Rail Work Rules Dispute Ended

Hired Hand

A Rash Of Good Pictures

By Glenn Shelton

If you're a fan of celluloidland, you should be beside yourself these days. Three of the best movies made in years are now showing in Wichita Falls: Cleopatra, Tom Jones and Lilies of the Field. If you like a ribald comedy, you'll love Tom — it is about the most hilarious thing to come out of Hollywood in our generation. If you like pageantry, then Cleo is your dish—it is a masterpiece of flamboyant magnificence, and a picture, I still maintain, undersold by the critics. So much was made of Cleo before she hit the screen that everyone expected miracles, not just a great picture. It is, nonetheless, a great movie, with great acting, and superlative sets.

SHELTON

When Lilies of the Field first showed in Wichita Falls, people stayed away in droves. Yet Sidney Poitier won an Oscar for best actor, it was a top contender for best picture, and it is, in my estimation, one of the tenderest, most poignant, movies of all time. It will become a classic.

★ ★ ★

I must tell you, to be fair, that Paris When it Sizzles is a lousy movie, and if you attend Dark Purpose you're wasting your money.

★ ★ ★

But, following the superb How the West Was Won, these other three pictures make a menu to please the most demanding movie epicurean, and seeing them nobody can say that movies are better than ever these days. They are.

★ ★ ★

DON'T MISS ANY OF THESE THREE MOVIES. TOM JONES IS NOT LIKE ANY PICTURE YOU'VE EVER SEEN. IT IS SIMPLY GREAT!

OFF ON A TANGENT — Be glad you're living in a town with a good school system. I noticed recently that all three Wichita Falls high schools won first honors in literary events in district TIL contests, and that the combined scores of the three high schools in mathematics was HIGHEST in the state. How 'bout that, Dallas and Houston?

THE MAILBAG: From HOLLIDAY: "We Beatle fans are brainwashing our poor parents with our talk about Beatles, Beatles, Beatles which lasts at our house from 8:30 in the morning to 10:30 at night. For instance, the other night I heard my mother saying in her sleep, 'The Beatles beat their drums too hard!' I laughed till tears rolled out of my eyes! Tonight at supper my 'Beatle brainwashed' mother was talking about something completely different and all of a sudden she was talking about the Beatles." COMMENT: THIS WREN LOVES BEATLES.

Johnson Sees Day Of Equality For All

NEW YORK (AP)— President Johnson, opening the New York World's Fair, predicted Wednesday "a1 America in which no man is handicapped by the color of his skin."

While he spoke at the outdoor Singer Bowl, racial demonstrators carrying signs and chanting "freedom now" picketed gates and pavilions of the fair and clashed with police.

Later, when the President spoke in front of the U.S. Pavilion, the chants of 100 demonstrators could be heard above his voice, although police kept them 300 feet away.

Freedom For All

"We look forward to a world in which all people are equal, in which all men live in prosperity, in which all men are free," Johnson declared.

As he cut the ribbon opening the pavilion, Johnson told the crowd, "This country doesn't try to disguise its imperfections or try to cover them up."

In the speech at the Singer Bowl, the President alluded only incidentally to racial problems.

"I prophesy peace is not only possible in our generation, I predict it is coming earlier," he said.

Recalls 1939 Fair

Then, looking backward to the 1939 World's Fair and ahead to the next one, whenever that may be, Johnson continued: "If I am right, then at the next World's Fair people will see an America as different from today as we are different from 1939.

"They will see an America in which no man must be poor.

"They will see an America in which no man is handicapped by the color of his skin, or the nature of his belief—and no man will be discriminated against because of the church he attends or the country of his ancestors.

"All of these dreams, these hopes, these expectations depend upon a world free from the threat of war."

Cites Theme

Noting the fair's theme of "Peace Through Understanding," Johnson declared: "Unless we can use our skill and wisdom to conquer conflict as we have conquered science, then our hopes of today—these proud achievements—will go under the devastation of tomorrow.

"Its final direction — abundance or annihilation, development or desolation—is in your hands and in the hands of people around the world."

At the U.S. Pavilion, Johnson said: "We do not try to mask our national problems under a cloak of censorship and secrecy. We do not try to disguise our imperfections and our failures. Rather, we freely admit them, and we bend our energy and toil to their correction."

Fair Opening Marred By Cold Rain, Pickets

NEW YORK (AP) — The billion-dollar New York World's Fair got off to a dismal start Wednesday, beset by a cold, relentless rain and besieged by hundreds of surging shouting, persistent racial demonstrators. There were 294 arrests as police battled civil rights crusaders.

The fair opened on schedule at 9 a.m. with a brief, sharp influx of thousands of dignitaries and visitors. But by late afternoon, trains bound for the fair were nearly empty.

At nightfall, a galaxy of exhibition lights flashed on, their grandeur veiled in fog and low clouds, and attendance mounted slowly to a total of 82,991,- far below the anticipated opening day crowd of 250,000 to 500,000.

The one bright spot in a miserable spring day was President Johnson's speech inaugurating the fair — and even this was marred by chanted demands in the background for broader civil rights.

In his address, Johnson prophesied peace within this generation, and also — as though to answer the demonstrators who were kept their distance by police — foresaw an America "in which no man is handicapped by the color of his skin."

Plans for a massive traffic stall-in on roads around the fair collapsed in the mist and gloom that marked the opening. Traffic around the fair was only 25 per cent of normal, with the very threat of the tieup perhaps contributing to the poor attendance.

Some Negro and white demonstrators — those arrested were about equally divided — threw themselves to the ground and had to be lifted bodily and borne to a fair stockade, from there they were taken to a nearby city police station and charged with disorderly conduct.

County Banks Tally Record Deposits

By BILL LAMBERT

A complete survey of the seven banks in Wichita County Tuesday indicated deposits as of April 15 set an all-time record throughout the county and showed a jump of almost $17 million over the first quarter of 1963 and were up $1,257,000 over the December bank call.

Total deposits in the county banks were $242,589,913 on April 15, an increase from the $241,-331,086 reported Dec. 20, 1963, and $225,653,854 on March 18, 1963.

Every bank in the county showed an increase over deposits one year ago, and four were up from the December figure.

Bankers Surprised

This latter fact caused some surprise in local banking circles. Bankers mentioned that deposits usually show a decline during the first quarter as compared with the end-of-year figure.

Joe Wolverton, president of the First-Wichita National Bank, said the figure "reflects one thing — we're still enjoying a healthy economy." He said the April increase is surprising because "taxpaying time usually depresses deposits."

Bill Burford, president of Texas Bank & Trust, said, "The deposits being up at this time of year shows the Wichita County economy is very aggressive. We're one of the few cities that will show an increase."

Burford mentioned the passage of a $6.9 million bond issue for capital improvements in the city as "generating some money" and said construction work is good here.

Strong Economy

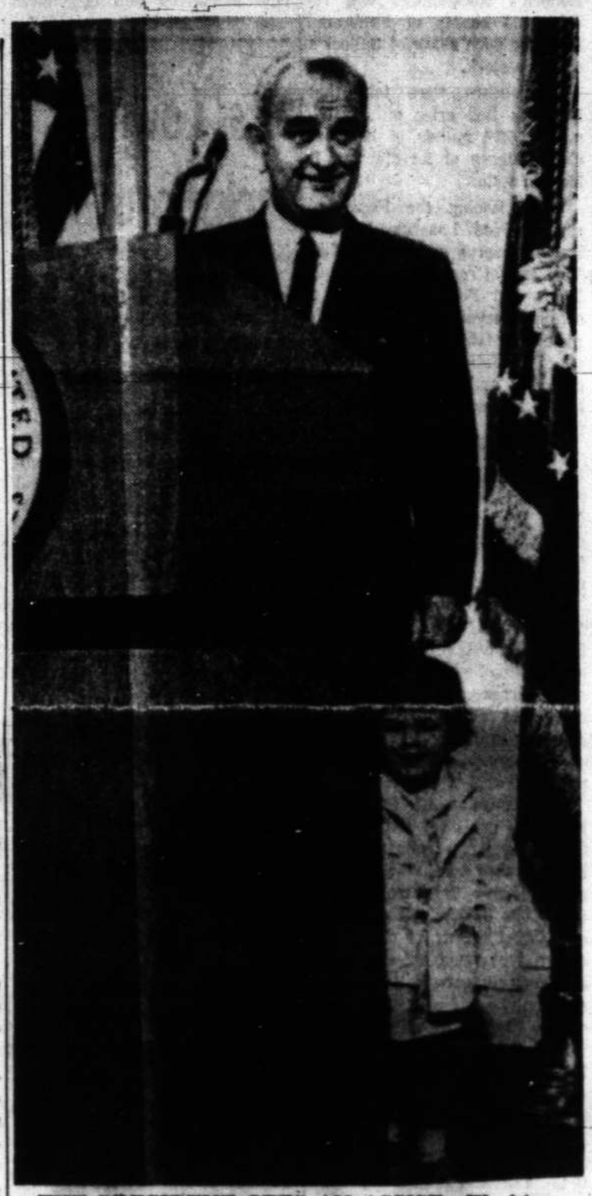

Harry C. Lane, City National president, said "It's difficult to assess why Wichita Falls has the deposits it has in relation to population. It shows underlying strength in the economy and the banks' willingness to create additional wealth with sound credit in all fields. The percentage of loans to deposits is, I'm sure, at a healthy ratio."

A call for reports of conditions of banks was issued Tuesday by Comptroller of the Currency James J. Saxon for all national banks and by Deputy Banking Commissioner H. L. Bengston for state banks.

All banks in Wichita County were closed Tuesday in observance of San Jacinto Day and the figures for some of the banks outside of Wichita Falls were not available, since they were under time lock.

LBJ Reveals Settlement

By NEIL GILBRIDE

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson announced settlement Wednesday night of the 5-year-old railroad work rules dispute.

The settlement, which requires ratification by the five unions involved, removes the threat of a nationwide rail stoppage scheduled to start at 12:01 a.m. Saturday.

"This is a good day for our country," Johnson said in announcing the settlement on a hastily arranged nationwide radio-television hookup.

★

Speaking for the unions, Roy E. Davidson of the railway brotherhoods said the agreement was accepted in principle subject to the ratification procedures of the labor organizations.

"While the agreement falls short of satisfying all the important demands of the employes," Davidson said, "we recognize that significant gains have been made."

J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference and chief management spokesman, said the settlement "promises to restore the morale of our 700,000 employes to its highest level and bring a rebirth of the spirit of cooperation between union and management leaders."

Without going into details, Johnson said the settlement terms are "just and fair."

"They take account also of the human needs and human aspirations which are affected by technological progress."

The settlement was reached in the Oval Room of the White House living quarters at 5:30 p.m., White House officials said.

Johnson went on the air with his announcement at 6:50 p.m.

"This is a good day for our country," the President said.

The agreement, as he pointed out, ends 4½ years of conflict and controversy between the nation's railroads and five of the operating unions.

Johnson did not attempt to spell out details of the settlement.

But he hailed the agreement as a victory for collective bargaining and industrial democracy.

"But most of all," the President said, "this agreement prevents—we hope for all time—a crippling and disastrous strike in the railroad industry. This strike, had it occurred, would

General Terms Of Agreement Are Outlined

WASHINGTON (AP) — Here are the general terms of the railroad labor settlement announced Wednesday night by President Johnson:

1. Virtually all employes of the five unions involved who are paid on an hourly basis will receive seven paid holidays.

2. Trainmen who must spend more than four hours away from their home terminal will receive suitable lodging for the night and $1.50 meal allowance.

3. The railroads will be able to reduce the number of employes required under present rules to man self-propelled track maintenance equipment. It could not be estimated how many employes would be affected, but government sources said it would not involve a large group.

4. The railroads withdrew their proposal to change the present wage structure, which provides a daily rate of pay for either eight hours of work or up to 150 miles for employes who

For Connally

Campaign Aide Is Appointed

Wichita Falls attorney Lynn Darden Wednesday afternoon was named co-campaign chairman of Wichita County for Governor John Connally's campaign for re-election.

The announcement was made by another attorney, Marvin Pierce, campaign coordinator for Connally in the 23rd Senatorial District and who will share duties with Darden in Wichita County.

"We are urging everyone to vote in the May 2 election," Pierce said. "We are urging Democratic supporters of John Connally to attend the precinct conventions, time and place of which will be announced later by the elected Wichita County Democratic chairman, W. T. (Dub) Zimmerman."

Darden resumed practice of law in Wichita Falls after returning from Washington, D.C., where he was aide to U.S. Rep. Graham Purcell. He resigned from Purcell's staff in September 1962 to join the law firm of Kouri, Banner and Darden. In April 1963, Darden became a partner in

Twister Injures Two At Pecan Gap

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A night-prowling tornado wrecked houses in Northeast Texas farming communities Wednesday night, and injured at least two persons at tiny Pecan Gap. The weather bureau predicted more twisters ahead.

Police said the two persons injured were in serious condition. The radio dispatcher at the Paris, Tex., police station said it appeared that there were no more injured.

Paris police said three houses at Pecan Gap, where both injuries occurred, were demolished. One four-room house could not be found, a patrolman added.

Oklahoma Toll Road Dedication Thursday

Dedication of the H. E. Bailey Turnpike, which runs from Oklahoma City to the Red River north of Burkburnett, Tex., will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday near Newcastle, Okla.

The dedication ceremonies, to be held on the toll plaza near Newcastle, follow by one day and 75 years the "Run of 1889," when the unallotted lands of Oklahoma Territory were opened for settlement.

The 86.4-mile turnpike was financed by $56.5 million in bonds sold Nov. 2, 1961.

It was not scheduled for completion until June 1, 1964, but the Newcastle-to-Lawton section was opened to revenue traffic March 1, and the Lawton-to-Randlett segment also will be opened ahead of schedule.

The section of road from Randlett, Okla., to the Red River is actually a state expressway but it too will be open for traffic. Texas Red River Valley Expressway work from Wichita Falls to the Red River should be open to traffic later this summer.

The new turnpike has free entrance. Its entrances and exits are not controlled by toll gates as are the other turnpikes.

All tolls are collected by electronic coin-receiving equipment. Money is counted electronically. Toll booth attendants are stationed at the gates but they make change only.

Toll plazas are west of Newcastle, west of Chickasha and directly under the State Highway 5 overpass west of Walters.

A concession area is located between the lanes of the road near Walters. Another is located near Chickasha.

The turnpike has two 24-foot driving lanes with a 15-foot-wide raised, curbless grass median.

The turnpike was named for the Oklahoma Turnpike Authority's consulting engineer.

He also has been Oklahoma City manager, assistant public safety commissioner, state highway director and a member of the highway commission.

Federated Stores Foresees Banner Retail Year In '64

Record sales, record net income, and a 17.7 per cent increase in earnings per share were reported Wednesday by Fred Lazarus Jr., chairman, and Ralph Lazarus, president, for Federated Department Stores Inc., the nation's largest department store group.

The company's annual report shows net income in the 52 weeks ended Feb. 1, 1964 was $43,727,807, or $2.53 per share, compared with $37,186,335, or $2.15 per share earned in 1962. Earnings have more than doubled in the last decade.

Federated's sales rose for the 25th consecutive year to $932,777,286, an increase of $36,078,109, or four per cent over sales in 1962. Sales have nearly doubled in the last ten years.

Pre-tax income in 1963 was 9.6 per cent of sales, the highest percentage since 1945 and the third highest in the company's history.

The annual dividend rate was raised from $1.20 to $1.30 per share on July 31, 1963 — the fifth increase to shareholders in the last six years.

An insert in the annual report referred to the agreement in principle, announced March 25, contemplating the affiliation of Federated with Bullock's, Inc., one of the major retail organizations on the Pacific Coast.

Profit Principle

The agreement provides that Bullock's stockholders will receive 1.4 shares of Federated stock for each share of Bullock's common stock.

Stockholders were told that Bullock's had sales of approximately $196 million in 1963, including those of its division, I. Magnin & Co.

When issuing the Federated report, Fred Lazarus Jr. and Ralph Lazarus pointed out that "the annual reports of both Bullock's and Federated reflect a common devotion to the principle of profitable growth. The proposed affiliation would give each company nationwide representation in the quality merchandising field."

The Federated annual report that Federated's "shareholders' investment increased substantially in 1963; long-term debt declined; the ratio of current assets to current liabilities improved markedly."

The report noted further improvement in "our already strong financial position. As of February 1, 1964, Federated sold all of its deferred payment accounts receivable as a first step in changing to the installment method of accounting for tax purposes."

"This move, which temporarily affects our cash and our deferred payment accounts," stockholders were told, "will permit us to narrow the time lag between our income tax payments and actual receipt of cash from deferred payment sales. Financing requirements will thus be reduced."

Position Stronger

During 1963, the report noted, Federated strengthened its competitive position by the completion of four major expansion projects: a second branch store for the Rike division in Dayton, Ohio; a second branch store for the Shillito division in Cincinnati; a fifth branch store for the Sanger-Harris division in Dallas; the the conversion of the former Gayoso Hotel to service facilities for Goldsmith's downtown Memphis store. Together the three new stores provide nearly 400,000 square feet of store space and customer parking for 3,700 cars.

Several major expansion projects, including an all-new downtown store for Dallas, are on the Federated agenda for 1964. The 425,000 - square - foot Dallas store — the first new downtown department store in 30 years for that city — will replace separate Sanger and Harris stores when it opens in 1965.

Other 1964 expansion plans include a second branch store for the Lazarus division in Columbus, Ohio and a 70,000 - square-foot addition to the downtown store, already Ohio's largest. The new branch, called Lazarus Northland, will be a four-level, 212,000 - square - foot store in a major shopping center that will have parking for 5,000 cars.

"We anticipate that 1964 will be another good year for Federated," the annual report concluded. "The reduction in federal income tax rates, both for corporations and for individuals, should provide our industry with new incentives and consumers with increased buying power."

E. Huckabee Dies In Lawton Hospital

LAWTON, Okla. (Special) — Earnest E. Huckabee, 82, died Wednesday in a Lawton hospital.

Funeral services will be at 2:30 p.m. Thursday from the First Baptist Church in Lawton, Rev. Calvin C. Ussery and Rev. Fred Cox officiating.

Burial will be in Riverside Cemetery under the direction of Johnson Mortuary.

Born Oct. 3, 1881 in Erath County, Tex., he moved to Greer county in 1907 and was married to Annie Copeland Powell, in 1910 at Martha, Okla. Huckabee farmed in the Fairview Community and moved to Mangum in 1926 where he was a carpenter.

Survivors include his widow of the home; two step children, Ila Hicks and Elward Powell, both of Mangum, five grandchildren and eleven great-grandchildren.

Cork Funeral Rites Saturday

Services for Charlie Cork, about 65, will be held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday from the Faith Tabernacle Church of God in Christ after his death Tuesday in a Wichita Falls hospital.

Rev. D. E. Moss, pastor, will officiate at the rites, to be directed by Wells Funeral Home. Interment will be in East Lawn Cemetery. Cork had been a resident of Wichita Falls 36 years.

Survivors include his widow, Mrs. Mattie Cork, of 507 Bonner; three sisters, Mrs. Eugenia Lane of Athens, Tex., Mrs. Gustavia Hancock and Mrs. Willie Mae Green, both of Jacksonville, Tex.; and two brothers, Johnny Cork of Jacksonville and J. W. Cork of Los Angeles, Calif.

Joe Leura Rites Slated Thursday

Joe Leura, a 63-year-old former Wichitan, will be buried in Riverside Cemetery following services at 10 a.m. Thursday from the First Mexican Baptist Church.

Rev. Joshua Ibarra, pastor of the church, will officiate. Owens & Brumley Funeral Home will direct arrangements.

Born in Mexico, Leura died Monday in San Antonio. He had lived in Wichita Falls 24 years before moving to San Antonio six years ago.

Survivors are his widow; a son, Samuel S. Leura of San Antonio; and four grandchildren.

Jack Hightower's Platform Listed

Jack Hightower of Vernon has announced his platform on issues of importance to come before the next legislature of Texas.

Hightower, former state representative, is a candidate for the State senate post now held by Sen. George (Cotton) Moffett.

Hightower's statement is as follows:

"Strong public education is important to all the people of Texas. As your senator, I will work to safeguard and improve education for all our people, from grade school through graduate school. The God-given talents and abilities of our young people must be developed to answer the challenge of new industry in Texas.

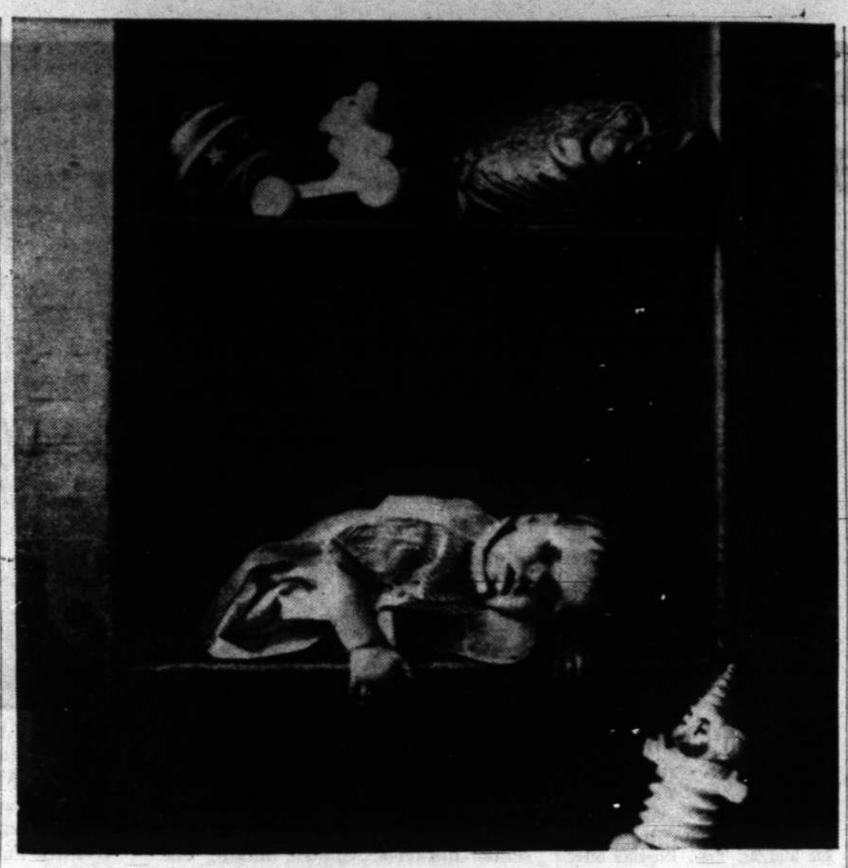

"We all know that congressional reappointment is long overdue. As your senator, I will work in the legislature to reapportion our congressional districts in a fair and just manner.

