Terrell Starts Last Month Of Public Career Spanning More Than Half A Century

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Dec. 1.—Railroad Commissioner Charles Vernon Terrell, 76, begins today his last month of a public service career spanning more than half a century.

He was defeated for renomination last summer by G. A. Jerry Sadler of Longview, who isn't half his age. Sadler will take office January 2 and already has announced several impending shake-ups in commission personnel.

Never To Seek Office Again

The square-shouldered Terrell, who still can stand the hardships of a hunting trip better than many men 20 years his junior, says he has given no thought to retiring and living on past savings.

"I don't intend ever to seek office again," he said, "but believe I can make a living practicing law. I think I will enter private practice in Austin, my home for the last 18 years."

The gray-haired official said the thing which grieved him most in

Search Begun For Clear-Cut Test For Wage-Hour Law By Officials; 1,800 File Charges

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1.—Wage-hour investigators have begun a search for a clear-cut test of the constitutionality of the new federal labor standards act.

With that in view, the wage-hour administration has sifted approximately 1,800 complaints of violations. Aides of Administrator Elmer F. Andrews said today that about 450 of these appear to involve real violations of the law, which has been in effect little more than a month.

Within Next Two Weeks

Out of the 450 probably will come in the next two weeks one or more lawsuits to provide a supreme court test of the validity of the administration's efforts to put a floor under wages and a ceiling over hours.

Most of the preliminary work of tracking down violations is being carried on by field investigators of the wage-hour administration, but Joseph E. Brill, chief of the justice department's new wage-hour unit, said FBI agents would be employed if their help was needed.

It is generally expected the first major test of the law will begin when Administrator Andrews goes into court for an order to compel some non-complying employer to meet the requirements.

Government legal authorities said at least three types of test action are possible:

1. A petition by the administrator for an injunction to compel an employer to stop paying wages below the minimum, working hours

Hunt Gunman

Police in the Chicago area sought a gunman, whom they said they believed was Benny Dickson (below), 27, Missouri and Kansas ex-convict, after three persons had been kidnaped in a wild dash from Michigan across northern Indiana and Illinois. The fugitive, accompanied by a woman, apparently had escaped.

O'Daniel To Close His Board Monday

FORT WORTH, Dec. 1. (AP)—The meeting of W. Lee O'Daniel with his "citizens advisory board," here Monday will be a closed affair, the governor-elect said today.

"The meeting will not be of a political nature," O'Daniel said, "and will be completely private. The members of the board are not politicians and I have decided against permitting outside visitors."

The governor-elect declined to give any information as to what subjects will be discussed, saying "I don't know now what will come up. I won't know until we get together."

O'Daniel announced the appointment of J. F. Lucey, Dallas oil man, and Frank Davis, Itasca merchant, to the board, bringing the total named to the board to 34. He said Davis had accepted.

D. P. PARKER ACQUITTED

COMANCHE, Dec. 1—County Attorney D. P. Parker was acquitted today of a charge of theft by false pretext.

Coach, Players Plan Answer During Day

'It's Up To The Team' Is Madigan's Reply Last Night To Query Regarding Game

LOOKS LIKE ST. MARY'S

A long distance telephone call to the Evening Journal from Felix McKnight, Associated Press sports writer at Dallas, at 2:30 this afternoon said confirmation of St. Mary's acceptance of the Cotton Bowl bid was expected momentarily at Cotton bowl headquarters. The announcement was expected to be made shortly after 3 p. m., McKnight said.

(By The Associated Press)

DALLAS, Dec. 1—Coach Edward (Slip) Madigan of St. Mary's college will tell officials of the Cotton bowl athletic association today whether his Gaels will meet the Texas Tech Red Raiders in the football classic here Jan. 2.

Madigan said in Los Angeles last night "it's up to the team" whether an invitation to the cotton bowl

NO BOWL FOR TIDE

TUSCALOOSA, Ala., Dec. 1. (AP)—Coach Frank W. Thomas of the University of Alabama announced today the 1938 Crimson Tide would not be able to take part in "any bowl game." Thomas declared Alabama received several overtures.

game is accepted and that he would talk with bowl officals here by telephone today.

Only Lost Two Games

Desire of team members to play in the Cotton bowl would be "one of the considerations," he said, although it might not be the determining factor. The St. Mary's team, long a top-ranking eleven and with only close losses to California and Fordham on its record this season, has been out of training since Nov. 13 when it defeated Santa Clara.

Meanwhile Coach Pete Cawthon of Texas Tech suggested Alabama and also continued informal negotiations with Holy Cross. Cawthon was informed the latter was definitely interested but that its head coach had resigned and left for the University of Iowa where he will become head football mentor.

Bowl Is Favored

It was thought possible the coach, Eddie Anderson, would favor the Cotton bowl and would rally the squad for practice when he returned to Holy Cross to settle his affairs.

Texas Tech officials and Lubbock business men met at a meeting yesterday protested a suggestion that

GAME TO BE BROADCAST

Play by play account of the Lubbock-Vernon High school game will be broadcast Friday over KFYO, the Avalanche-Journal station, according to DeWitt (Judge) Landis, station manager.

The game will go on the air at 2:30 p. m.

Landis, R. B. McAlister, sports announcer, and William Torrey, chief technician, will be on the sidelines to assist in the broadcast.

of the battle which is to decide whether the Westerners are to reach the quarter-finals in their fight for the Texas high school football championship.

To Require Nine Buses

Indications this morning are, according to Joe W. Bowman, president-manager of South Plains Coaches, that nine buses will be required for those making the trip to the game in that manner.

No estimate was made as to how many will travel aboard the Fort Worth and Denver special train, but accommodations will be supplied for a large number, according to E. C. Kuykendal, general agent of the railroad.

Hundred Going In Cars

At least 100 high school students have reported they will make the trip in private automobiles, according to R. W. Matthews, Senior High school principal.

The buses, he announced, will

Gov. Allred Reticent About His Hunting But Tells Of Son's Kill

AUSTIN, Dec. 1 (AP)—Governor James V. Allred, back in his office today after a South Texas hunting trip, was somewhat reticent concerning his own exploits but willing to tell one and all about the eleven-point buck killed by his eight-year-old son, James V., jr.

The victim of young Allred's rifle had more points than any other deer killed by members of the party. Allred said Federal Judge Alfred P. Murrah of Oklahoma City bagged a 10-pointer and J. E. Cailloux of Oklahoma City and himself eight-pointers.

Champ Chicago Steer Brings $3.35 Pound

CHICAGO, Dec. 1. (AP)—The grand champion steer of the 1938 international livestock exposition sold at auction today for $3.35 a pound, $1 a pound more than last year's champion and the highest price since 1929.

The steer, an Aberdeen-Angus fitted and shown by 14-year-old Irene Brown of Aledo, Ill., was named "Mercer" for the county in which its 4-H club owner lives.

It was purchased by the Firestone Tire and Rubber company, Akron, Ohio, with Horace Milhone, the company's farm service bureau director, doing the bidding.

"Mercer" weighed approximately 1,130 pounds on which basis Miss Brown realized $3,785.50 from the sale. She bought the calf last January for $60.

Miss Brown said she would put away most of the money for her college education.

The price of $3.35 was the highest since 1929 when the all-time record of $8.25 a pound was paid for "Lucky Strike" a grade Angus exhibited by Elliott Brown of Rose Hill, Iowa. Last year's champion, "Ashbourne Orange," a Shorthorn shown by Oklahoma A. & M. College, brought $2.35 a pound.

Need Millions For Pensions

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, Dec. 1.—State Auditor Tom C. King was on record today as estimating more than $42,000,000 a year additional revenue would be needed to pay $15-a-month state pensions to all persons over 65 years old in Texas.

The amount would jump the cost of state government in excess of 25 per cent.

Submitting the estimate yesterday in an audit of the old age assistance administration's books for the fiscal year ending Aug. 31, King said the cost was figured on a Social Security board estimate of 284,000 people in Texas over the required age.

Number Merely A Guess

"That number of people is merely a guess," King said. "It was based on a nationwide average. Personally, I think it is low because more favorable climatic conditions obtain in Texas than in other states and the state's population is growing more rapidly than the average."

Governor-Elect W. Lee O'Daniel favors $30-a-month pensions with the federal government matching the state's maximum of $15. Present federal laws, however, permit matching of state funds with social security grants only when investigation by qualified case workers reveals a pension applicant in need

Allred's Message Ready Soon; To Name Tech Director Shortly

AUSTIN, Dec. 1. (AP) — Governor James V. Allred said today the first installment of his final message to the legislature might be ready by Saturday.

The governor stated he probably would act soon on filling a vacancy on the board of directors of Texas Tech and naming a successor to District Judge F. E. Wilcox of McKinney, who resigned because of ill health. The Texas Tech vacancy was caused by appointment of Clifford B. Jones of Spur, chairman of the board, to the presidency of the college.

Running Buzz Saw Slashes His Throat

Corsicana Capitalist Was Husband Of Former Tech Director; Left Foundation

(By The Associated Press)

CORSICANA, Dec. 1 — Frank Neal Drane, 76-year-old philanthropic capitalist who pledged $800,000 to help his fellow-man, was found dead today, his throat slashed near a running buzz saw.

Justice of the Peace A. E. Foster returned a verdict of "self destruction" in the death of the Navarro county pioneer who made his fortune in electric power, banking and agriculture.

Almost Decapitated

Drane's body was found, almost decapitated, on the floor of his workshop this morning by J. J. Miller, an employe, the justice of the peace said.

The saw, electrically powered, had been switched off after Drane had been cut fatally, Judge Foster said.

Former Board Member

His survivors included a son, Hugh A. Drane, Dallas capitalist. His late wife, Florence Adelia Bingham Drane, who died several years ago, was a member of the board of regents and acting president at one time of Texas Technological college at Lubbock.

Drane and his wife donated Drane hall at Trinity university, Waxahachie, but his principal philanthropy was a "25-yer-old" dream of financial aid to those of his fellowmen who would help themselves.

To this end Drane created this year a foundation to promote the

King Carol Emerges As Stronger Ruler

BUCHAREST, Dec. 1. (AP)—With King Carol emerging firmly as a strong man ruler, Rumania ordered a purge of terrorists today to obliterate forever the fascist-patterned Iron Guard.

KING CAROL

The country was calm but police acted lest there be any outbreak as the aftermath to the deaths of Corneliu Zelea Codreanu, chief of the illegal guard, and 13 of his followers.

They were shot, authorities said, when they tried to escape from a prison guard detail.

Orders to police were to shoot ruthlessly anyone caught at crime or violence. "Talk later" was the effect of the instructions.

There had been reports the past several days that the guard's secret councils marked several prominent government leaders for death.

Authorities, taking precautionary steps, were confident, however, that Codreanu's death would bring an end to Iron Clad assassinations and revolutionary conspiracy.

His movement was described as a "one-fuehrer" organization which he had managed to direct even while in prison. He was serving a sentence for treason. Officials believed he would have no successor or that what was left of the guard would disintegrate in a confusion of squabbles over leadership.

Federal Probe Opened Today

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—The federal monopoly committee, after weeks of preliminary study, began today a two-year inquiry into the complex workings of the nation's economic system.

Recommendations eventually may be made for extensive changes in the system to promote competition, increase and stabilize employment, get a wider distribution of income, and control if not reverse the trend toward bigger and bigger business organizations.

Called At 9 A. M.

The committee, composed of six members of congress and six representatives of government agencies, was called together at 9 a. m. (central standard time.) Isador Lubin, chief of the bureau of labor statistics, was the first witness to describehow the economic system now works.

Lubin will be followed by Willard Thorpe, commerce department economist, and Leon Henderson, committee secretary and former WPA economist. Thorpe will discuss the structure of the national economy, and Henderson will outline the future trends of the inquiry.

To Study Patents

The committee next will begin examination of business witnesses, studying first the problem of patents. An automobile executive will open this phase of the hearing—possibly Edsell Ford, president of the Ford Motor company; H. T. Keller, Chrysler president, or Alfred P. Sloan or William S. Knudsen, president of General Motors.

Members of the committee represent a wide variety of viewpoints and backgrounds. They range from slender, brown-haired Senator

Matanuska Farmer Goes Into Court In Marketing Dispute

PALMER, Alaska, Dec. 1. (AP) — Rugged individualism vs. government paternalism will be the issue in the next few days when a successful Matanuska colony farmer goes into United States district court to fight for his agricultural independence.

The farmer is Walter Pippel. Col. O. F. Ohlson, president of the Alaska Rural Rehabilitation corp., which directs the federally-sponsored colony, said Pippel had made $11,000 in the last two years.

The dispute is over whether Pippel can operate independently of the colony's marketing cooperative. He and three other farmers recently became embroiled with the colony management on this issue as Pippel did his own marketing at Anchorage and other Alaska railroad points.

Lubbock's Goodfellows Busy Bunch Of Fellows These Days

Lubbock's Goodfellows have been a busy bunch of fellows.

This was disclosed this morning at their second meeting since organization a few days ago for the fourth annual Goodfellow Christmas cheer movement in Lubbock.

Reports of their activities disclosed:

First — that a big start has been made toward making certain that the poor children of Lubbock will not be forgotten on Christmas day.

Second—that Lubbock will be lighted and decorated with a brilliance such as never has been seen on the South Plains before.

However, it was emphasized, despite the work which already has been done, that the task has been little more than started. The big job still lies ahead with little time remaining, members were reminded by the Chief Goodfellow, whose identity remains secret in accordance with custom.

Here's how the situation stacks up:

Utah School Bus Struck By Train At Crossing

(By The Associated Press)

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 1—A speeding freight train crashed into a school bus in a snowstorm near here today, killing possibly 26 persons and critically injuring 12 others.

An official list issued at Salt Lake county hospital accounted 21 dead. Authorities at the crash scene said the bodies of "at least five" were in bushel baskets at the rural grade crossing, ten miles south of here.

Nine students, less seriously injured, were released following hospital examination.

Identification of the victims proceeded slowly since all were badly mangled.

The bodies were spewed along the right of way of the Denver and Rio Grande Western railroad tracks.

All victims, except J. H. Silcox, the bus driver, were students at Jordan High school. Their ages ranged from 12 to 18 years.

The accident occurred when the 82-car freight, traveling a speed estimated by Salt Lake County Sheriff S. Grant Young at "60 miles an hour," ploughed into the loaded bus at a rural grade crossing.

