Kidnaper Is Sought In Laredo

Abducts 2 In San Antonio

LAREDO (AP) — A man who identified himself as Curtis Lee Jones, sought throughout the Southwest for a murder, rape and attempted murder, kidnaped two persons in San Antonio and left them here, the kidnapping victims told police today.

Jones once sought to cross the bridge into Mexico but turned back when he sighted a police car.

A manhunt was under way on both sides of the border. Police used airplanes to help them.

Jones, paroled from the Arkansas prison where he served a term for murder, is sought for questioning in connection with a slaying in Texarkana, Tex., and is accused of raping a Fort Worth woman, leaving her companion for dead, and kidnapping a schoolteacher's wife and child.

Rosalita Sosa, about 35, and Carlos Guardaramas, told this story:

Both worked at Rosie's place in south San Antonio, and as they closed for the night, Jones walked in and forced them at gunpoint into the Sosa woman's car, a 1959 white chevrolet.

He called himself Jones, sought since Thursday when he freed a woman and her child in San Antonio after a rape and attempted killing near Fort Worth in North Central Texas.

He forced the woman to drive, and he bound and gagged Guardaramas. Jones directed her to drive to the Laredo bridge.

But at the bridge, he sighted a police car and ordered the woman to turn around and drive toward San Antonio.

Between Laredo and Encinal, 39 miles north of here, he sought to bind the woman to the car. But she slowed the car and jumped. Jones brought the car under control, left the woman there, and headed back for Laredo.

Later, police found Guardaramas on the Laredo - Encinal highway, still bound and gagged.

The car was found in Laredo.

The woman was found on the highway at about 3:20 a.m.

Jones, 38, has spent most of his life since he was 16 in prison.

He is wanted in Texarkana after the gangland - style slaying of Doyle Jackson, 45, an ex-convict, Oct. 23. Jackson was shot to death and his body dragged with a belt around his throat 100 feet into some woods.

Last Wednesday, he captured a couple in Fort Worth, raped the woman and left the man for dead after strangling them.

Jones then went to a nearby home and forced Mrs. Walter Sears, 24, to drive him in her car to San Antonio. He took along the Sears' daughter, Cynthia, 2.

Several hours later he released Mrs. Sears and the child, both unharmed, in San Antonio. Police started a hunt but were unable to find the ex-convict.

Survivors Of Crash Report Engine Failed

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP)—Survivors of a flaming airliner crash that killed 22 persons Saturday night told of sputtering engines and a wobbly takeoff.

Accounts of the crash and the flame-scarred wreckage of the C46 aircraft were being examined today by federal, state and local investigators, seeking the cause of the disaster.

The twin-engine plane, attempting to take off in a heavy fog, carried 48 persons. Most were members of the California Polytechnic College football team returning to the school.

"We barely got off when the engines started sputtering. Then the left engine gave out—thump!" said James Fahey, 24, a halfback from Gilroy, Calif. He suffered minor injuries.

The plane bounced alongside the runway, broke in half and the front section burst into flames. The dead were riding up front.

Killed were the pilot, co-pilot, and 16 members of the foot team. Also dead were the team manager, a San Luis Abispo insurance man and team booster and the co-pilot's mother and sister-in-law. The women were traveling to Oakland, Calif., to meet the co-plot's wife of only a few days.

It was the first time an entire athletic team was involved in a fatal plane accident in the United States.

At San Luis Obispo, where California Poly is located, residents were stunned. The student body of 4,500 scheduled a memorial service today.

Before the takeoff, one survivor said, the plane sat on the runway for about 45 minutes. Although vision was completely obscured straight ahead, apparently the fog did not extend far above the ground.

Brent Jobe, 19, Vista, Calif., said Coach Leroy Hughes came back to the rear of the plane after talking to the pilot, Capt. Donald G. Chesser, and told the players: "The pilot has more in this than anyone else. He wouldn't take any chances. We have nothing to worry about."

When the Arctic Pacific Airlines plane started down the runway it began to "fishtail," said F. Sheldon Harden, an assistant coach who received only minor scratches.

"Just as we left the ground, the tail seemed to drop and the plane fell off to the left," he added.

After the crash, survivors scrambled from the damaged tail section, which flipped over the front end and landed upside down.

From the burning front came the screams and moans of the dying.

One rescuer said, "We just tried to pick up the live ones. My God, it was horrible."

The stewardess, Mrs. Richard Miller, 34, Seattle, a veteran of 14 years of flying, was credited with pulling more than a dozen from the flaming wreck.

At the Toledo control tower, official said the decision to take off usually is left to the discretion of the pilot.

Mechanics who serviced the plane said there was no indication of difficulties.

The plane brought the California team here Thursday, then went to Youngstown, Ohio, where it picked up the Youngstown University football squad for a flight to New Haven, Conn. Then it returned here to pick up the Cal Poly team, which lost its Saturday afternoon game to Bowling Green University, 50-6.

After the game, Coach Hughes said: "The kids are tired and will get a chance to sleep on the flight home."

Marines End Cuban Visit

By ROBERT BERRELLEZ

HAVANA (AP) — A special force of 1,450 U.S. Marines, whose weekend visit to Guantanamo Bay brought charges of aggression from supporters of Prime Minister Fidel Castro, went back to sea today.

They headed for home base on Puerto Rico after four weeks of maneuvers at sea aboard the assault carrier Boxer and 48 hours of shore leave at Guantanamo. Their visit, termed in Washington a period of rest and relaxation, served nevertheless as a hint to Castro that help is not far off if anyone should take a swing at Guantanmo.

In apparent retaliation for the presence of the Marines, Castro Sunday called out an estimated 200,000 of his reorganized civilian militia for meetings in Havana. Speakers harped on Castro's oft-repeated theme that the United States is planning to launch an invasion of Cuba.

U.S. authorities at first said the 48-hour visit of the Marines at the base on the southeast coast was to give the highly trained force relaxation ashore. But they later added it could be considered a show of strength to discourage Castro from any attack on the base.

Castro's supporters called the visit of the Marines "provocation and aggression."

Castro appeared at one of the militia meetings and boasted Cuba's defenses are stronger than ever and "any mercenaries"—his usual term for invaders—would be liquidated if they came to Cuba.

Called out at 7 a.m., the militiamen filled in forms to give information on where they could be found at any hour of the day. It was learned during their mass turnout that they have been reorganized along more military lines and their training period lengthened.

Speakers at one of the meetings said a force of 147 men—about company strength — in each of Havana's militia districts soon would be equipped with "the most modern weapons," presumably obtained from Czechoslovakia.

Castro, in an interview with the Egyptian weekly Akhbar Elyon said Cubans are not such "idiots" as to try to take the Guantanamo base by force.

Castro was criticized by a high member of the Roman Catholic hierarchy, Msgr. Eduardo Boza Nasvidal, auxiliary bishop of Havana. He issued a pamphlet stating that Castro's social revolution contradicted Christian principles and followed the Communist line.

In the Panama Canal Zone Sunday, six officers and one crewman of the Cuban ship Oriente jumped ashore as the freighter was going through the canal and asked asylum from U.S. authorities. With the captain and the chief engineer the only officers left aboard, the ship had to delay its departure for Korea with a cargo of sugar.

Oak Ridge Strike Ends

OAK RIDGE, Tenn (AP) — Union and management negotiators today announced agreement on a new wage scale to end a 16-day old strike by 2,000 workers at the nation's largest atomic energy plant.

The agreement was reached after an all-night session conducted by federal labor mediator E. F. Hitchcok.

Terms were not announced pending ratification of union members.

The striking union, Local A-288 of the Oil, Chemical Atomic Workers, called a meeting for 6 p.m. today for a vote on the wage offer. Seven other unions at the atomic plants here already have settled for a 9-cent hourly pay boost.

Union Carbide Nuclear Co. operates the plants under contract with the Atomic Energy Commission.

The atomic workers union struck the plant Oct. 15 to back up demands for a 28-cent hourly wage boost.

The current hourly scale ranges from $2.00 to $3.15.

JACK FROST WAS HERE—Jack Frost tripped around Snyder Sunday night leaving frosted windshields, flowers and such and nipped at noses on the way to work today. Here, Karen Carpenter of 2204 Forty-first Street does like many Snyderites had to do this morning and scraped ice from the windshield so she could go to school.

First Frost Logged

The first frost of the season made its appearance in Snyder this morning, several days ahead of scedule, but apparently it was a light one.

The official low temperature was pegged at 33 degrees, one degree above the freezing mark. However, the air was cold enough to put a glistening coat of frost on automobiles, rooftops and some vegetation.

It was doubtful that today's frost could be classified as the "killer" variety, although it doubtless nipped some vegetation.

County Agricultural Agent Billy Roach said he doubted that the frost was heavy enough to inflict any severe damage on crops.

"It may even help cotton by drying it out," the farm agent said.

Roach said that from all reports the temperature did not stay on the minimum reading long enough for a good kill of vegetation. He said much area cotton has been turning out "wet" in recent days, and that yesterdays winds and the light frost might be just the thing to dry it out.

Slightly warmer weather is expected in the area tonight, with low readings in the high thirties and low forties predicted for most of Northwest Texas. Fair skies are expected to prevail through Tuesday.

Readings below freezing were logged in the upper Panhandle, and most of the state had chilly weather this morning.

At Dalhart the temperature dropped to 28. Corpus Christi and Brownsville had 55. Skies were clear over the state.

Tornadic winds destroyed a small building and tossed a boat on land at a fishing camp near Port Bolivar Sunday.

High winds at Dumas caused an estimated $3,000 damage to an airplane. A heavy gust of wind flipped over a plane at Dallas.