"As senator of this district, I will work for a solution to the problems of statewide water conservation and development.

"Some adjustments must be made in the sales tax. I believe that it can be handled more fairly than it has been in the past.

"From my experience in the legislature, I am well aware that our problems grow more difficult each year. If you elect me your senator, I will serve with diligence and fidelity to provide for the honest needs of our own district and the cause of good government.

"In more than 11 years of public service, I have found that the people of our district recognize honest effort. As your senator, I will be mindful of your confidence, and I will do my very best to merit the support of all the people in this district."

Guard, Reserve Due Vacations

A representative of the U.S. Department of Labor reminded employers and national guardsmen and reservists Wednesday that amendments to the Universal Military Training and Service Act prohibit employers from requiring employes to take vacations coincident with summer encampments.

Regional Director Forrest E. Richter of the department's Bureau of Veterans' Reemployment Rights in Dallas said reservists and National Guardsmen must formally request leaves of absence from employers for summer encampment training to be entitled to the reemployment protection and that employers are required by law to grant leaves for such reserve training duty.

The amendment of Public Law 86-632 clarified and expanded the protection of reservists and guardsmen against loss of seniority, status, rate of pay, and vacation while they are away from jobs for active or inactive reserve training duty.

The law now requires reservists and guardsmen to report back for work at the beginning of the next regularly scheduled work period after the expiration of the last calendar day necessary to travel from the place of training to the place of employment.

Dean Community Clean-up Slated

Residents of the Dean Community, eight miles from Wichita Falls on the Waurika Highway in Clay County, have organized a clean-up campaign April 27-May 2 to brighten their area.

Called the Dean Community Club, the organization will route pickup trucks to some 100 families to pick bundles of trash and refuse they hope will be cleaned from yards.

President Russell Rood said a picnic will be given for Dean school children who have volunteered their help in the campaign May 2.

Three numbers — 767-0134, 767-0114, and 767-0185 — will await calls from Dean residents who wish to have a clean-up truck come for trash.

Connally Campaign Co-Chairman Named

Humphrey, Humphrey and Gibson law firm.

Darden received special honors in law school. He served as co-editor of the Perigrinus at Baylor and received the Texas Bar Association award, the Perigrinus award and the consul award for outstanding contribution to his profession and school. Darden also was listed in Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities in 1959.

Pierce has been a staunch supporter of John Connally. He served as Connally's campaign manager in 1962. Then, Pierce said of Connally, who had never run for public office: "I went to law school with him, and I know he's a good man . . . that's why I'm for him."

Pierce was a naval officer during World War II and returned to Wichita Falls in 1946, to open his law office. Born in 1916, he was graduated from Wichita Falls High School in 1932 and received his B.A. degree from Wichita Falls Junior College. He received his law degree from the University of Texas in 1938.

Subsequently, Pierce went into the Navy to serve on the USS Whiteside which saw service in the Pacific. Pierce received battle stars at Iwo Jima and Okinawa.

Pierce, in Wichita Falls, has long devoted much time to his city and county. He has served as the Wichita County Civil Defense coordinator, county savings bond chairman for many years, a board member of the JMUNIO Chamber of Commerce and is a member of the Masonic Lodge 635 and Maskat Temple. Professionally, Pierce belongs to the national, state and Wichita Falls ba associations and several legal societies.

Stamford Industry Fund Drive Ended

STAMFORD, Tex. (Special) — The Industrial Foundation here has passed its $25,000 goal in capital funds, it was announced Tuesday night at the annual Chamber of Commerce banquet.

Curtis Johnson, chairman of the board, said some funds are still expected which may push the total toward the $30,000 mark. More than 250 shares were sold at $100 each, he said.

Johnson also said that a general meeting of stockholders will be held some time during the next two weeks.

The foundation recently received its state charter as a non-profit organization and will work closely with the Chamber of Commerce in securing new industry for Stamford.

Subject to Democratic Primary, May 2, 1964

Candidate's Wife Campaigns Here

With an appearance belying the exhausting schedule she has undergone in recent weeks, Mrs. Gordon McLendon told a group of her husband's supporters Wednesday that "I must admit, this campaign has been the hardest thing I've tried to do in my life."

The wife of the candidate for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator added that "I also admit there have been lots of laughs."

Telling the approximately 30 women present that "I won't pretend to know the campaign issue by issue," Mrs. McLendon said that in "broad terms . . . my husband stands for a man standing on his own two feet.

"You would term him a definite conservative," she said.

McLendon, billed as the "Old Scotchman," is a successful radio, television and theatre executive.

In listing some of her husband's many activities, Mrs. McLendon pointed out that his participation in charitable organizations has not been just with "honorary titles," but that he has worked for the groups.

Mrs. McLendon said that her husband will "always put country before party." She asked her audience to think twice about not voting in the Democratic primary. "Just to have a two-party state per se doesn't prove anything," she said. "If you go to the Republican side you have four men who stand for the same thing," she declared in referring to the four GOP candidates for the Senate nomination.

Although this is her husband's first political race, Mrs. McLendon is not new to politics since in her teens she saw her father campaigning, successfully, for the governorship of Louisiana.

From now until the primary, Mrs. McLendon will keep up her 18-hour day. She will be honored at coffees practically every day until the primary May 2: Friday in Fort Worth, Sunday in Houston, Monday in Amarillo, Tuesday in Lubbock and area and Wednesday in San Antonio.

The last two days before the election she will campaign with her husband.

Mrs. Luther Woody Funeral Wednesday

STAMFORD, Tex. (Special) — Funeral for Mrs. Luther Woody, 87, who died Wednesday in a Merkel, Tex., nursing home, will be at 3 p.m. Thursday from Calvary Baptist Church here.

The pastor, Rev. L. A. Sublett, and Rev. J. B. Chick of Sheppard, Tex., will officiate. Burial will be in Spring Creek Cemetery in Avoca, Tex., under direction of Kinney Funeral Home.

Born Laura Powdrell Sept. 11, 1876 in East Texas, Mrs. Woody was married on Feb. 23, 1902 at Springtown, Tex. The couple moved to the New Hope community near Stamford in 1903.

Survivors include her husband; two brothers, T. J. Hammer of Dexter, N.M., and Rev. Grady Hammer of Haskell; and a nephew, Raymond Hammer of Stamford.

Graham Service Slated In Crowell

CROWELL, Tex. (Special) — C. B. Graham Jr., 39, died in San Marcos, Tex., Tuesday after a long illness. Services were held in San Marcos from the Weatherford Funeral Home Chapel at 10 a.m. Wednesday.

Additional services have been scheduled for 2 p.m. Thursday from the Womack Funeral Home Chapel in Crowell, with Judge Leslie Thomas, Methodist lay minister, officiating. Burial will follow in Crowell Cemetery.

Born in Foard County April 5, 1925, Graham moved to San Marcos 12 years ago. He was the son of the late Dr. and Mrs. Clyde B. Graham Sr. of Crowell. He has one surviving sister, Mrs. W. L. Waechter of Fort Worth.

receive pay on a combined time and mileage basis. It was agreed that any wage increases until Jan. 1, 1968 will be limited to basic hourly rates and will not apply to existing mileage rates.

5. The unions withdrew their request for overtime pay for road employes. (Yard service workers now receive overtime beyond eight hours.)

6. The unions withdrew their request for night shift differential pay for all classes of employes.

7. The railroad's proposal to combine some divisional train runs, thus lengthening the runs before crews are changed, was referred to a committee composed of the parties and two of the mediators, Dr. George Taylor and Theodore Kheel. The committee will discuss the issue further but will not have the power to make any binding decision. A government spokesman said the issue could not lead to any possibility of another strike threat.

8. New rules will be established which will enable the railroads to a limited extent to use road crews for certain kinds of yard work. This affects the present rule requiring a separate crew to bring a train into a railroad yard and another crew to handle it there. There will be provisions for special pay for road crews who handle their own train in the yard.

W. R. FERGESON

Foard County Pioneer Dies

CROWELL, Tex. (Special) — A pioneer Foard County farmer of 78, W. R. (Will) Fergeson, died Wednesday morning in his Crowell home.

Funeral services will be at 3:30 p.m. Thursday from the Crowell Methodist Church, with interment to follow in Crowell Cemetery, directed by Womack Funeral Home of Crowell.

Officiating will be Rev. John Fitzgerrel, pastor of the Crowell Methodist Church, assisted by Rev. Clarence Bounds, a retired Methodist minister of Crowell, and Rev. Grady Adcock, Methodist pastor of Lubbock.

Fergeson came to Foard County in a covered wagon in 1886 while it was still part of Hardeman County. He was born Dec. 18, 1885, in Collin County.

He was a cowboy on the Witherspoon Ranch before he was married to Miss Bertha Johnson Aug. 18, 1907, in Crowell. He was a retired farmer.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Floyd Fergeson and Howard Fergeson, both of Crowell; two daughters, Mrs. J. G. Adcock of Truscott, Tex., and Mrs. John Rader of Crowell; a brother, George Fergeson of Lubbock; a sister, Mrs. Lena Schornick of Claremore, Okla.; and five grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be Jack Walker, A. C. Ownsbey, Jess Autrey, J. M. Barker, Clyde Owens, Jack Welch, Lawrence M. Glover and Marcus Mills.

LBJ Reveals Settlement

have put six million workers off their jobs — would have decreased our gross national product by 13 per cent, four times the largest decline in any postwar recession—and would have forced a rise in prices throughout the nation."

Now all this is avoided, the President said, and a robust economy can continue moving forward.

The President said his heart was filled with the pride that every American must feel. For him, it was a great personal victory that will not go unnoticed in an election year.

Johnson said the agreement showed American business and labor operating at its best and at the highest level of public responsibility.

"This is the face of American democracy that we can show the world," he said, "that free enterprise, free collective bargaining really works—and that the needs and the demands of the people's interest are understood and come first."

"For, says the Old Testament, 'he that keepeth understanding shall find good.'"

Announcement of the settlement followed days of tense negotiations.

Davidson spoke of gains for organized labor involved in the agreement.

"We're grateful that the President has encouraged collective bargaining" to function as one of the basic processes, Davidson said.

Wolfe said the settlement should restore the morale of railroad employes and bring back a spirit of cooperation between railroad unions and management.

Wolfe said he applauded Johnson's handling of the dispute declared he was grateful for the President's "statesmanship."

Johnson said America can be proud that the settlement has been reached. In parting he again praised Secretary of Labor W. Willard Wirtz and all the contributions he has made to the settlement.

Naylor Funeral Set In Lubbock

Funeral services for Harold Carr Naylor, 60-year-old former Wichitan, will be conducted in Lubbock Friday. Other arrangements were incomplete.

Naylor died at his home in Lubbock early Wednesday. He was a graduate of Wichita Falls High School and attended Hardin Junior College before enrolling in the University of Oklahoma.

He had resided in Lubbock for the past 15 years, where he was associated with the General Steel Co. there.

Survivors include his widow; two sons, Dr. Paul Naylor of Houston and Dr. Donald Naylor of Odessa; a sister, Mrs. John W. Barker of Wichita Falls; and four grandchildren.

Devoted Teacher At Tipton Home Selected For Honor

By MADGE DOMBROWSKI
And DELIA SPRAGUE
Correspondents

Miss Lois Sawyer, devoted grade school teacher at Tipton Home school for 24 years, has been chosen as Tillman County, (Okla.) "Teacher of the Year" by a committee from the county educational association.

Along with other county "Teachers of the Year," Miss Sawyer will receive special honors at the Oklahoma State Fair this year and will compete in the state contest.

Miss Sawyer is known for her activities as a church and community worker, an avid garden-club member and her hobby, photography.

Born and reared on a farm near Morewood, Okla., Miss Sawyer first attended a one-room school. She attended her first two years of high school at Hammon, riding the MKT railroad back and forth from home to school. Her second two years of high school were at Pawhuska where she stayed with an uncle who was a missionary to the Osage Indians. She attended church at the mission where interpreters often were used at services of the church. The customs, tribal dances and beautiful handicraft perhaps inspired Miss Sawyer to seek beauty in flowers and color photography.

MISS LOIS SAWYER

First Teaching Job

Her first teaching job was at Texmo, Okla., where she kept up with the family by meeting her father, the mail carrier, daily. Teaching led her to many communities, among them Butler, where she stayed for 11 years. Her superintendent, R. J. Wheeler, afterwards moved to Tipton, and enlisted the services of Miss Sawyer. Miss Sawyer says that after visiting the home, she realized the challenge and opportunity, so she came in the fall of 1939. She alternates grades, teaching the first and second one year, then following them to the third and fourth, according to the enrollment and need. Often, long after the bell rings for dismissal, Miss Sawyer will be found with two or three students she has kept for a little extra help.

Realizing that the institutional child needs particular attention, Miss Sawyer's alert mind and loving heart plan things to do that interest may be aroused and that the children may know the world about them as well as their books. She takes them on field trips at her own expense. They used to go by train when Tipton had passenger service; now she takes them by bus.

Cookie Day

There's the big cookie day, when the children make cookies, learn measurements, and learn cooperation.

Last year "Oklahoma Orbit" published a story about Miss Sawyer, entitled "Cookies by Cuties." The author, Vera Holding, said "Miss Sawyer teaches from the heart as well as from the textbooks. There are many ways she finds to share her busy, dedicated life with these children who look upon her as a combined teacher, advisor and adored friend."

For many years Miss Sawyer has been active in summer activities of Tipton Home. She sponsored junior-age girls for two summers to Uncle Ben's Camp in the Wichitas, sponsored Girl Scouts from Tipton at Quartz Mountain, and is staff photographer for the Tipton Home.

Miss Sawyer says she got her education the hard way. After 13 summer schools and one winter term, she received her B.S. degree at Southwestern (Okla.) State College, Weatherford. She has continued to take work shops, completing graduate work in elementary education.

Of Miss Sawyer's 38 years teaching, 24 have been at Tipton Home (called North Drive school).

Teacher Secretary

Miss Sawyer has served the county Classroom Teachers as secretary and reporter and was vice president of the Northwest district in 1962.

A member of the OEA, NEA, and Tau Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, she has served as chapter treasurer since 1951. She has attended NEA conventions at New York City, Portland, Los Angeles and Denver.

A member of the First Baptist Church where she sings in the choir, she is superintendent of the beginners' department in Sunday School and of the primary Training Union.

This active, happy person says her greatest reward is to see boys and girls go into life and make fine citizens.

She is looking forward to Estes Park Conference Camp, Colo., where she is on the senior staff for the third consecutive summer.

PVT. FRED WADLEY

Great Books, Great Ideas

Theories Of Child Rearing

By MORTIMER J. ADLER

Dear Dr. Adler:

The doctrine of "permissiveness" which has been popular in child-rearing seems to me to be an excuse for parents who are too lazy or irresponsible to teach their children how to behave properly. The small child who throws temper tantrums or wantonly destroys property without fear of punishment, as well as the teen-ager with free access to a car which he then drives too fast — these seem to me to be cases where parents have failed. I can't believe that the best citizen is the one who brought up to believe that he can get anything he wants. What do the great books say?

Judith H. Marcus
12208 Berry Street
Silver Spring, Maryland

Dear Mrs. Marcus:

Let us start with the plan of child-rearing advocated by Plato in the Laws in the 4th century, B.C. Plato counsels against either pampering the child or treating him too harshly. During infancy — those first, highly important years of life—the child can indicate what he wants only by crying or yelling. Very often this is a sign of something amiss — of physical pain, hunger, or wet diapers — and must be taken care of at once. But to give a baby everything it wants just because it cries "would be his utter ruin," says Plato, for it must learn, at this crucial first stage of rearing, that it cannot have everything it wants and that in this life it must often put up with pain and discomfort. The ultimate aim is to attain self-control — an inner discipline — midway between aestheticism and sensuality.

As for punishment, Plato advises a middle way here too. Pure permissiveness in child-rearing, he says, will result in an irascible, bad - tempered adult, who will be hard to get along with, while harsh, tyrannical discipline will result in an over-humble, abject, slavish personality. A child, particularly from the age of three to six, needs to be punished occasionally to keep him from becoming self-willed or insolent. However, Plato cautions, this must be done in such a way that the child is not humiliated or disgraced. The way and the spirit in which punishment is meted out are an important influence on the child in his path to a free adult status.

If we turn now to the scheme of child-rearing proposed by Rousseau in Emile more than two thousand years later, we see important differences between his plan and that of Plato. Rousseau too aimed at the cultivation of natural human faculties and the development of the child into a good and happy man. However, he emphasized the free spontaneous development of the individual's potentialities, rather than shaping them in conformity with ideas derived from reason or custom. The great mistake, as he saw it, has been to make children conform to adult expectations and desires, without regard to the natural potentialities, needs, and rhythms of the individual child. Moreover, he asserted, childhood is not merely a preparatory for adulthood, but has its own ends and values, which syould not be thwarted in order to conform to some mechanical, schematic, external viewpoint.

Hence, Rousseau advocates letting a child develop at his own pace, without being forced to adapt himself to external ideas of what his mental and moral achievements should be at a certain age. The more a child learns from his own experience and is formed through a natural development from his own inner resources, the more sound he will turn out intellectually and morally. Rousseau puts his trust in the powers of natural and spontaneous self-development. (We must note, however, that in Emile there is a teacher who watches over the uncoerced development of this pupil, and who sees to it that no deleterious influences affect the child at an unpropitious age.)

Rousseau's view of child-rearing has been duplicated in many subsequent theories, down to the Summerhill "radical approach to child-rearing" in present-day Britain. Maria Montessori's view belongs to this free-development school of thought, but has certain emphases which make it unique. It also has an impressive record of successful application.

Our aim, says Mme. Montessori, should be a disciplined, not an annihilated individual — a child who is wholesomely active and working toward some goal, not a mute, immobile, passive thing. It is the task of the grownup to aid the child's nature to unfold freely through constructive activity, which is not imposed as an arbitrary task, but is engaged in out of spontaneous, natural impulses. The core of discipline is this free constructive activity — which is work, not play.

"We must check in the child," Mme. Montessori writes, "whatever offends or annoys others, or whatever tends toward rough or ill-bred acts. But all the rest —every manifestation having a useful scope, whatever it be, and under whatever form it expresses itself — must not only be permitted, but must be observed . . ."

You too can win a 54-volume set of the Great Books of the Western World by suggesting to Dr. Adler a topic for his weekly column. Your suggestions will be judged for its timeliness and aptness. You may put it in the form of a brief letter or question (of less than 100 words), referring to a topic of widespread, current interest, or you may just clip a news story from this newspaper and send it to Dr. Adler with your name and address. No literary ability or learning is necessary to win. If your sgugestion is chosen as a column topic, you will receive a set of these magnificent books, which include the greatest writings of the past 3,000 years — 443 works by 74 authors—in handsome, sturdy bindings. Address all entries to Dr. Mortimer J. Adler in care of this newspaper.

Mangum Director To Attend Meeting

MANGUM, Okla. (Special) — Bill Greer, Mangum funeral director, has been appointed for key duties at the annual convention April 28-30 of the Oklahoma Funeral Directors Association in Oklahoma City.

Besides being a member of the board of directors, Greer will serve as chairman of the reception committee for the meeting.

WEIGHING IN — Diane Heath, left, is being weighed by freshman student nurse Mary Sizemore at Wichita General Hospital. Making children feel at ease when admitted to the hospital will be one of the factors stressed in being a good nurse during Future Nurses Day Saturday. High school girls from all over this area are expected to attend the affair, which will include tours, lectures, skits and lunch. Most girls taking part in the day have plans to become professional nurses. Miss Heath is the nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heath.

Pilot On Duty In Viet Nam

Capt. Grover Townsend Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Townsend, 2608 Wooddale, Wichita Falls, is now on duty with a United States Air Force advisory unit assisting the armed forces of Viet Nam in their fight against Communist aggression.

Capt. Townsend, a pilot, and other USAF personnel train and assist Vietnamese Air Force personnel in mastering various technical specialties necessary for maintaining modern military units.

Books In The News

As It Might Have Been

BARREN VICTORIES: Versailles to Suez, by Basil Collier. Doubleday, $4.95.

By JOHN BARKHAM

This book is a prolonged essay in hindsight by an Englishman who finds the history of the past forty years to be a series of massive, inexcusable blunders. Monday quarterbacking is rarely a profitable occupation unless undertaken in a constructive spirit. Basil Collier's approach is harshly critical from start to finish. One lays the book down weary of his unbroken chastising with scorpions.

