Henri Threatening Coast Of Mexico

MIAMI (AP)—Hurricane Henri, maturing quickly from a tropical storm, threatened to bring heavy rain, gale force winds and high tides to the Mexican Gulf coast today, forecasters said.

A British cargo ship with 19 aboard struggled through the high winds and seas, taking on water as it fought to get out of Henri's path toward Mexico, the Coast Guard said.

No injuries were reported, but the 258-foot Largo Isabel was having trouble today with winds of 75 to 100 mph and 20 to 25-foot seas, said Petty Officer Jim Morrison.

Henri became a hurricane late Sunday, the same day it matured into a tropical storm. It was expected to move inland near Tupan, Mexico, today, according to the National Hurricane Center here.

"She's making about eight knots (about 9¼ mph) toward port - Coatzacoalcas," Morrison said of the Largo Isabel.

"The vessel is empty of cargo and therefore her props are out of the water. She's having trouble maneuvering and blowing about quite a bit," he said.

Reports from a U.S. Air Force reconnaissance airplane indicated Henri's broad center was about 150 miles east-northeast of Vera Cruz at 3 a.m. EDT, near latitude 20.1 north and longitude 93.8 west.

Henri - the eighth tropical storm and fifth hurricane of the Atlantic season - was moving toward the southwest at 10 mph, officials said.

Maximum sustained winds were 75 mph and gales extended 125 miles west and 50 miles east of the center, forecasters said.

The hurricane was not likely to threaten the United States, they said.

Gale force winds were predicted for the Mexican coastline from Tuxpan to Vera Cruz and officials said there would be heavy rain and tides 3 to 5 feet above normal near and north of where the hurricane made landfall.

But small craft along the lower Texas coast were advised not to venture far from port, either. Forecasters said Henri was interacting with a large high-pressure system over the United States to produce strong winds along the northwestern Gulf coast.

Paper Prints Forbidden Letter

MADISON, Wis. (AP)-A small daily newspaper, objecting to "the shadow of government censorship," has rushed into print with a letter that discusses what the government calls nuclear weapon secrets - information a federal judge had forbidden a California newspaper to publish.

"We have had no contact with any authorities and we hope it stays that way, editor Ron McCrea said after the 11,000-circulation Madison Press Connection printed the letter in a special Sunday edition.

The printing came hours after U.S. District Judge Robert Schnacke of San Francisco signed a temporary restraining order Saturday against publication by the Daily Californian of Berkeley.

U.S. Attorney Frank Tuerkkeimer of Madison said the Press Connection's publication of the letter was under study by his superiors and that it was unclear what action might be taken.

Kennedy Says Economy Key

WASHINGTON (AP)-Sen. Edward M. Kennedy says it may take a tax cut to cope with rising unemployment and tougher wage-price guidelines to cope with inflation.

The Massachusetts senator has said his decision on whether to seek the 1980 Democratic presidential nomination will be influenced by President Carter's handling of the nation's economic problems.

"I today don't call for a tax cut, but I think we are going to have to be sensitive to the need for that over, potentially, the latter part of this year and the first part of next," Kennedy said in a recent interview. He also said he thinks people are confused about the administration's commitment to wage-price guidelines, but did not specify how he would make them more forceful.

VAT Back In Spotlight

By The Associated Press

An old idea for a new tax is back in the spotlight.

The levy is VAT - the acronym for value added tax. It has been talked about for decades. It was adopted by France in 1954. And it is being promoted here by U.S. Rep. Al Ullman, the chairman of the House Ways and Means Committee, and U.S. Sen. Russell Long, chairman of the Senate Finance Committee.

The tax gets added to goods and services as they move from the producer to the consumer. Some people describe VAT as a national sales tax - a description supporters don't like.

Ullman, a Democrat from Oregon, says Americans could be paying VAT by 1981. He wants Congress to enact the new tax to replace some existing taxes. No one, says Ullman, should end up paying any more taxes than he or she does now.

Families Float To Freedom

NAILA, West Germany (AP)-Four children and four adults bet their lives on a hot air balloon made of nylon and bedsheets and drifted through the darkness of East Germany, hitting the jackpot - freedom across the boder in West Germany.

Peter Strelzek, an airplane mechanic who designed the escape craft, told reporters Sunday the 12-mile, 20-30 minute flight was his second attempt to escape by balloon from his communist-ruled homeland.

"It was no longer possible for us to lie to our children and put up with the political conditions in East Germany," he said.

He, his wife and two children, along with stonemason Andreas Wetzel, his wife and their two children, got onto a gondola made of an iron plate. Gas burners were fired, filling the handsewn envelope with hot air at a field near Lobenstein and the balloon rose aloft.

Borne toward the south by a good breeze, the refugees flew over the "death strip" border and put down in this Bavarian town, far from the border's electrified fences and minefields. It was believed to be the first time refugees had used a balloon to cross the border.

Left Takes Power In India

NEW DELHI, India (AP)-Hafizullah Amin, Afghanistan's hard-line communist prime minister and secret police boss, took over as president and chief of the ruling party from Nur Mohammed Taraki, and reports today indicated he might have staged a brief but bloody coup in the former palace.

Radio Afghanistan reported the ultra-leftward power shift Sunday, and said Taraki resigned all his posts on health grounds.

Fires Raging In California

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Stubborn brush fires roared out of control today in Southern California, blackening thousands of acres and destroying more than a score of fashionable homes as firefighters called in reserves from as far away as Maine and Rhode Island.

Residents of Hollywood Hills Laurel Canyon area were stunned when a fire pushed by 25 mph winds burned its way through 19 expensive homes in the wooded area overlooking Los Angeles.

Among the homes destroyed were those of blues musician John Mayall and actress Mackenzie Phillips, a regular on the CBS television series, "One Day at a Time."

"My home, my beautiful home," said George Hunt as he walked near his home on Granview Drive, where houses are valued at as much as $500,000. "It was so beautiful, so lush here."

Three hundred firefighters stopped the flames after water drops were made by helicopters and two "super scooper" airplanes that skimmed the Pacific Ocean to fill their water tanks.

The Forest Service asked for 800 firefighters to help the 2,473 men and women battling the blazes which had consumed more than 55,000 acres.

"We've gone about as far as we can with what we have, so now we're drawing on our firefighting resources nationally," U.S. Forest Service spokesman Lee Redding said Sunday.

The crews called in to help were from stations in Indiana, Ohio, Maryland, Pennsylvania, Maine, New Hampshire, Rhode Island, Connecticut, Michigan, Minnesota and Wisconsin.

Meanwhile, orders closing the Angeles, Los Padres, Cleveland and San Bernardino National Forests were issued during the weekend because of extreme fire hazard.

Only one of the major fires, the Pinecrest blaze which at one time threatened the radio and television transmitters serving Southern California atop mile-high Mount Wilson, was expected to be under control today, After charring nearly 5,000 acres of valuable watershed since Tuesday, it was contained Sunday night.

Crop Damage To Be Viewed By Bergland

WASHINGTON (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Bob S. Bergland will have a chance to inspect West Texas crops severely damged by a summer hail storm while on a three-day visit to the state next week.

Bergland is scheduled to land in Lubbock on Wednesday night after arriving in Dallas earlier in the day. Rep. Kent Hance, D-Texas, said Thursday there will be time for a crop inspection the morning of Sept. 20.

The agriculture secretary's first stop in Texas will be Dallas on Wednesday. Bergland is also planning to visit Abilene, Stephenville and Waco before leaving Texas on Sept. 21.

Ask Us

Q--Why has no work been done on West 23rd St.? It is inside the city limits, but drainage is poor and weeds are high.

A--Since no specific block or area long West 23rd St. is mentioned, City Engineer Jim Dower said he did not know exactly how to reply. He said, however, that the city does work along West 23rd St. If a problem exists at a specific location, Dower said, contact should be made with City Hall. "Then we'll respond to whatever the request is," he said.

Snyder Continues Tax Rebate Lead

Snyder continued to lead area cities in its population bracket in city sales tax rebates this year, according to latest reports from the office of State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

The latest rebate, for the period ending Aug. 23, amounted to $90,373, running Snyder's total for the year to $386,266. At this time last year, Snyder's sales tax rebates totaled $381,805.

Figures for some other area cities, with the latest rebate and the total for the year, in order: Sweetwater, $69,868 and $317,324; Levelland, $59,051 and $292,467; Pecos, $57,447 and $264,963; Lamesa, $47,447 and $264,963; Monahans, $38,840 and $181,756; Colorado City, $19,883 and $86,568; Post, $17,847 and $81,228; Rotan, $7,776 and $35,714; Roscoe, $4,802 and $18,874; Roby, $1,894 and $6,607.

Strike Continues In 10 States...

New Jersey Teachers In Tentative Accord

By The Associated Press

Negotiators for Paterson, N.J., teachers, bused from jail to contract talks, reached a tentative settlement with their school board, but across the country more than 30,000 teachers in 10 states were walking picket lines today.

In San Francisco, Mayor Dianne Feinstein met Sunday in marathon negotiating sessions with representatives of some 3,600 teachers, but 60,000 students were kept away from school today as the strike continued into its second week.

