Allan Shivers will sit in the Texas governor's chair for two more years. He massed a lead of almost four to one over the closest of six opponents in Saturday's Democratic primary.

But a run-off election in August, probably between Pierce P. Brooks of Dallas and Ben Ramsey of San Augustine, will determine who is to be lieutenant governor.

McCloy Against Re-Creation Of A German Army

FRANKFURT, Germany, July 22 (AP)—U. S. High Commissioner John J. McCloy said tonight "it would be very difficult indeed to deny the Germans the right and the means to defend their own soil" in the event of attack from the East. McCloy said, however, that he opposed the re-creation of a German army. He did not explain by what other means he felt the Germans could take part in the defense of West Germany. He made his statement in an interview prepared for a broadcast by the National Broadcasting Company.

MACKENZIE KING

Ex-Canadian Prime Minister, King, Is Dead

OTTAWA, July 22 (AP)—Former Prime Minister W. L. MacKenzie King of Canada died tonight. He was 75.

King died at his home, Kingsmere, about 20 miles from Ottawa. His physician, Dr. Campbell Laidlaw, said that he died of "hypostatic pneumonia, preceded by an attack of pulmonary edema" (accumulation of body fluids).

He was a bachelor. Several nieces and nephews were at his bedside when death came. When King stepped down from office on Nov. 15, 1948, he had ended 21 years, five months and five days of service as prime minister of the dominion.

His tenure of 7,829 days in office was the longest in British Commonwealth history, surpassing that of Sir Robert Walpole, who served as Britain's prime minister for 7,619 days early in the 18th century.

After retirement, King sat merely as the member of parliament from the Ontario Riding (District) of Glengarry, but the decades of his experience were at the beck of his successor, Louis St. Laurent.

His retirement had been foretold, when he asked his liberal party in the summer of 1948 to choose a new leader. Shortly thereafter the liberals named St. Laurent.

Bruton-Slaughter And Dibrell-Grice Runoffs

Three Places On Court Still Open

Spirited voting settled only one seat in the Howard county commissioners court Saturday as four out of five places went into run-offs.

John L. Dibrell, Jr., incumbent seeking his first elective term as county judge, held the lead with 1,751, complete unofficial returns showed. In second place by a margin of 86 votes was Walter Grice, former justice of peace from precinct No. 1. He polled 1,274 votes to beat out G. E. (Red) Gilliam, present commissioner from precinct No. 2, with 1,188 votes. Close behind was Grover Cunningham, Jr., a newcomer to the Howard county political horizon with 1,021 votes.

Earl Hull was the only commissioner gaining a clear title for another term. He bested A. F. Hill by a count of 710 to 293.

In precinct No. 1 Walter Grice, incumbent, faced a run-off with P. O. Hughes. Long had 146 votes, or 10 more than Hughes with 136. OR 4? MORE AN Hughes with 136. Not far off the pace was W. C. (Dub) Fryar with 119, followed by Earl Stovall with 99. Leo Hull polled 68 and Pierson Morgan 37.

Precinct No. 2 left wide open by Gilliam's entry in the judge's race, saw Pete Thomas pile up a commanding lead in two rural boxes that easily made him the man to head. Final returns showed him with 501. Roy Bruce won the right to contest him in the run-off with 374. Third man in the eight-man field was Lawrence Robinson with 246. Others were W. W. Bennett 143, Dick Siders 120, S. M. Winham 88, Bill Bonner 70, and R. A. Eubanks 80.

R. L. (Pancho) Nall finished strong in his home box to hold a 14 vote lead for re-election as commissioner from precinct No. 3. His run-off opponent will be Arthur Stallings. Nall polled 644, Stallings 630. A. F. (Shorty) Long ran strong with 493, followed by E. G. Buchanan with 146.

Blount Scores Biggest Margin To Beat Barnes. R. E. (Peppy) Blount apparently had amassed his greatest margin since he entered politics in defeating Cecil H. Barnes of San Angelo for the third time in succession in the race for state representative of the 51st legislative district. Unofficial returns early Sunday morning from all six counties in the district, including four complete, gave Blount a total of 7,574 votes and Barnes 5,411. Blount boasted a comfortable margin in five counties and pressed Barnes in San Angelo and Tom Green county.

As usual, Howard county gave Blount a decisive edge, 3,577 to 1,485, although he also led his lone opponent in Glasscock, Irion, Reagan and Sterling counties.

Blount won the 51st district's seat in the state legislature originally by nosing out Barnes, 6,336 to 5,526 in a run-off four years ago. In 1948 Blount was returned for a second term by defeating Barnes again, but by a closer margin, 7,920 to 7,823.

In Saturday's primary, Blount assumed a slight lead as first unofficial returns were posted and his margin increased steadily as long as tabulations were maintained.

POLLS 4,265 County Votes For Gov. Shivers, 4-1

Local voters gave Gov. Allan Shivers more than a 4-1 majority in the first Democratic Primary election Saturday. Shivers polled a total of 4265 votes within the county unofficial totals showed with Cao March a poor second with 744. None of the others in the race could rally as much as 100 votes.

If the majority of the Howard county voters had their minds made up in the governor's race, such was hardly the case in most of the other state campaigns.

In the vote for lieutenant governor, a West Texan, Preston B. Smith of Lubbock county polled 349 votes to lead the way while W. O. Reed of Dallas county was second with 862 votes and Pierce P. Brooks of Dallas county a close third with 760. G. C. Morris of Hunt county trailed with 442 votes while five of the eight others in the race polled 100 or more votes.

Fagan Dickson of Bexar county and Will Wilson of Dallas county staged a photo finish in the race for Associate Justice of Supreme Court (Place 1) with Dickson the winner with 1821 votes. Wilson had 1766, followed by Walter L. Wray of Dallas county with 794.

Robert W. Calvert of Hill county was well liked by Howard county voters in the race for Associate Justice of Supreme Court (Place 2), building up an aggregate vote of 2967, followed by Alfred M. Scott of Travis county with 891 and Hicks Harvey of Cass county with 429.

Bascom Giles doubled James L. Alfred's vote aggregate in the campaign for Commissioner of General Land Office, collecting 3,242 votes to 1,580 for the Tarrant county man.

Robert S. Calvert of Travis county did even better against his only foe, Clifford E. Butler, in the race for Controller of Public Accounts, gathering 3,645 votes to 1,032 for his opponent from Harris county.

J. E. McDonald proved the best man with local voters in the bid for Commissioner of Agriculture, the Travis county man accumulating 1,677 votes, compared to 1,191 for Charlie McLellan of Colorado county, 1,019 for Tom Fairrey of Travis county and 870 for John C. White of Wichita county.

It was a two-man race in the race for Associate Justice of Supreme Court (Place 3). Meade F. Griffin of Hale county finished ahead of Matt Davis of Upshur county, 1,598 to 1,210. George W. Harwood of Dallas county was third with 883 and Robert B. Keenan of Gregg county fourth and last with 529.

Lubbock county's G. H. Nelson could point with pride to Howard county's support in the race for Judge of Court of Criminal Appeals. He compiled 1,532 votes, compared to 1,229 for W. A. Morrison of Milam county, second in the race. Robert L. Lattimore of Dallas was third among the six others in the race with 742 votes. Price Daniel, unopposed in the

Mahon Margin Is 8-1 Over A. M. Ripps

George Mahon of Colorado City apparently won another term as congressman Saturday as incomplete and unofficial election returns gave him a wide margin—nearly eight to one—over A. M. Ripps, Big Spring, only other contender for the office.

Returns from 20 of 25 counties in the 19th Congressional district, with only three reporting complete, showed Mahon had amassed a total of 35,827 votes—Ripps' total of 4,481. At least 65 per cent of the district's voters were believed in.

The veteran congressman wasn't seriously challenged in a single county reporting early today. Ripps polled his largest number of votes, 1,189, in his home county of Howard where Mahon received 3,755.

Congressman Mahon called from Washington late Saturday night to express gratitude to voters of the district for wholehearted support during the campaign. Terming the large vote an expression of confidence, he pledged continued effort toward full representation of the district.

Mahon's majority was probably not decisive in King county where he pulled a landslide of 818 to nine for Ripps in thickly populated Lubbock county, with 30 of 33 boxes reporting complete, the incumbent received 7,183 and Ripps a retired railroad man, polled 691.

He led in Mitchell county, his home district, by a wide margin. Mahon received 2,316 votes there as Ripps tallied 252.

Five counties in the district failed to report results last night. They were sparsely settled Borden, Andrews, Crosby, Dickens and Yoakum.

Hooser, Rodgers To Vie In August

Democratic voters, turning out approximately 5,400 strong, churned up several exciting races Saturday, including a stunning upset in the sheriff's campaign.

There veteran R. L. (Bob) Wolf, serving out his third term, failed to achieve the run-off. J. B. Bruton, former police chief and juvenile officer, led the ticket, and Jess Slaughter, present juvenile officer and under whom Wolf had served as deputy during part of Slaughter's six-term tenure, hit the political comeback trail to make the run-off. Bruton 1,577, Wolf 1,386, and C. E. Kiser, former deputy under Wolf, polled 2,083 votes, Slaughter Wolf, 287.

No race was hotter than that of county tax collector-assessor, with B. E. (Bernie) Freeman and R. B. Hood doing a repeat performance of their neck-and-neck battle of two years ago. Freeman came in with 101 to the good, complete unofficial returns showed. This was an improvement over the two votes difference the last time they met. However, Freeman was trailing by 30 votes before his home box (No. 2) came in at the very last to pull him over. The vote: Freeman 2,626, Hood 2,525.

A lot of running was packed into the county attorney's chase, too. Hartman Hooser, making his initial bid for public office as were three other aspirants, led with 2,199. In the run-off with him was Mack Rodgers, incumbent seeking an elective term. Rodgers had 1,427. Others were James Bradford with 837 and W. O'Neil Loftis 640.

In the race for constable of precinct No. 2 (Coahoma), T. H. McCann beat out G. W. Foy by a count of 222-124.

In uncontested races, voting stacked up like this: George Choate, district clerk, 5,288; Leo Porter, county clerk, 5,234; Frances Glenn, county treasurer, 5,334; R. W. Baker, county surveyor, 5,327; Walter Bailey, county superintendent, 5,284; W. O. Leonard, justice of peace precinct No. 1, 4,293; Austin Coffman, justice of peace precinct No. 2, 4,371; J. T. Thornton, constable precinct No. 1, 4,291.

Voting at times was brisk. In the morning, voters had to stand in line at No. 2 and No. 3. There was difficulty at No. 4, too, for here a misunderstanding resulted in no judge and no help. County Chairman L. S. Patterson succeeded in getting the matter straightened out quickly. The total, considering pre-election silence, was considered good although it was far under the 8,500 potential.

Houston Voters Turn Down Housing Plan. HOUSTON, July 22 (AP)—Houston residents today turned down plans for 5,000 public housing units and decided city firemen should work shorter hours.

Harris County and the state's largest city also aided Governor Allan Shivers.

Elton Gilliland, who was unopposed in the district attorney's race, received 5,289 votes. George Thomas, son of Clyde E. Thomas, received two write-in votes for that office.

Sullivan was appointed by the late Gov. Geaulford H. Jester to serve as first judge of the new district. He began his duties last Oct. 5.

Thomas gained a 31-vote margin in Glasscock county and also led in Martin county where returns were incomplete at the last tabulation.

However, Sullivan was given a commanding lead in all five of the Big Spring boxes.

Reviewing The Big Spring - Week -

With Joe Pickle

It's all over now for some candidates; just really beginning for some others. The regrettable part of campaigns is that everybody can't win. And while thanks are being passed out to the voters, the voters in turn ought to thank the entire list of candidates for offering for office.

Showers continued to bounce around all over the county. Up to Saturday evening the southwest corner was about all that had been missed. Clouds may have poured out substantial moisture there to put the entire area in

PRELIMINARY FIGURES

National Population Reaches 150,520,000 Census Reveals

By The Associated Press WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—The Census Bureau estimated the 1950 population of the United States today at 150,520,000.

This is almost 19 million higher than the 1940 total of 131,699,275. The bureau announced preliminary figures for all of the states.

The figures, when checked and revised where necessary, will be used by Congress to help determine how many representatives each state will have in the House. Census officials said it probably would take some time to get this data.

The total figure includes an estimated 700,000 persons—mostly transient and Merchant Marine crews—whose home states are not yet definitely known.

Officials called attention to estimates made in 1948 which shows California gaining 8 seats and New York and Pennsylvania losing 3 seats and 2 seats respectively. They said these figures likely will not be off by more than one.

Other changes indicated by the 1948 House estimates:

Arkansas, Georgia, Illinois, Kentucky, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, Tennessee, all likely to lose one seat.

Florida, Indiana, Michigan, Oregon, Texas, and Washington likely to gain one.

Dr. A. Ross Eckler, deputy director of the Census Bureau, said on the basis of returns from this year's census the greatest changes from the estimates are likely to occur in the Pacific Northwest—which did not pick up as much population as estimated two years ago—and in the South, which ran ahead of estimates.

The figures announced today were just preliminary totals. The final figure will be reached by the Census Bureau some time before Dec. 1, on which date the secretary of commerce must send them to President Truman.

The President will pass the figures on to Congress, probably later that month. The exact totals will not be known until then.

The state-by-state figures—most of which had previously been released by census offices across the country—show California to be the biggest gainer.

California gained 3,565,000 persons in the 10-year period, for an increase of 51.6 per cent over its 1940 population of 6,907,387. While New York ranked second in number of persons gained—1,264,000—its percentage increase was relatively slight, 9.4 per cent.

The surge in California's population—which was reflected by gains throughout the Pacific far west generally—brought it from fifth place among the states in 1940 to second place, with 10,472,348 persons compared with third—place Pennsylvania's 10,436,965.

Just five states showed decreases while the nation as a whole was jumping almost 19,000,000. The losers were Arkansas, which slipped two per cent from 1940 to a 1,900,246 total; Mississippi, down one per cent to 2,171,806; Nebraska, minus 5 per cent to 1,308,394; North Dakota, down four per cent to 616,185; and Oklahoma, which dropped 3 per cent to 2,230,253.

Korea Crisis Won't Affect Food Supply

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—There is plenty of food, the government said today, and the Korean crisis won't noticeably affect supplies for the American public.

An official report also said:

1. The nation will go right on eating at its high level diet.
2. In fact many may buy even more food as employment and earnings rise under impact of a stepped-up defense program.

As for food prices: They are unlikely to rise this year more than 3 or 4 per cent above the July level. The year's retail average should be about the same as that of 1949.

All this comes from the Bureau of Agricultural Economics. It is the agency that keeps books on the nation's supplies of food and farm products.

In a special food report, the bureau sought to put the clincher on what President Truman and Secretary of Agriculture Brannan have been trying to get across: Price boosts and hoarding are uncalled for.

The agency assured the public that food supplies are expected to stay at the high level of the past two years.

Even if the Korean situation increases military buying of food in coming months, civilian supplies "would not be noticeably affected," the report asserted. The government has a lot of food stocks the military could use.

Hence, speculative buying and price increases that have developed since fighting started in Korea are not warranted, the bureau observed.

The main effect the Korean situation is likely to have on the 1950 food situation, the agency said, is strengthening of consumer demand for food as employment and incomes respond to the accelerated defense program.

The bureau's calm look at the food price future contrasted with some sharp advances even before the Korean campaign began.

The Bureau of Labor statistics said today that between May 15 and June 15, food costs leaped 2.1 per cent. Since the fighting started, some prices have shot higher.

Retail prices in general advanced 9 of one per cent between May and June, the broadest increase in two years.

CIO And AFL Show Signs Of Unity In Labor

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—The AFL and the CIO are friendly toward each other than they have ever been before, that is an important fact to bear in mind when AFL and CIO leaders meet here Tuesday for a collective bargaining session on labor unity.

No one expects an outright merger at once. If that ever happens it will take a long time to work out the details. But there are people in both camps who believe that the two delegations will seriously talk about things like this:

1. Formation of a permanent joint committee to discuss problems and perhaps try to iron out quarrels between rival unions in the two organizations.
2. Some kind of "no-raiding" agreement or at least a start in that direction.
3. A partial pooling of efforts in politics.
4. When and how to invite other labor groups to join the negotiations.

Americans Accused Of Far East Sabotage

HONG KONG, July 22 (AP)—The Peiping People's (Communist) Daily says American-inspired sabotage of state operated mines in Manchuria has cost Chinese Communists $600,000 in the past year.

It said 253 sabotage attempts have been reported in 12 months. The newspaper asserted that bandits, special agents and spies were "directed by the imperialistic Americans."

Murder Count Filed In Amarillo Case

AMARILLO, July 22 (AP)—A charge of murder was filed here today against Carl Lee Willyard, 31.

His former wife, Mrs. Eunice Willyard, 22, was found in the bathroom of her home here last night, shot to death. Officers said an empty 22 caliber automatic rifle was found on the floor near the body. A number of cartridge cases were strewn nearby.

For the time being it's not being enforced. There is a question of legality.

A ban on the sales of "subversive" papers or literature was to have taken effect Friday.

But acting Mayor Louis C. Mirani said the legality of declaring publications "subversive" would have to be tested. And police agreed to a "few days of grace."

The ban would apply to sales made on city property, which would include corner newsstands.

Action centered Friday at one popular downtown stand. Onlookers were entertained by a buying spree—to the Daily Worker's profit.

A group identified as Communists or sympathizers appeared at the stand and began buying up the papers, apparently in a challenge of the ban.

At that point Edward Rendzio, 33, former GI who served five years in the Pacific and Alaska in the last war, stepped in.

Rendzio started buying the Worker, five at a time. He would carefully tear each one in half and deposit it in a big waste paper tin.

Bystanders tossed him quarters and half dollars to buy more.

Shortly, William Payne, 52, a Negro, joined with Rendzio. He also bought, tore, and tossed.

Rendzio said the sympathizers' demonstration "made me sick."

"I fought all the way to Japan and now the guys are back fighting again. This thing made me mad," he said.

Payne said he has a son at Hampton University who is soon to enter service.

"I can't sympathize with this business," he said.

Plain clothes policemen bought some copies of the Daily Worker and other publications. They're for use as evidence in a test case to come.

