Texas Delegation At Nation's Capital; Other Projects To Be Submitted To Bring Total To Near $400,000,000

Plans Classified

Program Would Embrace Wide Range; Numerous Local-Help Projects Listed; Survey Is Being Conducted

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 15 — Concentrating on the idea of reducing their direct relief rolls, the Texas delegation in Washington for relief and public works conferences today submitted to the public works administration, which begins operations soon, a list of nearly $200,000,000 in potential work projects in that state.

Lawrence Westbrook, Texas relief director, explained that their desire was to put men to work and they hoped to have a good number of construction projects included in the $3,300,000,000 public works program.

Confer With Johnson

Westbrook will confer tomorrow with Hugh S. Johnson, public works administrator-to-be, and afterward with Harry L. Hopkins, emergency relief administrator.

The projects which are being urged for Texas were classified as follows: building construction—$12,475,500; health and sanitation—$12,376,794; recreational—$1,785,000; development of natural resources — $153,550,000; rivers and harbors — $5,050,000; roads and paving — $8,224,500; highway structures — $765,000.

Another List Received

Westbrook explained that another twelve or fourteen million dollars

Railroads Demand Employes Take Heavier Cut In Wages

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP) — The railroads demanded today that a 10 per cent temporary reduction from their union employes' pay checks be replaced with a permanent reduction of 22 1-2 per cent.

The demand was made in a statement from the American Railway Executives association and was addressed to the Railway Labor Executives association, comprised of heads of 24 railroad labor unions.

A conference with the union leaders was requested by the roads for July 12 in Chicago. The proposed reduction would be effective Nov. 1, when the period covered by a contract covering the ten per cent deduction ends.

Nolan County Deputy Dies Of Wounds; Seek Burglars

SWEETWATER, June 15. (AP) — John Lamkin, Nolan county deputy sheriff, shot down by burglars he had surprised in an attempt to loot the Magnolia Oil Co., warehouse at Blackwell on the night of June 1, died this afternoon in a hospital here.

Lamkin was shot through both lungs and was badly bruised when he was run down by the burglars' car as they fled. His injuries were complicated by pneumonia that developed last week. Officers believe there were three men in the party attacking the deputy. There are few clues.

ATTORNEY RESIGNS

FORT WORTH, June 15. (AP) — John W. Beveridge tendered his resignation today as assistant federal district attorney and announced he would go to Dallas to engage in private practice. The resignation will become effective on July 1.

America Victorious For Selection Of Cox To Be Head Of Monetary Group

JAMES M. COX

Early Stabilization Of Dollar And The Pound Forecast

BY CLAUDE A. JAGGER
Associated Press Staff Writer

LONDON, June 15. — The American delegation emerged victorious today from its first major conflict in the world economic conference by obtaining the selection of James M. Cox of Ohio to be chairman of the vitally important committee on monetary questions, while Anglo-American financial experts at the same time forecast early stabilization of the dollar and the pound.

After being blocked for three days by the bitter opposition of the French, heading a block of gold standard countries, objection to the choice of Mr. Cox finally evaporated after discussions between the former Ohio governor and James P. Warburg of the American group with finance Minister Georges Bonnet of France, who had been a candidate for the post.

Bonnet Is Heard

"We have met Governor Cox and we love him," M. Bonnet declared at the conclusion of the informal conference which shortly preceded election of Mr. Cox by the steering committee of the international assembly.

It was widely rumored in the conference lobby that the American delegation had agreed to an important degree of dollar stabilization as a concession for French support of their man for the committee chairmanship.

High American quarters made it clear, however, that fixing of the dollar level in a deflationary manner would not be permitted.

All But Accomplished

In the meantime financial quarters believed that stabilization of the dollar and the pound had been all but accomplished.

The pound rose to $4.12 early in the day then fell back to $4.05 1-4 after persistent rumors in the conference lobby that $4.05 had been selected as the level at which stabilization should start.

American quarters insisted that a final stabilization program was not yet developed and that no fixing of the dollar price could be agreed upon which might hamper the United

Arguments In Ballard Case Start Friday

Case Is Expected To Go To A Jury By Noon; State Closes Thursday Afternoon; Charge To Jury Completed

Arguments in the trial of Mrs. Julia Ballard for murder will begin in 72nd district court this morning at 8:30 o'clock. Judge Homer L. Pharr yesterday afternoon completed a charge to the jury and defense attorneys were considering the charge for objections, motions, or additions.

The state closed its case against the 40-year-old Shallowater woman at 2:10 o'clock Thursday afternoon. The defense immediately closed, without offering any rebuttal testimony.

Nineteen Are Heard

Nineteen witnesses, eight of them for the defense, were heard yesterday. The defense rested its case at 10:50 o'clock yesterday morning, and the state offered six rebuttal witnesses before noon. Five others testified briefly in the afternoon. They were Bill Mabray, who quoted Autrey Ballard, son of the defendant, as saying his father "died an awful death." Mrs. Ballard is alleged to have administered strychnine to her husband, Albert T. Ballard, who died March 19, 1932.

Other witnesses introduced in the afternoon by the state before its case was closed were Ches Merrill of Shallowater, Dr. W. L. Baugh and Dr. J. W. Rollo, both of Lubbock.

Go To Jury By Noon

The case probably will go to the jury by noon today, depending on the time allotted to each side for

Road Association Formed Thursday

PLAINVIEW, June 15. (AP)—The federal highway association No. 70 was organized here today for the purpose of obtaining paving gaps in Oklahoma, Texas and New Mexico.

