Vandenberg Scores New Anti-Red Plan

Solon Doubts Proposed Veto-Free, 11-Member Combine Constitutional

By ED CREAGH
Associated Press Staff Writer

WASHINGTON, March 3—Chairman Vandenberg (R-Mich) of the Senate Foreign Relations committee today challenged a proposal to set up a new international agency with power to resist Communism by force of arms.

Questioning whether the measure was constitutional, Vandenberg said on the Senate floor:

"What overwhelms me is the asking of Congress, on 24 hours' notice, to accept a formula which would commit the United States to war on the vote of foreign countries."

Plan Debated

Senator Ball (R-Minn) introduced the measure as an amendment to the $5,300,000,000 Marshall plan bill.

It would set up an 11-member "supreme council," outside the United Nations, to resist "subversion" or "aggression." And, no country would have veto power.

The amendment was debated during a day filled with foreign aid developments.

Secretary of State Marshall asked Congress for $20,000,000 in economic aid to the British-American zone of Trieste for the 15 months beginning April 1.

Area Can't Support Self

Marshall said in letters to Vandenberg and House Speaker Martin (R-Mass) that the area, which lies between Italy and Yugoslavia, is "not presently able to support itself."

There were these other developments:

First, Britain's borrowed billions ran out.

The $3,750,000,000 loaned by the U. S. 19 months ago reached zero, the treasury announced, with a final $100,000,000 withdrawal.

Faces Bankruptcy

Bankruptcy, a British government white paper forecast a few days ago, now lies ahead unless new dollar help comes quickly under the Marshall plan.

Secondly, General Douglas MacArthur messaged the House Foreign Affairs committee that he couldn't return from Tokyo just now to advise on Chinese aid and other far eastern problems.

But he told the committee, which had invited his views, that it should not "underrate" China's needs.

Gen. Claire Chennault messaged that he will return from China to discuss the aid question. The administration has asked $570,000,000 in non-military help for China's anti-Communist government.

Thirdly, Secretaries Marshall

Three Injured In Car Crash

(Special To The Avalanche)

LEVELLAND, March 3—Three persons were injured, and three narrowly escaped injury, in an automobile collision on the west edge of Smyer, 11 miles east of here on the Lubbock highway, about 5:30 o'clock this afternoon.

Most seriously injured was Mrs. J. D. Nichols, of Ropesville, who suffered severe scalp lacerations, slashed right ear, and a dislocated left hip. Mr. Nichols, about 32, driver of the car, was not injured.

Collision Almost Head-On

In the other automobile, I. L. Eskew, 58, of Pettit, and W. W. Fred, 33, of Pettit, each suffered a broken hip. Other occupants of the car, owned by Fred, were Mrs. Eskew, and Fred's two children, all of whom escaped injury.

The victims were taken to Phillips-Dupre hospital at Levelland following the accident.

According to investigating officers of the State Highway patrol, the accident was almost a head-on collision.

Cars Badly Damaged

They said that Nichols, going east in a 1932 Chevrolet coupe, was making a left turn toward another road leading into Smyer, with perhaps the intention of stopping at the Woods grocery and service station located at the intersection.

As he began to turn, his car collided with the 1946 Chevrolet coach driven by Fred, the highway patrol said. Fred was accompanied by his two children and Mr. and Mrs. Eskew.

Both automobiles were badly damaged. Fred's car was smashed on the left front side, and Nichols' car on the right side.

Hog Prices Show Sharp Declines

CHICAGO, March 3 (AP)—Hog prices broke sharply at midwest markets today. Most commodities slipped lower.

Heavy marketing of hogs caused the slump in hog prices. At Sioux City, Ia., the decline was $2.50 a hundred pounds. Prices dipped $1 to $1.25 at Chicago; $1 to $2 at St. Joseph, Mo.; 75 cents to $1.50 at Omaha; $1.25 to $1.75 at St. Louis and $1.50 to $2.50-5 Kansas City.

Cattle prices were steady to 25 cents higher at Chicago, and lamb prices held steady.

Cotton, Wheat Decline

Wheat closed 2 to 3¼ cents a bushel lower on the Chicago board of trade, with other grains mixed in prices. Corn was 1¼ to 1 cent higher, oats were ⅝ lower to ⅜ higher and soybeans were 1 to 1½ higher.

Cotton futures finished 50 cents to $1.15 a bale lower in New York and 40 to 70 cents lower in New Orleans.

Wholesale meat prices were slightly higher in Chicago and New York.

Fractional advances and declines were fairly well scattered on the New York Stock exchange. The Associated Press weighted

Truman, In Good Shape, Ready For Return To Capital Friday

KEY WEST, Fla., March 3 (AP)—President Truman tipped the scales at 173 pounds today, to near fighting trim.

Word that he has dropped three pounds since flying to Florida last Wednesday came from the commandant's quarters at this submarine base where he is vacationing.

He will fly back to Washington Friday where he will meet with his cabinet at 3 p. m. (CST). It will be the first cabinet session since he left Washington February 20 for a visit to Puerto Rico and the Virgin islands.

Brig. General Wallace H. Graham, Mr. Truman's physician, said his charge was "in excellent shape" today.

Testimony In Negro's Trial Opens At Tulia

TULIA, March 3 (AP)—Selection of a jury was completed and testimony of nine state witnesses was heard this afternoon in the trial of Harold Long, Lubbock negro, in 64th district court here.

Long is charged with murder without malice in connection with the death of Mrs. Walter T. Rogers, 60, of Lubbock, who was killed almost instantly when the car in which she was riding collided with the Long car Jan. 17, 1947, on highway 87 about 5 miles south of Tulia.

The husband of the dead woman testified he and Mrs. Rogers were returning from Claude to Lubbock when the accident occurred. He said he observed the negro's car approaching on the wrong side of the road but was unable to avoid the crash.

Other witnesses testified the weather had been foggy and snowing and the highway slippery. Two additional state witnesses are schedlued to be heard when trial is resumed tomorrow before Judge C. D. Russell.

Dist. Atty. Harold LaFont is prosecutor. The defendant is represented by Col. E. A. Simpson and E. T. Miller of Amarillo.

Violence Marks Arrival Of UN Officials

14 Killed As Blast Rocks Big Building

By CARTER L. DAVIDSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

JERUSALEM, March 3—A truck laden with 400 pounds of explosives blasted a seven-story Arab building in Haifa today, killing 14 Arabs and injuring 27.

The violence coincided with the arrival here of the first representatives of the United Nations commission which will attempt to work out partition of the Holy Land.

Six members of the commission secretariat moved into a private apartment in the area of the King David hotel, under heavy police guard. They were taken in armored cars to their barbed wire enclosed residence.

Stern Gang Admits Blast

The Jewish Stern gang claimed it is responsible for the Haifa blast. The explosion gutted the seven-story Salameh building and damaged others for four blocks along Stanton street, a mixed Jewish and Arab section. One of the damaged buildings was the district police headquarters. The blast crumpled in the front half of a building across the street. The Salameh structure houses the Arab section of the government welfare office.

A Stern gang communique said the Salameh building was the Haifa district headquarters for an Arab military group under the direction of Syrian and Iraqi officers. A police official said the statement was "nonsense," and that until recently the building, one of the city's tallest, had been used as a British army observation post.

Children Among Victims

It was the Stern gang that claimed responsibility for the blowing up of the troop train near Rehovot Sunday that killed 28 British soldiers.

Police said many children were among today's blast victims.

The blast shook the entire Haifa port area. Jewish scources said a five-year-old was killed in the Hadar Carmel Jewish section in sniping that broke out after the explosion.

Eyewitnesses said two army-tyue trucks came up the street prior to the explosion. The driver of the lead truck, in Arab dress, parked it at the Salameh building and got into the second truck.

Army bulldozers and rescue workers dug into the litter of rock and plaster in their search for

Alimony Defendant Fails To Put Wife On Vegetable Diet

(By The Associated Press)

SAN JOSE, Calif., March 3.—Vegetable packer Sam Lobue told the divorce court it would be impossible for him to pay his wife $140 a month alimony. However, he could let her take it out in vegetables.

Her attorney urged that would put Lobue in the position of dictating her diet—broccoli today, beans tomorrow, and the like.

"My client needs money, not rutabagas," said the attorney.

Judge Leonard R. Avila agreed. He ordered Lobue to pay $110 a month in cash pending the divorce action. Any vegetables Lobue contributed would be without judicial credit.

Scientists Join Condon Defense

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Atomic scientists rushed to the defense of Dr. Edward U. Condon today, and it was disclosed that an FBI report said there was no evidence Condon was disloyal in his alleged association with a Russian spy suspect.

The chief of the Bureau of Standards was pictured by the Federation of American Scientists as the victim of a "deliberate smear." It assailed a report of a House un-American Activities subcommittee which had said he mingled with alleged Russian agents.

No Evidence Found

The House group's chairman, Rep. J. Parnell Thomas (R-NJ), conceded today that the report had omitted the favorable reference to Condon in quoting from a letter by FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover.

Thomas explained that an investigator had copied only parts of the Hoover letter, and said the subcommittee used all that it had in making its report.

Letter Said Critical

"A further check discloses," he said, "that while Hoover did say there was no evidence that Condon had been disloyal in associating with this one individual, the tenor of the rest of the three and a half pages is entirely different. Its tone is certainly critical of Condon and his activities."

McCabe's Fitness For Federal Reserve Post Under Question

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—A probe into the fitness of Thomas B. McCabe for a Federal Reserve board post today turned into a barrage of charges that surplus property sales in China were badly handled.

McCabe is President Truman's choice for head of the board. If he is confirmed by the Senate, he will succeed Marriner S. Eccles. The Senate Banking committee is checking on his record.

Senator Tobey (R-NH) said he wants (1) to investigate McCabe's fitness for the job, and (2) find out what led Mr. Truman to demote Eccles to the vice chairmanship.

In a 10,000-word statement, Tobey said McCabe, while head of the war surplus sales abroad, ordered 11 nearly new B-25 bombers destroyed.

He said this was to "forestall bad publicity" as a result of their sale to a private Chinese firm.

Today, McCabe said this was all news to him.

Hurbert R. Moody, a member of the staff of the Senate Expenditures committee, testified that a long series of "serious irregularities" took place in surplus

Czech Diplomats In U. S., Canada, Resign

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—A Czech resistance movement in exile was seen as a possibility today after two ranking diplomats resigned in protest against Communist seizure of Czechoslovakia.

Ambassador Juraj Slavik resigned in Washington "to fight for a free Czechoslovakia."

In Ottawa, Dr. Frantisek Nemec resigned as minister to Canada. He said the first secretary, the commercial attache and three minor members of his staff resigned with him.

Nemec said he did not agree with the "methods by which the new government has been formed . . . I was, am and will always be for democratic principles."

Troops Restore Order In Gold Coast After 25 Killed In Riots

ACCRA, Gold Coast, March 3 (AP)—Troops with shoot to kill orders restored order in Accra today following a weekend of rioting in which 25 persons were killed and several hundred wounded.

Police and British colonial officials still were mystified as to the cause of the disorders.

All Accra's hospitals are jammed with wounded, including many women and children.

Police said at least 50,000 of Accra's 73,000 residents were rioting early Sunday, at the height of the disorders. Even bow and arrow fighting tribesmen from the northern sector of the colony took part.

Demos In North Join Revolt Against Truman

Virginia Ban Is Dropped

(By The Associated Press)

RICHMOND, Va., March 3—Governor William M. Tuck gave full approval tonight to a complete substitute proposal for his "anti-Truman" election law bill opening the way for the appearance of the President's name on the November ballot.

At the same time the governor defended the "broad objectives" of the original bill while conceding it may have been loosely drawn in some respects.

"The revised draft," he said, "should remove all objections which could be raised by any reasonable citizen, cognizant of the peril which confronts us in the form of the so-called 'civil rights' program of President Truman now pending in Congress."

The new bill, however, still reserves to the state party conventions the authority to instruct electors on how to vote for president and vice president in the electoral college. The names of the electors and for whom they have been instructed to vote shall be filed with the state board of elections at least 30 days before the presidential election.

Petitions Permitted

Even if the Democratic electors should be instructed to vote for someone other than the national Democratic nominee the name of President Truman could go on the ballot—but not as the candidate of the Democratic party of Virginia.

Mr. Truman could get on the ballot under the new proposal that any party could qualify with a petition of one thousand names or more but not under the name of any existing party.

The new bill also would permit any party to present a slate of candidates and electors which polled five per cent of the last general election vote, instead of the 10 per cent in the original bill. They also could qualify by petition, opening the way for Henry Wallace's third party to appear.

The first bill, which excluded the Wallace party, later was amended to permit any party to appear on the presidential ballot which had qualified in 10 other states.

Under the substitute proposal

Paroles Probe Claimed Blocked

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—Chairman Hoffman (R-Mich) accused the Justice department today of putting "an iron curtain" in the way of his committee's investigation of the paroling of four former Al Capone gangsters.

Attornel General Tom Clark hotly denied it. He also said it the committee turns up "any evidence that warrants an indictment, you can bet your bottom dollar there will be one."

Gag Is Denied

Hoffman said individuals in the FBI and the Internal Revenue bureau have told him, "we can give you plenty of information if you'll just get the gag off."

"I have no gag on anyone, in or out of the department," retorted Clark.

Hoffman's committee is trying to learn whether there was any "bribery or corruption" in the paroling of the ex-mobsters.

Maury Hughes, a Dallas lawyer who described himself as a lifelong friend of Clark, testified yesterday that he obtained dismissal of a mail fraud indictment against the four men, thus paving the way for the four men's parole.

Light Snow Forecast For Area Today

Cold Weather Grips Panhandle, Plains

OCCASIONAL snow flurries and colder weather were forecast for Lubbock and the South Plains today, as a mild norther moved across the Panhandle and on down state with low hanging clouds, snow and winds in its wake.

Snow, which was reported at scattered points in the Panhandle late Wednesday, moved as far south as Plainview, a light fall having been recorded there about 7 o'clock last night. Pampa reported dust, fog and blowing and drifting snow earlier in the night, the weather bureau station north of the city said at midnight.

The maximum temperature today was expected to be in the low thirties, with occasional strong winds possibly up to 30 miles an hour. But the pinch of the cold wave will come tonight when the mercury is expected to nosedive to 18 or below, the weatherman said, buttoning up another coat.

The reading at 12:30 a. m. was 29 degrees. At no time during the day did the reading go above 38 degrees, hovering near freezing most of the day.

Heavy snow drifts were reported last night at Tucumcari, N. M., with somewhat lighter fall at Clayton.

Today's light flurries were expected to extend as far south as Big Spring. However, a break in the cold wave was forecast by Friday afternoon. The precipitation in the area was not expected to be heavy, however, the Weather bureau said

Most of the rest of the state was expected to be covered by the

CIO Meat Packing Workers To Walk Out On March 16

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, March 3—A CIO union called a nationwide strike of its 100,000 meat packing plant workers today for March 16.

The strike of CIO United Packinghouse workers was directed against Armour and company, Cudahy Packing company, Swift and company, Wilson and company, John Morrell and company, Hy-Grade Food Products corporation and other independent companies throughout the nation. The union called it to enforce demands for a 29 cents an hour wage increase.

Shortage Is Feared

A strike would cut the nation's consumer meat supply about in half, with the east feeling the pinch more than other sections, industry sources said. A shortage of fresh meats would hit the average household within a few days after any work stoppage.

The AFL Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher workmen of North America already have signed an agreement covering 40,000 packing plant workers. They were granted wage boosts of 9 cents an hour with the right to reopen the wage question in June.

Patrick E. Gorman, secretary-treasurer of the AFL union, said his members are "well satisfied" with their contract and will remain on the job.

Profits Claimed High

Both the CIO and AFL meat packing plant workers unions struck two years ago, tying up most production for several days. The strike ended after the government seized the strikebound plants.

Ralph Helstein, president of the CIO union, said the strike is set for 12:01 a. m. March 16.

Helstein said two-thirds of the union's members earned less than $1.10 an hour and that "since 1939 the big companies have increased their profits well over 300 per cent while their stockholders enjoyed a 24 per cent return on their investment before tax deductions."

Church Women Of Texas Okay Civil Rights Proposals

DALLAS, March 3 — The Texas Council of Church Women today endorsed six civil rights points, but an official said the action was not linked with any political program.

However, the official, Mrs. C. G. Eidson of Waco, agreed that, in effect, the women had endorsed President Truman's civil rights program. Mrs. Eidson is first vice-president and chairman of the council's legislative committee.

The council claims 800,000 members in Texas from practically all protestant denominations.

No Opposing Votes

The six points were approved without a dissenting vote by 155 delegates. Most of them came here to the annual three-day conference from eighty affiliated city and county councils. The conference was in its second day.

Mrs. George Jester, Corsicana, mother of Gov. Beauford Jester of Texas, sent her membership dues by mail to the council, it was announced at the meeting.

