C-C Chooses Three New Directors

Three directors of the Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce were announced after board members canvassed the election Monday, July 12.

Mayor Bill Hatch and Truett Holland were re-elected to the board. The new member is Gary Brewer.

Mr. Hatch has been involved in Chamber work for many years and is a past president of the Collingsworth CC. He has headed some of its major committees, also.

Mr. Holland represents farming and ranching interests on the board of directors. He was first elected as a representative of the Dodson area, and although he now lives in Wellington, he continues to look after the interests of that part of the county.

Mr. Brewer is one of Wellington's younger businessmen, who after college elected to return here to enter

Mrs. Kate Smith, Longtime Area Nurse, Dies

Mrs. Kate Smith, a Dodson resident for more than 30 years, died in Hollis Convalescent Home Tuesday, July 6. She was 78 years of age and had been in failing health about two years.

Mrs. Smith was present when the first Mother's Day service was conducted by Miss Anna Jarvis, the founder, in Anderson Methodist Church, Grafton, West Virginia. This was on May 12, 1907, one year before the first public Mother's Day service was held in the same place.

The former Mary Katherine Baker, she was born October 17, 1897, in Phillippi, West Virginia, the daughter of Guy W. and Maggie J. Mason Baker.

Mrs. Smith was a registered nurse and followed this profession from the time she

Four Picked for FB Citizenship Seminar

The Collingsworth County Farm Bureau will send four students to the 14th annual High School Students Citizenship seminar to be held July 12-16 in Waco, according to Jerry Scott, president. The seminar is sponsored annually by the Texas Farm Bureau.

Attending from this county will be Joe Baumgardner, Kathy Patterson, Kay Coffee, Wellington, and Clifford Oldham, Samnorwood. They will be among some 450 high school juniors and seniors from all over Texas who have been specially selected on the basis of leadership qualities and scholastic achievement.

Purpose of the annual seminar, which is held on the campus of Baylor University, is to give students a better understanding of the American competitive enterprise system and opposing ideologies such as communism and socialism. The program will consist of lectures, films, and

FIRST COTTON BLOOMS

F.O. Masten holds two stalks of cotton bearing blooms which appeared about July 4—the first of the 1976 crop to be reported. The cotton was planted in May and is from his place east of town. One of these stalks had 15 forms.

County-wide Pageant to Pick Centennial Queen

The Chamber of Commerce will sponsor a County Centennial Pageant to select a Centennial Queen for Collingsworth.

Entries are being accepted for the pageant which will be held at the Wellington High School auditorium on Friday evening, August 20, at 8:00 p.m. The proceeds will be used for the youth fund of the Chamber work.

Pageant co-chairmen are Mrs. Barney Glenn, a C-C vice-president, and Mrs. Bob McAlister. Other committee heads will be named later.

Loco-Arlie Queen, King to Be Named

The 1976 Loco-Arlie Reunion will feature for the first time the election of a king and queen for each of the two communities, according to Mrs. Pat Bouchell, a member of the host committee.

The reunion will be an event of Sunday, August 1, and will be in Bura Handley Community Center.

Nominees for the Arlie Queen are Lucille Covey Motsenbocker, Mora Powell and Della Lawrence. King nominees are Don Wilks, Avel Lowry, and George West.

Loco Queen nominees are Mildred Ray Osborn, Allene Ferrell Reneau and Nell Terry

Burch. King nominees from that community are Jack Brown, Frank Hall and Buddy Gibson.

Reunion registration will start at 9:00 a.m. and coffee and donuts will be served at 10:00. Those attending are to bring a picnic lunch and the bread and drinks will be furnished.

Hosts will be Mrs. Pat Bouchelle, Mrs. Ruth Lawrence, Earl Alexander, Cecil Masten, Cecil Lockhart, Mrs. Edith Carter, Mrs. Edna Crow and T.P. Below.

It is from this event that prizes are given to the youth for exhibits in the fair, contributions made to 4-H Livestock Shows, and other Chamber sponsored activities of the county youth.

Eligible contestants will be any girl between 16 and 25 years of age, single, and qualifying as a county resident.

Each contestant will have a sponsor who will be responsible for the $10 entry fee which will be used for purchasing prizes for the winners.

Entry forms are available at the Chamber of Commerce office and all entries are to be in by July 31.

Already interest in the County Centennial Pageant is growing among young women, and the co-chairmen emphasize that this is an event for young women in the entire county.

This is the first beauty pageant for this county wherein the contestants will

School Board Looks at New $685,796 Budget for '76-'77

Wellington School Board members examined proposed budget totaling $685,796 for operation of the school during the 1976-77 year as they met Monday evening, July 12.

This is up some from the budget of the year just ended. It does not include anything that may be done to the elementary building, since that will come in the budget the following year.

Receipts for the coming year are proposed at $688,043. Mrs. Nita Brantley, school tax collector and assessor, told the board.

Before this proposed budget can be adopted, a budget hearing must be held. The hearing is open to the public, and patrons especially are urged to attend.

The budget hearing was set for the next regular board meeting, Monday, August 9, at 8:00 p.m. in the high school.

Mrs. Brantley, in discussing the budget and tax report, told the board that collections for the current year have been 96.53 percent, an almost unheard of figure in area school financing.

The board considered some 20 to 25 elementary and secondary students from the school district who attend schools which are located in Oklahoma. Taking into account the per capita payment and other state funding on these students, along with the loss of a teacher, Mr. Clement estimated the Wellington Independent School District is losing around $25,000 a year.

He pointed out that students cannot legally transfer out of state except in dire hardship cases.

The board voted that out of state schools be notified of any student attending that school who lives in the Wellington Independent School District, and that the Oklahoma State education agency be notified also.

The usual procedure is that state funding on those students be cut off to the school they are attending.

Much of the board meeting was devoted to discussion of what to do about Elementary School plant. During this time, the board heard Ray L. Fraser,

Architects + Associates, and Lynn R. McLain, a member of the firm and a former Wellington resident. Mr. Fraser presented three possible plans, one for complete rebuilding of the elementary school, and two for remodeling with some additional new building to include four classrooms, administration offices and a cafeteria or physical education facility, depending on what is done with the present cafeteria.

Mr. Fraser said the present structure is structurally sound.

Supt. Clement reported on a visit to the Sayre, Oklahoma, Elementary School, which several board members will also visit.

They will hear other architects proposals, also.

Future Farmers Attend, Compete at Convention

Future Farmers from Wellington and Samnorwood Chapters are attending the 48th State FFA Convention in Houston from Wednesday through Friday, July 14 to 16. This is in the Houston Astro Arena and the convention theme is "A Future for America—FFA."

A trio from the Samnorwood Chapter, Lowry Schaub, Earl Kirkland and Randy Breeding, will represent Area I in the State Talent Contest. A country-western group, all three play the guitar and their winning number at the area contest was "Let Your Love Flow."

Mike Hill, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hill of the China Grove community, will receive his Lone Star Farmer Degree, the highest awarded on the state level. He will be a senior in Samnorwood High School and has carried out swine projects in FFA.

The voting delegate from that chapter will be Ricky Bentley.

Accompanying the group were their instructor, Jimmy Brown, families of the talent team, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Schaub, DiAnna and Russell; Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Breeding, and Crystal; and Pete Kirkland.

Lon Kiker, president of the Wellington chapter, heads that group, and other members attending as voting delegates are Allen Murdock and Robbie Murdock. Parents of this trio are Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Kiker and Mr. and Mrs. Howard Murdock.

Rodney Myrick, vocational ag instructor, accompanied them.

Heading the slate of speakers is Charlie Plumb of Kansas City, Mo. A graduate of the United States Naval Academy in 1964, he became a pilot of the Navy's supersonic interceptor, the F4B Phantom. He spent almost 6 years as a

Four Classes Plan Meetings During Ex-Students Reunion

Four graduating classes of Wellington High School will hold individual reunions as a part of the general Wellington Ex-Students Reunion Saturday, August 14.

Part of these already have plans for their get-together well under way.

The class of 1946 will observe the 30th anniversary of its graduation. This was the first graduating class to attend school a full year after the end of World War II.

Among those heading arrangements are Mrs. J.L. White (Beth Bowen) of Phoenix, Arizona, Mrs. John Wolf (Bethine Adkins), Mrs. Bob McAlister (Gay Reeves) and Mrs. Bobo Castleberry (Billie Tenison). Others will be named.

The Class of 1951 will be celebrating the silver anniversary of its graduation. Mrs. Calvin Mitchell (Patsy Harper) president of the Ex-Students Association, is spearheading arrangements for the reunion of this class. She, also, will name others to help.

The Class of 1956 has found the addresses of all but one of its members. John Alvin Horton of Arlington is making the arrangements. This will be its 20th anniversary.

