Suspicious Confirmed

I have often suspected that there are those in Amarillo who don't know that Silverton exists, but I had never considered the fact that we aren't even here! My suspicions were confirmed Monday evening when Dan True reported on TV that no snow was falling in the Panhandle. He went on to say that some had been falling at Tulsa, at Claude and at Clarendon.

I couldn't resist the temptation to look outside. Surely enough, it was still snowing, as it had been all through the day.

My suspicions had mounted due to the fact that the newspaper and TV stations never seem to notice us until tragedy occurs. Certainly they are not partial to our athletic district.

Guess my map of Texas needs to be revised. I could have sworn that we are in the Panhandle. Now it seems I am to believe that the Panhandle includes all of the territory of Texas north of Canyon. (And if WTSC were in Amarillo, they'd probably overlook Canyon.)

Moisture Report

Ray C. Bomar reports that from the snow which fell on Sunday he measured .16 of an inch of water; on Monday, we received .06 of an inch; and Monday night's snowfall netted us another .91 of an inch of moisture. This was a very wet snow, as the moisture total indicates.

The wheat, which already looks good, needed the moisture. A number of farmers had been irrigating and we're sure that they are very happy. Almost everyone had been hoping for a good rain, and this was the next best thing. Moisture is always welcomed in the spring by those who hate to see the dust whipping past.

The snow melted quickly and by Tuesday evening almost every trace had vanished. Temperatures have hovered just above the freezing point, and it was unbelievable that with all the snow on the ground, one could dash outside for a few minutes without getting a chill.

But that's the sort of weather we come to expect here in the "snow belt."

According to a recent survey, the average man in his lifetime spends twenty years working. He spends another twenty years sleeping, sixteen years playing, five years shaving and dressing, five years eating, and three years just waiting. In a lifetime the average man spends 8,760 hours telephoning, the equivalent of one full year.

Injured Man Is Returned Home

Bill Watters, 67, who was seriously injured in a fall on Monday of last week, was returned to his home by ambulance from the Plainview hospital Tuesday.

Watters' left hip was broken in three places and his left heel bone was also broken when he fell from a feed trailer on the Leon Martin farm three miles west of Silverton. A pin and other braces were placed in his hip Tuesday morning and a cast was placed on the broken heel later in the day.

Mrs. James Stevenson and Dawn Jasper were in Tulsa Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Alva Jasper have recently spent ten days in Hot Springs, New Mexico. They saw Haynes McClendon while there. They report that Haynes seems to be improving.

Owlets To Meet Sudan For Bi-District Title

W. E. SCHOTT IS APPOINTED COUNTY CHAIRMAN FOR JIM WRIGHT

Congressman Jim Wright has announced the appointment of W. E. Schott of Silverton as Chairman of Briscoe County in his campaign for United States Senator from Texas.

The naming of Schott to head the Briscoe County campaign activities for Congressman Wright adds even greater strength to a strong statewide organization, which embraces people from all walks of life.

In making public the names of his area leaders, Congressman Wright reiterated his promise that, if elected, he would be a Senator for ALL the people not owned by any group or faction.

"If I can't cast the Senator's vote," he stated, "I don't want to sit in the Senator's chair."

"I am in this race to win," he added, "and I expect to win."

"I will win by staying up later, getting up earlier, seeing more people, shaking more hands, making more speeches, and visiting more towns."

Official Memorandum

GREETINGS:

For each of the past 11 years Public School Week in Texas has been set aside as a special time to place increased emphasis on our educational system.

During this period, parents are encouraged to visit the public schools, and all citizens are urged through special programs to recognize the tremendous importance of our system of education. Our goal is to make Texas Public Schools the finest in the Nation, and to achieve this our citizens are urged to take an active interest in the school systems and to cooperate with their school boards, superintendents, principals and teachers.

Never before in our history has there been a greater need for educated leadership. As we rush to train young people in science and technology to keep pace with the world events, it is also important to remember that our public schools will furnish our leaders of tomorrow with the basic human, moral and spiritual foundations necessary for more advanced training and knowledge.

THEREFORE, I, as Governor of Texas, do hereby designate the period March 6—March 10, 1961, as PUBLIC SCHOOLS WEEK in Texas.

In official recognition whereof, I hereby affix my signature this 6th day of January, 1961.

Eta Chi Enjoys Valentine Social

The Eta Chi Sorority enjoyed a Valentine social at the Community room of the Production Credit Association building on Monday evening of last week. The Valentine theme was carried out in games played and refreshments. Coffee, sandwiches, pickles, olives and cookies were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Lindsey were hosts for the occasion.

Others who attended were Mrs. Riley Yates, Mr. and Mrs. Bern May, Mr. and Mrs. Olos Chitty, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Bingham, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond McJimsey, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McWilliams, Mr. and Mrs. Seymour Brannon, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Stafford and Mr. and Mrs. James Patton.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Wyly, Bill and James of Pierre, South Dakota, arrived here Friday evening of last week for a visit with her father, Bill Watters, Mrs. Watters and other relatives. They were overnight guests of her sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Crow and family Friday night, having visited Mr. Watters at the Plainview hospital earlier in the evening. They spent the weekend in Abilene and returned here for a longer visit.

Silverton's Owlets will meet the Sudan girls coached by Hank Brown, former Silvertonian, on February 28, 1961, in the Plainview High School Gymnasium. The game will begin at 8:00 p.m., and it is hoped that a large crowd of fans will be on hand to cheer the Owlets to victory.

The winner of this Bi-District Tilt will be awarded a berth in the Regional Tournament to be held in Lubbock.