Truman Warns Fellow Baptists On Peace Quest

CLEVELAND, July 22.—President Truman tonight gave fellow Baptists a "warning" that the nations of the world cannot survive "unless redeemed spiritually."

He spoke of putting on "the armour of God" in a "spirit of steadfastness and humility."

The President made these statements in a message read for him at the Eighth Congress of the World Baptist Alliance. He is one of 18 million Baptists in the world.

He said:

"To succeed in our quest for righteousness we must, in St. Paul's luminous phrase, put on the armour of God: 'For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this in high places.'"

The message was read at Cleveland Municipal Stadium at a mass meeting of the six-day Congress, expected to draw some 20,000 persons.

A Baptist clergyman, author and educator, Dr. E. McNeil Poter, in the principal address tonight, declared:

"Baptists of the world can, under the exigent pressure of this hour and in the providence of God, become the leaders in healing the divisions that independence have created between the free churches."

Observers Can't See Soviet-Led Yugoslavia Attack

BEIGRADE, Yugoslavia, July 22 (AP)—Responsible western observers discounted today the likelihood of a Russian-led Cominform attack on Yugoslavia in the immediate future.

This much, they say, seems certain: There is no possibility the Moscow-dominated Communist neighbors of Yugoslavia could duplicate here the surprise invasion by which North Korea's Russian-equipped troops scored the initial advantage over South Korea in June.

Schooled in military and political tactics as practiced by the Soviet army and the Kremlin, Premier Marshal Tito has had his tough, trained army on the alert since the Cominform denounced his independent brand of Communism and ousted him in 1948. His army is now perhaps 800,000 strong.

Fifth Of Commies Purged In Romania

BERLIN, July 22 (AP)—The Communists in Romania have purged one-fifth of the party membership in the past 18 months, the Soviet-licensed ADN news agency said today.

In a dispatch from Bucharest, the semi-official agency said 192,000 Romanian Communists were expelled "for corruption, opportunism and a harmful attitude."

Shppard Air Base Planes Are Grounded

WICHITA FALLS, July 22 (AP)—Sheppard Air Base officers said 17 planes at the base had been grounded today because of defective oil in the planes.

The officers said there was no reason to suspect anything like sabotage; that the oil apparently was just under standard, but that a chemical analysis was being made of the oil.

The planes are those used to maintain flying time of pilots and for administrative flights. The base said there was no damage to the planes.

Call For Air Guard, Reserves May Be Monday

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—Some Air Force reserve units and some units of the Air National Guard are expected to be called to active duty soon, probably Monday.

However, beyond saying that it will have a statement Monday regarding reserve units and the National Guard, the Air Force declined to give out any information on the subject today.

Calling on individual members of the Air Force Reserve to active duty has already begun. The Air Force has said that the individuals being ordered to duty are those with immediately usable skills.

There are about 104,500 officers and men in reserve units of the Air Force and about 45,000 in the Air National Guard.

About 40,500 of the reservists are in units of the organized reserve. They receive pay for attending regular classes or drills. In addition, 64,000 volunteer reservists are also in units. When not on active duty they do not receive pay but, by attending classes, qualify for retirement benefits and promotions.

The Air National Guard includes 84 tactical squadrons, of which 72 are fighters and 12 light bombers. In addition to the tactical squadrons, it embraces many support units, such as aircraft control and warning groups, aviation engineers air service detachments and weather stations.

FIRE ON NATIONALISTS

China Reds Open Quemoy Shelling

By The Associated Press
TAIPEI, Formosa, Sunday, July 22.—The Chinese Nationalists reported the Chinese Reds began shelling the Nationalist island of Quemoy (Chimien) Saturday night in evident preparation for an attack.

Quemoy is a 50-square-mile island 100 miles west of Formosa and just off the Chinese mainland. It blocks entry to the Communist port of Amoy.

The Nationalist defense ministry, announcing the shelling, said more than 1,300 Communist small craft were massed around Amoy in seeming readiness to attack Quemoy.

Nationalist official quarters said early Sunday they had notified American authorities both in Washington and Taipei of the Quemoy situation.

They would not say whether they had requested lifting of President Truman's ban against Nationalist air and sea operations against the Red mainland.

One high Nationalist source said Red conquest of Quemoy could be a prelude to an invasion of Formosa.

"Or," he added: "They may in-lend to bypass Quemoy altogether and attack us here in Formosa. How do we know?"

(Whereabouts of the U. S. Seventh Fleet, which is patrolling the Formosa Straits, is not known.)

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP)—State and Defense Department officials were reported giving prompt consideration today to the questions raised by the reported Chinese Communist shelling of the Nationalist island of Quemoy.

First indications were that officials do not regard American requests to the Chinese Nationalists to withhold military moves against the Communists as preventing purely defensive operations.

There was no indication that the American Seventh Fleet, which President Truman has assigned to protect Formosa, would have any responsibility for the protection of Quemoy. That small island, though Nationalist-held, lies just off the mainland and is far over on the Communist side of the line of the Seventh Fleet patrol.

A statement of the American attitude is expected to be sent to the Chinese Nationalist government on Formosa in a few days.

Liquor Ringmen Nabbed After 'Mistaken Identity' Arrests

SHREVEPORT, La., July 22. (AP)—Five persons whom Sheriff J. Howell Flournoy said were involved in the operations of an Oklahoma liquor ring were in the Caddo Parish jail today in lieu of bonds totaling $6,800 after being charged on nine separate counts.

Two of the five were charged on two separate counts of violation of Louisiana's liquor laws and also with aggravated battery in connection with the "mistaken identity" pistol-whipping of a Caddo Parish resident early Thursday morning.

The other three were charged as material witnesses, the sheriff said.

Bonds totaling $2,500 each were set by Judge William F. Woods, Jr., in the cases of M. K. Wideman, 48, alias Widemire, of Muskogee, Okla., and R. C. Jenkins, 30, Shreveport.

Both are accused of attacking C. W. McCoy, 34, Shreveport railroad man, in a case of "mistaken identity."

Wideman and Jenkins are charged also with having "untaxed beverages of high alcoholic content" in their possession and with having violated Louisiana's liquor transport regulations.

Mrs. Jenkins, 21; Bud Klontz, 25, and Jack Abbott, 24, are held as material witnesses in lieu of bonds totaling $600 each.

All persons charged "operated out of Muskogee," according to Chief Deputy Ed M. Ward. Whiskey seized when the arrests were made is valued in excess of $8,000, Ward said.

Otis Grafe, Sr., thrown from a horse Monday, is convalescing at his home from effects of a fractured pelvis bone. He may be more or less inactivated for several months.

AUSTIN, July 22. (AP)—Death of 146 persons in Texas traffic accidents during June was reported by the Department of Public Safety Friday.

The 1950 total rose to 1,037 compared with 875 during the first six months of 1949.

Though June fatalities were below the 185 figure of June a year ago the department's statistical experts predicted the 1950 total will be 23 per cent greater than that of 1949.

Britain Asked To Make Clear Formosa Stand

LONDON, July 22. (AP)—Four members of the House of Commons called on Britain today to make clear what position she would take if Russia and America ever go to war over the Chinese Nationalist stronghold of Formosa.

The four—a Conservative, two Laborites and a Liberal—made their request in a letter to The Times of London. They described Britain's present attitude as "obscure" although they noted the government has said it would not aid American forces ordered to neutralize the Chinese Nationalist stronghold.

Outlining how a major war could break out, the four said any American action against a possible attack by Red China on Formosa might be regarded as aggression by the Peiping government.

Then, they said, the Chinese Communists could call on Russia for help under the terms of the mutual aid treaty between the two countries and World War III might be under way.

The four MPs were Conservative Norman Bower, Liberal Joseph Grimond and Laborites R. H. S. Crossman and Woodrow Wyatt.

They said that, while the situation in Korea was clearly one of resisting aggression, the case of Formosa "is on an altogether different level."

Their letter continued: "Have the British government unequivocally that if a major war breaks out as a result of United States defense of Formosa against Chinese Communist forces, Britain will not come to its aid?"

"It seems to us that if this is the intention of the government, failure to give notification of it to the United States government might be fraught with the most serious consequences."

"Dry Tells How To Endorse One Who Isn't Dry

OKLAHOMA CITY, July 22. (AP)—An official of the United Dry Association has explained how his group—ardent prohibitionists—can endorse a candidate for office who is not personally "dry."

The Rev. Roy Hollomon, association secretary, made the distinction in explaining the drys favor Sen. Elmer Thomas for re-election over Rep. Mike Monroney next Tuesday.

"I personally questioned each of the candidates on their personal habits regarding drinking. Each man answered fairly and honestly and admitted that he drank, therefore, there would be no choice between the men as to their personal habits.

"As far as I am concerned as between the two men running for office, if both are personally wet and one politically dry with the other politically wet, I will choose the man that is politically dry."

North Koreans Recapture Yondok On Eastern Coast

By The Associated Press
TOKYO, Sunday, July 23.—North Korean troops have recaptured Yondok on the east Korean coast. General MacArthur announced today as American and Communist patrols probed along the western front.

Yondok, destroyed by allied naval gunfire and taken by U.S. and South Korean forces Friday, was lost Saturday before a Red attack in regimental strength. MacArthur said in a Sunday communique.

The town is 26 air miles north of Pohang where the First Cavalry division (infantry) landed Tuesday in the first American amphibious operation of the war. It is an important point on the Red's southern thrust down the east coast toward the vital supply port of Pusan. It also controls a highway through the high coastal mountains to the central front around Yecheon.

MacArthur also reported "increased" Red pressure in the area of Hamchong, 15 miles southwest of Yecheon, which was taken by American forces Friday.

More Navy air power arrived in Japan Sunday to bolster the growing aerial might of the allies. A 27,000-ton U.S. carrier completed an eight-day crossing of the Pacific with a cargo of fighter planes. Navy officers said it was believed to be the fastest voyage on record from the west coast and the largest number of planes ever put aboard a carrier.

Presumably, the carrier is the U.S.S. Boxer, which sailed from San Francisco Bay eight days ago with a load of jet and piston-engine fighter planes.

Field dispatches reported Red armor and infantry building up for assault on new American positions south and east of fallen Taejon where First Cavalry elements have gone in as reinforcements.

MORE American artillery x x second grad 2nd n. American artillery and mortars pounded moderately throughout the night, Associated Press correspondent William R. Moore reported from a command post, but there was no major ground contact. Communist patrols probed at new defense lines of the First Cavalry, sent to bolster the galling 24th Division. The First Cavalry also sent out patrols to scout Red positions and concentrations.

Skies were clearing. It was believed American aircraft would have opportunities to return to full-scale attack after being hampered by bad weather.

The American artillery concentrated on roads and valleys where the North Koreans were believed assembling for a fresh thrust. One of the aims was to keep the Red from using the Taejon-Yongdok road and the double-track railroad that parallels it southeastward out of Taejon.

Astride this 27-mile road, the new American defense line was being consolidated, said Gen. MacArthur's communique early Sunday.

Other sectors were relatively quiet. Despite murky weather, American planes strafed the Reds in Taejon Saturday.

A dispatch said new American troops were in the line and determined to lick the Reds near Taejon. MacArthur's communique said "constant contact" was being maintained with the North Korean forces to determine the direction of their expected next offensive south and southeast.

In 18 days of rain-battling for time, the 24th Division—out-numbered at times 20-to-1—had yielded 70 miles in five major retreats. The last and bloodiest retreat was from Taejon, where the 24th held for three days. Orders called for a 24-day stand if possible.

Major Gen. William F. Dean, division commander last week, was seen at Taejon personally directing a bazooka tank-killer squad during withdrawal operations Thursday. He was wounded in the action. How seriously was not known.

Gen. MacArthur notified the Army in Washington that Dean was missing in action. He said he hoped the 30-year-old general officer had not fallen into enemy hands.

"High hopes exist," said MacArthur, "that he will return."

More than 200 stragglers cut off during fierce house-to-house fighting in Taejon have made their way back to American lines since the city fell. Most belonged to the 34th Infantry Regiment of the 24th Division. Many were wounded and all were near exhaustion. Some had lost even their shoes and clothing.

A regimental commander at flaming Taejon said the North Koreans must have lost 3,000 men killed at Taejon.

"They had a total disregard for life," the commander said. "So many men kept coming at us that eventually we were overwhelmed. I am sure they are worse off in victory than we are in defeat."

The North Koreans were filtering down the west coast of Korea, some 50 miles southwest of fallen Taejon. MacArthur denied, however, that the railroad town of Imssi, 50 miles southwest of Taejon had fallen.

Meanwhile the build-up of American strength proceeds. Bigger, harder-hitting tanks are on the way to replace the outgunned, out-classed light tanks which have been mauled by Communist armor.

The tanks on the way are known as medium tanks. Together with stepped-up shipments of the new tank-killer super-bazookas, they are part of the build up toward the day when a major counter-offensive can be started.

The predictions that this drive cannot begin for some months at least, do not take account of the possibility that the North Koreans—the winners of almost every battle so far—might collapse suddenly for internal or other reasons.

They do represent the cautious calculations of American military leaders, based on the effort they think will be needed if the Red forces continue to fight.

In the current stage of fighting, which finds the Americans on the defensive, the next major holding point is along the ridges about 30 miles below the Kum River. This could possibly be intended as the final position beyond which there should be no retreat.

During the last week the Reds punched through the Kum River defenses, paused a while before the temporary southern capital at Taejon, then surged forward again and took the city.

There are some indications that the Americans held on the Kum River line a week longer than military planners had expected.

The high official declared that at no time from the hour when the Communists jumped off for the invasion of the Republic of Korea, has there been any split in thinking by the high military planners here.

MISSING IN KOREA—Wilson Fielder, Jr. (above) 33-year-old Time Magazine correspondent, has been reported missing on the Taejon front in Korea. Announcement was made by the offices of the magazine in New York. Fielder was with the 24th Division which retreated from Taejon. $10 BILLION REQUEST Congress Will Get Blue-Print Of War Program Tuesday

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 22.—President Truman plans to send Congress next Tuesday a blue-print of his $10 billion program to help fight the Korean war and guard against Communist aggression elsewhere.

It will be in the form of a detailed request for the huge appropriation to carry out partial mobilization of the nation's military strength.

Wednesday the nation may get the first official tip-off on the extent of the new taxes which will be asked to finance the $10 billion program—and the additional billions which will be sought later.

That day the President will send to Congress the mid-year economic report of his council of economic advisers, along with an economic message of his own.

These are expected to give, not only official views on the state of the national economy, but on the control steps necessary to safeguard it from inflation.

Congress members prepared today to tackle the heavy legislative tasks ahead. One of their number warned that the program of partial mobilization is not enough.

"We must face up to an all-out mobilization," Sen. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex.), member of the Senate Armed Services Committee, told a reporter.

"This is a long and continuing struggle against Communism. It may last one year—or several years."

"We must immediately produce more tanks, airplanes and ammunition."

That will mean fewer luxury automobiles, household appliances and similar civil items."

Both House and Senate leaders were certain of quick final passage this week of two measures for building up strength of the fighting forces. One, allowing the President to extend all enlistments one year, already has sped through the Senate without objection.

The other would remove the present manpower ceilings of just above 2 million from the Army, Air Force, Navy and Marines.

DEFENSE AID SAYS

U.S. Korean Drive Is Long Way Off

By The Associated Press
WASHINGTON, July 22.—It may be mid-fall or even next spring before United States forces can launch a major counter-offensive in Korea, a high Defense Department official said today.

The official, who cannot be named, said, cautioned the American people against hoping for a swift victory.

In fact he said the public should not be discouraged or alarmed to find another fall-back occurring in the days just ahead. It is, he explained, something that has been figured on, apart of the general pattern of resisting steadily while inflicting on the enemy the heaviest losses possible—a time-gaining maneuver.

Meanwhile the build-up of American strength proceeds. Bigger, harder-hitting tanks are on the way to replace the outgunned, out-classed light tanks which have been mauled by Communist armor.

The tanks on the way are known as medium tanks. Together with stepped-up shipments of the new tank-killer super-bazookas, they are part of the build up toward the day when a major counter-offensive can be started.

Texans Use Boats To Vote; Flood Waters No Deterrent

By The Associated Press
Wet weather kept some Texans from voting Saturday, but other hardy souls cast their ballots after boat trips over flood water.

More than six inches of rain in a two-hour period caused a flash flood across the Morton-Portales Highway, about 50 miles northwest of Lubbock. The deluge fell between 1 and 3 o'clock in the morning.

Deputy Sheriff John Goswick of Morton said a section of state Highway 290 nearly a mile wide and a mile long was covered with four to five feet of water. He said residents of the area beyond the flooded sections were forced to cross in motor boats to reach the polls.

Later in the day as a jam developed in the boat traffic, two extra polling places were set up on the western edge of the lake of water.

In Lamar County, northeast Texas, hard rains curtailed voting. It was no more than 175 votes had been cast at any box in the county.

Big Spring reported 17 of an inch of rain Saturday afternoon. Sterling City was getting a sprinkle last night.

Rain fell in Dallas late in the day. Texas Highway Patrolmen said the rainfall at Morton hit suddenly and in less than two hours had overflowed a six-inch rain gauge.

One family in the center of the flash flood area was forced to evacuate their home when they awoke to find water running into the living room. The seven members of the Cecil Edwards' family, including a semi-invalid and another member recuperating from a major operation, walked a mile and a half through rain and mud to safety.

Heavy hail on the western edge of the storm caused serious damage to cotton and grain crops.

Glasscock Picks Smith As Judge

GARDEN CITY, July 22.—Glasscock county voters today named a new county judge, retained their sheriff and other local officers.

D. L. Stee, Glasscock county employee, unseated T. E. Gene Carr, running for a second term as county judge. Smith polled 230 votes, Carr, 168, in complete unofficial returns.

Walter Taelle, running for re-election as sheriff, won the nomination, getting 229 votes to 184 for W. C. (Pete) Underwood.

Fred Chaney, incumbent commissioner in precinct No. 1, had a nip and tuck race with A. W. Schrammer. Chaney pulled out in front at the finish 93 to 88.

Glasscock gave R. E. (Peppy) Blount a 244 to 123 vote lead over Cecil H. Barnes in the 91st legislative race. Clyde E. Thomas carried the county in the district judge's race, polling 206 to 173 for Charlie Sullivan.

