blanks for his willingness to cooperate with us in this manner.

"While the answers to the question 'What does Memphis need most' were varied in their nature, a great many agreed that it would be helpful if we had some type of manufacturing industry which would help us dispose of our raw products and at the same time give us a regular payroll," Mr. Howard stated.

Following are other answers to the question: "What, in your estimation, does Memphis need most of all in a business or commercial way in order for us to hold our own in competition with our neighboring towns?"

"Market for livestock and farm products."

"Place to assemble livestock and farm produce for sale."

"Retail Merchants' Association."

"Competitive prices advertised."

"Cheese and cream factory."

"Cotton factory."

"Packing house."

"A paved road east."

TREE PLANTING PROGRAM ENDS FOR THIS YEAR

Two Years Needed to Check Winds, Say District Officers

Almost 60 miles of shelterbelt tree planting strips in Hall and Childress counties have been planted this year, according to Donald J. Hodges, district shelterbelt assistant, who made the announcement at the close of the shelterbelt planting program here for this year.

Fifty-one different strips of trees were planted in Hall County, and 43 were planted in Childress County. Fifty-one farmstead strips were set out in this county to 13 such strips in Childress County.

About 150 workmen have been employed in the shelterbelt work, and there have been openings for the eligible workmen at all times, Frank N. Blevins, NRS clerk, stated here recently.

District shelterbelt officials have announced that two more years will be required before the seedling trees just planted will be tall enough to check destructive winds in this region. Ultimately, the officials declare, the shelterbelt work will reduce evaporation from the soil by retarding wind movement and will reduce wind erosion by keeping the wind from reaching the ground, and thus blowing away the topsoil.

They declare also that it will produce a cheap supply of timber products for fuel, fencing and other purposes in this section. Rural beautification, recreational areas and other beneficial values are also accredited to the shelterbelt work.

The 19 Texas counties included in the tree planting are Hall, Hardeman, Hemphill, Collingsworth, Wheeler, Childress, Motley, Cottle, Wilbarger, Dickens, King, Knox, Baylor, Kent, Stonewall, Haskell, Scurry, Fisher and Jones.

Other than the shelterbelt tree planting, the Memphis Soil Conservation Service and CCC camp have done considerable roadside tree planting in this section.

Mrs. Ben Buck of Clarendon came Tuesday for a visit here with her sister, Mrs. N. W. Durham.

Mr. [illegible] who recently moved to [illegible] from Memphis, spent Wednesday here as the guest of Mrs. Ralph Bennett.

CYCLONE DEFEATS ALL-STARS IN FOOTBALL CLASH FRIDAY NIGHT

Several Hundred Fans Turn Out To See Gridiron Encounter To Raise Funds For Sending Band To WTCC Meet

Several hundred persons turned out for the community-wide "play night" last Friday night at the Cyclone football stadium here and saw the prospective 1936-37 local football team administer a 19-2 drubbing to an "All-Star" aggregation.

Other than witnessing the football clash, those attending the affair to raise funds with which to send the Memphis Gold Medal Band to Amarillo to attend the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce were treated to numbers by the West Ward Rhythm Band and the Junior High and West Ward Choral Clubs. Both organizations are Hall County champion musical units. They were directed by Miss Mary Forcman, Mrs. Forrest Hall and Miss Jewel Keenan.

Donald Dickey, small grammar school pupil, delighted those present by singing two solos, "Have You Ever Been to Texas in the Spring?" and "Old Faithful." A mirth-provoking tap dance by Hattie Dem Ward and Martha Thompson was given.

A preview of future Memphis High School football teams was given, staged by West Ward, Junior High, and High School students. Teams from 1936 to the 1943 edition were depicted. To furnish color to the occasion, the Memphis public address system was used, with Sam S. Cowan as announcer.

The football headliner, a contest between next year's gridiron eleven and an all-star combination of past Cyclone players, although studded with fumbles and unorthodox play, proved fairly interesting. The high school team defeated the all-stars by shoving across a touchdown, kicking the extra point, and by kicking a field goal. The all-stars scored two points late in the second quarter when a Cyclone pass-back from center sailed over the point man's head and rolled 35 yards into the end zone, where the all-stars covered it for a safety and two points.

The game opened with the Cyclone kicking to the all-stars. Passes from Norman to Chester Grimes and short off tackle bucks netted two easy first downs. The high school defense stiffened and the ball went over. Most of the game was played at mid-field. Early in the second quarter, Benjie Estes, roving center, intercepted a pass from Norman and scampered 35 yards to a touchdown. Walker's placement kick for the conversion was perfect.

Late in the second quarter the all-stars scored their safety on a poor pass from center. The Cyclone kicked off from the 20-yard line. A few minutes later, Jack Norman intercepted a high school pass and raced 60 yards before being driven out of bounds on the five-yard line. The half ended before another play could be called.