The representatives, including many from eight Texas counties, elected Judge J. H. Hamlin of Farwell, Tex., president; Tom Charles of New Mexico, vice-president; Cleve Largent of Oklahoma, vice-president, and Bill Gloudy of Plainview, secretary.

The highway commissions in the three states will be asked to give preferential standing to the projects on the old, established route.

Woman Asks Authorities To Hold Her Adventurous Son

FORT WORTH, June 15. (AP) — Mrs. Mae V. Coburn today wrote San Diego juvenile authorities asking them to hold her adventurous son, Jack, 14, until she decides what to do.

Jack is in a detention home in San Diego where he was placed Monday after trying to enlist in the navy "to see the world."

"He isn't a bad boy," she said Thursday. "But he thinks he is grown. If I send him the money to come home I am afraid he will do some more traveling."

Texas Pension Bill Is Vetoed

Mrs. Ferguson Will Refuse To Allow Cuts In Pensions For Confederate Veterans And Their Widows

(By The Associated Press)

AUSTIN, June 15. — A bill passed by the 43rd Texas legislature proposing cuts in pensions of Confederate veterans and widows of the old soldiers in certain classes was vetoed by Governor Miriam A. Ferguson today.

The bill had been put forward as a gesture of economy, especially since the pension fund, for which a state tax of seven cents on the $100 property valuation is levied, is deeply in the red.

Cuts Were Provided

The proposal disapproved by the governor would have deprived widows of veterans who were born after January 1, 1870 of a pension. It would have cut the present $25 monthly pension paid widows under 775 years old to $12.50. Inmates of Confederate homes would have received $77 monthly instead of $12.50. Unmarried veterans are paid $25 monthly and married veterans living with their wives $50.

The chief executive said she was "unwilling to compel veterans and their widows to surrender or reduce their pensions at a time when it is most needed."

"While I am for economy, I do not want to have it at the expense of the school children or the Confederate soldiers and their dependents," the governor wrote in her veto message.

David Belasco Leaves Big Estate; Accounting Filed

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—David Belasco, theatrical producer who died two years ago, left a gross estate of $1,616,835.22, it was disclosed in an accounting filed in surrogate's court today by the executors.

The inventory showed a depreciation of $423,034.13 in stocks and bonds held by the estate.

Finland Is The Only Nation To Pay Full Instalment And France Defaults For Second Time In Succession

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 15—Europe paid a little more than eight per cent of the $144,180,000 war debt installments that fell due today and the countries immediately fell into line behind Great Britain to seek a review of the debt agreement from President Roosevelt.

One after another, the diplomatic representatives of the debtor nations called at the state department to present the decisions of their governments, until finally the line up showed payments from five nations, defaults by five and probable defaults by three others. One nation alone—Finland—paid in full the installment due.

Payments Are Shown

In all, the payments—$10,000,000 from Great Britain, about $1,000,000 from Italy, a maximum of $180,000 from Czechoslovakia, Rumania and the full payment of $148,592 from Finland—totaled $11,353,592.

France, Poland, Belgium, Rumania, Jugoslavia and Lithuania defaulted. Similar action by Hungary, Latvia and Eston'a was indicated.

Foremost among the envoys who appeared at the department was Ambassador Lindsay of Great Britain, smiling his pleasure at the agreement under which Great Britain paid $10,000,000 on its installment of $75,950,000 as an acknowledgement of the debt pending final settlement.

Ambassador Rosso of Italy handed Phillips a formal note proposing, he said, that Italy pay about $1,000,000. The Rome government owed $13,545,000.

Czechslovakia, too, offered a par-

Governor Murray Offers $200 Reward For Arrest Of Slayer

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 15. (AP) —Governor Murray today offered $200 reward for arrest and conviction of the slayer of Miss Ada Davis, 18, beaten to death at her farm home four miles northwest of Chockie, Atoka county, Monday.

County Attorney J. B. Maxey reported the girl was struck with a blunt instrument Monday morning while sitting on the porch of her home.

The girl, Maxey said, previously had charged a youth with a statutory offense but he was released after a preliminary hearing.

Texas Farmers Seek Refund On Boll Worm Expenditures

PECOS, June 15. (AP)—The Texas Pink Boll Work Fumigation and Sterilization Refund association, which has as its purpose the obtaining of a refund of some $4,000,000 spent by West Texas cotton farmers in the last 10 years, decided at a meeting here today to organize an active campaign to get at least a portion of this money from the legislature.

About fifty farmers from eight West Texas counties attended the session held at the Pecos court house. Counties represented were Reeves, El Paso, Ward, Hudspeth, Presidio, Martin, Pecos and Ector.

Police Officers Work On Theory Of Incendiarism In Fire Thursday Night

Kidnap Mystery Only A Wedding

(By The Associated Press)

DENVER, Colo., June 15. — A "kidnaping mystery" that sent police last night on a hunt for Phyllis Nickerson 14, and the "jealous suitor" who, with two companions, was alleged to have abducted her, solved itself when it was learned at city hall today the girl obtained a license yesterday to marry George Legler, 24., the supposed "rejected" sweetheart.

Scoffing at the reported "forcible kidnaping" of Miss Nickerson by her son, Mrs. George Legler, sr., said she believed her son and the girl had made all their plans to be married. Mrs. Thea Saunders, mother of Miss Nickerson, however, said she would have the marriage annulled if she learned she had married young Legler. Neither mother had heard today from the youth or girl.

Flames Are Believed Caused By Enemy Of Local Officer

POLICE officers last night were working on a theory of incendiarism following a fire which completely demolished a combination frame garage and store-room and much of its contents on the property of City Patrolman Will Earnest at 1706 Avenue R.

