Five Bandits Rob New Orleans Bank

Three Suspects Held In $130,000 Holdup

(By The Associated Press)

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 9—The biggest bank robbery in years brought five bandits about $130,000 today, but before the sun had set three men were in jail and about half of the loot was recovered.

JOHN BEN SHEPPARD

An informant's tip brought swift police action after the robbery of the mid-city branch of the Hibernia National bank was carried out with incredible smoothness.

Charges Are Filed

The bandits tipped their hands by talking too loudly as they planned the robbery in a barroom, Superintendent of Police A. A. Watters said.

"If we had known last night what we know this morning, we could have greeted the men at the bank,' Watters added.

The three young men who fell into police hands were charged with armed robbery, an offense punishable by death in Louisiana.

Watters said that two missing men were the "brains of the outfit." He added that they have about half of the haul with them. Police apparently expected additional arrests shortly because Watters indicated that the identities of the men were known.

Detective Chief Joseph Scheuring identified the men in jail as George W. Ricketts, 23, of Chalmette, La.; Tommie Ricketts of New Orleans, 21, George's nephew, and John Hassenback, 23, also of New Orleans.

Scheuring said they admitted taking part in the daring robbery. He added that Hassenback drove the get-away car.

Bandits Work Smoothly

Scheuring reported that a suitcase containing $35,000 was found in the house where the Ricketts were arrested, and that $30,000 was in a paper bag discovered in Hassenback's room.

A woman was taken to police headquarters in connection with the case, but was not held.

Four men forced their way into the bank before it opened this morning, and went about their work as though every part had been rehearsed. They were armed with pistols, but were unmasked.

Negro Porter Slugged

A negro porter, Joseph L. Thomas, was slugged with a pistol barrel when he protested the treatment of a woman employe. Assistant Manager Hymel Amuedo was forced to open the vault with the threat of death if he failed.

Once in the vault, the robbers took all the cash in sight. Then

Jaycees To Honor Outstanding Man

The Lubbock Junior Chamber of Commerce's annual Distinguished Service Award banquet will be held tonight at 7:30 o'clock in the main ballroom of Hilton hotel, with John Ben Sheppard, president of the U. S. Junior Chamber of Commerce, as the principal speaker, and Mayor C. A. Bestwick presenting the gold key award to the young man between 21 and 35 who has done the most outstanding civic work in Lubbock during the past year.

During his four months in office, Sheppard has traveled more than 80,000 miles in the United States, Alaska and Europe. During October, he spearheaded the U.S. Junior Chamber "Fifth Freedom Flight" through 27 states, conferring with President Truman, 26 governors, and numerous leaders of business, industry and finance.

Making Tour Of States

He has served as a member of the Citizens Food committee in charge of the Friendship Train, the National Committee for Boys and Girls Week, Advisory Committee for the Marshall Plan, Advisory Committee of the National Traffic Safety council and the National Council for Community Improvement. His appointment as a member of the nine-man executive committee of the National Security Committee was recently announced by Owen J. Roberts, for-

Husband Will Be Charged In Poisoning Of Abilene Woman

RUSSELLVILLE, Ark., Jan. 9 (AP)—Prosecutor R. E. Rush of Harrison said here tonight he would file a charge of first degree murder against Lonnie A. Robbins, of Scotland, Ark., in connection with the New Year's poison death of his middle-aged bride.

Rush said the charge would allege that Robbins administered strychnine which physicians said caused the death of Mrs. Robbins, 52, a few hours after she arrived with her husband at his farm home following a Christmas Day wedding at Abilene, Tex.

Stassen Says Traders Made Huge Profits

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Harold E. Stassen told senators today that government "insiders" have made about $4,000,000 profits in post-war commodity trading.

He declined to name any traders who have not been identified already, saying he would leave it to the senators to bring out "the exact evidence."

Pauley Profit Claimed

Appearing before a Senate Appropriations subcommittee investigating the effects of speculation on prices, the Republican presidential aspirant also declared that Edwin W. Pauley and Brig. Gen. Wallace H. Graham have not told the whole truth about their trading transactions.

Stassen contended that Pauley, a special assistant to the Secretary of the Army, made a profit of about $1,000,000 in the market since the war, "moving in and out . . . with never a loss."

He also said that Graham, who is President Truman's personal physician, did not lose money in the market, although his profit did not compare with Pauley's.

Names Of Others Uncovered

Graham was waiting to testify about his market activities when the committee adjourned to permit Stassen to fill a speaking engagement in Missouri.

The only other trader mentioned by Stassen was Ralph K. Davies, former deputy petroleum administrator for war, whose name recently appeared on a list of traders. Stassen said Davies' activities were similar to Pauley's.

The witness, a former Minnesota governor, said that he and his staff have uncovered the names of about 11 "insiders" who—he asserted—have made personal profits through the use of official information.

Names Demanded

"Were any members of Congress?" asked Senator O'Mahoney (D-Wyo).

"No members of Congress," Stassen answered.

His informants, he said, were in the government. He added he does not consider it in the public interest to disclose them, although Senator Green (D-RI) demanded heatedly: "Give us the names. Don't deal in generalities."

Although Stassen did not name the 11 government employes he said had engaged in speculation, he told the senators he would

President Nominates Allen As Assistant Secretary Of State

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Truman today formally nominated George V. Allen, now ambassador to Iran, to be assistant secretary of state.

The nomination, announced yesterday by the White House was sent to the Senate with a long list of other nomination primarily of men who have been serving under recess appointments.

Stuffed Sea Lions Not Dying, Angry Citizens Assured

(By The Associated Press)

SAUSALITO, Calif., Jan. 9 Sea lions were being slaughtered by the score, indignant residents of Belvedere phoned the sheriff today.

They could hear the shots, could see the poor things lying on the beaches, could hear their death moans.

A detail of fish and game commission wardens rushed on the double to the scene. They returned, shaking their heads sadly over the unreliability of circumstantial evidence.

Those shots, they reassured Belvedere's good people, were fishermen — working the biggest herring run San Francisco bay has known for years —following the time-honored device of spanking the water with their oars to drive the herring into the nets. The dying sea lions on the beach? They were not dying sea lions, lady, said the game wardens.

Those were herring-stuffed sea lions, burping gently on the sands and complaining about gas pains in the stomach.

Solon Warns On Aid Plan

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Senator Vandenberg (R-Mich) warned the State department today that it must make its plan for handling the European recovery program businesslike "or you are sunk without a trace."

If it is to succeed, the plan must gain the confidence of the American people, said the Michigan Republican, chairman of the Senate Foreign relations committee.

Business Element Needed

A "new element of business operation" must be infused into the multi-billion program, he told Lewis W. Douglas, ambassador to Great Britain and Secretary of State Marshall's chief deputy on foreign aid.

He said that element is "lacking in the bill you submitted."

Douglas, backing up Marshall's opening testimony yesterday, had just outlined to the committee principles which he said are fundamental to the success of the plan. He said the Secretary of State and the President must have control of and supervision over the program.

Must Have Confidence

Vandenberg cut in:

"I respectfully submit that you missed one fundamental specification that is overriding—that is to create a system in which the American people have confidence or you are sunk without a trace."

Then, near the close of the day's session, Senator George (D-Ga) criticized Marshall for his testimony yesterday.

George said Marshall in effect told Congress: "Take the whole of this program or none." The southern senator declared "that's the technique of the propagandist" and was "not a proper statement to make to the legislative branch."

Douglas said he didn't think Marshall meant take the $6,800,000,000 asked for the first 15 months operations, or none at all.

George said he did not think Marshall meant it the way it sounded, but that newspapers interpreted it that way.

(What Marshall actually said in his testimony was: "Either undertake to meet the requirements of the problem or don't undertake it at all." He also emphasized that the $6,800,000,000 was not a figure to bargain with, but a minimum figure.)

Two More Price Suits Are Filed

AUSTIN, Jan. 9 (AP)—The state today brought two more anti-trust suits, one against the Ford Gum and Machine company, Inc., and the other against the Simplicity Pattern company, Inc., both New York corporations.

The new suits were the third and fourth such actions brought by Attorney General Price Daniel this week. Daniel filed the first suit Tuesday against eight North Texas milk corporations and the second suit Wednesday against two ice cream manufacturers.

Price Agreement Alleged

The petitions against the Ford Gum and Machine company, Inc., and others, prepared by Assistant Attorney General J. A. Amis, alleges that individuals who are parties to the lawsuit have violated Texas anti-trust laws by agreeing to operate self-service gum vending machines in exclusive territories in Texas and that the defendant corporation required the individual defendants to dispense through the vending machines chewing gum manufactured and sold only by the defendant corporation.

The petition against Simplicity Pattern company, prepared by Assistant Attorney General Durward M. Goolsby, alleges that prior to Oct. 1, 1947, Simplicity entered into written agreements with its

Illegal Shipment Of Explosives Seized

ASBURY PARK, N. J., Jan. 9 (AP)—Police confiscated from 126 to 135 tons of surplus army explosives and a cache of 5,200 combat knives today which they said had been gathered by Zionists for illegal shipment to Palestine and the New York region of the War Assets administration ordered frozen all undelivered orders of surplus explosives.

Police said the explosives were part of a 199-ton consignment intended for the Holy Land. Whereabouts of the remaining explosives was not known to authorities tonight.

Three trucks containing 67 tons of highly explosive cyclonite blocks were seized this afternoon in Ulster county, N. Y., after police uncovered an initial cache last night in a warehouse here at Asbury Park and in a farmhouse at nearby Wall township, which Monmouth county Prosecutor J. Victor Carton and state police said amounted to 59 tons. Navy public relations authorities said, however, this batch weighed 68 tons when it was unloaded at the Earle ammunition depot in Leonardo for safekeeping.

The combat knives, made originally for the U. S. Navy, were found in the warehouse here today.

U. S. Transfers More Ships To Turkish Navy

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — The United States today bolstered the defenses of the Dardanelles by the transfer of four powerful long-range submarines to the Turkish navy, plus 11 other warcraft especially suitable for operations in that strategic Middle Eastern area.