His specific target is the Western Alliance which came into existence with World War I, resumed in World War II, and continues to this day, albeit its current status is a somewhat restive one. For Collier, however, the Alliance reached an unfortunate climax with the Suez crisis of 1956, when the intervention of the United States brought the British-French-Israeli attack on Egypt to a summary halt. Like many conservative Britons, Collier thought that intervention a mistake, and believes that it did irreparable damage to the Alliance.

But the trouble began long before, in his view. His book is, indeed, a fault-finding expedition through forty years of history. The Versailles Treaty lacked understanding, Britain's disarmament after World War I was like trying to "play music without instruments" (the quotation is from Frederick the Great), Hitler should have been stopped in time, and, when World War II did become inevitable, it should have been confined to Central Europe, etc., etc.

The author's examination of events leading up to the war satisfies him that in 1936 "it would have been comparatively easy" to convince the Germans that they were not entitled to take the law into their own hands. Even if the Nazis were determined to "make mischief," the British and French should have re-armed massively and pried Mussolini from the Rome-Berlin Axis.

Collier extends his carping into the military conduct of the war itself. Among the American commanders who receive the back of his hand are General Eisenhower and Admiral King. "To most of the U.S. Navy," he remarks, "the Eastern war was the real war, and the Normandy invasion a sideshow." As for Eisenhower, he suggests that if the landing in France had occurred a month earlier, the invading forces would have had an additional month of fair weather in which to operate on the Continent.

But what hurts Collier most of all is our intervention over Suez. He charges Secretary Dulles with 'confusions," and points ironically to President Eisenhower's subsequent order to land American troops in the Lebanon. This he interprets to mean that "the U.S. had taken a fresh look at imperialism and was ready to accept a first installment of the white man's burden."

The whole book, indeed, reflects the author's bitterness over Britain's retreat from power, as well as a resentment against those of its Allies who do not share his imperialist views. Without question errors of policy and judgment were committed by the Western Allies, but unfortunately they did not share the omniscience which the author now enjoys. His book is a blinkered and partisan rewriting of history, which serves no useful purpose and draws no constructive lesson.

Despite trying for centuries, man never has been able to make an artificial pearl that even begins to resemble the oyster's product.

Haskell Municipal Offices Expanded

HASKELL, Tex. (Special) — Haskell's municipal building facilities are to be expanded for the first time in 38 years.

Mayor J. E. Walling Jr. reported the purchase by the city of Haskell of a 30 by 100 foot structure east of the present city and fire halls in the 300 block on North First Street, which, together with the present facilities, will be renovated for use by the police and fire departments and the city administration.

Not since 1926, when the present building housing the city hall and fire hall was erected, has there been any addition to Haskell municipal facilities.

SCIENCE MINDED — John Boland, 13, is a four-time science fair winner. Although many nice things have come his way through his interest in science, plans are being made to enable him to call long distance to relatives residing in England as a special award. Young Boland plans to become a nuclear physicist. (Staff Photo)

For Science Fair Winner

Telephone Call Latest Prize

By HAZEL KOHL

An interest in science has paid off for 13-year-old John Boland, eighth grade student at Zundelowitz Junior High School, who has won honors in four science fairs and had his picture published on the 1964 Wichita Falls telephone directory.

Another surprise is also coming: young Boland, who has great uncles residing in England, will be given a free telephone call to those relatives.

The relatives had expressed a desire to have copies of the directory sent to them.

The son of Mr. and Mrs. William V. Boland, 1415 Tilden, John has been a sweepstakes winner in the science fair three times and a blue ribbon winner once. He won two years while attending Crockett Elementary School and two years while in Zundelowitz Junior High School.

With ambitions to become a nuclear physicist after college, young Boland's exhibits have included "How Airplane Wings Lift," "A Two Cycle Engine," "The Vandegraff Generator" and "Determining the Maximum Angle of Attack and Angle of Staff by Means of a Smoke Tunnel" (Airfoil Demonstration).

The last exhibit won him the junior high school sweepstakes award in the 1964 Oil Belt Regional Science Fair-North.

Prizes the young man won during the March fair include a 20 volume set of World Book Encyclopaedia, a $25 Savings Bond from the District Veterinary Medical Association and a trophy from Brotherton and White Sporting Goods.

Graham High Junior Wins Nomination

GRAHAM, Tex. (Special) — James Tidwell Leak, junior at Graham High School, has been nominated for the annual arhievement awards program, sponsored by the National Council of Teachers of English.

For the seventh year, the council is conducting the national awards competition to grant recognition to high school seniors for excellence in English. The writing abilities and literary awareness of each nominee will be judged by local and state committees.

Archer City Youth Honored At NTSU

ARCHER CITY, Tex. (Special) —Bill Jansen, senior at North Texas State University, has been voted most outstanding member of Delta Sigma Phi. Last year he was named the most outstanding pledge. This is the first time both honors were awarded the same student.

Jansen, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Jansen, graduated from Archer City High School in 1959 and is majoring in industrial arts at NTSU.

Visiting MU Prof Covers Cold War

Dr. W. M. Maehl, a visiting professor at Midwestern University, was guest speaker for the University Kiwanis Club luncheon Wednesday at Wyatt's in Parker Square.

Dr. Maehl discussed Khrushchev and the cold war with China.

The club is expected to be well represented at the district governor's dinner in Lawton Thursday night.

Luncheon guests were John Adams, Wichita Falls, and Bob Vaughan, Ralph Eyer and Joe B. McNiel, Downtown Kiwanis. Kathryn Sawyers was accompanist for songs which were led by Donus Ricks. Paul Robb gave the invocation. Willard May, club president, was in charge.

DOWNTOWN OPTIMISTS SEE PISTOL EXPERTS

Richard Davis, in charge of the Downtown Optimist Club program this Wednesday, brought Doug Powell and Darrell Wills of the Wichita Falls Police department to entertain the members.

The two officers put on an amazing pistol exhibition.

Powell explained that they were part of the community relations committee of the police department. Their activities and appearances are designed to give the general public a true image of the police department, and erase the stigma of earlier days. He noted that every policeman was a high school graduate and many have finished college.

Wills shot a .22 automatic pistol with "Annie Oakley" accuracy. Powell followed with the .38 and climaxed the exhibition by using the diamond in a ring as a mirror to break a candy sucker.

Miss Ann Morehouse, a Midwestern University student and the 3768th School Squadron's candidate in the Sheppard Air Force Base "Miss Missile" contest, was a special guest of the club. She was escorted by Airman 1.C. Michael Baker of the squadron. Miss Morehouse is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Morehouse of Munday, Tex.

Other guests included Lt. John Mullens, executive officer, Lt. Monty Montgomery, commander, and S.Sgt. Jessie Hyatt, training NCO, all of the foster squadron. Don Owen, club president, invited all optimist to join the caravan going to the Nocona oil rig Saturday. Two busloads of the squadron members, and some cars will leave from the El Toro restaurant at 1 p.m.

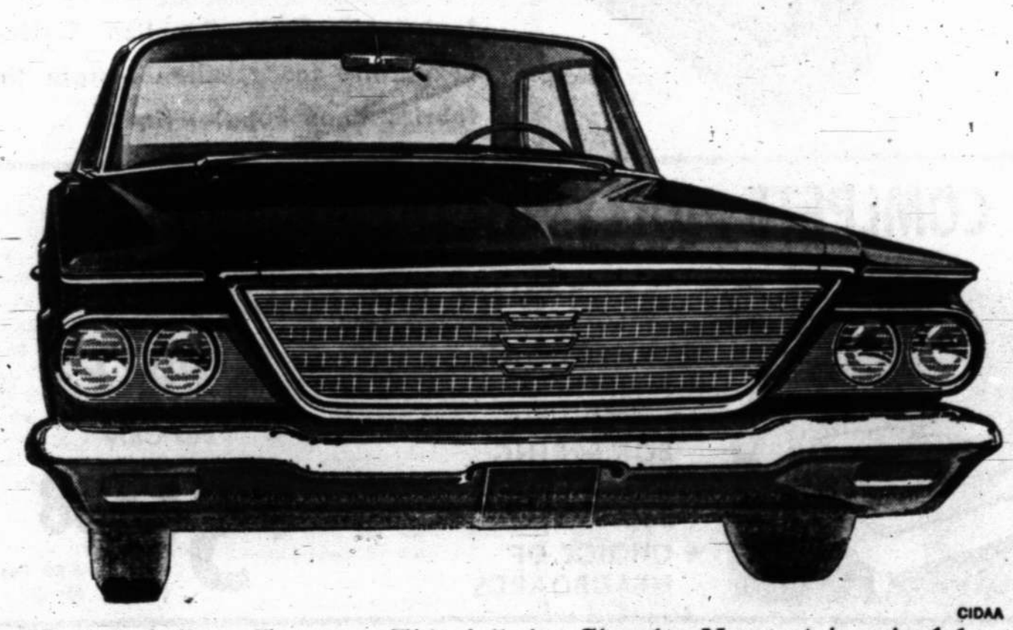

Norman Hawthorne of Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. was introduced as a new member sponsored by Doug Menden.

Sally Arwood, the club pianist, was presented a corsage as a birthday present.

DERBY HOPEFULS — Tommy Conley, 11, and Mark Akin, 12, beam proudly from the wheels of their soap box racers, hoping to capture top honors in the 1964 Soap Box Derby June 27, sponsored by the Times Publishing Co., Longhorn Chevrolet Co. and Cosmopolitan Club. Behind the youngsters are from left, Jim Collins, publicity director for the event; Don Wills, Cosmopolitan Club president; John Hampton Jr., vice-president and Ned Akin, Mark's father. Wichita Falls youths have until May 9 to register at Longhorn Chevrolet for the annual race. (Staff Photo)

Derby Deadline Extended

Deadline for registering in the 1964 Soap Box Derby has been extended to May 9, so that Wichita Falls racers aged 11 through 15 may enter the June 27 trials.

Sponsored by the Times Publishing Co., Longhorn Chevrolet Co. and the Cosmopolitan Club, the yearly event offers youngsters a chance to test their building and driving skills.

Entrants may sign up at Longhorn Chevrolet Co., Sixth and Lamar, and obtain a free Soap Box Derby Rule Book.

Winner of the Wichita Falls races will compete in the national heat in Akron, Ohio, for a total of $30,000 in college scholarships. The 1963 champion was Charles Horsch of 1650 Wilson.

Traffic will be routed away from the race track area, which begins due east from Van Buren and Fifth, down Fifth to Brook. Start will be in front of the U.S. Naval Reserve facility on Fifth.

Swindling Charge Added To Robbery

Charges of swindling by worthless check over $50 were added Wednesday to previous charges of armed robbery against a 28-year-old Amarillo man, Walter Jentsch, held in Wichita County Jail in lieu of bonds totaling $6,000.

Jentsch was charged with writing a worthless check for $265 in payment for a sapphire and diamond ring at a Wichita Falls jewelry store Nov. 11, 1961.

He was charged April 14 with armed robbery in connection with the hold-up the night before of a Wichita Falls grocery store. An alleged accomplice in the robbery, Chester Carter, has been released on $2,000 bond.

Group Begins Member Drive

Directors and teams of the Northwest Texas Field and Stream Association will begin a canvass of North Texas and Southern Oklahoma Thursday to enlist new members.

The membership drive was kicked off Wednesday under direction of Charles Sloan Jr. at a dinner meeting at the Wichita Falls Boat Club with some 60 workers attending.

Membership in the association includes a monthly magazine, representation in state and national wildlife organizations, and participation in promoting sportsmanship and wildlife conservation in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma. Membership dues are in good until April 1965.

Sloan said anyone wishing to join and who has not been contacted should mail the dues to Northwest Texas Field and Stream Association, Box 461, Wichita Falls. James Dowell, executive secretary, will mail out membership cards, wall plaques and other membership literature.

In Recount Opinion

State Joins School Board

By JACK COATS

Joe B. McNiel, superintendent of the Wichita Falls Independent School District, said Wednesday afternoon the school district would be joined by Dr. J. W. Edgar of Austin, state commissioner of education, in seeking an opinion from Attorney General Waggoner Carr concerning a proposed recount of the April 4 school board election results.

A letter, copies of which were released Wednesday afternoon, pointed out that an election was conducted to name two of five candidates to positions of trustee of the school district. Of the five who sought the two positions, two were incumbents.

The letter noted that election returns and tallies were canvassed by the school board at its regular meeting April 13 and that a "potential contesting candidate" submitted a statement asking for a recount.

Although not named in the letter, reference was made to the appearance April 13 of Mrs. Jan Thacker, who lost to incumbent Mrs. Laura Doing by 13 votes.

Mrs. Thacker's appeal for a recount was based on the fact that, she said, "Human error is always possible in a situation where the vote spread represented less than one-half of one per cent of total votes (5,003) cast.

Mrs. Thacker said it was her understanding that at the Reagan Junior High School voting box, the ballots were recounted only for her and Mrs. Doing.

The letter to Carr states that Marvin Pierce, attorney for the school board, rendered his opinion on several legal points. Based on Pierce's opinions, the board refused the candidate's request, completed the formal canvassing of the election and declared these results:

Warren Silver, 3,402 votes; Mrs. Doing, 1,701; Mrs. Thacker, 1,688; Frank Gibson, 1,478 and R. W. Harless, 1,423.

Based on that canvass, Silver and Mrs. Doing were sworn in for six-year terms.

Carr's office was asked to give opinions on these three points:

1. Was the school board improperly advised in any matters?

2. Can the district court, in absence of a showing of irregularity or misconduct which would have changed the result of the election, order a recount?

3. If the district court might have such jurisdiction, might a member of the school board who is not a losing contestant become a proper "party in interest" to bring the matter before the district court by virtue of "public criticism?"

NTSU Group Holds Dinner

By HAZEL KOHL

More than 250 ex-students from North Texas State University attended the 13th annual NTSU Exes Banquet Wednesday night at McGaha School to witness three area North Texas graduates receive distinguished alumnus awards and elect 1964-65 officers.

Dr. J. C. Matthews, president of NTSU, presented awards to Judge C. C. McDonald of Wichita Falls, oldest area graduate of the school; and to H. A. Hefner, superintendent of schools in Graham.

Dr. E. C. Bonk, director of guidance at the university, presented the distinguished alumnus award to Dr. Lois Martin, student counselor at Zundelowitz Junior High School.

All three of the NTSU graduates were lauded for their accomplishments and for the honors they have brought to the school.

New Officers

Officers, elected by acclamation, are Bill Grace, president; Bill Neale, first vice president; Mrs. Barbara Brock, second vice president; Jimmie Whitmire, third vice president; Mrs. Lucille Bell, recording secretary; Mrs. Alma Grace Richardson, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Nancy King, treasurer; and Ulys G. Knight, publicity.

Retiring officers are W. S. Thomas, president; Marc Duke and Bill Grace, vice presidents; Mrs. Guy Underwood, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Lucille Bell, recording secretary and Mrs. Barbara Brock, treasurer.

The annual ex-students $150 scholarship to NTSU was awarded to Miss Linda McBride of Electra. The scholarship was accepted by a classmate Miss Janice Robb.

Thomas, the retiring president, who presided over the annual banquet was presented with a past president's pin by Sandra Marvel.

Variety Program

The program for the evening, which was arranged by Knight, consisted of variety type numbers ranging from dances to a piano concerto. An ovation was given to the Woods family quartet from Holliday, Tex. The four youngsters sang three spirituals for the crowd with their mother giving piano accompaniment.

Special guests from NTSU at the banquet were Dr. Matthews, Dr. James L. Rogers Jr., assistant to the president; Dr. and Mrs. A. Witt Blair, dean of the school of education; Dr. and Mrs. Bonk; Dr. Harold Farmer, director at the student union building Dr. and Mrs. Jess Cearley, athletic director; Mr. and Mrs. W. A Cooper, physical education department; Beulah Harris, retired from the physical education department; Miss Rita Pilkey, physical education department; and Mr. and Mrs. Ira DeFoor, assistant athletic director.

Victim Of Robbery Incorrectly Identified

Jacob V. Solis, 25, who was robbed early Sunday was incorrectly identified as a Negro in the Wednesday morning, April 22, edition of the Wichita Falls Record News.

Solis, a Latin American, was treated for head lacerations at Wichita General Hospital following a reported assault by two Negro youths.

The Record News regrets this error and apologizes for any embarassment it may have caused.

Are So-Called "Bargain" Eyeglasses Really A Bargain?

Have you ever heard this famous quotation: "Quality Is Remembered Long After The Price Is Forgotten"? True, isn't it? Of course, this doesn't mean that real values shouldn't be taken advantage of if they exist. But, there is a difference in true value and so-called "bargains" . . . especially when it comes to professional eye care and eyewear.

■ So-called "bargain" eyeglasses may, in fact, not be a bargain at all. Unknown to the purchaser, some important elements could be left out of the lens prescription, or a special type of bifocal lens may be omitted to cut the cost of making the glasses. These omissions could result in strained eyes, discomfort and improper vision. Also, inferior quality frames might be used which could reduce the wearing comfort as well as the useable life of the glasses.

■ There is no good reason for risking priceless eyesight and comfort on so-called "bargain" eyeglasses, when true value in professional eye care and eyewear is available at dependable Texas State Optical. For the past 29 years, thousands of people in Texas have learned to rely on TSO for outstanding professional eye care and finest quality eyewear at a sensible one-price policy.

■ At TSO, you receive a 3-phase, professional eye examination which includes: a thorough analysis of your visual history, an internal eye examination for evidence of disease or defect, and, a subjective examination to determine if visual abnormalities are present. If glasses are needed, they are prescribed and fitted to meet your exact visual requirements for best vision and utmost comfort. Finest quality single vision glasses are just $14.85, including examination, lenses and frame. Invisible bifocals just $16.85 complete. Convenient credit is available at no extra cost.

■ The next time you need professional eye care and finest quality eyewear, visit dependable TSO, where you can place complete confidence and trust for the care of your eyes.

Consult A Dermatologist About Cause Of Eczema

By JOSEPH G. MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: What causes eczema and what can be done about it? My son has it on his hands.—MRS. R. R.

Eczema is a scaly eruption of the skin — but that does not mean it is always the same, or results from the same causes.

In babies, it is frequently the result of a food allergy.

In adults —and you don't mention your son's age —eczema can mean any number of things. If on the hands, I strongly suspect a contact dermatitis, or skin ailment resulting from something he handles or touches. This, in fact, is in the nature of an allergy.

Don't try to guess what these skin troubles are. Go to a dermatologist.

People say, "Oh, it's just a skin eruption," and ignore it, or try some home remedy, or get some kind of goo at the drug store, hoping it will solve the problem.

Sometimes they try half a dozen kinds of salves and medications before they give up and go to a specialist. By that time they often have so much irritation and secondary infection that the doctor has a difficult time working back to find out the original trouble.

In the interests of saving money as well as being cured quicker, consult a dermatologist before you've played blind man's bluff with patent medicines. (Some cases will be hard to treat anyway; others will clear more readily.)

Dear Dr. Molner: Is it harmful to take a teaspoonful of epsom salts in a glass of water every night? I have been doing this for years, as a preventive to high blood pressure. I am 75. —B.H.

Epsom salts is irritating. If your system tolerated the irritation, you've been fortunate. It will not have any effect on high blood pressure. I would try going without the salts for a month —and see whether you don't feel as well, or perhaps better.

Dear Dr. Molner: My problem is I eat starch, sometimes two pounds or more a week. When I try to get off the habit for two or three days I start craving it again. Please tell me in what ways it harms a person. I am worried sick.—MRS. M.B.

Two letters on the subject in the same mail—and the question keeps coming up. I'm beginning to wonder how many starch-eaters there are. I would be interesting to know how the habit starts.

Fowever, there isn't any resulting harm except that starch piles up a lot of calories, and could interfere with the appetite when it comes to getting other diet necessities—protein for one. And the fruits and vegetables which provide vitamins and minerals, for another.

There's no harm in it, except to the degree that it would help make you fat, or interfere with eating other more desirable food, as would be the case if you nibbled two pounds or more of candy a week.

If you aren't putting on weight, and if you eat meat, milk, cereal, green and yellow vegetables, and fruit, then don't worry about the starch. But if you are getting fat—the starch is helping do it. This is a habit, like smoking or drinking, which you could stop if you set your mind to it.

Diverticulosis is a bulge in the digestive tract. To become more familiar with the subject, write for my booklet, "Don't Let Diverticulosis Throw You," enclosing a long, self - addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover cost of printing and handling, to the Wichita Falls Record News.

Dr. Molner welcomes all reader mail, but regrets that due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

Wish To Check Personality By This List?

By JOHN ROBERT POWERS

You may be a student, a career girl or a homemaker, but if you are a successful person socially — one who gets on well with both men and women — there are certain things that you know, have done, can do or are doing. That conclusion was reached after analysis of a test given to a group of especially popular women. Want to see how you stack up against them? Answer the following questions with a "yes" or a "no" and compare your rating with the group results given below.

1. If an advantageous invitation came your way right now for a formal affair, would you have to borrow or buy an evening dress?
2. Are you more than five pounds underweight or overweight?
3. Do you express yourself without leaning on such adjectives as "cute," "swell," "terrific" or "awful"?
4. Can you honestly say you have made two new friends in the last six months?
5. Is a newspaper's financial page a mystery to you?
6. Is driving a car easy for you?
7. Can you make any man you are with feel important?
8. Can you row a boat — or fix an electrical cord?
9. Do you know the difference between a Bear, an Angel and Illini in the sports field?
10. Is cooking beyond your present abilities?
11. Do you prefer three cheaper outfits to one good one?
12. Is a new hair-do once a year enough for you?
13. Can you find pleasure in an art exhibit, a symphony or a lecture?
14. Do you have a real plan for what you want to do 10 years from now?
15. Do you use your leisure time?
16. Has a man complimented you in the past month?
17. Can you play table tennis, canasta, bridge or golf?
18. Do you read two books and a magazine of real merit each month?

