Sure am proud of all the folks who took the trouble to go to the polls in the recent elections and voice your choice in the different elections. We were urging everyone to vote so that the majority of citizens could pick the officials who represent us and to vote their convictions on the hospital referendum. And I think that the majority have spoken according to the number of folks who turned out to vote. It was really inspiring to see the figures come in on the different elections as there were more than 550 in the hospital elections, and the other elections also drew large turnouts. It is great to see folks take this much interest in things that directly concern them instead of letting someone else make the decisions for them.

—J—
Be sure to remember the Friday night musical on April 13 at the Fire Hall. There is always a large crowd on hand to enjoy the music and the food.

—J—
We wish to add our congratulations to those of the community to Kristi Odell, Debra Swanner and Angie Plaunty for qualifying for the State UIL Meet in Austin on April 26-27. They did a great job in the Region II-A meet at Abilene, and we wish them the very best in the State Meet. Also, while we are at it, we should include Mrs. Rowena Wilson, their instructor, who always does a fantastic job with the Gorman students under her supervision.

—J—
Noticed Bob's Grocery is in the process of expansion. A new walk-in cooler is being installed as well as other things.

The new building for the Doctor's Clinic is coming right along. The brick work has been completed and the completion date is getting nearer and nearer. Besides the doctors clinic the building will also house the offices of Dr. Jim Gray, our local dentist.

Most of the Jim Walters homes being built in Gorman are nearing the completion stages.

Dale and Mary Griffin have located their mobile home on a lot just south of the football stadium and are in the process of getting everything straightened out and we know they are proud of it.

There have been a couple of more mobile homes moved in on lots in town but we haven't gotten the information on them as yet.

—J—
Don't forget the Lions Club Benefit Barbecue this Thursday, April 12 from 5 til 8 p. m. at the school lunchroom benefitting the Fire Department Building Fund. Price of admission will be a donation to the fund and a big can will be on hand to hold the donations.

Take-out plates will also be available for those who wish to take the food home or for a picnic.

This is a most worthwhile project and it deserves all the support we can give. The Lions Club will appreciate all the funds raised for this project and they are always doing good things for our community. That is also the reason that there should be a much larger number of men on the membership roll on the Lions Club. Besides being rewarding, it's fun.

—J—
And remember to smile - because God Loves You!

Cozart - Brown Pledge Nuptials April 3rd.

Mr. and Mrs. Royce Cozart announce the marriage of their daughter, Jan Rene' Cozart to Mr. Gary Brown of Eastland on April 3rd by Guy Lyeria, Justice of the Peace in Eastland.

Gary is the son of Daycee Green Brown of Nocona, Texas. After a short wedding trip to Bend on the Colorado River, they will make their home in Eastland.

Jan is a 1983 graduate of Gorman High School and Gary is a 1971 graduate of Cooper High School in Abilene and attended Tarleton State University two years. He is employed with Roy Byrd Construction Co. of Comanche.

SPRING REVIVAL SLATED FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH

Reverend Floyd Bradley from Planview, Texas and singer Bill Shough from Graham, Texas will be preaching and singing in the Spring Revival at the Gorman First Baptist Church. Dates of revival are April 15-19. Sunday services will be at 11:00 a.m. and 7:00 p.m. Week-day services will be at noon and 7:00 p.m. There will be a covered dish luncheon each weekday at noon.

Brother Bradley was born in Leonard, Texas. He is married to the former Aline Denson. They have 3 children. He was a pilot in the U.S. Navy and received numerous awards for outstanding service. He has pastored the Midway Baptist Church, Gorman; East Cisco Baptist Church; FBC, Denver City, Texas, and was pastor at FBC, Floydada from 1961 to 1983. He is presently Director of Missions, Caprock-Plains Area in Plainview. He led in a revival at FBC, Gorman in 1980.

Brother Bill Shough was born in Elk City, Oklahoma. He is married to the former Wanda Langford. They have 4 children. At the age of nine he was playing a guitar and singing on the local radio station. He graduated from high school in 1949 and was involved in the Korean conflict. In 1957 he surrendered his life to full time Christian service. He has been minister of music in several Texas churches and spent 12 years in Anchorage, Alaska as minister of youth. His wife, Wanda, joins Bill in the Lord's calling into full time Evangelism. They have moved from Alaska and made Graham, Texas, their home. Bill led the singing at FBC, Gorman, last year.