An automobile, housed in the garage, was also damaged but, with top and upholstery burning, was pushed from the blazing structure by Bob Earnest, 21 year old son of the officer, and a neighbor, before it was entirely ruined.

Flames Held Down

The conflagration, apparently added to by gasoline tossed on the garage, was discovered by young Earnest shortly before 10:30 o'clock. Neighbors rushed in and, until advent of the fire department, succeeded in holding down the flames.

Carried on a stiff breeze, the fire jumped from the garage to the roof at the rear of the residence but little damage was done there. Several hundred persons were attracted to the scene by the explosion of approximately 200 high-powered rifle bullets when the blaze reached them in the garage.

Gas Jug Discovered

Among other possessions destroyed by the fire were somewhere near 40 quilts and blankets stored in the garage. Mr. Earnest said last night. He said he had not checked other articles stored there.

A plain glass gallon jug, some gasoline still in the bottom, was found in the alley by Mr. Earnest and Fire Marshal D. A. Forbess in an inspection of the property after the fire was extinguished. Because of the quick spread of the flames and the intensity of them, Mr. Earnest last night was relatively certain the conflagration was the work of an enemy.

Mr. Earnest could not accurately estimate the damage at the conclusion of the fire but said he believed his loss would not be in excess of $500.

Residence Insured

He said the residence and its contents were covered by insurance

State Leaders Of Education Gather Today

Setting Of State Apportionment May Be Considered By Board; All Members But One Arrive In City

Setting of the state apportionment may be a part of the business before the two-day session of the state board of education which opens at 9 o'clock this morning, Nat M. Washer, San Antonio, chairman, said last night in discussing some of the matters to come before the state board at its regular June meeting.

"Under the law we must set the apportionment before the first of August," he explained. "If we do not decide to meet in July, we probably will set the amount during our meeting here.

Statistics Are Expected

"I am expecting a statement from the state comptroller Friday morning, which will give us the amount of money in sight. We also expect to have the figures of the scholastics for the year.

Besides the regular routine business before the board, other matters to come up will include vocational educational matters, requests for purchase of bonds and some other matters.

One Member Absent

Every member of the board with the exception of R. S. Bowers, Houston, was here last night. Besides Chairman Washer, the board membership includes: J. O. Guleke, Am-

Veterans Will Receive Work

Eight Former Service Men Are To Be Selected From This County For Enlistment In Conservation Corps

Eight former service men will be selected from Lubbock county for the veterans contingent of emergency conservation work, R. J. Allen, one of the service officers of Allen Brothers post, No. 148, of the American Legion said Thursday. Applications must be filed by Thursday, June 22.

The first eight veterans submitting applications will receive first consideration, and those veterans appearing to be in the greatest need will receive preference, as required by Veterans administration regulations.

Must See Kucera

Veterans wishing to apply for employment in the former service men's division of the conservation corps should see Ben Kucera, Legion service officer, immediately at his office, 207 Palace building. Mr. Allen will not be here during the period of registration and Mr. Kucera will handle all applications.

The enrollment period is six months; basis pay is $1 a day. If an applicant passes the preliminary physical examination at the recruiting station at which he reports, his expenses from that point will be paid by the government. If he does not, he will be transferred at government expense to his home, i. e., the place of acceptance.

Work will be eight hours a day, including travel and the lunch hour, five days a week. Leisure activities and medical and hospital care will be provided.

LYNN IS ADVANCED

AMARILLO, June 15. (AP)—R. H. (Bob) Lynn, head of the Panhandle land department of the Phillips Petroleum company since 1926, has been elected a vice-president of the company and will be transferred to Bartlesville, Okla., where he will have charge of the general land department.

Texas Aviator Hours Overdue On Alaska Hop

Mattern Again Is Believed To Have Been Baffled By Bad Weather; Formidable Blockade Is Over Sea

(By The Associated Press)

NOME, Alaska, June 15. — The time limit at which Jimmie Mattern's gasoline supply would be used up, and he would be compelled to land if the "Century of Progress" were still in the air, neared tonight, with no word of the Texas round-the-world flier.

With full tanks when he took off from Khabarovsk, Siberia, at 2:30 p. m. (est) yesterday, the gas supply probably would keep him in the air about 33 hours, his backers estimated. That would be at 11:30 p. m. (est) tonight, and by that time he might have flown far into Alaska and circled around over the fog for several hours searching for a place to land.

Barrier Presented

Storms which lay in his path Tuesday had moved out of h's way today, but an overcast sky and a cold fog shrouded Bering Sea and presented a formidable barrier to an aviator already wearied by flying alone almost two thirds of the way around the globe.

Inland from Nome there were broken places in the cloud mantel and it was believed Mattern could find a safe landing place without much trouble should he push his speedy plane that far.

Seventeen hours flying time was regarded as ample for the distance from Khabarovsk to Nome and Nome citizens began to look for him at 1:30 a. m. (7:30 a. m. Eastern Standard Time).

Is Believed Down

As the hours passed, however, and the low-hanging clouds stubbornly veiled the sky, the belief grew that Mattern had landed elsewhere.

Ice coated wings were Mattern's greatest menace. Should he be able

Members Of Congress Not Eligible In Repeal Fight

AUSTIN, June 15. (AP)—Members of the national congress are not eligible for election as delegates to a state convention to determine if Texas shall vote for or against Repeal of the eighteenth amendment, James V. Allred, attorney general, ruled today.

Allred said he had been requested by John M. Mathis, director of the campaign for repeal of the national prohibition amendment, for an opinion on that question. Allred said Mathis told him he had been advised those opposed to repeal planned to nominate Morris Sheppard, United States senator, as a candidate for delegate to the state repeal convention, and that both factions had in mind naming several members of the national house of representatives.