The death toll from flood in South and South Central Texas after cloudbursts Saturday rose to 10 persons Saturday when two more deaths were reported. Pedro Ramirez Jr., 6, and his sister, Joldea, 4, both of Del Rio, drowned late Saturday when flood waters swirled over the family car at a Nueces River bridge near Bracketville.

Goldfine Aide Pleads Guilty

BOSTON (AP) — Miss Mildred Paperman, secretary of industrialist Bernard Goldfine, today pleaded guilty to a federal indictment charging her with personal income tax evasion.

Miss Paperman, about 43, who was confidential assistant to Goldfine during a period in which he was known as a friend to men of high rank in public life, was fined $12,500 by U.S. Dist. Judge George C. Sweeney.

He suspended a four-month jail sentence and placed her on probation for two years.

Woman Dies Of Gunshot Wound

A Snyder woman died Sunday morning 1½ hours after her husband and four children heard a shot and rushed to her bedroom to find her unconscious with a gunshot wound in her right temple.

Dead is Mrs. Opal Jean (Culp) Smith, 29, of 2804 Avenue H, after emergency treatment at Cogdell Memorial Hospital where she was rushed by a Bell ambulance failed to save her life. She was enroute to Lubbock to a neurosurgeon when the atttending nurse failed to find a pulse 14 miles out of Snyder when Mrs. Smith stopped breathing. She was pronounced dead at 10:15 a.m. at the Post hospital.

The attending physician in Snyder had told her husband, Jake Smith that the top of her head was gone and there was practically no hope at all when he sent her by Bell ambulance toward Lubbock.

Smith told officers that he and his wife had both been working hard, she while attending Jessie's Beauty College and caring for their children while he worked out of town, returning on weekends. He stated that she had stayed home Saturday and they had made plans for opening a beauty shop for her.

The children and Smith related that on Sunday morning they were all together in the kitchen when they heard a shot in the bedroom about 8:45 and rushed in to find Mrs. Smith wounded and a .455 Webley Mark IV, a heavy caliber English made pistol, nearby. Smith said he had bought her the gun for protection while he was out of town.

Mrs. Smith was born September 28, 1931, in Scurry County and married Jake Smith in June of 1947. She was a member of the First Baptist Church in Hermleigh.

She is survived by her husband; three daughters, Sherry Diane, 11, Linda Delores, 9, and Debra Gwyn, 8; one son Jay Dell, 4; her parents Mr. and Mrs. Olan H. Culp of Hermleigh; and two brothers, Olan H. Culp, Jr. and Donald Joe Culp, both of Hermleigh.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday in the First Baptist Church in Hermleigh with burial to be in the Hillside Memorial Gardens in Snyder under the direction of Bell Funeral Home.

Campaign Practices Of Demos Protested

HOUSTON (AP)—Three Republican leaders sent a statement to state Democratic party leaders accusing the Democrats of practices" which bear close resemblance to fraudulent campaign practices."

Albert Fay, Republican national committeeman; Thad Hutcheson, state chairman; and Paul Ledrick, state campaign director, sent a copy of the statement Sunday to the Texas attorney general.

"We are disturbed about three matters which have come to our attention during the past two weeks and which bear close resemblance to fraudulent campaign practices," the statement said.

The statement spoke of false instructions that voters may not split the ticket; reports of a threat not to count votes for the Republican presidential nominee; and threats to cancel government contracts if the Republicans win Texas or if Sen. Lyndon Johnson is beaten for the Senate.

Egyptian Cotton Exports Are High

WASHINGTON (AP) — Egyptian cotton exports during the 1959-60 season were the highest in 26 years, the Agriculture Department said today.

Exports totaled 1,837,000 bales, up 33 per cent from last season and the highest since 1933-34 when 1,867,000 bales were exported.

Russia was the largest buyer of Egyptian cotton, with Communist China second.

White Officers Are Seized While Leading Congo Force

By ANDREW BOROWIEC

LEOPOLDVILLE, the Congo (AP)—U.N. troops have blunted an offensive by rampaging Baluba tribesmen in chaotic Kasai province after seizing four white officers leading the native warriors.

Three Belgians posing as traders and a white Rhodesian identified only as "Captain Robert" were accused by the U.N. high command of masterminding a plot to plunge Kasai into civil war in violation of a truce pact.

U.N. troops from Ghana and Liberia with armored cars checked 5,000 Baluba tribesmen who pillaged villages in a drive northward from the self-styled separatist "Mining State" of tribal chief Albert Kalonji.

An uneasy peace was restored in Kasai over the weekend but U.N. troops and planes were alerted to fly in reinforcements to meet any new flareup.

Indian Gen. I. Rikhye of the United Nations forces told a news conference he hoped the detention of the four Europeans he charged with organizing the rebellion would end the revolt. They were seized Sunday and taken to Luluabourg, capital of Kasai province.

Rikhye linked the four directly with Kalonji, who broke with the central government in Leopoldville and proclaimed his own state shortly after the Congo became independent.

U.N. troops moved in to create a barrier between the Balubas and their traditional enemies, the Luluas, who live in central Kasai.

International Red Cross teams prepared to move southward in Kasai to bring aid to the victims of the Balubas' assault.

Rikhyde said the rebellious Balubas killed many persons—including a Roman Catholic missionary—in their ravaging march.

Three villages were burned near Nwene Ditu and four Liberian U.N. soldiers wounded in an ambush. A Roman Catholic seminary at Kalindato was fired and about 20 Belgian priests and nuns forced to flee.

Kasai borders on secessionist Katanga province. The area has been the scene of the bloodiest tribal fighting in the Congo and is still a trouble spot for the U.N. police forces.

Kennedy Winds Up Pennsylvania Trip

By GEOFFREY GOULD

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy today began the final phase of his all-out campaigning in touch-and-go Pennsylvania.

A day-long schedule of motorcade stops, that began in a drizzle, showed new bursts of enthusiasm for the Democratic presidential candidate in this city where party chieftains hope to pile up a big enough plurality to carry the state's 32 electoral votes.

A nationally televised speech at a $100-a-plate dinner in Convention Hall is on tap tonight (NBC 8:30 p.m., EST).

The Kennedy motorcade wound through seamy wards of South Philadelphia. The crowds were sparse at first, but picked up along the way.

Kennedy got a screaming welcome as he passed the South Philadelphia High School. Hundreds of teen-agers pressed around his car.

During the day Kennedy planned to emphasize what he said were the sharp differences between his positions on major issues and those of Vice President Richard M. Nixon.

As the days dwindle before the election Kennedy plans to spend two of them in California, Nixon's home state. It also carries a hefty 32 electoral votes. Later in the week Kennedy will hop back eastward, hitting Texas (24 votes), Oklahoma and several other states.

The Democratic candidate made these points Sunday:

1. On the CBS "Face the Nation" panel program, Kennedy said a possible counter-measure if the country slipped into a deep recession by January would be a temporary tax cut for four or five months. He said a tax cut would be the fastest way to give the economy a lift.

2. On the same TV show, the religious issue came up again, and Kennedy said he and his fellow American Roman Catholics are strongly against any state religion. "If 99 per cent of the population were Catholics I would still oppose it," he said.

3. In a separate statement, he pledged "if elected president I shall not devalue the dollar from the present rate." This was aimed at recent speculation in gold in the London market, based on a rumor—strongly denied by the Eisenhower administration — that the dollar might be devalued by increasing the U. S. price for gold.

4. Pledged that if elected he would seek a goal of 82 million jobs by 1968. He estimated that 84 million would be eligible for employment by then and his figure would represent full employment.

In his earnest restatement of his position on separation of church and state, Kennedy burst out, "Nothing can be done about my religion. I am what I am and I'm going to be what I am."

He said it was a legitimate issue but he hoped his stand was clear and that it would not be discussed again in the campaign. "What is there left to say?" he asked.

After the television show Kennedy gave a pep talk to several thousand local campaign workers who jammed a roof garden at his hotel.

Kennedy's only Sunday rally was at Levittown, Pa., the mushrooming community that houses many steelworkers at the big U.S. Steel Plant that houses many steelworkers at the big U. S. Steel plant on the Delaware River.

His route led through many of Philadelphia's older and shabbier wards and he got a warm reception from multitudes that lined the sidewalks.

The throng of some 30,000 at Levittown had been waiting in the sunless chill for more than two hours. Kennedy spoke for five minutes, got a screaming ovation, and left to keep his television date.

JFK's Call Criticized

ATLANTA (AP)—Gov. Ernest Vandiver criticized John Kennedy today for telephoning the wife of Martin King Jr., while the Negro integration leader was in jail last week. He stood by previous predictions, however, that Georgia will go Democratic.

He said that barring unforeseen events, "I will support the Democratic party."

"It is a sad commentary on the year 1960 and its political campaign when the Democratic nominee for the presidency makes a phone call to the home of the foremost racial agitator in the country," Vandiver said.

Nixon's Brother Says He Got Loan

By GENE HANDSAKER

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon's brother, Donald acknowledged he got a $205,000 loan from industrialist Howard Hughes' tool firm — a circumstance denied last week by the Republican presidential nominee's personal campaign manager.

But, in his first comment on a Drew Pearson column linking the vice president's name with a possible conflict-of-interest deal, Donald Nixon said Sunday: "I have never asked my brother to do anything for me or anyone else in the government; and if I did ask I know he would refuse."

Pearson later said Donald's statement "overlooks several important facts."

Donald issued a statement detailing his financial difficulties, including an unsuccessful effort to save his restaurant business with the $205,000 loan. He accused Pearson of trying to smear his brother.

"I am deeply grieved and concerned to think that any individual would use my business misfortune to influence the outcome of the presidential election," said Donald Nixon.

When the Pearson article appeared last week, Richard M. Nixon's campaign manager, Robert N. Finch, called it "an obvious political smear in the last two weeks of the campaign." Finch said Donald got the loan from an attorney friend.