Teachers in western Pennsylvania's New Castle district ratified a new two-year contract Sunday, said the state Education Association, while teachers in Ringgold and Union City walked out.

And tentative agreements were reached in three Illinois school districts - East Maine Elementary, McHenry County and Springfield, but teachers were manning picket lines in seven districts.

The strikes have disrupted daily classes for nearly 750,000 students nationwide, almost half of them in Michigan.

In Indianapolis, where a judge ordered teachers to return to class and the school board to find the money to give them a 7 percent raise, school board officials said Sunday they had not found the money and teachers said they were not going to work without a contract.

Negotiators for the 1,700 teachers in Paterson were jailed Friday for refusing to obey a back to work order.

RV Hook-Ups At Coliseum Get OK

Scurry County Commissioners Court this morning gave informal approval to plans for installation of 200 hook-ups for recreational vehicles on the Scurry County Coliseum grounds.

Phil Ragland, coliseum manager, and Bill Warner, manager of the Snyder Chamber of Commerce, met with commissioners to discuss the proposal which has been in the planning stage for several months.

Warner reported that several rallies and conventions of recreation vehicle enthusiasts have been booked for the coming year and that invitations are going out to others. Some rallies already have been held here, but the absence of permanent type hook-ups has become a problem, it was noted. Also, there is considerable demand for the recreational vehicle facilities during other events, especially during the American Junior Rodeo Association's national finals. Commissioners said they favored the project and agreed informally that the county would participate if the chamber would come up with some assistance on the purchase of materials. Warner said he felt that if the county agreed, the project could move along.

Commissioners also got a report on a survey of the telephone system in the courthouse which was made by Don Nichols of Abilene, communications consultant with Southwestern Bell Telephone Co. Proposals for possible improvement were left with the commissioner for further study.

REMEMBER WHEN? Concluding the Scurry County Fair Saturday night was the old timers' style show which dished out large portions of sweet nostalgia to spectators. For those whose memories stretched back to the Roaring 20s, there was this performance of the Charleston, by modern day Vamps, (l to r) Kellye Elrod, Beckye Everett, Karen Littlepage and Rita Black. susan's unpopularity

There are some things you can't give away, but ordinarily money isn't among them.

Except in the case of new coins and currency. The public often shows an aversion to the unfamiliar for reasons of size or shape or denomination or who knows? The Treasury certainly doesn't or it wouldn't be in the fix it's in.

It happened to the $2 bill, which the Treasury, bowing to the realities of inflation, resurrected a few years back to take the load of the familiar $1.

Now it is happening to the Susan B. Anthony dollar coin, introduced for essentially the same reason.

It can't be for lack of publicity. Starting with the lengthy and sex-focused debate over the personage it was to honor, the Anthony dollar has had more coverage than virtually anything in the coinage line since Judas' 30 pieces of silver.

And it can't be for lack of supply. The Mint has already stamped out more than half a billion and plans to have 1.3 billion in circulation by next April. That is, maybe in circulation.

It takes people to accomplish that and so far the people who receive and hand on coins and bills have made it clear that for the most part they'd prefer to skip the Anthony dollar.

Major retailers report little traffic in the coin across their counters and overstocked banks have stopped ordering supplies from the Mint.

A major complaint appears to be that the new dollar, smaller than the long-familiar Liberty Head series or the more recent Eisenhower, is easily mistaken for a quarter.

There may be some point to that as concerns size, but not in shape and feel. Mint officials counter. The Anthony has the well-publicized and unusual, for an American coin, raised and broken-line border and is heavier. There is greater differentiation between it and a quarter than between the existing quarter and nickel. And confusion between the latter two has never threatened to become a public issue.

There has been some talk of enhancing distinctiveness by making the Anthony even heavier - there being already a bill to that effect in Congress. But one of the major objections to the Anthony's predecessor, the Eisenhower dollar which likewise went nowhere, was that it was too heavy.

In addition to the weighty facts, reason is also on the side of the Anthony. It's somewhat more expensive to produce than the $1 bill - three cents per unit as compared to two cents - but the durability of a coin keeps it in circulation 10 times longer. The overall savings for the government are immense.

But don't try to sell the public with reason. If it doesn't want to pocket a coin, it doesn't - and isn't in the case of the Anthony.

The Treasury isn't giving up, however, It is planning a new publicity blitz this fall, heavy on the television, to convince the public that the Anthony is the coinage wave of the future.

And if that doesn't work, it may create its own wave by commencing to withdraw from circulation the $1 bill.

But that could create its own public relations problem. If the Treasury meets resistance in introducing something unfamiliar, just wait till it tries to take away something as familiar as those Washington portraits.

There are something like three billion in circulation. And if millions of Americans should decide they would rather hoard George than switch to Susan, it could turn out to be a very long withdrawal.

There isn't a person who takes a trip out of the country who doesn't live in dreaded fear of the LL Experience ... Lost Luggage.

I have been on trips where poor devils have been two days ahead of their luggage for the entire trip. You try not to notice the ring around their collar-cuffs-waistbands-hems. You try to feign joy when they show you their newly purchased toothbrush and dental floss. You are tactful when they squirm uncomfortably in damp underwear that didn't dry during the night.

We have just returned from a trip out of which columns are made. We flew from Phoenix to Los Angeles and our luggage was there. We flew to the Fiji Islands and our luggage was there. We flew to Sydney, Australia, and our luggage was there. Sydney to Perth and it was still with us. From Perth we flew to Adelaide and witnesses yet another miracle.

From Adelaide we shot up to Brisbane and were confirmed believers in the airlines. From Brisbane to Melbourne, our luggage once again appeared.

From Melbourne to Sydney was a piece of cake as our four pieces of yellow luggage came tumbling off the conveyer belt FIRST, no less.

We wavered a bit when we flew from Sydney to Port Moresby, Papua New Guinea, but lo and behold, there it was. From Port Moresby to Madang, from Madang to Goroko and back again to Port Moresby and Sydney, we watched in absolute disbelief as the Bombeck luggage whirled around the carousel.

We watched it being loaded on the flight to Aukland, New Zealand, so its arrival was no surprise. Be we knew we were pushing the odds as we breathlessly awaited its arrival in Wellington.

It arrived, but we were worried. We were trying for the Guiness Book of Records and we knew it. I even rechecked my tags with the airline to make sure he had our next stop, Rotorua, but he did and they did and we were ecstatic.

We flew to Aukland and our luggage was there.

We flew to Los Angeles and our luggage was there...bringing the total exchanges to 18.

We flew to Phoenix. They lost our luggage.

Franklin Delano Roosevelt was responsible for introducing into the language of American politics a time period that is now of critical importance to James Earl Carter - 100 days.

There similiarity ends. It is differences, however, that are significant in this case. And as they apply to the importance of that period in the two presidencies, they go far to define the magnitude of the task at present facing Carter.

For Roosevelt, the "Hundred Days" were those at the very beginning of his first administration. They saw a rush of innovative legislation that had a lasting effect upon the nation, established the pattern of an activist presidency and provided much of the momentum to carry it through three subsequent elections.

For Carter, the situation is in many respects the reverse. A hundred days is roughly the period his own staff has set for the task of compiling a record of administrative and legislative accomplishment. These are not actually the last days of his administration, but they are effectively his last chance to turn his administration around from drift to action before facing the voters in the bid for a second term which, depsite the absence of a personal announcement and popular demand, it is still believed he intends to make.

The obstacles are awesome.

Roosevelt launched his legislative program fresh from a landslide election victory and with a large and largely cooperative congressional majority. Congress and public, stunned by the Depression and relieved that someone was at last doing something, were ready to be led.

Carter commences his hundred days not after an election but on the eve of one, a hyper-political situation that inevitably must have a distorting influence on his initiatives and reactions to them. He is almost three years into a presidency in which he has had manifold opportunities to do something. In the congressional and public concensus, he has not delivered.

Above all, in compiling his record he must deal with a Congress that is not only unimpressed by his performance to date but skeptical as to prospects of genuine improvement. It has a number of minds of its own on how to deal with energy, the economy and defense, the foremost make-or-break issues.

Some see it as an "imperial" Congress, successor to the "imperial" Johnson and Nixon presidencies, relishing its post-Watergate prominence and resistant to presidential direction. And it has no reason to do this president any favors.

Dealing with a Congress more inclined to lead than follow would be a tough act under any circumstances. Carter has not made it any easier for himself by past neglect of Capitol Hill. By any reckoning, including that of his own staff, congressional liaison has been poor to non-existent. Personalities compound the basic political problem. Other than Vice President Walter Mondale, the White House front echelon that is now gearing up for an intensive lobbying effort is not popular on Capitol Hill.

It adds up to a tremendous task in selling a program - at least the White House version of one - to Congress. That body on its own is already considering almost as many proposals on dealing with the energy problem as there are facets of it. It's questionable that any meaningful measures dealing with the faltering and inflation-ridden economy could show results before the election. And of the other major issues, strategic arms limitation with the Soviets has been enormously complicated by the burgeoning debate over Soviet troops in Cuba, an intrusive issue that by the time campaigning is underway in earnest may well take precedence over SALT itself.