Jester is one of a committee of southern governors which has asked the President to withdraw his civil rights program of anti-poll tax, anti-segregation, and anti-lynching laws.

Mrs. Eidson presented the six points to the council in the form of resolutions.

House Group Orders VA To Halt Dismissals Of Its Employes

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—The House Veterans committee today asked the Veterans administration to halt dismissals of its employes until the committee investigates.

Chairman Rogers (R-Mass) said the committee wants to inquire into reports that cuts in the VA's force are having "detrimental effects on service, particularly in the field."

VA has been cutting the number of its employes in order to stay with the funds Congress voted for it.

SOUNDS GRIM WARNING—Dr. Samuel Green, center, Georgia grand dragon of the Ku Klux Klan, declared in a talk following a Klan demonstration at Wrightsville, Ga., Tuesday night, that blood would flow in southern streets "if negroes are given a place at the side of white men through federal bayonets." The rally preceded an election Wednesday in which only one negro approached the polls and then didn't vote although he was informed he was registered. City Judge W. C. Brinson said he didn't believe the Klan affair had anything to do with the absence of the city's 241 qualified negro voters from the polls. (AP Wirephoto.)

MacArthur Is Given Boost

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, March 3.—The Democratic revolt against President Truman cropped up in the north today.

Two Massachusetts Democrats, Boston Mayor James M. Curley and former Governor Joseph B. Ely, urged that the party seek to nominate General Douglas MacArthur for the presidency.

Curley was pardoned by Mr. Truman last Thanksgiving, after serving five months of a 16 to 18 months' sentence for mail fraud. Ely has split with the Democratic national leadership before.

MacArthur Recommended

They gave their views in separate interviews while, in Chicago, the CIO United Auto workers executive board said it would seek the formation of "a genuine progressive political party" after next fall's election.

The board endorsed the national CIO's refusal to support Henry A. Wallace's third party.

MacArthur also was recommended for the presidency by Francis P. Murphy, twice Republican governor of New Hampshire and Democratic national committeeman from his state in 1944.

GOP Is Praised

Some leading Republicans have sounded out the general to see if he would accept their party's nomination. He hasn't said he would. But in reply to a recent GOP questionnaire he praised the Republican party as the one which had never departed from the principal that "all political power resides in the people."

(Ely backed the late Alfred E. Smith in his break with President Franklin D. Roosevelt. He also supported James A. Farley against Roosevelt at the 1940 Democratic national convention.)

GOPs Push Drives

Ely gave his views in an interview while southern Democrats pressed their campaign to prevent Mr. Truman's nomination for the presidency.

And some politicians saw a move in the same direction in a radio speech last night by Senator Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo). His title was: "If I Were President." He said Mr. Truman had failed to bring about national

Charter Granted On New Bank

Charter for a fourth bank in Lubbock to be known as the American State Bank was granted by the State Banking board in Austin Wednesday, Jack Payne, president of the new institution, last night said he had been informed by telegram.

Payne and J. W. Langston are to be active officers in the new bank, which is expected to be opened for business about June 1. Other directors of the new bank are: Earl B. Collins, Joe N. Nislar, E. K. Hufstedler, jr., Harold E. Humphries, Robert E. Maxey and Homer G. Maxey.

New Building Planned

The new institution will have a total capital structure of $250,000 with membership in the Federal Reserve system and the Federal Deposit Insurance corporation.

The bank will be located in a new building to be constructed on a site 60 by 180 feet at 1401 Ave. Q. Plans for the building are already drawn and construction work will start shortly, Payne said.

The bank's charter application was the first of two applications made by a Lubbock group in the past three months. Outcome of the second bank application, made by a group of business men headed by Irving Jones, as president and Dr. Frank B. Malone, Elmer Tarbox, Kenneth Leftwich and A. L. Kornfeld as directors had not been learned last night, although repeated efforts were made by the Avalanche-Journal to contact the members of the board.

Texas Bar Association Defends State's Tidelands Contracts

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—A state bar association committee today jumped to the defense of Texas' tidelands contracts with oil companies.

Into the growing controversy over ownership of the oil-rich property lying off Texas' Gulf shore, the association's tidelands committee injected a prepared statement designed to refute claims that the federal government makes "better and harder" contracts.

Figures Are Given

The bar committee cited bonus, rental and royalty figures intended to show that oil lands under state supervision are returning "several times" as much money for free public education in Texas as the U. S. Department of Interior is getting from comparable scources.

"Texas royalties range from 12 and one-half to 51 and one-half per cent on leases in proven areas. Federal royalties are but 5 to 25 percent in the same category," the committee said.

Creekmore Fath, an Austin attorney, claimed in a recent statement that Texas would be better off financially if the federal government managed the state's big tidelands business under federal royalty scales and returned revenue to the state. Attorney General Price Daniel in Washington accused him, along with Ray Lowry of Austin, with "trying to sabotage" pending legislation to give the states title to the tidelands.

Attorney Holds Ground

In a prepared reply, Fath stuck to his guns, inferring that Daniel must have been jesting in charging it was sabotage to oppose legislation "which would put more money in the pockets of millionaire oil men."

Lowry tersely replied to Daniel's thrust at him in a brief 21 words: "I regret that Mr. Daniel has either been misinformed or has misinterpreted what Capitol Letters has said concerning the tidelands controversy."

Lowry operates a confidential news report known as Capitol Letters.

The bar committee's defense of state contracts today further alleged:

For leases outside proved areas: "Texas requires a 12 and one-half percent minimum royalty, the federal leasing act provides for a straight 12 and one-half percent royalty. Actual royalties paid on state leases may, and do, far exceed the minimum."

Minimum bonus—"Texas sets a $2 minimum on lease bonuses per acre in unproven areas but the average payment is $20 per acre. The Interior department, on the other hand, sets a minimum of only 25 cents per acre.

Bidding—"Texas leases to the highest bidder. Interior department does not require bids, selling merely to the first applicant."

Rentals—"Texas rentals of $1 per acre per year compare with a federal scale of nothing for the second and third years, 25 cents per acre for the fourth year and 50 cents per acre for the fifth year."

Funeral For Mrs. Willie Brown Will Be Conducted Here Today

Funeral services will be conducted at 2:30 o'clock this afternoon in Rix Funeral home chapel for Mrs. Willie Brown, 65, of 1602 Ave. L, resident of Lubbock since 1907 who died Tuesday night in Lubbock Memorial hospital following three days' illness.

Burial will be in Lubbock cemetery.

Mrs. Brown was the widow of Frank V. (Leather Hat) Brown.

She was past president of the Past Matrons of the Order of the Eastern Star; member of the Lubbock chapter of the OES; member of the Nancy Anderson chapter of the Daughters of the American Revolution; president of the First Baptist Rebekah class; theasurer of the Col. John Elder chapter of the Colonial Dames society, and a member of the Pioneer Needle club.

Pallbearers at services will be E. F. Womack, M. F. Womack, Olen Dorsett, M. L. Dorsett, Claude McDonald and Birdie Coats.

Mrs. Brown had been engaged in farming and ranching businesses here.

That's Right -- The Man Wants To Find Some Barking Frogs

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—The University of Texas wants some barking frogs.

The man said barking frogs, not barking dogs. He was Dr W. Frank Blair, who is a zoologist, not a psychiatrist.

Dr. Blair says this very rare type of frog is sometimes found in the Edwards plateau (hill country) of Texas.

Children in Bandera county are looking for specimens which Dr. Blair wants to take with him to a meeting of the American Society of Ichthyologists and Herpetologists at New Orleans March 26-29. Dr. Blair said the barking frogs come out only in the spring and usually live around limestone bluffs.

Corpus Christi Port Shows Big Increase In Tonnage

SAN ANTONIO, March 3 (AP)—More tonnage was shipped through the port of Corpus Christi during 1947 than in any year in its history, port director Byrd Harris declared here today.

Speaking at a conference of the Texas-Louisiana freight bureau and the Southwest Industrial Traffic league, Harris said that 10,000,000 tons of cargo were shipped for export or coastwise during the year.

The conference was the prelude to the opening of the two-day conference of the Southwest shippers advisory board which will be held tomorrow and Friday with 300 delegates in attendance.

The federal government, Harris said, had just approved plans for extension of the ship channel three and one half miles to the corn products corporation plan now under construction.

The extension, he said, will give Corpus Christi a total water frontage of 12 miles.

Last Rites Planned Today In Sundown For Accident Victim

LEVELLAND, March 3 (Special)—Funeral services for W. A. Harris, 21, of Sundown, who was electrocuted late Tuesday morning in a pipeline accident west of Sundown, will be conducted at 3 o'clock Thursday afternoon in Assembly of God church in Sundown.

Rev. Wilhite, pastor of the church, will officiate at the services. Burial will be held in Levelland cemetery under direction of Plains Funeral home.

Harris was holding hooks used in transferring pipe from one truck to another when a gin pole came into contact with a highline carrying 2,200 volts of electricity. The electricity went through the hooks into his body.

Texas Prison Setup Is Claimed Worse Than Concentration Camp

DALLAS, March 3 (AP)—The Texas prison system harbors more moral and physical filth and more ghastly human degradation than any concentration camp in Europe, B. A. Stufflebeme, Grand Prairie member of the prison board, declared today.

Addressing some 400 members of the Dallas Junior Chamber of Commerce, Stufflebeme pulled no punches in relating an eyewitness account of several visits to Texas' 12 prison units.

Prisoner Said Shot

"Our prisons are deplorable," he said after relating a dozen or more instances of sex perversion, filth, brutality and inhumanity he said he had personally seen.

He related that hardened criminals and sex perverts were in the same close quarters with youngsters who had committed their first crime. He told of clothing that had been worn for five weeks without being taken from the prisoners' backs.

Asks Funds For System

The prisoners and the warden said 'there is no soap.' I saw venereal diseases in latter stages going untreated. I saw a prisoner ruthlessly shot by a guard because he failed to shout 'alley' before going into the latrine.

He urged the Junior Chamber of Commerce members to get behind the nine men of the prison board who are seeking to rehabilitate the Texas penal system. He said he hoped they would urge the Legislature to appropriate the necessary four and one-half million dollars needed to build a separate cell block where the "rotten apples" among the prisoners could be kept in solitary confinement.

Mexican Production Of Gold, Silver, Other Metals Boosted

MEXICO CITY, March 3 (U.P.)—Mexican production of gold, silver, copper lead and zinc showed marked increases in 1947 over 1946, the financial information bulletin "Financial Week" reported today.

The Bulletin said Mexico produced 508,816 ounces of gold in 1947, with a value of approximately $15,600,000 (U.S.) compared with 460,368 ounces in 1946 with a value of approximately $14,150,000.

Silver production in 1947 totaled 2,013 tons with a value of approximately $42,000,000 compared with 1946 production of 1,479 tons valued at approximately $34,000,000.

Copper production showed the smallest increase—63,000 tons in 1947 compared with 61,000 tons in 1946, with approximate valuations of $30,000,000 and $20,000,000 respectively.

Court Upholds State's Claim To Tax Paid By Oil Company

AUSTIN, March 3 (U.P.) — The $475 in franchise taxes and penalties which the Gulf Union Oil company paid under protest to the Secretary of State's office will remain in state funds, the Supreme Court ruled today.

The court denied the company judgment against the secretary of state, the state treasurer and attorney general.

Claude Isbell, secretary of state in 1946, demanded payment of the amount by the company before it could be permitted to do business again in Texas.

He claimed that the corporation, chartered in 1928, had not paid franchise taxes in 1936 or thereafter. The company's right to do business in Texas was forfeited on July 2, 1936.

Mexican Consul To Speak Here At Foreign Language Banquet

E. V. Pesqueira, Mexican consul stationed at Amarillo, will speak at a banquet to be sponsored by the Foreign Language department of Texas Technological college, Friday, March 12, at 6:30 p. m. in the Tech cafeteria.

Following a brief talk, the guest will show a film on Mexico.

Because of lack of space, only 125 persons may make reservations to attend the banquet.

Man Plunges Into Trinity River After Waving Goodbye

DALLAS, March 3 (AP)—Casually waving a cheery goodbye to a passing motorist, a well-dressed young man stepped off a viaduct this afternoon and plunged into the Trinity river some 30 feet below.

The motorist, D. D. Otstott, a meat buyer for a Dallas grocery, leaped from his car and ran to the railing.

The swift, rain-swollen current carried the man under a bridge and that was the last Otstott saw of him.

"He was so nonchalant about it I thought the fellow was just cutting up—you know, acting silly or just some publicity stunt," said the horrified Otstott.

Comedy Slated At Senior High School

The first of two preformances of "Dear Ruth," two-act comedy, to be presented by the junior class of Senion High school, will open at 8:15 o'clock tonight in the school auditorium.

The play will be presented again Friday night.

The comedy, which was written by Norman Crasna, presents the story of a teen-ager who writes letters to a soldier and signs her sister's name. John Kidwell plays the part of the girl writing the letters and Nancy Davis, that of the older sister. W. J. Blake, playing the part of Lt. Bill Seawright, is the one who receives the letters and arrives home thinking he has been corresponding with the older sister. Deany McGuire plays the part of the older sister's fiance, who is distressed because she does not tell Seawright she did not write the letters. Anita Pope and Woody Jackson play parts of parents of the girls; Joyce Worrell, the part of a good-natured maid; Billy Freeman and Etta Campwell, parts of former sweethearts who finally decide to marry, and James Maynard, who appears as a sailor.

D. M. Howell is director.

Tickets may be purchased today in the principal's office at the school or tonight at the box office. Admission will be by 50-cent ticket or activity book stub.

MORE WOMEN COOK ON Magic Chef THAN ON ANY OTHER RANGE

The Woman's Angle
By Margaret Turner

THE other day a group of us was discussing how generous Americans are to respond to causes of various sorts and one of the desk editors said he bet he could get a car by night if he just ran an item and asked for someone to give him one.

While we don't believe his luck would be that good, we agree that most Americans are generous and soft hearted and while some of them may be "taken for a ride" because of their habit to keep loose purse strings where the needy is concerned, still we love them for those characteristics.

FROM time to time the writer is asked to lend this column's support to requests and while we don't want to get into the habit of doing that, we are glad enough to mention something that was brought to our attention Wednesday.

According to Mrs. Marjorie Brasher, school nurse, there are in the Lubbock grade schools a number of children who do not have enough clothes to wear to keep them comfortable. While they could use anything in the garment line, they are especially in need of underwear and socks. Their ages range from six to twelve and there are several pupils 14 years of age who do not have enough to wear, Mrs. Brasher said.

• • •

After we talked it over, we decided that there must be many garments hanging in Lubbock closets that would meet this need within a short time, if the owners would only take the time to collect them and the trouble to bring them to the office at Junior High school from where Mrs. Brasher will take them to the children's homes. Knowing from past experiences that Lubbockites wear as broad a mantle of charity as can be found anywhere, we even think there may be enough garments to build up an emergency closet.

Perhaps Sunday school classes could take this request and use it as a project or club women could bring the garments to their meetings and, then a chairman could take them to the school office.

• • •

Those of you who saw the recent newsreel that shows the hunger and squalor existing in China must have felt a great pang of pity for the desolate looking children and older people and wished they could do something to alleviate that suffering. We think that all mankind's concern is charity as Pope once wrote, but we also believe that charity begins at home. It may not be as exciting to gather a bundle of clothing for children in Lubbock as it is to pack a box for children overseas, but it will be as appreciated here as there.

• • •

IN THE MAIL

TODAY'S mail brought a thought provoking letter from a Tech student who asks that his name be withheld and we see no particular reason to use it, since he had rather we wouldn't. He says:

Recently you published the gist of a letter from Germans requesting food, bedclothes, covers and other useful things.

One must be mindful that racketeers in Germany have been writing just such sympathetic letters to unknowing but generous strangers here in America. Their plan has been to capitalize by writing over here, stressing great need and suffering. In many instances it has been most successful for the writers.

To prevent such gifts and needy bundles from falling into the hands of people who will sell the commodities at outrageous prices, the giver should investigate through the International Red Cross as to the absolute need of the writer. Only in this way can we be sure that what we give will be placed in the hands of those worthy and needy.

• • •

WE agree that there is a possibility of persons being duped who take to heart all of the begging letters that cross the ocean and we think investigation might be made, either through the Red Cross or through CARE. But here again, those who have traveled in Germany recently or who live there with the Army of Occupation know of the suffering, both bodily and mentally, that is prevalent.

Many of those young people have experienced nothing but horror and need and know of the existence of such a thing as a normal life only from what they have heard. If we can do something to help them, to restore their faith in humanity, we think we should do so. But not at the expense of making suckers of ourselves.

Marriage Of Miss Gamble And Mr. Casey Is Solemnized At First Methodist Church

The First Methodist church was scene of the wedding of Miss Virginia Belle Gamble, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Newton Gamble of 2402 Twentieth, and Carl Henry Casey of Fairhope, Ala., son of Mr. and Mrs. Milton E. Casey of Wolfforth, which was solemnized Wednesday at 7 o'clock in the evening. A double ring ceremony was performed by Dr. Joe Z. Tower of Wichita Falls, assisted by Dr. H. I. Robinson, pastor.