Hospital In Chaos

Salt Lake general hospital was in chaos as crying fathers and mothers sought to locate their children. One entire floor of the hospital was filled with victims.

All bodies were taken to the hospital. The 12 critically injured students are all in a critical shape, hospital authorities said.

Railroad company officials announced that 25 students and the bus driver, F. H. Silcox, has been killed.

The bodies were taken to mortuaries throughout the city and attempts were being made to locate relatives to assist in identification.

Picks Up 18 Bodies

Mrs. Sarah Bergstrom, business superintendent of the Salt Lake general hospital, said she personnally aided in the recovery of 18 bodies.

The accident occured at 8:56 a. m., m.s.t. (9:56 cst), at a rural crossing about 10 miles south of here.

The condition of the bodies and the inaccessibility of the crossing made a definite check on casualties difficult.

A sleet storm had reduced visibility and had delayed the schedule of the Denver and Rio Grande Western freight, "The Flying Ute."

Fireman Screamed To Engineer

Sheriff Young estimated that the engineer, E. J. Reahmer, told him he was on the right side of the cab and that the bus was coming from the left. His fireman screamed for him to stop, he said.

Young said the freight normally is going about 60 miles an hour at the crossing. The sheriff said apparently the bus driver stopped on the crossing and then started again so that the engine hit broadside, bending the big bus around the front of it.

The framework of the bus was rammed under the train engine, leading Young to surmise "there probably are bodies wedged under there."

The accident occured in a rural area over a mile from telephone communication.

All children taken to the hospital were reported "unconscious but alive."

Worst In Utah History

It was the worst school tragedy in Utah history.

Silcox was believed to have been unable to see the approaching train because of the sleet.

Dr. J. S. Alley of Midvale, who brought victims to the hospital said:

"The freight train, about half a mile long, struck the bus broadside. It was traveling so fast the caboose was on the crossing by the time it stopped.

Cab Tossed To One Side

"The cab of the bus was tossed to one side, about 100 feet from the crossing. Bodies were strewn everywhere for a quarter of a mile down the track.

"Grief stricken parents, hysterical and weeping, rushed frantically up and down the 85 car train, trying to find their children.

"Some of the bodies were horribly mangled."

Midvale is a small community about 10 miles south of Salt Lake City. A snow storm that started during the night reduced visibility and made the highways slick.

Doctors Rushed To Scene

Speakman said all available ambulances and doctors were being rushed to the scene.

Nearby residents reported to police that the bodies of the dead and injured were "strewn" along the railroad right of way.

The bus was bound east on 11th street south, Salt Lake county. Sheriff S. Grant Young ordered all deputies to the scene. Three Salt Lake county ambulances were dispatched.

Railroad officials said the train was an hour behind schedule because of the weather.

Five ambulances were at the wreckage an hour after the crash.

McDonald Will Speak In City

J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture, telegraphed an acceptance this morning of an invitation to address a Lubbock mass meeting next Tuesday night regarding his advocacy of the domestic allotment plan for cotton, according to announcement this morning by R. L. Burdette, high school vocational agriculture instructor. Scene will be Senior High school auditorium.

The invitation was extended by Southwest ward chapter of the National Grange here, which will sponsor the meeting. W. O. Perkins, residing southwest of the city, is master of the chapter.

Had Sought Opposition Speaker

Previous attempt had been made, according to the announcement, to arrange for a speaker to state reasons for opposition to the domestic allotment plan. A number of such speakers, however, already have appeared in various portions of the area, the announcement said.

Invitations are to be extended especially to ginners, farmers and all others concerned with the produc-

Jones Estimates His Trip Was Less Expensive Than In Car

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Young Johnny Jones, vaudeville dancer turned non-stop flier, estimated today that his transcontinental airplane flight was less expensive than a cross-country trip in a popular-priced automobile.

Gasoline and oil for his tiny scooter plane—only a third as large as Doug Corrigan's ship and the lightest airplane made—cost only $24.75 or less than a cent a mile for the 2,785-mile flight, he said in a radio interview (NBC) last night.

The 676-pound plane, which normally carries 12 gallons of gasoline, was loaded with 146 gallons of fuel, most of it in two extra tanks, and its total load was nearly twice its own weight.

At the end of the non-stop flight of 30 hours and 37 minutes from Los Angeles to Roosevelt field, setting a new distance record for light planes, Jones said he still had gasoline enough for four hours in the air.

The plane, powered with a four-cylinder, 50-horsepower engine, cruised at about 91 miles an hour and an average altitude of 8,000 feet.

FDR Starts Laying Foundation For New Congressional Program

Party Strategy To Be Planned

BY D. HAROLD OLIVER
Associated Press Staff Writer

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Dec. 1.—President Roosevelt turned from vacation play today to start laying the foundation for his new congressional program.

Speaker Bankhead was due here from his home in Alabama for a general discussion of party strategy and a legislative slate featuring defense proposals expected to call for an outlay of well over $1,000,000,000.

Relief To Be Talked

The new relief budget unofficially estimated to involve upwards of another $1,000,000,000 was scheduled for a second conference between the president and Harry L. Hopkins, WPA administrator.

While William C. Bullitt, American ambasador to France, was listed as another caller at the "Little White House," the diplomat said in Miami, Fla., enroute here from a vacation in the Bahamas, there was "no story back of the trip."

May Talk French Troubles

He added he was coming at the invitation of Mr. Roosevelt and would talk with him "about anything he wants to talk about." Observers felt he may discuss, among other things, French labor troubles.

Frank C. Walker of New York, former director of the National Emergency council, was on the day's calling list, but his visit was described as largely personal.

The conferences with Bankhead and Hopkins were to mark the start of a series of congressional problems that will keep the chief executive going at top speed between December 6, when he returns to Washington, and the convening of the new national legislature with its increased Republican strength.

Profitable Production Of Castor Beans On South Plains Is Envisioned By Chemist

Profitable production of caster beans on the South Plains was visualized here Wednesday by Dr. Henry Miller of Atchison, Kan., vice president of the Chemical Foundation of Kansas, in conferences with faculty members of Texas Technological college.

His Chief Study

Industrial utilization of farm products is his chief study, Dr. Miller said. He spends about two thirds of his time working with castor beans and one-third with other utilization studies.

The United States does not have any commercial production of the castor bean, he explained. "Most of our beans come from Brazil," he added. "We import about 1,500,000 bushels a year.

"Castor beans can be grown under irrigation and also dry land farming conditions. They can be planted with present farm equipment, cultivated with present machinery and about the only expense is a knife used in harvesting beans. They can be processed in plants that press cotton seed, so that there is very little additional expense for farmers who go in for special production."

Yield Is Explained

Yields, he explained, average about 50 bushels per acre. A bushel weighs 46 pounds and three gallons of oil can be pressed from a bushel. In addition there will be about two tons of stock feed left.

Seed should be planted at the rate of three pounds per acre, 42 inches apart in a row for plants and rows 42 inches apart. It is better to skip one row out of three, as it makes harvesting easier.

"About a year ago it was discovered that castor beans make a very good tung oil, that is used in paints and varnishes," he added. "There are many uses for this oil.

"Castor oil is used in making a substitute for synthetic cloth. The finer kind is used in making cloth; the coaser can be used in making a tooth brush. During the World war oil was used for lubrication of airplane engines."

Dr. Miller said he had checked some experimental plots of beans at Texas Tech. There are 200 varieties of beans available.

RECOVERING FROM EXPOSURE

EDINBURG, Dec. 1. (AP)—Gene McNamara, state representative-elect of Waco, was recovering today from exposure after being lost all day Tuesday in the heavily wooded section of northwestern Hidalgo county.

McNamara came to the valley with State Senators Doss Hardin of Waco and Ross Hardin of Prairie Hill. He left camp before daybreak and wandered until nearly dark when he found a Mexican who guided him.

Increased Activity In Oil For Gaines Area Expected In 1939

Increased activity in the oil industry in Seminole and Central Gaines county is expected after the first of the year, Mayor Harry N. Stone said Wednesday.

Mayor Stone and A. T. Freeman, county attorney, were here to discuss PWA projects with Congressman George Mahon.

A new geophysical crew located an office there Sunday, he said, making three now in town.

"Our main trouble now is to secure apartments or houses for the people who come here," the mayor said. "We lost a drilling crew of 8 the other day because we could not locate them. One firm has offered a bonus if some one will move out, to permit one of their employes to move in. We have more people now in Seminole than we have ever had."

Four wheel brakes were a novelty fifteen years ago. Today they are in universal use.

J. Frank Norris Cites Dangers Of Dictatorships In Sermon

Dangers of dictatorships were pointed out by Rev. J. Frank Norris, Baptist minister from Fort Worth, before an audience of approximately 1,000 persons Wednesday night in the Auditorium.

"Hitler and Mussolini are the strongest men in the world today," he declared.

He mentioned the influence those two men have on the younger generation, and charged that all communist leaders today are against religious organizations. He showed the danger of a dictatorship in America.

"John L. Lewis is the most dangerous enemy to democracy in America," he said. "Dictatorships enslave farmers, and leave industry in bondage."

After his lecture, Dr. Norris showed motion pictures of various religious gatherings, among them a crowd of 40,000 persons in Detroit, Mich., witnessing an old-fashioned baptizing.

Banquet Honoring Jones To Be Held After First Of The Year

A banquet honoring Clifford B. Jones, new president of Texas Technological college, will be conducted sometime after the first of the year, according to Calvin Hazlewood, administrative secretary of the Alumni and Ex-Students association of the college.

The association will sponsor the banquet. Date will be set to concur with the arrival on the campus of Jones to take up his duties as third president of the college, Hazlewood said.

Hazlewood has conferred by telephone with the new president, who is arranging business interests at Spur preparatory to coming to Lubcok. The association had announced immediately after selection of the president Saturday that it would sponsor a banquet open to the public.

A meeting of the executive committee of the Alumni and Ex-Students association has been scheduled for 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon in room 209 administration building. Plans for the banquet and other activities of the year will be discussed.

STORE IS ROBBED

LORENZO—Lock on the Easter drug store here was picked the other night and two radios taken, said J. O. Easter, owner. Two weeks ago the Easter home was ransacked and some money taken.

Wait, Mother—Ask Your Doctor First

Never give your children unknown "Bargain" remedies to take unless you ask your doctor.

A mother may save a few pennies giving her children unknown preparations. But a child's life is precious beyond pennies. So—Ask your doctor before you give any remedy you don't know all about.

And when giving the common children's remedy, milk of magnesia, always ask for "Phillips'" Milk of Magnesia.

Because for three generations Phillips' has been favored by many physicians as a standard, reliable and proved preparation — marvelously gentle for youngsters.

Many children like Phillips' in the newer form — tiny peppermint-flavored tablets that chew like candy. Each tablet contains the equivalent of one teaspoonful of the liquid Phillips.' 25c for a big box.

A bottle of Phillips' liquid Milk of Magnesia costs but 25c. So—anyone can afford the genuine. Careful mothers ask for it by its full name "Phillips' Milk of Magnesia."

Run Down Folk!

Take A Tip From Nature

You know what usually happens to growing things when you add new nourishment to the soil. Plants shoot up straight and sturdy, flowers bloom in rich colors and fragrance, trees grow heavy with their fruit. And all because of receiving proper nourishment. So, run down folks, take a tip from Nature. See what proper nourishment may do for you.

If your appetite is finicky, your digestion faulty, no wonder you are rundown, listless, feel gassy, belchy, bloated. Without proper nourishment your blood is weak—fails to supply the precious tissue-building elements every fibre in your body is crying for.

Your trouble may be functional and therefore to get the right help and nourishment you should try B-L Tonic. This tonic will make your appetite keen, improve your faulty digestion, thus enriching the blood, which, flowing like sap in the trees, will stir you to new strength and energy. It costs only ten cents a day to get this new hold on life. Starts B-L Tonic today on a money-back guarantee.—(Adv.)

Railroads Place Embargo On Shipments Of Livestock To Chicago

Packing Plants Not Included

(By The Associated Press)

CHICAGO, Dec. 1—Railroads placed an embargo on shipments of livestock to the strike-bound market at the Chicago stock yards today.

The action was announced by E. L. Kemp, representative of the rail lines at the yards, at the end of the tenth day of a dispute that has halted normal operations at the trade center.

Can Go Directly To Packers

He explained carriers would refuse to accept meat animals consigned to commission men who act as sales agents at the yards for farmers of the Midwest but that they would continue to transport cattle, sheep and hogs sent directly to packing houses here.

The embargo was requested by the commission men, who have been forced to feed and water the stock shipped here. They urged producers to withhold shipments until striking CIO handlers and the Union Stock Yards company compose their differences.

The Packing House Workers Organizing Committee issued a statement saying negotiations between the management and the CIO revolved about the strikers demand for a signed contract.

Glass Animal Figurines Are To Be Displayed At Tech Museum

A collection of small glass animals, figurines, table decorations and other objects designed by Marianna von Allesch will be shown in West Texas museum on Texas Technological college campus today through Dec. 25. The Art institute will sponsor the exhibit.

The exhibit, demonstrating rare technical achievement in glass making, includes small elephants, one of which is a replica of one in the Metropolitan Museum of Arts, small classical figure, with flowers; the Tyrolean man and woman; blown glass horse, and numerous small objects in shapes of gulls, ducks, squirrels and other animals. Figures labeled "Foolish Virgins", "Tiller Girls", and "Society Girls" are included. "Rebecca" is one of the most recently designed.

The designer of the objects was for several years associated with Prof. Bruno Paul, director of the Berlin academy. She was commissioned by the German government to investigate glass conditions in Thuringen and spent 18 months there acquiring knowledge in art of glass making.

Approximately 50 families have been employed in making the glass objects in the exhibit, which is circulated by Blanche A. Byerley of New York.

When safety glass first came into use the cost of equipping a closed car was $300 or more. Today this feature is standard equipment.

BLACKIE'S hind legs are paralyzed—he was hit by an auto—but he gets places just the same. His owner, Russell Stevens, of Danville, Ill., adapted a little red cart to put Blackie's 'tonneau' on wheels and it didn't take the pup long to learn how to get around with only his front legs for motive power.

Employer Of Phil Kennamer Is Well Pleased With His Work

PHOENIX, Ariz., Dec. 1. (AP) — The employer of Phil Kennamer, convicted Tulsa "society gang" slayer at liberty on a six months parole from the Oklahoma penitentiary, said today he was "pleased" with his work as a $100-a-month warehouseman.