President Sends Letters To Two Leaders Thanking Them For Cooperation In Pushing Recovery Program

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, June 16 (Friday) —Capitulating again to President Roosevelt on veterans compensations after having bestowed upon him virtually all of the powers he had asked, congress early today finished the busiest peace time session in history.

Adjournment sine die came finally at 1:21 a. m., eastern standard time, less than an hour after the senate by a vote of 45 to 36 had yielded to the suasion of the president and the house on the question of reducing former soldiers' benefits.

Dispute Is Ended

Acceptance by the senate of the compromise worked out by the chief executive and the house in answer to the complaint that the bite of governmental economy was being felt too severely by veterans ended a dispute that had raged in congress for two weeks.

THANKS ARE GIVEN

WASHINGTON, June 16. (AP) —(Friday)—President Roosevelt sent letters to Vice President Garner and Speaker Rainey early today thanking the congress "for making possible, on the broad average, a more sincere and more wholehearted cooperation between the legislative and the executive branches of the United States government than has been witnessed by the American people in many a long year."

While it was being settled a half dozen important measures were wiped off the congressional slate and sent to the White House for signature. Last night's climax in the senate found the independent offices supply bill—the vehicle for the veterans dispute—the last measure remaining to be disposed of.

Disregarded Threats

Only a short twenty-four hours before, the senate had disregarded threats of a veto and had put into the measure provisions more liberal

Simpson urged that a "dignified campaign" be conducted against "the farce of prohibition." County organizations were perfected.

Farmer-Feeders Of Wide Area To Gather In City

FARMER-FEEDERS from a wide area of West Texas are expected here today for the first annual Livestock Feeders' day of the division of agriculture of Texas Technological college. It will start at 10 o'clock this morning in the livestock pavilion.

A speaking program with well known men discussing phases of livestock feeding has been arranged by W. L. Stangel, head of the department of animal husbandry. Sheep and hog feeding as well as beef feeding will be discussed.

Sterling C. Evans, district county agent leader, arrived last night and is expecting nearly all of the county agents from this section here for the day.

Word from over the territory indicates there will be a good attendance as many farmers are ceasing temporarily planting operations. Many commercial feeders also are expected to attend.

A lunch at noon will be served by a committee representing the chamber of commerce.

The Woman's Angle

BY BLANCHE BEAN WILSON
Avalanche Woman's Editor

REMEMBER those decorated shells that mother or grandmother or someone else had away back when and which you have long since relegated to the attic or that old trunk? Well, those decorated shells are coming back and in a few more years, if you don't watch out, you, too, will be having some of them sitting around all painted up in fancy scenes or flowers. Fads do come back.

There is something else that is coming back which may be as practical as it is decorative. That is the fad for baskets for flowers, plants and leaves.

Of course, the use of baskets has never quite disappeared. The use of bowls simply became more popular. However, the old country splat basket is coming back and almost anything of the kind that was once used is good again. Some of them form perfect settings for summer garden flowers.

NONE OF THESE

BY THE way, since these items have concerned the revival of fads in the home, an opinion concerning the revival of horsehair sofas and horn hatrack type of furniture may be interesting.

Hans Dreier, European architect who is designing movie sets, thinks that milady may go back to the styles of the gay nineties or the Victorian era in some ways but that she will keep her household furnishings modern.

"Leg-o'-mutton sleeves may return, even bustles, but wax flowers under a glass dome on the mantel and a corner what-not loaded down with a strange assortment of souvenirs never will reappear to offend the parlor visitor," he says. "Women who rush to adopt some weird trick or fad in dress are, as a general rule, very conservative in their taste in home furnishings," he adds.

There is a general impression now that movies influence us more than we know—that the furnishings we see in films are the furnishings we want in our houses; that the dresses that are worn by screen stars are the dresses we wear in Lubbock, Walla Walla or New York City.

That is the reason that the opinion of a Hollywood designer is supposed to be worth listening to.

We can hope his prediction is true concerning the horsehair furniture and the horn hatrack type of furniture, but what about those whatnots? There are plenty of them about now. Many add a bit of interest and color to a room. Many more are simply receptacles for all sorts of atrocities and souvenirs. Dreier may predict that they will never return, but haven't they already?

PICK-UPS

LIGHT blue, pale and powdery, is a color favored in Paris, according to news dispatches from there. Some of the important sports silks are silk pique, checks, stripes and various prints as well, in plaids, spots and checks. White organdie, linen and pique continue in popularity, we are told.

If you don't like dishwashing, there are the new picnic ensembles which may be used indoors and which are considered smart for the summer. The old paper plates and cups and napkins have gone color-conscious now and you can use them effectively without bringing on the accusation that you are lazy—the only excuse for using them a few years ago.

It's postcard receiving time. If you haven't one yet showing a panorama of the Century of Progress Exposition, of a bridge spanning the Mississippi or boats on Lake Michigan, just be patient. One will be coming through the mails almost any day now with the familiar lines "Wish you were here . . ."

This kind of weather, however, the kind that really strikes home is a postal showing some cool mountain retreat that suggests there's nothing to be done for days and days except sleep away the summer's lethargy.

Some one with the organizing ability should make it possible for all work to be suspended during June, July and August so that the whole world could go on a prolonged vacation.

If you are tired counting sheep for your insomnia, you might try figuring that one out and counting the people whose work is essential all of the time in order to supply your wants and comforts—the grocer, the filling station operator, the utilities employes, the mechanics, merchants and all the rest. Few of us are able to exist alone for any length of time in this day.