On the altar, woodwardia fern and palms formed the background for baskets of white stock and numerous white tapers. Aisle candelabra adorned with satin bows held long tapers which marked the bridal path. Wedding music was by Dr. Nita Akin of Wichita Falls who played an organ prelude of Bach compositions. During the ceremony she offered "A Rose Softly Blooming" by Brahms. Bill Harrod, violinist, played Arioso by Bach.

Gown Is Blue

The bride chose a gown of ice blue satin designed traditionally with a sweetheart neckline, long fitted sleeves which tapered to points over her hands, and a bodice accented at the waist by a wide fitted midriff of the satin. Her very full gathered skirt swept into a graceful train and her veil of imported ice blue bridal illusion fell in full circular tiers from a headpiece of ice blue feathers. She carried a shower bouquet of white hyacinth blossoms topped with a white orchid corsage; concealed in the bouquet were a prayer book and lace handkerchief, which belonged to the bride's grandmother.

Mr. Gamble gave his daughter in marriage.

Mrs. Flavia McIlvain of Laredo was matron of honor, Mrs. A. E. Gamble, sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Fred Cardinal of Floydada, cousin of the bride, Mrs. John C. Byers of San Angelo, Mrs. Ralph Cocanougher and Mrs. W. T. Bolt, jr., of Austin, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmatrons. Miss Ethel Clair Raney of Dallas was bridesmaid and Miss Edith Ann Holloman of Slaton, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Each was gowned in blue chiffon styled with a bouffant skirt, square neckline, and long, full bell sleeves fitted at the wrist. The bodice was made with tiers of folded chiffon. The attendants wore halos of blue flowers and carried colonial bouquets of two-toned delphinium tied with ice blue satin streamers.

Father Is Best Man

Mr. Casey served as his son's best man. Ushers were A. E. Gamble, brother of the bride, Jack Earl Creel, Jesse May, and J. A. McWhorter, Paul Haskins and L. M. Hargrave of Wolfforth.

Wedding guests were entertained at a reception given at the Hilton hotel ballroom following the ceremony. The bride's table was laid with white organdy and centered with bouquets of the bride and her attendants. Baskets of white stock were arranged around the ballroom.

A four-tiered wedding cake of white, topped with confection blue morning glories, was served by Miss Mary Dunn, Mrs. Merrill Turner of Meridian and Mrs. Joe Baldridge. At the silver service were Mrs. Joe Z. Tower, Mrs. H. I. Robinson, Mrs. J. S. Skaggs of Oklahoma City and Mrs. James H. Goodman. Guests were registered by Miss Sue Crites and Mrs. George Mueller of Baltimore, Md.

Assisting parents of the bride and bridegroom and members of the wedding party with hospitalities were Mesdames T. W. Stoneroad, Floyd Beall, Clay Thompson, H. G. Lawson, E. F. Alfrod, Frank Campbell, Joe Telford, H. C. Maxwell, C. M. Chandler, Joe Bowman, Fred Sparks, C. H. Hamilton, Ernest Manning, Charles Ross, C. P. Carlock, Watson Carlock, Clarence Whiteside, W. C. Wood, C. A. Burrus, Ted Waldrip, Joe E. Baldridge, R. L. Durham, J. Ray Dickey, Howard Alford, L. M. Hargrave, R. P. Fuller, Roy Furr, E. C. Raney, R. O. Short, Claude Hooks of Colorado City, Frank Fite of Abilene, and Misses Betty Doris Hamilton, Jane Austin, Shelley Furr, Tommie Jean Wall, Jeanne Edwards of Floydada, Joy Holloman of Slaton and Tommie Jean Wall of Waco.

To Live In South

For a wedding trip to New Orleans and Florida, the bride wore a green grosgrain suit with brown accessories and a white orchid corsage. The couple will be at home in Fairhope where Mr. Casey is a seismologist with the Standard of Ohio Oil company.

Mrs. Casey was graduated from the University of Texas with a Bachelor of Music degree. Formerly she was head of the piano department at Hardin college and later she was on the piano staff at Texas Technological college. Mr. Casey is a graduate of Tech where he was a member of Sigma Gamma Epsilon, Society of Petroleum Engineers, Engineering Society and S.A.M.E. During the war, he served with the Army Signal corps as a first lieutenant.

Out-of-town wedding guests were Mrs. G. R. May, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Smith and R. W., Fred Cardinal, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Norman, Mr. and Mrs. Glad Snodgrass, Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Real Estate Men Report Decline In Sale Of Homes Over Nation

By SAM DAWSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

NEW YORK, March 3 — Tears flowed on the financial pages today.

Singing the torch song of industry were real estate men, cosmetic makers, leathergoods dealers, mail order houses and furniture store owners.

Either business was bad or they feared it would be.

Since December business has been slackening, mail order houses told the Wall Street Journal. February sales may top those of the same month a year ago, but by a percentage smaller than January exceeded its 1947 counterpart.

First Decline In Years

Cosmetic sales were 2.6 per cent smaller in 1947 than in 1946, the toilet goods association reported. It was the first year-to-year drop in 10 years. The high cost of food sent the ladies to cheaper paint and powder, the salesmen believed.

Furniture men report dollar sales have dropped in recent weeks.

The Tanners' council of America opened its advanced showing of fall leathers. Some lines were reduced 10 to 20 per cent in price, but only a small volume of business was booked.

Real estate men across the nation report that sales of homes have sagged. Some blame the weather which keeps would-be buyers at their own firesides. Others say houses just cost too much and lots of people can't raise the down payment.

Protest Is Planned

In Fairbanks, Alaska, a liquor price war has broken out. One dealer sold 20 cases of whiskey at 25 cents a fifth. The hangovers are terrific.

In New Jersey, William L. Stauber, comptroller of the Merchants and Newark Trust Co., says he is going to ask the National Association of Bank Auditors and Comptrollers to protest to radio executives, comic strip artists and movie producers against the "growing practice of presenting bankers as villains."

U. S. Navy To Have Atomic Engine In Next Three Years

OKLAHOMA CITY, March 3. (AP)—The U. S. Navy will have a practical engine run by atomic energy in the next three to five years, a scientist-lecturer said here last night.

Dr. Gerald Wendt, editorial director of Science Illustrated magazine, told a town hall audience, however, that atomic power for general use is something else—some 25 years away, in his opinion.

The Navy, he said, wants the engine because it will be light, its fuel will be light and it will require no air, thus being practical for large submarines.

Costs Still Too High

But for the public, the cost of fuel would be prohibitive, Wendt stated. Atomic fuel costs about $20,000 a pound; coal or oil is around $10 a ton. And the biggest obstacle is getting rid of the rays, which make it necessary now to put an atomic engine behind six feet of concrete or steel.

On another topic, Wendt said the house un-American affairs committee is on the wrong track in nipping at Dr. Edward U. Condon, head of the Bureau of standards.

"Condon's all right" he said. "If they're accusing him of belonging to the American Soviet Science society, I belong to that too. It's an organization to find out what progress in the field of science has been made by the Soviets. There isn't a Russian in it—it's purely American."

Texas Junior Colleges Plan Building Expansion Program

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP) — The Texas junior college building program is expected to total $11,576,440 by the end of next year.

Dr. C. C. Colvert, University of Texas professor-consultant in junior college education, reported today that public junior colleges, with federal and local funds aid, plan to spend $10,235,940. Private colleges, he said, expect to spend $1,340,500.

The largest expansion programs are being undertaken at John Tarleton Agricultural college, Stephenville; Tyler Junior college; North Texas Agricultural college, Arlington; and Lamar college, Beaumont.

Navy To Give Awards For Occupation Duty

The "Navy Occupation Service Medal" and "Extension of China Service Medal" have been authorized to commemorate services performed by personnel of the Navy, Marine corps and Coast Guard in the occupation of territories of enemies of the United States during World war II, according to announcement received through the Navy recruiting office here Wednesday from Lt. Com. Lee J. Delworth, recruiting commander of the Albuquerque recruiting district which includes West Texas.

Instructions for distribution will be forthcoming.

Regulations for award of Navy Occupation Service medal provide for crediting to organizations for occupation duty in the European-African-Middle Eastern area performed on and subsequent to May 8, 1945, and occupation duty in the Asiatic-Pacific area for duty performed on and subsequent to Sept. 2, 1945. Such parts of certain territories as are under government control of the United States are specified in the regulations. Regulations provide for credit of occupation duty duty to organizations serving on ships operating in territorial waters as listed.

The China Service medal will be awarded to individuals who have been attached to, present and credit of occupation duty to an organization of the Naval Service of the United States credited by the Secretary of the Navy with having participated in operations in China.

SPECIAL TRAIN CANCELLED

ST. LOUIS, March 3 (AP)—A projected special train trip to Mexico for Missouri Pacific physicians and their wives has been cancelled because the train equipment is needed for "revenue traffic," the railroad disclosed today. About 200 persons were scheduled to make the two-week trip starting March 19.

News that Middleweight Champion Rocky Graziano, barred in New York state and areas of the National Boxing association for failure to report a bribe offer and a clouded war service record, has been granted permission to meet George (Sonny) Horne in a 10-round non-title bout April 5 at Washington, D. C., is certain to interest South Plains ring fans. The tough New Yorker, as the world's middleweight champ, holds the crown that is the ultimate goal of Plainview's LaVern Roach.

GRAZIANO

* * *

Roach faces a tough bout with the European titleholder, Marcel Cerdan, in Madison Square Garden March 12, but it is no secret that Roach's managers will be gunning for one of the three top names for a summer fight — if Roach beats Cerdan. After the victory over Janiro, Roach's managers told sports writers, "Bring on Zale or Graziano!" Of course the ring powers didn't seriously consider the challenge, but a triumph over Cerdan, ranked as one of the top three contenders for the title, would put Roach into a bargaining position.

* * *

Graziano will reportedly donate his share of the gate in the Washington fight to charity, probably in a move to regain the good opinion of ring fans, and may appeal to boxing officials to lift the suspension. Such an action, if successful, would make possible a Roach-Graziano title meeting. The appearance in Washington will be Graziano's first ring bout since he won the title from Tony Zale in Chicago last July.

Those hardy members of the West Texas Pro-Amateur association braved a cold north wind Wednesday afternoon to conduct a regular pro-amateur event at Lubbock Country club. Host pro Herb Schroeder said last night that no cases of frostbite had been reported, but that hands and feet were still numb. The association mapped out a full schedule for the summer at the Wednesday morning meeting. Spring, complete with warm weather and clear skies, can't be far away now.

Two new coaching assignments have been announced by C. R. Pattison, athletic director of Lubbock High school. Fred Taylor, recently appointed as end mentor for the grid squad, will work with the Westerner baseball team starting April 1 and Howard (Admiral) Price will be in charge of the tennis hopefuls. Taylor will find plenty of excellent material available for his nine, but Price is faced with a rebuilding job.

CURL SCORES KNOCKOUT

HOUSTON, March 3 (AP)—Jimmy Curl of San Antonio, the Texas middleweight champion, knocked out Louis Rousse of New Orleans in the fifth round of a one-sided scheduled 10-round main event here last night.

Plains Track Meet Saturday

A near-record entry list for the annual South Plains Invitational practice track meet, scheduled at Chapman field Saturday afternoon, was predicted by meet officials Wednesday night after Plainview, Andrews, Lamesa and Sundown mentors reported that they would enter teams.

Some of the top track and field stars of the area are included on the rosters of these four schools and other entries are expected by the time of the first event at 1:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon.

880 Holds Spotlight

Bill Howton, high-hurdle specialist, and Jim Tolliver, distance standout, head the list of entries from the Plainview squad. Howton has been one of the best timber-toppers of the area for two years and should be the Bulldogs' chief contender for a state title.

Jack Young will spark the Andrews squad in the low hurdles and is also rated one of the top two high jumpers entered in the meet.

One of the highlight events of the program will be the 880-dash, officials predicted, with Sundown's great John Ethridge and Lamesa's James Hawkins battling for first place honors. Ethridge is an outstanding athlete in three sports and Hawkins, younger brother of the Texas Tech grid and track star, is one of the stalwarts of the Lamesa cinder squad.

Local Relay Teams Ready

Lubbock High entries will include the crack mile and 440 relay teams, sprinters Charley Williams, Don Decker and Earl Hutcherson, and ace quarter-miler Jim Johnson. Sophomore Jim Wilson will lead the Westerners in the discus and broad jump events, while Alfred Adair and Jack Alderson head the pole vault and high jump delegation.

All schools of the South Plains are urged to enter teams in the meet, officials announced last night.

YANK BATTERY TOO FAT

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla., March 3 (AP)—The New York Yankees' sophomore battery combination of Pitcher Frank Shea and Catcher Yogi Berra paid the penalty today for being overweight. Much to the amusement of the rest of the squad, Coach Chuck Dressen had the pair go through bending exercises in a special type of pepper game.

Tinkers Down Primm In TAAF Title Game

Lubbock Quintet In 36 To 27 Win

ABERNATHY, March 3 (Special)—Lubbock's smooth-working Thomas Tinkers won the cage championship of District 2 of the Texas Amateur Athletic federation by defeating Primm Drug of Brownfield, 36-27, in the tournament finals here tonight.

The Tinkers' quint took an early lead on the shooting of Gene Hardey and J. L. Houser, but at the 16-minute mark the Primm five forged ahead, 14-12. The Thomas crew regained the lead and held a 19-14 halftime edge.

The Primm quint unleashed a determined offensive in the second half, but the net-swishing hook shots of Roland (Tuffy) Nabors kept the Hub city five in the lead the rest of the tussle.

Nabors topped the Tinker scorers with nine points on four field goals and a charity toss, while Ray Warden grabbed individual honors for the tilt with 14 points on four field goals and six free throws.

The triumph, number 51 in 56 starts for the Tinkers this season, gave the Thomas five the right to represent the district in the state TAAF tournament at Port Arthur March 12-13.

Spade copped third place in the meet by edging the Plains Gassers, 55-50, in the first clash here tonight. The Spade quint took an early lead to chalk up a 27-15 halftime margin, then coasted to the triumph.

Homer Hull's 20-point scoring tally paced the Spade squad, while Olan Murphy chalked up 16 for the losers.

All-tournament team selections included: Forwards, Harrell Thurman of Spade and Billy Preston of Plains Gassers; center, Jake Geron of Primm Drug; guards, Gene Hardey and Tuffy Nabors of Thomas Tinkers.

The box score:

OUTFIELDERS JOIN MISSIONS

SAN ANTONIO, March 3 (AP)—Receipt of signed contracts from two young outfielders was announced today by W. L. Osley, president of the San Antonio Missions of the Texas league.

Bill Serena Signed By Dallas Rebels

DALLAS, March 3. (AP)—Five more signed contracts arrived at the office of the Dallas Rebels of the Texas league today with spring training less than a week away.

Bill Serena, who hit 57 home runs last year with Lubbock of the West Texas-New Mexico league; Mickey Livingston, bought from Charleston, S. C., of the South Atlantic league, and Quentin Altizer, Tom Pullig and Burl Storie of the 1947 club, sent in contracts. Serena and Livingston are shortstops; Alitzer and Pullig are pitchers and Storie is a catcher.

Dist. 6-B Baseball Schedule Announced

Practice games among the seven high school baseball teams in District 6B will get underway April 1, with playoff games carded for May 7, 8 and 15, it was announced last night following a meeting of district coaches and school superintendents here last night.

Officials elected Cooper School Superintendent H. H. Nicholas as district chairman, and B. H. Baldwin as district secretary.

The May 7 schedule will pit the Cooper nine against Roosevelt, Ropesville vs. Shallowater and Friendship vs. Idalou. New Deal drew a bye on that date. Games will be over the seven-inning route. Nine-inning games are scheduled for the playoff finals. Playoff tilts will be staged in Lubbock.

SMU CAGERS WIN

FORT WORTH, March 3 (AP)—The SMU Mustangs rallied sharply in the final nine minutes here Wednesday night to defeat the TCU Horned Frogs, 63-48, in the final Southwest conference game of the season for each team.

Freeman Victor In Mat Feature

Ace Freeman of New York, besides amusing a capacity crowd at Sled Allen's wrestling arena last night, threw Salvador Flores of Mexico City in two out of three falls to emerge the winner in another feature bout at the arena.

Freeman, using various tricks and making himself almost invisible to Flores, toyed with the swarthy Mexican, before taking two consecutive falls. Flores won the first shoulder flop in 16 minutes on an abdominal stretch. Freeman came back to take the second count in 12 minutes on a series of slams and a body pin, then repeated in the final fall in six minutes with slams and another body pin.

