Mobile Home Ordinance Hearing Set July 8

Jet Boats To Be Banned From Lake

Jet boats and any other boats with motors exceeding 150 horsepower will not be allowed on Lake Colorado City under a proposed city ordinance.

James Campbell, City Manager of the City of Colorado City Tuesday night was directed by the council to draw up such an ordinance for the council's consideration at its July 8 meeting.

July 8 will also be the date for a public hearing on a proposed city ordinance regulating mobile homes and mobile home parks.

The two ordinances were among a number of items discussed and considered by the council during its monthly workshop session Tuesday night.

The council also considered bids for scrap iron owned by the city and accepted a bid of $35 a ton from Chuck Taylor of Levelland.

The council also opened bids for workmen's compensation insurance which the city is required to have effective July 1. When the bids were opened, it was discovered that the insurance will cost between $6,068. 25 and $13,028 a year. The matter was tabled to give council members time to consider the bids.

The council heard a request from the Chamber of Commerce for money to help buy Christmas decorations and council members explained that the city wants to help but cannot due to a shortage of funds.

Campbell reported to the council that Street Superintendent Walter Mitchell resigned June 16 and that the city's part of building a new street in front of the new Colorado High School is higher than expected.

In order to save money, Campbell said he is negotiating with the state to leave steel reinforcement out of the curb and gutter which is the city's part, saving about $7,000. The street is expected to be completed about Nov. 1.

Game Warden Ronnie Aston asked the council to designate two swimming areas at Lake Colorado City State Park. Although the area is a State Park, the city retains control over the water area.

Aston said the designated swimming areas are needed for the protection of swimmers. The council passed an ordinance authorizing a large swimming area just south of the boat launching area between two areas of land that jut out into the water and a small swimming area near the designated camping area of the park.

The ordinance also sets out a 5 mile-per-hour area for boats near the boat launching area for the protection of boaters. Swimming is allowed anywhere but swimmers will be protected by buoys and a cable around the designated areas, Aston explained.

Aston also explained to the council that jet boats are causing problems at the lake due to the noise they create and speeds that they can attain.

Aston said he has had numerous complaints from lake residents about the noise the boats make and due to the large number of boats at the lake, the speed of the jet boats is also creating a bad situation. Speed limits would be difficult to enforce, Aston said.

The council was in agreement with Aston and directed Campbell to draw up an ordinance prohibiting boats of more than 150 horsepower on the lake.

This will eliminate jet boats, Aston noted.

Battle For League Title Grows Heated

The Little League race for the title in the second half of competition is going right down to the wire with a crucial game to be played at 6 tonight.

Last week it appeared that the Rangers would have undisputed championship in the second half as they had a two game lead with only two games to play. Three other teams, the Dodgers, Indians and Giants, are tied for second.

However, the race became somewhat closer Tuesday as the Indians defeated the Rangers 19-4 and tonight the Dodgers play the Rangers.

Should the Rangers win tonight, they will have undisputed title in the second half. Should they lose, there will be at least a two way tie between them and the Dodgers and possibly a three or four way tie depending on whether or not the Indians and Giants win their games Friday night.

After a check with Little League officials in Abilene, it has been determined that there will be a playoff between the Dodgers and Indians who tied for the first half title. There had been some question on the matter due to the fact that although the two teams had the same number of wins and losses, the Dodgers had defeated the Indians in the first half when they played each other. However, Little League does not consider face-on competition for the winners and only considers the won-lost record.

In other games this week, the Dodgers defeated the Pirates 10-8, Tigers downed Yankees 13-10 and Giants won over the Astros 12-2.

In the Farm League Saturday, the Colts and Steers came in tied for the league lead as both teams won. The Steers won over the Lions 10-4, Colts downed Mets 20-11 and Blue Sox won over Cubs 13-6.

In the Junior Teenage League Monday, Colts won over the White Sox 13-7 and Braves downed the Lions 11-9.

In Church Softball League action, play was postoned Monday due to wet grounds but in action Tuesday Church of Christ won over First Baptist A 15-8, Oak Street downed St. Ann's 14-6 and First Baptist B won over Loraine A 14-8. The game between Baptist Mission and First Methodist B was played Wednesday night.

Thursday, First Methodist B plays Calvary Baptist and First Baptist A plays First Methodist A.

In Junior Teenage League Thursday night, Braves play Colts and White Sox play Lions.

In the Little League Thursday, Dodgers play Rangers and Tigers play Astros. Friday, Yankees play Indians and Giants play Pirates. Little League All-Stars will be named Friday night.

Saturday in the Farm League, Colts play Lions at 4 p.m., Steers vs. Blue Sox at 6 and Cubs vs. Mets at 8. Farm League All-Stars will be named before the 8 o'clock game Saturday.