OWLS, OWLETS SUFFER DEFEAT

The Silverton Owls went down to the Idalou Wildcat five by a 53-49 margin in a district title playoff held at Hale Center last Friday night. Larry West led the action for the Owls, scoring 23 points. Dave Schott made 9 points, while John Burson and Mike Mercer each had 7 points to his credit.

The Owls moved ahead of the Wildcats during the second period of play, but their lead was short-lived. The Wildcats led the Owls with from two to ten points throughout most of the game.

The teams played to a packed house of spectators from Silverton, Idalou, Hale Center, Lubbock and Cotton Center. This sudden death tie-breaker finished the season for the Owls, placing them second in this district.

Silverton's Owlets, Class A District Champions, suffered defeat at the hands of the well-coordinated Cotton Center girls, Class B District Champions, Jimmie Nell Reynolds led the Silverton squad with a big 57 points to her credit. Brenda Cornett and LaJuan Curby turned in good jobs at guard slots.

This was the first time the Owlets had met their match this season. The Cotton Center girls had a very smooth-working team and handled the ball very well.

Mr. and Mrs. Gregg To Celebrate Golden Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Gregg will celebrate their Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary on March 5, 1961, with Open House at their home. Guests will be received between the hours of 2:00 and 5:00 p.m.

All are invited to attend this Open House.

Happy 4-H Club Meets Tonight

The Happy 4-H'ers will meet in the community room of the Production Credit Association office building Thursday night. Time for the meeting has been set at 6:30.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. McJimsey returned home Thursday of last week from a week's visit with relatives in Oklahoma City. They attended the wedding of her niece while there.

Mrs. Elmer May took Mike to Plainview Saturday for medical attention.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hester have moved a new house into the Haylake community.

Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Shipman of Plainview were Sunday luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Thompson and family.

Funeral Services Honor Memory of Miss Emma Force

Funeral services for Emalonia (Miss Emma) Force, were held in Crozier-Pearson Funeral Home in Cleburne Wednesday, at 1:30 p.m. Interment was in Green Acres Memorial Park in Cleburne.

Miss Force, of 1204 South Hillsboro Street, Cleburne, was born March 1, 1872, in Hope, Arkansas. She died in a Cleburne hospital Monday, February 20, 1961. Miss Force underwent surgery and treatment for a malignancy a few months ago, and apparently recovered satisfactorily, but seemed to grow weaker and was taken to the hospital about three weeks before her death.

Miss Emma moved with her parents, the late Mr. and Mrs. John W. Force, to the Highland Community near Cleburne, Johnson County, Texas, at an early age. She moved with her brother, P. B. Force, to Floyd County in 1930, and a few years later they moved to Silverton where they made their home until last August, when they returned to Cleburne to be near relatives due to their advancing ages and her failing health.

Miss Force was united with the New Hope Baptist Church near Cleburne when a child and was a member of the local First Baptist Church during the time she resided in Silverton. Since moving to Cleburne, she had been unable to attend church because of her health.

Miss Emma was very active for her age and was a great lover of children. She seemed to get her greatest pleasure from the small children in her neighborhood. She was never happier than when contributing to their happiness in some way. She has been a kind and thoughtful neighbor and a loving and dutiful sister, and was ever cheerful and kind to those around her.

She is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Maude Anderson and Mrs. Sallie Prater, Cleburne; five brothers, P. B. and Frank of Cleburne, John W., of Dallas, Lem C. of Midwest City, Oklahoma, and Jim H. of California; several nieces and nephews and a host of friends.

Quarterly Conference To Meet Sunday

There will be a called session of the Quarterly Conference Sunday, February 26th, at 3:00 p.m. for the purpose of passing a building resolution and to elect a Building and Finance Committee to continue plans passed by the Official Board looking to the erecting of a new parsonage. Dr. J. E. Shewbert, District Superintendent from Plainview, will preside.

"42" Party Enjoyed In Turner Home

A "42" Party was enjoyed in the home of Mrs. J. C. Turner recently. It was also a surprise birthday party for Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis.

Many nice gifts were received, and several sent gifts who were unable to attend the party. Those who attended were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Davis and boys, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Mercer of Lockney, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Parker and children, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Garvin, Mr. and Mrs. Jeff Davis, Mr. and Mrs. Speedy McKinney, Butch and Ruby Norris.

Mrs. Flora Payne of Quitaque and her mother, Mrs. Martha Hawthorne of Memphis, visited in the Luke Thompson home on Wednesday afternoon. Mrs. Payne is Luke's cousin and Mrs. Hawthorne is his aunt.

SCHEDULED AT LOCAL CHURCH LEADERSHIP SCHOOL IS

A Leadership School offering work in the various departments of the church school except the Adult Division will begin Monday evening, February 27, and will continue through Wednesday evening, March 1. The school will be under the leadership of the Commission on Education and chartered by the General Board of Education of the Methodist Church.

The courses and teachers are: Pre-School Children, Mrs. Harold Secord; Primary, Mrs. J. E. Shewbert; Junior boys and girls, Mrs. Orville Ford; and Methodist Youth Fellowship, Mrs. Jack Riley.

All members of the church are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to learn more of what the church is trying to accomplish with its Children and Youth. All adult workers in this area from other churches are welcome to attend.

Mrs. Jack Riley writes that she will offer leadership training for both adult leaders and the youth themselves in her course. Both the Intermediate and Senior youth will be included in this course.

Nurseries will be provided for any who have children and desire to attend the school.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Wellman and family of Gruver, visited Mr. and Mrs. Bud Couch and Darrell Glenn Saturday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn McWilliams. Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Howard of Hale Center, were Sunday visitors with the Couch and McWilliams families. Mrs. Wellman is the mother of Mr. Couch; Mmes. Howard and McWilliams are sisters.