After Donald Nixon issued his statement, Pearson said: "It should be noted that ordinarily it would not have taken him five days to make an explanation of this transaction if it was clean as a hound's tooth."

Pearson's article last week said "the family of Richard M. Nixon received a $205,000 loan Dec. 10, 1956, from the Hughes Tool Co. and that thereafter Hughes' problems with various government agencies improved. Whether the improvement was connected with the loan is not known."

"Drew Pearson has charged that four years ago my corporation and my mother were loaned a large sum of money, without sufficient security, and that this sum was never repaid," Donald Nixon's statement said.

"Those were humiliating times. The scars they left are deep.

"Now, in the last days of the presidential campaign, my brother's political opponents have resurrected the entire matter and embellished it with false statements purporting to involve my brother in those problems which were mine alone and not his."

Donald said he got the loan through attorney Frank J. Waters. "Mr. Waters told me that he thought he could get a client of his to lend $205,000. I learned that the loan would be made by the Hughes Tool Co. I never met Mr. Howard Hughes, the owner of Hughes Tool Co."

Donald said his mother, Hannah Nixon, executed a promisory note in favor of Waters for $205,000, secured by a mortgage on a corner lot she owned in suburban Whittier, Calif.

"I have had this property appraised by competent appraisers who fixed the value of the property today without improvements at $228,000," Donald continued. "The value of the property is greater than the total amount of the loan so that the lender has clearly suffered no loss and will suffer no loss."

Pearson, in Monterey, Calif., for a speaking engagement, told the Los Angeles Examiner that Donald's statement overlooks:

"1. that Frank Waters was the lobbyist for Howard Hughes and on intimate terms with the vice president.

"2. That extreme secrecy was used to conceal the loan.

"3. This was not a loan but a gift."

Pearson said an affidavit signed Jan. 30, 1959, by Waters and his law partner, James J. Arditto, "meant that both Don Nixon and his mother were not responsible for repayment of the loan.

"4. The property was worth no more than $60,000 at the very most.

"5. Richard M. Nixon, according to the records of the Los Angeles Corporation Commission, was an applicant for stock purchase in his brother's company."

Politics Not Major Basis For Sermons

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Congregations of several Texas Protestant churches were cautioned in Reformation Sunday sermons not to make religion a major basis for their political preferences.

Expected anti-Catholic sermons apparently were missing as many churches marked the anniversary of Martin Luther's 1517 opposition to the Catholic church and the beginning of the Protestant movement.

One Dallas minister who has been vocal in his opposition to the election of a Catholic as president; Dr. W. A. Criswell of the First Baptist Church, did not mention the subject in his Sunday sermons.

Several who did discuss religion and politics did not mention Sen. John F. Kennedy, the Democratic presidential nominee and a Catholic, by name.

A prominent Methodist preacher told an Austin congregation not to base their votes for president solely upon the candidate's religions.

Rev. James William Morgan of University Methodist Church said he defends only one attitude toward the so-called religious issue in the presidential campaign.

"In this particular situation," he said, "with these particular candidates, given the assurances that have been given, we must not let the denominational affiliation of the candidates be the deciding factor."

A Fort Worth minister Sunday night told about 1,200 persons at Houston the average American Catholic does not reflect the exact position of the Roman Catholic Church on many issues.

Dr. Granville T. Walker, pastor of the University Christian Church in Fort Worth, spoke at the Protestant Reformation Day services in the Music Hall in Houston.

He said the official position of the Catholic Church in Rome will some day have to relent to follow the course of lay Catholics.

"It takes an election year to force some of us to look intelligently at our own inheritances," he said.

"There are areas where Protestants and Catholics can stand together and wherever they can, they are under divine mandate to do so," he said.

Dr. John F. Anderson Jr. told Dallas Protestants Sunday that their church has more to fear from internal weaknesses than from external enemies.

He spoke at a near capacity crowd at Reformation Day services in the State Fair Music Hall.

The Orlando, Fla., Presbyterian minister said "Our real danger is not so much from a militant Catholicism as from a lethargic Protestantism."

Storage Building Destroyed By Fire

Fire destroyed a storage building behind Starr's Drive In on the Big Spring Highway Sunday about 3:30 p.m.

Fire Chief Warren Boyd said the building, about 4 by 8 feet, was almost consumed before fire trucks arrived but they were able to extinguish the blaze before it could spread to adjacent areas.

New York Has Usual Sunday Bomb Scare

NEW YORK (AP) — The city had another Sunday bomb scare Sunday night in the Times Square area, but it proved to be more sound than fury.

No one was injured and there was no damage when a small powder charge in a wax-covered cylinder flashed with a loud hiss in a subway station telephone booth.

Bomb squad officials said the flash apparently had no connection with the bombs that have exploded in the city in recent weeks.

Ike, Nixon Set Strategy Parley

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower and Vice President Richard M. Nixon arranged a campaign strategy conference today with the presidential race turning into the homestretch.

In another campaign development, Nixon announced he plans a visit to Alaska. This will round out his coverage of all 50 states.

The White House announced that Nixon, Republican candidate to succeed Eisenhower, and a group of campaign aides would lunch with Eisenhower.

Asked whether the meeting would deal with campaign strategy, with the election just eight days off, presidential press secretary James C. Hagerty laughed and replied:

"Certainly they are not going to talk about the time of day. It will be a discussion of the final days of the campaign."

Nixon headed into the final — and in his opinion, crucial—week of the campaign classifying five key states as "up for grabs." The five: Illinois, Michigan, Pennsylvania, Ohio and New York.

The Republican standard bearer said today he will leave Los Angeles about noon Sunday on his 2,400-mile jet flight to Anchorage for a late afternoon rally there. Sunday night he will make a 3,100-mile flight to Detroit for a final rally next Monday.

"Many of my friends have advised me to leave Alaska off the itinerary," he said today. "They point out that the start of the campaign was delayed by my knee injury and that there is a demand for appearances in other parts of the nation. I feel that no one state can be counted safe in this election.

Ira's Halloween Royalty Crowned

Royalty from the senior class and the fifth grade reigned at the Ira Halloween Carnival Saturday night where the school took in over $1,800.

Crowned king and queen of the Ira High School were Karen White and Stanley Martin from the senior class with Linda Wiggins and Drewell Clark from the fifth grade crowned king and queen of the elementary school.

Dukes and duchesses from the elementary school included Annette Erwin and Ricky Cox from the first grade, Joanne Cross and Don Sterling from the second grade, Jackie Sue Adams and Rickie McCarty from the third grade, Judy Clayton and Dean Hooker from the fourth grade, Duchess Darlene Taggart and Dennis Grizzle from the sixth grade, Dorothy Klein and Robert Latham from the seventh grade, Darla Moore and Jimmy Lindsey from the eighth grade.

From the high school, they were Linda Lee Wilson and Don Kimbrell from the freshman class, Donna Gayle Martin and Kent Sterling from the sophomore class, and Nelda Pevehouse and Mike Sterling from the junior class.

Crown bearers from the elementary royalty were Danna McMeans and Bobby Stokes with Jamie Roddy and Skeet Kimbrell crown-bearers for high school. All were from the first grade.

Superintendent of Ira Schools Roy Sallee crowned the monarchs.

Ushers for the occasion were Eudera House and Bennie Chapman with Robert Ryan making the introductions.

Entertainment for the evening consisted of an Indian dance by the fifth grade and a minstrel by the sixth grade with teacher Roy Lee Ford emceeing the affair and also stealing the show with a pantomimed rendition of Elvis Presley accompanied by EP himself on wax.

A trio consisting of Judy Thomas, Comelle Allen and Jan Holladay and the High School Belles made up of the three above and Cheryl Dove, Brenda Sovells, Patricia Wier, Linda Pevehouse, Donna Turner, and Sherry Robinson provided vocal music for the coronation.

CROP Fund Falls Short

CROP collections for the Christian Rural Overseas Program made by Snyder young people fell $300 short of the amount collected last year but contributions will still be accepted for the program. Canvassers collected $246 between 5 and 8 p.m. Saturday.

Anyone wishing to help, especially those who were not contacted Saturday, may do so by sending their donations to the Snyder Jaycees in care of the Chamber of Commerce office in Snyder" a spokesman for the group announced.

The drive was sponsored by the Jaycees and the Ministerial Alliance who hosted a social hour for all participants of the drive at the First Christian when it was completed.

WOMEN

GUEST SPEAKER—Mrs. J. D. Traugott, president of the Antheneum Study Club is pictured above as she introduced Rev. Harry Vanderpool to members of her club at their regular meeting last week.

Rev. Vanderpool Speaks On Keys To Freedom To Club

The Antheneum Study Club met recently at the Martha Ann Woman's Club.

Rev. Harry Vanderpool, pastor of the First Methodist Church chose as his subject "Keys To a Free World. In part he said:

"Time magazine made a survey of a man and found....a man carries six keys with him most of the time and only five of them he uses and the sixth one he does not know what this key opens, but could be the key to open the door of freedom.

"We as individuals need to be more alert about freedom. Communism has taken over more people and countries than has christianity. Communism will over take the world because of the stupidity. We are losing over freedom more and more and we just stand by stupidly and watch."

The first key to a free world or to freedom he stated as:

1. "Key to freedom is understanding. We need to understand the people of the world, especially Africa. Africa is becoming more and more in the understanding of people. They have two dams that now produce more electricity than that of all the United States. In Africa 90 percent of its people are illerate. In the Congo there are 15 million people and only 16 people who are educated. We as people sometime make a point to try to misunderstand others and people of the other land.

2. "Send teachers to Africa. The first trend to help would provide exchange students to Africa. The young people from Africa go to United States or Russia to get education. Then they will go back as leaders. Russia provides 400 grants to students there while the United States provide four grants. There are several different attractive reasons for the youth of Africa to want to go to Russia rather than to United States. Russia sends African foreign students home each summer with new clothes and a new bicycle and this impresses the other people of the County. The United States confines them to this country until their degree is attained.

