Transportation Tieup Adds To Strike Woes

Midwest Drivers Ask For Vote As Deadlock Holds In Mine Squabble

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12—Transportation, both at home and abroad, flared up tonight as one of the sorest spots among the nation's labor ills.

Meanwhile coal strike negotiators were "still arguing" at the end of a week of deadlock over the dispute on recognition of a foreman's union. The number of miners on strike rose to more than 200,000.

Strike Vote Asked

Officials were jolted by a request to the National Labor Relations board for a strike poll of

TROOPS UNLOAD SHIPS

LONDON, Oct. 13 (AP)—British troops unloaded food ships today in ports crippled by the walkout of about 50,000 dockers, and union leaders asserted the wildcat strike was being encouraged by political groups including communists.

Spokesmen for the unauthorized strikers stood firm, despite military intervention and criticism that food supplies were imperilled. They reaffirmed their determination to hold out until their demands are met. The strikers seek a daily wage of $5, from present pay of $3.75 to $4.80.

More than 400 ships were tied up, along with cargoes of 100,000 tons of meat and other food for this import-dependent island.

AFL teamsters employed by 3,190 Midwest trucking firms. A strike might tie up over-the-road hauling in the heart of the country.

The Army, joined by the War Shipping administration, appealed to New York's striking stevedores to return to work and prevent further delay in bringing home overseas veterans.

Almost at the same time four other waterfront unions gave support to the 35,000 to 60,000 AFL longshoremen, tightening the tieup created by the walkout of the cargo handlers. New York harbor already was jammed and the crush was growing.

Secretary of War Patterson and WSA Administrator Emory S. Land wired the president of the International Longshoremen's association, Joseph P. Ryan, an urgent request to use his influence to get the dock workers back on the job.

Retards Troop Return

The strike has "materially retarded the return of American troops from Europe," the telegram said. Sixteen ships, for which 15,000 soldiers are waiting across the Atlantic, are idle in the harbor because of the longshoremen's refused to load or unload them, the officials reported.

The National Maritime union (CIO) and three other unions pledged their support to the stevedores, who struck as the result of differences over the load to be carried in cargo nets.

They announced that seamen aboard strike - becalmed vessels would shut off steampower if necessary to prevent their movement and unloading.

The three other unions were the American Communications association, a CIO union of wireless operators; the CIO Marine Cooks and Stewards association, and the Marine Firemen, Oilers, Watertenders and Wipers association, unaffiliated.

Thousands of Drivers

The strike vote petition, affecting unestimated thousands of drivers in 12 states, was filed with the National Labor Relations board under the Smith-Connally act which provides a strike vote after a 30-day "cooling-off" period.

It coincided with an outburst of vocal support in Congress for new anti - strike legislation, including repeal of the Smith-Connally measure, whose critics charge it fosters strikes instead of cooling them off.

The talk of anti-strike legislation came from legislators on both sides of the house.

The flood of strike-vote activity in New England prompted NLRB to announce that its Boston office is suspending for the rest of this month all activity under the Wagner act, which the board was created to administer.

Hearings Cancelled

All collective bargaining elections, hearings and conferences on unfair labor practices have been cancelled in the New England states, NLRB said, while the office handles strike polls.

The talk of new strike curbs was far from unanimous, however. Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas (D-Calif.) one of those opposed to anti-strike legislation, told a reporter:

"I don't think people strike because they like to strike. The

Gen. Ike Sees Long Tussle

By NOLAND NORGAARD
Associated Press Staff Writer

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 12—Gen. Eisenhower expressed belief today it would "take 50 years of hard work" to reeducate Nazi Germany in democratic ideals, and said that as far as he was concerned the ban on Nazis will be permanent."

"If anyone believes we're going to leave anything for Germany to prosecute another war, he's crazy, that's all," Eisenhower asserted.

The American commander expressed irritation with press criticism, "mostly by implication," of U. S. policies and administration in occupied Germany.

Believes In Firm Hand

"We got our orders from Potsdam, and they are right down my alley. I say let Germany find out what it means to start a war."

(In Berlin, Eisenhower's deputy, Lt. Gen. Lucius D. Clay, said Germany would have to be occupied "for at least a generation if we stay to do the job we have set out to do.")

Speaking at a news conference, Eisenhower also announced that Nazis would not be allowed to vote in forthcoming elections, asserting that "a Nazis is a Nazi until he proves himself otherwise."

At the same time, Maj. Gen. C. L. Adcock, head of the G-5 (military government) section of the United States forces in the European theater, explained plans to withdraw most military government personnel from the lower levels of German administration during the next few months.

To Have Some Control

The ultimate objective, Adcock said, is to give the Germans administrative control up to the "land" (state) level, with top administrative heads responsible to the Allied military authorities.

He expressed hope that this could be achieved by June.

Eisenhower said he hoped the press would strive to show accomplishments, as well as shortcomings, of the military government administration.

"Any man in my organization who I learn is not executing our policies with his heart as well as his hand," he said, "will be placed in a job where he won't need his heart."

Predicts Some Unrest

He predicted some unrest and "shrunken stomachs" in Germany this winter, but said he believed "we will get through it without any general uprising."

Referring presumably to the criticism that was directed against Gen. George S. Patton's administration of the military government in Bavaria, Eisenhower asserted:

"I no more believe in soldiers running a government one moment longer than absolutely necessary than I believe in Hinduism."

Food Rushed By Plane To Storm Area

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Oct. 12—Superfortresses swooped down on typhoon-torn Okinawa today, rushing 284 tons of food to the island's 150,000 isolated American troops.

The 132-mile wind that left 13 American sailors dead or missing and 100 soldiers injured Tuesday disrupted all but airborne sources of supply.

(Five big four-engine Navy Skymaster transports from Guam slipped in and out during lulls and evacuated 157 war-wounded even before the storm had ceased, Naval Air Transport service headquarters at Oakland, Calif., reported today.)

127 Vessels Sunk, Damaged

Sunk, damaged or beached were 127 naval vessels, and others were unable to unload at port facilities that had become a litter of splintered wreckage.

The typhoon swept on northward, killing at least 69 Japanese on Honshu, flooding 8,000 homes and ripping out 80 bridges before thundering on out to sea.

Bright sunshine warmed Honshu today for the first time in a week, but it brought little cheer to Japanese farmers whose already inadequate rice crops were heavily damaged.

Other Tasks Dropped

Fifty B-29s began emergency deliveries of food to Okinawa's American garrison today, dropping all other tasks—even their job of flying replacements to permit return of the Okinawa veterans to America.

Fliers were hastily assigned to the emergency job from the 314th and 315th Bombardment wings of the 20th Air force.

Officers feared reports of the Okinawa toll were incomplete, since communications were disrupted on the island. In Washington yesterday, the Navy reported 89 dead or missing in a less severe typhoon Sept. 16-18, when five small vessels were lost off Okinawa.

To Evacuate Patients

Hospital ships in the area were called in to evacuate 1,250 patients who had survived the storm in Okinawa's wind-lashed hospitals.

Brig. Gen. Lawrence Lawson, Okinawa base commander, said that all personnel not needed for garrison duty should be removed immediately because of food and shelter shortage.

Losses of installations of all types was heavy, he reported, and the litter of wreckage was reminiscent of the first days of the American invasion when big guns had levelled virtually every building.

Russian, British And Chinese To Join Occupation Of Japan

After listening to her story Prosecutor O'Brien recommended a warrant charging the soldier with felonius assault.

Details Not Yet Revealed

(By The Associated Press)

TOKYO, Saturday, Oct. 13.—Russian, British and Chinese troops will join Americans in the occupation of Japan, but there has been no official word from Washington as to the size of the Allied forces or the date of their arrival, an Allied headquarters spokesman said today.

Discussions about the incoming troops have "been in the mill for at least 30 days," said the spokesman for Lt. Gen. Robert K. Sutherland, chief of staff to General MacArthur.

Details Not Announced

"We have received official word from Washington that they are coming, but have been waiting for Washington to announce the fact and details of the combined occupation of Japan."

"We rather expected each country will send one division," the spokesman said. "After we know the size the supreme commander for the Allied powers will designate the respective zones of occupation. We expect to receive further details soon from Washington," he said.

DIET TO OVERHAUL JAP CONSTITUTION

TOKYO, Oct. 12 (AP)—Domei agency predicted today the Diet in December would overhaul Japan's constitution for the first time in 57 years and gear it to General MacArthur demands for tradition-smashing social changes.

(An NBC broadcast from Tokyo quoted Prince Fumimaro Konoye as saying that Japan's constitution may be changed to take nearly all powers from the emperor and establish a constitutional monarchy. When asked if that would force Hirohito to abdicate, the former premier said the emperor was "seriously concerned.")

Expert Consultant

To prepare the ground for drastic government changes, Dr. Soichi Sasaki, an authority on Japan's constitution, took over the task of advising Marquis Koichi Kido, the highest ranking consultant for the emperor.

The new constitution is expected to provide for MacArthur's orders for women's suffrage, labor unionization, abolition of "secret inquisition" police systems, advancement of education and revision of monopolistic industrial control.

Japanese authorities appealed to American headquarters for per-

Homecoming Nimitz Cites Necessity Of Sea Power

By DAVE CHEAVENS
Associated Press Staff Writer

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 — The vital necessity of continuing sea power to discourage potential aggressors was emphasized by Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz here tonight in the second of a series of homecoming talks before swarms of fellow Texans.

Nimitz stopped off in the state capital en route to the real homecoming — his visit tomorrow to Fredericksburg, the Texas hill country town where he was born, and Kerrville, where he spent his boyhood.

Many Swarm Capital

Many of the hill country folk did not wait for him. They swarmed into the capital and swelled the crowd that howled a prideful welcome to the admiral as he rode in an open car up broad Congress avenue from the Colorado river to the capitol grounds. The crowd stood scores deep, barely restrained by soldiers of the battle-wise Second division from Camp Swift, who lined up shoulder-to-shoulder along the route of the slow-moving parade.

Nimitz spoke informally and briefly at a dinner following the

TO BE NAVAL CHIEF

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (AP)—Fleet Admiral Chester W. Nimitz was introduced to a central Texas audience of 4,000 persons tonight by Rep. Lyndon Johnson (D-Tex) as the officer slated next to become the commander-in-chief of the United States Navy.

"We are proud of him for what he did in the Pacific, but we are going to be prouder still when we make him the next chief of naval operations, the commander in chief of the United States Navy," said Rep. Johnson, a member of the House Naval Affairs committee.

parade, and then addressed a great crowd at Gregory gymnasium on the University of Texas campus. This was strictly a Navy show, with V-12 trainees and naval ROTC students from the University of Texas as co-honor guests with the Texan who achieved the highest grade in his branch of the service.

Divert Energy To Peace

"All of the energy and unity of purpose which went into winning the war can now be diverted to the ways of peace," he said. "America cannot afford the wastage of the blood of her sons and the profit of her people's toil in periodic wars. We must undertake a search for a method of establishing permanent peace, at the same time keeping ourselves sufficiently strong to discourage potential aggressors until a way toward peace in fact has been found. One element of that national strength must continue to be sea power."

He said both the war in Europe

Senate Splits On Tax Reductions

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (AP)—Indications cropped up today that there will be opposition in the tax-writing Senate Finance committee to the movement, led by Chairman George (D-Ga.), to keep on the tax polls all Americans now paying income taxes.

Senator Radcliffe (D-Md) said in an interview that he felt "a good many of those with low incomes" should be dropped. He added that he did not know, however, whether he would want to go as far as the House-approved bill which would end income taxes for 12,000,000 low-income Americans.

