Miss Dorothy Greathouse To Sing For City

Miss Dorothy Greathouse, who has won national fame as one of the nation's famous lyric-coloratura sopranos, will again visit her home community and give her host of admiring friends and neighbors a concert for the benefit of the state Democratic Convention funds.

This concert will be at the Portola Theatre on Wednesday evening, April 4th.

At this time Miss Dorothy is visiting her sister, Mrs. L. J. Whiteman at Clovis, and will be able to give her time for this occasion before leaving for Chicago and New York on a concert engagement of six weeks, which starts the first of June.

It is not often that Portales has the opportunity to hear such a famous singer, and when this is connected with the thought that she is in reality a Portales girl, the interest increases until the demand for seats will be such that those who delay will not be able to gain admission.

Tickets are now being offered at $1.00 each.

Portales Boy Wins A Trip To Europe

Boy Scout Woody Johnston of Portales, New Mexico, has just received notice of his winning a trip to Europe this coming summer.

This trip was awarded by the "Open Road Magazine" to a few boys who showed superior interest in correspondence to boys in other lands.

Scout Woody Johnston in the past few months has carried on correspondence with boys in thirty two different countries of the world, including Japan, China, Denmark, Norway, France, South Africa and Paraguay.

Woody is a member of the Lone Scout division. He expects to sail for Europe in July and while in Denmark will visit one of the boys he has been writing to.

Woody is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. E. Johnston, who live west of town.

Nunn Interests Buy New Mexico Paper

The Nunn-Warren interests, which own a chain of newspapers over the Panhandle of Texas, have entered the New Mexico field, by the purchase of the Southwestern Dispatch at Roswell, taking charge on April 1st.

MRS. J. E. WISE UNDERGOES OPERATION

Mrs. J. E. Wise was taken to the Baptist Hospital at Clovis on Monday afternoon to undergo an operation for appendicitis. The latest report of her condition is that she is doing nicely. She stood the operation well, having plenty of reserve strength left.

Her mother, Mrs. C. P. Stone of Ft. Sumner, is with her, and will assist in caring for her. Her friends wish for her a speedy recovery. Mrs. Wise had been feeling poorly for several days, but until Monday her condition was not thought critical.

April 1st Last Day For Candidates To Get On The Ticket

April 1st is the last date for the candidates to get their name on the ticket for the democratic primaries.

MANY PLAN TO BUY JERSEYS

Sixteen Roosevelt county farmers have already signified their interest in buying high grade Jersey cattle under the cooperative plan recently proposed. A number of farmers from Quay and Curry counties have also expressed their desire to buy, and at an early date a meeting will be held of all interested. At that time a representative will be chosen to go in person and buy the stock. It is probable that the cattle will be bought in Oregon.

BOX SUPPER

The Woman's Club is sponsoring a box supper at the Portales high school building Thursday night, March 29, at 7 o'clock. Candidates are extended a special invitation.

Littlefield Speaks About Co. Roads At C. of C. Lunch

George Littlefield, one of the county commissioners, was the chief speaker at the regular luncheon of the Board of Directors of the Chamber of Commerce Tuesday, March 27. He spoke about conditions in the county, particularly about the county roads. He stated that there was considerable road building being done in the south and east part of the county. A survey is soon to be made of the highway from Melrose to Floyd and on to Portales, and it is expected that work will begin on this road about the first of July. The state and county together are putting in this highway. The commissioners have also secured state aid on the Lovington highway. About $30,000 will be spent by county and state together on the part of the Lovington highway from the Lea county line into Portales. The commissioners received the promise of the state aid recently when they met with the State Highway Commission at Santa Fe.

R. R. Will gave a report on the Plainview tour, stating that to date 45 farmers had made reservations. Probably as many as 100 farmers from Roosevelt county alone will make the trip.

A committee consisting of Fred Luper, Rex Forrest and Sam Seiv was appointed to see that the highways into Portales were well marked.

Mr. Bennett, assistant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, was a guest at the luncheon.