TO THE CITIZENS OF GORMAN

I want to take this opportunity to express my heart felt gratitude to all of you who went to the polls last Saturday and cast your vote for my re-election. You have no way of knowing what this vote of confidence means to me. I hope that I will never betray the trust you have in me. I want to express my thanks to those who opposed me in this race. When people get involved in city politics, the voter has a choice. They were given that choice in this election.

I want to congratulate Bill Clark and Jimmy Guthery in running for and winning a place on the commission. These two newly elected Commissioners

2 TICKETS AVAILABLE FOR GOLDEN AGE TRIP

Two tickets were still available at press time for the Golden Age Club trip to Abilene to see Wayne Newton on April 17 at Taylor County Coliseum. Anyone wishing to go should call Betty Henderson.

Tickets for the trip are $18.

ers will be given the oath of office, along with the Mayor, at about 10:00 A.M. on Tuesday, April 17, 1984. I welcome them to the Commission and look forward to working with them in the days ahead.

I especially want to say thanks to all who turned out on Saturday and voted in the three contested elections. According to people who know, we had the largest turn out in each of these three elections that Gorman had ever had in any past election. This is a good sign. It showed that people were interested and went to the polls to vote their conviction. This kind of a turn out makes us feel more like we are living in a democracy where the majority rule. Don't let this be the last time you take this kind of interest. Remember the Primary Election on May 5 and again go out and VOTE. Vote for your choice, then support who ever is elected.

I hope now that the people of our community will all get behind the people who have been elected and give them your full support. Let us all work together to pull our community back together.

PTO TO SPONSOR FINGERPRINT PROGRAM

Did you know that over 1,000,000 children are reported missing every year? Many of them are found safe and unharmed in any way, but thousands of them are not so lucky...they are not found at all!

With the recent disappearance of 3-year old Ryan Burton in Breckenridge, and the national publicity given to the case of 7-year old Adam Ash, there has been a growing concern among parents of young children across the nation, and the Gorman P.T.O., in cooperation with the Gorman Police Department, has decided to take steps to prevent the occurrence of similar events in Gorman.

KOKOMO NEWS

By Mrs. Zelda Jordan Phone 639-2289

Aren't you enjoying this beautiful Spring weather? It's a beautiful time of the year when the trees, grass and flowers begin anew. The one inch of rain we received on Saturday was much needed and appreciated.

CANCER CRUSADE AT KOKOMO
Members of the Kokomo Extension Homemakers

Club will be calling on each home in the community this week (April 9-14) to distribute literature and to collect your donations to the American Cancer Society for research. Please give generously. All checks should be made to the American Cancer Society. If you have questions, please call Zelda Jordan at 639-2289 or any member of the club.

Willo Rice rendered the special music at the Sunday morning service at the Kokomo Baptist Church. Jim Lewallen of Floydada and Scotty Mauney of Gorman were visitors.

Special music on Sunday night was rendered by Albert Hendricks, Bro. Bob and Vera Watson, Woodrow and Helen Browning and Willo Rice, with Glynda Bond at the piano.

Bro. Bob and Vera Watson, Ava Rodgers, Berneice Rodgers, Lavelle Rodgers, Nancy Hendricks, Woodrow and Helen Browning, Anna Laura Clearman, Naoma Morrow, Joe and Glynda Bond and Robin

Hoy were those from the Kokomo Baptist Church going to the Gorman Care Center on Sunday afternoon for the church service.

Bro. and Mrs. Bob Watson and Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Rodgers were dinner guests of Mrs. Odis Rodgers on Sunday.

Deliah Eaves of Kermit visited from Wednesday until Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. D.F. Eaves while on Spring break from school. Deliah and Nancy Carter of Kermit visited the first part of last week in Phoenix, Ariz. with Nancy's parents.

Other visitors in the D.F. Eaves home last week were Mrs. Erma Eaves, Mrs. Virda Mae Norris and Tonya Smith of Fort Worth and Mrs. Verna Laminack of Lake Jackson.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Bennett, Albert Hendricks, Bro. Jim Andrews of Eastland and Mr. and Mrs. J.L. Morrow visited with the Glenn Jordans and Jim Lewallen during the past week.

Mrs. Dora Garrett has received word that her great-grand daughters, Shane and Sheyanne Mikeska were taken home last week from the hospital in San Angelo where they have been since their premature birth on Jan. 14. They are the twin daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Mikeska of Menard.

