

LUBBOCK CHOSEN

DECISION COMES AFTER MANY HOURS OF DEBATE

Special To The Sweetwater Reporter.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 8.—At exactly two minutes to two o'clock, Secretary Nabours appeared at the door of the deliberation room in the Texas hotel and gave the waiting newspaper men a copy of the decision of the Board, which was as follows:

"We, the members of the Locating Board for the Texas Technological College in conformity with the law creating said College, having made a careful study of the original and supplementary Briefs, having visited and inspected the cities offered by the thirty-six applicant towns and having given consideration to the relative merits of the propositions, submitted by the several towns, do, hereby unanimously select and designate Lubbock, in Lubbock County, Texas, as the official location of the Texas Technological College.

- "S. B. COWELL, Chairman.
- "W. B. BIZZELL.
- "F. M. BRALLEY.
- "S. M. N. MARRS.
- "W. S. SUTTON.
- "W. R. NABOURS, Secretary."

Special To The Reporter.

FORT WORTH, Aug. 8.—Representative R. M. Chitwood says he signed statement as representative of Sweetwater and hopes citizens will join him in supporting the decision of the Locating Board.

CROWDS EAGER FOR DECISION.

Special To The Reporter. FORT WORTH, Aug. 8.—Copies of the findings of the Board were copied and taken to the Board for signatures and newspaper men were let out side the entrance while the crowd stood at the elevator entrance eagerly awaiting the news.

At this moment, Sims, of Paintrock, presented a petition to all contesting towns, agreeing that they would stand by the decision of the Board and make every effort to make the new college just as much their school as if their home town had been successful.

Representatives of all the towns present, signed the petition after considerable deliberation. Members of the Board went to various rooms and Secretary Nabours came to the lobby of the hotel and with the crowd of the whole lobby jammed about him, he read the statement of the Board.

Lubbock's delegation rent the hotel with their yells and other towns joined in with cheering for the victor.

Senator Bledsoe was accorded a great part in the celebration as he was the best known member of the delegation.

In the last analysis of the Board as it appeared to those who watched through the glass doors tossed aside the briefs and bent down over a big map on the center of a table and eliminated one after another of the towns that had been considered as eligible for the school.

Sweetwater, Snyder and Lubbock were still being considered when the Board reconvened at 1:30 in the afternoon, but soon thereafter it appeared that a decision had been reached and it was just a matter of preparing a statement for the awaiting public.

The only way left now for San Angelo and Sweetwater to get a college, is to be ready when the educational survey committee meets Friday in as spread itself over the watchers "Cometh," but for whom?

R. M. Chitwood and Senator Bledsoe are organizing a memorial association for the mourners. Snyder is the only city not taking to the organization with enthusiasm. In this connection was real confidence expressed.

With the decision from the Tech Board momentarily expected, excitement ran high in the town. All day the telephons rang, interested folks crowded into the office and the bulletin from Fort Worth pasted on the window were read eagerly. Comments were numerous.

The first telegram said that "Ode" were even in Fort Worth that Snyder "Gets the School." This was sent at 8 a. m. and was indicative of the sentiment among crowds in the Texas Hotel who were eagerly awaiting the word from the Locating Board. Several local individuals on the point of wiring Fort Worth to cover all Snyder money in sight, but that was side-tracked at the last moment when question of a stake-holder arose.

Tales of the mysterious visits of Snyder emissaries to various points of the state during the campaign were retold and the hair raising rush of Lubbock emissaries to catch the train for Fort Worth here in Sweetwater, rehearsed. According to the story, Lubbock's site lacked 80 acres of complying with the requirements of the law, between the site and the city. Citizens when they realized this, cracked down with the $60,000 necessary to purchase the 80 acres, and rushed across to Quanah to tell the Locating Board that they had met the requirements. Formal supplementary brief of the situation being required, they rushed madly back to Lubbock, put it together and drove to Sweetwater, driving so fast they drove the wheels of their car. No 16 was caught here by an eyelash, the conductor being forced to pull the air to enable Senator Bledsoe and party to scramble aboard.

Austin to apply for the Alpine Normal, which it is rumored here is to be stricken from the educational books of Texas on account of the great expense per student that this school is costing the state.