Work Begins

Work started this week on the city's new 14-inch buried pipeline that will bring water to the city from the treatment plant. Delivery of the 14-inch ductile iron pipe was made Tuesday afternoon and city crews, with the help of Glen Hemphill, will begin laying the pipe as soon as a rented drag line can be obtained to dig the ditch across the Colorado River, said city manager James Campbell. The project will take about two weeks to complete and has been stepped up because water usage in the city is currently up to 2 1/2 million gallons per day with peak usage even more during the afternoons, Campbell said. The city's one main line from the plant has not been able to handle the city's need for water and that problem was made even plainer recently when pumps at the lake storage tank were inadvertently shut off and the one million gallon tank was almost pumped dry, resulting in lowered water pressure for city residents.

One-Stroke Lead Keeps Golf Title

Colorado City's George Powell and his partner Jim Harris of Roswell, N. Mex. successfully defended their title in the 27-hole championship round of Colorado Country Club's 7th annual 25'ers golf tournament Sunday.

Shooting a score of 100, they bested challengers Larry Anderson and Dan Copeland of Snyder by one stroke to take the title.

Third place score of 102 was posted by Pritchett and Pritchett and fourth place prize went to the 103 of Justice and Williams of Abilene.

First Flight winners, playing 18 holes Sunday and posting a 73 for a two-day total of 147, were Big Spring golfers Charles Bailey and Jack Bowers. Second place winners were Howard Tartt of Loraine and Charlie Smith of Colorado City with a 149.

Tied at 150 were the hometown teams of Grady Furlow-Red Davenport and Tom Rees-Jene Steakley. A play-off determined Furlow-Davenport to be third place winners in First Flight.

Second Flight winners were Jerry Richborg and Ken Lesage of Big Spring at 151, followed by Eddie Piland of Colorado City and Tom Vest at 152. Third place went to Snyder's Faught and Pope with 153.

Third Flight champions were Don Benson of Fort Worth, formerly of Colorado City and Phil Fortune of Snyder, turning in a 158. Second place went to the 161 posted by John Heck of Robert Lee and George Welch of Colorado City.

Flights other than Championship were a 2-day total. Championship flight was Sunday's 27-hole play.

Championship Flight scores were as follows:

Ceremony To Open Farmer's Market

A ribbon-cutting ceremony kicking off the first Farmer's Market for Colorado City and Mitchell County will be held shortly before the 10 a.m. opening Saturday.

The ceremony is slated for 9:45 a.m. at the entrance to the market, the Ag barn at Mitchell County Fairgrounds.

The first "Trades Day" will also be held during Saturday's opening of the market and will be held the last Saturday of each month.

Open from 10 a.m. until 6 p.m. Saturday, the market will also be open the same hours each Tuesday. Thursday evenings the market will be open from 5-9 p.m.

Originally envisioned as part of the county's Bicentennial celebration, organization was planned by Horizons chairman George Womack and market chairman Carolyn Smith with help from Bicentennial chairperson Mrs. Charles C. Thompson.

After initial meetings were held to discuss the project a governing board was appointed to devise guidelines for the market operations to follow. Appointed to the board were: Rita Latimer, Mrs. Fred Smith, Ben Bell, Mary Womack, Trudy Bodine and county extension agents Bob Benson and Janis Choate.

The weekly three-day market will feature fresh field and garden grown produce and handcrafted items, all located in stalls inside the Ag barn.

Last Saturday of each month will be deemed "Trades Day," with additional items offered for sale on the grounds around the barn, much like a gigantic garage sale.

Rental fees for stalls are $2 per day or a weekly rate of $3 for the three days.

No charge will be made to persons participating in the outside "Trades Day."

The few rules governing the regular market include the following:

--Produce offered for sale must be grown here. No imported or shipped in fruits or vegetables will be allowed.

--Arts and crafts items must be handmade. No bought or imported items will be allowed.

--Each person renting a stall will be responsible for that place and also for the items sold there.

- A sales tax permit will be required of anyone selling items other than food.

Persons participating in the "Trades Day" may offer anything for sale that they think will sell.

Most applications for a sales tax permit can be handled by phoning the Tax Compliance Officer in Abilene, Jerry S. Franklin, phone 915-673-7849.

Franklin said in a recent interview that he thinks about 90 per cent of applicants will fall under the $25 minimum bond.

Mrs. Smith said that permit requirements are based on volume and that quarterly reports are necessary.

Three options for posting bond necessary for obtaining a sales tax permit are available as follows:

--Put up $20 annually with a local bonding company.

--Pay a $25 annual fee to the State Treasurer, held in lieu of bond until the end of the season and refundable.

--Assign a portion of a savings account to the State Treasurer, the amount determined by volume of sales. Minimum amount of assignment is $100 but would continue to draw interest.

