U.S. FLIER IS UNREPORTED AT SEA

SLIGHT HOPE GIVEN FOR MRS. O.L. SLATON

REPORT SAYS LOCAL WOMAN NEAR DEATH

AUTOMOBILE CRASH IS CAUSE OF INJURIES NEAR DALLAS

Death seemed but a few hours away early this afternoon for Mrs. O. L. Slaton, of Lubbock, according to reports received in this city early this afternoon from the Methodist hospital in Dallas, where she was taken Monday following a traffic mishap near Grand Prairie.

Mr. Slaton, president of the First national bank of this city, telegramed W. S. Posey today that Mrs. Slaton is in a dangerous condition and that doctors give no encouragement for recovery.

May Not Survive Night

Miss Delia Wilkinson, Mrs. Slaton's sister, who left this city last night for Dallas, wired W. O. Stevens, vice-president of the Citizens National bank, that Mrs. Slaton is not expected to live longer than 24 hours.

O. L. Slaton, Jr., and Miss Ruth Slaton, son and daughter of the seriously injured woman, are reported improving. Miss Slaton sustained fractures of her pelvis and collar bone, while her brother received minor bruises and lacerations.

The accident, in which five cars were piled in a mass of wreckage, was said to have happened in fast heavy traffic on the busy Dallas-Fort Worth highway.

Interest in Mrs. Slaton's condition since news of the accident reached this city has been universal. Telephones of the Avalanche-Journal have been busy each day, due to the increasing number of inquiries.

WINTER HITS TEXAS AREAS

MERCURY GOES DOWN TO 38 HERE; STOVES BEING FIRED UP

Sending the mercury last night to a minimum of 38, a wintry blast, which came into Lubbock Tuesday, continued to grip the city today, as top coats and fall fashions became evident in streets.

The mercury stood at 50 degrees early this afternoon, a gradual climb being recorded under influence of periodic floods of sunlight out of a clouded sky.

Gas stoves and electric heating appliances are being re-installed, coal bins are being filled, and otherwise Lubbock citizens are preparing for winter.

AMARILLO IS COLDEST PLACE AS USUAL

DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP).—Near freezing weather made its appearance in Texas last night for the first time this season.

A strong north wind, that blew over the greater part of West Texas yesterday, subsided during the night after temperatures had been forced down a number of degrees.

Amarillo was one of the coldest places, the first frost of the season being reported in that section after the thermometer was sent tumbling to 33 degrees. This was a day later than the first frost of last year.

The chilling winds also reached into the upper Rio Grande valley, Allen recording a temperature this morning of 60 degrees.

Other temperatures were: Abilene 40; Austin 52; Brownsville 66; Corpus Christi 60; Dallas 44; Childress 38; Huntsville 50; Kerrville 38; Galveston 60.

Stepfather Killed For Striking Wife

HARNHART, Mo., Oct. 23 (AP) — Mrs. Helen Vachuda, 20, who conducts a roadhouse known as "Helen's Cafe" near Imperial, Mo., drove five miles from her establishment to the home of her stepfather William Gibbs, 68, here last night and then shot him dead for striking her mother. She was held in jail at Hillsboro on a charge of murder.

Fall Trial Jury Closely Guarded As Close Is Near

(By Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 23.—The jury in the Fall bribery case was placed under stricter surveillance today as the trial entered its concluding stages.

Chief Deputy Marshal Callahan announced that the jury would not be permitted to leave the court building again today. He said luncheon would be served in the jury room and the usual noon day stroll on the lawn would be denied.

Defense counsel had one hour in which to conclude its final argument while Owen J. Roberts, special government prosecutor, said he would take less than two hours to present the government argument.

Defense Argues Again

Frank Hogan, defense counsel, resumed his argument shortly after Fall was wheeled into court in an invalid's chair, and mentioned the leasing of the Teapot Dome oil reserve to Harry F. Sinclair for the first time.

"The Sinclair case has been lugged in here by a desperate prosecution," he told the jury, "in an effort to divert you from your case" Hogan said the Teapot Dome transaction had no place in the trial.

Politicians Blamed

Two years after Fall left the cabinet, Hogan said, a group of politicians entering on a campaign began to scrutinize Fall's actions. The lawyer asserted the defendant was within his rights in refusing to tell his private affairs to "political hounds," but he termed Fall's request to Edward B. McLean, Washington publisher, in which McLean was requested to say he had given the defendant $100,000, a mistake

Hogan closed with an impassioned plea to "send Albert B. Fall back to the sunshine of his beloved New Mexico."

EL PASO BECOMES MECCA FOR WEST TEXANS IN ANNUAL W. T. C. C. MEET

(By Associated Press)

EL PASO, Oct. 23.—This gate-way city today awakened in full holiday attire as the vanguard of delegates and visitors began arriving for the eleventh annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Hotel lobbies took on an unusually amount of din as the visitors arrived by special train, by motorcade and by the latest mode of traveling—the airplane. By nightfall it was apparent hostelries would be nearly filled, and plans were made to throw open to the visitors hundreds of private homes.

Early predictions that this would be the greatest gathering ever held by the organization seemed well on the way to be borne out as streets and other public places were filled with the gaiety of bustling delegations. El Paso also expected it to be its largest convention.

The meeting will formally get under way tomorrow morning at Liberty Hall, with Governor Dan Moody delivering the featuring address.

On Friday the featuring address will be delivered by Governor R. C. Dillon of New Mexico, and on Saturday, the last day of the convention, Governor Luis Leon of Chihuahua, Mexico, will speak.

The convention will close Saturday night with a typical Spanish Fiesta in Juarez.

DEATH CALLS "UNCLE FRANK" VAUGHN, 80, PIONEER LYNN COUNTY SETTLER; FUNERAL SERVICES TO BE HELD TODAY

(Special to Daily Journal)

TAHOKA, Oct. 23—W. F. Vaughn, 80, known to hundreds of friends as "Uncle Frank", a pioneer settler of Lynn county and a prominent citizen, died at his home east of town Tuesday following a short illness.

Mr. Vaughn came to Lynn county in 1901, one year prior to the laying out of the town that was to be Tahoka. He filed on two sections of state land six miles east of here, on which property he has resided ever since. He has witnessed the passing of the ranches, the settling up process, the building of towns, and had become a staunch advocate of modern diversified methods of farming. Up until his last days he was active in the management of his farms and could drive an automobile as well as those of the younger generation.

"Uncle Frank" was born in Missouri, March 30, 1849, later removing with the family of his father to Arkansas and thence to Hill county, Texas. Twenty-nine years ago he moved to the North Plains, and after remaining there a year came to Lynn county.

Funeral services were conducted at the First Baptist church in Tahoka this afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Rev. B. N. Shepherd pastor, officiating; following which the body was laid to rest in the Tahoka cemetery.

Mr. Vaughn was an old bachelor and has lived with a nephew, T. T. Hammonds, for the past several years. He is survived by one sister, Mrs. Ellen Hammonds, Tahoka, and one brother, T. J. Vaughn of Oklahoma, and a number of nephews and neices.

MINISTER IS GIVEN RIDE

REV. K. O. FUGATE IS ABDUCTED TUESDAY AND ROBBED

(By Associated Press)

FORT WORTH, Oct. 23—Details of how the Rev. K. O. Fugate, was abducted near Trinity Park at 6 p. m., yesterday by two masked highwaymen and forced to drive them beyond Mineral Wells in his car were related today.

Worn out by the ordeal, the Rev. Mr. Fugate was confined to his bed this morning, and police reported they had no trace of the bandits. His version of the holdup, netting $2, which was returned to the pastor with his car, was given by his wife.

Drove to Mineral Wells

The two men jumped on the running board of a car driven by the Rev. Fugate, forced him from the wheel and flourishing pistols, made him accompany them while they drove to Mineral Wells.

Rev. Fugate, who until recently was state evangelist for the Baptist church, is now a student at the Baptist Seminary. He told police he

ROTARY HEARS BONDS APPEAL

GOOD ROADS TALKED IN MEETING TODAY IN CLUB LUNCHEON

A program devoted to the subject of Good Roads occupied attention of Lubbock-Rotarians today noon, at their regular weekly luncheon meeting, with information being divulged that petitions will be circulated tomorrow for the purpose of calling an election in road district number two, and that these will be filed with the Lubbock county commissioners' court Saturday.

The meeting was in charge of Lige Robertson, principal speakers being Charles F. O'Neall, chairman of the Lubbock County Good Riads association, and City Commissioner J. H. Hankins, Kiwanian.

Explains Conferences

O'Neall explained that several conferences had been held with representative citizens of Slaton citizens in an endeavor to arrive at an agreement whereby a county-wide election could be held, but that such agreement seemed impossible. The petition formerly filed with the commissioners, asking an election in road district number two, which eliminates Slaton and the southeast portion of the county, has been withdrawn and another prepared that will meet with full approval of

ICEBOXES WILL FACE PROBE

SAN ANTONIO, Oct. 23 (AP)—The claim of the "wets" that all San Antonio ice boxes are used for illegal purposes will be refuted by the local chapted the Women's Christian Temperance Union.

Although no house to house canvass will be made, the contents of practically every ice box in the city will be delved into in an effort to show that San Antonians are not making a liquor cache of their food boxes, according to Mrs. J. M. Glass, president.

The members will go about the city asking their friends if their ice boxes hold liquor. No tabulation or names of persons keeping liquor in their ice boxes will be kept. If they keep liquor on ice they are violating the laws of the nation and the laws of the Bible," Mrs. Glass said.

MERRIMAN IS DENIED PLEA

COURT OF APPEALS IN ACCORD WITH TRIAL COURT IN CASE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—The court of criminal appeals today overruled the motion for a rehearing of Lee Roy Merriman, Dallas, whose death sentence had been affirmed previously. He was convicted of criminal assault.

The court two weeks ago affirmed the death sentence against Ben Aldridge for a similar offense. It was alleged Merriman and Aldridge had held up an automobile carrying several couples of young people who were returning to their homes from a dance and assaulted two of the girls. Aldrige's motion for rehearing is yet to be acted upon.

Affirms Two Cases

The court affirmed two murder cases carrying short sentences, most of the day's business being liquor law violation appeals.

The case of Leverett Leedy, given four years by a Palo Pinto county jury for the murder of Paul Pugh on December 25, 1927, was affirmed. As were the cases against Jim Jackson, Gray county, seven years for

HUGE STORM LASHES LAKE FRONT TODAY

MUCH DAMAGE RESULTS FROM DISTURBANCE IN 3 STATES

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—The worst lake storm of the year—a storm shooting high waves against the Illinois - Wisconsin - Indiana shore line of Lake Michigan—swept westward today, cold, raw and snow-choked.

In Chicago it left crumbled sea walls, flooded basements, water-filled boulevards; In Gary, Ind., homes deserved by families fleeing the menacing seas; in Michigan City, Ind., a $300,000 property damage; along the Wisconsin shore, crippled traffic and property loss. In Lakes Superior Huron and Ontario, shipping fought the angry waters.

An unidentified freighter went aground in Lake Ontario just off Leamington, Ont., and life saving crews struggled to reach her through pounding seas.

The Lake frugality, Ford Motor company barge with a crew of six, was adrift in Lake Superior. The steamer Maple Court of the Canada Steamship lines was around on Magnetic reef in Lake Huron, taking a severe pounding, but in no immediate danger. Two Tugs stood by.

Air mail service was halted, and

NO WORD IS HEARD FROM U. F. DITEMAN

FATE IS BELIEVED SAME AS OTHER FLIERS ATTEMPTING HOP

The slim flying margin allotted the midget monoplane Golden Hind was reached today, and when it passed the pilot was believed to have been added to that long list of sky adventurers who braved the north Atlantic and failed.