The countdown for Carter began with the reconvening of Congress. To succeed by his own deadline, he will have to overwhelm Congress and country with more leadership than he has displayed so far.

And should he against all odds succeed in doing so, it could turn out to be a performance as impressive in its way as FDR's. The timing is, after all, not just a matter of a hundred days but of the 11th hour.

Your Birthday

September 18, 1979

Those you have done favors for in the past will do much this coming year to make your lot in life a rosier one. One in particular will be extremely helpful.

VIRGO (Aug. 23-Sept. 22) Because you place the needs of others before your own today it will do much to enhance your image and win their gratitude and respect. Your unselfishness becomes you. Find out more of what lies ahead for you in the year following your birthday by sending for your copy of Astro-Graph Letter. Mail $1 for each to Astro-Graph, Box 489, Radio City Station, N.Y. 10019. Be sure to specify birth date.

LIBRA (Sept. 23-Oct. 23) Currents are stirring which will give you something big to be hopeful about. Fortunate things could start to happen as of today.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24-Nov. 22) Should you find yourself in a challenging situation today, don't let circumstances intimidate you. Lady Luck will be available if you have to call upon her.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23-Dec. 22) Sometimes your insight regarding the outcome of events is startling. This is one of those days when your predictions could be right on target.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22-Jan. 19) Your greatest benefits or advantages are likely to be gained today from joint ventures or situations you manage for others. Focus on these areas.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 20-Feb. 19) A wise selection of a partner could double your luck today in an involvement where a team effort is required. Be very choosy.

PISCES (Feb. 20-March 20) Persons in the position to give your career a boost see you in a very favorable light today. Continue to do a good job. They will be even further impressed.

ARIES (March 21-April 19) You will be luckier today in dealing with persons who you deem to be "big shots" rather than with those you feel are small fries. Go right to the top.

TAURUS (April 20-May 20) A domestic situaton that has concerned you appears as if it will work out so that all will be pleased. Hope for the best.

GEMINI (May 21-June 20) Success will not be denied you today if you visualize what you hope to achieve positively. Think "win." Act accordingly.

CANCER (June 21-July 22) Something you are involved in can be expanded today to produce an even larger return than anticipated. Look for ways to enhance what you've already begun.

LEO (July 23-Aug. 22) Enterprises requiring your personal touch should work out as you hope today. Instead of delegating, handle the important elements yourself.

battle for talent

NEW YORK (AP)-A battle for talented managers is leading to sharply higher salaries in the executive suite, with incomes of some key people jumping 50 percent and even 60 percent at a time.

"Corporate America is on the biggest binge of hoarding and pirating key executives since the early 1960s," said Eugene Jennings, an authority on corporate affairs who has been tracking the situation.

The surge of increases isn't unique in U.S. industrial history, but it is pushing incomes to previously unheard of levels, and seems destined to make million-dollar incomes far more common.

"We'll see more million dollar salaries in the next five years than we did in the previous ten," said Jennings. "The clear winners are top level executives with good records as general managers."

The condition leading to the higher salaries results from an economy in which some old-line companies are stagnated while newer concerns are forging ahead. Needing talent, the latter raid the former.

As an inducement, the expansion companies once offered 40 percent or a bit more to obtain from a stagnant company a key executive, usually the manager of a corporate division, or even the corporation itself.

Now, with professional search firms adding to the pressure, the pot has been increased to as much as 60 percent of existing salaries. "Good general managers are scarce," said Jennings.

Jennings, a professor of management at Michigan State, author of many books on corporations, and confidential adviser to top corporate officials, has spent years tracking executives roads to success.

Intensifying the present battle, he believes, is the tenacity with which the stagnant corporations, the ones so often raided, are fighting to retain their best employees.

Once, said Jennings, they would fight to the extent of offering their key people up to 20 percent to 25 percent to turn down the raider's offer. Now, he said, many companies will go as high as 40 to 50.

Recognizing that their companies cannot move ahead without talented executives, many companies have developed contingency packages so alluring they make it almost impossible for an executive to leave.

When the executive is likely to be tempted, the package is presented. Typically, it includes a long-term commitment to the executive and benefits designed to win the same commitment from him.

"We are in the retaining end of a cycle," said Jennings. He spotted the beginnings of the cycle 2 or 2½ year ago. At first the stagnant companies were caught off guard. Now they are fighting hard, he said.

Such sequences, he observes, develop whenever an economy is mixed, in the sense that some companies are in the forefront of expansion while others lag behind.

"Whenever you have this situation you have talent on the move, crossing organizational and job boundaries," he said.

Suspect Arson In Dallas Fire

DALLAS (AP)-Dallas fire officials were still investigating the cause Monday of a devastating fire of "suspicious origin" that leveled 10 buildings of a north Dallas apartment complex causing an estimated $3 million in damage.

No one was injured.

Lt. Tom Oney of the Dallas Fire Department arson investigation squad said he was "completely undecided" on the cause of the fire early Sunday.

But arson investigators initially called the five-alarm blaze - which broke out in a section of apartments under construction - "suspicious."

About 64 occupied units were destroyed and an additional 24 units in another complex under construction were leveled.

Oney said damage from the blaze would exceed $3 million, an increase from earlier estimates of $1.5 million. The investigator said the blaze was one of the costliest in Dallas history.

Two Local Educators Report On Convention

Thirty members of the Zeta Lambda Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma recently met at the home of Mrs. Durelle Gorman. Mrs. Rita Carter, Mrs. Marge Mathis and Miss Evelyn Boone assisted with the hostess duties.

A business meeting was conducted by the president, Mrs. Gorman. The program focus for the coming year, "Women Educators, Architects of the Future," was presented by Margie McNair and ElWanda Nall.

Virginia Grove and Helen Mock reported on the International Convention. The golden anniversary of Delta Kappa Society International was celebrated July 23-26 in Dallas. Four thousand representatives from every state, even provinces of Canada, El Salvador, Finland, Great Britain, Guatamala, Mexico, The Netherlands, Norway and Sweden were in attendance.

The first session of the convention was a general meeting at the Convention Center with keynote speaker Mrs. Sarah Weddington, special assistant to President Carter, speaking on "Women in Leadership Roles," Ms. Mock stated.

The next two days the group was divided into groups of four for special training in areas of state presidents, program chairmen, treasurers and other leaders, she added.

Highlight of the meeting, Miss Groves reported, was the Golden Anniversary Day when members convened in the Center to hear speakers including Miss Bernice Conoly, international president; Dr. Mary Evelyn Huewy, president of Texas Women's University; Dr. Dorothy L. Johnson, assistant superintendent, Washington, D.C., and a past international president; and past international presidents, Mrs. Nell McMains of Texas City, Miss Ota B. Hiller, Mrs. Nadine Ewing, Miss Alida W. Parker, and Dr. Carolyn Guss.

INTERNATIONAL MEETING—Two local women attended the golden anniversary of Delta Kappa Society International this summer. Miss Virginia Grove, leflt, is state executive secretary-treasurer and maintains her office here. She is past president of Zeta Lambda. Miss Grove recently spoke at the DKG Area X conference held in Abilene. Helen Mock, right, is immediate past president of Zeta Lambda and is a member of the state scholarship committee. Both gave reports at the Society's recent meeting. (SDN Staff Photo)

Oswald: "In duplicate every trick is very important. With this in mind, every expert will make occasional bids to make things difficult for the defense. South's three-diamond call is typical of this sort of action. He intends to play in four spades and wants to stop a diamond lead against that contract."

Alan: "He can't get hurt by fooling his partner. Spades outrank diamonds and if partner raises diamonds South just goes back to spades."

Oswald: "This type bid is less effective today than it used to be. Players have learned to be suspicious when declarer gives them too much information. This West was a doubting Thomas. Left to his own devices he would almost surely have opened a club. This time he decided that South was playing games. Hence, he opened the king of diamonds. The defense rattled off three diamond tricks and declarer was held to his contract. At tables where the club was led, declarer had time to discard one diamond on dummy's fourth heart and made an overtrick."

If you don't want your makeup to look thick and unnatural, try applying it in five dots — two on the forehead, two on the cheeks and one on the chin. Then blend well. Keep in mind that your aim is to even out skin tone, not cover it up. The areas between the eyes, and from the sides of the nose to the temples may need more foundation for added coverage. To blend foundation evenly, use a damp sponge.