Glidwell Mullins Is Married To Leonard Cole In Simple Service Read At Her Home; Leave For Honeymoon

Miss Glidwell Mullins and Leonard Cole were married Thursday morning at 8 o'clock in a wedding service read at the bride's home, 2106 Sixteenth street, with the Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of the First Baptist church, officiating. The double ring ceremony was used.

The marriage vows were read with the couple standing under an archway in the living room of the home. Roses and greenery covered the arch and baskets of flowers were placed at either side. Soft lights were used in the room.

Gowned In White

The bride was gowned in a white triple sheer chiffon dress of ankle length and wore a hem-length veil that was caught with her mother's pearls and orange blossoms. Her bouquet was of pink ophelia roses and valley lilies.

Her niece, Miss Johnnie Mullins, was bridesmaid. She wore a light blue net ankle-length dress. The bride's nephew, J. M. Mullins, jr., carried the rings on a satin pillow. He was dressed entirely in white.

Louie McFarland was best man.

Preceding the wedding, Mrs. A. C. Sailors sang "I Love You Truly", accompanied at the piano by Miss Loula Denham, who also played the wedding processional and continued with "Traumerei" during the ceremony. Mrs. Sailors was gowned in a figured net and Miss Denham wore a figured chiffon. They wore wrist corsages.

Sixty Are Guests

About sixty guests attended the wedding and were served wedding cake and ice cream following the ceremony. The dining room table was covered with a lace cloth over pink. Crystal bowls and candle holders, flowers, candles and tulle completed the decorations.

Out of town guests at the wedding were Mrs. W. M. Freeman of Amarillo, Dr. and Mrs. T. C. McCay and daughters of Idalou.

Mr. and Mrs. Cole left immediately on their honeymoon. The bride's going away suit was of white linen with brown accessories. The couple will be at home at 2106 Sixteenth street.

Mrs. Cole, daughter of Mrs. A. G. Mullins, has been teaching in the Lubbock Public schools. She has attended Texas Technological college and Denton Teachers college and has been prominent in musical circles.

LABORATORY TESTS CHECK EFFICACY OF KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN

Show Why This Delicious Cereal Overcomes Common Constipation

There are scientific reasons for the success of ALL-BRAN in preventing and relieving common constipation. Laboratory investigations show that it supplies "bulk" to exercise the intestines; and vitamin B to promote appetite, and help tone the intestinal tract.

These two important food-elements aid regular habits, and help do away with the headaches, loss of appetite and energy, so often the result of constipation.

The "bulk" in ALL-BRAN is mild in action—much like that of lettuce. Inside the body, it forms a soft mass, which gently clears the intestines of wastes.

Isn't this pleasant "cereal way" far more healthful than using pills and drugs—so often habit-forming!

Just eat two tablespoonfuls of Kellogg's daily—enough for most types of constipation. If not relieved this way, see your doctor.

Besides, ALL-BRAN brings your body twice as much blood-building iron as an equal amount by weight of beef liver.

Special cooking processes make ALL-BRAN finer, softer, more palatable. Equally tasty as a cereal, or used in cooking. Recipes on the red-and-green package. Sold by all grocers. Made by Kellogg in Battle Creek.

Give Dad A Gift!

And Sunday Is His Day!

When you get right down to it men are just as vain as women about their appearance . . . only they won't admit it. With a little encouragement Dad would step out in a blaze of glory and look to his P's and Q's on his "What The Well-Dressed Man Should Wear" chart. We know the rules and have the goods . . . so won't you come in and select Dad something he would adore to have but won't buy for himself!

New Shirts—Just Arrived!

No Dad ever has too many of them and especially not to many of shirts like these. They are the newest in colors and designs. Soft blues, greys and tans in plaids, tiny checks, stripes that can be matched or contrasted with ties. 1.00—1.50—1.95.

Summer Ties

That are cool and fresh looking! Not just the ordinary run of ties but ties that are different! So many clever designs and color combinations that you'll want to give him several. All new! 50c and 1.00.

Handkerchiefs

Magnify the smartness of Dad's outfit by giving him a half dozen or more of these fine hand-rolled edge fancy or plain linen handkerchiefs to harmonize with his favorite color scheme. Each 25c.

Belts

Satisfy Dad's secret yen . . . he's too modest to broadcast his wants . . . so buy him two belts, one for Sunday and one for every day, a gay plaid sport one and a conservative solid one. 1.00 and 2.00.

Pajamas

That are "loud and gay" in designs and colors but if they are a gift from you . . . they won't keep Dad awake! Of course there's such a nice selection you may select more conservative patterns, too! 1.00 and 1.95.

Sox

Give him several new pairs of these new Cooper Sox. He'll like the smartness of their patterns, plaids, stripes, and dots in pastels and dark shades and he'll like the way they wear! 35c and 50c a pair.

Garters

Just because Dad's garters do not show in public is no reason for depriving him of the personal satisfaction of having some as smart as these. 25c—35c—50c.

Don't Forget Your Dad!

Whitney Takes Witness Stand

J. P. Morgan Bank Partner Is Called By The Defense In Mitchell Case; He Tells Of Loans To Banker

NEW YORK, June 15 (AP)—George Whitney, J. P. Morgan partner, was called as a defense witness in federal court today at the income tax trial of Charles E. Mitchell, former chairman of the National City bank.

Through Whitney, Mitchell has testified, he completed the transaction whereby he borrowed from the Morgans in Oct. 1929, nearly $10,000,000 about $5,000,000 of which he still owes. It was through Whitney also, he said, he arranged for W. D. Thornton, mining man who preceded the Morgan partner as a witness to borrow $229,500 to buy Mitchell's 8,500 shares of Anaconda copper stock in 1930.

