Seismograph Crew Works In County

Pacific West Exploration Co., with headquarters in Denver, Co., is conducting a seismograph survey in Collingsworth County which is due to be completed the latter part of this week.

The work is being done for Sohio Petroleum, a major company with headquarters in Dallas according to Frank Archer, who is in charge of the seismograph work.

The survey began at Twitty, 6 miles north of Shamrock, and extends south into Collingsworth County for 8 to 10 miles, possibly to Salt Fork River, Archer said.

He did not rule out the possibility that it would extend south of Salt Fork at a future date.

Archer called this a "speculation shoot".

This is a new area for Sohio, Archer said, although that company has quite a lot of leases in western Oklahoma.

The seismographing is done by four large vibrators, working off hydraulic pressure which vibrates the ground. A geophone system records the vibrations to give the readings needed.

The seismograph vibrator now being used in Collingsworth County has a capability of securing information from the surface to a depth of 45,000. Archer confirmed that the crew is hunting for deep reflections.

Pacific West has four seismograph crews totaling 22 men working out of Shamrock, and only one of these is in Collingsworth County.

The seismograph survey entered Collingsworth County three miles west of Highway 83, and continues south into the Samnorwood and Plymouth communities.

All permits have been secured, according to Archer. The seismographic equipment is operated along county roads without entry onto private property being required.

TAC Approves $100,000 In Airport Improvement

Texas Aeronautics Commission voted in an official meeting Oct. 22, to allocate $100,000 to the City of Wellington for continued grading of Marian Airport, City Manager Glen Taylor told the City Council Monday night, Nov. 2.

Notice of the allocation came from Clay Wilkins, TAC executive director.

This funding covers the second year of a three-year upgrading program for the airport.

This will enable the city to extend runway 12/30 1520' x 60' and widen existing 2480' x 45' to 2850' x 60', Taylor said.

The $100,000 allocation was cut $19,000 from the city's application, but Taylor said it offers no problem. Under the approved TAC 75/25 funding program, the city's part, in the form of labor, will amount to $29,950.

"When we finish a little dirt work, it will be through with Phase 1 of the airport improvement (that done in the summer of 1981 and now being finished)," Taylor told the council. Next summer, the airport work will be the first thing on our summer work program.

The funds allocated for Wellington were part of a $2.5 million Texas Financial Assistance Program for fiscal year 1982 to serve public airports in communities across the state, Wilkins said.

The program had its roots in approximately $18 million in request from more than 100 communities, and in order to stretch the amount available as far as possible, the TAC went to a 75/25 ratio of state to local funds. Last year the ratio was 80/20.

The Wellington project is listed as a state and local, non-National Airport System Plan (NASP), non FAA project.

A hearing on the proposed airport development will be held later, Taylor said.

2-AA Championship On The Line Friday Night

Wellington Skyrockets play the biggest game of the year on their home turf Friday, Nov. 5, with the district 2-AA title at stake. Game time starts at 7:30.

Their opponent will be Clarendon Bronchos, the defending district 2-AA champion. This year, neither team has lost a district game.

"It won't matter what happens next week. This is the one that decides the district," Head Coach James Williams declares.

The Bronchos are going into this ball game with the proud belief they will leave the field in the same condition--district champion.

The Skyrockets, underdogs in this confrontation, do not see it that way and they will look across the line of scrimmage in the certain knowledge that they don't have to bow to anyone. The underdog role is something the Rockets don't know much about and aren't comfortable with.

The Bronchos have an outstanding backfield, shored up by the knowledge that they have their championship team almost intact.

All the polls have placed Clarendon as top team in 2-AA this year.

Among these same polls, one has rated Wellington at the bottom of the heap, and others have put them in No. 2 and 3 positions. This doesn't phase the Skyrockets either. This game isn't going to be won in the polls; it's going to be won on Powell Field.

Among the Broncho backfield standouts are Bobby Weatherston and Hosea Hearn, both halfbacks.

Coach Williams calls quarterback Brad Thompson an "outstanding operator right there. Not only does he run the option, he passes well."

"We are coming into this game with a 7-1 season record. They are 8-0. The team that beat us, River Road, they defeated 26-0."

"Clarendon has 111 points in district play, we have 34, but we have not allowed any of our opponents to score."

"Our kids have played good defense, and that can win a game."

It's going to take tremendous effort on our part to win this game, but we are capable of it. We are outweighed and Clarendon has a lot of experience from last year.

They have the momentum and they haven't given any indication they are going to let up.

Coach Williams and his staff are "delighted to be where we are. If we prepare well and play our best, we may have a chance to upset someone."

If Wellington wins this game, the Rockets will be the 2-AA champion. If Clarendon wins, it's their crown for the second time in a row. Next week when Wellington meets Canadian and Clarendon plays Memphis has no bearing on the championship.