DOWN TO THREE TOWNS. Special To The Reporter. FORT WORTH, Aug. 8.—(12:34 P. M.)—The roll has simmered down to three towns, as follows: Lubbock, Sweetwater, and Snyder. Strength of towns is in the order named, it is believed that a decision will be announced this afternoon.

The question that is uppermost in the minds of the Board, shall the school go to the Plains? MORNING SESSION. Special To The Reporter. FORT WORTH, Aug. 8.—On the upper floor of the Texas Hotel, backed in the corner of the cactus room, members of the Technological College Locating Board wrestled all morning with the meanest job ever dished out to any set of men in Texas.

For three hours Wednesday morning these men alternately walked up and down, bent over maps, looked at briefs, talked and voted. It was an earnest gathering. Outside, looking through the glass door that separated them from the rest of Texas, sat and stood a small group of newspaper men. None of them were lip readers, but they followed the gestures, the side conferences and the reaching for briefs with all the eagerness of a lawyer scrutinizing a jury.

At 11:30 President Bizzell of the A. & M. College came outside and said: "There'll be nothing doing until after lunch. We can't decide before that time."

Bizzell was followed closely by Dean Sutton, who had worked his morning cigar down to a stub which he was chewing with all the energy of a nervous man.

He called to one of the newspaper men and said: "Gim'me a pencil. I can't figure this thing out in my head."

Down stairs in the lobby sat the watchers with their "lamps" glued on the elevator entrance and their minds glued on one single thought. Gloom

"BRICK" HITS 'EM.

Lead With the Elginham Baseball Team. (Brick) Mason, Elginham right fielder, crashed the ball in the fourth game of the Elginham-Ganghaston and Wilkesport, Pa., according to a Elginham newspaper, when the first up in the eighth he socked the ball against right field fence for the only real circuit blow for the Elginham series. He connected for four hits out of five attempts in the same game. A cut of "Brick's" picture appears with the long article.

Sweetwater fans will remember "Brick" who played with the Swatters in the West Texas League in 1921 and 1922. He hit 366 the first year, and 371 the second. His rank these two seasons was third and first.

Mason has been playing wonderful ball in right field with the Elginham bunch, according to sport writers. He is leadoff man and it is seldom he fails to get to first. His almost uncanny ability to throw to bases makes him the best outfielder in the circuit in this regard.

Mason's first boss in baseball was Duffy Lewis in 1918 at Mare Island, Calif. Then "Brick" was playing at third base. Besides playing with the Sweetwater team, he played with the Ranger team in the West Texas League and with the Syracuse Stars. He was born at Cisco, Texas, August 1, 1900.

A COURTEOUS REMINDER.

(By Herton Braley.)
May we call to your attention
What we usually mention
In our verses at this season of the year,
That a visitor unpleasant
Is indubitably present.
That, in other words, the common fly is here?

May we urge you, friend or stranger,
That the fly's a source of danger.
And respectfully remind you that he brings
As he flits upon the breezes,
Multifarious diseases
Which he bears upon his feet and on his wings?

Would you mind if we suggested
That the fly should be detested.
That he really isn't nice to have about?
That in fact, if you should spot him,
It's desirable to swat him.
To eliminate, abolish, lay him out?

We don't wish to be intrusive,
But there's evidence conclusive
That the house-fly is a menace far from small;
So if you will kindly pot him
Poison, trap him, smash him, swat him.
It will really be a favor to us all!

Herrick Proposed to Capitalize Wedding, Former Fiancee Says.