"We're pleased with him or we wouldn't have employed him," said W. I. Williams, jr., division manager of the Richfield Oil company, where Kennamer is working at loading and unloading delivery trucks.

Kennamer, son of a federal judge, was sentenced to 25 years imprisonment for manslaughter in the fatal shooting of John Gorrell, jr., in Tulsa, Thanksgiving day, 1934.

He was granted a six-months parole so he could accompany his ailing mother to Arizona for her health.

Emil Machu, night counterman at a Temple, Texas, cafe for 17 years, recently estimated he has served 5,000,000 cups of coffee, an average of 603 cups nightly or 17 gallons. He says he has taken in more than $250,000 for coffee alone.

Four Five-Year Terms Given In New Mexico For Rustling

LORDSBURG, N. M., Dec. 1. (AP) —Grover Tullos pleaded guilty to a charge of cattle "rustling" in district court here Tuesday and was sentenced to four five-year terms in state penitentiary.

Two fellow-defendants, Juan Rias and Antonio Gomez, were held to the federal department of labor for deportation to Mexico. Charges against a fourth, W. H. Britton, were dismissed.

The men were charged with stealing cattle from John T. Muir, Lordsburg rancher- banker. Rias and Gomez were arrested while driving 48 head toward Mexico near the New Mexico-Arizona line.

RECEIVE NEW EQUIPMENT

SEAGRAVES, Dec. 1. — New equipment for the new Seagraves postoffice location is being received, M. T. Cain, postmaster, announces.

Location is in the Armstrong-Jones building. It is a block south of the present location. Space available is double that of the office now being used.

WORK STARTS SOON

SEAGRAVES, Dec. 1. — Work on building a new grade school building here is expected to start early in December, Joe Bailey, chairman of the board of trustees, announced.

W. S. Moss, Lubbock contractor, has the contract on his bid of $52,147. The board had $60,000 available, through a 45 per cent PWA grant and a bond issue. Board officials expect a work order in a few days.

Don't Let Constipation Drag On!

Do you often have days when you wake up tired—when you feel dull, sunk, "all bogged down"? It's time you did something about it. And something more than just taking a physic! You should get at the cause of the trouble!

If you eat what most people do—just bread, meat, potatoes—chances are that just this fact is responsible: you don't get enough "bulk." And "bulk" doesn't mean a lot of food. It means a kind of food that isn't consumed in the body, but leaves a soft "bulky" mass in the intestines that helps a bowel movement.

If this is your trouble, what you need is crisp crunchy Kellogg's All-Bran for breakfast. It contains "bulk" plus Nature's great intestinal tonic, vitamin B1.

Eat it every day, drink plenty of water, and see if your old sparkle doesn't come back! Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Traditional Christmas Observances Are Featuring Early December Society

Open House To Honor Girls

Traditional social events inspired by the approaching holiday season are filling the calendar for town and college folk.

Invitations were in the mail Wednesday for an annual "at home" Ko Shari patronesses are giving Saturday night in the residence of Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Overton, 1808 Broadway. Receiving hours will be between 7 and 9 o'clock.

Kappa Gamma sorority is to present Mr. and Mrs. Julien Paul Blitz in a musicale Sunday night at 6 o'clock at the F. R. Friend residence, 2005 Broadway.

College club, a society of Tech men students, is to entertain with an annual formal winter dance Saturday night at the Hilton hotel.

Approximately 65 members of the Pythian Sister temple and guests attended a turkey banquet Wednesday night at the Knights of Pythias hall.

Decorations on the U-shaped table were in a Christmas theme. Varicolored angel's hair was arranged down the center of the table.

Program Presented

Two violin solos were presented by Vance White, with his mother, Mrs. Mary White, accompanying on the piano. Mr. and Mrs. B. E. Clark of Slaton presented selections on electric steel guitars. Ned Hardin offered two piano selections. Kay Campbell, Ned Hardin, Shari Ann Thompson and Johnny Fults danced, accompanied at the piano by Jack Fuller. The dancers and accompanying pianist represented Larrymore studio.

Mrs. William G. Dingus, assistant professor of foreign languages at Texas Technological college, spoke on friendship.

A Christmas entertainment is being planned by the temple.

The Lubbock Garden club's annual Christmas lighting contest entry books will be opened today and entries will be received through December 15. Anyone wishing to participate in the contest is asked to telephone the president, Mrs. J. E. Hartley whose telephone number is 2464; Mrs. W. L. Bradshaw, 2503, or Mrs. S. C. Wilson, 51.

Three cash prizes will be given in each of the following divisions: General display, Christmas tree lighted out of doors, doorway, single window, group windows and scene.

Erect Carriage Has Replaced Slouch

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 1. (Special) — The feminine posture, popularized under the term "the debutante slouch," is a thing of the past, and has been replaced by an erect, graceful carriage that stresses health and self-confidence.

"You can't be smart and have a careless, haphazard posture," Mrs. Dora R. Barnes, clothing specialist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension service, tells 4-H club girls and home demonstration club women.

The most expensive gowns are wasted when the posture is poor, while a woman or girl blessed with erect carriage can lend grace to the simplest clothing, Mrs. Barnes points out.

Health Is Important

"The woman who slumps will never look well no matter how handsomely she is groomed," she says. "Good figure and good posture are not questions of size, weight, or age, but of health and carriage.

"Round shoulders, hollow chest, protruding abdomen, and crooked feet furnish a poor foundation on which a woman must hang her clothes, so stand tall, walk tall, think tall. We are most like the pictures we carry around in our minds."

Five or 10 minutes daily exercise, Mrs. Barnes thinks, will do wonders to correct the posture caused by a neglected or misused spine. "Daily physical exercises designed to stretch and straighten the spine and the wearing of the correct kind of foundation garments and shoes will correct self-inflicted deformities and help in the regaining of a beautifully poised figure."

Miss Ann Ferguson And Kenneth Parker Wed

HAMLIN, Dec. 1. (Special)—Mrs. B. S. Ferguson is announcing the marriage of her daughter, Miss Ann Ferguson, to Kenneth Parker of McCaulley, which took place Nov. 19 at the Hamlin Church of Christ with Virgil Jackson reading the service.

The couple is at home at Plasterco where Mr. Parker is employed by the Texas Plaster and Cement company. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. I. Parker of McCaulley.

Mrs. Parker is a former student at Texas Technological college where she was a member of Sans Souci club and popular in campus activities.

Yule Features Club Socials

Meetings of needle clubs are enlivened with conversation on plans for Christmas, which include tree parties for husbands and children.

Mrs. C. C. Camp was received as a member of the Timely Ten Needle club at a meeting held Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. H. H. Penninger, 1620 Sixth street. Knitting and sewing were enjoyed.

Others attending were Mesdames E. D. Farris, C. B. Lively, C. R. McLaurin, Irwin, W. Mitchell and C. O. Young.

The hostess served coffee, hot chocolate, congealed salad, potato chips and sandwiches.

The club will have a Christmas tree party at 2 p. m., December 14 in the home of Mrs. Young in the Arnett-Benson addition.

The Merry Circle had a regular meeting Wednesday afternoon in the home of Mrs. W. F. Barrett, 1610 Avenue G. Each member presented a cup towel to the hostess. Devotional on "Christ's Busy Sabbath" was led by Mrs. Barrett, then the following officers were elected:

President, Mrs. B. B. Gillean (re-elected); vice president, Mrs. Charles W. Graves; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Orville W. Click, and program committee Mesdames Loraine Allison and P. W. Reveles.

A Christmas program was planned for December 21. Mrs. H. H. Davis of 1816 Avenue O will be hostess. The program will take the place of the next regular meeting.

Refreshments were served to Mesdames W. H. Reese, F. A. White, R. L. Magouirk, Gillean, Revens, Allison, Click, Davis, Graves, Miss Maude Allison and a guest.

So-Su club members attended an all-day meeting in the home of Mrs. Maude McLeod. A covered dish luncheon was served. Quilting was enjoyed and names were drawn for a Christmas party to be given in the home of Mrs. Zula Nichols December 14.

Mesdames Tom Loden of Hico and Frank Lisenby were special guests. Members present were Mesdames L. L. Madena Nichols, Ozna Wright, Georgia Sligar, Anna Moore and Carl Beasley.

To Remember Needy

Happy Ten Needle club members were the guests of Mrs. T. F. Cone, 1917 Twenty-sixth street. It was planned to fill a Christmas basket for an unfortunate family.

Mrs. Drew Warren was received as a member. Others present were Mesdames C. C. Jones, Elmer Potts, G. H. Greenlee and O. A. Cunningham and Miss Addie Bryant.

The club will meet Dec. 14 with Mrs. Greenlee, 1920 Twenty-seventh street, at 2 p. m.

The Blue Bonnet Sewing club planned a Christmas party to be held at the home of Mrs. T. Ricker, 1504 Twenty-fourth street, at a meeting with Mrs. S. T. Thornton, 606 Avenue M, Wednesday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Weaver, sr., of 1901 Broadway, left today for Kansas City, Mo., where he will attend a wholesale seedman's convention before he and Mrs. Weaver make a business trip to Chicago and to cities in Iowa and Nebraska.

Fourteen Scout Troops To Be Organized Here

All girls interested in becoming scouts are asked to meet at 7 p. m. Friday at the First Church of the Nazarene, Fourteenth street and Avenue Q. Their mothers also are invited to attend. The four Girl Scout troops of Lubbock have undertaken as their goal the organization of at least 14 new troops here.

Miss Katherine Park of New York, field worker for the national organization, will be guest speaker tonight at a dinner meeting of leaders, the council and advisory board at 6:30 o'clock at Hotel Lubbock. She addressed scout leaders Wednesday night at a meeting on the mezzanine floor of the Hilton hotel and that afternoon talked to Brownie leaders at St. Elizabeth's hall.

Get Comforting Relief from
RUNNY HEAD COLDS
DO THIS: Put some Vicks VapoRub up each nostril and sniff well back.
NEXT, melt a spoonful of VapoRub in a bowl of boiling water; breathe in the medicated vapors for several minutes. This loosens phlegm and further clears the air-passages.
AT BEDTIME, rub VapoRub on throat, chest, and back so its long-continued double action can relieve the misery of the cold while you sleep.
TRY IT—then you'll know why VapoRub is a standby in 3 out of 5 homes.

Experiences Of 1917-18 Are Not Wanted

Louis Johnson Tells Army Procurement Specialists To Prepare Production

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—The army gave orders today to streamline preparations for production of munitions.

Louis Johnson, assistant secretary of war, told more than 200 army procurement specialists that in the event of war the righ command did not "want the experiences of 1917-18 repeated."

Designs for arms and supplies must be simplified and arrangements speeded for mass production, he advised, both to meet any war emergency and to cope with increased orders resulting from President Roosevelt's proposals to reinforce national defenses.

"We hope congress will give us a sufficient stock of munitions to tide us over until industry is ready," Johnson said.

The large, partly bald assistant secretary, one of the president's principal advisers on the prospective rearmament program, summoned the army officers to the first national conference of the kind.

The war department has been making industrial mobilization plans since passage of the 1920 national defense act, but previous sessions of officers detailed to work with industrial plants have been on a regional basis.

"We have selected 10,000 plants to which we have given definite war schedules of production," Johnson said in discussing preparations for any future war; but numerous production "bottlenecks" must be broken, he added.

"There are still more than 25 per cent of our items, many of them vital to our cause, for which specifications and drawings have not been completed," he said.

Of 7,300 articles or production processes figuring in war department plans, he said 55 critical items were "so difficult of production, so different from ordinary peacetime needs that industry will not be able to produce them in mass without some education."

Provided 2,000,000

Congress provided 2,000,000 this year for "educational orders" for five of the 55 critical items. Johnson said funds would be asked at the next session to train industry to turn out the remaining 50.

Urging simplification of military machines and weapons, the assistant secretary, apparently referring to Germany, told the officers that "in a certain foreign country" designers "strip all non-essentials from their important items of war equipment."

He said in the single-seater fighter airplane of that country, the self-starter has been left out, radio equipment has been made readily removable to make way for extra ammunition, and the cockpit has been reduced in size to accommodate only small men.

As immediate objectives, Johnson specified:

1. Establishment of standard types for all critical arms and supplies, and completion of all drawings and data.
2. Completion of industrial surveys to establish the capacity of all plants.
3. Training of factories by means of current and "educational" orders.
4. Completion of organization and training of personnel needed to expand supply organizations to war strength.
5. Early completion of simple contract forms "adequate for all anticipated war conditions."

Firms Consolidated And Expanding Here

Announcement of the consolidation of the Star Tire company and the Dryer Triple A service into the firm of Star Tire company, inc., was made this morning by Carl E. Slaton, mayor of Lubbock and president of the new consolidation.

Other officers are Hugh Dryer, vice president, and M. S. Cole, secretary-treasurer.

Location of the new firm, Slaton said, will be 1217 Avenue J, present headquarters of Triple A service. The consolidation, he added, will mean an expansion of facilities provided by the company.

Station No. 2 of Triple A, located at 2313 Nineteenth street, will continue in operation, he said.

Although business will be continued a few days longer at the present location of Star Tire company, 1502 Avenue H, he added, the whole will be transferred to the more central Avenue J location within the very near future. The Avenue J place then will serve for storage during the remainder of December and then likely will be leased, the announcement said.

The transaction, Slaton explained, means the establishment at the Avenue J address of a complete "one stop" station. Latest equipment manned by a competent crew of expert mechanics will be found there, he said. Installation of additional equipment and increase in the employed personnel are included in plans for the near future, he added.

The company will continue as distributor for Star automobile tires and products, he said, in an area which includes the whole of the South Plains, much of the Texas Panhandle and sections south and east of those territories.

Under the constitution the salary of the president is fixed during his term of office and cannot be reduced. However, it is permissible for the president to turn back into the treasury any amount he may choose.

O'Mahoney (D-Wyo), a lawyer and former newspaper man, to dapper Richard G. Patterson, a New York business executive who came here several months ago as assistant secretary of commerce. O'Mahoney is chairman.

Other Members Listed

Other congressional members are Rep. Sumners (D-Tex), vice- chairman; Senator Borah (R-Idaho), veteran foe of monopolies; Senator King, (D-Utah), Rep. Reece (R-Tenn); and Rep. Eicher (D-Iowa), appointed Tuesday to the Securities commission by President Roosevelt.