When Urban F. Diteman, Jr., took off at Harbor Grace, N. F., for London, at 10:45 a. m., E. S. T., yesterday he carried 165 gallons of gasoline which he estimated would keep him aloft 25 hours or longer than the period he would require to cover his course of about 2,350 miles. The 25 hours ended at 11:45 a. m. today and only negative reports of the flier and his craft came from the sea and from England. Other estimates were that Diteman's fuel would have kept him in the air but 20 hours. Meanwhile he had not been reported or sighted.

Diteman was believed by some shipping men to have chosen a path far north of the present shipping lanes, but if he was forced down on the water, his little craft was conceded but little chance of surviving the north Atlantic waves. He carried no radio.

CATTLEMAN LEAVES SUDDENLY AND ALONE

HARBOR GRACE, N. F., Oct. 23 (AP)—Urban F. Diteman, Jr., 32, a Montana cattle man who traces his ancestry to Sir Francis Drake, English sea adventurer, was presumed to be far out over the Atlantic today on a solo flight from here to London.

He took off at 12:45 p. m., Eastern Standard time yesterday in a

PRAYER MEETING TONIGHT

MRS. DOUGAN TO DEMONSTRATE CAKES AND DECORATIONS IN COOKING SCHOOL THURSDAY; LECTURES DRAW CROWDS

The largest session of the sixth annual Avalanche-Journal cooking school will be held Thursday afternoon, judging from the interest that has been shown by the women of Lubbock and the surrounding territory during the past three days of the school.

Attendance at the sessions has increased each day and the women are looking forward to the demonstration to be given at 2 o'clock Thursday afternoon at the Uptown Dance palace, the subject to be cake baking and the decoration of cakes.

Mrs. Myra Oliver Dougan, famous home economist, who is conducting the school, has announced that a cake will be mixed during the afternoon sessions, and that anothed one will be decorated, the decoration to be of a nature that could be used at any time of the year. The subject for the closing day of the school is to deal with the baking of fish and also the preparation of a planked steak.

Wednesday afternoon's cool weather did not check the attendance at the session, at which demonstrations were given in the preparation of four principal foods, namely, pies, ginger bread, and quick breads. Tuesday afternoon it was "company" day with the lecturer giving her talk on the cooking of a pork crown roast, with the finished plate being garnished with sweet potatoes, glazed onions, radishes cut to represent various types of flowers, and the roast being topped with bunches of grapes.

Salads are Feature

With this plate, the lecturer suggested the serving of a cucumber salad, with the whole salad being fashioned from a large cucumber.

COTTON PRICE SHOULD GO HIGHER ON BOARD'S MOVE, N. H. PAYNE DECLARES

Statement by the Federal Farm Board that it would lend to cotton cooperatives sums sufficient to bring the total amount borrowed from all sources by such associations to 16 cents per pound on graded and classed cotton is being received with gratification by the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association, according to N. H. Payne, of Lubbock, field representative of the association.

"Cotton should doubtless be bringing a higher price than the present market affords," said Mr. Payne. "If we apply the same business principles in distribution of farm crops that other industries are applying there should be no reason why cotton should not be bringing 20 cents per pound for basis middling today.

"Within a brief two months the farmer tried to sell all his cotton thereby flooding the market and subjecting all to fluctuations of the market. The spinner is busy 12 months of the year, and why shouldn't the farmer carry on his business in the same way?"

ARMY BAND HERE SUNDAY

FAMOUS ORGANIZATION TO BE HEARD IN 2 CONCERTS HERE

When Premier Ramsay MacDonald of Great Britain, was escorted through the streets of Washington recently, upon his arrival in this country to visit with President Hoover, the parade was led by the United States Army band, which will be heard in two concerts at the Palace theater, in Lubbock, next Sunday, afternoon and night.

Lubbock is one of the few cities in the United States that will have the privilege of seeing and listening to this great musical organization this year. The band left Washington only a few weeks ago, to fill engagements on its third concert tour, after returning from Europe a few months ago, where it went to represent the United States at the World Exposition held in Seville, Spain. The band was acclaimed abroad as one of the greatest military bands of the world.

Familiar to Radio Fans

With the record of having broadcast farther, more frequently and to more millions than any other military musical organization, this band is familiar to radio fans of the entire nation.

The unusual success of the United States army band is due, to a great extent, its director, Captain William J. Stannard. After an exhaustive competitive examination, Capt. Stannard was chosen to head the band, when it was organized in 1922. His qualifications as a musician, composer and officer, placed him at the topmost peak among all the bandmasters of the army and the results he has obtained have proved the wisdom of the government's selection.

The mayor of Berlin, visiting this country to study American municipal government methods, gets word from home to return at once because a big graft scandal has broken out in the German capital. Apparently we can't teach those Germans a thing, after all.

Before Baby Comes!

comfort and ease

The muscles, tissues and nerves must "give" easily as the abdomen enlarges or much pain and suffering may result. More important still, is to have the tissues and muscles as "elastic" as possible when the great moment of childbirth arrives.

Countless thousands of expectant mothers for over 60 years have been relieved by the use of "Mother's Friend"—that time-tested, scientifically prepared skin lubricant and pain-relieve which originated in the prescription of an eminent obstetrician.

You owe yourself the comfort "Mother's Friend" gives. It is soothing and relaxing. It is used externally only—gently rubbed into the skin. Clean and pleasant to the touch. Brings relief promptly. Very valuable in keeping the breasts in good condition. Also puts you in fine shape for the approaching ordeal.

"Mother's Friend" is on sale at all drug stores, $1.25 per bottle. Try a massage with it tonight and notice the ease and comfort it gives. A booklet on "Things to Know Before Baby Comes" will be mailed in plain cover free, on request. Address Bradfield Regulator Co., Dept. 13, Atlanta, Ga.

LUBBOCK MEN APPEAR ON PROGRAM AT LAMESA TUESDAY; FIRES DRAW TALK

(By Staff Correspondent)

LAMESA, Oct. 23.—J. J. Clements, president of the Lubbock Rotary club and representing the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, was the principal speaker here Tuesday at regular weekly meeting of the Lamesa luncheon club, the occasion stressing fire prevention.

Other speakers on the program were Chief H. E. Williams of the Lamesa volunteer fire department; V. Z. Rogers, superintendent of the Lamesa schools and president of the luncheon club; Sterling C. Evans, district extension agent for the United States department of agriculture; Garnet Reeves, publicity director of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce, and Al Hill, of the Avalanche-Journal staff, Lubbock.

Elbert Smith, editor of the Lamesa Reporter, who was in charge of the program, urged thoughtfulness on the part of every individual in little things that would prevent fires.

Mr. Clements said that it is more pleasure to meet and mingle with members of various civic clubs over the South Plains in fellowship than to have the privilege of speaking to them.

small monoplane, named the Golden Hind after one of the ships commanded by Sir Francis Drake. The plane carried 165 gallons of fuel, which Diteman estimated was sufficient for 25 hours

The Golden Hind was last seen ten minutes after the take off heading out to sea over Cape St. Francis, N. F.

Airmen estimated between 25 and 30 hours would be required for the flight to London, which is approximately 2,350 miles. That would make Diteman due in London, if he succeeds, late Wednesday night, or early Thursday morning, London time. The water jump from Harbor Grace to Ireland is 1,800 miles.

It was not known that Diteman planned to fly the Atlantic until after he was on his way. His destination was announced in a letter he left with the manager of the airport, marked "open after departure," it read:

"Am bound for London.

"I have 185 U. S. standard gallons gasoline aboard, conservative estimate 25 hours."

"Many thanks, Ye New Foundlanders, and I apologize for so many impromptu lies. Drake did not bring me here nor to London. Albeit I am a descendant. Sorry if I hurt anyone's feelings. I meant no harm. P. S.—Many thanks. You will hear from me.

"Dite."

FLIER'S WIFE AWAITS WORD OF HUSBAND

BILLINGS, Mont., Oct. 23 (AP)—After a sleepless night Mrs. U. F. Diteman waited eagerly today for news of the little plane and expressed confidence in her husband's ability to "make it." She reiterated he was no novice in flying.

had left his home about 5:40 p. m. to drive to a department store.

The trio drove through Mineral Wells, the men still wearing their masks. Six miles beyond Mineral Wells they brought the car to a stop and, searching their victim's pockets, took two $1 bills from him. They then tied the minister with a [illegible].

As they started to drive off, Rev. Fugate waved for them to wait a moment. The men returned and Fugate told them the car which they were driving would be recognized in almost all the cities along the route as he had conducted meetings almost all over the state.

The hijackers held a short consultation and giving the money back to the minister, forced him to enter the car. They warned him not to report the incident to police and threatened to kill him if he did.

Rev. Fugate was able to give fairly full descriptions of the men who were approximately 33 and 40 years of age.

the state highway department, he explained.

The petition calls for bonds of $1,025,000 to cover paving of all state and federal highways in the district, the basis of arriving at the amouht being concrete paving. O'Neall declared that the routing of all highways would be left up to the state highway department and that no controversy would be entered into over where highway number 53 would be routed.

Hankins Makes Appeal

In a very stirring appeal, J. H. Hankins stated that good roads mean more to Lubbock than any institution or enterprise this city could become interested in and that good highways to Lubbock mean more than to any other town on the South Plains. It was his argument that this bond issue will depend, as to results, upon what is done in the city of Lubbock in the way of voting.

Hankins said that Judge W. R. Ely, of Abilene, member of the state highway commission, has declared that the commissioners are very anxious that Lubbock county pave its highways because of the great need for making a system of through highways in the state. "No town in Texas is advertised any more than is Lubbock," he said, "and, therefore, let us put our shoulders to the wheel and put this bond issue over. We can't aford to let it be lost."

President J. J. Clements, of the club, presided, there being approximately 85 members and visitors present. Announcement of the Tech-T. C. U. football game Saturday was made by Will Jackson, who urged every business man to support the team in person, if possible. He declared that a battle royal is promised at this event and that the big reason Tech is not admitted to the Southwestern conference is because the business managers of teams in the conference are afraid this city would not offer sufficient crowds at games played here to make the conflicts paying propositions.

Carlton H. Amaker was accepted into the club as a new member, being charged by Tom A. White.

cut in slices, yet held together to represent a long ear of corn. The desert, the principal hit of the afternoon with the audience, was the Princess Pudding from Denmark, the base of which was a molded custard that had been chilled. Around the custard was placed bits of lady fingers that extended just above the top of the custard. In the center was placed a mound of whipped cream colored a light ping, and over this was poured a caramel sauce. Scattered over the top of the finished dish were pecan halves.

Just to finish off the dinner, Mrs. Dougan suggested the serving of after-dinner coffee, giving the correct ways of preparing both tea and coffee.

The lectures which she is giving are free to the women of Lubbock and the vicinity, and all are invited to attend the sessions for the remaining two days of the school, the only requirement being to bring along a spoon if "you wish a bite to eat."

LAKE STORM

land and lake transportation was seriously crippled; but these effects of the storm were incidental to the physical damage done as far north as Green Bay and around the Chicago curve of the lake up to Michigan City, Ind., and beyond.

A barge that broke away from its tug sank in Lake Michigan, and its crew of two were saved after being adrift for hours. Small boats moored in harbors were driven to shore. Many sank.

Spectacular damage was done to the entire shore line Boulevard system of Chicago, extending from North Shore suburbs to the extreme south side. Even the inner drive in Lincoln Park was under water in many places. Because the outer drive, skirting the edge of the lake, was impassable, the heavy northbound traffic was compelled to splash through two feet of water. Parallel arteries further inland were glutted with traffic.