OFFICIAL HIGHWAY TRAVEL MAP OF TEXAS NOW AVAILABLE IN AUSTIN

The 1961 Texas Official Highway Travel Map — with "Over 60,000 Miles of Motoring Pleasure" as its theme — is now available to the general public.

Free copies of the new Texas motoring map may be obtained by writing the Texas Highway Department, P. O. Box 5064, Austin, or at highway district offices and travel bureaus. County tax offices have many cards on hand for requesting copies of the map.

Multilane divided highway miles now completed and charted on the map total 2,067 miles, and include the finished sections of the seven National System of Interstate and Defense Highways located in the state. More than 350 farm-to-market and ranch-to-market road miles have been added to this year's map. Approximately 20,000 miles of the state's nearly 34,000-mile Farm-to-Market Road System are shown on the map. All of the 26,857 miles of Interstate, U.S. and State highways are shown.

Roadside parks having full picnic facilities are marked on the map with a green dot—830 in all on the new 1961 map. A total of 52 State Parks are also shown, their location indicated by a green triangle. Two new recreational State Parks have been added to this year's map — Eisenhower State Park at Denison, and Atlanta State Park at Atlanta.

Major lakes and reservoirs are shown on the map as well as countless rivers, creeks and streams.

Cities and towns on the map total 1,827. City route maps for the state's dozen largest cities are also included—Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston, Lubbock, San Antonio, Waco, and Wichita Falls.

Panoramic Texas stretches out on the reverse side of the map in 14 full-color photographs which give a glimpse of the car-window views along the more than 60,000 miles of the Texas Highway System.

A section entitled "Facts About Texas" boils down the essential data on Texas' terrain, history, and industrial and recreational diversity.

More than half a million Official Highway Travel Maps of the 1960 edition have been distributed—in-state, out-of-state, and to dozens of foreign countries. Out-of-state and foreign - country requests continue an upward climb as Texas becomes more and more well-known as a tourist state.

The map is also used by all state and governmental agencies in the state for determining official highway distances, mileages, zones and like information.

THE LORD'S WAY

The Bible speaks of "the faith", "the gospel" and "the church" just as it speaks of the hope, the light, the way and the Christ. Bible students know it is just as erroneous to speak of "your" faith and "my" faith implying different faiths as it is to speak of "your" Christ and "my" Christ implying different Christs. There is only one of each.

According to the Bible there is one faith (Ephesians 4:5), one gospel (Gal. 1:8, 9) and one body, the church (Ephesians 4:4; Col. 1:18). Sinners accepted the one faith, believed the one gospel and were added to the one church.

The Bible system of faith did not originate with men. It came from God through Christ (Hebrews 1:1,2). And the gospel did not come from men (Gal. 1:11,12). And one church did not come from men. The Lord promised His church (Matt. 16:18; Rom. 16:16), and gave Himself to purchase it (Eph. 5:25; Acts 20:28).

But things have changed since the days of the apostles. Today good people accept this change as right and proper not realizing that in so doing they do not have God's approval. Therefore they speak of many faiths and many churches not realizing that such is foreign to the New Testament.

What must be done to have God's approval? We must accept the Bible for what it claims to be, the Word of God (1 Thess. 2:13). We must preach the one gospel the apostles preached. We must obey the truth and it alone. Upon doing so we will be just Christians. The Lord immediately adds every saved person, every Christian, to His church (Acts 2:38, 41, 47). The church then must be the New Testament church in doctrine and practice. Otherwise it is nothing more than an apostate body accepting some truth accepting some truth but condemned for teaching some doctrines which are commandments of men. (Matt. 15:9).

Therefore this is a plea for all to accept God's way. Only when we recognize the truth on these matters will we come to understand and appreciate the Bible when it speaks of the faith, the way and the church. We will come to see then the New Testament teaching in behalf of the one way taught by Jesus and the apostles and the one system of faith to be preached to all the world.

You are invited to the Silvertown Church of Christ.

A Date With Darla

I was so busy last week and this week that I had very little time to write my editorial. We were busy getting ready for the Sweetheart Banquet. Everyone took part in the preparations and I think that we turned out a beautiful and successful banquet. Of course, we couldn't have done it without the help of our mothers and Mrs. Miller.

The homemaker III girls prepared the food with the help of the mothers. The menu consisted of baked ham, tossed salad, green beans, baked potatoes, lemon pie, hot rolls, tea and coffee.

The Sophomore and Junior girls fixed the decorations, and the Freshmen cleaned the study hall.

Actually, everyone did a little of everything and everyone helped with the cleaning.

The banquet started at seven o'clock. After the delicious meal, we were entertained by the Moon Discs of Floydada. We all enjoyed them and we want them to come back and play for us again. A prom was held immediately after the banquet. In all, I think the students had a wonderful time, and we are looking forward to the next Sweetheart Banquet.

This week, as you all know, is the fourth six weeks. I have been studying every spare minute and I know everyone else has. I want to wish all of the students luck on their tests.

You Can Get Better Grades—No. 3
TO MASTER TOUGH LESSONS,
USE 3-TIMES OVER SYSTEM

by Leslie J. Nason, Ed. D.
with Harry Karns

Much of the knowledge you are expected to absorb must be obtained through reading.

But here's a very sad fact: Much of what nearly everybody reads evaporates quickly from his memory.

In today's chat, we are going to give you a plan which will help anchor in your mind a large part of what you read so it will be there ready for use when needed.

The outcome of reading by haphazard methods is so bad that we sometimes wonder why people bother at all. Tests have shown that a so-called good reader can get 20 per cent of the ideas in an article in the first reading, but that a week later little of the information remains lodged in his mind.