This brings to 33 the number of former U. S. war vessels assigned this week for service with the Turkish and Greek fleets and serve as a potent reminder to Soviet Russia that this country does not intend to permit the Black Sea waterway to fall under Communist control.

Action Aimed At Reds

Today's announcement by the Navy climaxes a series of military and diplomatic moves designed to put Russia and her Balkan satellites on notice that any action to change the balance of power in that traditional "tinder box" area will result in serious consequences.

And it pointed up a recent statement by Rear Admiral Felix Johnson, Navy public relations director, that the United States fleet is the "big stick" of American diplomacy. Already 1,000 or more marines, fully equipped for landing operations, are en route to the Mediterranean. Next month Vice Admiral Forrest P. Sherman, former chief planning officer for Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz, will take command of the Mediterranean naval forces headed by the powerful carrier Midway.

Turk Sailors Trained In U. S.

The Navy announcement said that the four fleet-type submarines, the Brill, Blueback, Boarfish and Chub, will be delivered to a Turkish port by American crews. The other vessels—eight motor sweepers, one net laying vessel, one gasoline tanker and one repair vessel—will be handed over to Turkish sailors specially trained in this country. Over 200 have already received training here and tomorrow another contingent will arrive in Norfolk aboard the U. S. Navy tanker Tappahannock. All told, 350 Turkish officers and crewmen will be trained at naval schools along the east coast and at Great Lakes, Ill.

Navy officials at the New London, Conn., submarine base said the submarines to be turned over to Turkey are now in the Pacific and will return to that base in February and March for final

Negro Seeking Entry In School

AUSTIN, Jan. 9 (AP)—Attorney General Price Daniel announced today the state would join with the Hearne Independent school district in defense of a suit in which a negro is seeking admission to the Hearne High school.

Daniel said his department would assist the district only "in defending the general attack that is being made in this case against separate schools (for whites and negroes) even though substantially equal."

Case Set In Waco

The attorney general said his office would "leave the question of the equality of Hearne schools entirely to the local attorneys for the school district."

"Our participation with the attorneys for the school district will be for the purpose of defending the attack that is being made in this case against Texas' constitutional provision requiring separate schools for white and negro students," Daniel added. "The state recognizes that such schools must be substantially equal if the separate system is to be sustained in court."

The case, styled Jennings versus Hearne Independent school district, is set for trial in the district court at Waco Feb. 23. Assistant Attorney General Joe Greenhill has been assigned to join attorneys of the district.

Foundering Russian Ship In Pacific Is Reported In Tow

TOKYO, Jan. 9 (AP)—A Russian patrol craft was reported tonight to have made a line fast to the floundering Russian ship Dvina, in distress in heavy seas some 100 miles off the east coast of Hokkaido.

The Dvina, whose master reported he had 780 passengers aboard, was still listing at a 30-degree angle, and was so low in the water that the seas crashed over her port rail, but U. S. air observers said she appeared in no immediate danger of foundering.

There was still no identification of the large passenger list of the former liberty ship and no explanation of the position off northeast Japan. The Dvina was reported en route from the Kamchatka peninsula to Vladivostok, but the position is far south and east of the usual course for such a voyage.

ENDS OF FINGERS CUT OFF

Self-Mutilation By Three Men At Texas Prison Farm Probed

(By The Associated Press)

HUNTSVILLE, Jan. 9—O. B. Ellis manager of the Texas Prison system, reported today that three prisoners at the Eastham prison farm cut off the ends of the fingers on their left hands in an attempt to be transferred to the Huntsville prison unit.

Ellis said the self-mutilation attempts would do them do good. He said their conditions were not serious and they would remain on the Eastham farm, 40 miles northeast of here.

Ellis, in reporting the incident, expressed great concern over the self-mutilations. He said he had tried to get at the bottom of the situation in the short time he has been in charge of Texas' prison system.

The felons were Raymond Sherman, 34, doing four years for forgery from Bowie county; Earl Byers, 32, serving 11 years for murder from Nacogdoches; and Earl C. Davis, 33, three and one half years for swindling from Dallam county.

Ellis said that Davis had frequently been in trouble and that he (Davis) had mutilated himself two months ago.

Ellis said it was not known where the men got the knife they used. He said further: "The problem of mutilations is entirely new to me. I am very much concerned about it and have been trying to get to the bottom of it in the short time I've been here.

"It seems it is being done as a means of getting transferred to the central unit. I am taking the position of keeping them where they are unless the medical staff says to bring them here to the hospital.

"Even so, I'll send them

U. S. Soldiers Gain Respect In Germany

(NOTE TO READERS: This is the twelfth of a series of articles on conditions in Europe today, written by The Avalanche-Journal's Editor following a five-week inspection tour of Germany, Austria, the Free State of Trieste and a later visit to Paris. On the trip, made by plane, train and automobile, Mr. Guy was one of 14 U. S. editors invited to study overseas conditions as the guests of the Department of the Army and Gen. Lucius D. Clay, chief of the U. S. Army's European Command).

BY CHAS. A. GUY, EDITOR
The Lubbock Avalanche-Journal

ALL IN ALL we've got the slickest bunch of kids you've ever seen in our enlisted ranks in Germany.

They probably do not average more than 20 to 21 years of age and most of them are not battle-seasoned, or, for that matter, even much experienced in peace-time soldiering.

But they are well groomed, open-eyed and typically fresh-faced American youngsters and in some respects they are spreading more good will, and, by their actions, spreading wider the gospel of democracy, than all the professional do-gooders connected with our many-sided occupation of the ruined Reich.

One naturally expects the "brass" of our Army of Occupation to be something extra-special.

The Department of the Army has carefully handpicked the generals and the colonels, the majors and the captains and, to an extent, even the lieutenants who are in charge of things in the U. S. zone. So the appearance and demeanor of our officers—both very good—are not surprising.

But even more impressive to me than our top-side in Germany were the boys in the ranks, those without stripes as well as those with them.

Good "Spit-And-Polish" Soldiers

I hope no one will get the idea that I found our troops to be Boy Scouts in Army uniforms.

That isn't true.

They are youngsters with vim and vigor. They are soldiers in a strange land where customs differ from ours to considerable extent and, upon occasion, they kick up their heels a little in the manner of their counterparts at home.

But by and large they represent us well, clean shaven, trousers pressed, shoes shined, brass gleaming—and they can spit-and-polish with the United States Marines.

Dull, indeed, would be the German who sees both U. S. troops and th poorly clad, slovenly Russians, and not immediately note the difference.

I SPENT a good deal of time with members of our enlisted personnel. I ate in their messes. I stood at night in cold railroad stations and talked with them. I saw them put on exhibitions of close-order drill which would delight even such tough old soldiers as "Yoo-hoo Ben" Lear, Walter Krueger, or even the late Georgie Patton, were he around to see them.

As noted here the other day, there was a time a year and two years ago when many of our troops in Germany were almost without discipline and nothing to be proud of.

But today there are more salutes thrown around such places as Frankfurt, Weisbaden and Murnich than you saw during the war at either of Lubbock's Army Air Fields. What is more, they're thrown correctly and with snap.

Youngsters Adding To Their Knowledge

Nearly all, if not every one, of our enlisted men in Germany are there because they volunteered to go.

Some of them, of course, don't like their experience as much as they thought they would. After all, life in the German cities is pretty grim and there isn't too much in the way of recreation, outside the Army's own very considerable program.

But you'd be surprised, as was I, at the percentage of the boys who are using their spare time to go places and see things in Europe; who are learning a new language and who are doing everything they can to improve their minds.

I am certain that the average U. S. soldier in Germany is the equal of the average American youngster of his age who today is working, or going to college, in the U. S.

It could be that the soldier is a slight cut above his civilian prototype at home, including the young men of our teeming, industrial cities in the comparison.

THE THINGS our GI's are doing for the German kids cannot help but open the eyes of adult Germans to the sort of people Americans really are.

Throughout the year, our soldiers use much of their own choco-

Arabs Sound Grim Warning Against Move

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — The United States is considering the possibility of sending Marines to guard the recently bombed consulate at Jerusalem, the State department revealed tonight. It added that no decisions had been reached during "informal" discussions with the Palestine government.

Simultaneously the Arab office in London issued a statement that "the arrival of American military personnel in Palestine, no matter in what guise or how few, will not intimidate the Arabs. On the contrary they will see in it a reckless, provocative challenge to which they will react with increased anger and determination."

Death Toll Mounts

Meanwhile the death toll in the Holy Land clashes between Arabs and Jews rose to 643 since the partition plan was approved by the United Nations General Assembly November 29.

First hints that the United States was considering ordering Marines to Palestine came from London today. Informants in Whitehall (where British government offices are located) told newsmen the United States had asked and received approval from the Palestine government for dispatch of the devil dogs to embattled Jerusalem.

Statement Is Issued

The State department then issued this formal statement:

"This government has never asked permission from either the Palestine governor or the British government to send Marines to Palestine.

"Reports from London probably arise from the fact that the consul general in Jerusalem has discussed informally with the Palestine government the necessity for taking measures to increase the security of the consulate general personnel and property.

During the informal discussions with the Palestine government the question of the necessity for sending American guards arose. No decisions were reached and have not been reached.

"It will be recalled in this connection that the consulate general in Jerusalem was recently bombed."

Lincoln White, State department press officer, said the "guards" referred to in the statement included Marines but added that Marines would not necessarily be required since some diplomatic establishments abroad employ civilian guards.

Band Of Arabs Attacks Jews

By EDWARD CURTIS
Associated Press Staff Writer

JERUSALEM, Jan. 9 — Six-hundred Arab guerrillas—in the first major invasion across the Palestine border from Syria—attacked two Jewish settlements in upper Galilee today and were beaten off by British troops and planes, the Palestine government said.

The British-administered government disclosed that it had asked its minister in Syria to make representations to the Syrian government concerning the attacks.

Firing Continues

For three and a half hours the battle swirled around the settlements of Kfar Szold and Dan before reinforced British troops supported by artillery and RAF Spitfires brought the situation under control. Reports from the area said sporadic firing was continuing tonight.

Three Jews were killed and eight others were wounded in the Arab attacks which centered on a finger of Palestine extending northward between Syria and Lebanon.