Butler Joins George

Senator Butler of Nebraska, a leading Republican member, said he will "go along with Senator George on January 1 as the date for ending the excess profits tax."

The House bill only reduces that tax at the end of this year, keeping it in force until 1947.

Those two issues — how far down the income scale taxes should reach and what date repeal of the excess profits tax should be effective—loom as the major issues for the committee when it gets down to work Monday on the House-approved tax cutting measure.

Vinson To Be Witness

Secretary of the Treasury Vinson is expected to be one of the first witnesses at the Senate group's hearings.

George looked to the future in telling reporters he thought it would be a mistake to remove 12,000,000 income taxpayers from the rolls.

"I think it very unwise to narrow the base because we may face the necessity of meeting troublesome budgetary problems down the road," he said. "We might find it necessary to increase revenues rapidly, and once off the rolls, it would be hard to put the 12,000,000 on again."

GENERAL MISQUOTED

FRANKFURT, Germany, Oct. 12 (AP) — Gen. Eisenhower told a questioner during an interview today he was quoted "absolutely falsely" by Dutch newspapermen who attributed to him a statemen indicating that he believed Hitler was still alive.

Boastful Jap Slayer Held In Australia

TOKYO, Saturday, Oct. 13. (AP) A Japanese naval interpreter who boasted in a diary he beheaded an Allied prisoner is in an Australian prison and missionaries accuse him of participating in the killing of four American aviators in another case.

The details were disclosed here today.

The Japanese, Kenneth Yunone, was captured April 25, 1944, at Hollandia, Dutch New Guinea.

The diary boasted under the date "24 October" (presumably 1943) that he beheaded an Allied prisoner that day while Japanese onlookers "declared their admiration for my skill in making such an excellent stroke."

Death Assessed For Execution Of Yanks

ROME, Oct. 12. (AP) — A U. S. Military commission today sentenced Gen. Anton Dostler to death by a firing squad for ordering the execution of 15 American soldiers captured in Italy.

Dostler was the first German general to be tried for war crimes in western Europe. His defense was that Adolf Hitlers orders for the immediately execution of "Commandos" gave him no alternative.

Clenched hands alone betraying his tension, the stocky, heavy-jowled Dostler stood stiffly at attention as Maj. Gen. Lawrence C. Jaynes, presiding, read the court's verdict, pausing every few words to permit translation. Then he bowed stiffly, and was led from the courtroom.

The sentence goes automatically to the commander of Allied forces in the Mediterranean theater, for review.

Soldier Found Dead On Railroad Tracks

ST. LOUIS, Oct. 12. (AP) — The body of Cpl. Oscar A. Allison of Route 4, Elgin, Texas, was found today beside the Missouri-Pacific railroad right of way 20 miles south of here by a railroad section crew.

Allison's body was brought to Jefferson Barracks here.

The soldier reportedly was enroute to a Texas Army camp for discharge.

SUPPLY PROBLEM SERIOUS

HONOLULU, Oct. 12 (AP)—Brig. Gen. William Rose, senior military adviser to Philippines Commissioner Paul V. McNutt, declared today the supply problem in the war-damaged Philippines was both serious and immediate and that "we expect to lead a spartan existence in Manila."

Redeployment Of Homebound Men

PARIS, Oct. 12 (U.P.)—Today's redeployment schedule for American divisions in the European theater:

7th, 9th, 10th, 16th Armored, 70th Infantry: On high seas.

8th Armored: At Camp Oklahoma City in Oise section.

36th, 66th, 75th, 79th, 89th Infantry, 12th Armored, 16th corps: Alerted for shipment.

Argentine Tension Erupts Into Panic And One Slain

BUENOS AIRES, Oct. 12. (AP)—A day of political tension erupted into violence and death tonight as saber-swinging mounted police charged a demonstration in San Martin square, throwing thousands of Argentines into panic.

At least one person was reported killed and 39 injured, either from wooden cartridges fired by police or by revolver fire from automobiles along the square.

Cause Not Known

The crowd, estimated at more than 10,000, had congregated in front of the Officers club, the remnants of a huge demonstration demanding that the nation's government be handed to the supreme court and the ouster of President Edelmiro Farrell.

Confusion clouded the cause of the tumult. A staccatto sound, as of machinegun fire or firecrackers on a string., threw the demonstrators into panic, and without warning 40 policemen sent their mounts against the throng.

Civilians in cars at the side of the square were seen to draw revolvers and fired, their guns apparently aimed also against the crowd. An editor of the newspaper La Nacion, Eduardo Mallea, said he recognized members of the "Nationlist Youth Alliance" in the melee.

Hospital Head Slain

First reports identified the slain man as the director of a private hospital, Dr. Eugenio Ottolenghi.

Apparently the crowd had determined to meet violence with violence, since earlier in the evening acting Chief of Police Col. Aristobulo Mittlebach had warned that all gatherings in public places would be severely repressed.

Only a few hours after the warning, when the shooting began, guns appeared from the pockets of private citizens.

A colonel identified only by the last name of Montes announced for the Army that the police would be punished if they shed the people's blood.

While apprehension gripped the city, a source close to Rear Adm. Hector Vernengo Lima, named today as naval minister, said that Col. Juan Peron, resigned vice-president, had been arrested and placed aboard a gunboat.

Earlier today a group of Army-Navy officers forced Farrell's cabinet to resign, and a spokesman said they also had the president's own resignation—"to be used at any moment."

Meeting throughout the day in the Army Officers' club on San Martin square, the group was re-

De Gaulle Cold To Laval's Plea

PARIS, Oct. 12. (AP)—Attorneys for Pierre Laval said Gen. De Gaulle listened for 10 minutes without comment tonight to their plea that he order a new trial for the condemned former Vichy premier.

De Gaulle, who told newspapermen earlier he would "certainly not" issue an order for a new trial, also met with the head of the board of commutations, who automatically submits high court death sentences to De Gaulle for clemency.

New Evidence Claimed

The attorneys sought the new trial on the basis of new evidence received by them which they said would "explode" the treason case against Laval. The Paris newspaper Liberation meanwhile said it had learned that Laval's execution was set for Wednesday.

High Court Justice Paul Mongibeaux, who passed the death sentence on Tuesday, told the Associated Press he had expected the defense attorneys to interview De Gaulle, but that he did not consider the new evidence claimed by the defense sufficient to warrant reopening the case.

Laval's attorneys asserted they had uncovered proof that Laval had not plotted to hand over his government to De Gaulle in 1944, and that he aided in getting information to the Allied general staffs.

Shows Easy Switch

As to the first contention, Mongibeaux dismissed it with this comment: "In August, 1944, the Germans were losers, and that only shows how easily Laval switched sides."

As to the second contention, Mongibeaux said:

"In France it has always been seen that the politicians on certain occasions will give help to political adversaries.

"In the case of a man like Laval you cannot tell what his real reasons were, whether he did not get some advantage in return."

Laval's attorneys asserted their new evidence was contained in depositions and documents "pouring in from all over the world" since Laval's sentence was pronounced.

Mass Slaying Charge Is Denied By Doctor

LAREDO, Oct. 12 (AP)—Repeating he had been framed, Dr. Gustavo Leal Morales of Monterrey, Mexico, today said in Nuevo Laredo he was innocent of charges he was involved in the mass slayings of 37 men and a woman recently.

Charged by the Mexican government as the leader of a group that robbed and killed field workers after they returned from the United States, the dapper doctor told newsmen:

"I have been framed. I've been an honest man all my life. Charges that I am the leader of a gang of killers and smugglers are merely an attempt by my enemies to get me into trouble."

Federal District Judge Manuel G. Lomeli will recide whether to uphold or deny sentences against each man as asked by Mexican Prosecutor Emilio Villalobos.

Twenty-six men have been arrested on charges following the discovery of numerous bodies along the Rio Grande from Brownsville north.

Doctor Says Polio Virus Found Abundantly In Human Sewage

FOX LAKE, Ill., Oct. 12. (AP)—Dr. Edward A. Pisczek, Cook county's (Chicago) public health director, said today evidence had been found "to show that the virus of infantile paralysis can be abundantly spread in polluted water by improper disposal of human sewage."

Dr. Piszczek, in an address prepared for the Izaak Walton league, said students of infantile paralysis feel that it "can now be classed as most probably a gastro - intestinal borne disease." Recovery of the virus in waste matter of from 20 to 70 per cent of the known contacts to cases of infantile paralysis, he said, "also gives reason for the abundance of the virus among the population."

"Recovery of poliomyelitis virus from the sewer collection systems of New York, Chicago, Detroit, Charleston, S. C., and Chicago, gives further evidence to the fact that the germs of infantile paralysis may be found in human sewage," he said, adding:

"Periodically . . . reports of the incidence of the disease seem to show a predominance among those victims who lived around a brook or stream that was highly polluted with human sewage.

The germs of infantile paralysis have been reportedly recovered from the gastro-intestinal tract of fish which were caught in a stream that showed a high concentration of human waste."

Navy Reveals Ghost Hellcat, New Pilotless Fighter Plane

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (AP)—Development of a pilotless radio - controlled fighting plane —the Ghost Hellcat—was disclosed today by the Navy.

So far as is known, the Navy said in a release, it is the world's only standard military plane in which radio control performs all operations performed by a pilot in taking off, flying and landing.

The Navy announcement gave no details of the Ghost Hellcat's performance or armament, although it said the plane "fights without a pilot."

The plane is taken off by a pilot who sits in a chair in a truck before a control panel. His signals retract the wheels and start the plane to circling the field. Then control is taken over by another pilot in a "mother" plane who guides the Ghost Hellcat on its mission. Upon its return to the field the Ghost Hellcat is taken over again by the ground pilot who lands it and taxis it over to the line.

The controls are so complete that even the tail wheels may be guided to steer the plane on the ground, brakes may be set and engines governed for the speeds desired for take-off or landing.

General Anarchy Grips Manchuria

PEIPING, Oct. 6 (Delayed) (AP)—Russian occupation forces in Manchuria are dismantling factories for shipment to the Ukraine and other devastated Soviet areas, travelers arriving from Mukden said today.

They gave graphic descriptions of the general anarchy and tumult accompanying the collapse of the puppet state of Manchukuo, with Russian authorities gradually getting the upper hand and restoring order.

The story was told by a group of 14 air passengers, including a former French consular official and his family, who landed last night at the unlighted West airfield here.

"Invited" To Leave

Soviet officials, they said, had "invited" them to leave Mukden within 36 hours because their passports lacked Soviet visas.

The former French official, M. Rennere, said he had been consul-general at Mukden since 1941 after holding a similar post in Hong Kong for 13 years.

(If he took over at Mukden in 1941 he must have been an appointee of the Vichy government, a fact which may have figured in his departure by request from the

SPOTLIGHTING RED

WE think the color red can work either for or against you in makeup and clothing.

Not so long ago, someone came out with an idea that older women should wear red and immediately there was an influx of red which was not flattering to every wearer, to say the least. The women wore red hats, red gloves, tints of red in their makeup and some of them looked grand and others didn't. Because of its intensity, red emphasizes sagging muscles and approaching signs of age. Softer shades, more in keeping with their coloring, are better.

Red is a difficult color for blondes to wear. We think a dainty, fragile appearing woman should wear feminine cool colors, rather than garish red.

The true brunette with dark eyes and dark skin without yellow pigment looks well in almost any shade of red.

HOW MANY DAYS?

TALK of mailing date deadlines for overseas Christmas boxes doesn't affect quite so many of us this year, it's true. Many, many of the chairs that stood empty at dinner tables last year are now filled with reasonably exact—but bigger and better—facsimiles of their former occupants.