The most popular girls all answered "yes" to all but questions 2, 5, 10 and 11. If your life is less enchanting than you wish it might be, perhaps your answers indicate how a change might increase others' interest in you!

Etiquette

Men's Wedding Attire Depends On Formality

By AMY VANDERBILT

"DEAR MISS VANDERBILT: For a June wedding at 3:30 in church is it proper for the bride's father, groom, best man and ushers to wear tails and top hat? The reception will be held in the evening (seven o'clock) in a New York hotel. Many guests will be coming from out of town and will have a three-hour wait. Is this proper?

"Also, the groom's 17-year-old brother has been asked to be one of the ushers. He doesn't want to refuse his brother, but he does not drink or smoke and would prefer to be one of the guests and not a member of the wedding party. He really feels he is too young. Would it be proper to refuse?—G.M., Brooklyn, N.Y."

You mean formal daytime wear for men (tails, white tie are for evening formal occasions). What the men wear depends on what the bride wears and the degree of formality of the wedding. I would like you to consult my book on the subject, but I am also sending you "Guide For Grooms" which will be of help. (Other readers may send me a post card requesting this booklet. It's free.)

It is certainly awkward to have a reception so long after the hour of a late - afternoon wedding. I hope at this hour that it is a substantial collation. The danger may be that the people who have had to wait so long may arrive in a very convivial state indeed.

If the young man really doesn't feel up to the obligation of being an usher, he may say so. But he is not actually too young — unless he is very small and immature. Tell him my motto — "Social security comes with social practice." Every time we try something that is socially difficult and acquit ourselves well, we become more poised and secure. No one will expect him to start smoking or drinking just because he is an usher at his brother's wedding.

Ambassador's Wife Gives Recipes For Sweet Bread

A fast developing and traditional democracy, Chile is probably the most food conscious of the South American countries. Seafood, game, fruits and vegetables are plentiful, and the national diet is richly endowed with fine foods.

The typical breakfast consists of coffee and pastry or bread, but lunch is more substantial. Late-afternoon tea, a "must," is actually a light meal designed to satisfy appetites until dinner at ten o'clock in the evening.

Chilean baked goods differ substantially from ours. Cakes and pies, so popular in America, are not common in Chile, but pastries and sweet breads are great favorites, especially for breakfast and tea.

Senora Gutierrez - Olivos, wife of the Chilean Ambassador to the United States, His Excellency Sergio Gutierrez - Olivos, is well known for her work in the "Image of Chile" program which brought Chilean culture to the United States. But she is also an authority on the cuisine of her country and an accomplished cook.

Senora Gutierrez - Olivos says that the typical Latin sweet tooth shows itself in Chile's bread preferences: their yeast breads are almost excusively made from sweet doughs. The national sweet breads are quite varied, and include a number of unusual fried specialties similar to our crullers.

Here are two distinctive Chilean sweet breads which Mrs. Gutierrez - Olivos says will please American palates. Because Chilean flour is coarser than ours, and their yeast less active, these recipes have been adapted for use with American products.

½ cup milk
½ cup sugar
1 teaspoon salt
¼ cup (⅛ stick) margarine
½ cup warm water (105 degrees-115 degrees F.)
2 packages or cakes yeast, active dry or compressed
4 egg yolks, slightly beaten
4¼ cups unsifted flour (about)
1 egg yolk
1 tablespoon milk
Granulated sugar

Scald ½ cup milk; stir in ½ cup sugar, salt and margarine. Cool to lukewarm. Measure warm water into large warm bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture, 4 beaten egg yolks and half the four. Beat until smooth. Add enough additional flour to form a soft dough. Turn out onto lightly floured board and knead until smooth and elastic, about 8-10 minutes. Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Punch dough down. Turn out onto lightly floured board and divide in half. Divide half of dough into 3 equal pieces. Roll each piece into a rope, 14 inches long. Place 3 ropes on greased baking sheet and braid. Repeat with remaining half of dough. Blend together remaining egg yolk and 1 tablespoon of milk. Brush braids and sprinkle with granulated sugar. Let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 45 minutes.

Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 30 minutes or until done.

Pan De Huevo Chileno
(Chilean Egg Rolls)
Makes About 18 Rolls

1 cup milk
¼ cup sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1/3 cup warm water (105-115 F.)
1 package or cake yeast, active dry or compressed
4¾ cups unsifted flour (about)
½ cup water
½ teaspoon anise seed
2 egg yolks, slightly beaten
¼ cup (½ stick) margarine, melted

Scald milk; stir in sugar and salt. Cool to lukewarm. Measure 1/3 cup warm water into a large bowl. Sprinkle or crumble in yeast; stir until dissolved. Stir in lukewarm milk mixture. Blend in 2 cups flour and beat until smooth. Cover; let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 1 hour.

Meanwhile, measure ½ cup water into a saucepan and add ¼ teaspoon anise seed. Simmer over medium heat until liquid has been reduced to ¼ cup, about 10 minutes. Let cool.

Stir batter down. Blend in slightly beaten egg yolks, melted Fleischmann's Margarine, anise liquid and remaining ¼ teaspoon anise seeds. Mix until well blended. Add enough additional flour to make a soft dough. Turn out onto a lightly floured board. Knead until smooth and elastic, about 8 minutes.

Shape dough into 2-inch balls and place in greased muffin cups. With scissors or sharp knife, cut crosses about ½ inch deep across tops of rolls.

Cover; let rise in warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk, about 30 minutes.

Bake in a moderate oven (350 F.) 20-25 minutes or until done. Frost with confectioners' sugar frosting, if desired.

Women Don't Retire

White House Physician Talks About Old Age

By FRANCES LEWINE

WASHINGTON (AP) — White House physician Dr. Janet Travell thinks women live longer than men nowadays because "a woman never retires."

"She keeps on doing the things she's been accustomed to doing all her life," Dr. Travell notes.

The ever-present chores of housekeeping, the dusting and the cleaning up, may be what's behind the longevity of the ladies, Dr. Travell said. "In the older age groups," she added, "women keep much more active than men."

Gray-haired Dr. Travell, an ex-New Yorker, came to the White House in 1961 at the request of President John F. Kennedy, who had been her patient for years for treatment of his back ailment. She was the first woman ever to hold such a job.

This week, Dr. Travell joined Mrs. Lyndon B. Johnson on a trip to Cleveland, Ohio to look at a new low-cost public housing development for the elderly.

Dr. Travell evidenced a long-time interest in the study of geriatrics. She thinks, with many other doctors, that keeping mobile and keeping going plays a large part in keeping people living longer. There's a great deal for the medical profession to learn about aging and "we need more research programs," she said.

On the Cleveland trip, Dr. Travell, who hasn't been talking much with reporters lately, pulled out some statistics about the elderly.

Armed with Census Bureau reports she called attention to these facts:

—There now are 18 million Americans 65 or over and more than a million over 85.

—12,000 are over 100 years of age.

—In the 95 to 99 bracket, there are twice as many women as men—26,000 to 13,000.

—For every 100 men in the 65 or over population, there are 125 women.

Although Dr. Travell is 62, an age when many persons start to think about retiring, she has no such plans. She continues working daily at the White House as well as serving on the staff of George Washington Medical Center nearby.

She and her husband, John Powell, an investment counselor who have two daughters, are a familiar part of the Washington social circle.

Dr. Travell had a bit of advice, too: "never lose your enthusiasm and your drive."

Potted Plant Will Make Perfect Gift For Mother

By KATHERINE B. WALKER

Nothing could be nicer for Mother on her day than a gift of flowers. But, if she's like I am, the thrill of having roses or some other cut - flowers is too soon over since they fade so quickly. You can see that she has both flowers (fresh cut ones) and a long - lasting plant, too, if you give a spiced-up planter.

First, select a planter that not only will be large enough to contain several plants but also will look attractive in her home. Then fill it with a nice group of all-green foliage plants that will be easy to care for; if you need help either in selecting the plants or in the actual planting, your florist will be glad to assist. Don't use any plants with variegated foliage, and try to avoid those which will grow too rapidly.

As the final touch, obtain from your florist one or two (or more, if you want to splurge) orchid tubes, fill them with water, and insert them artistically among the plants. In them put a few choice flowers — sweetheart roses, carnations, even small bunches of violets. Or if you are doing the whole thing yourself, you may want to use whatever is in bloom in your garden to add the proper festive note. A single tube with two or three blossoms is sufficient for a small planter; more tubes and larger flowers will be needed for a bigger one. If Mother will be going out, perhaps a corsage could be used to dress up the planter; ask the florist to use a minimum of ribbon on it, and be sure a partially - open space is left among the plants so the corsage may be put in place without crowding.

A planter that has been planned as a background for fresh flowers is a constant joy. Long after the original blossoms have faded and been removed, the planter is still ready to show off choice blooms from the garden when they are available, yet it is fully decorative without extra trimming.

Questions And Answers

Q. Where can I buy the books you mentioned a few weeks ago?

A. A bookstore can order them.

Q. When I was young my mother had what she called an ice-plant. It had little if any foliage, and looked like trees do in winter when covered with ice. I've been unable to find one. Can you help?

A. Ice - plant is Lampranthus emarginatus, a much - branched, succulent plant with woody stems. The leaves are long, narrow, three - angled and grey in color; the "bloom" on them glistens as though they were indeed ice - covered. The blossoms somewhat resemble daisies in shape, and are a purple - red. You probably won't find the plant in any catalogs, but the fifth name on our free Source Sheet lists another variety, and also two mesembryanthemums, which are very similar to lampranthus. To receive a copy of the Source Sheet, please enclose a stamped, self - addressed envelope along with your request.

For your copy of EPISCIAS—AND OTHER COLORFUL COUSINS OF AFRICAN VIOLETS, write to Mrs. Katherine B. Walker, in care of Wichita Falls Record News, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 20 cents in coin to cover printing and handling costs.

Mrs. Walker is always happy to hear from readers, and whenever possible she answers their questions on house plants in her column, but she regrets that because of the vast volume of mail received daily she cannot reply to individual letters.

ANN LANDERS SAYS

Apartments Manager Not Obligated To Provide Company For Tenants

By ANN LANDERS

Dear Ann Landers: I am the manager of a luxury apartment building in a large metropolitan city. For years I have read your column for kicks — never dreaming I would one day be writing for serious advice.

A prominent, well-to-do widow who lives in the building is driving the maintenance men buggy. Since January 1st she has put in 62 service requests. Her requests involve everything from the replacement of a light bulb (which she says she can't reach) to a leaky faucet or a loose doornob.

When the men get up there they can't get out. She has the table set for two and insists they sit down and have a cup of coffee and a piece of her delicious apple strudel.

Yesterday the electrician told me he is positive the woman disconnects and unscrews things so she'll have an excuse to call somebody up to her apartment.

Will you please tell me what to do about this tenant? She has three years to go on her lease.—EXASPERATION PLUS

Dear Ex: The poor dame is lonely. But you can't continue to send workmen up there just to keep her company.

Tell the woman she is entitled to a specified number of service calls per week and that after she used her quota she'll have to hire outside people.

Dear Ann Landers: I was touched by the letter signed "His Kids." Those teen-agers were worried about their father because he smoked heavily. His battle cry was, "I've been smoking this way for 25 years. The damage is done and quitting now won't do any good."

That same edition of our newspaper carried a truly encouraging story. The headline read "Quit Smoking and Lungs Will Be 'Pure' Again." The article reported on a meeting of the Kent County (Michigan) Unit of the American Cancer Society and Kent County Medical Society.

A chest surgeon said, "Those dirty, black, tar-filled lungs may be restored to a new state of purity in from three weeks to three years after the smoker quits, depending on how long and how much he smoked."

This is the most heartening news I have read on the subject yet. I hope you will print it and offer hope and encouragement to all those who refuse to give up smoking because they believe it's too late for them. Thank you. — MRS. G. J.

Dear Mrs. G. J.: Approximately 50 million pairs of eyes will see those words because you were thoughtful enough to send them on. Thank you.

Dear Ann Landers: Our daughter is to be married this spring. Claude is a very nice fellow but his taste is not good.

Becky has always had her heart set on pastel appliances for the kitchen. Last night we were discussing what they would have in the new little home and Becky mentioned a pink refrigerator. Claude said, "A refrigerator ought to be white." Becky asked him why and he said, "There is no reason, except that white is the natural color for a refrigerator."

They got into an argument and Becky couldn't budge him.

My husband and I have decided to buy them a pink refrigerator as a gift before Claude has a chance to buy a white one. My sister-in-law says this is butting in. Since when is wanting your child to be happy "butting in"? Are we right? — LOVING MOTHER

Dear Loving: If you think a pink refrigerator is going to bring Becky happiness when you know Claude wants a white one, think again.

Your sister-in-law is right. If this isn't butting in, find me a better phrase and I'll buy it.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers And Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of the Wichita Falls Record News, enclosing a stamped, self - addressed envelope.

Flower Show In Chillicothe To Be Friday

CHILLICOTHE, Tex. (Special) —The annual flower show and silver tea given by the Chillicothe Garden Club will be held Friday in Lions' Clubhouse, according to announcement by Mrs. Alton Hoke, general chairman for the show. "Breath of Spring" is to be the theme of the display from 2 to 6 p.m.

Other chairmen to serve with Mrs. Hoke are as follows: Mmes. E. L. Derr, schedule and awards; Wade Nicholas, staging; T. W. Whiteley and A. E. Howard, classifications; J. T. Nuckles and V. O. Williams, entries; Oscar White and K. G. Davis, placement; C. B. Haynes, judges; Andy Anderson, clerk; W. S. Dodson, hospitality; E. J. Tidmore, properties; and Wayne Haynes, publicity.

The flower show is open to the public.

Blackburn-Higley Vows Exchanged

CHILDRESS, Tex. (Special)—Miss Carol Clem Higley, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Morris Higley of Childress and William Jackson Blackburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lee Blackburn of Happy, were married Friday in Amarillo.

The Rev. Robert E. Jenkins officiated in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Quillin.

The bride, a student at West Texas State University, wore a three-piece suit of beige linen.

Serving in the U.S. Marine Corps, the bridegroom was home on leave when the couple were married and has returned to his base in San Diego. He will receive his discharge in June. They will make their home in Amarillo.

YWCA To Offer Driving, Charm Classes For Teens

Enrollment is open now for drivers' education and charm classes which will begin at 10 a.m. Saturday at the YWCA. Teens may also register for a day at Six Flags Over Texas May 2.

The drivers' education classes will offer behind-the-wheel experience to those who have a beginners permit or are 16 years of age. Classes are limited to 10.

Six hours of instruction will be given by teachers from the Texas Driving School at reduced fees in response to popular requests receievd by the YWCA. Dual control cars will be used.

The charm and modeling classes will meet from 10 to 11 a.m. for four weeks under the direction of Mrs. Doris Turner. Good posture, walking, make-up, hair styling and wardrobe will be emphasized.

Teens who wish to spend a day at Six Flags must register with the YWCA before April 25. The bus will leave at 7 a.m. May 2.

Additional information may be obtained from the YWCA, 801 Burnett.

Price-Eley Wedding Set For June 5

ALTUS, Okla. (Special)—Announcement of the engagement and approaching wedding of Miss Beverly Gayle Price of Duncan and E. H. Eley of Altus has been made by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. K. T. Price Jr., of Duncan. Eley is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Guy H. Eley of Altus. The wedding will be June 5.

Miss Price is a sophomore at Phillips University. She has served on the annual staff and Clay Hall house council, and as a member of the University chorus. She is employed by the Pictorial Mail Newspaper of Enid.

The prospective bridegroom is a sophomore at Phillips University and a major in business administration. He has lettered on the University Varsity golf team. He is employed by the Enid Propane Company.

Rebekah Lodge 236 Sets Meet, Dinner

Wichita Rebekah Lodge 236 will meet at 8 p.m. Tuesday evening in the IOOF Hall. The session will be preceded by a dinner for Rebekahs and their families in the dining room at 6:30 p.m.

Special guests will be Mrs. Zelma McCalef, district deputy president of District 21, and Miss Myrtle Russell, secretary of the Rebekah Assembly of Texas. Both are from Electra.

Dental Hygienists Hear Mrs. Hunter

Mrs. Lois Hunter spoke on parliamentary law for members of the Wichita District of Dental Hygienists' Society who met Tuesday night in the offices of Dr. G. F. Swarts, 2201 Brook.

Mrs. Audie Hines, president, conducted the business session after which refreshments were served.

The great symbol of the Iroquois Indians was the bald eagle.

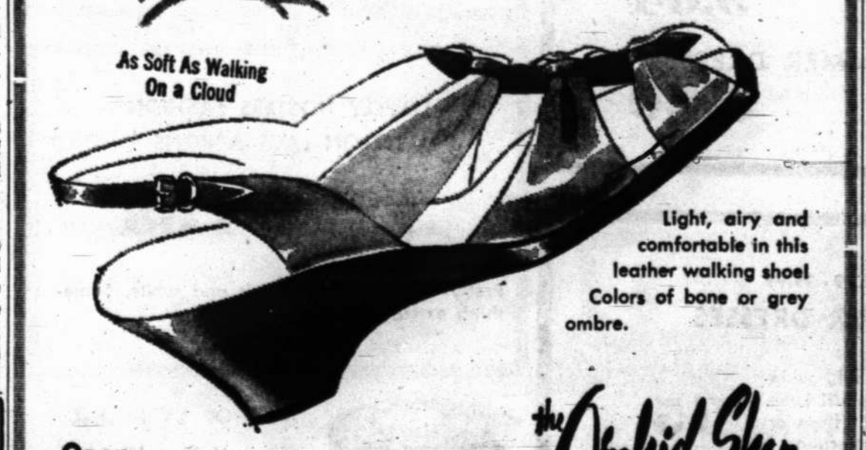

READING IMPROVEMENT

Reading skill development for students from pre-school through college age is now a fact here. Summer reading clinic groups are now being formed. For adults there are evening speed and comprehension courses. Training is given only according to tested individual requirements. Classes are limited to five persons. Admission and placement evaluations are by appointment.

POLLY'S POINTERS

Clean While Phoning

By POLLY CRAMER
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

DEAR POLLY — To take the drudgery out of cleaning and straightening dresser drawers, I do them while talking over the telephone. Just put the drawer that needs attention in a location convenient to the telephone. While engaged in a prolonged conversation you can be sorting, eliminating and rearranging. When the talk is over you have a household chore completed with very little effort and great satisfaction. This is work done is a painless sort of way. — MRS. D. T. J.

DEAR POLLY — I get so many good hints from the column so I hope you and the girls will like mine. I like to crochet and often use crossword puzzles for patterns. When doing filet crochet made of spaces and blocks (open and solid mesh) for the pattern, I merely adapt a puzzle that has the dark blocks arranged in an interesting design. They are the solid crochet and the white ones, where letters are to be filled in, are the open squares. — MRS. A. R. H.

DEAR POLLY — To keep my husband's breakfast warm and my brain cool while waiting for him to make it to the breakfast table, I place his plate on top of his cup of hot tea, coffee or chocolate, place a lid on the plate and this way the drink and plate stay warm and he can dawdle over shaving. — MRS. D. S.

DEAR POLLY — You can make perfect identical pleats in a skirt with the aid of a dinner fork. Place three tines of the fork under the edge of the fabric and one over it. Turn fabric clockwise with the fork. Pull out the fork and pin pleat in place. Repeat until the desired number of pleats are made. — MRS. J. A. E.

DEAR POLLY — I find the best time for cleaning dresser drawers in a child's room is a day when that child must stay in bed. He is entertained (I give mine the things to be discarded) and mother is handy for the attention a sick child needs. — I. E. K.

DEAR POLLY — When you are knitting with several balls of yarn and need a bobbin, tear matches out of a match folder, wind yarn around it and close. — MRS. R. M. A.

Jacoby On Bridge

By OSWALD JACOBY
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

Josephine Hooley of Elkhart, Ind., writes in the American Bridge Teachers Assn. Quarterly: "My favorite teaching hand is one that my pupils really enjoy. Someone may claim plagiarism, but I've used it so long that I'm sure the original owner is now playing a harp."

The actual hand is new to me, but the strip play involved is well known and similar hands are dealt often enough so that the play should be routine for any good player.

South must play dummy's ace of diamonds at trick one. There is no need to finesse because there is a good parking place for that queen of diamonds later. Two leads pull trumps and three rounds of hearts park that queen of diamonds.

Opening lead—♦ J

South's next play is to ruff his last diamond. He has now stripped his own hand and dummy of red cards and is in dummy ready to attack the club suit.

He leads the ten of clubs and lets it ride. He could play his queen if he wishes, but the double finesse gives him a chance to make seven if East holds both club honors.

West wins the trick with his jack of clubs and South shows his hand. The lead of any red card allows a ruff and discard, a club puts the king's head on the chopping block.

Lodges Have Program At IOOF Hall

Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge 164 was hostess to 140 members of the Wichita County Association Tuesday at the IOOF Hall.

William Pybus was installed as president, and Mrs. William Pybus, vice grand of Golden Rule Rebekahs, gave the welcome address. The response was given by Miss Myrtle Russell of Electra Rebekah Lodge 150.

Drills were presented by Wichita Rebekah Lodge 236 and the Ladies Auxiliary Patriarch Militant. It was a first time event for the latter organization which was dressed in full uniform.

