CONSTITUTION

OF THE
STATE OF TEXAS.

ARTICLE XII—GENERAL PROVISIONS

Sec. 34. All debts created by the so-called State of Texas, from and after the 24th day of January, A. D. 1861, and prior to the 5th day of August, 1865, were, and are null and void; and the Legislature is prohibited from making any provision for the acknowledgment or payment of such debts. All unpaid balances, whether of salary, per diem, or monthly allowance, due to employees of the State, who were in the service thereof, on the said 24th day of January, 1861, civil or military, and who gave their aid, countenance or support, to the rebellion then inaugurated against the government of the United States, or turned their arms against the said government, thereby forfeited the sums severally due to them. All the ten per cent. warrants issued during the rebellion, at the Treasury, for non-interest warrants, are hereby declared to have been fully paid and discharged; provided that any loyal person, or his or her heirs or legal representative, may, by proper legal proceedings, to be commenced within two years after the acceptance of this constitution by the Congress of the United States, show proof in avoidance of any contract made, or revise or annul any decree or judgment rendered, since the said 24th day of January, 1861, when, through fraud practiced, or threats of violence used towards such persons, no adequate consideration for the contract has been received; or when, through absence from the State of such person, or through political prejudice against such person, the decision complained of was not fair or impartial.

Sec. 35. Within five years after the acceptance of this constitution, the laws, civil and criminal, shall be revised, digested, arranged and published in such manner as the Legislature shall direct; and a like revision, digest, and publication shall be made every ten years thereafter.

Sec. 36. No lottery shall be authorized by this State; and the buying and selling of lottery tickets within this State is prohibited.

Sec. 37. No divorce shall be granted by the Legislature.

Sec. 38. The duration of all offices, not fixed by this constitution, shall never exceed four years.

Sec. 39. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in the house or within the enclosure of any individual, without the consent of the owner; nor in time of war, but in a manner prescribed by law.

Sec. 40. All sales of landed property, made under decrees of courts in this State, shall be offered to bidders in lots of not less than ten, nor more than fifty acres, except in towns or cities, including sales for taxes.

Sec. 41. All civil officers of this State shall be removable by an address of two-thirds of the members elect to each House of the Legislature, except those whose removal is otherwise provided for by this constitution.

Sec. 42. The accounting officers of this State shall neither draw nor pay a warrant upon the Treasury, in favor of any person, for salary or compensation, as agent, officer, or appointee, who holds, at the same time, any other office or position of honor, trust or profit, under the State, or the United States, except as prescribed in this constitution.

Sec. 43. The statutes of limitation of civil suits were suspended by the so-called act of Secession of the 29th of January, 1861, and shall be considered as suspended within this State, until the acceptance of this constitution by the United States Congress.

Sec. 44. All usury laws are abolished in this State, and the Legislature is forbidden from making laws limiting the parties to contracts, in the amount of interest they may agree upon for loans of money or other property; provided, this section is not intended to change the provisions of law, fixing rate of interest in contracts, where the rate of interest is not specified.

Sec. 45. All the qualified voters of each county shall also be qualified jurors of such county.

Sec. 46. It shall be the duty of the Legislature, after the adoption of this constitution, to levy a special road tax upon the taxable property of all persons in this State, and appropriate the same to the building of bridges, and the improvement of the public roads in the different counties of the State, under such rules and regulations as the Legislature shall provide; and no law shall be passed requiring the personal services of any portion of the people on the public roads.

Sec. 47. Mechanics and artisans of every class, shall have a lien upon the articles manufactured or repaired by them, for the value of their labor done thereon, or materials furnished therefor; and the Legislature shall provide by law for the speedy and efficient enforcement of said lien.

Sec. 48. The Legislature may prohibit the sale of all intoxicating or spirituous liquors in the immediate vicinity of any college or seminary of learning; provided, said college or seminary be located other than at a county seat or at the State capital.

Sec. 49. The Legislature shall give effect to the foregoing general provisions, and all other provisions of this Constitution, which require legislative action, according to their spirit and intent, by appropriate acts, bills or joint resolutions.