Injury-wise, the Rockets are not at full strength. Tim Harris is still hobbled and Shane Cobb, Rocket return man, has a bruised knee.

"He works out but he is not at full strength," said Williams. We hope by Friday night everyone will be at full strength."

The Wellington coach calls this "the biggest game of the week in the Panhandle." Every Rocket fan agrees.

City Council Approves Mobile Home Ordinance as Emergency

Two city ordinances prescribing regulations governing the location or placement of mobile home units within the city limits was passed as an emergency measure by the city council in its regular meeting Monday, Nov. 1.

This would place all mobile homes for residential purposes in to mobile home parks, with the exception of those with hardship variances and those which are already located in Wellington Applicants seeking the latter must make application before the City Council.

It will require all mobile home parks to have permits in order to operate.

In other action, the council accepted the city audit report as of June 30, 1981, presented and explained by Gordon Maddox of Memphis, the city's accountant.

The approval was given the sale of two sets of two lots each, acquired by the city, county and school district for delinquent taxes. This action is subject to approval of the other two taxing entities.

The mobile home ordinance came as an outgrowth of the increasing number of requests the city is receiving for permission to locate mobile home units for residential purposes within the city limits.

The council acted in view of expected oil and gas development which is predicted for Collingsworth County in 1982, and it is an effort on their part to head off the chaotic conditions which exist in some towns that have experienced surges of growth from exploration.

Explanation of the ordinances was given by Mayor Ralph Owens and City Manager Glen Taylor.

The general ordinance, which became effective immediately, requires that mobile home parks must have certified permits in order to operate. These are secured by making application to the city council at city hall. These are acted upon by the council.

Persons moving a mobile home into the city limits must locate it in a mobile home park and it is not necessary for the occupant of the mobile home to secure a permit, as the park operator already has one.

Permits will be issued automatically to mobile home units already located in Wellington city limits. These are renewed each year on January 1, for as long as the mobile home unit remains in its present location.

Should the mobile home occupant wish to move from his present location, he must move into a mobile home park, City Manager Tiny Taylor said.

The ordinance provides that persons violating the provisions of the ordinance shall be denied water and sewer service during the time the violation exists. The occupant, however, must be given notice of the violation and given time to comply with the provisions being violated.

This provision, in addition to being contained in the ordinance, is also a part of the Southern Building Code, under which many cities operate.

Persons wishing to operate or open a mobile home park must appear before the city council to request a permit. The city council has the right to reject any or all applications.

The operators of the two mobile home parks presently in Wellington will receive certified permits automatically, and these are renewed annually.

In the future, persons wishing to open a mobile home park must make application to the city council, which has the right to reject an application.

Dual utility connections will be allowed mobile homes located beside a permanent residence, provided the owner or user shall pay one month's minimum water, sewer and sanitation charge for each month or part thereof that such trailer or mobile home

Industrial Training Program Set

Long Star Gas Co., and Collingsworth Chamber of Commerce will co-sponsor an industrial team training program for county business and community leaders Thursday, Nov. 12, Virginia Robey, president, has announced.

The purpose is to work with these key people on what industry expects of any town it is considering for location.

This one-night presentation will be in Bura Handley Community Center, starting at 5 p.m. and ending at 9:30. There will be a break for coffee at 6 and sandwiches, drinks, and cookies will be served at 7:30, in order to save all possible time.

Billy Jackson, Wellington manager for Lone Star Gas, is chairman of the arrangements committee.

The program will be headed by F. Wayne Boling, of Ft. Worth, director of Community Development for the western part of the Lone Star Gas System.

His team will consist of Rick Vaughan, Nancy Umbach, Jan McCorstin of Lone Star, and Gary Vest of West Texas Utilities Co., Dallas.

Lone Star Gas, along with most other utility companies, has a complete department ready to help in many ways those towns and cities seeking to secure industry, Jackson pointed out.

Boling will open the training program with a discussion of the "Industrial

Guilty Verdict Returned in Barcroft Trial

A 100th District Court jury took only 26 minutes to find Morris Barcroft guilty of a charge of theft over $200 and under $10,000 Monday evening, Nov. 3, District Attorney David McCoy reported.

Barcroft, a former administrator of Collingsworth General Hospital, was accused of keeping money received for silver recovered from used x-ray film from the hospital.

The punishment phase of the trial was due to go before Judge Robert Montgomery Wednesday morning, and McCoy said he believed it would take only a short time to complete the case.

is located within the city.

The ordinance was approved on a motion by Councilman Gary Brewer and second by Sam McGill. Voting for it were these two and councilmen John Rainey and Willie Gragson. Councilman Lyndon Crelia was absent.