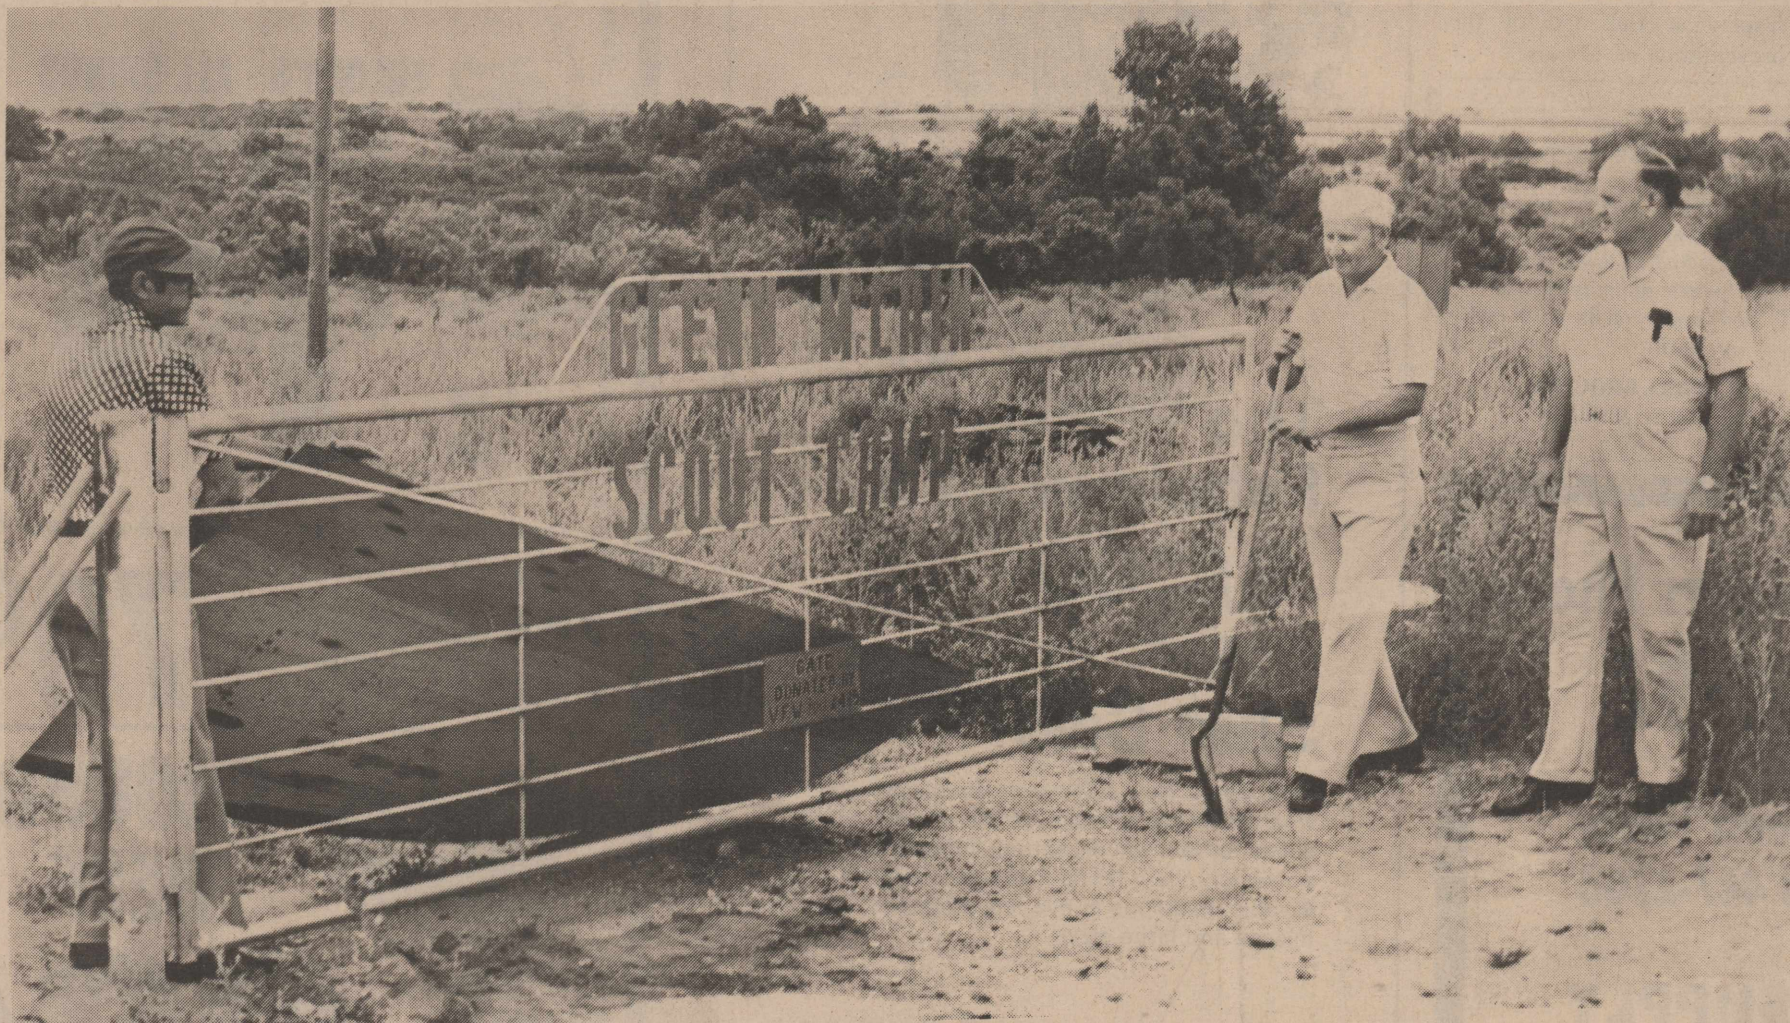

Youngest of the classes to hold a reunion is that of 1966—observing its tenth anniversary. Mrs. Elmer Keller (Carolyn Christian) is chairman of arrangements, and she will pick those to help.

Mrs. Mitchell said that Ex-Students Association Directors will meet within a few days to mail notices of the reunion and to pick committees to carry out plans.

She emphasized that the addresses of more ex-students are needed.

Postal regulations prohibit forwarding a letter more than one year after a person has moved, she points out, and Wellington exes, like the rest of the country, are fluid in their movements. Many addresses were lost for this reason during the period when the reunion was held every two years.

"Please let us have the addresses of ex-students you may know," she urged. "We'd rather have five people turn in the address of one person than to miss some others. We need these addresses badly."

GLENN MCLAIN SCOUT CAMP - A SCOUTER HONORED

An astonished Glenn McLain, right, for 25 years leader in the Scouting movement, looks at the gate at the Scout Camp on Salt Fork north of Wellington. It has just been uncovered to reveal that the camp is now named in his honor. Sam Adams, Scouter and commander of Glynn

Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, second from right, made the short dedication speech. Leon Hartman, another Scouter, left, holds the board which covered the gate and kept the event secret from Mr. McLain.

Election of Three Teachers Announced

Election of three experienced teachers to the Wellington faculty was announced by Supt. E.W. Clement following a school board meeting Monday, July 12.

Louis Graham is returning to the system as full-time school counselor. He has been a counselor with the Eastern Panhandle Co-operative for three years.

Mrs. Denny Marcum, a teacher in a joint Samnorwood-Quail program, will teach language arts in Junior High.

Lloyd D. Hays, teacher in the Arnett Schools for a number of years, will teach high school math.

At the same time, Mr. Clement announced the resignation of Mrs. Bill Wilson, high school math teacher. She has accepted another position, and it is her place that Mr. Hays will fill.

Mr. Graham began teaching in the Wellington system in 1951 and built the school's counseling program into one which was regarded as outstanding in the state. Much recognition came to the school and to him individually.

Since he left the Wellington system, the counseling program has been on a co-operative basis with Samnorwood and Quail. Upon the resignation of Don Van Pelt, the Wellington school board elected to return to a full-time counselor program, and Mr. Graham was the only person considered for the position on this basis.

He holds B.S. and M.Ed. degrees from West Texas State University and has done post graduate work at Texas Tech University.

Mr. Graham has state certification as a counselor, educational diagnostician, and school psychologist. He is an associate psychologist with the Texas State Board of Examiners of Psychologists, with elementary and secondary certification.

He has taught in all phases of the school program, elementary, junior high, high school and special education.

His educational honors include selection to Psi Chi, national honor society in psychology. He is a past president of Wellington Classroom Teachers Association.

Mrs. Marcum received a B.S. degree from WTSU with majors in history and English.

The former Melba Langley, she is a graduate of Quail High School and Clarendon College.

Mrs. Marcum taught 9 years in the Tuloza-Midway Independent School District at Corpus Christi. The last two years she taught special education.

Her husband is owner of House of Marc and the couple have three children. They live at Quail.

Mr. Hays, whose home town is Hollis, is a graduate of Southwestern State University at Weatherford, Oklahoma.

He has taught at Arnett seven years, and comes to the Wellington system highly recommended.

His wife is the former Ann Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Elliott who live east of Dodson. She was widely known as a girl rodeo performer during and after her college years, and while attending Southwestern she was the model for the painting of the Pioneer Woman which was hung in the state capitol. She also taught at Arnett two years, but has not taught since she was injured in a rodeo accident several years ago.

'Texas' Opening Honors Descendants of Ranchers

Opening night of "Texas" in Palo Duro Canyon honored the descendants of those who established 40 of the major ranches in the Panhandle of Texas.

Thirty-three of these were represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hughes represented the Mill Iron Ranch, which is the successor of the Rocking Chair Ranch established in the late 1880s.

Wendell Wilks of San Clemente, Calif., and his sister, Mrs. Cecil Masten, represented the Diamond Tail Ranch. Their grandfather, George Wilks, was a foreman for Bill Curtis from 1892 to 1902.

Mrs. Masten said the ranch stretched from Old Rowe in Greer County on the east, to the Shoe Bar, north to 62 Wells, and included the south part of Collingsworth County and North part of Childress County. In this spread were about 40,000 head of cattle with from 14 to 15 thousand calves branded each year.

This gala "Texas" opening on June 16, was the Bicentennial ceremony recognizing the first permanent settlers in the Panhandle, the ranchers who came before

The guests received leather discs with the ranch brand represented by each forebear. The reception was held in the area around the monument to Chief Quanah Parker. A show of western paintings and photographs of early day tools were displayed.

A framed map of the Panhandle showed the brand of each ranch in the area it covered.

In the amphitheatre, awards were presented for the best painting and best photograph. Mrs. Ples Harper welcomed the guests and Monty Ritchie, grandson of Mr. and Mrs. John Adair, co-founders of the JA Ranch, replied on behalf of the invited guests.

There was a fireworks display at the end of the presentation of "Texas."

There are other stores in town. And if you take the time to shop around, You'll find no lower prices. Or people quite as nice as Bell Grocery on the north end of Town!

The Hon. John Tower, United States Senator, will speak. He is a life member of the FFA Alumni Association and follows FFA work closely.

National FFA President, Bobby Tucker, of Mineola will also address the convention delegates. He is a 21-year-old agribusinessman and a member of Mineola FFA chapter.

Mark Ellison, State FFA president from Rosebud-Lott, will preside at the convention.

During the business session, a president will be named from the 10 state officer nominees representing the 10 areas of Texas. Voting delegates will be named to the National FFA Convention, Kansas City, Mo., in November. Besides the talent contest, a state sweetheart will be elected from the 10 candidates, each an area winner, and the public speaking contest will be held.

More than 5,000 FFA members, advisors and guests are expected to attend the convention.

Fund Started to Aid Youth Burned May 30

A fund has been opened in both Wellington banks for the benefit of Jerry Dan Davis, 9-year-old boy who suffered severe burns on both feet when he fell into an incinerator at Wellington High School May 30. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Danny Davis.

Mrs. Bob Weatherly, heading the group who is sponsoring the fund, said that anyone wishing to make a contribution, leaving it at either bank or by contacting her.

Donations in any amount will be accepted. All money collected will go to help pay hospital bills for the youth, who is still undergoing surgery for skin grafting in High Plains Hospital, Amarillo. He had his second skin graft on both feet Thursday.

Catholic Church Has Summer Bible School

The summer religious Bible School was held recently at Our Mother of Mercy Catholic Church, Father B.A. Erpen has reported.

Conducting the school were Mother M. Angela and Sister M. Timothy, of Sancta Maria Convent, Panhandle.

Morning sessions were from 9:00 a.m. until noon in Wellington and afternoon sessions were at St. Patrick's.

conducted at 3:00 p.m. Monday, at Fundamental Baptist Church. The Rev. Wayne Pulliam, pastor, officiated. Burial was in North Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Kelso Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were E.B. Seale, Lonnie Needham, Walter Needham, George Scott, Leo Reeves and Bud Seale.

Survivors are his widow; one son, Donald Barbee of Wewoka, Oklahoma; a stepson, Gerald D. Ray of Wellington; two sisters, Mrs. Irene Hodges and Mrs. Bertha Luttrell of Granite, Okla.; three brothers, Jim Barbee of Pixley, Calif.; Idis Barbee and Eugene Barbee of Brentwood, Calif.; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

Doctors have not indicated when Jerry Dan can leave the hospital, according to his aunt, Mrs. Richard Keller.

Mrs. Davis has remained with the boy throughout his hospitalization. His father and grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. L.A. Davis and Mrs. Oneta DePauw, are there frequently, as are other relatives.

According to officers who investigated the accident, the youth was sitting on the incinerator wall, looking into it, then lost his balance and fell inside as he started to jump down. There were still live coals in the incinerator from clean-up which followed the close of school a few days earlier.

Jerry Dan has been hospitalized the entire time since the accident.

Catholic Church, Shamrock.

At the conclusion of the school, both the parish and its mission had first community classes, with approximately 20 attending at Our Mother of Mercy Church and 10 at St. Patrick's.

The school included basic teachings of Christ, centered around the Bible stories.

Lay people working with Father Erpen on this school were Mrs. Jesse Peters, Mrs. Reynaldo Perez and Tipton Miller, along with a number of parents.

was a young woman. She was on the staff of St. Joseph's Hospital for many years and still later she was a private duty nurse. After she retired altogether, she continued making her home in Dodson until her health failed.

Mrs. Smith and her husband, the late Peyton Smith, came to Dodson from Electra in the 1940's.