Sec. 50. The Legislature, whenever two-thirds of each House shall deem it necessary, may propose amendments to this Constitution; which proposed amendments shall be duly published in the public prints of this State, at least three months before the next general election of Representatives, for the consideration of the people; and it shall be the duty of the several returning officers, at the next general election which shall be thus holden, to open a poll for, and make a return to the Secretary of State, of the names of all those voting for representatives, who have voted on such proposed amendments; and if thereupon it shall appear that a majority of those voting upon the proposed amendments have voted in favor of such proposed amendments, and two-thirds of each House of the next Legislature shall, after such election, ratify the same amendments by yeas and nays, they shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as parts of this Constitution, provided, that the said proposed amendments shall, at each of the said sessions, have been read on three several days in each House.

DECLARATION.

Sec. 1. Be it declared, by the people of Texas, in convention assembled, That the territory comprised within the limits of the following named counties shall comprise the Congressional Districts of the State of Texas, until otherwise provided by law:

Sec. 2. The First Congressional District shall be composed of the counties of Anderson, Angelina, Cherokee, Harrison, Henderson, Houston, Jasper, Jefferson, Liberty, Navagoches, Newton, Orange, Panola, Park, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, Shelby, Smith, Trinity, Tyler, Hardin, Chambers, Van Zandt, and Wood.

Sec. 3. The Second Congressional District shall consist of the counties of Marion, Upshur, Davis, Bowie, Titus, Red River, Lamar, Hopkins, Kaufman, Fannin, Grayson, Hunt, Collin, Dallas, Farrant, Cooke, Denton, Montague, Wise, Parker, Palo Pinto, Jack, Clay, Wichita, Archer, Young, Throckmorton, Wilbarger, Hardeman, Knox, Haskell, Jones, Shackelford, Stephens, Ellis, Johnson, Callahan, Eastland, Eath, Hood, and Taylor.

General Order No. 37.

To give effect to sections 19 and 21, Article V, "Judicial Department" of the Constitution, the police courts of the several counties in this State are hereby authorized and directed to divide the county in which they have been elected or appointed into five justice precincts, for each of which a Justice of the Peace shall be elected at the election to be held on and after the first Monday in July, 1869, upon the question of ratifying or rejecting the Constitution.

The division of counties into precincts will be so made as to give an equality of population as nearly as may be consistent with convenience in the transaction of business in the justice courts, and will continue until otherwise directed by law.

The sub-division of counties into justice precincts, as above directed, will be reported as soon as practicable to the Secretary of State and to the headquarter of the District.

MIXED.—The governor of Louisiana has signed the School Bill, providing for rearing negroes and white children together in the public schools, and appointed the Commissioners, among them two colored men.

TEXAS ITEMS.

Two of the Jefferson prisoners have been found guilty of complicity with the murder of Geo. W. Smith.

A bill is before the United States Senate for the construction of a postal and military road from Galveston to Fort Gibson, with a branch to Little Rock.

THE HERALD.—The Galveston Star says that the Telegraph and San Antonio Herald "are not even tintured with Democracy. Their course under the specious plea of concession and harmony, leads inevitably into the embrace of Radicalism, where chastity and integrity die together, and forever!"

RIVER NEWS.—The Trinity is rising. The Indian passed Hall's Bluff, downward with about 500 bales of Cotton. The Mustang went up yesterday (15th) and will be down to-morrow (17th). The Rees is expected Thursday, and the Flets and Early Bird about the last of the week. We received this intelligence from Mr. Geo. Wright at Hall's Bluff.—Crockett Sentinel.

The Houston Telegraph may call itself a Democratic journal if it will; but to unite Democracy smacks of the kind described by the Fredericksburg Herald. This is the least to which Conservatives are invited:

"Oh, mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Oh, yes! you may, my daughter;—
Hang your clothes on a hickory limb,
But don't go near the water."
—Galveston Civilian.