According to unconfirmed reports the operation was directed by Dawzi Bey Al Kaukji, veteran Arab warrior and leader of the bloody uprising of Arabs in Palestine a decade ago.

He has been described as a commander of the Arab people's army, the volunteer guerrilla force recently organized in Arab countries surrounding Palestine to fight the projected Holy Land partition. Jewish sources said they presumed the Arab invaders were members of the people's army.

BEST QUALIFIED, SAYS TOBEY

GOP Senator Supporting 'Ike' For Presidential Nomination

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9—Senator Tobey (R-NH) announced tonight he is supporting Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower for the G.O.P. presidential nomination as the man "best qualified to lead this nation in this time of great crises in national and international affairs."

Tobey's announcement came on a day which brought these other political developments:

1. A declaration in the Senate by Senator Chavez (D-NM) that he is supporting Secretary of State Marshall for the Democratic vice presidential nomination.

2. A declaration by Governor Earl Warren of California that while he is "available" he has "no burning desire" to become the GOP presidential nominee.

Governor Warren has announced a "favorite son" and is expected to carry the backing of a California's delegation in the June Republican convention. He told a news conference he has "no interest whatsoever in the vice presidential nomination."

Similarly, there is plenty of reason to believe that Secretary Mar-

UN Group Seeks Solution For Enforcing Holy Land Partition

(By The Associated Press)

LAKE SUCCESS, Jan. 9 — The United Nations Palestine partition commission today asked the Arabs and Jews of Palestine and the British government to help in setting up independent Arab and Jewish countries in the Holy Land by next Oct. 1. The Arab higher committee rejected the bid with the comment that it was "fantastic."

An Arab representative said the committee would boycott the five-man commission and continue opposing Palestine's partition.

The delegates generally have acknowledged that they lack thus far the military force to make their decisions effective. Thus they received with considerable interest reports from London and Washington on the possibility of posting a small force of U. S. Marines in the Holy Land to protect the American consulate.

The commission asked Arabs and Jews of Palestine and the British government to help in setting up independent Arab and Jewish countries in the violent Holy Land by next Oct. 1. The Arabs quickly rejected the bid. They said they would boycott the commission and continue opposing partition in Palestine.

Sentences Given In Felony Cases

Three persons pleaded guilty of four felony offenses Friday in the 99th district court of Judge G. V. Pardue.

One of them, Clyde Alexander, alias J. W. Wilson, 21, a negro, was sentenced to two eight-year penitentiary sentences, to be served concurrently, for theft over $50, District Attorney Lloyd Croslin said.

Suspensions Allowed

The other two were allowed suspension of five-year sentences. They were Anacleto Martinez, 17, a Mexican charged with burglary of a Carlisle cafe, and Johnnie L. Blaylark, 25, a negro charged with assault with intent to murder.

Three other felony complaints were filed.

Bond of $1,000 was set by D. W. Robertson, justice of peace, for Samuel Mixson, 22, a negro who confessed that he forged endorsement of his father Z. Mixson on a $20.69 check issued by a cotton oil company here. He admitted cashing the check.

Theft Charge Filed

Bond of $1,000 was set by C. E. Lynn, justice of peace, for Allen Demas, 46, a negro, charged with theft of a live hog Dec. 25 from Lewis Butler.

A charge of theft over $50 in money was filed against Lester Harrison, 30, a negro, who had been brought here by Dep. Sheriff Earl Horton from Hurlwood after money had disappeared from a cash register in a general store operated by O. E. Swinford. He had not been arraigned.

Chased Him Down

Swinford said the negro was at the station when he was waiting on a customer and when the money was believed to have been taken. Swinford chased the suspect down in his car and held him for Horton's arrival.

It was learned here that G. W. Nokes, under indictment charging swindling by worthless $375 check paid to J. T. Weldon Nov. 3 for an automobile, had been arrested in Houston upon request of Lubbock sheriff's department. He will be returned here for trial, it was indicated. He was indicted by a November grand jury, officials said. A warrant has been mailed to Houston.

Juvenile Petition Filed

A juvenile petition was filed Friday morning against an 11-year-old Lubbock boy in connection with theft from the mails Monday night of non-negotiable paid and endorsed checks from a mail sack in the lobby of Lubbock National building, officials said. A hearing will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning, juvenile court officials indicated.

Pete Ramos, jr., 21, pleaded guilty of a county court charge of drunk driving, and was fined $50 and court costs, and his driver's license revoked for six months.

A fine of $25 and county court costs were levied against Willie Johnson, a negro who pleaded guilty of aggravated assault upon another negro several days ago.

Police said five generators valued at $16 each and two batteries at $20 each had been stolen from Jack Meeks of Rainbow garage.

A 19-year-old youth was held in county jail for naval officials, upon suspicion of desertion from the Navy. His home is Amarillo.

Pete Jackson jr., of 304 Twenty-second reported theft of a bicycle from a downtown theater. Mark Ethly of 2214 Sixteenth reported theft of a $45 gray overcoat.

transfer operations.

Greece today also was assigned six gunboats. These are in addition to eleven minesweepers which the State department disclosed Monday had been sold to that guerrilla-embattled counfry.

The Navy said the submarines are of 1,500 tons, are armed with 10 torpedo tubes and normally carry a crew of 65. They were built in 1944 at an estimated cost of between $4,000,000 and $8,000,000 each. The transfer of all these vessels is authorized in the $450,000,000 Greek-Turkish aid program voted by Congress last year.

The addition of four underseas vessels to the Turkish fleet brings its strength in that category to only 14, which is decidedly small in comparison with Russia's reported total of 250. The exact distribution of the Red fleet is a closely kept secret but experts have noted that the preponderance of such vessels is concentrated at the Pacific port of Vladivostok, with strong squadrons in the Baltic and Black seas.

The Navy said the subs to be handed over to Turkey do not have the "snorkel" device which enables them to stay submerged for extended periods.

Principal use of the undersea vessels, aside from the symbolism their transfer conveys to Russia, will be in further training operations for Turkish seamen, U. S. naval experts said.

Funeral For Mrs. Ola Snoddy Conducted Friday At Idalou

Funeral services for Mrs. Ola Medford Snoddy, 75, of Idalou, resident of Idalou four years and former resident of Hood county, were conducted at 4:30 o'clock Friday afternoon in Idalou First Methodist church.

Rev. C. P. McMaster officiated. Rix Funeral home announced burial would be in Hico cemetery at Hico, where a graveside service will be conducted at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Snoddy died at 11:59 o'clock Thursday night at her home.

Former Congressman Guinn Williams Dies

SAN ANGELO, Jan. 9 (AP) — Guinn Williams, 76, West Texas financier and ranchman who served the state in Congress for 10 years, died in a hospital here today after an extended illness.

Declining health which prompted his voluntary retirement from Congress in March, 1932, forced his withdrawal from business activity in recent years.

Williams was a past Grand Master of Texas Masons and former Texas commander in chief of the Sons of Confederate Veterans.

In Congress, as chairman of the House committee on territories, he sponsored a bill to grant independence to the Philippines and was interested in statehood for Hawaii.

A native of Pittsboro, Miss., he came to Texas with his parents as a child, first living on a farm near Nocona, Montague county.

Survivors include Mrs. Williams; a son, Guinn (Big Boy) Williams, jr., a Hollywood motion picture actor; three daughters, Mrs. Lucille Andrews and Mrs. Raymond Ware, both of Washington, D. C., and Mrs. Ted Harris of Wichita Falls.

TO ATTEND SERVICES

Mrs. W. O. Stevens of 1408 Avenue O, whose late husband was a cousin of Guinn Williams, and her son, L. D. Stevens of 3214 Twenty-first, plan to attend funeral services which will be held at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon in Decatur.

Jaycees' Key Award

mer Justice of the U.S. Supreme Court.

Sheppard will be entertained by the Senior Chamber of Commerce at a social hour from 6 to 7 p.m. at the Hilton hotel, just prior to the banquet.

From Lubbock, he will go to Boy's Ranch near Amarillo on Jan. 11; Borger and Amarillo, Jan. 12; San Angelo and Cisco Jan. 13; Dallas and Hillsboro, Jan. 14; Temple and Austin, Jan. 15; Corpus Christi at noon Jan. 16 and that night to a joint meeting of the Sherman and Denison Junior Chambers of Commerce.

Mayor To Present Award

Mayor Bestwick will present the nine candidates for the Distinguished Service award at the banquet tonight. The men were nominated by the major civic clubs of Lubbock. Name of the winning candidate will remain secret until time for the presentation.

Last year's winner of the award was Joe H. Stanley, jr., a member of the Jaycees, but the award is not limited to the membership of that organization. He was presented the award for outstanding work in the field of public health in his position as city health engineer.

The banquet tonight will be followed by a dance with Bailey Ireland's orchestra furnishing the music. The program for the banquet will be broadcast by transcription over Station KCBD at 10:30 o'clock tonight, Harold Chapman, master of ceremonies for the banquet, announced.

Stassen's Charges

give them "leads" from which they could develop "the exact evidence."

Hearing Adjourned

In adjourning the hearing until next Tuesday, Chairman Ferguson (R-Mich) said the subcommittee would want to hear further from Stassen, who asserted that Pauley did not fully disclose his trading activities when he appeared before the group in December.

Stassen said Pauley implied that he lost about $100,000 in disposing of his commodity holdings after taking his government position last fall. Actually, Stassen said that according to his information, the California oil man made about a million dollars profit.

Graham Is Contradicted

Graham, who has said he ordered a "small holding" of wheat futures sold as soon as he learned he had it, declined to comment to reporters on his transactions.

Stassen testified that Graham "did not leave the market immediately after the President's Oct. 5 address on speculators." That was the occasion on which Mr. Truman criticized "gamblers in grain." Graham has said he ordered his broker to sell out two days later.

Stassen asserted, however:

"He did not leave the market until I very specifically said the executive branch of the government was involved."

back to the farm immediately they are discharged from the hospital."

The mutilations were investigated by Dr. M. D. Henson, medical supervisor of the prison system. He reported to Ellis that the trio's conditions were not serious enough to warrant moving them to Huntsville and ordered them left at Eastham.