Entertainment was provided by a group from Electra who pantomimed the Beatles, and by Mrs. Cora Harmon of Burkburnett who played piano selections. Mrs. Carl Brooks of Golden Rule told a story.

The room was decorated with pink roses and the refreshment table featured pink satin over net. It was centered with a wheel covered with pink roses symbolizing the wheel of progress.

Members of thhe serving committee were Mmes. B. V. Perkins and Lena Emmert, Misses Dorothy Nell Mason, Volenia Rice and Fern Simmons.

Golden Rule Rebekah Lodge also held a business session when it made plans to entertain secretaries and scribes May 3 at the YMCA. The next meeting will be in October with Wichita Rebekah Lodge as hostess.

Country Club To Have Dance, Party Friday

A party "for the sake of purely happy times" is on the agenda for members of the Wichita Falls Country Club Friday night.

Dinner and dancing, with a floor show featuring Gloria Jerome from the Continental Hilton, will be entertainment.

Dinner will be served at 8:15 p.m., and dancing will end at 11 p.m.

Political Rally Set At Charlie

CHARLIE, Tex. — A political rally and fund raising night will be held by the Charlie Home Demonstration Club and Charlie Cemetery Assn. at the community center here at 7:30 p.m. Thursday.

Funds will be used to buy a lawn mower to care for the cemetery. All political candidates are invited to attend and give their campaign views.

Yemen has no official currency. Eighteenth century Maria Theresa thalers from Austria are used. Worth about one dollar and locally called riyals, they are still minted in Vienna and dated 1780.

MU Will Present Honors Recital

The Music Department of Midwestern University will present an honors recital on April 24 at 8 p.m. in the University Auditorium. The performing students have been selected by the department of music faculty after the students had appeared in previous performances.

It is an honor for each performer to be selected and to appear on this program which represents the finest performances during the second semester.

Performances will be given by students of Dr. Nita Akin, Mrs. William Boland, William Boland and Dr. Walter Wehner.

The performing students are Sandra Held, pianist; Patricia Thomas, saxophonist; Howard Bosler, organist; Max Folmar, clarinetist; James Wright, tenor; Jean Martin and Sarah Mahaffy, organists. The recital is open without admission to the public.

IN HONORS RECITAL — These music students at Midwestern University have been selected to perform in an Honors Recital Friday night in the University auditorium. Seated at the piano is Sandra Held. Standing, left to right, are Neal Hatch, pianist; Jean Martin, organist; Patricia Thomas, saxophonist; and Howard Bosler, organist. The students were selected for the recital after presenting superior performances in the weekly repertoire recitals. (Staff Photo)

MU Will Sponsor Shakespeare Show

The English Club of Midwestern University, doing its singular bit in commemoration of the 400th birthday of Playwright William Shakespeare, will sponsor two showings of the Bard's "Henry V," starring Laurence Olivier, at the Wichita Theatre May 19. The movie will be shown only at 4:15 p.m. and 8 p.m. on that date.

The announcement was made Wednesday in the midst of Shakespeare's "week," the period containing the 400th birthday, April 23, and the 348th anniversary of his death, also April 23.

MU Faculty sponsors of the English Club are J. D. Bumpus and Henry Herring. MU student Michael Olmsted is president of the club.

Advance sale of tickets will be at the box office of the Wichita Theatre and at the Lovelace Book Store, both on Indiana [illegible]

Attorney's Wife Sets Speech Here

MRS. BAREFOOT SANDERS

Mrs. Barefoot Sanders, wife of the U.S. Attorney for the Northern District of Texas, will speak on "Woman's Political Role in '64" Thursday at the Woman's Forum.

Mrs. Sanders will address a luncheon of the Democratic Women's Organization of Wichita County and will be presented an honorary membership in the organization by Mrs. L. H. McCullough, retiring president.

Active in political circles in Dallas, Mrs. Sanders helped organize the Wichita County women's organization three years ago.

At the meeting, new officers will be elected and installed and standing committee chairmen named.

Restriction Lifted

TAIPEI, Formosa (AP) — Students now may go to Europe, Africa and the Middle East to study without first taking qualifying examinations in Formosa, the Chinese Nationalist Education Ministry disclosed. Also exempt from the exams are students who obtain a scholarship of one or more years in any foreign university.

Lost City Uncovered

TOKYO (AP) — A lost city 2,000 years old has been uncovered by archeologists in northeast China near a Liaoning Province village, the New China News Agency reports. It said although its existence was recorded in Han dynasty history, the city's location had remained a mystery.

Six Are Named To Gallon Club

Six new members were added to the Red River Regional Blood Center's Gallon Club Wednesday. Each was recognized by the Wichita Falls Record News and Times for giving their blood to save another life.

New members are Jesse F. Payne and Gilbert P. Rios of Wichita Falls, R. J. Walsh of Archer City, Laurence Berend of Windthorst, Carl Dillard Jr. of Electra and Jerry L. Thomas of Burkburnett.

Payne, a postal worker, Wednesday received a recognition pin for donating a gallon of blood through the regional program and also received a citation from the Wichita Falls Record News and Times.

He is a veteran of 20 years of military service and resides in Wichita Falls with his wife and four children.

Rios, an employe of Taystee bakery, also donated his gallon of blood through the regional program. He is a member of the Catholic Church and resides at 208 Maple with his wife and three children.

Walsh, a service station operator in Archer City, received his membership, pin and citation for giving a gallon of his "O" negative blood.

He is married and has one son. Walsh is a member of the American Legion and the First Methodist Church in Archer City.

Berend is a feed merchant in Windthorst and is a member of the Knights of Columbus, Farm Bureau and St. Mary's Catholic Church. He and his wife are parents of six children.

Dillard, who has rare "AB" positive blood, also was admitted to the Gallon Club.

He is employed by National Supply Co. in Electra and resides there at 108 West Lincoln with his wife and two children.

Thomas, vice president and cashier of the First National Bank in Burkburnett, is an active worker in Red Cross activities, the Burkburnett Chamber of Commerce and the Lions Club.

He and his wife live at 510 South Hilltop and are the parents of two daughters.

The Red River Regional Blood Center, with headquarters in Wichita Falls, serves residents of 18 counties in North Texas and Southern Oklahoma. These counties are visited regularly by the Bloodmobile and donors are also invited to stop into the blood center at Fifth and Baylor in Wichita Falls to donate blood.

The blood center is open for donors on Mondays and Wednesday from 9 a.m. to noon and from 1 until 5 p.m. Tuesday donor hours are from noon until 7 p.m.

The center is closed on Thursdays and Fridays to enable the staff to make visits to the 18 participating counties in the program.

Waiting To Migrate

DUNSTABLE, England (AP) — About 300,000 Commonwealth applicants—mostly Indians and Pakistanis—are waiting to migrate to Britain, Home Secretary Henry Brooke disclosed. "But because they do not have jobs waiting for them, these people will have to wait a long time," Brooke added.

Change Confusing

PARIS (AP) — France went from a big to a smaller 50-centime pieces and everyone is confusing the new coins with 20-centime pieces worth four cents. So, Finance Minister Valery Giscard announced, the ministry is thinking about issuing another 50-centime piece, presumably as big as the original that was replaced.

CLEO AND CAESAR — Elizabeth Taylor, playing the Queen of the Nile, bedazzles Rex Harrison as Caesar as they are pictured in an intimate scene from the movie spectacular, "Cleopatra," now playing a special road-show engagement at the State Theatre with showings at 2 p.m. and 8 p.m. daily.

Japanese In America

One of the most outstanding success stories in American history has been written by the Issei — Japanese immigrants who came to America early in the century.

For the first time, a study is being made of these people who have done much to enrich American economic and cultural life. It will probably be the last such study, for most of them are of advanced age.

The University of California, supported by funds from the Carnegie Corp. and the Japanese-American Citizens League, will collect first-hand accounts of Issei experiences in the United States. This will be followed up by a later survey of their children and grandchildren, the Nisei.

Most minority groups have suffered discrimination and injustice upon their arrival in the United States, but none more so than the Issei. They met not only social discrimination, but in many states laws prevented them even from owning property. They could not become citizens, so were barred from occupations and professions requiring citizenship for license or membership.

In a dark page of American history, both Issei and Nisei were uprooted from their homes at the outbreak of World War II and interned behind barbed wire — this when we were fighting against the very idea of concentration camps.

Many Nisei, however, served with valor and distinction in World War II, and later in Korea, winning proportionately more battle decorations than any other ethnic group.

In 1952, with the passage of the McCarran-Walter Immigration and Nationality Act, the Issei were finally admitted to citizenship.

Far from being bitter about their treatment, the Issei have raised their children to be loyal and productive citizens. Juvenile delinquency among the Nisei is virtually nonexistent.

The Issei have taught us all a lesson in democracy.

Virus Research Advance

By RAY CROMLEY

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — At the end of this month, a small, undramatic meeting on centrifuges will be held in the Atomic Energy Commission officers at Oak Ridge, Tenn. It may revolutionize the speed with which American medicine developes vaccines and methods of treatment for leukemia, other forms of cancer, the common cold, encephalitis and other virus diseases.

At this meeting, AEC and National Cancer Institute scientists will unveil for private industry a series of radical new centrifuges able to separate "large" quantities of pure viruses.

These centrifuges, and others under development, may make possible:

Quantity separation of platelets — which could pave the way to saving 25 per cent of those who now die of leukemia.

Separation of the viruses which cause leukemia in quantities sufficient to develop a "leukemia vaccine" in a handful of years.

Development of vaccines without impurities that marred early batches of polio vaccine.

Positive identification of the exact viruses which trigger major virus diseases probable years earlier than otherwise.

Rapid separation out, as new viruses are identified, of the large quantities of pure viruses needed for quicker development of vaccines for key virus diseases.

The secret is the unusual ability of the new centrifuges to separate out pure viruses and, eventually, even parts of viruses (heads, tails, parts of heads), in large quantities—a quart or more at a time.

A major barrier to successful virus research has been the inability of scientists to get sufficient quantities of pure viruses for experimentation.

Methods for separating viruses have been so inadequate that scientists often have had to work with 35 millionths of an ounce of a virus in a year. These pitifully small amounts have held research to a crawl.

With the new centrifuges, a scientist will have 1,000, or 10,000 or 100,000 or more times as much of a pure virus for his research.

A good deal of the work in virus diseases is separating things. You have to separate out the particular virus you're interested in. You have to inject this virus into some animal to determine if it is, indeed, the causative agent for the particular disease you're studying. This may take large amounts of the virus.

Then you may want to separate out the parts of the virus (head, tail, parts of the head) to see which part of the virus does the dirty work. You may have to identify and separate a second virus for the same variety of the same disease, because it may be that two viruses work as a team to trigger the disease.

Once you've established what virus or viruses cause the disease, you must separate out large quantities of the virus or viruses for use in developing vaccines. When you hit on the right vaccine, you must separate out even larger quantities of the virus or viruses to produce the vaccines doctors need to inoculate their patients.

The problem is more complicated if several varieties of a particular disease are common. (It's believed, for example, that there may be 100 or more kinds of cancer.)

These significant new centrifuges are an outgrowth of work on the atom bomb. When alert scientists at Oak Ridge and Washington decided that the centrifuges they were developing might have wider applications, these Atomic Energy Commission scientists teamed up with men from the National Cancer Institute.

The result may be a revolution in virus research.

Ancient Filibusters

By WASHINGTON STAFF
Newspaper Enterprise Assn.

WASHINGTON — (NEA) — The current southern filibuster against the civil rights bill is a well organized effort — a far cry from the "one-man shows" of the past.

The first senator to practice the art of talking to obstruct legislation was pistol-toting John Randolph of Virginia, who performed in the Senate almost daily from 1823 to 1825.

A newspaper editor catching Randolph for the first time wrote that the careless ease he displayed in speaking, generally lolling against someone else's desk, "brought to mind the 'Arabian Nights entertainment.'"

"But," the editor continued, "they have a regular design which his speeches do not."

The country's latest foreign visitor, King Hussein I of Jordan, handles Western reporters with the practiced ease of a master. His first experience with the Fourth Estate was in Harrow, an English school he attended with his cousin Feisal — who became king of Iraq in 1957, only to be murdered a year later.

A band of visiting Egyptian journalists interviewed the two boys at Harrow, talking to Feisal first. As a joke, he told them English classmates called Hussein, "Hussie."

When the reporters checked Hussein for confirmation, he denied the nickname. Then, craftily, he asked:

"Who told you that? Was it 'Fuzzy'?"

"Who's Fuzzy?" the reporter asked.

Answered Hussein: "Feisal, of course."

Adam Yarmolinsky, Defense Secretary Robert McNamara's trouble-shooter, recently was appointed to President Johnson's task force on poverty.

Asked about the new assignment, Yarmolinsky answered:

"It's fine, but I'm getting schizophrenia running back and forth from rags (poverty) to riches (Defense Department) several times a day."

The Pentagon is the only government office building with no passenger elevators. Except for late afternoon, the escalators only go up.

Stuck on a fifth-floor garbage bin near a freight elevator recently was this sign:

"This rides down — you walk."

Extremists Alienate Northern Good Will

By DREW PEARSON

CHICAGO — Recommended reading for Dick Gregory, Rep. Adam Clayton Powell of Harlem, the White and Negro extremists of ACT and the Brooklyn Bolters from CORE: "The South During Reconstruction" by E. M. Coulter.

This is the tragic story of how Negro extremists after the Civil War blew their tremendous reservoir of goodwill in the North by excesses in the South. In less than a decade the highhanded methods of Negro politicians and white carpetbaggers turned sour the deep sympathy felt for the Negro during and immediately after the Civil War. It killed the spirit of racial cooperation and set back Negro progress by half a century.

Because something like this is happening today, here, for Messrs. Powell and Gregory's reading, are significant excerpts from Mr. Coulter's description of the South during reconstruction:

"Three hundred Negroes broke out in open riot in 1869 on the Ogeechee River rice lands in Central Georgia. They drove out the White owners and showed their intention of running that part of the state . . . Next year a better organized and more serious outbreak took place in the vicinity of Louisville, Ga. . . . by a movement whose purpose was to protest against arrest, prevent collection of debts and taxes, effect their release if placed in jail, and ultimately gain control of the land."

South Carolina Legislature

"Appleton's Handbook of American Travel' advised tourists that a peep into the statehouse in Columbia, S.C., would be intensely interesting and should not be missed by those who desire to see the Negro in the role of statesman.

"A Northern newspaperman who came down to see this amazing spectacle declared it was 'Barbarism overwhelming civilization by physical force and a wonder and a shame to modern civilization.'"

In South Carolina, the legislature bought for $700,000 land worth $100,000 for resale to Negroes; it issued $1,590,000 worth of bonds with which to redeem $500,000 worth of banknotes; paid $75,000 to take a state census in 1869 though the federal census was due to be taken the following year at a cost of only $43,000; voted $1,000 extra compensation to the Speaker for his efficient services when he lost $1,000 on a horse race; and paid for lunches, whiskies, wines, women's apparel and coffins charged by the legislators to legislative expenses.

"It was estimated that 150 people were killed in riots in Jackson County, Florida; that Negroes started the most serious riots in Alabama's history when at Eufaula they tried to prevent a member of their race from voting the Democratic ticket. In Louisiana under its miserable travesty on government there was no end of riots — the Colfax riot in which 59 Negroes and two whites were killed, the Coushatta violence in which five Radical office holders were murdered, and the famous New Orleans uprising of 1874 which was not unlike a Parisien revolution."

It was a cruel period, unfair to the Negroes, unfair to the whites. It left not only its memories but galvanized white sentiment, both North and South, against the Negro.

Is History Repeating?

Very much the same galvanization is taking place in the North today, and this is the chief reason for the huge, silent protest vote rolled up for Gov. George Wallace of Alabama in Wisconsin; also for the heavy vote sure to be rolled up in Indiana and even more, proportionately, in Maryland. The jeering, booing, and spitting of Marylanders at Sen. Dan Brewster, D-Md., the stand-in integrationist candidate, and a very fine senator, are not because Marylanders like Wallace, but because of the intensity of their dislike for the Negro.

The pro-Wallacites are unreasonable and unfair. But having witnessed extremism and frustration on one side, they are indulging in extremism and frustration on the other. And they have one important advantage—the fact that the United States is 90 per cent white.

During recent weeks I have visited some of the major Northern cities — New York, Chicago, Cleveland, Baltimore — and I can report that anti-Negro sentiment has increased and hardened almost overnight.

In Cleveland it was changed by the Negro youths who went berserk and smashed store windows after the bulldozer killing of a white preacher. It was further hardened by the dumping of garbage, trash, and human excrement from Negro windows on Cleveland police as they tried to stop the rioting. Cleveland was a city of great racial understanding. It isn't anymore.

In Chicago, the white population has seen Mayor Richard Daley, the best executive that city has had in years and a champion of racial rights, booed and shouted down at soldiers field by Negroes unwilling to give him a chance to be heard.

In New York the threats of water - wasting and traffic-stalling by Negro-White extremists, even though renounced by responsible Negro organizations, have played into the hands of both the unthinking and the racially biased.

The Negro has waited a long time. He has every right to be impatient. He is entitled to more understanding from his northern neighbors. Nevertheless, human nature being human nature, and ninety per cent of this nation being white, the unfortunate, inescapable fact is that the great reservoir of Northern goodwill for the Negro is evaporating. Already this is hurting passage of a strong civil rights bill.

Separate Aid Bills Hit

By ROBERT S. ALLEN
And PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — President Johnson is getting more doleful news on his already trouble-plagued $3.4 billion foreign aid program.

Democratic congressional leaders are warning the President that the House and Senate are certain to lock horns in a damaging stalemate if Senator J. William Fulbright, D-Ark., chairman of the Foreign Relations Committee, persists with his stratagem to split the aid measure into eight separate bills.

The leaders want the President to bluntly tell his old Senate friend Fulbright to shelve his "legislative gimmick," as they caustically refer to it, or foreign aid may be in even hotter water than it already is — which is plenty!

Ominously illustrative of the powerful opposition which Fulbright's "gimmick" faces in the House are the following instances being cited to the President:

Representative Thomas Morgan, D-Pa., chairman of the House Foreign Affairs Committee, is dead set against Fulbright's scheme and says his committee has no intention of considering it. Morgan is backed on this stand by an overwhelming majority of Democrats and Republicans on his committee.

Equally strongly opposed is Representative Otto Passman, D-La., chairman of the Appropriations Subcommittee in charge of the foreign aid budget. Long a militant critic of large-scale foreign aid spending, Passman's hostility to Fulbright's plan is heartily supported by Representative Clarence Cannon, D-Mo., veteran potent chairman of the full Appropriations Committee.

Against this high-powered array of vehement dissent, Fulbright's eight - bill "gimmick" hasn't a ghost of a chance in the House.

Even in the Arkansan's own committee it's stirring up stormy discord.

Every attempt Fulbright has made to maneuver his bills through the committee (by means of proxy votes) has been thwarted by Senator Wayne Morse, D-Ore., aggressive leader of the drive to drastically slash the multi-billion dollar foreign aid budget.

Greatly aiding Morse in this backstage fight is the prolonged Senate debate over the civil rights bill which severely limits committee meetings. No committee sessions can be held while the Senate is sitting, and as it convenes early and continues late into the night, committee proceedings are cut to a bare minimum.

Curious Allies

In spearheading the inner committee challenge of Fulbright's "legislative gimmick," Morse finds himself in unexpected company.

Lined up with him are committeemen who are supporting the President's $3.4 billion aid budget. They are as strongly against cutting it as the scrappy Oregonian is for doing that. Yet both sides basically have the same reason for opposing Fulbright — they consider his plan a serious menace to their cause.

As the President's backers see it, Fulbright's eight separate bills would open the way for the opposition to rip the aid program to bits piecemeal. Morse makes the same argument — in reverse. He contends an across - the - board slash of an omnibus bill would be simpler and fairer than undertaking to whittle down the budget piecemeal.

To Morse, Fulbright's separate bills are a "trick" to circumvent a steep foreign aid cut, while the President's supporters are convinced the piecemeal "gimmick" would facilitate heavy ax wielding.

The President's Dilemma

So far, the President has warily skirted this thorny hassle. He hasn't said no and he hasn't said yes.

As chairman of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee — which among other functions passes on all treaties — Fulbright is in a strategic position to be helpful or hostile in this all-important field. Both the White House and the State Department speak softly and tread gently in dealing with him.

Also, he is an old congressional friend of the President and as such can't be pushed around. Strongly as his position may be disliked, the utmost circumspection has to be exercised in relations with him.

This touchy dilemma was graphically demonstrated by Foreign Aid Administrator David Bell at a meeting of the Foreign Relations Committee.

Senator Morse, who has no inhibitions about Fulbright, tried to get a categoric answer from Bell on the administration's policy on the eight-bill scheme. Morse got nowhere, as follows:

"What is your position on the handling of the foreign aid budget section by section in separate bills?" asked Morse. "Or do you think this should be done in an omnibus bill?"

"We regard this essentially as a matter for Congress to decide," ducked Bell. "We are interested in the contents of the legislation, the amount authorized, for what purpose, and other provisions. Whether that is enacted in one bill or several is not a matter on which we regard ourselves as having any particular reason to make a recommendation one way or the other.

"The President had conflicting advice from members of the House and Senate, and the President recommended an omnibus program. I see no reason why any of us should make a recommendation one way or the other on that."

"You are not concerned then," snapped Morse, "about the fact that over on the House side there is very strong opposition to this procedural approach, and that you may very well end up with a considerable conflict between the House and Senate if we can't get together on a common method of handling the bill?"

"We regard the passage of the legislation as essentially a matter for Congress," Bell persisted. "We would obviously be deeply concerned if there were a long delay resulting from any cause."

