Along The Waterfront

The Victoria Chamber of Commerce has declared that it wants no part of the biennial hassle over who's going to catch what fish in Texas bays, saying that this is a matter that should be handled by the state Game and Fish Commission.

Area sportsmen had petitioned state legislators to close San Antonio and Espiritu Santo bays to the netting of redfish and trout. Commercial fishermen in the area were and are opposing such closure vigorously. As a result, directors of the Victoria chamber, despite strenuous efforts to get them embroiled in the controversy, came out with the following resolution:

"... In the interest of conservation of marine life in Texas coastal waters, the Victoria Chamber of Commerce believes that the responsibility of determining the areas of protection, the type of regulation and the enforcement of these regulations should be referred to the Texas Game and Fish Commission as the state agency best qualified to determine the needs on a factual and scientific basis."

The resolution also noted that the differences between the sport and commercial fishermen have been disproportionately magnified; that the aim of both groups is the development and conservation of wildlife and that some degree of regulation seems desirable, the extent and type to be determined by the competent agency.

Entry Deadline For Golf Tournament Is Saturday, Feb. 23

The deadline for entries in the Stellan Open, to be played by male members of Live Oak Country Club, on March 2 and 3, has been set for 6 p.m. Saturday, Feb. 23, by tournament committee.

The event is open to all male members of the club, with no entry fee being charged. It will be played on a medal play basis, using handicaps determined from score cards. Handicap adjustments will be made after the first day's play.

Pairings and tee-off times will be made by the committee and they are asking that all who wish to participate, to enter before Saturday, Feb. 23.

Murder Trial Play Set For Friday Night

Did Karen Andre commit a murder, or not, is the question that must be answered by you, the jury, at the High School Auditorium Friday night.

The curtain will rise at 8:00 sharp; the question will be answered at about 10:00 the same evening. No one knows the answer yet.

Just as when the play was presented on Broadway, the jury will be selected from the audience and they will make the decision of guilty or not guilty. What will your verdict be?

Some and see what the jury will decide.

AREA CRASH CLAIMS ITS THIRD VICTIM

A third person injured in a collision near Rockport February 12, died at 4 p.m. last Friday.

The victim is Mrs. Virgil W. Taylor, 66, of Hydro, Okla. Her husband died February 13, and a 3-year-old girl, Julia Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Andrews of Aransas Pass, died shortly after the wreck.

One other person is still in the Aransas Pass Hospital. She is Mrs. Cecil Dobbins of Thomas, Akla. Her husband, driver of the car carrying the two Oklahoma couples, was released from Memorial Hospital last Friday.

Mrs. Andrews and her 4-year old son were treated for minor injuries after the wreck.

Mrs. Taylor's body was sent by Cagle-Mills Funeral Home to Weatherford, Okla., for funeral services.

ARANSAS PROJECT BELOW 9,410 FEET

A scheduled 10,000-foot Aransas County South Copano Bay Field test two miles southeast of Bay-side, Cities Service Oil Co. No. 1 State Tract 117 was making hole below 9,410 feet.

In the same area, Cities Service No. 1 State Tract 116 was making hole below 1,520 feet on a 10,000 foot permit.

Biologist Says Bay Netting Social Not Biological Problem

Terence Leary, former biologist at the marine laboratory here, and now coordinator for coastal fisheries for the Texas Game and Fish Commission, with offices in Austin, says that netting in Texas bays is a social and not a biological problem.

As the row over closure of San Antonio and Espiritu Santo bays, kicked off the annual biennial hassle between sportsmen and commercial fishermen, spreading to the rest of the Texas coast. Leary apparently received so many inquiries that he had a standard letter duplicated to be used in answering such queries.

A copy of that letter, sent to one inquirer in the Victoria area, appears below in its entirety. Needless to say, Leary's answer is applicable to all bays of the Texas coast. He says:

"Your inquiry concerning the biological effects on the bay fish population by the closure of San Antonio and Espiritu Santo Bays to net fishing has been forwarded to me.

"Our studies of the bay fisheries have shown us that the taking of fishes has not reached its full potential. That is, at the present time, both hook and line and net fishermen aren't taking as many fish as could be taken without endangering future stocks. Our studies show further that the sports fishing take is considerably more than that of the commercial food fish fishery.