Anyone selling items for even one time must have a sales tax permit.

"Everyone is invited to come out and bring whatever they wish to sell or trade on the outside and to bring their produce and handicrafts for the inside area," Mrs. Smith said.

The fees collected will be used for expenses such as advertising and utilities.

The Fairgrounds barn is to be temporary site for the market as the committee is currently trying to get a permanent location nearer the downtown area.

Keep Title

Mex. looks on as George Powell of Colorado City lines up a putt on the 23rd hole of play in the Championship Flight during the 7th annual 25'ers golf tournament at Colorado Country Club Sunday afternoon. The partnership team retained their title as champion golfers in the tournament, shooting an even 100.

Burns On I-20

Colorado City volunteer firemen were called to Interstate 20 just west of the Morgan Creek bridge about 8:30 Wednesday morning after receiving a report that a car was on fire.

The station wagon belonging to Mr. and Mrs. Dale Kelley of Westbrook was almost a total loss even through firemen were able to douse the flames.

According to an observer at the scene, the fire apparently began in the automobile's wiring under the hood then spread to the interior and burst into flames.

UIL Puts Volleyball In Fall Competition

Due to recent University Interscholastic League changes, girls volleyball will be played in the fall this coming school year.

The UIL change of girls volleyball from spring to fall competition may hurt the girls in early season games, according to Mrs. Carol Sue Dakan, girls coach. There will be only two weeks from the time practice starts the first day of school until their first game with Lamesa, she pointed out.

The change may also affect the number on the three teams--Freshman, Jr. Varsity and Varsity- because schedule time coincides with football season, band season and cheerleader and pep squad practices.

There may be smaller crowds at the games because of Freshmen and Jr. Varsity football. "But that's the only trouble I can foresee. We've never had volleyball this time of year and so we don't know how it will work," commented school superintendent Lloyd McKee.

Mrs. Dakan said, "I could argue for an hour either way. I don't think we'll be ready for our first game. Two weeks aren't enough. Then again it's the time of year that football is going on and it's hard to schedule tournaments. And with band and cheerleading, I can understand that the kids won't have time."

When asked about the good aspects of the change, she stated, "It will no longer interfere with girls track or basketball. I really look for more to go out for basketball this year because of the change. There will be three weeks between the two seasons (volleyball and bas-

Root's Talk Set Tonight

Root Memorial Hospital administrator Charles Root will be the guest speaker for tonight's meeting of the Mitchell County Historical Survey Committee.

The public is invited to attend the 7 p.m. meeting in Mitchell County Library, says Tom Jay Goss II, chairman of the committee.

Root will give information about changes in hospital administration, comparing the complexity of running a modern-day hospital to the comparatively simple early-day hospital.

Root has been closely associated with Root Hospital since it was built in 1927 by his father, Dr. C. L. Root.

Goss invites anyone with knowledge of early hospitals in the city or county to attend the meeting and share information with the members and guests of the committee.

Robert Lewis

...fiddle maker

Making Fiddles Lewis' Hobby

Fiddle making is an unique hobby especially for one who makes them strictly from scratch and cannot play a note. Robert Lewis of 428 Vine Street is such a man.

Lewis started making fiddles a few years ago when he observed his father-in-law, who lives in Huntsville and plays them, making one.

With his interest aroused, he borrowed one of his father-in-law's fiddles to use as a pattern in cutting his beginning creation.

After a year of hard work, Lewis entered his first fiddle in the County Fair and received a blue ribbon for it.

Since his first fiddle, he has made approximately four more, displayed in a case (which he also made) in his home. He has also made a miniature fiddle and case. "I decided to make the littlest one for my wife," Lewis stated, "so it would be much easier for her to handle."

Using a variety of wood such as spruce and maple ranging in thickness from one inch to two inches, he chisles and sandpapers down the outside of the fiddle's body to form the original "bowed" shape.

After getting the outside perfected, he begins to hollow out the inside.

"This," he states, "is a very tedious job because if not hollowed out just right, the sound bar wouldn't fit properly causing the fiddle itself to not carry the proper tune."

After completing the body, the neck is the next step toward the completion of the fiddle. "The neck is probably the hardest of all to make," he continues, "for it requires cutting the exact angle and has so many curves and swirles that it must be cut very carefully."

Gluing all of the parts together, varnishing and stringing are the final touches in completing a fiddle.

Lewis works for the county and his wife, Jean, works as police dispatcher. They have four children, Robert Jr. of Huntsville; Shirley, 17; Jeff, 15 and Terry, 12.

Letter To The Editor

Dear Sir:

As members of the Cultural Affairs Committee of the Chamber of Commerce, we want to express our appreciation and warm feelings for the good people of our area who have supported our efforts to bring a variety of programs to Colorado City.