Gorilla Poggi Wins

Pierre LaBelle and Gorilla Poggi went through their share of contortions in the semi-final match, with Poggi taking the first and third falls to come out on top.

Poggi won the first flip in eight minutes with a half crab, dropped the second in five minutes to LaBelle, who won with a double grapevine, and then captured the third and final grunter in four minutes with a cat toehold.

To Wrestle Alligator

Dory Funk and Dory Denton, the latter substituting for the injured Hy Sharman, wrestled 20 minutes to a draw in the preliminary, after giving the crowd a good show.

Toughy Truedell of Missouri served as referee and next week will return in a featured role, wreshling an alligator. This match, one of the rarities of the mat game, is expected to attract a large house next week.

Tech Cage Squad Leaves Today For NAIB Tourney

Schoolboy Meet To Open Today

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—An ankle injury may keep Big Lake's number two scoring threat sidelined in the opening game of the 26th annual Interscholastic League Basketball tournament here tomorrow.

Hulet Roach is the injured player. He missed Big Lake's practice session this afternoon because of a twisted angle suffered in the region playoff. Coach Jack W. Black said he hoped Roach might see some action in the Owl's game with Carey, another West Texas entry.

El Paso Five Arrives

The two Class A quintets meet at 8:45 a. m. to open the tournament in which 24 teams will scramble for three titles.

Capacity crowds, especially for night games and the title chase wind-up Saturday, are expected. Ed Olle, business manager of University of Texas athletics, said he was sure there would be room for all who want to watch the dribble derby, but he believed Gregory gym would be "comfortably filled."

Bowie of El Paso flew into Austin in time for a workout today, although Class AA teams do not start their playoff until Friday afternoon.

Coach W. C. "Nemo" Herrera said "practically all the boys were airsick" and still a bit "woozy." He was beginning the familiar moan of being matched against the "best team in the meet in the first round." The Bowie Bears will face Denton high's Bronchos Friday night.

Brisk Drills Held

Sweeney and Big Lake were among the Class B teams which arrived in time for practice workouts during the afternoon. Texas City and Mount Vernon in the Class A bracket also had brisk sessions, and other conference A and B teams were due to arrive later.

One game after another will be reeled off from early morning until late night for three consecutive days.

Finals in Class B, Class A, and Class AA will be held Saturday afternoon and night. First round games in both conferences B and A will be held tomorrow.

BASKETBALL SCORES

College
SMU 63, TCU 48.
Univ of Houston 52, S. F. Austin 40.

Junior College
Lamar (Beaumont) 59, Blinn (Brenham) 45.
Tyler 62, Amarillo 38.
Lamar 55, Tyler 48 (For Texas Jr. College championship).
McNeese 49, Corpus Christi 40 (Texas Jr. College consolation).

The basketball team from Texas Tech, runners-up in the Border Conference cage race behind Arizona university, will leave for Fort Worth by bus this morning to enter the NAIB tourney.

Texas Tech will meet Abilene Christian college Friday night at 9 in Will Rogers Coliseum, this tilt immediately following the game between Texas Wesleyan and a team from the Lone Star Conference yet to be decided upon by conference officials.

The losers in these two games meet at 7:30 Saturday night for third place and the two winners meet at 9 p. m. for first place.

Coach Polk Robison will not accompany the squad to Cowtown, remaining to attend funeral services for Charles Volney (Satch) Hill this afternoon. He will leave by train tonight and will join the Red Raiders in Fort Worth Friday.

Although West Texas Coach Gus Miller had stated Monday that regardless of the outcome of the Texas Tech-West Texas basketball game that night he would nominate the Techsans, the Raiders closed their conference season with a one-sided 67-46 licking of the Buffaloes in Canyon. This victory, the first over West Texas in Canyon in years, clinched the position for Tech.

The convincing drubbing handed out Monday night also made the Tech record more impressive and indicated that they could be a hard team to beat. Squad morale is high and the players want to win the NAIB tourney. They will have, as companions in the meet, Texas Wesleyan, Abilene Christian college and a representative from the Lone Star Conference. This fourth team will be chosen from East Texas, North Texas and Sam Houston.

Daily workouts have been held in the Tech gym and the squad appears ready for the tourney. They will play a single game Friday night and, if victorious, will meet the winner of the other contest at 9 Saturday night for the championship. Winning the NAIB tourney means a trip to Kansas City, Mo., to join 31 other teams in a fight for the NAIB title.

Indications are that the Raiders again will be spearheaded by Center Don Grove, who has scored 320 points this season, and Forward Jay Kerr, who came to life late and is presently the spark of the Raiders. Other players on whom much depends will be Billy "Whistle" Banks, Wimpy Hill,

Favorites Win In Cage Meet

ANTON, March 3 (Special) — Favorites chalked up first round victories in the first round of the Anton American Legion Independent basketball tournament here tonight, with Sundown nosing out Hilton hotel of Lubbock, 32-31, in the feature encounter. Lee tallied eight points for the Sundown quint, but Eddins chalked up 10 for the Hotelmen.

The strong Anton Legion five drubbed Amherst, 62-27, as Horace Byerley swished the net for 20 points in a torrid offensive exhibition. Enloe hit the basket for 10 points for the losers.

Muleshoe defeated Ropesville, 24-21, in the other tilt unreeled tonight. Jones topped the Muleshoe quint with six points, while McKee made nine for the Ropesville crew.

Thursday night games will include an Anton Roughneck—Ray's Grocery encounter at 7:30, with Thomas Tinkers battling Hoyt Furniture at 8:30. Spade will test Idalou in the final clash at 9:30.

Chuck Klein, Warren Cantrell Take Honors In Link Tourney

Chuck Klein of Amarillo and Warren Cantrell of Midland posted low ball scores of 70 to take individual honors in the 18-hole tourney conducted by the West Texas Pro-Amateur association Wednesday afternoon at Lubbock Country club.

Al Holton of Lubbock took third place in the division with a 73.

In the Pro-Amateur division Woody Foster of Levelland and Lawrence Banks of Lubbock took first place with 67, Chuck Klein and Bruce Kattmann of Lubbock were second with 68, and Red Bost of San Aneglo and John Raley of Lubbock copped a share of third with a best ball score of 69.

Warren Cantrell and Raymond Marshall of Lubbock and Shanty Hogan of Lamesa and Ross Mitchell of Lubbock tied for the third position with 69s.

Jiggs Jackson, Ardis Barton, Gene Gibson, Gilbert McAlister, Winston Churchill, C. W. Dukes and Wayne Bowles.

If Tech wins the Fort Worth tourney, the squad will return to Lubbock and probably will leave Sunday for Kansas City.

Lamar Downs Tyler, 55-48, To Cop Jr. College Cage Crown

COLLEGE STATION, March 3 (AP)—Lamar of Beaumont won the State Junior College Basketball championship here tonight by defeating favored Tyler, 55-48.

Lamar, runner-up to Tyler for the Southwestern Junior College conference championship, overcame a 6-4 Tyler lead and remained ahead the rest of the scorching battle.

At the half, Lamar led, 27-22.

Lamar was a late tournament entry and was unseeded. Tyler, seeded No. 2 during regular league play, defeated Lamar badly twice, 55-39 and 50-29, but tonight the Cardinals had the upper hand.

Lamar scored eight consecutive points at one time in the first half. Twice in the second half Lamar led by 13 points.

Bill Moody, tall Lamar center, played a great game under the baskets and scored 17 points. Charles Shoptaw of Lamar scored 14 and Les Taylor led Tyler with 12.

McNeese of Lake Charles, La., who won the state junior college basketball tournament consolation trophy by turning back a late Corpus Christi rally, 49-40, here tonight.

McNeese broke out of a 14-14 tie with nine consecutive points and stayed in front, although Corpus, paced by Gray Eargle's 17 markers, pulled within six points of a tie. Jack Dolan scored 16 points and James Darnell 14 for McNeese also the South Texas zone champion.

They were survivors of a field of 16 teams that started the tournament at Texas A. and M. college Monday.

Lamar defeated Blinn college of Brenham 58-45 today to advance to the finals. Tyler downed Amarillo 62-38 in the other semi-final game.

Blinn, however, won third-place honors of the tournament, beating Amarillo 43-28.

BOWLING SCORES

Southwestern Public Service widened their first-place lead in the Ladies Commercial Bowling league last night by scoring a 3-0 win over the fourth-place Glassman keglers.

In other league games last night, Groliman's won two out three games against Hackels keglers, Westerner Cafe defeated Home Lumber and Supply, 2-1, and Hemphill-Wells scored a 2-1 win over Larrymore Dance Studio.

Artie Gallaway with the Hemphill-Wells team led last night's keglers with a 231-567, with Billy Slover of Larrymore getting second-high individual scoring honors with 201-510.

The league standings:

Teams	Won	Lost
Southwestern Public Service	41	25
Larrymore Dance Studio	36	30
Home Lumber And Supply	36	31
Westerner Cafe	35	31
Hemphill-Wells	35	31

TKO's Scored In Post Meet

POST, March 3 (Special)—Three technical knockouts were scored in the first night of a three-day boxing show at the Post school gym here last night.

Climax of the first night's activities was a wrestling match in which Mack McCullough won over Carl Adams, after the latter was unable to continue after the second fall of a scheduled three-fall match. Adams won the first fall, but McCullough came back to nail his opponent in one minute, thirty seconds of the second round.

Charles Williams, 110, scored a technical knockout over W. O. Fluitt, 114. Herman Jones, 128, scored a technical knockout over Glen Canterbury, 132, and Benny Huff, 147, scored a technical knockout over Gordon Cary, 151.

Fifteen bouts have been scheduled for tonight, with finals to be held Tuesday night.

Three Sought In Hit-Run Accident

Law enforcement officers continued the search last night for three men who have been charged in connection with the hit-run accident on the Levelland highway Tuesday afternoon.

The three men charged were Herman Lee McCarty, J. D. Fulcher and Le Roy Ostrander, all of Lubbock county.

The complaint filed by District Attorney Lloyd Croslin charged that the three men were the driver of, and in control of, an automobile, and while driving and controlling said automobile did strike Mrs. Marvin Simpson, jr., and unlawfully failed to stop the car after striking her.

Theft Reports Probed

Meanwhile, police were investigating several reports of theft.

R. E. Stroup, of Fort Worth Denver Railroad, reported that someone had taken 13 bales of paper sacks, of various size and branded Otter Craft, from a box car on side tracks. A case of paper towels, and one of toilet tissue was also taken from the shipment designated for Waples Platter company, records showed.

A bicycle was reported stolen from Johnny Sandlin, of 2121 Twenty-first street. It was described as a blue and white Cadillac valued at $50, and was taken from the O. L. Slaton Junior High school, the report indicated.

B. J. Weaver, guest of a tourist court here, complained that two suits, a sports coat, four shirts and a jacket were stolen from his car. Property exceeded $50 in value, he said.

Wilson Dickson, of a mile and a half from Lubbock, informed officials that two batteries had been taken from two irrigation wells on his Lubbock county farm.

Levelland authorities said they would issue a felony theft warrant for a 30-year-old man suspected of having stolen a car there. When last reported seen in the Morton area, the man was said to have been driving a blue 1941 Ford sedan, license number of which was known to investigators.

GOVERNMENT OFFERS TO RETURN TO BUYING FLOUR

WASHINGTON, March 3 (AP)—The government offered to buy flour again today.

Its needs were for flour equal to 9,300,000 bushels of wheat to meet April export allotments.

The purchases are the first large ones planned in grain or grain products since grain prices began dropping early in February.

Secretary of Agriculture Anderson announced the move at a news conference. He expressed hope the offer to buy will not cause prices to go up sharply again.

Anderson said flour buying now should have little effect on prices. He said this is because the grain export program hasn't been changed from a goal of 520,000,000 bushels for the crop year ending June 30.

Negro Woman Of Shallowater Burned In Stove Explosion

Vera Mae Calucutt, 19, negro, of Shallowater suffered second and third degree burns on most of her body when an oil stove exploded at her home about 4:30 p. m. Wednesday.

She was reported in serious condition last night at Chatman hospital here, where she was brought soon after the accident. Records showed that her home is at the Neff Preston place at Shallowater.

Services To Be Held For Volney Hill Today

Funeral services for Charles Volney (Satch) Hill, 44, Meadow High school principal, former Texas Tech fullback and widely known coach, will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon in First Baptist church, Rev. R. L. Shannon of Meadow and Rev. A. A. Hardin of Sundown officiating.

Burial will be in Memorial Park cemetery in Lubbock under direction of Rix Funeral home. A Masonic service will be held at the grave.

Boys formerly coached by Hill will be pallbearers at the funeral. Many of them have been successful athletes at Texas Tech and other colleges and gone on to outstanding careers as coaches.

Active pallbearers are as follows: Freddie Brown, Lubbock; Tollie McKown, Talfurias; Murray Evans, Abilene; Dorace Haggemann, Andrews; Herschel "Red" Ramsey, San Angelo; W. E. Ramsey, Big Spring; Dusty Cook, Chillicothe; Loyd Emerson, Lubbock; Ernest Hawkins, Lubbock; Quinton Howard, Andrews; and any other former football players associated with Hill.

Honary pallbearers are: Dr. E. A. Vestal, Ennis Crimes, Jack Meharg and Raymond Touchstone, all of Chillicothe; Alvin Hill and Ted Harwell, both of Burkburnett; V. Z. Rogers, Lamesa; Gus Ragsdale, Lamesa; Wiley Tippen, Wichita Falls; Dr. Howard Dow, Seminole; F. A. Wilson, Meadow; J. A. Roberts, Meadow; Forrest Babb, Meadow; Nick Gandy, Sundown; Herb Nunnally, Sundown; Duke Ethridge, Sundown; T. P. Drew, Midland; Dell Morgan, Dane Leaverton, Marlin Hayhurst, and Polk Robison, all of Lubbock; and Eli Curtis, Amarillo.

Hill died of a heart attack at 8:30 p. m. Tuesday in James hospital at Seminole, having entered the hospital about noon that day.

He had been suffering from a heart ailment for about two years and had been advised by doctors to quit the field of coaching for that reason, a friend said.

Survivors include his wife, Mrs. Ruby Arnett Hill; three daughters, Jeannette, Marilyn and Arnette; one son, Charles Volney Hill, jr.; one brother, L. L. Hill, Houston; and two sisters, Mrs. Ed Meharg of Chillicothe and Mrs. Roger Lindolf of Galveston.

Hill, who orgionally lived at Milford and attended Trinity university as a freshman before coming to Tech, was one of the outstanding athletics in the history of the Lubbock school. He played fullback with the Red Raiders in 1925-26.

Following his graduation from Tech, he coached at Chillicothe, Burkburnett, Tahoka and Lamesa, turning out successful teams in all four schools.

After leaving coaching at Lamesa, he worked for a time with the Texas company at Sundown. He owned a farm near Meadow.

Mrs. Hill's mother, Mrs. George Arnett, lives at 1905 Ave. N here.

Lubbock Scoutmasters Hold Round Table Meeting Here

Lubbock scoutmasters held their monthly round table last night in Troop 101's box car at Mackenzie park, with approximately 14 persons present, Gene Quest, district commissioner said.

Plans were discussed for organizing senior scouting units in Lubbock, and the group talked about plans for a future scoutmasters round table to meet with the district commissioners round table, with committeemen from each troop as special guests.

A district First Aid meeting was announced for March 16, and a council First Aid meeting for March 26.

A district camporee will be held April 16 and 17 at Scout park, Quest announced.

He stated that next month's Scout Court of Honor, originally scheduled for March 26, will be held April 2 to avoid conflict with the council First Aid meeting.

unity.

Whether or not the seeds of southern revolt were taking root elsewhere in the country, candidates stepped up their campaign for the Republican presidential nod.

Stassen Fighting Dewey

Former Governor Stassen of Minnesota began a two-day swing through New Hampshire, telling his first audience that the U. S. must take "real leadership" in world affairs.

Stassen is fighting Governor Dewey of New York for preference in New Hampshire's first-in-the-nation primary election next Tuesday.

Dewey, his supporters said, will make a supreme bid in New Hampshire and in primaries April 6 in Wisconsin and May 21 in Oregon.

If Republican voters in those states turn out for him, he can claim cross-country support—in New England, the middle west and the far west.

Meanwhile seven state conventions were scheduled to establish formal third party support for Henry A. Wallace in his independent bid for the White House.

Wallace himself, his headquarters announced, will be the keynote speaker at the first convention, to be held in York, Pa., March 7.

The other convention dates: Illinois, April 9; Missouri, April 11; Connecticut, April 3; New Jersey, April 24; Wisconsin, April 25; and Louisiana, May 15.

Solidarity Dinner Slated

Backers of MacArthur, both Democratic and Republican, got a possible setback today when the general cabled the House Foreign Affairs committee that he couldn't leave Tokyo in the near future.

South Carolina Governor J. Strom Thurmond came out definitely against Mr. Truman for the Democratic nomination. There was an indication that his state was not unanimously in agreement with him.