"The decision of whether or not the use of nets should be permitted in bay waters is not a biological one. Our studies show that our fisheries are able to support both the healthiest commercial fishery and an extensive sport fishery.

"By eliminating the use of nets a competitor for the fish would be eliminated, but this does not necessarily mean that more fish will be caught by the sport fisherman. For one thing, we find that the sport fishermen and the commercial net fisherman do not compete for the same individual fish. The latter directs its efforts toward the larger individuals, which, because of their feeding habits, are not generally caught by the sports fisherman. If we were to eliminate the commercial net fishery we could not expect that portion of the annual catch to be converted to the sports fishery.

"One of the greatest harvesters of all fish is the northern. Once or twice each decade sudden freezes will catch millions of our fish in shallow water, and in a period of several days, we will lose more fish to the cold than all of our fishermen will take in many years. Any decision to restrict the present means of fishing, therefore, must be made primarily on a social rather than a biological basis."

FAMOUS AUTHOR TALKS TO SEVENTH GRADE

Miss Carol Hoff, a former student in Rockport High School, spoke to the seventh grade in Junior High while on a visit here last Friday, and told the students of some of the books she has written.

The one that she talked about most was "Johnny Texas," for which she was awarded a $3,000 prize shortly after it was written. This is a story of a boy in early Texas who took part in the Runaway Scrape, just before the battle of San Jacinto.

The boy was not real, Miss Hoff said, but the incidents in which he participated all actually happened.

Miss Hoff has written a number of other books, including "Johnny Texas on the San Antonio Road," "Head to the West," "The Four Friends," "Chris," and "Wilderness Pioneer."

Mis Hoff now lives in Yorktown, where she is still writing stories of Texas.

Mrs. Bill Wendell, Mrs. Jerry Wendell and Mrs. Van Brown were in San Antonio Wednesday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Boone and family of Brownsville spent the weekend in Rockport, visiting their parents.

Rouquette Says Bill Would Hurt Texas Oystering

Monte Rouquette, president of the newly-formed Aransas County Fisherman's Association, says that House Bill 161 that could endanger the oyster industry was tentatively accepted by the Texas House Tuesday. This is the one introduced by Representative Don Garrison of Houston.

Under the present law, a shell dredging company must prove that its activities would not injure oysters in the area before it can get a dredging permit from the Texas Game and Fish Commission.

Under Garrison's bill, the commission would be required to issue the permit unless it can show that the dredging would harm marine life, thus shifting the burden of proof from the individual accused to the state, as it is in other legal matters.

Under present law, the Game and Fish Commission can charge whatever price for shell the market will allow. Under Garrison's bill, the price of shell is fixed at 15 cents a cubic yard.

Termining this a tax, Garrison said it was the highest paid on use of any of the state's natural resources.

The bill is opposed by Representative Bob Eckhardt of Houston and Ed Harris of Galveston, but has been moved up on the house calendar and engrossed, meaning it will only have to be passed once more in the house before going to the Senate.

Other fisheries' groups along the coast are opposing the bill.

Rockport Airmen Better Marines' Time On 50 Miles

Over the weekend, seven Rockport airmen outwalked the marines who recently established a record of seventeen hours and fifteen minutes for a fifty mile hike. The boys from Rockport AF Station made the same distance in 13 hours and 15 minutes.

Thirteen men started, but the other six had to be retired from the marathon at the forty-mile check point because Station Medic M/Sgt. Robert L. Jackson felt it was unwise for them to continue. Thus blisters won out over desire, even though all of them wanted to finish.

The thirteen volunteers for the endurance contest left the radar station here headed for the north gate of the Corpus Christi Naval Air Station at 6:30 a.m. and, 13 hours and fifteen minutes later, checked in at the finish, 50.2 miles from where they started.

Nine other airmen began a 25 mile hike simultaneously. All nine of these finished 25 miles in 7 hours and returned to Rockport AFS by 2 p.m.

Capt. Edward D. Livingston acted as official timer, pacer and consultant throughout the ordeal, assisted by M/Sgt. Jackson and SM/Sgt. Daniel L. Salter, who was project officer.

The hikers were served hot coffee and orange juice at 10 a.m., and a light lunch around 1 p.m., all of which was consumed while in motion.

Not all seven of those finishing made it in 13 hours and 15 minutes, but all seven of them broke the marines' record.