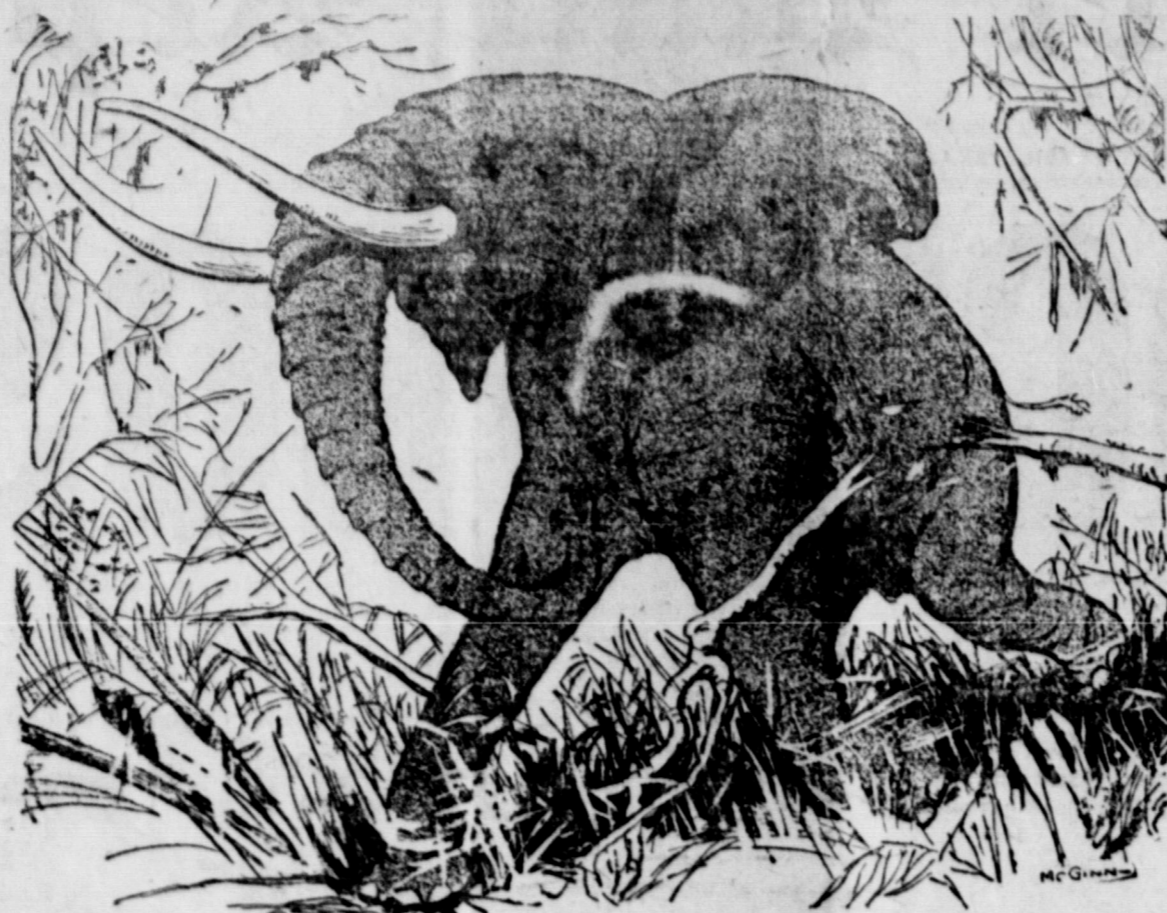

Washington Correspondence in the Chicago Tribune.

Answering the recent $50,000 heart balm suit brought against her by Manuel Herrick, former representative from Oklahoma, Miss Ethelyn Charane admitted in the District of Columbia supreme court the other day that she did promise to marry Herrick, but pleaded she was justified in jilting him because his actions after their engagement became unendurable.

For instance, she told the court, in June, 1922, Herrick proposed to turn their approaching marriage into a money making proposition. He outlined a scheme to keep their marriage secret until such time as he could extract money from the newspapers for giving them a "scoop" on the event. Herrick, she said, thought he could obtain a large sum of money from some newspaper for an exclusive story of their wedding.