But this advance notice of Christmas ahead is a mighty wise one. Too often we wait until the so-many-days-to-Christmas signs are posted—and then dash like mad to fill the list.

So, knowing that "forewarned is to be forearmed," this year we'll get the jump of "gifting" and make it fun. Why not gather a few friends together, spend one afternoon on planning lists, another shopping together, and several more making up some of the gifts that demand the personal touch. Right on through to wrapping, the project becomes a social event when taken leisurely and in good company.

FOR THE GI's

GIRLS and wives who have dreamed and waited for the home-coming of men in the armed forces are finally to have their day. These girls have been asking themselves how they can look their prettiest when their men with the A-1 apriority comes home.

There probably has been quite a flurry of buying new clothes when those important telegrams or telephone calls or letters come, but girls would do well to remember all the simple things that even money cannot buy to make them more attractive.

As one notice in a show window says "Have him see you as he remembered you, or words to that effect. For instance, a dress that she wore on an especially nice date may mean more to the boy who loves her than a brand new outfit. Of course, it's also important to wear any jewelry he has sent back from overseas or to wear the French perfume. Then, too, shining hair and a sparkling clean face—the image he carried through all his danger—are not to be minimized.

In their letters, both GI Joe and those who wore the bell bottom trousers have probably reiterated the fact they wanted to see the girls just as they were. That means looking pretty all of the time, doesn't it?

Gallup Poll Finds U. S. Labor Against Government Ownership

PRINCETON, N. J.—No matter what the outcome of the American labor-management conflict, one thing seems certain—members of labor unions want the solution worked out within the framework of free private enterprise.

This is an especially significant finding in the United States in view of the recent turn of events in Britain, where only a few months ago the voters put a labor government into power, and where, in public opinion polls these same voters have shown themselves clearly in favor of a number of planks in the Labor party platform, including government ownership of railroads and coal mines.

Over here, however, opinion among labor union members runs generally counter to government ownership of basic industries, except in the case of electric power companies. In that case, however, sentiment is very closely divided, with no great preponderance in favor of government ownership.

Conservative Trend Seen

With regard to ownership of banks, railroads and coal mines, labor union members polled by the Institute show a degree of conservatism which might come as a surprise to some observers.

In the present survey, Institute field reporters asked members of labor unions this question:

"Do you think the government should own the following things in this country: banks? railroads? coal mines? electric power companies?"

The replies of labor union members in the survey to this question:

BANKS
Gov't Should Own	34%
Gov't Should Not Own	55
No Opinion	11
RAILROADS
Gov't Should Own	26%
Gov't Should Not Own	56
No Opinion	18
COAL MINES
Gov't Should Own	38%
Gov't Should Not Own	49
No Opinion	13
ELECTRIC POWER COMPANIES
Gov't Should Own	38%
Gov't Should Not Own	39
No Opinion	23

Throughout the country as a whole, the majority of all voters indicate their confidence in the system of free private enterprise in the way they vote on the above question.

The figures above represent labor union members' views on government ownership take as a general concept. Obviously the proportion of people favoring or opposing government ownership would vary depending on specific proposals made—whether the ownership is to be by federal, state or local government, the price to be paid for properties taken over, how the money is to be raised, etc.

Mrs. Alford Talks At Luncheon Meeting

Mrs. Joe Alford expressed gratitude for cooperation shown the Business and Professional Women's club and explained the aims, purposes and work of her club to American Business club members at their weekly luncheon Friday in the Hilton hotel.

"We have a bodily interest in every worthwhile civic project and are concerned with the encouragement of Lubbock's growth, Mrs. Alford said. Briefly the speaker outlined the role members of B-PW have taken in support of community projects.

Another guest speaker at todays luncheon was H. D. Woods, who talked on behalf of the Veterans Civic Service Committee and combined agencies ready to serve returning veterans. "We are offering not just a pat-on-the-back, but are making a sincere and earnest effort to help ex-servicemen find jobs in their return to civilian life," Woods explained.

Saying that he believed these men did not want a hand out or sympathy, Woods said this organization, composed of the American Red Cross, Lubbock County Service Officer, Selective Service Re-Employment committees, US Employment Service, Veterans Administration, and the Veterans Civic Service committee (composed of representatives of all civic organizations), was conceived to help ex-servicemen in a friendly and realistic manner.

Luncheon guests were Virgil Goodwin, Grady Boyd, F/O Harold Humphries, H. T. McKissack, Miss Georgia Clifton, representative of B-PW, and Maurice Lampere of Lamesa.

Oklahoman Praises Lubbock And Tech, Offers Suggestions

Discussed widely as a prospective candidate for governor of Oklahoma, Johnson Hill of Tulsa, president of Atlas Life Insurance company, who provoked a sensation in Oklahoma politics early this year by making good his threat to resign as speaker of the Sooner state's house of representatives, came to town Friday, praised Lubbock and the South Plains and predicted great growth for the area.

Hill, here with other company officials to transact business and attend the Texas Tech-Tulsa university football game tonight, placed Tech at the top of the city's assets and termed a new college stadium and fieldhouse as Lubbock's No. 1 need.

Attracts Many People

"You can attract more people, more money and more attention to Lubbock with an ample athletic facilities than you can with anything else," he said.

Hill suggested that Lubbock follow Tulsa's example of raising funds for a fieldhouse and stadium by public subscription. Tulsa university's stadium, he said, was built about 15 years ago at a cost of approximately $150,000. It seats between 15,000 and 20,000 people, is designed for future additions and is used by both the university and Tulsa high schools, each paying rental fees.

The 57-year-old Oklahoman indicated he was willing to make the race for governor "if the people want me."

Political Philosophy

"Oklahoma is ripe for a business administration," he said.

Hinting of his political philosophy, he said, "I don't believe in anyone sitting in the government's lap if he is able to work," he declared.

Democrat Hill came to public attention when he quit his position as speaker and as representative of a Tulsa county district over impeachment proceedings against Oklahoma Superintendent of Schools A. L. Crable. He had threatened in the early days of the session that if the legislature refused to impeach Crable, he would resign. When the impeachment effort was defeated, he surprised politicians by carrying out the threat.

Hill is also a trustee of Tulsa university. A former lawyer, he has been president of Atlas since 1930.

H. D. Woods To Head Group For Veterans

The veterans Civic Service committee meeting Thursday night in the American Legion hall elected H. D. Woods, local insurance man, chairman of their group.

Woods succeeds George S. Berry, R. B. Glass and M. D. Fanning were re-elected vice chairman and secrtary respectively.

Officials of the committee, designed to help and work with the agencies which have veterans' aid programs, are selected every six months.

The committee has published small booklets listing the groups in Lubbock which stand ready to help the returning veteran, and the steps he must take in preparing for civilian life. They will be distributed to draft boards, to civic clubs for passing out to veterans, and business firms.

Franco Regime Changes Policy

By RALPH FORTE
United Press Staff Writer

MADRID, Oct. 12—The Franco government sought today to offset world criticism by taking steps to restore civil liberties, ordering municipal elections and granting a general amnesty to political prisoners.

The reforms were promised in a communique issued after a cabinet meeting. It blamed a "vast Communist conspiracy of international scope" for a "persistent international campaign of defamation directed against Spain and its regime."

Doesn't Refer To Allies

As the "only adequate reply," the cabinet said, it was re-affirming its decision to continue along the ideological and political lines laid down July 18, 1936 shortly after the start of the Civil war.

The communique made no direct reference to the Big Three's refusal to admit Spain to the united nations organization on grounds that it has Fascist tendencies. Neither did it mention that several Latin-American countries have switched recognition from the Franco government to a Spanish exile government in Mexico City.

Program Is Given

In listing specific reforms undertaken by the Franco government, the communique said:

1. Projected laws are being sent to the Cortes (Parliament) dealing with the rights of meeting, association and in general, individual guarantees.

2. Municipal elections, the first since the Franco government took office, will be held in late March following completion of a national census.

3. Laws of public interest henceforth may be submitted to the people in a referendum for approval.

4. A general amnesty has been declared for all those convicted or imprisoned for rebellion or acts against public order prior to April 1, 1939, the day the war ended in Spain. The amnesty includes those tried in absentia and now in exile.

League Of Nations Dissolution Urged

LONDON, Oct. 12. (AP)—Voting down the Soviet union and Australia, the United Nations executive committee today recommended dissolution of the League of Nations and that the new world peace organization take over its non-political functions.

The Russians and Australians objected in a 10 to 2 vote that such a move might make the United Nations just a continuation of the league. They proposed that the league be kept going as now until after the United Nations organization has been established.

The Soviet delegate Andrei Gromyko said each part of the new security agency could then decide for itself which functions of the league it wished to absorb.

Colorful Coronation Ceremony Marks Mexico Celebration

MEXICO CITY Oct. 12. (AP) — A gold and silver crown containing 725 diamonds was placed on the head of the image of the Virgin of Guadalupe today—climax of a golden jubilee celebrating the first coronation of the brown virgin 50 years ago

The coronation drew special significance this year because of the presence of Rodrigue Cardinal Villeneuve, archbishop of Quebec, Canada, and first cardinal to visit Mexico. Today Pope Pius XII had spoken to the people of Mexico and the Americas over the Vatican radio giving his blessing to the ceremony.

Thousands began gathering before daylight for the coronation ceremony. The crown, in addition to its brilliant cluster of diamonds, contains 51 emeralds, 169 rubies, 99 pearls and 25 sapphires. Many of the gems were contributed by Catholics here and elsewhere in Latin America.

The Louis XV style crown is topped by an emerald cross and from its base to the top measures 57 centimeters. Its midest diameter is 45 centimeters and it weighs 14.5 kilograms (32 pounds).

The virgin, St. Mary of Guadalupe, is believed by many devout Catholics to have appeared before a humble Aztec Indian, Juan Diego on the ninth of December, 1531, as he stood on the little hill of Tepeyac.

Tech's Red Raiders Underdogs In Tussle With Tulsa's Golden Hurricane Tonight

Oklahomans Boast Perfect Record; Game Set At 8:15; Big Crowd Seen

Tulsa University's bowl-minded Golden Hurricane went through light punting, passing and offensive drills in Tech Stadium late yesterday in a final confident practice before meeting Texas Tech's battle scarred and twice-beaten Red Raiders at 8:15 tonight.

One of the largest crowds of the season is expected for the game.

Coach Dell Morgan sent his underdog Techsans through their final drills at regular practice time Friday after a week of bitter workouts "with no holds barred" from Monday through Thursday.

Frnka Worried

Henry Frnka — Tulsa coach whose mild manner and soft spoken speech contrasts sharply with his explosively powerful grid machines—four times in annual "bowl" classics — was "awfully worried, awfully worried" about the outcome of tonight's game.

Frnka — who began his coaching career at Lubbock High school paid tribute to the Raiders and their head mentor, Morgan.

"No team last year hit us as hard as did the Raiders. This includes Georgia Tech," Frnka said Friday afternoon. "We know that tonight's game will be our toughest yet."

Hurricane Unscored—On

"Dell Morgan, and the Raiders likewise, are popular in Tulsa. They always give a good showing and the public there likes to see Morgan's teams in action," Frnka added.

Thus far this season the Golden Hurricane has rolled over Wichita University 61-0, West Texas State Teachers college 32-0, and Drake university 19-0. They are heavy favorites to cop tonight's battle against a Tech team that whipped Southwestern 7-0 and then lost two straight to Texas A. & M. and Texas university, 6-16 and 0-33, respectively.

Tech Stars Injured

Another factor that bears in Tech's role as the easy loser is the loss of two starting mainstays. Arthur Shahan, letterman left half, came out of practice this week with an injured leg, and J. E. Branton, regular end who was a big headache to the Texas Longhorns last week, is still hobbling on a badly injured knee.