You'll never be able to plug all the holes in this sieve called the human brain. But you can plug up many of them if you go about it in the right way.

George told us he couldn't answer questions on tests to the satisfaction of his teacher. We took a look at his papers. They revealed that George wasn't getting or retaining precise meanings from his textbook.

Our advice to George was simple. Here we suggest it to you as a general pattern for your reading. In a later article, we will go into greater detail.

Read your assignments three times, as follows:

One, skim through the entire assignment to get a general idea of what the chapter is about.

Two, keep this general idea in mind and read the assignment again with the aim of fitting the information and that idea together.

Three, having fitted the bit idea and the information together in a main pattern, read for details and exact meanings and associate them with the proper larger items in the general outline.

Thurman Wade, the speed-reader we told you about in the first article, compares reading with the working of a jigsaw puzzle.

"You don't progress very fast if you scatter the pieces on the table and try to fit them together by trial and error.

"The smart jigsaw puzzler first takes a good look at the picture on the box. Is it a landscape? Then he sees that the blue pieces are going to fit into the sky and the green pieces into the trees, and that spotted pieces represent the grazing cow.

"He conditions himself to what is coming, and he's ready to work the puzzle. It's the same with reading. You have to get that big idea before you can fit the reading material into its correct perspective."

But what about our hero, George?

George practiced reading by the three steps described above for ten days. He then took another test.

At the end of George's paper the professor wrote:

"Good, at last you've learned to think precisely."

Hitting on All 10
George, who had been earning D's up to this point, received a grade of "B" for the semester. He had learned to use his entire thinking space while reading. Few persons use their brains to full capacity.

Of the brain's conscious thinking space only one-tenth (just a hall closet, nothing more) is needed to listen to the actual words said by a speaker. What happens to the rest of the floor space?

It doesn't just stand vacant. Something moves in. The space is filled from some source, from the sights and sounds around you, from the radio, the TV, the honking of cars in the street.

It may be occupied by feelings of hunger, frustration or weariness. Thoughts of ambition or resentment may be there. It may be filled with apprehension, fear, worry or a jumble of all these things.

You should—and you can—fill in those improperly filled spaces with thoughts of your own choosing and employ them in definite and appropriate tasks of learning.

Thus, reading should be done against some background of purpose. If it is, full attention can be focused on the assignment at hand and an efficient use made of time.

Summary:
1. Read to get the purpose, the big idea, the general picture.
2. Read again to fit the material into that picture.
3. Read for details and exact meanings.

DINOSAURS

by Lester Grabbe

—An English I Theme

About 130 million years ago, the Dinosaur Age was considered at its height. They were supposed to have lived for 120 million years in all. Let us go back in time and see some of the different dinosaurs.

The largest dinosaur was probably the Brontosaurus. He was a vegetarian and spent most of his life in water. He was about sixty feet long and weighed fifty tons!

The Trachodon walked on its hind legs rather than on all four feet. He also lived near water and ate water plants. He probably used the water as a means of escape from the meat eating dinosaurs. He was about thirty feet long and weighed about ten tons.

The Stegosaurus carried huge plates along his backbone to defend himself. He had four spikes on his tail for the same purpose. He had a tiny brain. He was a vegetarian and was about twenty feet long and weighed ten tons.

The Triceratops, as its name implies, had three horns. Fossils show that the males fought each other. It was about twenty feet long and about eight feet high. It weighed about ten tons.

The ancestor of the Triceratops was the Protoceratops. He was only about six feet long. He had no horns. The first dinosaur eggs were found in the Gobi Desert by Roy Chapman Andrews in 1922. They were nine inches long and had tiny, unhatched baby dinosaurs inside.

The Dimetrodon was one of the earliest dinosaurs. He was about ten feet long and carried a tall sail on his back. The sail is still a puzzle to scientists. He was carnivorous. His remains have been found mainly in Texas.

The Allosaurus and the Tyrannosaurus were the two most fearsome creatures of that age. They were both meat eaters. The Allosaurus was thirty feet long and the Tyrannosaurus were fifty feet long. The Tyrannosaurus was the most destructive creature to live.

The Pteranodon was one of the few flying dinosaurs. He lived on fish. He had a twenty-five foot wingspan but weighed only thirty pounds. He was one of the last dinosaurs to live.

Deep in gloom over prospects of his business, he told friends, "The thing that worries me most is that I can't eat—I haven't touched a bite in the last two days."

"Well, keep me company at lunch, anyway," urged the friend who was hopeful that, once in the restaurant, he could at least persuade him to take enough nourishment for survival.

To his astonishment, the very gloomy fellow ordered an inch-thick steak and several heaped side-dishes.

"I thought you couldn't eat," said the friend.

"Couldn't," came the reply, "I'm broke."

STUDENT COUNCIL BUYS

SHRUBBERY FOR SCHOOL

Last Thursday afternoon Mr. LaRue Hughes, nurseryman from Kress, set out 23 plants that had been ordered earlier by the Silverton Student Council. Eleven Japonicas, eight Nandinas, and four Honeysuckle vines were planted in front of the High School Building.

One of the yearly projects of the Student Council is the beautification of the school and surrounding grounds. Last year the group bought the plants that are in front of the Gymnasium. Plans for the future include more shrubs for the gym as well as some for the grade school building.

The total cost of this year's project was $57. The members of the Student Council have worked hard in order that finances are available for such projects as this. Mrs. Miller, Sponsor, and the group are to be commended for the wonderful work done by the Silverton Student Council.

SMALL TOWNS

An English Theme

by Larry Elms

Some people think that large cities are ideal, but it seems to me that if they ever lived in a small town they would change their minds. I know that some 30 million people live in our large cities, but they don't know what they miss by living in a small town. Of course, there are advantages of living in a large city but none of these advantages are worth more than living in a small town.