"I share that concern," declared Morse. "But I want to suggest that you are headed for another unnecessary stalemate because of the different approach procedurally that is being followed by the two chambers."

But with Fulbright listening intently to this exchange, Bell firmly declined to express an opinion. Clearly he was not risking incurring Fulbright's ire.

On World Affairs

Stall-In Blasted

By EDGAR ANSEL MOWRER

The possibility of sheer chaos at the opening of the New York World's Fair, to be caused by a possible blockage of the approaches through a stall-in, has directed the attention of the entire world to the threatened use of illegal methods by impatient Negroes.

Many countries are represented at the Fair. It represents an investment of scores of millions of dollars. Should the radical Negroes carry out their threat, what would be the reaction both abroad and here?

I asked Professor Rayford Logan of Howard University, one of the most respected of American Negro leaders, for his opinion.

Here is his reply:

"The world must recognize the reason why some Negores advocate such impractical protests as the threatened stall-in. Many Negroes are angry. I am angry.

"But with the possible exception of people like Redeemer Nkrumah of Ghana, I do not think many Africans favor methods here which can only have the opposite effect from that planned. Negro leaders abroad are coming to see that while Russian is helping them less, a United States, whose Congress is voting a civil rights bill, does not deserve the kind of blanket condemnation they used to give it. The soberer heads in Africa will, I think, disapprove anything so silly and willfully disruptive as a stall-in to block the World's Fair.

"Personally, I oppose the stall-in for several reasons. It is likely to provoke the ill-will of American non-Negroes who support the civil rights bill and other efforts to advance the Negroes' quest for equal opportunity.

White Backlash Possible

"The 'white backlash' must not be lightly discounted. One of my best friends in a New England college, considered by his friends a 'flaming liberal,' is now asking white citizens to join with him circulating a petition warning Negroes from trying to move too fast.

"I oppose a stall-in because it does not recognize the legitimate anger of the frustrated motorist regardless of the reasons behind the barrier to his free movement.

"A stall-in could easily result in mass arrests for non-observance of traffic regulations —and worse.

"I oppose blocking such a great event as the opening of the New York Fair because whether successful or not, it could lead to other ill-conceived manifestations of our legitimate impatience with the slow achievement of equal rights.

"I oppose a stall-in because it might result in more unfortunate deaths like that of the Cleveland clergyman killed inadvertently by the bulldozer driver who was backing up to avoid running down other demonstrators.

Responsible Leaders Opposed

"And finally, I oppose a stall-in because other responsible Negro leaders whom I respect oppose it. Naturally I am delighted to see that today Roy Wilkins, Executive director of the NAACP, and Whitney Young of the National Urban League, have rallied to the viewpoint which I began expressing many months ago.

"What I hope all friends of equal rights, whether Negro or white, will do is to concentrate on obtaining these rights legally. In fact, I go along completely with the editorialist in a recent number of the Washington Star. He declared that Negro threats of violence are inevitably doomed to defeat if only because they reflect a contempt for law on the part of a minority which can enjoy its rights only under a rule of law.

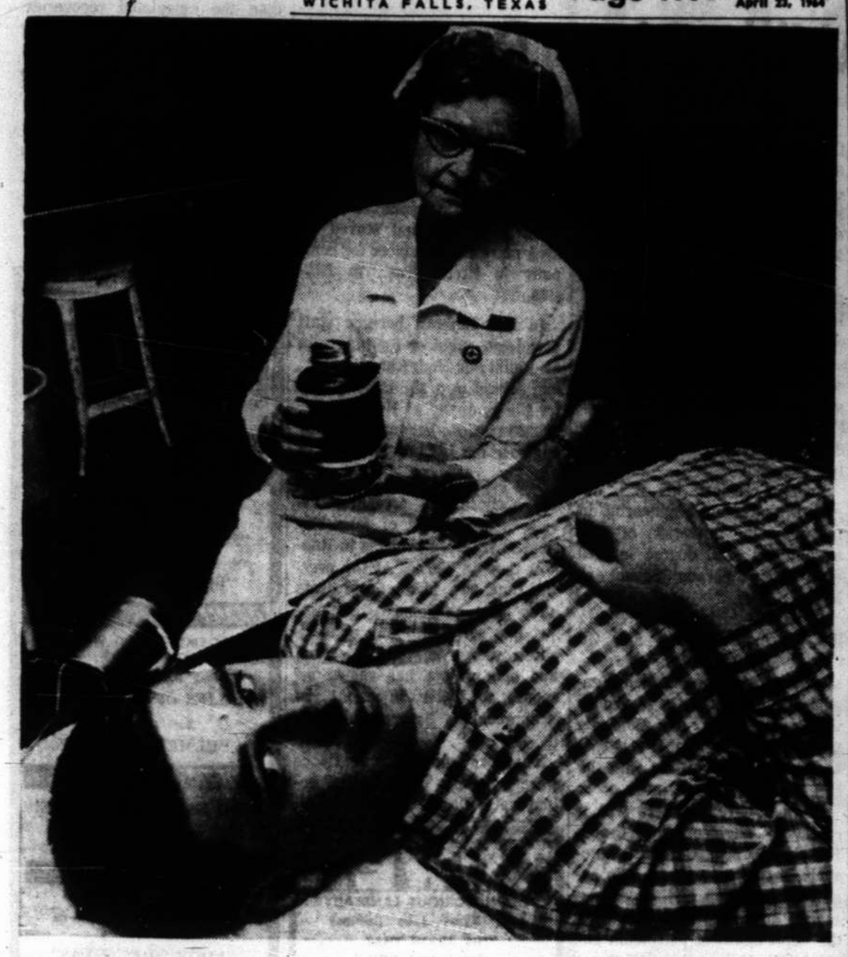

"That is my standpoint, Mr. Mowrer."

To which I can only say Amen.

The Country Parson

"I'd rather put my trust in a courageous minority than in a placid majority."

New Grayson County Zone Opened By Dallas Operator

By FRANK O. HALL
Record News Oil Editor

McCommons Oil Co., Dallas, has completed the No. 2 Tip Butler to open a new producing zone in the Mackoy, East Field of Grayson County.

Twenty-four pumping potential was 84 barrels of 20 gravity oil from 40 perforations at 4223-33 feet. Pay was treated with 500 gallons of acid. The 4½-inch production string was landed at 4318 feet after hole was bottomed at 5350 feet.

Producer is five miles southeast of Whitesboro, Manuel Manchaca survey A-783.

DEEP WILDCAT FAILURE IN COOKE

Magna Oil Corp., Dallas, has abandoned at 14,380 feet No. 1 Luse Ranch Unit, Cooke County wildcat 10 miles northwest of Whitesboro, A. Burns survey A-49.

OILERS COMPLETED IN ARCHER COUNTY

W. G. Gouchie has potentialed two wells in the Archer County Regular Field.

No. E-1 Petrex, six miles southeast of Holliday, block 126, ATNCL subdivision, pumped 29 barrels of 41 gravity crude per day from six perforations at 1740-42 feet. Gas-oil ratio was 500-1. The 4½-inch casing was cemented on bottom at 1770 feet.

Gouchie's No. 5 Petrex, two miles southeast of Holliday, block 126, ATNCL subdivision, had a daily pumping potential of 16 barrels of 38 gravity oil, plus 25 per cent water, from six perforations at 1754-56 feet. Hole was bottomed at 1772 feet where 4½-inch pipe was set. Gas-oil ratio was 500-1.

Ted H. Smith finaled a shallow producer in the same field, 3½ miles southwest of Holliday, SPRR survey No. 1 A-428. It is No. B-12 W. H. Taylor Estate which pumped 8.99 barrels of 38.9 gravity crude, plus 10 per cent water, per day from 32 perforations at 414-430 feet. The 4½-inch pipe was set at 445 feet.

WISE COUNTY OILER FLOWS 119 BARRELS

L. T. Burns Estate has reported a daily potential of 119 barrels of 41 gravity oil for the No. 2 Methodist Home in Wise County's Chico, West (5700 Conglomerate) Field.

Flow was through 12-64-inch choke from perforations at 5719-40 feet with 290 pounds pressure on casing and 280 pounds on tubing. Gas-oil ratio was 760-1. Completion was on natural flow.

Hole was bottomed at 5904 feet and the 2⅞-inch production string was run to 5892 feet.

Producer is two miles southeast of Crafton, E. Edens survey A-281.

PRODUCER FINALED IN HENRIETTA AREA

Bridwell Oil Co. completed No. 1 Bobby Scheer in the Clay County Regular Field, 3½ miles southeast of Henrietta, section 10, T&NO survey.

During 24-hour test the well flowed 81.79 barrels of 41 gravity crude through 12-64-inch choke from pay perforated at 6228-36 feet. With packer on casing tubing pressure was 240 pounds. Gas-oil ratio was 700-1. Completion was on natural flow.

Total depth was 6260 feet.

BAYLOR COUNTY WELL FINALED ON PUMP

In the Baylor County Regular Field R. L. Carpenter, Seymour, finaled No. 18 Leona Carpenter seven miles southwest of Seymour, section 2, block 1, D&W survey.

Daily pumping potential was 16.6 barrels of 34 gravity oil, plus 40 per cent water, from 28 perforations at 1419-36 feet. The 4½-inch casing was cemented one foot above bottom at 1489 feet.

AT SYMPOSIUM HERE

Two Abilene Men Will Give Paper

E. L. ANDERS JR.

R. B. EINHORN

Two officials of the LeClair Operating Co. of Abilene, Tex., are co-authors of one of the papers to be presented during the sixth biennial Secondary Recovery Symposium in Wichita Falls May 4 and 5.

They are E. L. Anders, Jr., president of the company, and R. B. Einhorn, reservoir engineer for LeClair.

Title of the paper, to be presented at the May 5 morning session, is "Analysis of Water Flood Behavior of Four Fry Sand Reservoirs, Runnels County, Texas."

Anders received his B.S. degree in petroleum engineering in 1940 from the University of Texas and his M.S. degree in 1950 from the Colorado School of Mines.

Anderson started his career in the oil industry with Sun Oil Co., at McAllen, Tex., where he served as a junior petroleum engineer in 1941-1942. He served as an instructor in the Colorado School of Mines in 1942-1944 and was a flight test officer with the U.S. navy from 1944-1946.

From 1946-1948 Anders was a reservoir engineer for Creole Petroleum Corp., Caracas, Venezuela, and then served as an assistant professor and as an associate professor in 1948-1951 in the department of petroleum engineering, University of Kansas.

He was chief reservoir engineer for International Petroleum Co. Ltd. at Talara, Peru, from 1951-1953 when he became chief engineer for the SACROC Unit at Snyder, Tex., a post he filled until Nov. 1, 1954.

Anders then became a consulting petroleum engineer in Abilene. In addition to his consulting practice he became president of LeClair on March 1, 1956.

Einhorn received a bachelor's degree in petroleum engineering from the University of Minnesota in 1954 when he became an engineer-in-training for Magnolia Petroleum Co. (now Mobil Oil Co.) He was a junior petroleum engineer for Magnolia at Alice, Tex., in 1955-56 and served as area petroleum engineer for company in Freer, Tex., in 1957-1958.

In 1959 Einhorn became staff petroleum engineer for Magnolia at Falfurrias and Kermit, Tex., and served in a similar capacity for the company at Hobbs N.M., in 1960-1961. He became reservoir engineer for LeClair in 1961.

The paper authored by Anders and Einhorn will present a review and analysis of four Fry sand water flood projects in Runnels County, Texas. At the present time two of these projects have been abandoned, one project has not shown any appreciable response to water injection, and one project has shown response to water injection and is approcahing its economic limit.

The two plugged out floods were economic failures. The actual water flood recoveries of all the Fry sand projects to be reviewed have been much less than the calculated recoveries. The major problem in flooding Fry sand reservoirs is the restriction of the injected water to only the Fry sand.

The Symposium is being sponsored by the North Texas Section of the Society of Petroleum Engineers (AIME).

All technical sessions will be held in Maskat Temple.

Throckmorton Test Staked By Humble

ABILENE, Tex. — Humble Oil & Refining Co. staked No. 34 Watt R. Matthews, Account 1, as a proposed 5600-foot wildcat in Throckmorton County.

Location is 17 miles southwest of Throckmorton on a 37,878-acre lease.

The planned Ellenburger test is 440 feet from north and 1105 from west lines of section 226, ETRR survey.

Drillsite is 1309 feet southwest of No. 33 Watt R. Matthews, completing at 2450-54 feet.

Apex Oil Co. of Wichita Falls staked No. 1 H. E. Bloodworth five miles northwest of Elbert in the Throckmorton County Regular Field.

Having a proposed depth of 3900 feet to test the Strawn sand, it spots 1300 feet from north and 1400 from west lines of T. J. Griffith survey A-1179.

It is 1,000 feet southeast of an abandoned producer.

Thomas D. Humphrey Oil Properties Ltd. of Dallas No. 1 Dill Pace, section 2345, TE&L survey A-697, re-drill project in the regular field six miles east of Throckmorton, was plugged at 4775 feet.

WILDCAT IS STAKED IN WEINERT SECTOR

HASKELL — Cities Service Oil Co. staked a Haskell County wildcat 9½ miles southeast of Weinert.

The venture is No. A-1A Key, slated for 4850 feet to test the Strawn.

Location is 3340 feet from south and 660 from east lines of J. M. Stephens survey 172 A-370. It is on a 917.5-acre lease.

Goldwater Eyes Steps To Fill Campaign Gaps

By WALTER R. MEARS

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Barry Goldwater's campaign leaders hope to use stepped-up television appearances by the senator and stand-in speakers to fill some of the gaps left by his decision to curtail his travels.

The Arizonan said Tuesday that the cross-country campaigning he had scheduled would require "commuting on a 3,000-mile basis" and would be out of the question in view of the pressing circumstances of the Senate's civil rights debate.

Dean Burch, second in command of the Goldwater campaign for the Republican presidential nomination, said Wednesday the senator will beam a series of television broadcasts into two key primary states—Oregon and California.

Substitute Speakers

Where they can, the Goldwater forces hope to arrange substitute speakers to deliver the senator's conservative message to voters in the primary states.

"Of course this will hurt us," Burch said. But he said Goldwater is determined not to miss Senate votes on a series of civil rights amendments proposed by Senate Republican Leader Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois.

The curtailment will hurt financially, too, Burch said. Goldwater's campaign committee had been counting on a $60,000 profit at a fund-raising dinner in Seattle, Wash., on Saturday night. Now that has been canceled.

OKLAHOMA OIL

OKLAHOMA CITY — Crude oil purchasers in Oklahoma plumped almost unanimously for a 4 per cent reduction in oil production allowables for May at a meeting of the Corporation Commission this week. An order will not be issued until late in the week, however.

Thirteen of the 41 state purchasers asked for reduction of the percentage allowable from 30 to 26 per cent, and only two purchasers asked for 27 per cent. Remainder asked the agency to hold runs to the amount nominated by purchasers.

Nominations filed with the commission totaled 537,990 barrels, a reduction of 7,875 barrels from the April rate. However, during the hearing, the commission ruled out a 10,000-barrel nomination of Sandlin Oil Co., since the company has not purchased crude for the past two months and its refinery is shut down.

Bureau of Mines had forecast demand at 525,000 barrels daily, up 5,000 barrels from April but 55,000 barrels less than a year ago. Production averaged 578,109 barrels daily for the first 11 days of April, comparing with 559,774 barrels daily in March. The state's estimated allowable is 545,000 barrels daily.

Among purchasers at the hearing were several crude brokers and trucking companies, who had not appeared at a hearing before.

Soviet Jets For Sale

ANKARA, Turkey (AP)—The Soviet Union wants to sell 72 passenegr jetliners to Turkey, Ankara press reports quoted the communications minister, Ferit Alpiskender, as saying the Soviet Union was prepared to extend a 20-year credit payment plan if Turkey would buy.

MAJ. GEN. HARLEY B. WEST

49th Armored Commander To Speak Here

Maj. Gen. Harley B. West, commanding general of the 49th Armored Division of the Texas National Guard, will speak on "The National Guard" at the Thursday noon meeting of the Wichita Falls Rotary Club in the fellowship hall of First Methodist Church.

Gen. West, of Dallas, is a member of the Rotary Club there, the Dallas Sales Executive Club, the Military Order of the World Wars, and vice president of the United States Armor Association.

The General began his military career in 1928 as an enlisted man in the Missouri National Guard.

During World War II, he served on the general staff of the War Department in Washington, D.C. and the Southwest Pacific Theatre.

He has served with the 49th Armored Division, Texas National Guard, for the past decade. He commanded the unit, as well at Fort Polk, La., during its 10 months active duty stint during the Berlin Crisis.

He is a graduate of DePauw University and has received numerous military decorations and awards.

Ralph Davis is program chairman.

Miss Yates, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Yates, plans to attend Hardin - Simmons University.

Quanah Youth Assigned Study

QUANAH (Special) — William A. Moseley III of Quanah, student at Princeton University, has been assigned a study at the Banque Nationale de Comptes Industriels near the center of Paris, France.

Moseley was recently named recipient of one of the Princeton University study grants in a foreign country for the summer.

Moseley will leave June 17 from Kennedy International Airport in New York City on a chartered flight carrying other students participating in various study programs on the European continent.

He will spend the summer in France with time off for traveling and return to the states early in September.

Electra High Band Chosen For San Antonio Festival

ELECTRA, Tex. (Special) — The Electra Senior High School Band, directed by Howard Smith, is one of six out of town high school bands chosen to participate in the parades and festival events of the annual "Battle of Flowers" in San Antonio.

Reservations have been made to take 76 members of the band in school buses, and to charter a special trailer-truck to take instruments, uniforms, music and other paraphernalia.

Several members of the Band Parents Club will make the trip in private automobiles.

The first official appearance in the Alamo City will be Thursday at 7:30 p.m. in Alamo Stadium. The Electra band will be first to perform, the director has been informed. The Battle of Flowers Parade will take place Friday afternoon and the Grand Finale Saturday will include 18 high school bands from San Antonio to join visiting bands in marching and playing in special formations.

The schedule includes tours of historic places in San Antonio and the party will stop over in Austin en route home for a visit at the State Capitol.

Officers of the band include Frank Hill, president; Billy Ream, vice president and Terri Mills, secretary-treasurer. Steve Jones is business manager and Pascal Bailey, assistant business manager. John Robb is freshman supervisor and Jimmy Stevens, assistant.

The installation event with the Hawaiian theme was presented by senior members of the club.

BEST-LIKED — Harrold, Tex. — Voted the most popular students at Harrold High School for the year were Judy Clynch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Clynch, Rt. 1, Harrold; and Johnny Wilson, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Wilson of Harrold.

Mike Allen Of Altus Wins Fifth Trophy For Models

ALTUS, Okla. (Special) — Mike Allen, perennial winner of Fisher Craftsmen's Guild awards, has just received his fifth trophy. Presentation was made at a special assembly in Altus High School.

In the words of Dennis Norman, acting principal who made the award, Mike's trophy for 1963-64 is more than an award for the first place in the senior age division contest for model car designers.

"It also is a tribute to perseverence, to undaunting desire to reach a goal. Since Mike was in the seventh grade, he has known he wanted to be an automobile designer, and he has spent almost every free moment since that time planning his courses, and working at design creations," Norman said.

The Southwestern State College freshman art major has won a first, second or third place trophy in the state contest each year since he was in the eighth grade. His designs have attracted wide attention, and last year, as an Altus high school senior he was co-sponsor with Robert Killebrew, industrial arts teacher, of a boys club for car design.

Mike has won $600 in cash awards and three first places. He has made two trips to Detroit to see other winners in the Fisher Body Guild contest, and observed Fisher Body designers at work.

MODEL CAR DESIGNER—Altus, Okla. (Special) — Mike Allen holds the trophy he received recently and shows some of the models he has perfected.

Attorney General Will Lead Parade At Paducah Friday

PADUCAH, Tex. (Special) — The Western parade opening the 22nd annual Cottle - King Horse and Colt Show and Rodeo here Friday is scheduled to be lead by Texas Attorney General Waggoner Carr.

Shortly before the parade, scheduled for 5 p.m., the attorney general will speak from the courthouse square, then join the mounted show officials at the head of the parade.

The invitation was extended to the attorney general by Rep. W. S. (Bill) Heatly on behalf of the Cottle - King Livestock and Rodeo Association and the Paducah Chamber of Commerce and Agricultural Development. Heatly will introduce Carr at the speaking.

A special coffee is planned for the attorney general and his wife Friday afternoon at the Heatly home. The coffee is scheduled from 2 to 3 p.m.

Following the parade, a chuck wagon dinner will be held at the rodeo grounds.

Rodeo performances Friday and Saturday nights are scheduled for 8 o'clock. Nine events are scheduled with top performers competing for prize money. An old-timers calf roping event has been added to this year's rodeo schedule. The event is open to ropers age 55 and over.

Quarter Horse Show

Some of the finest horses in a three-state area are expected to compete in the performance classes at 1 p.m. Saturday.

Both halter and performance classes are approved by the American Quarter Horse Association.

Events include registered junior and senior cutting contests, open cutting contests, and a cutting contest restricted to ranch horses. In the reining contest, events will be both the junior and senior division and an open division.

Some 40 members of the Crowell Cutting Horse Club are expected to make the 35-mile ride to Paducah. Members will leave Crowell Thursday and plan to spend the night along the way, arriving in Paducah at 2 p.m. Friday.

A welcome party of city officials will meet the group on arrival in Paducah. Members of the club will join in the rodeo parade at 5 p.m.