Fire apparatus spent most of the night pumping water from the Boulevards so they might be ready to meet the morning's inevitable traffic assault.

At Michigan City, Ind, two homes, each valued at $30,000, were swept into the lake, and other costly summer homes at the Long Beach resort were endangered as the lake pounded against the Dune lands

William Haines On Stand In Tax Case

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 23 (AP).—William Haines, screen star, was under summons to take the witness stand here today for the government in the trial of Marjorie Berger, Hollywood tax counsellor charged with falsifying income tax returns of several prominent members of the film colony.

The Government

Rodney Dutcher reports that one of the chief results of the Shearer naval investigation is a greatly increased sentiment in Congress for having the government build all of its warships in its own navy yards.

To us this sounds like an excellent idea. As long as we have huge corporations which stand to make enormous profits out of preparations for war, we are bound to have propaganda episodes similar to the Shearer affair—episodes that cen be extremely costly to the nation.

Putting all naval construction work in the hands of the navy yards would go far to end that evil. The shipbuilders would never have sent Shearer to Geneva if it had been known in advance that no private corporations would build any more of Uncle Sam's war vessels.

RADIO CONTEST IS SCHEDULED

Miss Mary Gene Owen, contralto, and Clare P. Jeffers, tenor, local radio audition winners, left late yesterday for Dallas, where tomorrow night they will compete with North Texas participants in the radio audition contest before a state-wide audience over Station WFAA.

Lubbock radio fans will also have the opportunity of hearing Miss Frances Lee Garland, Denton, former student of Texas Technoiogical college.

Fans of this city are being urged to vote by telegram or letter tomorrow night. The votes of the radio audience will count 60 points in the selection of the victors, against 40 points allowed the jury of musical authorities who will cooperate in judging.

4 hurry-up hot breads

These four breakfast hot breads are all easy to prepare—for they are all variations of one simple recipe.

But, before you make them, remember for muffins and other hot breads to taste really good, all the ingredients must taste good, too. If, for example, one is not particular about the shortening, whatever strong flavor there may be in the fat itself will quite spoil the real, delicate muffin taste.

How, then, to be sure? Simple: taste your shortening.

You taste milk. You test eggs. Now, taste Crisco—then any other shortening. Then you'll understand why Crisco's own sweet, fresh flavor so improves the taste of your muffins, biscuits, cakes, pies, cookies and fried foods.

Virginia Sally Lunn

¾ cup Crisco
¾ cup sugar
2 eggs (beaten)
1 teaspoon salt
½ cup milk
2 cups flour
3 teaspoons baking powder

Cream Crisco and sugar together. Add beaten eggs, and mix well. Mix and sift flour, baking powder and salt and add alternately with milk to the first mixture. Bake in a Criscoed shallow pan in hot oven (400° F.) 20 to 25 minutes.

Waffles

Follow the Sally Lunn recipe but separate the eggs, adding beaten yolks to batter and adding ¼ cup more milk. Just before baking add egg whites beaten stiff. (For crisper waffles simply cook longer.) This makes enough to serve 6 to 8 persons.

French Coffee Cake

Crisco's sweetness lets the full delicate flavor of this recipe assert itself. Make up Sally Lunn recipe. Divide batter into two round layer cake pans. Brush top lightly with melted Crisco, or dot with little pieces of Crisco. Mix together two tablespoons of sugar and one teaspoon of cinnamon, sprinkle over entire top, then scatter over this chopped nuts. Bake 15 to 20 minutes in hot oven (400° F.). Serves 6 to 8 persons.

Golden Muffins

Follow recipe for Sally Lunn. Fill muffin tins two-thirds full of batter. Bake about 15 minutes in a hot oven (400° F.). This makes 15 to 18 muffins.

These recipes have been tested and approved by cooking authorities. You will get best results by using level measurements and the ingredients specified.

Crisco is used in the Cooking School now being conducted by this paper

Mrs. Myrs Oliver Dougan, in the Avalanche-Journal Cooking School, makes a point of modern methods in cooking. Naturally, then, she uses Crisco, the modern shortening. Not only is Crisco easy to use; in addition, it helps you secure better, surer results.

Crisco is the registered trade-mark of a shortening manufactured by The Procter & Gamble Co.

MATADORS SPRING TO NEW LIFE IN PREPARING FOR FROGS' TILT

WESTERNERS WORKING ON NEW PLAYS FOR AMARILLO GAME

DRUBBING IS HANDED FISH IN PRACTICE

LOCAL COLLEGIANS TO FACE SUPREME TEST HERE SATURDAY

Encountering the first real football weather of the year, the Texas Tech football forces braved a biting north wind Tuesday afternoon to engage the college freshman aggregation in a fast scrimmage session, running wild against the cohorts of Rhodes Ingerton in the most impressive workout seen on Matador field all season.

First taking the offense against the Frosh, the varsity gridmen marched down the field for six touchdowns in rapid succession with the style of attack worked out for the T. C. U. clash Saturday working to perfection. The Scarlet-clad grid warriors advanced the ball at will through and around the husky Picador eleven, showing the most effective scoring punch they have been able to display this season.

Backfield Functions.

Walker and his mates had their running plays functioning like clock work yesterday and were able to get away with a number of long gains through the freshman line. "Handsome Ransome" looked his old self on one occasion when he slipped through tackle and outdistanced the field to run 65 yards for a touchdown. The aerial display shown by the Matadors was equally as impressive as their running game and the success of their passing added further proof that the overhead route may be the best bet against the Frogs in Saturday's battle.

Following the Matador rampage the Freshman crew took the ball and ran plays against the varsity gridmen that were employed by the Purple eleven last Saturday in the Aggie encounter. The partial success of the first-year aggregation in running the Frog attack left indications that the Matadors see in for additional defensive work before the game Saturday.

Green Improving

The varsity backfield combination of Coppleman, Crites, Walker and Hodges put on the most impressive performance yesterday and appears the most likely starting quartet Saturday. Dick Green, diminutive Matador field general who is suffering with an injured ankle, was unable to get about as usual yesterday but will probably be in shape for the T. C. U. clash.

Knocking at the conference door, the Matadors are facing the supreme test here this week with the Horned Frogs. Coaches, players and fans alike are pointing to a Tech victory and not to hold the powerful Fort Worth eleven to a low score. Although the dope gives Coach Schmidt's clan a decided advantage, the Crimson-clad warriors are out to overcome the odds and command the attention of the southwest.

College authorities in charge of home-coming plans announce that the largest crowd in the history of Lubbock is expected to witness the battle Saturday. Additional bleacher accommodations are being erected and a seating capacity of approximately 10,000 will be available.

When Coach Schmidt leads his squad of football warriors into Lubbock Friday, the T. C. U. mentor will greet the man who was formerly his college president. Dean J. M. Gerdon, of Tech, was president of Tulsa University at the same time Schmidt served in the capacity of head coach. At the outbreak of the war in 1918, Schmidt left Tulsa to enlist in the service and took with him the majority of the members of his football team.

Defeated Oklahoma

Following the war in 1919 Schmidt returned to Tulsa with his grid forces and blazed through the season with a remarkable record, defeating the University of Oklahoma at Norman.

When the Christians meet the Matadors here Saturday both teams will be out to break a tradition yet unbroken in the three years they have met on the gridiron. The Tech grid warriors will put forth their all in the attempt to score their first victory over the Purple team, and the Frogs will launch into the task of keeping her opponent from scoring, something that a T. C. U. team has been unable to do since relations began in 1926.

Surprised Fans

That year the Matadors went to Fort Worth, unknown and unheralded, and almost took the Christians by surprise. Tech scored 10 points in the opening minutes of play before the Frogs could realize just what it was all about. Ransome Walker, who has proven a nemesis for three years, brought the crowd to its feet and the Frogs to their senses with a beautiful 80-yard run for touchdown, which in addition to the extra point and a field goal, gave the Matadors a 10 point lead. The Purple crew came to life and scored one touchdown before the half ended, 10 to 7, and came back with three more counters in the third period. Tech scored another in the final quarter and the game ended; T. C. U. 28, Tech 16.

Won 16 to 6 In 1927

In 1926 Tech again went to Fort Worth to battle the Toads and the Purple Warriors eked out a 16 to 6 victory. Fain Reynolds scored a touchdown on a blocked punt. "Rags" Mathews booted a field goal and "Nasty" Clark intercepted a Tech pass and ran for a touchdown to put T. C. U.'s count at 16, while Pickett recovered a fumble in the last quarter and raced 65 yards for Tech's lone score.

Last year the Matadors made their third trip to Clark field and though defeated, 28 to 6, they had the honor of crossing the Frog goal line for the first time of the season. Ransome Walker was again the star for the Crimson crew, by racing 80 yards for a touchdown.

This week the Frogs will make their initial invasion of Tech's own field, and West Texas football fans will get a glimpse of a team that, by virtue of its great victory over the Texas Aggies last Saturday, is being picked as the team that the winner of the Southwestern conference race must defeat for the title.

THEY'LL DEFEND FROGS' FLANKS AGAINST TECH SATURDAY

WAGGONER IS GIVEN PRAISE

S. M. U. PRESIDENT SAYS CONFIDENT OF RACES BEING ALL RIGHT

(By Associated Press)

ARLINGTON, Oct. 23.—"I know that racing will be kept clean out here and if this is done I am certain that all of the educational institutions of northwest Texas will be back of the project," Dr. C. C. Selecman, president of Southern Methodist university at Dallas, declared in an address Tuesday afternoon at Arlington Downs during a testimonial luncheon to W. T. Waggoner, who is building the track.

"There is no more need for betting on a horse race than there is at a football game," Dr. Selecman said. "It is my opinion that W. T. Waggoner has done the state of Texas much good in bringing fine horses here and developing this breeding farm for blooded stock."

Similar praise was given Waggoner and his project in talks by Dr. E. M. Waits, president of Texas Christian university at Fort Worth; Rev. Father Henry Felderhoff, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Catholic church of Fort Worth; Dean E. E. Davis of North Texas Agricultural college, Federal Judge Sheppard of Florida who is presiding at present over session of the United State court at Fort Worth, Mayor J. Waddy Tate of Dallas and Mayor pro-tem A. E. Thomas of Fort Worth.

German Increasing Lead Over Cochran

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—Eric Hagenlacher of Germany increased his lead today over Welker Cochran of Hollywood in their 3,600 point 18.2 balkline billiards match.

After losing the fourth block Tuesday afternoon, Hagenlacher defeated Cochran, 300 to 175 last night to bring his total points to 1,200 against 855 for the Californian.

GARDNER SELLS SPUDDER STOCK

WICHITA FALLS, Oct. 23. (AP)—William E. Huff of Wichita Falls, has acquired controlling interest in the Wichita Falls baseball club, it was announced here today. J. Alvin Gardner, president of the Spudders for the last four years, retained no interest in the Spudders.

Gardner sold approximately 70 per cent of the stock. He acquired control of the club late in 1925, from R. O. Harvey.

Huff has been a stockholder in the club since the franchise was brought here from Waco in 1920 and during the past season was vice president. He has been associated closely with Gardner in the management of the team. The change became effective today.

Secretary Guy P. Airey will continue as secretary of the team, and a close relationship with the St. Louis Browns will be maintained.

Hudson Leading In Special Election

CORSICANA, Oct. 23 (AP)—With 850 votes to 125 for his nearest opponent, G. C. Hudson led the field in partial returns from Navarro county in the special election held here today to choose a flotorial representative from the sixtieth district, composed of Hill and Navarro counties.

Sam H. Allred was second, A. M. Sims received one vote, S. W. Tinner four, and S. P. Ruyle one. A very light vote was cast. The election is to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Ernest Cox.

