Local highway projects approved

Nearly $700,000 in new highway construction and existing reconstruction has been approved for Colorado City by the Texas Department of Highways, according to Riley Walker, administrative engineer for the Texas Highway Department in Abilene.

Walker says that Bob and Bobby Nobles of Colorado City was awarded the bid for construction of 1.54 miles of highway linking Interstate 20 and old Highway 80 (loop 377).

The new highway will begin at the Rogers Road exit on I-20 and end just east of the river bridge on old Highway 80.

Walker said Nobles bid $403,967 on the project. Wor' should begin about the last of March or first of April and with 110 days to complete the job.

Herzog Construction was awarded a $280,000 bid to resurface old Highway 80 and part of Highway 208 (Hickory Street). The company will lower the grade of the highway in the downtown area back to its original grade. A fabric underseal will be laid before the highways are given a new coat of asphalt. Walker said the work should begin as soon as the weather becomes warmer and will take no more than 75 working days.

The Rogers Road bid was let February 13 and the Highway 80 and 208 bid let February 11.

He said pre-construction hearings on both projects will be held in Colorado City in the near future.

Walker called the new highway linking I-20 and U.S. 80 a "metroplitan" highway which will be a two-lane highway with paved shoulders. He said the "metropolitan" status was used in order to obtain the necessary federal funds. He explained any town with a population of 5,000 or more can be designated a metropolitan area when applying for federal highway funds.

B. R. Lindley of Big Spring is the highway department's engineer in charge of supervising the two projects.

In addition to improving the roadways, the work could generate about eight construction-site jobs while the projects are under way. According to recent reports from the Federal Highway Administration, an estimated 13 jobs are created for every $1 million in construction contracts in the southwestern United States. A job is defined as 1,600 person-hours per year.

VOLUNTEER FIREMEN battled a motorhome fire Wednesday afternoon on Hickory Street between 13th and 14th streets. The motor home was completely destroyed by the blaze, but the occupants were unhurt. Firemen battled a numer of other fires during the week including a fire which destroyed a car on Interstate 20 earlier Wednesday and a number of grass fires. The warm weather coupled with lack of rain has contributed to the large number of grass fires, firemen note.

Local Jaycess sponsor 'Mud-Bog'

The Mitchell County Jaycees will sponsor a "Mud-Bog" Sunday, March 23 beginning at 1 p.m. at the rodeo arena on West Highway 80.

Gates will open at noon with races to begin at 1 p.m. Registration for entries will be from 10 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Proceeds will be used to benefit the Jaycee Scholarship Fund and the Colorado City Volunteer Fire Department Fund.

Tickets are $5 per person. Entry fee is $15 per class entered. The $15 entry fee will admit the driver and one crew member.

A variety of classes will be competing including:

–Class 1 - 4 to 6 cylinder, stock, 35-inch or small tires;

–Class 2 - 8 cylinder, stock, 35-inch or smaller tires, no internal modifications;

–Class 3 - 4 to 8 cylinder, modified, 36-44-inch street legal tires;

–Class 4 - 8 cylinder, modified 38-44-inch street legal tires;

–Class 5 - 4-wheel drive open.

Classes 1-4 must be street legal and all entries must have seat belts and helmets.

Trophies will be awarded for first, second and third places in classes 1-4. Prize money of $100 for first, $75 for second and $50 for third will be awarded in Class 5.

Public Schools Week

Open house set at schools

STEPHEN F. AUSTIN surveys the location for his colony in the stage production of "Texas: The New Frontier!" coming to CHS on Friday.

Open houses are planned at Kelley and Hutchinson elementary schools Tuesday in observance of Texas Public Schools Week.

CISD Supt. Charlie Uselton said the open houses will be from 6:30-8 p.m. at both schools and that the public is invited.

"We also invite all the parents to visit the schools during the week and to come and eat lunch with us sometime during the week," said Uselton. "Of course, parents are always welcomed to visit the schools, but especially during this week."

Parents wishing to eat lunch with their children at school should call the day before to make reservations, he explained.

Open house at the middle school and high school will be at a later date, said Uselton.

However, the stage production of "Texas: The New Frontier" will be presented at the high school Friday for students in

CHS students perform with all-state bands

Lisa Garner and Jody Webb, members of the Colorado High School Band, were chosen to perform with the Texas All-State Concert and Symphonic Bands in San Antonio on Saturday, February 15 as part of the 1986 Texas Music Educators Association Convention meeting there. They were chosen for the honor in competitive auditions of over 1,000 students held earlier this year across the state at District, Regional, and Area levels.