Departmental members, besides Patterson and Lubin, are Thurman W. Arnold, assistant attorney general in charge of anti-trust prosecutions; Chairman William O. Douglas of the Securities commission; Chairman Garland S. Ferguson of the Federal Trade commission, and Herman Oliphant, treasury general counsel.

The investigation comes at a time when the administration is engaged in an intensive campaign to prosecute alleged violations of anti-trust laws.

Trip To Vernon

leave from the high school at 7:30 o'clock, will go from there to the bus terminal to pick up any additional passengers there, and then will be on their way. Among the buses will be three occupied by 70 high school bandsmen—one being supplied by Bowman and South Plains coaches without charge.

Train Leaves At 7:30

The special train will leave from the Fort Worth and Denver depot also at 7:30 a.m. One of the colorful additions to the special, according to information this morning, will be the private coach of Archie S. Underwood, who will be accompanied by a number of guests. The coach is equipped with a siren which will signal the departure from Lubbock and will announce the arrival in Vernon.

The special, according to Kuykendall, will be a double-header. In Lockney, 150 more fans are to be picked up to be taken to the Lockney-Wellington game in Wellington for the bi-district Class B championship. In Childress, the train will be divided, one section continuing to Wellington and the other for Vernon.

Arrival About 11:30

The schedule calls for the arrival of the buses in Vernon at about 11:30 a. m. Members of the band and others are to go to the Vernon railroad depot to greet the special train scheduled to arrive there at noon. A parade through the Vernon business district will follow.

Returning, the buses will leave Vernon about 30 minutes after the game, allowing those aboard time for a lunch. The special train is scheduled to leave Vernon at 5:30 p.m., but the time will be adjusted to the convenience of the fans.

Kickoff in the game is set for 2:30, and expectation is it will be over by 5 o'clock.

well-being of mankind, particularly in Navarro county and in Texas. He admonished the trustees, however, that in so doing he was "no Santa Claus emptying the cornucopia of benevolence." He insisted that beneficiaries should try to help themselves. "Benevolence always should go back to the base of things," he said.

Cotton Market

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, Dec. 1. (AP)—Cotton futures opened steady here today but prices were unchanged compared with the previous close. Trade calling proved sufficient to absorb overnight selling and hedging.

Dec. contracts opened at 8.79, Jan. at 8.60 bid, March at 8.56, May at 8.37, July at 8.13, Oct. at 7.83, Dec. (new) at 7.84 and March (1940) at 7.88 bid.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Cotton futures opened 1 lower to 1 higher. Liquidation and hedge selling were absorbed by the trade and foreign houses.

Open Dec. 8.67, Jan. 8.50, March 8.45, May 8.26, July 8.02, Oct. 7.71.

There were numerous small orders on both sides of the market and prices fluctuated irregularly. Shortly after the first half hour the list was net unchanged to 2 points lower. March moved between 8.46 and 8.44.

Cotton goods markets were quiet with the undertone barely steady.

Livestock Market

FORT WORTH REPORT

Grain Market

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, Dec. 1. (AP)—Announcement of British purchases of a considerable quantity of United States Surplus Commodity corporation wheat holdings ran Chicago wheat prices up 1½ cents late today.

The purchases were not on behalf of the British government, but of millers, it was stated. No estimates of the total were given, although talked of as about 10 per cent of the annual British imports.

At the close, Chicago wheat futures were ⅜-1½ cents higher compared with yesterday's finish. Dec. 63⅛-⅜, May 66⅜-½, corn ⅜-⅝ up, Dec. 47⅝, May 51⅜-½ and oats ⅛-¼ advanced.

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, Dec. 1. (AP)—Fair demand was reported for grain here Thursday.

Wheat No. 1 hard 77½-82½.
Barley No. 1 nom 50-51.
Sorghums No. 2 yellow per 100 lbs. nom 92-94. No. 2 white kaffir nom 87-89.
Corn shelled No. 2 wheat 64-65.
Oats No. 2 red 38-40.

Stock Market

WALL STREET REPORT

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Selling of steels put a chill on today's stock market and leaders dipped fractions to a point or so.

Despite reluctance to retreat displayed by individual rails, utilities and specialties, the list moved over an irregularly lower route from the start and occasional efforts to revive buying met with faint response. At that, closing quotations in many cases were above the day's bottoms.

The ticker tape loafed the greater part of the time, with transfers less than 1,000,000 shares.

Millions Needed

of the money.

King said abolishment of horse race betting in the state largely accounted for a decrease of $248,000 in one classification of receipts.

He reported that on the present basis of income and outgo, with approximately 113,000 pensions receiving $13.75 each, the pension setup would be more than $1,500,000 in the red by August, 1941. Disbursements exceeded receipts by nearly $370,000 during the fiscal year and were almost $900,000 when it closed.

Receipts from liquor, cigarette and other taxes during the period were slightly in excess of $18,100,000 while pension payments amounted to more than $18,500,000.

The auditor said Texas' 392 pensioners per 1,000 estimated population of more than 65 years of age exceeded only four other states of the union.

Plans For Development Of Drum And Bugle Corps Are Talked

Plans for the development of the drum and bugle corps of Sons of the American Legion to a full membership of 48 for which instruments are available were discussed at the weekly practice in the Legion hall Wednesday night, according to information given by E. Kelley Nail, chairman of the sons' sponsoring committee.

H. A. Anderson, director of Senior High school bands, assumed his duties as newly appointed director of the drum and bugle corps and announced that practices in future will be each Wednesday at 6:45 p. m.

Travis Calvin has been director of the corps but relinquished complete charge because of demands of the cotton business upon his time. He will continue, however, to work with Anderson in the direction.

Thirty boys appeared for the Wednesday night practice, Nail reported.

The foundation was aimed at promoting religion and education, lessening human suffering, providing public buildings, helping the poor and assisting in scientific endeavors.

Cotton Bowl Status

Southern Methodist university be invited to play the Red Raiders. Most of those at the meeting expressed approval of a statement by H. C. Pender, representing the Texas Tech Athletic council, that Tech ostensibly was to represent the southwest and only a minority of fans would be interested in watching them play S. M. U.

Developments In Selection Of Tech Foe Summed Up

For purpose of the record, here were noon developments growing out of the tempest swirling about a possible opponent for Texas Technological college's devastating Red Raiders Jan. 2 in the Dallas Cotton Bowl:

1. Coach Pete Cawthon and his wrecking crew are not interested in playing Southern Methodist university.

2. Notre Dame has not been offered $75,000 to meet the Red and Black in the mid-winter sports spectacle.

Holy Cross Chances Dim

3. Holy Cross chances to hitch up its belt and round up its coaches early enough to dictate a yes to bowl officials are dim and remote.

4. Coach Edward (Slip) Madigan of St. Mary's college on the west coast will tell officials of the bowl "today" whether his Gaels will risk their impressive record against the Techsters.

5. Clemson college of Clemson, S. C., organized in 1893 and which boasts 1,599 students, telegraphed Coach Cawthon it would like to be considered before an opponent is selected—pointing out its record this season was unmarred save for a loss to the Crimson Tide of Alabama.

Officials Not Alarmed

6. Neither Coach Cawthon nor Dan Rogers, chief big shot of the bowl association, professed to be alarmed at the slowness of a decision. "The bowl is marking time for the moment to be sure the Raiders get the best opposition possible," said Coach Cawthon late this morning.

7. Villanova definitely was "out". The athletic council voiced an implied, semi-expressed, contract in which Head Coach Clipper Smith had been quoted as "accepting the Cotton Bowl bid."

West Texas Goes Nertz

8. 9. 10 and through the stacked digits—The entire West Texas section has gone nertz.

"We definitely are not interested in playing a team (SMU) that was beaten by a team the Raiders reversed by three touchdowns," said Coach Cawthon.

"It may seem a little slow, the way plans are shaping up, but we don't want anything short of the best out there against us when the kickoff whistle blows.

Not Missing Any Bets

"And the bowl officials and our own Tech coaching staff are not worried—it may take a little more time, but Mr. Rogers is not missing any bets. We'll have an opponent—and a plenty tough one."

Rogers, important banker, "hasn't had time to bank" this week, said the Tech coach.

"He's been working on the bowl proposition hour after hour. Matter of fact, he didn't go to bed at all one night. I talked with him three times last night and he is not disturbed about anything. He says it all will work out to the fullest advantage—which means when it comes to bowl games that one at the Cotton Bowl won't take a back seat to any. There'll be plenty of offense out there, and it all won't be by the Red Raiders."

Some Favor Meeting Mustangs

Despite the coach's preferences, a wall of discussion in coffee places and any out-of-the-way spot where more than one person gathered was built about the possibility of Tech meeting the Methodist Mustangs of the Southwest conference.

"We've a right to membership in the Southwest conference and a game with the second highest club in that dizzy circus would go a long way to show the comparative strength of the club knocking on the door and one of the several getting sore muscles each year trying to keep it shut," one spokesman aptly put it.

In the meantime, telegrams and telephone calls are coming in like a river.

Some About 1939 Schedule

"I pick the phone up and put it down and pick it up again," said Cawthon. "It rings all the time." A source close to the coach said this morning's calls alone included long-distance conversations with Villanova, Texas A. & M., Montana university, St. Louis university, Slip Madigan—"some of which, naturally, regarded Tech's schedule for next year."

"I was at a football banquet at Floydada last night and, from the way they've hopped on the Tech bandwagon, you'd think their team was going to play in the bowl," said Coach Cawthon, who said the reaction there was "just a case in point of what seems to be happening all over this section."

While the powers that be are nodding their heads solemnly and shaking them with vehemence, plans for putting tickets on sale in numerous West Texas and eastern New Mexico towns were being pushed. Blocks of ducats will be offered Tuesday in various places, said Bo Williams, graduate manager of athletics at the college, who said "anyone who fails to find tickets in his own town should visit, wire, telephone or otherwise communicate" with his department.

Retrial Of Negro Is Started This Morning

Here's one to go with "too few cases of its kind," said Lubbock attorneys.

A mistrial was declared by Judge Daniel A. Blair Wednesday in the case of W. M. Mitchell, negro charged by indictment with theft from the person.

Victor H. Lindsey, assistant to Burton S. Burks, district attorney, who prosecuted, turned around this morning, procured another jury and began trying the case again.

Lubbock attorneys questioned said they did not recall a similar case in the past here.

Some did not remember any case where the same indictment that figured in a mistrial one day was invoked for a new trial the next.

The jury Wednesday was understood to have become deadlocked 11 to 1 on the question of guilt or innocense, 11 members holding the negro was guilty as charged.

In the matter of V. T. Dickson, charged in two cases with forgery, the defendant this morning presented a motion to quash the indictment of the case that had been called and, the state asking time to study the motion, the action was passed.

Enters Guilty Plea

On her plea of guilty before the court on a charge of driving when intoxicated, Mrs. Oran Wilson of Lubbock, Wednesday was sentenced to serve five days in jail, pay a $100 fine and her drivers license was suspended 12 months.

S. M. J. Benson, also charged by indictment with driving when intoxicated, entered a plea of guilty and Judge Blair sentenced him to serve five days in jail, fined him $50 and suspended his drivers license six months, the minimum penalty.

Jerman Fisher, John Johnson, and Willie White, negroes, pleaded guilty of theft of 43 chickens from Elmer Rush late in September, and probably will be sentenced Friday, it was indicated.

Test For New Law

above the maximum or shipping in interstate commerce goods produced under illegal conditions.

2. A criminal action by the government. Attorneys said such action likely would be used only against obviously malicious violations.

3. A civil suit by an employe or group of employes to collect pay either because of an employer's failure to pay the minimum wage of 25 cents an hour or the time and a half rate for hours worked in excess of 44 a week.

Ultimately, all three types of cases probably will be used in enforcing the law, but as far as officials here know, only one legal action has been started to date.

Several members of the International Ladies Garment Workers union in San Antonio, Texas, have brought a suit for back pay before a justice of the peace. They asked $50 in wages, an equal amount as damages and 75 attorney fees.

There are, however, no indications that this suit will be developed into a major constitutionality test. Information here is that it was not started by the union but by individual members.

Sumners Proposes That General Elections Be Held In October

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 (AP)—Rep. Sumners (D-Tex) proposed today that general elections be held in October instead of November. The fact that presidential inaugurations now take place in January instead of March allows little time for all the electoral college formalities, he pointed out.

Homecoming Banquet Scheduled For Gomez School On Friday

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 1.—On Friday night the second annual homecoming banquet will be held in the Gomez school, west of here, and a record attendance is expected.

It will be a family affair, with prizes for former students coming the farthest, the former patron with the most children in school and the biggest and the littlest former student.

will be flashed on next Monday night; expectation is that all downtown streets will be decorated for lighting by that time, but lights will go on just the same.

If business men in any downtown blocks which did not have ornamental illumination last year desire it, the method of procedure will be explained if they call the chamber of commerce. There will be no campaign, however, seeking to extend the lighted zone.

The purchasing committee already has begun preparations to procedure an adequate supply of toys, fruits, nuts, candy and the like for the distribution.

Preparation of the "master list" of those who will be remembered has been started.

Repair of toys collected by Boy Scouts in their recent annual toy pickup is in progress at the KFYO booth at the Panhandle - South Plains fairgrounds.

The decorations committee is to get in touch with Garden club members to offer full cooperation in the club's encouragement of home ornamentation during the holidays.

The same committee also is to investigate the feasibility of a downtown lighting contest for business firms. The committee, however, has full authority to go ahead with the decorations plan it deems best.

Second 'Round-Up Program' Will Be Conducted By BTU Tonight

The Baptist Student union will sponsor the second "round-up program" of the semester from 8:15 to 9:15 o'clock tonight in room 320 of the administration building at Texas Technological college. The meeting will be open to all students.

Dr. Victor Koon, missionary to China who is speaking each night this week at the First Baptist church, will show motion pictures. Miss Helen Wesson of Dimmitt, first place winner of a recent state B. T. U. oratorical contest held in Wichita Falls, will be introduced. The program will include musical entertainment.

Football Carnival Is Scheduled In Ralls Auditorium Friday

RALLS, Dec. 1. — An annual football carnival is to be held in the municipal auditorium here Friday night, sponsored by teachers of the entire school system.

Proceeds will go towards purchase of sweaters for the Ralls Jackrabbits, who have just closed a very successful season.