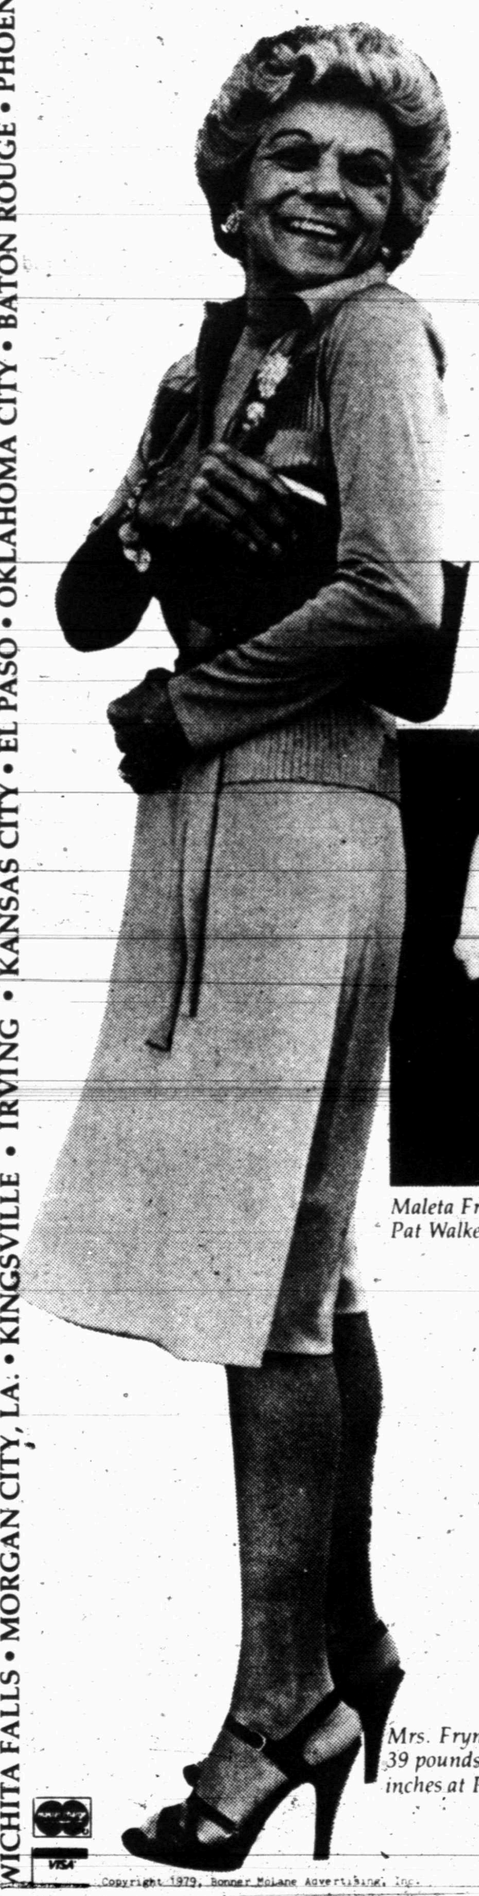
"What A Beautiful Feeling"



Maleta Fryman BEFORE Pat Walker's

Mrs. Fryman AFTER losing 39 pounds and 63-1/4 inches at Pat Walker's

Our proven program of weight reduction has been winning international acclaim for more than 27 years now

Although we just opened our first salon here, Pat Walker's Figure Perfection International has a long and distinguished history as the nation's leading weight-loss authority. In all parts of the country—from Tucson to Orlando, from Houston to Omaha—we are helping thousands of men and women lose unwanted pounds and inches safely and easily, without stringent diets or strenuous exercises.

Now YOU have the opportunity to achieve the weight goal you've dreamed of so long. You'll rejoice in your new good looks—and be as delighted with our program as Maleta Fryman is. Not so long ago Mrs. Fryman was "fat, sad, mad" and disgusted with herself for failing to lose weight and keep it off on various diets, shots and pills. After losing 39 pounds and 63¼ inches at Pat Walker's, Mrs. Fryman enthusiastically urges others to try the program:

". . . that slim, trim figure . . . can be yours the Pat Walker way—and I'm proof positive of it. I met the weight set for me at the beginning of the program in the first eight months. As I felt so good, I decided to take off another seven pounds. It's now three years later and I'm still holding that weight."

Stay slender forever

At Pat Walker's you achieve permanent figure correction. Once you've attained the weight and proportions that are right for your bone structure, you can maintain them for a lifetime on your own. Moreover, the entire reducing process is marvelously pleasant, conducted in complete privacy in a quiet, beautifully appointed salon where you are a special and valued patron.

Rather than follow a strict diet, you learn sensible eating habits that allow you to eat your favorite food at any meal—but within reason. You enjoy a benefit exclusive to Pat Walker's: relaxing treatments on the Symmetricon, passive exercise equipment that gently trims away unwanted pounds while it firms and tones tissue, improves circulation and helps correct posture. And consider these other important advantages:

- a proven program of weight reduction
- personalized program to meet your needs
- complete privacy and confidentiality
- trained professional counselors
- no need to change from your regular clothes

Won't you call NOW

. . . for your complimentary treatment and figure analysis? There's no obligation, of course. Just call or come by to reserve time for your free appointment.

He's Boa Constricted

By Abigail Van Buren

1979 by Chicago Tribune-N.Y. News Synd. Inc.

DEAR ABBY: I am a normal, 24-year-old man who happens to love snakes. I have a 6-foot boa constrictor who is a wonderful pet. Nellie was born in captivity so she isn't dangerous, but whenever I take her out for an airing, most people freak out, call the police, and demand that I be locked up!

I never let Nellie out of my sight, so she can't possibly harm anyone, but when people see Nellie curled affectionately around my neck they practically go into shock.

Abby, everybody I know reads your column, so please say a few kind words about snakes. They make ideal pets. They don't bark, shed hair, or have to be walked. And they eat only once a month.

It's a shame that most people hate snakes without ever having met one. How did snakes get such a bad name in the first place? And, by the way, please tell your readers that a boa constrictor is non-poisonous. It kills by STRANGLING its victim. Thank you.

SNAKE LOVER

DEAR LOVER: Snakes got a "bad name" when the first one slithered around in the Garden of Eden. You are right when you say that most people hate snakes without ever having met one. Including me. And I'd just as soon leave it that way.

DEAR ABBY: I work at a small community drive-through bank. There are just two of us girls working here in a tiny room. Much of the day there is so little activity that we try to find something to do to keep from being bored to death.

We've tried sewing, reading, writing personal letters and talking to each other, but our days are 8½ hours long, and we're still bored.

Do you think it would be okay if we asked our boss if we could bring in a portable TV to watch when we're not busy? This boredom is about to drive us both up a wall.

TWO BORED GIRLS

DEAR BORED: Tell your boss how much free time you have and ask if he has some odd jobs to fill your idle hours. If he has none, ask if he would have any objections to your bringing in a TV.

DEAR ABBY: I'm 62, and this is my first letter to Dear Abby. To get right to my problem, how can a mother get her grown, married children to pay back the money they borrowed?

One daughter left home as a teenager to live with the "flower children" in San Francisco. Over the years she has borrowed over $5,000 from me!

One of my sons owes me $2,000. He is well-off now and could pay it back, but he ignores the debt as though it didn't exist.

Another son was always hitting me up for a few hundred dollars at a time. I never kept track of what it amounts to, but he also pays no attention to the debt. I am not destitute, but I could use the money, and these kids can pay me now without hurting.

A mother can't sue her own kids, but I am really disgusted with this situation. Any advice?

SOFT TOUCH

DEAR SOFT: Write them each a letter and remind them of their debts. If they ignore your letters, write again. And again. And again.

CONFIDENTIAL TO "SECOND TIME AROUNDER": Marriage is like the Army. Everybody complains about it, but a surprising number re-enlist!

Do you wish you had more friends? For the secret of popularity, get Abby's new booklet: "How To Be Popular; You're Never Too Young or Too, Old." Send $1 with a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to Abby, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Smoking In '79 Due To Decline

WASHINGTON (AP)- The Agriculture Department says cigarette smoking on a per capita basis is expected to decline in 1979 for the sixth straight year. That would put it at the lowest level in 22 years.

Production is gaining slightly and exports of cigarettes are brisk, the department's outlook board said.

"However, the smoking and health controversy, coupled with further price increases may bring the smoking rate per person in calendar 1979 down about 2 percent from last year's 198 packs per capita," the report said.

That would be the lowest since 1957, it said.

Per capita smoking rates are calculated by including all persons 18 years and older - non-smokers as well as smokers.

Survived With Scarce Food, Lots Of Faith

FORT NELSON, British Columbia (AP)—A 55-year-old helicopter pilot says a chocolate bar, cranberries and faith helped him survive a two-week ordeal beside his crashed helicopter in a remote area of northern British Columbia.

Walter Yates, of Austin, Texas, was found Sunday in good condition by a search plane that spotted scorch marks made by his helicopter when it crashed and exploded in a forest 42 miles southeast of Fort Nelson on Sept. 2.

Yates, a self-employed prospector, said in a hospital Sunday that he cracked some ribs in the accident. He also suffered two 3-inch gashes to his face and is being treated for exposure.

Yates was flying the 180 miles from Fort Nelson to Fort St. John when a tail rotor control failed, he said. His helicopter crashed into the trees, but he managed to get clear just before it burst into flames and exploded.

For Demos Presidential Nominee...

Tower Predicts Kennedy

DALLAS (AP)-Sen. John Tower, saying his Democratic colleagues in Washington consider Jimmy Carter a "political embarrassment," predicts Sen. Edward Kennedy will be the Democratic nominee in 1980.

Tower told the State Republican Executive Committee here Saturday that Kennedy is "eminently beatable" - if the GOP can make it through a potentially cutthroat nomination process.

"It may be becoming more clear now who the democratic nominee will be rather than who the Republican nominee will be," he said.