The All-State Concert and Symphonic Bands represent the finest high school musicians in the State of Texas and to be selected is the highest individual honor a student can receive. Lisa was selected to be first (1st) chair piccolo in the Symphonic Band and Jody was selected to be eleventh (11th) chair clarinet in the concert band. Lisa studies privately with Ms. Helen Blackburn of Abilene, and has been selected twice for this honor. Jody studies privately with Mr. Franklin of Snyder, and is making his first appearance on the State level.

Lisa is the granddaughter of Willie and Marcella Garner, who reside at 128 E. 9th St. in Colorado City. She is also active in Student Council, One Act Play, and is a member of the First United Methodist Church.

Jody is the son of Raymond and Jane Webb, who reside at 830 E. 11th St. in Colorado City. He is also active in tennis and is a member of the First Baptist Church.

RIBBON cutting ceremonies were held Wednesday for the new owners and operator of Heads Up Beauty Shop located on Hickory Street in the shopping center with R&W Mini-Mart. The shop is owned by Wilford Oyler and Sharon Connell. Mrs. Connell runs the shop on Saturday and on the other five days a week, Janet Light operates the shop.

Celebrating Texas education:

One hundred and fifty years ago, early Texas settlers declared their independence from Mexico. One of the grievances that they listed in the Texas Declaration of Independence was Mexico's failure to provide a public education to their children.

The first state constitution provided for the establishment of an educational fund for children of indigent parents. In 1854, $2 million set up the first Texas school districts. The Texas Constitution written in 1876 provided for a perpetual public school fund. The student population of Texas has grown from 65,463 in 1854 to well over 3 million students today. Texas Public Schools Week was established to coincide with the March 2nd anniversary celebration of Texas Independence Day.

While public education is often criticized, research has shown that the public's confidence in public schools is higher than their confidence in the press, the Supreme Court, the president and his cabinet and even Congress. In the 1985 Gallup Poll of the public's attitudes toward the public schools, the majority of those interviewed rated the schools with an "A" or "B". As recently as 1969, only 13 percent of the public rated their schools that high. This shows a dramatic increase of public confidence in their schools.

Many people, in criticizing public schools, are quick to recall "the good old days." However, nationally in the 1900s, only 64.1 percent of the students enrolled in school actually attended. By comparison, in 1982, 90.2 percent of the enrolled students attended class. In recent polls, the public made it clear that the goal of developing the best educational system in the world is very important. In fact, education was deemed to be more important than developing the most efficient industrial production system or building the strongest military force.

The public - parents, non-parents, business leaders, and even those with children in private schools - clearly feel that the money spent on education is an investment in America. Working together, we can be sure that our schools will be even better in the months, years, and generations to come. In this Texas Sesquicentennial year, we invite you to "Celebrate Texas Education" with us during Texas Public Schools Week - March 3-7.

grades 4-12.

The play will conclude Texas Public Schools Week and be a kick-off to the Sesquicentennial activities.

There will be two performances, one at 11 a.m. for high school students, and one at 1 p.m. for students in grades 4-8.

The play will be presented by Adventure Theatre, Inc. of Amarillo and will tour Texas for six weeks. The cast of six will perform as an ensemble, with each actor playing several different roles. A narrator will help with transitions between scenes as the play moves between the years of 1823 and 1836.

Teachers will have a lesson guide prior to the performance so that the play can be incorporated into this week's lesson plans.

Cook's Corner

Solomon limited on cooking time

Chamber of Commerce manager Penny Solomon enjoys cooking, but a busy schedule limits the time she gets to spend in the kitchen. "I really can't remember when I haven't been cooking. My mother taught us how to cook at very early ages and I have been cooking ever since."

"There were four children in my family and we all helped to some extent with the meals," she says. "I actually taught my brother how to cook after he went to college and he turned out to be a better cook than I am. They say that some of the best chefs are men, and I think that men like to use more herbs and spices and their food naturally tastes better than women's."

"Breads are one of my favorite foods to prepare," she notes. "I used to work in a dress shop and I had one day a week off. Making bread on that day was good therapy for me. I like the method you use in making bread such as kneading and I think that serves as a type of therapy for most people."

"I think that women don't get to spend the time in the kitchen that they used to," she observes. "As life styles change, we have started using quicker, simplier recipes. I use faster recipes to prepare because I just don't have the time to spend on preparing dishes that call for a lot of preparation time."