3. "Time to stand on basic standard rather than expendiency. We need to get the people to see the need rather than let the government do all the handout. When the government lends a helping hand too often the people become more bitter. We should get behind the missionary bands in our individual churches and also our educators. The key to a free world is to operate as a free individual and not as a government body."

A short business meeting followed the program, with Mrs. J. D. Traugott, president presiding.

Refreshments were served to guests, Mrs. Elwanda Culvahouse, Mrs. Mildred Smith, Mrs. Eleanor Dryden, Mrs. Jeanelle Allen, Mrs. Retha Hoffman, Rev. Vanderpool and 18 members.

TOMATO PRESERVES

Don't let those last tomatoes in the garden get spoiled by frost. They will taste good and look pretty on your table next winter. Skin and cut up 5 pounds of tomatoes. Add 5 pounds of sugar, 1 lemon sliced very thin and a small piece of ginger root. Place the kettle over a burner and turn the flame to high. When the tomatoes start to boil turn the flame back to simmer and cook the preserves 45 minutes or until shiny and quite thick. Stir frequently. [illegible] hot sterilized glasses. This recipe will make 4 six - ounce glasses.

Oh, Where Are Stars Of Yesteryear?

By BOB THOMAS
AP Movie-TV Writer

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Remember the movies of 25 years go?

If you do then you lived through Hollywood's golden age.

Young timers of today who watch old movies on the late show may wonder what all the shouting was about. Perhaps the films of the 1930s have faded with time:

But, during the first decade of the talkies, Hollywood saw a burst of creativity it has never equalled.

And so many stars!

A quarter century later, some of them are still big names in the film world—John Wayne, Clark Gable, James Stewart.

Some have stuck around in television—Jackie Cooper, Loretta Young, Ann Sothern.

Some have combined stage and TV work—Lee Tracy, Walter Pigeon, Henry Fonda.

But what ever happened to the others?

A Hollywood reporter often gets queries from fans who want to know what their favorites of long ago are doing now. Here is a rundown on some of them:

Deanna Durbin lives near Paris with her husband, writer Charles David.

Tim McCoy travels with a circus.

Dancer Ruby Keeler is a housewife at Balboa, Calif.

William Hanies is a Los Angeles interior decorator.

Ramon Novarro tends to his real estate and does occasional TV roles.

Richard Barthelmess lives in retirement in New York.

Clara Bow is in a Culver City sanitarium with a nervous ailment.

Bebe Daniels has a TV show in England with husband Ben Lyon.

Hoot Gibson is a hotel greeter in Las Vegas.

Comedian Jack Oakie leaves his San Fernando Valley ranch for occasional film roles.

Bill (Hopalong) Boyd is retired at Palm Desert, Calif.

Shirley Temple is a Burlingame, Calif., housewife, appears occasionally on TV.

Jeanette MacDonald sings at concerts.

Bruce Cabot does films in Italy, has business deals with King Farouk.

Irene Dunne limits herself to public service and rare TV appearances.

Jean Arthur lives in seclusion in Monterey, Calif.

Honey Pumpkin Chiffon Pie

Russet leaves, red apples, colorful football banners, and orange pumpkins! These mean autumn is here—autumn with its brisk mornings and cool evenings and in between its round of vigorous activity for all, at home, at school, at work, inside and out. And for mothers autumn means the need for preparing hearty meals, hearty from soup through dessert. Tops among the desserts suitable for autumn dinners is that symbol of autumn, punmpkin pie itself.

Pumpkin pie with its spicy, rich smooth, honey-sweetened filling placed in a grapham cracker curst and further enhanced with a topping of whipped cream sweetened with honey is at once a food and a treat for every member at the family table. Honey will make it a real treat for all by imparting honey flavor and aroma to the dessert; honey will also add nourishing vitamins and minerals to make the filling even more substantial. Here is a tested recipe to try.

HONEY PUMPKIN CHIFFON PIE

GRAHAM CRACKER CRUST:
20 graham crackers (1-2-3 cups);
¼ cup sifted confectioner's sugar;
¼ cup soft butter.

Crush the graham crackers very fine. Blend in the sugar and soft butter. Press the mixture into a heat-resistant deep 10-inch pie dish. Bake at 375 F. 10 minutes.

FILLING:
1 tablespoon plain gelatin; ¼ cup cold water; 3 eggs; ¾ cup honey; 2 cups cooked pumpkin; ½ cup whole milk; ½ teaspoon salt; 1 teaspoon cinnamon; ½ teaspoon ginger, ¼ teaspoon cloves, 3 tablespoons sugar; ½ pt. whipping cream.

Soak gelatin in cold water 5 minutes. Beat egg yolks and combine with honey, pumpkin, milk, salt and spices. Cook in top of double boiler until thick, stirring constandy. Remove from fire, add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Beat egg whites until frothy. Add sugar gradually and continue beating until they stand in peaks. Fold the egg whites into pumpkin mixture. Turn into graham crust and chill for several hours. Top with whipped cream.

A Fort Is Her Forte

KINGSTON, Ont. (AP) — Taffy Way lives in a century - old stone house, annually entertains nearly 200,000 visitors and has been known to stay up nights with an ailing cannon.

She is the woman who runs Fort Henry.

Taffy's husband is Ronald Way, director of historic buildings and sites under the Ontario St. Lawrence Development Commission. He has appointed his wife executive assistant of this old fort which was built as an overseas bulwark of Queen Victoria's British Empire.

Fort Henry's chatelaine says she has done "almost any job in the fort except soldier."

As commander of an army of 72 guardsmen and 20 girls, she each morning reviews orders of the day, and then turns to office work that could involve clearing a cash register, or preparing for a visit by the Queen.

In 1959, when the Queen and Prince Phillip did visit, Mrs. Way's careful plans were almost sabotaged by two ceremonial cannon which failed to fire in the fort's dress rehearsal for royalty. She, her husband, and a repair crew worked until 2 a.m. putting them back in firing order.

Mrs. Way, a political science and economics graduate of the University of Toronto, believes reconstructed Fort Henry, and other museums like it, contribute significantly to an appreciation of history.

While Fort Henry was Queen Victoria's once, today it is another woman's fort, the fort of Taffy Way.

Dallas Festival Will Feature Tour Of New Dallas Homes

Visitors to the 1960 Dallas Festival will have the opportunity to tour ten luxurious Dallas residences opened to the public on two weekends in November as a Festival benefit.

Half the homes will be open Sat., Nov. 12, from 1 to 5 p.m. and hours. Tickets will be $2.50 for each four itinerary or 75 cents for each home, to be ordered from the Festival office, 1725 Live Oak St., or the Dallas Chamber of Commerce.

Homes in Preston Hollow area will be open for the first tour. Among these are:

The French country house of Mr. and Mrs. Phil J. Schepps, 10211 Hollow Way. Built in 1954 on two-and-a-half wooded acres, the Schepps home is constructed of handmade antique brick reclaimed from old Dallas buildings. A terrace designed by the late Arthur Berger leads down to a spring-fed creek. The house, decorated by Ben Read, is inspired by the French country farmhouse, with waxed oak and waxed red brick floors in basketweave pattern, and use of handsome decorative wallpapers and natural wood paneling.

The neighboring French provincial home of J. Glenn Turner, 10160 Gaywood, built of Graystone on one-and-a-half terraced acres, is furnished with English antiques an early American colonial pieces.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Underwood, Jr., 10340 Gaywood, modified contemporary in design, built of oversized buff brick and Tennessee Crab Orchard Stone, is built around an oversized room which serves as the entertainment center, both for adults and the four Underwood children. Called the "Texas Room" because of its size, the room has extensive glass wall areas opening on one side on to an L-shaped swimming pool, and on the other side to the garden court around which the entire house is built. The "Texas Room", slightly more formal than the usual family room, has a white and pumpkin color scheme, Oriental decorative accents and a terrazza floor for dancing.

The fourth home on the Nov. 12 tour is that of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome K. Crossman at 4800 Park Lane. This home is a red brick American colonial home with white columns, built on a five acre estate. Pecan and magnolia trees add to the old Southern setting. Furnishings are early English and French traditional.

Among other Dallas Festival events of interest to visitors during the Nov. 11-13 weekend include the Dallas Civic Opera production of "Madam Butterfly", Sat. night, Nov. 12; the book-and-author luncheon at noon Nov. 12; "The Andersonville Trail," starring Brian Donlevy, presented by the Broadway Theater League Nov. 11 and 12, and the pro-football game Sunday afternoon, Nov. 13, between the Dallas Texans and the Denver Broncos, in the Cotton Bowl, Fair Park.

Tickets to all Dallas Festival events are available the central Festival Box Office, 1725 Live Oak, telephone RI8-8921.

Homes to be on display during the third weekend of the month-long Dallas Festival will be announced later.

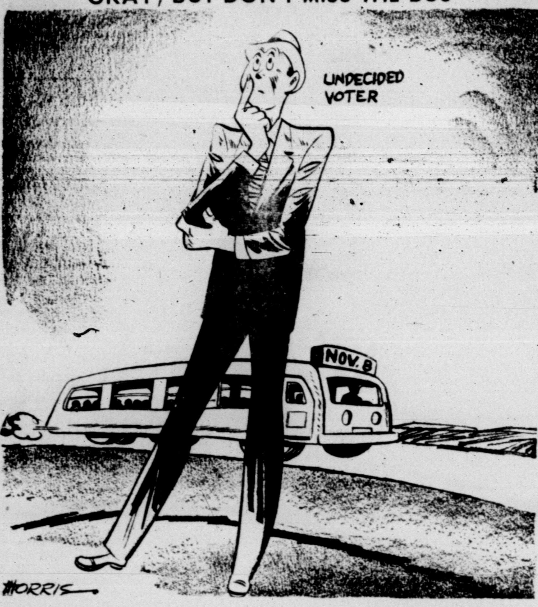
OKAY, BUT DON'T MISS THE BUS



Newsmen Convert Campaign Annoyances Into Some Humor

BY ED KOTERBA

ON TOUR WITH NIXON.—The subliminal effect on correspondents riding a Presidential campaign train sometimes brings on desperate measures. Like that campaign song...