The second ordinance is for transient mobile homes, or trailers use only and authorizes Taylor to issue these permits upon application, provided the unit does not interfere with the peace and dignity of the city.

These permits shall not be issued for residential mobile homes, but to transient workers who from time to time establish living quarters on a temporary basis.

The motion proposing this ordinance was made by John Rainey and seconded by Willie Gragson. The vote was unanimous.

No mention was made in either ordinance of tie down requirements and spacing of units, as this is already covered in the city's building code adopted several years ago.

There exist in the city a number of owners of vacant lots within residential areas who have installed hook ups and rent spaces for two or three or more mobile home units.

YH Sets Art Auction

Wellington Young Homemakers will hold an art auction featuring the works of a number of West Texas artists, on Saturday, Nov. 7, at Bura Handley Community Center.

Viewing will begin at 6:30 and the auction at 7:30.

Michaels of Texas, from Canyon, will present the exhibit of $15,000 worth of paintings and sculpture to offer during the auction, said Mrs. Eddie Popwell, YH president.

"All proceeds will go toward a Young Homemakers scholarship, which is given each year to a senior girl who is outstanding scholastically and shows promise in continuing her education through college graduation.

Michaels of Texas will present for purchase works ranging in price from $25 to several thousand dollars, said Mrs. Popwell. There will be a wide variety of contemporary paintings, landscapes, Indian art, western paintings, serigraphs, lithographs, in many mediums, along with a number of bronze sculptures.

Three paintings are now on exhibit in Wellington, one each at Wellington State Bank, City State Bank and First Federal Savings and Loan Association.

Refreshments will be served and Master Charge and VISA cards will be accepted in payment for the paintings.

"We invite the public to attend, for we believe we have something to offer that fills a need for many Wellington homes. We are eager that you share this evening with us," said the YH president.

Perry Vines, Longtime Area Cowboy, Dies

Perry Vines, 63, who had worked for 40 years as a cowboy on two of the Panhandle's historic ranches, died Friday, Oct. 30, while rounding up cattle on the L.S. Ware Ranch near Channing. It is believed he suffered a heart attack and fell from his horse.

He was a brother of Loyd Vines and an uncle of Mrs. Max Coleman, who lives in the northwest part of the county.

Mr. Vines worked for the Mill Iron Ranch before moving to the Ware Ranch. He had lived in Channing since 1979 but continued to work at the ranch.

Born in Magnolia, Ark., the son of the late Mr. and Mrs. W.M. Vines, he came to Hall county more than 50 years ago. He was married to Johnnie Irene Whitefield in 1941 at Hedley. Mr. Vines was a veteran of World War II and a Methodist.

Funeral services were conducted at First United Methodist Church, Channing, Monday at 2 p.m., with the Rev. J. Frank Peery, pastor of First United Church at Tulia, officiating. Burial was in Channing Cemetery.

Survivors are his wife; two children, Morveta Vines of Albuquerque, N.M. and Kenneth Vines of

LCC's Powell Co-Athlete

LUBBOCK - The combination of Freddy Palacias and Robert Powell either set or tied 3 TIAA marks and 13 Lubbock Christian College records Oct. 24, and have been selected District 8's co-Athletes of the Week.

Palacias, a 6-1, 180-pound freshman quarterback from Hale Center who has hit on 64.5 percent of his passes (34-52 for 356 yards) this year, connected on 26 or 41 for 277 yards and a TD in his first start of the year and, although LCC dropped its 23rd consecutive games 27-17 to Trinity, directed the Chaps to third second-highest point production in history.

Powell, a 5-11, 170-pound freshman wide receiver from Wellington who entered the game with 16 catches for 186 yards, caught 15 passes for 190 yards and a touchdown.

The completions for Palacias and both receptions and yardage by Powell were TIAA marks.

In the process Powell shattered the school career for receptions (which was 17) and yardage (which was 309).

Powell has now caught at least one pass in each of the Chaps' seven games, extending his own mark. He also set school single-game marks for catches and yards and shattered the career marks in both categories as well as setting TIAA marks for receptions and yardage.

Powell is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Powell.

Why gas is plentiful:

Two New Sources

There's enough natural gas in proven and existing reserves to heat America's homes and run its factories for many years. And now gas is flowing in enormous volumes from two new sources: the tight basins and the deep basins right here in Texas and Oklahoma. Experts believe each of these sources could double the nation's proven supply. And our pipeline system will let us deliver your share of this gas efficiently and economically. It's another reason to be glad you're served by the Lone Star system.

5 Amendments Pass, Two Fail

The approximately 450 county voters who went to the polls in the constitutional amendment election Tuesday, defeated proposed amendments 1 and 3, but gave approval by substantial margins to the remaining 5 proposals.

Voters gave their biggest vote to Amendment No. 5, voting 344 to 114 to include livestock and poultry with farm products as exempt from taxation.