When she refused the secret marriage, the young woman stated, Her-

After she had promised to marry him, Miss Charane said, the character and characteristics of the plaintiff became known to her. His personality and habits became exceedingly distasteful to her, and eventually so obnoxious as to render his presence unendurable, she stated.

plane of independence they must have the closest kind of cooperation from the banker and the merchant in working out the problem of placing their industry on a business basis and they must weld together between themselves this same spirit of cooperation and unitedly work out their salvation," continued Mr. Radford, "While much can be done in the way of bet-

Bradford Addition

We have secured the selling of a portion of the lots in the Bradford addition and are offering you your choice of corner lots at $125.00 and inside lots at $100.00 each on terms of half cash, one fourth January 1, 1924 and one fourth January 1, 1925, with six per cent interest on deferred payments. Where we have all the lots in any block, we will give a corner lot to the person building a neat five room painted bungalow or an inside lot to one building a neat painted four room bungalow. With the spending of more than a million dollars on this side of the city by the United States Gypsum Co. we consider this the best buy in Sweetwater as there will be a big demand for houses on this side of town. These lots are just west, adjoining and overlook the site offered for the Texas Technological College and the location of the college here should double and treble the value of the lots in this addition. The lots are offered under their present value, on easy terms and we expect to move them quickly. Better see us at once and pick your lots. They won't last long at these prices. There is no chance to stage anything but a winning. Now is the time, while opportunity knocks, to make a start toward that home you expect to own.

Prices on these lots will be changed when the "Tech" is located here.

TO ALL MY FRIENDS, GREETING:—

After several years absence from business, I am once more engaging in the millinery business here and will open my store on or about September 1.

My store will be in the old location in Aycock Bld. rear of Prim Nickel Store and Mr. Aycock is putting on a new front and re-arranging it so that everything will be bright and cheery.

I am new in the eastern markets searching for the very latest creations so that all my old friends and new ones too can be sure that their fall millinery will be all that they want it to be.

During the eight years that I was formerly in business in Sweetwater, I made many friends and I look forward with real pleasure to again serving them with correct millinery style and to the making of many new friends.

It is with real pleasure that I look forward to again serving the friends that it was my privilege to serve during the eight years that I was in business here and also to making the acquaintance of many new friends.

Sincerely,
MRS. J. HUEY.

A PLEA TO PARENTS

It has come to our knowledge that there is an undue amount of parking of cars at night along our highways and about secluded spots adjacent. It is a well known fact that many of these cars are occupied by boys and girls and young men and young women unchaperoned.

We believe that our officers are doing what they can to lesson this evil. However, the problem is not so much theirs as it is that of the parents of these young people; for any observer can see that a large percentage of those engaging in this unwholesome practice are mere boys and girls.

Already recently several deplorable incidents have come to light, affecting the purity of young womanhood, which occurred at night on, or near the public roads of Nolan County.

The Ku Klux Klan does not pretend to be the moral censor of this community. Instead, it is striving to maintain those ideals which the builders of our Christian communities have cherished and fostered for ages past. It aims to protect the purity of the womanhood of this land so far as it is within its power to do so.

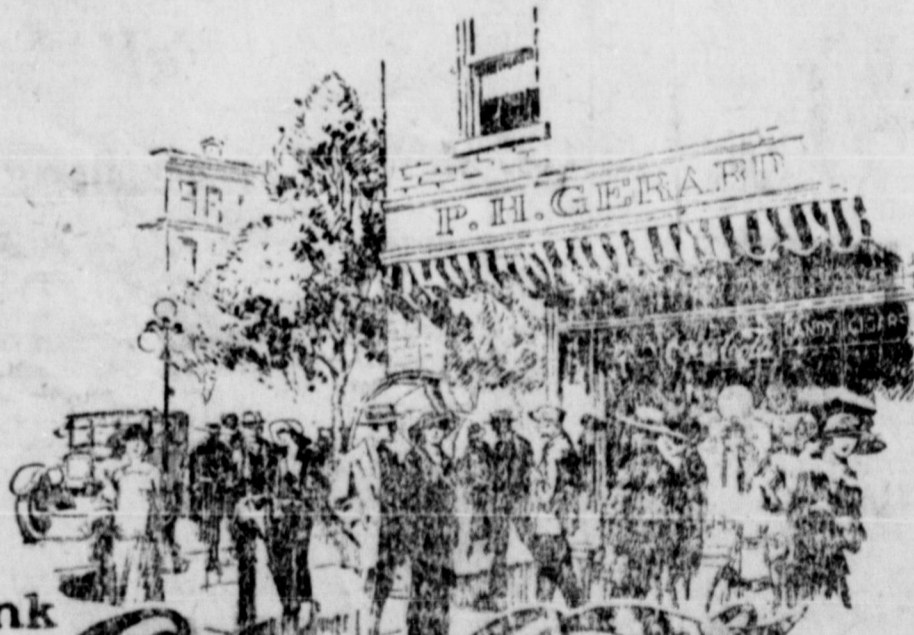

For these reasons we beg of the parents of this city and county to give closer attention to the whereabouts of their children at night, and we take this means of stating publicly that the Klan is going to use every lawful means in its power to eliminate, or at least reduce this disgraceful practice.