South Carolina's Greenville county Democratic voters' league, headed by a CIO organizer, decided to hold a "Democratic solidarity dinner" and invited National Chairman J. Howard McGrath to address it.

President Truman himself said nothing about all the politicking. He returns Friday from Key West, Fla., and his doctor says he's "in excellent shape"—for whatever may lie ahead.

County Water Board To Meet Here Friday

A meeting of the Lubbock County Water Conservation association will be held at the Court house in the district court room at 2 p. m. Friday, it was announced here by W. O. Fortenberry, of Monroe, president of the association.

New officers for the coming year will be elected, and a program for the year will be planned, the announcement said. The members will discuss what action should be taken toward defeating legislation designed to control the use of water in this section of the state. According to the statement, the members will also decide whether action should be taken toward submitting legislation which will fit the needs of this area.

All members were urged to attend.

victims. Two of the dead were Arab policemen who were walking nearby.

Other incidents in Palestine today took the lives of six more Arabs and three Jews. The unofficial death toll since the Nov. 29 decision of the United Nations to partition Palestine reached 1,562.

The six members of the UN commission secretariat flew to Lydda yesterday and arrived at the Jerusalem airport today.

The advance party, headed by Pablo Azcarate, one-time Spanish legislator and veteran League of Nations official, declined to see newsmen tonight. They had a brief talk with Sir Henry Gurney, chief secretary of the Palestine administration in his office.

Intermittent shooting broke out a few hundred yards from where the UN people are staying. A government spokesman said they would be fed and protected by Palestine police. They were not supplied with a cook, however, and prepared their first meal themselves.

U. S. TRY FOR QUICK ACTION BY UN BLOCKED

LAKE SUCCESS, March 3 (AP)—Canada and China blasted today an American attempt to get quick Security Council approval for the Palestine partition plan.

These countries told the United Nations Security Council that the five great powers must make supreme effcrts to settle the Palestine question by conciliation.

They made it virtually certain that the council would not approve a resolution pressed by Warren R. Austin, United States chief delegate.

This resolution would put the council definitely on record for partition and would call on the five great powers to consult with Jews, Arabs and British in an effort to reach a settlement for Palestine.

and Forrestal told the House group there is "grave danger" neither Greece nor Turkey can remain free without more military help from this country.

And finally, the international monetary fund announced loans of $16,500,000 to the Netherlands and $11,000,000 to Belgium.

The "Ball plan" was adopted last night at a meeting of Republican critics of the Marshall plan.

Ball said Russia could become a member of the proposed new agency—but he and others made it plain they did not expect the Soviets would consent to the no-veto rule.

If Russia wouldn't come in, he declared, "it is high time that the rest of the nations that want security and independence get together and do something."

Cold Weather

heavy clouds with lower temperatures during the day, the Associated Press reported from Dallas.

With snow flurries forecast for the Panhandle and South Plains, the Weather bureau said rain would fall in colder weather from the upper portion of the Pecos valley eastward.

East Texas' outlook was for mostly cloudy skies with colder temperatures and snow in the extreme northwest portion.

The weather bureau in Dallas said low clouds would hang over virtually the entire state.

East Texas Gets Rain

However, temperatures were not expected to range much lower than the middle twenties in the Panhandle—coldest part of the state—last night.

The lowest maximum in the state yesterday was 28 degrees at Amarillo. Pampa had 29 degrees and Childress 31.

Presidio, in far West Texas, had the high maximum, 82 degrees.

Abilene reported 55, Austin 66, Big Spring 59, Brownsville 72, Dallas 56, Fort Worth, 53, El Paso 66, Houston 71, San Antonio 68, Waco 59, Corpus Christi 69, Tyler 61, and Texarkana 59.

Lufkin reported .16 inch of rain in a 24-hour period ending last night and Galveston .12. Amarillo had a trace.

Warm Weather Aids Wheat, USDA Says

AUSTIN, March 3 (U.P.)—Warm weather aided the wheat crop in making "very good progress" the past week, the U. S. Department of Agriculture reported today.

The crop reporting service said that improvement was evident in all major producing areas. There is enough moisture for present needs except in the southern high plains and western Edwards plateau.

The oats crop was reported to be in good condition due to warmer weather.

Growth of grass and pastures was boosted by higher temperatures and previous rains, the department said, but strong winds caused dust storms in parts of West Texas, with the most severe coming in the Big Spring section.

The department said "considerable" acreage of cotton was up to a stand in the Rio Grande valley, and that commercial vegetables moved actively during the week and all spring crops progressed under favorable conditions.

The South Texas flax crop was reported slightly below normal growth for this period due to earlier continued cold weather, but most of the crop had good moisture and was responding to the warmer temperatures.

Mrs. Eidson said the women endorsed these points:

1. To strengthen the machainery for protecting civil rights of all people and for states to set up permanent commissions on civil rights to complement a federal commission on civil rights.

2. The right to safety and security against lynching, police brutality, involuntary servitude and injustice in courts.

3. The right of everyone to citizenship and its privileges of voting and bearing arms.

4. The right of freedom of conscience and expression.

5. The right to equality of opportunity, employment, education, housing and health service.

6. The right to public service and accomodations.

He listed:

1. Sale of 151 planes for $500,000 as compared with an established world price of $2,730,000.

2. Inclusion, contrary to U. S. policy, of 11 B-25 bombers in this sale. He said the were destroyed to avert publicity, and that another B-25 which was not surplus was inadvertently destroyed also.

3. Charging other buyers, including the U. S. Relief and Rehabilitation agency, more for surplus property than the Chinese government was charged.

Twelve New Pledges Chosen At Beta Upsilon Chapter Meet

Members of the Beta Upsilon chapter of Delta Sigma Pi, National professional business administration fraternity, met in the Hilton hotel at 8 p. m. Tuesday and selected 12 new pledges, William T. Hutcheson, head master, announced Wednesday.

Pledges selected are: Coke Toliver, Mullin; James Montgomery, Lakeview; James L. Leach, Wilson; Stewart Jones, Wellington; Louis Kiker, Sweetwater; W. O. Oswell; Jack H. Edwards, Lubbock; Don Sayre, Wheeler; Royce Hopkins; Edgar Thompson, Lubbock; Joe S. Harvey, jr., Lubbock; and Thomas George, Lubbock.

Pledges are chosen on the basis of a high scholastic average and interest shown in the club and selection is made by a committee with the unanimous consent of the active members.

There will be a swearing in ceremony for the pledges who have completed their pledgships at 7:30 p. m. Thursday in the Hilton hotel and there will be a banquet in their honor at 7:30 p. m. Saturday, also at the Hilton.

H. E. Golden, associate professor of marketing and secretarial administration at Texas Tech, is faculty sponsor of the chapter.

Lubbock Man Seriously Hurt In Loading Accident Here

J. H. Davis, 52, of 1719 Avenue K, was seriously injured about 5 o'clock Monday afternoon when he was struck by a heavy boom which became loosened and fell from the winch truck on which he was helping to load a butane tank.

The accident occurred at Lubbock Machine company where Davis was employed as a salesman. As the winch boom fell, it struck Davis on the head and knocked him to the ground. The butane tank received the full force of the boom's fall, keeping Davis from suffering possible worse injuries.

Attendants at West Texas hospital where Davis was taken reported he suffered fracture of the second, third, fourth and fifth ribs on his left side, a puncture of the left lung, comminuted fracture of the seventh and eighth dorsal vertabrae, and severe lacerations of the scalp.

His condition was reported as serious by the hospital last night.

Conviction Left Standing After Complaint Of Racial Prejudice

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP) — The Court of Criminal Appeals today refused to disturb a Hutchinson county trial court conviction on a complaint of racial prejudice.

David Butcher, negro sentenced to 10 years on a charge of murder in the knife-slaying of John Neely Feb. 27, 1947, based appeal on the complaint that negroes had been "systematically and arbitrarily" excluded from grand jury service in the county since 1930. He had been indicted by an "all-white" grand jury.

Trial court had refused to grant a motion to squash the indictment on the allegation, holding that nothing had been presented to the court to reflect the number, if any, of the colored race in Hutchinson county eligible, as provided by statute, to serve on the grand jury which indicted Butcher.

"We thing the trial court was correct in overruling this motion on grounds set forth," the appeal court said in its written opinion.

Benes Likely To Quit As Czech President Under Red Pressure

By J. M. ROBERTS, JR.
Associated Press Staff Writer

Whether or not Eduard Benes has resigned already, it is obvious that he will not remain long as Czechoslovakia's president.

First, he is ill, and had been expected to seek relief after this spring's elections anyway. Secondly, he would not remain as a puppet without any ability to stand between his people and the totalitarians.

Czechs who now consider themselves exiled, however, refer bitterly to Jan Masaryk's continuance in the Communist-controlled government, even though he may believe he still is capable of influencing it. They think the loan of his father's name is far more valuable to the new dictatorship than anything he can hope to do against it.

Benes Asked To Leave

As a matter of fact, they had urged that Benes leave the country, and that Masaryk not return after attending the last U. N. General Assembly meeting in New York. They knew the coup was coming, despite their public statements that "we cooperate loyally with Russia, and there is no point in their taking us over completely."

Benes may hesitate to step out now because of the belief that the Communists will use Zdenek Fierlinger as his successor.

Fierlinger, leader of the pro-Communist wing of Czech Socialists was once ousted by his party for Red collaboration. He returned to a place of authority with the Communist coup.

Plot Now Known

Fierlinger gained favor with the Soviets when he was Czech ambassador to Moscow. They used him as first premier in postwar Czechoslovakia, until they were ready to put in Gottwald, Comintern agent and protege of Georgi Dimitrov, Moscow's chief pro-consul in eastern Europe.

Fierlinger played a major role in the negotiations at Moscow and Kosice, when Benes was forced to agree, in return for the privilege of setting up a government at all, that it would "safeguard practical collaboration with the USSR, military, political, and economic and cultural . . . in one line with other Slav and Democratic countries."

Benes apparently believed (and it may as well be remembered that the American government then believed likewise) that you can do business with Russia.

But Benes and all the Czechs know now that it was at Kosice and Moscow that Fierlinger and Gottwald forged the chains with which to shackle Czechoslovakia.

Dismissed Superintendent To Have Hearing Before Woods

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—Cecil Yarbrough, dismissed as Port Neches school superintendent last month, has been given his choice of two dates, March 15 or 16, for a hearing before state Superintendent L. A. Woods.

Woods said he has not yet heard which date Yarbrough has selected.

The hearing is to be held here at Yarbrough's request after his dismissal by the Port Neches school board on a charge of failure to properly supervise school personnel.

School children went on strike to protest his dismissal and he was given a vote of confidence at a mass meeting supported by the school improvement league.

Jester Expected To Be Gone Two Weeks

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)—Gov. Beauford H. Jester's absence from his desk is expected to stretch into more than two weeks, the Governor's office said today.

His office here said the governor was not expected to return from Washington until the first of next week.

Gov. Jester left Austin Feb. 21 for Washington, where he has been appearing before congressional committees in behalf of tidelands legislation.

Lieut. Gov. Allan Shivers has been acting as governor in Jester's absence, except for a one-day period last week in which State Sen. T. C. Chadick of Quitman, president pro tem of the Senate, served as acting chief executive of the state.

State Press Is Blamed For Radicalism At University

HOUSTON, March 3 (AP)—Dr. James C. Dooley, vice president of the University of Texas, has blamed the state press for fostering "grossly exaggerated" reports of widespread radicalism on the university campus.

Speaking at the annual March 2 banquet for Houston ex-students of the University, Dooley last night said it is the "persistent tendency" of the state press to pick up stories reflecting radicalism from campus publications.

"In my opinion," he said, "radicalism on the University campus is grossly exaggerated."

LOST 47 POUNDS WITHOUT DIETING

The following remarkable story shows conclusively that Barcentrate DOES take off fat.

It contains nothing harmful, in fact, it contains ingredients that make you feel better. No starvation diet—no weakness—no hunger.

Barcentrate, the original grapefruit juice recipe, takes off fat quickly, safely and you can eat plenty.

Here is Proof

"When I started taking Barcentrate, I weighed 212 pounds and wore size 46 dresses. Now I wear size 18 and weigh 165 pounds. I started taking Barcentrate in March and by June I had lost 47 pounds. I would have lost more weight had I left off fattening foods, but I was anemic at that time and afraid to diet. People who knew me before I started taking Barcentrate are amazed at the weight I have lost. My flesh is firm; I have never become flabby or wrinkled and I am 40 years old.

"Before taking Barcentrate I couldn't do my house work without becoming exhausted; had dizzy spells and my head and back hurt me constantly. I was so short winded, I was miserable. But now all those things have gone and it is really a pleasure to do the chores I once dreaded.

"Three years ago I nearly died with Typhus fever and it left me anemic and I could never get my blood count up again or get back my energy. After taking Barcentrate my blood count started up and is now normal. So you see why I praise Barcentrate so highly and recommend it. Any praise I can give Barcentrate is small compared to the relief and happiness it has brought me."—Mrs. Eula Whitehead, 509 Harmon, Corpus Christi, Texas.

At All Druggists

The above is one of hundreds of amazing endorsements we have received.

If you are overweight and want to take off ugly fat, just go to your druggist and ask for four ounces of liquid Barcentrate. Pour this into a pint bottle and add enough grapefruit juice to fill bottle. Then take just two tablespoonfuls twice a day. If the very first bottle doesn't show you the simple, safe, easy way to take off weight, return the empty bottle for your money back.

Texas Cattleman Condemns U. S., Mexico For Ineffective Campaign Against Disease

SAN ANTONIO, March 3 (AP)—Ex-congressman Richard M. Kleberg of Corpus Christi condemned both the American and Mexican governments for what he termed "wholly ineffective methods being used in stamping out the foot and mouth disease in Mexico" here today.

Speaking before 200 members of the Lions club, the King ranch cattleman declared the "only solution is for the United States government to go into Mexico, buy up all infected cattle, replace them with clean stock, and destroy all diseased beasts—even if this plan should cost the American people a billion dollars."

Kleberg branded reports which American field forces in Mexico are making to the Department of Agriculture at Washington, D. C., as "fallacious and misleading" with few Americans "conscious of the peril now hanging over our entire livestock industry."

Attacking the methods used when American veterinarians first entered Mexico and began slaughter of infected cattle, Kleberg said: "Few realize that this work began in secluded rural areas and often the only beast of burden—an oxen—or the only scource of milk supply-a cow—was slain. The Mexican farmer was left with little means of a livelihood. Money paid him meant nothing as he could not replace his stock and he was miles from any store or food scources."

He praised the Mexican people as being "just as patriotic as any Americans," and declared he sympathized with those who objected openly to the program."

He advocated use of vaccine on many cattle, claiming it has been proven 98 per cent effective. But it "wears off" in four months and must be repeated, he said.

He advocated the sending of an "outstanding" man of proven executive ability, with wide discretionary powers, to Mexico by the American government to institute a "final drive on the disease which has been only halted temporarily."

Much of the meat from slaughtered animals should be canned and sold in Mexico or shipped abroad, Kleberg declared, but suffering animals heavily infected should be killed, placed in a trench, covered with lime and buried, he added.

Shallowater Christian Youth Roundup Conducts Meeting

The Shallowater Christian Youth Roundup met Monday night with Wayne Tucker, president, presiding.

A recreation period started the program and included games and refreshments.

An Easter theme was used for the candlelight worship service which followed, with Easter lillies and the cross forming a worship center.

Other features of the program included the singing of hymns led by John Evans, a poem on the Resurrection given by Suzanne Vaughn accompanied on the piano by Novella Crump, the story of the Crusifiction by Nancy Ashburn and the hymn, "The Old Rugged Cross," sung by Clydene and Glenna Whitaker.

J. B. Wages brought the devotional and Mary Lou Crump dismissed with prayer.

Greek Order To Sink Vessels Is Reported

ATHENS, March 3 (U.P.) — The Greek navy has been ordered to sink without warning vessels sailing at night in Greek territorial waters because the Greek Communist navy Elan has been revived, the royalist newspaper Estia reported today.

The newspaper, quoting unnamed government authorities, said the areas affected by the order included the eastern Peloponese coastal waters, around main Aegean islands and Saronik gulf in the Athens area.

The navy also was ordered to search all suspicious-looking vessels by day or night, Estia said.

Funeral Services Conducted In Lamesa For G. P. Addison

LAMESA, March 3 (Special)—Funeral services were held at the First Baptist church here Sunday for G. P. Addison, 70, a Dawson county resident for 24 years who died in a local hospital Feb. 28.

Rev. M. R. Hancock officiated at the final rites assisted by Rev. Paul Deal, and burial was in the Lamesa Memorial park under the direction of Higgingbotham Funeral home.

Mr. Addison, a well-known farmer and an active participant in community affairs, was a native of Collin county.