WTCC Goes On Air For Series Of Ten Nightly Programs

ABILENE, Dec. 1. (AP) — The West Texas Chamber of Commerce took to the air last night with the first in a series of ten programs over a five-station West Texas radio network to espouse the domestic allotment plan for agriculture.

Speakers were H. S. Hilburn, Plainview, president of the organization, and D. A. Bandeen General manager.

Other speakers, on consecutive evenings beginning Thursday, will be the Rev. Hugo Haterius, Avoca; E. A. Speck, of the WTCC staff; J. M. Francis, Jones county farmer; J. E. McDonald, state commissioner of agriculture; Ralph Moore, Granger, state master of the Grange; Clifford B. Jones, Spur, president-elect of Texas Technological college; A. S. Ashford, San Angelo insurance executive; B. Reagan, Big Spring business man; R. E. Dickson, director of the state farm experiment station at Spur, and Prof. M. E. Heard of the Texas Tech faculty.

his defeat for re-election was the knowledge that many men and women whom he had been able to give commission jobs would lose them as a result.

After attending A. & M. college two years, Terrell studied in a law office in his home city of Decatur until he could qualify for a license to practice.

He was city attorney at Decatur from 1886 to 1892, county and district attorney from 1892 to 1896, state senator from 1896 to 1900, county judge from 1906 to 1910, state senator from 1910 to 1914, state treasurer from 1921 to 1924, and railroad commissioner from 1924 through this year.

He was appointed treasurer by Governor Pat Neff in 1921, then elected to the position in 1922. Chosen by Governor Neff to fill a railroad commission vacancy in 1924, he was elected for the unexpired term, then elected in 1926 and 1932 for full terms. His service on the commission has been longer than that of any other person except the late Allison Mayfield.

ing or handling of cotton, Burdette said. Any others interested likewise will be welcomed, he added.

Under the plan which McDonald has advocated actively for several months, farmers would be permitted to raise as much cotton as they can. However, they would receive government subsidy only on that portion of the crop which could be consumed in the United States. The remaining surplus would be placed on the world market to be sold at the prevailing world price.

A Three Days' Cough Is Your Danger Signal

No matter how many medicines you have tried for your common cough, chest cold, or bronchial irritation, you may get relief now with Creomulsion. Serious trouble may be brewing and you cannot afford to take a chance with any remedy less potent than Creomulsion, which goes right to the seat of the trouble and aids nature to soothe and heal the inflamed mucous membranes and to loosen and expel germ-laden phlegm.

Even if other remedies have failed, don't be discouraged, try Creomulsion. Your druggist is authorized to refund your money if you are not thoroughly satisfied with the benefits obtained. Creomulsion is one word, ask for it plainly, see that the name on the bottle is Creomulsion, and you'll get the genuine product and the relief you want. (Adv.)

Democrats May Buck Traces

BY L. T. EASLEY
Associated Press Texas Correspondent

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1 — Stocky little Sam Rayburn of Bonham will have a bigger job on his hands next year than last if he continues floor leader of the house for the Democratic party.

This is the opinion of most observers here, who point out that, while there will be fewer Democrats to keep in the fold, a number of those returning may buck the traces with greater vehemence this year than they did last. Among those may be several Texans.

There seems little probability of a change in the Bankhead-Rayburn-Boland triumvirate in the seventy-sixth congress. Speaker Bankhead and Rayburn are expected to be reelected by their colleagues. The majority leader appoints the whip, and it is believed Rayburn would reappoint Pennsylvania's Rep. Boland to that post.

Works Under Floor Leader

The whip works under the floor leader to determine the sentiment among the members on pending legislation. It is their duty to steer the administration's measures through to passage by the house. When an important bill is approaching a vote Boland directs a crew of assistant whips in a canvass of all Democratic members to learn their attitude toward the bill.

The result of the checkup is reported to the speaker, and the majority leader. If the report shows the bill's chances of passage are doubtful, the assistant whips or the leading trio themselves then contact the truant Democrats to see if they may be persuaded to support the administration. Sometimes objections are overcome by amending the legislation.

May Look To Republicans

Should the next poll of party members show the legislation still in a precarious position, the whip may have to look into the possibility of getting a few favorable votes from the Republican side. These polls are not always accurate forecasts of action by the house for not all members are contacted and some decline to express their views.

When an administration measure comes up for a vote, it is the duty of the whip to see that members favorable to it are apprised of the approximate hour the actual count will be made so that their absences won't cause defeat.

Often on such occasions the whip's office immediately contacts the assistant whips to let them know that a vote is about to be taken. The assistant whips, or their secretaries, contact the members assigned to them. Consequently it takes only a few minutes for the entire Democratic membership (now 261) to be notified.

Has 72 Fewer Democrats

The whip's organization will have 72 fewer Democratic heads to canvass in the next congress. The Progressive and Farmer-Labor party representatives, generally favorable to the administration, were reduced by ten. Thus the routine census work will be lightened.

There will be some changes among the 16 assistant whips, for three were defeated in their races for reelection, and Boland and Rayburn may not care to reappoint some who differed with the administration on the government reorganization and wage-hour bills.

The chief assistant whip of the last session, Rep. Dockweiler of California, will not be back next session. He made an unsuccessful race for governor of his state.

Among the assistant whips of the last congress was Rep. Ewing Thomason of El Paso who is expected to be reappointed.

The number of farms in the South increased more than 400 per cent from 1860 to 1938, while acres in cultivation dropped from 194,296,000 to 188,542,000.

Roosevelt's "Dream" Home Comes True

Conceived by the President himself as his "dream" of a home, the handsome Dutch-style house begins to take concrete form in stone. It is being constructed on a 70-acre forest tract near the Roosevelts' Hyde Park, N. Y., house and will be known as "Dutchess Hill Cottage." Its most important convenience—from the Presidential viewpoint—is that it will lack a telephone. Photo shows how far construction has already progressed on the sprawling, one-story house nestling in the woods.

Follow The Westerners!

By Collier Parris

THEY'RE A-SKEERED of us, that's what!

Or is somebody warming up their curve-ball pitching arms?

Something is definitely screwy about this Cotton Bowl business, and it isn't altogether this reporter, although we're dizzy enough.

But for your latest Cotton Bowl dope, better turn back to page 1. After all, Elmer, a deadline is a deadline, and can we help it if there's a difference of two hours between the sports page and page 1?

The last thing we heard before "going down" with this column along about deep bedtime was in form of a confidential message from the Associated Press quoting Dan Rogers, president of the Cotton Bowl, who, aroused from bed, exploded last night's exciting Notre Dame radio rumor with "we exhausted the Notre Dame angle six weeks ago." Guess he didn't listen to his radio.

Preceding that was a yarn that left us cold, as it probably left most of you. It concerned possibility of asking Southern Methodist to play Tech in the Cotton Bowl.

Now Tech would like to play S. M. U.—but only when it counts in Southwest conference standings.

Tech, ostensibly, was elected to represent the Southwest in the Texas New Year's classic. So where do they get off by suggesting the Mustangs as a rival?

The idea was brought up at yesterday's session of school, business and professional men, meeting to lay groundwork for a Cotton Bowl advertising campaign in West Texas. But the idea was promptly hooted down, with all respect to the good gentleman and rabid rooter in the red tie.

We'll find it hard to forgive our suave-talking friend of Villanova, Mr. Maurice J. "Clipper" Smith, for throwing us that bloomer. It is even harder, however, to figure out the stand taken by Fordham. That was a queer deal.

First choice on Cawthon's list was Fordham. So he telephones Mr. John F. Coffey, who is the arranger of such things for Mr. Sleepy Jim Crowley's team, and proposes that the Fordhams play the Techs at Dallas.

"Sure, we're interested; we'd like to play in the Cotton Bowl. See can you fix it up," replies Mr. Coffey. "Have the Dallas people call us right away," he admonishes.

So Cawthon calls the Cotton Bowl people and gives them the office.

Well sir, fifteen or seventeen minutes later, Mr. Sanford calls Cawthon from Dallas and says, "Where do you get that stuff about Fordham wanting to play here? I just talked with Fordham officials and they turned me down like the bed covers on a cold night!" You could tell that Mr. Sanford was burning, and so was Mr. Cawthon, who had no comeback. Sanford said Fordham told him 'nothing doing . . . ain't interested . . . and besides, Crowley is rounding up a gang of players to make an exhibition tour of France!"

Figure that one out, and if you bring in the correct answer, you get a ticket to the 1939 World Series in Philadelphia.

It's sabotage—that's what it is!

But enough of that. Here's an interesting little piece submitted by Frank Smith, of 2310 15th street, and it should get your minds on something more certain, if less peaceful, than the Cotton Bowl:

Yessir, them's the District One Winners, and tomorrow they're playing the District Two Winners in the West Texas high school classic at Vernon.

Winner of that game very likely will wind up in the state interscholastic league finals.

The Westerners did it once; they may do it again—beat Vernon, we mean, but it's going to be a tough row to hoe. We're flying the Westerner pennant tomorrow at Vernon, and we hope to hang it on a goal post when the game's over.

Against Vernon, the Lubbocks must wear out the toughest line to oppose them all season. That Vernon line almost turned victory into defeat, or at least a tie, when the teams met back in mid-October. Lubbock's backfield, with Parsons, Webster, Jackson and Johnston functioning as they're capable of functioning, is a better backfield than Vernon's although Vernon has an all-state candidate by the name of Judd.

If you haven't made plans to ride the special train or a bus or drive over, how's about lining yourself up and getting over to Wilbarger county and supporting the Westerners tomorrow? They're going to need it, because there'll be about six thousand rabid rooters for the Lions.

It is too bad that anything short of a state championship will be anticlimax; when the Westerners beat Amarillo, they accomplished THE assignment of the year. They have satisfied the customers already, but it would be mighty nice to work on through the bi-district and quarter-finals.

By the way, the quail shooting season started today. Almost lost track of that in the hurry and flurry of "bowls."

They tell us the quail crop is mighty fine this year for our part of the state, but don't let your ambitions get the better of you. The wardens are going to be on a sharp lookout this season, so get acquainted with the rules and be careful.

Workout Will Be Taken This Afternoon

VERNON, Dec. 1. (Special)—Lubbock's mighty Westerners rolled into this football-mad city and planned a workout this afternoon. Coach Weldon Chapman's lads will attempt a repeat victory over the Lions tomorrow afternoon in the state's feature bi-district clash.

The District 1 champions were in fine physical condition and Coach Chapman indicated that he would start the same eleven that began against the Amarillo Sandies. Few or no changes were planned in Vernon's line-up by Coach Pat Gerald.

Lubbock Fans Follow Team

Fans of this city, seeing their team making its third bid for bi-district honors, were placing their hopes for revenge on the brawny shoulders of Morris Southall, the Lions' passing ace. The triple-threat fullback has been very instrumental in heaving the Vernon squad to the District 2 championship. It was the Southall-to-Rogers combination that defeated Wichita Falls. It has been that same combination, plus others, that has become one of the best Texas schoolboy football has to offer.

A crowd of 6,500 was expected for the tilt. Several hundred West Texans planned to board a special train and buses early Friday morning for the game. Reports from Lubbock stated that over 1,000 adults and 500 students would make the trip.

Westerners Pre-Game Favorites

Pre-game sentiment seemed to give the Westerners only the slightest edge. This was attributed to the mid-October Lubbock victory and because in Captain Walter "Jumbo" Webster Coach Chapman possesses probably the hardest-running back in the state. The "favorites" will enter the game outweighed by a Vernon line that has unmercifully slashed gaping holes in all opposing forward walls—except Lubbock's this season. The Westerners face the task of stopping the deadly "touchdown" bombing of Southall, the line plunging of Hap Rogers and Jack Judd, and again outplaying the Vernon line.

Winner of the contest has a good chance to advance far into the state finals, observers believe. Breckenridge and Bowie of El Paso clash also tomorrow to decide who will meet the winner of the Lubbock-Vernon game for the quarterfinal pennant.

Brownfield To Have Classic

BROWNFIELD, Dec. 1. (Special)—Tech has its Cotton Bowl, Lubbock has its bi-district clash, but Brownfield has "the gridiron classic of the South Plains" this week.

Bringing the football fever to Brownfield is the bi-district tussle between the touted Cubs and the Yellowhammers of Rotan.

Few tickets remained on sale for the contest and high school officials predicted the largest crowd in the history of the city. Bleacher seats belonging to the Amarillo Tri-State Fair, used at the Lubbock-Sandie game, have been brought here in anticipation of the record throng. Rotan planned to send a delegation of students and townspeople.

Plan Light Workout

Coach Aubra Nooncaster's squad was to run through a light workout this afternoon only limbering up for tomorrow's crucial battle. At the same time Lockney and Wellington will be playing for the bi-district championship of Districts 3- and 4-B. The Region 2 title will be decided next week between the winners of these two games.

Brownfield is undefeated and untied in conference play. Rotan has a similar record, and are expected to give the Cubs something to worry about before the final gun sounds. But before the game ends fans will have had an opportunity to see one of the finest Class B high school passers in the state perform. He is Pete Brown.

Cub Passing Effective

The merits of the 155 pound lad have not been publicized to any extent but 14 touchdown passes have been tossed by the Wee Bullet. Aiding in the Cub march to supremacy has been such standouts as Jenkins, tackle, McCraw, fine offensive center, and Morton, a distinct threat when the aerials are tossed around.

Tickets for the game are twenty-five cents for students and seventy-five for adults.

Danny McShain Will Face Sailor Friday

Danny "Gentleman" McShain, light heavyweight champion of the world, and Sailor "Tex" Watkins, Post ex-cowboy and terror of anybody's wrestling league, take the spotlight tomorrow night at Sled Allen's "House of Horrors."

The main event, one of the best arranged here in some time, should provide some of the "roughest" wrestling seen in a local ring since the Rod Fenton and those of his school appeared here.

For the first time in seven years Allen did not conduct his weekly program Wednesday night but postponed proceedings because McShain had previous plans. The Sailor may have had other plans but he will probably forego them until after tomorrow night.

The supporting card lists several names that have appeared on main events recently. Joe Banaski, the clever Oklahoma City "alligator clutch" boy, and John Nemanic mix it up in the 30 minute affair. The preliminary lists Scotty Williams and Gus Johnson.