The third quarter was played mostly in center field with both teams losing the ball time after time on fumbles. Doyle Dunn enlivened the game at times with thrusts through the line for lengthy gains. The all-stars passing attack failed to click consistently, and their line bucks were repulsed by the heady Cyclone forward wall.

Late in the fourth quarter the Cyclone pushed the ball deep into the opponents' territory. On fourth down with several yards to go for a first, Dennis Walker stepped back and kicked a perfect field goal from placement at a difficult angle. The field goal was one of the first kicked by a Cyclone player here in recent years. The game ended without further scoring.

Stars for the high school eleven were Dennis Walker, quarter; Doyle Dunn, full; Benjie Estes, center; and A. J. Clack, guard. Stand-outs for the all-stars were Jack Norman, quarter; Bud McAbee, tackle; Ross Springer, end; and W. C. Crump, full.

Starting line-ups were:

Cyclone—James Evans and Paul Malone, ends; Dennis Sanders and Rufus Jones, tackles; A. J. Clark and John Harris, guards; Benjie Estes, center; Billy Polk Hall and Talmadge Pounds, halfbacks; Doyle Dunn, fullback; Dennis Walker, quarterback.

All-stars — Bud McAbee and Ross Springer, ends; G. C. Baskerville and Fred Sanders, tackles; Ed Bourland and Winifred Swift, guards; Charles Champion, center; Raymond Powers and Chester Grimes, halfbacks; W. C. Crump, fullback; Jack Norman, quarterback.

Officials — Dan Clark, W. T. S. C.; Emmett Walker, W. T. S. C.; Gerald Kunkler, Memphis.

CCC, Cross Roads, Salisbury Victors of Sunday's Games

The Memphis CCC camp, Cross Roads and Salisbury were the winners in Sunday's scheduled play in the Hall County Baseball League.

The Salisbury ball club continued its winning streak by defating the Eli club by a score of 8 to 1 Sunday afternoon at Eli. Davis held the Eli club to three hits, while his team nicked Childress for six safeties. Errors played a big part in the game. Because of the rain, only six and one-half innings were played.

Playing on their own grounds, the CCC veterans defeated Fairview by a 4-2 count. Cross Roads, playing at Lesley, defeated the home team 5 to 1. The Turkey-Parnell game at Turkey was rained out in the third inning. Turkey has not as yet played a scheduled league game.

This week's play: Eli at Fairview, CCC at Salisbury, Lesley at Parnell, Turkey at Cross Roads.

The standings:

Club	W	L	Pct.
Salisbury	2	0	1,000
Cross Roads	2	0	1,000
CCC	2	0	1,000
Turkey	0	0	.000
Lesley	0	1	.000
Parnell	0	1	.000
Fairview	0	2	.000
Eli	0	2	.000

Harry Womack Is Still 'Kinda' Rapid On Foot

Persons who intend to pass "hot" checks in Memphis are advised to steer clear of the A. Womack grocery establishment here.

One Red County man, a six-foot-three youth from Turkey, learned that fact to his chagrin Thursday afternoon of last week.

The Turkey youth gave a check at the Womack grocery store Wednesday of last week without having funds in a bank to cover the amount of the check. In Memphis again the following morning, the Turkey man was accosted by Harry Womack, the store proprietor's son, who demanded that the check be taken up.

The man tried to borrow the money, but failed. Mr. Womack called Sheriff Joe Colvin to come for the offender. The man, however, decided to leave for places unknown. He made a break and began running down the street. Harry Womack, who represented Memphis High School and Hardin-Simmons University in the sprint events during his school days, winning fifth in the 220-yard dash at the state high school meet a few years ago, gave chase.

He overtook the Turkey youth in front of the Cicero-Smith Lumber Co. warehouse and made a flying tackle, knocking the man into a pile of bricks and addling him. Womack picked up a brick, to the amusement of the 250 or 300 spectators, and forced the Turkey youth to accompany him back to the store, where Sheriff Colvin placed the man under arrest.

Mr. Womack asked the man: "You didn't know that Harry used to be a star dash man, did you?"

"I know he is 'kinda' fast," the man replied.

Bleeding Gums Healed
The sight of sore gums is sickening. Reliable dentists often report the successful use of LETO'S PYORRHEA REMEDY on their very worst cases. If you will get a bottle and use as directed druggists will return money if it fails. Tarver's Pharmacy. (Adv.)

BUILD STRENGTH; TONE UP STOMACH
Do you feel run-down, sluggish, without appetite for food or zest for living? Don't suffer another day without Irving Williams B.L.K. Formula, which acts as a mild tonic, stomachic stimulant, a mild laxative and gentle diuretic stimulant for the kidneys. Take just a few doses and see how much better you feel. The first bottle must produce results or money back. Williams B.L.K. Formula is compounded from the prescription of a former army doctor who used it in private practice many years. Now this valuable time-tested medicine is available to you at a cost of only a few cents a day. Being a liquid—already dissolved—Williams B.L.K. Formula starts to work almost immediately. Try a bottle under money-back guarantee, and enjoy that good old feeling. On sale at