Amendment No. 4, the water fund proposal carried, but by a smaller margin, 289 to 158.

No. 1, which would authorize cities, towns and other taxing units to encourage improvement and development of certain areas through tax relief failed 191 to 246.

No. 2, to give a small group of landowners title to their land, withheld due to a technicality, passed 301 to 137.

Voters turned down No. 3, by 155 to 279. This would allow the legislature to grant to a state finance management committee the power to manage the expenditure of certain appropriated funds. It would handle the block grants that will be coming down from Washington.

No. 6, which would authorize property tax relief for owners of residence homesteads, passed 302 to 142.

No. 7, which proposes issuance of additional bonds for the Veterans Land Fund, passed 275-166.

Shamrock Wins Over Seventh

A Shamrock 7th grade team squeaked by Wellington 7th, 12-8 when the two met at Shamrock Thursday, Oct. 29.

Wellington had the ball in the last minute of the game, and with the clock running, and no times out left, fullback, Kelly Goforth threw a pass to Wesley Reeves. Shamrock intercepted and that ended the game.

Wellington's score came on a wingback reverse by James McIntosh, and Mauro Villanueva made a dive right for the two point conversion.

Both Shamrock scores came on long runs.

THOMAS ROLL CALL REPORT

Your Congressman's Votes
Reported Each Week

WASHINGTON--

Here's how area members of Congress were recorded on major roll call votes Oct.
22-28.

HOUSE

MEAT The House adopted, 211 for and 168 against, an amendment prohibiting the importing of meat containing drugs and chemicals
that are banned in the production of domestic meat. The measure was supported by consumer and cattlemen's lobbies, and opposed by those who saw it as undue protection for domestic producers that would bring foreign retaliation against U.S. exports.
The amendment was attached to the new four-year farm bill (HR 3603) that was later sent to conference with the Senate.

Members voting "yea"
wanted to bar imports of foreign meat containing chemicals and drugs banned
in domestic meat production.

Reps. Samuel Hall, D-1,
Charles Wilson, D-2, Ralph
Hall, D-4, Jim Mattox, D-5,
Phil Gramm, D-6, Jack Fields, R-8, Jake Pickle,
D-10, J. Marvin Leath,
D-11, Jack Hightower, D-13,
William Patman, D-14,
Charles Stenholm, D-17,
Kent Hance, D-19, Henry Gonzalez, D-20, Tom Loeffler, R-21, and Abraham Kazen, D-23, voted "yea."
Reps. Bill Archer, R-7, Kika de la Garza, D-15, Mickey Leland, D-18, and Ron Paul, R-22, voted
"nay."

Reps. James Collins, R-3,
Jack Brooks, D-9, James Wright, D-12, Richard
White, D-16, and Martin
Frost, D-24, did not vote.

INCOME By a vote of 146
for and 271 against, House members refused to raise the ceiling on the amount of outside income they can receive from such sources as law practices and speech fees. Presently, the limit is 15 percent ($9,099) of their congressional salary. The defeated resolution (HRes 251) sought to raise the ceiling to 40 percent ($24,264). Senators have no limitation on outside income. House members and senators have annual congressional salaries of about $60,663.

Members voting "yea"
wanted to raise the limit on House members' outside income.

Wilson, Mattox, Gramm,
Fields, Brooks, Leath,
Wright, White, Leland, Hance, Gonzalez and Paul
voted "yea."

Sam Hall, Collins, Ralph

Hall, Archer, Pickle, High-
tower, Patman, de la Garza, Stenholm, Loeffler, Kazen
and Frost voted "nay."

DAYLIGHT SAVINGS
The House passed, 243 for and 165 against, a bill
adding two more months (March and April) of daylight savings time, thus extending it to eight months
-- March through October.
The bill (HR 4437) was sent to the Senate.

Members voting "yea"
wanted two more months of daylight savings time.
Wilson, Collins, Mattox,
Brooks, Wright, Leland,
Paul and Frost voted "yea."

Sam Hall, Ralph Hall,
Gramm, Archer, Fields,
Pickle, Leath, Hightower, Patman, de la Garza, White,
Stenholm, Hance, Gonzalez, Loeffler and Kazen voted
"nay."

SENATE

SPENDING The Senate
refused, 35 for and 61
against, to cut five percent out of the $7.6 billion FY 1982 appropriations bill for the Interior and Energy departments and other agencies. The White House supported the cut -- totaling about $380 million -- but a majority of senators felt the bill already had been trimmed enough. The $7.6
billion figure exceeded President Reagan's economy target by about $1 billion. The bill (HR 4035) was passed and sent to conference with the House.

Senators voting "nay"
opposed further cuts in the bill.

Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, D,
voted "yea."
Sen. John Tower, R,
voted "nay."

ENFORCEMENT By a vote of 43 for and 48 against,
the Senate rejected an amendment to beef up the Energy Department office
that polices domestic oil
refiners for any pricing
violations committed when the Emergency Petroleum Allocation Act was in effect.
Supporters said the office is trying to collect between $8.6 billion and $11 billion in alleged over-charges by the nation's largest refiners. The amendment, which would have increased funding for the office by $12.9 million in FY 1982, was proposed to HR 4035 (see preceding vote).

Bentsen and Tower voted
"nay."

AWACS By a vote of 48
for and 52 against, the Senate gave President Reagan the final congressional authority needed for the $8.5 billion sale of five AWACS (Airborne Warning and Control System) planes and other military equipment to Saudi Arabia.
Senators voting "nay"--
to reject the resolution of disapproval--favored the AWACS sale.

Bentsen voted "yea."
Tower voted "nay."

STATE CAPITAL HIGHLIGHTS

By Lyndell Williams
TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN — Legislators
flocked back to the State Capitol last week to put finishing touches on redistricting plans and send them with a good luck kiss toward's
this week's final vote.

The five-member Redistricting Board must complete work on new Texas
House and Senate districts
by midnight Wednesday, Oct. 28, or the task automatically goes to the courts.

One plan for the Senate has already been presented by Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby.
Speaker Bill Clayton and Comptroller Bob Bullock
were expected to present their maps earlier this week.

The Hobby plan does not pair any incumbent senators, since four senators have decided not to seek re-election:
Walter Mengden, R-Houston; Dee Travis, R-Dallas; Bill Meier, R-Eules; and Peyton McKnight, D-Tyler.

Mengden is vacating his seat to run against incumbent U.S. Sen. Lloyd Bentsen, a Democrat. The arch-conservative made his announcement last week, and in the media blitz he repeatedly criticized Bentsen for voting for the windfall profits tax.

The accusation was bit of a faux pas, since Bentsen has always been a staunch foe of the windfall tax.

Travis will also vacate his Senate seat to campaign for the Dallas congressional seat
given up by fellow Republican Jim Collins.

Meier, a former Democrat who switched parties this year with an eye on Collins seat, has announced he will not seek election to any office, but will work for the re-election of Gov. Bill Clements.

McKnight Announces

One Democrat who wants to face Clements at the polls
is McKnight, who for weeks
has been rounding up grass roots support.

At an Austin meeting of the State Democratic Executive Committee last week, McKnight officially threw his hat into the ring, saying he couldn't afford to wait
any longer.

He estimated it would take between $5 million to $6 million to beat Clements, who spent $7 million for a 1978 victory.

White, Armstrong

Also expected to be in the thick of the Democratic primary is outgoing Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong, and, perhaps, Attorney General Mark White.

Former Gov. Dolph Briscoe and former Atty. Gen.
John Hill, who bloodied the party with their 1978 primary warfare, are expected to act as power brokers for their factions, rather than be candidates.

Water Fund Opposed

Hobby surprised many people last week by publicly opposing the proposed water fund amendment which would dedicate half of the state's surplus tax dollars for undetermined water projects

across the state.

The amendment is the brain-child of Speaker Clayton, who seeks imported water for drying-up areas of the Panhandle, and it is actively supported by Clements.

Hobby's tenacious opposition to dedicated fund programs is well known around the Capitol, and his stance did not startle observers as much as his outspokenness
on this amendment.

The political ramifications
are intriguing, particularly in light of how this amendment might affect Clayton's political career. The four-term Speaker long ago announced he will not return to the House, and would like to run for statewide office,

er.

Brilab Cloud

But more than one statewide poll reveals a high negative public sentiment attached to Clayton, presumably because of last year's Brilab scandal. Clayton was acquitted of indictments for taking a bribe and peddling influence, but his backers and detractors are now wondering if the voters will also give Clayton a "not guilty"
verdict.

Thus, whether rightly or not, Clayton's water fund amendment is regarded by many as a weather balloon
for his continued political success.

William Wayne Justice

The controversial Tyler
federal judge, William Wayne Justice, last week
ordered the state to pay almost $1 million in fees and costs to three attorneys who fought for minority voting rights over the last decade.

Their litigation challenged at-large voting systems at the local level, and the cases
went twice before the U.S.
Supreme Court.

As a result of the lawsuits, legislators are elected
from single-member districts,
rather than at-large districts.

The attorneys and their staffs logged more than 12,000 hours combined.

AUSTIN—Those of you
holding your breath waiting for the redistricting issue to be resolved can let the air out now—but be prepared to take a big gulp

real soon.

The five-member Redistricting Board finished its work last Wednesday, remapping legislative districts
for the Texas House and Senate, ending Act II of the reapportionment drama
in the Lone Star State.