First under the wire in the time of 13 hours and 15 minutes was 23-year-old 2nd Lt. David G. Connery, from Albany, New York. Finishing second, with total times of 14 hours were A/1c Jerry D. Alexander of Fort Worth and A/2c Don Shaffer, of Reno, Nevada. In third place with an elapsed time of 15 hours were A/c Tommy L. Landers, A/2c Thomas B. Clements, A/2c Charles E. Haltman III, and A/2c Kenneth W. Hartlein.

The six airmen forced to withdraw after 40 miles were S/Sgt. Robert T. Price, A/2c Michael P. Lapsis, A/2c Jeff Watton, A/3c Elbert Atterbury, A/3c Joseph A. Marshak, and A/3c Michael J. McTierman.

The airmen completing the 25 miles were T/Sgt. A. N. Martin, Staff Sgts. James D. Nichols, M. R. Hughes, Vernon H. Humphries, D. R. Allen, and Louis E. Enderby, A/1c Rudolfo Cantu, A/2c E. E. Matyskiel and A/3c James E. Barrett.

Bucs Undeclared In District Play

The Aransas County Buccaneers wound up an undefeated district schedule Monday night with a 32-20 victory over Flour Bluff. This was the sixth consecutive district win.

However, if another team wins the tournament, there will have to be a play off game for the championship. The first game for the Bucs will be at 1:30 p.m. Saturday.

Charles Roe was high scorer in the Flour Bluff game with 10 points followed by Thomas Lewis with 8, Jerry Brundrett 6, Bart Rozzell 5 and Robert Iles 3.

Last Thursday night the Bucs defeated Gregory-Portland 34-18. In that game, Thomas Lewis got 17 points, Bart Rozzell 7, followed by Brundrett and Roe, with 4.

School Board Sets Election

Also Authorizes Purchase of New Bus and Additional Clearing of Land at Meeting

The Aransas County Independent School Board, at its regular meeting, set the date for an election, heard Supt. J. D. Gray when he said the scholastic population was now 1,555, or almost 100 more than last year, and authorized him to buy a new bus and clear more land. The board also appointed Harold Picton as an alternate on the Board of Equalization.

Gray also reported that it is time to begin clearing the rest of the land on the site of the new junior high school, where Beck and Son are pushing completion of the new school plant. Gray said that Beck and Son had offered to do this at no cost to the school, although the land would be rough when the brush and trees were destroyed.

However, he pointed out, the school would probably be able to level the land with its own tractor, and this would represent a considerable saving to the school district.

It was the opinion of the trustees that as many trees as possible should be saved, and that a brush barrier should be left between the campus and streets to the east and north, but, subject to this provision, they authorized Gray to proceed with the work.

They also authorized him to take bids on a bus to replace one of those now in use.

The Board also approved the purchase of some additional fill dirt from Dudley Bracht, for use in filling low spots in the baseball field.

The trustee election was set for April 6, 1963, to elect three trustees. Those whose terms expire are James B. Jackson, Shelley P. Roaten, and Harry Wilson.

Gray recommended to the board that driver training be offered during the summer months, rather than during the school year.

"I have been looking into this matter for about two years," he said, "checking with other schools and so on. It will solve many problems for us. We have made a survey and 28 students have indicated interest in taking the course during the summer."

Gray stated that the course would require six hours actual driving time, six hours observation and 30 hours of classroom instruction. The proposed change, he said, would make for easier high school scheduling and better use of the teaching staff. It will be necessary to secure approval from the state to operate such a summer training program. Necessary teachers must be secured, the superintendent stated.

The Board, after considerable discussion, instructed Gray to proceed with the program to set up summer classes, at which students will be charged a tuition fee of $25 each.

The superintendent also reported that unless the owners of the land condemned for use by the new junior high school consummate the land suit, it would be necessary to return to court once more, to force settlement. He also reported that he had asked architects for written recommendations on repair of the floor at the high school gymnasium, which is in bad shape.

Scouts Hold Court of Honor

A combined court of honor was held Monday night by representatives of Scout Troops 49 and 280, and Explorer Post 49.

Troop Committeeman J. B. Jackson, who acted as master of ceremonies introduced other members of the committee, including Chester Johnson, Norvell Jackson, Jackson McDavid, John Anderson, Tom Jesse, Louis Tuer, and Rev. Cecil Lang, Jr. Also presented at this time were Scoutmaster Ron Schultz and Assistant Scoutmaster Dr. H. F. Elliot.