The Eastham unit is a protection farm for men from Darrington and Retrieve. Sherman, Byars and Davis were moved there from Retrieve.

Ellis said that in promptly reporting the incident to the newspapers he was keeping his promise to immediately make public all the news, good and bad, concerning the system.

"I hate to tell this, but I'm keeping my promise," he said.

YEAR'S PLANS MADE BY SOCIETY

Activity for the year was discussed, a lecture on "Planning a Garden' was given by W. B. Sides and officers were introduced at a meeting of South Plains Dahlia society Thursday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Knight. Twenty members and four new members, Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Kinley and Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Culp, were in attendance.

In his talk, Sides listed the three main objectives of a flower garden as being (1) to raise cut flowers, (2) to landscape the yard and (3) to raise dahlias for the annual fall show. A round table discussion followed. The purpose of the society is to seek information needed in growing and showing of dahlias. Dr. J. H. Porter and Mrs. James Samson were named co-chairmen of the 1948 Dahlia show which will be held in the show room of the new Kuykendall building, 1903 Texas, at a date to be announced later.

Mrs. Samson, retiring vice president, presided in the absence of Lawrence F. Green, retiring president, and she introduced officers for the year; H. J. Kendrick, president; Mrs. R. C. retail dealers in Texas not to sell products of Simplicity at less than their labeled retail price.

The suit specifically charges that the agreements exist between Simplicity and 741 retail dealers over the state.

Both suits, filed in 53rd district court, seek injunctive relief and statutory penalties ranging from $50 to $1,500 per day per violation.

Forfeiture of the Ford Gum and Machine company's permit to do business in Texas is also sought.

Individuals named as defendants with the gum company were Ben L. Rauch, Fort Worth; John S. Horn, Abilene; Earl T. Wilkinson, Tyler; Hall Leon Wilkinson, Vernon; and G. O. Paudler, Crosbyton, Texas operators and owners of self-service gum vending machines, with whom the company is alleged to have contracted.

The suit against the Simplicity Pattern company also alleges the company to be doing business in Texas without a permit from the state. The suit seeks to recover franchise taxes from the corporation plus penalties for each year since 1941.

They will explain the evaluation now being made by the Senior High school faculty and stress importance of correlating work of the schools with that of the community as a whole.

Condition of Irwin Lehman, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. N. Lehman of Tahoka, was considered satisfactory Friday in Lubbock Memorial hospital. He will remain in the hospital about seven weeks longer. He was injured Nov. 29 in an automobile accident.

Jim Riddles, state highway patrolman of 2206 Ave. T, has returned to Lubbock after attending the funeral of his father, John M. Riddles, 76, of Windom, Fanning county. The elder Riddles had been ill several months before his death Tuesday in a Bonham hospital. Burial was in Honey Grove cemetery. The widow; two other sons, of Dallas and Windom, and a daughter, of Houston, survive.

The sheriff's department has "had no luck" in locating owner or owners of several pieces of jewelry recently taken from two prisoners. A wedding band is inscribed "CEB to FLN, 6/27/14." It is an old-style, wide yellow gold band. Costume bracelets, and old-style mounted ruby, a watch and other jewelry is included in the lot. Burglars from whom it was taken several days ago said it had been removed from premises six miles west and five south of Lorenzo.

A sound motion picture in color, "The Missing Christmas," will be shown at First Foursquare church, Eighth and Ave. Q, at 8 o'clock tonight and Sunday night. The film, described as "an evangelistic, fundamental, interdenominational message in drama," is one hour long. It contains portions of 12 gospel songs.

J. M. Millikin, director of the extension division at Texas Technological college, is attending an annual administrator's conference in Austin which started Thursday and ends today, and the Fifth Southwest Regional Conference on Adult Education there Jan. 11-13. Millikin will be a panel member in the latter session, helping lead discussion on organizing and financing adult education programs.

Mrs. J. D. Janes of Fort Smith, Ark., former Lubbock resident, was resting satisfactorily in West Texas hospital Friday night after undergoing surgery Friday morning, attendants said. Her husband, former operator of cafes in Lubbock, is here.

Mrs. Leno Cantu, 26, of south-west of Lubbock, whose husband and four children were fatally burned when their four-room tenant farm home burned early Sunday morning, is not yet out of danger, hospital authorities said Friday night. She suffered burns on her legs, face and arms. Her condition was reported "fair."

Firemen answered two calls after noon Friday. An outhouse burned at 4:55 p. m. at 206 Sherman and firemen at 6:54 p. m. ran to Texas Tech campus, where a beehouse was afire for the second time this week. Damage was negligible.

Excavating for a new storm sewer on Ave. O required blasting in the 500-block and vicinity early Friday night, causing explosions that resulted in numerous telephone calls of inquiry to police and the fire department.

Directors of Lubbock chapter of the National Aeronautics association discussed plans to stimulate activity in 1948 when they met in Lubbock Friday night. Tom Pendergraft, president, presided. Committees were appointed to arrange for a dinner meeting Feb. 2. C. C. Bank Robbery they calmly waited until the tellers reported for work. As each teller entered the bank, he was confronted with a pistol and required to unlock the container in which currency is taken to his cage.

Women employes were herded into a rest room. The robbers made most of the employes empty their pockets, and took the money.

Watters said an informant heard the robbers planning the holdup while they drank at a bar. The informant telephoned police last night, but failed to give the story because Capt. Harry Gregson, to whom the call was made, was off duty. Gregson tried unsuccessfully to find the caller last night. The informant then came to the station today and told the story.

The holdup was the second major robbery of the day. In Cambridge, Mass., two gunmen robbed a big department store and escaped with between $30,000 and $50,000, throwing smoke bombs to cover their escape.

The Massachusetts thieves seized the cash just as it was being delivered to the Harvard Co-Operative Society store by a special bank guard in an armored car. One bandit seized the money bags while a second tossed several smoke bombs at the entrance of the store. A third man waited in the escape car.

Federal Reserve Board Boosts Rediscount Rates To Banks

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP)—The Federal Reserve board today approved an increase in the rediscount rate from one to one and one-fourth per cent by nine of the 12 federal reserve banks, effective Monday.

The nine banks are those at New York, Philadelphia, Cleveland, Richmond, Atlanta, Chicago, St. Louis, Minneapolis and Dallas.

The increase had been foretold in testimony of Reserve Board Chairman Marriner S. Eccles before a congressional committee last month.

Eccles said then the purpose of the action would be to restrain expansion of bank credit.

Amarillo Judge To Speak At Lubbock Bar Meeting Today

Judge W. N. Stokes, associate justice of the Court of Civil Appeals at Amarillo, will speak at a luncheon meeting of the Lubbock Bar Association at noon today at the Lubbock Hotel, according to an announcement by Tom Duggan, president of the local association.

Judge Stokes' subject will be "Proposed Constitutional Amendment to Change the Judicial System of Texas." The Amarillo jurist has spent considerable time in studying the subject, and is a member of the committee appointed by the State Bar association to study the proposal.

Occupation Forces In Germany Turning In Top Notch Job, Gaining Respect For U. S.

late and chewing gum rations to give to German kids they see on the streets. They have taught German kids to box to play baseball and football—some of the work being done on their own time and just for fun; the rest of it through the official German Youth program which is a part of our Occupation plan.

But at Christmas time this year, GI Jo went "all out" for the German kids.

He gave the tow-headed little Krauts parties like they'd never before known, complete with candy, nuts, chewing gum and gadgets.

I wasn't there to see any of the parties, but I heard of the plans as they were being laid in the pre-Yuletide season.

"Santa Claus In Uniform"

A good example is what happened at an Army installation near Frankfurt.

The commanding officer thought perhaps the men would join him in raising something like $500 early enough for some supplies to be purchased over here an sent across for a German kid Christmas party without counting against overseas rations.

Receptacles were placed at convenient points and the scheme announced. On the second day, more than $1,500 had been contributed and as time rolled on the fund went well past the $2,000 mark.

With the foodstuffs purchased here and shipped over were to go the gum and chocolate rations of many of the soldiers at the installation. When I was in Germany the expectation was that 6,000 German kids would be at the party on Christmas Day.

THAT sort of thing was to feature Christmas Day almost everywhere we have soldiers in any considerable number.

Other Christmas parties for German kids, old folks and DP's were planned by several organizations composed of wives of American soldiers and officers, and of civilian occupation workers.

But the point is that although GI Joe is a tough guy in a foxhole, a bomber, or a tank, he's a softy where kids are concerned: little kids who are skinny and hungry and cold and who wouldn't have had a square meal on Christmas, let alone any extras, if it hadn't been for Joe.

Only One Plea Of "Help Me Get Home"

While it is true that many of the young soldiers who volunteered to go to Germany don't like it as much as they thought they would, I only met one in scores who asked me if I could do anything to get him out of the Army and home. And his was a special case.

His stepfather beats his mother. Two brothers left home as a result and now one is in the penitentiary and the other in reform school. I read a letter from the mother and the case is a tragic one. The soldier thinks if he could get out of the Army and back home, he could support his mother, dump his stepfather and maybe do something for his imprisoned brothers.

OUR TROOPS in Germany, Austria and the Free State of Trieste are well housed, well dressed. Their chow is good and nourishing, although not fancy, because it of necessity must come from cans shipped, largely, from the U. S. A.

I found the boys, in general, to be as well satisfied as any group of young men could be expected to be—especially since most of them do not expect to follow soldiering as a career.

A never-failing index to the welfare of troops is the VD rate, currently down to a very low point in Germany and ceaselessly being combatted by highest authorities of the occupation command.

If you have a son, a brother or a friend in the Army in Germany, don't worry about him.

Chances are 99 to 1 he's doing fine!

(SUNDAY: Most impressive uniformed Americans in Germany are not the generals, or the colonels. They are the MP's and the members of the Constabulary, the latter a mobile group of especially trained troops ready to move at any minute to where riots or disorders may break out. In his next article, Mr. Guy gives three rousing cheers for our efficient "Dog-Faces," as the soldiers call the MP's, and for the "Constabs," as well.)

ABC Club, Auxiliary Hold Annual Program

Approximately 250 members of the American Business club, ABC Dames, women's auxiliary, and their guests attended a dinner program and dance at Lubbock Supper club Friday night.