Texas and N. Mexico Utilities To Build a Super - Power Plant

I. R. Kelso, president of the Texas Utilities Company and the New Mexico Utilities Company, on March 17, 1928, in a letter to managers, announced plans for building a super-power plant to be located near the center of the territory served by these companies. Copy of letter to managers reads as follows:

TEXAS UTILITIES COMPANY
St. Louis, Mo.
March 17, 1928.

Mr. J. B. Scott, Manager,
Texas Utilities Company,
Plainview, Texas.

My dear Mr. Scott:

I am pleased to report:

SUPER POWER PLANT

(1) That Texas Utilities Company has definitely decided to build a monster steam power plant to be operated in connection with present generating stations of Texas Utilities Company and New Mexico Utilities Company. In selecting location for the proposed super power plant, the engineers will be controlled entirely by load center, necessary water supply to economically operate steam turbines, fuel gas supply, and economies to be effected by operating the new plant in connection with existing generating plants of Texas Utilities Company and New Mexico Utilities Company.

(2) That Texas Utilities Company entered into a contract with Southwestern Public Service Company on February 8, 1928, under the terms of which Texas Utilities Company obligated itself to furnish standby or protected service for the water pumping system of the City of Amarillo at Lake Amarillo.

Yours truly,

(Signed) I. R. KELSO,

President.

The announcement with regard to the building of a super power plant at this time is in line with the policy which these companies have always followed in respect to taking care of the territory served by building a number of generating plants with sufficient capacity to meet all its requirements. Texas Utilities Company now has a number of generating stations which are interconnected with the generating station of the New Mexico Utilities Company.

Portola Offers $27.50 Cash In Fiddlers Contest

OLD FIDDLERS OF ROOSEVELT COUNTY WILL HOLD CONTEST ON FRIDAY NIGHT, APRIL 6TH.

The Portales Valley News has arranged with the Portola Theatre for the holding of an Old Fiddlers' Contest at this popular playhouse on Friday night, April 6th. The contest will be held between pictures on that night, all entrants being admitted free.

The management of the Portola has put up cash prizes for the first three winners as follows:

1st prize ----- $10.00 in cash.
2nd prize ----- $5.00 in cash.
3rd prize ----- $2.50 in cash.

This contest was put on at the request of the Amarillo News, so that the winner may enter the tri-state contest which will be held at Amarillo on the 27th of April.

Elsewhere will be found rules and story of the Amarillo contest.

The rules of the Portola contest will be as follows:

1. Contestants will draw places by lot, giving him his place on the program.

2. Each contestant shall be 40 years old, but not over 110.

3. Each contestant shall play one piece only, unless requested by the judges to play more, but shall be required to have ready at least five selections for emergencies.

4. Each selection offered shall be not less than three minutes nor more than five minutes.

5. Each contestant is to play old-fashioned music, preferably quadrills, as this is more closely associated with the old "breakdown" dance.

6. Each contestant to be allowed not to exceed two accompanists.

7. The results will be determined by vote of the audience. On entering each one will receive a ballot on which they will write the first, second and third choice. These will be gathered and the winners announced, as soon as a count can be made, and prize money will be paid the winners.

8. Being an old fiddlers contest, credit shall not be allowed to the modern jazz.

9. Contortions of the body of the artist shall not be given undue credit, patting of the feet being justified.

This contest is open to every old fiddler in Roosevelt county, and those wishing to enter will register with The Portales Valley News not later than Friday morning of the 6th of April.

This will be an occasion when the public will have an opportunity to enjoy real music and have a rest from the nerve destroying modern jazz.

Everyone should come out and enjoy this occasion, as there are some real fiddlers in Roosevelt who will give you music that will set your toes itching, and bring back memories of the old days when a fiddle was called a fiddle and the violin was unknown.

Admission for this event will be 25 and 50 cents. A good picture will be shown on that night and the double attraction will well pay you for your attendance.