Aransas County Neighborhood Chairman Don Banning, acting for the Gulf Coast Council, then presented 1963 membership cards to District Committee Vice Chairman Tom Jesse and committeemen Chester Johnson and Philip Baldwin.

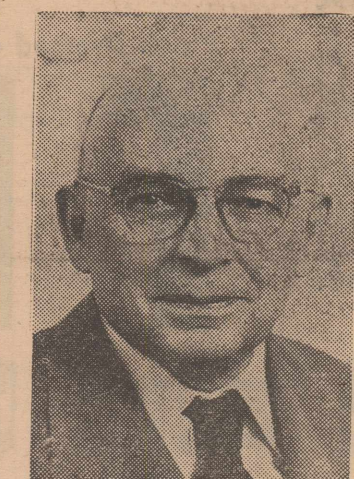

Awards were given by Scoutmaster Ron Schultz to second class, first class and star scouts, while Explorer Advisor L. E. Nelson presented a total of 24 merit badges to scouts and explorers. Junior leader training awards were given to a number of scouts in recognition of special training.

Following refreshments, a film strip was shown and narrated by Dr. Elliot, covering activities at Camp Karankawa.

There will also be bake sales by the senior girls. All proceeds go to the American Heart Association.

SCHOOL ELECTION SET FOR APRIL 6

Terms of three trustees of the Aransas County Independent School District expire this year, and an election has been set for the first Saturday in April, April 6, to fill the three places.

Those terms are expiring include Shelley P. Roaten and James B. Jackson, from Rockport, both of whom have filed for re-election, and Harry Wilson, from Fulton.

Wilson is not seeking re-election, but already three people have filed for the place—Ottie Mundine, Robert W. Landrum, and J. R. (Bob) DeForest.

The Board emphasized, as the date for election was set, that everyone in the school district can vote for every trustee, as in school elections there are no precincts and only one polling place—at the high school, in the administration building.

CIRCLE HAS MEETING

The Fannie Townsend Circle of the Women's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church met last Thursday at the home of Mrs. J. W. Townsend, for whom the circle is named. Mrs. Mellic Edmonson assisted Mrs. Townsend.

Coffee, punch and cake were served to members and guests on arrival. Members attending were Mrs. J. C. Paul, Mrs. R. H. Van Horn, Mrs. Leroy Young, Mrs. Curtis Harist, Mrs. T. C. Kelly, Mrs. Dovie McCoy, Mrs. C. L. Harris, Mrs. E. G. Cooke, Mrs. W. C. Beckham, Mrs. William Beetley, Mrs. I. R. Alexander and Mrs. Earl Anderson.

Guests were Mrs. Victor Ecklund, Mrs. Albert Schmidt, Mrs. Ben Bohmfalk and Mrs. Smith. Mrs. Harist opened the meeting with prayer, and Mrs. Cooke, as leader, followed with a lesson on "You Are a Missionary, Too." Hunger Problems In Your Trees Corrected

Vita-Spike Industries, a new industry in Rockport, is designed to re-vitalize trees, shrubs, and other plants or to give healthy ones a new growth boost.

Arthur R. McElreath, Jr., head of the local firm, says he is enjoying unexpected success with this product, which is new to this area.

Trace elements, placed on a nail and driven into a tree, are picked up in the sap stream by the sap for use in making new healthy growth. Trace elements are necessary and the logical way for plants to obtain them in through the sap stream.

Vita-Spike, through this method, gives freely to plants what they fail to get from Nature. Long standing customs of putting zinc or aluminum shavings around a plant or driving a rusty nail into it become obsolete.

Amazing results have been obtained from this method, says McElreath. Live oaks respond readily to this method of re-vitalization.

Persons with problems regarding their plants, trees and shrubs are asked to contact Vita-Spike, P. O. Box 686, or contact McElreath by phoning SO 4-2727, in Rockport. See Vita-Spike's ad on another page of the Pilot for further information.

ROTARY'S 58TH ANNIVERSARY

In more than 11,000 communities around the world this week—from the Fiji Islands to Florida and from the southernmost tip of Chile to the northernmost point in Norway—Rotary clubs are observing the anniversary of a day back in 1905 when Paul P. Harris, the founder of Rotary, asked three business acquaintances to meet with him to discuss the launching of new club.