In a large city you have access to almost everything which you might need, and in a small town you sometimes don't always get what you want without ordering it. The small town gossip and everybody else has its disadvantages, but all in all it is usually in a friendly and courteous attitude. In a town like Silverton where everybody in some way or the other is kin to everybody in the town, it is not a very good idea to talk about anyone.

The neighbors in a large city usually do not know each other very well and, consequently, do not get along with each other very well. The neighbors of a small town have more things in common like their children playing with each other and going to school with each other. The neighbors in a large city usually do not know each other very well. The neighbors of a small town have more things in common like their children playing with each other and going to school with each other.

The children of a large town usually do not have enough to do. You hear of cases of juvenile delinquency, but the small town children can usually get a job and make himself useful during spare time. If a child goes to a small school, I think he will have a better chance of doing better than the children of a larger town since there are not so many in the classes where the teacher can give closer instruction. Of course, in a larger school there are more subjects given and greater competition. In a small group or neighborhood activities are of great importance to a small town since nearly everyone wants to take part in them or they are interested in them. The people of a large town cannot always take part in the big city activities or organizations. Everyone of a small town likes to take part in some community project like that of the Silverton swimming pool. All in all, the environment of a small town helps the people and children growing up in it to develop a better personality and living standard.

Doris Estes

Doris Estes is a person whom you appreciate more as you know her better. She is quiet and unassuming, but she is a good worker, a good student, and a very dependable person. Doris enjoys sewing and likes to enter sewing contests. At present she is making a party dress to enter in the Vogue Pattern Contest. She will represent the Century of Progress Study Club in the high school division.

In 4-H Club work as well as in FFA, Doris has really excelled. She has been a member of the FFA since her Freshman year. She was president her junior year and is vice-president this year. She is also Area I recording secretary. She hopes to receive her state degree this year. Her interest in these activities has helped Doris to decide that she wants to major in Home Economics in College.

Doris' grade average in high school is 92, and she has been an excellent representative, assistant editor, and editor of the school yearbook, THE OWLET. This is a task that requires much careful work as well as the ability to organize and to keep the entire staff working.

Last year Doris entered the one-act play contest and was in the Junior Play in addition to her other activities; she made the honor roll part of the year.

We repeat, Doris bears acquaintance. To know her is to love and admire her.

FACTS THAT MAY SHOCK YOU

More money is spent by the United States on one battleship than is contributed by all religious groups for foreign missions in one year.

Thirty billion dollars is spent annually for gambling in the United States.

Twenty billion dollars is spent for crime each year.

One hundred, seventy-five million dollars is spent on dog food while only 130 million is spent for missions.

Americans spent seventy million dollars on parakeets in 1958.

One and three-tenths per cent of American income is spent for religious purposes — five and six-tenths per cent, for recreation.

According to J. Edgar Hoover, we spend, as a nation, about $750 on pleasures for every one dollar given to missions.

America spends ten times more on its chewing gum alone than it does on its missionary effort.

Americans spend 45 million dollars more on dog food every year than in speeding the gospel to the half of the world that is in total darkness!

Communists spend three billion, four hundred million dollars on printed propaganda each year, enough for every man, woman, and child living to have four or more pieces.

It took from Adam until 1830 A. D. for world population to reach one billion. By the year 1965, there will be three billion people living in our world. By year 1980, four billion people are expected to be living in the world. The end of the century will see six billion souls living on the earth.

Every twenty-four hours the total of world population grows by 135 thousand. Each year, it increases by about 50 million — the equivalent of adding an entire nation.

Seniors To Be Featured Each Week

Beginning this week, the OWLS HOOT will start the regular feature of running the pictures of two of the seniors of the 1961 graduating class along with a short sketch of their high school careers each week until school is out. Each member of the graduating class will be featured; however, the order in which they appear is not necessarily in order of their rank scholastically in their class.

MEET THE SENIORS

Joe Anderson

Joe Anderson is a senior any high school would be happy to have enrolled. His grade average is 91.6. One wonders when he finds time to study as he enjoys so many extra-curricular activities. Joe has considered several careers. He spent one summer working with an uncle who is a civil engineer to find out more about that work. He has visited and talked with people in various professions, and at the present time is thinking seriously of the medical profession.

When a freshman, Joe was class president; he played football; he was an FFA member and was on the Quiz Team. As a sophomore, Joe's activities increased. He was on the Student Council, played basketball in addition to football and also came out for track events.

He entered the Number Sense contest, and was on the Senior Chapter Conducting Team for FFA. Joe was a member of the Livestock Judging and Radio Broadcasting Teams in FFA, and won the coveted award of Lone Star Farmer. He was outstanding as an actor in the one-act play contest.

Perhaps the way that Joe has helped the school most is his work in the Student Council. He was vice-president last year and is President this year. His good attitude and friendliness make him a leader who is able to secure the cooperation of most of the student body and also the faculty.

Communism was started in 1903 by Lenin who established Bolshevism in Russia with about seven million followers. In 1917, with forty thousand followers, he established Communism in Russia. In 1956 it was estimated that there were 900 million under the domination of Russia, and in 1973, the Russians claim that they expect to have world domination.

Someone has estimated that over forty square miles of territory is being absorbed by the Communists every hour according to the pattern set in 1956.

If the people of China were to march past a given point four abreast, the line would never cease. A new generation would have grown up by the time the old one passed.

THIRD GRAD ENEWS

Mrs. Hinds

We are writing our own news now. Thurman May is Editor this week and the rest of us are reporters. We think this will help us in English.