"I do prepare a very special recipe for Scottish shortbread around Christmas time," she says. "I had a boss one time that was of Scottish decent. A lady from Scotland visited him one day at the office and brought him some Scottish shortbread. He shared a small piece of the shortbread with me and that was all he would let me have. He really liked it and I thought I would make some for him and his wife for a Christmas present. I wrote to the lady in Scotland for the recipe. She was reluctant to give it to me until she found out the reason I wanted it. It took me a month and a half to get it. She gave it to me under the condition that I not give it to anyone else. I make it for friends and family and only give it for presents. The Scottish always have the shortbread with wine on New Year's Eve to toast the new year in so it is a very special dish to them."

"I also prepare a cinnamon tea ring for my sister and family and enjoy making that type of bread," she says.

She is sharing some of her favorite recipes with RECORD readers today.

WHY X-RAYS

Misalignments of the spinal vertebrae, causing pressure or irritation to the nerves within the spine or as they leave the spine, can cause many diseases. The diseases are not only of the spine and nearby areas, but also throughour the body where the nerves might extend.

X-rays of the spines are used to analyze the position of the bones of the spine in order to locate any misalignments. Your Chiropractor's adjustment can correct any spinal misalignment. The adjustment will remove nerve pressures or irritations. The result is relief from pain and discomfort. Normal health is resored, and with no drugs and no surgical procedures.

NOW SEE THIS!
KIDS!!!!
Last week I wrote an article on vision problems of grade school children. When my wife read the article she asked me if I remembered the year our daughter came home from grade school with a note stating she had failed her school vision test. How embarrasing! "The Cobbler's kids have no shoes." Fact was that my kid had taken the vision test without her glasses. What glasses?? She neglected to tell anyone that she needed to wear her glasses. I'm sure those glasses were tucked safely away in her purse or lunch box or perched on some other kid's face. That same kid is facing her own grade school class this year and denies that story. But — it's true! So . . if your kid wears glasses or contact lenses be sure to inform his/her teacher.. Contact lenses?? Yes! A few weeks ago I had a kid in my office who had been wearing her friend's contact lenses and wanted some just like them. Kids!!!

Meet your Chamber members

Bob Reily

"It is exciting to serve as president at a time when the attitude of the chamber, indeed the entire community, is one of optimism and cooperation," says Bob Reily, president of the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce.

Elected president at the February 6 meeting of the board of directors, Reily has been working closely with members of his executive committee to establish a plan of action and working committees for 1986. Efforts of the Chamber of Commerce will be concentrated in three major areas--Community Development, Economic Development and Organizational Affairs.

"The chamber can, and should, serve as a vehicle through which all segments of the county can work together for our common good," adds Reily. Plans are underway to encourage greater participation in community and economic development programs through the chamber. Individuals, as well as businesses, throughout the county are urged to join with other concerned and interested citizens in helping to make their home a better place in which to live and work. "Together We're Better", the 1986 theme for the chamber, sums up the chamber's desire to do for our community what no individual person or business could do alone.

Reily is district agent for Prudential Insurance Company, and has been employed by Prudential for 28 years.

Active in community efforts, Reily has served as chairman of the Centennial "Boom Town Revue", the Tumbleweed Festival, and the Mitchell County Fair. He served on the Colorado City Industrial Team since 1982, Mitchell County Hospital Board since 1967 and as a member of the Lions Club since 1953. Since 1971, Reily has served as chairman of the Mitchell County Republican Party. Reily has been an active chamber member for several years and served as vice president in 1962.

"The small town must work hard to stay even," says Reily, "progress takes greater effort." That is what the Colorado City Area Chamber of Commerce is doing--working harder for your community.

Baptist Women meet

The Baptist Women of Mitchell County met Monday night, January 24 at the First Baptist Church for a book study of "Servants Like Him."

About 36 women attended from churches from Plainview, Loraine, Emmanuel Mission, Calvary Mission and First Baptist. The Susan Evermon Circle was hostess and served a cherry o'cheese dessert with coffee and hot apple cider.

Billie Roenfeldt led the group in a song and presented missionaries with birthdays. Joy Pi'and led in prayer.

Betsy Aycock was in charge of the study and was assisted by Earline Sellier, Jean Edwards, Betty Shawn, Anna Staats, Connie Waldrip and Lucy Thomas.

The book review told of several home missionaries who serve in capacities of a bi-vocational pastor, director of mission service corps and social ministries, a lay renewal witness, a mission service volunteer, a covenant peoples church and a missionary to the Indians.