You came through for us when we asked for your financial help in bringing the Big Country Chorus. We know that you feel as we do that their presentation was most enjoyable and competently performed. We were, however, disappointed in the breviety of the program as they had promised us a 40-minute performance.

There will be no admission charge for the remainder of the season, and we pledge you our continued best efforts to secure other good talent for the succeeding programs. See you July 17th!

Chamber of Commerce Cultural Affairs Committee:

Helpful Hints For Floor Care

Linoleum, vinyl, asphalt tile and rubber tile are known as resilient flooring. They don't require sealers. Solvent-base waxes and polishes can be used on resilient flooring, except for asphalt and rubber tiles, but water-base products are more usually recommended. Some resilient floors are advertised as "no wax" floors, but tests have shown that the added protection of a floor wax maintains a longer-lasting shine.

Finally, we have hard flooring, of which marble, terrazzo, ceramic tile, terra cotta, slate, bluestone, brick and concrete are examples. These floors need a sealer before any floor care product is applied. Your builder's supply store will recommend a sealer -- but never use varnish or lacquer. Water-base waxes and polishes are most effective on hard floors.

Higher costs are pushing up the price of electricity.

Here's how you can hold down your air conditioning costs:

1. Set thermostat at 78 degrees — the lower the setting the more electricity the unit uses.
2. Replace disposable or clean permanent type filters as needed — clogged filters make the unit work harder and use more electricity.
3. Provide adequate attic ventilation — this helps reduce heat buildup.
4. Install proper duct, ceiling and wall insulation and weatherstrip windows and doors — keep hot air out, cool air in. This helps reduce winter heating costs too.
5. Shade the outdoor unit from the sun but keep the unit free of grass or other obstructions that might prevent proper air circulation.
6. Keep windows and fireplace dampers closed — this prevents excessive loss of cool air and infiltration of hot air.
7. Shade windows from direct sunlight with awnings, blinds or draperies — this reduces the load on the unit.

Even though it's costing more, the electricity that's helping keep you cool this summer is still a good value. While the cost of living has increased 68% in the past 10 years, the price of electricity is up only about 25%.

4-H'ers To Horse Show

Lone Wolf 4-H'ers from Mitchell County will be among the 180 competitors for a berth on the top 20 list of winners at the District 2 Horse Show in Lubbock Monday and Tuesday, June 30 and July 1.

Bobby and Alan Moody, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Moody of Westbrook and Dane Powell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Don Powell of Colorado City will attend the show.

Mitchell County extension agent Bob Benson said that winners of the district event will compete in the State 4-H Horse Show in Fort Worth July 23-25.

The three county 4-H'ers will compete in halter, showmanship and performance classes against representatives of 19 area counties in the Lubbock show.

Site of this year's horse show is Panhandle South Plains Fairground, Livestock Pavilion.

Tom Gibbs of Wichita Falls and Douglas Wilson, Hardeman County Extension agent from Quanah, will serve as official judges for the 1975 contests. Superintendent will be Ken Cook, Lubbock County Extension agent.

The quota of entires is based on the number of active 4-H members with horse projects in each county, Benson said.

The 4-H program in the state is administered by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System.

ketball) and there will be more time for track."

Since Mrs. Dakan came here in 1970, the girls sports program has been "pretty up," she says. Though the basketball team didn't do so well its first year, there's hope, she said. They lost only two seniors and "they improved with each game," she asserted.

Where volleyball is concerned, there is a winning tradition. In the last five years, the high school team has been to Regional twice. They were beaten by state champs, Monahans.

In track, the girls teams have done very well. In the last four out of five years, a CHS girl has gone to state. One year the 880 team went to state.

When asked about a golf team for girls, Mrs. Dakan commented that really the only things blocking it are: no teams to compete against and the district and regional play-offs have been the same dates as track.

"And with 26 to 28 girls going out for track compared to the four or five that would go out for golf, you can see where I'd have to spend my time."

Next year high school girls sports will have an assistant. She is Mrs. Susan Anderson.

When asked how the load would be divided, both said it was still undecided. They had tentatively planned to divide basketball and volleyball but will probably help each other instead of one taking basketball and the other volleyball.

Recreation and sports for Middle School girls will see an additional athletics class including volleyball, basketball and track. There will be the normal PE courses which include lifetime sports such as tennis, badminton, track, volleyball and basketball. "As many as I can get in," stated Linda Ezell, the new PE teacher for the Middle School.

As far as out-of-town competition goes for the Middle School, there will be none for girls, stated Middle School principal Jerry Reynolds. "This will probably continue for two years until other schools start this type of program. There will be intermural sports for the girls and after school games," he added.