Tonight's game will pit another pair of arch rivals, perhaps the two best backs in the Southwest. Camp Wilson, former Hardin-Simmons star in 1942 and a member of the last two Hurricane elevens that have whipped Tech, will clash with Walter Schlinkman, Tech's All-America mention last season and acclaimed as the finest fullback in the Southwest this year.

Raiders Are Outmanned

Morgan's lone comment on the game tonight was Tulsa has us outmanned." The squad of 40 seasoned men who accompanied Frnka into Lubbock well emphasized this.

Tulsa's passing game is still a questionmark according to Frnka though his former team mate at Austin college has been laboring with his Raiders all week emphasizing their defense against an aerial display.

Despite their master's moanings the Hurricane squad members skimmed through their light drills with the confidence of the seasoned veterans they are and their appearance well befitted a bowl team of any class.

Tulsa holds the upper hand in the two school's past meetings on the gridiron. The Hurricane whipped Tech a bare 6 to 0 in the Jan. 1, 1941 Sun Bowl game at El Paso, and then scored at will for two years, 1943 and 1944, against two Tech "freshmen" teams, winning 34 to 7 each time.

The starting lineups:

TULSA Player, No.	Pos.	TECH No. Player

Floydada Rally Drops Memphis Squad, 18-6

FLOYDADA, Oct. 12—(Special)—Floydada's Whirlwind rallied in the fourth quarter to count twice and edge out a fighting Memphis team here tonight, 18 to 6, in a non-conference grid tussle.

The local lads hit paydirt early in the first stanza when Quarterback Glen Carmack ran 50 yards for the initial touchdown. The try for extra point was nullified.

After both teams settled down to a see-saw battle in the second quarter, Memphis struck back about the middle of the third to tie the game on a long pass.

Then early in the final period, Floydada came storming back with Halfback Kelly Haygood dashing 30 yards to score. Then late in the game, Left End Bill Womack gathered in a pass from Fullback Melvin Robertson that was good for 30 yards and another tally. All attempts at conversion went awry.

Oklahoma Aggies Best Mustangs, 26 To 12

OKLAHOMA CITY, Oct. 12. (AP)—A touchdown special with Bill Grimes and All-America Bob Fenimore at the throttle drove the Oklahoma Aggies to a 26-12 victory over Southern Methodist here tonight.

Cowhands Gold Stop Ropes Team, 26-0

Coach Marlin "Shorty" Hayhurst's Lubbock High Cowhands Gold chalked up a touchdown in each frame at Chapman field this afternoon to defeat Ropes, 26 to 0.

Billy Tatum, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Tatum of 2118 Twenty-fourth street, received a head injury at the start of the second half and remained in West Texas hospital last night for observation. Attendants said he was unconscious for awhile but had regained consciousness. He suffered the injury when he made a tackle and collided with another player.

The Cowhands scored in the first quarter when Left Half Joe Bumpass plunged over to climax a long drive highlighted by Wingback Silas Ussery's sensational pass catch. Quarterback Dwight Moore passed to Right End Dick Pirtle for the extra point. In the second quarter, Moore passed to Fullback Gordon Hilton for the second touchdown, a 20-yard heave. Moore ran the extra point over.

In the third, Moore passed to Pirtle for 30 yards and the third tally. And in the fourth frame, Bumpass climaxed a long drive with a short plunge. Wilbur Leon and David Watkins were the line stars for the winners.

Unbeaten Teams Hold Spotlight

By AUSTIN BEALMEAR
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Oct. 12—Unbeaten football teams will be laying their shiny records on the line all across the country tomorrow in a gridiron program containing the possibilities of more upsets than a three-wheeled applecart.

Barring a wholesale allotment of form reversals, however, most of these unblemished inveterories appear safe for hardly any of the major all-victorious elevens collide with each other.

Lop-Sided Scores Seen

As a result, the day is more likely to produce an amazing amount of lop-sided scores because the so-called underdogs find themselves overmatched in more instances than the paying public has a right to expect at this point in the season.

Another quirk in this first postwar schedule leaves intersectional and interleague competition overshadowing conference play.

Most of the intersectional thunder will rumble in the East, where the unbeaten, unscored on Cadets of Army haul their artillery to New York's Yankee stadium to give once-beaten but still-potent Michigan a whack at the number one grid combination of the land.

Navy Meets Penn State

Navy, also yet to be scored on, clashes with Penn State at Annapolis in one of the few meetings of the undefeated clubs and Pennsylvania, a third unbeaten, unscored on power, risks its record in an intersectional tussle with North Carolina at Philadelphia.

Unbeaten Columbi and Cornell put their records on the block against invading Princeton and Yale, respectively. Other Eastern struggles send Rochester to Harvard, Lafayette to Colgate and Tufts to Worcester Tech.

Wisconsin Plays Ohio State

In the Midwest, where Wisconsin at Ohio State and Iowa at Purdue furnish the day's only Big Ten conference encounters, Notre Dame — currently ranked behind only Army and Navy as the best in the country—will entertain an intersectional foe in Dartmouth.

Indiana plays host to Nebraska of the Big Six and Minnesota tangles with Fort Warren from the west. Michigan State travels east to meet Pittsburgh, Kansas State and Marquette play a night game at Milwaukee and Missouri invades Iowa State for the day's only conference game in the Big Six.

Aggies Test LSU

Southern conference tilts send Duke against Wake Forest, North Carolina State against V. M. I. and William and Mary against Virginia Tech while Georgia invades Kentucky in the headliner of a Southeastern conference slate that also sends Vanderbilt to Florida for a night game. Non-conference affairs in the South will find South Carolina at Alabama, Howard at Georgia Tech, Louisiana Tech at Mississippi, Texas A. and M. at Louisiana State, Chattanooga at Tennessee and Detroit colliding with Mississippi State at Memphis in another meeting of undefeated clubs.

In the Southwest, Oklahoma and Texas stage their annual party at Dallas, Tulane moves in against Rice, Arkansas invades Baylor for the only Southwest conference game of the day and unbeaten, unscored on Tulsa will be at Texas Tech at night.

Pacific coast conference competition heightens with California at U. C. L. A., Washington State at Washington and Oregon at Oregon State.

Elsewhere in the west, Southern California will be at San Diego Naval, College of Pacific at St. Mary's, Montana at Utah State, Colorado at Colorado A. and M. and New Mexico at Colorado College.

Undefeated Holy Cross will take on invading Villanova in a Sunday game.

Spur Drops Matador In 4-A Tilt, 14 To 0

SPUR, Oct. 12 (Special)—Spur exploded twice in the third and fourth quarters here tonight to defeat Matador, 14 to 0, for their opening District 4-A victory.

After a scoreless first half during which both teams see-sawed up and down the field, Spur struck late in the third when Quarterback David McAteer rambled over from the eight to climax a 60-yard downfield drive. Halfback Dewey Watson had set up the touchdown with a neat bit of running on a reverse. Center Dean Wright kicked the extra point.

Late in the game, McAteer again counted, this time from the five to climax a 40-yard drive, the tally also set up by Watson's fancy running. Wright again kicked the point. Spur chalked up 12 first downs to eight for Matador. The losers threatened once in the second after recovering a Spur fumble.

James Sharp, right end, shared honors with McAteer and Watson and Wright for the winners with Halfback Payne and Center Lancaster showing up well for the losers.

Sandies Swamp Cubs Before Record Crowd

Amarillo Wins Over Brownfield, 42-6

(Special To The Avalanche)

BROWNFIELD, Oct. 12. — Amarillo High school's Golden Sandstorm blew over the Brownfield Cubs tonight, 42 to 6, before one of the largest football crowds in the history of football here. More than 3,000 fans witnessed the contest.

Amarillo used two full teams and part of a third in swamping the locals except in the second period when it appeared the Cubs would make a fairly close game out of it. The game was a District 1-AA tussle.

Sandies Count Early

The Sandies scored right at the start when Atteberry took a lateral pass which another Sandie back carried approximately 30 yards, to run 21 yards more for the touchdown. Kick for extra point failed but an Amarillo player picked up the ball and ran it over.

The Sandies scored another tally in the first period to make the score 13 to 0, but the Cubs came storming back in the second quarter when Jack Eicke quick-kicked and caught Amarillo off balance. A Sandie fumbled the ball on the next play and the Cubs recovered on the 28-yard line from where the locals carried the ball over, aided by a 15-yard penalty against Amarillo. Eicke plunged over from the two-yard line.

Explodes In The Third

The Sandies came back in the third period to score three more touchdowns; one when Flenniken took a 40-yard pass, another when Collins plunged through the line and the third on an end-run of about 25 yards.

Early in the fourth period, Brown, a Sandie substitute, ran around right end for the final score. All Amarillo goals were kicked.

It was a nip and tuck affair throughout the remainder of the game with the locals holding Amarillo substitutes from further scoring.

Eicke and Franks were outstanding backs for the locals with J. Price, tackle and Bond, end, performing well in their positions.

Plainview Takes Easy 28-0 Win Over Hollis

PLAINVIEW, Oct. 12 (Special)—Plainview high's tough Bulldogs kept their undefeated, untied and unscored on record in perfect shape here tonight with a convincing 28 to 0 decision over Hollis, Okla., in an inter-state contest.

Plainview had command of the situation all of the way and used substitutes throughout the game. The Bulldogs amassed a total of 12 first downs to five for Hollis, chalked up 220 yards rushing and 117 passing to 107 rushing and 15 passing for the visitors. The Bulldogs completed eight of 13 passes, all eight completions by Jack Williams, Plainview's passing ace.

The Bulldogs counted twice in the first period, the Bulldogs scoring early in the opening moments of the game when Right Half Jim Graham went over from the five but fumbled, Fullback Jack Weldon recovering the ball for the opening touchdown. Williams then accounted for the first of the four extra points he made during the night, kicking three and running one.

A few minutes later, Plainview scored again when a Hollis punt was blocked deep in Hollis territory. Williams passed to Jack Bond for 12 and Weldon picked up the remaining distance for the touchdown. The second quarter was scoreless and the half ended, 14 to 0.

In the third, the Bulldogs scored the first time they got their hands on the ball, Williams faking a pass and racing 58 yards to score. The same quarter, the Bulldogs again got possession of the ball deep in Hollis territory. Williams passed to Randolph Hale on the eight. Then Graham plunged five for the last Bulldog score.

Claude May at guard was the line standout for the winners. The game was the fourth straight for the Bulldogs.

Lamesa Cops 6 To 0 Tilt From Big Spring

BIG SPRING, Oct. 12 (Special)—A first quarter touchdown drive, one of several made by the invaders during the game, paid off for the Lamesa Tornadoes and enabled them to edge the Big Spring Steers, 6-0, in a District 3-AA football bout here Friday night that will probably relegate the losers to the conference cellar.

Orv Nieman heaved an eight-yard pass to Bryant Clark for the score, after fumbling the ball on the snap-back in what apparently was to be a stab at the line.

The Tornadoes threatened repeatedly in the last half and twice moved down to the Big Spring one-yard line in the waning moment, only to be repulsed by a scrappy forward wall.

Hugh Cochron spearheaded several drives on the part of the Longhorns but the Lamesans dug in when the going got rough.

Gerald Harris, a converted tackle, broke away on a 46-yard sprint for Big Spring in the second period that saw him cross the double stripes, only to have the play nullified when a Big Spring player was caught holding on the play. It was the only serious threat the home team made all night and the decision seemed to take something out of them.