IN THE NAME OF GOD AND YOUR CHILDREN, PARENTS, HEED THIS PLEA!

Miss Henthorne sang in a prologue, "The Reincarnation of the Graces" at the Palace Theatre at Dallas, and the program was held over for the second week because of its popularity. The Dallas Times-Herald, commenting on the program, says: "Miss Lucille Henthorne sings most delightfully. She possesses soprano voice of grand opera calibre, and her two numbers in the act are well executed." Miss Henthorne sings regularly at the Palace Theatre at Dallas and will doubtless be heard by a large audience in Sweetwater this evening and Thursday night.

The R. & R. Orchestra which plays at the Queen, will assist in the program, according to the program committee of the Palace. The picture will tering social conditions, etc., through local or community organizations, the real work raising the standard of living on the farm must come from the raising of the standard of profit for the crop raised upon the farm, and this can only come through the universal adoption of a cooperative marketing system, organized by commodities and merchandising the product of the farm throughout the year, just the same as any business institution would use in selling their merchandise.

RADFORD FAVORS ASSOCIATION.

Believes Farmer Business Man.

"I believe the farmer is entirely capable of organizing and operating his own business organizations. Certainly he has the brains necessary, for the best brains we have in the business world today, in the professional world in the realm of statesmanship, the ministry and in fact almost every other walk of life came from the farm, but our farmers have given most of their thought to the raising of their crops, rather than the marketing of them and naturally when they face a proposition as big as the organization of the farmers of the entire Southland into a gigantic cotton corporation for the purpose of merchandising their cotton crop; they feel the lack of experience and turn to their banker and merchant for help in the task. And I believe it is the duty of every business man to give the most careful consideration and study to their problem and then stand squarely behind the farmer and help him put over the plan which promised relief from his most trying problem.

"The marketing plan as already worked out by the farmer, in my opinion is both practical and practicable and its soundness is demonstrated in the fact that the financial interests have been willing to lend money to the cotton association on just as reasonable terms and at as low interest as they do to the biggest and oldest industrial firms in the country. And, certainly, if these Eastern financial interests, after carefully scrutinizing its plan of organization and operation have put their stamp of approval upon it, then the business men and bankers of the South who ought to have first hand information and should have the utmost confidence in the men of their own state who are at the head of the movement, should be eager to get behind the farmer and give him the assistance needs to put the movement over."

The Plan is a Success

Mr. Radford said that he believed that the majority of the merchants and bankers everywhere who had really given serious thought to this plan had this same view of the matter and that they would be found ready and willing to do whatever they could do to be of assistance to the farmer. He further stated that he believed that the experience of the farmers and fruit growers of California had demonstrated conclusively the soundness and workability of the cooperative marketing plan, and that the past two years experience of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton Association had shown that, if anything this plan will work with even greater success as applied to this commodity.

"Why, when you think of cotton as being a product which is an absolute necessity to the people of the world, and the raising of it limited to a very small portion of the world's surface, further that it is a product which may be stored in most any kind of a warehouse and will be just as good a year or more after being stored, could there be anything more simple than taking this product and instead of "dumping" it on the market in a period of two, or three months, sell it in an orderly manner according to absolute demand throughout the entire year direct to the spinner or manufacturer instead of it going through the hands of about a dozen middlemen as it has done in the past.

"Any student of economics knows that it is better for the farmer, the merchant and the banker to have 12 months a year in which to sell the product of the farm and have the money returns coming to the farmer throughout this 12 month period instead of all at one time. Human nature just isn't built to withstand the temptation of spending, many times foolishly the money we get in a large lump, and the farmer is no exception to this rule. When the farmer is in position to "pay-as-he-goes" he will spend his money to a better advantage and at the end of the year have more to show for his expenditures, and at the same time something left over, which is a benefit to the farmer, the merchant and the banker, as well."