The Sherman Courier of the 13th, says: There is now a tri-weekly mail running to this place from Fort Gibson. At Fort Gibson it connects with lines running out through Arkansas, Missouri, and Kansas. This line is important and will, so soon as it gets fairly under way, be of great value to Northern Texas. We learn that stages will be put upon this line as soon as necessary arrangements can be made.

Mr. Sumner presented an elaborate memorial from loyal Texans, setting forth the trifling condition of affairs in Texas, stating that since General Grant's election assassinations have averaged two per day in that State, all of which they ascribe to "Johnson's policy." They ask, as the only means of protecting the loyal people, that the State be subdivided into two or more military divisions or Territories. Referred to the Judiciary Committee.—Washington Chronicle.

A Washington dispatch, dated March 29, says Hon. W. L. Armstrong has declined being a candidate for Lieutenant Governor of Texas.—Dr. Bonide Baker has consented to run, and authorizes the press of Texas to announce him. Hon. B. H. Epperson also declines, and writes letters favoring Hamilton and Baker.—Galveston Dispatch.

The arrangement is altogether lovely. It seems that Washington is the place where our various candidates are to be named. We opine, however, some 60,000 Republican voters in Texas will have something to say about who shall be their Governor, Lieutenant Governor, Congressmen, etc. If they don't break into these little arrangements of ambitious politicians, we shall lose our guess.—Houston Union.

"The Divisionists oppose all relief from political disabilities as dangerous to the loyal men of Texas. Governor Hamilton and his delegation will urge a liberal measure of relief. The bill pending at the last session was defeated for want of time. A joint committee is to be raised by this Congress to consider the subject. Governor Hamilton and his delegation will appear before the committee to urge their views. They will be met by Davis & Co., with the charge of having sold out to the rebels. From all the Southern States except Tennessee, the majority of Representatives are new men and rather disposed to agree with the Davis delegation on the subject.—Houston Telegraph.

WACO.—We gather the following items from the Register: "The early part of last week was very cold. On Monday morning things were found frozen up generally,—fruit is thought to have been destroyed.

On last Sunday night a freedman, living near the place of John McManan, was shot at his own house by a person or persons unknown, and his wife was compelled to give up the money in the house near a hundred dollars.—It is the general impression that the murder was committed for the sole purpose of obtaining the money.

Mr. J. C. Blocker informs the Register that labor is scarce in his neighborhood, the freedmen having been frightened away by the band of outlaws that have been operating of late in that direction. Col. Pease, with two companies of infantry, has taken command of the Post. There are now at Waco, the headquarters for several counties, two companies of infantry and one of Cavalry, besides Captain Smith's company.

The Detroit Post has the following squib:
"How strange is disappointment's power!
Dispute it no one can,
And, dishonest while in power,
Is now a son of man!"
"Whoop! I'm a bully boy, and Congress is a liar!"
Were the last dying words of A. Johnson, Esq."

Our Job Office.

We call the attention of our merchants and the public in general to the fact, that our Job Office is one of the best and most complete in the State, and that we are prepared to execute all orders in the best and most approved style, at New York Prices. Merchants who labor under the belief that Job Work can be done better and cheaper in New York or New Orleans, are respectfully invited to try our office. All kinds of Job Work will be done, to-wit: Bill-heads, Bills of Lading, Circulars, Pamphlets, Price Currents, Checks, Bills of Exchange, Receipts, Monthly Statements, Visiting Cards, Business Cards, of all sizes and colors; Tickets for Sattlers, Wine and Liquor Labels, in Gold, Silver, Bronze and Colors. In general, all kinds of Job Work, in English, German, and Spanish.

TYPOGRAPHICAL ERROR. In our Sunday's issue, thirtieth line of article headed "Grumblers," read met for most.

A Republican Convention.

We are pleased to observe that our views as to the plain and absolute necessity for a Convention, to make State nominations, is meeting the approval of the Republican press. A political party that surrenders its right to deliberate upon and select its own candidates, forfeits its self-respect, and endangers its very existence.

The handful of Texans at Washington who have published a "State ticket," and who kindly propose to relieve the loyal voters of Texas of the trouble of selecting their State government for the next four years, may belong to the party, but they must learn that the party does not belong to them.