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. — Report from Pittsburgh says the 19 freshmen in that scholarship-tuition row at Pitt will quit the Panther campus the end of this semester, and transfer to such other schools as Miami, Ohio State, 'Bama, etc. . . . Well, good old Doc Sutherland certainly dug up some nice material for the other fellows on that one. . . . Will McKechnie is taking no chances picking his Cincinnati Reds for the '39 pennant. . . . "You writing boys do the picking," he writes. "You have more fun, anyway." . . .

The Boston Red Sox may not know it, but they'd have had Joe the Flash Gordon if it wasn't for Bill Reinhart, the George Washington U. baseball coach, who was then at Oregon. . . . Seems Joe was all set to sign with the Sox for 10 G's, then turned it down when Bill suggested he'd wait for the Yankees' bid—which was less (no foolin') . . .

Elmer Tarbox Wins Radio Grid Trophy

The most popular and valuable college football player in the Southwest, take it from breakfast-eating radio fans, is Elmer "The Great" Tarbox, senior halfback on Texas Tech's undefeated, untied team for 1938.

Tarbox won, hands down, in a statewide contest conducted by a cereal company and the Texas State Network. The final count showed Tarbox ahead of his nearest rival, Davey O'Brien of T. C. U., by a thousand or so votes.

To Be Presented Trophy

In a special two-way radio hookup program Friday night, Tarbox will be presented a large gold trophy at the Texas Tech gymnasium. Governor James V. Allred, no less, will make the formal presentation. The governor will make the presentation speech through facilities of Station KNOW at Austin. Tarbox will make his speech of acceptance through facilities of Station KFYO in Lubbock.

The presentation ceremony will be part of the Texas State Network "All-Texas football roundup" program which starts at 7 o'clock and lasts for an hour. The presentation speech is expected around 7:30. The governor and Tarbox will converse via the "two-way hookup" during the ceremony, and Head Coach Pete Cawthon will be interviewed on the same program.

Webster Is Nosed Out

Walter Webster, Lubbock High star, ran a close race in the high school division of the contest, but was nosed out at the finish by a Fort Worth player.

Lubbock and West Texas fans, and no doubt fans of other sections of the state, rallied to the causes of Tarbox and Webster to make possible the winning of the contest. Zack Hurt, head of the TSN sports staff, announced Tarbox's election by telephone to R. B. McAlister of Station KFYO yesterday.

Arkansas Is Placed On 1939 Schedule Of Villanova Team

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30. (AP)—Maurice "Clipper" Smith, coach of the undefeated Villanova football team, said last night Arkansas, of the Southwestern conference, would play Villanova in Philadelphia on October 28, 1939.

New Mexico Applies For Big Seven Post

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., Dec. 1 (AP)—University of New Mexico officials revealed last night the school's athletic council has authorized application for membership in the Big Seven conference of the Rocky Mountain region.

Dean S. P. Nanninga, chairman of the council, emphasized that the action, taken earlier this month but unannounced during negotiations for the Sun Bowl game, did not mean definitely an application would be made.

Class B Tilts Are Scheduled

Finalists in the battle for regional championships in Texas class B schoolboy football will be determined in 24 games this week, 22 of which are scheduled tomorrow.

Feature tilts are carded at Hull-Daisetta and Odessa.

Hull-Daisetta, boasting one of the greatest records in schoolboy annals, plays Port Neches for the right to meet the Sugarland-Alvin winner for the region 10 crown. Hull-Daisetta has won 33 straight games over a period of three years.

Wink claims an outstanding offensive mark this season with 444 points in 10 games. The Wildcats play McCamey at Odessa Saturday.

The week's schedule (games Friday except where specified):

Region 1—Panhandle at Tulia, Lockney at Wellington; region 2—Rotan at Brownfield, Wink vs. McCamey at Odessa (Saturday); region 3—Crowell at Haskell, Newcastle vs. Baird at Olney; region 4—Buckner Home (Dallas) at Diamond Hill (Fort Worth), State Home (Corsicana) at Wills Point; region 5—Royse City vs. Leonard at Greenville, Pine Tree (Longview) at Mt. Vernon; region 6—Center at Overton, Crockett at Silsbee (night); region 7—Comanche at Brady, Taylor at San Saba; region 8—Kerens at McGregor, Calvert vs. Elkhart at Palestine (night); region 9—Luling vs. LaGrange at Lockhart (night), Bellville at Bay City (night); region 10—Sugarland at Alvin, Port Neches at Hull-Daisetta (Saturday); region 11—Sidney Lanier (San Antonio) at Junction, Cuero at Pearsall (night); region 12—Goliad vs. Alice at Sinton (night), Freer vs. Raymondville at Harlingen (night).

Sooners Not To Be In Charity Game First Time In Five Years

Main Show In Schoolboy Race About To Start

BY HAROLD V. RATLIFF
Associated Press Staff Writer

Sixteen survivors of gruelling district campaigns that sent more than 90 teams into football oblivion squared off today for the first round in the Texas schoolboy championship race.

It's the start of the main show in which there are four big acts—the finale coming around Christmas day when the nineteenth annual championship will be decided.

Tyler-Lufkin Is Feature

Five games tomorrow and three Saturday will cut the field to eight teams with Tyler's Lions and Lufkin's Panthers holding the top spot on the schedule. These two clubs, undefeated and untied and with state championship hopes beating high, clash at Tyler tomorrow.

The game that will probably draw the largest attendance will be at Dallas Saturday when Masonic Home's "Iron Men" battle unbeaten Sunset. Between 25,000 and 30,000 fans are expected to jam the Cotton bowl.

Undefeated, untied Gainesville tangles with the fast-moving Highland Park team at Dallas in another feature on Friday's card. A sell-out crowd is in prospect but less than 10,000 can be accomodated at Highlander field.

Winner In Finals?

Vying with the Dallas games for interest in the upper bracket of the league will be the Lubbock-Vernon tussle at Vernon. Many predict the winner of this game will reach the state finals.

Breckenridge, "the miracle team" of the schoolboy campaign, tackles Bowie, the El Paso district winner, at Breckenridge to complete the upper bracket schedule. The Bucs, who staged an amazing come-back after early season reversals, are being dubbed "dark horses" of the race.

Temple meets Kerrville at Austin, John Reagan (Houston) plays Port Arthur at Port Arthur and Pharr-San Juan-Alamo tangles with Corpus Christi at Corpus Christi in lower bracket battles that play second fiddle to the Tyler-Lufkin clash.

Not Any "Cinches"

Lubbock, Breckenridge, Gainesville, Masonic Home, Tyler, Temple, Port Arthur and Corpus Christi ruled favorites to win but there were few games that looked like they might be termed a "cinch" for any team.

The bi-district schedule:

Lubbock at Vernon, Friday, 2:30 p. m.; Bowie at Breckenridge, Friday, 2 p. m.; Gainesville at Highland Park, Friday, 2:30 p. m.; Lufkin at Tyler, Friday, 2 p. m.; Pharr-San Juan-Alamo at Corpus Christi, Friday, 8 p. m.; Masonic Home at Sunset, Saturday, 2:30 p. m.; Temple vs. Kerrville at Austin, Saturday, 2:30 p. m.; John Reagan at Port Arthur, Saturday, 2:30 p. m.

Utah Officially Accepts Sun Bowl Bid; Await Permission

SALT LAKE CITY, Dec. 1. (AP)—The University of Utah officially accepted last night an invitation to meet New Mexico university in a football game at the El Paso, Texas, Sun Bowl, Jan. 2.

Theron S. Parmelee, graduate manager, said that only the approval of the Big Seven conference was needed now to assure Utah's participation in the game. He said he had no doubt it would be granted at a meeting Friday.

By order of the War Office, the use of puttees for parades has been discarded by the Royal Engineers of Chatham Garrison, and the practice may become general in the army.

Interest Mounts In Cotton Bowl Contest

Texas Tech's Red Raiders are ready. All they need now is the definite signing of an opponent for them in the Cotton Bowl classic in Dallas Jan. 2.

Several outstanding teams were under consideration this morning and a team was expected to be selected today.

Meanwhile, Lubbock business men began preparations to carry on an extensive advertising campaign to make West Texas "Cotton Bowl conscious." An attempt will be made to sell between 15,000 and 20,000 tickets in this section of the state.

Publicity Plans Started

A committee made tentative plans to journey to Dallas to confer with Cotton Bowl officials in connection with the publicity campaign. Already, from every section of the state, reservations have been pouring into the office of "Bo" Williams, Tech athletic business manager. Plans were started to have a large portion of the Tech student body present at the classic. Interest continued to mount and all gridiron discussions centered on the Cotton Bowl game.

Several special trains from all principal West Texas cities were in prospect as reports from Amarillo said that city was behind the movement. A special round trip rate of $7.15 for day coaches was announced by both local railroad agencies. Proportionate rates will apply from other West Texas cities.

Villanova Refuses Bid

Villanova's surprise withdrawal from the picture sent both Lubbock and Dallas officials into an intensive search for an opponent late yesterday.

Coach Cawthon, after informing the Red Raiders of latest developments, turned them loose for the remainder of this week. Schedule for the Crimsons' preparation for the classic will include only three days workout each week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, until Dec. 20 when the squad will congregate in Dallas for ten days of intensive training.

Coach Cawthon, "Bo" Williams, and Bill Parker, director of publicity planned to leave shortly for Dallas to complete preparations for the contest with Cotton Bowl officials. Tickets probably will be placed on sale in Lubbock, Amarillo, Plainview, Odessa, Abilene, Midland, Big Spring, Hobbs, N. M., and other West Texas cities desiring them. Sections not served may secure ducats by writing, wiring or calling the Texas Tech athletic office.

Congratulations Wired

J. Curtis Sanford, manager of the Cotton Bowl celebration, said that hundreds of telegrams had been received congratulating the association on its selection of Tech. Late last night President Dan Rogers of the Cotton Bowl Athletic Association said that he hoped to be able to announce Tech's opponent Thursday.

Texas Technological college officials have received messages concerning plans for the big game. R. B. Kinard of the Dallas Dispatch-Journal wired: "Mailing you copies today of the Dispatch-Journal for free distribution. See editorials, etc. Dallas welcomes Texas Tech. Think all citizens of Lubbock will be interested."

Lookabaugh Recommended For Oklahoma A. & M. Position

STILLWATER, Okla., Dec. 1. (AP)—The athletic cabinet recommended today that Jim Lookabaugh returned to Oklahoma A. and M. college—this time as head football coach.

Lookabaugh was graduated from the Aggies in 1925. A three-letter man, he turned to high school coaching, first at Jet and is now at Oklahoma City Capitol Hill. In 14 seasons, seven of them were marked by no defeats for his gridsters.

Lou Nova May Be 'White Hope' For Heavyweight Title

BY GAYLE TALBOT
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. — Anyone looking for a good long shot, say about 20 to 1, might do worse than to wager that the world's heavyweight boxing champion a year from today is not Joe Louis, but is Lou Nova, a blond 23-year-old from Alameda, Calif.

Admittedly it is a dizzy bet to make, but at the odds. They are at least as good as anything in the Kentucky derby winter book, and maybe better. There's no guarantee that a derby entry will even start.

Nova is the official "white hope" right now. In fact, he is the only hope of any shade or color. If he doesn't dethrone Joe Louis then it is a safe prediction that the big negro will retire undefeated within a couple of years.

The Twentieth century club is banking on Nova to make Joe change his attitude, and to resuscitate the heavyweight division. Nova is the youngster who stopped Gunnar Barlund here last October. He fights Tommy Farr two weeks from tomorrow at the garden, and if he gets past the tough Welshman he will be thrown against Louis in one of the local ball parks next September.

Nova makes an exceptionally fine white hope now, whatever happens to him in the coming year. Pictorially, he is a beauty, inclined to height and handsome distribution of his 190 pounds. A college man, he talks well and modestly.

What's more important, he boxes smoothly, has a good straight left and a powerful right that he likes to deliver under the heart. That sounds like Tunney, and there is a similarity.

'Rouge' Of Rugby To Be Tried In Football

CHICAGO, Dec. 1. (AP)—A method of ending moans over tie football games will be given a trial by the North Central Intercollegiate athletic conference in spring practice, and if successful, it will be used next fall.

From Canadian rugby came the idea conference coaches decided to try. It is the "rouge"—a point scored by the kicking team if its kick into the end zone is not returned to the field of play by the defensive eleven.

Representatives of North Dakota university, North Dakota State college, South Dakota State, South Dakota university, Iowa State Teachers, Morningside college and Omaha university voted yesterday to test the adaptation of the rugby rule to American inter-collegiate football.

Any ball kicked into the end zone, whether a punt or an unsuccessful try for field goal, which is not kicked or run out scores a point for the kicking team under the rule. When the "rouge" is scored, the ball is put in play by either a free kick or a kick-off by the defending team from its 20-yard line.

Problem Being Studied Now

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1—A committee of farmers' representatives from high risk crop insurance areas of the western great plains wheat belt suggested today a longer base period for computing average yields and losses to bring about a possible premium rate reduction.

The committee, in a statement issued Wednesday after a three-day conference with crop insurance officials, said the present base period from 1930 to 1936, even with adjustments for the 1926-30 period, included "an unprecedented series of drouth years."

Would Bring Costs Closer

A longer base period and the addition of yield figures of new crop years as they become available were suggested "to bring costs of crop insurance closer to the long time average risk of growing wheat in the western great plains."

The farmer representatives also suggested increased credit facilities to enable plains farmers to make premium payments.

Other Suggestions Made

Other suggestions included a proposal to extend the term of crop insurance policies over more than one year as at present and to effect a greater local responsibility in administration of the program.

Leroy K. Smith, acting manager of the Federal Crop Insurance corporation, said the corporation was making a thorough study of the problems.

Farmer representatives who attended the conference were:

L. T. Mayhugh of Plainview, Tex.; W. A. Long, Fowler, Kas.; Glen Talbot, Jamestown, N. D.; W. T. Young, jr., Kimball, Neb.; and B. V. McVey, Britton, S. D.

Decided Swing Toward Offense On Grid Is Noted; Tech Tied For Third In High Scoring

BY HERBERT W. BARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—A decided swing toward the offense was revealed today by the Associated Press' 17th annual survey of nationwide football scoring records.

Thanks mostly to liberalized forward passing rules, the 212 teams included in the 1938 survey compiled the highest scoring average, per game, since 1931.