Heartily Endorse, The Movement.

"If for no other reason, I would for the purely selfish reason of its being an advantage to the merchant endorse this movement and lend what help I may in its advancement, but, there is a bigger reason why I am for it. I feel a personal responsibility in helping to clear away the stigma which has been placed upon the cotton growers of our South. It has been shown without a doubt that he is at the very bottom of the list in comparison with the other farmers of this country; there is a greater per cent of illiteracy the poorest schools and churches, the lowest paid teachers and ministers, of rural homes and the lowest income per capita among the cotton farmers of the South. This should not be the case and it will not be if the farmers will band themselves together in this cooperative marketing movement and intelligently sell the product which they have raised. They are entitled to a profit of their labor and they can obtain a fair profit through this source without increasing the price of their product to the consumer. "I am anxious to see the day when the cotton farmer will raise his family to the highest plane of living possible and obtain for himself and his loved ones every comfort which the man in town enjoys; he is entitled to it and we must see to it that he gets it."

"SERVICE—QUALITY"

HOW DOES IT CONCERN ME?

A fair question, always. Let us think for a while how the War and the Liberty Loan concerns the farmer.

We went to war with Germany partly because the rulers of that country refused to let us send to Europe our ships laden with grain and cotton. They sunk the ships and cruelly murdered our sailors. Now suppose we allowed them to stop all our shipping, where would you be? None of your goods would be sold in foreign countries, with the result that you would get nothing like the prices which you get today. It is the enormous demand for what you produce, that is securing you high prices. If this demand were cut off down would go prices. This war is being waged partly that you may obtain fair prices for your goods.

Farmers have been kept down in the matter of prices quite long enough, and the government and the people of this country, are not going to let a foreign power interfere with their business—which is your business.

Having entered the war in order that we may have the right to send your goods to any part of the world, what is going to happen if we lose the war? Prices of farm produce will drop; the Germans will impose taxation upon you which will cripple you for the next twenty years. Worse than that, if the Germans get over here, they will treat you in just the same way as they have the farmers of Northern France and Belgium. In these sections farm houses have been shot to pieces, crops wasted and burned; even fruit trees chopped down, the cattle stolen, the men sent into slavery to work for German masters, their women ill-treated in ways that cannot be talked of in print, their little children have had their hands chopped off in order that they may never fight for their country, or do any more useful work again.

You may say "such things will not happen here." They said this in France and in Belgium. Such things will happen here just as sure as you are alive, unless we smash the Germans so that they are utterly unable to reach the shores of this country. The German fleet and the German army will take just one week to get here if we are beaten. They have made up their minds that America shall pay for this war. They have made up their minds that our wealthy men shall give their money, and that you farmers shall provide the food for their armies and their people at home.

After thinking over these facts, is there a farmer who will stand forward and say "This war does not concern me."

You have next that you do not need until next spring. Loan it to the government at good interest. When you want the money back again, you can borrow on your bond, or sell it for what you gave for it. Uncle Sam will take care of your money until you need it and pay you interest on it, and you will be protecting yourself and your business by loaning him the money.

Go and buy a Liberty Bond tomorrow. Don't put it off—things that are put off often do not get done at all. Tomorrow.

FOR WOMEN.

How does the war concern you? The mothers who have a boy who has gone to fight for his country, will not ask such a question. But if the war has not touched you yet, you may ask this question.

There are feelings that only mothers know, and only women understand. Think of the mothers who have given their eldest boy to their country. How do they feel today? How would you feel if you were in their place? They have parted with the little fellow that came first, and has always been a little ahead of the others in their love, because his was the first little tiny human form that lay against their breast; his were the first little hands that touched at their hair. This other mother—the mother who has sent her boy to fight for YOUR protection, feels just the same way that you would about your boy.

She wants that boy back. Won't you help her bring him back? There are thousands of American mothers feeling badly today. Millions of French and English mothers, longing for their boys.