BIG TEN WILL SEE BATTLES ON SATURDAY

ILLINOIS TO HAVE BIG TIME TRYING TO REPEAT

(By Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Oct. 23.—The Big Ten football's grudge contest on Saturday's program will be presented at Urbana, Ill., where Michigan's Wolverines meet Illinois.

The Illini, title-winners the last two seasons, will be on a hunt for revenge on the Wolverines, who suddenly came to life after four straight defeats last year and trimmed Coach Zuppke's eleven 3 to 0. The defeat threatened for a time to keep Illionis from its second consecutive championship, and did spoil an otherwise perfect season.

Illinois Has Edge

Previous performances give Illinois a considerable edge over Michigan, but the experts have insisted the Wolverines have a real team if they can get started. Michigan usually has made it a practice to be at its best for an Illinois contest. The Illini probably will take the field without the services of "Frosty" Peters, drop-kicking quarterback, who suffered a rib fracture last week against Iowa.

Coach Harry Kipke is preparing two sets of backs and has indicated he will alternate them Saturday.

Pape Faces Charges

Iowa's eligibility troubles, which started last June, show no signs of letting up. For the second time since the season started, Oran Pape, fleet halfback who was one of the leading scorers of the Big Ten last year, has been charged with professionalism. Several weeks ago Pape was cleared of charges in connection with a pro game at Galena, Ill. Yesterday his eligibility again was questioned when it was charged he played for the Dubuque, Ia., Boars, in 1924.

With Captain Willis Glassgow again injured and Pape's status uncertain, the Hawkeyes' chances of a successful invasion of Wisconsin Saturday are not so bright. The Badgers are reorganizing following their defeats by Northwestern and Notre Dame.

Chicago-Purdue Feature

The Chicago-Purdue battle for life in the won and lost standing promise to be the feature of the day. The Boilermakers have demonstrated they lug a powerful attack, but the Maroons are being pointed for the first time of the campaign and are more hopeful of jolting Purdue.

Ohio State is visioning its third straight conference victory Saturday in a doubleheader against Wabash and the Notre Dame reserves. The regulars have not yet recovered from the mauling given them by the Gophers last Saturday, and Coach Dick Hanley plans to save them for the Illinois game a week from Saturday. Minnesota has a letdown in its schedule when Ripon goes to Minneapolis Saturday.

S. M. U. MAY TURN THINGS

CLOSE FOLLOWERS ARE COUNTING ON TEAM TO COME THROUGH

BY GAYLE TALBOT, JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

Strange as it may seem considering the team's record to date, there are numerous critics over the state, close followers of Southwest conference football, who believe Southern Methodist either will win the championship or finish not more than one jump off the top. There is slight foundation for such a prediction, considering the known strength of Baylor, Texas and T. C. U., but the boys simply have become distrustful of Ray Morrison, foxy Mustang mentor. He is as full of surprises as a birthday cake. He will spring plenty of them when the Ponies get in the conference race, declare those in close touch with the Red and Blue corral.

Very little has been heard of the team's training activities since it returned from Nebraska. Morrison has had nothing to tell reporters who visited the camp. They were free to watch the Ponies practice, but for the most part they had a dull time of it. The deep stuff has been rehearsed in private. The Methodists apparently learned a valuable lesson last year, when there was much fanfare concerning their chances at the title. After the season's close, one of the school's athletic officials directly attributed the Mustang's disastrous record to an excess of publicity. He said it would be different this year.

It is doubtful the Morrismen will uncover much against Mississippi this week at Dallas. In the first place, "Ole Miss" does not appear, on its record sufficiently strong to push the Ponies. Secondly, Morrison probably would be willing to accept a tie with Coach Hazel's eleven rather than trot out his big guns for conference scouts to inspect. The genuine 1929 model Mustang machine probably will be seen in action for the first time against the Longhorns Nov. 2 at Dallas. That will be next week's big attraction.

Of the two conference frays booked this week, that at College Station easily is the more promising. Reports from Fayetteville assert the Razorbacks are fired with all sorts of determination after their sensational showing against Baylor and will scrap the Aggies to the last ditch. Both teams emerged from losing battles last week without serious injuries, although Van Sickle and Gardner, veteran Arkansas linemen, will be out for another week. While the Porkers definitely are out of the title race after two defeats, the Aggies still have an outside chance of tying for the lead. But they cannot afford to drop another. It is safe to say the Aggies will be drilled strenuously on pass defense this week. The Razorbacks completed 17 flips against the Bears.

Those who saw the Longhorns wallop Oklahoma last week look for a big score in the Texas-Rice combat at Austin. They probably are right about it, but it might not do for the Orange to become over-confident. Rice elevens, however inferior, usually have at least one real battle in their system. The Owls have had two week's to rest up for the game, while the Steers have gone through a pair of tough melees. They are due for a slight letdown, but even so should win with ease.

World demand for snake skins has caused a shortage in Borneo.

TECH RIFLE TEAM OFF TO EL PASO

Lieutenant H. E. Killin and seven members of the Tech rifle team left shortly after noon for El Paso to engage the Texas School of Mines in the first shoulder to shoulder match in the history of the local institution.

The shoot will be held Friday afternoon, from 1 to 5 o'clock.

Elimination contests held this week resulted in the selection of the following marksmen to represent Tech in Friday's match: E. W. Cain, A. F. Fisher, W. S. Galloway, E. K. Hester and Charles Adams. Alternates are: J. E. Brennand and L. W. Chapman.

Plans are under way to bring the Harvard university team here for a shoot in the near future.

Fight To Be Made On Exhorbitant Tax

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—Organizing to fight what was termed exhorbitant taxes for land and royalty owners in several West Texas counties, the Texas division of the Mid-Continent Royalty association appointed a committee to work toward reduction of taxes at a meeting today at the State fair of Texas. About fifty royalty owners attended the meeting.

Tech Officials Are Attending Session

Following conclusion late yesterday of a meeting of directors of Texas Technological college Dr. Paul W. Horn, president of the institution, and Clifford B. Jones, of Spur, left for El Paso, where they will attend the annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

Dr. Horn is scheduled to speak at the convention, while Mr. Jones is a director of the regional organization.

Four Major Clubs To Play In Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 23 (AP)—The two New York clubs, the Pittsburgh Pirates and the Chicago White Sox will appear on the Dallas Steers' spring exhibition schedule, President Fred McJunkin announced today.

ROVING THE SPORTS WORLD

WITH ALLAN CARNEY
JOURNAL SPORTS EDITOR

Tech coaches and players as well have expressed considerable disappointment over the report of the game at Abilene last Saturday carried in the Sunday Avalanche-Journal, holding that the story carried by this newspaper failed to give the Matadors credit for their performance against the Indians. Having witnessed the game ourselves, we are in a position to say that the story did give discredit to the bull fighters from the aerial standpoint.

College officials and fans alike deserve to know why this occurred. The report sent in by this writer became jumbled up in transit. The result was that a portion of the story necessarily had to be re-written in this office and the mixed-up summary naturally was left untouched. Since the summary which reached Lubbock gave the Indians credit for gaining 53 yards through the air instead of Tech, the "lead" was written accordingly. On the contrary, McMurry failed to gain a yard through it passing attack, Tech was on two occasions within scoring distance while the Indians never once advanced further than the Matadors' 20 yard line.

Incidents of this nature seldom occur, but in this instance the unavoidable happened and this newspaper feels no responsibility for the unjust report. The same summary, in fact a carbon copy, in the report sent to Lubbock was used in the Abilene Morning Reporter-News Sunday and is reproduced herewith:

Passes—McMurry attempted 3 passes, two were incomplete and one was intercepted; Tech attempted 10 passes, 5 were complete for a gain of 53 yards, four were incomplete and one was intercepted.

Much has been said and written concerning the why and wherefore of success of a cinder star on football field. The general impression has been that a 10-second man isn't the type that can utilize his speed on the gridiron, especially as a ball carrier, for the reason that the flying track star is trained to run in a straight direction and that ordinarily the dash man hasn't the sturdy build necessary for strenuous football competition.

We once heard Charley Paddock expound a theory of this nature, the logic of which was perfectly clear, but several sprint champions have changed their spikes for cleats this year and have met with great success. George Simpson of Ohio State, the world's 100 yard record holder, and his Texas rival, Claude Bracey of Rice institute, have reconsidered plans to try the gridiron. Cy Leland, former Lubbock high school athlete who will appear in a T. C. U. football uniform here Saturday, entered the big race events with Simpson and Bracey this year and once defeated Bracey over the 220 yard stretch.

Those who have seen Leland in action this fall declare him to be almost unstoppable once he has broken loose. He has shown remarkable improvement over his 1928 performance on the gridiron and is among the leading scorers of the Southwestern conference. Tech will send out a quartet of speed merchants to cope with the fast Horned Frog running attack here Saturday. In Walker, Wooldridge, Green and Crites the Matadors have a faster all around backfield than Coach Schmidt will be able to muster forth for the purple. Grubbs, Leland, Green and Woolwine constitute the starting T. C. U. backfield combination and Leland is the only race horse of the outfit.

Usually sprinters lack shiftiness and durability, but two of the nation's fleet cinder stars are showing their heels to the opposing football teams this year. Jesse Hill, the Southern California fullback, is going like the proverbial house afire, as is Jack Elder, the flashy Notre Dame ball toter. Both are quick starters, with the weight and drive to shake off would-be tacklers. This pair will do its stuff on the same field November 9 when the western eleven meets the Irish crew on Soldiers field with prospects of well over 100,000 spectators being on hand to witness one of the main intersectional battles of the year.

Incidentally, athletics at Tech will be affected to a great degree by the turnout for the T. C. U. battle Saturday. Southwest conference authorities have repeatedly pointed out that the chances for Tech's admission to the conference will be determined more by Lubbock's ability to suport a member team in a financial way more than the comparative strength of the club.

Marvin T. Warlick, Tech athletic manager, takes the following stand: "Lubbock citizens will be given an opportunity to say Saturday whether or not they are willing to support an entry in the Southwest conference. The turning point has been reached in the history of the institution and local townsfolk as well as the citizens of surrounding towns should consider it a matter of civic and sectional obligation to turn out en masse Saturday to see the Matadors battle the powerful Horned Frogs."

The following is taken from the Daily Texan, university publication at Austin, and it shows the attitude of the majority of institutions already in the select circle: "Texas Tech is the logical school to consider, should any school be taken into the conference. With an enrollment larger than the majority of conference schools already, with state backing, and a large field from which to draw good athletes, the West Texas institution is already in a position to put consistently strong teams into the race each year. Since the school has been founded, conference regulations have been adopted as the ones which rule athletics. Every man on the team that held Texas to a 12-0 score last year would have been eligible to represent Texas that day, had he been enrolled here. Before long Tech will rank with Texas and A. and M. from the standpoint of athletics."

Centenary would like nothing better than to get into the Southwestern conference. With repeated victories over conference teams, she would be supposed to be drawing nearer her goal but in reality there is little possibility that the Louisiana school will ever be admitted. The student body is too small to support a team of conference ability that will meet all regulations throughout a period of years, although the teams of the last several years have been up to a high standard.

John W. Moore Wins In Insurance Suit

The jury in 99th district court returned a verdict late yesterday, favoring the defendant in the case of Texas Employers Insurance Association versus John W. Moore construction company, a suit for $3,478, value of premium on compensation.

Following the session Tuesday, the jury for the September term of court was dismissed this morning. Court will be reconvened next Monday morning.

CAR STOLEN HERE

A Ford automobile, property of G. R. Ely of Slaton, was stolen in the city last night, according to a report made this morning at police headquarters.

License number of the car is 717-470 and the engine number is 909-338.