The Grade school, for the past few days, under the direction of Mrs. L. E. Cannon, Miss Cymbeline Warnica and Mrs. J. D. Marlow, have been having a series of talks on personal health and cleanliness. Grade Prin. L. L. Brown says the talks of the youngsters would be surprising to grown folks, and perhaps the best part of it all the children are putting this all into daily practice.

In the concluding talks between the fifth and sixth grades, on Wednesday morning, the honors went to Margaret Eck. She was given a prize in the form of small cash.

Mr. Brown also stated the children of the grades are offering their services in the coming "clean up" campaign and hope to be of real service.

Sheriff Force Captures Big Still On Friday

On last Friday, Deputy C. C. Pendley and Bill Poindexter made the arrest of Bob Kinney and John Carter and captured a still of 100 gallon capacity, and 600 gallons of mash and 25 gallons of whiskey, on the Marshall Powell farm just north of the Joe Cooper place between Elida and Kenna.

Sheriff Poindexter and Constable Rufe Walker, with the deputies, had been watching the place for several days, but on Friday while Poindexter and Walker were at lunch, these men were seen going to the still. They were followed by Deputies Pendley and Poindexter and were caught working with the still.

Kinney has been in the state about a year and Carter two or more weeks.

There had been complaint of someone selling intoxicating liquor to some of the school children at Elida, and this place was brought under suspicion.

Kinney was arrested on two charges, that of possession of still and intoxicating liquor and also on charge of selling intoxicating liquor.

Carter was arrested on a charge of possession of still and intoxicating liquor.

Falling to make bond, they were lodged in jail to await the action of the district court.

Thomas of Roswell, county agent of Chaves county, will speak on the methods used in the Pecos Valley. Raising cotton under irrigation is far different than under natural rainfall conditions. Small Fire Saturday At Utilities Plant

On last Saturday afternoon the alarm called out the local department to a fire at the Utilities plant where a pile of creosoted light poles were burning.

The department made a quick run and soon had the fire extinguished.

THE BOND ISSUE

On next Tuesday the voters of Portales will have their opportunity to express themselves on the bond issue for sewer and water extension. This extension has been outlined by the engineer and provides for the expenditures of sufficient funds to give fire protection to the west side as well as other unprotected portions of the town. This is vital to the future growth of Portales, and every citizen should consider carefully before voting. Unless the sewer disposal plant is enlarged and brought to a standard to protect the health of the town, the state health department will step in and order its removal. This bond issue is the only remedy and should have the support of the entire public.

The News has confidence enough in who ever shall be chosen as the city board at the election on Tuesday, that the funds will be properly safeguarded and the very best system possible put in.

Petty politics should not enter in this election. Every citizen should vote for the good of the town, and the future progress will not be hampered.

This is no time for politicians to play party politics, we are one big family and all have the same object in view regardless of party lines.

Let's make this city election one that will go down in the history of the town as the one election where the entire citizenship goes on record for the good of Portales.

ROOSEVELT COUNTY GROWTH
Roosevelt county is progressing agriculturally as fast or faster than any other section of the state. News stories from Portales constantly tell of the advancement. The latest proposal is a cheese factory to consume the increased amount of milk available from a growing dairy industry. These little industries are the kind that will eventually add much wealth to the state.—Albuquerque Journal.

Speaking of the Portales center, the Apostle of Truth was both pained and surprised to read in the esteemed News a positive doubt of the existence and sinister character of the "Glade Devil" that lizard like creature, whose bite is certain death, which runs faster than a horse, and whose roar can be heard for miles. The modern wave of doubt is going a little too far. The next thing you know, the News will be casting a veil of suspicion in regard to the existence and the nature of the wampus cat, that curious animal which has long been known to the plainsmen and the lower mountaineers. Only a few weeks ago we were told convincingly of the existence of the glade devil in the city limits of Portales.

A Roswell man was up there and partook of some refreshments offered by a friend. In a very short while he saw a whole flock of glade devils, a passel of wampus cats, a slew of alligators, hoop snakes and several other things. In the face of such evidence, the iconoclasm of the News is decidedly out of place to say the least.—Southwestern Dispatch.