However, several officials predicted a legal challenge arising from the El Paso area will send at the least the House plan into federal court, where the congressional redistricting plan already lingers.

Many observers have predicted all along that all three of the redistricting tasks will eventually end up in court, where the lines will be drawn by a three-member panel of federal judges. If that becomes the case, it is quite possible that new district lines will not become valid until 1984
elections.

Nevertheless, the all-Democrat board staunchly
went about its job last week, amid much political dealing.

In the end, the board voted for a House plan that regained probably seven seats from the jaws of the Republican party.

The Senate plan, too,
was more Democratic, but no unusual pairings were drawn.

Clayton, White, Bullock

After Lt. Gov. Bill Hobby pushed through his Senate plan 4 to 1 over Comptroller Bob Bullock's plan, the Board turned to the House and the action began.

Time after time, the Board met in the Senate
chamber only long enough to recess into the back rooms. As predicted by many all along, Atty. Gen.
Mark White provided the swing vote which eventually passed a compromise House plan 4 to 1.

The Board accepted
Speaker Bill Clayton's map
for the rural areas of Texas,
and took Bullock's plan for the urban House districts.
Bullock couldn't take all the credit for deciding the metropolitan seats, however.
State Rep. Paul Colbert, a Houston freshman legislator, drew the Harris County
plan; Speaker candidate
Rep. Carlisle Smith of Dallas shaped the Dallas map;
and Rep. Tommy Adkisson negotiated the San Antonio plan.

Bullock's plan for El Paso held up when the Board voted final approval,
perhaps his only victory in the hardball remapping.

Bullock's Opposition

The week wasn't the best for the Comptroller, who came back from a California alcoholism clinic in time to vote on the Board.

On the very day he was losing in the Senate, a former Travis County
sheriff, Raymond Frank,
announced he planned to run on the Republican ticket against Bullock.

Frank charged that Bullock couldn't manage his own personal finances,
much less the state's tax office, and the ex-sheriff disclosed three court judgments in which Bullock has been ordered to pay on defaulted loans, totaling more than one million dollars.

White To Announce

Mark White, the man who played the middle perfectly in the redistricting action, is expected to announce sometime this month that he will run for governor. Already announced is Tyler
State Sen. Peyton Mc-Knight.

The pair might find a third Democrat in the fight for the privilege to run against Republican Gov.
Bill Clements: outgoing Land Commissioner Bob Armstrong. Armstrong put off his intended announcement last week to sit on the Redistricting Board.

Although Armstrong was not the heavyweight on that panel, he has received considerable encouragement
from Democrats who felt Mark White neglected them
in his search for campaign
backing.

White's vote appeared carefully designed to protect conservatives, even Republicans, and he sometimes confessed abhorrence to the thought that his plan might be considered "liberal." Still, on the final night he worked with a representative from organized labor,
John Rogers, at his side constantly.

Senator Bill Sarpalius Reports

OUR GREATEST RESOURCE

AUSTIN -- Our children are our future. They are our greatest resource. Conservation of that resource is the most important job we do in the Legislature.

It's also a touchy job. We want to do all we can to help children that need it,
but not at the risk of interfering with the family. We walk a narrow line.

One bill we passed during the last session of the Legislature walks that line neatly.
It will be of great benefit to small children, but will help,
rather than interfere with,
the family.

Senate Bill 630 is a bill that will coordinate state
help to small children, and will cut duplication and waste in those services. It will help children with defects that need early treatment, such as language or speech problems, social or emotional problems, physical problems and a few others.

For many of these children, treatment before the third birthday is critical.
Before we passed this law,
such treatment was unavailable to many Texas families, because of the expense involved.

Great Britain imports 100
billion cups worth of tea
each year.

This pick-up truck is just one example of how rising prices are affecting the cost of producing electric energy. Of course everything else has gone up, too. Materials, equipment, labor -- nothing has escaped the effects of inflation.

Which means that we at WTU are striving harder than ever to operate efficiently and economically as we meet the daily needs of our customers.

As always, WTU's goal is to provide a dependable supply of electric energy

JV Wins Over Shamrock 28-0

Wellington JV shut out Shamrock Irish JV 28-0 Thursday night, Oct. 29, although the Irish were playing on their own El Paso Field.

Wellington's first touchdown came early in the game when Joe Bill Munn passed to Rosando Villanueva for 25 yards. The kick for extra point was no good, said coach Cliff Felix.

Dwain Curry ran 12 yard and Jimmy Barber ran the ball in for the two point conversion at the beginning of the second quarter.

Wellington's third touchdown came with a 64 yard run by Curry, who followed this with the two point conversion. This came just before the half.

At the middle of the third period, Darwin Nix caught a pass from Munn that was good for the final score.