Tells of Loan

Briefly Whitney testified that in October, 1929, Mitchell borrowed from the firm of J. P. Morgan and company a sum "up to $12,000,000," putting up National City bank stock as collateral.

Subsequently, he said, Mitchell increased his collateral, in March, 1931, Turning over three mortgages.

Whitney said two of the Morgan partners in Jan. 1932, told him Mitchell had sold 18,300 shares of his National City bank stock to his wife.

"But I already knew it then," he said. "To the best of my recollection, Mr. Mitchell told me himself in January, 1931, when he came into the Morgan office and offered more securities as collateral for his loan."

Arranges Transaction

Whitney corroborated Mitchell's testimony that in December 1930, Mitchell called him on the telephone and arranged for a loan for W. D. Thornton, mining man.

"Mr. Mitchell told me," he said, "that Mr. Thornton was buying 8,500 shares of his Anaconda copper stock."

The stock, Whitney said, was part of the collateral the Morgans held on Mitchell's loan.

Kiwanis Founder Speaks Thursday

The founder of Kiwanis International, A. S. Browne of Dallas, addressed the Lubbock Kiwanis club in a surprise appearance at its luncheon in the Lubbock hotel Thursday.

He told of the organization of the first Kiwanis club in Detroit in 1914 and its first meeting in December of that year. The second club was formed in Cleveland in July, 1915. He also told of the organization of the first club in Texas at Dallas in 1916.

Explaining the origin of the word "Kiwanis," he said he coined it from an Indian phrase, "nun Kee-wannis," meaning to go to a given place, to trade, to enjoy one's self, to attend a carnival, and allied activity.

Before Mr. Browne spoke, William Gaines sang, accompanied at the piano by Miss Myrtle Dunn, and Jess Mitchell of Muleshoe, spoke.

Sixteen Lubbock Kiwnians said they would attend a meeting of the Plainview club today.

Two Mexicans Being Held In Jail Here On Robbery Count

Two Mexicans who beat A. Melendez, a Lubbock police patrolman, so severely they believed they were leaving a corpse, according to conversation the policeman said he overheard, not only took his pistol but $9 in money from him as well.

That was revealed with filing of a robbery complaint in Justice of the Peace J. S. Connell's court Thursday against two men.

One of the men charged, Arcadio Satelo, 26, of the 100-block of Avenue K, was rearrested this morning by police. He had been released from Lubbock county jail Wednesday in bail of $250, posted pending trial on a charge of aggravated assault and battery in county court. The other suspect, still at large, also had been charged with aggravated assault and battery upon Patrolman Melendez.

Satelo again was transferred to county jail Thursday.

Eminent Engineer Dies At Home In London Thursday

LONDON, June 15 (AP)—The death was announced today of Sir Ernest William Moir, eminent engineer, at his home in London. He was 71 years old.

Sir Ernest was connected with the construction of several of the tunnels which connect New York's Manhattan Island with Long Island and New Jersey.

The Saginaw valley in Michigan was a sort of "Devil's Island" to which tribe outlaws escaped and exiles were sentenced, says Indian legend.

Third Confession Revealed In Case

BARNSTABLE, Mass., June 15 (AP)—An alleged "third confession" of Kenneth Buck, who with his brother, Cyril, is on trial charged with kidnaping Peggy McMath, was admitted in evidence today by Judge Edward F. Hanify.

The "confession" was a detailed account of the crime, from the time the kidnap plans were conceived until the child was returned to her parents on May 5 after payment of ransom.

From the time the child was put in a shack near a cranberry bog in Harwichport, the "confession" indicated, until she was returned to her parents, she believed her abductor was a friend who was shielding her from the real kidnapers.

Warning Against Too High A Rise In Prices Is Made

DALLAS, June 15 (AP)—Judge S. A. Lindsey, director of the Federal Land bank at Houston, told the Texas Independent Telephone association today that the country would emerge from the depression if "we don't spoil it by upping prices too high."

"Speculation was largely what got us into this," he said. "It was the reaching out for everything in sight, taking in all slack and leaving conditions in no possible chance of rising any higher. Thus, there was only one way to go and that was back."

The nominating committee proposed the following list of directors:

Oscar Burton of Tyler, L. S. Gardner of Waco, R. B. Fairly of Lubbock, C. E. Hoy of San Antonio, George M. Johnson of Santa Anna, A. L. Robb, of Electra, J. Y. Rust of San Angelo, D. F. Shilling of Wingate, Jean Shotwell of Lufkin, D. T. Strickland of Dallas, J. E. Stuart of Texarkana, Merton Swift, of San Marcos, J. C. Paxton, of McAllen, T. P. Bearden of Baird, Sam H. Shutt of Sherman, James Thompson of Corsicana and Lon J. Jester of Waco.

"B. C." Relieves Your Headache In 3 Minutes

Realizing that no one drug can relieve all headaches, as they come from so many causes, a North Carolina pharmacist has developed a combination of several ingredients, so blended and proportioned as to relieve almost any headache in a few minutes. You can get this formula wherever drugs are sold under the name "B. C.," 10c and 25c packages, and when you have one of those violent, nerve-racking headaches, from inorganic causes, "B. C." will give you soothing relief in three minutes. "B. C." should also be used for the relief of muscular aches and pains, common colds and neuralgia, reducing fever, and for quieting a distressed nervous system without opiates, narcotics or such habit forming drugs.