The little town of Portales will vote on the modest bond issue for the rebuilding of the sewer system and the extension of the water mains, the submission to occur on the 3 day of April. The town has grown so that the improvements are absolutely necessary, and both of the papers are urging that the vote be nearly as possible unanimous. The situation much resembles that regarding the school bond issue proposed for Roswell. There is the same vital necessity, and they are of about equal importance. It is right to provide proper sanitation, and it is just to insure the schooling of the younger generation. It is this view of the matter that has led the Dispatch to urge a unanimous vote for the bonds, in the face of the fact that as a rule we are slow to get warmed up about bond issues. We have grown to the point where it is simply a matter of loyalty to the children of the grades and the young people in the high school, the university of the common people. It seems like a large amount of money to spend, but as a matter of fact, any amount of cost is justified under such situation.—Roswell Dispatch.

BACK FROM THE TOMB

A weird story concerning the mother of General Robert E. Lee is told by Warfield Lee of Catlettburg, Ky., a grandnephew of the famous chieftain. While the incident he relates is not mentioned in the historical works, he declares it to be true.

It is said that Mrs. Lee apparently died after a long illness in 1806 and after lying in state in the home for several days the body was placed in the family mausoleum. On the seventh day after her supposed death the sexton entered the vault to lay flowers on the casket when he heard faint calls of "Help, help, help." He rushed from the tomb, but later returned, after deciding that what he had heard was only imagined sounds. While strewing flowers over the glass lid of the coffin he saw the lips of Mrs. Lee quiver. She was taken to the house, restoratives were administered and her rapid recovery followed.

Fifteen months later Robert E. Lee, who was to become the idol of the South was born. His mother lived until 1829, the year that Lee graduated from West Point.

If the story is true it shows how near the world came to be deprived of one of its noblest characters. It also illustrates what caution should be exercised to prevent the possibility of burying anyone alive.

Mr. Greaves is delegated by me to extend your association an urgent and cordial invitation to hold their next meeting in the State of New Mexico. a few words anent thereof. I have tried to keep aloof, but I find it impossible so far. We on the west side of the track are faced with two things, grave things—bond issue and water shortage. While we on the west side have had less fires in the last few years than any part of our town, yet the fact remains that we need sewerage and fire protection when we begin to put on city airs.

How are we going to pay our taxes? We on the west side think they are unreasonably high. I have been told not so—been told that if they were too high "sell out and rent," which is hardly the advice given by an honest person, and the west side will hardly take it with anything but a puking stomach—refined persons would say vomit, not puke.

But get down to the facts of the case. The west side only asks its share if the bonds are voted. We expect justice for the west side—no special favors—no pets. Will the west side get this, or not? She asks no more than this. No one can expect her to ask for less. None other than grafters will offer the west side any other deal.

Were I allowed to vote, I could vote for anyone, male or female, whom I can trust for justice. No others need apply. Men or women who in the past 25 years have done by their fellow men as they would that they should do by them, are eligible and entitled to the west side's vote, and will get the same irrespective of political affiliations.

No one on the west side, but the writer knows of this epistle. The writer alone is responsible for the good or bad sentiments expressed herein. Will again say that the west side expects, when the bonds carry, that they be economically handled and rightly administered. It is our water and our sewerage, and we want them and expect them right-ly applied. With this the west side will try to be satisfied. Will the town fathers see that the west side gets this and no more?

J. R. ANDERS.

Important Announcement to every owner of a Model T Ford

ON MAY 25, 1927, when Henry Ford first announced his plans for making a new car, he announced also that he would continue to make parts for the Model T Ford. He said:

"The Model T Ford car was a pioneer. It blazed the way for the motor industry and started the movement for good roads everywhere. It broke down the barriers of distance in rural sections, brought people in these sections closer together, and placed education within the reach of everyone. We are still proud of the Model T Ford. If we were not, we would not have continued to make it so long."

For twenty years, the Model T Ford led the automobile industry and it still serves more people than any other automobile. Over one-third of all the automobiles in use today are Model T Fords—an indication of the sturdy worth of the car and its value to people in all walks of life the world over.