Our Valentine Party was lots of fun. We had it from 2:30 to 3:30 Tuesday. Our room was all decorated. We each had our own mail sacks we decorated. Shirley Maples name was drawn for Queen of Hearts and Dale Welch for King of Hearts. We made them pretty crowns. Mrs. Rackley, Mrs. J. E. Minyard, Mrs. Love and Mrs. eBan served us heart cookies and cokes. We all clapped to thank them.

We are making books about Great Americans for February. We have Franklin, Lincoln and Edison in the books now.

Several have been sick this week: Jerry Bean, Shirley Maples and Lynn Smith.

Our front bulletin board is about our flag and what it means. We have learned red is for bravery, white is for purity, and blue is for loyalty.

We got our class pictures this week. We saw slides in science about gravity. We learned a lot.

How to own a dozen Savings Bonds by this time next year

Can you spare 11c an hour?

If you put that much into U.S. Savings Bonds each work hour during the coming year, you'll own 12 Bonds worth $300 at maturity.

Millions have found the way. The effortless way to save is the Payroll Savings Plan where you work. More than 8 million Americans use the Plan for new homes, college degrees, vacations, and countless other rewards for saving.

All it takes to join is one visit to your payroll clerk. From then on he sets aside each payday whatever amount you say, buys your Bonds, and gets them to you.

*Fast growth,
guaranteed values.*

Today's Series E Savings Bonds are guaranteed to grow faster than ever. Your money grows 33 1/3% in 7 1/4 years, and 93% in 17 1/4 years. You can get your money with interest anytime you want it. If your Bonds are destroyed or lost, you get new ones free. And every Bond you buy is a share in a stronger America.

Doesn't this sound like a pretty good buy for 11c an hour? Why not ask your payroll clerk to begin your plan next payday?

Half the size, but bigger than ever. The Savings Bonds you buy today are less than half as big as the first ones issued in 1941. Yet they earn 3 1/4% interest—more than ever before.

Jacobs - Richmond Vows Exchanged In Pretty Ceremony

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Welch near Silverton was the scene Friday of the wedding of Miss Mary Jane Jacobs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jacobs, to Mr. Lonnie D. Richmond of Turkey.

Earl Cantwell, minister of the Rock Creek Church of Christ, officiated at the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with cysanthemums and greenery, flanked by candelabra.

Miss Lana Davis, of Floydada, offered traditional wedding selections at the piano.

Miss Jane Brooks was maid of honor. She wore a beige dress of silk organza and carried a bouquet of white cysanthemums.

Best man was Mr. Jack Bell of Turkey, and Richard Marler, cousin of the bride, lighted the candles.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore an ice blue dress of silk organza over taffeta. Her shoulder length veil was attached to a matching velveteen hat. She carried a bouquet of red sweet-heart roses atop a white Bible.

A reception was held immediately following the ceremony. Presiding at the serving table were Misses Pamela Kay and Sandra Lynn Marler. Guests were registered by Miss Lou Brannon.

After a short wedding trip, the couple are at home in Turkey.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding included Mr. and Mrs. E. D. Richmond and Ronnie and Mrs. Elmer Richmond, Turkey; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Marler and girls, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Jacobs, Sherry Jacobs, James Jacobs, of Plainview; Miss Mary Ellen McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Lee Seymour, Mac and David, Mrs. Leon McCracken, Mr. and Mrs. Boone McCracken, Quitaque; Mr. and Mrs. Orville Marler, Richard, Sandra, Steve and Bob, Floydada.

Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Watkins and daughters of Amarillo, were recent weekend guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bud McMinn. Other Sunday dinner guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gaston Owens and Eddie of Quitaque, and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ledbetter. Eural Vaughan called in the afternoon.

Refreshments of sandwiches, fruit, ice cream, cookies, hot chocolate and cokes were served.

Plot plan of Texas Under SIX FLAGS, 105 acre entertainment center now under construction in the heart of the Dallas-Fort Worth area. Based on Texas under six regimes, and costing $10,000,000, Six Flags is scheduled to open in August 1961, and will be the Southwest's greatest family entertainment center.

A LETTER FROM H. G. WELLS

To the People of the 89th District

For the next few months your lives and those of your children and grandchildren will be molded to some extent by the 57th Legislature now convened in Austin. We often lose sight of the obvious fact that legislatures vitally affect our daily lives. The group of legislators who assembled in Philadelphia in 1776 profoundly affected each of our lives today. The same can be said of that group of Texans who in the 1830's declared Texas to be independent from Mexico. No one can accurately assess the tremendous effect of this action of those men upon the life you lead in 1961.

The same can be said of every legislature. If you are a smoker you probably have become adjusted, perhaps painfully, to the added 5c per pack that you shell out daily for that pack of cigarettes. The last legislature is still affecting your life, at least to the tune of that 5c per day. Of course the last legislature affects your livelihood, your daily routine, in many other ways.

The legislature now convened will also affect your daily lives for the years to come. For better or for worse, one thing is certain: your life will never again be exactly the same. During the weeks to come I hope you will follow carefully with me the issues before this legislature. There will be many which will interest you. This paper has graciously agreed to publish my weekly letter to you in which I hope to explain my views on current issues before us.

After 21 days, the House of Representatives is still in the process of organization. The fact that we have not as yet organized and come to grasp the great issues which face us is due largely to the manner in which we select our Speaker of the House.

In Texas, this office is selected by secret ballot of the membership of the House on the opening day of the session. He then is charged with naming the permanent committees of the House. Each bill that is introduced in the House is referred by the Speaker to one of these committees and generally must be reported from that committee favorably in order to become law. Herein lies the Texas Speaker's unique and vast powers. The power to name the committees, coupled with the power to refer bills to the committees, gives him strong powers in determining the success of proposed legislation.