She was active in the United Methodist Church as long as it functioned in Dodson. Afterwards she attended the Church of the Nazarene.

Funeral services were conducted Thursday, July 8, at the Dodson Church of the Nazarene, with the Rev. Howard Smith, pastor, officiating.

Burial was in Dodson Cemetery by Coley Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were H.P. Scott, Rufie Jameson, Herschel Tabor, Walter Camp, Garland Hightower, and A.V. Lowrie.

Surviving Mrs. Smith are two cousins, G.D. Milner and Mrs. Dorothy June Duvall of Amarillo.

Texas Twisters Offer Weekly Square Dancing

The Texas Twisters, square dancing club, was organized recently with Kenneth Patterson as president.

Other officers are Elvis Sain, vice-president; Mrs. Benton Wauer, secretary-reporter, and Gene Mote, treasurer.

There are approximately 36 members.

Meetings are on the first and third Tuesday nights of each month, at 8:00 p.m. in the American Legion building. Nicky Boone of Hollis is the caller.

Local square dancers are invited to attend as visitors, Mrs. Wauer said. Already, there have been visiting dancers from Hollis, Shamrock, Quanah and Altus.

Organization of the Texas Twisters followed the recent completion of a class in square dancing.

New classes will begin Tuesday, August 3, with Nicky Boone of Hollis as instructor.

There will be 15 lessons with the class meeting on Tuesday nights. These also will be at the American Legion building.

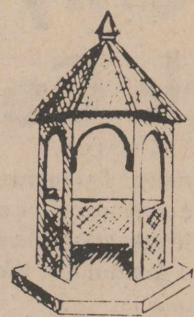

Those interested in joining may contact Mrs. Jim Morgan, phone 447-2262, or any of the present Texas Twisters members.

The oldest man ever to be nominated for president or vice president was Henry Gassaway Davis of West Virginia. He was 80 years and 235 days old when he was nominated at the Democratic Convention at St. Louis, Missouri, in July, 1904.

All Dodson Cemetery Graves Now Marked

Through the work of two organizations and some individuals, all unmarked graves in Dodson Cemetery have been marked.

Each year, Dodson Civic Club makes a gift of money to the cemetery association. This year the club specified it should be for a marker project.

The Dodson Cemetery association, knowing the club could not cover the cost to mark all of the 40 graves needing them, provided the remaining funds.

Jimmie Kelso of Kelso Funeral Home volunteered to secure the standard grave markers.

The only source of income for the cemetery association is from contributions by interested people, many of whom have moved away. Each year they receive a progress report in which the cemetery needs are explained.

"Interest is just great," said Mrs. Grover Graham, chairman of the planning and beautification committee.

This year, also, all graves were catalogued as to location, a part of the published project of La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution. The Dodson work, however, was headed by Mrs. Frances Jean Martin, a member of 100th Meridian DAR, Hollis, and an officer of the Dodson Cemetery Association.

Officers are Grover Graham, president; Thurman Crownover, vice-president;

Mrs. Tom Birchfield, treasurer; Mrs. Martin, recording secretary; and Mrs. Graham, chairman of planning and beautification.

July and hot weather are here. Mix the two together and it's time to go on a picnic. You can remember how good the fried chicken and all the other good things tasted when you were a kid.

It is also the 200th birthday of our country. No one knows better than we senior citizens how good it is to live here in America.

There will be a Diabetes check this month along with our blood pressure clinic. Do hope everyone will come by.

Our July Birthday Luncheon will be July 21, and we have a good program planned for you. Mrs. Shirley Horton Crow from Amarillo will sing for us. Those having birthdays in July are Mrs. Mattie Childress, Mrs. Pearl Aaron and Ocie Scott. Happy Birthday, Volunteers.

We have started an art class here at the center. We have 8 ladies who are painting. They are going to turn out some pretty pictures.

We were so sorry to hear that one of our volunteers in Shamrock, Mrs. Mary Bledsoe, fell and broke her arm. We do hope you get to feeling better real soon, Mary.

We had a yard cleaning at the Senior Citizen Center Friday. John Bishop, Haskell Manuel and Claud Black helped us.

Bicycling an Accident Leader During Summer

Kids do the darndest—and often the most dangerous—things.

This is especially true during the summer. The Texas Insurance Information Center (TIIC) cites a recent federal analysis of emergency room admissions which showed that last summer the most frequent causes of injury to children to be: riding bicycles, first; playing baseball, second; using nails and screws, third; playing football, fourth; and using slides, swings, seesaws and climbing apparatus, fifth.

To help reduce the number of such accidents, the TIIC has three general guidelines for parents:

—Make sure all recreational equipment is safe and in good repair.

—Help young people learn the techniques, rules and etiquette of games they play to cut down misuse of equipment and unnecessarily reckless activity.

—Be certain children understand the hazards involved in play activities and what safety rules to observe.

—Be alert for the same danger signs as if driving a car: rocks, ruts, potholes, bumps and other obstructions. Also watch out for children playing and cars or people suddenly darting out from the curb.

—Learn and observe the rules of the road; they apply to cyclists just as they do to motorists.

In addition to a concern about saving lives, Texas auto insurers have an interest in reducing the number or frequency of accidents, which has an effect on the rates for insurance. The fewer accidents, the better chance that costs for policies won't need to continue increasing, insurers say.

If you happen to have 13 children the odds are 8,192 to 1 that all of them will be boys!

MRS. BILL D. BEALL - MRS. GORMAN OWENS

Tea Thursday Introduces Newcomer, Mrs. Bill D. Beall

A tea to introduce Mrs. Bill D. Beall to the women of Wellington, was held Thursday, July 8, in the Heritage Room.

She comes here from Duncanville, and her husband is a new vice-president of Wellington State Bank.

Hostesses were women on the staff of Wellington State Bank, along with Mrs. C.T. Hubbard, wife of the presi-

Geraniums for Bright Summer

COLLEGE STATION--Geraniums are an excellent choice to brighten summer landscapes, contends a landscape horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service.

"Geraniums are easy to grow and will tolerate a wide range of conditions," says Everett Janne. "All that you need is a good soil mix and a well lighted area. Geraniums can be planted in a garden or grown in tubs, pots or hanging containers."

"When preparing the soil, add a complete fertilizer at the rate of one or two pounds per 100 square feet.

"Space geraniums about 15 inches apart so that they will have plenty of room to grow and won't need pinching. They'll also flower earlier."

Personal

Visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Patterson during the July 4th week were Mr. and Mrs. Glen Norman, Glynnda Marie and Keith Waters of Bryan, Mrs. Pete Trent and two daughters and Mrs. Betty Sloan of Duncan, Oklahoma, Mr. and Mrs. Stan Kendell and children of Amarillo and Mr. and Mrs. Pete Barbagallo and children of Farmersville, New York.

Recent visitors of Mrs. Ethel Harrison in Thomas Nursing Center were Mr. and Mrs. Richard LeVine, Robert and Brian of Azel, and Mrs. Bonnie McLaughlin of Fort Worth.

Who's New in the Wellington Area

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Lee Simmons of Canyon are the parents of a daughter, Sarah Ann, born in High Plains Hospital, Amarillo Thursday, July 8. She weighed eight pounds. Mrs. Simmons will be remembered as Vickie Allen. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Allen of Canyon and Mr. and Mrs. Simmons of Dickinson. The great-grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. P.E. Starr.

Group Attends Family Reunion

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Fulcher and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cristy, Mr. and Mrs. G.A. Montgomery, Lynn Fulcher and Chris Morrison, were in Roswell, N.M. over the weekend for a family reunion.

Hosts were Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Fulcher, brother of Albert Fulcher, and a former Wellington resident.

These were the children of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Fulcher, who lived in the county many years.

Approximately 50 relatives attended.

Other women from the bank who were in the house party were Mrs. Barney Glenn, Mrs. Truman Estes, Mrs. Wayne Martin, Mrs. Tom Birchfield, Mrs. Willie Gragson, Mrs. Elmer Feemster, Mrs. Millard Brown, Jr., Mrs. Bill Owens.

Approximately 75 guests called between four and six in the afternoon.

Mrs. Beall, like her husband, is a life-long Panhandle resident, except for the three years in Duncanville.

She grew up and graduated from high school at Dimmitt and lived in Amarillo after her marriage.

In 1962, the Beall family moved to Perryton and he joined the staff of the First National Bank a year later.

The couple have two children, Elaine, who attends West Texas State University, and Rex, a student in Stephen F. Austin University, Nacogdoches.

Mrs. Beall has been active in the United Methodist Church and especially in the Methodist Youth Fellowship. Her other activities have been centered around her home and children.

Fabric Classification, Flame Rule Procedures Developed

Since cigarettes are acknowledged as the source of frequent fires on upholstered furniture, testing procedures for classifying upholstery fabrics by the resistance of a piece of furniture to a smoldering cigarette are being developed.

"This procedure, developed by the federal government, tests how fabric and cushion material withstand ignitions of several cigarettes which are covered with a light cloth and allowed to burn out on the furniture," Mrs. Patricia Seaman, a housing and home furnishings specialist, reports.

She is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Fabric classifications of 'A', 'B', 'C', and 'D' would be the standard. Fabrics have to be sorted by the char length produced when cigarettes were placed on them

"Velvets, cotton blends and other fabrics which produce char lengths in excess of three inches will be classified 'D.' Fabrics which produce char lengths of one and a half to three inches are to be called 'C'.

She said that remaining fabrics are to be put through another test over untreated cotton batting. Those which ignite after being subjected to smoldering cigarettes are to be classified "B" and those which fail to ignite are classified "A".

"Testing procedures for upholstery manufacturers would include quarterly tests of representative 'A', 'B', and 'C' fabrics over all types of padding material constructions used by the producer.

"Fabrics in the 'D' category are to be tested similarly, but every different type of fabric is required to be tested over every construction. It is expected that many class 'D' fabrics will be discontinued

Texas B&PW Clubs Make Gift To M.D. Anderson Hospital

The University of Texas M.D. Anderson Hospital and Tumor Institute has received a $20,000 contribution from the Texas Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc. Wellington B&PW Club was one of those that contributed to the fund.

Dr. Robert C. Hickey, director of M.D. Anderson Hospital, accepted the donation from Mrs. Darlene Bonner of Jacksboro, during the Federation's state convention in Brownsville June 25-27.

Party Honors Kim Henard

Kimberlee Marie Henard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Henard III, was honored on her second birthday Wednesday July 7, at four o'clock in the Heritage Room.

This was a Raggedy Ann party with table decorations carrying out that same theme. Games were played and refreshments served.

Those who came were Marla Keller, Ashley Spillman, Jody Wood, Douglas Cudd, Dana Langford, Leta Patrick, B.B. Patrick, Mindy Watts and Dianna Lindsey, also

Mrs. John Henard, Jr., her grandmother, and from Memphis, Mrs. H.R. Yarbrough, a grandmother, Mrs. L.G. Yarbrough, her great-grandmother; Kelli McQueen and Donna Maddox.

Mrs. Bonner was 1975-76 state president of the B&PW.

Mrs. Lunelle Anderson of San Marcos, civic participation chairman, announced that the contribution, symbolic of the bicentennial year, was raised by individual B&PW clubs throughout Texas.

M.D. Anderson Hospital has been the Federation's foremost civic participation project for the past two years.

Mrs. Chloe Monroe of Garland, 1974-75 B&PW state president, presented a special award to Dallas businessman Hub Hill. A member of M.D. Anderson's Board of Visitors. Hill was recognized by the 8,000-member Federation for his efforts as a humanitarian and philanthropist toward the club's cancer project.