Vice-President Richard Nixon's "Victory Special" is equipped with a public address system that runs throughout the 16-car train. As the whistle-stopper approaches a town, the staff turns on the "We Want Nixon" phonograph record. It's to the tune of "Good-Night Ladies."

So, for five minutes as we prepare to barge out to catch the trainside speech, there it blares: "We want Nixon. We want Nixon. We want Nixon to be our Pres-i-dent." Over and over and over and over.

Rather than lose their minds, newsmen devise other ways to blow off steam. They write parodies on the Nixon parody.

After the Quemoy-Matsu thing exploded into headlines, they fiendishly sang the song this way: "We want Quemoy. We want Matsu. We want Nixon to be their Pres-i-dent."

Shortly after the Vice-President started off on the whistle-stopper he began issuing white papers at nearly every stop. He aimed them at Sen. John Kennedy—documents that explained his position on certain issues.

The white paper habit got so feverish thaat an accompanying newswoman, Sue Seay, feature writer for Look magazine, penned a take-off on it.

Sue sang the song to the melody of "White Christmas." It goes this way:

"I'm issu-ing a white paper, at every whistle-stop we make.

"It will touch on Matsu, Fidel and Khrushchu, and the pies mother used to bake.

"I'd rather issue white papers, than have that gosh-darned fifth debate.

"But if Lyn and Jack want a fight...

"I have tons of paper that's all white."

There is rarely an annoying situation but that correspondents find some humor in it.

The dining-car service on the whistle-stopper was so slow that dean of White House reporters, Merriman Smith, banded together several newsmen at five bucks a head and started up a private delicatessen. The correspondents used a lounge car icebox for their makin's.

Then they posted a "menu" on the refrigerator door. These were no ordinary sandwiches. For instance, passing through the Quaker State, they posted the combination sandwich for the day. It was the "We'll Carry Pennsylvania" combination. Actually, it was baloney on rye.

There's a certain fraternity-house air among correspondents traveling with candidates. The stories they tell are understood best only by the men and women who've endured the ordeals of campaign repetition.

On Lyndon Johnson's "Victory Special," correspondents who survived the repetition of "The Yellow Rose of Texas" tell about the incident at Greer, S. C.

The song was always played as the train pulled out. And as it moved off, Senator Johnson went into his accompanying "adieu" routine — "Goody-bye. God bless you. Vote Democratic..."

Bobby Baker, Johnson's right-hand man, operated the phonograph.

And this is how it went at Greer: Johnson was waving his Texas hat. He yelled: "God bless you, Greer. Vote Democratic,Greer (turn off that Yellow Rose record, Bobby), good-bye, Greer."

Whistle stops can be fun — if you don't weaken.

Foundation Makes Grant

SAN ANTONIO (AP) — The Moody Foundation of Galveston has made a $50,000 grant to assist in construction of a United Cerebral Palsy Treatment Center here.

The announcement was made at the 1960 state convention of Texas Health Agents held here this weekend.

William H. Webster, president of the United Cerebral Palsy Association of Bexar County, told of plans to build a $250,000 center.

He said the center would be "capable of offering a broader range of treatment and services to a greater number of our cerebral palsied." The site of the center will be announced later, he said.

"We consider it a privilege to participate in this cerebral palsy program," said W. L. Moody IV of Brackettville and Galveston. He is vice chairman of the foundation.

Dr. William G. Wolff, president of United Cerebral Palsy of Texas, Inc., said a survey of 59,000 persons showed that their return to useful occupations through rehabilitation increased their earnings from $15,700,000 to $105 million.

Columnist Gets Lift From Mail

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—Things a columnist might never know if he didn't open his mail:

If the average man's beard growth were concentrated in a single whisker, it would sprout 42 feet every 24 hours.

Every minute of the year a burglary is committed somewhere in our broad land... The average haul: $163.

Prosperity note: By 1965 the United States will have 24 million teen-agers.

How much has TV hurt the movie industry? Producer Jerry Wald claims that 70 per cent of the biggest box office film draws in history have been made since the arrival of television.

Our quotable notables: "People who talk about outlawing the atom bomb are mistaken—what needs to be outlawed is war."—Maj. Gen. Leslie R. Groves.

Every name has its own magic. Ilona Massey abbreviated her true surname "Hajmassy," the Hungarian equivalent of garlic, to become a star...and tenor Enzo Stuarti hit the $2,500-a-week bracket after toiling his vocal cords 13 years as Larry Lawrence.

It is said that a man reaches his physical prime at 26, but doesn't pass his mental peak until he's 50...thus giving him 24 full years in which to wonder why he doesn't feel as strong as he used to.

Many newlyweds are concerned over the possibility of multiple births...Here are the odds: 90 million-1 they won't have quintuplets, 900,000-1 they won't have quadruplets, 9,000-1 they won't have triplets, and about 90-1 they won't have twins.

Here's a health oddity: The undernourished people of this world, on the whole, have better teeth than those who can afford to eat whatever they choose.

A footnote to history: Portly William Howard Taft started the custom of having a U. S. president open the baseball season... He tossed the first ball on April 14, 1910.

We may not have a better attitude toward life than our grandparents did, but we do have more altitude...The young people of today are about two inches taller than those of 50 years ago...But has this added height given them a better perspective?

Wisecrack of the week: Sammy Kaye gives this definition of debt: "Something a man gets into when he spends as much as he tells his friends he earns."

An odd claim to fame: Everyone is familiar with the portrait of Whistler's mother, and many have wondered who his father was...He was George Washington Whistler, and he built the first American locomotive equipped with a steam whistle.

Youth Leaps After Asking For Doctor

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) —"If I jump out the window will you call a doctor for me?" Raymond Burton, 18, asked his cousin.

And with those words Burton plunged six floors from a downtown apartment building, police said.

He survived, but broke both legs. Essie Jones, his cousin called an ambulance and Burton's condition was reported good at a hospital.

Mrs. Jones told officers Burton had been drinking.

Spikes Sparks Texan Attack

AFL ROUNDUP SPORTS
By SHELDON SAKOWITZ
Associated Press Sports Writer

The versatility of fullback Jack Spikes of the Dallas Texans and defensive halfback Billy Atkins of the Buffalo Bills have tightened the races in the American Football League today.

Both division leaders, the Denver Broncos in the Western section, and the Houston Oilers in the Eastern, tasted defeat Sunday with Spikes and Atkins proving instrumental in both cases.

Dallas, the Western Division celler-dwellers, stunned Denver 17-14 and dropped the Broncos into a tie for the lead with Los Angeles which beat Boston 45-16 Friday night. Buffalo, third in the East, upset front-running Houston 25-24.

Spikes, a 220-pound power-driving fullback with a talented toe provided the Texans with their margin of victory over Denver with an 11-yard field goal in the third period. The former TCU mainstay also scored Dallas' first touchdown and booted two extra points.

Atkins, a defensive specialist who took over Buffalo's kicking chores against Houston when Joe Hergert was hurt, kicked three field goals to help beat Houston. An ex-Auburn stalwart who also saw service with the San Francisco 49ers of the National League, Atkins produced the winning field goal from 15 yards out with less than six minutes to play. His others were 22 and 45-yard kicks.

The Texans, boosting their record to 3-4, staved off a last-minute Denver threat after building up an early lead on the running of Spikes and Abner Haynes. The Broncs missed a tie when Gene Mingo's 39-yard field goal try was wide with 30 seconds to go.

A recovered fumble set up Spikes' 1-yard plunge for Dallas' first touchdown in the opening period. Denver tied the score on Al Carmichael's 47-yard jaunt.

Haynes scored from the 3 in the second quarter before Spikes kicked his game-winning field goal. Denver scored in the final stanza on a 55-yard touchdown pass play from Frank Tripucka to Bob McNamara.

Dallas moved to within one game of first place in the West. Denver and Los Angeles are tied for the lead with 4-3 won-lost records.

Buffalo linebacker Archie Matsos intercepted two Houston passes, ran back a short punt and set up a pair of Bills' TDs.

Buffalo's Johnny Green clicked on 18 and 49 passes for 334 yards and two touchdowns. Hergert also kicked a 26-yard field goal before he was hurt.

George Blanda of Houston threw three touchdown passes, but completed only 9 of 32 attempts for 124 yards. His 50-yard field goal gave the Oilers a 24-19 lead before Atkins last period heroics.

Houston (5-2) leads second-place New York (4-4) by 1½ games. Buffalo (3-4) moved to within a half-game of New York.

Seven Elevens Remain 'Clean'

By HUGH FULLERTON JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

About this stage of the college football season some of the teams that have been establishing fine reputations begin popping stitches and coming apart at the seams from the rigors of all-major schedules.

Anyone who could predict where the stuffing will begin to show this week would do more for bowling (football variety) than the inventor of the automatic pinsetter. At least a half dozen of the leading teams will be performing under the scrutiny of scouts from the major bowls and somewhere something is bound to give.

It happened last Saturday to Syracuse, the 1959 national champion; to Baylor, and, to a lesser extent, to second-ranked Mississippi. As a result only seven major teams go into November with clean records.

They are Missouri, Navy, Utah State and New Mexico State, all seven-game winners, and Iowa, Minnesota and Yale, each 6-0. And look what's in store for them.