The senator said that any of the leading potential GOP candidates - assumed to be George Bush, Ronald Reagan and John Connally - "easily have Kennedy's number.

"I can't see how we Republicans can do anything but expect to elect a Republican president next year," Tower told the committee members.

But he warned that a bloody in-party nomination fight could hurt the GOP.

"Some people have said the Republicans have the singular talent for snatching defeat from the jaws of victory," he said.

At the SREC session, the committee approved a 5,000-signature petition process for candidates who want to get on the May primary ballot. The committee also chose Houston as the site of the June GOP state convention.

Tower's prediction of a Kennedy nomination was echoed by other Texas GOP leaders.

Ray Hutchison, a former state GOP chairman and now a Connally supporter, also predicted a Kennedy run for the White House.

Yanks Are Eliminated; Minnesota Tops Texas

By The Associated Press

For all intents and purposes, the season is over for the New York Yankees. But it's just beginning for the California Angels, according to Manager Jim Fregosi.

"All season long, everyone knew it would be going down to the last two weeks," says Fregosi as he prepares to start a vital four-game series in Kansas City tonight.

California holds a three-game lead in the American League West over Kansas City as a result of Sunday's games, when the Angels lost a 2-1 decision to Milwaukee and the Royals were beaten 6-3 by Seattle.

Meanwhile, the defending world champion Yankees lost 8-4 in 12 innings to Detroit and were eliminated in the AL East race. The Yankees had won two straight world championships and three consecutive league pennants.

The Baltimore Orioles virtually sewed up the East with a 13-3 rout of Boston that reduced their division-clinching "magic number" to four. Any combination of four Baltimore victories or losses by Milwaukee will give the Orioles the East title.

In other AL Games, Chicago defeated Oakland 5-2, Toronto whipped Cleveland 8-2 and Minnesota stopped Texas 6-2.

Twins 6, Rangers 2

Danny Goodwin and Ken Landreaux doubled in two runs apiece in a six-run second inning, triggering Minnesota past Texas.

All the runs in the Minnesota second were unearned as the result of errors by first baseman Pat Putnam and second baseman Bump Wills which victimized Doc Medich, 9-7.

Cowboys Rally Past Bears In 4th Quarter

IRVING (AP)—Like some of the old New York Yankee teams, tradition and Roger Staubach carried the Dallas Cowboys to another National Football victory Sunday, 24-20, over the Chicago Bears.

"I looked over at the Chicago bench after their last touchdown and they were celebrating like they had won or something," said Dallas linebacker D. D. Lewis. "Hell, we knew it was a long way from over."

Trailing 20-17, Staubach whipped the Cowboys on a lightning 71-yard blitz in 57 seconds, flipping a 22-yard screen pass to Tony Hill for the game's winning touchdown with 1:57 to play.

"It's just a matter of our being in a number of close games in the past," said Lewis. "I think it probably started back in 1972 with Roger."

Staubach brought Dallas (3-0) from behind three times with touchdown passes to spoil the starting debut of third-year Chicago quarterback Vince Evans, who ran for a touchdown and passed for two more scores.

Walter Payton shredded the Cowboys for 134 yards on 22 carries while Evans, a former Rose Bowl hero for Southern Cal, completed only five passes but made two of them count for touchdowns.

Evans connected with Golden Richards on a 52-yard pass-and-run as the former Cowboy sneaked behind the Dallas secondary and was 25 yards ahead of his closest pursuer as he fielded the ball on the 10.

Evans also teamed with James Scott on a 64-yard pass-and-run with 10:44 to play that put the Bears ahead 20-17 for the final time.

Staubach, who had been knocked out briefly in the first half, said, "On that last drive we just knew we could do it. We've been there before."

In all three Cowboy victories they have come from behind in the fourth quarter.

"The turning point was the last drive," said Chicago strong safety Doug Plank. "We just couldn't stop them. Any time the situation comes down to where you can't make the play, You're going to lose."

Staubach passed for 221 yards on 18 of 31 passes, including scoring tosses of 42 yards to Hill and 11 to Billy Joe Dupree.

But the passes that really mattered were in the closing drive where he hit Drew Peason for 13 yards, Hill for 13, Preston Pearson for 23 and then the short game-clincher to "Thrill" Hill.

Reds Advance Lead To 2½ Over Houston

By The Associated Press

Tom Seaver says he's not the overpowering pitcher he once was.

Ten years ago, a typical Seaver victory was a three-hit shutout with 10 strikeouts. Sunday he had to settle for a three-hitter with four strikeouts.

The 34-year-old right-hander was being written off by some after his 16-14 record in 1978 and a 2-5 start this season. But he has silenced his critics with a 13-1 record since June 9, which has allowed the Cincinnati Reds to overtake and pass the fast-starting Houston Astros in the National League West.

Sunday's 2-0 victory over the Los Angeles Dodgers was Seaver's fifth shutout of the season and 52nd of his career, more than any other active pitcher. And it gave the Reds a 2½-game lead over the Astros, who lost 2-1 to the San Francisco Giants.

Meanwhile, the Pittsburgh Pirates lost 3-0 to the New York Mets and fell .001 percentage points in the East behind the Montreal Expos, who won the second game of the double-header against the St. Louis Cardinals 5-1 in 10 innings after losing the opener 4-3. In the only other NL game, the Philadelphia Phillies edged the Chicago Cubs 4-3.

Giants 2, Astros 1

Houston lost to San Francisco in late innings for the second straight day to fall further behind the first-place Reds.

J. R. Richard, 16-13, had allowed one hit and an unearned run going into the ninth. But Mike Ivie's single, an opposite-field double down the first base line by Darrell Evans and an intentional walk preceded Larry Herndon's long drive to left field that officially was called a single as Ivie trotted in from third base with the winning run.

On Saturday, Houston had a 3-0 lead before the Giants won with five runs in the eighth.

Nielsen Does Well As Replacement; Oilers Beat KC

HOUSTON (AP)—Houston backup quarterback Gifford Nielsen intended to give starter Dan Pastorini a day of rest Sunday and by the time he finished Nielsen had Kansas City thinking it should have taken the day off too.

Nielsen, making his first pro regular season start, completed 12 of 18 passes for 173 yards and one touchdown and directed the Oilers to a 20-6 victory over the Chiefs.

"It is my job to back up Dan Pastorini and if I can help the team win that is great but Dan is still No. 1," Nielsen said. "I told Dan before the game that I was going to give him the day off."

Pastorini, suffering from a bruised right shoulder, got his day of rest as Nielsen completed a 24-yard screen pass to fullback Tim Wilson for one touchdown and handed off to Earl Campbell for a four-yard touchdown run in the first half.

"We didn't think Nielsen would play that well," KC cornerback Gary Green said. "He threw some good passes, mixed his plays well and never threw into heavy coverage."

The Oilers, rebounding from a devastating loss to Pittsburgh last week, took a 17-6 halftime lead on a 28-yard field goal by Toni Fritsch, who added a 23-yarder in the fourth quarter.

Kansas City's only scoring was a 55-yard punt return by J. T. Smith in the second quarter. Oiler defensive back Vernon Perry blocked the extra point attempt by Jan Stenerud, who had missed only two conversion attempts in the past two seasons.

"I felt good about what happened," Nielsen said. "I feel that I have come a

Mistakes Cause Munson Death

NEW YORK (AP)—A federal investigator has determined that the jet plane crash in which New York Yankees catcher Thurman Munson was killed resulted from several mistakes made by Munson while he was flying the aircraft.

Edward J. McAvoy of the National Transportation Safety Board told the New York Times of his findings, which he will include in a report to the board in about two weeks.

McAvoy said the probable cause of the accident was "improper use of throttles and flight controls" by Munson, whose $1.4-million Cessna Citation crashed and burned as he attempted to land it at Akron-Canton Airport on Aug. 2.

McAvoy told the Times he listed several factors which indicated Munson was at fault. McAvoy also questioned licensing procedures by the Federal Aviation Administration.

Fems Place 3rd At Tournament...

Tigers Host Central This Evening

SAN ANGELO—Snyder's varsity volleyball team was knocked out of its bid for another championship in the Angelo State Tournament here Saturday, but rallied back to win third place.

Tonight, the Tigers put their year-long at home winning streak on the line when San Angelo visits at 6 and 7 o'clock. Snyder, Class AAA state champ last season, holds a home winning streak that stretches for over a year. In fact, no one really knows how much farther it goes back.

"I'm not sure, but I know it's been over a year now," said Coach Joyce Elrod. "Maybe I shouldn't say anything though, it may end tonight," she grinned.

San Angelo defeated Snyder earlier this year, then knocked the Tigers out of first-place action in last weekend's tournament.

"They are a very good team," stated Elrod. "But we played better against them the second time we played. "It (tonight's match) should be an exciting one. If you wanted to come out and watch a thrilling volleyball game this would be the one to see."

Snyder zipped past Midland Lee 15-5 and 15-5 in match one of the two-day tournament here Friday. Kim Harlin led the Tigers by serving for 12 points. Lisa Cobb had 6, followed by Patsy Casas, 5; Sherry Mayes, 4; and Suzy Fisher, 2.