Visitors with Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hendricks were Mrs. Arla Felts of San Angelo, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hoy and Robin of Plano, Mrs. W.A. O'Neal of Gorman, Mr. and Mrs. Wilbourne Wood and Mrs. Daisy Wood of Carbon, Mr. and Mrs. L.D. Holliday, Mrs. Bill Joiner, Mr. and Mrs. Cullen Rodgers, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Jordan, and Lum Tuggle.

CLAUDE FULLERS VACATION IN SEATTLE AND CANADA

Mr. and Mrs. Claude Fuller vacationed last week in Seattle, Wash., and Victoria, British Columbia, Canada. While in Seattle they visited with his sister and brother-in-law, Jack and Lorene Eldridge. They also attended the major league baseball game in the Kingdome between the Seattle Mariners and the Toronto Blue Jays. They went by plane from Abilene.

Mr. and Mrs. Travis Platt of Albuquerque, N.M. Mrs. Wayne Eaton and Lindsey of Burnett, and the Rick Fuller family of Gorman were visitors with the Claude Fullers this week.

THE KOKOMO EXTENSION HOMEMAKERS MEET

The Kokomo Extension Homemakers met on April 9th at the Kokomo Community Center for our April meeting. Zelda Jordan presided over the meeting. Ava Rodgers led the club in the motto, creed and prayer. Nancy Hendricks gave the devotional, read the minutes and called the roll. Roll call was answered by telling what we hope to accomplish this year. We all agreed to take it one day at a time.

Wynelle Brown gave the treasury report. She also reported on her trip to the District Meet at the 4-H Center at Lake Brownwood on April 2. She reported a wonderful day.

Material was given to the club members to make the Cancer Crusade drive again this year. This is such a worthy cause. We hope everyone will take an interest in it.

Berenice Rodgers brought the recreation. She showed us a 1928 Sears Catalogue, and after we compared prices, we decided we should make an order.

After our club meeting, we were honored to have 19 4-H Club members from Gorman. Also their Leaders and our assistant County Extension Service Agent, Faith Ballard with us. We enjoyed Faith so much. She showed us slide of 4-H clubwork which we enjoyed very much. We felt so honored for our local 4-H members to show us their winning trophies, ribbons and awards. They told of their winning entries at Gorman, Eastland, Houston and Fort Worth shows, and also the honors they won with their different projects. We are very proud of our 4-H Club. Thanks for sharing with us. Their display of trophies, awards and ribbons looked very impressive and certainly something to be proud of.

Refreshments of cookies, chips, crackers, dips, cake and punch were served. Thanks to Joyce Eaves for the beautifully decorated cake done in the 4-H colors of green and white.

The 4-H members attending were: Shane Burgess, Charla Little, Greg Warren, Randall Gibbs, Jeanette Greene, Lance Morrow, Layne Morrow, Alan Little, Barbra Gibbs, Johnnie Osborne, Eddie Woodall, Jerry Gibbs, Kevin Hirst, Trease Welch, Shanda Hanifan, Stephen Slampa, Tonya Caraway, Shane Caraway, and Becky Underwood. Leaders were: Carolyn Little, Pat Caraway and Madge Burgess. EH Club members present were: Ava Rodgers, Zelda Jordan, Berneice Rodgers, Wynelle Brown, Anna Laura Clearman, Johnnie B. Griffith, Naoma Morrow and hostess, Nancy Hendricks.

Our next meeting will be with Johnnie B. Griffith on Lake Leon.

PECAN GRAFTING WORKSHOP

A pecan budding and grafting workshop is planned for Tuesday, April 17 in Eastland County. This will be the 31st annual Eastland County pecan propagation workshop and is sponsored by the Eastland County Pecan Growers Association.

The event will be held in the Agricultural building at Cisco Junior College. Dan Childress, president of the association said everyone interested in learning how to graft pecans should attend.

The school will begin at 9:30 a.m. in the agriculture building which is located on the east side of Highway 6 across from the main campus.

daughters, Patsy Beth Gale of Colorado City and Paula Layne of 2418 N. Wills St.; a brother, Bill of Gorman; two sisters, Laura Mae Jones and Erma Frances Barr, both of Abilene; 12 grandchildren; and 15 great-grandchildren.

Grandsons were pallbearers.