Iowa, ranked No. 1 in The Associated Press poll and candidate No. 1 for the Rose Bowl invitation, runs into the big, tough Minnesota team that has been a source of embarrassment to the folks who wanted to fire Coach Murray Warmath a year ago. Iowa had something less than an easy time last Saturday beating Kansas 21-7 while sixth-ranked Minnesota rolled over Kansas State 48-7.

No matter who wins, this game won't inevitably lead to a championship or a bowl game. Iowa's Hawkeyes still have Ohio State and Notre Dame ahead while Minnesota has Purdue and Wisconsin.

Navy, for whom Joe Bellino pulled out a 14-7 decision over Notre Dame, encounters Duke, a 6-0 winner over Georgia Tech. Both teams are very much in the bowl picture at this stage.

Then there's Missouri-Colorado, Southern California-Washington, Tennessee-Georgia Tech and Utah State-Wyoming, all of which figure importantly in conference title races and bowl maneuvers.

Missouri, scoring the first time it got the ball for the fifth time in seven games, whomped Nebraska 28-0. Colorado, tied with the Tigers for the Big Eight lead, had trouble beating the same Nebraska team two weeks ago but staged a joyous celebration after last Saturday's 7-0 decision over Oklahoma.

Question Of Where To Play Facing Hank

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Hank Greenberg, expected to head a syndicate that will operate the new American League baseball franchise here, will be in town Tuesday. One of his first stops will be the Coliseum.

Greenberg, now a vice president of the Chicago White Sox, will discuss a rental contract with president George Kinsey of the Coliseum Commission and coliseum manager Bill Nicholas.

The commission will meet Wednesday. President Walter F. O'Malley of the Los Angeles Dodgers probably will try then to close a deal under which his club would rent the Coliseum next year. Greenberg is expected to ask that the American League be given equal consideration.

Nicholas said last week that he believes both clubs could use the big arena.

NOTES FROM PIZZA CIRCUIT

Decision Dropped By Archie Moore

ROME (AP) — Slugging Giulio Rinaldi, 25-year-old Italian light heavyweight boxing titlist, today holds a 10-round victory over world champion Archie Moore. But he's not sure he can do it at 15 rounds in a title match.

Rinali, a virtual unknown who won the Italian crown this year on a first-round knockout, upset ageless Archie Saturday.

"I'm going to need practice — more experience — before I take on Germany's Erich Schoeppner for the European championship," Rinaldi said. "And certainly I'll need more experience, particularly in staying 15 rounds, before I meet Moore in the crack at the world title which he promised me."

Moore's recognition as world champion was taken from him last week by America's National Boxing Association, but he still is recognized in New York and other states not associated with the NBA and in Europe.

Archie, who may be anywhere from 44 to 47 years old, collected his purse of $20,000 and said, "This guy actually is good. He is a new man. He is new blood in the boxing game. We will fight for the title next time—let's say early next summer in an open stadium."

Moore didn't seem concerned about his first setback since losing to Floyd Patterson for the heavyweight title nearly four years ago. He looked out of condition but was wily as a fox.

Archie easily kept things under control for nine rounds, rolling with punches which seemed to worry him little. In the 10th, however, the Italian slugger landed two or three which sent Archie back to the ropes. The referee began counting even though Archie was on his feet.

When Archie saw what the referee was doing he broke into a soft shoe tap dance that would have done credit to Sugar Ray Robinson in his heyday.

Referee Marcello Tinelli insisted Archie was incapable of self defense and kept on counting while the champion waved at him wildly to get out of the way and let things continue.

After a count of eight, the referee told the fighters to continue. But that count probably cost Moore the decision.

Even after it was over, Rinaldi could hardly believe it.

"I kept hoping I was ahead," he said. "But all the time I was afraid his next punch might be the big one."

ANYONE FOR BOWLING—A new ladies league was formed at Snyder Lanes this week, geared strictly for the beginning kegler who has never before taken part in any league play. Several of the ladies forming the nucleus of the league are, from left, Jewell Dawson, Bobbie Milburn, president Betty Webb, vice-president Jeannine Peeples, and Pat Weyel. Not pictured is secretary Connie Wylie. It is a Friday morning League, the charge being three lines for a dollar, and there will be free nursery facilities and on-the-lane instruction available. Free supervised instruction for the ladies continues to be offered at 9 a.m. each Wednesday. (Photo by Jackson)

Arkansas, Rice In Crucial Test

By HARLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Sports Writer

Rice's Owls, flying high over the Southwest Conference journey into the Ozarks Saturday to meet a team that has been a nemesis on some painful occasions—Arkansas.

This could be the real payoff for a Rice outfit that slipped up on the field and had taken over the lead before anybody realized there was a real football team in the bayous.

There are more pleasant things to contemplate than trying to whip Arkansas in its own bailiwick, especially the kind of team Frank Broyles has this season.

It was 1946 when Rice first ran afoul of Arkansas and had its feathers plucked. Arkansas won 7-0 to tie Rice for the conference championship and get the Cotton Bowl bid. Rice went to the Orange Bowl.

Then in 1954 Rice was on the way to the championship when it took a 28-15 licking from the Razorbacks again in the Ozarks. Arkansas won the title and Rice had to settle for a third place tie.

Thus it is that the Owls will make the trip with grim determination and little thoughts of last week's exhilarating experience of taking over the undisputed lead with an unbeaten record while Baylor met defeat for the first time and fell down to a tie for second place with Arkansas.

Rice crushed Texas Tech 30-6 Saturday as Baylor saw its dreams go up in smoke before the top game of the year by Texas Christian's slumbering giants, who awoke with a start when they found they were bordering on oblivion. TCU beat Baylor 14-6 and gave the Golden Bears a lusty licking in the process.

It was the first big upset of a campaign that has reached its halfway mark with a promise of more reversals to come.

Arkansas beat stubborn Texas A&M 7-3 to stay tightly in the race. Texas laced Southern Methodist 17-7 and held fifth place a half-game back of Texas Christian.

Baylor and Texas get together for their donnybrook at Waco Saturday, while Texas A&M and Southern Methodist have it out in a consolation affair at Dallas. Texas Tech hits the intersectional trail once more, hosting Tulane. Texas Christian is idle.

Lincoln Travels To Plainview Saturday

The Lincoln High Trojans, who were to have taken on Plainview in that city this past Saturday night, have had a schedule change, and the game will be played in Plainview this coming Saturday instead.

Trojan coach Calvin Edwards, in announcing the switch, also made note of his team's final game of the season which will be played here in Snyder November 11 against Big Spring. Both the Plainview and Big Spring contests are slated for 8 p.m. kickoffs.

Plainview won its district by clipping Lamesa this past week, 22-14.

The 1959 Los Angeles Dodgers won the pennant with 88 victories, lowest flag-winning figure in National League history for a 154-game schedule.

Spirited Battle Is Set For New York's Electoral Votes

By ROBRT T. GRAY

ALBANY, N.Y. (AP)—Top Republicans and Democrats will wage a knock-down, drag-out fight in New York this week in the face of growing evidence that the state's prized 45 electoral votes may be won by Sen. John F. Kennedy.

The forces of Republican Richard M. Nixon are privately apprehensive as they go all out in what now is widely considered an uphill presidential battle in this key state.

Kennedy's Democratic forces will use front-rank campaigners to defend a position regarded by some as a precarious edge and by others as a comfortable margin.

Sources close to Nixon said last week the tide was running against him in New York.

The New York Daily News poll, conducted through secret balloting, indicates Kennedy has a lead of about 5 to 4.

A shift by Roman Catholic Republicans to support Kennedy, a Catholic, is considered a major factor in his New York showing.

But Republicans point to President Eisenhower's 1.6 million vote plurality in this state in 1956. They say the party has sufficient strength to withstand any Kennedy inroads.

Neither Republican nor Democratic leaders are willing to make official forecasts on the margin of victory they expect. Republicans are aiming for a million-vote margin outside of New York City. They feel this would overcome any Kennedy edge within the heavily Democratic city.

As the two parties wage the battle of the Empire State in these waning days of the campaign, their troops will include Eisenhower, former President Harry S. Truman, Nixon, Kennedy, Henry Cabot Lodge, Lyndon B. Johnson and Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

This powerful array is evidence of the importance both parties attach to New York's electoral votes one-sixth of the total 269 needed to win the presidency.

Some background:

New York, the most populous state, apparently has a record registration this year of 8.4 million voters, an increase of nearly 70,000 over 1956. The official 1960 total has not been announced.

Unofficial figures show 4.8 million voters registered in the upstate and Long Island area, which has been staunchly Republican. This area includes Albany, Syracuse, Rochester and Buffalo, several smaller cities and vast rural-suburban sections.

There are 3.6 million registered voters in New York City. They include large blocs of Irish-American, Puerto Rican and Italian-Americans, all heavily Roman Catholic, as well as Jewish and Negro groups.

New York has supported Republican presidential candidates in 10 of 15 elections in this century. It backed Democrat Franklin D. Roosevelt, native son, four times, Woodrow Wilson once in a three-way race. The state administration, legislative majorities both U.S. senators and most U.S. representatives are Republican.

In this campaign, Republlicans say:

1. Since New York is a Republican state, Nixon could run far behind Eisenhower and still win. Polls indicating a Kennedy victory are not sufficiently representative of the strongest Republican areas.

2. Kennedy victory forecasts make a major error in assuming there will be overwhelming shifts of Republican Catholics to Kennedy. Many Catholics will vote for Nixon in support of what they consider a stronger Republican stand against communism and sounder approach to fiscal matters.

The Democrats say:

1. We have been making slow but steady gains in recent years in strongly Republican areas. Kennedy will win a large enough plurality in New York City and cut deeply enough into Nixon strength upstate to win.