All of this came after Shamrock had given the Rockets the scare of their lives.

On the first play of the game, Shamrock came up with a 65 yard run to the Wellington 5. On the next play, Shamrock had moved four yards before Wellington stopped them on the Rocket one yard line.

"We did a real good job and everyone played," said Coach Curtis Smith.

This week Wellington travels to Clarendon and that should be another good game, said Coach Curtis Smith.

Wellington defeated the Bronchos 14-6 in their first meeting this year.

If the Rockets can win one of their last two games of the season, Clarendon and Canadian, they will win the junior varsity district 2-AA title, Coach Smith reminded. Clarendon JV record so far is 5-3.

Alene Eads Home From Hawaii

Mrs. Alene Eads and her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Genella Eads of Clarendon, returned recently from an 8-day tour of Honolulu, Hawaii.

"They stayed at an Waikiki Beach hotel and enjoyed all the sights," said Mrs. Eads. They took a circle tour of the island of Oahu, visited Sea Life Park, a cruise on a glass bottom boat to see marine life in the island vicinity, visited Pearl Harbor and the USS Arizona Memorial, toured the city of Honolulu and saw the Punchbowl Crater, an extinct volcano, now a national cemetery where so many of the men who died in the Pacific fighting in World War II are buried.

"We enjoyed the tour of the sugar cane fields and pineapple plantations and the sugar mill where the cane is processed into sugar crystals to be shipped to California for further processing of C&H Sugar Co.," said Mrs. Eads.

The two visitors saw the Polynesian Culture Center and the nighttime extravaganza, "Invitation to Paradise," presented by a huge cast of Polynesian entertainers.

Highlights of the trip were attending a Hawaiian luau, the Don Ho Dinner Show, and the Jim Nabors Dinner Show.

School Board Sets Tax Rate At 74 Cents

Wellington School Board set the tax rate for the 1982 fiscal year at 74 cents per $100 valuation at a special board meeting Thursday, Oct. 29.

The 74 cents rate includes 68 cents for local maintenance funds and 6 cents for interest and sinking funds.

Voting for the rate were William O'Rear, Jim Ingram, Harold Wayne Moore and Benson Long. John Barton, Carroll Nunnally and Kirby Campbell were absent.

T&WD Information Number Changed

AUSTIN--The number of the statewide toll-free information line operated by the Texas Parks and Wildlife Department has changed.

Officials said the new number is 1-800-792-1112. The public is invited to call between 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. weekdays for general information concerning the state's wildlife, fisheries and parks.

piano music during the dinner, as he does each year.

Tickets are $4 each, or $4.25 for carryouts.

This is the club's major fund-raising event of the year, and proceeds go to a variety of projects. On the local level, there is a donation to the Wellington

Satellite workshop; and B&PW pays the cost of bound volumes for the Collingsworth County Library.

Money also goes to the M.D. Anderson Foundation for cancer research and the Mary Lilystrom Fund to assist nurses.

Men of World War I Honored

Collingsworth County veterans of World War II will be honored by members of Frank King Post of the American Legion in Veteran's Day ceremonies, Wednesday, November 11.

The ceremony will be held in the American Legion Hall, beginning at 11 a.m. with the minute of silence as the siren from the fire department sounds.

World War I veterans, their wives, widows of veterans and other members will then go inside for a short program, coffee and reminiscence.

Commander Jake Meadows will be in charge of the day's events.

Only a handful of World War I veterans remain among those who went from Collingsworth County, reminds John Coleman. He estimates the number to be about 15.

The American Legion is 63 years old, and when Collingsworth veterans gather next Wednesday, they expect one of their number to be a member of the Army unit that organized the American Legion in Paris France in 1918.

He is Clyde Alexander of Dodson, who was in the 142nd Infantry. This was a large unit and he was not present for the organization in Paris.

The Frank King Post was chartered August 2, 1920.

It is named for the young soldier who went from Dozier, Frank King, and became the first man to give his life in that war.

One of the first men to volunteer for service in World War I was County Judge A.C. Nicholson, who served two terms from 1914 to 1918.

"He resigned and enlisted soon after the United States declared war against Germany," says Deskins Wells in his 'History of Collingsworth County', published just 7 years after that war ended.

"He was just one of the sons that Collingsworth County offered for service in

Leaders for More Cub Dens Needed

"There are still lots of boys in Wellington who want and need to be cub scouts, but we must have more parents to become involved as leaders," Tommy Thomas, cubmaster of Pack 431, declared this week.

Thomas cited the recent Pinewood Derby, when boys who are not in the cubbing program had to look on while members participated in racing the cars they and their fathers had made.

A cub den is limited to 10 boys, he pointed out, but three Wellington dens have more than that.