The Ford Motor Company will continue to make replacement parts for these cars "until the last Model T is off the road." That is a part of Ford service. That is what Henry Ford meant when he said: "We believe that when a man buys one of our cars we should keep it running for him as long as we can and at the lowest up-keep cost."

Because of this policy a considerable part of the Ford manufacturing plants is given over to the making of parts for the Model T Ford. These replacement parts are made of the same material and in the same way as those from which your car was originally assembled.

Make it a point, therefore, to see the nearest Ford dealer and have him look over your Model T Ford. You may find that a very small expenditure will enable you to get thousands of miles of additional service, and at the same time protect the money you have invested in your car.

Republicans and The Teapot Dome Investigations

(By the Republican State Central Committee.)

The people of the United States have a short but intensive course in the study of civil government every four years. Presidential elections emphasize the fact that a republic depends for its success upon the intelligence of the voters. The people rule through the ballot.

The word politician needs fumigation. It is associated in the public mind with chicanery, trickery, and deliberate attempts to fool the voters or corrupt them. But no tricky, shifty, politician lasts long. Any success he achieves is temporary. He may reach a high place, but the people will soon get his number. The higher he rises the greater his fall. And his fall is sure.

It is our purpose to conduct a column devoted to the issues and to the people who shall feature the campaign of 1932. Special attention will be given to the issues that relate to the prosperity of New Mexico and the welfare of the state generally.

The voters of the two great political parties are equally honest. No party has a monopoly of the rascals. Just now the attention of the country is centered upon scandals which grew out of the Teapot Dome oil leases. Teapot Dome grave as the scandal is, is a small affair compared with the scandals of earlier days, especially the Credit Mobilier and the Star Routes. But the government continued and the people prospered.

As a matter of fact, due to Republican suits and prosecutions the oil leases have been recovered and the government is actually $4,000,000 ahead of the game. Not only are Sinclair and Doheny out of pocket all the money spent in development, but they have been compelled to pay into the treasury the price of all the oil taken out of the ground. Not one penny were they allowed to retain for expenses incurred. The millions spent by Doheny under the direction of the naval authorities for storing reserve oil at Pearl Harbor near Honolulu, were lost by him. The government has it.

The resolution under which the oil investigations were conducted by the Senate were proposed by a Republican. The money for expenses was appropriated by Republicans. Senator Walsh of Montana, an able lawyer, was selected by a Republican Senate Committee to conduct the investigation. The Republican Senators did not want any one ever to be able to say there had been a white-wash and they gave Walsh a free hand.

The lawyers selected to conduct prosecutions, Owen J. Roberts, of Philadelphia, a Republican, and Atlee Pomerene, of Ohio, Democrat, were named by President Coolidge, and the money for expense was appropriated by a Republican Congress. Again a free hand was given.

Each trial in Washington was before a Republican judge. So were the trials in California. A majority of the members of the United States Supreme Court, which affirmed the judgments of the lower courts, are Republicans, presided over by William Howard Taft, a former Republican President of the United States.

These are simple, uncontroversial facts.

Furthermore, let it be said to keep the record straight and for no other purpose, that E. L. Doheny has contributed far more money directly to the Democratic National Committee and indirectly for the election of Democrats to the United States Senate, than was ever contributed, directly or indirectly, so far as has been disclosed, by Harry F. Sinclair to the Republican party.

Of far more importance to the people of New Mexico is the maintenance of a tariff for the protection of the cattle and sheep industries and to secure protection of New Mexico cotton against the importation of Egyptian cotton.

The leading Democrats, including the following candidates for the presidential nomination, have declared for reduction of the tariff: Governor Al Smith, Senators Jim Reed, Thomas J. Walsh, Walter F. George, Pat Morrison, Joe Robinson, Congressman Cordell Hull, and Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland.

These men and their friends will dictate the next Democratic national platform. What a Democratic tariff law means to New Mexico and the prosperity of the United States will be another story. (Political advertisement.)