Paul Moss, Odessa, led the field in the race for congressman from the 16th district. He had 169 votes, followed closely by Ken Reagan of Midland with 146 and Fred Hervey, El Paso, with 56.

In other races, this was the picture according to complete unofficial returns.

Guardsmen To Fire Small Arms Today

National Guardsmen of Big Spring's Battery B, 132nd Field Artillery, will fire small arms for familiarization on the old Bombardier school range this afternoon, Capt. T. A. Harris, commanding officer, announced Saturday.

It will be the second consecutive Sunday members of the local Guard unit have had target practice as they prepare for their two weeks summer encampment which starts Aug. 20 at Fort Hood. Personnel will fire carbines and pistols, Capt. Harris said.

The two-hour firing session is to begin at 2 p. m., the commander said. Warning flags will be up in the area and citizens are requested not to stray into the line of fire.

Grain Building Fire
By The Associated Press
VANCOUVER, B. C., July 22.—A spectacular fire destroyed the 400-foot Columbia pier and its five-story grain conveyor structure today.

The fire broke out in the grain elevator on the pier, which was under construction. The fire spread rapidly, destroying the pier and the conveyor structure.

The fire was caused by a short circuit in the conveyor system. The fire department arrived quickly but the damage was too extensive.

The fire caused a major disruption in the grain supply to the area. The pier was a vital link in the transportation of grain from the coast to inland areas.

The fire was a major disaster for the area. The pier was one of the largest and most modern in the world. Its destruction was a significant loss to the grain industry.

East Germans Call On West To Sabotage U. S. Military

By The Associated Press
BERLIN, July 22.—The Russian-backed East German Communists called on West Germans today to sabotage American military preparations for defense of the West.

The call was issued by Franz Dabheim, a member of the politburo of the East German Socialist Unity Communist Party which is holding its annual convention here.

A similar appeal was delivered to the French people from the same platform by Jacques Duclos, secretary-general of the French Communist Party.

Duclos was here with such other leading lights of the Cominform as Russia's Mikhail A. Suslov and Italy's Palmiro Togliatti.

These men, ostensibly "honored guests" of the East German Communists, were reported to be holding secret Cominform sessions in which Suslov was giving them the Kremlin's views on the Korean war and whatever may be Moscow's next pressure points against the West.

Dabheim took up where East German Chancellor Otto Grotewohl left off yesterday. Grotewohl had called upon West Germans to display open resistance to the policies of the western occupying powers—the United States, Britain and France.

"The active fight for peace," Dabheim said, "must be the sabotage of war preparations in West Germany, such as the unloading and transport of American armaments. This activity must be increased."

Thundershowers Hit Area Saturday

Thundershowers dotted this area Saturday afternoon.

The U. S. Weather bureau at the airport showed .17 of an inch in slow rain. Ackerly estimated that the total there was about a quarter of an inch. At 9:30 p. m. Colorado City had received 12 of an inch and slow showers were still falling.

Snyder reported 61 of an inch in a violent thundershowers.

Other Wichita County resolutions endorsed the efforts of state officials in their fight to retain control of the tidelands.

The only significant action in Big Spring precinct conventions was the passage of resolutions supporting the state's fight for tidelands.

Precinct Groups Back American Korea Action

By The Associated Press
Resolutions adopted by Democratic precinct conventions in Texas yesterday (Saturday) praised the national government for its stand in Korea but sided with Texas in the tidelands dispute.

Early reports indicated most conventions, which also named delegates to county conventions, were orderly and that much of the business consisted of discussion of resolutions.

Wichita Falls reported that a number of Wichita County precinct conventions adopted resolutions endorsing the national and state administrations. They pledged support to President Truman "in the effort of our country to stop Communist aggression which threatens the very existence of democratic government and free people everywhere."

Negro Escapes Hits, Badly Injures Jailer

LAFAYETTE, La., July 22.—A 21-year-old Negro prisoner bludgeoned a 77-year-old jailer at St. Martinville this afternoon and escaped from jail.

The jailer, Paul Guilbeau, was taken to St. Martinville Infirmary in critical condition, but hospital attendants said tonight he was resting well. He is suffering from a possible skull fracture and concussion.

Deputy sheriffs listed the escaped prisoner as Henry—or Harry—Jones.

Officers said the man was arrested Wednesday on a charge of cattle rustling and that at the time of his arrest he was on probation on a federal charge of forging a government check. Shortly after his arrest, deputies said, he broke away from officers, but was recaptured a half block away.

New York Top In Population; 7 Texas Cities Over 100,000

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—A nip-and-tuck battle for standings among the 100 biggest American cities is shown by preliminary population figures reported to the census bureau here.

Omaha, Neb., for example, held a 135 lead over Miami, Fla., for 41st place—a margin that could be overturned in revisions leading to the official figures to be given out next year. And Berkeley, Cal., has a margin of 34 for 90th place over Fall River, Mass.

One factor that would be important: The number of persons claiming Omaha and Nebraska as residence who were counted in the special one-day count of transients last April, and who were not duplicated in the count at their homes.

The bureau has a big task ahead yet in checking the approximately 1,500,000 persons registered in the transient count against the home-count in their cities to see whether they should be added to the preliminary city figures.

The jury deliberated about four hours.

During the trial Ritter testified that he fired in self defense. He said Spence tried to take money from him at the point of a gun and fired at him first.

Western Movie Star To Attend Rodeo Events

Big Spring's 17th annual rodeo promises to be a fitting inaugural for the new concrete, bowl-type arena now under construction.

Officials of the Rodeo Association have been advised that Buck and Tommy Steiner, producers, will bring some of the best livestock and specialty groups here for the event.

In addition, Bill Elliott, well-known western movie star is scheduled to be here for all of the four-day event. Elliott, who has gained a wide following here by virtue of previous personal appearances as well as his movies, will ride in the grand entry. He will bring two of his horses here for use in specialty acts.

Contractors have assured rodeo officials that the new arena will be ready for opening night on Aug. 2. Corral, chutes, etc., definitely will be ready.

The local show, which is RCA approved, offers prizes and purses of $3,520, plus entrance fees, which will aggregate a substantial amount.

Competition will include bareback bronc riding, saddle bronc riding, Brahma bull riding, calf roping, steer wrestling, wild cow milking and girls barrel races.

French Sloop Leaves To Join UN Forces

SAIGON, Indochina, July 22 (AP)—The 2,000-ton French sloop, La Grandiere, left today to join the United Nations forces on Korean waters.

The French cabinet in Paris decided three days ago that the ship, armed with 18 guns, would be France's contribution to the forces asked for by UN Secretary Trygve Lie.

Mrs. Ann Poling, 609 Delaware St., Indianapolis, Indiana, who was suffering from deficiencies of Vitamins B1, B2, Iron, and Niacin, smiles as she pours herself another cup of coffee. Mrs. Poling says life lately is like it used to be years ago.

"That is, of course, since I've been taking HADACOL." She can't get over what a difference HADACOL has made in her outlook on life.

Mrs. Poling says "Three months ago a good friend of mine told me about HADACOL — she knew how much stomach distress I have had. Any type of food that was fried or that had acid in it I just couldn't eat. It affected my sleep, too. In fact, I couldn't have been in a worse condition. When I ate what I wanted to I felt miserable and when I didn't eat these things — I didn't have a proper diet and still felt bad. Then, when I started taking HADACOL I felt better immediately. I've got a bottle in the house now — and will continue to keep HADACOL from now on. I have told many folks about HADACOL — and they all thank me for telling them about it. HADACOL. They all have gotten wonderful results from HADACOL like I have. Now I eat anything I want and get a good night's sleep. I can't praise HADACOL enough."

HADACOL Can Help You, Too! as it has helped thousands of others whose systems lacked Vitamins B1, B2, Iron and Niacin. Yes, even hundreds of doctors have recommended HADACOL to their patients. The HADACOL formula is so effective for stomach distress, nervousness, insomnia, constipation, aches and pains of neuritis, and a general run-down condition caused by such deficiencies.

Make Up Your Mind to give HADACOL a chance to help you, as it has helped countless thousands of others. Remember, there are no substitutes for HADACOL. Always insist on the genuine HADACOL. No risk involved. Buy a bottle of HADACOL, either the trial size, $1.25, or the large family or hospital size, $3.50, and if HADACOL does not help you your money will be refunded.

TABULATION ON COUNTY JUDGE

BUDGET IS APPROVED

1950 County Fair To Open Sept. 28

Dates for the 1950 Howard County Fair have been set for Sept. 28-29-30. This action was taken at a meeting of the Fair association directorate Friday afternoon at the Settles.

At the same time, a $3,800 operating budget for this year's edition of the Fair was approved. The directorate also went on record proposing that a permanent home be erected for the Fair. Note was taken that the Rodeo association had offered five acres out of its tract west of the city as a site. It also was announced that around $10,000 of an estimated $50,000 required had been raised. Report of finances from last year's Fair, held during the Centennial week, were received from R. V. Middleton, treasurer. Gross receipts showed $3,470, exclusive of a $628 balance and a $315 resource from sale of a building. Principal sources were $1,020 from commercial exhibits, $1,254 from gate receipts, $678 from carnival.

Total expense for the year was $2,661.57. Of this amount around $750 went for prizes, etc.; an approximate amount for building, repair, electric, etc.; about $250 for printing; $208 on admission taxes. In the proposed budget, repair and upkeep were pegged at $1,000 because tentage may be required this year due to loss of one of the three buildings formerly used. Prizes were kept at $750, utilities $50, printing $250, watchmen and safety $100, plumbing and electrical $300, miscellaneous $500, judges $50, signs $150, admission was $200, permanent equipment $450.

Receipts were estimated conservatively at an equal amount of $3,800. A breakdown showed $1,000 from carnival, since the Fair will receive commission on a full week's run, $1,000 commercial, $400 banners, $100 concessions, $100 memberships, $1,200 gate.

Officers were re-elected. These include Joe Pickle, president, M. C. Grigsby and H. P. Wooten, vice-presidents; Rad Ware, secretary; R. V. Middleton, treasurer.

Tentative agreement was had on catalogued events. The catalogues are due to go to press early in August.

WINGS OVER BIG SPRING

Navy Traffic Brisk At Municipal Airport

Navy traffic continued brisk during the first three weeks of July in spite of the fact that contract for refueling military planes has expired, airport officials reported Saturday.

Sale of fuel to Air Force craft has slumped, however, since the contract ran out June 30. Navy airmen continue to purchase gasoline on emergency orders, Jack Cook, airport manager, said.

Efforts to renew the refueling contract with the Armed Services Petroleum Purchasing agency no far have been fruitless, City Manager H. W. Whitney reported. The city manager contacted officials of the ASPPA in Washington Tuesday, but they indicated they had received no requests from the various branches of service for refueling contracts here.

Farm Air Service planes were in the air Saturday dusting crops for insects in the Luther area. Dusting operations are expected to continue, an FAS flyer said. Showers which have fallen over the county during the past few days have handicapped most farmers' efforts to deal with crop insects, but inquiries reveal the possibility of considerable dusting in the next few days.

Electricians completed overhaul of part of the airport runway lighting system last week, sealing units that were revamped. Work will continue on the lighting for several days.

George A. Anders, Big Spring agent for American Airlines, rounded out five years of service with American on July 12.

Anders first started work for the company on July 12, 1945, as fleet service clerk at Fort Worth. He was transferred to Big Spring in 1946. Transferred to Dallas a year later, the agent was returned to Big Spring in June 1949.

During his first Big Spring assignment, Anders married the former Virginia Irwin, of Knott, who was also an employee of American here.

Czechs Seek Asylum

Two young Czech flying instructors landed a two-seater plane at Dusseldorf Thursday and sought political asylum, British officials announced today.

County Pct. 3 Backs Shivers' Administration

Democrats of Precinct No. 3 in Howard county endorsed Gov. Allan Shivers' administration and urged continuation of a vigorous fight for Texas' claim to tidelands at a precinct convention Saturday afternoon.

Resolutions praised the state land board, composed of Land Commissioner Bascom Giles, Attorney Gen. Price Daniel, and Gov. Shivers for a "brave and vigorous fight to prevent the loss of the tidelands of Texas."

At the same time, the precinct convention urged the Texas delegation in the U. S. Senate and House of Representatives to "continue to press our claims to the end that Congress shall recognize the right of Texas to keep these tidelands that have always belonged to Texas."

The convention also urged that control of navigable inland waters be reserved for the states, except for some long-recognized Federal rights and interests.

J. B. Pickle was elected chairman, while W. G. Mims was named secretary of the Precinct No. 3 convention. Delegates named to the county convention included Clyde E. Thomas, C. R. Moore, R. L. Nall, D. E. Williams, J. B. Pickle, R. B. Hood, A. E. Long, Jess Slaughter, Coy Nalley, Douglas Orme, Frank Hardesty and W. G. Mims.

There were no reports of other precinct conventions Saturday afternoon.

The Only Shortages Will Be Those... We Bring Upon Ourselves

There is every evidence of adequate supply of all types of goods. In view of strong inventories throughout the nation, and in view of this nation's productive capacity, there is every reason to believe there will be enough supplies to meet the normal demands of a reasonable public.

As our Chief Executive said in his message to the American public, the only visible danger of a short supply is in overbuying by an unthinking public.

Let us, in the interest of our country, and in our own interests, supply only our normal demands.

Let's Not Ask For Rationing!

North Howard Tests Make Strong Flows

Two north Howard deep tests in the East Vealmoor area made strong flows on tests Saturday.

George Brown of Houston No. 1 Lloyd Branon, a mile and three-quarters south of nearest production in the East Vealmoor (Canyon) pool averaged 99 barrels per hour in two hours flowing through half-inch choke. The test was shut in on account of storage. This flow followed one made Friday. If the average held good for 24 hours, it would have a potential of 2,376.

Production is coming from open hole from bottom of casing at 7,325 to total depth at 7,386. This venture topped pay at 7,296, which is 216 feet high to the top in Sunray No. 3 Wilson, southernmost test in the discovery area of the East Vealmoor pool.

Location is 652.7 from the west and 667.3 from the south lines of section 18-27, H&TC. Half a mile east Brown No. 2 Branon drilled below 1,800 feet.

Sunray No. 3 Wilson, which flowed oil and salt water in the Good Pool Test Due To Final

Condor No. 234 Good, in the northwest corner of the southeast quarter of section 36-33-4n, T&P, was in the process of becoming another Good pool completion in southeast Borden on Saturday.

The venture was running tubing. Total depth was 8,190 feet and oil string was set at 8,135. This venture is on the north central side of the pool.

Seaboard No. 17 Good, 660 from the north and 1,994 from the west lines of section 46-33-4n, T&P, was still bottomed at the plugged back depth of 8,249. Extensive acidization failed to rally this test, although it picked the reef substantially high to a producing east offset. It was plugged back and shot.

Seaboard and Pan-American No. 19 Good, 1,988 from the east and 660 from the north lines of section 37-33-4n, T&P, drilled past 7,145. Seaboard and Pan-American No. 20 Good, 2,047 from the east and 560 from the north lines of section 46-33-4n, T&P, east of the No. 17, was below 5,454. Seaboard and Pan-American No. 22 Good, in the southwest corner of section 30 and on the northwest corner of the pool, was bottomed at 3,125 feet where 9 5/8-inch string was set. No. 21 Good was idle at 8,207 while rig was skidded.

Completions Show Substantial Gain

AUSTIN, July 22. (AP) — Completion of 234 oil wells boosted Texas production again this week.

The Railroad Commission reported this year's completions now total 5,847 compared with 4,890 a year ago.

Fourteen gas wells completions boosted the 1935 figure to 431, one more than for the same period in 1934.

The commission reported 131 dry holes.

Wildcat drilling led to 12 oil wells, two gasers and 68 dry holes.

Plugged were 135 dry wells, no gas wells and 41 oil wells.

The total average calendar day allowable as of today was 2,480-103 barrels of crude, an 11,532-barrel increase from a week ago.

WEEK'S REVIEW

Runnels Becomes An Area Hotspot

SAN ANGELO, Tex., July 22.—Runnels county in West Texas, fast becoming one of the real hot spots of Texas oil, last week gained a Gray Sand oil discovery and another possible sand prospect. Borden county broke, in with a new discovery, possibly a Cisco formation.

O. W. Killam, Laredo, completed the Runnels Gray sand strike when his No. 1 W. W. Early, seven miles southeast of Winters, rated a daily natural flow of 235.8 barrels of 44 gravity oil. Gas-oil ratio was 425-1. Production was through a quarter-inch tubing choke and 44 perforations from 3,979-90 feet. Location is 890 from north, 1,070 feet from west line of section 346. BBB&C survey.

The prospective Runnels discovery, by Rosenberg and others of Dallas No. 1 Ray V. Willis, six miles southwest of Lawn, recovered 1,227 feet of oil and 240 feet of oil and gas cut-mud on a 3 1/2 hour test of an unidentified sand from 2,655-90 feet. Top of the sand was called at 2,667 feet. Location is 660 feet out of the northeast corner of section 437-G. Hancock survey.

An upper Pennsylvanian lime, possibly the Cisco series, has been assured in southeastern Borden county by Vickers and Norwood No. 1 J. R. Canning of Eden. The prospect, on a second

Canyon section, flowed 262 barrels of oil in eight hours through 18-64th choke. This showing was through at 6,910-60 feet which had been perforations in the upper section acid and treated with 1,000 gallons of regular acid. Tubing pressure in the lower zone from 7,458-62, recovery was 21.73 barrels of oil and 9.75 barrels of salt water in four hours. It is located 1,980 from the north and 660 from the

KEY FACTOR

Allies Have Advantage In World's Petroleum Supply

By MAX B. SKELTON AP Staff

HOUSTON, July 22. — Petroleum supplies might determine whether there is to be a world war against Communism.

Mechanized World War II offered proof another way of prolonged duration would require an astounding quantity of petroleum products.

The best available statistics on current oil production place Communist dominated countries at a distinct disadvantage when it comes to control of such products. World crude production last year was estimated to have averaged somewhere between 9 million and 9 1/2 million barrels daily. Of this amount, considerably less than 900,000 barrels daily were credited to Russia and other countries with Communist governments.

Taking World War II as a lesson, it would be difficult to see how a major conflict could be undertaken with less than 10 per cent of world oil production available. This is why oil producing areas east lines of section 16-27, H&TC in northeastern Howard. Shell No. 1 E. T. O'Daniel, which showed possibilities in the Wolf-camp and production in the Pennsylvanian, drilled to 8,650 in lime and shale. It is C SE SW section 2-30-1n, T&P.