He may, for instance, name a State Affairs committee, made up predominantly of city members who are generally unfavorable to the rural electric cooperatives. When a bill favorable to the co-op is introduced, he may refer it to the State Affairs committee. The result is simple: the bill faces great odds against being passed into law.

Because of the powers of this office, the race for Speaker has become a lengthy, highly pressurized, financially extravagant political sideshow. Candidates enter the race as much as three or four years prior to the day of balloting. Frequently they campaign actively and full time for a full year prior to the secret ballot. Pressure groups and their lobbyists are keenly interested in the race and take an active part in persuading members to give their written pledge of their support to the candidate most favorable to that particular group. Unlike other political races, contributions to the candidates for Speaker are not required to be reported. One candidate for Speaker reported publicly that he had spent over $30,000 in his race.

Finally, the race is decided on the first day of the session and the newly elected Speaker, with no time to adjust to the office, begins his term by naming the all-important committees. Generally, in naming his committees, he takes care of those members and groups supporting him.

Reforms in selecting our Speaker are badly needed. As with other political races in Texas, contributions should be required to be reported. Money received and spent by the candidates should be accounted for publicly. The race should be concluded at a date early enough to allow time for organization of the House prior to the beginning of the session. These innovations would result in savings of time and money as organization would be complete on the day the session begins. There is a movement within the House to reform the method of our selection of a Speaker. It has my full support.

While the session is in progress, it will be my aim to inform you of the issue before us and to seek your thinking on them. In order to be available to you as much as

Ralph Yarborough Newsletter

Dear Fellow Texans:

Within a few weeks nearly 150,000 needy Texans, mainly the families of men who cannot find jobs, will be able to secure the food required for a balanced diet.

Faced with rising unemployment, President Kennedy did not waste a day in striking at hunger and malnutrition in America. His first executive order was that the surplus food being given to needy persons be supplemented in order that all those drawing such help could receive enough for minimum nutritional requirements.

Texas Public Welfare Officials inform me that 68 counties and cities in our state were distributing surplus food packages to some 137,000 Texan at the end of the year 1960. What's more, with above normal seasonal unemployment it is expected that surplus food packages will be needed for several thousand more Texans in the next few weeks.

Latest state employment figures which are for November, show there were 25,600 people hunting jobs in Houston, 33,450 in the Dallas-Fort Worth area, and 7,650 were looking for work in the Beaumont-Orange-Port Arthur vicinity. Total unemployment in Texas as in November was 184,300, the highest for that month since the 1930's, according to reports by the Texas Employment Commission. It is estimated that nationwide unemployment is now approximately 5½-million.

President Kennedy has made it clear that his Administration is planning to do everything possible to work with members of the possible, I will be in my district every possible weekend. I would be delighted to have you contact me at Austin or in Tulsa. You may address your letters to H. G. Senate and the House to start programs which will as he says, "start America moving again." All of us recognize the great challenge before us to help build an economy where every man can earn for himself and his family the basic necessities of life — food, clothing, shelter, medical care and education.

But while we search for new programs to help broaden employment and increase our national productivity, it is entirely fitting that we immediately move to alleviate hunger and malnutrition for families of those without work, the needy senior citizens, and other unfortunates.

Mrs. Shirlene Woods and her cousin, Mike Baird, transacted business in Vigo Park this week.

Mrs. John Grisham of El Paso, was a weekend visitor with Mr. and Mrs. John Gill and children. The group spent Sunday in Canyon with Mrs. R. E. Gill.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Hardin and his uncle, Charlie Hardin, of San Diego, California, were guests of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Thomas, and other local relatives from Thursday until Monday. On Sunday the party were dinner guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Odell Johnston and sons in Quitaque. Other guests included Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Shockley of Memphis; Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Smith and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Hester and family, Mr. and Mrs. Grover Thomas and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Sonny Thomas and children.

Mrs. Wylie Bomar, Sr. returned home on Thursday of last week after having spent several days in Lubbock with Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bomar and daughters and Mr. and Mrs. Noble Lyde and daughters.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Comer and family were Sunday visitors with relatives in Lubbock.

Lt. Pat L. Northcutt attended the National Guard alert in Canyon on Sunday.

Mrs. U. D. Brown, Mrs. Lois Smithee and J. D. Nance visited U. D. Brown, a patient at the VA Hospital in Amarillo on Sunday. They found him improving some after having been a patient there for a week. They also visited the family of Lee eDavenport at Northwest Texas Hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Kitchens visited her brother, Lee Deavenport, at Northwest Texas Hospital in Amarillo Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Francis of Plainview, were Sunday visitors with Mrs. J. E. Patton and James Alan at the Lockney hospital. Several local friends and relatives visited the Patton family at the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. Berlin Gardner of Amarillo and his mother, Mrs. V. R. Gardner of Tulsa, visited Mr. R. M. Hill Sunday afternoon.

Texas Day Program Scheduled For March 2

The March of Time Study Club will meet March 2, 1961, at 3:00 p.m. for their Texas Day program. The meeting will be in the home of Mrs. W. E. Schott, Jr., with Mrs. R. L. Hill as hostess.

Mrs. Schott Is Study Club Hostess

The regular meeting of the March of Time Study Club was held in the clubroom on Thursday, February 16, with Mrs. W. E. Schott, Jr., as hostess.

The invocation was given by Mrs. G. W. Lee, Jr. followed by a short business meeting conducted by the President, Mrs. Alvie Mayfield.

The program committee for the 1960-1961 club year was appointed by Mrs. Ben Whitfill, the President-elect. They are Mrs. G. W. Lee, Jr., Mrs. W. E. Schott, Jr., and Mrs. Marvin Montague.