Game at a glance:

BIG SPRING		LAMESA

9	First downs	8

Borger Upsets Lubbock High, 21 To 19, In Opening District 1-AA Grid Contest

Price Stars In Bulldog Victory

By MACK TURNER
Avalanche-Journal Sports Writer

BORGER, Oct. 12—Milton Price, Borger left halfback, ran and passed the Borger High school Bulldogs to a 21 to 19 upset win over the Lubbock Westerners here tonight before a crowd of 5,000 fans.

Lubbock gained 334 yards from scrimmage to 166 for Borger and made 13 first downs to 11 for the Bulldogs, but Price was the difference in the free-scoring contest. The scat runner passed for one touchdown and ran across the other two Borger scores, one of them a 60-yard pass interception.

Brewer Intercepts Pass

Lubbock kicked off to Borger in the first period and on the third play after the kick-off, George Brewer intercepted a Borger pass on his own 38-yard line and the Westerners marched for the opening score.

Charles Presley, Westerner captain and center, moved into the backfield for tonight's game, made four yards through the line. Don Austin picked up 25 yards, carrying the ball to the Borger 33-yard line. Brewer went to the 27 and Presley made it a first down on the 22-yard line. Presley gained three and Austin lost two yards and then Brewer cracked the line to the Borger 15, driving over tackle for the score on the next play.

Brewer's kick for the extra point was blocked.

Westerner Line Holds

Price took the Lubbock kick-off on his 15-yard line and ran it back to midfield before being pulled down. Borger then marched to the Lubbock two-yard line on steady gains but there the Westerner line held and the ball went over on downs.

Lubbock kicked out to the 40-yard line but Price grabbed the ball and ran it back to the Lubbock 16. Two plays at the line gained six yards and then Price passed to Orman, Borger end, for the touchdown. Dunn converted, making the score 7 to 6.

Brewer took the Borger kick-off on the five-yard line and made his way to the 34 before being tackled. Presley made five yards as the quarter ended.

Presley Goes Over

Short gains worked the ball down to the Borger 15-yard line where Presley carried it over. Brewer's try for extra point was again blocked.

Lubbock kicked off to Borger and McLaughlin took it on the 20-yard stripe, carrying it back 17 yards. Then Price opened up with his accurate passes. He shot one to Dockery on the Lubbock 47 and then flipped another to Sargent who carried it to the 30-yard marker. McLaughlin made three yards through the line and Price again found Sargent on the 15. Another pass to McLaughlin put the ball on the eight-yard line.

Price Fades Back, Runs Over

Arthur Rampy then batted down one of Price's passes and it looked like the locals might hold the Bulldogs again, but Price hit McLaughlin on the five-yard line with another pass. Price then faded back as if to pass on the next play, but instead ran between tackle and end for the touchdown. Dunn again kicked the extra point.

Just before the half ended, Price intercepted a Westerner pass on his own 40-yard line and ran through a broken field, 60 yards for the final Borger tally. Dunn again converted. The halftime score stood Borger 21, Lubbock 12.

The third quarter was a scoreless see-saw affair with Lubbock threatening once, carrying the ball to the Borger 16-yard line. Borger stiffened, however, and the Westerners lost the ball on downs.

On the second play of the final period, Brewer recovered a Borger fumble on the 28-yard line and on the next play scampered the 28 yards to pay dirt. His kick was good, making the score 21 to 19.

The Westerners kicked off to Borger and after two Bulldog line plays, Brewer intercepted one of Price's passes on the Lubbock 38-yard line. The Westerners then appeared to have taken a new lease on life and marched to the Borger 28-yard stripe but lost the ball on downs.

Borger Drives To Lubbock 19

Borger took over at the point and for a few moments, it looked like they were going to widen the margin of scoring, carrying down to Lubbock's 19 only to lose the ball on downs.

The Westerners tried a desperate pass in the closing moments of the game and Crow intercepted on Lubbock's 45, running the ball back to the 34-yard marker. One more play and the game ended in a [illegible] District 1-AA loss for Lubbock.

Phil Hardey of Amarillo, umpire, suffered a leg injury in the closing minutes of the game and had to be carried to a Borger hospital for treatment. It was believed he suffered a fractured bone.

Wildcats Chalk Up Fifth Straight Game

Littlefield Rolls Over Levelland 27 To 0

(Special To The Avalanche)

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 12—Littlefield High's high scoring Wildcats chalked up their fifth straight decision here tonight with a decisive 27 to 0 victory over Levelland in an important District 5-A game. A crowd of 3,500 persons, one of the largest in the history of the town, were in the stands.

The Littlefield machine, scoring in every quarter, thus chalked up its third conference win and ran its scoring total for the season to 280 points to the opposition's 12, an average of 56 points a game. The Wildcats are defending champions of District 5-A.

Arend Scores in First

Littlefield scored late in the first stanza here tonight to start the ball rolling with Halfback Oscar Arend going over from the 10 to climax an 80-yard downfield march. Left End Buster Owens faked a kick and ran the extra point and the hometown lads were off to a good lead.

In the second period, Quarterback Bill Lyman counted for the winners when he plunged over from the six to climax a drive which got underway about midway the field. Owens kicked the extra point over and the halftime count stood at 14 to 0.

Late in the third quarter, Fullback Walter Sewell plunged over from the one-yard line to wind up another 50-yard drive and Owens missed the try for extra point.

The Wildcats exploded again early in the fourth frame when Arend again took the oval and on a reverse galloped over from the 15. Owens took a pass for the extra point and that was the scoring for the night. Levelland threatened once in the second quarter, driving to the eight before the Wildcats' forward line stiffened and took the ball over on downs.

Sedative For Joe Citizen

Truman Statement Comforting

NOT the least bit too soon, President Truman passed along some comforting news the other day.

(1) He is not worried about Russia.

(2) He is not worried about labor.

Joe Citizen, reasoning that if anyone has cause to worry it is the President of the United States, should feel better at that.

Solid Mr. Truman told newsmen the recent meeting of the Council of Foreign Ministers in London must not be considered a failure by any means; there is no clash of American interests with those of Russia.

He further stated he is not alarmed about the labor situation, that the current wave of "stoppages" is a natural outgrowth of the war and that he feels no concern about the prospects of re-adjusting the differences between labor and management.

The President, at the same time, ventured a new cause for the friction which seems inevitably to crop up whenever the Russians and U. S. and British representatives sit down together. He said that in any verbal pow-wow with the Russians a free and easy exchange is hindered by the difference in language. "We don't have a common language," he said, "and sometimes translations are not all the same."

The President may be right. Translations which do not convey the exact meaning of English statements may account for the sudden outbursts of temper, the "sniffs" and the walkout characteristics of Russian conferees.

If the language difficulty is a serious obstacle to peaceful discussions, it appears as something which could be easily overcome—even if the participants are forced to the use of "pig latin."

Mr. Truman, of course, did not mean that the matter of language is all that lies behind the recurring coolness between the two nations.

The presidential talk should serve as a sedative for Joe Citizen, whose joyousness at the end of the war has been colored in the last month by forebodings of a breakdown in industry and a division with Stalin's big, black bear.

Abdication May Be Way Out

COMING events may establish Uncle Sam, wilfully or unwittingly, as the author of a sly scheme to give the boot to Emperor Hirohito with the least possible riffle of Japanese placidity.

A few days ago, Washington took perhaps the most bodacious step yet against the land of buck teeth, announcement of plans to abolish Shinto as a state religion, which Hirohito heads in addition to his duties as nominal leader of the government. He is, the Jap believes, the direct descendant of the sun-goddess Amaterasnzak, who may have at one time or the other played right guard for Fordham university.

As Columnist DeWitt Mackenzie suggested the other day, the plans to separate Shinto and the state puts Hirohito on the coals. Can the emperor afford to do anything but abdicate when to retain his position would be tantamount to divesting himself of a divinity which supposedly dates back 2,600 years or more? Mackenzie thinks not; he predicts the Mikado will step out.

It seems logical to assume that by remaining on the throne, sans the protective cloak of divinity, Hirohito more likely would be subject to trial as a war criminal.

Whether the "Son of God" should be punished or given immunity as a necessary evil has been one of the touchy phases of occupation policy.

By abdication, surreptitiously engineered by the Allies, the way would be paved for trying Hirohito as the head of the state at the time it launched the war against the United States. This would avoid possible repercussions among the Japanese people which might follow the submitting of their deity to a tribunal.

Hirohito probably realizes his position, and his abdication is not too far-fetched to expect.

Color Distinction Test Due

UNDER consideration in the House of Representatives is a bill which will test anew our attitude on color distinction. Proposed is the removal of East Indians from the barred zone for immigration.

Many high-placed Americans have criticized the British for drawing the color line in the Far East. They blamed the British policy for the failure of the Burmese, Malayans and the people of India to rally around the Union Jack when the Japanese came. The fate of this proposal will reveal to these identical Americans how strong or weak their voice has been.

The zone, drawn by Congress in 1917 and defined by laititude and longitude, includes India, Siam, Indo-China, Malaya and certain islands in Oceania, a geographical area extending from Australia, in the west, to the most easterly islands of Polynesia, in the east, and from New Zealand, in the south, to Micronesia and the Sandwich islands, in the north.

East Indians are barred also by the act of 1924 closing immigration to persons ineligible for citizenship.

If Indians are permitted to immigate, they will come under the quota system in effect for other countries, including China. Under this system the number allowed to enter would be a 100 a year.

THE GREAT OLYMPIA CIRCUS

Whatever harm the summer in Guernsey may have done to my father's bank account, it did at least restore my brother's health in an almost miraculous fashion. He loved the island so much that father arranged to leave him there in a Catholic seminary conducted by the Jesuit fathers, who maintained a lighter discipline than at Beaumont College. Father stayed with us long enough to conduct what the army terms "mopping up operations" on our family affairs and then returned to Canada.

After spending a few weeks in Dusseldorf, mother, grandmama, and I went to Berlin in October, and I rejoined Ograinsky's troupe for the coming three-month tour of the famous Hagenbeck Circus, which was to cover all Germany, Belgium, and Holland, and play a Christmas engagement at the Winter Garden in Berlin.

After the Winter Garden we played a music-hall tour through Austria and Poland. My mother was touring with her concerts in Germany. One night in Warsaw, grandmama saw the World War in the cards — she was sometimes very clever in predicting things —and she was filled with such grave forebodings that she prevailed upon Ograinsky to get a booking in Paris. Sherek was cabled and got a date for us at the old Cirque Nouveau, and we arrived in Paris just two or three days before the declaration of war.

Paris was in an uproar, and everything was disorganized. Foreign artists (many from enemy countries) were being hustled about, so between one thing and another our opening was postponed. Mother was trying to get back to Paris from Germany and had succeeded in involving herself in a terrible mess on the Swiss-German frontier.

Finally she arrived by train in a horse car crowded with refugees. Her only remaining piece of luggage was a round hat-box with a mauve feather boa in it. She had been treated with the greatest discourtesy by the Germany officials at the frontier, and her fur coat had been stolen.

As soon as mother had recovered from her fatiguing experience and bought some more clothes, we decided to go to London, grandmama's agents Sherek and Braff having booked us to play the Coliseum, which was then considered the best music hall in London.

We opened at the Coliseum and were immediately booked for the London Music Halls circuit and the Moss Stoll Northern tour through England and Scotland if we wanted it. The Orgianisky Wonder Children were beginning to go places, and we got a better spot on the bill after our opening night. We played two shows a day, so I was able to have a governess in the mornings, and three times a week we went for dancing lessons at the Lupino School of Acrobatic Dancing near Shaftesbury Avenue.