The study preceeds the Annie Armstrong Easter offering in all Southern Baptist Churches. The offering makes up nearly one-half the Home Mission Board's income.

Children look for praise

By Debbie Christian
County Extension Agent

Bringing home a report card can be one of the trials of childhood--especially if the grades are less than perfect.

Children are anxious for their parents' reaction to a report card. And how parents react can be encouraging or discouraging to the child.

Parents who praise children for doing their best give them a sense of accomplishment and self-worth. But when praise is coupled with statements like "you can do better than that," the encouragement can be erased by the implication that what has been done is not good enough.

The child begins to feel that he or she is being compared either with someone else or to someone else's standards. Comparisons are harmful. Children may react by not improving their school work. Or they may think that unless they're perfect, they're a failure.

Comparisons tend to divide children into successes and failures. When a child fails to accomplish a certain goal, parents need to express concern but avoid labeling the child as a failure.

Separate the low grade from the child. Failure indicates a lack of preparation or skill, not a lack of value in the person.

Obviously, comparisons do occur in the "real world." But the less comparison inside the home, the better the child can face comparison outside the home.

A report card is simply a statement of educational attainment--or lack of it--over a short period of 6-9 weeks. It gives children and parents the opportunity to determine goals and work toward improvement during the next grading period.

CMS hosts Rotan for tennis match

Colorado Middle School hosted Rotan for a dual tennis match Thursday at the high school courts and prevailed in eight of the 11 matches.

In eighth grade singles, Scott Walker defeated Aaron Porter 6-1, Kevin Lamb defeated Porter 6-4 and Tammy Loving defeated Shannon Boone 6-5.

In eighth doubles, Jim Bob Magill-Brannon Daniels defeated Pat Moffet-Junior Almanza 6-0, Cody Calaway-Debbie Gardner defeated Kathy Jones-Ester Guerra 6-0 and Michelle Mitchell-Candy Hudson defeated Selina Morales-Tiny Carreon 6-3.

In seventh grade singles, Sheila Cawthron defeated Priscilla Gonzales 6-2 and Amber Mayfield defeated Kelly King 6-3.

Rotan took victories in seventh grade doubles where Vanessa Peek-Shannon Hull defeated Tiffany Rose-Marcia Cawthron 6-4, Boone-Jones defeated Nikki Findley-Janet Peterson 6-1 and Debra Martinez-Guerra defeated Elizabeth Graham-Terry Palmer 6-0.

Audelia Rivera named award winner

Colorado High School student Audelia Rivera has been named a United States National award winner in business education by the United States Achievement Academy.

Rivera was nominated for the award by Mrs. Joan Lemons, CHS office machines and procedures and computer teacher.

Rivera's name will appear in the United States Achievement Academy yearbook, published nationally.

The academy selects USAA winners upon the exclusive recommendation of teachers, coaches, counselors or other school sponsors and upon the standards of selection set forth by the academy. The criteria for selection are a student's academic performance, interest and aptitude, leadership qualities, responsibility, enthusiasm, motivation to learn and improve, citizenship, attitude and cooperative spirit, dependability and recommendation from a teacher or director.

Rivera is the daughter of Joe and Gregoria Rivera and the granddaughter of Jose and Josepha Franco of Colorado City.

Student of the Week

Barber to continue family tradition by becoming lawyer

Colorado High School senior Rhonda Barber, 17, hopes to continue a family tradition by eventually becoming a lawyer.

Rhonda, daughter of Pat and Sharon Barber, is planning on attending the University of Texas at Austin following high school graduation and major in psychology.

"After I get a degree in psychology, I want to go to law school at Baylor University," she explains.

"I think the study of the human mind would be interesting," she says of her anticipated major, adding that the study of psychology "helps in picking a jury."

Rhonda is active in a variety of school activities including the tennis team, band, speech and Spanish Club. She also is a reporter for the student newspaper, the "Howl."

Her hobbies include writing, playing the flute, riding horses and sailing.

She's been on the varsity tennis team for three years and describes it as "a challenge," adding that "it's fun and I like the camaraderie of a team."

She's played flute in the band since middle school. "I like to play and I enjoy making something musical," she explains.

She's been active in UIL speech contests since she was a sophomore when she was asked to be a debate partner by a senior student. "I like speaking," she explains. "Last year and this year, I did persuasive speaking."