SQUAD TUNING FOR CONTEST WITH SANDIES

CHANGES ARE LIKELY IN LINE-UP; NEW OFFENSE MADE

With but one more opportunity to test their offense before they tackle the Amarillo Sandies next week, the Lubbock Westerners will likely open up with everything in their power here Friday afternoon when the Olton High school eleven comes here to give the Gold and Black crew its final tuning-up for the clash on Nov. 2 which is destined to settle the district championship.

This word was passed along from Merrill Park Tuesday afternoon by the Lubbock mentors following a snappy workout occasioned by the season's first norther. A biting north wind sent the Westerners through their paces at a stiff gait as the gridders further acquainted themselves with the new plays and formations.

To Have Something New

Since every game the Westerners have played here has been closely scouted by a member of the Amarillo coaching staff, the Lubbock coaches are likely to have an entirely new style of offense perfected when the squad leaves for the scene of their crucial battle with the Golden Sandstorm.

Changes Likely.

This change in plans will effect several shifts in the lineup with possibilities that at least one lineman will be shifted to the backfield for regular duty.

Friday's game with the Olton aggregation will give the Lubbock crew a splendid opportunity to try out its new line of tricks and smooth out the wrinkles before the Amarillo clash. Coach Carter is bringing a scrappy Class B eleven to battle the Westerners and an absorbing contest is promised.

A movement is underway whereby local business and professional men will present each member of the Lubbock team a gold football in the event Amarillo is defeated on November 2. No definite announcement on this matter will be available this week, it was learned last night.

Suit Is Filed On Bank Deposit Here

Seeking to have $3,768.36, now on deposit, adjudged to the rightful possessor the Lubbock-National bank filed a petition this morning in 99th district court against Mrs. A. Holloway, resident of Denton county, et al.

The petition alleges that F. W. Craeger, as administrator of the estate of A. Holloway, former resident of Cochran county, has demanded delivery of the sum of money deposited prior to the death of Mr. Holloway. The plaintiff further states that a $3,097.50 deposit and a checking account of $2,429.56 was delivered to Mr. Holloway's widow, the only survivor, and that she was credited with $3,768.36, deposited last July.

Following the claim of the administrator, the plaintiff is seeking to have the court settle the matter.

TEXAS COTTON FARMERS TO GET AID OF BOARD

AMPLE LOANS ARE ASSURED GROWERS BY BOARD'S PLAN

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 23.—Ample loans at low interest rates, on easy time limits, are assured cotton growers' cooperatives of Texas by the Federal Farm Board policy, Charles B. Metcalf of San Angelo, vice-president of the Farmers' Marketing association, said here last night on his return from Washington where he conferred with members of the board.

"Members of the board definitely expressed their friendly attitude toward cotton producers," he said. "This gives farmers and all other owners of cotton, spinners, merchants, and traders, assurance that dumping and forced sales will cease, and that a better and more stable price will be obtained permanently. Our association advises all farmers, cotton growers, bankers and business people that the crop is short, consumption is normal, present prices are less than cost of production, and the only thing required to advance the price is to stop selling and hold cotton until the market will absorb it at a reasonable price."

STOKES SAYS TEXAS TO GET BENEFITS

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—Cotton producers in Texas may expect to receive early benefits from the Federal Farm Board by obtaining a share of the $100,000,000 the board has expressed willingness to advance, Lynn Stokes, president of the Texas Farm Bureau Cotton association, said today.

"Action of the board," he said, "has not been hasty, but follows exhaustive study of world conditions, definitely indicating that the price of cotton is too low."

Co-operatives to handle loans are already in existence in most the cotton producing areas, he said.

LEARY ADVISES TEXAS FARMERS TO HOLD CROP

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—The Federal Farm Board has "at last come across" with practical farm relief in its proposition to loan cotton growers 16 cents a pound on their cotton, W. B. Leary, secretary-treasurer of the Farmers' Marketing association of America, Dallas, said in a statement issued last night.

"The farm board has now spoken and said cotton is too cheap," the statement said. "Farmers should quit selling at once."

Mr. Leary's organization has urged farmers to hold their cotton for 25 cents, and this was being done, he said, in many Texas counties.

LIVESTOCK MEN MEET WITH FARM BOARD

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Means of stabilizing marketing of livestock will be discussed today as leaders of that branch of the farm industry meet with members of the Federal Loan Board. Livestock men here last night pointed to annual livestock sales in excess of $4,000,000,000 by American farmers as evidence of the magnitude of the industry. Various competitive groups, each with individual ideas of handling the marketing phase of the industry were cited as the major obstacle facing the conference, which must bring the opposing views to a common discussion.

Carnation Cows Are Winners At Dallas

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—Winning twelve first prizes and nine seconds, as well as the grand and senior championships for bulls and cows, the Carnation show herd of milk cattle from the Carnation Farms, Seattle, Washington, was the outstanding exhibitor in the opening day of the Southwestern Dairy show at the Sate fair of Texas today.

Sir Segis Bessie Walker was chosen senior champion Holstein bull, and was also awarded the grand championship. Junior honors went to Prince Berlywood Fobes Queen, owned by A. J. King, of Kansas City.

The grand champion female was Carnation Ormsby Parthenea, this animal also receiving senior champion honors. L. Jaicee Bessie Ormsby, owned by the Chapman Farms, Kansas City, was junior champion.

The Weeones' lives had all been saved. Once on the ground the whole bunch raved. "Oh, thank you friendly Tinymites, for all that you have done. When we were 'way up in that tree we were as scared as we could be. The thought of falling to the earth was far from any fun.

"The wooden shoe that sailed around and finally brought us to the ground was really very marvelous. It knew just what to do. When we had all crawled into the thing, it flew right down as if on wing. Now we just want you all to know that we are thanking you."

The Tinies smiled and Scouty cried, "Oh, that's all right. When you were spied we knew we had to rescue you, so that's just what was done. We felt we'd all fall down kerplunk if we climbed up that big tree stump, and so we sent the shoe up. Watching it was heaps of fun."

A Weeone then broke in and said, "I think it's time that we are fed. You Tinies wait right here and we will go and get some eats. I think I know where we can find some food that's of the finest kind. If we succeed I'm sure you all will have the treat of treats."

Then off the little Weeones went. While they were gone the Tinies spent their time in merely loafing 'round. Wee Clowny took a nap. As Coppy watched him for a while, his face broke out into a smile. He said, "I'm sleepy too," and put his head in Clowny's lap.

Real shortly back the Weeones came and one cried out, "Hey! Start a flame. We're going to cook a meal you'll like, as sure as you are born." The Tinies looked and felt real glad. You'll be surprised at what they had. Upon some sticks they carried quite a load of nice fresh corn.

(A scarecrow grabs a Weeone in the next story.)

REED NOT TO BE CANDIDATE

FORMER SENATOR SAYS HE WON'T SEEK STATE OFFICE

(By Associated Press)

ST. LOUIS Mo., Oct. 23—Former United States Senator James A. Reed, while not interested in running for governor of Missouri, believes there is good material in the democratic party for governor and that the party can win by patching up its differences, writing a good platform and nominating a strong candidate.

Reed expressed this view in commenting here on a statement Sunday by State Senator A. L. McCawley of Carthage, suggesting that the former senator run for governor. Reed said he would not consider making the race for governor or for any other office.

ONE KILLED, ONE HURT

CLEBURNE, Oct. 23. (AP)—Rymond Sawin, 30, of Grandview, was killed and Durg Chastain was injured at Sandflat while they were working on a highway.

Riots are again prevalent at football games in Ireland this season.

Thought For Today

Hear instruction, and be wise and refuse it not—Proverbs 8:33.

* * *

The learning and knowledge that we have is at the most but little compared with that of which we are ignorant.—Plato.

The Mystery

Professor C. Judson Herrick of University of Chicago believes that man is simply a machine that thinks.

After spending years in the study of neurology, Dr. Herrick has concluded that all life—physical, mental and spiritual—is simply a mechanistic process. He has just written a book setting forth his views, and in it he says:

"Mental processes are biological functions of the body in general and of the brain in particular, in just the same sense that the circulation of the blood is a function of the heart, or breathing is a function of the lungs. A thought is a manufactured product as truly as a pair of shoes."

The present age is distinguished from all former ages by a number of things, but chiefly, it would seem it is set apart by the fact that never until now have men been able to conceive of themselves as soulless bits of machinery.

Probably this is only natural. We live in an era that moves by machinery. We are so far removed from the social and economic conditions of a century ago as we are from the builders of the pyramids. It is not surprising that some men should come to look upon human beings themselves as mere glorified bits of mechanism.

It is a mistake however, to think that one solves any problems by adopting such a theory.

In the old days the contemplative man felt that he had an immortal soul, that he was kin to the majestic spirit of the universe itself, that he was superior to time and change and death; and he knew, therefore, that he was a partaker in a tremendous mystery, and this knowledge gave him a sense of dignity, a feeling of exaltation, a consciousness of nobility.

Today he simply says, "I am a machine. I breathe in clear air and eat certain meats and fruits and vegetables and undergo certain experiences, and out of them I create the finished products of thought and action."

Thus he has an entirely new slant on the universe and his place in it.

But—and this is what is worth noticing—the mystery remains as great as before.

A machine? Very possibly. But what a marvelous one! A machine that can lift itself by its own bootstraps; a machine that can create beauty so compelling and haunting that the beholder, involuntarily, is persuaded of his own immortality; a machine that can be heroic, can suffer hardships for a cause, can sacrifice itself for the sake of other machines—what kind of machine is this, anyway?

The mechanistic explanation may be a very good one. The facts of physiology may support Professor Herrick's theory right up to the hilt. But the mystery is still there, as tremendous as ever. No theory can dispel it. And you may make of it what you please.

"Giant Industry"

Among the giant industries of America you might list the garage business. It's a whole lot bigger than you may have suspected.

A writer in the current American Architect reveals that there are more than 51,000 commercial garages in this country, representing a total investment of $3,000,000,000. This, of course, does not include the countless millions of private garages.

The development of the commercial garage incidentally, has brought vast problems for the architect. When a garage rises to a height of more than two stories, it is necessary to devote from 40 to 60 per cents of its space to ramps, driveways and other space for manipulating cars.

This, of course is a great waste. The architects now are busy devising means of handling of the problem more economically. When they do, this new giant industry will go on to an even greater prosperity.

THE PLAINSMAN Says

(Special to The Journal)

EL PASO, Oct. 23—That Girl on Broadway says nothing is more exasperating than to find that the pessimism of the coach of your favorite football team is entirely well founded.

Some of the unofficial delegates to the W. T. C. C. convention are already arriving in Juarez. Few of them are stopping here long enough to do anything but drop their baggage and cash a check.

It would tickle you to death to ride over to Juarez on the street car in the evening and watch the bar flys make for their favorite haunts. They jump off the street car at the Central bar corner and the way they side-step, cut-back, twist and turn getting to the bar in the least possible time would make many a college halfback grow green with envy.

A stroll down the main drag of Juarez is not without its benefits. The Plainsman doesn't believe any right-thinking American can visit the Mexican side of the International bridge here and come back favoring a return to the days of the open saloon. "Way back yonder, when he was just a kid, The Plainsman lived in a town where there were open saloons. He was too young to pay any attention to them, but a walk down the streets of Juarez, with the odor of stale beer permeating the atmosphere, brings back a boyhood memory of a similar smell. The Plainsman never comes to Juarez without remembering with satisfaction, that the open saloon in the United States is "Out Like Lottie's Eye."

That Man on Avenue Q says the Juarez City plan is certainly original. It's the only one he has ever seen which provides for a saloon on every corner.