HIGH-POWERED HOOTCH

A Mosquero man the other day took a drink of hootch, and shortly began to see reptiles, also animals in assorted colors. So he rented a room and opened a museum. Many people paid 25 cents admission and when they saw only an empty room, they called the village marshal. The marshal was going to arrest him but the man got him off in a corner and gave him a drink. The marshal then gave the man $300 for a half interest in the show.—Harding County Developer.

From seven billion smoked in 1922 to twenty eight billion smoked in 1927 — sales doubled and redoubled all within five years. These are the startling figures announced by the Liggett & Myers Tobacco Company for their ever-popular Chesterfield cigarette.

The amazing growth, representing a gain of 300 percent, signifies not only the universal preference for the cigarette as the smokers' choice, but the acceptance of this one particular brand as the popular favorite.

It is conservatively estimated that Chesterfield has acquired at least a million new users in a little over a year—certainly convincing proof that finer quality and better taste is substantially recognized by the cigarette smoking public.

This genuine testimonial for good tobacco and good blending is based largely on Chesterfield's particular flavor and taste. As stated in the advertisements, Chesterfields are "mild and yet they satisfy"; in other words, the flavor has been so skillfully balanced as to eliminate any suggestion of harshness or bite, and yet leave enough richness and body to "let a smoker know he is smoking."

Nor is Chesterfield's rapid growth limited to the boundaries of the United States. Sales reports have revealed that this brand is world wide in its acceptance, as shown by the fact that in practically all the principal cities of the world it is found to be among the leading sellers.

In fact, Chesterfield's world-wide recognition has given rise to another new advertising slogan which truthfully asserts that "the sun never sets on Chesterfield's popularity—with the added distinction that such popularity must be deserved" because of a taste and quality which won smokers the world over and will continue to win them because it is what they want.

In current advertising, Liggett & Myers is making strong use of their oft-repeated "platform", in which they declare over their signature that it is their honest belief "that the tobacco used in Chesterfield's Cigarettes are of finer quality and hence of better taste than any other cigarette at the price".

The losers of the contest were to give a sunrise breakfast to the winners. The contest closed last Friday night with the Tigers in the lead. So Saturday morning about an hour before sunup, the cars began to gather at the school house. As soon as the crowd arrived they made their way to the canyon just north of W. O. McCormack's place where a fire was made and bacon and eggs cooked. About twenty five people enjoyed this breakfast and reported a dandy good time.

Home-Making Hands
We Enjoy Serving

Behind our busy counters the World seems made entirely of hands. Daintily gloved fingers that unerringly find their way to articles of beauty and distinction, hands roughened by housework, childish fingers that tug impatiently, men's hands that grope uncertainly among women's things.

We serve a world of hands, but it is the home-making hands that we strive most earnestly to please—hands that must cook dinner, smooth childish bumps and coax smartness into a made-over frock.

That you may bring beauty to your home, we scour the markets of the world. That you may combine your love of nice things with a praiseworthy desire for economy, we mark our merchandise on the lowest possible-price basis.

Chrysler "72" performance makes all other performance in its field seem as out-of-date as last year's license plates. All you have to do is to ride in a "72," and drive it to appreciate the difference.

Only Chrysler's great engineering staff and precision manufacturing organization could have developed 75 smooth horse power from an engine of such moderate size.

You can, at will, do 72 miles an hour and more—velvety, easy miles—due to this unique and vibrationless engine with counterweighted seven-bearing crankshaft.

It takes mountain grades at constant acceleration. In traffic, the "72" flashes to the fore with characteristic Chrysler get-away.

Only a demonstration can prove to you just how much better the "72" performs.

30,000 JEWISH FARMERS IN THE UNITED STATES

"The interest of the Jew in farming is unabated," says Gabriel Davidson, general manager of the Jewish Agricultural Society, in its twenty-eighth annual report just issued.

The Jewish farm population in the United States has grown from barely a thousand in 1900 to an estimated population of eighty thousand in 1928. One million acres are today being farmed by Jews and the real estate and personal property value of their holdings is over $150,000,000.