2. In addition to Catholic support, Kennedy will win ballots from voters who were impressed by his showing in the televised debates with Nixon and his broad appeal to voters.

3. Early apprehension that the presence of Johnson, a Southerner on the Democratic ticket would alienate Negro voters have proved groundless.

4. Jewish voters who leaned heavily to Adlai E. Stevenson were initially cool about Kennedy but now plan to support him.

Planes Still Grounded By Strike

MEXICO CITY (AP) — The stewards strike against Compania Mexicana de Aviaction kept all domestic and international flights grounded for the second day Sunday, as the threat of a wider strike loomed ahead.

According to estimates from company officials, a daily loss of $80,000 has been reported, as 39 domestic flights to 20 mexican cities and four international lights were cancelled.

Max Healy, general manager of CMA, termed the situation "unbearable."

While Mexican President Adolfo Lopez Mateos is expected to intervene and dresume flights, the National Union of Airline Workers threatened a strike of its 3,000 members if a settlement with CMA is not reached before Wednesday.

That would mean the crippling of radio and radio beam systems, ground maintenance and servicing, administrative officies and other similar services of Mexicana de Aviaction.

The new strike would also affect many other domestic and international airlines flying into Mexico City.

General manager Healy complained about "sabotage acts" by some of the striking stewards, and said they alone are responsible for the fact that no solution has been found.

Stewards are demanding a pay raise which the company says amounts to 200 percent, plus shorter working hours.

Aside from its domestic flights, CMA also serves jet flights to Los Angeles and Chicago, as well as DC 6's service to Havana.

Heir Is Finally Presented To Shah

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — Queen Farah Dibah gave birth to a son today, giving the Shah of Iran an heir after three marriages.

Cannons boomed out a 41-gun salute to tell waiting crowds that at long last a successor to Iran's peacock throne had been born. The Shah has a daughter by his first marriage, but women cannot succeed to the throne in Moslem Iran.

The boy was born two hours and 45 minutes after the queen entered the crowded Commoners' Charity Hospital.

10 Drownings Add To Violence Toll

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Ten persons drowned in floods that followed Central and South Texas downpours as the weekend violent death total in the state soared to 27.

Twelve of the fatalities were blamed on traffic accidents in the Associated Press tally from 6 p.m. Friday to Sunday midnight.

Three Negro women were killed late Sunday night in Dallas when their automobile and a railroad switch engine collided. They were Mrs. Lula Mae Lewis, Mrs. Rose Jackson Sparks, and Mrs. Anna M. Jackson.

The latest flood deaths reported were two Del Rio children, Pedro Ramirez Jr., 6, and his sister, Joldea, 4, who drowned in the flooding Nueces River 19 miles east of Bracketville late Saturday night. The car in which their mother and father were riding was swept into the river by rushing flood waters. The parents escaped.

Others drowned in raging floodwaters in Central Texas Saturday were:

Mrs. Effie McJenkins, 50, and her daughter, Mrs. Mary Beckworth, 22, both of Austin: Mr. and Mrs. Carl T. Smith, 35 and 27, and their son, Garry Lynn, 7, and Mrs. Smith's sister, Patsy Darlene Lewis, 13. The Smiths recently were of Odessa, but moved to Stonewall in Gillespie County. Also killed were Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Blasig, in their 60s, of Giddings.

Four residents of Schulenburg died Saturday night en route home from the Texas A&M-Arkansas football game at College Station.

The car in which they were riding crashed into a Santa Fe freight train at Lyons, about 75 miles east of Austin. Killed were Emil Joseph Chromcak, 57; his wife, Mary; Miss Tony Mertz, 68; and Charles Matula, 80.

Ramon Escarenon, 24, of Alpine, died Saturday night in a car accident a half mile west of Alpine on U.S. 90.

Flora Bennett Eckman, 26, was found shot to death in a Houston apartment Saturday. She was a former resident of Grand Prairie.

Mrs. Barbara Sue White, 25, of Dallas, was shot to death at her home Saturday night.

Two Dallas boys died in separate accidents in Dallas Friday night. David Ellison, 17, died when his motorcycle crashed with a car and Bryan Dale Pritchett, 12, died when a gun his brother was holding accidentally discharged.

Mrs. Opal Jean Smith, 28, of Snyder died in an ambulance en route to Lubbock Sunday after she received a gunshot wound in the head.

Sidney J. Daigle, 65, Port Arthur, died in a car accident on U.S. 69 near Beaumont Friday night.

Mrs. Ann Davis Korol, 24, died Saturday in a two-car collision on Highway 121 east of Fort Worth.

Clinton Downey, 14, Lamarque, drowned Sunday at Texas City after daring another youth to join him in a swim across a pond. The other boy, Rusty Spears, also of Lamarque, was saved by two men.

The burned body of a Houston caretaker was found in the rubble of the building he cared for Sunday. He was identified as Ellis McDonald, 36, of Houston.

John Fuches, 66, of Baytown was killed and one other person was injured in a two-car crash near Baytown Sunday.

—Junior Editors Quiz on— HALLOWE'EN

QUESTION: Why do we celebrate Hallowe'en?

• • •

ANSWER: During the 7th Century, the Christian Church set up a special day, Nov. 1, on which the saints were to be honored. It was called All Saints' Day. The night before All Saints' Day also took on a special significance. It was called "hallowed" or "holy" evening—or, in briefer form, hallowe'en. Some of the customs and folklore of Hallowe'en are even older than the Christian Church. Many trace their origin to the Druids, pagan priests of old England. The Druids believed that, on their Hallowe'en, ghosts and witches were on the prowl to harm people. The only way to escape them was to give them food. This custom is still observed today in "trick or treat."

• • •

FOR YOU TO DO: Are you planning a Hallowe'en party? As a special feature of the party, why not turn out the lights for a time and have your guests sit in the dark and tell ghost stories. This is what the Druids of old used to do on Hallowe'en.

Solons Called To Session In Louisiana

BATON ROUGE (AP)—A special session of the Louisiana Legislature is five days away, but it was still unclear today whether it will be a showdown with the government or a gesture of resistance to school integration.

Gov. Jimmie Davis issued the call Friday for a 12-day session to convene next Friday noon.

Davis enumerated some topics to be considered by the legislature, but he has not been specific. He mentioned education, schools, preservation of states rights, protection of public health, peace and good order and a militia.

Rep. T. T. Fields, a Davis floor leader, said he believes interposition will be the main theme.

"This is the showdown," Fields said, "on whether the state or the federal government runs our schools."

Some lawmakers privately voiced the belief the session is only a gesture to show final-hour attempts to block school desegregation.

First grades in New Orleans schools are to be integrated Nov. 14. The federal courts held much of Louisiana's segregation legislation unconstitutional and enjoined state authorities from interfering with the first-grade integration ordered by U.S. Dist. Judge Skelly Wright.

Sisters, Guardian Attacked By Dogs

POTTSTOWN, Pa. (AP)—Two sisters and their guardian today were reported in satisfactory condition after being bitten by a pack of 32 husky dogs while taking an evening walk.

The sisters, Donna Lee, 12, and Vicci Lynn Eck, 6, and their guardian, Lucy Mest, suffered bites of the back and legs when the dogs, who were traveling with a road show, attacked them Saturday night after slipping through loose boards in their pen.

Thomas Updegrove, owner of the dogs, and Mrs. Mest's husband, Paul, who heard the screams of the children, managed to pull off the dogs.

Officials said heavy coats the children were wearing helped protect them.

Dave Philley started the baseball season with Philadelphia, played for San Francisco and finished with Baltimore.

GROUNDBREAKING FOR GRACE LUTHERAN— A groundbreaking ceremony was held Sunday afternoon for the Grace Lutheran Church just south of Cogdell Memorial Hospital. Above D. M. Cogdell, Sr. who donated the land for the project, stands ready with the shovel flanked by Rev. Walter Lentz, local pastor, and Rev. Richard Carfrae of Lubbock, who was principal speaker for the occasion. Others in the picture are members of the building committee, architect H. D. Hinton, and Leslie Shelburne representing the contractor, T. E. Shelburne and Sons.

TV Debates Have Value, But Could Be Problem In Future

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst

WASHINGTON (AP) — Yes, but—.

That's one answer to those who think televised debates between presidential candidates will and should be required hereafter.

They're not an unmixed blessing.

The 1960 debates were strictly a fast sell, if only because of the time limits on Vice President Richard M. Nixon and Sen. John F. Kennedy.

Future ones, if any, will probably be different. There isn't likely to be any at all when a president runs for re-election.

This year's debates did give voters some insight into Nixon and Kennedy — how they looked and handled themselves and their knowledge and position on certain issues.

They were extremely helpful to the senator, an unknown when compared with the public's seven years of exposure to the vice president. In the very first debate Kennedy became pretty well known to an estimated 70 million viewers.

Both men got their nominations because they had them sewed up and not because of any special consideration for their TV ratings. The debates became a problem for them afterwards.

But if political parties in the future have to worry about a candidate's TV impact they may, consciously or not, pass over their best man for a pair of glib and goodlooking glamour boys.

Thomas Jefferson and Franklin D. Roosevelt, handsome and quick and articulate, could have been TV sensations. But some of the other best presidents might have been chopped up by fast-talking second-raters.

The newness of a TV debate between candidates and the interest in their personalities did more perhaps than anything else to obscure the real superficiality of the four Nixon-Kennedy meetings.

Neither, with a limit of a few minutes on each answer, was able to reveal himself fully on the issues raised in the questioning by panels of reporters and TV commentators.

Some of the questions were not good. Not all the issues were raised. What the voters got were fragments of enlightenment and big pieces of personality.

If Nixon loses this election he will have time to wonder whether the biggest single mistake of his campaign was in agreeing to meet Kennedy at all on TV.