To hear the folks talk about it when they get back home, you wouldn't think there was any reason for going over to Juarez save to get a drink. While The Plainsman would not care to live there, it is a fact that the sprawling Mexican border town does offer something to the tourist besides the bar. There is an old Catholic church here, hundreds of years old, that is certainly worth looking over. And—page Mr. Ripley—you can believe it or not, but it has a bell in its steeple which is so resonant that it gives forth a decided "bong" even when the clapper is barely touched to the bell. The bell itself, guides will tell you, is older than the church and was brought from Spain. It is composed of a variety of metals, including some gold and silver and that accounts for its resonancy.

The church hasn't a single nail in it, being put together by dovetailing the heavy planks. The stone steps leading to the belfry are worn down, leaving tell-tale prints of the ages. Mexican worshipers, on their knees at prayer—rosaries in their hands, are not perturbed by straggling groups of sight-seers gawking at them as they pass through. The monotonous "ga-ga" of the guides, explaining this, that and the other feature of the church, is likewise unnoticed by men, women and children paying their respects to their God.

There is the fortress, the race-track track, the market-place and other features to see but The Plainsman gets his biggest kick out of wandering through the residential districts. Estimates place Juarez's population at 37,000 persons but it doesn't take up any more room than the average Amercian town of 10,000. The natives live for the most part in squalor, several to the room and there is block after block of houses built one right onto the other. Maybe the Mexicans like it but The Plainsman prefers less noise and number to the square inch.

El Paso incidentally, is enjoying a very prosperous year. Business is good—better than it has been in a number of years—and the people here are tickled to death. If the revolution of late winter and early spring had not thrown Mexico into such an uproar 1929 would probably have smashed all records for business in El Paso. Mexico is more or less restful again but there are rumors of still another political revolution in the offing.

The Plainsman never comes to El Paso that he doesn't get a kick out of Mount Franklin. With the city built around it, and without so much as a single tree to break its bleak monotony, Mount Franklin appears to be standing guard over this border metropolis. Back in 1919—or was it 1915?—when the forces of Pancho Villa held Juarez in their grip, American three-inch pieces were mounted on Mount Franklin and it was from that point of prominence that three shells were sent hurtling over into the neighboring Mexican city. One of them struck a cupulo on the race track on the outskirts of Juarez and the effects of the shell are still plainly visible.

Incidentally, Juarez is named for Benito Juarez, who holds the same place in Mexican history that a fellow by the name of George Washington holds in our own. There is a big statue of Benito in the center of the plaza in Juarez and is the object of great pride on the part of the natives. The Plainsman is of the opinion that some of the dough expended on the monument might have been used to repair one of the public schools, but of course that is a matter of personal opinion.

The big convention will get under way tomorrow. Thus far The Plainsman hasn't seen anybody from Lubbock but he intends to make a personal tour of Juarez tomorrow and expects to find quite a few of the local talent so watch tomorrow's column for possible exposes.

"Without-Or-With, Offense To Friends Or Foes, We Sketch Your World Exactly As It Goes"—Byron

Coming Five-Power Naval Parley Will Succeed Because No Other Nations Will Dare Oppose U. S. And England

BY RODNEY DUTCHER
NEA Service Writer

WASHINGTON Oct. 23—It is true, of course, that Mr. Hoover and Mr. MacDonald did not spend their hours together cooking up an Anglo-American alliance.

It is also presumably true that no selfish nationalistic thoughts ever entered the head of either of them. That is there was no thought that the United States or Great Britain would profit from this epochal meeting out of proportion to the benefits available to all other nations which cared to enter into the spirit of the thing.

It might also be emphasized that the world has seldom seen a man at the head of any government who appeared to be so sincerely concerned with the well-being of all mankind as the laborite prime minister of Great Britain. Or a president of the United States with such a broad vision of the benefits of world-wide co-operation and the stupidity of international hatreds and suspicions.

They Are Idealists

In other words, here were two statesmen who co-ordinated their patriotism with a certain amount of idealistic internationalism and found that these two abstract factors were not incompatible.

Nevertheless, if there are other nations which fail to fall in line with the United States and Great Brittain it is going to be just too bad—for them. Naturally enough, the naval arms conference at Geneva blew up when these two predominant naval pariners failed to approach an agreement. The same thing would have been true had France and Italy been represented, which they were not.

But if the United States and Great Britain are going to lead off an international parade for reductions of armaments and world peace, any lesser nations which stand on the curb and stick out their tongues are likely to be out of luck. There are few places where their attitude would be popular and most importantly of all, it would be distinctly unpopular with Uncle Sam and John Bull, both of whose people are enthusiastic over this new order of things.

For there is no getting around the fact that America and Britain are far and away the two most powerful nations on the earth. If they did care to form an alliance in the old sense they could easily enough dominate the world without fear of any combination of nations which might be formed against them.

And it can hardly be said that the moral alliance which these two have established and which is not in any way exclusive or in any way ominous, would be any the less effective in its way if the important countries of continental Europe were to refuse to play ball. The fact is that France, Italy or Japan could not well afford to toss a monkey wrench into the Hoover-MacDonald mechanism.

Since MacDonald arrived in this country some distinctly sour notes have been sounded in France. Also some in Italy and even a few in Japan. There are those in each country who scent an alliance.

These doubts and suspicions are not likely to stand in the way for very long. Both the American and British governments will devote themselves to removing them. One excellent reason for the virtual certainty that the other three nations will fall in line—and from an old-fashioned point of view as most important one—is that each one stands pretty well alone under the present scheme of things.

Both France and Italy are putting up a terrific holler about the proposal to abolish submarines. Everyone knew they would if it were made. Hoover and MacDonald knew it, too. The immediate assumption in Washington was that the two men had decided that submarines would make a good trading point with France and Italy, though many many question the wisdom of such a step.

The Conference Will Succeed

Submarines will not be allowed to wreck the five-power conference three months hence and Hoover and MacDonald are doing. There are the measure down anyone's throat.

Nothing in this dispatch or from any other source should lead anyone to believe that the Kingdom of Heaven has arrived on earth. Time may undo the work that Hoover and MacDRonald are doing. There are bound to be some bitter rows over naval strength before the five powers are through. The freedom of the seas issue will have to be threshed out sooner or later. The debt issue is far from dead. Hoover's hope of naval reduction probably will not be realized immediately.

The main point is, however, that there is going to be a five-power naval conference which America and Britain will enter with a constructive program and it will not be allowed to fail.

As Brought Over Associated Press Wires Today

(By Associated Press)

Action Blocked

ALTDORF, Switzerland—Bobbed heads have been taxed 12 cents each for a year in the Canton Uri, but so far as revenue is concerned the tax is a fizzle. Most women have refused to pay, dared the authorities to do their worst and asserted they have the same right to haircuts as men. Deputies at a meeting decided to postpone action, hoping for a change in styles.

Advocates Whiskers

PARIS — Whiskers for all Frenchmen over 30 are advocated by Maurice De Waleffe, an arbiter elegantiarum. In the newspaper midi, of which he is part owner, he writes: "Whiskers form part of our national type. Our young men, aping Americans, have abandoned whiskers. We do not want to become standardized Americans. Let us be French." M. De Waleffe has a soupcon of a moustache, otherwise is clean-shaven.

Starts Out Young

NEW YORK—Alfred Stern, 13, is in a fair way to become a rich boy. He designs giraffes, clowns, soldiers, funny faces, and the like for handkerchiefs for a Paris manufacturer and receives five cents per dozen as royalty. The handkerchiefs are becoming a fad for tots. Alfred has ambitions to be a stage designer.

To Seek Runners

BUFFALO N. Y.—The coast guard is trying out listening devices for detecting rum runners on the Great Lakes. A seven-foot tube placed over the side of a rum chaser, it is hoped, will enable the compass bearing and approximate speed of another craft within a nine mile radius to be determined.

Rate Rising

BERLIN—Abolition of military conscription has caused a steady rising marriage rate in Germany. Dr. Otto Wagner of the federal statistical bureau explains it: "Man is born to serve and obey. If he does not serve the state he has to serve women, and there are 2,000,000 more women than men in Germany today."

Navy Day Is To Be Observed In Texas

DALLAS, Oct. 23. (AP)—Schools and churches were asked to direct attention to Theodore Roosevelt's achievements and ideals for American water forces for observance of Navy day Monday, in a statement issued today by John L. De Grotier, Dallas, North Texas chairman for the observance.

Preliminary plans for observance of Navy day in North Texas, he said, include broadcasting of programs over WFAA, Dallas, and over WBAP, Fort Worth.

Roy Miller of Corpus Christi is state chairman for observance of Navy day.

In New York With Swan

NEW YORK, Oct. 23.—Down Mott street way, where Chinatown's alleys weave their picturesque patterns, the Chinese movie has arrived at last.

And after observing a few of the thrillers brought over from Shanghai, via the Great Wall Film corporation, I'm quite willing to pass up the elegant cinema palaces of Broadway.

The audience, made up almost entirely of Chinese, is quite worth the price of admission. The films, largely of the blood-and-gore variety of the old nickelodeons, are like nothing to be found hereabouts. Not even the lower Bowery, which has clung closely to its "Wild Jake, the Terror of Tuskaloosa," can compete.

I'm told that the censors have been driven white-haired cutting out the scorching love scenes and the shots, which may be well in accordance with the Oriental notions, but which are several thousand miles away from the Occidental ideas.

The captions appear both in Chinese characters and in literal English translations. And these are funnier than any Keystone comedy.

In a picture recently unreeled, a Chinese actor came rushing upon the scene, accompanied by a caption reading: "What keeps you such a hurry."

When the heroine is intrigued by the "pash" villain, on flashes the notation . . . "Girl with heart whose burn aflame but always have to pay."

A short subject entitled "The Spiders" was operating on the day I dropped in. It concerned a criminal band of murderous reputation and the fair maid, as usual was in jeopardy. The idea was obviously taken from the old American thrillers which were so popular with the audiences of all lands and helped, for instance, build the first millions of the Universal Film company.

As the slant-eyed villians closed in upon the maid, the sub-title announced, "Girl with distress are dangered."

And, again, as the "spiders" went forth after other prey, the screen advised one that, "No life have safety and mercy are useless."

In the New Chatham theater, where all this goes on, Chinese women in native costume, holding cunning youngsters upon their laps, sit in boxes and munch lichee nuts and orange peel candy.

For some time films have been displayed there, and now and then a Chinese picture found its way over, attracting wide attention in the quarter. The demand became so great that Orientally filmed plays were given a couple of times a month, but now are on the regular diet.

Manhattan, by the way, has artistic little theaters scattered over the city where the pictures of all the world are shown. There are four or five such at the present moment, all of them being "artistic rebellions" against the talkies and the "canned" Hollywood products. Russian and German pictures are preferred, with Amkino — the Soviet organization — taking precedence. Simon Gould, who now operates his own playhouse in the Greenwich Village belt, started this vogue several years ago with films from the UFA plant in Germany.

There is a large following for these foreign films, some of which are taken in Italy, Sweden, Norway, Paris and way points. Here, on an average, can be seen some of the best and some of the worst exhibitions in the city. Even the worst, however, are generally interesting photographically and are often products of considerable imagination and artistic achievement. "The Trial of Jeanne D'Arc" is one of the fine photographic efforts current at the moment and both "Potempkin" and "The End of St. Petersburg" came from the little cinema theaters.

Diet and Health

By Lulu Hunt Peters M.D.
Author of "Diet and Health" and "Diet for Children"

REDUCING TO POINT OF UNDERWEIGHT DANGEROUS FOR THE YOUNG GIRLS

No Danger of Contracting T. B. From Latent Cases

Mrs. L.: There is no danger of contracting tuberculosis from an arrested or latent case, for the germs are not being thrown off. Even in the acute stages of the disease, there is no danger, even in taking care of the patient, if the correct precautions are taken.