Friday afternoon, Snyder ripped El Paso Jefferson, 15-6 and 15-7. Casas paced the effort with 7, while Mayes had 6, Harlin and Fisher 5, Cobb 4, and Billie Owens 3.

San Angelo Central downed the defending champions Saturday morning in three games, 15-10, 11-14 and 7-12. All three went the length of the clock. Fisher had 8 points, followed by Cobb with 7, and Owens, Harlin and Mayes, 3 each.

The loss put Snyder against Big Spring in a match for third place. Harlin scored 10, Owens had 9, Cobb and Fisher scored 7 each, Mayes had 2 and Casas 1 as the Tigers passed the Steers, 10-15, 15-3 and 11-9.

San Angelo Central won the tournament. Lamesa placed second.

"We're still not real consistant," commented Elrod. "But our periods of inconsistancy are getting shorter. We'll be all right once we get more experience. Against Big Spring we played for the first time well under pressure."

Snyder plays at Big Spring on Tuesday, but trys Central in Snyder tonight; varsity at 7, JV at 6. Tickets are $1 adults and .50 students.

Netters Defeat Big Spring; Off To Winning Beginning

Snyder's varsity tennis team opened the season Saturday by defeating Big Spring, 16-10.

"It was a nice difference from last year's opener when Big Spring won 18-3," noted Coach Bill Boles who has a young team again this year. Six freshmen are in the top 18 players.

"Our physical conditioning is well above last year at this time but we need to work more on fundamentals and point production," said Boles, adding Snyder would face a real test next weekend in Lubbock when they play Dunbar Saturday morning and Estacado in the afternoon. "This will mean a minimum of four matches with little rest in between for every Snyder player."

In the dual with Big Spring in girl's singles, Donna McGee, playing No. 1, lost for the first time ever to Alyssa Burns, 6-2, 6-3. McGee had defeated Burns three times previously.

Kelly Scott lost a "three-setter" to Laura Mexia, 4-6, 6-1, 1-6; Cathy Cypert defeated Debbie Fulcher in three tough sets, 2-6, 6-3, 7-6: Patti Clark won over Terry Miller, 6-3, 6-3; Mindy Aldridge was defeated by Diane Ladaga, 6-1, 6-0; Dee Gilbert defeated Amy Burleson in three sets, 6-1, 4-6, 6-4; Pam Smith lost to a good player, Deanna Johnson, 5-7, 5-7; and Kim Byrom took three sets to win over Karen Jones, 1-6, 6-4, 6-4.

In girl's doubles, McGee and Gilbert lost to Burns and Mexia, 3-6, 1-6; Clark-Smith were defeated by Madry-Fulcher, 1-6, 3-6; Scott-Cypert won over Miller-Dawn Estes, 6-1, 6-0; and Stacey Day and Sentell defeated Minchew-Prudhome, 6-1, 6-0.

In boy's singles Neal Paige won over a much-improved Aubrey Weaver, 6-3, 7-5; Jon Smith lost to Kim McLaughlin, 1-6, 1-6; Jeff Wesson won over Cavin McMahon, 6-0, 6-0; Jim Fowler had a battle in winning over Brent Pierce, 6-4, 7-6; Mark Cypert defeated Greg Franklin, 7-5, 2-6, 7-6; Trey McWilliams lost to Todd Gilbert, 6-1, 6-2; Jeff Fowler lost a three-set affair to Scott Nelson, 4-6, 6-1, 3-6; John Melott,, playing his first match in two years, won over Rusty Williams, 6-1, 6-0; and Mitch Stone defeated Russell Hognett, 3-6, 7-6, 6-1.

A clean sweep was made by the Tigers in boy's doubles play. Paige-Jim Fowler won over McLaughlin-McMahon, 7-5, 6-4; Smith-Wesson won over Weaver-Pierce, 6-3, 7-5; Cypert-Richard Derrick defeated Gilbert-Franklin, 7-5, 7-6; and McWilliams-Jeff Fowler won over Rodgers-Mattrick, 6-2, 6-1.

long way and the team responded to me."

Kansas City quarterback Steve Fuller, a rookie from Clemson, will have less pleasant memories about his first NFL start.

Fuller, who beat out veteran Mike Livingston last week, failed to get the Chiefs in the end zone. He suffered four interceptions and was sacked six times for 41 yards in losses.

Fuller completed 11 of 27 passes for 138 yards, but was sacked by rookie defensive end Jesse Baker four times in the final minutes.

Earl Campbell rushed for 106 yards in the first half, and finished with 132 yards on 32 carries.

Cats Take 9-8 Victory; Try Steers Thursday

LUBBOCK—Snyder junior varsity improved its record to 1-1 with a 9-8 victory over Estacado here Saturday.

The Tigers will play their first home game of the season Thursday, taking on Big Spring at 7:30 p.m.

Snyder got on the scoreboard first Saturday as Gary Don Edmiaston slithered over from six yards out to cap a first-quarter 45-yard drive. He also added the point-after kick.

The Matadors went in front in the second period, scoring from 28 yards out to complete a 75-yard drive. The two-point conversion effort was good.

Both teams fought back and forth until four minutes remained in the game, when Perry Echols and Raymond Jeffery took advantage of a bad snap on a would-be punt for Estacado, and nailed the kicker in the end zone for a safety.

Defensively, Oziel Gonzales, tackle, intercepted a pass and recovered two fumbles. Jessie Hernandez intercepted another pass, and Bryan Limmer recovered a Matador fumble.

Offensively, Mark Shaw led Tiger rushers with 91 yards. Edmiaston was second.

Gridders Learning; Everything Positive Except Turnovers

Snyder's play in the first victory of the season, 14-13 over Monahans last Friday, certainly wasn't an example of efficiency, but Coach Mike Jenkins believes his Tigers will come around.

"We were very glad to win the game. We should have put it away early and didn't. I thought Monahans played real hard...(but) we kept them in the game with our own mistakes," he said.

"We're not going to harp on mistakes or inconsistancy, just keeping working on them. The things we did offensively were all positive except turnovers," Jenkins noted. "We threw the ball well and ran it well. We were able to run the ball inside at 'em and we were real pleased with this."

Snyder rambled for 210 yards on the ground and 98 through the airways for 308 total yards - a figure the Tigers didn't reach last year until the first district contest.

"The biggest improvement was our offensive line. Our line blocking showed vast improvement," Jenkins noted, citing the play of Toby Neves and Tommy Peek as being major factors. Dale Jenkins and Barry Tubb caught the ball well, according to the coach, who also pointed out the running of Bobby Degrate (80 yards on 20 carries).

"Defensively we played well also. They only had one real drive against us, the one at the end of the game."

Snyder was in front 14-7 with 1:49 in the game before Monahans' quarterback Joel Faulkenberry took the Loboes 83 yards in 9 plays for a touchdown. Snyder stopped the would-be two-point conversion.

"They did an excellent job of moving the ball late on us," commented Jenkins, who lost no faith in the secondary because of the drive.

"We're going to be alright. I think the situation will benefit us; having been in this situation and come out with a victory. We know we've got to play hard until the clock runs out."

Jenkins cited the defensive play of Thomas Selmon and Bryan Vincent, Robert Rodriguez, Paul Gafford as other pluses. He also praised the kicking game; Sam Willis on placements and William Robinson on punts.

Giants Meet 'Skins; Televised Tonight

WASHINGTON (AP)—New York Giants quarterback Joe Pisarcik has taken a severe physical beating in the first two games of the still-young National Football League season. The Washington Redskins would like to continue his miseries.

Pisarcik has been sacked 14 times in the Giants' two losses, seven in each game, while passing 75 times. The Redskins, with a group of veterans up front, want to nail Pisarcik just as many times tonight when the two teams meet in a nationally televised NFC East contest.

"The past two weeks have been the hardest two weeks of my life," said Pisarcik. "Pass blocking is coming along and we've thrown the ball a lot. But we've got two new men at tackles who aren't used to the system. So it's going to take some time."

The big question, however, is whether Pisarcik's body can continue to take the pounding from 260-pound defensive ends and tackles.

Even Giants Coach Ray Perkins admits, "No one can be expected to take that kind of beating."

For reasons ranging from injuries to contract holdouts to a short retirement, the Giants lost five offensive linemen before the regular season. They had to call veteran Tom Neville out of retirement last week to fill in at tackle and he was bowled over repeatedly by the St. Louis Cardinals, who then pounded Pisarcik.

Ford To Be Out For Entire Season

By DENNE FREEMAN
AP Sports Writer

With exactly 3:41 left in the first half of what was to become a very expensive meeting with Texas Christian Saturday night, "Mustang Mania" was put into the hands of Jim Bob Taylor for the rest of the year.

Junior quarterback Mike Ford, the nation's offensive leader last year, suffered a torn ligament and underwent surgery Sunday morning. Southern Methodist Coach Ron Meyer said Ford would be lost for the year.

Taylor, a sophomore who threw only two passes last year and was almost moved to safety in spring training, responded with a 15-yard touchdown pass to tight end Robert Fisher.

However, the rust showed in the eventual 27-7 victory over TCU when Taylor completed a pass to Horned Frog cornerback Ray Berry, who returned it 41 yards for a touchdown.