Averages 13.53 Points

These teams scored an average of 114.36 points for the season while the 1,792 games they played produced an average of 13.53 points. These figures compared with last year's averages of 107.19 points per season and 12.36 points per game.

The rise in scoring unquestionably could be attributed mainly to the 1938 rules change which made only fourth-down passes into the end zone touchbacks. This liberalized regulation naturally stimulated more passing in scoring territory.

Also helpful to the offense was the rules change which provided that a ball going out of bounds between the goal lines should be brought in 15 yards instead of ten. This, of course, gave the attacking side more scope.

Decrease In Ties

One of the most striking developments of the season was the sharp decrease in ties, the game's chief bug-bear. The 212 teams included in the compilation figured in only 56 ties, 22 of them scoreless, compared with the 1937 and 1936 record of 134 and 100 respectively.

Although it showed a drop from 1937's dizzy height, the Southwest once more led all sections in the scoring averages with 15.58 points per game with the middle west a close second at 15.17. The Southwest a year ago hit an average level of 16.68 points per game and the middle west 12.47.

Tech Tied For Third

Individual leadership on the offense went to San Jose (Calif.) state, whose unbeaten array rolled up 310 points. West Tennessee's Teachers were second at 281 and Marshall College of West Virginia and Texas Tech tied for third at 274.

On defense, Duke's unbeaten Blue Devils stood all alone with an uncrossed goal line, although Mansfield (Pa.) Teachers had only a safety charged against them. Oklahoma, champions of the Big Six, permitted the opposition only 12 points.

In the 17-year history of the survey, the season of 1922 ranks at the top from a scoring standpoint. Eighty-three teams in that year averaged 133 points per season and 10 points per game. The low was reached in 1934 when 154 teams scored an average of 104.2 points per season and 12.19 per game.

Davey O'Brien, Ki Aldrich Are Most Valuable Southwest Men

HOUSTON, Dec. 1. (AP)—Davey O'Brien and Ki Aldrich, stars of Texas Christian university's undefeated, untied Horned Frogs, were the most valuable players in the Southwest conference in the opinion of sports writers in the seven conference cities.

They voted the trophies for O'Brien, dynamic quarterback, and Aldrich, the mighty Horned Frog center, and they will be presented to the two at a banquet to be held at Fort Worth later this month.

Holy Cross To Be On Schedule Of Louisiana State In 1939

BATON ROUGE, La., Dec. 1. (AP)—An intersectional game with Holy Cross and six Southeastern conference tilts feature the 1939 Louisiana State university football schedule announced today by Athletic Director T. P. Heard.

Texas and Southwestern Louisiana institute were dropped from the list of foes.

The schedule: Sept. 30, Mississippi at Baton Rouge; Oct. 7, Holy Cross at Worchester, Mass.; Oct. 14, Rice at Baton Rouge; Oct. 21, Loyola (New Orleans) at Baton Rouge; Oct. 28, Vanderbilt at Nashville; Nov. 4, Tennessee at Baton Rouge; Nov. 11, Mississippi State at Baton Rouge; Nov. 18, Auburn at Baton Rouge; Dec. 2, Tulane at New Orleans.

Southwest Conference Grants T.C.U. Sugar Bowl Permission

WACO, Dec. 1. (AP)—Members of the Southwest conference have granted Texas Christian university's request to play Carnegie Tech in the Sugar bowl at New Orleans.

Dr. J. T. McCants of Houston, conference secretary, conducted a telegraphic poll yesterday and Henry Trantham, president of the conference, announced that the vote had been unanimous.

SPRAGUE DEFINITELY OUT

DALLAS, Dec. 1. (AP)—Capt. Charlie Sprague, left end, definitely is lost to the Southern Methodist university Mustangs for their final conference game of the season against the Rice Owls at Houston Saturday, Head Coach Matty Bell disclosed today. Sprague, who was injured in last week's game with TCU, has been unable to appear in uniform due to a badly swollen and painfully sore knee.

TO INSPECT SITE

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 30. (AP) — Gerry Nugent, president of the Philadelphia National league baseball club, left last night for New Braunfels, Tex., to inspect the new spring training camp site of the Phillies. He said he would meet Manager Doc Prothro there on Friday.

Georgia farmers received an average annual income of $13,700,000 from flue-cured tobacco for the five years ending with 1938.

HELP KIDNEYS PASS 3 LBS. A DAY

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 miles of tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. Most people pass about 3 pints a day or about 3 pounds of waste.

Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning shows there may be something wrong with your kidneys or bladder.

An excess of acids or poisons in your blood, when due to functional kidney disorders, may be the cause of nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, getting up nights, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headaches and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. They give happy relief and will help the 15 miles of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

With debaters coming down from Drake university to contest the Tech talkers here on December 9, an excellent subject for discussion would be "Has intelligence been worth anything at all to the human race?"

HERE's a chance for some Westerner fan who offered to pledge a gold football after the lists were full last week to still get on the list.

The Westerners have asked The Plainsman to find the donor of one more ball, at the original cost, of course, of $6.

The boys feel that E. J. "Pinky" Lowrey, their business manager, father confessor, chief cook and bottle washer and general roundup man, should be remembered along with them and with Coaches Chapman and Keyes.

They point out that "Pinky" is an ex-Westerner player, an ex-Westerner coach and for years longer than anyone else has been officially connected with Westerner grid teams.

So one of you fellows who called in too late on the first go 'round can still get in on the deal. Just 'phone 13 and tell the young lady at the switchboard you're "in."

Speaking of the Westerners naturally reminds one of the game at Vernon and the game at Vernon calls to mind a generous thing done by Joe Bowman, of South Plains Coaches.

When Joe saw in The Morning Avalanche that some 20 or 25 band boys were looking for rides to Vernon Friday, so the Westerner band of 70 would be in full force, he trotted out one of his extra buses and solved the problem without cost or trouble to anyone except himself.

The extra band boys are making the trip as guests of Mr. Bowman, which is a mighty fine thing for him to do.

SENATOR George Norris, Nebraska Republican but none-the-less a strong New Dealer, has announced that he may, in the coming session of Congress, reintroduce a proposal to prevent a bare majority of the United States Supreme court from declaring a law unconstitutional.

We hope the Senator is merely engaging in some out-of-session conversation.

What the administration is going to need most between now and 1940 is peace and harmony in the Democratic party.

Any effort upon the part of New Dealers to attempt further to tinker with the Supreme court will not aid the cause of harmony but, instead, reopen old wounds and make new ones.

The people and the Congress have demonstrated that they don't want political phenagling in the judiciary and any attempt to bring such a condition about is bound to cause the fur to fly.

Our old friend C. L. Harris, of Spur, representative to the legislature from the district to our east, doesn't like the idea of Governor-Elect O'Daniel having an advisory board of Texas business leaders.

In criticizing the move, C. L. suggests, with his tongue in his cheek, that Mr. O'Daniel abolish the legislature and move the capitol to Fort Worth."

While such a thing had never occurred to The Plainsman before, he believes Bro. Harris has "got sumpin' there."

We're not particularly interested in moving the capitol from charming City of Austin, but the idea of abolishing the legislature certainly has its good points!

IT is nothing unusual, of course, but The Plainsman again finds himself in the minority.

This time it has to do with the cancellation of the Texas Tech-Centenary football game, scheduled some months ago as a post-season conflict to be reeled off here this Saturday.

It is a fact that officials of Texas Tech and at least the great majority of the team's most active downtown supporters believe that the cancellation was the only thing possible in the face of Tech's acceptance of the Cotton Bowl invitation.

But The Plainsman, hardheaded old Lone Wolf, still disagrees.

It is absolutely true that Coach Curtis Parker of Centenary wanted to cancel the game even before Tech got the bowl bid. After he saw the Marquette game last week he suggested the cancellation.

It is absolutely true that Cotton Bowl officials, including J. Curtis Sanford, the No. 1 promoter of the event, wanted the cancellation because an upset defeat of Tech by Centenary might hurt the bowl game "gate."

And it is further true that Dr. Ryter Willis Cawthon, Prof. Russell Tecumseh Smith and all others in close touch with the situation, felt that the game should be cancelled so no undue risk of injuries which might hamper Tech at Dallas be taken.

All these points are good, sensible and above criticism.

But the thing that worries The Plainsman is, will football fans over the state believe anything else except that Tech ducked Centenary for fear of taking a shellacking before the bowl game?

THE Plainsman goes over Texas from time to time and in his travels he meets many men who want to talk about Tech's football team and Tech's chances to get into the Southwest conference.

While it is a mark of ignorance on their part, many of these men scattered over the state can't believe Tech has as good football teams as we out here know it has. And while it is a lamentable situation, many others have been poisoned against Tech, or are jealous of the college's great strides and are forever looking for something to criticize or poke fun at in connection with the institution and its football teams.

Because we've run into this situation—as many another Lubbock man and Tech boosters—we're scared to death that the cancellation of the Centenary game is going to give ammunition to those who would belittle Tech and that the false story that "Tech ran out on Centenary" will be given wide circulation.

The great majority who favored cancelling the Centenary game have truth and the facts on their side, as well as the knowledge that to cancel the game was the safest, most sensible thing to do.

They know Centenary wanted to cancel as much, if not more than did Texas Tech.

But Texas is full of people who don't know that; and who won't believe it.

And while it is true that those who make a vocation out of criticizing and belittling our college would dig up something else to harp on, never-the-less The Plainsman believes the Centenary game should have been played regardless of the outcome.

BUT regardless of opinions, the Tech-Centenary game has been cancelled and the army of Tech supporters over this section, together with the coaches and the team, are naturally turning all their attention to the Cotton Bowl tilt.

Opportunity to represent Texas in the Cotton Bowl game is the best thing that has ever happened to Texas Tech and our team's appearance there can be turned into a vehicle for boosting Tech as no other bowl game could.

In addition to thinking about a Tech victory at Dallas on January 2—which we all are praying for—there is something else that all of Tech's supporters should consider and not forget until the bowl game has gone down in history.

That is, action of Tech fans at Dallas can be a big help to the college in its hopes to get into the Southwest conference—or it can be of great hindrance.

The way we act at Dallas before and during the game, and in the Yesterday: Tait is amazed to learn from Macy that he has an interest in Dombey's band. Macy then accuses Tait of being in love with Myrna.

CHAPTER XI

"Yes," Leonard Macy repeated quietly. "You are in love with the girl. That must be the reason for your interest."

Tait's first reaction was one of anger. It was with difficulty that he restrained himself. Then he realized that Macy meant nothing by his inference. The wealthy amateur detective was merely thinking aloud.

"That's absurd," Tait told him. "I hardly know Mrs. Dombey."

Macy nodded. "I am glad to learn that my surmise is in error. Because, undoubtedly, Myrna Dombey will be convicted of the murder of her husband."

Tait's lips closed in a thin line. Then: "Well, I'm afraid you've already made up your mind, Mr. Macy. There's not much need of my staying here longer."

Leonard Macy rose from his chair. "You are always welcome, my boy." He put a hand on Bob Tait's shoulder. "But I want to give you a little advice, if I may. Don't get mixed up in business like this—for a girl. It's not just that you'll find yourself wrong. But you'll find that a woman wasn't worth it. And that discovery is always damaging to a man."

"Thanks," Tait said. He walked into the hallway, turned there to shake Macy's hand. "I wish I were a millionaire, Mr. Macy."

The old man smiled. "Why?"

"I'd like to bet you a few hundred grand that you're 'way off first base."

"I never wager," Macy laughed.

That laugh echoed in Bob Tait's head as he walked down the hall to the elevator. What made Leonard Macy so sure, so certain? Was it because of something he had not revealed? Did he know something about Myrna Dombey he had not cared to reveal to Tait?

"You are in love with the girl. That must be the reason for your interest." That was what Macy had said, and Tait began to wonder if perhaps Macy was right. Why else was he concerning himself with the killing of Ludden Dombey? Certainly he was not helping himself, and there was the possibility—not too remote—that he was putting his very life in jeopardy.

He remembered how Myrna had looked on that night of the murder—in that moment before the lights had gone out and Ludden Dombey, tom of the swing cats, had played his final tune. Assuredly she was the most attractive young woman Bob Tait had ever seen, and assuredly he had suffered a pang of envy at the way she was looking at Lud Dombey up there on the platform. He remembered, too, those wide, fear-filled eyes there in the shack when he and Anne had found her hiding.

No question but that Myrna was a girl to make a man stop and think. But that he could be in love with her was, as he had insisted to Leonard Macy, absurd. He'd seen his share of women. He was tough and cynical. There wasn't a girl in the wide world who could take him over the hurdles unless he wanted to go. And he'd pointed a camera at plenty. He's snapped princesses, and actresses, and beauty contest winners, and dazzling blonds who had married four men and shot a fifth. He had caught them in their moment of petty vanity, and he thought he knew them for what they were. Why should he be intrigued by this slender girl who had been a stenographer and somehow caught the eye of Ludden Dombey, king of swing.

Why? There was, Bob Tait told himself, no reason at all. And therefore he wasn't intrigued. Yet somehow his logic, as he drove his rented coupe toward his apartment, seemed rather weak.

He found the apartment empty. Anne and Myrna had gone to Feeley's office and not yet returned. Nervously Bob Tait telephoned the Press Club. No message had been left there for him, and when he received this information he felt infinitely better. If anything went wrong at Dannie Feeley's, Anne was to have called him. "Good old Dannie," muttered Tait aloud.

But he went through almost half a pack of cigarets before Anne and Myrna returned. The latter looked worn and tired.

"What happened?" asked Tait, shoving out a chair for Myrna.

"Plenty!" exclaimed Anne, dropping wearily onto the davenport and reaching out for one of Tait's cigarets. "Can that Feeley person put you over the hurdles! If there's anything he didn't ask Myrna, I can't think what it would be."

"But what did he say?" asked Tait eagerly. "Is he—do you think he's convinced that she didn't have anything to do with it?"

Anne shook her head emphatically. "I came away with the impression that Mr. Feeley was itching to put Myrna in the jug at about $25,000 bail. The fact that he didn't do it I somehow hitch up to a fellow named Robert Tait."

"Forget it! The important thing is that Myrna has put in an appearance." He turned to Myrna. "Look here," he said, "how much do you trust me?"

Myrna raised her eyes. "Trust you? After all you've done—"

"Enough to take some advice?"

The girl nodded, and Tait rushed on: "Enough to fire Harris Rogers and make me the manager of The Swingateers, Incorporated?"