Mrs. Charlene Berry of Fort Worth, incoming president of the Federation, announced that M.D. Anderson Hospital would continue to receive the Federation's time, interest and support.

Three in Family Will Be College Students

College will become something of a family affair in the Earl Janes family this fall with three members attending three schools.

Mrs. Janes-Opal-- has been accepted and is enrolled in West Texas State University, Canyon. She is another of Wellington's growing number of women, who once her children are growing up, returns to college.

She is a sociology major. She was graduated from Clarendon College in the spring and is taking correspondence work this summer. She plans to commute to Canyon.

One son, Timmy Janes, has completed two years work at Amarillo and plans to attend Texas Tech University. He is a chemical engineering major. Another son, Derik, will be

Mr. and Mrs. Tommy Beam, Cameron Brent, Leigh Ann and Linda of Amarillo spent Sunday with their grandmother, Mrs. Joe Thompson.

NMS Holds Salad Supper

The Missionary Society of the Nazarene Church held its monthly meeting, a salad supper, at the church July 7, at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. Leslie Moore, president, directed the meeting. Miss Patsy Falk led the congregation in singing accompanied by Miss Susan Kimbro at the piano.

The scripture lesson was given by Mrs. John Harrison and the opening prayer was offered by Mrs. Ione Jones. Mrs. Clyde Emmert gave the study on the country of El Salvador.

The Churches of the Nazarene are studying this year, "Proclaiming Christ in Central America," a book of study on the history and development of the Church of the Nazarene in Central America.

It was written by Mrs. Ruth (Woods) Vaughn, of Bethany, Okla., who lived here as a child. A different country of Central America will be studied each month.

The Nazarene Churches receive each July a special offering that is sent to Kansas, City to be used for Other Languages Broadcast. The Nazarene Church now has broadcasts in several languages.

White Deer Setting for 23rd Reunion of Terry Family

Members of the families of the late Henry Clay and Nettie Goodwin Terry along with those of the James L. and Phoebe Bell (Collins) Terry and Victoria Terry gathered for their twenty-third annual reunion at the Community Center, White Deer, June 26-27. One hundred and thirty-six attended for both days.

The late Mr. and Mrs. Terry moved to Collingsworth County in 1931, and into Wellington in April 1932. Mrs. Terry made her home in Wellington until her death in 1956. Seven children out of the original fifteen, along with their own children and grandchildren, were present for this reunion as well as other relatives and friends.

Those attending the reunion who were originally from the Wellington area were as follows:

Mr. and Mrs. Archie Terry and Pamela, Bushnell, Illinois; Mrs. Dolly Martin (Dolly Terry), Irving; Mr. and Mrs. Walter McNeill (Ruby Terry), Davis, Calif.;

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Terry, Billy Bob and Gail, McLean; Mrs. Ann Burton, Penny and Elizabeth, Amarillo; Mr. and Mrs. E.L. Cole (Ruth Terry) and Mary Ellen, along with Mrs. Peggy Williams and Shane, Ellenwood, Georgia;

Mr. and Mrs. P.M. Cousins, Sr., (Mary Terry), Skellytown; Mr. and Mrs. P.M. Cousins, Jr. and J.C. Lamar, Colo. Mr. and Mrs. R.C. Hubbard and Al (Jessie Terry), Mr. and Mrs. R.W. Hubbard and Misty, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Powell, and Jennifer, all of Amarillo;

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Underwood (Barbara Terry), and Jackie and Aaron Underwood, Everman, Tx.

Mrs. Debbie Ragsdale, Fort Worth, brought the youngest member of the Terry family which was the five week old daughter, Misty Dawn, born May 21, 1976. She is the granddaughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben Underwood, and the great-granddaughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Terry of Wellington.

Deceased children of Mr. and Mrs. Terry are Louie Ray

Terry, Harvey Terry, Cleddie Terry, Charlie Terry, Paul Terry, Cecil Terry, Sarah Terry Chester, and Raymond Terry.

Honored guests at this year's reunion were the original descendants of the late James L., Phoebe Bell, and Victoria Terry. These were as follows:

Mrs. Walter (Curtie Terry) Hill, the oldest surviving daughter and Charles (Bud) Terry and Mr. Orville Terry, surviving sons. Mrs. Neoma Logan, the other surviving daughter, was unable to attend.

Special guests were Mrs. Cammie Terry, and Mr. John Kramer, Skellytown.

Entertainment consisted of viewing slides and pictures, conversation, eating, and photography. Officers were elected for the coming year. Plans were made for the reunion next year which was tentatively scheduled for Roman Nose, Okla.

Danny Brooks of Amarillo spent several days last week visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Brooks and Lynda. He also visited his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Brooks, and his sister, Mr. and Mrs. Redgie Souder. Danny is recuperating from a broken collar bone he received in a motorcycle mishap on the July 4th weekend in the Canadian River area.

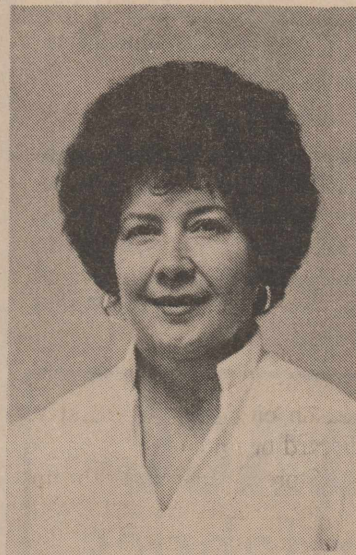

Mr. and Mrs. Dale Holley of Dennison were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. George Howard.

Mr. and Mrs. Wilford Arthur, Carla and Charles, of Quail vacationed recently in Dallas.

MRS. EFFIE NELSON

Church and Friends Honor Mrs. Nelson on 90th Birthday

Members of the Wellington Primitive Baptist Church honored their oldest member with a birthday party at the church Monday night, July 5. Mrs. Effie Nelson—called Granny by all her family and many who are not related—was 90 years old on that day.

During the evening, her favorite hymns were sung—among them, "Shall We Gather at the River," "Old Rugged Cross," and "Home of the Soul." Then Mrs. Homer Holton, herself an 83-year-old, read a poem, "Growing Old."

Mrs. Nelson came here to make her home 13 years ago from Amber, Oklahoma. Her daughter is Mrs. Jim Langley. There are two sons, Ezell Nelson of Amber, who was here with four of his six children, and Looper Nelson of Cedar Creek, Ark., who could not attend due to family illness.

Refreshments of birthday cake and punch were served to Mrs. Nelson, her children, Ezell Nelson of Amber, Okla.; Mrs. Langley; and these grandchildren: Ezell Glynn Potter of Oklahoma City; Abbott Nelson of Albuquerque, N.M.; Bill Nelson of Amber, Oklahoma; Jack Nelson of Brownsville, Kenneth Mitchell of Hollis, with his wife, Linda, and sons, Hobby and Shane Mitchell of Hollis.

Others present were her son-in-law, J.L. Langley, Elder and Mrs. V.R. Henderson of Childress, Elder and Mrs. Jack Hayes of Wheeler, Mr. and Mrs. Loyd Langley, Edna Long and Thelma Norman of Childress, Evie Aderholt of Wheeler, Ina Mae Patchell of Modesto, Calif., Nita Marcum of Fort Worth, Mary Jo Nixon and Susie of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Homer Holton, Mrs. Joyce Langley, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Motesenbocker, Mrs. Kate Newman, Mrs. Z.J. Neeley, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Boen, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Langley, Donna and Randy, Mrs. Denny Marcum, Mr. and Mrs. Cary Don Neeley, Curtis and David of Quail.

The former Effie Mae McCraw, Mrs. Nelson was born July 5, 1886, in Scott County, Ark. the daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Tom McCraw.

Mrs. Nelson is amazingly active and her activities are of a much younger woman. She pieces quilts every day, using a treadle sewing machine. She has sold some of these—recently one for a king-size bed.

She cares for her house and does much of the yard work. She raises a garden.

She was married to John A. Nelson on December 14, 1905. He died in 1959, while they lived at Amber.

On her 90th birthday, Mrs. Nelson gave this account of her childhood for The Wellington Leader:

As a small child, I lived in a large roomy log house at the foot of a mountain, which grew tall pines, which was beautiful. I would wake mornings and could hear wild turkeys gobbling and wolves, deer and other animals. It wasn't a thickly settled community. Quite a bit of land not cleared up. My father and a few neighbor men would get together and cut the timber down and trim the big pine logs, then pile them and burn them. This was called log rolling. That's the way the men got their land cleared up to farm. Those days farming was done by horse power. Some plows had two mules or animals to pull the walking plow, but some just had one horse.

We raised most everything we ate, like vegetables, pork and beef, but we had lots of wild berries and fish were plentiful.

What schooling I had was in a one-room school house, three months summer school, three in winter. Most children did not get to attend any more than one-half term, due to chills and fever during the summer. Most winter sickness was pneumonia. I can remember the first screen doors and windows I ever saw. I had to cross a river in a row boat to get to school.

Family Meets at Stagecoach Inn

Mr. and Mrs. James R. Ross of the Bourland Ranch, Quail, were at historic Stagecoach Inn in Selado for the July Fourth Holiday.

The occasion was a reunion of their family and that of Mrs. Ross' sister, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Dillard and family.

Joining Mr. and Mrs. Ross were their daughter, Mrs. Pat Carter and her children, Hud and Gigi, of Hendersonville, Tenn. She had been vacationing as the guest of friends in San Juan, Puerto Rico and met the children in Dallas.

Their son, Joel Ross of Odessa, joined them.

All of the Dillards five children, with their own families, were present.

Stagecoach Inn was established more than a century ago and much history of the Bell County area has taken place there.

An Organized Closet Better

COLLEGE STATION--Do you have problems finding closet room for your clothes...do you spend unnecessary time finding your favorite garment...then do you have to press it because it was crushed in the crowded closet?

"Then you can't delay a 'closet face lift' any longer," Mrs. Becky Culp, area clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System, advises.

She suggested beginning by separating the wardrobe into categories—seasonable wearables, out-of-season wearables, unwearables with updating or repairing possibilities, and no salvageables.

"Give the not salvageables to a favorite charity or anyone who could use them. Usually if a garment hasn't been worn for a season, it won't be next season either, so it's best to discard or update it."

"Store garments with updating possibilities along with the sewing supplies for another day's project."

"Out-of-season wearables should be cleaned, repaired and then stored out of the way in the back of the closet, in a little-used closet or in other available suitable places where protected from dirt, lint and light," she advised.

Arrange seasonable wearables in a manner most logical and convenient for available space and personal use. Many prefer grouping garments by type—such as pants, dresses or shirts, or by activity, such as dressy garments, active sportswear or work clothes, she noted.

"Closet aids such as padded hangers, tie racks or shoe bags help preserve garment shape and condition and make effective use of close space."

"Use available wall and door space to maximum advantage with hooks, peg boards, racks, extra shelves and storage boxes," she suggested.

"Remember, a little time and effort periodically spent in managing the closet pays off in added convenience, ease in dressing and in preserving the life of the wardrobe," she said.

Cornelius Family Has First Reunion in Eighteen Years

The first family reunion in 18 years for the children of Mrs. Eva Cornelius and the late Mort Cornelius was held in her home Sunday, July 4.

There were games, visiting, taking pictures, and the family dinner.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Cornelius and son, Steven of Granado Hills, California; Mr. and Mrs. Manson Cornelius of Alta Loma, Calif.; Mrs. Charles Owens and daughter, Mrs. Derell Beam of Salem, Oregon;

Mrs. Leona Dickerson, Mr. and Mrs. Harry L. Patterson, and these grandchildren, Mr.

and Mrs. Johnny Mort Cornelius of Oklahoma City and Harry Glenn Patterson of Amarillo.