"I thought Taylor handled the pressure OK," said TCU Coach F.A. Dry. "However, being thrown into a game isn't as difficult as it will be for him this week. He's got all week to think about it."

In other SWC games Saturday night, Baylor beat Texas A&M 17-7, Houston tripped Florida 14-10, Texas Tech trimmed New Mexico 17-7, Arkansas downed Colorado State 36-3, and Rice upset Tulane 21-17.

Baylor Coach Grant Teaff concluded "We're a long way from being in anybody's Cotton Bowl. We play Alabama next week and we might not even make it back from that game."

Texas becomes the last collegiate team to open the 1979 season Saturday night, hosting Iowa State. In other games, North Texas is at SMU in Texas Stadium, Arkansas hosts Oklahoma State, Rice is at LSU, Texas A&M is at Penn State, TCU hosts Tulane, and Texas Tech is at Arizona.

And Baylor gets to go to Alabama.

The Tampa Bay Buccaneers are pro football's all-time champions in consecutive losses, 26, in 1976-77.

Says DEA Head...

Bail-Bond System Drug Enforcement Disaster

DALLAS (AP)-The head of the Drug Enforcement Administration says the present bail bond system is a "drug law enforcement disaster" that stifles authorities struggling to contain an unabated flow of marijuana and cocaine.

It is a time to recognize the bail system is a traffic ticket for major narcotics dealers," Administrator Peter Bensinger told the 86th annual International Association of Chiefs of Police conference Sunday.

Approximately 7,000 delegates are attending the five-day conference that opened Sunday in Dallas.

"Money is no obstacle for drugs traffickers, bail is just another business expense," said Bensinger, who pointed out that convicted drug conspirator Jimmy Chagra recently "jumped a $400,000 bond rather than face life imprisonment."

Bensinger also said an anti-heroin campaign has slashed the number of deaths and injures associated with the narcotic to an all-time low.

"You can be proud of the progress that has been made....These efforts definitely had impact on the availability of drugs in the United States," said Bensinger.

"These results have not come easy and have cost lives both here and abroad," said Bensinger. "But they have come."

But he warned a new Middle East heroin connection threatens to blunt the impact of the "successfull" anti-narcotics campaign.

"What concerns me most is the Middle Eastern heroin situation," said Bensinger. "The Middle East's potential to produce heroin is serious. Under optimal conditions ...this region could produce 80 tons of heroin for world wide consumption."

He said some Middle Eastern heroin has been seized in eastern seaboard cities, but most of the impact so far has been in Western Europe.

Bensinger praised Mexico for the effectiveness of its opium poppy eradication program that has helped significantly decrease the amount of available Mexican heroin.

However, he told the police chiefs that program could be in jeopardy because of "hand-tying" federal legislation regarding the use of the herbicide paraquat to kill marijuana plants.

"This country's biggest illicit drug problem is marijuana," said Bensinger. "The profits generated from this traffic are substantial, in the billions of dollars and the availability...is widespread and growing.

"I'm concerned that any reduction in U.S. drug control assistance stemming from concern about paraquat could result in Mexico relaxing its program to eradicate the opium poppy," said Bensinger.

"Because of the drug's marijuana's popularity and high profits and low risks associated with its trafficking, I cannot foresee a decrease in availability until meaningful control procedures at the source are implemented."

Surgery shouldn't affect sex

By Lawrence Lamb, M.D.

DEAR DR. LAMB -- I have a big problem. My doctors have found out I have a fibrous tumor in my uterus and it's as large as a grapefruit and growing. Now they want to take out my whole insides. I'm 50 years old but I have a 30-year-old husband. I don't know anything about the female organs and it's terrifying me to be mutilated like that. They call it a hysterectomy.

I'm 200 pounds and the doctors say I need to lose weight before the operation. I can't. I'm so disturbed and frustrated I'm drinking alcohol which is keeping me fat.

I'm very anemic from losing lots of blood every month and the doctors don't want to wait with the operation. I need some information on what happens to women without female organs. Can I lose weight fast in one month?

DEAR READER -- Fibroid tumors are fairly common. They're made up of muscle and fiber tissue similar to the muscular wall of the uterus itself. If they're small and don't cause any problems, they can be ignored. When they cause excessive bleeding, an operation is usually necessary.

You're overly concerned about the surgery. It should not affect your sex life. The removal of the uterus does not affect the birth canal.

At your age the doctors will probably remove the ovaries. For that reason you may need some female hormones immediately after surgery, but the doctors will have to decide that in your individual case.

You probably want to know how this will affect your husband's response and it shouldn't affect him in any way. If it does, it's more apt to be psychological rather than being related to any real change in you that he would notice in any way.

Now about your weight. It's quite true that surgery is a great deal easier in people of normal weight. Being obese not only makes the surgery more difficult but it increases the complications regardless of what kind of abdominal surgery is being performed.

You can't expect to lose much fat in just a month's time. You might safely lose eight pounds of body fat. The scales may show a little more weight loss because of the loss of fluid. To do that you'd have to be on a fairly strict diet and some surgeons don't like their patients to be on a strict diet immediately preceding surgery. That's a problem you're going to have to work out with your own doctors.

I'm sending you The Health Letter number 5-12, Menopause, because after surgery you will at least have a surgical menopause if your ovaries are removed. Other readers who want this issue can send 75 cents in check or coin with a long, stamped, self-addressed envelope for it. Send your request to me, in care of this newspaper, P.O. Box 1551, Radio City Station, New York, NY 10019.

In your age group, you may or may not need hormonal support after surgery. In a younger woman, let's say in her early 30s, it would definitely be indicated unless there was some specific reason why female hormones could not be used.

BEEF AND BEANS--Jerry Baird, left, serves barbecued beef to Tommy and Beckye Everett at the Scurry County Reunion barbecue. About 300 persons attended the meal. Beckye was also especially interested in hearing her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W.C. Fargason, perform with the RSVP Kitchen Band. The cool weather on Saturday made the barbecue and trimmings especially tasty.

More School Officials In Dallas To Be Fired

DALLAS (AP)—More Dallas school employees will be fired as a result of a continuing investigation into corrupt business practices in the state's second largest school district, predicts Superintendent Linus Wright.

School board members, acting on Wright's recommendation fired three top-level administrators and five lower-level employees Friday as a result of the investigation the superintendent says could last until Christmas.

"There are still several people lined up to take polygraph tests and I feel certain others will be fired in this thing," Wright said. "We still don't know who's all involved and to what degree."

The three upper echelon administrators fired Friday were Dr. Weldon Wells, assistant superintendent for support services; Gordon Sentell, chief of architectural services; and Richard Winger supervisor of maintenance.

Friday's board actions yielded no details of the allegations of corruption, and board President Brad Lapsey said the board was not privy to specific reasons why firings were necessary.

"He (Wright) stuck his neck way out," Lapsey said. "It's a matter of trust between the board and the superintendent. Linus would not go off halfcocked and make a recommendation of that nature without having his guns loaded."

Lapsey said it was not necessary for "everybody in the whole North Texas area" to know the reasons behind the firings. He said the board was given progress reports on 17 separate investigations.

Board members do not want to know specifics that prompted Wright's recommendations, Lapsey said.

Slaughter Cattle Number Decreases 13%

WASHINGTON (AP)—A new monthly survey by the Agriculture Department shows the number of cattle being fed for slaughter in key beef states as of Sept. 1 totaled 6.84 million head, down 13 percent from a year ago.

Moreover, the report said Friday that placements of new cattle in feedlots last month declined from a year earlier by 24 percent to 1.34 million head, the smallest August placement in four years.

Service Academy Applications Due

WASHINGTON, D.C.— Congressman Charles W. Stenholm has announced the final request for applicants who are interested in competing for nominations to the service academies for the class entering July, 1980. A competitive nomination procedure will be used to select the nominees in order to give all interested young persons who meet the requirements an equal opportunity.

The service academies are the Naval Academy at Annapolis, Md.; the Military Academy at West Point, N.Y.; the Air Force Academy near Colorado Springs, Colo.; and the Merchant Marine Academy at Kings Point, N.Y.

"These institutions offer a fine education and a great opportunity for service to their country by young persons who wish to follow a military career," Stenholm said.

In order for Congressman Stenholm to consider applicants, a candidate must meet the following requirements: (1) must be a U.S. Citizen; (2) must be over 17 and a legal resident of the 17th Congressional District; (3) must be under 22 years of age on July 1, 1980; (4) must never have been married; (5) must be physically fit, including excellent eyesight; (6) must have a good high school record.

Stenholm stressed that political influence is not a factor in his nomination to the academies. Nominations are based on the individual's mental and physical abilities.

Interested young persons who meet the requirements should write to Congressman Charles W. Stenholm, House of Representatives, Washington, D.C. 20515, no later than Oct. 15.

Congressman Stenholm emphasized that all young persons who are genuinely interested in a military career have the opportunity to compete for nomination and he will consider all qualified applicants fully.

OBITUARIES

Mrs. Stephens

Mrs. Anna Stephens, 50, who lived at 2703 34th St., died at 8:15 p.m. Saturday in Root Memorial Hospital in Colorado City.