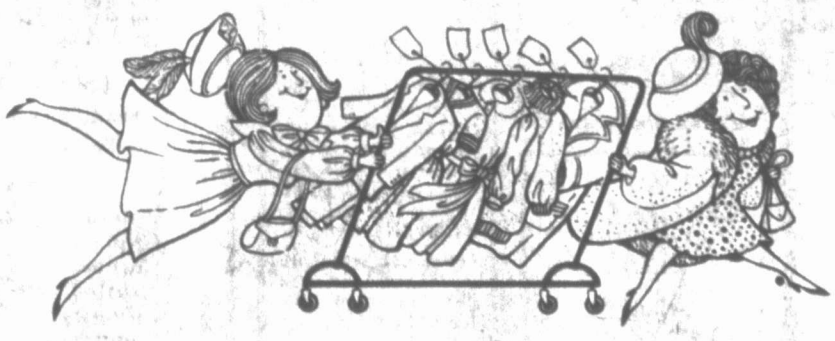

This is her first semester to report for the "Howl" and she's had to adjust from writing creatively to reporting.

Rhonda says she's enjoyed CHS--"I like the activities I'm in. At some schools, they try to limit you to one activity," adding however, that sometimes she has to choose between activities because of conflicts in schedules.

Another reason she likes CHS, she says, is because "you stand out more if you're good at something--you're not average."

Help is available for business owners

The Internal Revenue Service provides new or recently established small business owners and self-employed taxpayers with a number of references and programs to enhance the taxpayers' knowledge of the tax law and how it relates to their businesses.

Throughout the year local IRS offices sponsor free tax workshops in which participants learn about record-keeping and accounting practices, keeping track of expenses and income, and tax filing requirements, including employment tax returns.

Instructors cover employer tax responsibilities extensively. IRS also offers free IRS Publications to aid the small business taxpayer. Publication 334, Tax Guide for Small Business, goes into detail on such subjects as setting up a tax record system, determination of net income, and tax credits and business assets. Publication 583, Information for Business Taxpayers, explains what a small business owner needs to know to meet tax obligations, such as how to obtain identification numbers and what records should be kept.

Taxpayers can obtain information on the above subjects by writing or calling the IRS.

HARD WORK HELPS KEEP THE COST OF ELECTRICITY DOWN.

Our commitment to controlling the cost of electricity is paying off. We haven't said much lately about all the things we're doing to keep the cost of electricity as low as possible. That isn't because we haven't been working hard. We have been, and it's that hard work that gets the job done.

You pay less for the electricity you use than many people in the United States, which is an important factor contributing to the economic growth of the area.

We've accomplished this with strict cost-control management; with low-cost strategies for meeting future needs; by making maximum use of lower-cost Texas lignite coal for generating fuel; and by taking advantage of current market conditions to lower the cost of natural gas fuel.

Meeting the electrical requirements of one of the fastest-growing areas in the nation, while holding down the cost of electricity to attract new industry and jobs to our area, requires planning, commitment and plain old Texas hard work. That's how we're doing the job.

COMING SOON!!
WHIRLA-WHIP'S EXCLUSIVE PRESSURE WHIPPING
Ice cream tastes creamy and rich because it contains a lot of butterfat and is whipped to include huge amounts of air.
Whirla-Whip gets its smooth creamy richness from fresh milk and cream, pressure whipped in the unique Whirla-Whip dispenser ... the secret of Whirla-Whip's remarkable quality.
Pressure whipping makes Whirla-Whip extra solid packed — less fat and only half as much air as in ordinary ice cream is needed to make Whirla-Whip smoother and creamier tasting than the finest of premium ice creams. You get less fat and less air, but more wholesome dairy products in every serving of Whirla-Whip ... with a calorie count similar to yogurt!
Talk about delicious! Pressure-whipping makes flavors taste better too! The fruits, nuts or candies used to create Whirla-Whip's unlimited flavors are never hard frozen as in ordinary ice cream. The full delightful flavor of fresh fruits, nuts or candies really comes through!
OLD-FASHIONED GOODNESS
Unique Whirla-Whip is based upon an old fashioned homemade ice cream recipe which has been enjoyed by generations since it was originated by Grandma Ellen Reed on the Reed farm way back in 1900!
This old time natural recipe calls for a full cup of fresh cream to each four cups of fresh milk, with no fillers, substitutes or preservatives.
Then — only half as much air as in modern ice cream is whipped in during the freezing.
Finally, real fruits, nuts or candies are whipped right in to your individual serving. So you may revel in unlimited flavors!