Circus acts had gravitated to London from all parts of war-torn Europe and had amalgamated to form an immense spectacle called the "International Circus" under a syndicate of prominent showmen and newspapermen. The list of head-liners booked for the circus was sufficient to throw Ograinsky into a veritable frenzy of rehearsing, and he decided that from the end of October on we would take no more bookings but concentrate on polishing up the different acts for the big show at the Olympio, the huge stadium equivalent to New York's Madison Square Garden.

He rented an old riding academy near the Olympia which was without heat and far too low for the height we would have to work in the circus. Naturally we were all ill from the cold, and we suffered from stiff muscles that prevented our sleeping at night, but Ograinsky put any ailment in children down to overeating. He had a book we had to sign every morning before working, to record whether we had functioned normally. If not, it was castor oil immediately, or some other equally fetid concoction of grandmama's.

We had a brilliant opening and quite a lot of publicity on our own work; the entire show was a success, playing to capacity houses at every performance. There were two famous flying acts, that were of course adult performers. They did double and triple turns in the air and many other feats which we children were not able to do.

One of them — the original troupe of the Zimgannos whom we knew from the Cenicelli Circus in Russia—had for their finishing stunt a complete blackout of the lights, and worked with luminous paint on their tights in a design representing jagged streaks of lightning. As their bodies shot through the air from trapeze to trapeze, there were drum rolls for thunder, and the effect was most thrilling, especially when they purposely missed a trick and dropped into the net All they used as guides for their spacing and to avoid knocking into each other were balls (used to give weight and balance to the long bars) painted with the luminous paint on each end of their trapeze. Many acts have since copied the idea, but I have never seen any of them do it as the Zimgannos did.

Ograinsky used to watch these great performers and got so much inspiration from their work that he nearly killed us trying to copy them. Both grandmama and Ograinsky felt that we were reaching the zenith of their hopes and that the Olympia Circus with such a galaxy of big acts was the taking-off point for a fabulous career.

Looking At Life ------ By Erich Brandeis

STEVE is the boy who helps me with my garden and does the handy work around the house.

Steve is nineteen, and every once in a while I have him come into the house and talk.

He makes me remember the time when I was nineteen and, when I listen to him, I wonder whether kids in my days were really different from what they are today, or whether it is just that he is a country kid and I was a city boy.

In addition to working for me, Steve also works on his father's farm. He gets up at about five a. m. and works until after five in the afternoon.

BRANDEIS

Then, once or twice a week, he comes to my place and works until dark. But he likes it and thinks that people who live in a pile of stones in a big city and punch timeclocks are crazy.

He has never been in New York and, when I asked him whether he wanted to come in with me some day, he said, "No."

"I've been in Danbury," he said, "and all the difference I can see between Brookfield and Danbury is that Danbury is bigger. And I've been in Bridgeport, which is six times as big as Danbury, and the only difference there was that it was still bigger and dirtier and noisier."

Steve doesn't like girls very much.

"They always want something," he says, "and when you give it to them they want more. You can't satisfy girls, so I leave 'em alone.

"And all they think about is marriage and who wants to marry? As far as I can see, all a woman gets when she marries is a lot of kids and more work. Maybe I'll get married some day, but so far I can do my own work."

Steve doesn't have much use for flowers or for trees, unless you raise the trees for firewood or for lumber.

"What good are flowers?" he asks. "You can't eat them and they are nothing but a lot of trouble and work.

"Corn and tomatoes and carrots and beans — there's some sense to that. You work for them and then they work for you. But you get nothing out of flowers when you figure all the work there is to raising them."

SOMETIMES I feel sorry for Steve, and then again I wonder whether he hasn't more sense than we have.

I guess when you are brought up on a farm—and Steve was—you learn that there isn't much use of worrying about things you can't do anything about. There's winter and summer and rain and sun and snow and bugs, no matter how much trouble," Steve said. "We country folks don't believe in borrowing anything unless we can pay it back. And trouble is something you can't pay back."

Well, I didn't have an answer to that.

But there's one thing which Steve misses completely — and I think most farmers miss it as well:

We may borrow trouble that we can't pay back, but it's so wonderful to find out that the thing that you worried about didn't happen at all.

That's one of the things dreams are made of.

But the Steves of this world don't dream.

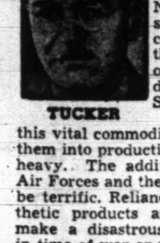

The National Whirligig

Oil Shortage Serious Matter

WASHINGTON
By Ray Tucker

THE ICKES mission to London to negotiate an Anglo-American oil agreement and President Truman's proclamation extending our sovereignty over petroleum-rich tidewater areas were not accidental happenings. Once the owner of the world's greatest supply of this key peacetime and wartime product, Uncle Sam has drawn so heavily on his oil that he could encounter serious shortages within a few years.

The Ickes-negotiated deal with London provides for orderly production and distribution of oil from wells in the Middle East, where American interests have heavy concessions. The application of a Monroe Doctrine to deposits on the continental shelf off California, the Gulf and the Atlantic Coast from Florida to North Carolina is designed to insure us a supply when other sources run dry. Geologists estimate that there is more petroleum in offshort areas than has yet been drilled on dry land in the United States.

TUCKER

The U. S. has other sources of this vital commodity, but it will take years to bring them into production and the cost will be extremely heavy. The additional toll for our Army, Navy, Air Forces and the everyday consumer of gas would be terrific. Reliance on tar sands, coal, shale, synthetic products and tidewater production would make a disastrous dent in our national economy in time of war or peace.

Whereas gasoline now sells at an average price of nineteen or twenty cents a gallon, depletion of our existing wells and resort to substitutes would boost the cost to thirty or forty cents. The automobile would be a luxury instead of a family necessity, and Herbert Hoover's almost realized dream of "two cars in every garage" would become a mirage.

IMPORTER: The United States has changed from an exporter into an importer of this product. The domestic deficiency caused by the war, together with the discovery of new foreign fields which can be developed at lower costs by reason of wage differentials, has turned us to new sources of supply.

It is not generally known that the U. S. provided approximately eighty per cent of the oil used by the United Nations' armies, navies, air forces and transport systems during World War II. British supplies in the Near East were unavailable until after Italy surrendered, and even then there were not sufficient refineries in operation in that area. Russia was so blockaded that there were times when we shipped petroleum to that mineral-rich country.

In May, 1945, we were turning out 5,183,000 barrels a day, including by-products, as against 3,861,000 before the war. From the invasion of Poland to V-J day, the United States produced 8,866,000 barrels of oil, or thirty per cent of the total amount that has been produced within our boundaries since the discovery of petroleum lands in 1857!

It is now estimated that our present known reserves will last for only fourteen years. New discoveries of oil desposits equal only one-third of our annual peacetime consumption.

Temporarily, thanks to the Ickes mission, we hope to draw on Middle and Near East resources. Thus we can hoard our stuff at home. But eventually the costly synthetics and substitutes listed above may be need to keep our military machine running and peacetime cars on the roads.

COLLAPSE: Although the Council of Ministers in London ended in a more complete collapse than the spokesmen for the great and small nations assembled there have yet admitted, the convocation did clarify the position of the United States and Great Britain.

The United States and Great Britain intend to maintain their prestige and their rights vis-a-vis Russia. Messrs. Truman and Byrnes, aided by the bull-doggish Ernest Bevin of England, have scrapped the soft promises and suggestions made to Stalin by the late President Roosevelt and former Prime Minister Churchill at the Teheran and Yalta conferences.

Needing the Red Army's aid against both Germany and Japan, those two leaders promised the dictator in the Kremlin a free hand in eastern Europe and in the Balkans. And now "Uncle Joe" demands that he be cut into the Japanese kitty.

Naturally, the French and the Chinese were affronted by Stalin's insistence that they have no voice in discussion of European problems. What Paris and Chungking fear is that Moscow aims to reduce them to the status of second-or third-rate nations in so far as world affairs are concerned. With their great interests in the Far East, France and China insist that they be treated as partners rather than poor relations.

SHREWD: "Jimmie" Byrnes has no extended background in international affairs. But he was shrewd enough to sidestep that trap.

Taking the long-range view, he realized that the day may come when Great Britain and the United States will need the aid and friendship of France and the 400,000,000 Chinese. So Mr. Byrnes, at the risk of antagonizing Molotov and Stalin, sided with France and China.

The Attlee-Bevin government backed him up, and so has President Truman. As a consequence of the London breakup, Russia must now decide whether she wants to be an international lone wolf or to join the family of nations on terms agreeable to the other members.

The betting is that, after some hemming and hawing, Premier Stalin will compromise when, as seems probable, he sits down with President Truman and Prime Minister Attlee some time between Thanksgiving and Christmas.

TEXAS
By Gordon Shearer

AUSTIN—Political office-holders come and go, but Eddie Posey keeps right on minding his business of shining shoes and watching the passing parade.

Eddie is 44 years old, and for 30 of those years he has toted his little shine box around state departments and the city fire department.

A graduate of Samuel Huston Negro college here with a bachelor of arts degree in education, Eddie is a frequent visitor in the capitol press news room. After he reads the dozens of newspapers which come in daily, he's frequently heard explaining news events to less educated porters.

Eddie's not married — says he hasn't found time. But he's shined the shoes of the great and the small. His customary price is 10 cents for which he always expresses appreciation when paid.

But if you add a tip, his comment is always: "Thank you very much for your kindness."

Significant Change Noted Under Truman

Co-Ordinate Government Returns

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON—President Truman's first six months in the White House were completed Friday. It is a natural occasion for taking stock.

Much is being said about various phases of his administration thus far. There is one significant change of approach by the President that has occurred and it is worth some analysis and discussion.

STOKES

For a dozen years, under the late Franklin D. Roosevelt, we had emphasis on the White House and on the dynamic leader.

Harry Truman has chosen to alter that. Instead of what Republicans were loud in condemning as "one-man government," we now have under President Truman an attempt to get back to what is sometimes called co-ordinate government. This calls for more delegation of responsibility to cabinet officers, the heads of government departments, and more co-operative relationship with Congress.

The change has served to dramatize the instability of the present government structure—particularly Congress—to readjust itself and make co-ordinate government really effective.

During the years of the New Deal, as far as the executive end of government went, there grew up a multitude of special and independent agencies with considerable power in their own right, beholden to none of the regular departments or cabinet officers. Some of the heads of these special agencies were much better known to the public than cabinet officers. This was true especially during the war, when this tendency toward superstructure agencies was intensified.

As far as Congress went, that body found itself overawed by this overloaded executive structure and handicapped further by its own cumbersome, out-of-date, and inefficient legislative machinery. Congress actually developed an inferiority complex which it confessed by protesting about "downtown bureaucrats" and "long-haired economists." Economists always offer a handy target.

ALL about now are examples of the defects both in the executive and congressional machinery as the government seeks to adjust itself to the White House change of approach and pressing postwar problems which won't wait.

The end of the war brought the expected cropping out of labor trouble, for example. It was discovered anew, as President Truman and others had discovered long ago, that agencies concerned with handling labor disputes were scattered all around, with varying jurisdictions and no central responsibility. The President moved quickly to bring them together under the Labor department and its new secretary. He has done this also with other agencies, tying them into regular departments.

Further, he asked Congress some time ago for authority to reorganize the whole government. The House has passed a bill giving him such authority, with but few restrictions.

Bottlenecks In Congress

In the case of Congress, the groaning and creaking and the bottlenecks also are obvious. For instance, after the Senate Finance committee had been working for some time on the temporary unemployment compensation bill, its attention was called to a conflict with state laws. This could have been known ahead of time if Congress had sufficient research facilities which it now lacks.

The House ways and means committee later shelved that same bill, denying the House itself an opportunity to legislate. Only last week the Senate got itself tied up over what committee should consider the atomic energy bill.