Funeral service was set for 4 p.m. today in the Bell-Seale Chapel, with the Rev. Buck Hatfield, pastor of Faith Baptist Church, officiating, and the Rev. I.A. Lake of the Church of the Nazarene assisting. Burial will be in Hillside Memorial Gardens, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

Mrs. Stephens, a resident of Snyder since 1950, was a native of Columbus, Ohio. She was married to Sam Stephens on June 26, 1948, in Poteau, Okla.

Surviving are her husband; a daughter, Teresa Stephens of the home; a son, Wesley Stephens of the home; her mother, Mrs. Ruby Suggs of Poteau, Okla.; two sisters, Mrs. Mary Sulivant of Macomb, Okla., and Mrs. Nell Ross of Fort Smith, Ark.; two brothers, Robert Brown of Tulsa and J.O. Brown of Irving.

Bud Stephens

Funeral arrangements were pending this morning at Robert Massie Funeral home in San Angelo for Ervin D. (Bud) Stephens, 29, a former Snyder resident who died at 10:50 a.m. Sunday following a sudden illness.

He is survived by his wife, Linda, two sons and a daughter, all of the home in San Angelo; his parents, Therlo and Dollie Belle Stephens of San Angelo; two sisters, Mrs. Doris Glenn of Houston and Mrs. Sue Prior of San Angelo, and a brother, Haskell Stephens of San Angelo. Also surviving are an aunt, Mrs. Clarence W. Hall and three cousins, Mrs. Reta Graham, C.W. Hall Jr. and Kevin Hall, all of Snyder.

W.W. Ashley

Funeral service was set for 2 p.m. today at the Bell-Seale Chapel for Wardell W. Ashley, 69, who lived at 3307 Ave. A. Mr. Ashley died at 10:35 a.m. Saturday in Cogdell Memorial Hospital.

The Rev. Ken Andress, pastor of First Baptist Church, was to officiate. Burial was to be in Hillside Memorial Garden, under direction of Bell-Seale Funeral Home.

A native of Hill County, he had been a resident of Snyder since 1968. He was married in 1937 in Dickens County to Mildred Climer, who survives.

Also surviving are a daughter, Sandra Kay Matlock of Snyder; a son, Jody Ashley of Snyder; three sisters, Geraldine Bowley, Mildred Hopson of Portland, Ore., and Laura Rape of Simi, Calif.; three brothers, Earnest Ashley of Scappoose, Ore., Larry Ashley of Woodburn, Ore., and Carl Ashley of Roaring Springs; and one grandchild.

Some birds are more finely feathred than others, says National Geographic. According to one scientist's count, a Cuban hummingbird had 940 feathers; a robin, 2,587; a mourning dove, 2,635; a glaucous-winged gull, 6,540; a Plymouth Rock chicken, 8,325; a mallard, 11,903, and a swan, 25,216.

Pope Trinkets Latest Fashion

By DOLORES BARCLAY
Associated Press Writer

NEW YORK (AP)-One souvenir merchant calls it "the biggest thing since the Smile Button" - the visit of Pope John Paul II to the United States.

Posters and pennants usually foisted on teeny-boppers at rock concerts and eager tourists now bear the pontiff's face.

And the fashion statement of the decade, the T-shirt, also has been used. One features the slogan, "I Got a Peek at the Pope," while another sports a color photo of John Paul.

The trinkets are being offered to the faithful and the curious to mark the pontiff's visit to Chicago, New York, Boston, Washington, D.C., Philadelphia and Des Moines, Iowa, next month.

"In short-term intensity, this is the biggest thing since the Smile Button," said Alan Slater, sales manager for N.G. Slater Co. one of the nation's largest manufacturers of souvenirs. "It's like a big political year. We're neglecting some regular customers to make the pope stuff."

Slater's firm is turning out pope buttons, pins, pennants and pendants to be sold in cities John Paul will visit.

The Quaker Trademark Co. Inc., is producing two pope T-shirts. One has his name and picture and the word, "welcome" in six languages. Mark Goldstein, president of the Cornwells Heights, Pa., firm, said he expects to distribute nearly 20,000 shirts, at $5 apiece.

Morton Ohren, who owns Creative Fashions Inc. in Chicago, said he has received 30,000 orders for his company's pope T-shirt. He expects to sell about 150,000.

The Catholic Church also has been caught up in the souvenir whirl. Parishes in Washington, D.C., will sell an official coin, showing the pope on one side and St. Matthew's Cathedral on the other. And Vatican approved records of Masses said by the pope in three different languages will be sold for $10 through parishes and the mail during the week-long visit.

Meanwhile, the Catholic Bishops Conference has received a $75,000 grant from the Knights of Columbus to produce a film on the visit.

Deep Basins:
AMERICA'S NEXT GREAT SOURCE OF NATURAL GAS?
Producers are finding a lot of "super" gas wells in Oklahoma's and Texas' deep basins. A super well produces enough gas in a year to equal the energy in a million barrels of oil. This is enough gas to heat 1,000 homes for almost 56 years!
Exploration of these ultra-deep basins is gaining momentum now that producers have the technology to drill below 20,000 feet. In fact, many industry experts believe the deep basins will be America's next great source of gas.
The average gas well costs about $300,000 to complete. A deep well can cost up to $10 million, which explains why it's often necessary to pay higher prices for the gas we buy.
Lone Star has been buying gas from shallower production in the deep-basin areas for years. Our pipeline network will help us buy new gas selectively, negotiate hard for terms favorable to you, and deliver the gas efficiently and economically.
DEEP BASINS
Producers now have the technology to tap enormous, previously unreachable gas reserves in this area's ultra-deep basins.
Gas. It's plentiful, efficient and right for the times.

Two Mishaps, Vandalism Are Reported Here

Two traffic accidents, a criminal mischief complaint, and a misdemeanor marijuana arrest were recorded in weekend activities by city police officers.

The first mishap occurred at 2:10 p.m. Sunday in the 100 block of East 37th St. and involved a 1976 Cadillac driven by Susie Ricketts Richter and a 1966 Chevrolet driven by John Edward Foster.

The next accident was at the Pizza Inn at 7:45 p.m. Sunday and involved a 1977 Ford pickup driven by Mary Brightman Hinton and a parked 1978 Toyota owned by Ashraf Mohd of Gunter.

Only minor damages were reported in each of the collisions.

Reporting the criminal mischief was Salvador Salinas who told officers Sunday night a back window on a vehicle he owns was broken out. Damage was set at $150.

A misdemeanor possession of marijuana arrest was made at the Latin American Center about 12:20 a.m. Sunday. Reports show a 30-year-old man was taken into custody for alleged possession of less than two ounces of the weed.

Boosters At Hermleigh To Meet Tuesday

The Hermleigh Cardinal Booster Club will meet Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. in the high school auditorium in Hermleigh, said Joyce Fuqua, a booster club member.

A film of Friday night's game between Hermleigh and Wellman will be shown.

The booster club, she added, is also selling men's and women's baseball caps with "Hermleigh Cardinals" written on them.

Hermleigh's next football game will be against Blackwell this Friday at 8 p.m. in Blackwell. Pep rally for the game will be held at 3 p.m. Friday.

Lions To Sell Light Bulbs

The annual light bulb sale sponsored by the Snyder Lions Club starts tomorrow, said Paul Sizemore, project chairman.

House to house canvassing in the sale will begin about 6 p.m. Tuesday, Sizemore said. The money raised by the project goes to charities sponsored by the Lions Club, he added.

"I think it's something real nice," he said. "It's about the only way we have of raising money other than donations."

Drive co-chairmen are Gary Landes and Kenneth Ballinger.

Neil Armstrong became the first man to set foot on the moon in 1969. Twenty minutes after Armstrong stepped out, Edwin Aldrin followed him. As an estimated 528 million persons watched on television, the two Apollo II astronauts maneuvered in the one-sixth gravity environment and conducted experiments. They also planted a stainless steel plaque that read: "Here men from Planet Earth first set foot upon the moon, July, 1969 A.D. We came in peace for all mankind."

Two Charged With Felonies

Felony charges have been filed against Guadalupe Madrid and Penny Case.

Madrid, arrested early Friday morning by officers of the city police force, is charged with possession of marijuana. Officers reported finding in his possession approximately 2½ pounds of the weed.

Ms. Case is charged with forgery by passing. She is alleged to have altered a check written by Sue Smith that was cashed Aug. 24. The check, originally written for $7, was allegedly altered to read $73, said deputy sheriffs who investigated the case.

Both suspects have been released from custody after posting $15,000 bonds.

Basin's Rig Count Rises

Drilling activity picked up last week in Permian Basin oilfields of West Texas and Southeastern New Mexico, according to Reed Rock Bit Company's weekly survey.

The latest count showed 279 rigs running in the Basin, compared to 271 the previous week. Also, there were 271 rigs in operation during the corresponding week of 1978.

Lea County, N.M., was the leader, with 33 active rigs. Pecos County was the West Texas leader with 20.

Scurry County had two rigs running, compared to five the week before. Figures for other area counties, with last week and the week before, in order: Borden 2 and 2; Dawson 3 and 4; Garza 3 and 4; Howard 11 and 9, Kent 3 and 3; Mitchell 3 and 3.