Friends visiting were Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Patterson of Kansas City, Mo.

Saied Family Reunion Held

One hundred three members of the families of the brothers and sisters of Mack Saied, Sr. gathered last weekend at the Ramada Inn in Elk City, Okla. for their annual reunion.

Attending from Wellington were Mr. and Mrs. Mack Saied, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Mack Saied, Jr., Cindy Saied of Ft. Worth, Mary Saied of Lubbock, and Bobby, Jimmy and Becky Saied.

Guests over the weekend of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Karnes were Mr. and Mrs. Clifton Stafford of Springtown, Mrs. Clifton Thomasson of Fort Worth, James Stafford and Jeff of Oklahoma City, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Karnes, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson Brown and Stan and Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Maddox and Heather of Amarillo. The Staffords also visited Mrs. Roy Stafford. In addition the group visited with Mr. and Mrs. Otis Roberson.

Variety the Key to Autumn Fabric, Fashion Trends

COLLEGE STATION--Variety is the key to fall fabrics and fashions. Rather than one important new look, many different trends and influences are in style, Margret Ann Vanderpoorten, a clothing specialist, reports.

"Major trends are the layered look, classics, naturals and the ethnic look," she said.

Miss Vanderpoorten is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Layered looks will be most evident in active sportswear. Layers will be functional as well as decorative. Terry cloth, corduroy and fleece, muslin, poplin and shirting fabrics will be popular in both natural and bright colors, she reported.

"Classics, termed the 'thoroughbred look,' will be seen in neutral colors and new basics such as luggage red and spruce green. Refined tweeds, herringbone patterns and pin stripes will combine with solids to give an elegant tailored look to favorite separates. Blazers, vests and simple skirt or pant styles will be front runners," she said.

Natural looks such as wrap skirts and dresses, easy-fit styles and casual wear will make this look top fashion. Texture will be important with crinkled muslins, slubbed fabrics and denims being among the most popular. Many of the natural look fabrics will be made of synthetics for easy care and permanent crinkles, she added.

"Ethnic looks will range from restrained delicate Oriental styling to bold fiery Guatemalan stripings to African wood block prints. Emphasis is on the world's variety of cultures with imagination the only limit to what consumers will wear this fall," the specialist said.

Care of Mums Now Pays Off In Fall Color

COLLEGE STATION --- Now is as good a time as any to start preparing for fall flower garden. Because chrysanthemums are colorful and long lasting, they make a good choice.

Everett Janne, a horticulturist for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says rooted cuttings of chrysanthemums that are planted in June will have a shorter growing season and will produce compact plants that do not need much staking.

"Plant chrysanthemums in a sunny area in fertile soil," recommends Janne. "It's a good idea to apply a complete fertilizer at the rate of two to three pounds per 100 square feet of soil. Work the fertilizer into the top six inches of soil and water thoroughly after applying."

Planting on an elevated site lessens the danger of frost, and a mulch of sawdust, bark, woodchips or peat moss around the plants helps conserve moisture and cuts down on weeds.

Janne advises applying a sidedressing of ammonium sulfate fertilizer six weeks after planting at the rate of one-half pound of fertilizer per 50 feet of row. After applying the fertilizer, water well. Another sidedressing may be applied in mid-August.

"For compact plants and a lot of flowers, pinch one inch off the end of each new shoot when the shoots are three inches long," says the Texas A&M University System's horticulturist. "This will make the side buds grow, causing plants to spread out and produce more blooms. Plants may need to be pinched three times, but no pinching should be done after July."

If you want large flowers with long stems, remove all side buds from the plants in late August. This will allow the food to go straight to the end of the stem, causing large flowers, Janne explains. Of course, taller plants will need to be staked.

Appliance Energy Labeling Postponed

COLLEGE STATION -- Energy labeling requirements for several major appliances will be delayed for a year or more, reports Mrs. Janice Carberry, a family resource management specialist.

"Since the means for determining energy use has not yet been worked out, the Energy Act of 1975, making efficiency labeling mandatory, has proven difficult to administer," she explained.

Mrs. Carberry is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"Appliances due for energy labeling by September 30, 1976, have a year's delay. These appliances include color and black and white televisions, gas and electric ranges, microwave ovens, gas fireplace inserts and electric room heaters.

"Energy labeling for washers, humidifiers and central heating and air conditioning originally scheduled for June 30, 1977, will have until September 30, 1977," she reported.

Lisa Nix at Adams State Cage Camp

ALAMOSA, COLO. -- The Adams State College Basketball Camp, under the direction of Adams State College Head Coach Rick Marriott, attracted over fifty young cagers from Colorado, Kansas, Texas, and New Mexico.

Lisa Nix from Wellington attended the camp.

Camps are held annually for the purpose of motivating young men and women to excel in basketball. According to Coach Marriott, "By exposing youngsters to fine competition and keen basketball minds, it is my hope that a burning desire will be instilled in each participant to realize individual potential and become a great player."

Welcome to Collingsworth

For Dale Stewart, it is Welcome back to Collingsworth and to Dodson. For his family, it is a first-time residence in the county.

He has been living in Los Angeles five years and with the family, chose to come back to a small town, away from the fast pace of big-city living.

Stewart plans to find work in the Dodson or Wellington area.

His wife, Clydene, is a cartoonist, and has worked with Hanna-Barbara, Filmaton and Kerts & Friends. She did the Chevron cartoons now being seen on TV.

They have four children who will attend Wellington Schools—Jimmy, 14; Shelly, 12; Kathy, 11; and Gary, 6.

Jyll Risley returned to her home in Amarillo recently after two weeks visit with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Tarter. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Del Risley came for her and left her brother, Derek, who is visiting this week in the Tarter home.

Letters from the People

You the Citizens of Collingsworth County have saved three small Post Offices: Dodson - Quail - Samnorwood and weekend service in Wellington. You saved them by alerting your elected officials in Washington with accurate information on what was happening in our county and asking for their help.

Each local person did what they were asked to do. The local people worked with a united effort which was to SAVE OUR POSTAL SERVICE. We are blessed with strong representation by our elected officials in Washington. Congressman Jack Hightower and Senator Lloyd Bentsen took proper action immediately. They did the hard work to keep the three Post Offices open and return weekend service to Wellington.

It is our hope that places of business who appreciate the postal services being restored will tell our elected officials.

Hand written letters are wonderful, so do not fail to write just because you do not type. It is the appreciation that counts.

Without their immediate help the present Post Offices would have been closed like the Dozier Post Office was closed several years ago.

Their addresses are:
Honorable Jack Hightower

Cards of Thanks

May we take this means of thanking those who were so helpful during my stay in the hospital, the nurses, Dr. Carter Holcomb, friends who expressed their concern, and Rev. Jim Boswell.

Mr. and Mrs. Gus Barton

We shall always be grateful to Dr. Carter Holcomb and the nurses and staff of Collingsworth General Hospital for the excellent care, concern and understanding shown to our beloved husband, Dad and Grandpapie, and to us, during his stay in the hospital and at his passing.

God bless you.

Glenn McLain Scout Camp Dedicated at Ceremony

It's Glenn McLain Scout Camp!

The Scout camp 7 miles north of Wellington and just across Salt Fork south of Pioneer's Park, was officially named for the veteran Scouter in Ceremonies Sunday, July 11.

At that time the camp gate was installed. Bearing the name, Glenn McLain Scout Camp, it was given and erected by Glynn Moore Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars.

It was paid for by proceeds from the club operated by VFW and from its aluminum can collection.

Ward Store Grand Opening To Be July 21-24

The Grand Opening of Montgomery Ward Catalog Store under its new owners, Steve and Katie Davis, will be held Wednesday through Saturday, July 21 to 24.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis recently bought the business from Mr. and Mrs. John Sherman, who had operated it since it was established.

Steve and Katie Davis are another of Wellington's young couples who lived away, then chose to come back to their home town.

Both graduated from Wellington High School and attended Amarillo College and West Texas State University.

Mr. Davis was a foreman on insulation for Styrothane at Freeport, working principally in the plant of Dow Chemical Co.

Since they have returned to Wellington, Mrs. Davis worked at Montgomery Ward Catalog Store for a year before they bought the business. He was associated with his father in Davis Grocery and Station.

A number of special activities are planned as part of the grand opening, said Mr. Davis, as he extended an invitation to the public to attend.

REV. WAYNE PULLIAM

Wayne Pulliam New Pastor of Church Here

The Reverend Wayne Pulliam is the new pastor of Fundamental Baptist Church, coming here from a staff position at Caprock Baptist Church, Amarillo.

He will be ordained to the ministry on July 24, at Fundamental Baptist Church, with the Rev. Clarence Bishop of Caprock Baptist Church and other pastors from the surrounding area conducting the service.

Rev. Pulliam grew up in the Ady community 8 miles from Boys Ranch and graduated from Tascosa High School, Amarillo. He attended The Bible Baptist College in Springfield, Missouri, then went to Portland, Maine, where he was associate pastor of a church for two years.

His work in Amarillo was under Rev. Bishop.

Rev. Pulliam and his wife, Glenda, who is also from Amarillo, have four children, Jimmy, 12, Teresa, 10, Lynn, 7, and Becky, 5.

Fundamental Baptist Church is located at Floydada and 9th Streets. Sunday School is at 10:00 a.m., the worship service at 11:00 and evening services at 6:30. Midweek Bible Study is Wednesday at 7:30 p.m.

Mrs. Teutsch, 87, Dies Thursday At Clifton

A Dodson resident for many years, Mrs. Marvin Teutsch, 87, died at Clifton Thursday, July 8.

Funeral services were conducted at Clifton Saturday and burial was in the family plot of Serena Cemetery.

The family moved to Dodson in 1926 with their four young children. Mr. Teutsch was a carpenter and also did some farming.

In 1943, they moved to Texas City, where he was employed in construction work until he retired. In 1961, they returned to Dodson to make their home and to be nearer part of their family.

Mrs. Teutsch was a member of the Eastern Star and Baptist Church. She was active in both during her years in Dodson.

The former Oleavy Josephine Forse, she was born at Nacogdoches. She and Mr. Teutsch were married there May 5, 1907 at Nacogdoches. He died several years ago.

Survivors are four children, Tucker Teutsch of Ft. Worth, Floyd Teutsch of Plainview, Thomas Teutsch of Washington, D.C. and Mrs. Jim Smith of Clifton.

Scouter, and Leon Hartman, another long-time scouter, spearheaded the drive to erect the gate.

Mr. McLain has given 25 years leadership to Boy Scouts in Canadian and Wellington.

He became interested in the Boy Scouting as his own sons reached the age for membership. He was an Assistant Scoutmaster at Canadian, and upon moving to Wellington as an engineer with the Texas Department of Highways and Public Transportation, he was an assistant under the late Royce Daves.

He became Scoutmaster of Troop 32 about 1958.

Perhaps this Scoutmaster's greatest contribution to Scouting, outside the direct effect on the boys of his troop, has been through his keen interest in camping, and the development of Camp M.K. Brown near Mobeetie. He has contributed heavily to the development of its physical facilities.

With the opening of the Scout camp north of Wellington, Mr. McLain was among those to lead in its development. It is still in the initial stages and it is likely that its growth will be Glenn McLain's work for some years ahead.

He received the Silver Beaver Award, one of Scouting's highest.

Mrs. McLain-Laverne - has worked closely with her husband in his Scouting activities.