THE EXPRESS deplors the angry contest on local issues that has resulted in two Executive Committees. It believes that the mass of the loyal voters of Texas, who are not hunting office, are ready to throw overboard all who are thus sacrificing the future of this great State, to their personal ends.

This must be the People's Convention, and the People, through the loyal press, must call it.

If the Executive Committee—one or both, respond, it is well; if not, it is just as well.

We urge the several counties to hold primary meetings, perfect their organization, and appoint delegates to a Republican Convention, to assemble in Houston on the 15th of May.

Let the Republican press respond in the spirit of the following article from the Houston Union, and there will be no reason for failure.

Since writing the above we are pleased to receive and publish the card of M. C. Hamilton; though we think Houston a better point for the meeting.

The following is the article from the Houston Union:

"We are decidedly in favor of a Convention. Without it, we can have no thorough organization or concert of action. In his present attitude, General Hamilton will not poll the Republican vote of this portion of the State, even though there is no opposing candidate in the field. A feeling is fast taking control of the mass of the party that General H. is colluding with certain leaders of the rebel Democracy to overthrow the genuine Republicanism of the State; and nothing short of his nomination by a Republican State Convention, at which shall be enunciated a platform of principles for the conduct of the campaign, will dissipate this feeling. Gen. H. must place himself fair and square on this platform, and run as the Republican candidate; and this is in our judgment the only way it can be done. If he is regularly nominated, this paper will support him, although another is our choice."

"We are receiving letters daily from representative Republicans in every part of the State urging this paper to advocate a convention."

"If therefore, we are to have a convention, the Republican press must call it, and there is no time to be lost. If we all unite in insisting upon one, the Executive Committee may respond to our demand, which is also the obvious voice of the mass of the party."

"Should these views meet the approval of the Republican press and representative men of the party, we would suggest as early a period as the 15th of May, for the meeting. In the meantime, we would urge a thorough local organization, preparatory to action, whatever it may be, at the proper time."

We learn from the San Antonio Express, that Miss Nancy Nahar has a school in San Antonio, "of all shades and colors," in which she teaches ninety-eight scholars. Well, San Antonio is composed of a population "mightily mixed," and a school of all colors may there be necessary, but while we are advocates of the education of freed-men, we are in favor of having them taught in schools of their own color; We are opposed to mixing freedmen youth with whites. Such is not the practice in Houston, or any other place in Texas, we ever heard of, except San Antonio. Keep the colors separate.—Houston Union.

It is difficult to understand how the Union could have made the above mistake. We distinctly stated that our city was supporting two public schools, one for white and one for colored pupils, and that Miss Nahar was teaching the colored school, with an attendance "of all shades of complexion."

Austin Pebbles.

We clip the following from a late number of Harpers Weekly, and have seen the same, or a similar description in several other leading papers at the North.

We hope that the account is all true, and that the half has not been told, but the story has a glitter about it, that, in the eyes of many, seems to savor of harmless embellishment.

As the good people of Austin are not exempt from the general delusion of supposing their own crows to be of the very whitest breed, so they may be entertaining the kindred fallacy of thinking their pebbles to be gems.

Any way we are willing to stake the fish culture of San Antonio against the diamond trade of Austin.

The "egg-shaped crystal" ought to be cut and set in the "Austin ring."

From Texas comes a brilliant report of newly discovered precious stones. In fact, a mineralogical fever is raging in the vicinity of the city of Austin. The origin of the whole matter is that a little girl some three or four months ago, found on a hill a transparent stone about the size of a pea. The pebble at length came into the hands of an amateur mineralogist, who pronounced it of the opaline class, and of value. Then the hunt began, and for weeks the hills have been covered by earnest searchers for valuables. The result has been an abundance of worthless quartz, fine specimens of the California pebble, some transparent carnelians, a number of amethystine crystals, a score of superb sparkling beryls, an occasional topaz, chrysoprase, or emerald and a few undoubted opals. Stones have also been found of great beauty and hardness, approaching closely the domain of the diamond. One of these crystals is egg-shaped, two inches in length, and nearly an inch in its largest diameter. The surface is covered with a rough incrustation, having occasional openings of perfect smoothness and polish, through which the resplendent interior becomes visible. It is slightly phosphorescent, shining with a yellow, adamantine lustre.