Armer No. 1 Jones, another northeast Howard county wildcat, drilled to 6,277 feet in shale. It is in the C SE NW section 34-26, H&TC.

In the Middle East—Bahrain, Iran, Iraq, Kuwait, Saudi Arabia—figure so prominently in the current international crisis.

A sudden and successful Communist sweep across these oil fields could give the Reds another 1,500,000 barrels of oil daily.

Such successful action still would leave the Democratic nations with around 75 per cent of the world's production but the risk factor for Communist leaders would be reduced greatly.

The United States has given example it is taking no chances with its petroleum supplies, despite its producing more than half the world's daily output.

The Department of Commerce, since the outbreak of fighting in Korea, has tightened its export controls on various petroleum products, particularly aviation fuels.

A new commerce bulletin requires export licenses for many oil products shipments valued in excess of $25. Previously, no general export licenses were required for shipments valued at less than $1,000.

Spraberry Topped In So' East Lynn

Magnolia Petroleum Company No. 1 W. W. Caswell, Southeast Lynn County exploration, 10 miles east of Skeen, and a west offset to the same company's No. 1 Garza Land & Cattle Company, opener of the O'Donnell field, topped the Spraberry sand of the Permian at 5,943 feet, on an elevation of 2,920 feet.

The prospector is coring ahead below 5,967 feet. The section between 5,943 and 5,965 feet showed slight signs of gas and a little oil stain, but not enough show of petroleum to warrant a drillstem test.

Magnolia No. 1 Garza, the field discovery topped the Spraberry sand at 5,915 feet. Its elevation is the same as the No. 1 Caswell, 2,920 feet. That makes the No. 1 Caswell 28 feet low to the No. 1 Garza.

The location of No. 1 Caswell 660 feet from north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 431, block 9, EL&RR survey.

Slated In N. Garza

S. W. Sibley, trustee and C. A. Prater, both of Midland are to start operations at once on their No. 1 Connell, which is scheduled to be a 3,200-foot wildcat to explore into the San Andres-Permian lime in Northeast Garza County. Location is 330 feet from south and east lines of section 85, block 5, GH&H survey. That makes the drillsite eight and one-half miles northeast of Post.

Combination tools are to be used.

Both ventures are projected to 7,000 feet with rotary equipment.

Cogdell Edgers Are Scheduled In Kent

Two north edge locations have been scheduled to the Cogdell field in South Kent County for immediate drilling.

D. D. Feldman will drill the No. 8 Fuller, 850 feet from north and 1,787 feet from east lines of section 703, block 97, H&TC survey, 16 miles north of Snyder.

Chapman & McFarlin have slated the No. 18 D. M. Cogdell 1,980 feet from south and 2,014 feet from east lines of section 771, block 97, H&TC survey, 22 miles northeast of Snyder.

Both ventures are projected to 7,000 feet with rotary equipment.

Ellenburger Test Is Spotted In N. Scurry

Burdell Oil Company is credited with planning to drill a 7,500-foot wildcat to explore the Ellenburger in northeast Scurry County, about 13 miles northeast of Snyder, and six and three-quarter miles east of the north side of the Kelley-Snyder line reef producing area.

The prospector has been tentatively located on the G. W. Johnson land at the center of the north-quarter of section 261, block 2, H&TC survey.

Vealmoor East Stepouts Due

Two east stepouts to production in the Vealmoor field of Northwest Howard have been scheduled for immediate drilling.

They are the H. S. Moss of Dallas No. 4 W. J. McAdams and Seaboard Oil Corporation of Delaware No. 4 Cecil Mansfield.

No. 4 W. J. McAdams will be drilled 560 feet from west and 660 feet from south lines of section 27, block 32, T&P survey, T-3-N, three miles east of Vealmoor.

The No. 4 Cecil Mansfield will be located 660 feet from north and east lines of section 33, block 32, T&P survey, T-3-N. It is projected to 8,000 feet.

Seaboard No. 1 Ed Love, on the extreme southeast corner of the Vealmoor pool and in C NW SW section 34, 32-3n, T&P, progressed to 6,430 feet. Seaboard No. 13 Zant, a side well in the southeast corner of section 28, was last reported below 7,700.

A couple of miles to the south of Goldson No. 1 Akin Simpson, east offset to the southern extension, was below 7,500 feet in lime. It is located in the northwest corner of section 46-32-3n, T&P.

Two South Borden Wildcats Watched

After being watched closely during the week, two outposts in southern Borden along the Howard line drilled ahead Saturday.

Castleman & O'Neill No. 1 Rodgers, three and a half miles east of Vealmoor production and slightly north, was below 7,390 in shale. Earlier it had shown some fluorescence in a core from 6,638-60. Location is C NW SE section 28-31-3n, T&P.

Sunray No. 4 Wilson, one and three-quarters miles northwest of the East Vealmoor pay, was below 7,300 feet in shale. It had a break and soft drilling from 7,137-73 and ran a drillstem test 7,160-73 with recovery of 140 feet of salt water. It is C SW NE 36-31-3n, T&P.

OIL INDUSTRY PEGS ITS STEEL DEMAND

WASHINGTON, July 22. (AP) — The oil industry has informed President Truman it will need 3,842 tons of steel a year to keep petroleum production up to military and civilian demand.

And the estimate will have to be revised upward if there is a sharp increase for oil, said Russel B. Brown, general counsel of the Independent Petroleum Council of America, in a letter to the President.

Finals Well In Spraberry

Seaboard, et al No. 5-D Shafer has been completed for 365.38 barrels of 39.2 gravity oil on a 24-hour flowing test in the deep Spraberry pool of southeast Dawson.

The venture was hot with 737 quarts. Casing pressure was 25 pounds, the tubing pressure 150-200, gas-oil ratio 453-1. Top of pay was 6,494, bottom of hole 6,898; and 5 1/2-inch oil string was set at 6,483. Location is 1,860 from the west and 660 from the north lines of section 45-34-4n, T&P.

Seaboard No. 6-D Shafer, C SW NE section 48-34-5n, T&P, drilled to 6,632. Seaboard No. 7-D was making location in the same quarter. Seaboard No. 10 A-D Robinson in the southeast quarter of section 37-34-5n, T&P, repaired clutch at 1,581 feet.

Seaboard No. 9-D Spraberry, C SW SE section 38-34-5n, T&P, ran micro log at 6,810 feet. Seaboard No. 3-D Stanfield, C SE NE section 37-34-5n, T&P, waited on rig at 6,570 feet.

Seaboard No. 1-D Love, a southwest outpost to the Spraberry pool, was bottomed at 3,375 feet after setting 7 5/8-inch string at 3,374 feet.

Honolulu Announces Diamond M Outposts

Honolulu Oil Corporation has staked three locations on the west edge of the Diamond-M-Canyon field of Central-West Scurry County.

They are the No. 5 and 6 Frank Strom and the No. 2 J. R. Canning. No. 5 Strom will be 660 feet from south and west lines of section 147, block 25, H&TC survey. No. 6 Strom will be 1,980 feet from south and 660 feet from west lines of the same section, block and survey.

The No. 2 J. R. Canning will be 584 feet from north and 860 feet from west lines of the same section, block and survey.

The three projects are to be drilled to an estimated 6,900-foot depth. They are 13 miles southwest of Snyder and operations are to begin about August 1.

South Dawson Gets Wildcat

A 9,000-foot wildcat to test the Pennsylvanian has been staked in South Central Dawson County, eight miles south of Lamesa.

The test will be on a spread of approximately 3,200 acres assembled by Amcan Oil Corporation, which turned a part of the acreage to Norwood and associates to drill the well. Amcan retains an override on part of the spread.

Sections included in the block are: north half of section 4, all of section 3, west half of section 2, west half of section 10, north half of section 11, and the northeast quarter of section 11, and 118 acres out of the southwest quarter of section 10, and 224 acres out of the west half of section 12, all in block 36, T&P survey, T-4-N, and the south half of the southeast quarter of section 46, block 36, T&P survey, T-5-N.

Wildcat In Western Scurry Shows Gas

Delta No. 1 H. H. Eldred, Ellenburger wildcat in extreme central western Scurry, has encountered gas shows in the lower Permian.

On a drillstem test from 5,165-95, the tool was open 63 minutes. Recovery was 185 feet of heavily gas-laden mud with no shows of oil and water. Drilling continued below 5,195. Drilling depth is 8,600.

Location is 660 from the east and 616 from the south lines of section 283-87, H&TC. This puts it 1 1/2 miles west and two miles north of Snyder, and about one mile east of the Borden line.

Wildcat Southeast Of Tahoka Shows Water

Houston Oil Company of Texas Delaware No. 1 H. B. Howell, Southeast Lynn County wildcat, seven and one-half miles southeast of Tahoka, and 467 feet from north and east lines of section 451, block 1, EL&RR survey, had found signs of water in the Spraberry section of the lower Permian in a core at 6,420-70.

Refinery Engineers Land Plant Contract

Refinery Engineers of Tulsa, Okla. have been given contract for a half million dollars in improvements at the McMurry Refining company in Tyler.

H. M. McMurry, who has operated the East Texas refinery since 1934, said the cost covered materials only. Tom Lumley and Harold Bottomley, formerly of Big Spring, are top men in the Refinery Engineers set-up.

Two Southwestern Borden Wells Have Potential Tests

George P. Livermore, Inc. No. 3 G. F. Whitaker, on the southeast side of Reinecke production in southeast Borden, has completed for 3,044.23 barrels of 46 gravity oil.

The well, an east offset to the operator's No. 1 Whitaker, topped the reef at 6,709 feet (minus 4,358), which is only 10 feet below the Cosden No. 1 McNeill, a north-east offset which holds the highest point for the reef in the pool.

Potential was based on a six-hour flow through 1 1/2-inch choke. Casing and tubing pressure were not given. The hole was treated with 3,500 gallons of acid. Gas-oil ratio was 1.275-1. Bottom of hole is 6,838 and 5 1/2-inch string was set at 6,803. Location is 660 from the north and east lines of the southwest quarter of section 53-25, H&TC.

P. R. Rutherford and Heep No. 1 Gilmer Davis, discovery well between the Reinecke and the Von Roeder pool to the north, completed Saturday for 223 barrels of high gravity oil. The 24-hour flow was through 3-16th-inch choke. There was no water and the gas-oil ratio was 760-1. Top of pay was 6,768 (datum minus 4,519). The 5 1/2-inch string was set at 6,766 and bottom of hole is 6,781. Location is 467 from the north and east lines of section 68-25, H&TC. This puts it 2 1/4 miles southeast of the Von Roeder pool and three miles from the Reinecke pool.

Humble Adds Scurry Wells

Humble Oil & Refining Company has scheduled two south edge wells to the Sharon Ridge-Canyon field of Southwest Scurry County, for immediate drilling.

They are the No. 1 and 2 Gilbert Richter. No. 1 is slated to be drilled 660 feet from north and west lines of section 97, block 25, H&TC survey, 18 1/2 miles southwest of Snyder.

The No. 2 will be located 660 feet from north and east lines of section 96, block 25, H&TC survey. Both projects are to be drilled to an estimated 7,000-foot depth with rotary equipment.

Several new field locations have been spotted in the Kelley-Snyder field of Scurry County, Pan-American Production Company, has scheduled two, Skelly Oil Company one and Sunray Oil Corporation one.

Pan-American's ventures are the No. 13 C. E. McCormick and the No. 13 G. W. Bynum. The No. 13 C. E. McCormick will be located in the southwest side of the field, 467 feet from south and west lines of section 254, block 97, H&TC survey, seven and one-fourth miles west and a little north of Snyder.

The No. 3 Bynum will be located in the extreme south portion of the field, 971 feet from south and 467 feet from west lines of section 212, block 97, H&TC survey, seven and one-half miles west of Snyder.

Skelly's No. 2 L. M. McClamey will be drilled in the northwest side, 467 feet from south and west lines of section 298, block 97, H&TC survey, eight miles northwest of Snyder.

Sunray's No. 4 H. J. Schulze will be drilled inside the central-north portion of the field, 467 feet from south and west lines of the north-west quarter of section 293, block 97, H&TC survey, six miles northwest of Snyder.

All four Kelley-Snyder field ventures are to be drilled to an estimated 7,000-foot depth.

Rutherford No. 2-A Griffin, on the north central side of the pool, was looking for the reef at 6,880 feet, which gives it a datum minus of 4,323 at this point. Rutherford and Heep No. 3-B Griffin, most northwesterly test in the area, drilled below 6,890 feet. It is 1,667 from the south and 467 from the west lines of section 20-25, H&TC.

Fair & Parker No. 1 Griffin, 660 from the north and west lines of the northwest quarter of section 46-25, H&TC, was below 4,100 feet. Cosden No. 1-B Holley, 660 from the north and west lines of section 52-25, H&TC, was below 5,000 feet. Cosden No. 1-A G. H. Holben, 660 out of the northwest corner of section 44-25, H&TC, a direct south offset to Livermore No. 3 Whitaker and a diagonal southeast offset to Pan-American No. 1 Holley, the now shut-in wild well, was below 3,100 feet.

Broncs Meet Angelo Today, Head North

Play Dusters In 3 Games

The next four days will go a long way toward deciding how the Big Spring Broncs are going to finish in the Longhorn league standings.

Pat Stacey's gang is occupying third place in the wheel at the present time but today they meet a club challenging for a first division berth—San Angelo—at Steer park.

On Monday, the Broncs disappear from town for three days, at which time they meet Vernon's Dusters in Vernon. The Dusters have always posed a problem for the locals, at home or away, and are due to be double tough this time out.

Today's imbroglío gets underway at 3:30 p.m. Bert Baez is due to mount the knoll for the Steeds, in quest of his 12th mound triumph of the season. He's lost five.

Ex-Bronc Keeps Red Hot Pace

By The Associated Press

Jake McClain, the Harlingen terror of Rio Grande Valley League pitchers, picked up a little more steam last week. Not that he needed it but he just added a couple of points to his batting average.

McClain leads in six departments. He's the hitting leader with .386, tops in hits with 147, runs with 123, home runs with 37, run batted in with 123 and in total bases with 286.

The skippy left-overs go to teammate Don Petchow, who leads in doubles with 35 (McClain has 24), and Joe Koppe and Chuck Hansen of Corpus Christi and Rudy Escobar of McAllen, who are tied for the lead in triples with 10 apiece.

In stolen bases, Koppe gets the pace with 20. Dick Midkiff, the former big leaguer who twirls for Del Rio, is the pitching leader with a 15-3 record. Bill Guthrie of Harlingen and Rio Valdez of Laredo are tied for the strike-out leadership with 108.

Corpus Christi leads in club batting with 311 and Brownsville in club fielding with 949 but is only one point ahead of Corpus Christi.

Six Texans Among Top Golf Winners

CHICAGO, July 22. (AP)—Six Texans are among the top 25 money-winners of golf this year.

Sam Snead of White Sulphur Springs, W. Va., is the leader with $23,211.34. Jimmy Demaret of Houston is second with $14,676.16. Lloyd Mangrum of Dallas is fifth with $10,668.83. Jack Burke, Jr., of Houston is sixth with $9,887.50. Ben Hogan of Fort Worth is seventh with $8,185. Henry Ransom of Bryan is twelfth with $6,433.83 and Fred Hawkins of El Paso is twenty-fourth with $2,431.67.

BARTLESVILLE, Okla., July 22. (AP)—Dave Elliott of the Bartlesville Pirates was assigned outright Friday to Waco, of the Big State League.

Elliott pitches lefthanded. He hurled 34 scoreless innings this year and established a new loop record.

Waco is a Class B team.

LOOKING 'EM OVER

With Tommy Hart

Carl Coleman, who will do the architecture on the Big Spring high school Steers' football plays again this fall, has most of his grid hopefuls working at jobs that call for a lot of physical effort. . . . Some are laboring at oil fields near Big Spring, others are on out-of-door jobs here. . . . He hopes such endeavor will put them in good physical trim by the time they report for workouts on Sept. 1. . . . It appears now that Raymond Gilstrap may start at center for the 1950 Steers, Aubrey Burk at end. . . . Coleman tried Burk in the backfield in several workouts but figures the youth will show to better advantage at the terminal post, considering the fact that most of his experience has been in the line. . . . Bobby Jack Gross, counted upon to play a lot of football for the Longhorns in the fall, threw the shot put 50 feet 6 inches twice in practice heaves here recently. . . . Weldon (Scratch) Edwards, quite a tackle for the TCU Frogs a couple of seasons ago, has succeeded Burl Bats as head coach at Luling high school. . . . Bats will bring a Bowie (El Paso) team here next season. . . . Bob Williams' face, the Notre Dame quarterback, will appear on the covers of four national magazines before long. . . . Bobby Riggs, the tennis promoter, is losing control of the touring troupe that reaped a golden harvest for such names as Jack Kramer and Pancho Gonzales, not to mention Riggs himself. . . . Blondy Crane of Our Town, quite a wrestler in his day, says the roughest grappling match he ever saw was the one between Big Train Clements and Pat O'Dowdy at the Sportorium here a couple of years ago. . . . Both O'Dowdy's eyes were closed in that one.

Jorge Lopez Should Have Had Homer

Cotton Lindloff, the Roswell outfielder, clouted 350 1/2 six games in the National Semi-Pro baseball tournament at Wichita, Kansas, last year. His present boss, Tom Jordan, hit only .333. Lindloff was with Weimer, Tex., while Jordan performed for the Alpine Cowboys.

Stan Hack reportedly is in line for the job as skipper of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast league, a position now held by Bill Kelly. Hack formerly was with the Chicago Cubs. Longhorn league directors are apt to move their 1951 starting date back to the late ten days in April. The clubs opened on April 11 this year and the weather was terrible for three weeks thereafter. Jorge Lopez actually should have been credited with a home run when he crashed out his eighth inning hit against Ballinger here last Monday night, though Umpire Baird Hutchens couldn't be blamed for limiting the Bronc second sacker to a ground-rule double. Left Fielder Clyde Bell of the Cats lost sight of the pellet but it remained inside the field. A ball boy later went out to pick it up. Harold Ratliff of the AP says any professional baseball club must draw at least 100,000 customers a year, if it makes money. Maybe so, but Big Spring has never lured more than 60,000 paying fans through the gate and is still in business. The Colonial league, a Class B outfit that supplied the Broncs with Catcher Norman St. Clair back in 1947, has folded. It never was a very strong organization.