As Webb and Ryder say in their book: ". . If the rules as regards cough, expectoration, and cleanliness are scrupulously followed a healthy adult incurs less risk in living with a tuberculosis patient than in riding downtown in an automobile . . . This, however, does not apply to children."

While we are speaking about tuberculosis, I must bring in the danger of young girls reducing to the point of underweight. This is believed to be one of the causes of the increase in tuberculosis among them, for a deficient diet to the point of producing underweight certainly lowers the resistanee to all infections. It is generally conceded that young people have better resistance when they are slightly over the normal average weight. This doesn't mean that frankly fat children should not be gradually reduced, for the resistance is lessened by overweight to this point just as much as it is by underweight.

Recently I was taken to task by a reader who said I don't emphasize sufficiently that reducing should not be to the extent of underweight, but I have, as those who follow the column will know, rather frequently spoken of the danger of extreme reduction in the young folks, as I did above. I know I haven't spoken of it for the middle-aged, for frankly I don't believe there is any danger there whatever. I certainly have never had any reports of such cases in the long time I have been interested in the subject.

Of course, reducing to underweight is undesirable even in the adult. When we say we want to get "thin," we really don't mean that. What we mean is that we want to become normal. And normal weight means that we will still have enough fat to cover our bones and pad out our organs that need it. We mean, perhaps, that we want to reduce our fat from 116 per cent to the 16 per cent which is normal.

Back to tuberculosis again: I want to answer the reader who wrote she had a young man boarder who coughed excessively and she was afraid to have him about on account of her children. Of course, not all coughs are caused by tuberculosis. However, it is wise for you to ask the young man to give you a competent doctor's written word that he is not suffering from that disease.

For those who are interested we have a pamphlet on Reducing and Gaining and an article on Tuberculosis which lists several good books on the subject, written by authorities for the layman. See column rules for obtaining these.

Mrs. H.: Running at a good speed (five and one-quarter miles per hour) uses up 500 calories an hour in a person weighing about 150 pounds. (The more you weigh, the more proportionately is used up.)

Jumping rope, I think, would come under the same type of exercise as running, so the number of calories you use up would depend upon length of time taken, the speed, the speed and your own weight. Yes, it is a good exercise for reducing, but don't forget it is a rather violent exercise, and no violent exercise should be taken, especially after middle age, without a physical check-up.

We have an article which outlines some splendid exercises for the abdominal wall, called the Tummy Ten. These will help you. See column rules for obtaining it.

Editor's Note: Dr. Peters cannot diagnose, nor give personal advice. If she considers your questions of general interest, they will be answered in the column, in turn. Requests for articles on hand must be accompanied by a fully self-addressed, stamped envelope and 2 cents in coin for each; for the pamphlets on "Reducing and Gaining," "The Kidney and Its Excretions" and the "Hygiene of Women," 10 cents in coin (for each) and fully self-addressed, stamped envelope must be enclosed. (Three charges are to cover the cost of printing and handling.) Address Dr. Peters, in care of this paper.

Who's Who and Timely Views

CENTRAL LOCATIONS ADVOCATED FOR CITIES PLANNING AIRPORTS

BY F. TRUBEE DAVISON, Assistant Secretary of War

Frederick Trubee Davison was born at New York City, Feb. 7, 1896. He is a graduate of Yale and Columbia universities. Admitted to the bar in 1922, he began his law practice in New York City. From 1922 to 1926 he was a member of the New York assembly. Since 1926 he has been assistant secretary of war. During the World war he served in the navy air service and was awarded the navy cross. He was chairman of the National Crime commission from 1925 to 1926.)

Airports will eventually become the center of their own business communities, and for this reason must be properly located and constructed.

F. T. Davison

We have more than 1,000 square miles of airplane landing facilities in this country today. While this figure includes all sorts of landing fields, it is interesting to note that the acreage of real airports totals more than 300 square miles, or equal in size to the five boroughs comprising New York city.

And we have just begun. Even as we have just started to scratch the surface in the development of the airplane as a great common carrier, so we are only beginning to turn the spade of progress in the soil from which the great airports of tomorrow will spring. An enormous total extension of landing fields is certain to come. We have and instructive parallel in the growth of our rail and improved highway system.

Although most of the airports so far established are yielding returns which justify the investments put into them, sensible development is a vitally important point. The taxpayer must receive proper consideration. In other words, landing fields should be satisfactory, not alone from the flying man's standpoint, but also from that of the public which pays the bill.

It is amazing how little the average nonflier knows about the land phases of aviation. I speak from experience, because I have actually seen fields being considered for airports that would be more adaptable for roller coasters.

In selecting sites there are several things to be considered aside from the points just mentioned. Important among these is the location of the field. It should be on a main traffic line as close to the community it serves as practicable.

After all, time is the main article that aviation has for sale, and time is a highly perishable commodity. The more minutes consumed in getting to and from airports the less efficient is the airplane service. The acquisition of land for future expansion is another matter to consider. As years pass by each airport will become the center of its own business community, but unless your landing field is protected against obstructions, the very presence of that community might become a handicap to flying operations.

Banker who swindled New York banks out of $500,000 says he did it all for the sake of his own trusting depositors, and for some reason we are reminded of the "did it for the wife and kiddies" episode that followed the 1919 world series.

MILLER GIVES SIX PARDONS

HUNTSVILLE PAPER IS MINUS EDITOR; AGED NEGRO PAROLED

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—Six full and one conditional pardon and one general parole were issued today when proclamations signed by acting Governor Barry Miller were filed with the secretary of state.

He had previously issued one conditional and two full pardons.

In the transactions, Huntsville prison loses the editor of its within-the-walls newspaper. E. R. Robinson, who edited the paper, doing six years for burglary, was among those given a full pardon.

Aged Negro Paroled

The general parole was given Will Hargrove, 76 year old negro, serving life from Walker county for the alleged murder of J. J. Hardy in 1912. Hargrove had been given death by a jury, but the sentence was communted to life imprisonment by Governor Oscar Colquitt. John Cain, who was tried for a part in the same offense and who was given the supreme penalty, died of pneumonia while awaiting execution and on his death bed made a statement exonerating Hargrove.

Other full pardons granted were Henry Loftis, Hill county, serving one year for violation of prohibition law and with only four months to go.

Antone Rozner, Milam county, three years, for violation prohibition law; had served one year and seven months.

C. C. Monroe, Grayson county, two years for burglary; had until next January 21 to serve; was 20 years old.

John Rogers, Sabine county, five years for criminal assault; had served 17 months. Clemency recommended by 11 of jurors who convicted him and several of the prosecuting attorneys.

Lorenzo Ramerez, Haskell county, five years for manslaughter; had served since 1927.

A condition pardon was issued to Louis Reneau, Dallas county, convicted of felonious theft and sentenced to serve from two to four years. He had served over two years.

Purloughs included one of 60 days to B. L. Brookins, Hutchinson county, serving two years for felonious theft.

BREMEN SETS NEW CROSSING RECORD

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—The North German Lloyd liner Bremen steamed past Ambrose channel lightship at 1:24 p. m., today with a new world's record of four days, 17 hours, and 24 minutes for the crossing from Cherbourg. This was eighteen minutes less than the record established by the liner on her maiden voyage last July.

Her master, Captain L. Ziegenbein, explained that the ship ran on the short course about 75 miles less than the middle course taken on her mfiden trip and that her average speed was less on this trip. She averaged 27.20 knots as compared with 27.83 knots on her first voyage.

THE OLD HOME TOWN — Stanley

Littlefield Area Busy With Crowds

LITTLEFIELD, Oct. 23 (Special)—Strangers here, and even the natives, are astounded at the throngs of people that crowd the streets of this town daily. Since the best cotton crop in the state is around Littlefield, literally hundreds of Mexican cotton pickers are here. These, with the many people coming in make large crowds, and keep the merchants busy. The feed crops are abundant and it is freely predicted that 50,000 bales of cotton will be ginned in Lamb county this year.

A city-beautiful movement has been started in China.

ANGELO COURT DOCKET CLEAR

ATWELL DISPOSES OF CRIMINAL CASES ON TUESDAY

(By Associated Press)

SAN ANGELO, Oct. 23.—Forty minutes after the San Angelo district federal grand jury, Tuesday, returned indictments against four persons, three of them entered pleas of guilty to charges against them and the fourth was acquitted under an instructed verdict, thus clearing the docket of all cases in which indictments were returned by the jury during its October session.

Those indicted were Lee Trulove, for theft of mail from the post office at Eden, Concho county, with four counts listed; Leslie H. Kelly, Coleman county, for using the mails to defraud; Roy Perry, San Angelo, under four counts for selling and purchasing narcotics, and Leon Seely, San Angelo, for selling narcotics.

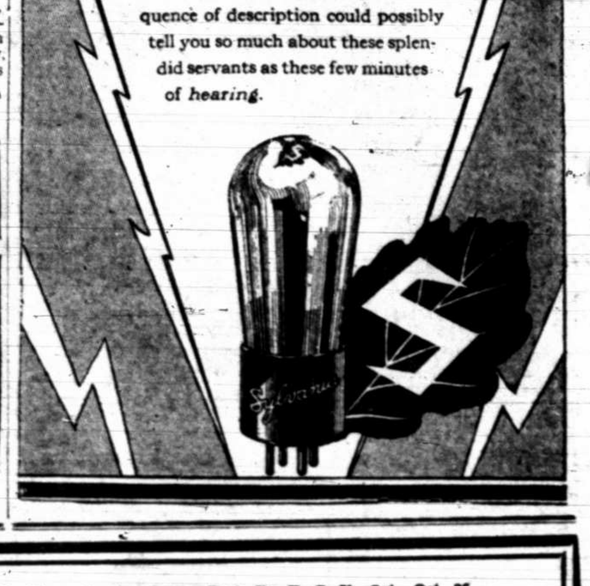

Trulove, Kelly and Seely entered pleas of guilty, with sentences deferred until later, while Perry entered a plea of not guilty, and was acquitted when Judge William H. Atwell took the case out of the hands of the jury just as the defendant was called to the witness stand in his own defense.

Watch Tongue For Signs of Illness

Your tongue is nothing more than the upper end of your stomach and intestines. It is the first thing your doctor looks at. It tells at a glance the condition of your digestive system—and physicians say that 90 per cent of all sicknesses start with stomach and bowel trouble.

Look at your TONGUE every morning!

A white or yellowish coating on your tongue is a danger signal of those digestive disorders. It tells you why the least exertion tires you out; why you have pains in the bowels, gas, sour stomach, dizzy spells.

And it's a sign you need Tanlac. This good old reliable medicine has helped thousands who were physical wrecks. See how the first bottle helps you.

Tanlac contains no mineral drugs; it is made of barks, herbs and roots—nature's own medicines for the sick. Get a bottle from your druggist today. Your money back if it doesn't help you.

Attend the Avalanche-Journal Cooking School and hear Mrs. Dougan tell how easy it is to keep your recipes in good shape.

CHECK BUICK'S CHASSIS

—note its distinctive construction

..then you'll know why more than 2,000,000 people have bought

BUICKS

The world-famous Buick chassis and Buick's smart new Bodies by Fisher! An unrivaled combination! Providing the highest degree of motor car performance and all-round motoring satisfaction, over the greatest number of miles!

The more thoroughly you compare Buick with other cars, the more clearly you will understand why more than 2,000,000 people have bought Buicks—why men and women are buying from two to five times as many Buicks as any other automobile priced above $1200—and why they have purchased more Buicks during the few weeks this brilliant new car has been on the market than in any like period in Buick history.