A. B. Watkins was installed as president of the ABC, Mrs. Hugh Anderson as president of the ABC Dames.

Mrs. Dick Ragan Of Brownfield Claimed; Services Set Today

BROWNFIELD, Jan. 9. (Special)—Mrs. Dick Ragan, a Brownfield resident since 1933, died at her home on the Tahoka highway early this afternoon after an illness of several years.

Funeral services will be conducted at 10 o'clock Saturday morning at First Methodist church in Brownfield. Name of the officiating minister had not been announced tonight.

Following services, Brownfield Funeral home will take the body overland to Belton for burial there Sunday.

Survivors include her husband, who has been employed by Cobb's Department store here 15 years, a son, James, a student at Texas Technological college; and six brothers, C. R. Houston, Hamilton, J. B. Houston, San Antonio, J. T. Houston, Lampasas, T. C. Houston, Abernathy, J. H. Houston, Lubbock, and F. G. Houston, Belton.

Mrs. Ragan was born April 15, 1891, at Saldado, Bell county.

Police Interrupt Burglar In Supply Company Building Here

Another in a series of unusually bold break-ins and attempted break-ins was interrupted by police Friday night.

This one, within a stone's throw of the police station, was at Russell Morrison company, 918 Ave. J. Detective Capt. Pat M. Davidson and Patrolmen John Rucker and C. A. Morris, passing by, saw a man inside, at about 7:30 p.m.

The intruder, seeing the policemen, fled to the rear of the store. Davidson and Morris tried to enter the front door but found it locked. Rucker went to the rear entrance and Davidson and Morris, after trying the front door, followed him to the back of the building.

The burglar evidently then walked out the front door, as the front door was standing open when the three returned to the front.

Company officials said nothing was believed taken.

Maritime Auditors Examination Announced By U.S. Commission

Announcement of an examination to fill positions of auditor (Marine accounts) in the U. S. Maritime commission, with salaries ranging from $3,397 to $5,905 a year, has been made by the Civil Service commission.

The resulting register of eligibles is to be used to fill posts presently occupied by war service or temporary indefinite incumbents, and to fill future vacancies in Alabama, Louisiana, Mississippi, and Texas, the announcement said.

To qualify for the various grades, applicants must have had varying amounts of accounting experience, some of which must have been with firms engaged in maritime activity. Present deadline for applications is Jan. 22. Information is available at the local office of the Civil Service board, in the Federal (postoffice) building.

THANKS TO THE COMMISSION

Lubbock Gets A Field Office

THE Oil and Gas division of the Texas Railroad commission should be better able to provide the services this area has the right to expect because of the opening in Lubbock this week of a field office to serve this and 16 nearby counties.

The office has been needed for years and doubtless would have been provided sooner if manpower had permitted. Oil men can make hardly a move without consulting the commission. Those of this area often have been greatly inconvenienced because a personal representative of the agency has not been more readily available.

The commission doubtless has done the best it could under the circumstances. It has provided the needed facility without too much delay since the manpower situation has begun to improve. It now has arranged closer contact with an area which is virtually certain to improve vastly the already important position it occupies in the oil industry.

Due commendation for having brought the need to official attention and for having obtained corrective action are the oil men themselves, chambers of commerce in Lubbock and elsewhere, and state Sen. Sterling J. Parrish and state Rep. Preston E. Smith, both of Lubbock.

Entitled to an appreciative salute for recognizing and acting upon the need are Railroad Commissioners Ernest O. Thompson, Olin Culberson and William J. Murray, jr.

WHITE HOUSE LIKE GOLD FISH BOWL

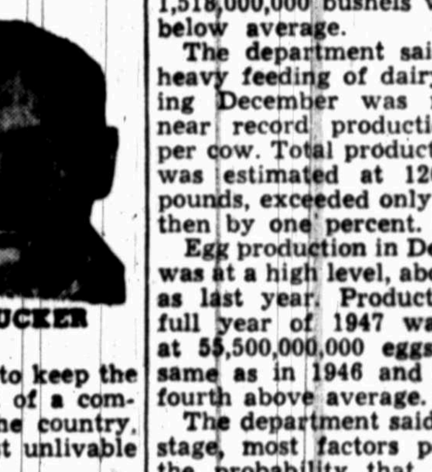

More Privacy For HST Urged

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—"What is all this fuss and delay about building a White House balcony for poor Mr. Truman?," asks O. P. of Grand Rapids, Mich. "Why don't they let him have a private stoop for those steaming days and nights you have in Washington!

Answer: He should have it, in my opinion, and he will get it. But there has been some opposition within the Fine Arts Commission, which has been given official custody of the so-called "president's mansion" by Congress.

This group takes itself very seriously, and it has historically opposed almost all additions or changes in the structure at 1600 Pennsylvania Avenue ever since Theodore Roosevelt built the west wing to provide necessary executive offices. Before him time, a Chief Executive had to work, meet people and run the government from an upstairs bedroom or study.

TUCKER

UNLIVABLE: The Fine Arts Commission apparently aims to keep the White House as a museum or national monument, instead of a comfortable home for one of the most harassed families in the country. And they have pretty well succeeded. It is one of the most unlivable homes in the United States.

As most people probably know, the downstairs is merely a show place. The rooms can be used only for state occasions. Until President Roosevelt set a limit to the visiting hours, people thronged through them from early morning until late afternoon.

HODGEPODGE: The upstairs living quarters are not much better. They consist of a long central hall running east and west, with large, high-ceilinged and hard-to-furnish rooms on each side. Although some of the furniture is historic and impressive, it is largely a hodgepodge.

Grace Coolidge wanted to do over the place with appropriate antiques and period pieces. But the late Charles Moore, then chairman of the commission raised such a furore of publicity that it was blocked. It is one of my journalistic regrets that I abetted him.

PRIVACY: In the summer time, at certain hours of the day, tourists are permitted to see the lovely rose gardens in what is now the rear, although it was meant to be the front, with a lawn stretching down to the Potomac River. Members of Congress fight for passes that will permit their "constits" to inspect the swimming pool which Mr. Truman built, the kitchens and other rooms.

Under these circumstances, the President and his family have about as much privacy, when they seek relaxation on the rear portico, as any family in a well-appointed zoo. The proposed addition would give him that. The balcony would not affect the general lines, and would hardly be visitble from the lawn.

ROCKET TEST POSTPONED

WHITE SANDS, N. M., Jan. 9 (UP) — White Sands proving grounds officials announced today that a German V-2 rocket firing had been cancelled. Firing of the missile was scheduled for early today and was to have featured a "flash and sound exploison" for wind study. However, technical difficulties concerning instruments to be used in experiments caused the postponement, the announcement said.

Crop Outlook Is Improved

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 — Prospects for the 1948 wheat crop, which last month was officially forecast at more than a billion bushels, have improved in recent weeks, the Agriculture department reported today.

Winter wheat seeding, which got off to a very poor start in the southern great plains, has continued usually late in that area but with good germination and growth.

Wheat Stocks High

The department said wet fields continued to hamper harvesting of crop remnants and seeding in the Southwest. Soil moisture was said to be adequate in most areas, excessive in the southeast.

The department said stocks of wheat on farms Jan. 1 from the record 1947 crop was the second largest of record for the date, despite heavy exports and use in this country.

The Jan. 1 wheat stocks were reported at 427,620,00 bushels, or 17 percent above stocks of a year ago.

Farmers reserves of 191,000,000 bushels in Nebraska, Kansas, Oklahoma, Texas and Colorado were much larger than the 131,000,000 a year ago.

Egg Production Boosted

Farm stocks of feed grains, on the other hand, were the smallest since the drought years of the 30s chiefly because corn stocks of 1,518,000,000 bushels were a sixth below average.

The department said continued heavy feeding of dairy cows during December was reflected in near record production of milk per cow. Total production for 1947 was estimated at 120,000,000,000 pounds, exceeded only in 1945 and then by one percent.

Egg production in December also was at a high level, about the same as last year. Production for the full year of 1947 was estimated at 55,500,000,000 eggs, about the same as in 1946 and nearly one-fourth above average.

The department said that at this stage, most factors point toward the probability that a relatively large proportion of the country's available crop land will be kept in cultivation this year. It said the continued increase in mechanization of farms and improvement in the farm labor situation will help get spring planting done at the proper times even if spring weather is "uncooperative."

Otto Rinne Funeral To Be Held Monday

WILSON, Jan. 9 (Special) — Funeral services for Otto Rinne, long-time resident of Slaton and Wilson, will be conducted at 2:00 o'clock Monday afternoon in the American Lutheran church at Wilson.

Mr. Rinne died at 6:05 o'clock this morning at the home of a daughter, Mrs. H. D. White of Slaton. He had been in ill health.

Williams Funeral home will direct burial in Englewood cemetery at Slaton.

Mr. Rinne had lived near Slaton 25 years. He moved to Lubbock county in 1913. He later moved to Portales, N. M., where he lived 10 years before returning to Lubbock county.

He is survived by his wife and 12 sons and daughters and two sisters. Sons and daughters are O. H. Rinne of Wilson, Mrs. Louise Ehlo of Reno, Nev., Mrs. Bertha White of Slaton, Mrs. Ella Wooley of Portales, N. M., Mrs. Minnie Cason of Brownfield, Mrs. Edna Seaberry of Reno, Nev., Mrs. Margaret Kuhn of Toyah, H. B. Rinne of Wilson, A. A. Rinne of Wilson, Mrs. Lena Richardson of Levelland, Mrs. Ida Rushing of San Bernardino, Calif., and Rose Rinne of the home. Sisters are Mrs. P. H. Robertson and Mrs. Bertha Roberson, both of Slaton. He had seventeen grandchildren.

Pallbearers will be six of his son-in-laws, H. D. White, Dalton Seaberry, Olen Cason, Truman Richardson, Marvin Rushing and W. E. Wooley. Flower girls will be Nadine White, Doris Rinne, Joe Ann Seaberry, Geraldine Seaberry, Myrtle, Alcy, Betty Gene and Viola Gartman.