Survivors include his hife, two sisters, Mrs. J. F. Nix and Mrs. Charles McBride, both of Farmersville; six sons, Alton, James, Jack and Virgil Addison, all of Lamesa; Milton Addison, Brownfield; and George Addison, Kermit; one daughter, Mrs. H. E. Pieper, Lamesa; and 13 grandchildren.

Texas Engineer Pleads Guilty To Forging, Cashing Checks

PHILADELPHIA, March 3 (U.P.)—A Texas A & M graduate who completed a prison term for larceny and fraudulent conversion pleaded guilty in federal court today to forging and cashing checks totaling $1,600.

The defendant, Paul Martin, 41, Fort Worth, Tex., a construction engineer, was asked by Judge George A. Welsh: "How did you ever make such a mess of your life?"

"I don't know," Martin told the court. "Since I've been in prison I've tried to figure out the answer and can't." He is now serving an 18-month to three year jail sentence for assaulting a prison guard.

Martin said his trouble began in 1946 when he found himself without funds in Venezuela after a construction company he worked for "folded up." He passed several worthless checks for his return passage to the United States, found it difficult to get another job, "made up" worthless checks on a bank here and passed them in Chicago and Detroit, he testified.

South Plains Cotton Meeting Set In Lubbock April 10

More Than 1,200 Expected For Talks On Crop Outlook For Year

More than 1,200 farmers, ginners, veterans and business men are expected to be present April 10 for a South Plains cotton outlook meeting, plans and program for which were announced Wednesday by George A. Simmons, member of the state-wide cotton committee of Texas since its organization.

The meeting, which will continue only through the forenoon, will deal almost exclusively with cotton prospects and problems of this area during the coming year and will be of important concern to everyone affected by that crop, sponsors said.

State Group Sponsors Session

Official sponsor of the meeting, to be held in the Palace theater, will be the production committee of the state-wide cotton committee of Texas with the cooperation of the chamber of commerce.

J. D. Prewitt, of College Station, vice director and state agent of the Texas extension service and chairman of the production group of the state-wide committee, will preside.

Theme of the meeting will be: "If our cotton is to hold its place in the world market, it must do so on the basis of price and quality—not subsidy."

Speakers Are Named

Speakers and their topics were announced as follows:

"Cotton, What it Means to West Texas," by C. B. Spencer, of Dallas, agricultural director of the Texas Cottonseed Crushers' association; "The Outlook for Cotton in 1948 from the Farmer's Viewpoint," W. O. Fortenberry, of Monroe, and "The 1948 Cotton Outlook for the South Plains," by Don L. Jones, of Lubbock, superintendent of the experiment sub-station, who is to deliver the principal address.

Simmons said he has been advised that about 500 former service men now engaged in cotton studies of various kinds will wish ot attend. Leading cotton farmers, practically every community on the South Plains also are expected to be present.

The new definite setting of time and place displaces tentative plans previously considered for the meeting, Simmons explained.

Tests Set For Job Applicants

Members of the new city civil service commission will conduct preliminary screening for men wanting jobs with the Lubbock fire department at 2 p. m. Friday at the Central fire station, Chairman Harry Morris announced Wednesday.

It will be the first official duty performed by the commission since its organization a few days ago. Serving with Morris on the new board are Marion Sanford and George W. McCleskey.

Expansion Of Personnel

The screening, it was explained, looks toward an expansion of the fire department personnel so as to provide a crew for the recently completed substation on South Texas avenue. Expectation is that the substation can be put into service within the next month.

Morris emphasized that the examinations scheduled Friday will not be final. But they are expected to lead to the selection of a group of perhaps 20 candidates from among whom an undetermined number of new firement will be selected after more thorough tests.

First Use Of System

This will be the first actual use of the civil service competitive examination system ever made in Lubbock in the selection of city employes.

Morris extended an invitation to "anyone interested in and qualified for "employment with the fire department to appear for the screening.

The basic qualifications for applicants are: residence in Lubbock; between the ages of 21 and 35 years, and ability to pass a somewhat rigid physical examination.

Conviction Of Hobbs Bottling Plant Owner In OPA Suit Upheld

DENVER, March 3 (AP)—The U. S. Circuit Court of Appeals today upheld the conviction of A. M. Bartlett, owner of a Hobbs, N. M., bottling plant, on a charge of violation of OPA sugar stamp regulations.

The court reversed the lower court's decision in the conviction of Trudy Edwards of Hobbs on similar charges and ordered her case retired.

They were convicted of fraudulent use of sugar rationing stamps in conection with bottling of soft drinks at Bartlett's plant.

Exchange Club Members Typed For Blood Bank Project Here

The blood bank project adopted as No. 1 achievement for the Lubbock county chapter of the Red Cross in 1948 was explained by Ruel Martin, chairman of the chapter's blood bank committee, and tests for blood types were given to Exchange club members as a feature of the club's luncheon at Hotel Lubbock Wednesday.

Another feature was several vocal numbers of a Barber Shop quartet composed of R. S. Robinson, Jack Hall, Bob Hufstedler and Bob Dennis.

Mrs. J. H. Stiles, executive secretary; Miss Lula Mae Cravens, volunteer special service chairman; Mrs. L. E. Davis, volunteer worker; Gerald Jarvis, city technician; Jasper Hubbert, chief technician and Mrs. D. G. Zachary, technician, of Lubbock Memorial hospital staff, directed the blood bank typing.

R. F. Hinchey Of Lubbock Named President And General Manager West Texas Gas Co.

Announcement that R. F. Hinchey of Lubbock, vice president and general manager of West Texas Gas company the last 20 years, now is president and general manager was made following a meeting of the company's board of directors in Kansas City Tuesday.

As president, he succeeds R. E. Wertz of Amarillo, who relinquished the post to become chairman of the board of Amarillo Oil company, an administrative affiliate. The change was designed to enable Wertz to devote more time to special work for all the affiliated companies.

Offices Moved Here

Hinchey came to West Texas from Okmulgee, Okla., on June 1, 1927 to be in charge of the construction of a gas transmission line from the Panhandle gas field down into the South Plains, and of distributing plants in the various cities and towns which were to be served. First offices of the company were in Amarillo, but early in 1930 after the initial construction work was complete, the general offices of the company were moved to Lubbock, where they have remained.

Hinchey has spent his entire working life in the natural gas business. His father and grandfather had likewise been employed in the natural gas industry. He started in his 'teens as water boy for a construction crew building a natural gas pipe line from Bradford, P. A., to Buffalo, N. Y.

He has been with the gas industry ever since with the exception of about one year spent serving in the armed forces during World

Red Cross Drive Gets Good Start

Lubbock county's annual Red Cross drive netted approximately $2,874 yesterday, the first day of the campaign which has as its goal the collection of $25,000 for the fund, Ernest F. St. Clair, fund drive chairman, reported.

The drive got under way Wednesday morning with general solicitation among all employee groups in the city, following a "kick-off" meeting at 9 a. m. at Hilton hotel with approximately 150 workers present.

W. C. O'Mara, chairman of the Lubbock county chapter; and Ernest F. St. Clair, fund drive chairman, spoke briefly in the meeting, outlining the various phases of the drive. Following the general meeting, Dutch Wiginton, chairman of the employes division; and B. Watkins, chairman of the general business division, gave instructions on the drive and distributed workers kits to the various teams.

Corps Serves Doughnuts

Coffee and doughnuts were served by members of the Red Cross Canteen corps.

Immediately afterwards, the workers, divided into teams of two and three men, went out on the streets in actual solicitations in the drive. Reports on the progress of the campaign will be made throughout the remainder of this week and until the goal is reached.

St. Clair said he hoped to "wind up" the campaign by March 15.

OFFICERS NAMED BY SLATON RED CROSS

Officers and directors of the Slaton branch of the Lubbock County Red Cross chapter were elected Wednesday and announced by W. C. O'Mara, county chapter chairman here.

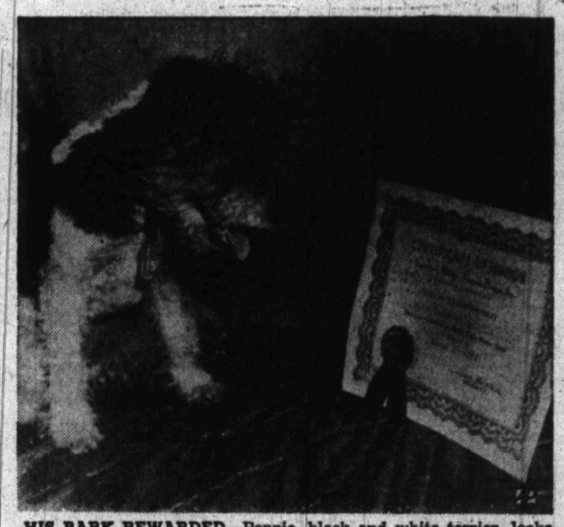

A. C. Strickland, jr., was named branch chairman, and automatically becomes a member of the county board as a vice chairman. Other Slaton branch officers elected were R. E. Ayers, vice chairman; Mrs. L. E. Odom, secretary; Mrs. R. H. Bailey, treasurer. Directors named were Fred Schmidt and Howard T. Swanner.

Mrs. Henry Eidson was named home service chairman, Dr. J. L. Cobb was selected as disaster chairman, and Wm. R. Sewell was named chairman of the 1948 fund drive, which it was announced is to be started Mar. 13 with hope of completion in three days.

WORKERS IN SHALLOWATER CAMPAIGN ANNOUNCED

Mrs. John Redwine, chairman of Shallowater's Red Cross drive, announced complete organization of her campaign and said work had already started on the drive.

She announced her workers as follows: Mesdames J. W. Rice and J. T. Scott and Messrs. J. C. Johnson, V. J. Farris, M. J. Williams, Earl Teague and Glen Blackman. Lewis Price and Charles Jordan will direct the drive among the negro residents of the community.

HIS BARK REWARDED—Peppie, black and white terrier, looks at an award given him for alerting tenants in Astoria, Queens, N. Y., apartment house fire. The fire resulted in the death of two children but Peppie's bark enabled others to escape. The award, made by Greenwich Village Humane Society, belongs to Peppie despite the fact it is made out to "Tippie." The Society made the mistake on it and it was too late to change in time for making of pictures. It will be changed. (AP Wirephoto).

ADDED CONSTRUCTION TO START

Ground Breaking Program Set Monday At Lubbock Boys Club

First step in construction of Lubbock Boys' club's new $80,000 indoor swimming pool will be taken Monday with ground-breaking ceremonies and a special program planned for the occasion, Dr. Marshall Harvey, president of the club, announced Wednesday.

Approximately 75 to 100 individuals and representatives of various civic clubs who have contributed the most in time, effort and funds will be entertained at a luncheon at 12:15 p. m. in the Boy's club building, 2323 Avenue K. Following the luncheon, the ground breaking ceremony and program will be held at 1 o'clock, with the public invited to attend.

A major part of the $80,000 needed for construction of the swimming pool is already in the funds of the Boys' club. Large monetary donations included $24,000 given by Mr. and Mrs. Retha Martin and $15,000 received from the Lubbock Lions club.

Approximately $22,000 was added to the club's treasury by the Gene Autrey rodeo last year, held under the sponsorship of the American Business club. The club hopes to raise the greater part of the deficiency for the swimming pool with this summer's ABC rodeo.

Architect's plans for the pool show that it is to be 75 by 36 feet, with a depth of three and one half feet. A T-shaped extension to the pool for diving purposes will be 30 by 28 feet and 11 feet deep.

A recirculating and chlorination system will be included, making a complete change of water possible every eight hours. Modern heating equipment will keep the water at a constant temperature for year-round swimming.

Members of the arrangements committee for Monday's program and ground-breaking are John W. Wilson, J. Ray Dickey, A. B. Watkins, J. A. Fortenberry, Walter McMatt, Arnold Maeker, Preston Johnson, O. B. Ratliff, Gordon Thompson, Alton Taylor, John Kattman and G. C. Dowell.

Additional details of the Monday program, yet to be worked out, will be announced later, club officials said Wednesday night.

HOW TO SLEEP WELL

MILWAUKEE (U.P.)—A Milwaukeean, bothered by insomnia, was told by the psychiatrist that there was nothing wrong with him "that doing less housework and getting out in the open air won't cure." So he gave up helping around the house and now goes ice skating every night while his wife does the dishes. He says he comes home feeling fine and sleeps like a bear.

Grain Experts Oppose Anderson On Possible Wheat Price Drop

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U.P.)— Grain experts in and out of government today disagreed with Secretary of Agriculture Clinton P. Anderson's belief that wheat prices could drop below support levels in the next few months.

They referred to Anderson's statement that present legal restrictions on wheat exports "very likely" will drive wheat prices below support levels in May or June if crop prospects are favorable.

These experts said this would happen only if a recession set in and threatened to drive down the entire national price level.

They said flour millers and wheat merchants are not likely to get out of the market—and thereby depress wheat prices—when all signs indicate that the government support price after July 1 will be much higher than the present one.

Anderson made his statement yesterday in a letter to Sen. Milton R. Young, R, N. D. The letter supplied Young with ammunition for his fight to repeal the law requiring the government to hold a minimum reserve of 150,000,000 bushels of 1947 crop wheat in this country on July 1. The law was enacted last fall to restrict government wheat exports.

Rep. Lowell Stockman, R, Ore., also has introduced a bill to repeal the requirement.

Anderson said "outright repeal" was in the "national interest." In the face of favorable crop prospects, he said, the carry-over requirements "will very likely . . . force prices below support levels," at a time when need for additional wheat for export is "urgent."

Mercenary Washington Cabbie May Have To Explain To Judge

WASHINGTON, March 3 (U.P.)— That Washington cab driver who never gives a passenger an even break may have to tell the judge and jury about it.

Damage suits totaling $400,000 have been filed against James J. Brennan, taxi driver-author of an article in last week's Saturday Evening Post entitled "never give the passenger an even break."

The Curtis Publishing Co., publisher of the Post, also was named defendant in suits filed jointly by

Chinese Student In Tech Tells Rotary Of China's Needs

China's greatest needs at present are modernized agriculture, additional medical men, supplies and medical service, and a reorganization of its educational system, Joe Ma, Texas Tech graduate student from South China, said Wednesday in a speech at the Rotary club luncheon.

Ma, who, with his wife, came to Lubbock several months ago, described his fellow countrymen as being tired and badly worn due to the war with the Japs and the following civil conflict in which China remains engaged. He said the people "are so sick of fighting that they'd turn Communist, or to any other 'ism, if promised by such a system peace and enough food to eat."

Describing the U. S. as "a wonderful country," and reminding his listeners that Americans are "the luckiest people on earth," he urged that Americans assume their responsibility in world affairs. He branded inflation, with which he was familiar in China, as a "terrible thing," and advised Americans to control it as quickly as possible. He mentioned receipt of an air mail letter from China which cost the equivalent of 51,000 Chinese dollars to send to Lubbock from Foochow.

In their "first primary" election to name five directors for the coming year, Rotarians chose 11 of their number for the "run off" balloting next Wednesday. Clubmen chosen by popular vote to compete in the "run-off" were Dean James G. Allen, Walter Clark, Ely Fonville, G. V. Fulton, Roy Furr, Chas. A. Guy, Don King, Arch Lamb, Jack Stone, Guy Victory and Neil H. Wright, jr.

Three new Rotarians were welcomed into the club by Mayor Clarence Bestwick and former Mayor Overton Ribble. They were Arthur Quest, Jay Wooten and Bill Pendley. Junior Rotarians for next month were introduced as James Sherrill, from Lubbock High school, and Joe Heffner, from Texas Tech.

The program, held in the Matador room of Hotel Hilton, was in charge of Don King. President Rex Webster presided. The club paid respects to the memory of S. Lamar Forrest, a member who died last week, by standing in silence for a brief period.

Thomas W., Fowler, owner of the Columbia Cab co., and 60 Columbia drivers. Accompanying the magazine article was a picture of Brennan posed with a Columbia cab.

In his article, Brennan related his experiences as a Washington cabbie. He told how he was able to pick and choose among the passengers he wanted, ignoring those who would yield small revenue.

Careless Drilling Scored By Court

AUSTIN, March 3 (AP)— The person who drills carelessly and permits dissipation of oil and gas owned by him and others in a common pool is liable for damages from such drilling, the Supreme court ruled today.

The court upheld the right of Mrs. Mabel Elliff and others to recover damages from the Texon Drilling company, resulting from the blowout of a gas well drilled by Texon in the Agua Dulce field of Nueces county in 1936.

A well being drilled by Texon blew out and cratered. Then an Elliff oil well and two water wells became involved. A jury found that Texon was negligent in failing to use drilling mud of sufficient weight to prevent the blowout, and awarded Mrs. Elliff $154,518.10 in damages.

The Court of Civil appeals reversed this judgment. It held that under the law of capture, the gas and distillate under her property had migrated and Mrs. Elliff had lost her property rights.