PARAGRAPHS.

THE ratio of apportionment for Congress under the next census will be about 160,000.

HOUSTON, with a population of nearly 20,000, furnishes to all its newspapers but 1,500 subscribers.

JUDGE A. J. EVANS is the candidate for State Senator from his District. The Judge was one of the leading advocates for division of the State, in the late Convention.

THE editor of the Galveston Civilian, who is a member of the Central Executive Democratic Committee, is in favor of a Convention of his party, and has so written to the Chairman.

THE Houston Times publishes a letter from S. A. Maverick—a genuine one, probably—in which the authenticity of the former letter is denied.

THE Herald says the fabricated one is now in the city, and that it is an evident "copy."

A MAN named Ellershausen, who for some years past has been experimenting in Nova Scotia in the manufacture of iron, has at length discovered a process which, it is said, saves about $20 per ton in the production of wrought iron. This is accomplished by the introduction of solid metallic oxide into the molten metal.

A NUMBER of Chihuahua Mexicans, who were encamped with a train near this city, last Thursday evening attacked the police stationed at the San Pedro, and several shots were exchanged. One of the fellows is supposed to be wounded. A renewal of the attack was threatened Sunday evening, but the police were ready, and the Mexican braves failed to come to time.

THE State Gazette, in a courteous review of our article on "Fish Culture in San Antonio," urges with force the introduction of the brook trout of the North into the clear streams of Western Texas. This can be readily done, and at small cost and trouble. Who will take the initiative, and be honored and remembered thereby as a benefactor to Texas?

THE State Gazette, answers with clearness and point the charge made against it of a dearth of local items. It declines to publish "how many people get drunk, how many are killed, what pigs are running loose, and what cats are caterwauling on the roofs." The lovers of scandal and coarse descriptions of vice and debauchery are referred for their daily bread to the Police Gazette or Day's Doings.

The Gazette affirms that the local columns of our press have been the source of unmitigated evil by familiarizing the public mind with vulgarity. To all of which we say, amen.

WENDELL PHILLIPS.—If the distinguished orator of Massachusetts does not require several of those articles of wearing apparel which Sam Weller would call "strait vests," we do not believe that there is any lunatic that does. He says the bondholder can wait for his coin, but that there is a debt due Southern loyalists which must be paid in blood.—[Flake's Bulletin.]

This is unfair. The words of Wendell Phillips are these: "We owe a debt to the Southern loyalists, black and white.—This debt is their immediate and perfect protection." By this debt being paid in blood, he means the vigorous and rigorous execution of the law on masked murderers and midnight assassins. If this constitutes lunacy, then the Bulletin is sadly demented, for it has been advocating this course for years.

THE SAN ANTONIO EXPRESS takes exception that the negro was the first man whom others emancipated, and calls our attention to the Russian serfs and to the slaves of Jamaica. The latter were negroes and the former paid for or are now paying for their freedom.—[Flake's Bulletin.]

THE EXPRESS takes no such exception. Your statement was that "history showed that the enslaved gained freedom for themselves by breing it from the ruling classes." We referred you to some signal examples to the contrary, in the British and Russian empires.

That the Russian serfs have paid for, or are now paying for their freedom, is the latest piece of historic information that has reached us, and, like some other novelties, it won't bear scrutiny.

THE EXPRESS tells you that the ballot has both lessened the quantity, and improved the quality of said constituents. The supporters of John Morrissey are of foreign origin and of the Irish persuasion, freshly landed at that. They are the great unwashed. The fact that such men have the ballot, make universal education a matter of public necessity and plain self-defense. The intelligence of the North dare not ignore them. But take from this class the franchise and here, as in Europe, they would be left to live and multiply in their uneducated, barbarian. Without the ballot, the savages of civilization, of whom A. C. Crissey is the representative, would speedily increase to ten times their present number.—[San Antonio Express.]