Two of their sons, Lynn McLain and Ted McLain, are Eagle Scouts. The third, Chester McLain, became a Life Scout. All three live in Lubbock.

Two, Lynn and Chester, were here Sunday for the camp dedication.

This event was kept a secret from Mr. McLain, who thought he was going out to attend a Scout-parents picnic at the camp. Besides these, a number of former members of his troop and their parents were present.

LEE TEMPLETON

Templeton Captures Valley Tennis Title

Lee Templeton captured the high school boys singles title in the Valley Invitational Tennis Tournament Friday through Sunday, July 9 to 11.

He met a traditional rival, top-seeded Ron Eudy of Valley and defeated him 6-0 and 6-3. Eudy has been a state finalist in Class B tennis competition for two years.

This meant more than the title to Templeton, important as that was. He and Eudy have been meeting in tennis competition since they were in the eighth grade and this was Templeton's first victory.

He defeated players from Tulia and Lakeview to meet Eudy in the finals.

In the men's doubles, Templeton teamed with Ted Phillips of Memphis to meet David Martin, West Texas State tennis instructor, and Scotty Setliff of Valley, a state Class B doubles finalist. The Martin-Setliff combination won in the first round 9-7 and 6-1.

Phillips was second to Templeton in District 2-A competition.

Templeton placed second in high school boys singles at the Lakeview Invitational Tennis Tournament July 1 through 4, losing to AAA District Champion Tommy Faulkner of Borger.

He and Phillips again teamed in the men's doubles to meet and again went to the finals before losing to Faulkner and David Johnstone of Frank Phillips College. This gave the Templeton-Phillips combination second place in the tournament.

Circle C Western Wear to Open Here Friday

Circle C Western Wear will become Wellington's newest business when its doors open on the west side of the square Friday, July 16.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clinkscale are the owners. They will be assisted by their son, Jackie.

The store will carry a full line of western wear, including shirts, jeans, hats, boots, ladies western wear and western accessories.

Mr. and Mrs. Clinkscale moved here June 1 from Perryton where they had lived 3 years while he was deputy sheriff of Ochiltree County. They live in Sagebrush Apartments.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Clinkscale were reared at Altus and before moving to Perryton, they lived at Hollis for ten years.

Mr. Clinkscale is a member of the Kiwanis Club here and he was a member of the Sheriff's Association of Texas in Perryton.

Mrs. Clinkscale is a member of the Rebekah Lodge here and a member of the Eastern Star at Hollis. Their church membership is with First Baptist Church, Hollis.

Jackie Clinkscale graduated from Perryton High School in May, 1976. He was active in FFA and 4-H.

The Clinkscales have one daughter, Mrs. David (Susie) Crockett of Brenham, a senior at Texas A&M University.

Michael to Head Nebraska College

Dr. Charles Michael has accepted a position as Western Nebraska Technical Community College area president and will head three colleges in the Sidney Nebraska area. These are Nebraska Western College at Scottsbluff, Western Nebraska Technical College at Sidney and the School of Practical Nursing at Alliance.

He goes to this work from a post of administrative dean at Garden City, Kansas, Community College.

Dr. Michael is the son of Mrs. J.F. Michael and the late Rev. Michael. He lived in Wellington for several years and graduated from Wellington High School.

His duties as area president begin September 1, but he will take over the reins at the Sidney college August 1. The family is moving this week.

Dr. Michael came to Garden City Community College 9 years ago as registrar and director of admissions under the administration of L.C. Crouch. The college enrollment just topped 500.

Over the years, the enrollment has steadily increased, last fall reaching 1,382 students. Combined enrollment at the three Nebraska colleges is somewhat larger than at Garden City.

In 1971, Dr. Michael's title was changed to administrative dean.

Born in Liberal, Kansas, Dr. Michael was reared at Claude and Wellington and received his B.S. degree in administration from Panhandle State College in Goodwell, Okla. He earned his master's degree from Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene and in 1971 received his doctorate from the University of Tulsa.

In public school administration, he was superintendent of schools at Guthrie three years and at Hudson, Iowa a year.

He and his wife, Gracie, have a son, Charles, Jr., who will be a high school senior this fall, and a daughter, Kathy, who will be a freshman.

The family has returned to Wellington frequently to visit his mother during the time Dr. Michael was at Garden City.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Towns, Eddie Don and Tony and Mrs. Marie Stroup of Chattanooga, Tennessee were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith from Wednesday until Sunday of last week.

Red Cross Commended for Disaster Gift

Earl Hunter, county Red Cross chairman, has received a letter of commendation from the West Texas Division Office, Ft. Worth, for more than doubling the quota requested in the recent disaster call.

Collingsworth is one of about one-half dozen counties in the Panhandle to achieve this mark.

Mr. Hunter explained that following natural disasters which devastated Guam, and another in Oregon, to which the Red Cross responded.

The county Red Cross Chapter was first asked to donate $56, which it did. Shortly afterwards, an additional $112 was requested, and a few days later the chapter was asked to double this, making a total of $280 given in the disaster call. This was paid out of local Red Cross funds available, and no special drive or request for funds was held, Mr. Hunter pointed out.

Cemetery Recording Book Compiled by DAR

La Paisana Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, now has on sale its "Collingsworth County Cemeteries, 1876-1976," and inventory of the 9 cemeteries of Collingsworth County, and also Arlie Cemetery in northeast Childress County. Many Wellington area people are buried at Arlie.

This is the chapter's Bicentennial project and the volume is dedicated to two charter members, Margaret Campbell Johnson and Emma White Henard, now deceased, who strongly supported the work.

The work was spearheaded by Mrs. Jack Davis and Mrs. H.H. Bowen, but all members of La Paisana Chapter worked, as well as a number of other interested citizens. Credit is given these in the book.

To insure accuracy, many return trips were made to cemeteries—up to nine visits in one instance! The listings in each cemetery are arranged so that a stranger seeking a specific grave site, can use the book and locate the grave without problem. If there is an unmarked grave, that plot is listed as such. If there is an apparent grave, but it is an uncertainty, this also is noted. There is an excellent index.

The casual reader finds much of interest and seeing a name brings up many memories, delightful and gay as well as serious.

Interesting experiences accompanied the work for DAR members.

There is much more movement in these cities of the dead than one might expect. Bodies are removed for a number of reasons but usually to unite a family. Often a death occurred in a family that lived here only a short time. A later, much more permanent residence was established somewhere else, and the member buried here was taken to a new family plot.

Mrs. Davis recalls that after recording in Fairview Cemetery was completed, she was passing Memorial Gardens one day and saw a new grave. She and Mrs. Bowen went out to make a recording. They were surprised to find that this was one they had recorded earlier at Fairview. Relatives had the remains moved to the old family plot at Memorial Gardens.

When Fairview Cemetery was opened, there were many removals from the "old" cemetery. With the reactivation of that burying ground as Memorial Gardens, some of the bodies have been moved back to their original resting place, DAR workers learned.

There is an interesting section "On the Lone Prairie"—stories of deaths and burials that occurred at cow camps—among families traveling through who camped for a night or two along some creek.

There was Poke Jeffries, who was hanged by two strange cowboys, in the north part of the county. It is told by the DAR member whose

BRENT LONG - LYNN BARTLETT

Youths Attend WTSU Summer Tennis Camp

Two Wellington youths, Brent Long and Lynn Bartlett, were among more than 250 young tennis players who participated in the sixth annual West Texas Tennis Camp recently on the campus of West Texas State University.

Both boys, because of their ability, were placed in the intermediate group of players, Brent, 12, and Lynn, 10, each were the youngest player in their particular playing group. Their parents are Mr. and Mrs. Billy R. Long and Mr. and Mrs. Earl L. Bartlett.

The camp was one of three scheduled this summer on the Canyon campus. The camp is under the direction of WTSU tennis coach David Kent and Amarillo Town Club pro Roland Ingram.

"We try to do two things in the camp," Kent says. "One, we try to improve each individual's game, and two, we try to have some fun."

Assisting Kent and Ingram are members of WTSU 1976 Missouri Valley Conference championship team. The Buffaloes won their fourth straight league title in the meet held on WTSU's 14 Laykold courts in May. It was WT's fifth MVC championship in six years of competition.

In addition to the great tennis facilities, campers also have the use of the university's $4 million Student Activities Center.

Four Wellington Scouts Will Attend Philmont

BY JIMMY MORGAN

A group of 7 Boy Scouts and one leader will make an expedition to Philmont Scout Camp near Cimarron, N.M., representing the Adobe Walls Council, from July 26 to August 7.

Going from Wellington will be Jimmy Morgan, 14, and Chuck Darter, 15, both Eagle Scouts; Craig Darter, and Neal Van Pelt, both 14 and Life Scouts.

Others will be Tim Wells of Borger, Terry Putnam of Clarendon and Scott Ridgeway of Higgins.

At the High Adventure Base of Philmont, these boys will meet with Scouts and Explorers from throughout the United States.

When they arrive at Philmont Ranch, they will be briefed on the camp rules and regulations by a ranger, who will tell them the proper gear to be taken as they hike what will cover 52 miles by the end of their stay.

Their crew will take part in cooking with dehydrated food, panning for gold, fishing and rock climbing. These are just a few of the many things the boys will be taking part in.

At the end of the trek, these scouts will join 300,000 others who have proved that Manpower begins with Boy-power.

Philmonst is owned and operated by Boy Scouts of America and encompasses 137,493 acres, or 214 square miles. Most of this was given by the Waite Phillips, Oklahoma businessman who in the 1920's began buying land in northeastern New Mexico for farming, ranching and vacationing.

In 1841, the government of New Mexico granted a huge tract of land in this region to Carlos Beaubien and Guadalupe Miranda, hoping they would settle the wild frontier. Soon farmers and ranchers arrived and established the village of Rayado, location of the Kit Carson Museum, which the boys will visit.

Lucien B. Maxwell, scout, trapper and long-time friend of Kit Carson, started the settlement in Cimarron and later married Beaubien's daughter. He acquired and inherited the land grant from Beaubien and Miranda, and it is best known to history as the Maxwell Land Grant.

Some of the points of interest the boys will see, besides Villa Philmonte, the "Big House" are the Ernest Thompson Seton Memorial Library and Museum, honoring the famous author, artist and naturalist and one of the early founders of the Boy Scouts of America (this is open to the public); Indian writing Camps, where petroglyphs are still to be seen; Baldy Town Camp, an abandoned gold mining settlement; Cyphers Mine and French Henry Camps where visitors may take guided tours through gold camps; 12,441-foot Baldy Mountain and the 9,000-foot Tooth of Time, best known landmark at Philmont and a landmark of the Santa Fe Trail.

(Editor's Note: Jimmy will follow this story with others, either during the time he is at camp or shortly after he returns.)

Indian Art On Exhibit

Two Bicentennial Exhibits at the Amarillo Art Center honor the first Americans, the Indian tribes of the Great Plains.

The exhibits will be on view until August 1st. The Amarillo Art Center, located at 2200 S. Van Buren, is open to the public free of charge from 10:00 a.m. - 5:00 p.m. Tuesday through Friday, from 1:00 - 5:00 p.m. Saturdays and Sundays, and from 7:30 - 9:00 on Wednesday evenings.

A series of twenty woodcuts by Bruce Carter of Pittsburgh, Pa., depicting images of the 1890 tragedy at Wounded Knee, South Dakota are accompanied by a collection of Native American person articles on loan from the Panhandle Plains Museum in Canyon and private collections under the title The South Plains Tribes: Functional Aesthetics.