Delayed Steal Never Tried Now

The Big Springers' biggest need in the Longhorn league was right now is a lefthanded pitcher. They're setting up quite a howl in the big leagues because the playing fields are being tampered with for the stimulation of home runs. Too many short fences are appearing in both circuits. Teddy Williams isn't the only big timer who has suffered mishap in the major leagues' all-star classic. . . . Dizzy Dean and Johnny Allen are others who had their effectiveness handicapped by hurts experienced in the classic. So did Ival Gooden and Max West. Here's something you never see in modern day baseball, although we have the boys fast enough to try it. A delayed steal, which occurs while the catcher is lobbing the ball back to the pitcher and the runner breaks for the next sack. Gilbert Stromquist, the Texas boxer who gained renown because of his height (6-foot-8) rather than because of his ability, is toying with the idea of staging a comeback. He's 32 years of age. They say he could never take a stomach punch. Napper Davis, the Southwestern ex, gets the unenviable assignment of refereeing that TCU-Arkansas football game, in Fort Worth next Oct. 7. The fireworks of the 1949 battle between those two teams has never died down. Davis will be aided by Jimmy Higgins, Gene Bedford and Johnny Morrow.

CARDS RETURN TO LEAD IN TORRID FLAG RACE

ST. LOUIS, July 22. (AP)—Outhit, 13-10, the St. Louis Cardinals came back to a first place National League tie with Philadelphia tonight by beating Boston 11-7 in the second game of a day-night double header. The Redbirds, dropped the afternoon contest 8-5. Two-run homers by Stan Musial and Red Schoendienst in the night game helped Howard Pollet chalk up his 10th victory—the first Cardinal pitcher to reach that mark this year.

Timely Cardinal hitting and a batch of walks by Boston pitchers—Starter Warren Spahn and relievers Ernie Johnson and Johnny Antonelli—spelled the difference in the night score.

A walk-by Spahn and Musial's homer, another walk and Schoendienst's homer in the third gave the Redbirds a 4-0 lead.

Maxwell, Freer To Meet Today

LEVELLAND, July 22. (AP)—Billy Maxwell, Big Spring, and Frank Freer, Lamesa, today gained the finals of the first annual Levelland country club invitational golf tournament. They will meet tomorrow in a 36-hole match for the title.

In today's semi-finals, Maxwell dumped Jimmy Goldman, Lubbock, 3 and 1, while Freer ousted Bill Houck, Borger, 4 and 3.

Sellman, Mitchell Tangle For Crown

CLOUDCROFT, N. M., July 22. (AP)—Two Texans moved today into the finals of the annual Cloudcroft Invitational golf tournament.

Jack Sellman of Houston defeated Clyde Blackwell of Roswell, N. M., 2 and 1 today and Ross Mitchell of Lubbock defeated Paul Kimball of Hobbs, N. M., 2 and 1.

Cavuses Batter Angelo Colts By 11-2 Count

The Big Spring Broncs wheeled in their heavy artillery to pulverize the San Angelo Colts, 11-2, in the opener of a two-game series here Saturday night.

While Vince Amor and Gil Guerra were combining their talents to set the Colts down with five hits, the Broncs were acting right unshippable to Indio Beltran and his successors, Jimmy Price and Joe Torres. The provincials rapped out 21 assorted base hits, getting at least one blow in each of the eight frames in which they went to bat.

Every man in the Big Spring lineup hit safely at least once and Felix Gomez, Many Junco, Pat Stacey and Pete Hernandez all had night nights, each getting three hits.

Guerra didn't do so badly with the hickory, collecting a single and a triple in two official trips. Two mates were aboard when he lashed out his triple in the eighth frame.

The Broncs, treating Beltran as if they owned him, scored in each of the first four frames. Then they failed to find the plate again until the eighth, although they belted Beltran's successor, Jimmy Price, from pillar to post during that time.

Amor tired in the seventh but not before he received credit for his second win of the season. This one was sweet revenge, for Vince lost a one-run Angelo recently. An error by Third Sacker Jack Smith after two were out in the first opened the door for Big Spring. Stacey followed with a double that plated Danny Conception and the Steeds were off.

The Colts put together two walks with a misplay by Jorge Lopez and an infield out to get their first run in the third and added another in the seventh when Chino Lopez walked, then went around on hits by Amor and Bob Cruces.

RAMBLINGS—Rain threatened to wash out proceedings and kept the crowd to around 350 or 400. Gabe Casteneda started all the plays that retired the Angelo club in the first frame. Gabe led off the second with a triple, sliding into the bag ahead of the throw from right field. Cruces made a great stab at Conception's drive in the second but it got through him for a triple. Tony Guerrero caught line drives to end Big Spring's part of the third and fourth rounds.

Big Spring players beamed on a pitch thrown by Amor to Serrano in the fifth, after which Serrano fanned. Junco bunted expertly for his third hit in the eighth.

Fishing Committee To Meet Aug. 17

MOBILE, Ala., July 22. (AP)—A committee named by the Gulf States Marine Fisheries Commission will take an important first step toward uniform fishing and shrimping regulations for the five member states.

The committee was appointed at a commission meeting which ended here Friday. It will meet in New Orleans Aug. 17-18 and prepare a report on Gulf fishing and shrimping for the commissioners.

The commission will receive the report at its annual conference in New Orleans Oct. 19-20. The information will be used in drawing up proposed uniform regulations.

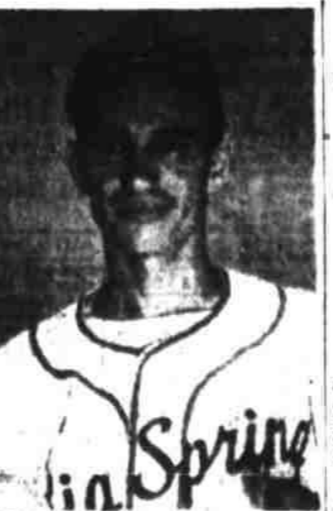

Member states are Florida, Alabama, Mississippi, Louisiana and Texas.

A plea for uniform shrimping regulations was made Friday by Dr. James Nelson Gowanchok, chief biologist of Louisiana's Fish and Wildlife Service.

Gowanchok said the five states should have uniform policies on the size of shrimp which can be taken legally, the shrimping season, and whether shrimping should be permitted at night.

Lamesans Bow To Pioneers

LAMESA, July 22. (AP)—Despite a four-run rally in the bottom of the ninth the league leading Lamesa Lobos bowed tonight to second division Clovis 13-8 in the West Texas-New Mexico league. The West Texas-New Mexico league, Texas-New Mexico team collected 17 hits off the Lamesa hurling staff and capitalized on six Lamesa errors for the victory.

RELIABLE—Jesus Uley (above), who joined Big Spring long after the Longhorn league season got underway, has become one of the Bronc staff. He on his seventh game of the season Friday night by stopping Ballinger. (Photo by Culver).

J'hawks Entertain Knapp In Important T-C Tussle

Circuit Lead Is At Stake

Howard County Junior college and the Knapp Lions, now one-two in Tri-County baseball league standings, clash at 2:30 p.m. on the college diamond.

The J'hawks caught up with the Lions last week when they bowled over the rugged Welch gang while Knapp was being upset by Ackerly.

Winner of today's contest will probably wind up in first place in final standings, although the race does not close until next Sunday and there are still several make-up games to be played.

Harold Davis, HCJC mentor, said his team would probably be at full strength today. Several key players were missing when the collegians trounced Welch last week.

Howard Jones, if available, will probably hurl for the Big Springers. A. J. Cain and Floyd Martin will be ready for relief duty in event Jones should falter.

ADVISES DUSTING

Warn Farmers Of Rise Of Leafworm

County Agent Durward Lester sounded a warning again Saturday for farmers to swing into action this week against cotton pests.

Infestation of leafworms had mounted to heavy proportions by the end of the week. The number of bollworms was increasing and Lester said that surveys showed the egg deposits were now heavy. This would pose a heavy first generation crop of bollworms.

Cabbage loopers, present in considerable volume, were dwarfed by increase of leafworms.

For double control Lester said he had received a bulletin from the state extension service office saying that a two-and-one mixture of 20 per cent toxaphene and 40 per cent sulphur would make satisfactory dusting material. The same ratio is applicable for spray.

The dusting should be done at the rate of 10 to 15 pounds per acre. Best time to get it on would be between now and Wednesday evening. A repeat within seven days would pay off.

"Save the calcium arsenate," was the agent's advice. The other mixture will be better for double-kill purposes. The arsenate, like other poisons may be in short supply. It will serve purposes better if saved for leafworm infestations late in August or early September.

Cerebral Palsied Clinic At Lubbock Set For August 14

A clinic for examination of cerebral palsied children will be held in Lubbock on Aug. 14.

Parents interested in bringing children to the clinic are requested to register at the Cerebral Palsy Center at 3502 Ave. N. or by calling telephone 6541 at Lubbock.

Cerebral palsy is a condition which may be present from birth or may be caused by such childhood diseases as whooping cough or measles, or head injuries, said Dr. Esther Snell, director of the Center. Under treatment, many of the children improve to the extent that they can care for themselves. Treatment begun at an early age is most effective.

AWOL Texan Probably Saved Writer's Life

AN AMERICAN COMMAND POST IN KOREA, July 22 (AP)—Pvt. Reuben K. Kimball, a Texas soldier handy with a 45 pistol, probably saved the life of a party of newsmen and photographers Thursday.

Kimball shot a Korean sniper dead on a flaming street in Taejon, said Associated Press photographer Max Desfor.

Desfor gave Kimball's home as Baytown.

"Earlier a dispatch from Tokyo named Pvt. Ruban K. Kimball of Houston as a jeep driver who reported that Wilson Fielder, Jr., 35, Hong Kong chief of bureau for Time Magazine, and a soldier were shot out of his fleeing vehicle at Red captured Taejon. Fielder is a former Texas newspaperman who worked at Odessa, Waco, Ennis, and Corpus Christi, and whose father lives in Waco.

"Kimball said he did not know whether Fielder and the soldier were killed or wounded. He said if they were wounded they may have managed to escape with other units fleeing the South Korean city.

"Friday the Associated Press carried a story about a cowboy-booted Texan who went AWOL from a rear area in order to join the Taejon fighting soldiers who told of the incident didn't know the Texan's name. The account from Max Desfor describes the same incidents. What has become of Kimball since is not clear.

ABClub Votes To Make Publicity Tour For Rodeo

Members voted to make a rodeo publicity tour Monday, July 31 when the American Business Club met Friday at noon. The group will charter a bus to make the southern loop to publicize the annual rodeo which begins here August 2. The tour will include Garden City, Sterling City, Water Valley, Robert Lee, Bronte, Blackwell, Roscoe, Colorado City and Westbrook.

In connection with the rodeo, Dr. Howard Schwarzenbach reported that 400 pillows are being made to be rented at the ABClub concession stand during the four night rodeo.

Reports were heard from John Knox, Ted Phillips and J. D. Jones, representatives to the national convention held in Greenville, S. C.

Peppy Blount, club guest, spoke briefly to the group.

Texas Electric Show Drew 15,546 During Three Days

Texas Electric Service closed its eight-week circuit with its show of '50 here Friday evening before more than 4,000 people.

Total attendance here for the three evening stand was 15,546. Friday evening's total, at the time the last performance was put on, stood at 4,208.

Most of the show was dismantled and made ready for storage Saturday.

The baby pigs were turned over to County Agent Durward Lester (or distribution among 4-H club boys in the county).

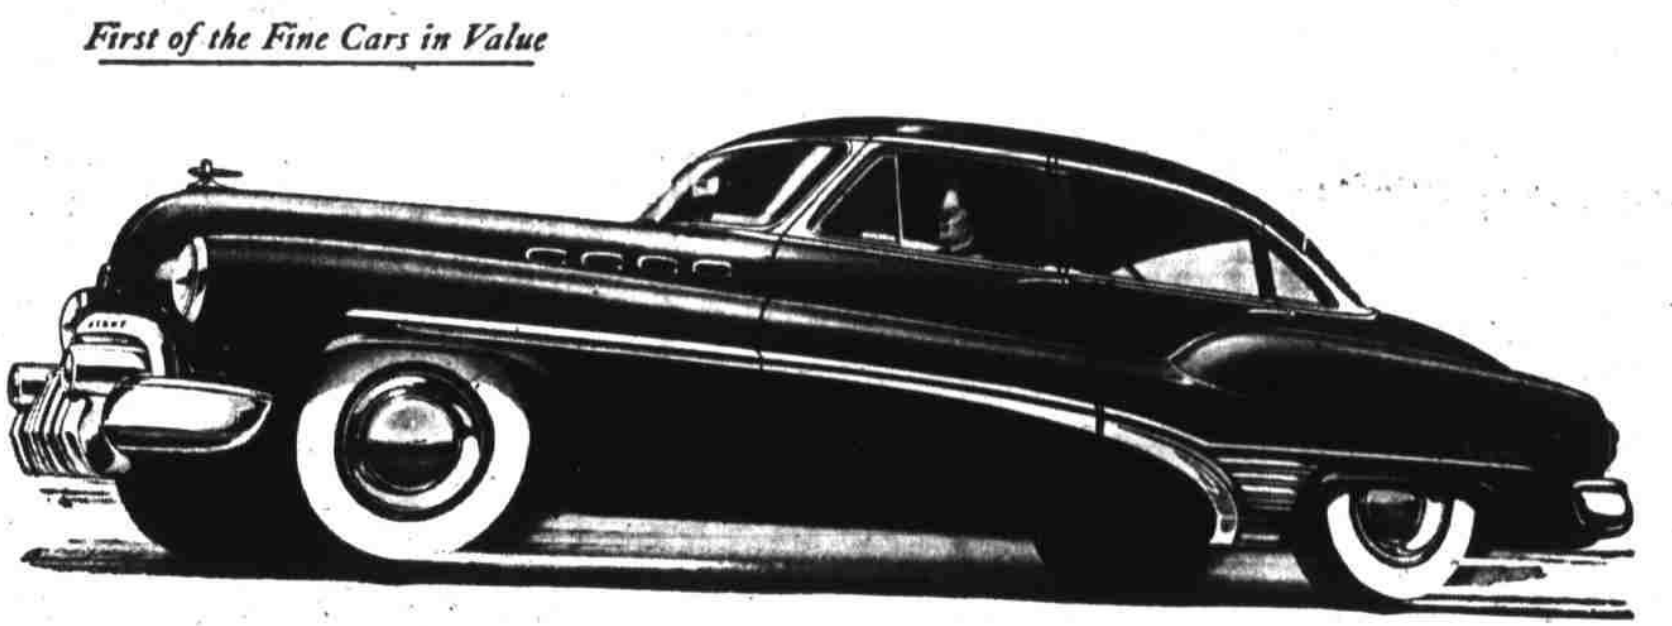

The Graham 4-H club had waived on the concessions stand as a gift from TESCO. Local interests cabbaged on to some of the display.

Although the show bucked several conflicting engagements here, its stand was considered successful by TESCO officials and by the 17 dealers who exhibited electrical appliances under the big top.

"WE CAN DO IT AGAIN" San Antonio Set For Any New War

By WILLIAM C. BARNARD
SAN ANTONIO, July 22 (AP)—If a third world war is in the making, this old fortress city is ready. Hundreds of thousands of men trained here in the first and second world wars. Mayor Jack White said, "We can do it again. The military is our business." Spain established a garrison here in 1691 and for 200 years San Antonio has been an important military post. Today an estimated 50,000 service men are stationed at Fort Sam Houston, Camp Bullis and Randolph Kelly, and Lackland Air Force Bases. In addition, about 30,000 civilians are employed. "If it weren't for the military," said White, "we'd be in a fix." San Antonio has a new 1950 population of 406,811. The announcement surprised even the Chamber of Commerce which had made a considerably lower guess. The gain was an amazing 49.2 per cent. "We easily outgained the Yankee cities of Dallas and Fort Worth," White chuckled. They have been annexing everything in sight over at Houston. Mayor Oscar Holcombe of Houston was here in town and I asked him why doesn't he annex Galveston? "But with big city population, San Antonio has avoided big city ways. Left here is leisurely—there's no frantic bustle. Sunday mornings, the city is positively slumberous. The early-rising tourist can walk almost alone along the 22 blocks of walks beside the lazy blue San Antonio River. Later in the day, the river will be infested with canoes, gondolas and even a hooded scow with an outboard motor. Highways out of town are busy on Sundays, for San Antonio is a short jump from varied types of vacation country. There's the Hill Country of Bandera and Kerrville; the Gulf Coast at Corpus Christi. And about 150 miles away is Laredo, the Rio Grande and Mexico. But most citizens find their Sunday fun right in town. No Texas city has bigger or better parks. Breckenridge Park Zoo, with moats instead of bars, is one of the finest in America. Also, San Antonio has an abundance of swimming pools, a Texas league baseball team; a symphony orchestra that outdraws any other in the state; the biggest theatre in Texas; and reputedly, more drive-in theatres for its size than any city in the United States. "Also," said Mayor White, "we have pioneered air conditioning down here and I believe we have more air conditioning, according to population, than any other American city." Even San Antonio city busses are air conditioned. "We have all this air-conditioning," White hastened to add, "despite the fact that our summer days aren't too warm and our summer nights are fine and cool. Of course, everyone knows our winters are lovely." In the colorful Latin-American area of the city, the governor's palace built by the early Spaniards, still stands. In another section of the downtown district is the Alamo, Cradle of Texas Liberty. Defenders of that old mission, 182 men, all gave their lives when 4,000 Mexicans marched against them in the war for Texas Independence. Early-day missions brood in a half-circle around San Antonio. And this is a peaceful city. Police Capt. Burk Haddock said, "People don't give us much trouble any more. We had 55 murders in 1948. So in 1949, police started making the rounds of the taverns and searching the customers for lethal knives. We now have about six bushels of knives in our basement. Murders in 1949 dropped to only 25. And at the rate we're going we'll have less than that this year." Haddock added: "As for safe burglaries or hijackings—we don't have nearly our share as compared with other big cities." In 1936, when San Antonio's population was hardly more than half what it is now, the city had 10 police cars. Now there are only 15! And San Antonio puts only one policeman in its patrol cars. "We need more industries here—such as ceramics and textiles," said Mayor White, "and we'll try to get them. Our main goal is to have a city where people can live pleasantly, happily and gracefully—really live!"