COUNCIL TO DISCUSS PURCHASE OF AIRPORT

By JACK COATS

Members of tre Wichita Falls City Council Monday are expected to approve an ordinance authorizing issuance of $375,000 in airport revenue bonds for purchase of the Wichita Falls Air Transport Co. from heirs of the late Fulcher Armstrong.

It was announced earlier that the Armstrong heirs had agreed to sell their holdings to the City of Wichita Falls for $345,000.

The $375,000 figure was set at a recent council meeting to cover the purchase and other contingencies.

Issuance and sale of the bonds, which carry 3.80 per cent interest over a 20-year period, will be handled by First Southwest Co. of Dallas, the City's financial advisors.

Frank Medanich, an official of the Dallas firm, pointed out that the City of Wichita Falls was fortunate in being able to offer the bonds for such low interest. "This can only be a result of the city's good financial condition and previous bond rating," Medanich said. Medanich noted that the City of Dallas recently sold $6 million in airport revenue bonds at the same interest rate.

The City of Wichita Falls retains an option to recall the bonds at the end of five years by payment of principal and accured interest.

Council action also is expected on wording of a contract to be offered a fixed-base operator to lease fueling facilities at the airport.

City Manager Jack Davis returned to Wichita Falls from Lubbock late Tuesday after conferring there with Ed Colby, manager of the Lubbock Municipal Airport, in connection with wording of the contract.

Once the wording is approved by the council, Davis said, "we will be in a position to make definite proposals to those who have applied for the fixed-base operator lease at the airport."

AARON EDGAR

Munday Publisher Presides At Panhandle Press Meeting

MUNDAY, Tex. (Special)—Attending the annual convention of the Panhandle Press Association in Amarillo last week was not a novel experience for Aaron Edgar, editor of the Munday Times and president of the regional press organization. Edgar has been attending the annual meetings since 1928 when the convention was in Childress.

Edgar was born at Hemphill, Sabine County, the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Edgar. He finished high school at Wellington and attended Arlington State College for two years.

During the depression, young Edgar left college to work for Aubrey M. Dobbs, publisher of the Collingsworth Standard. In 1935, Edgar worked for the Throckmorton Tribune a few months and then was employed by the Eldorado Success for two years.

In November 1938, Edgar and Grady Roberts, now a resident of Wichita Falls, formed a partnership in the Munday Times, weekly paper published here since 1903. The publisher-editor was married to Altha Tom Bridge of Memphis, Tex., Dec. 17, 1938 in Amarillo. The partners bought the Times from J. W. Roberts, brother of Grady, in 1947.

Edgar served as vice president of the Panhandle Press Association in 1962 and was elected president last year.

Dr. Landes Coming To First Baptist

Dr. James H. Landes, president of Hardin - Simmons University, will preach on "Christian Education" at the 11 a.m. Sunday service at First Baptist Church.

It will be the first sermon Dr. Landes has delivered to his former congregation since giving up the pastorate for his present position.

This worship service will mark the climax for a youth fellowship and Christian education weekend at the church. Student teams from Decatur Baptist College, Mary Hardin - Baylor, Baylor, Wayland Baptist, Hardin - Simmons, East Texas Baptist and possibly other Baptist colleges will be here.

These students will present a talent show at an informal program Saturday evening at the church. This will begin with a supper at 6:15 p.m., with the program following at 7 o'clock.

Dr. Landes is expected to arrive in the city Saturday and probably will take part in the Saturday program.

Sunday has been designated Christian Education Day in the church and the weekend activities will conclude with a luncheon for the visiting collegians following morning worship.

During their stay here the college students will be extolling the virtues of their particular schools.

Schools Closed In Pennsylvania City

CHESTER, Pa. (AP) — Chester closed its 16 public schools until further notice Wednesday because civil rights demonstrations have resulted in violence endangering the safety of the 11,000 pupils and 200 teachers.

The announcement of the school shutdown was made by Charles D. Long, superintendent of Chester's schools. He said in a statement that he was ordered to take the action by the school board "because there is danger."

Two Negro groups—the Committee for Freedom Now and the National Association for the Advancement of Colored People — have demonstrated almost daily for the past month in protest against alleged de facto segregation.

They demand bussing of students to eliminate both all-white and all-Negro schools.

The school board denies it is fostering any policy of segregation. It claims that students attend neighborhood schools, and that the system's one high school has an enrollment of 40 per cent Negro boys and girls.

Efforts to resolve the issue at a meeting called by the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission collapsed Tuesday. Neither side, said the commission, would shift its position.

Wednesday, about 63 persons marched outside the school administration building and the Chester Municipal Authority building. Police arrested 24 when they sat down—22 on the sidewalk in front of the school headquarters and two inside the municipal building.

Demonstrations had begun last March 27. There was a one-day school boycott before that, with about 30 per cent of the pupils staying out of classes.

In addition to the 200 teachers the school board employs about 350 other persons. Of the total, 175 are Negroes.

The board operates 11 elementary schools, four junior highs and a high school.

Mayor James H. Gorbey said the professional staff would continue to be paid during the shutdown.

Long, in his statement said: "Because of the violence in several of the schools in the city of Chester, and because of the potential danger to pupils and faculty and because of the fear of parents for the safety of their children in the schools, and because there is danger in the explosive situation in the schools of Chester, therefore, in the interest of safety to pupils and faculty, the superintendent of schools is directed by the Board of School Directors to close all public schools in the city of Chester until such time it is felt teachers and children can return to the educational program free of threat of potential danger and disorder."

Among those arrested Wednesday were two Negro ministers, the Rev. William Boggs of Detroit and the Rev. Robert Chapman of Philadelphia. Boggs is a student at the Crozer Theological Seminary in Chester, while Chapman is an assistant chaplain at the University of Pennsylvania.

The pickets were led by Stanley E. Branche, head of the CFFN and Philip Savage, tristate secretary of the NAACP.

Sey-Vista Elects 1964-65 Officers

The Sey-Vista Community Improvement Association elected new officers at the annual banquet.

Guy Hill Jr. was elected president; Lee Pokarny, vice president; Mrs. M. L. Dickens, secretary - treasurer. Board of directors chosen for two year terms are Paul Teague, George Adams, Bill Rust Jr., Floyd Ellis and Tom Mills.

Retiring officers include E. R. Larson, president; Roy Parich, vice president; Mrs. Dan Davis, secretary - treasurer; Jim Parsons, Jim Rivkin, Jimmy Pappan and Jim Parsons, board members.

Glen Shelton, columnist for the Record News, spoke to the Association. During the meeting reports of progress and future plans were discussed by the incoming and outgoing presidents.

The coins of Athens were first to have a distinct design on both sides.

Absentee Voting Interest Grows

Democratic and Republican voters are showing interest in the forthcoming May 2 primary, judged by a total of 299 absentee ballots mailed out or registered in person at Wichita County Courthouse Wednesday.

Mrs. J. L. Clayton of Electra, who is handling absentee ballots for County Clerk Dora Davis, said Wednesday afternoon 102 Democratic primary ballots had been marked in person and another 175 had been mailed, "mostly to students and service men."

On the Republican side, a total of eight ballots had been marked in person and 14 mailed out by Mrs. Clayton.

Deadline for voting absentee in the May 2 election is 5 p.m. April 28.

Burkburnett Lass Gets Campus Post

Kathryn Siber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter W. Siber of Burkburnett, has been elected secretary of the student body of Concordia Junior College in Austin.

She is a freshman at Concordia where she is preparing to become a teacher in the parish school system of the Lutheran Church — Missouri Synod.

Miss Siber was a 1963 graduate of Burkburnett High School and is a member of Trinity Lutheran Church in Iowa Park.

During 1962, 3,345,000 persons were injured in traffic accidents in the United States.

FINAL ENGLISH WORKSHOP SLATED AT MIDWESTERN

Fourth and final in a series of English workshops being conducted by Midwestern University for Wichita Falls area high school English teachers is scheduled from 9 a.m. to noon Saturday.

Conducting the Saturday workshop on poetry and drama will be Dr. Juanita Kytle and Dr. William Whipple, both outstanding in the field of college English.

Consultants for the panel discussions following the talks by the two MU teachers will be Jerry Bumpus and Henry Herring.

Dr. Kytle has been named chairman of the new Honors Program for Freshmen to be instituted at the university next fall.

She has been associated with Midwestern since last July, coming here from Phoenix, Ariz. She is a graduate of Classen High School, Oklahoma City; National Park Seminary in Washington, D.C. and holds bachelor's and master's degrees from University of Oklahoma and a doctorate from University of New Mexico.

Dr. Whipple, who has been appointed director of the Division of Humanities and Social Sciences at MU, came to the university in 1960 as chairman of the department of English from Lamar Tech in Beaumont. He received his master of arts and doctor of philosophy degrees from Northwestern University. He has been associated with higher education since 1954.

Dr. Whipple has a background of teaching in the public schools in Nebraska and was superintendent of the Ingham, Neb., public schools from 1940 to 1942. He served four years in the U.S. Army during World War II.

Dr. Joseph Satin, who now heads the MU English department, has been enthusiastic in planning the workshops in cooperation with secondary school officials.

Planned to bring about closer understanding of the English curriculum needs of high school students and college freshmen, the sessions have been attended by many Wichita Falls and area teachers since their start in February.

Dodgers Handed Seventh Setback

Dodgers Suffer Blow

Koufax Tears Muscle In His Pitching Arm

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Sandy Koufax, the strikeout ace of the Los Angeles Dodgers, tore a muscle in his pitching arm during the first inning of Wednesday night's Dodger-St. Louis game and doctors said he would miss at least one or two pitching turns.

"He was visibly hurt when he threw that wild third strike in the first," said Dr. I. C. Middleman, the St. Louis Cardinals' team physician. "These type disorders are tricky and can be dangerous without proper care."

Koufax' injury was another blow to the world champion Dodgers, off to one of their worst starts in recent years. Going into Wednessay night's game, the Dodgers had lost six consecutive games. Their only victory was pitched by Koufax on opening day.

Koufax ran into difficulty in the first inning when he uncorked a wild third strike and eventually was tagged for a three-run homer by Charley James. At the end of the inning, Koufax left the game.

Dr. Middleman examined Koufax and reported the 25-game winner and National League Most Valuable Player had an elbow inflammation and slight muscle tear in his left forearm. Dr. Middleman said the inflamation, on the inside of Koufax' elbow, was called epicondylitis.

"Sandy told me his arm had been hurting on and off since spring training," Dr. Middleman said. "He hadn't bothered to report it, feeling he could work it out.

"He is exquisitely tender and has a swelling on the inside of his left forearm. It is rigid and just like a hot dog. He also has an inflamation on his left elbow. It's not too serious, but I'm going to give him X-ray treatment in my office Thursday afternoon."

Dr. Middleman said Koufax' ailments were not uncommon with curveball pitchers.

"I don't think any serious damage has been done to the cartilage in his elbow, or to the slight tear apparent in his forearm," Dr. Middleman said. "I don't expect to find any calcification or chips, but I want to see the X-ray results first."

Houston Blanks Redlegs, 2-0 On Five Hitter

HOUSTON (AP) — Bob Bruce and Hal (Skinny) Brown combined on a five-hit shutout Wednesday night as Houston blanked Cincinnati 2-0.

Bruce, a 30-year-old right-hander, struck out seven and walked only one batter before Brown came on in the ninth. All of the Reds' hits were singles.

The Colts scored the only run they needed in the second as Reds' starter Joey Jay walked Eddie Kasko and Jerry Grote tripled him home.

They added a run in the eighth on a bases-loaded walk to Rusty Staub.

Brown relieved Bruce after he walked Frank Robinson at the start of the ninth. Brown then retired the next three batters.

The Reds twice got two men on base on a single and an error, once in the second and again in the fifth. Bruce, however, put down the threats without any scoring.

Bulldogs Hand Seymour Loss

BURKBURNETT, Tex. (Special) — Burkburnett won its second straight baseball game while handing Seymour its third straight loss 9-5 here Wednesday afternoon in a non-conference game.

The Bulldogs, 3-1 for the season, scored all their runs in the first three innings and held Seymour to only one. Seymour tried to rally in the final innings by scoring two runs in the fifth and sixth and holding Burk scoreless.

Johnny Koller, who pitched five innings and gave up four hits, was the winning pitcher. Don Franklin, the loser, hurled four innings and allowed six hits.

Boyer's Homer Sparks Yanks Second Win

CHICAGO (AP)—Clete Boyer's fifth inning homer—the first the New York Yankees have hit this season—touched off a 3-0 victory over the Chicago White Sox Wednesday night.

Whitey Ford, collecting his first victory after an opening day loss, scattered six hits in grabbing only the Yankees' second victory in five games.

Ron Hansen was the only runner to reach third for the White Sox. He doubled for the Sox' only extra base hit in the fourth and advanced on an infield out.

Gary Peters absorbed the loss, leaving him with a 1-1 mark. He retired for a pinch hitter in the seventh after yielding only four hits.

Boyer's blast into the left field stands put the Yankees on top 1-0. They added another run in the seventh when Elston Howard went to first on interference ruling by catcher Gerry McNertney, took second on a passed ball, third on an infield out and came home on a wild pitch.

Howard singled in the third run in the eighth.

Spartans, Lions Region Favorites

FORT WORTH — Dallas Samuell is a strong favorite to win both relay events in the Region II class AAAA track and field meet here Friday and Saturday, but faces a rugged battle for the team championship with Dallas Kimball the strongest contender.

Samuell's sprint relay team equalled a national schoolboy record last week in the Dallas city meet and came awfully close to the mile relay standard. Another Texas school, Andrews, holds both existing national marks at 41.5 and 3:15.2. The Spartans clicked off a 41.5 to open their city meet and closed it with a 3:16.5 in the final event.

Such performances in the finals Saturday afternoon are almost required if Samuell is to beat Kimball, which has stepped off the sprint relay in 42.4 and the mile relay in 3:17.8.

While it appears certain that Region II records in the relays will tumble (they're standing at 42.3 and 3:18.9 currently), some others are expected to resist the onslaught.

There could be a new standard in the 100-yard dash with junior George Aldredge of Highland Park owning a 9.4 this season and a 9.5 in district. The Scot ace will set a new record no matter what his time in the 220, for this is the first season that the event has been run on a curve.

Other marks in danger are the shot and discus, but none hold the spotlight as do the relays with the toughest field in Region II history.

Brownwood qualified eight individuals and both relay teams to region and this depth plus quality should give the Lions a big victory.

Jerry McCullough will be favored in the 100 and 220 eashes. He also anchors the sprint relay team, which boasts the best time in its division. The Lions' mile relay squad is the choice of the field.

Prelims in the class AAAA running events begin at 4 p.m. Friday. Class AAA waits until 10 a.m. Saturday to kickoff its meet. The finals in running events in both divisions start at 2 p.m.

Koufax Suffers Loss In Duel Of Home Runs

ST. LOUIS (AP) — The Los Angeles Dodgers lost their seventh consecutive game Wednesday night, bowing to St. Louis 7-6, and suffered an additional blow by losing the services of ace left-hander Sandy Koufax.

Koufax, the National League's Most Valuable Player and a 25-game winner for the Dodgers last season, was forced out of the game after pitching only one inning. He is being flown back to Los Angeles for examination.

A crowd of 31,410, largest ever to see a home opener in St. Louis, was on its feet almost immediately as Koufax got into trouble in the first inning by throwing a wild third strike and eventually giving up a three-run homer to Charley James.

It was the first of five homers in the game. Carl Warwick and Bill White also connected for the Cardinals while Frank Howard and Willie Davis homered for the Dodgers.

White got the Cardinals rolling in the first inning when he swung on a two-strike pitch from Koufax. The pitch was wild and got by Dodger catcher John Roseboro as White raced to first base. Koufax then walked Ken Boyr and was tagged for James' homer.

Koufax was replaced at the start of the second inning.

Cardinal starter Curt Simmons started with three hitless innings but left in the seventh after Willie Davis' homer. In the sixth, Simmons threw a fast ball that Frank Howard hit 460 feet into the center field bleachers. It was Howard's third homer.

The Cardinals built a 6-0 lead before the Dodgers battled back on the homers by Howard and Davis. Davis' shot made it 6-5, but White gave the Cardinals some extra working room in the seventh with his homer.

The Dodgers again closed the gap in the eighth on Jim Gilliam's single and a double by Tommy Davis.

But that was all for the Dodgers. Roger Craig, who took over for Simmons, set the defending world champions down in order in the ninth.

NFL Schedule Announced

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Football League has extended its 1964 schedule into the week to include five Saturday games, a Friday night contest and two Monday night games in addition to the usual Thanksgiving Day special at Detroit.

Among the innovations in the 98-game schedule, announced Thursday by Commissioner Pete Rozelle, are a Friday night home opener for the New York Giants with Washington, their first home night game since 1938 and Monday night dates in Detroit and St. Louis.

The season will open with a night game, Saturday, Sept. 12 in the Cotton Bowl, where the Dallas Cowboys will meet the St. Louis Cards. It will close Sunday, Dec. 13. The championship game will be played Sunday, Dec. 27 in the home city of the Eastern Conference champions.

Most of the games are televised regionally into the home area of the visiting team with the home city blacked out. The Columbia Broadcasting Company bought the rights for two years at $14.1 million a year, plus another $1.8 for the championship game.

Three nationally televised games on Thanksgiving Day, (Nov. 26), and the last two Saturdays of the season, Dec. 5 and Dec. 12 will present in order: Chicago Bears at Detroit, Green Bay at Chicago and Cleveland at New York. If the pre-season dope holds up, those games should be very important.

The six night games and the Dec. 12 contest do not conflict with the NCAA college football television (NBC) schedule, running from Sept. 12 to Dec. 5. However, the NCAA program calls for an Alabama-Auburn game Thanksgiving Day, and the Mississippi-Mississippi State Dec. 5.

The Giants said they were playing the Friday night game in order to give the Yankees more time to get the park ready for the return of baseball on the following Tuesday. The game will be telecast in the Washington area. The Giants said they were playing their final game with Cleveland on a Saturday afternoon in order to be on network television.

The NFL may be in trouble if the Minnesota Twins, Cleveland Indians or the Washington Senators win the American League pennant. Rozelle isn't sitting up nights worrying about the Senators but the Twins are rated a top contender to the Yanks.

Canadian Hope Preps Thursday In Blue Grass

LEXINGTON, Ky. (AP) — Northern Dancer, Canada's hope for its first Kentucky Derby crown, will make his final prep for the May 2 classic Thursday in the $25,000-added Blue Grass Stakes at Keeneland.

Four other Derby eligibles, none of them a particular threat to the Dancer, will go in the 1⅛-mile Blue Grass. Each hopes to show enough steam here to earn a Derby start.

Horatio Luro, trainer for E.P. Taylor's Northern Dancer, is carefully treading in his own successful footsteps when he uses the Blue Grass as his last warmup.

Two years ago, he did the same with Decidedly and nine days later watched the colt crowned Derby king. Northern Dancer, like Decidedly, will have Bill Hartack in the saddle both times.

But Decidedly belonged to the El Peco Ranch of California and this time the same outfit owns Northern Dancer's chief Derby competiotr—Hill Rise.

Krebs Quits Lakers

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Veteran center Jim Krebs of the Los Angeles Lakers announced Wednesday that he is retiring from professional basketball to accept a job with a bank.

Krebs, 28, said he will enter a management training program at the United California Bank. He described it as "too good an opportunity to pass."

Red Wings Seek Early Series Win

DETROIT (AP) — The pain and torture of 100 games is beginning to take its toll as the two surviving National Hockey League teams prepare for the sixth game of the Stanley Cup final.

Manager-Coach Sid Abel of the Detroit Red Wings said Wednesday four or five of his regulars are suffering from assorted aches and bruises, but all are expected to be ready for Thursday night's game.

"I sure hope we end it then," said Abel, who was forced to use 38 players to staff his 17-man team during the season. Only Andre Pronovost and Alex Delvecchio survived the 70-game schedule without an injury.

Toronto will arrive by train Thursday without shifty Don McKenney, who remained in a Toronto hospital with torn ligaments in his right knee, suffered when he was checked by Al Langlois in Tuesday's game. The Wings won to go ahead, 3-2 in the best-of-7 series.

Detroit goalie Terry Sawchuk was the best of the Wings in their 2-1 victory in the fifth game although he was suffering back pains as a result of sleeping on a hard mattress in Toronto.

The Detroit injury pattern continued. Defenseman Doug Barkley pulled a groin muscle and Larry Jeffrey suffered separated ribs. Ed Joyal, who scored the winner Tuesday on a 25-foot screened shot, had a touch of influenza.

Texas Open Opens Without Favorite

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP) — The $40,000 Texas Open, oldest tournament on golf's winter tour begins Thursday and the favorite is a mystery man.

The biggest names — Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus, Gary Player and Julius Boros — are missing and the fact that nobody has been able to win more than one tournament all year makes it a free-for-all.

The tournament is being dedicated to Jimmy Demaret, who has played in it more times than anybody and four times was runner-up. He might be as much the favorite as anybody.

There will be more than 150 hacking at par 35-35—70 over the tight 6-715-yard Oak Hills Country Club course, among whom are 12 of the top money-winners and five players who have won tournaments this year.

Also, there will be six former champions headed by Phil Rodgers, who won it last year with a 16-under-par 268 for 72 holes. Others who have dragged down first money and are back trying for more are E.J. (Dutch) Harrison, twice champion; Chandler Harper, Gene Littler, Jay Hebert and Jack Burke Jr.

The first three money winners —Nicklaus, Palmer and Dave Marr—are skipping the tournament. The leading money winner in the field will be Mason Rudolph, who ranks fourth with $16,847.92.