A Horticulturist from the Texas A&M System will be the instructor. From 9:30 until noon, he will show illustrated slides along with a discussion on the techniques of budding and grafting. He will also discuss the most popular varieties of pecans.

After noon, the workshop will continue in a pecan grove where demonstrations will be given and participants will practice.

Childress says the growers association will sell budding and grafting wood and tape at the school. The technique of pecan grafting can be learned by anyone. Men, women and students from all areas of West and Central Texas have been trained at the workshop during the past 31 years says County Agent DeMarquis Gordon.

APRIL 15 DEADLINE FOR REPORTING 1983 EARNINGS

April 15 is the deadline for reporting 1983 earnings to the Social Security Administration, according to Glyn Hammons, manager of the Abilene Social Security office.

Anyone who received Social Security checks in 1983 and earned over $4920 if they were under age 65 or $6600 if they were 65 or over has to make an annual report to Social Security so that their records can be balanced. The report is needed even if the estimated earnings for the year turned out to be exactly the amount earned.

The 1984 estimates of earnings are also due by April 15. This year the exempt amounts are $5160 for those who are under age 65 and $6960 for those who Internationally-acclaimed trumpeter Stacy Blair of Eastland, will be featured in a sacred concert with four church choirs at 7 p.m. on May 1, Tuesday.

Dr. Bill Beazley of Hardin-Simmons University, and a former interim pastor, will preach at 7 p.m. Wednesday, May 2, with the churches choir and Bell Choirs performing.

The contractors were to turn the new building over to the congregation on April 1.

Decision Time On Crop Insurance

Some Texas farmers have until mid-to late-April to decide on insurance for their 1984 crops. Although sign-up time is past for farmers in South Texas and in some other areas depending on the crop, farmers in central, eastern and far western areas have until April 14 to insure peanuts and until April 15 to insure cotton. Farmers in the plains and parts of north

Many of the prizes are less expensive imitations of luxury items, she says. To collect these prizes, consumers may be subjected to high-pressure sales tactics used during sales meetings. Consumers who sign contracts at these sales meetings also find it difficult to cancel without losing some money, says the specialist. That's why it's important to carefully consider any purchase before signing a contract, cautions Smith.

Farmers can insure their crops for 50, 65, or 70 percent of the average yield and can select from several price levels, notes an economist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, Texas A&M University System. Premiums depend on the percent coverage and price election as well as the risk area where the farm is located.

Nutrition Tip

Does olive oil conjure up visions of veal parmigiana, stuffed peppers, eggplant rollatini, luscious pastas...? It's indispensable for all those Italian favorites, of course, but did you know that it also adds that special something to all-American broiled fish, sauteed chicken, herb-based sauces, vegetable dishes and salads galore?

In other words this unique ingredient, prized for centuries and surrounded by colorful legend and lore, also qualifies as a health food! Contrary to the popular myth, it contains absolutely no cholesterol. And clear, golden Bertolli, world's best-loved olive oil, lends its distinctively light, delicate flavor, its smooth, blendable consistency to a wide variety of tasty recipes that are "legal" — even if you're dieting.

Students returning to the show are Darrel Thrash of Route 1, Levelland, saxophone and vocals, and Kathy Tutt of Muleshoe, vocalist and dancer.

Newcomers include Debbie Adams of Route 1, Bentonville, Ark., Ann Allison of Route 3, Gorman, Metta Amos of Lamesa, Denise Ehlers of Route 5, Tahoka, Joe Don Valentine of Route 1, Ropes, all vocalists and dancers; Randy Beck of Levelland, trumpet and dancer; Alex Torrez of Floydada, drummer; Joe Mendez of Levelland, trombone and dancer; Todd Collins of Route 25th in Lubbock, vocals, dancing, mandolin, fiddle, guitar and harmonica.

Allison also will be featured on keyboards. The Caravan Cloggers, a dance troupe, will perform four dance segments.

Country Caravan, a 90-minute show, spotlights both current country music hits and standard classics in a three-month tour throughout West Texas and Eastern New Mexico.

The road show will kick off the 1984 season May 21 with a performance in Sundown. The show schedule will include stops May 24 at Slaton, May 25 at Crosbyton, May 26 at Floydada, May 28 at Smyer, May 29 at Plains, and May 31 at Morton.

The June schedule of

Nine Days "On The Brink"

Texas gas consumers teetered on the brink of a natural gas disaster last December, according to Railroad Commissioner James E. (Jim) Nugent, and were saved only by heavy withdrawals from gas storage reservoirs and scrambling by the industry to move supplies around the state.