The whole question of party responsibility has been raised by the refusal of some Southern Democrats to support parts of the administration reconversion program.

These are but samples, picked at random.

UNLESS Congress revises its cumbersome procedures and overhauls its out-of-date machinery it can not handle properly the great problems before it. This is important if our democracy is to work. Seeing that something is done is a matter of interest to every citizen.

Because of this, and because the whole subject will be presented to Congress soon in a report by a joint committee which has investigated it, headed by Senator LaFollette (Prog., Wis.) and Rep. Monroney (D., Okla.), the problems involved will be explored and analyzed in subsequent columns.

Three Persons Die In Flaming Wreck

LUFKIN, Oct 12. (UP)—Three persons, one of them unidentified, were burned to death last night when the automobile in which they were riding went out of control, crashed into roadside woods and caught fire.

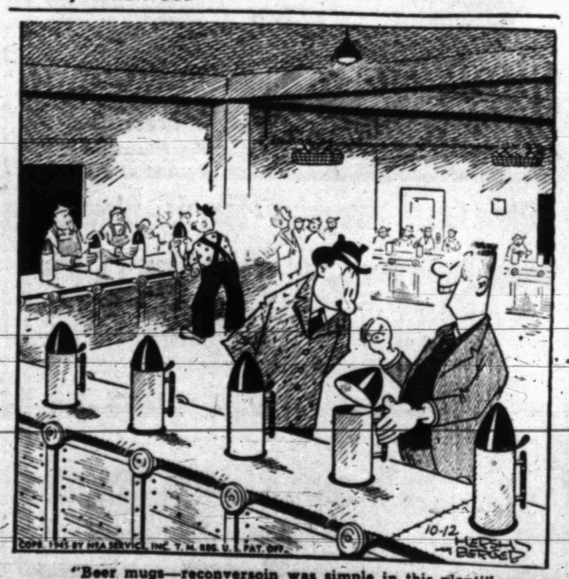

In the car at the time of the crash were R. M. Culberson, 57-year-old Lufkin businessman, and his mother, Mrs. I. M. Lee, 73, and an unidentified man.

Lufkin authorities presumed that the third party had been picked up by Culberson as they returned home from Houston.

STOCKS LET UP

NEW YORK, Oct. 12 (AP)—After touching new average highs for nearly nine years in five successive sessions, the stock market developed a little hesitancy as the short week finished.

While gains of fractions to better than two points were plentiful in Thursday's proceedings, losses of as much dotted the ticker tape.

Blame for the irregularity, with tapering dealings, was placed mainly on the cashing of profits by customers who wished protection over the lengthy week-end.

The Associated Press 60-stock composite Thursday was unchanged at 72.6, highest mark since March 17, 1937, but for the week showed a net advance of .7 of a point. The utility average in the last session established a top since March 10, 1937. Daily volumes ranged from 1,560,000 to 1,780,000 shares.

Bonds and commodities took a rest as the week closed but most displayed strength over the four days. Wheat futures climbed to their best figures in 20 years.

Gen. Walker To Head Homecoming Party For "Lost Battalion"

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 12 (AP) The 36th division will be represented by Maj. Gen. Fred L. Walker at the homecoming of the 131st Field Artillery battalion here Oct. 29.

General Walker led the 36th in campaigns in North Africa, Sicily and Italy. He will be the personal representative of Secretary of War Robert P. Patterson at the celebration.

To Honor Battalion Men

Wichita Falls, home of many 131st veterans, has been designated the official site of the celebration honoring returning members of the battalion, which was detached from the 36th division and sent to the Pacific at the outbreak of hostilities.

More than 600 Texans in the outfit went to Java in February, 1942, after Java was over-run their fate remained a mystery for many months. After more than 43 months in Japanese prison camps, members of the "Lost Battalion" who survived were released last August.

Gov. Coke Stevenson has proclaimed Oct. 29 as "Lost Battalion" day throughout Texas.

A memorial to the dead will be held here Oct. 28-29.

Strike Threats

strikes are deplorable. Desperation drives people to strike. We should provide an effective means of arbitration."

Labor's own argument was made at a meeting of CIO delegations from nine southern states with their congressmen. Paul Schuler of New Orleans, representative of the Textile Workers Union of America, urged a congressional investigation of current strikes and asserted it would show that in most cases "employers were unwilling to bargain in good faith."

Many States Involved

Immediately involved in the request filed by the Chicago office of the Central States Drivers council were companies in Michigan, Ohio, Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, Iowa, Missouri, North Dakota, South Dakota, Nebraska and Kansas.

The Solid Fuels administration reported that 193,063 men were idle at 923 strike-bound coal mines today. Production loss was estimated at 1,075,000 tons a day and cumulative loss since September 21 amounts to more than 9,700,000 tons.

Elsewhere in the Labor department the concilation service took a hand in the violent AFL jurisdictional strike in Hollywood movie studioes, ordering Conciliation Commissioner Earl J. Ruddy of Los Angeles to step in at once.

Dismantling of the War Labor board, wartime stabilizer of industrial relations, got under way as Chairman George W. Taylor cleared his desk to quite the government Oct. 15. The board itself is due to fold up at the year's end.

Argentine Tension

ported torn by bitter dissention over whether to accept Farrell's resignation and turn the government over to the supreme court.

Gen. Orlando Peluffo, one of the leaders of the officers who took upon themselves the task of remodelling the government after the Army's big Camp De Mayo garrison two days ago ousted Juan Peron from the vise-presidency and war ministry, disclosed that Farrell's resignation "is in our hands."

The Army-Navy group was sharply split, some demanding that the supreme court be allowed to take over and others predicting civil war would result if it did.

Army-Navy Demand

A joint Army-Navy demand served upon Farrell produced the cabinet's resignations, and replace them with civilian notables.

Late today, however, these leaders were reported adamant in refusing to serve under Farrell.

It appeared that the next step was for Farrell to get out.

Two cabinet posts were re-filled after the mass resignation—Gen. Eduardo J. Avalos, commander of the big Campo De Mayo garrison which overthrew Peron, was reappointed minister of war, and Rear Admiral Hector Vernengo Lima was named new minister of marine.

To observers following the day's hectic, contradictory developments, Vernengo Lima seemed to have replaced Avalos as the architect of the nation's political structure.

Domei said that the special session of the Diet also would investigate Japan's extraordinary military expenditures account which is reported to have paid out approximately $14,700,000 since 1937.

Arouses Public Suspicion

Domei declared the secret account had "aroused public suspicion in connection with reported unauthorized disposal of munitions" by the mflitarists.

Meanwhile MacArthur's headquarters was notified that the Japanese home naval and air fleet headquarters had been abolished in compliance with MacArthur's directive.

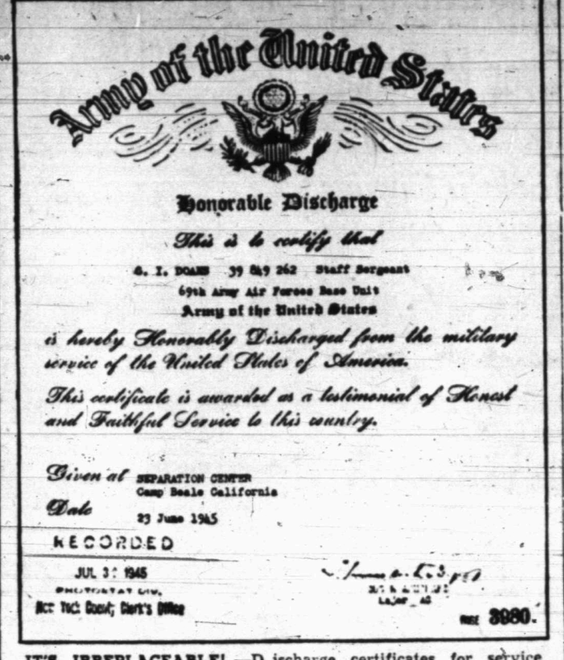

The Japanese overseas fleet headquarters was kept active, however, "to insure order within the forces under its command," Japanese authorities said.

Battleships Start Trip To U. S. Soon

PEARL HARBOR, Oct. 12, (AP) —The Battleships California and Tennessee will leave Japanese waters about Oct. 15 for Singapore en route home, the Navy said today.

They will be the first U. S. battleships to said into Singapore since before the fall of the great British naval base in 1942.

IT'S IRREPLACEABLE! —D ischarge certificates for service in World War II are precious to the men and women who hold them. If they are lost they cannot be replaced, although the adjutant general's office (Army) or judge advocate general's office (Navy) will issue certificates showing previous possession upon proper application and explanation. Veterans' officials urge great care in preserving certificates and suggest that all certificates should be recorded with county officials as indicated in the lower left hand corner of the picture of a discharge above.

"For the first time in world history, a nation which had a large and undefeated Army and a substantial air force was forced to surrender," he said in regard to Japan. "Sea power had made it possible for us to capture bases from which Army land based air power began the systematic destruction of Japan. While B-29's and other air craft were pounding Japanese industry and military installations, our submarines, surface ships and aircraft established a blockade which in time utterly paralyzed the Japanese economy."

Russian-occupied city).

The group said Japanese civilian work parties had been drafted for labor in the great Fushun coal fields, near Mukden, and that other work parties were dismantling factories and industrial installations for removal to Russia.

The former French official said some of the heaviest crates of Japanese-built engines, machine-tools and lathes were marked for delivery to the Ukraine.

(It has not been disclosed what if any, provisions for the disposition of Japanese industrial assets in Manchuria were included in the Russo-Chinese agreement signed last August. The Chinese have been counting heavily on Manchuria's industries to aid in their own reconstruction.)

Strikers At Rubber Plants Back On Job

PORT ARTHUR, Oct. 12 (AP)—The three-week strike at two Texas rubber plants ended today when employes of the Goodrich and Firestone plants returned to work.

Full production was held up by failure to obtain supplies from the still-closed Neches-Butant Co. plant here. The butane plant supplies raw material for the rubber plants.

W. H. Hoffman, manager of the Neches-Butane Co., said today that pickets are expected to be called off soon.

W. J. Trobley, representative of the Oil Workers International union (CIO) said negotiations are still underway between officials and union.

Judge Says Negroes Can Vote In Georgia

MACON, Ga., Oct. 12. (AP) — Negroes were held entitled to vote in Democratic white primaries in Georgia under a decision handed down today by Federal Judge T. Hoyt Davis, of the Middle Georgia district.

Judge Davis ruled that primaries are an integral part of the election machinery.

"The Democratic party is the dominant and controlling political party in Georgia," his decision said. "No other party has held a statewide primary during the past 40 years."

In neighboring Alabama, Federal Judge C. B. Kennamer dismissed a suit at Montgomery against two members of the Macon county Ala., board of registrars, charging refusal to register a negro for voting.

Dock Strike Slows Return Of Troops

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12 (AP)—The Army and War Shipping administration called upon striking longshoremen in New York harbor to return to work to prevent further delay in the return of veterans from overseas.

Secretary of War Patterson and Vice Admiral Emory S. Land, war shipping administrator, telegraphed Joseph P. Ryan, president of the International Longshoremen's association, an urgent request use his influence to get the man back to work.

The situation in New York harbor has "materially retarded the return of American troops from Europe," they told Ryan.

Sixteen Liberty and Victory ships are at present idle in the harbor because of the failure of longshoremen to load or unload the vessels, the officials said.

Some of the flood's excess has already started flowing into floodways southwest of McAllen.

International Boundary Commission Engineer J. L. Lytel said the river front levees in Cameron county are under patrol with water already reaching some of them, although no danger was yet in sight.