As everyday life and ceremonial life for the traditional Native American have been so intertwined, the South Plains exhibition will deal with the construction and decoration of the articles serving both facets of life. The exhibition wishes to emphasize the artistic nature of the individual articles in their expression of the oneness of art and life.

The woodcuts are vivid interpretations of the consequences of the last large-scale confrontation between the Northern Plains people and the U.S. military at Wounded Knee, where approximately 300 Sioux were killed by U.S. Cavalry under circumstances disputed by both sides. Bruce Carter currently teaches at Carnegie Mellon University in Pittsburgh. He has participated in major exhibits for the Society of American Graphic Artists, New York; the Third International Print Biennial Exhibition, Epinal, France; and the National Indian Arts Exhibition in Scotts dale, Arizona.

EQUIPPED FOR PHILMONT

These Boy Scouts will attend the High Adventure Camp at Philmont Scout Ranch later this month. The packs they carry, and which they wear here, will weigh approximately 35 pounds, as they hike through the wilderness area. From left are Jimmy Morgan, Chuck Darter, Neal Van Pelt and Craig Darter.

Potpourri

ANITA BLANTON
County Extension Agent

Microwave oven sales soared in 1974 with more microwave appliances sold than any previous year. The growing popularity of this appliance has created widespread interest and raised many important questions concerning consumers attitude and use of it.

One important question that is frequently asked is food preservation in the microwave. At the present time the microwave oven should not be used for food preservation. Microwave ovens do not allow even heat penetration into the closed jars, and the metal lids interfere with heat distribution.

This is not an acceptable method of canning, blanching or drying vegetables at home, because harmful bacteria may not be destroyed. Just as it is not safe to can in the conventional oven, it is not safe to can in the microwave oven.

Blanching vegetables prior to freezing kills enzymes that other-wise would continue to work and cause undesirable changes in the food. The recommended method of blanching is in water. Or steam blanching may be used for dried foods. But blanching in the microwave is not recommended because of uneven distribution of heat.

Drying foods involves control of time and temperature. Since the temperature in a microwave oven cannot be controlled, it should not be used for drying fruits and vegetables at home.

Another question is: Can home-canned vegetables be cooked in the microwave? It is not recommended. It is best to cook home canned vegetables conventionally. The vegetables must be boiled 15 minutes to insure their safety and the boiling action of the microwave is too intense for this period of time.

Microwave ovens have many advantages. They save time, labor, easiness to clean, coolness of kitchen and convenience. The prediction is that one family out of ten will own a microwave by early 1978.

—Just don't use them for home food preservation!

Educational programs conducted by the Texas Agricultural Extension Service serve people of all ages regardless of socio-economic levels, race, color, sex, religion or national origin.

Mrs. Otho Talley Has Eye Surgery

Mrs. Otho Talley of Dodson underwent surgery in High Plains Hospital, Amarillo, recently for the removal of a cataract from one eye. The operation also included a lens implant, according to her daughter, Mrs. Doyle Sain.

She has returned for her first check-up and doctors say she is doing fine, according to Mrs. Sain.

Mrs. Ella B. Smart of Pampa was a weekend guest of Mrs. Lee Vaughan and Mrs. S.L. Lindsey.

father many years ago bought the land where Jeffries is buried, and who was living in the area when the hanging occurred. The family cares for this lone grave. Her story differs from one published about the event last year in a magazine but this is regarded as the more accurate, for family memories have been direct.

There is another story of a Mr. Bowers, Sheriff of Wheeler County, who was visiting his son and daughter in law at Red Bluff. All other men were away hunting when Mr. Bowers' horse threw him and he died. His daughter-in-law dug the grave and buried him.

Mrs. Davis has given additional information about the book and the work:

The books, printed and bound by The Book Bindery, Ada, Oklahoma, are being sold at Corky's Frame Shop. They are offered in three different bindings, all red. The prices are as follows: Hardback, $20.00; Composition Leather, $12.50; Paperback, $10.00. The pre-publication printing sold so quickly that it was necessary to make a second order before delivery of the first. It is hoped that a third can soon be made.

Since the organization of this DAR chapter, it has been a dream of the members to prepare the very first cemetery record in such a way that it will serve as a tribute to our departed generations, a treasured heirloom for us and our posterity and a guide for us and for those to come when the site of a specific grave is being sought. This non-profit labor of love is a result of the volunteer work done by many people for much over a year. Perhaps a supplement can be prepared every five years.

The Veterans Administration County Service Officer, Mr. Jimmie Bowen, asked DAR members to assist in compiling a complete list of all veterans buried in these cemeteries. As a result of this cooperative effort, it was found that a great number of the graves of veterans have no kind of military marker. If families of such men would contact Mr. Bowen by calling 447-5705, he would be happy to explain the generous assistance which the Veterans Administration offers in acquiring such markers.

Many unmarked graves have been identified, but many, many more remain unknown. Perhaps other communities and individuals would like to follow the example of the Dodson Community. Their Federated Civic Club, under the leadership of their president, Mrs. Murray Dodson, selected as their Bicentennial Project to raise money for the purpose of placing Funeral Home Markers on all their unmarked graves. With the cooperation and assistance of the Dodson Cemetery Association, the Kelso Funeral Home and many individuals, the project will be completed this summer.

Not only in our Bicentennial Year, but always, may we honor our forbears who have labored to make Our Country great!

You can Bank on it!

By BILLY MOSELEY
President
CITY STATE BANK

Thomas Jefferson is back with us again — it is his visage that appears on the face of the new $2 bills that returned to the monetary scene after an absence of some 10 years.

Some people at the Federal Reserve say that one of the reasons the $2 bill never gained popularity is that there never were enough issued, and thus they were not circulated as widely as other denominations.

With their scarcity came suspicion, some Treasury officials say, and along with the suspicion came old wives' tales about the bill bringing bad luck. Old timers can recall when people tore the corners of a $2 bill before they cashed them to break the spell.

Issued first in 1918, the Treasury is going to make sure this time there are enough of the bills available. They plan to issue at least 400,000,000 each year from now on. The Treasury says it expects to save $30 million over the next five years in printing and handling costs with the new bill in circulation.

"The more you know about our business, the more we can help you!"

New Service Offered Texas Children, Adults

A new service for disabled Texas children and adults, called "Easter Seal Action Line", has been initiated by the Easter Seal Society for Crippled Children and Adults of Texas. Easter Seal Action Line's 24 hour, toll-free number, 1-800-492-5555, can be used by disabled persons and their families to obtain information regarding help they need, according to Jack Neeley, Easter Seal chairman.

William E. Russell, Executive Director for the Texas Easter Seal Society, reports, "Many people, especially in the rural areas, don't realize how many services are available for the handicapped today." The Easter Seal Action Line is designed to serve as a link between the handicapped and those services. With just a phone call, persons can receive that assistance in helping them to locate service they need, where it can be obtained, and who can provide it for them.

Among the many services available through the Texas Easter Seal Society Action Line are speech, physical, and occupation therapies, evaluations, purchase of needed orthopedic equipment, all of which require a medical doctor's authorization. The Texas Easter Seal Society pledges to make every effort to locate the needed service if that service is offered in the State of Texas. The Texas Easter Seal Society makes these services available to the handicapped of all ages.

Any handicapped person or anyone who knows a handicapped person who needs help in locating a needed service is urged to call the toll-free Easter Seal Action Line. 1-800-492-5555. Day or night, 7 days a week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lefty Thomas and Jack Thomas of Samnorwood attended a family reunion at Lake Brownwood over the weekend.

There Are Reasons to Build A Juvenile Facility Now

Counties of the 100th Judicial District are fortunate in its fine juvenile probation program, which deals with youngsters at an impressionable age.

Now four of these counties, plus Wheeler, must build a facility to house these boys and girls. Federal and state guideline will determine what kind of building is put up, how it is equipped and to some extent how the juveniles are handled. Wellington is the tentative location.

Sheriff John Rainey, chairman of the building committee, points out that the first two phases, leading up to actual construction, are funded through the Criminal Justice Program of the Governor's Office.

Funding in the form of grants will be sought to cover as much of the construction cost, says Mr. Rainey. It is certain that some money is available. What cannot be had from this source will have to be met by the counties.

Officers stress several reasons for building the juvenile facility now: Any delay means the five counties will have to pay the price of further inflation. If they wait until they are ordered to build the facility—and they will be if they do not act on their own—it is possible they will have to meet even more stringent federal guidelines than those now acceptable.

They also say the incidence of law suits filed against jails and juvenile facilities, along with law enforcement officers and commissioners courts, has risen almost unbelievable in the last few years. A prisoner no longer of necessity accepts his lot in jail. He may see his lawyer about more than the sentence he received.

Should such a suit be filed against any of these counties, the fact they have begun plans for or construction of such a facility can be a possible defense.

Ranching Heritage Center

Texas now has a center that portrays a significant segment of its past: The Ranching Heritage Center at Texas Tech University in Lubbock.

Such a museum has been sorely needed because ranching and livestock production have been an important part of this state's social and cultural development as well as having been a pillar in the economic foundation of Texas.

The center is a group of ranch structures such as stone houses, dugouts, log cabins and box and strip houses. Each structure represents a time and place in the progress of the ranching industry in Texas. And that, of course, means the progress made by the state itself.

This center should become a leading attraction for people interested in the history and development of Texas and the great Southwest.

Alternatives to Fossil Fuel

There's no reason why fossil fuel should be the only source of energy. Long ago we harnessed water power. Why not the wind, the ocean tides, the sun?

Scientists have estimated that the northwestern region of Texas has an average level of capturable windpower of 100 million kilowatts. At three cents per KWH, this resource would have an annual value of $25,000,000,000. Scientists point out that if only one percent of this energy can be economically utilized, an enormous benefit would accrue to the area. The solar resource is even greater, they point out.

The actual astronomical year—the time the earth takes to orbit the sun—increases by about .04 seconds a century.

AUSTIN — Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong has issued detailed recommendations for better management of the state's coastal area resources through existing agencies and programs.

Outgrowth of a three-year study, the preliminary proposals will be submitted to public hearings beginning next month.

Hearings during August will be held in Brownsville, Corpus Christi, Victoria, Bay City, Houston, Galveston and Beaumont. Later hearings are scheduled in Dallas, San Antonio and Austin.

Main recommendations include:

— Establishment of a process for assessing future economic, environmental and social effects of developments planned for coastal locations.

— Setting up an organized information system in the governor's office to help improve agency coordination on decisions for use of coastal resources.

— Restructuring the Interagency Council on Natural Resources and the Environment to review and coordinate coastal policies and activities.

— Focusing management processes on coastal waters and shorelands closely associated with the waters. Only a fraction of each coastal county would be included in the management area.

Armstrong said recommendations provide a framework for coastal growth and development.

Briscoe Cool
The idea of a special session to curb utilities bills left Gov. Dolph Briscoe cool, in spite of support from House Speaker Bill Clayton and other lawmakers.

Briscoe said ideas of House committees (including sales tax reductions and tax rebates) are "nothing basically new." He added he is not convinced they would substantially decrease bills or that they could be passed quickly by the legislature.

Meanwhile, Rep. Lane Denton of Waco came up with 14 recommendations which he claimed could reduce gas and electric bills 25 per cent if enacted. Denton proposed a ceiling on the wellhead price of natural gas, further restrictions on utility companies and tax adjustments or elimination. He also recommended election of Railroad Commission members from six geographic districts.

Party Fight Due
Angelina County Attorney John Henry Tatum of Lufkin set the stage for a state Democratic leadership tug-of-war with announcement as a candidate for Texas party chairman.