The program topic for the meeting was Silverware. Mrs. D. T. Northcutt told of the "Charm and Simplicity of Early American Silver." Mrs. Conrad Alexander gave "Vignettes of Colonial Silver-smiths" and Mrs. Ben Whitfill told of the "Modern American Silver and Silversmiths."

Those present for the meeting were Mrs. Rex Dickerson, Mrs. True Burson, Mrs. Ben Whitfill, Mrs. W. E. Schott, Jr., Mrs. Alvie Mayfield, Mrs. G. W. Lee, Jr., Mrs. R. L. Hill, Mrs. Tony Burson, Mrs. T. T. Crass, Mrs. Fred Mercer, Mrs. D. T. Northcutt, Mrs. Conrad Alexander, Mrs. J. S. Hinds, Miss Anna Lee Anderson, Mrs. Clarence Anderson, and Mrs. J. W. Lyon, Jr.

Jehovah's Witnesses Conclude Meeting

Jehovah's Witnesses' 20-Congregation meet at Levelland was concluded Sunday when the District Overseer, R. L. Anderson, spoke on the subject, "Is God Interested in the Affairs of Men?"

"Men may put forth many reasons," Anderson said, "to argue that God is not interested in the affairs of men but the fulfilled Bible prophecies abound with catastrophes through which God provided rescue for those who believed and obeyed Him."

Anderson in speaking to the 805 persons assembled said, "It is self-evident when God warns by prophecy, as in our day, of a cataclysm to forever remove wickedness from the earth, the course of wisdom is to heed that warning and be among those who benefit from God's present-day interest in men."

The Texas-New Mexico-Oklahoma circuit assembly carried the theme "Be Taught by Jehovah."

R. H. Smith, overseer of Texas Circuit No. 9, in his closing talk, "Be Swift to Hear—Slow About Speaking," said, "To be swift to hear Jehovah's counsel from His Word the Bible is the only sure way today for erring man to safely direct his steps in the future."

The presiding minister of the Quitaque Congregation, V. D. Tiffin, said, "For practical purposes, better teaching and training at the assemblies, all circuits are being reduced in size—16 to 18 congregations—which makes 54 new circuits in the United States. This will enable the circuit overseer to make his weekly visits to each congregation about every four months, instead of the heretofore six month visits."

HAYLAKE CLUB ENJOYS ALL-DAY MEETING

The Haylake Club held its regular meeting Thursday, February 16, in the PCA community room. A delicious meal was served at noon. The ladies quilted and visited.

The club was happy to have two visitors, Mrs. Anna Bell Tipton and Mrs. Hallie Johnson of Floydada. Gifts were exchanged and new names were drawn for the next three months. The following members attended Mary Lee Watters, Doralene Montague, Opal Hill, Ruby Brannon, Alma Brannon, Ella Leah Riddell, Winnie Smith, Tone Brooks, Peggy Garvin, Ikie Bingham, Marye Autry, Margaret Stephens, Lillius Ruth McJimsey, Vivian Merrell, Mary Rampley, Bessie Vaughan, June Anderson, Blanche Newman, Eudean Crow, and the hostess, Elsie Cornett. Debbie Montague was also present.

The next meeting will be in the home of Dean Burson on Thursday, March 2.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Brookshier took Mrs. M. Dan Thompson and children to Tulsa Sunday afternoon where small Johnnie Thompson received medical attention. They went to visit Mrs. V. R. Gardner while there, but found the only one home was Mrs. Mary Ellen Woolrey of Hereford, who had also come to visit Mrs. Gardner and also had found her away from home.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Smith were Sunday guests in the home of their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Green and Cozette, in Turkey. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Green and son of Canyon, were also dinner guests in the home of his parents, the Greens.

Mrs. Elmer May returned home on Thursday of last week after visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Murphy and other relatives in Dixon, California, for a week. Mr. May and Mike met her in Amarillo.

Mrs. Kitty Lawler of Canyon was a weekend visitor with her sister, Mrs. T. C. Bomar. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Payne were among those who called in the afternoon for a visit.

Mrs. Erma Piercy of Turkey, spent the weekend with Mrs. A. L. McMurtry.

Mr. and Mrs. E. Posey spent the weekend in Rotan with his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fant Posey. Both couples planned to go to Uvalde Sunday, where the men's father, R. A. Posey, 96, is in the hospital.

Mr. and Mrs. George Dennis of Wayside and Mr. and Mrs. D. T. Northcutt attended a REA convention in Dallas early last week. They returned home Thursday.

Ronald Vaughan, who has been employed in Wichita Falls for several months, has returned here and will farm this year. He was in Wichita Falls Tuesday night of last week to visit friends and to attend a church banquet.

New '61 Chevy with Jet-smooth ride!

Impala 4-Door Sedan—Jet-smooth traveler that rivals the luxury cars in everything but price

The '61 Chevy loves to go because it goes so well. Purrs along pavements like a happy tabby. Takes rough roads in stride and all roads in style.

Just why does a Jet-smooth Chevy treat riders as royally as the high-priced luxury cars? It all came about through a delightful blend of Full Coil suspension, precision-balanced wheels, unique chassis cushioning, and a superb Body by Fisher insulated to hush away road sounds. All this adds up to less sway, less bounce, less dip, less dive, less tilt, less noise, less... well you name it.

Now combine this Jet-smooth ride with conveniences to pamper you and roominess to relax in. Add a full measure of quiet good looks. Voila, you've got Chevy's formula.

And the proof is in the riding. When you sample a Jet-smooth Chevy at your Chevrolet dealer's we think you'll find it just to your taste.