The works of the writer of the above disprove his own words for when the negro had no vote, and precious little prospect of getting it, the gentleman who wrote the above was laboring, night and main, with zeal and great success in the education of twenty thousand colored people. Unless he had the gift of prophetic vision, he was not moved to this goodwork by any prospect that negro suffrage would be enacted. We believe that he was motivated to undertake this work by a higher motive.—[Flake's Bulletin.]

Thank you for the compliment. We don't receive any, and the rarity enhances the value. But the logic of your remarks we don't see.

Our argument was that universal suffrage necessitated universal education, and our work was to labor for that education.

How, then, do our "works disprove our words?"

The Bulletin is, in many respects, by far the best newspaper in Texas; but among its shining virtues, the most conspicuous is not that of fairly stating the position of an opponent.

ACCORDING to Ger. in statistics more than two hundred and fifty thousand emigrants left Europe in 1868 to find homes in America. Of these 120,000 embarked at Liverpool, 66,000 at Bremen, 44,000 at Hamburg, 20,000 at Antwerp, and about 9,000 at Antwerp.

Free Schools in Germany.

In Germany the Government has generally sustained schools for each of the great religious denominations—Protestants, Catholics and Israelites—except in the higher seminaries where, in religion and history, the discrimination is alone employed between Catholics and Protestants, the Israelites being free to choose between the two. The old system is, however, breaking up, as regards the primary schools. The question now is whether or not simultaneous instruction should be introduced for all the three confessions, without any reference to religious beliefs, all the children receiving their education in the same houses, and by the same teachers.

This is to be submitted to the various denominations in the general confederations. Such an "election" was held on the 28th and 29th of January, at Manheim, a city of about thirty thousand inhabitants, in the Grand Duchy of Baden. It seems that the excitement ran very high, but progress and toleration gained a decided victory. On the 28th the Catholics and Protestants voted first, whether or not the confessional schools should be united in the mixed public schools. The vote of the Protestants was unanimously in favor of it, and four-fifths of the Catholics voted the same way. The city was very agreeably surprised by the result; but when, on the 29th of the four hundred Israelite families three hundred and twenty voted in favor of the mixed system, the public enjoyment became universal; the city was spontaneously illuminated, the houses displayed flags, and cannon were fired.

Respect the Body.

A writer in Hearth and Home says:

Respect the body. Give it what it requires, and no more. Don't pierce its ears, strain its eyes, or pinch its feet; don't roast it by a hot fire all day, and smother it under heavy bed covering all night; don't put it in a cold draft on slight occasions, and don't nurse or pet it to death; don't dose it with doctors' stuffs, and above all, don't turn it into a wine cask or a chimney. Let it be "sarranted not to smoke," from the time your manhood takes possession. Respect the body: don't overwork, overrest or overlove it, and never debate it, but be able to lay it down when you are done with it, a well worn but not a misused thing. Meantime, treat it at least as well as you would your pet-horse or hound, and, my word for it, though it will not jump to China at a bound, you'll find it a most excellent thing to have, especially in the country.

To the Republicans of Texas.

The undersigned has not been able to consult with all the members of the Republican Central Committee, of which he is chairman, but after discussion with several members now here in Washington, and finding their views and his own to coincide, touching the present aspect of affairs in Texas, and the necessity for consultation among loyal Texans:—He therefore respectfully recommends to the Republicans of Texas that they meet in Galveston, on the 10th day of May, 1869, to concert measures for the good of the loyal people. He further recommends, that delegates be chosen in accordance with their representation, as apportioned by the late Reconstruction Convention.

Mammoth Crescent City Circus!

THE MOST EXTENSIVE, BRILLIANT AND ATTRACTIVE ORGANIZATION OF THE AGE.

An old fashioned Circus, in which only such Acts of Horsemanship, Daring Gymnastics, Equine Schooling and Clown's sallies of Original Wit are presented as made the Circus, in days of yore, the pleasing resort of the old, and the delight of the children.