The Supreme court struck down this holding. It sent the case back to the Court of Civil Appeals for a final determination of the damages.

"No owner should be permitted to carry on his operations in a reckless or lawless irresponsibility, but must submit it such limitations as are necessary to enable each to get his own," the court held.

Brief Bits Of Local News

Last rites will be conducted at 10 o'clock this morning in Sanders Funeral home chapel for Louis Joe Kemp, 82, retired farmer and resident of this county about 24 years who died Tuesday morning in the home of a daughter, Mrs. C. R. Ashcraft in Holmes addition on route 2. The body will be taken to Claude for a graveside service and burial there at 5 o'clock this afternoon. It had been erroneously announced the service here would be held Wednesday morning.

Judgment for plaintiffs and intervenor, Cacy Day, in the civil action of J. C. Williamson and others against Sam P. Richey and others, a friendly suit in trespass to try title so that title to six sections of land in southwest Lubbock county could be cleared, was entered Wednesday by Judge G. V. Pardue of 99th district court. There were approximately 50 parties to the suit. The firm of Klett, Bean, Evans and Justice represented the plaintiffs and intervenor, who had bought one of the sections which in 1941 were willed to first cousins of Ely McCrummen. A. W. Salyars was appointed guardian ad litem to represent minors cited by publication as parties defendant, and attorney ad litem to appear for possible unknown heirs and other defendants who could not be reached by personal service.

Theft of a portable radio, on the back and bottom of which his name was written, was reported to the sheriff's office Wednesday by Oscar Sawyer of Forty-seventh and Ave. P. His house was entered, Sawyer said.

Lubbock 20-30 club held its regular weekly meeting last night at Lubbock hotel, with approximately 22 members present. Main subject for discussion at the meeting was planning for the West Texas district convention of 20-30 clubs to be held in Lubbock in July. Two guests were present, John Rogers of Idalou and Herbert Pigg, Lubbock. Raymond Mack, president, presided.

In 1942, 64 Negro U.S. children died during the first year of life for every 1,000 live births compared with 37 deaths among white children.

In June, 1944, the number of American men listed by their draft boards as physically, mentally or morally unfit for military service totalled 4,200,000.

Wallace's Testimony To Solons Claimed Too Much Like Dream

By PETER EDSON
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON, March 3—(NEA)—Henry Wallace left out a whole lot of paragraphs when he appeared before the House Foreign Affairs Committee to read his 12,000 word statement against the European Recovery Program. Perhaps the most important lines omitted were:

"While the Russians felt that they had no reasons to doubt the sincerity of the invitation to them, I think they made a mistake by withdrawing from the Paris meeting."

This sentence is notable because it is almost the only comment Wallace made that was at all critical of Soviet Russia. Aside from that one thing—withdrawing from the Paris Conference at which the 16 European nations drew up their requirements for a four-year recovery plan—everything the Russians do is apparently Jake with Henry. The fault is all with the U. S.—the American imperialists who want to intevene in Europe.

Performance Said Unusual

This most recent Washington appearance of Wallace's was one of the strangest performances within memory. All the 25 congressmen on the committee gave the man credit for being sincere. Not one accused him of demagoguery, of playing to the grandstand or making a political speech. They wanted to understand him. Yet what he had to say was completely baffling. He seemed to be living in a dream world in which the only realities were what he wanted to believe. He was a good bit like Walter Mitty in the movie.

"What is the difference between your plan and the Communist plan?" Sol Bloom (D., N. Y.) asked Wallace.

He said he wasn't familiar with the Communist plan. All he knew was that the countries of eastern Europe were being shut off from western Europe.

The fact that Moscow had compelled Poland and Czechsolovakia to stay out of the Marshall Plan, Wallace seemed to ignore. ERP, Wallace told Congressman Karl Mundt (R., S. Dak.), was American intervention in the affairs of countries overseas.

"Don't you feel the Communists are intervening in eastern Europe?" Mundt asked. Wallace said he didn't know the extent to which they were intervening. "It is impossible to know what the truth is, based on the American press," he said.

Sounds Like UNRRA

Wallace's own plan is for a UN Recovery Program run like UNRRA. Every country should contribute. Wallace puts the cost at $5,000,000 a year for 10 years. The U. S. gave 73 per cent of the UNRRA total. Wallace hopes it would have to pay only 50 per cent of the UN recovery bill. This is world-saving at a bargain.

How he arrives at these figures he doesn't explain. The fact that many of the 32 countries supporting UNRRA are now broke and asking for more credit, Wallace ignores. The fact that the UNRRA idea didn't work out as well as hoped for, he also ignores.

The fact that four-power control of Germany and Austria isn't working, Wallace ignores. He wants the German Ruhr run by America, Britain, France and Russia, even though they have thus far failed to make a go of Germany and Austria.

Through page after page of his statement runs this same note of unreality. He's an optimist, he says. He thinks both capitalism and communism can survive in the same world. There doesn't have to be a showdown. This is a religious war, like in the 1500's.

Is that his answer? Is the Wallace dream world back in the 16th century—not the 20th or the 21st? Wallace said he thought there was no danger Russia would penetrate western Europe. Communist governments might take over, but Russia won't come into power.

Everything would be all right if there was just some new faces in the executive end of the U. S. government. They'd have to get together with the Russians to discuss the whole world problem and get an understanding.

Congressman Lawrence Smith (R., Wis.) said he agreed on the need of new faces in Washington. That was one opening Wallace was prepared for. "I thank you for your support, sir," he said. The crowd roared. It was the only demonstration of the whole morning in the big House caucus room, packed with 1000 curious doubters.

The congressmen themselves were doubters. While all the Republicans wanted to share Wallace's mistrust of the Marshall Plan, they couldn't quite bring themselves to it. Wallace probably made votes for ERP. Even the Democrats were hostile to his point of view.

Congressman Jacob R. Javits, (R., N. Y.) finally asked Wallace if he had any assurance that Russia would co-operate with the rest of the world? Wallace admitted he had none.

Official Says Citrus Regulations Liberal

WESLACO, Tex., March 3 (AP)—If the voters don't like his work as commissioner of agriculture they can elect someone else, J. E. McDonald of Austin told a meeting of Texas citrus advisory council here yesterday.

McDonald made the statement at a meeting at which dissatisfaction with regulations under which Texas for the first time in 16 years can ship citrus to California was expressed. The commissioner said he considers the California regulations liberal and that shippers who dislike them are under no compulsion to ship to California.

The warm discussion ended in a unanimous vote of thanks to McDonald for his work in opening the California market. Texas citrus has been embargoed there since 1932.

State entomologist Walter McKay of Austin told the council Texas will negotiate also for opening Arizona and Florida markets to Texas citrus and that he has been assured that Florida will cooperate.

TROOPS NEEDED TO FIGHT REDS

Chinese Army, U. S. Advisers, Training Soldiers On Formosa

By FRED HAMPSON
Associated Press Staff Writer

PINGTUNG, Formosa, March 3 —The Chinese army and its U. S. advisers are turning out soldiers here—well-fed troops who look like they can fight.

On a quick visit to this new government training base on southern Formosa, I found a morale which is in sharp contrast to the weariness and indifference of the nationalist troops usually seen in China.

The program is turning out a better fighting man than those who now bear arms for the government on the civil war battlefields.

Trainees Work Out

They say a Chinese soldier properly trained is as good as any in the world. One can believe it after seeing the trainees work out on the warm drill grounds and ranges of Pingtung.

I was watching a bayonet drill. A U. S. sergeant who fought in France and Germany was standing nearby looking on.

"Most Chinese soldiers," he observed, "don't look to me like they could fight a lick. But these guys look like they could fight plenty."

How many trained divisions does China need, and can they be produced in time to turn the tide against the Chinese Communists?

Supplies Are Short

I asked Gen. Sun Li-Jen, in command of all Chinese army training bases, how many well-trained divisions he thought were needed to throw back the Communist threat.

The general said no one knew the answer, but he thought 20 divisions would make a big difference.

How long will it take to produce these divisions, Sun added, would depend largely on supplies, which are extremely short.

(Sun, admirer of the U. S. Army, was graduated from Virginia Military institute. He commanded the crack U. S.-trained new first army in Burma.)

In any event, the training program has something to show in the way of progress. And no telling what this base can do in the way of turning out finished troops when it operates at peak capacity.

Elwin Ellison Given Awards At Ceremony

Elwin Ellison, 22, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Ellison of 2210 Twenty-fourth, was presented the Distinguished Flying Cross, Air Medal, and three Gold Stars in lieu of second, third and fourth Air Medals at the regular meeting of the Organized Naval Reserve last night in the Engineering auditorium at Texas Technological college.

Lt. Marvin Hunter, Naval Reserve recruiting officer here, presented the awards to Ellison. The honors would ordinarily have been paid Ellison while he was still in the active Navy, but information received by his mother from the Navy stated that parts of her sons service record had been misplaced, thereby causing a delay in the presentation of the medals.

Ellison, who served as a radioman-gunner on a dive bomber in the Pacific theater of operations, participated in at least 25 combat missions. The Nevy citation states in part that the awards are being made "for a series of meritorius acts while participating in aerial flight" from Dec. 23, 1943 to May 9, 1944.

Ellison entered the Navy while a senior at Lubbock High school. He joined the Navy Sept. 22, 1942, and went overseas in September, 1943. He took part in the campaigns at Munda, Rabaul and Bougainville. He returned to the United States in 1944, later going to Pearl Harbor as a flight test crewman. He was discharged at Alameda, Calif., on Sept. 22, 1946.

He is now a sophomore business administration student at Texas Tech, and a member of the college Socii club.

Rites Set Today For Mrs. J. M. Morrison

SLATON, March 3 (Special)—Funeral services for Mrs. J. M. Morrison, 57, of Route 1, will be conducted at 2 p. m. Thursday afternoon in the First Methodist church here with Rev. C. A. Bickley of Lubbock officiating.

Burial will be in Englewood cemetery at Slaton under direction of Williams Funeral home.

Mrs. Morrison, a resident of the Posey community for the past 27 years, died in a Lubbock hospital about 9:40 Tuesday night.

She is survived by her husband, four daughters, Mrs. Cecilie Johnson of Ropesville, Mrs. Bessie Allen of Lubbock, Mrs. Novella Miller of Slaton and Mrs. Narvell Buxkemper of Slaton; three sons, Rev. L. C. Morrison of Abilene, Deward of Muleshoe, and Harold of Slaton, seventeen grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Pallbearers are Bud Johnson, Vaughn Campbell, C. R. Johnson, J. C. Gentry, Willie Wilke, Monroe Briegar, A. L. Wilson and Warner Boyce.

Catholic Decree Urges Italians To Vote For Religious Rights

ROME, March 3 (U.P.)—The Catholic church stepped into the Italian election campaign officially today by urging Italians to vote "for the rights of religion and defense of the church" in the April balloting.

It was the first time the Vatican has taken an official stand in an election campaign. The church's attitude was expected to have a marked influence on the campaign in the 46 days before election.

The decree was issued by the sacred consistorial congregation headed by Pope Pius XII.

Observers interpreted the decree as marking official church reaction to the Czechoslovakia crisis.

Piece Of Peanut Proves To Be Cause Of Cough For Young Girl

A five-year-old girl, Gwyn Combs, of Clovis, N. M., yesterday was relieved of the cause of her chronic cough which she had suffered for about two months.

She was brought here several days ago by the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Combs, for a thorough medical examination, St. Mary's hospital reported.

A number of doctors examined Gwyn, and Wednesday her cough was diagnosed, as caused by a 'foreign body' in the left main bronchus.

An operation was performed yesterday, and the 'foreign body which was removed was found to be a piece of peanut.'

The doctors had been told that Gwyn's cough developed after she had eaten some peanuts two months ago. She was reported resting nicely last night.

STUMPED BY STAMP

MILWAUKEE (U.P.)—Mrs. Eugene Stamm was puzzled when a package on which she had pasted some 10-cent stamps was returned with the words, "void as postage," stamped on it. Then she examined the stamps more closely. They were war savings stamps.

WHY THE RUSH?

Cart Before Horse

STATE Librarian Francis H. Henshaw was on sound ground in telling the Lubbock Public Library association Monday night to plan well ahead for the library for which $500,000 in bonds were voted here last year. But his recommendation that a librarian be employed at once seems premature by at least a year, for reasons he could not be expected to know.

The earliest the library could be completed is about two years, and it may be much further away than that. The city could not sell the library bonds now if it wished. No city's bonded debt secured by taxes can exceed 10 per cent of its assessed valuations. Lubbock's present debt exceeds $5,200,000, with valuations of about $54,000,000—almost the limit.

The new tax roll, to be ready by late Summer, may go over $60,000,000. The library bonds probably could be sold then if the city is willing to continue in debt "to the hilt." But the advisability of such close financing may be seriously questioned.

Under the fastest possible schedule, the library is at least two years in the future. It would take that long to sell the bonds and to approve plans, let contracts for and erect the building.

The start of construction, which is sure to take about a year, should be ample time to consider the expense of a librarian's salary. An earlier appointment would be haste of the kind that makes waste.

A Needed Program

ORDINARY business sense may cause many Texans to be cautious in endorsing too quickly the $4,201,075 prison improvement program recommended this week by the State Prison board and the system's new general manager, C. B. Ellis.

But many circumstances support the supposition that the system needs extensive improvements. Frequent criticisms from many sources and numerous outbreaks, disturbances and controversies within and/or pertaining to Texas prisons are strong evidence that much must be wrong. Any corrective measures are sure to be expensive.

The program demands serious and sympathetic study. Unless convincing proof is produced to show it contains serious flaws, it should be adopted. The Prison board and officials are entitled to this evidence of confidence and support in the difficult job they are trying to do.

Look Out!

THE recent report of the National Safety council that 12,000 pedestrians were killed in traffic accidents during 1947 was ample proof that such dangers are not confined to those who drive or ride.

The report shows further that three out of four of those killed were violating the rules of traffic or of ordinary safety. The most frequent offenses were jay-walking, crossing against signals and walking suddenly into traffic lanes from behind obscuring cars.

The fact that about one-fourth of the victims were not at fault technically is not much consolation to them. Most of them could have gotten out of the way of danger if they had been alert.

None of this attempt to minimize the responsibility of the driver in matters which concern traffic safety. But the figures are ample proof that the pedestrian who keeps his eyes open is likely to live longer.

A treasure hunt, games of 42 and other diversions featured an apron and overall party given by Miss Nina Trigg for members of her home room at school. Tre treasure hunt started at the home of Miss Johlierah Clem, and games were played at the home of Miss Maxine Bradley. Others attending were Zada Mae Scott, Alyne Dean, Louisa Adkisson, Ruth Reed, Thelma Maesson, Eunice Cone, Margaret Conner, Kathryn Stallings of Post, Gilford Scott, Ran Lindsey, W. D. Lawson, jr., Jimmie Smith, Wesley Doak, Bill Teal and Dayron Orr.

Murder At My House

By Rene Ryerson Mart
Distributed By NEA Service, Inc.

(THE STORY: I take Liz' incriminating blotter down to Leiphan's office and Bob Leiphan shows me the actual letter that started "Dearest Avis." It was an innocent note from Liz telling Avis about the party at my house that night. This would seem to clear Liz. Leiphan says he's not going to arrest me yet, although there is plenty of circumstantial evidence against me. He brings out the pernkis of poison which his men found in my house. It is the same type of poison that killed Avis and Art.)

XXIV

LEIPHAN was still looking at me, and there was a look in his eyes that I couldn't quite fathom. His voice was level and impersonal. "There are, however, a couple of things that don't quite jibe with his other evidence. There is the fact that your original statement to the police was one of the things which made us suspect murder in the first place. You were so vehement in your assertion that Art Cleves was not drunk when he left your place. You didn't know that, did you?"

I shook my head numbly.

"Now this is the way I see it," Leiphan went on. "If you were the one who gave poison to Avis Vaughn and Art Cleves, the best break you could have had was having it take effect when it did, and having their car plunge into the canyon. All you had to do was keep still and it would have passed as another accident due to drunken driving. That's the one thing that doesn't square . . . and you can thank your lucky stars for it!"

His eyes were suddenly rueful: "That and one other thing—call it a hunch, if you like. Or say that I'm just a sucker for a certain type of face." His own colored beautifully. "It's the way you were sleeping that day when I first saw you. I thought it was going to take Gabriel's horn to wake you. I can't believe that a woman who had just gotten away with murder could sleep as soundly and look as innocent as you did curled up in that deck chair."

He stood up bringing the interview to an end and waited while I got out of my chair and tried to wrap a little dignity around my battered ego along with my coat. Suddenly he grinned at me. "You have pretty tough luck with your men, don't you?"

• • •

AND there was between us for a moment one of those quick warm flashes of perfect understanding. I knew he was thinking of what I had told him about Oscar, and how Jeff Haverson had sold me down the river by blabbing to the police all that about me having been put in a sanitarium to keep me from taking my own life. Just to get the police off his own trail.