"But I—"

"You can do it, if you want. All you need to do is give Rogers a check for two weeks' salary in lieu of notice. I'll take it to him myself, and you'd better give me a letter saying he's discharged and that he's to turn over all his records to me."

Anne stirred on the davenport. "It sounds like a swell notion to me, Bob. I think we can do pretty well without Mr. Rogers. But would you mind telling us what's behind all this?"

"We want to get hold of his records, for one thing. And for another, I think it's better for all concerned if Harris Rogers doesn't have a thing to do with the band." He looked at Myrna again. "What do you say?"

"She's too tired to say anything", Anne Lester put in quickly. "I'll do the talking. You're the new manager of the band and of Myrna's corporation — and the sooner you let Harris Rogers know about it, the better for Myrna." She got up and began rummaging in her bag. "I've got a countercheck somewhere, and I'll be delighted to fill it out for Myrna's signature."

"Good! I'll give Rogers the bad news right away. I've a feeling that the sooner we do it, the better."

Myrna looked apprehensively at Bob Tait. "Do you think you should go to see him? He — he seems—well, dangerous, and I—"

She broke off, at a loss for words. And Bob Tait wondered if Anne could possibly hear the pounding of his heart.

G. O. P. ALL PEPPED UP

The fact that leaders of the Republican party have begun their preparations for the Presidential campaign of 1940 is merely in accord with set schedule.

But the zest with which they are beginning their preparations bespeaks a spirit which well may cause sleepless nights among Democrats whose jobs depend upon keeping their party in power.

The enthusiasm which has prevailed in the meeting of the Republican national committee is in sharpest possible contrast to that of any similar session since 1928, when the party scored its last national victory. Despite the attempts to give the apparence of confidence in those sessions, gloom has clung over them like a blanket. They could not conceal the feeling that they were going into a fight which they regarded as hopeless.

Without question, they feel now that they are about to engage in a winning fight. There is a feeling among them that they have the opposition on the run. Confidence radiates from them. It will be a mighty job to persuade them they are licked even should that happen in the battle two years hence.

Their confidence, of course, doesn't mean they are going to win. The odds still are apt to favor the Democratic party if it chooses the right leaders, the right platform and if they fight with vigor. Anything less likely will mean defeat.

Country Needs Policy To Apply To Its Many Pressing Problems, Economist-Writer Says

BY JOHN T. FLYNN
NEA Staff Correspondent

NEW YORK, Dec. 1.—There probably never has been a country which had more problems than this one. That is understandable. But what is not understandable is that there should be so many problems, pressing problems, about which the country has no policy.

FLYNN

Take the railroads. A modern American railroad might itself be defined as a collection of problems. But the government hasn't a semblance of a policy respecting them.

Here is one consequence of that. The Delaware, Lackawanna & Hudson Railroad, like many another, cannot make enough money to pay its taxes to the state of New Jersey or the city of Buffalo. So it asks the Reconstruction Finance Corporation to lend it the money.

This sort of thing has gone on since the R. F. C. was formed by Hoover. Railroads have borrowed millions to pay rents on real estate. They have borrowed money to pay the rentals of roads they were operating. And the R. F. C. has accommodated them apparently whenever they have needed this help.

They have borrowed millions to pay interest on bonds and notes, ofttimes to bankers.

From Vans To Morgans

I recall protesting against this when the R. F. C. was first organized. The Van Sweringens borrowed $10,000,000 to pay a loan to the Morgans.

I was informed that the reason for that was a profound economic one. It seems that then—in 1932 — we were in a depression because the banks would not lend money. This was the explanation given me by the wizards in Washington.

While it seemed rather terrible to have the government supply money to the Vans to pay off loans to the Morgans, the profound idea behind it was that this would put money in the bankers' purse; indeed all the R. F. C. loans were achieving that end, and then presently the bankers would have so much money it would be burning a hole in their pockets. And they would start lending it.

No Serious Thought

The folly of that must be apparent by now. The banks have had billions poured into their pockets, but they haven't started lending yet — the pockets remain unburned.

When the R. F. C. paid taxes and rentals for other roads, I was told this was helping cities and states in trouble. The folly of that must also be apparent now.

The whole truth is that the government not only has no policy about the roads, but it refuses to even think seriously about it. Since 1931 the desperate character of this problem has been apparent.

But as far as the government has gotten is to dole out a few dollars every time one of these ragged vagabonds comes around looking for a handout, thus prolonging the agony, while the roads sing to new levels of distress.

Had there been a courageous facing of the problem in 1933 when that was possible the roads would be on their way to health now.

The Plainsman

tcome of the game, is going to be tched by thousands of people m all over the state and we can her make friends for Tech, or ke enemies for it, by the way we nduct ourselves.

Let us, in our pre-game conver-tions with persons from other rts of the state, and in our atti-de at Dallas, always keep upper-ost in our minds that the college re may be judged by our words d actions and that, to a great ex-nt, we hold its good name in our nds.

By all means, let's win the game. But let's add to Tech's growing l of supporters as we do it!

When a person thinks there are but few things he doesn't know, it's because his circle of knowledge is so small it touches but little of the unknown.

That Man on Avenue Q says it's rticularly inadvisable to try to ep up with the Jones when they're aking 80 miles an hour.

A debunker says the ostrich positively does not stick his head in the sand when danger ap-proaches.

Certainly not. It's the opti-mist who does that!

WHILE the National Automobile show was on in full sway in ew York recently, visiting crowds ere polled on the subject of High-ay Nuisance No. 1.

In the vote the Road Hog ran way with the "election." He won e questionable honor over the fol-wing opponents:

Too-Slow Driver; Cutter-Inner, areless Pedestrian, Non-Signaler, ack-Seat Driver, Out-of-Lane Tur-er, Double Parker and Horn-Toot-.

It would be a good idea if all of us ould take inventory on our own riving habits to see if we fall into y of the above classifications and, so, to remedy our faults.

For the driving nuisances listed in ew York poll have an accident ecord that puts on them most of he blame for thousands of deaths nd millions of injuries and dollar sses every year.

CARD OF THANKS

We desire to let all of our good friends and neighbors know just how much we do appreciate each word of sympathy and encouragement given us in our great sorrow in the loss of our dear mother, Mrs. R. T. Holton, for the tokens of your love in the beautiful flowers, the lovely meals sent in, for the beautiful songs, the heartfelt prayer and words of encouragement by Rev. McCarty and Rev. Clinton and for each of the cards, letters and telegrams that came to help share our sorrow.

May God bless each of you and may you have just such friends when your hour of sadness comes.

Progress Reported In Efforts To Find New Uses For Cotton By-Products; Tech Has Task

MEMPHIS, Tenn., Dec. 1. (AP) — Dr. L. W. Bass, assistant director of the Mellon institute and head of a staff of scientists in the cotton research foundation laboratories in Pittsburgh, declares progress is being made in work toward finding new cotton by-products.

He spoke to a small group of cotton men at a luncheon meeting here.

"Our first year's work was largely exploratory," he said, "but now we are beginning to show substantial productivity. Take my word for the fact that good progress is being made."

The foundation was established in July, 1937.

It was announced the foundation has created a new fellowship, for research in utilization of cotton hulls as a source of chemicals, at the University of Tennessee engineering experiment station.

Other fellowships contributed to by the foundation are at Texas Tech, North Carolina university, and Texas university.

HELD BY W. E. RICHARDS

The Tech fellowship is held by W. E. Richards, graduate student in chemical engineering, and is for research in the utilization of cotton burrs, according to Dr. R. C. Goodwin, dean of the college graduate division and head of the chemistry department.

THRESHES 4,800 POUNDS

POST, Dec. 1: — J. T. Ferguson, a 4-H club boy in the Graham community, harvested and threshed 4,800 pounds of blight-resistant milo seed from 1.6 acres.

Young Ferguson is selling the seed locally to farmers who want to plant the new type of seed.

Lauds Action Of Herbal Gly-Cas

Miss Mora Relieved Of Three Years Constipation; Now Able To Enjoy Good Nights Sleep

"Gly-Cas has made such a remarkable change in my condition that I would not be without it," said Miss Agnes Mora, 1219 North 11th St., Albuquerque, N. Mexico. "For three years I had been forced to endure the awful discomfort and distress that comes from chronic constipation. My system was clogged with dreadful poisons which were gradually wrecking my health. My bladder became disordered and added to my misery with too frequent action and severe back pains. The poisons had filled my system so that my skin was broken out and my lips were swollen. I got but little sleep and was constantly worn-out. Then I began hearing so much praise for Gly-Cas I immediately gave it a trial.

"Gly-Cas was the difference between suffering and good health for me," continued Miss Mora. "My bladder and bowels were regulated almost at once, those awful poisons were removed from my system and I began to feel more like my former self. Now my system has been so thoroughly gone over and the least disorder ended that I enjoy a good nights sleep, my skin is clearing up and the swelling has left my lips. Never have I had such a feeling of confidence in the ability of any one medicine as I have in Gly-Cas."

Gly-Cas is sold by Mark Halsey Drug Co., 1219 Broadway, this city, and by the leading druggists in surrounding towns. Adv.

Poultry Show Is Postponed

(Special To The Journal)

SLATON, Dec. 1.—Need by exhibitors for additional time to prepare entries has caused postponement until Dec. 15, 16 and 17 of the second annual Slaton community poultry show which was scheduled to open today, according to announcement Wednesday by Raymond Lee Johns.

Enlargement of the show this year has been brought about through popular demand and the event has been renamed Slaton Poultry Show and Community Fair. Added to the show this year will be exhibits of registered livestock by 4-H club and vocational agriculture boys on Saturday, Dec. 17, the last day of the show. In the livestock division will be shown calves, hogs and baby beef cattle. First premium will be $2.50, second $1.50 and third $1.

Premium listings on standard varieties of poultry include classes of cocks, hens, cockerels and pullets, with prizes of 75 cents first and 50 cents second. Ribbons will be awarded third, fourth and fifth places. The premiums on pens, in both classes of old and young production, are $1.50 for first, $1 second, and ribbons for third, fourth and fifth places. In the sweepstakes, bantams barred, $1 will be given the best cock, cockerel, hen and pullet of any variety, while $1.50 will be given for each the best old pen production and the best young pen production of any variety. Prizes will be awarded for geese and ducks this year, 75 cents for first, 50 cents for second and ribbon for third, but if there is only one entry second money and honors only will be given.

In the turkey division old toms, yearling toms, young toms, hens, yearling hens and pullets will be judged in separate classes, with first, second and third prizes being $1, 75 cents and a ribbon respectively.

Best Farm Display

Three dollars will be given for the best farm display. Women's exhibits include such divisions as canned fruits and vegetables, pickles, preserves and jellies, canned meats, paintings on china, adult painting, children's paintings, household linens, fancy work, old ladies' work, and a miscellaneous division for woven materials, quilts and bed spreads. Classes under these divisions will be included in the catalogue and premium list, which will be distributed early next week, and amounts of prizes will be included.

J. D. Strickland, vocational agriculture teacher of Lorenzo, will be official judge for the show. All entry applications must be in the hands of the show manager by six o'clock the evening of Thursday, Dec. 15, and entries must be in place by 9 a. m. the following day, the time and date set for starting of official judging.

Officers of the Slaton Poultry association for 1938 besides secretary-treasurer-manager Johns are N. C. Dickson, president; W. T. Driver, vice-president; Charles Splawn, 2nd vice-president; Driver, Johns and Dickson, executive committeemen; Driver, Johns, R. A. Meeks, and A. C. Strickland, superintendent of the show and vocational agriculture teacher in the Slaton schools, are members of the judges' committee; W. M. Cates and Johns compose the finance and catalogue committee. Directors of the association are Jim Jernigan, E. H. Coston, C. Z. Fine, W. L. Muerer, Leo Kitten, Vic Cade, Joe Alspaugh and Meeks.

Ladies Auxiliary of the association includes Mrs. W. T. Driver, president; Mrs. A. W. Montgomery, vice-president; and Mrs. Bill Wright, secretary-treasurer; superintendent is Mrs. W. H. Crosby. Directors are Mesdames C. E. Lilley, W. N. Williams, Leo Kitten, Dayton Eckert, Howard Hale, C. C. Shaw and P. M. Wheatley.

The show likely will be held in the 100 and 200 blocks on Texas Avenue. Exact building locations will be announced later.

Means Of Reducing WPA Rolls Discussed

SAN ANTONIO, Dec. 1. (AP) — Means of reducing the December Works Progress administration rolls by 5,000 workers without "arbitrarily removing needy persons from WPA rolls" were discussed Wednesday by State Administrator H. P. Drought, with representatives of the 12 Texas administrative field offices.

December's employment reduction of 5,000 workers will be from the current total of 84,572 persons on WPA projects, 27,725 farm workers employed by the WPA and 4,301 persons employed by WPA on projects operated by other federal agencies.

Previously, WPA field officials had received instructions from Washington that no new assignments or replacements might be made to projects. Wednesday conference was called to determine how the state WPA set-up might get within restricted quotas.

Total Of 27,985 Persons Leaves WPA Rolls In Week Of Nov. 26

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1. (AP)—The Works Progress administration said today 27,985 persons left the WPA rolls during the week ending Nov. 26.

This brought the enrollment to 3,215,564, a decline of 47,105 from the record high of 3,252,669 Nov. 5.

The number of cattle and calves on Missouri farms dropped from 2,875,000 in 1934 to 2,497,000, in 1938.

Fire Chief Twitty Has Quite A Time Trying To Replace Old Ladder; Wood Has To Test

When W. E. Twitty, fire chief, wants something, he wants it to be what he wants.

When a 22-year-old 24-foot extension ladder of the department was found broken the chief looked into a catalog. Replacement would cost approximately $50, figuring in the freight from the factory.

He could build one for approximately $12—provided he could be satisfied with every inch of timber required.

Nothing but the finest quality of Douglas fir would do.

He and his men found seven pieces of timber after searching through 7,000 feet of lumber!

And only part of that, sawed into 2 5/8 x 1 7/16 inches material, was found sufficiently lacking in granular weaknesses to meet the tests required.

Gold Stock Of U. S. Is Lifted To New All-Time High Last Month

NEW YORK, Dec. 1. (AP)—Another $245,000,000 of gold flowed into this country from abroad last month, lifting the gold stock of the United States to a new all-time record high of well over $14,000,000,000, the New York Federal Reserve bank reported today.