Retail Prices Went Up Before Korean Crisis

WASHINGTON, July 22 (AP)—The sharpest retail price rises in two years were announced by the Bureau of Labor Statistics today for the May 15-June 15 period—before the outbreak of the Korean War. The agency said prices rose 9 per cent from mid-May to mid-June, with food prices soaring 2 1/2 per cent over the figure for the previous 30 days. Meats, eggs, fruits and vegetables jumped the highest. The significance of this announcement is that even before the Korean fighting broke out on June 25, prices were not only going up but were gathering speed in their ascent. The May-16-June increase topped the 3 per cent rise reported last month—a rise described then as "the greatest percentage increase during any month since July 1948." Since the fighting began, new and apparently bigger rises have occurred. President Truman has told Congress he may have to ask for power to control prices. Friday Rep. Sabath (D-Ill.) said after a visit to the White House that Mr. Truman is determined to seek that power "if he can't get them to stop the increases."

Auto Industry's Materials Have Cost Rises Recently

DETROIT, July 22 (AP)—Many of the auto industry's materials and sub-assemblies have advanced in price recently to add to its problems. This is true of numerous items besides tires and it makes remote the likelihood of any major reductions in new car prices for the near future. More than a few industry sources had been expecting lower prices with the introduction of new models later this year. The expectations were based largely on the industry's huge earnings in 1949. With few exceptions, the car makers made a lot of money last year. Most of them show substantial earnings so far this year. But manufacturing costs are higher now than they were a year ago. And industry executives note, there are a lot of tax uncertainties ahead. The auto industry's pension plan adds to the manufacturing expense and with pensions coming to a growing number of their supplier companies, parts and materials costs also are going up. So there isn't much chance of price cuts of any consequence in the near future. Some informed sources say there not only will be no price reductions but increases are possible. The same sources say that some current refinements may have to be taken off forthcoming models if present price levels are to be maintained.

Too Much Help Given By Monkey To Baggage Worker

TOLEDO, O., July 22 (AP)—Jocko, a six-pound ringtail monkey, became an obnoxious assistant to a New York central system baggage car worker last night from Syracuse to Toledo before firemen ended his career. The worker, E. A. Anderson, said Jocko broke out of his cardboard cage as the train approached Buffalo and was a continual headache from there on, swinging from ceiling to floor to boxes and occasionally to Mr. Anderson. Finally, the train pulled into Toledo's union station, where members of the fire department rescue squad and two zoo keepers waited. Fireman John Juvencio, armed with a net, captured Jocko in short order. A relieved Mr. Anderson took the monkey on to his destination, Peoria, Ill.

The Bureau of Labor Statistics (BLS) in giving out its regular "consumers' price index," furnished no figures of what has happened since June 15. The June 15 index was 170.2, or 70.2 per cent above the average of 1935-1939. This was the highest since January 1949, but still below the record high of 174.5 in August and September of 1948. The June index for foods was 204.6, more than twice as great as the 1935-1939 average.

Texas Building Awards Remain At High Level

AUSTIN, July 22 (AP)—Texas construction awards remained at a high level this week, non-residential lettings accounting for more than one-half of the $25,241,971 total. Non-residential contracts totaled $13,024,180, the Texas Contractor, building trade journal, announced. This included $5,150,826 for schools, $4,852,239 for business buildings, $1,435,904 for hospitals and hotels, $845,101 for churches and theatres, and $740,119 for public buildings. Residential awards amounted to $7,024,354. Lettings on 652 low-cost homes totaled $4,433,200. 78 residences costing more than $7,000 each, $1,847,000; apartments providing 80 one-family units, $480,955; 21 duplexes, $243,354. Engineering contracts added $5,193,282. The 1950 accumulative total rose to $523,254,510.

Pravda Claims Aid By Hungary To Korea

MOSCOW, July 22 (AP)—The Communist Party newspaper Pravda said today that Hungary has sent equipment and personnel to set up a field hospital for Koreans. Pravda's Budapest correspondent said a brigade of doctors and nurses already has been flown from the Hungarian capital.

NEW YORK, July 22 (AP)—The sugar-buying rush has quieted down here, it was announced by City Markets Commissioner Anthony Maciarelli. A survey of retail stores by his inspectors, he said, revealed the decrease in demand. Time To Check PQ

By DAVID TAYLOR MARKE
AP Education Writer

We've heard much about "I-Q" tests for children through which attempts are made to measure the intelligence of children and their ability to do certain school work. Now, along comes Dr. Mary G. Ascher, Administrative Assistant and Coordinator of Guidance on the staff of the William Howard Taft High School, in the Bronx, N. Y. C., with a "P-Q" test for parents. Through it a parent can find out just how high a "Parent Quotient" she establishes.

For those of you who would like to test yourselves, we list the questions below. Five points are scored for each "Yes" answer and one point deducted for each "No" answer. A parent scoring 85 or more is regarded as doing an excellent job in assisting in the guidance of her child. Ask yourself:

1. Do I see to it that my child gets enough sleep, and rises early enough to consume a wholesome, substantial breakfast?
2. Do I see to it that my child looks clean and attractive before he leaves for school?
3. Do I furnish my child not only with an allowance, but an understanding of budget planning?
4. Do I refrain from making unfortunate comparisons between one child and another in the family or between my child and someone else's which makes my child or one of them appear stupid or inferior by comparison?
5. Do I personally inspect and sign my child's report cards?
6. Do I discuss with my child the ways in which his scholarship may be improved?
7. Do I check carefully the record of absence and lateness on the report card, and if the record shows absence and lateness of which I am unaware, do I make an appointment with the counselor to investigate the discrepancy?
8. Do I mail immediately to the school, with an explanation, the postal card that I received when my child is absent from school?
9. Do I realize that absence from

PETS, THAT IS

Despair Of Parents And Child's Delight

"What next?" is the cry of the parents when Johnny or Susie drags in a stray dog or cat or finds a new batch of red ants and horned toads to claim as pets.

Seems that growing children just have a natural knack for finding strange creatures who need a home and care and once you get over the initial shock of what the next animal will be, it's rather interesting to watch the home menagerie grow.

Pets of the normal child vary from the demand for a horse or goat to the finding of June bugs and earthworms. Chickens and ducks and even skunks and alligators become pets.

Getting accustomed to having the animals around necessitates toleration of the habits of the individual animal. For instance, there is the dog that barks at rocks or insists on joining the family for the morning meal and the cat that never ceases to meow until fed. Besides being quacky, the duck will often eat the minnows and tadpoles (which are also pets) in the fish pond and the pet chick is always just peeping around.

Yes, pets are pleasures except they have to be fed regularly and cared for continually. Comes the time when the animal has a bad cold or even bronchitis. Then you take him down to be shot—with penicillin.

So when your child comes in wagging 'man's best friend', take a deep breath and think of this: what is a home without a pet and what's a pet without a home?

WRINKLES don't even come with old-age in the new nylon clothing. Being crease-resistant, vacation packing doesn't bother it in the least.

Vacation Time Is Travel Time So Think Twice Before The Take-Off

Whether it's an individual or a family affair, a vacation just happens once a year. While some few still prefer to spend the time in the company of a shade tree and hammock, the majority of vacationers travel.

And a change of scenery, of course, means some before-hand planning if the trip is to be worry-free. Without putting a damper on the excitement, a lot of details can be taken care of to make the vacation more pleasant before you get on the road.

Planning the trip is first and most important, and can also be a lot of fun. A few post cards to the chambers of commerce along the way or the State Highway Department will give you a complete outlay of maps and information to plan your route with. Along with relatives you want to visit or special events you want to make, you can fit scenic spots, historical sites, and possibly a few fishing holes into your schedule to.

You'll want to make climate considerations your chief guide when you start deciding what to take. Observation, as well as experience, say it's best to travel light. Veteran travelers find that too much bag and baggage wears you out and can actually spoil the pleasure of your trip. The people who travel a lot and love it are much more interested in new places, new people, and new experiences, than in several changes of costume a day.

A good idea is to take as many double-duty items as possible. Take a beach-robe that can double as a bathrobe, or some moccasins that will do for house-slippers as well as something to loaf in. This is especially important in the case of footwear, since shoes leave a lot of waste space when packing. Basic colors and styles should be considered in picking your vacation wardrobe. Neutral colors which combine easily and don't show dirt are travel musts nowadays. Besides all the laundering advantages, they're easy to pack and wrinkle-resistant.

However awkward and unpackable they might be, cameras and fishing tackle, as well as the inevitable curios that come home from the trip must be allowed for. You'll need to pack such items as cosmetics, shaving kits, and first aid equipment separately from clothes, since they must be readily accessible. This can be even more of a problem if you travel by bus or train. These items might also need some special protection. Adhesive or cellophane tape should be wrapped around bottle tops and jars to prevent leakage. For the women, cologne sticks, dry shampoo, and powder deodorants are particularly convenient for space-savers and insure your vacation finery against spilling.

One last suggestion—make a list of all your "put-the-cat-out duties" before you leave and check them off as they're attended to. Then you won't be five hundred miles away wondering if you left a note for the milkman, sent those pans of dog food over to your neighbor for Fido, and disconnected the refrigerator.

Just a little bit of time devoted to the "trivial" things in preparation will pay off in relaxation and peace of mind on your vacation trip this summer.

Howard County's Beauty Spot

Beautiful, Inspiring, Peaceful

A few short years ago, the Memorial Park Ideal was born in the conviction that the final Resting Place of our Sainted Loved ones should be one of quiet beauty, an inviting garden spot that breathes of happy memories, telling a story of LIFE-NOT DEATH. Today TRINITY MEMORIAL PARK is another fulfillment of that ideal.

Here will be the verdant beauty of broad lawns, beds of flowers, massed and blended shrubbery and broad paved avenues, and overall the celestial strains of hidden music like the endearing charms, and loveliness of TRINITY MEMORIAL PARK will lift the heart above the contemplation of sorrow and fix it upon the faith in immortality that reaches beyond the grave.

A perpetual care fund has already been established for the care of this park. The principle of this fund can never be spent, but the income from its wise investments (under the supervision of the State Banking Commission) will be perpetually available to give every grave, every lot, attention and care, forever!

YOUR OPPORTUNITY TODAY

The privilege of choosing a family lot in Trinity Memorial Park at pre-development prices affords the same worthwhile advantages enjoyed by Trinity Memorial Park's very first purchasers. These advantages include:

Where to shop for what-- HELEEN'S HINTS

IF YOU ARE THE WOMAN I heard about who bought 20 sheets last Saturday I hope I hope you end up sleeping on tow sacks and I hope you pay a mighty price for those sacks! Honestly, let's don't start singing the same song, second verse, on panic buying. It hurts no one but ourselves and shoots prices sky-high in no time at all. Except for sheets (and a few other household items) on stocks were wonderfully complete this past week and among your better buys will be:

BOBBY BROOKS WHIPS UP THE CUTEST BLOUSES I've seen in many a moon and the new SHIRT TALENTS being featured now at Zack's of Margot. Maybe you've seen them advertised in Mademoiselle, Seventeen or Charm. At any rate they're fall's favorite cuties with real tuck-in tails. Masculine in style... they go feminine in detail with smart cuffs and collars in contrasting weaves. There are seven colorful chapters to the Brooks story with sizes ranging from nine through 18, 30's through 36's at $5.00.

SWIRLS FOR THE GIRLS at the Little Shop... spell easy wear with a capital E. Prices are right in line from $7.95 to $9.95 for these snappy wrap-arounds with all the button security that pretty things up in front: with fluffy bows, full, daintily trimmed pockets and snug shoulder fits. In gingham, chambray and other feather-weight cottons, they're ideal for vacation living, ball games or afternoon shopping.

NATIONAL ADVERTISING in the better magazines sent me to Elrod's to look into the matter of balancing a turntable of water on a new Beautyrest mattress. You've seen the ads and you'll be interested to know that besides the wonderful balance achieved by these mattress makers, they pack a lot of comfort into the 137 coils which are individually selected for longer life and greater sleeping ease. There's a ten year guarantee and a service you'll like at $59.50. See the matching box springs with a similar tag.

YOUR PLANTS MAY BE HUNGRY... for something besides water and a good place to pick up their groceries is at Faye's Flower Shop. The plant foods are for both growing and cut flowers, and periodic use will produce superior plants in soil, sand or water. The preparations prolong plant life, retard wilting, prevent fading and maintain fragrance. The packages range from ten cents to $1.00 according to size.

SEE THE PLISSE (cotton crinkled crepe) at McCrory's if you've been searching for suitable pajama material. Thirty-six inches wide, this versatile cotton that needs no ironing, comes in a variety of patterns that range from stripes and plaids to bold polka dots in bright shades. At 44-cents per yard, it's a good buy and now's a good time to stock up on pajama material for the entire family.

QUEEN QUALITY will reign supreme in the fall fashion parade with an elegant flame opera pump at the J & K Shoe Store. Narrow double crosses of soft suede ornament the low vamp that slims into a dainty open toe. The medium high heel curves snugly into the sole and from all appearances it's the ideal accompaniment for any fall costume at $10.95. If you prefer a smooth leather, Queen Quality also styles the pump in black kid.

MIRRO MAKERS OF FINER ALUMINUM, have a wonderful new collection of good cooking utensils included in the Mirro Treasure chest at the Big Spring Hardware. Ideal as gifts for any number of occasions, the chest is filled with 16 pieces that include a chicken fryer, French fryer, roaster, coffee pot, mixette, sauce, stew and biscuit pans, cake tins, double boiler, an informative cook book and other essentials that transform kitchen drudgery into an essential fun. They're priced at $18.95.

I COULD WRITE A BOOK on the features of the new GE Refrigerator-Home Freezer at Hilburn's. Appliance company. The first chapter would concern the roomy fresh food compartment that never has to be defrosted, and the second would be the freezer that has the same lasting features of a deep freeze. It safely keeps foods stored up to three months at ten degrees. Two separate doors keep a regulated temperature in both compartments. GE tops them all in trays with a compartment that releases cubes but secures them for easy carrying. Check the advantages built into this A-1 box that retails for $399.75.

THE AUTUMN SOCIAL WHIRL (not too far away) calls for fall attire to serve both daytime or evening activities as well as practical, I suggest the Settles Beauty shop. Your locks need professional tapering and waving, and expert technique must be employed to achieve the style and beauty you have in mind. A hair free care free personality cut I liked was one which was not trimmed too short—and with expert cutting at the sides, the right brushed up effect in back, it gave the head the appearance of being shorter. It's a good trick... and one not easily accomplished by an amateur.

EVEN WHEN STRAWBERRIES ARE IN SEASON I can't see the mess and bother of picking and cleaning them when I can pick up a can of Winter Garden frozen strawberries for 39c at Furr's Food Market. The 11 ounce can contains sliced berries in thick sweet syrup, and preparation is simply no problem. Placed in a pan of warm water, it soon thaws, you open it, heap the berries over your shortcake and bingo, you get the prize for whipping up the best... in the quickest time. Winter Garden is packed under continuous inspection of the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

IF YOU'D LIKE TO GO MODERN with new drapes for a tailored bedroom, the den or in the office, I'd suggest you make a note to see Lucille's Interior Decorators about their new shipment of Calcutta cloth. This glorified burlap, woven with strong sturdy threads, comes in 23 newer shades including black, and its uses are unlimited.

THE VELVET CARPET IS OUT at Mi-Lady's Accessories and Dawnelle rolls it out with smart sophistication. Velvet, the fabric of queens, is seen everywhere with its summer popularity reaching an all time high this fall. MI-LADY'S is featuring Dawnelle Valencia gloves with versatile black velvet cuffs that are stunning. For a slim wrist, Dawnelle molds the Valencia without side seams and uses Elvette fabric in a most fascinating sweep of soft velvet for a smooth cuff. Check the quality and craftsmanship styled into these $4. accessories.

THUMBING THROUGH THE DELIGHTFUL collection of Waterhouse wallpapers at Thorp's Paint store, I ran on to the New Hampshire stencil pattern which bears all the hallmarks of the very early imported papers. The design, wonderfully primitive, was of crude handmade paper. It was painted in two colors available, (blue and dull red) imperfectly overlaying the black pattern register. In short it was a block print made around 1700. Dorothy Waterhouse found the New Hampshire stencil at an old house along Stony Brook. Deserted and tumbling down, it gave up its treasure and fell to ruin... Today nothing but this Colonial paper remains.

YOUR SUSIE'S PIG-TAILS will stand straight up when she sees the darling little school frocks that will make their appearance soon at the Kid's shop. Following a month's vacation, the store will open to the tune of school bells August 1, and dress racks will groan under the heavy load of attractive little numbers selected by Kid's Shop wise buyers.

AN IDEAL STARTER SET in pottery can be found in the gift department at Zales jewelry store. Cinnamon, mist gray, summer rose and chartreuse were picked from the color chart and combined for good effect in the four cups, saucers, luncheon plates and desserts included in the set. Open stock, you'll find it a convenient way to add gray boats, a coffee pot, salts and peppers and serving bowls. You're off to a good start with the $5.95 starter set.

UNUSUAL COMBINATIONS OF GLORIOUS fall colors make up the eye catching fabric display in the piece goods department at Hemphill Wells... and autumn leaves of fashion are whispering about the imported Swiss gingham's topping the fashion news. These combed cotton yarns are woven with a crease resistant finish in 42 inch widths. Especially fetching is the combination of purple, burnt orange and a brilliant green. Ask to see these imports at $1.65.

LET'S GET THE PICTURE STRAIGHT ON the Home Improvement Service, one of the fastest growing new businesses in this section. Until I got acquainted with the store out at 1702 Gregg street, I had the impression that their specialty was landscaping... and home decorating. Others apparently have the same mistaken idea. The shop sells quality paints and supplies, wallpaper, Venetian blinds and wood awnings. Their services include supplies of outside blinds, casement windows and tile, and they can furnish you with inlaid linoleum, drain board coverings and rubber tile. If it's home improvement needs, the HIS has it!