It didn't make sense, but then nothing was making sense by that time. I mean the feeling I had that I was walking on air when I went out of Bob Leiphan's office. I didn't feel at all like a woman who has just been granted a brief reprieve from arrest for murder.

I drove back to the studio and went to my office and looked for my lipstick and couldn't find it. Someone must have seen it on the floor and picked it up and carried it away. Well, I'd have to get another one.

Somehow, I got through the day. I spent two hours instead of my usual half at the commissary, dawdling over lunch. And then I went over to the library and did a little research reading.

At last it was 4:30 and I sprang up and went to my car without going back to my own office. I stopped at Ravella's Hollywood Boulevard shop on my way home and explained to the girl who waited on me: "I've lost the lipstick I bought here the other day—Ravella made it special for me. I thought maybe she'd made a refill or two at the same time.

• • •

THE girl asked my name and said she'd check and see if there were any refills. She went through the door in the back of the shop that led, I supposed, into the laboratory. I rather suspected that Ravella had dozens of lipsticks in the identical color she had sold me and that all that hocus-pocus about individual formulas was just a smart sales device to make the customer feel fine about paying four or five times what the lipstick was really worth. So I wasn't surprised when the girl came back with one all wrapped up for me and said she hoped that I wouldn't lose this one.

Marie had dinner ready when I arrived at the house, but she was weaving around like a sailor on the first night after the fleet comes in. I got the idea that she had been sampling my new liquor stock a little too freely. After she just missed spilling the soup down my neck, I suggested that she go and lie down and I'd serve myself. And that was the last I saw of her until hours later—and after a great deal had happened. For it was that night that someone took a shot at me in the dark.

I finished eating, went up to the living room and made a pretense of reading a new book. But it wasn't any good. Other things, personal things, kept getting between me and the printed page. The phone rang and I picked it up quickly, glad of the interruption, and then was sorry I had. It was Jeff Haverson. He said he'd like to see me. I cut him off short saying that I didn't feel like seeing anyone. The warm confidential tones of his voice outraged me—knowing what he had told the police.

Maybe my sense of loyalty is perverted, but I knew I would never have told the police anything that would have made Jeff look suspect. I hadn't told Leiphan yet about Jeff sitting outside in his car the very night Avis was killed, sitting there wishing that she were dead.

Looking At Life -- By Erich Brandeis

I WONDER whether that Miami judge will agree with his colleague in Newark, N. J., who denied separate maintenance to a woman who charged that her husband drank too much.

The Newark judge did not deny that too much drinking is bad.

"But," he added, "under the most ideal circumstances each party to a marriage must overlook a great many things. Such behavior comes under the 'for worse' part of the marriage contract."

BRANDEIS

So, the woman will have to continue to live with her husband—drunk or sober.

So much for the Newark judge.

In Miama a man wants a divorce because, according to his charge, his wife is so jealous that she will not permit him to read newspapers until she has clipped out and destroyed all pictures of women.

He alleges also that she turns off the radio whenever there is a female voice on the program, and once, he claims, she even snapped it off when a male crooner was singing a tune about a lovely girl called "Linda."

The Miami judge has taken the matter under advisement and will soon announce whether he, too, considers such behavior to come under the "for worse" part of the marriage contract.

• • •

Far be it from me to pass judgment on a judge.

He has his law books, and I have only my common sense, and the two don't always seem to go together.

But it is a fact that a lot of people, when they get married, never think of that little clause "for better or worse."

As Andy used to say when the Kingfish tried to put a fast one over on him:

"Will you repeat that? It just whizzed by me."

Young married people never think of the "for worse."

When the minister pronounces them man and wife, the sky is blue, the sun is shining, everything is rosy and bright.

The "for worse" just whizzes by them, and nobody repeats it at the time of the ceremony.

• • •

BUT I assure you that there isn't a marriage in this whole world that hasn't its bad days as well as its good ones.

Fortunately every man isn't a drunkard and every woman is not crazy with jealousy.

But neither is every married day rosy and bright, and there will be many a one when it rains cats and dogs and when it takes all the patience, all the tolerance, all the love that both can muster to keep the marriage together.

A lot has been said about the evils of divorce.

It is too bad that there has to be so much divorce, or any divorce at all.

But if you haven't learned to swim and you can't go on any longer—isn't it better for someone to throw you a life preserver than to let you drown?

MERGER PAYING OFF

Forrestal Top Man

By RAY TUCKER
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — National Defense Secretary James V. Forrestal denies reports that he has had to crack down on the still squabbling representatives of the Army, Navy and Air Forces. He admits that there is still a hangover of historic jealousies since the merger, but he believes that they will disappear in time. He has discovered that his insistence on weekly meetings of the top members of his war council is paying dividends in this respect.

TUCKER

Before the merger of the armed forces, the respective heads of the various departments charged with handling national defense problems rarely met each other. Now, Mr. Forrestal assembles them around the table at the Pentagon at least once a week.

• • •

HEAD: He insists that the topnotchers attend, regardless of other duties. In this connection, he had an amusing brush with General "Ike" Eisenhower before the latter retired as Chief of Staff. When Secretary Forrestal impressed on his War Council that he wanted the head men to attend these sessions, General Eisenhower suggested that they should be permitted to send deputies if it were impossible for them to be or hand. Mr. Forrestal reepated his injunction, adding that he did not want to discuss grave questions "with first, second or third deputies." He explained that he wanted only the "big shots" to sit in with him. "Well," chimed in "Ike," "I had to cancel an important meeting to be here this morning."

"So did I," smiled Secretary Forrestal.

• • •

DIFFERENCES: Mr. Forrestal also denies that he has had any serious differences with President Truman over the Palestine problem. There have been reports that he thought the United States had embarked on a policy in that region which might provoke a large-scale war and jeopardize our supply of Arabian oil.

So serious had the disagreement become, according to some reports, that Mr. Forrestal had offered to resign if his attitude was embarrassing to the White House in a reelection year. There is not an iota of truth to that version.

• • •

OIL: What the National Defense Secretary does advocate, however, is a development of national resources which will make the United States self-sufficient in the major materials for waging war. He is the Cabinet's strongest backer of Interior Secretary Krug's proposal that we enlarge present experiments for obtaining oil from shale, coal and natural gas.

As World War II forced us to develop a synthetic rubber industry, so he thinks that we should take steps to relieve ourselves of the need of importing petroleum from faraway areas like the Middle East and South America. He and President Truman are in complete agreement on this question.

• • •

OUTMODED: Strong sentiment against improving the Panama Canal or building a sea level waterway through Nicaragua has developed within the House Appropriations Subcommittee which handles this problem. Although it may sound like heresy, the belief is growing that modern methods of warfare have outmoded the canal.

The claim is made that, commercially, the U. S. derives minor benefit from the waterway. Three out of four ships which use it are foreign vessels. The development of heavy industries in the Far West—steel, aluminum etc.—deprives it of the advantages it had when it was constructed.

Japan's destruction, according to the committee version, is another factor which makes the canal less important from the standpoint of national defense. Maintenance of a huge air fleet and a two-ocean Navy are other reasons for the growing opposition to spending vast sums to improve the present seaway or to build another one in that area.

• • •

PROSPECTS: Senator Robert A. Taft's friends are bubbling with optimism these days over his prospects for the Republican presidential nomination. By the same token, Governor Thomas E. Dewey's Washington pals are more discouraged than ever before.

Two developments have combined to boost the hopes of the Ohioans supporters. The first, of course, is the strength which Henry A. Wallace has shown in all private and public tests.

If it appears that the third party candidate will make a Truman defeat almost a certainty, it is believed that the G.O.P. will turn to the Senate leader rather than to the governor of the nation's greatest state.

The other pro-Taft happening is the report that the rank and file of labor are not so hostile to the famous act which he co-sponsored.

While leaders like William Green, Philip Murray and John L. Lewis still refer to it as "vicious and enslaving," numerous polls suggest that the average workingman does not agree with that trio.

If it can be demonstrated that his part in placing this law on the books will not hurt him politically, Mr. Taft will be in a much stronger position at Philadelphia next June.

• • •

DISTRIBUTION: H. K. of Tonawanda, N. Y., asks how relief supplies under the Marshall Plan will be distributed by the sixteen participating countries. Many other readers show curiosity on this question, wondering whether such things as food, clothing and fuel will ever get to the needy and worthy.

Answer: Local conditions may force modifications but the perenal plan is to distribute such commodities through the normal channels of trade. Each government will turn them over to local stores, depending upon the need in various communities, as reflected in economic studies already made by various European committees.

It is planned to keep the prices as reasonable as possible, although caution will be taken to prevent too great an interference with each country's commercial system. State Department experts say that people unable to pay will be aided by the free grants provided in the plan.

• • •

RELIEF: H. K., speaking on the basis of his wartime observations abroad and reports from buddies still overseas, says that American relief supplies rarely went to the "right people."

"Our supplies were given to the government," he continues, "which, in turn, sold them to the stores. If people had money, they could buy this food, and if not, they could keep on going hungry."

Answer: It will be up to our representatives to see and insist that food be distributed fairly and equitably, although their methods of inspection and checking may vary in each country.

It will be unfortunate for our prestige if partiality is permitted to affect or prejudice the flow of these supplies, for the victims will probably hold us responsible, inasmuch as all packages must carry the notation that they came from the United States.

Believe It Or Not-By Robert Ripley

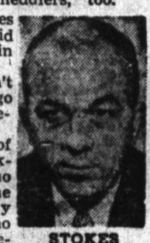

WHILE ASSAILING GOVERNMENT

South Receives Share Of Aid

By THOMAS L. STOKES
Special Correspondent

WASHINGTON — The current "revolt" of the south over President Truman's civil rights program is featured by agitation and some preliminary plans for various forms of what might be called "political secession" from the Democratic party and, indeed, from Yankee "meddlers," too.

STOKES

A quip goes around here, said not altogether in jest:

"Why don't they just go ahead and secede?"

Which is, of course, unthinking. It takes no account of the many, many southerners who are deeply resentful of the noisy bleating of their politicians and the slick schemes to "punish" the President. This is manifest in the sour reaction among lots of people in Virginia to the "Fort Sumter shot" of Gov. William M. Tuck by his proposal to keep Mr. Truman's name off the ballot in Virginia and delegate a party convention to tell the electors, after the election, for whom it was the people had voted.

• • •

Rights Brought Up

This high-handed trick now seems headed, for a change, a new proposal having been submitted by the governor.

For another thing, the people of the South are fully aware that there are economic as well as political ties between the southern states and the federal government. This of itself, when pondered seriously, provokes sober second thought.

"States' rights," as usual, is being dragged out again in this current engagement. Most people in the South know by now how outworn a shibboleth it is. They have seen how it is pulled out and dusted off by special interests in the South, political and economic, to halt progress, as is also done elsewhere in the nation.

• • •

A howl would go up from the South if anybody took some southern politicians at their own angry word about states' rights and stopped all federal measures and appropriations for the benefit of the South. Four years ago, during the previous southern "revolt," there was much high-sounding talk about states' rights at a regional meeting of southeastern governors at Atlanta.

It was deflated somewhat by Gov. Ellis Arnall of Georgia, who reminded his fellow governors frankly that, while they yelled about states' rights, they seemed ready and eager always to demand from Washington all sorts of federal benefits for their people.

Which is proper. The people of the South, for all the noise some of their politicians make, are a part of the union. And they get benefits from the federal treasury far out of proportion to the taxes they pay, with the bigger and more wealthy states making it up and complaining about it occasionally.

But this is also on the very sound basis that people are people everywhere in the United States; and men and women and children in Georgia or Mississippi are as much entitled to help as those in Michigan or New York.

• • •

The federal government has had to help the South in other ways. When southern states neglected to pass laws of their own to protect factory workers and farm tenants, and to develop their natural resources, Congress finally stepped in with the wage-hour law, federal financial assistance to farm tenants, TVA, and like measures.

People who have benefitted from these things know how specious is the states' rights plea and how it was exploited for so long to keep anything from being done to break down the low-wage economy that was profitable to a few. Enactment of these laws also served to wake up local southern leaders and, in many instances, they improved their own social and economic welfare statutes.

• • •

Just as the late President Roosevelt moved in to extend economic and social democracy to the people of the South, when the states themselves failed to take adequate measures, so President Truman has moved in to extend political democracy. The hopeful thing is that the President, by the very vigor with which he attacked, has stirred up a great debate which, of itself, will start thinking — and that is the beginning of wisdom. The South could do these things for itself, just as it could have done the others.

It is inevitable that they will be done.

Texas Ranks High In Completed Roads, Engineers Are Told

COLLEGE STATION, March 3 (AP)—A. C. Leonard of the public roads administration said here today that Texas ranks high in completed roads.

Leonard told 371 engineers at a short course at Texas A. and M. college that cooperation between the state and county plays an important part in the federal aid program for secondary roads.

Delegates to the highway engineers short course were welcomed to A. and M. by Gibb Gilchrist, president of the college.

7—Business Opportunities

BUSINESS OPPORTUNITY
The Knights of Pythias Lodge is the owner of Lots Five (5) and Six (6) in Block 134, Original Town of Lubbock, 1400 Block on Avenue K on East side of street, dimensions 52 feet by 125 feet. The Lodge is interested in conveying the lots to a suitable party who is willing to erect a two-story building thereon free of all liens, and under an agreement giving the Lodge ownership of the second story to be used for Lodge purposes, and the remainder to be owned by the other party. It will probably cost between $50,000.00 and $60,000.00 to construct such building according to the Lodge's requirements. The estimated value of the lots at the present time is from $20,000.00 to $25,000.00. Anyone interested contact Hub Lee or Victor H. Lindsey.

Wall Street

NEW YORK, March 3. (AP)—A few rails and oils responded to moderate demand today as other sections of the stock market found progress difficult.

Despite a sizable list of gainers, The Associated Press 60-stock composite finished the day unchanged at 61.6, its best level since Feb. 9. It was the fourth successive session without an average decline.

At the close advances were held by 442 of the 926 issues traded, while 247 declines were registered.

The day's volume was 780,000 shares, compared with 770,000 Tuesday.

Carriers benefited from dividend and earnings news. Commission houses said bidding was based on hopes for a spring rally and belief the President technical recovery had not run its course. Labor demands, Tax revisions prospects and disruption abroad placed a brake on bullish sentiment.

St. Louis Southwestern shares extended their response to plans for the first dividends since 1930. The common tacked on another 5½ points at 92½ and the preferred was up 3½ at 72. Climbs of major fractions to more than a point elsewhere were scored by Plymouth Oil at 47⅛, Gulf Oil 62, Rock Island 30⅝, Phelps Dodge 42⅜. Principal losers included American Tobacco "B" Goodrich, U. S. Gypsum and Atlantic Gulf & West Indies. Bonds were mostly steady.

Cotton

NEW YORK REPORT
NEW YORK, March 3 (AP) — Cotton futures moved irregularly today after displaying early weakness. Persistent mill buying in old crop deliveries, along with short covering and New Orleans buying met only limited offerings. The market's steadiness partly reflected the growing tightness in supplies of better grade cotton.

Declines extended to more than $1 a bale as scattered liquidation and hedging met indifferent trade support. There were 13 additional March transferable notices issued.

Futures closed 50 cents to $1.15 a bale lower than the previous close.

AVERAGE PRICE
NEW ORLEANS, March 3. (AP) — The average price of middling 15/16the-inch cotton today at ten designated southern spot markets was 31.25 a bale lower at 33.04 cents a pound; average for the past thirty market days 33.25; middling 7/8ths-inch average 31.41.

Grain

CHICAGO REPORT
CHICAGO, March 3 (AP) — Wheat dropped for losses extending to more than 3 cents while corn and oats closed with minor gains and declines on the board of trade today.

In an active trade, the market had several major price swings. Opening quotations were lower. Then a good rally developed, paced by corn. However, in the last 15 minutes heavy selling knocked values down quickly, leaving the market with a weak undertone.

The comparative easiness of wheat was based on a statement by Agriculture Secretary Anderson tha twheat prices may get down to the government support level if a law requiring a carryover of 150,000,000 bushels on July 1 is not repealed.

Corn and oats showed greater strength than wheat because of the very small marketings of these cereals, reflected in firm cash market prices. In the first three days of March only 83 cars of corn have arrived here, compared with 1,721 in the same period last year.

Wheat closed 2 to 3¼ cents lower, May $2.43¼-2.43, corn was 1½ lower to 1 cent higher, May $2.05½-2.07, oats were ¾ lower to ⅝ higher, May $1.14⅝-¾.

FORT WORTH REPORT
FORT WORTH, March 3 (AP) — Wheat No. 1 hard 2.56¼-63¼.
Barley No. 2, 2.08-11.
Oats No. 2 white 1.45¼-47½.
Corn: No. 2 yellow 2.58-59; No. 2 white 2.58½-93½.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow milo per 100 lbs. 3.78-83.