Red Cross Assistance Given Families In Lynn Disaster

Red Cross assistance was given families suffering losses in the Dec. 26 fire at Three Lake school building, 18 miles west of Tahoka, it was learned here Friday.

Since six families were living temporarily in the building burned, the fire came under the disaster classification. The Lynn County Red cross replaced clothing and household effects and national disaster funds also were used to assist the families.

Mrs. Domingo Garza, who suffered burns on the legs and hands in the fire whose four children burned to death, left Lubbock Memorial hospital Tuesday and she and her husband have returned to Kenedy, where they live. They had gone to Tahoka vicinity temporarily.

Many ancient structures of Europe have copper roofs hundreds of years old.

Commissioner Olin Culberson Visitor In Lubbock Friday

State Railroad Commissioner Olin Culberson visited briefly in Lubbock Friday when en route to attend the golden wedding celebration of Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Thompson on their farm eight miles east of Tahoka.

Mr. and Mrs. Culberson, residents of Hill county were neighbors for many years of Mr. and Mrs. Thompson, who resided in adjoining Limestone county until they moved to Tahoka many years ago.

The railroad commissioner came to Lubbock via airline and was to return to Austin the same way this afternoon.

While here he conferred with E. G. Weyel, engineer in charge of the newly opened Lubbock area office of the railroad commission's oil and gas division.

Babson Says Nation Must Wake Up

Warning Is Sounded On Future Economy

By ROGER W. BABSON
Internationally Known Economist

WASHINGTON, D.C., Jan. 9— In addition to my formal Forecasts which were in this newspaper last week, I now want to add something for readers to think over.

As heretofore stated, 1948 will be much like 1947,—at least up to November 2. With most manufacturing companies enjoying large unfilled orders, there can be no depression in 1948. There, however, will be an increase in war preparations. This will mean the shifting of employment and credits from one industry to another. For instance, we may expect some slackening in industries devoted wholly to unessential peace work. Industries which were booming during World War II, such as aircraft manufacturing, machine tools and shipbuilding, should pick up again during 1948.

If you are undecided as to how some special business will act in 1948, just consider how that business acted in the years 1938 to 1940. If the business prospered during those years, it will probably show increased activity during 1948. If it suffered, it may show a decline in 1948. There will be no World War III in 1948, but there will be marked preparation for it.

What About Inflation?

During 1948 there will be much talk in Washington about "checking inflation", but any attempts will be largely of the eyewash variety and not fundamnetal cures. It is sound legislation to allocate materials to the more important industries. Doubtless certain allocations will be instituted during 1948. It also would help to reduce taxes so as to force people to leave the government employ and to produce. The only solution for inflation, however, is to discourage consumption and encourage production. Unfortunately, when the Government attempts to decrease consumption, people get panicky and increase their purchases; while controls tend to reduce production.

All Government attempts to interfere with the basic laws of supply and demand fail in their purpose. The only coure for rising prices is to let them rise to an amount which will be in excess of demand. This causes an abrupt decline in prices and in employment also. This cure is unpopular politically and we will not see it before November 2, 1948.

Beyond allocating materials and reducing taxes, the only fundamental cures which the Government can provide are: (1) putting an embargo on exports, (2) suspending the agricultural price supports, (3) freezing wages and profits, (4) causing interest rates to rise sharply, and (5) reducing Government expenses. These movements would be unpopular politically, and I doubt whether we shall see them in 1948.

All of us are selfish. We don't want the Federal Government to shut off the exports of OUR goods, to suspend price support of OUR products, to freeze OUR wages or profits, to raise the rate of interest which WE are paying, —or to discharge some relative of ours whom we must support,— even although these things would be for the good of the nation as a whole. Hence, I again say,—"only a spiritual awakening can prevent another severe bust".

Political Leaders Lack Courage

Members of Congress and the Administration know what to do. Chairman Eccles of the Federal Reserve Board has given Congress excellent advice, as reported in the morning papers of November 26. These recommendations, however, are unpopular. Even Congressmen are putting their own selfish desires ahead of the nation's good.

Congressmen are fearful of labor leaders. They are fearful of veterans, thus, unwilling to take a courageous stand on housing and rents. They are fearful of the bankers, in fact, of all pressure groups in Washington. Hence, 1948 will witness more or less of a do-nothing Congress. I visualize that economic conditions will continue about as at present during 1948; but as a fever is necessary to cure many diseases, so economic distress seems necessary to bring people to their senses and to their knees.

WAA Daingerfield Steel Plant Sold To Lone Star Steel Co.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 9 (AP) — The government's steel plant at Daingerfield, Tex., has been sold to the Lone Star Steel company of Daingerfield, War Assets Administrator Jess Larson said today.

The sale included iron ore mines in east Texas and two coal mines in the McAlester-McCurtain area of Oklahoma.

Larson said base selling price was approximately $7,500,000 subject to downward adjustment if final payments are made ahead of time.

Instruction Needed In Church Activity, Clergyman Declares

More time should be given to instruction and training of persons for church membership, Dr. Charles C. Selecman, bishop of the Dallas area of the church, told ministers at the closing session of a Northwest Texas school of evangelism at First Methodist church Friday.

He called attention to the total of 1,400,000 inactive members of the 8,000,000 total membership in the Methodist church throughout the United States.

The bishop said records reveal that 17,213 of the approximately 69,000 members in the Northwest Texas conference are inactive. He believes that proper instructions in the purposes of church membership will help to overcome the inactivity. He feels, he said, that reception of new members is "one of the poorest jobs" done by the Methodist clergy.

The school of evangelism, which opened Monday and closed at noon today, brought a total of 420 new members to churches in the Lubbock district, where visiting ministers worked with local laymen and pastors in visitation work. Of the 420 new members reported at the closing session, 121 were on profession of faith, and 299 were on transfer of membership. These were from a total of 817 calls made by visiting workers.

The greatest gain was shown in the Arnett-Benson addition here, where a new church is being organized. A total of 149 calls were reported in that area, from which 20 new members were gained on profession of faith, and 89 by transfer. All other churches in the district reported excellent response to the visitation program, according to Rev. J. Edmund Kirby, of Sweetwater, chairman of the conference board of evangelism, who was in general direction of the visitation.

The meeting closed with an address by Dr. Harry Denman, of Nashville, secretary of the general board of evangelism of the church, and a parting admonition by Bishop Selecman to ministers that, to be most effective, they "must preach the gospel and organize a great program of work in the local church."

Impoverished Family Gets House As Result Of Lubbock Donations

As result of gifts of money from Lubbock residents, a family which in December, 1946, was found during a snowstorm to be living in a covered wagon on East Broadway now has a two-room house.

A tent was provided for the family and the wagon was moved to another location last winter after plight of the family was discovered. Donations of $230 also were given. That money was given to Judge Walter Davies to keep and later was used to buy material for the two-room house, labor for which was donated by union carpenters, said Mrs. Tom Foster, who made the original appeal for help for the family. The amount lacked only $35 paying for materials and that amount still is owed.

If anyone has a used kitchen cabinet or chest of drawers they would give, those could be used by the family, said Mrs. Foster.

The small house, although not painted and not finished inside, provides a place for the mother and four children to live. The father, who had been ill a long time, died several months ago. Two of the children now are working.

Anton Man Injured Slightly In Car Wreck In City Friday

R. L. Muckleroy, about 54, of Anton route 1 was taken to Lubbock Memorial hospital in a Plains Funeral home ambulance about 3 o'clock Friday afternoon after he suffered a head bruise in a collision at Ninth and Ave. J, but he was released after treatment.

Muckleroy was a passenger in a 1940 light coach driven by Mrs. Ruby Love, 30, of Anton route 1. That car, going east on Ninth, was in collision with a truck-trailer driven south on Ave. K by Wilmar Jack Starr, 26, of Hereford route 1.

Both the truck and the car were damaged. R. O. Christesson, police patrolman, investigated.

BRANIFF'S DAUGHTER DIES

DALLAS, Jan. 9 (AP)—Mrs. Alex W. Terrell, 33, daughter of T. E. Braniff of Dallas, president of Braniff airways, died in a hospital here today. Mrs. Terrell, the former Miss Jeanne Braniff, was born Oct. 5, 1914, in Oklahoma City.

Martin Hits HST's Plan

(By The Associated Press)

NEWARK, N. J., Jan. 9—Speaker Joseph W. Martin, Jr., (R-Mass) tonight described President Truman's proposal to cut low-bracket income taxes and increase the levies on business as "plain buncombe" and "inflationary" and said Congress would pass a bill "this year" that will "give the greatest relief to the small income groups."

Martin's prepared speech was read by Senator Albert W. Hawkes (R-NJ) before the New Jersey Taxpayers association after Martin had been confined to his bed in Washington by grippe.

"It will be a bitter disappointment," Martin said, "that not a single hope was held out in the President's message for any reduction in the gigantic costs of government."

Martin said Congress would pass a bill that would "free 6,000,000 from paying any tax . . . will erase inequities . . . between community property states and non-community property states."

"This tax bill will probably be vetoed," Martin said, " but I believe it can be passed over the veto of the President."

President Truman in his State of the Union address before Congress, recommended income tax reductions and increased business levies.

"To transfer the load of excessive taxation to business," Martin said, would compel "business to pass these excessive taxes on in higher prices to all the people."

"The administration has chosen the inflationary method of tax reductions," Martin said ,"so that the ultimate result will not be any benefit to the lower income bracket taxpayers, but will be taken back to them in high prices."

Martin predicted "the administration will seek to blame business for the high prices,

Martin said it was obvious "that business cannot and will not operate at a loss," and that increased taxes must be passed on to consumers in higher prices.

At the same time, Martin asserted that the administration had resisted Congress' efforts to reduce the national budget and that "as far as the present administration is concerned, the American people are doomed to pay war-time taxes indefinitely."

MARKET STUMBLES AGAIN

NEW YORK, Jan 9 (AP)—While a handful of oils and assorted industrials made further recovery headway in today's stock market, late selling put the majority of leaders in the minus ranks.

Offerings appeared in the final hour and extreme gains, running to 8 points or so in isolated cases, were substantially reduced or converted into declines at the close. Most steels, motors and rails were in the casualty section. Transfers of 980,000 shares compared with 890,000 Thursday.