Transfer Of British Liners May Delay Troops' Homecoming

LONDON, Oct. 12 (AP)—U. S. Army headquarters announced today that transfer of the Cunard liners Queen Elizabeth and Aquitania from American troop service to British use made it doubtful if the "back home" schedule for fighting men can be met.

Commenting on the announcement of Alfred Barnes, British minister of war transport, that the liners were being taken out of American service, the Army said shipping space for at least 125,000 American soldiers in the next three months had been lost.

Delays High Point Vets

Definitely delayed, it was stated, is the return home of 80 point men who fought in Europe and who were to have been cleared for home by the end of October.

The 80-pointers will be given highest priority, however, and the last of this group may be on the way home by the early part of November.

There were no estimates when 70-point men may be returned.

Increase In December

"If the shipping allotment for this theater is increased to compensate for the loss of these ships December shipments will be stepped up to meet the target of only 707,000 men remaining here by Jan. 1," the Army statement said.

Earlier it had been planned to ship out the bulk of non-essential men during October and November.

Shortly after it was announced the British were recalling the Queen Elizabeth and Aquitania to British service it was learned that the Queen would start carrying Canadians home withing 10 days.

The Aquitania, it was reported, will be used at least temporarily to carry Australian soldiers to their homeland.

The Army said it had planned to use the two ships for four more voyages to carry some 80,000 soldiers. Barnes said the Queen Mary will remain at the disposal of the Americans.

Japs' Radar System Couldn't Distinguish Own Planes From U.S.

TOKYO, Oct. 12. (AP)—Japan's radar defense was so ineffective that it could not tell whether approaching planes were its own or American, Fifth Air Force experts reported today after inspecting the Tokyo fighter control center.

Neither could the radar indicate the weight or number of planes.

The Japanese had no effective method of plotting positions of their own planes. They had no homing beacon and no air-sea rescue system or pilots forced down, said Col. E. Blair Garland, Rochester, N. Y.

Americans watched Japanese, headed by Col. N. Saso, staff officer in charge of the center, give a demonstration of battle conditions. The information was funnelled to the center from 1,600 observation posts and radar stations in the Tokyo area. Garland said that was several times too many.

"What kind of a rescue system did you have for pilots shot down at sea?" asked Lt. Col. Henry C. Bryd, jr., Wilmington, N. C., radar expert.

"At first we asked the Navy to pick up our pilots," Sago said. Then, spreading his hands in a helpless gesture, he added, "later on, there was no navy."

Strong Union Of Vets Urged For Protection

CHICAGO, Oct. 12. (U.P)—Milton D. Cohn, Buffalo, N. Y., national commander of the disabled American veterans, urged today organization of a strong council of veterans groups to combat forces which he said were attempting to curb veterans benefits.

Speaking at the opening session of the first annual convention of the American veterans of World War II, Cohn said such a council could eliminate overlapping of activities of the various member groups and channel all their legislative efforts in one direction.

Frenchman Tells 'Salty' Story Of Queer Goings-On Over Manchuria

By JAMES D. WHITE
Associated Press Staff Writer

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12. — Manchuria, breadbasket of Asia and the nearest thing to an industrial base in all the East, seems in something of an uproar.

This much is clear from the account of a jittery Frenchman who caught a plane out of Mukden, Manchuria's Pittsburgh. His account his been cabled back by Associated Press correspondent Spencer Davis from Peiping.

WHITE

The nervous Frenchman, M. Rennere, had been counsul - general in Mukden. He said the Russians gave him 36 hours to get out.

It is impossible to say how much salt should be taken with this account, but here is the gist of it, throwing possible light on what has gone on in one of the most important areas in Asia since Japan surrendered.

Puppet Chinese Revolt

First, Japan's puppet Chinese troops revolted the same day it was announced Manchuria would revert to China. That was August 17.

A puppet governor formed a provisional government and sent a message of loyalty to Chungking two days later. That night Soviet troops arrived.

Somebody — one suspects the Japanese because they have done it elsewhere—threw open Japanese Army warhouses to the public, which started a wave of looting which spread to civilian homes.

August 20, General Marionovsky of the Russian Red Army accepted Japanese surrender, but Chinese laborers continued looting and raping.

Soviets Tighten Controls

The situation got worse, with shooting. The Soviet commandant tightened his control as he got more troops.

Enter now what called itself the Chinese Communist Eighth Route Army, swarming in from the hills of Jehol and Liaoning where the Japanese had never been able to subdue either Communists, bandits or Manchurian guerrillas.

Two groups appeared, one headed by a General Chung Chiu-Ling, and another by a General Li Lung-Chang, both claiming to be Chinese Red leaders.

They competed in recruiting former puppet soldiers to whom they gave Japanese arms. It is impossible to tell which force, if either, is genuine.

Told To Clear Out

In any case the Russians wearied of all this and Oct. 2 told the Chinese Communist troops — real or phony — to pull out of Mukden and disband. They stopped railway traffic, apparently to prevent large-scale movements of these idle forces.

That's M. Rennere's story, and he adds that the Russians now are ripping out Japanese machinery and sending it to the Ukraine via the trans-Siberian railway.

If true, this would be a serious charge, and one which could strain the recent series of treaties between China and Russia.

Authority Exists For State Labor Court

AUSTIN, Oct. 12 (AP)—Gov. Coke Stevenson has been taken to task by Lt. Governor John Lee Smith for his stand with relation to the establishment of a court dealing with labor relations.

At a press conference Gov. Stevenson said that while a state court for arbitration of labor-management disputes might be useful, it probably would be necessary to amend the constitution in order to establish it.

Smith said he was "sure Coke has not read his constitution lately" or he would know that Sec. I, Art. V vests in the legislature the authority to create "other courts" than the ones named.

According to Smith the wording of the statute "clearly implies" the right to establish such a labor controversy court as part of our judicial system.

Strikes Loom For Three Texas Mills

DALLAS, Oct. 12 (AP)—A strike looms in three of Texas' largest cotton textile mills next Tuesday.

Paul Schuler, New Orleans, regional director of the Textile Workers Union of America (CIO) said today in Washington that a strike vote will be held Sunday in Mexia and Itasca, and that a strike already had been voted in Hillsboro. He said the strike would begin Tuesday, Oct. 16.

Approximately 1,000 workers are involved. Issues include demands for a written contract, which the union says has been denied by mill owners. Vacation with pay is also asked, although an agreement has been reached on basic wages.

Schuler said officers of 10 CIO textile unions throughout Texas would meet Sunday in Hillsboro and take a vote, which he said should be favorable, on the question of permitting locals to cast independent strike votes.

MADISON, Fla., Oct. 12. (AP) — A young negro under indictment for assault with intent to rape a five-year-old white girl, was taken from the county jail either late Wednesday night or early Thursday morning and shot to death, Sheriff Lonnie Davis reported.

Sheriff Davis said yesterday that the negro, Jesse James Payne, was returned to the jail here from the state prison Tuesday for arraignment. He had pleaded innocent to the charges. His case had been scheduled for trial Tuesday.

Gov. Millard Caldwell at Tallahassee said he had received only a "sketchy report" on the affair but would start an immediate investigation.

Plan Offered To Curb Juvenile Delinquency

DALLAS, Oct. 12 (UP)—To help curb juvenile delinquency, the 200,000 member state Baptist Training union has proposed Saturday night meetings of youths 13 to 25 years old in 3,250 Texas Baptist churches.

The union's executive committee, meeting in Dallas, said the gatherings would be titled Adventurers for Christ with the slogan "straight from the bow of God into the heart of the world."

Included on the contemplated programs will be music, testimony, recreation, visual education and brief talks by young people.

Prisoners May Have Been Buried Alive

WIESBADEN, Oct. 12. (U.P.)—The possibility that some of the 400-odd Russians and Poles executed at the Hadamar insane asylum may have been buried alive was admitted today by the asylum undertaker.

The defendant, Philip Blum, one of seven Nazi defendants charged with the mass murders, admitted under cross-examination that he made no attempt to find out if any of the victims were alive before heaping them into a common grave.

Blum told how an estimated 60 to 70 Russians and Poles, including a two year old baby and a child of four, were given injections of drugs to "dispose" of them.

Chicken Thief Is Warned Of Poison

GLASGOW, Mont., Oct. 12 (AP)—Police Chief Bennie Sather sent out urgent warnings today in an effort to save the thief who stole a chicken from a farmer's automobile last night.

The bird, said Sather, was stuffed with poison.

He explained that the farmer had intended to use it to poison magpies and that there was enough of a lethal dose in the chicken to kill several persons.

No Big Drop Seen In Beef Cattle Feeding

WASHINGTON, Oct. 12. (AP). — The Agriculture department said today the number of beef cattle to be fed during the coming winter may be about the same as last season.

Winter-fed cattle provide most of the late winter, spring and early summer supply of beef.

The number of cattle on feed last season was reported at 4,173,000 head as of last January 1, compared with 3,967,000 for the year earlier and with the record of 4,445,000 on Jan. 1, 1943.

The department said there may be considerable variations from last year among regions. Present indications point to an increase in the eastern corn belt; a decrease in the great plains area form Kansas to Texas, and to little change in Far western states. It said the total for the western corn belt may be little changed, with increases in some states offsetting decreases in others.

German General Must Die For Yanks' Death

ROME, Oct. 12 (U.P.)—A five-man American military commission today sentenced German Gen. Anton Dostler to death before a firing squad for ordering the summary execution of 15 American soldiers in violation of the Geneva conventions.

The court, in a precedent-setting verdict that may affect hundreds of German officers, dismissed a defense argument that Dostler merely was carrying out the command of a superior officer, in this case Marshal Albert Kesselring, then German commander in Italy.

Lt. Leatherman Dies In Crash In Japan

First Lt. David S. Leatherman, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Leatherman of Plainview, pilot of a C-46 troop carrier, was killed in a plane crash in Japan Sept. 22, the parents have been notified by the War department.

Lt. Weatherman was based on Biak, and from a recent letter received by his parents, it was surmised that he had gone from his base via Manila to take occupation troops into Japan.

A former Texas Tech student, Lt. Leatherman was graduated from Plainview high school in 1942. He was commissioned at Fort Sumner, N. M., Army Air field in April, 1944, and received transitional and transport flying training at Austin. He went to the Pacific with the 374th troop carrier group in November of last year and was promoted to his present rank last June.

A brother, Lee L. Leatherman, jr., is stationed at Camp Roberts, Calif.

Lubbock Lumberman On Houston Program

HOUSTON, Oct. 12. (AP)— Nationally known figures sounded a warning against government interference in the building industry at the Gulf Coast construction conference here today, attended by over 400 persons.

"The building industry cannot afford to do less than make a determined and desperate fight for sound financial handling of government affairs," said S. Lamar Forrest, of Lubbock, president of National Retail Lumber Dealers association.

There is the hazard "both direct and implied, of continuing and expanded controls" announced the second speaker, L. C. Hart, national president of Producers Council, Inc., and vice president and General Sales manager of Johns-Mansville corporation.

Reviewing postwar building Forrest told the conference that it is just plain good business sense "if we can have a long period of good building at fair prices, rather than a splurge for a while and then a let-down."

Hart predicted that the volume of construction will not reach its postwar peak for at least three more years.

Woman Must Choose Between 2 Husbands

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 12 (AP) Discharged from a hospital as "out of danger," Mrs. Claire Earlywine-Burnett, today was confronted again with a complex marital tangle which developed as her first Navy husband returned from a Japanese prison camp. She had, meanwhile, married one of his former shipmates.

The former Navy nurse, 32, received hospital treatment yesterday for an excessive dose of sedatives. This followed a long conference with her two husbands, which apparently developed no solution to their problem.