Thirty Male and Female Artists.

Every one a Star of the first magnitude; trained Horses that are without equals; Comic Mules; Acting Ponies and Enchanting Music, are some of the leading features of this magnificent organization.

No Gorgeous Street Parade will be given, as the Manager reserves his attractions for the interior of the Pavilion, and pledges himself they have not been surpassed, if equaled, in this city.

THEATRICAL.—At Munch's Hall to-day:
"Serious Family," and "Black-eyed Susan."
This will be an attractive entertainment, and those who desire to enjoy a pleasant evening are invited to attend. Mr. Mc-Cormack, who has kindly volunteered his services, will perform the part of Capt.
Murphy McGuire in the Serious Family, while Mr. Ed. Bohan will be in his element, as Mr. Amindab Sleek.

THE PICTORIALS with which Gamble has bountifully supplied us this week, are of unusual interest. Harper is, as usual, full of life, and Frank Leslie has a number of very readable articles, among which we may name one on the Gulf Stream. The writer takes novel ground with regard to the magnitude and climatic influence of this grand ocean current.

SUICIDE.—Yesterday morning early the dead body of Dr. F. Landeck, of this place, was found in his bed. Dr. Landeck was a German who had resided in San Antonio about six months, and was known to be a misanthrope. He was lying on his back, with a small string around his neck, by means of which he had strangled himself.
A piece of paper on his table declared that he had taken his life because circumstances compelled him. He leaves a family in Germany.

The verdict of the jury was rendered according to the facts above stated.

OUR POSTMASTER AGAIN.—The Herald seems not to have reliable information concerning the movement for the removal of our present postmaster, or else he is not interested when he states the Express was baited by some floating remarks of jocular gentlemen. We tell him that our statement is true, that Governor Hamilton presented a petition to the Postmaster General for the removal of Mr. Gambia and the installation of Mr. Rossy; or on the ground that Mr. Gambia was partial in the administration of the post office, and changed clerks too often, to the injury of the citizens of San Antonio.

We can further tell Mr. Herald, that the Postmaster General did not comply with the petition, and that Mr. A. Rossy will not be the postmaster of San Antonio.
Such are the facts. The petition referred to above is open for the inspection of all who wish to inform themselves, at the office of the Postmaster General at Washington.

CONCERT IN THE CASINO HALL.—According to notice to be found in our advertising columns, the Concert of Messrs. Miller and Delbert will take place to night in the Casino Hall, which will be open to the public generally. The programme is an excellent one, and contains amongst other, the following—exquisite music Duo Concertant William Tell; Etude Russe, by F.
Liszt; Air varié No. 7, by De Beriot; Songs of Mendelssohn and Rob. Schumann; Variations tyrolaises; La Campanella, by Tanner; Concert No. 7, by De Beriot; and the Weddings Day Overture, a complete operatic performance in one act, by Comrad.
This last piece is the great attraction, and will be the first little Opera ever offered to the San Antonio public. A full house will give evidence of the taste of our good people of Bexar.

SWINDLERS.—There appears to be some specimens of the New York sharpers in our city. The following is one of their latest feats: A countryman, from the Cibola, standing at the corner of Commerce and Casino streets, was accosted by a gentlemanly looking fellow, who, seeing that the countryman had about emptied his pipe, offered him his tobacco-box to replenish the same, which was done. Shortly afterwards another person appears, asking for a little tobacco for his pipe, whereupon the accommodating gentleman again exhibits his box, but this time closely shut up, and as he vainly endeavored to open it, he becomes angry and calls upon our countryman from the Cibola to open it, when gentleman No. 3 laughingly offers a $10 bet that the countryman would not be able to open the box. Number 2 accepts the bet, but only finds $1 in his pocket, whereupon he calls upon the countryman to lend him $9 to take up the bet, which was done. Then both No. 2 and 3 disappeared in a rather hurried manner, leaving the astounded farmer to reflect upon the foolishness of betting with strangers.

The sheriff has a eye upon these sharpers, and hopes soon to give them a free lodging.