Mild reinvestment demand and special situations accounted for much of the day's bidding.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite was off .2 of a point at 65.7. The market broadened a bit with 1,000 issues registering. Of these, 395 fell and 383 rose.

The day's liveliest big jumper again was Plymouth Oil which continued to respond to reports of Texas discoveries that will greatly expand the company's petroleum reserves. The stock opened almost an hour late on a 5,000-share block, up 4 points at a record high. It extended this to better than 8, then slipped and finished with a net advance of 5½ at 46½.

Superior Oil of Cal. added 4½ at 153¾. Skelly Oil 1½ at 107¼ and Pacific Western Oil 1 at 48. Nickel Plate railroad pushed up in the forenoon on word Lackawanna was buying into this line but failed to hold and emerged with a gain of only ¼ at 49¾.

Modest improvement was shown for Firestone Tire, Woolworth, International Harvester, Boeing, Douglas Aircraft, Lockheed, International Nickel, Allied Chemical, and Texas Gulf producing.

Other losers included U. S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, U. S. Rubber, Montgomery Ward, Sears Roebuck, Glenn Martin, American Telephone, International Telephone, Texas Co., Standard Oil (NJ), Santa Fe, N. Y. Central, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, and Union Pacific.

Scattered railway bonds hardened.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Jan. 9 (AP) — Soybeans and lard advanced sharply and provided most of the interest on the board of trade today. Grains added minor gains to their current upward move and set several new seasonal peaks.

March, May and December oats made new seasonal peaks and the high for March oats was a record for any contract of that grain. Cash oats set a record at $1.48½ for No. 1 extra heavy red.

The record high for any oats contract, set by March just at the close, was $1.32¼.

All soybean contracts closed 8 cents higher, the daily limit.

Wheat closed 1¾-3¼ higher, May $2.97½-¾, corn was 1½-3¼ higher, May $2.60-2.60¼, and oats were ½-1¾ higher, May $1.24½-⅝.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP) — Cotton futures turned irregular in moderately active dealings today. The improving export situation induced considerable short covering in nearby deliveries in early trading, with gaines extending to 70 cents a bale. Thereafter, the market encountered scattered profit taking and hedging which discouraged rallying tendencies.

Some buying was influenced by the announcement of a large Export-Import bank credit to Canada, including an allocation of $30,000,000 for purchase of an estimated 150,000 bales of American cotton.

Spot cotton markets were firm. Cotton closed steady.

AVERAGE PRICE

NEW ORLEANS, Jan. 9 (AP)—The average price of middling 15-16ths inch cotton at ten southern spot markets today was 55 cents a bale higher at 35.59 cents a pound. Average for the past 30 market days was 35.37 cents a pound. Middling ⅞ths inch average was 33.68 cents a pound.

EDITOR TAKEN SERIOUSLY

CALHOUN, Ga. (UP)—Roy McGinty, editor of the Calhoun Times, printed an editorial outlining what he would do if he were mayor. Though it was not meant as a platform for candidacy, McGinty was elected without opposition. Oddly, he had advocated greater taxes.

Red Raider Quintet Trounces Arizona Wildcats, 65-38

Grove Leads Tech In Win Over Border Loop Champs

By JOE KELLY
Avalanche Sports Editor

An inspired band of Texas Tech Red Raiders, showing amazing poise and calculating coolness, completely outhustled, outplayed and outscored the defending Border Conference champion Arizona university Wildcat basketball team last night, 65-38, to take their third consecutive Border loop victory in as many games.

Big Don Grove at center turned in his greatest game of the year offensively, hooking eight field goals and ten charity tosses for 26 points. His brilliant work at the pivot post never overshadowed the rest of the squad, but his dependable work greatly aided the Raider cause.

Jackson, Barton Star

Guards Jiggs Jackson and Ardis Barton, playing with precision and alertness, checked the fast breaking Wildcats and took a healthy hand in the scoring themselves. Jackson three times last night broke the Wildcat backs by dropping set shots through the hoops from far out, not once letting the ball hit rim or backboard.

And Barton, playing his most aggressive game, fought for the ball, took shots off the backboard, set up plays and generally had a large part in helping Tech win. Jackson racked up 13 points and Barton had 11.

Forward Cecil Crouch opened the scoring last night after one minute of play, hooking a one-hander from the side, but it was the last time the Wildcats had the lead. From that point on it was all Tech, as Jackson sank a free throw and Grove hooked a follow shot.

The Techsans held Arizona scoreless for four minutes after their initial counter, shooting into a 9-2 lead. Halfway through the first stanza the Raiders had upped the margin to 17-8.

Then Arizona began to fight back until, with five minutes left, Tech's lead was whittled to 23-15, but that one point wasn't too important and the Raiders led the Kittens at the intermission, 27-20.

Raiders Pull Away

The second half opened with Jackson hooking one of his set shots, followed by a beautiful one-hand set shot by Barton and a free throw by Grove, all within the first minute and a half. At the two-minute mark, Tech and Arizona traded scores and for the next three minutes there was an even exchange.

After Fred Enke, Jr., had dropped in a layup to make the score 39-28, Tech began to move out in front with a vengeance. Jackson converted a foul and followed with an Arizona heartbreaking side shot. Grove duplicated with a charity toss and a follow shot on Barton's near miss, before Moe Udall pitched in a one-hander from in front to make the score read 45-30.

From that point on it was a rout, with the Raiders holding Arizona scoreless for nine minutes. The Wildkittens went completely berserk during this period, throwing the ball recklessly down the court, shooting off balance and making many errors, on which Tech capitalized time and time again.

Subs Keep Pace

By the time the Tech scoring parade was halted on Crouch's one-hander at 17:50, the score was 58-30 and Coach Polk Robison sent in substitutes. And even the subs caught the scoring fever, with Winston Churchill bringing a roar from the crowd with an arched shot from mid-court in the closing second of play for the final tally of the night.

The Raiders played their best game of the year last night, playing cooly and taking advantage of every scoring opportunity. Billy Banks, Gene Gibson, Jay Kerr and Wimpy Hill, although not among the top scorers, played heads-up ball, checking the Wildcats closely, following the ball off the backboard and commanding the play throughout. And the Raiders were working the ball into the basket for repeated close shots, passing nicely and handling themselves with the calmness of a championship club.

SPORTS Spotlight
By Bob Cone

For the information of all those schools which would like very much to see one Val Joe Walker, the Seminole grid star, become a member of their student body, we have it from the grapevine that he is looking with favor on Hardin-Simmons and the School of Mines . . .

The tall backfielder is said to also look with favor on the coaching profession for a livelihood . . .

Someone spoke of Mike Brumbelow, during the Booster club's "stag" banquet in Seminole for the Indians and their coaches, as "Iron Head" Brumbelow . . . We believe the observer had his signals crossed . . . It's this corner's understanding that a coach at TCU, not Mike, carried such a cognomen . . .

When you watch fine young athletes like Walker and Jimmy Powell and Bobby Hunter, and others, get up and make their bows . . . And you realize they'll not be around next season to play the game as they played it . . . Well, you feel as they must feel about it . . . There's a note of sadness about it all . . . Gordon Wood, the Seminole coach, and a good one, too, paid Powell quite a tribute . . .

"He plays more football for his weight than any man in Texas . . . And football is his first love . . ."

Brumbelow swears that, in one of the first West Texas football games in which he played, he and several other players "shucked three acres of corn" going after a loose ball which bounded out of the end zone and into a field . . .

This operative didn't know Mike packed around so many witticisms along with his sobriety . . .

This, from the Editor's Column in the Abernathy Weekly Review, is worthy of reproduction without too much comment:

"They haven't mentioned it, but I'll wager that the Abernathy Antelope cage teams are ashamed of some of the fans who attend basketball games here. Our boys and girls are good sports on the floor and after the games, and that is more than can be said for some of the Abernathy fans, who indulge in the lowbrow practice of booing visiting players and the referees.

"This is a reflection on our teams and our school. I'd much rather that Abernathy be noted for good sportsmanship than for the number of games it wins.

"You are not boosting the Antelopes when you boo the other team, or the official working the game. In fact, you are letting them down. You are tearing down work done by school officials, coaches and the Antelopes, who strive to treat the visiting teams as you would a guest in your home.

"The Antelope teams will be hosts to boys and girls from other schools during an invitation tournament here Jan. 15-16-17. Let's help them by treating the visiting teams and fans as our personal guests.

"Booing has no place in high school games where the players are perfoming on an amateur basis.

"To my knowledge there isn't a law on the statute books against booing at a basketball game. There is, however, a law of decency which brands one as a bad-mannered lout who should be tossed out on his ear when he starts booing."

* * *

This was not quoted to cast reflection on the good citizens of one of our neighboring towns . . . No, not at all . . . It was quoted to show general public reaction toward such a practice, which probably wasn't intentional at all . . . Most of the time such booing isn't done as an unfriendly gesture . . . For lack of something else to do, some just boo . . . all without thinking how it sounds . . . When they razz or boo a sports writer, well, we poke out our chests and brag about "getting over."

Roosevelt, Idalou Cagers Enter Semi-Final Round Of Tournament

FRENSHIP, Jan. 9 (Special)—Three South Plains cage squads entered the semi-final round of the Frenship basketball tourney with wins over bracket foes here tonight, Roosevelt defeating the Lubbock Cowhands 48-21, Idalou beating Wilson 24-10 and the Roosevelt girls drubbing Wilson, 33-12.

In the semi-final eliminations Saturday Cooper meets Roosevelt and Idalou tangles with Frenship in the boys' division, while Frenship battles Cooper and Roosevelt tests Idalou in the girls' tourney.

SUDAN, Jan. 9—The Hornets of Sudan High finished fast with a burst of sharpshooting here tonight to decision the Levelland high Lobos, 31-23, in an action packed District 4-A cage duel which matched any of the many tilts in which teams of the two schools have engaged in their sensational South Plains cage rivalry.

A ball-hawking, flitting freshman, Harlon Pickett, almost singlehandedly swept the Hornets into a substantial fourth period lead after the two fives had battled, shot for shot and point for point, throughout the other three tense periods.