A Bible Thought For Today -

Christ taught a technique of abundance. Gratitude to God and sharing his gifts assure a continuance of those gifts and an increase of gifts as well. "Jesus took the loaves; and when he had given thanks, he distributed to his disciples."—John 6:11.

Lay Off Hysterical Buying For There Will Be Enough For All

"Here's where the sheets were." That's what the man said, pointing to some empty shelves. He was a story typical of other merchants.

"Tires!" the service station man repeated. "No shortage of tires. Only thing we don't have any. Sold 'em out four and eight a whack."

And so it goes. New passenger cars, permanent type anti-freeze even some piece goods.

Hysterical buying, selfish hoarding. Like the cartoonist showed: "America first."

Let me get my goods in store.

Let me see in my convenience and comfort; then we'll see about the welfare of the country.

Let me fill my barn; then we'll worry about whether there will be enough to go around.

The Bible tells of the man who grew smug in the bounty provided for him until one night he got the sobering word that his soul was being required of him.

What happens to smugness and selfishness in a democracy when a country's soul is called to test?

What good are material possessions if wrong attitudes paralyze a people, and exterior tyranny be imposed? And what good is abundance when conscience must be smothered?

There never was much wrong with a democracy such as ours that wasn't in some way rooted in selfishness.

"We mutually pledge to each other our lives and our fortunes." Say that's the idea. It bore a nation, the greatest in history. It's stronger than anything—anything except maybe selfishness.

Lay off, brother and sister. There will be enough for all. And if there shouldn't be, then lick the same log as the next fellow. He's American, too.

Editors' Roundtable

As Many Nations As Possible Should Send Troops To Korea

Editors favor the use of ground troops in Korea from as many nations as possible to emphasize the international character of the United Nations' action there. And majority opinion is that many of the larger nations can and should send to Korea not just token forces but really effective units. But a considerable minority of editors question whether necessary commitments of other nations against Communist aggression in other areas will permit diversion of effective forces to Korea now. And some editors question whether a multi-national army can be organized quickly enough to be effective in the Korean war.

ST. PAUL (Minn.) DISPATCH (Ind.): "Secretary General Lie of the UN has asked the non-Communist UN countries for ground forces in Korea. The participation of others so far has been limited to some naval and air units from Britain and France, and planes from the Australian air force. All of these nations, each according to its available means, should respond. Then we shall have the great and inspiring spectacle of a real union of free peoples as comrades in arms."

LOUISVILLE (Ky.) COURIER-JOURNAL (Ind-Dem): "The policy importance of a fully representative force of UN troops is manifest. But the military usefulness of such a hastily assembled body would not be important for months to come. If any powers could spare troops in units of division or larger, the problem would be simpler. But the best sources for these would be Britain and France—and they have so many troops on guard against Communist expansion in Hong Kong, Malaya and Indo-China that the Pentagon, beyond doubt, would fear rather than do nothing further to weaken their present strength in Europe."

NEW YORK TIMES (Ind-Dem): "Mr. Lie is right to seek as nearly unanimous a contribution as is possible. A multi-national force could not, at least for some time, be a decisive factor in the struggle, since the obstacles in the way of efficient training, liaison, staff work and logistics would be tremendous. The Fifth Army in the World War II campaign in Italy was composed of Americans, Britons, Poles, Brazilians, French and Italians and it was a formidable task to handle the Army as a coherent unit. However, it was done, and very successfully."

WASHINGTON (D. C.) POST (Ind.): "The British feel that they have special obligations in Hongkong and Malaya and the French have committed a large number of troops in Indo-China. But no national problem is as important as making the United Nations' anti-aggression policy a success. And that will require not only the amassing of sufficient strength to repel the invaders but also an effective demonstration of international unity in terms of military force. Other nations should do their utmost to supplement the American effort."

DAYTON (Ohio) NEWS (Ind-Dem): "The French already have 10 divisions, in short, the bulk of their army, fighting in Indo-China. The British have two divisions engaged in Malaya. We have only one division in Korea at the present time. All of these troops would be vitally needed in Europe should the Soviets attack Western Germany. But they are also needed just where they are. Could the British and the French safely divert ground strength to Korea from the guerrilla fronts in Southeast Asia where they are barely holding their own?"

PHILADELPHIA (Pa.) INQUIRER (Ind-Rep): "The Korean war is no isolated unrelated affair. If the Reds should win there, or should even tie down American forces for a considerable time, the way would be quickly opened for Communist conquest of Malaya, Hong Kong and Indo-China. Stopping the Reds in Korea is indispensable to the protection of those territories. Until the U. N. possesses an international police force able to implement its decisions, each of its members must do its part. The United States is doing much more than its part."

NEW YORK HERALD TRIBUNE (Ind-Rep): "Since the forces of the principal military powers in the U. N. are already pinned down, in one fashion or another, to tasks vital to the common defense against Communist aggression. It is necessary to take a longer view of the role of America's international associates. In organizing the command and utilization of U. N. contributions to the defense of the Korean Republic, attention should be paid to the possibility of developing a real international police force, which might act in Korea itself. If the war there is a lengthy one, or elsewhere, should the Communists probe another soft spot."

Nation Swings Into Full Action As Truman Seeks Men, Money And Arms

The nation gained momentum this week and hopes rose higher for the fulfillment, in the end, of world peace as America shed its pacetime serenity for its cloak of armed strength in an effort to show the Communist world we stand ready to quash any breach of the peace. With an angry worded condemnation of the North Korean invasion of South Korea and a denunciation of Soviet "peace" aims, the nation's commander-in-chief, Harry S. Truman, asked Congress to provide more men, money and arms for the "police action" on South Korean soil.

Immediately after the presidential request, the wheels of Congress began turning at an unprecedented pace-time speed as senators and representatives agreed with the urgency of the president's request. Ten billion dollars was Mr. Truman's estimate of initial expenses, all for defense. More, he said, may be needed later. Authority was given to the Defense Department to issue mandatory calls to active service of National Guardsmen and reservists if wanted by the military. Other requests, subject to approval by Congress, include: 1. Tightened installment credit, probably higher down payments and less time to pay. 2. Higher taxes. (However, this will come later.) 3. Draft summons for those men between 19 and 26 who are needed. 4. Controls over materials, including government authority to ration supplies and set up priorities to say who should get them. 5. Possible limited output of civilian goods which takes a big quantity of steel and other scarce materials. 6. Curbs on inventory hoarding.

No price, wage or ration control was asked for the present, but Mr. Truman made it clear that if "scare-buying" and spite losing some ground. The division, commanded by Gen. William Dean, slowed down the Red advance to a virtual standstill compared with previous weeks' total miles gained. Gen. Dean is now "lost," though not officially listed as missing. He was last seen aiding a bazooka team on the streets of Taejon. The doughboys inflicted losses of gigantic proportions before allowing the North Koreans to cross the vital Kum river at the beginning of the week. Once across, however, the Reds were subjected to round-the-clock United Nations bombing raids. Australian, American and other Allied fighters and jets hammered away at Communist supply lines, tanks, and rail and communications centers. In no case was an Allied plane lost and the UN airmen piled supreme over clear skies most of the week. Front-line dispatches claimed the combination of stiffened ground resistance and an effective air armada slowed the Communies. Some observers saw a shortage of tanks and other mechanized equipment among the Red forces. Too, the general view was that Red troops could not long stand the bloody air assault. Losses were too heavy among the North Koreans and the belief that American troops could stem the tide was heightened.

SEN. KENNETH WHERRY

While no early end to hostilities was predicted, the combined UN strength was multiplying fast and an Allied offensive seemed near.

Switching back to the nation's capital, the city appeared to resemble a busy train terminal prior to any holiday week-end. While some confusion was evident, the overall picture was one of hastily assisting the President in backing up his refusal to allow "breaches of the peace."

Late this week the Defense Department issued calls for active duty among reservists and National Guardsmen. The entire Marine Corps ground reserve was given notice and the Navy alerted some of its air reservists.

The Army, similarly, said it planned to call some of its reservists and has also stated they plan to call up "non-divisional" National Guard units. None of the services was very explicit about who, what, when and where, but the inference was that most reservists and a good portion of the Guard would return to active duty, particularly among the "technicians."

The draft still is expected to handle a certain quantity of manpower, but the armed services were looking for already trained personnel. A dispatch from Washington also intimated that if necessary, some World War II veterans might be recalled.

In general, however, the experts considered the recalls to duty to be of a precautionary nature and that while more troops and material are needed in Korea, the idea was to install a note of preparedness into the American way of life. On the congressional front, senators and representatives moved swiftly. The Senate and House Armed Services Committees cleared the decks for quick legislation to lift the ceilings on size of the armed forces and extend all enlistments for one year.

The Senate-House Economic Committee agreed unanimously that federal taxes should be increased immediately to put the country on a pay-as-you-go basis. Sen. O'Mahoney (D-Wyo.) felt taxes ought to be increased 10 percent at once. However, no action will be taken until Congress receives its tax message from President Truman later in the week.

Although no definite steps were taken as far as economic legislation was concerned, three Republican senators might prove to be a bar against any quick granting of powers to the President. Senators Taft of Ohio, Wherry of Nebraska and Bricker of Ohio contended Truman's request for a full range of allocation, priorities and credit curbs must be examined closely. The trio, a conservative bloc, were wary of rushing into something, and Wherry often associated with isolationist factors, claimed he suspected an administration effort to "nationalize the economy."

Despite this trio and expected but debate over the issue, Congress seemed to be ready to build up the nation's strength and add to a war economy.

Despite any conflicts that may arise, whether in the field of partisan politics or just plain disagreement over the methods of fighting Communism, one thing appeared certain: this nation was geared for action, geared in a manner never before attained by a peacetime America.

Problems are due to arise. That is inevitable in a democracy but the men in the Kremlin today are a bit more wary of furthering the gains of Communism. This can only be attributed to the remarkable coordination of the 52 nations backing the UN directive regarding Korea, and to the prompt action of this country in changing to its cloak of strength.

Isolationism is no more in America and for that a free world breathes easier knowing, at last, that the most powerful nation in the world will no longer tolerate armed aggression—whether it be against the United States or some small, non-strategic country—it would affect us in the end.

Two wars within a 25 year period proved this.

Flying Saucer People Could Be Right About Earth's Idiot Era

Lil Abner Yoskum has been associating with late with some person, or persons, with odd heads who travel by flying saucer and who have little respect for the earth-people. That's us.

Three-Head has made some very pointed remarks to establish the contention that the world is in the Idiot Era, and there are times when most of us would have a hard time disagreeing.

Several foibles and downright meannesses of the earthpeople have been cited quite cogently, but Three-Head hasn't gotten around yet to talking about the Idiot Era in connection with how earth-people act when they think there might be a scarcity of something — just anything. I shudder to think what Three-Head would have to say after having watched the senseless dash to the market places these last few weeks by otherwise sane and patriotic people who have read the headlines about an impending World War growing out of the Korean battle.

The manufacturers, the distributors, the retailers, the public officials and nearly everybody else who has a platform to speak from have tried to calm down this hoarding rush. They apparently haven't accomplished much.

Naturally, the stories that get around about Mrs. Snatchem purchasing sheets by the score, or Mr. Grabbit getting auto tires by the dozen, are exaggerated with a few tellings. But there is enough truth in the matter to be a subject of real concern to all sound-thinking people.

The hoarders, actually, are hurting only themselves. They are asking for higher prices, they are inviting rationing, they are pleading for an imbalance in the nation's economy. They are going to get it.

You bring me proof that any single individual in the state of Texas who actually suffered any more than an inconvenience due to shortages and rationing during World War II, and I'll buy you a fine hat. No, the hoarders are not trying to evade any future hardships; they are simply yielding to plain, ornery selfishness, to a very ugly greed.

Why rush now to buy sheets, with the of it stored in the ground? Why rush to buy butter, when there are tons and tons of it stored in the ground? Why rush to buy tires, when there are producing plants just waiting to go back into operation? None of it makes sense.

About the best we can do is to hope the hoarder's lard turns rancid, that his tires rot, that his sheets fall into shreds, that his automobile rusts beyond use; that his flour gets full of weevils and his sugar turns to salt.

Meanwhile, don't laugh at Three-Head when he observes that the earth-people are in the Idiot Era. BOB WHIPKEY

Eisenhower Keeps Heavy Lead Among Republicans For 1952

By GEORGE GALLUP
Director, American Institute of Public Opinion

15 per cent, Mr. Stassen 12 per cent and Governor Warren 5 per cent.

PRINCETON, N. J. July 22—Now that the nation's attention is almost exclusively fixed on issues of war, rearmament, mobilization and defense, will the popularity of military men as possible Presidential candidates begin to soar—or wane?

In 1944, in the midst of World War II, Gen. Douglas MacArthur had steady support from one section of the Republican rank and file as the Presidential nominee. More recently, Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower has been outstanding as a popular candidate. A survey completed on the eve of the outbreak of war in Korea found General Eisenhower continuing far in the lead with Republican voters, and increasing his strength sharply among Independent voters.

The table below shows how the situation stood in late June. A new survey is now in progress to test the effect of the war crisis on the standing of various candidates.

Each person in the survey was asked whether he classified himself politically as a Democrat, a Republican or an Independent. Then he was given a list of names mentioned as possible candidates for the Republican party and was asked:

"Here is a list of men who have been mentioned as possible Presidential candidates in 1952 for the Republican Party. Which on would you like to see nominated as the Republican candidate for President?"

Here is the vote of those who classify themselves as Republicans:

REPUBLICAN VOTERS
(Survey Before Korea)

Dwight D. Eisenhower	37 pct.
Thomas E. Dewey	17
Robert A. Taft	15
Harold E. Stassen	14
Earl Warren	9
Alfred E. Driscoll	9
Others	1
None of these	1
Don't know	3

Others mentioned included Gov. James H. Duff, of Pennsylvania; Rep. Joseph W. Martin, Jr., of Massachusetts; Sen. Wayne L. Morse, of Oregon, and Sen. Henry Cabot Lodge, Jr., of Massachusetts. In a comparable survey reported in April, General Eisenhower polled 37 per cent among Republican, while Senator Taft had 17 per cent, Governor Dewey

Views of Independents
General Eisenhower has been attracting an increasing number of voters who consider themselves neither regular Republicans nor Democrats but Independents.

Evidence of this is found in the following table, which compares the vote of Independents in the June survey with the earlier study in April:

INDEPENDENT VOTERS

	April	June
Eisenhower	33pct	40pct
Stassen	15	14
Dewey	11	14
Taft	11	10
Warren	10	7
Others	12	8
None of these	3	1
Don't know	5	6

Of course some of the men in the list have not avowed any intention of seeking the office of President.

Governor Dewey has announced his retirement as governor of New York this year, but has been silent about his intentions in national politics.

A good deal of speculation about Governor Warren for 1952 was stirred up by his impressive showing in the recent California primaries.

'Second Choice' Ratings
Each person in the survey was asked a second question:

"And, who would be your second choice?" Results to this question give interesting clues to each candidate's latent strength. Stassen was mentioned most frequently as a second choice by Republicans. Should Eisenhower become "unavailable," Stassen's popularity would undoubtedly increase.

Senator Taft also wins a good portion of the second choice vote. Here are the results:

2nd Choices

Less Nervousness In Japan Over Korea Than In Pentagon

TOKYO, (AP) — THE KOREAN WAR somehow seems almost as far away from Tokyo as it does from New York or Washington.

This is odd considering that a jet plane can fly from here to the warfront in about the time it takes a man to smoke a 10-cent cigar.

But an air of solid confidence has replaced on the tension that prevailed in the first weeks of fighting. There is probably less nervousness here than in the Pentagon.

MANY HEADQUARTERS ECHELONS are still taking off Wednesday and Saturday afternoons as well as Sundays—just as they did before the emergency.

It is an odd and unreal war in many respects. It is quite possible for a soldier to be wounded in Korea before lunch and to eat dinner that same night in a first class Army hospital in Japan, assured of finest medical care.

Cutting Down Home Building Helps Strengthen Military

WASHINGTON, (AP) — HOME-BUILDING has been going on at a fast clip. This is fine in normal times.

But now, with the country trying to build a military machine in a hurry, home-building raises a couple of problems.

As the government takes some of these materials, making materials and new homes scarcer, the price on new and old homes goes up.

To put a brake on such price rises and still let the government get the materials it needs, President Truman this week did this:

He ordered some of the government agencies which help people buy homes to make home-buying just a little tougher.

He could do this under laws already on the books, without need for new laws by Congress.

He gave his orders to three government agencies.

1. The Housing and Home Finance Agency (HHFA), which helps civilians.

2. The Veterans Administration (VA), which helps veterans.

3. And the Federal National Mortgage Association (FNMA) — called "Fannie Mae" — which helps banks.

TAKING THEM ONE AT A TIME. THIS is what the three agencies do and what Mr. Truman told them they must now do.

1. The Housing and Home Finance Agency not only insures banks against losses on loans they make to citizens to buy and repair homes; but it also helps cities to build low-rental housing for low-income families.

The President has ordered HHFA to tighten up all along the line—on its insurance on loans and its help to cities.

2. The Veterans Administration has been guaranteeing lenders, like banks, on loans they make to veterans for home-buying.

In some cases, where veterans couldn't get home-loans from banks, VA could make direct loans to veterans.

But the President has directed VA to be a little less generous with its guarantees and to use up slowly the money it has for direct loans.

3. THE FEDERAL NATIONAL MORTGAGE Association buys mortgages from banks which have made loans to people so they can buy homes. The mortgage gives a bank the right to take over if the borrower doesn't pay up on his loan.

The FNMA was created because a bank may get too much of its money tied up in such mortgage loans. If this reaches the point where the bank can't make any more such loans, home-building suffers.

If the bank could sell its mortgages to someone and get fresh money for making more home loans, home-building would stay steady. And that's what the government wanted in peacetime.

So Congress set up "Fannie Mae" to buy up mortgages from overloaded banks and sell them to some organization which was willing to buy them.

Mortgages can be sold and resold at a profit because any home-buyer who gets a loan must pay interest on it.

Now the President has told "Fannie Mae" to cut down on its mortgage-buying and get rid of a lot of the mortgages which it has bought but still hasn't sold.

SEN. JOSEPH O'MAHONEY

hoarding continue to rise, he will NOT hesitate to seek controls. He also made a very pointed blast at "selfish and foolish" people who are on buying runs.