The report gives the year 1927 as the most active in the society's history. "Large numbers of city Jews have their minds on the farm." More Jews are giving up their city occupations and are turning to the farm for a livelihood. The society came in contact during the year with 30,000 people, the largest number in its history.

The report gives many details showing the progress of the various departments and branch offices through which that society operates.

The farm loan department has since 1900 granted the total of 8,933 loans aggregating $5,710,698. Loans have been made to the Jewish farmers in forty states.

Dairy Show at Plainview, Tex.

Portales Business men and Dairy-men of the county to visit Plainview Dairy Show

There is going to be areal dairy show in Plainview opening April 3, and don't forget it.

From far and near good dairy cattle will be assembled from the Panhandle and Plains area. In every town in this section good interest is shown. On every dairy of any importance the top notch animals are being groomed and made ready for the big show.

It will be the best exhibition of dairy animals ever held in this section. It will be another stepping stone toward the greater development of the industry in this section.

In connection with the show there will be held a sale of dairy cattle. One could spend lots of money hunting around the country for good animals to buy. Here they will be assembled, hundreds of good animals, many of which will be offered for sale. One trip will put the prospective buyer in touch with the best that the whole country has to offer.

Such exhibitions as this will do much to build up the dairy industry. New men will be interested in dairying.—Amarillo News.

Portales business men, through the Chamber of Commerce, are offering a trip to the Plainview dairy show to all dairy farmers in Roosevelt county who wish to go. The show promises to be good and everyone who goes will learn something about the dairy business. There will be an opportunity to talk to the successful dairymen of the Texas Panhandle and to exchange ideas with them. Those who make the trip are assured of a real "dairy atmosphere" while at the show.

The idea of making a trip was proposed by Arthur Jones of the First National Bank and the Chamber of Commerce enthusiastically took it up. The dairymen of the county are falling in line with just as much enthusiasm, and many have already made reservations for the trip.

Dairy farmers who want to go are asked to notify Sam Seay just as soon as possible so arrangements for cars can be completed.

The trip will be made April 5, leaving early and returning late the same day.

The Oldest Political Party In The World

Where is it? In the Old World, with its nations centuries old?

No; the oldest party is the democratic party of the United States of America. All the political parties of Europe were born in the nineteenth or twentieth centuries. The democratic party was founded by Thomas Jefferson the last of the eighteenth century, about 1796. It was then called the Republican party, or the Democratic-Republican party, but by 1820, under Andrew Jackson, it was called simply the Democratic party, and has been so called ever since.

It is not only the oldest political party in the world, but it is the only permanent political party in the United States. The opposing parties have been temporary parties. The Federalist party first opposed it a while, and by 1816 died. The Whig party next opposed it and by 1856 it was dead. The Republican party is the party of today that opposes it.

And today the oldest party in the world is still carrying on the oldest political battle in the world, a fight of all the people against a few of the people. It was born one hundred thirty years ago to make this fight. It will live as long as the fight for the rights of men continue.—Missouri Committee for Truthful Political Information.

On last Friday night Ennis Brooks who lived on the Legon farm three miles south and one mile west on the Lovington highway, had the misfortune to have his house, barn, feed and harness destroyed by fire.

The first fire started in the barn, and soon the entire buildings were in ashes. There was no insurance. On Saturday the neighbors took up a subscription for the unfortunate family and the following subscriptions were secured:

TO SECURE BETTER DAIRY CATTLE

An attempt is being made by dairymen in Roosevelt, Curry and San Miguel counties, cooperating with chambers of commerce, banks and county agents, to make up an order for a carload of high class registered Jersey stock. It is planned to include in the order bulls and heifers of any age desired by the dairymen. By securing as much as a carload the transportation costs will be kept at a minimum, as well as the cost of purchasing and selection. For the past few weeks a sale of the country has been located, with the help of the American Jersey Cattle Club. It is planned to list the wants of farmers and send one of the interested farmers to make the purchases and to bring the stock in. The fieldmen of the American Jersey Cattle Club have agreed to accompany the buyer and help buy the animals. By this method high class Jerseys can be brought in for a purchaseable price per head. The purchase of high class young registered Jersey bulls is especially being urged upon the dairymen, because by this method the dairy herds of the county can be quickly and cheaply improved. Dairymen can either buy bulls individually or 2 or more men can go together in the purchase of a bull. Any farmers interested in this plan of securing Jersey bulls or heifers are asked to see County Agent R. R. Will for particulars.