That day was Feb. 23, and the new club was the Rotary Club of Chicago. Since then, Rotary has encircled the globe entirely through the voluntary efforts of men to share the organization's ideals of unselfishness and service with men in other communities. Today there are more than a half million business and professional men who belong to 11,400 Rotary clubs in 128 countries.

Fellowship ranks high as a factor in the success of the organization. It stems from a mutual commitment on the part of Rotarians to simple but significant goals. The development of personal acquaintance is regarded as a means for increasing the opportunities for serving others. The wisdom of this principle is evident in the numerous and varied ways that Rotary clubs and Rotarians improve their communities, their vocations, and their countries.

As other Rotary clubs do around the globe, the Rotary Club of Rockport helps its community to become a better place to live and to work and to raise happy healthy families.

To Rotarians of this city, and to their fellow Rotarians everywhere, we extend our congratulations on this anniversary of their organization. May it continue to grow and bring its benefits to more people.

HOW IS FREEDOM LOST?

Dangers that grow within our borders can string barbed wire around our freedoms as tightly as dangers that come from abroad.

But they aren't as easy to see. Some of us are hardly aware of the threat that grows within—the expansion of government-in-business.

There are hundreds of examples, from coffee roasting to ice cream making. In the field of electric light and power alone, the output of federal-government-owned plants has risen from less than 1 per cent of the industry's total in 1935 to more than 15 per cent today. This represents an investment of 5½ billion dollars in federally owned electric plants and lines. And advocates of government-in-business press constantly for more.

They advocate a dangerous course, for when government owns business, it has in its hands both political and economic power—the means of controlling goods and jobs. With power thus concentrated it can become difficult indeed for individuals to preserve their basic freedoms.

Isn't it time to call a halt to the expansion of government-in-business?

CUB SCOUTS—

sented to Robbie Little, Mickey Adams, Charles LaBounty and Tommy DeForest.

Wolf badges, representing the second step in cubbing, and requiring completion of twelve achievements, were awarded to Ronnie Everett, Lloyd Frederick Murphy, John Kelly, Laine Dimmick, David Harvey, Wayne Oakman, Gary Hopper, Randy Jones and Bradley Ward.

Gold arrow points were given to Mickey Adams, who also received a silver arrow, Floyd Murphy, Ronnie Everett, and Randall Lee Schultz. A silver arrow was awarded Charles LaBounty. All these represent cumulative achievements by the boys.

Receiving their bear badges, symbolizing their third step as cubs, were:

Bobby Moody, Kenneth Harwick, Forest Porter and Van Bradley. Lloyd Wayne Murphy and Nelson K. Barre, received gold arrow points for their achievements as Bears, and Richard West was recipient of a silver arrow point.

Attaining the fourth stage as cubs, Craig Moody, Gary Don Gray and Linny Landrum were awarded Lion badges, while Philip Shaver was recipient of a gold arrow point for his achievements as a Lion.

The last step in cubbing is when a boy becomes a Webelo, and passes from cubbing into the ranks of Boy Scouts. Cubmaster Tom Dannelly diverted the following cubs of their cub neckerchiefs as they prepared to pass over the bridge, at the other end of which they were invested with their scout neckerchiefs by Scoutmaster Ron Schultz, of Troop 49:

Richard Anderson, Morgan Davis, Albert Johnson, and Ernest Beasley.

Tables were decorated by den mothers to show "The Blue and Gold Story." Food for the banquet was prepared by Mrs. Edith Cruser and Aransas County School cafeteria personnel. The Cub Scouts wish to thank them and also Rainbo Bakery which donated the rolls, and Valley Gold Creameries for their donation of milk and ice cream.

NET TAGS MUST BE ON NETS

Fishermen who fish with nets are reminded that the purchase of Seine or Net License is not enough to comply with the law, according to M. B. Mullinax, Law Enforcement Supervisor of Region V, Game and Fish Commission. The law clearly states that one of these metal licenses, commonly called "net tags" must be "firmly attached to each one hundred (100) feet or fraction thereof" of each net while in use.

The law also provides that the license shall cost One Dollar ($1.00) for each one hundred (100) feet of net. No license may be issued for any net or seine longer than eighteen hundred (1800) feet, nor any seine or net, the meshes of which are less than one and one-half (1 1/2) inches from knot to knot.