"If we had the leaders, I believe we could have two more dens."

"It takes parents and community involvement as well as youth to make the cubbing program work, the cubmaster said.

A.S. Whitson, Lutie Area Leader, Dies

A.S. Whitson, a retired farmer of the Lutie community, died in Shamrock General Hospital at 1:25 p.m. Saturday, Oct. 31. He was 85.

He was a patient in a Shamrock nursing center for about a year.

Mr. Whitson farmed at Lutie from young adulthood until he retired.

Active in his community and church, some of his most effective work came during his tenure as a member of the Samnorwood School Board. He and his wife made it possible for their own children to have as much college education as they wanted, and they encouraged other children to also set that goal.

He was a member of Wellington Church of Christ.

Al Stanley Whitson was born Oct. 11, 1896, in Wiley, Alabama, the son of the late J.M. and Susan Bagley Whitson. The family came to Collingsworth County in 1913, settling near Lutie.

He was married to Miss Olas Williams of Mobeetie on March 31, 1929, at Wheeler.

Funeral services were conducted at 2 p.m. Monday at the Church of Christ, with Garell Forehand, minister, officiating. Burial was in Fairview Cemetery under the direction of Guy Owens Funeral Home.

Pall bearers were Walter Deger, Joe Frank Knoll, John Simpson, Selba Rainey, Marvin Knoll and Troy Gene Thomason.

Surviving Mr. Whitson are his wife, Mrs. Olas Whitson of Lutie; two sons, Wayne Whitson of Lubbock and Tom Whitson of Amarillo; three daughters, Mrs. Carolyn Baldwin of Kermit, Mrs. Doris Billingsley of Plainview, and Laura Whitson of Abilene; one sister, Mrs. Mattie Stanley of Lubbock; 10 grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

He was preceded in death by one daughter, Dr. Sue Margaret Pollard.

RETURN
Shane Cobb, 40, returns a punt for the Skyrockets Friday, Oct. 30 against Shamrock.

Skyrockets Slip By Irish, 6-0

Wellington Skyrockets edged Shamrock 6-0 here Friday, Oct. 30 for their third district win of the season.

Both the Skyrockets and the Irish turned the ball over to the opponent deep in their own territory on broken 4th down punt plays.

The difference was that the Skyrockets capitalized on the Irish mistake and put 6 points on the board. The Irish, on the other hand, took over on the Rocket 6 yard line and backed themselves up to the 21 with three successive 5-yard penalties.

The Irish chance came with 8:05 to play in the second quarter when a high snap from center forced punter Shane Cobb to try to run with the ball and turned it over to the Irish at Wellington's 6.

But the 3 illegal procedure penalties set the Irish back to a 1st down and goal at the Rocket 21. Three Shamrock passes fell incomplete and on fourth down a 38-yard field goal attempt fell short and wide.

The Skyrockets dominated the statistics but couldn't cross the goal line until the fourth quarter. A snap sailed over Irish punter Chris Darrow's head and Darrow returned the ball to the Irish 19 where the Rockets took over.

Good runs by Tim Harris and Kenneth Warren moved the ball to the four yard line where Harris followed Rand Johnson, Willie Pennon and Brent Long's blocks in for the only score of the game with 4:38 to play. Tito Nevarez' kick fell off to the left and the score remained 6-0.

The Skyrockets played tough defense all night. Ricky Martinez came up with a Shamrock fumble with some help from Willie Pennon after Hank Barnett stripped the ball loose on Shamrock's second possession.

In the third quarter David

Moore intercepted a Shamrock pass and returned it to the Irish 21. And in the fourth quarter Michael Breedlove ended Shamrock's last possession with an interception at the Irish 45.

It was one of those close-but-no-cigar nights for the Rocket offense. Shane Cobb returned a punt for a 60-yard touchdown, but had it called back again on a clipping penalty. Mark Hunnicutt tried two field goals: one had good length but fell off just to the right of the standard; the other was straight to the uprights but fell just a foot short of the crossbar.

Tax Rolls Due Next Week From Appraiser

Collingsworth County Tax Appraisal Board at regular board meeting Tuesday, Nov. 3 heard a report from independent appraiser Troy Sloan in which Sloan said that the tax rolls for the various taxing entities would be delivered to the entities next week. After the county, schools and city receive their tax rolls they will make tax statements and put them in the mail to taxpayers. Sloan reported to the board that the Board of Equalization had completed their work.

The Appraisal Board set Tuesday, Nov. 17 at 7 p.m. as the time for the public hearing on the appraisal district's budget for the coming year. The hearing will be held on the second floor of the Courthouse.

Present at the meeting were Bill Lindsey, Cary Don Neeley, Tommy Lewis, Doug Coleman and Margaret Coleman.

Help clean up Wellington.