Husbands too, have gone by the million to fight for their Country and yours, for YOUR protection. Don't you sympathize with these women? Your husband is not perfect, sometimes you get "real mad" with him, but you don't want him killed by German brutes. Think, then, how these other wives feel—they want their husbands back. Won't you help them bring their men back?

Yes, of course you would like to help them, "but how can I help?" you say.

Help end the war by buying a Liberty Bond. Save out of the house-keeping money for it, deny yourself something so you can buy it. Do more than this—see that your husband, your friends, your neighbors, buy a Liberty Bond. Show them this little "bit" in the paper, and say, "Let's all buy a Liberty Bond apiece."

WAR WORK HELPS MORALE OF MEN

TEXAS ORGANIZED TO AID IN RAISING $35,000,000 WAR WORK FUND

Greater Good Than Red Cross, Says One Worker, Because Makes Men Better in Spirit

What the Red Cross is to the imperiled bodies of our soldiers the Y. M. C. A. war work is to their endangered morals.

In every training camp, at every post, along the front line trenches, the Young Men's Christian Association has its workers, its buildings, its equipment for varied wholesome amusements and its uplifting spiritual influence.

Texas is being organized to secure its allotment of the $35,000,000 national war work fund of the association. Under the direction of L. A. Coulter, Dallas, representative men are being secured for departmental conferences to be held in every section of the state, following the state gathering at Dallas on Oct. 22. The campaign will continue through Nov. 11-19, and the budget planned will maintain the war work to July 1st, 1918.

Raising Morale of Men

Napoleon used to say that morale is to other factors in war as three to one. The Y. M. C. A. War Work Council proposes to devote itself exclusively to raising, strengthening and preserving the morale of our men and of the Allied countries.

An outstanding leader of the Red Cross said: "One reason why I believe your Y. M. C. A. work is even more important than ours is that you are not only supplementing what we do here and there for the bodies of men, but you are dealing also with that more vital factor, the morale, the spirit of the troops."

C. O. Fowler of Wichita Falls was among the business visitors here today.

HIGHWAY SQUIBS

There is not a person in the county that a highway would not benefit. Had you ever thought of it?

Coke county is getting busy on the highway proposition, and assuming that the county's part is going to be built to the line. That's the spirit.

Do you realize that if rains do not fall in this county in time to get a crop started, that most every person that is left will be forced to leave here. Building of the highway will give the people employment and enable them to stay until everything gets normal again.

The people can rest assured that the federal government gets through with a road its a road for all time to come. The construction is under the supervision of an expert in road building. Let's have that highway through Blackwell!

If Nolan county road bonds fail to carry, we are just simply set back for years. Progress will stop, travel will go where there are good roads, no matter if it is miles out of the way, our town will feel the effects for years to come, for it is perfectly natural for people who have to go to market to go to the towns that have the best roads. If we don't get that highway we are more or less isolated.

Just as soon as the business men and farmers realize fully how much poor roads cost them they will contribute their efforts in the biggest good roads movements that was ever started. The railways have proved inadequate under present conditions and with the intensive cultivation of the ground that is now going on there will be still larger crops to move than ever before and motor trucks will be the means of transportation. The railways can not build equipment fast enough to take care of the increased traffic. We will not only have transcontinental highways in the near future that are real highways, but there will be a system of laterals developed all over the country that will act as feeders.—Blackwell Times.

A FAMILY AFFAIR

If your father and your son were in trouble, struggling for their lives, and doing it in defense of your home and your business, would you supply them with food and clothing, or would you refuse them?

This is a straight question. Yet it is the one facing you today. The country which has protected you and your family, may well claim to be considered as your father, and as for the boys who are giving their lives for you, surely they have a right to be considered as your sons.

This nation is one big family today. This war is a family affair. Be a good father and a good son. Your sense of justice and fairness your patriotism, is on trial.

When you remember that you are asked to give nothing, but only to lend money by investing in LIBERTY BONDS, you have no choice in the matter. Your heart tells you that you MUST do it.

If you have to go short of some luxury—do it. Save and invest in Liberty Bonds until it pinches you, and the sacrifice hurts. It is the duty of every real American.