Youth Is Dead In Gun Battle

Another Youth Thought Dying; Fight For Nearly Half An Hour Before Firearms Are Brought Into Play

SAN ANTONIO, June 15. (AP) — Alonzo Hernandez, 22, is dead and his cousin, Robert Ingle, 18, is believed dying as the result of a gun battle at a dairy farm eight miles southeast of town today.

The two cousins had fought for nearly half an hour before bystanders came forward and supplied each with fire arms, according to reports to Deputy Sheriffs Frank Matthews and J. C. Musgrave.

Hernandez was dropped by a single shot from an automatic pistol, dying almost instantly.

A charge from a shot gun struck Ingle squarely in the face, inflicting probable fatal wounds.

O'Doul And Clark Traded To Giants For A First Baseman

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—Frank Lefty O'Doul, greatest hitter in the National League last season, and Watson Clark, one of the game's outstanding left handed pitchers, moved over from the Brooklyn Dodgers to the New York Giants in exchange for slugging Sam Leslie today as the big league clubs sought last minute reinforcements before the close of the trading season at midnight tonight.

After refusing to trade Johnny Frederick for Leslie last winter, Max Carey, manager of the Robins, finally was forced to give up his best pitcher and a famed clouter to get the sensational young first baseman who has been hitting .321 as an understudy for his manager, Bill Terry. The Dodgers' need for a hitting first baseman became acute with the failure of the veteran Joe Judge and Del Bissonette to fill the hole.

All Eyes In Nome Turn Toward The Bering Sea Sky Thursday In Hopes That Mattern's Plane Will Arrive

NOME, Alaska, June 15 (AP)—All eyes in Nome turned toward the Bering sea sky again today as the hardy sourdoughs took up another anxious vigil for Jimmie Mattern, the globe-girdling airman, who was overdue from Khabarovsk, Siberia, on the perilous 2500-mile ocean lap.

The lone aviator tackled the treacherous water stretch in the face of severe weather on this side, although the winds were not as strong as on Tuesday when he was forced back to Khabarovsk. He left the Siberian town at 2:30 p. m. (Eastern Standard Time) yesterday and was expected to reach Nome in 17 hours—7:30 a. m. (E. S. T.) or 1:30 a. m. (Nome time) today.

It was Thursday night at Khabarovsk, however, when he hopped and by losing a day crossing the international dateline he would arrive here before he started, by the clock, provided he landed today.

No word came of the progress of his flight since he left the Asiatic coast but none was expected as he carried no wireless and was traveling north of the regular shipping lanes.

At 10 a. m. (E. S. T.) Mattern had been on his way 19½ hours. Wiley Post and Harold Gatty covered the same leg on their record round-the-world flight in 16 3-4 hours.

At 87 years of age A. G. Hopkins, civil war veteran, performs his duties as constable at Aberdeen, Wash.

South Plains May Reap Benefits In Works Program

Hanlon Speaks Here Thursday

Methods Of Obtaining Loans Are Explained By Dallas Man As Public Officials Gather In City Yesterday

Representing the recently created Texas Rehabilitation and Relief commission, Tom Hanlon of Dallas addressed about a hundred public officials and business men Thursday morning in the Hilton hotel here. He informed them of possibly far-reaching benefits in Lubbock and throughout the South Plains from President Franklin D. Roosevelt's vast public works program.

Practically every town and county in the territory was represented in the conference in which provisions of the public works act and methods of securing loans on various projects were explained by Mr. Hanlon. Discussions were held and numerous questions asked regarding specific projects planned to aid unemployment in this area which revealed more than 60 projects contemplated in the 12 counties represented in the conference.

Projects Announced

Project surveys listed in the meeting were as follows: Lubbock, 16; Hale, 7; Garza, 10; Lynn, 4; Yoakum, 2; Bailey, 2; Hockley, 2; Dickens, 4; Gaines, 2; Lamb, 11, and Crosby 3.

Title 2 of the measure known as the National Industrial Recovery act is to be the president's "ungloved, knockout blow" at the depression, Mr. Hanlon said. The act put $3,300,000,000 in the president's fist for this specific purpose.

Mr. Hanlon said a swift, decisive campaign to bring home to the people throughout the state the advantage of quickly seizing the opportunities presented to them under terms of the bill is being carried on by the new employment-relief agency at Austin.

"The quicker you get your material to Austin, the quicker you'll get action on your project," Mr. Hanlon said. He said preliminary project surveys should be in Austin by June 24.

The motto, he declared, under which the campaign is to be conducted will be:

"Take families off the relief rolls and put them on payrolls."

He estimated that at least $250,000,000 for public works can be obtained for Texas from this enormous federal fund if prompt action is taken by those in position to negotiate loans covering eligible projects.

Hanlon said that wide-spread interest is already being shown and it is considered likely that the minimum goal will be exceeded.

Experts have estimated that 1000 men receive jobs for each million dollars of construction to be in force, according to the state man. On this basis more men would receive employment in Texas than are now on R. F. C. rolls in this state.

Under terms of the bill, virtually every type of public works is eligible.

On acceptable projects the federal government will make an outright grant or gift of 30 per cent of the construction cost, and will loan the balance of 70 per cent at a low rate of interest. Among suggested eligible projects are the following:

1. Building construction: administration—city hall, county courthouses; hospitals—city and county; schools, auditoriums; stadia, prisons; markets; libraries; factories; docks; warehouses; terminals for air, road, rail, water; police stations and fire stations.
2. Health and sanitation: water storage; water filtration; water softening; water lines; sewage disposal; sewage systems; civic centers; water front beautification; correction of pollution of streams; slum eradication; parking spacing; abattoir.
3. Marginal lands: drain swamps and much lands; irrigate arid areas; clear scrub timber lands; reforestation; game preserves; artificial lakes; fish hatcheries; resorts; camp sites; golf courses; amusement parks; athletic parks.
4. Natural resources: flood control; drouth control; hydroelectric development.
5. Rivers and harbors: breakwaters; harbors; channels.
6. Roads and pavements.
7. Highway structure.