Tournament winners playing here include Juan (Chi Chi) Rodriquez, Jacky Cupit, Rudolph, Bruce Devlin, and Al Besselink.

The course has been toughened up some, especially on the back nine where the players virtually annihilated par last year. It was par 71 then but the 15th hole has been cut from par five to four by placing the tee markers forward. New tee areas have been installed on 16 and 17 designed to cut down the battering.

The 37-year-old tournament runs through Sunday.

Reds Favored To Retain Women's Title

LIMA, Peru (AP)—Russia's tall, skillful women basketball players were strongly favored Wednesday to retain their title in the fourth women's world championships starting here Thursday after the United States team was upset by Bulgaria in its final preliminary round game.

The Americans, rated second to the Russians in pre-tournament calculations, dropped a 52-39 decision to a good Bulgarian team Wednesday in a game postponed from Tuesday night after rain drenched the outdoor court at Chiclayo.

Both teams had qualified for the final round by beating Paraguay and France.

The Soviet girls, who won five straight exhibition games in the United States before coming to Peru, swept through their qualifying round at Tacna with easy victories over Brazil, Japan and Chile.

Stokes Jumps To Speedrome Lead

Dale Stokes rocketed to the lead in the standings at Red River Speedrome on Farm Road 369 with a 24-point gain Saturday night, but was being jostled in the top ten by at least three sets of brothers and others. Only 12 points separate the top nine drivers.

Stokes won the two feature races and points in a preliminary heat event to pickup 24 points and a season total of 31 points, while Ashlock, Bennett and Sosebee brothers crowded into the choice bracket with lesser gains as the racing season at Red River Speedrome swung into full bloom with more cars.

Claude Tanner, Wichita Falls racing promoter, said more drivers are registering each week and that Leon Cotton, last year's high point man, would return to the races here Saturday night. More than 40 speedy stock cars are expected at the Speedrome Saturday, Tanner said.

Tanner noted that figures show automobile racing draws the largest crowds of any sport and in 1963 showed an increase of 3,800,000 over 1962 for a paid attendance of 35 million. Racing fans are on the increase here, Tanner said, with the resulting purses higher for drivers in the racing events.

Leaders in the Speedrome Racing for the top ten places are as follows:

Dale Stokes 31; Larry Ashlock 28; Harold Bennett 25; Ronnie Sosebee 24; Cletus Sosebee 24; Bill Bennett 21; Burl Pace 21; Joe Wilson 19; Jack Ashlock 19; and Orville McWhorter 13.

Mays Needs Only 56 To Get Bonus

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — A Sacramento restaurant owner says he has offered Willie Mays, San Francisco Giants' slugging centerfielder, a $10,000 bonus if he hits 62 home runs this year.

And restauranteur Sam Gordon adds that Mays' fast start —six home runs in his first seven games—makes it look as if he may have to pay up.

WRESTLING

Hodge, Leone Set For Try At Ruskies

The most unlikely tag team companions in the world — Danny Hodge and Antone (Ripper) Leone — join forces and forget old feuds Thursday to try and wrestle the Southwestern Tag Team Championship away from Karol Krauser and Stanislaw Pulaski.

This main event set for the 4-H Arena, Hampstead Lane at 8:15 p.m. will be two of three falls with a NWA enforced 90 minute time limit.

Matchmaker Bob Clay and the American Legion, Post 466, announced Wednesday that Frankie Cain, a very prominent wrestler in his own rights, had been approved by both tag teams to referee the title bout.

In the past Krauser and Pulaski have been highly critical of the officiating and demanded a new referee before signing for the defense of their championship.

The Thursday evening semi-final battle will send undefeated Killer Pat Patterson, the New York state Champion, against Bennie Matta of San Antonio, Tex.

This joust will be two of three falls to a finish.

Two one fall warmups between tag teams will open the mat program at 8:15 p.m. with Hodge testing Krauser and Leone trying Pulaski.

Hodge, the world's junior heavyweight champion, was most leery of having to team with Leone, a man he has defeated four times in title defense, but agreed after obtaining Leone's word there would be no doublecross.

Said Leone, "I don't like Hodge and I feel I should hold his title, but this is a matter of American pride with us and we don't want two Russians, or what ever they are, stealing American championships.

"Danny and I are going to run them out of the country."

Tickets for the four feature program at the 4-H Arena are on sale at the cigar booth of the Kemp Hotel, or may be obtained at the arena from 6:15 p.m. until the title battle.

Russian Cagers Hand Yanks Second Setback

MOSCOW (AP)—The Russian national basketball team defeated the touring United States AAU team for the second straight time Wednesday night 79-60.

In the opening game of the eight-game U.S. tour of the Soviet Union Tuesday, the Russians won 82-65. That was the first time in seven years of U.S.-U.S.S.R. competition that the Americans had been beaten in Russia.

The game was played at the 14,000-seat Moscow Sports Palace before a capacity crowd. The home team led, 39-33 at the half.

Refereeing again were the two men — Elio Luglini of Italy and Hubert Jacobs of East Germany —who officated Tuesday night and were criticized by American team leaders.

Play was stopped several times when American players stepped up to the referees and angrily questioned their decisions.

Clifford Buck, head of the American delegation and vice-president of the American Amateur Athletic Union, disclosed he had discussed the referee situation with Russian officials before the game.

He told them that he felt the refereeing was "not up to the standards they provided in past years."

After the first game, Buck complained to American newsmen that the referees — especially Jacobs — was overlooking the Russian fouls.

Buck praised the hospitality his team has received here. "They've treated us extremely well," he said.

As for the Russian team, he described it as an "excellent club."

Buck said the American team "doesn't play as well as one that has been together as long as their team. They've been playing together for several years, but our boys only had five days practice.

The American team was made up after the Olympic try-outs in the United States. It contains five U.S. Olympic players, none of them college students.

Top american scorers were John C. McCaffrey, Akron, Ohio, 16; Jerry F. Shipp, Bartlesville, Okla., 11; and Richard A. Davies, Akron, Ohio, 8.

Top Russians were Alexander Petrov, 15, and Gennady Volnov, 14.

Emerson Takes Easy Victory In Dallas Meet

DALLAS (AP) — Roy Emerson and fellow Australian Ken Fletcher handily won their first round matches today in the Dallas Country Club Invitational tournament.

Emerson, former Davis Cup star and now the No. 2 ranked player in the world, downed Leo LaBorde Jr., a freshman at the University of Texas, 6-1, 6-2.

Fletcher defeated Stan Pasarell, a 15-year-old Dallas high school student, 6-1, 6-1.

Chuck McKinley, the world's No. 1 ranked player, meets Jack Jackson of Texas in one of the six men's singles matches set for tomorrow.

Karen Susman of San Antonio, the 1962 Wimbledon champ, meets Nancy Tenson of Dallas in one of the two women's singles matches.

Nancy Richey, the top seeded women's player, does not play until Friday.

Giant Slugger Hits 3 Homers, Ties A Record

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Willie McCovey, going into the game with an .080 batting average, hammered three home runs for San Francisco as the Giants spoiled Milwaukee's home opener before 38,693 fans with an 8-6 victory Wednesday.

McCovey's homers came in succession, off three different pitchers, tying the modern National League record. Bobby Lowe of the 1894 Boston Nationals, Lou Gehrig of the 1932 New York Yankees and Rocky Colavito of the 1959 Cleveland Indians, share the all-time major league record of four homers in succession in one game.

McCovey, now with four home runs this season, missed an opportunity for a fourth successive homer in the eighth inning when he was struck out by relief pitcher Billy Hoeft, a southpaw. His homers came off starter Denny Lemaster, a lefty, in the second inning, and Tony Cloninger and Phil Nierko, right-handers, in the third and fifth.

McCovey's power overshadowed a pair of homers by Milwaukee's Joe Torre, who helped drive former teammate Bob Hendley from the mound in the sixth.

A's, Cleveland Game Rained Out

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The final game of a two-game series between the Kansas City Athletics and Cleveland was rained out Wednesday night with the Indians batting in the second inning. The score was tied 1-1.

The Athletics scored in the first when Doc Edwards singled Wayne Causey home from second. Al Smith homered for the Indians with one out in the second.

The game will be rescheduled.

Twins Snap 3-Year Jinx With 7-6 Win

ST. PAUL - MINNEAPOLIS (AP) — Rookie reserve catcher Mike Brumley's passed ball with two out in the eighth inning gave the Minnesota Twins their winning run in a 7-6 triumph over Washington Wednesday.

Brumley's miscue enabled the Twins to snap a three-year jinx by winning their first home opener in Metropolitan Stadium.

Zoilo Versalles dashed home with the winning tally after he walked on a 3-2 count with two out and streaked to third on Bernie Allen's single to right center.

Pinch hitter George Banks struck out for the final out of the inning on the pitch following the passed ball.

The Senators had rallied to tie it in the top of the eighth on Bill Skowron's third home run of the year and Chuck Cottier's sacrifice fly.

Washington chased Twins starter Jim Kaat with a four-run burst in the first on Don Zimmer's double, singles by Chuck Hinton and Don Leppert, three walks and an error.

The Twins got one back in the first as rookie Tony Oliva hit his second major league home run, and then tied it in the second on Rich Rollins' three-run homer.

Minnesota got a 6-4 lead in the sixth when Don Mincher led off with a homer and Versalles singled, stole second and scored on Jim Perry's single.

Seymour May Press Ponies For Region 1 Track Crown

LUBBOCK—A duel in the hurdles between Pat Hubbard of Denver City and Leonard Peters of Seymour could have a definite bearing on the team championship in the Region 1-class AA track and field meet here Friday and Saturday.

Denver City is favored to capture the championship and Hubbard is a solid choice in the hurdles.

Denver City is a strong favorite for the team title. Seymour might make it interesting if Peters picks off a pair of first places in his duel with Hubbard, but the way things look the Panther ace is going to have a hard time breaking the tape.

Hubbard went 14.3 in the highs and 19.3 in the lows in the District 4-AA meet two weeks ago and has the best qualifying time in each event.

The Mustangs can look for more points from Hubbard in the pole vault and hope to score enough in the broad jump, discus, shot, 880-yard run and 100-yard dash to outdistance the field. They have excellent personnel in each of these events and appear capable of scoring 70 points.

Seymour can cut down on this figure and enhance its own chances for the title if Peters beats Hubbard in both hurdle races and Ronnie Bowman is able to take out Dickey Norman in the half-mile. Even under these circumstances the Seymour mile relay team—with Peters at the anchor—is going to have to really fly to pick up the 20 points that accompany first place. It's not impossible for the Panthers to make a close race for the overall title, but chances are slim.

There are three classes involved in this spring carnival that will determine state entries in track and field, golf and tennis. The class AA and A schools are collected from districts 1 thru 8. Class B representatives are drawn from 1 thru 12. Only district champions and runnersup are eligible for the affair.

In class A track and field, Seagraves and Big Lake are likely candidates for the team title, although the field is so evenly divided that there is no solid favorite.

Booker's Kiowas are rated as one of the top class B teams to ever come out of this region and should prove their mettle by taking the other team trophy in track and field. Boasting runs of 44.1 and 3:28.7 in the mile relay, they can count up 40 points quickly.

The little squad from the northern tip of the Panhandle also counts on Bill Hughes in the 220 (22.2), Jim Meier in the high hurdles (15.6) and Shayne Slovacek in the 440 (51.7). Depth—two entries in the 100, 220, 440, mile and high hurdles—makes the Kiowas overwhelming favorites.

Top 5, Region I AA

The Region 1 track and field meet at Lubbock Friday and Saturday includes three classes, AA, A and B. Class AA includes districts 1 thru 8.

The schedule: Friday — 9:30 p.m. prelims and finals class B field events; 10:30 prelims class A, AA field events; 1 p.m. prelims and running events all classes. Saturday — 9:30 a.m. finals AA, A field events; 1 p.m. finals, running events, all conferences.

Randall Defends Electra Crown In Weekend Play

ELECTRA, Tex. — Bill Randall of Wichita Falls will defend his crown at the 13th annual Jaycee Invitational golf tournament at the Electra Country Club beginning Friday.

Qualifying rounds will begin Friday and championship flight golfers will be shooting for a medalist trophy. Don Lancaster of Wichita Falls copped this honor last year.

Championship flight will play 27 holes of medal Saturday and Sunday while the other flights will play match. Winners, runners-up and consolation winner will receive trophies and merchandise certificates.

A ham supper for contestants and guests will be held after rounds Friday night at the club house.

NTS Hosts Meets Friday, Saturday

EDITOR'S NOTE — A list of the top times and distances in the Denton regional track and field meet were not available due to incomplete entry forms.

DENTON, Tex. (Special) — Regional spring meets involving 187 high schools are scheduled at North Texas State University Friday and Saturday.

Golf, tennis, and track and field championships will be determined in Regions II-AA, II-A and III-B.

Tennis matches will begin at 9 a.m. Friday and continue through Saturday. The 36-hole golf tournament will be held all day Friday on the North Texas course.

Some field event finals and track preliminaries begin at 9 a.m. Saturday with all finals to be completed during the afternoon session, starting at 1.

Regions II-AA and II-A represent Districts 9 through 16 with each classification having 47 schools. Region III-B lists 93 schools from Distriets 28-40.

Hirschi, Rider Try To Keep Skeins Alive

Hirschi seeks its fifth straight win and Rider is looking for its third straight as the two are Wichita Falls' only high schools in baseball action Thursday. Both are away from home.

The Huskies, 4-0 for the season and 2-0 in 9-AA district competition, take on Mineral Wells in a non-conference clash at 4 p.m. This is the first meeting of the two in baseball.

Rider, 2-1 for the season, has a rematch with Duncan at 7:30. The Raiders, who will enter 4-AAA competition Monday, downed the Demons 8-1 in Wichita Falls earlier this season.

Wichita Falls High School, 2-7 for the season and 1-1 in 4-AAAA play, is idle Thursday but hosts Grand Prairie Friday at 4 p.m. The Coyotes have beaten Richland Hills 4-1 and have lost to Arlington 1-4 in district action.

Hirschi will go with Billy Tanner on the mound. Tanner is seeking his third win with victories posted over Burkburnett and Bowie.

Rider expects to start David Casey who will be looking for win number one after being set back in the Raiders' opener by the Coyotes.

Getaway car.

Our getaway car is really a Volkswagen Campmobile. Any Standard Station Wagon, Kombi or Panel Truck we sell can be one. It's just a matter of getting one of our Campmobile Kits.

For instance, if you like super de luxe living, get our Super De Luxe Kit. Beds for four big people and two little people. Icebox. Two-burner stove. Running water. Dinette. Sink. Shower. And john.

There's even an upstairs.

Or if you prefer light housekeeping, get our Basic Kit. That way you can pick up things as you go along. Like a stove. Or icebox. Etc.

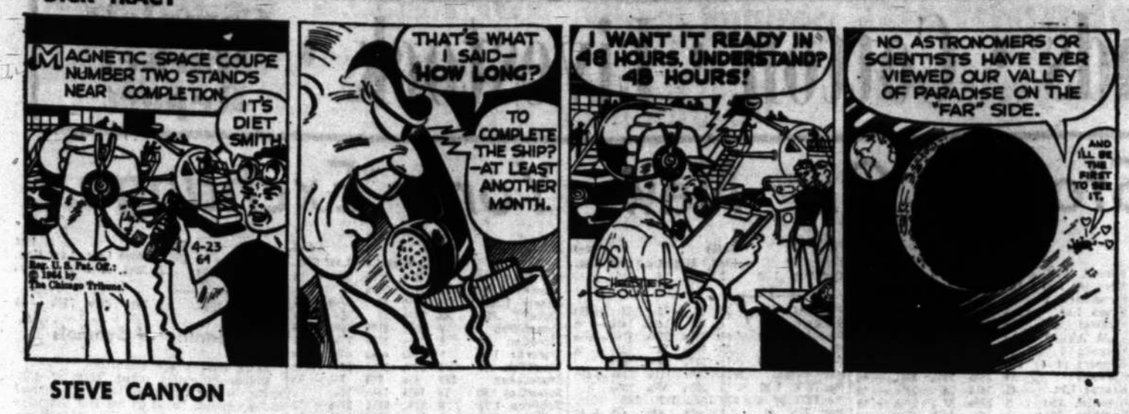

The nice thing about any of our Campmobiles is that when you return home (as if you'd ever want to), it will happily settle down and become itself again. All you have to do is remove the main components. (Once installed they can quickly be taken out or put back in.) And you have a Station Wagon, Kombi or Panel Truck again.

Suggestion: Take your next vacation in a Volkswagen Campmobile. It's a very moving experience.

Canadian Oil Stirs Excitement On Wall Street

NEW YORK (AP) —The discoveries of minerals and oils in Canada continued to provide most of the excitement on the stock market Wednesday but the over-all market trend was irregularly lower.

Trading was fairly active, with volume at 5.42 million shares.

Tex Gulf Sulphur, whose mineral strike near Timmins, Ontario, has sparked the latest speculative vogue in the market, was stronger than ever, touching a new high as it climbed 5⅜ to 45½ on 326,500 shares.

Curtis Publishing was second in volume, rising 1⅞ to 13½ on 179,200 shares. The Curtis land holdings near Texas Gulf's have been booming the stock.

Pacific Petroleums, which has holdings in the area of new discoveries of oil in Northern Alberta, rose 1½ to 12⅝. Canadian Pacific, which has land in the area, advanced 1½.

Aside from such selective strength, it was a spotty market. Rails moved irregularly higher even as a new phase of suspense heightened because of the Saturday deadline on a national railroad strike. The trend was generally lower among airlines, cigarette stocks, aerospace issues, steels, building materials and electrical equipments.

The Dow Jones industrial average declined 2.88 to 823.57.

Of 1,346 issues traded, 593 declined and 484 advanced. New highs for the year totaled 69 and new lows 24.

The Associated Press average of 60 stocks closed unchanged at 306.4 with industrials off .7, rails up .3 to a record high and utilities up .5.

Series Of Disorders Erupts At Opening Of World's Fair

By GEORGE W. CORNELL

NEW YORK (AP)—Clamorous racial protests created an atmosphere of commotion Wednesday at the opening of the New York World's Fair. Disorders erupted, one after another, in the mud and rain.

A threatened massive traffic blockade floundered ineffectually, but demonstrators swarmed the fairgrounds to proclaim their grievances and demands. At least 131 were arrested, sometimes after angry scuffles.

"Freedom now, freedom now," chanted throngs of Negroes and whites deployed throughout the array of exhibits.

Johnson Speaks

Their cries muffled the words of President Johnson, as he declared that the fair symbolizes efforts to achieve "a world in which all men are equal, in which all men are free."

Confronting him across a pool and police barricades, as he opened the U.S. Pavilion, was a chanting, rain-dampened group, holding aloft red-and-white signs demanding a "fair share."

Those arrested included James Farmer, national director of the Congress of Racial Equality which sparked the outpouring of sit-ins, stand-ins, lie-downs, gate-obstructing and picketing.

The tide of more than 1,000 demonstrators, hemmed about here and there by 5,000 city and private patrolmen, almost obscured the thin trickle of visitors—scarcely 50,000 by noon.

"Stall-In Flops"

However, the planned "stall-in" by dissident CORE factions to clog highway networks around the fair flopped. Traffic moved at a smooth speed, and the few stalled cars quickly were removed by waiting tow trucks.

"It was absolutely no problem at all," said Traffic Commissioner Henry Barnes.

But in and around the fair, and on the newly painted blue-and-silver subway coaches leading to it, commotions broke out in steady succession.

Some of the demonstrators struggled with police, as they were dragged off screaming, while companions shouted protests. Several were forcibly handled.

Russell Wants Probe

In Washington, Sen. Richard B. Russell, D-Ga., called on Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy and the Civil Rights Commission to investigate reports of beating of demonstrators in New York.

A variety of tactics were used by the demonstrators as they converged on the fair's main entrance, and a score of individual pavilions.

The mood and placards were stormy: "Justice Now" "First-Class Citizenship Now."

At one point, about 150 singing pickets joined hands and, in a long, solid line, strode forward along a 60-foot-wide pedestrian ramp to obstruct the row of turnstiles at the main entrance.

Police Form Line

Like counterattacking forces on a battlefield, police joined hands, forming their own line, and met the advancing rank almost nose-to-nose just short of the entrance booths.

Both halted uncertainly, for a moment. Then in the lull, just as it seemed the civil rights line was dispersing, shoving and pushing started, turning the scene into turmoil.

One man was seized by police, handcuffed and dragged off along the concrete, while others yelled in outrage. Two policemen were seen to fall in the surging confusion.

Flareups also occurred on subways approaching the fairgrounds, usually when demonstrators pulled emergency cords to halt trains, or sought to hold doors open to prevent trains from pulling out of stations.

City Trade Image Under Discussion

Hal Thompson, chairman of the retail trade center development group of the chamber of commerce, has resigned.

Thompson is moving to Amarillo, Tex., to manage a radio station.

In other business the group discussed the Wichita Falls trade image.

It was suggested that a character such as "Wichita Willie" with a proper slogan be established for the program.

GORDON McLENDON
Democratic Candidate
For U. S. Senator

- FOREIGN AID—Foreign aid should be withheld from all communist-dominated countries. Foreign aid should be maintained in those countries in which we have military bases. In other countries where any aid might be prudent, it should be mainly in the form of surplus agricultural products.
- NATIONAL DEBT—Government expenditures should be made only from current income in peacetime. An orderly program for retirement of the public debt should be initiated.
- FOREIGN AFFAIRS—The Monroe Doctrine should be firmly restated and upheld.

Vote for Gordon McLendon in the May 2 Primary and you'll be proud of your choice