Nugent told oil and gas industry representatives gathered in Fort Worth Tuesday for the Commission's annual state-of-the-industry hearing that "with every well in the state producing at maximum capacity, we experienced a shortfall of more than 3 Bcf (billion cubic feet) per day" during one of the coldest and most prolonged winter performances will be June 1 at Littlefield, June 2 at Brownfield, June 3 at Anton, June 7 at Fort Sumner, N.M., June 8 at Friona, June 9 at Hereford, June 14 at Seminole, June 15 at Andrews, June 16 at Lamesa, June 18 at Ropes, June 21 at Abernathy, June 22 at Shallowater, June 23 at Sweetwater, June 28 at Jal, N.M., June 29 at Artesia, N.M. and June 30 at Alamogordo, N.M.

Final two performances will be July 3 at Roswell, N.M. and July 4 at the SPC campus in Levelland.

"This year we are going to include more gospel numbers in the show and add a Nashville brass sound," explained Mrs. Ellis, the show's stage director for the second year. "During two days of auditions, we screened performers first for vocal ability in lead and harmony. Harmony will be extremely important this year with the addition of a gospel quartet. We also looked for instrumental capabilities, stage presence, personality toward an audience, general 'aliveness,'" she said.

What's in store the season for Country Caravan audiences?

Pure entertainment, says Mrs. Ellis. "Everything we do in the show, planning which song goes next, where the dancers fit in, is geared to toward the audience's enjoyment," she said. "We want to include the top 40 country hits and the standards that people can readily identify with in a fast-paced, flexible format."

spells in recent history.

We were able to meet demand - and only barely - by drawing down from Texas gas storage reservoirs," Nugent said. "A total of about 30 Bcf was extracted from the state's 10 storage reservoirs during the cold spell in December.

"Bad as the situation was, it could have been much worse, had not the cold spell coincided with the holiday season," he said. "During the worst of those nine days schools were closed and many factories and businesses were closed for the holidays."

Nugent said the situation was tense even though the industry knew in advance the cold weather was coming and made every preparation possible, including packing pipelines as full of gas as they could.

The gas supply crisis developed quickly as bitter arctic air surged into the state the second week in December, according to Nugent. "By the 19th, the Dallas-Fort Worth Metroplex had lows of nine degrees. Central Texas temperatures ranged from the lower 20's to the lower 30's by the 20th," he said. "On Christmas day, the whole state was freezing solid."

Nugent said on Dec. 20 the state's surging demand for natural gas exceeded the capability of its wells to produce. Gas companies began to curtail deliveries to industrial users and withdrew heavily from storage.

"By Dec. 26, Valero was withdrawing from storage at maximum rates, but the rate was slipping due to earlier withdrawals," Nugent said. Lone Star's line pressure had dropped from the desired 700 psi (pounds per square inch) to 400 psi within 5 psi of forcing shutdown.

Rising temperatures and voluntary conservation finally began to defuse the crisis by Dec. 28.

TIPRO States Not Enough Drilling

The gas-producing industry is not drilling enough wells to meet future needs because, among other reasons, the current excess in gas deliverability is not fairly distributed among all producers, the president of the Texas Independent Producers and Royalty Owners Association (TIPRO) said today.

Bruce Anderson, Houston independent producer and president of TIPRO, said in a statement delivered here before the Texas Railroad Commission that while deliverability of natural gas is in excess of need during most of the year, the "nation actually

According to the Railroad Commissioner, Houston Pipeline's Bammel storage reservoir shouldered some 40 percent of the crisis demand, supplying a total of 11.8 Bcf during the cold spell. Lone Star contributed 20 percent of the gas withdrawn from storage to meet the supply shortfall and the other major storage facility in Texas, owned by Valero Transmission Co., supplied 12 percent. Other smaller storage facilities made up the rest.

Nugent said if there is a lesson to be learned from the crisis it is that "we must let the marketplace establish a level of profitability which will insure sufficient exploration to avoid shortages and curtailments such as we experienced during nine days in December. We must find a balance between lower year-long market demand and ability to supply during peak demand periods."

Nugent congratulated the members of the Commission's gas industry advisory committee and the companies in Texas. "The expertise and knowledge they put to work during nine days in December on the brink of disaster, worked for the benefit of all Texans," he concluded.

needs reserve production capacity to take care of peak demand periods that occur during cold winter and hot summer months."