Shortly before the presidential message to Congress, American troops took the offensive for the first time in the Korean war. Supported by Allied air cover, the U. S. First Cavalry division and the 25th division splashed ashore on the southeastern coast. The famed "Hell For Leather" cavalrymen landed as a mechanized infantry unit and immediately drove seven miles inland against no opposition. The 25th "Tropic Lightning" unit met the enemy after landing at an undisclosed point.

Battle-weary infantrymen of the gallant 24th division which has borne the brunt of the Communist tank onslaught, this week performed valiantly, de-

TOPSY-TURVY WORLD

Student Lives "Diagonally" In The Interest Of Science

WICHITA, Kan. July 22. (AP) — He's looking at the world through topsy turvy glasses—and it's making him a bit sick.

But Fred J. Snyder, 25-year-old GI graduate student at the University of Wichita, gets over his light spells of nausea quickly.

Snyder is wearing glasses that turn what he sees upside down and cross-wise.

It's part of an experiment attempting to prove that vision is something we learn—just like we learn to walk or to eat.

Snyder's psychology professor said he'd have several periods of nausea after putting the strange glasses on, due largely to nervousness.

In effect, Snyder will have to learn to live "diagonally."

"We are going to observe and record what happens to a person when you disrupt his habitual way of looking at things," said Dr. M. N. Pronko, Wichita University psychology professor.

We feel that Fred will adjust to seeing things upside down after a few weeks.

"That will help strengthen the thesis that we learn to see just as we learn to read, write or eat."

The experiment, which began yesterday, will continue for 30 days. He'll practice with a peg board—writing, reading, walking straight lines.

When he sees an upside-down hand sticking out toward him from upper left, he is going to have to learn to reach down and to the right to grasp it.

Then—the test over—he's going to have to unlearn it all, when he takes off the special glasses.

When Snyder first put on the glasses yesterday he had a bit of trouble descending stairs at the university and walking along the hall.

"It's funny—they're putting the lights on the floor now," he jokingly commented.

At lunch—in an off-campus restaurant where people stared—he didn't knock anything over.

"But he had trouble reaching for things like the salt shaker, and difficulty finding the food on his plate with his fork," a co-worker chuckled.

"It's a very strange world," Snyder admitted.

Snyder's brother Charlie—21 and a Wichita U. junior also interested in psychology—will serve as his guide on the campus and on a "shopping trip" up town today.

Snyder is going to see how a drug store and a fashionable men's clothing store look, upside down.

If he doesn't get an inverted "greeting" from Uncle Sam, that is. He's an army reservist.

Horticulturists have developed a full line of midget fruit trees that grow to only a few feet tall.

MANY HAVE SAID:

"I want to express my appreciation of the thoughtful manner in which you served me and my family."

Approximately 200 "old settlers" of Howard, Borden and Glasscock counties gathered at the 4H club building near Municipal airport Friday for their annual reunion.

Ben Shafer was reelected president of the group for another year, and Eugene O'Daniel, vice president was re-named to that office.

Rexie Cauble became secretary treasurer, relieving Mrs. Maggie Richardson who had held that office for the past 10 years.

P. O. Hughes, and Dr. T. M. Collins.

The old settlers were guests at a noon barbecue made possible through contribution of a calf, mutton, and goats by members of the reunion association. They heard an old fiddler's contest during the afternoon and left off discussions of "old times" long enough to take part in a session of dancing.

J. J. Tucker, 76, and "Uncle Bill" Cowley, 81, both residents of the area for more than a score of years, drew the applause of the crowd when they demonstrated their alacrity in an old fashioned jig.

R. P. Luce was judged winner of the old fiddler's contest. Second place went to Jess Sanders and third to J. C. Self.

Among the old settlers on hand for the annual reunion, and the years they settled in the area were: Dosis Robinson, 1889; John Schafer, 1887; Mrs. W. C. Bird, 1895; Bismarck Schafer, 1891; Mrs. Bismarck Schafer, 1899; J. J. Phillips, 1891; D. A. Gray, 1899; W. W. Fisher, 1865; and Mrs. W. W. Fisher, 1875.

'Paid In Full' Mid-Week Show At The Ritz

Robert Cummings, Elizabeth Scott and Diana Lynn star in Paramount's gripping romantic drama "Paid In Full" which is the Tuesday-Wednesday attraction at the Ritz theatre. Eve Arden heads a brilliant featured cast that includes Ray Collins, Frank McHugh and Stanley Ridges.

Dealing with a theme that long has been regarded as "not for the movies," this Hal Wallis production is the absorbing story of two sisters in love with the same man and the lengths to which one goes to win him.

One of Hollywood's ablest leading men, Robert Cummings is said to add luster to an already glittering reputation with his expert portrayal of the man two women desperately want. The picture marks the second time he has been teamed with Miss Scott, the two having previously appeared in the highly successful "You Came Along."

Both Miss Scott and Diana Lynn, two of the film capital's loveliest young stars, are welcome additions to any cast. As the intense rivals for Cummings' affections in "Paid In Full," they are said to give the finest performances of their respective careers.

"Paid In Full," based on a sensational Reader's Digest story by Dr. Frederic Loomis, was directed by William Dieterle.

LOVE AT THE OFFICE — Keenan Wynn, Kirk Douglas and Laraine Day are the principals in a romance with fun, centered around extracurricular activities at the office. It's called "My Dear Secretary," it is at the Terrace Drive-In today and Monday.

SERIOUS TRIANGLE — Elizabeth Scott, Robert Cummings and Diana Lynn costar in "Paid In Full," a drama of the romantic triangle which is the Tuesday-Wednesday attraction at the Ritz theatre.

CRIME DRAMA — Dan Duruya holds a gun on Yvonne DeCarlo and Burt Lancaster in this scene from "Criss Cross," a crime drama based on actual events in Los Angeles. The picture is at the Lyric today and Monday.

Plan No Change In Farm Program For The Present

No changes are contemplated in the current farm program, Gabe Hammack, in charge of the Howard county PMA office, said Saturday.

Developments in Korea gave rise to rumors that the control features were being lifted from the cotton and other programs.

"There is no ground for the rumors," said Hammack after calling the state headquarters in College Station to make certain.

"Compliance work will go forward. Those who are found to have overplanted will be required to rip up the excess."

Hammack said that the office had been notified that the loan rate applicable in Howard county on grain sorghum will be $1.80 on No. 2 milo. The flat figure was announced previously by the department of agriculture at $1.87.

The county figure is adjusted for distance from tide-water at Galveston. It is 21 cents cwt lower than last year, or $4.20 less per cwt.

Crime Drama Featured At The Lyric

Described as a swiftly moving crime melodrama is "Criss Cross," the Lyric theatre's featured attraction for today and Monday. Its locale is Los Angeles, and contains much of the documentary element.

Burt Lancaster is starred, in the same type of portrayal that zoomed him to overnight stardom in his first screen venture, "The Killers."

Co-starring with Yvonne DeCarlo and Dan Duruya in the Universal-International production, Lancaster is seen as a man who turns criminal in hope of holding the love of a girl.

The film calls for strong dramatics by Lancaster and also by Miss DeCarlo, who is teamed with him for the first time. Duruya enacts a notorious Los Angeles underworld character and bitter opponent of Lancaster.

In the supporting cast is Stephen McNally, the heavy of "Johnny Belinda," and the war criminal fugitive in "Rogues' Regiment." Featured likewise is Richard Long, seen prominently in the recent "Tap Roots."

"Criss Cross" was plotted by Robert Siodmak, director of "The Killers," and master of the crime photoplay, with such hits to his credit as "The Spiral Staircase" and "Dark Mirror."

A major portion of the thriller was photographed in its actual Los Angeles locales, including the old Bunker Hill and Angels' Flight areas, the Mexican quarter, Terminal Island, Union Depot and the Civic Center.

Many of the places are off the beaten path for tourists, and some in the dinky sections are never mentioned in Chamber of Commerce.

STARS IN 'BRIGHT LEAF' Gary Cooper Roles Filled With Action

Gary Cooper is one Hollywood star whose presence in a motion picture immediately assures moviegoers of plenty of action. Not that the elongated, handsome Montana-born actor is a western or underworld picture hero, but rather his romantic dramas, usually against a background of historical or important moment, seem to leave much opportunity for excitement.

Take "Saratoga Trunk" for example. In this picturization of the Edna Ferber novel, Cooper took time off from his tempestuous lovemaking with Ingrid Bergman to lead a group of henchmen against a rival gang for the possession of a railroad. Plenty action.

"Task Force," a brilliant film describing the career of one of our aircraft carriers in World War II, Cooper again went through several battles to provide movie fans with a truthful story. "The Fountainhead" saw more fire and brimstone when Cooper, as the architect hero of the famed novel, dynamited an entire building project at the climax of the story.

Now comes "Bright Leaf," Walter Bros.' latest film starring Gary Cooper, which makes its local debut at the Ritz theatre today and Monday. Taken from the novel, this story is an epic drama of a tobacco empire in the days of the old South. Loving two beautiful women, Patricia Neal and Lauren Bacall, Cooper nevertheless will not disappoint the action fans who will see a pistol duel shooting, a battle royal with a medicine show involved, and a burning mansion among other events.

Taken from the novel, this story is an epic drama of a tobacco empire in the days of the old South. major tenets of the bill of rights under the Constitution, will be subjected to a searching analysis and discussion when America's Town Meeting develops both sides of the argument "Is Freedom of Speech Threatened in America?" on the broadcast Tuesday, July 25, at 8:00 p.m.

In addition to his interview with Dean, Hasel will air the latest news and views of the sports world on the quarter-hour program, produced over ABC in cooperation with the U. S. Coast Guard.

CASEY CONVERSES
Time is rapidly approaching for Tom Casey to converse. This is usually not a great event—but the thing that differentiates this from any other conversation is that Casey will be talking with himself. Yes — beginning Monday, July 24, at 3:30 p.m. Conversation with Casey makes its debut over KBST via ABC's network.

With records, reminiscences, and a pigeon named "Samson," the show will follow Casey through what — for a normal person — would be a normal time period. But Casey not only talks to himself, he also talks to his pigeon friend. If, then, under those circumstances, the program is normal, someone has changed the norm.

LONE RANGER
There's a war in Sunset County with rancher pitted against rancher and the Lone Ranger trying desperately to prevent bloodshed. When the first shot is fired the tide of hate rises until no man's life is safe. In "Barbed Wire," another thrill-packed story of the Lone Ranger to be heard Monday, July 24, at 6:30 p.m., over KBST.

Crosby Finds Fresh Fun At Race Track

Top entertainer of them all, Bing Crosby, has a fun-filled fling around the race track in "Riding High" billed at the Ritz theatre Thursday and Friday of this week.

The piece was produced and directed by Frank Capra, and co-stars Coleen Gray, Frances Gifford and Charles Rickford. It was adapted from a story by Mark Hellinger, and goes in for easy-going fun and music in which Der Bingle is at his best.

Bing's a racehorse owner in the film, and the odds are you'll remember his thrilling performance for a long, long time. He sings four new Burke-Van Heusen hits including "Sunshine Cake," "Sure Thing," "Somewhere On Anywhere Road" and "The Horse Told Me" as well as two oldies, "Camptown Races" and the "Whiffenpoof Song."

Joining with him in the fun and excitement is lovely Coleen Gray, one of the most refreshing young actresses to hit the screen in a long time.

"Riding High" features William Demarest, Raymond Walburn, James Gleason, Ward Bond, Clarence Muse, Percy Kilbride and Harry Davenport.

300 Tickets Sold To C-C Barbecue

Distribution of some 300 tickets for the chamber of commerce membership barbecue next Thursday has been announced by Truman Jones, ticket sales chairman for the gathering.

An attendance of more than 500 persons is expected, Jones said. Ticket sales are being continued.

The chamber barbecue, second membership function held this year, is being held to encourage the "get acquainted" idea, according to Cecil McDonald, membership committee chairman. It is to start at 7:00 p.m. Thursday at the city park.

An amateur program for Howard county talent is to be held in connection with the barbecue. It will be under the direction of Edith Gray, chamber secretary.

Amateur performers from Snyder, Lamesa, Colorado City, and Stanton are also expected to take part in the program. Prizes will be awarded winners in two divisions.

In charge of food for the Thursday meeting is Douglas Orme. Fritz Wehner is making arrangements for additional entertainment, while Durward Lewter is in charge of serving. Roy Cornelison is handling supplies, and Jack Y. Smith is to direct traffic.

Tickets for the barbecue are available at the chamber of commerce office. A charge of $1 is being made.

FIRST PATIENT—James A. Waters, former Marine, is greeted by Dr. L. B. Andrew, right, manager, as he becomes the first patient to enter the new Veterans Administration hospital here. Waters, a native Alabamian who chose to make Big Spring his home after the war, was registered as initial veteran to be treated in the six-million-dollar facility. Only 50 patients will be received until the staff is completed. (Culver Photo).

MORE TO COME

24 Patients Now At V.A. Hospital

After one week of activity, the Veterans Administration hospital here had two dozen patients.

Dr. L. B. Andrew, manager, said that the Friday midnight census showed an even 24 patients. More have enrolled, for a few were examined and subsequently discharged during the week.

A large area has been represented in those accepted for treatment, he explained. Some have come from Hobbs, Lubbock, Sweetwater, Abilene and other places as well as the immediate Big Spring area. As a preliminary working schedule, Dr. Andrew said that the number of patients would be around 30 for three or four weeks. As personnel is brought to strength, more beds will be activated progressively until the facilities are all in operation. Rated capacity is 250 patient beds. Operations have been exceptionally smooth for the first week. "We are very satisfied with the way things have gone," said Dr. Andrew.

Here on a supervisory tour was

Dr. Charles H. Beasley, St. Louis, Mo., area medical director for the Veterans Administration. He arrived Thursday and left by plane Saturday morning. Dr. Andrew said that this was the first opportunity that Dr. Beasley had had to visit the new installation here.

Potent Salve Clears Some Breast Cancer

By The Associated Press
PARIS, July 22.—A potent new salve has made some breast cancers disappear, Dr. Hanes Lettre of Heidelberg, Germany, reported today.

The salve is a new chemical, a kind of the drug colchicine, made from the autumn crocus plant. The new cousin of colchicine is 10 times more potent, Lettre told the fifth International Cancer Research Congress.

Some breast cancers treated with the new drug disappeared and had not returned three years later, Dr. Lettre said. But because they still might return, they could not be considered cured, he added.

Lettre, from the Institute for Experimental Cancer Research at Heidelberg, said the conchicine chemical had been used since 1942 on 50 women with breast cancer. Results on most, however, were not known because he had lost track of them during the war.

The new drug, N-methyl-colchisamide, stops cancer cells from dividing or reproducing if it catches them at the middle phase of this activity, he explained.

Laboratory studies have showed the drug is not effective if it reaches living cells before or after that critical time.

Sending a slight electric current through the tumor after the salve is applied makes the drug enter deeper into the cancer, he said. This same effect was noted with other drugs.

Colchicine and its new cousin are poisonous drugs with bad effects on healthy tissues as well as on cancerous ones. Both have to be used cautiously.

The drug must be used for long periods of time to get good results in halting cancer growth, Lettre said.

HELLO... SHERIFF? I'VE GOT A DEATH TO REPORT.

Meanwhile, back in my home town...

CHESTY PIGEON OWNS THE SPOT. COME, DROP IN— YOU MAY WIN A LOT. BIRD-CAGE, DICE AND ROULETTE, TOO— THE PANTHER CLUB IS THE JERTN FOR YOU.

RUSTY RILEY

Panel 1: TEX! LOOK AT HILLBILLY! SOMETHING'S WRONG WITH HIM!
 YES... THERE SURE IS... HM-M!... HE'S PLENTY SICK... GO GET DOC QUINN!

Panel 2: AND LISTEN, RUSTY... DON'T SAY ANYTHING TO ANYONE ELSE... WITH ALL THOSE GUESTS AND THEIR MOUNTS, WE DON'T WANT ANYBODY TO GET PANICKY!

Panel 3: HEY, WAIT A MINUTE, RUSTY... YOU SAID 'HILLBILLY' DIDN'T YOU? HE ISN'T IN THIS BARN, IS HE?
 OH, DOC, I FORGOT TO TELL YOU... WE PUT BIG BLAZE IN THE OTHER BARN... HILLBILLY IS IN BLAZE'S STALL...

Panel 4: HE'S SICK, ALL RIGHT! I THINK HIS STOMACH IS UPSET... WHAT'S HE BEEN EATING?... WHO FED HIM?
 GOLLY, DOC! I FED HIM... JUST HIS REGULAR FEED!

Panel 5: I DON'T QUITE UNDERSTAND THIS, TEX... HILLBILLY SHOWS EVERY INDICATION OF HAVING EATEN SOMETHING THAT VIOLENTLY DISAGREED WITH HIM... BUT IF RUSTY FED HIM...
 WAIT A MINUTE, DOC!... I GOT AN IDEA! - HEY, RUSTY, COME HERE!

Panel 6: RUSTY, DID YOU FINISH CLEANING OUT THE PAILS YOU MIXED THE FEED IN?
 ALL BUT THE ONE I MIXED HILLBILLY'S FEED IN... THAT WAS BIG BLAZE'S PAIL... I'VE BEEN USING THAT ONE FOR HILLBILLY WHILE HE'S STAYING IN BIG BLAZE'S STALL...

Panel 7: I DIDN'T CLEAN OUT THAT PAIL 'CAUSE HILLBILLY ONLY ATE ABOUT HALF OF IT AND I DIDN'T WANT TO WASTE IT.
 THAT'S A BREAK! GET IT AND BRING IT TO DOC QUINN'S LAB RIGHT AWAY!

Panel 8: THERE'S NO DOUBT ABOUT IT, TEX... THERE'S A FOREIGN SUBSTANCE IN THIS FEED... I CAN'T SAY, RIGHT NOW, WHAT IT IS... IT'S A POWDER!
 GOLLY! WHO WOULD WANT TO HURT HILLBILLY?
 WHOEVER DID IT WASN'T AFTER HILLBILLY... DON'T FORGET... HE WAS IN BIG BLAZE'S STALL AND BLAZE'S NAME IS ON THE PAIL... KEEP THIS UNDER YOUR HATS, BOTH OF YOU!