See the new Buicks and arrange to buy one. Six of the 14 luxurious body types, incorporating all the famous Buick superiorities, are available at prices ranging from $1285 to $1295, f. o. b. factory. All available on the extremely liberal General Motors Time Payment Plan.

Buick's 99-horsepower Valve-in-Head engine is the most powerful engine of its size in the world. It is famous, too, for unrivaled smoothness, economy and stamina. It incorporates such modern engineering advancements as counterweighted crankshaft with torsion balancer, carburetor heat control, positive pressure gas pump, and triple seals against wear.

Buick's new frictionless steering gear imparts matchless steering ease throughout the entire turning range, while the new Buick Road Shock Eliminator absolutely prevents transmission of road jolts and jars to the driver's arms. Twin features which make a tremendous contribution to driving ease and roadability.

Buick's Controlled Servo Enclosed Mechanical Brakes provide the most perfect control ever devised for any automobile. They are smooth, sure, quick in operation, and achieve positive results with minimum pedal pressure. And because they are enclosed—fully protected against dust, dirt and water—they ignore maximum braking efficiency in any weather.

Buick's famous multiple-disc clutch, too, reveals marked superiorities. In addition to being far sturdier than those of conventional design, it imparts exceptional smoothness, due to its special facing which insures gentle, gradual engagement of the driving and driven surfaces.

New, longer rear springs, in conjunction with four new Lovejoy Duo-Lectric Shock Absorbers, impart a comparative degree of riding comfort. These two vital comfort factors work together in perfect harmony to check both bound and rebound over the roughest roads.

Buick's famous torque tube serves two vitally important functions. It not only carries the driving thrust, leaving the rear springs free to cushion the car's progress, but also forms a major unit of the Buick chassis seal. Every moving part of the Buick chassis—from fan to rear wheels—is fully protected against dust, dirt and water, assuring maximum operating efficiency in any weather.

*The engine in the 124- and 131-inch Buicks develops 99 horsepower, and that in the 118-inch Buicks 80½ horsepower.

Beautiful MAGIC CHEF

The new Vogue in Gas Ranges

Is Designed for Your Home

"It Baked the 'Crown Roast' Beautifully"

said Mrs. Dougan yesterday

—the "Crown Roast" we used in Tuesday's demonstration was baked to a rich goodness by the new Magic Chef Gas Range that would arouse the appetite of anyone.

"Of particular value was the new Magic Chef when it came to "baking in" the spices and fruits used to season the roast. Here it is that the true merit of a Gas Range is brought out. Magic Chef stood the test, and is certainly a wonderful product."

Have you seen Magic Chef? If not, it is being used at the cooking school and is designed for your home. Magic Chef is a combination of more than twenty outstanding improvements in stove engineering and design, including the famous Red Wheel heat-controlled oven.

Magic Chef, the New Vogue in Gas Ranges, was designed in the Research Laboratory of American Stove Co., by engineers working in collaboration with Frank Alvah Parsons, B. S., President of the New York School of Fine and Applied Art, and noted authority on Interior Decoration.

A Want Ad Will Find A Buyer

A Want Ad in the Avalanche Journal is worth a hundred "For Sale" signs in the yard. The quickest, surest way to find a buyer for that property you want to sell is to put a clear description of it where the greatest number of interested people are sure to see it.

Experience has proved that The Avalanche-Journal Want Ad section brings the buyers.

VARIOUS SHARES RISE ON MARKET OPENING IN GOTHAM TODAY

NEW YORK, Oct. 23 (AP).—Prices continued their rally with considerable vigor at the opening of the stock market, although further selling cropped out in isolated spots. Stone and Webster jumped 6 points. American telephone and Western Union each 2, St. Joseph Lead, Kennecott, American Tobacco, U. S. Steel, New York Central, Anaconda, Columbia Gas, Packard and Westinghouse Electric mounted 1 to 1 3-4 points. American Machine and Foundry dropped 8 points, Dunhill International 2, and Union Carbide 1 1-4.

The rally which set in late Monday from low levels established in the market's protracted decline, slowed up considerably in the early transactions today.

Declines Made

Early declines of 1 to 2 points in Eastman Kodak, United Carbon, Western Union, Ludlum Steel, Brooklyn Manhattan Transit, Electric Auto Lite and Canada Dry were large cancelled by the end of the first half hour, and Western Union rose 4 points to a new high, while U. S. Steel, American Can, General Electric, Brooklyn Union Gas and Worthington Pump sold up 2 to 2 1-2, and such shares as Simmons, Gillette, Allied Chemical and Delaware and Hudson recorded gains of a point or more.

Foreign exchanges renewed steady to firm, with sterling uncranged at 4.87 11-16.

Postal savings in Japan now total nearly $1,000,000,000.

Amarillo Woman Gains Daily By Taking Orgatone

"I've Never Found Anything To Equal It," She Declared, Suffered Five Years

"If I could speak with everybody personally who has stomach trouble and constipation," said Mrs. J. W. Jones, of 202 Florida Ave., Amarillo, Texas, "I would advise them to take Orgatone, for I have tried it myself, and have never found anything to equal it. I have suffered from sick headaches and kidney trouble during the past five years until I thought I would go distracted. The pain would extend from the small of my back and up my spine until it seemed like to me right at the base of my brain. My appetite was very poor and my stomach was so out of order that what little I did eat made me miserable. I suffered terribly from indigestion and would bloat up so badly from the gas on my stomach that I could scarcely breathe, and there was also a dull aching pain in the pit of my stomach. My complexion was very bad, sallow and yellow looking and I just felt badly all the time.

"But Orgatone has been a wonderful blessing to me and no one could see the change that has taken place in me during the past few weeks and doubt its being a great medicine. All my stomach pains also kidney is gone, now, and you may know I feel like a new person. My appetite is splendid, I am never bothered with indigestion or gas any more, no matter what I eat, and my color is fine. Not only have I been relieved of my kidney and stomach trouble but I have also gained wonderfully in strength, besides. Now, these are my reasons for thinking so well of Orgatone and I will gladly tell anyone who cares to call on me what I have found out by experience about it."

Genuine Orgatone may be bought in Lubbock at Bowens Drug Store. Adv.

CHICAGO GRAIN

CHICAGO, Oct. 23 (AP)—Cutting down of estimates on European import requirements by 48,000,000 bushels led to lower prices early today for wheat.

Opening 1-8 to 5-8c lower, Chicago wheat prices afterward continued to sag. Corn, oats and provisions were relatively firm with corn starting unchanged to 5-8c higher, but subsequently easing somewhat.

COTTON SHOWS SLIGHT LOSS

FIRST TRADES SLIDE DOWNWARD TODAY; REPORT AWAITED

NEW ORLEANS, Oct. 23 (AP).—Owing to lower cables, the cotton market opened easier, first trades showing losses of 5 to 8 points. Although the market rallied slightly owing to overnight buying orders, prices turned easier on realizing and liquidation on fears of large ginnings, likely to be shown by the census report Friday. December traded down to 18.27, January to 18.40 and March to 18.69, or 9 to 13 points down from yesterday's close. At the end of the first hour the market was barely steady and tending slowly downward.

OPENING IS STEADY IN NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Oct. 23. (AP)—The cotton market opened steady and unchanged to a decline of seven points in response to lower cables. Southern selling was a little more in evidence than yesterday while there was some realizing after yesterday's advance and active months sold about 15 to 20 points net lower during the first few minutes with December declining to 18.36 and March to 18.75. A forecast for frost brought in some buying toward the end of the first half hour when prices steadied.

Southern selling increased later, and there was some reselling by yesterday's buyers evidently disappointed by the market. October was relatively weak under active liquidation, selling off to 18.00, or 35 points net lower, while more active positions showed net losses of 19 to 22 points with December selling at 18.29 and March at 18.72. The mid-day market showed rallies of a few points from the lowest.

Christian Leader Urges Church Merger

PIQUA, Ohio, Oct. 23. (AP)—The Rev. Frank G. Coffin, of Columbus, Ohio, president of the general convention of the Christian church, last night urged the convention being held here to vote favorably on a proposed merger of the Christian denomination with the National Council of Congregational churches.

Approval of the merger already has been given by the Congregational group.

Robbers Break Into Depot At Amherst

Local officers were notified last night that robbers broke into the Santa Fe depot at Amherst Sunday night and escaped with $13.48 in cash, together with several articles awaiting delivery.

Entrance was gained by forcing locks on the warehouse and ticket office doors. The bandits ransacked the building, taking only what they considered of value and leaving other articles.

The safe yielded $9.41 in cash, freight and passenger money, while 4.07 represented express receipts.

Other loot included six cartons of cigarettes, property of the M-System store; a ladies' coat, valued at $16, belonging to L. J. Grimes; an automobile battery shipped to C. Turner; a small sealed package addressed to G. G. Williams and valued at $10; two suit cases, one belonging to William Strickland and the other to M. T. Hosea.

Reports stated that the depot at Anton also was burglarized but nothing was missing.

Special Santa Fe officers have conducted an investigation but last night no clues had been located.

JIM FERGUSON THREATENS TO RUN FOR OFFICE

FORMER OFFICIAL GIVES STATEMENT ON COMING RACE

(By Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Oct. 23.—Former Governor James E. Ferguson, for ten years an active figure in Texas politics, today was threatening to run for governor next year. In a formal statement, he outlined what his platform would be in the event he made the race.

He declared that instead of spending $5,000,000 for a new penitentiary plant, he would ask the legislature to appropriate $500,000 with which to fix up buildings at Huntsville. He said he would pardon "about 2,000 of the convicts for good records and good behavior."

He stated that "from many parts of the state my wife and I are getting many letters suggesting that one of us announce for governor."

Evidently indicative that if either should run it would be Mr. Ferguson, rather than Mrs. Ferguson, the statement set out a platform which would be placed before the people.

He said he would veto all legislation with reference to prohibition; favor reduction of the number of public servants and oppose any county official receiving more than $6,000 annually; prohibit any state bank from loaning over ten per cent of its capital and deposits outside of Texas; favor repeal of the law passed by the present legislature prohibiting removal of tenants or laborers without consent of landlords; favor law abolishing present highway commissioners and election of five commissioners who would give full time to duties; favor three cent gasoline tax, and material reduction in automobile registration fees, and favor luxury tax on all factory made cigarets and cigars, the proceeds to go to the common schools.

DAWSON GINS 15,000 BALES

GINS RUNNING NIGHT AND DAY; YIELD TO BE GOOD

(Special to The Journal)

LAMESA, Oct. 23—Fifteen thousand bales of cotton have been ginned in Dawson county to date, according to reports given out here this week. Gins are running night and day in the blast of the cotton ginning season. Nine gins are operating in Lamesa while in the county there are twenty-one. The crop, as estimated some few weeks ago, is turning out better than predicted. Dawson's yield is now placed at 35,000. Last year the production was 30,800. The county is producing plenty of feed for home consumption, but it is thought little feed will be shipped this season. Last year figures show that 2,000 cars of feeds were shipped from the county.

The worst months for automobile fatalities, statistics prove, are the last two of the old year and the first ten of the new year.

Mrs. Dougan tells you all about it at the Cooking School

There is something new in salads and Mrs. Dougan tells you about it at the cooking school this week. Mrs. Dougan will show you how to employ Gebhardt's Eagle Chili Powder in the decoration of salads and how this unusual condiment gives that finishing touch of color so desired.

Be certain to get a copy of "Salads Alluring and New," by Alice Bradley—a beautiful booklet in full color devoted entirely to the art of salad making and decoration.

Gebhardt's Eagle Chili Powder is the Original chili powder—made from only select, genuine Ancho peppers in one of Amerika's finest and cleanest kitchens

Mrs. Dougan uses and recommends all Gebhardt's products because of their unusual quality and deliciousness.