The extreme cold temperatures during the Christmas holidays severely tested the gas delivery system, Railroad Commission Chairman Mack Wallace observed earlier this year. Wallace said that had such a cold spell occurred at a time when schools and many businesses were open, it is likely service to many of these groups of gas customers would have been curtailed.

Anderson said that the excess deliverability - the so-called "gas bubble" - is distributed inequitably among different classes of gas producers. He observed that offshore producers under the jurisdiction of the Department of Interior are not subject to proration and that many gas-producing states have failed to establish "reasonable ratable take systems."

Such inequities "only interfere with orderly, adequate exploration by the total industry," Anderson said.

"There are many reasons why (drilling) is below needed levels," Anderson said, "and unfair distribution of excess deliverability is one of them. It is time for that reason to be eliminated."

It has a wide safety margin in cattle, calves, pregnant cows and even heavily parasitized animals, but it is not approved for use in female dairy cattle of breeding age. sheep are in use in many foreign countries.

Ivomec has been used in more than 25 countries, with more than 65 million cattle treated. In New Zealand, a study showed that the cattle treated over 170 days WITH the product gained an average of 97.4 pounds more than untreated animals and 33.4 pounds more than those treated with another worming drug.

However, the best way to fight brown stomach worms and other parasites is to prevent the buildup of severe infections through a program of good nutrition, pasture management and the conscientious use of an effective worming product.

Shade trees seldom need extra fertilization when a good lawn maintenance program is followed. But when shade trees do need fertilizer, proper application is important.

Over-fertilization of trees can force excessive top growth, making them vulnerable to storm damage. Trees rarely need fertilization more than once every three years except in extremely sandy soils and under special conditions.

The hard December freeze here in Eastland County injured some trees, and those should receive additional nitrogen fertilizer to speed up the healing of damaged tissue. Also, trees occasionally may need extra nutrients when their roots are confined by street and curb installations and other structures.

Fertilizer recommendations are generally based on trunk diameter and make no allowance for the fact that the root zone may be confined to a small area. Thus, fertilizing according to such instructions may result in over-fertilization and tree damage.

The safest method of computing the amount of fertilizer to apply at any one time is to base it on the number of square feet included in the branch spread of the tree. We recommend two pounds of actual nitrogen per 1,000 square feet of branch area per application.

When fertilizing, make several applications -- one in the fall at the usual first killing frost, another just before new growth starts in the spring, and a third applied as an ammonium nitrate or ammonium sulfate in midsummer.

Spread fertilizer evenly beneath the branch spread of the tree and water thoroughly. Without moisture, roots cannot use the nutrients.

If the tree's root zone is confined by buildings, curbs, walks or other obstructions, base the fertilizer application on the actual root zone. Under these circumstances it may be necessary to fertilize every year to provide an adequate supply of nutrients.

SCOPE REFORMS TO COST TEXANS SAYS BULLOCK

State Comptroller Bob Bullock Wednesday estimated recommended by the Select Committee on Public Education would cost Texans more than $19 billion over the next five years.

Bullock released estimates for each of the 12 recommendations made by the committee headed by H. Ross Perot. Major cost items among the dozen reforms recommended were $6 billion to reduce the size of elementary school classes and $5.4 billion for a teacher's career ladder.

"Anybody who doesn't think education is number one in the Texas budget can look at these figures and think again," Bullock said, comparing the $19 billion projection with today's $15.5 billion annual state budget.

"Texans have been told that they would have to pay

$2.6 billion in state and local taxes in the first year to get these reforms. They should also know the total cost of these changes over time."

Save energy with a heat pump.

HEAT IN

BLOWER

COMPRESSOR

If you're planning to install a new heating or cooling system, consider a high-efficiency heat pump. It's an energy-saving, year-round alternative.

The heat pump pro- vides year-round heating and cooling, using only electricity. During the win- ter, it extracts heat from the outside air (even very cold air contains heat) and brings that heat inside where it's needed. In the summer, the heat pump is a regular air conditioner, removing unwanted heat from the inside air.

The heat pump is the most efficient combination heating and cooling system that can be installed in your home today.

To learn more about the heat pump, call your air conditioning contractor. And when you call, ask about the year-round heat pump that qualifies for a bonus check from Texas Electric.