You will lose nothing. The bond is always worth just about what you gave for it. Probably it will be worth more later. You will have saved just that amount of money you invest in Liberty Bonds, and be just so much better off.

A man who will not sacrifice anything for his country, is not a real man. The man who does make a sacrifice, is a real man, and a true American.

You—the man who is reading this know these statements are fair and true ones. This appeal is not written in vain, because it is going to influence you. You are going to buy a Liberty Bond.

YOU PAY YOUR DEBTS.

Of course you do. Why? You could turn rascal, and possibly "get away with it." You pay your debts because you want the respect of your fellow men.

Have you paid your debt to your Country?

You have been running up a bill with Uncle Sam for years. He has protected you, educated you, guarded you and your property, educated your children, and today he is fighting a death struggle with a fellow who would rob and murder you if only he could get at you.

Now Uncle Sam wants you to dig down and loan him some money.

What are you going to do about it? Tell him you "can do better" than your money than loan it to him? Are you going to tell him you pay your debts to everyone else, but you refuse to pay your debts to him?

No. As an honest man, you are going to say: "Lend you money? Sure I will! Why if you asked me to give it to you, I would do it. But LOAN it, why sure!"

Millions of men are going to feel, and talk, and act, just this way. So are you!

Now, when are you going to do it? Why not today?

Perhaps you have wanted money some time in your life—most of us have. When did you want it? Right away, or in a month's time? Did you want to wait around wondering whether or not you were going to get the money? You did not!

Treat Uncle Sam the same way that you would wish to be treated yourself. Lend him the money now—willingly and quickly—today.

HOW TO SECURE A LIBERTY BOND.

You are satisfied that it is your duty to yourself and to your country to buy a Liberty Bond. Now you want to know just how to secure one. Go to any bank, sign an application form for the bond of the value desired.

The bonds are of the following values: $50, $100, $500, $1,000, $5,000 and $10,000.

Your banker will take your check for 2 per cent of the amount of the bond you decide to purchase. The remaining payments will be made as follows:

Eighteen per cent on Nov. 15, 1917.

Forty per cent on Dec. 15, 1917.

Forty per cent on Jan. 15, 1918.

You can pay in full at time of application for any bond up to the value of $1,000 if you wish.

If you care to pay for your bond in full at the time of application you can have your bond by about Oct. 10. If you pay by installments you will receive your bond as soon as you have finished paying for it.

The bonds are free from Federal, State or local taxes. In the case of wealthy people who pay income surtaxes, and hold bonds of over $5,000, there is a small tax, but as far as the average man is concerned they are tax free.

The interest on the bonds is 4 per cent, payable to you on May 15 and Nov. 15 each year.

The bonds may be redeemed by the government in full on and after Nov. 15, 1927.

During the meantime the bonds may pass from one person to another almost as freely as a dollar bill does. There is very little difference between giving your check for a $500 bill and giving it for a Liberty bond.

Any banker will handle your subscription and charge you nothing for the trouble.

DOWN TO EARTH

As a special attraction at the Queen Theatre tomorrow Douglas Fairbanks in his new Artercraft picture, "Down to Earth," written by himself and adapted to the screen by clever little Anita Loos, John Emerson, producer of previous Fairbanks-Artercraft triumphs again pilots the activities of the energetic star in this production with notable results. In fact, it is freely predicted that "Down to Earth" is undoubtedly the greatest Fairbanks screen vehicle ever given the popular star.

The story of the photoplay tells of a typical American youth whose "warlike" and ideas of living close to nature are not in accord with the views of life assumed by his sweetheart, an ambitious society bud. Bridge parties, matinee dances, tea parties and sumptuous dinners are the important factors in the pretty girl's social career and these occupy too much of her time for wanderings amidst God's country in the great outdoors. How the persistent youth takes her away from her surroundings and wins her over to his way of thinking despite herself offers one of the most amusing tonies the screen has yet displayed. Many climes are visited and many surprises are presented in typical Fairbanks style, ranging in variety from doing a handstand on a mountain precipice 8,000 feet above sea level to teaching a hippopotamus the famous Fairbanks smile.

It takes only 25 cents to assist in supplying choice tobacco for the boys in France. Won't you help to this amount.