COMMON SENSE LIVING

BY THOMAS C. CLAYTON
(Copyrighted)
SUMMARY

People would do better, if they knew better. It is our ignorance that causes our discomfort, our diseases, and our unhappiness. If we were taught from birth only what is best for us, we would soon have a world free from the consequences of wrong doing.

If we were taught to live naturally, our bodies would be prepared to resist attack—that is, to resist temptations to be sick. Then our appetite—our food craving—would be a safe guide in choosing what we should eat; but our appetites have been so perverted by fancy foods that we dare not trust them. We dare not eat whatever the appetite craves without first carefully analyzing our condition as well as the food we are about to eat.

We have seen that the alimentary canal is divided into several compartments, each having its special work to do; that the mouth is the first of these compartments and must thoroughly do its work before sending food on to the stomach; that the stomach in turn must knead and mix the food with acids which nature provides it; that the stomach then passes the food thru the pylorus into the duodenum which is the channel thru which it goes to the long coil of small intestines; that, on its way thru the duodenum, the food is further impregnated with two more acid liquids—the bile acid the pancreatic juice; that then it is in a semi-liquid condition and is prepared to begin its work of nourishing the body; that nature has kindly and wisely prepared a way of absorbing the nourishing properties of the food into the blood thru which they are carried to every part of the body; that digestion is completed in the intestinal coil and that the greater part of absorption takes place while the food is passing thru the coil; that the food then passes into the cecum which is the lower end of the colon or large intestine; that in the first few inches of the colon absorption is completed, and what remains is waste and should be moved on to elimination without obstruction, because, if retarded in its movement it can do nothing but harm.

We have seen, too, that foods contain two properties—one a heating property called calorie, and the other a food, or nourishing property, called vitamin. We have observed that food may have abundant calorie, or heat, property, but very little vitamin, or nourishing property.

We have discovered that foods possess properties of peculiar kinds, each adapted to a specific use, which properties are called vitamins. We have found that five of these properties have been identified and defined, as follows:

Vitamin A, the growth-promoting property;

Vitamin B, the property which prevents paralysis;

Vitamin C, a property which prevents scurvy;

Vitamin D, a property which prevents a disease called rickets, which is very common among children; and Vitamin E, a reproduction property. And, too, we have found that these properties are abundant in our commonest foods; and that, if we make that honest confession which is good for the soul, the only reason we do not eat the foods which contain these properties best adapted to each of us, is our perverted tastes fortified by our obstinacy.

We have found that many of our best foods are robbed of their best nourishing portions by commercial interests.

We have found, too, that physics, which has been considered a medicine, is only injurious to the human body; that neither God nor Nature ever intended the human body to be a depository for poisonous drugs! We have learned that, if we live as we should live, WE NEED NO MEDICINE. We see that, thru our ignorance or our willful disobedience to Nature's laws, we have come into such a bodily condition that we do not know how to find relief; and the pity of it is that we aggravate our condition by resorting to unnatural means in the hope of finding relief.

We have seen that a large majority of our school children are abnormally nourished—or, more truthfully, suffer a serious lack of nourish them properly. We see true, that under the circumstances in some cases this condition is unavoidable; but we see that in most cases it would be more convenient and much more economical to nourish them properly. We see their little bodies hampered and tortured by wearing apparel that may be described as anything but appropriate.

It is my sincere hope that the series which I am now closing will be of measureless benefit to parents and children. It is a joy to me to see many of the children whom I have striven to direct in their habits of living show plain signs of physical improvement and happiness. To them I have devoted this winter's service.