Pickett Top Scorer

As Pickett began blasting the basket from various angles Levelland's Bobby Hart and W. A. Wise accelerated the Lobo attack to keep their team within striking distance most of the way, but Sudan just wasn't to be denied.

The flashing frosh hit the meshes for three precious field goals in the last half uprising of the Harnets while Bob Bouldin added a swisher and a couple of gratis tosses to widen the margin.

Pickett took top scoring honors of the night with six field goals for a total of 12 points and Eddins finished two points behind him with 10.

Hart and Wise accounted for 14 of the Lobos 23 points, the former posting eight points while the latter checked in six.

Thus tonight the Hornets pulled alongside the Lobos in the number of games won during the past season and this new one. The two now are readlocked at four each.

The two rangy fives battled, point for point, to the halfway mark and stood deadlocked, 10-10, as the half ended.

The first period ended with the Hornets squeezing a 5-4 lead, and their advantage with the close of the third period was two points, or 18-16.

The Lobos struck quickly seconds after the game opened with Morris sliding in under the basket and twisting one in for two points. Pickett went in and under and laid one on the rim and through the meshes for two. Roberts, a newcomer to the Lobo team this season, and a good basketball player, arched one high to salt away two more points. Jim Eddins sank a gratis toss late in the first period, and the score for the first quarter ended, 5-4 Sudan.

The Lobos surprised many of their own followers. They had apparently picked up much more polish since launching their District 4-A race with a victory over Littlefield Tuesday night.

Neither Hornets nor Lobos were any too adept with their close up shooting, both fives missing many crips. The Lobos' major improvement seemed to be in their ability to take 'em off the boards.

The small Sudan high gym was crowded far beyond capacity with fans overflowing along both sides and at the ends.

In a curtain-raiser the Levelland B team edged the Sudan Bs, 18-16, in a game which was just about as tight and tense. The halftime score of that game was 8-7 Sudan.

Sportsmanship Is Praised

Trophy Presented To Texas Tech Fighter

A rising young featherweight boxer, rapidly gaining respect in amateur boxing circles yesterday noon, was the guest of honor at a luncheon given by trainer, advisor and backer Bert Kahn, who calls Bill Henderson of Texas Tech one of the greatest West Texas prospects in years.

Henderson was given the dinner in honor of his good sportsmanship in going to Memphis, Tenn., on Dec 30 as a member of the Texas boxing team. In Memphis the boxers opposed a Tennessee team as a feature of the Delta bowl athletic carnival and Henderson was the only man to win by anything other than a decision. The Tech student won by a technical knockout.

Kahn presented the young fighter with a handsome statuette in appreciation for his sportsmanship and his contribution to Lubbock sporting prestige. Kahn paid high tribute to Henderson and went on to say that Lubbock athletes were bringing wide recognition to the Hub of the Plains.

The health expert declared that Lubbock was fortunate to have Texas Tech here, that the athletic program insured good sportsmanship and clean living and that this city benefited from its vast athletic program.

Guests invited to the luncheon were fighters Henderson, Lonnie Balch, Kelly Fregia, Moe Hill, Dave Kerman, Gene James, Philmore Hendricks and Dingy Davis; Dr. Clyde Craig, J. J. Wiley and Lester York, boxing enthusiasts; O. J. "Bo" Sexton, Golden Glove referee; O. C. Foster, physical director of Kahn's Health Center; and Bob Cone, and Joe Kelly of the Avalanche-Journal sports department.

New Deal Cagers Turn Back Lorenzo, 30-19, In 7-B Loop

NEW DEAL, Jan. 9. (Special)—The New Deal Lions basketball quintet took another step forward in District 7-B cage play by turning back a determined Lorenzo High school five, 30-19, in a game played here tonight.

It was New Deal all the way tonight, as the Lions began to hit their stride. L. W. Buttry, a sparkling guard, paced the Lions with 12 points to take evening scoring honors, while Forward Mankins of Lorenzo topped his team with seven.

The New Deal girls also recorded a victory over the Lorenzo girls, almost doubling the score as they won going away, 49-25.

The Central Junior High Purples of Lubbock, paced by Center Bobby Day, drubbed the New Deal Juniors 40-12.

Sweetwater Rally Edges Lamesa Quint, 28-22, In 3-AA Tussle

LAMESA, Jan. 9 (Special)—Sweetwater's Mustang quint rallied in the second half here tonight to defeat the Lamesa Golden Tornadoes, 28-22, in a District 3-AA conference tussle. Glen Holladay of Sweetwater was high point man with total of 11 points, but Donald Hoover scored 10 for Lamesa.

In the "B" five clash Lamesa, paced by John Leuenberger, drubbed the visitors 35-21.

Rickey Assails Professionalism In U. S. Colleges

NEW YORK, Jan. 9 (AP)—President Branch Rickey of the Brooklyn Dodgers called on the nation's institutions of higher learning today to abolish professionalism in college athletics and promised that major league baseball would keep hands off college players who remain true amateurs.

Appearing before a joint session of the National Collegiate Athletic association and various coaching groups meeting here in connection with the annual NCAA convention, Rickey declared:

"The statement that the colleges are making more professionals every year than are employed in the professional field — if true — does not affect the obligation of the professional clubs to leave these amateurs alone.

Regulation Is Sought

"But your position looking to solution would be stronger if your own house were in order. If the man is, by the definition we have accepted, not an amateur—then you are not entitled to play him and particularly so since you made him a defacto professional."

Rickey's assertion came on the eve of the NCAA's most important business session in its history, a session in which it will vote on a series of proposed constitutional amendments designed to make it a regulatory body with power to purify athletics in some 400 institutions.

If the amendments, which are termed the "sanity code" by their backers, receive the necessary two-thirds vote for approval, the NCAA will become a national conference and assume the responsibility for eliminating the subsidization of athletes in colleges within its influence.

The climax of Rickey's talk came when he suggested countermeasures to replace a proposal submitted to the major leagues recently by the American Association of College Baseball Coaches and tabled by both baseball circuits.

Tahoka Is Defeated 34-32, By Sundown

TAHOKA, Jan. 9 (Special)—The Tahoka Bulldogs were unable to make a first period score stand up tonight and dropped their first District 4-A conference basketball game to the invading Sundown High school cagers, 34-32.

The game started out as though it might be a Bulldog rout, with the sharp shooting home team jumping into an early 8-3 margin. But Sundown fought back to go off the court at halftime with a narrow 15-14 edge.

Center Don D. Cowan paced the Tahoka cagers with 12 points to take scoring honors, while Guard Joe Don Minor and Forward Duane Carter pitched in seven points.

A pair of brothers, Doug and John Ethridge playing forward and guard respectively, scored 22 points between them. Doug notched 12 counters and John had 10.

Andrews Quint Edges Seminole In Overtime Session, 34-32

ANDREWS, Jan. 9. (Special)—Farris Hamilton sank a long push shot in the third overtime period to give the Andrews quint a 34-32 non-conference triumph over Seminole here tongiht. The score was deadlocked, 23-23, at the end of the regular game and was still tied, 28-28, after the first overtime session. Both quints scored four points in the second extra period, then in the "sudden death" playoff Hamilton dropped in the winning goal.

Johnson Tops Scorers As Lubbock Gains Sixth Win

EL PASO, Jan. 9 (Special)—Lubbock High's determined Westerners combined a smooth-working offense with a stubborn defense to drub Ysleta's powerful Indians, 39-26, here tonight to even the score against District 4-AA quintets. The Westerners were defeated by El Paso High Thursday night for their first loss in six starts this season.

The South Plains five jumped into the lead in the opening minutes of the game on accurate shots by Forward Virgil Johnson and Center Jim Wilson, then built up the margin to 7-1 at the end of the first quarter. Guard Charles Galey connected with long set shots to spark a torrid Westerner second period scoring spree, although Indian Guard Jim O'Dell kept the home cagers in striking distance with brilliant one-hand push shots, and the Lubbock schoolboys held a 22-13 lead at halftime.

Bowling Tourney To Open Tonight

Some of the best bowlers in West Texas will perform at the Lubbock Bowling club alleys tonight and tomorrow, when a Ragtime Doubles tournament is conducted here.

A. E. "Chris" Christensen, owner of the lanes, said that bowlers from at least six Texas cities would be present, with the first match scheduled to begin at 7 p. m. Four shifts will be rolled tonight, with bowling resuming Sunday afternoon at 1.

Top Entries Seen

Keglers are expected in Lubbock from Abilene, Austin, Big Spring, Midland, Odessa, San Angelo, while local keglers also have indicated that they will turn out in force.

Among the visiting bowlers will be such men as Paul Braden of Austin, Pete Wite of Abilene, E. B. Dozier of Big Spring and Bomar Horton of San Angelo.

Subs Are Used

A third quarter net-swishing splurge by the Westerners put the game on ice for the 1-AA representatives and Coach Harvey Dunn used substitutes freely during the remainder of the game. Whistle blowing marred play in the latter stages of the tussle as both quints used rough tactics.

Johnson copped individual scoring honors for the night by sinking four field goals and an equal number of charity tosses for a 12 point total, but he was pressed by teammate Galey who hit the basket for five field goals and a single free throw for 11 points. The rangy O'Dell topped the Ysleta crew with eight points on two field goals and four gift shots.

Westerners Are Improved

The Westerners were obviously improved over their performance last night, when they were handicapped by fatigue resulting from a 350-mile bus journey, and handed the tough border quint its worst defeat of the year. The Lubbock team drew praise chiefly as a result of smooth ball-handling and brilliant floor play, but individually the South Plains lads have not lived up to advance notices on their accurate shooting.

Saturday night the Westerners will battle the strongest five of the Border city area—the Austin High of El Paso quint. The Austin High schoolboys handed Amarillo's Golden Sandies an impressive shellacking here Thursday night and hold a season record of 13 victories against one loss. The tussle will be the final appearance of the Lubbock team here.

AMHERST BEATS SPRINGLAKE

SPRINGLAKE, Jan. 9 (Special) Amherst cagers copped two triumphs over Springlake here tonight, the boys' quint taking a 31-22 decision while the girls gained a 21-15 win.