Tatum was the first to come out against Calvin

Guest of Bryan, backed by Gov. Briscoe for a third term as state Democratic Executive Committee head.

Other liberals are considering the race which will be decided at the State Democratic convention September 18 in Fort Worth.

Texas Democrat leaders this week are attending the party's national presidential nominating convention in New York City.

Courts Speak

Texas Supreme Court will review a $1.8 million judgment against General Motors in a suit blaming a fatal truck accident on a faulty carburetor. GM claims the verdict would discourage new products development and bring price increases.

The high court found error in a trial court dismissal of a Comal County couple's suit to prevent the State Highway Commission from taking 6.3 acres of land without adequate compensation.

Upholding lower courts, the State Supreme Court declared alimony judgments rendered in other states can be enforced in Texas.

The Supreme Court will review Houston court findings that part of the code of criminal procedure is unconstitutional.

A new trial was ordered by the Supreme Court in a $200,000 Wichita Falls water district land condemnation case.

Court of Criminal Appeals reversed the 35-year prison sentence of a man who shot at a policeman in Snyder, because the jury was not charged on the issue of whether the defendant acted in self-defense.

An Austin district judge dismissed a University of Texas effort to throw out a suit to invalidate a decision by regents to dismantle the UT system school of nursing.

AG Opinions

The Public Utility Commission is not required to issue certificates of convenience and necessity to gas utilities, since the Railroad Commission or cities have jurisdiction over those companies, Atty. Gen. John Hill held.

In another recent opinion, Hill concluded the abstract of a personal judgment rendered against a defendant by a court in a tax suit should be issued as by civil statute even though the judgement additionally forecloses a tax lien on property.

File of an attorney with the Board of Law Examiners is not available to the public, Hill stated in a third opinion.

Reconnection Allowed
Texas intrastate utilities which are members of the Texas Interconnected System can reconnect with interstate members without coming under Federal Power Commission Jurisdiction.

FPC allowed emergency reconnection of TIS without imposing its regulations on the system's intrastate members.

TIS provides electric utility member cooperatives emergency and peak-use energy capabilities. It was disconnected in early May when one member extended its system across the Texas-Oklahoma border, engaging in interstate business.

Public Utility members said the FPC decision to permit reconnection will be an increased factor of reliability to Texas electricity.

Social Security Reports Due On August 2

Quarterly wage reports and social security contributions for household workers are due by August 2, according to Jim Talbot, social security district manager in Amarillo.

"People who pay a household worker $50 or more in cash wages in any 3-month quarter must send a report of the wages, along with the social security contribution, to the Internal Revenue Service within one month after the end of the quarter," Talbot said.

Quarters are January-February-March, April-May-June, July-August-September, and October-November-December. Wage reports and social security contributions for the 2nd quarter of 1976 are due by August 2, Talbot said. "The date would be July 31, but July 31 falls on a Saturday this year," he said.

People who employ household workers may file the wage report on a form available at any Internal Revenue Service Office—Employer's Quarterly Tax Return for Household Employees (for Social Security)."

The social security contribution for a household employee is 5.85 percent of covered wages, and the employer pays a matching amount.

Social Security contributions help build retirement, disability, survivors, and Medicare hospital insurance protection for workers and their families. People who employ household workers can get a free copy of the leaflet, "Social Security and Your Household Employee," at the Amarillo Social Security Office located at 317 East Third Street, Talbot said.

"Americans buy cars by the pound," says the executive director of the American Imported Automobile Association. His statement reflects the sad but true fact that foreign car sales are lagging way behind the surge in U.S. car sales. Total car sales jumped 27% in the first six months of this year but the market share of the imports dropped from 20% to 14%. The big two reasons are the continuing love affair that Americans have with big cars, and the higher prices of the foreign cars.

Three years ago European cars had 60% of the import market. Today, Japan has 60% and the Europeans have 40%. Volkswagen, the leader in previous years has been hurt the most, falling well behind Datsun and Toyota. The VW Rabbit, designed to replace the Beetle, starts at $3499. Sales of VWs in this country in June were almost 50% behind last year. Out of 1124 dealerships in the U.S. more than 40 have closed in 1976.

Although other European car manufacturers are not trying to introduce a new car to replace a well established model, such as the Beetle, they do have to compete with the lower priced Japanese imports and against the lower priced American compacts. Toyota, Datsun, and Honda all offer models in the $2,800 price bracket. The Japanese also offer more model choices than the European cars but with perhaps less flashy engineering. The Europeans car makers, in an attempt to blunt the lower priced Japanese cars, are emphasizing the prestige aspects of owning one of their cars. Volvo is appealing to the $6,400 to $10,000 car buyer, after feeling the competition from Chrysler's Volare and Ford's Granada.

It's the lower priced European cars that are suffering the most. Fiat, with a total sales drop of 30% is having trouble dealing its $2,988 Model 128, but the Fiat sports car which sells for above $5,000 is sold out. BMW and Mercedes-Benz with very high priced cars are setting sales records.

Foreign car dealers have not given up on U.S. sales, however. Mazda, Japanese rotary-engine car maker is trying to counter two years of sharply dropping sales by offering a two-year or 25,000 mile free service package, including oil and tuneups along with the regular warranty coverage of parts and labor.

Lee Hughey and daughter, Mrs. Nita White were in Lubbock Saturday for a reunion of Mr. Hughey's brother's children.

I Saw... by Virginia Robey

Mary Milburn and Carmen Lindley brought The Wellington Leader some pictures that were taken around 1900 at the Aberdeen headquarters of the Mill Iron Ranch. Earlier this was the Rocking Chair headquarters.

Mary has many delightful stories to tell.

Their mother, the late Mrs. Mary Ross of Dozier carried the mail from Dozier to Aberdeen in a buggy about that time. Mary, a tiny girl then, often went with her in the buggy. When she got cold, she would sit on the buggy floor at her mother's feet and Mrs. Ross wrapped her in her long skirt.

On one trip, Mary tells, she became terribly thirsty. She kept telling her mother she just couldn't go any farther without a drink. They came to a water hole alongside the road. Cattle were standing around, some in the water.

"Now you can go out and take some water in your mouth and rinse it then spit it out. Do not swallow it," Mrs. Ross said.

"I lay on my stomach and scooped up water in my hands, exactly as I had seen the cowboys do," Mary Milburn relates, "and I drank and drank, and I thought I had never tasted water so good." Back at the buggy, Mrs. Ross asked if she drank any. "No, mother, I didn't," Mary fibbed.

She and her husband lived in New York City many years before his death. Afterwards, she returned to Wellington to live.

Betty Welch of Ft. Worth, who visited here over the Fourth, had many interesting things to tell about her visit to the Middle East just after the first of this year.

Especially interesting was what she told of the many homes in Tel Aviv, Israel, which are already being warmed with solar heat.

Betty officially retired as a teacher in the Richland Hills Schools last year, but signed up to do substitute teaching. She taught 99½ days out of the 180 day school term. One hundred is what school law allows if one is to continue drawing retirement.

Several years ago, while he was still taking his custom combine equipment north every wheat harvest, Pete Nipper had some humorous business cards printed. They more than paid off.

He gave one to the owner of a machine shop in Wynner, South Dakota, where he frequently had work done. Afterwards, this man saw to it that Pete's work was always done first.

At the Raton, N.M. races a few weeks ago, Pete saw a Kansas man whom he had given a card several years ago. This man said he carried the card till he finally lost it, and did Pete have another? Pete had a couple with him, and now his friend has another card.

Two women, mothers of fine young tennis players, brought up the need for Wellington to have a tennis tournament within minutes of each other Monday morning.

Barbara Bartlett, Lynn's mother, is concerned about this. She says she will work toward getting one and she knows other women who will work, as well as some men. And those who have worked with Barbara know of her ability to get things done. We can see what the softball tournaments do. Tennis can be important, too, she points out.

Not more than 10 minutes later, Travis Templeton was talking about the same thing. Lee had just won boys singles in the Valley Invitational Tournament.

"We have the finest tennis courts in this part of the Panhandle and we need to use them," she says.

Travis would also like for Wellington to have a tennis

John Ford III On Lubbock Coaching Staff

Mr. and Mrs. John Ford III moved recently from Greenville to Lubbock.

Mr. Ford has accepted a position in the Lubbock Public Schools and will be head track coach and assistant in football at Dunbar High School, a AAA school. He will be teaching social studies.

Mr. Ford was in the Greenville School system six years and Mrs. Ford taught there the past two years.

He graduated from Wellington High School and received his bachelors degree from North Texas State University, Denton.

His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Ford, visited them in Lubbock over the weekend.

clinic, such as David Martin, WTSU tennis instructor, is holding this week in Memphis.

These two girls have something to think about.

The recent I SAW account of Bonnie Willis and my visit to Cheyenne, Oklahoma brought this comment from our friend, Dr. Donald Green, associate professor of History at Central State University, Edmond, Oklahoma.

I pass it on for Southwestern history buffs:

"I wish to recommend to you a very recent, in-depth but well-written history of the battle (of the Washita). It is Stan Hoig, The Battle of the Washita (Doubleday, 1976). I consider this book the best yet done on the Washita engagement, but I must confess that I have a somewhat vested interest in this account. Stan is a colleague at CSU (journalism dept.) and a very good friend. Moreover, he borrowed my ram's-head bola for the author's photo on the inside back-cover."

EQUINE INFECTIOUS ANEMIA

EIA or swamp fever is a viral disease of the equine family which is found in the blood and tissues of infected animals. The virus remains in the blood of animals that recover as well as carrier animals for as long as they live. Infected animals spread the virus through discharges from the eyes and nose, saliva, urine, manure, milk, and semen. Usually the animal shows signs of anemia in 2 to 4 weeks after exposure; however, some horses may never show any signs that are noted by the owner.

The acute stage of EIA is a sudden temperature rise to 105°F or higher with the animal sweating profusely and breathing rapidly. The horse is depressed, refuses to eat, urinates frequently, and has a swelling or stocking up in the lower portions of the legs. Many times a wobbly gait develops and a paralysis of the hindquarters can develop.

The disease initially lasts only a few days with reoccurring attacks that will eventually lead to death. The disease is spread through the use of unsterilized instruments (syringes, knives, tattooing needles etc.), biting flies, lice and mosquitoes, but more importantly through virus contaminated tack (saddles, blankets, spurs and curry combs) which were previously used on infected animals.

The Coggins Test is used to check blood from animals for equine infectious anemia. This test requires that the blood sample is sent to a state-approved laboratory for testing and generally requires approximately one week for results. Most states require that horses have this test within a year or less before entering that state. Horses that do not have the test are often times quarantined and tested at the owners expense as well as the possibility of a fine.

EIA is a disease that must

Group Vacations In Northern N.M.

Mr. and Mrs. Les White, Mr. and Mrs. Aibrey Stuckey and Mrs. Nannie Johnson returned Tuesday, July 6, from a two-weeks vacation in Northern New Mexico.

Mrs. Johnson visited with her children, while the Whites and Stuckeys were fishing in Navajo Lake in the northwestern part of the state.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Coleman Crow took their mother, Mrs.

be prevented by the owner since there is no vaccine nor cure for it.

Johnson, and the Stuckeys to the Bar-D-Chuckwagon, Inc., Suppers, where they had supper and two hours of western entertainment by the Bar-D Wranglers.

This show is on the order of "Texas". It starts the middle of June and is held each night until the middle of September. It is located 9 miles north of Durango, Colo. in the tall pines and at the foot of a huge rock mountain.

Mr. and Mrs. White were joined by their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. John Tribble, Carol, Tommy and Shawn of Albuquerque, N.M. over the July 4 week end.