The Eisenhower administration had spent a long time building up Nixon by using him extensively. It was an exclusive situation for a man seeking the highest office.

In his four appearances with Kennedy, Nixon, although not intentionally, helped build up his rival tremendously. In the very first one Kennedy came abreast of Nixon in public awareness.

Nixon's experience alone would make any future president, running for a second term, doubt the political wisdom of sharing a TV screen with a much less-known opponent.

Future debates may involve some of 1960's question-and-answer technique. But once the novelty of seeing candidates arguing wears off, the public will probably want face-to-face debates at length and in depth on major issues.

That's exactly the opposite of what happened this year.

Quintet Held In Shooting

HOUSTON (AP)—Police held a Fort Worth woman and four others today for investigation of the shooting Saturday of a Grand Prairie woman.

Mrs. Margie Manton Long, 21, said she saw the shooting. Police said she is wanted in Fort Worth as a material witness in the white slavery trial of Harry Kirk Wednesday.

The complaining witness, Toni Ann Jackson, shot herself to death Oct. 7.

The Long woman was arrested at the apartment where Flora Bennett Eckman, 26, was shot in the chest.

She said two men entered the apartment Saturday night and told Miss Eckman to start packing. The Eckman woman was shot during an argument, Mrs. Long said.

Two of the men arrested had records for procuring.

The Eckman woman, who went under the name of Chris Woods, was arrested in Dallas in 1956 and charged with vagrancy as Betty Jean Bennett.

Corbett Is Under Guard

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP) — "Okay," the tall, young man said, "I give up."

The mildness of the words belied the intensive, nine-month search that ended quietly here Saturday with the capture of one of the FBI's 10 most-wanted men, Joseph Corbett Jr.

Corbett, wanted on a charge of murdering a millionaire Colorado brewer, was being held here today under a close guard on a minor charge of being in possession of an unregistered firearm.

The pistol was on a bed in the hotel room where Corbett was arrested by a squad of Vancouver police and FBI men. Officers said Corbett, who turned 32 only six days ago, never had a chance to use the weapon.

The quiet, studious Corbett had eluded officers since August of 1955 when he escaped a Chino, Calif., prison where he was serving a term for second-degree murder of an Air Force sergeant.

But the hunt for Corbett was stepped up when the FBI placed him on their most-wanted list after linking him with the disappearance of Adolph Coors III last Feb. 9. Coors' remains were found Sept. 11 about 60 miles from the Golden, Colo., brewer's home in the Rocky Mountain foothills.

Menderes' Affair Revealed In Trial

YASSIADA ISLAND, Turkey (AP) — Details of ex-Premier Adnan Menderes' love affair with a 35-year-old opera singer were bared today in the court trying him on a charge of infanticide.

Menderes, 61, admitted he "lived as man and wife" with the singer, brunette Ayhan Aydan.

A high investigating committee which probed the Menderes regime prior to the trial charges that Menderes, ousted and arrested after student riots last spring, incited an Istanbul gynecologist, Dr. Hahri Atabey, to kill a child born to Miss Aydan in 1955.

Menderes and Dr. Atabey, who also is a prisoner on Yassiada Island, both deny the charge.

Menderes admitted he was the father of a child which was born to Ayhan two months prematurely and died shortly after birth.

Dr. Atabey testified when he arrived in Ankara from Istanbul the child was already dead and he helped arrange the burial.

Boy Rescues Kid Brother From Well

SMITHTON, Pa. (AP) — "That was my brother down there. I knew I had to get him out of there some way."

These were the words of Kenzie Ritenour, 13, several hours after he rescued his brother, Walter, 2, from a 20-foot well.

The youngster fell into the well Sunday while playing. Several men heard the boy screaming for help as he splashed in four feet of water at the bottom.

Kenzie was lowered into the well with a length of rubber tubing wrapped around his waist. The well was only about 20 inches in diameter, too narrow for a man to climb down.

Twice Walter slipped from his brother's grip and fell back into the well. Fnally, both boys were pulled out, Kenzie holding tightly to his brother.

Oxygen was administered to the younger boy. Then he was rushed to a hospital at nearby Mount Pleasant. Officials there reported he suffered severe shock and head bruises.

"It was the most shocking thing of my life," said Kenzie Ritenour Sr., father of the two boys. "I'm very proud of Kenzie. That was a pretty heroic thing for him to do."

The Ritenours are residents of Elwood, Ind. They were visiting relatives near this southwestern Pennsylvania community about 30 miles south of Pittsburgh.

Sen. Johnson Says Nixon Banks On Ike

AUSTIN (AP) — Sen. Lyndon Johnson asserted Sunday that Richard Nixon, the Republican candidate, "has decided to toss in the sponge."

The Democratic vice presidential said the Republicans are now asking President Eisenhower to carry Nixon "into the White House Piggyback."

Johnson made the utterances in a news conference along with Sen. Henry Jackson of Washington, national Democratic chairman.

Jackson said that during the past week Nixon has shown "all the symptoms of a defeated candidate."

"Nixon is not talking to the press," Jackson said. "He is swinging out wildly in all directions. They are calling on President Eisenhower in the last hours of the campaign and despite everything they say, Nixon has refused flatly to debate."

Johnson said he believes the failure of the Republican nominee to debate any more on television with the Democratic presidential candidate, Sen. John Kennedy, is one of the most significant developments of the campaign. Each candidate has blamed the other for failure to hold another debate.

Johnson also said he is proud "that a great majority of the ministers of Texas had done so much to keep the old religious divisions and suspicions from rising among us to divide us again in the 1960s."

This was an indirect reference to the fact that Texas, normally a Democratic state, voted against Roman Catholic Alfred Smith in 1928. Kennedy is a Roman Catholic.

Johnson leaves today for St. Joseph and Springfield, Mo. Later in the week, wiill make several Texas appearances.

Campaigners Were Merciful In 1860

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Civil War Centennial Commission, in a monthly "100 years after" chronology, includes this entry under the date of Oct. 31, 1860:

"The executive committees of the four main political parties decide at Washington not to send out any more campaign documents, as the election is so near at hand.

"Comments one newspaper: 'What a merciful relief to the people! For months past the whole country has been flooded with worthless trash which nobody reads.'"

Bookmakers List JFK As Favorite

LAS VEGAS, Nev (AP) — Sen. John F. Kennedy is favored by Las Vegas bookmakers to win five of six big industrial states in the Nov. 8 presidential election.

The bookmakers have made the Democratic candidate a 3-1 favorite in New York. The odds are 2½-1 in his favor in Ohio and 7-5 in Pennsylvania, Michigan and California.

Vice President Richard M. Nixon is a 7-5 favorite in Illinois.

Kennedy is generally an 8-5 favorite here to win the election. The odds were 7-5 in Nixon's favor shortly after the nominating conventions.

Sleeping Beauty Given New Twist

By WILLIAM GLOVER
Associated Press Drama Critic

NEW YORK (AP) — Sleeping Beauty was once just plain bewitched. But her yawn-and-kiss yarn gets a twist of 1960 satiric whimsy for Broadway in "Invitation to a March."

Now the nubile lass is just plain bored with modern convention, comfort and conformity. Jane Fonda, dainty daughter of star Henry, centers the amusing charade which opened Saturday night at the Music Box theater.

Another second-generation performer appears opposite her, James MacArthur, the son of Helen Hayes. They hold the romantic spotlight, but the major responsibility for entertainment rests with a couple of expertly veteran comediennes, Celeste Holm and Eileen Heckart.

Arthur Laurents, author and director both, stages "Invitation to a March" with a torrent of line-and-sight gags that do much to conceal the essentially negligible and contrived nature of the exercise.

Miss Holm, who took over on short notice during the tryout tour from Shelly Winters, Miss Heckart and magnolia-voice Madeleine Sherwood enact three varieties of motherhood, respectively, joy-seeking, coldly ambitious, and realistically practical.

On hand for the necessary complications of three acts are Tom Hatcher, MacArthur's stiffly proper rival swain, and Richard Derr, the sire of both lads (one outside the matrimonial pale).

There isn't much doubt, from the moment that Miss Fonda falls asleep beneath the kiss of Hatcher, and awakens to buss by MacArthur, which of these symbols of two ways of life will triumph, and Laurents hardly adds to the suspense by keeping his dramatic deck solidly rigged.

He should, at any rate, be completely satisfied as one author who didn't have to battle for his script with the director.

William Pitkin provides two southern Long Island beach houses for decor, and Lucinda Ballard has dressed the ladies with come-hither gowns, wraps and bathing gear.

314 Negroes In Detroit White School

DETROIT (AP)—Some 314 Negro children began classes at three predominantly white public schools here today despite a boycott by parents of white pupils.

The Northwest Parents Association called the boycott to protest what it called forced racial integration by the school board. More than 1,000 students were absent from the northwest Detroit schools Friday to protest the transfer.

The boycott was to continue today and Tuesday.

The Negro pupils are being transported by bus from two overcrowded elementary schools.

The three schools are Guest, where 62 per cent of the pupils were absent Friday; Monnier, 67 per cent absent Friday; and Noble, about a third out Friday. Noble already has Negro pupils. The other two schools are attended by white children only.

School Supt. Samuell Brownell said the bus plan for relieving crowding has been used for years.

Detroit's schools are integrated, but since students are normally assigned to schools close by, some are predominately white or Negro.

No Plans To Move Tests From Florida

WASHINGTON (AP) — There are no plans to move the missile testing station from Cape Canaveral, Fla., the Air Force says.

Rep. Merwin Coad, D-Iowa, had said Saturday night that he had learned from reliable sources that a transfer was possible. The Cuban situation, Coad said, might make the change necessary.

But a spokesman for the Air Force denied Coad's report Sunday night.