Title 11 of the National Industrial Recovery act takes the place of the self-liquidating loan provisions of the old R. F. C. act, which specifically prohibits loan, the retirement of which involves the securing of revenue from taxation, Mr. Hanlon explained. This tax feature of the R. F. C. act served to eliminate practically every type of public works from consideration.

While no definite policy concerning administration of the new public works program has been made, it is known on good authority that it will be an unusually liberal one, he said.

County Officials Gather To Plan Boundary Lines

Meeting Called For A Discussion Of All Problems

(By Staff Correspondent)

LEVELLAND, June 15. — Steps looking towards settlement of county line boundaries of a group of South Plains counties, under the terms of the recent Garza-Lynn county boundary suit, were taken here today by county judges and commissioners from several counties involved. The meeting was called for a general discussion of affairs of interest to these counties and the Levelland Chamber of Commerce assisted in the entertainment of the visitors.

Sessions were held in the county courtroom and Judge J. B. Potts, county judge, presided. At noon a luncheon was served in the Levelland hotel coffee shop with J. H. Jones presiding as toastmaster for the chamber of commerce.

Duggan Is Speaker

State Senator Arthur P. Duggan of Littlefield, was present and spoke at each session. He discussed some of the laws passed by the 43rd legislature, especially those affecting this section.

Following were the out-of-town officials present: J. R. Trout, J. L. Marshall and M. W. Luna, commissioners of Yoakum county; Jay Barret, county judge and W. A. Hinson, R. J. Cook, G. M. Thompson and L. H. Brock, Brownfield, Terry county; J. R. Ward, Morton; E. C. White, Whiteface, and James C. Tyson, Morton, commissioners of Cochran county; C. C. Daniel, Sudan, commissioner of Lamb county, and A. L. Harris, Lubbock. All members of the Hockley county court were present.

Discusses Rural Aid

Senator Duggan discussed rural aid and other educational measures and highways, at the morning session. After stating that Texas was to receive $23,000,000 for road work, the senator said, "If we folks out here don't ask for a part of this, we won't get it." West Texas, he added, with South Texas, was paying for most of the operation of the state. Eighty East Texas counties get over two million dollars a year for rural aid more than their actual school attendance.

Other laws read and discussed, included: game bird breeder's law; congressional redistricting bill; marriage relation law; payment of salaries to county judges and commissioners from road and bridge funds; county reorganization bill; collection of gas taxes; tax moratorium; fee system; court reporter's fees; teacher's warrants; state school and college fees; free textbook bill.

Highway Discussed

At the luncheon Judge Potts introduced J. H. Jones as toastmaster. The out-of-town guests were introduced and C. M. Elder, secretary of the chamber of commerce discussed the recently designated north and south highway. He urged the counties along the route to send delegates and added, "West Texas should demand the things they want by cooperative work."

Senator Duggan also spoke of the work in securing designation of the highway, and said that one of the conditions was that counties should grade the road before the state takes it over.

West Texas farmers, the senator added, need expect little from the federal land bank at Houston in the way of help through recently passed national legislation on farm mortgages. "We are being discriminated against in the rankest way by the Federal Land Bank of Houston," he added, telling of a recent letter from Judge Gossett, head of the bank on loan amounts.

Judge Also Speaks

Judge Jay Barret of Brownfield spoke and a male quartet of the chamber of commerce sang two numbers. A Levelland orchestra played during the meal.

At the afternoon session Senator Duggan again spoke on laws of the recent session. Others speaking included: C. M. Elder on RFC funds and work; Jay Barret, J. R. Ward, Morton; C. C. Daniel, Sudan; Sylvan Sanders of Lubbock, and A. L. Harris, also Lubbock.

It was decided to meet next at Littlefield July 7. At that meeting commissioners from each county involved are expected to present a report on agreement on a surveyor.

Policeman In Great Distress

Walking all day made his feet so sore and painful that he oftimes thought he would have to leave the force—in one night a Radox foot bath changed his mnd.

Was he happy—ask his wife—she too was joyously happy for the whole thing was so simple—all he did was to put 3 tablespoonfuls of Radox in a gallon of hot water and soak his feet 20 minutes—the next morning he was on the job with never a pain or an ache in his feet—a Radox footbath will fix up your weary, burning, aching feet overnight or money back at Mark Halsey Drug or any real drugstore. 45 cents a package. Twenty-Six Army Planes Are Expected To Arrive In City

Twenty-six observation planes are expected to arrive here from Fort Sill, Okla., starting at 7:30 o'clock this morning, W. C. Breedlove, manager of the municipal airport, said last night.

About 30 men will be in the planes, including several officers and a group of student flyers. The flight is a regular student training flight. Planes will arrive during the morning.

Coffee and sandwiches will be served the visitors by a committee of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

Yankees Lose Fourth In Row To Red Sox; Boston Braves Beat Giants

Large Seventh Inning Proves Boston Margin

World Champs Experience The Longest Losing Streak Since '31 As Red Sox Come Out Of Celler With 8-5 Victory

(By The Associated Press)

BOSTON, June 15.—The Red Sox finally moved out of the American League cellar today by beating the world champion New York Yankees for the fourth time in a row, 8-5. The triumph put the Sox barely ahead of the St. Louis Browns, who had an open date and it made the first time the Yanks have lost four games in a row since 1931.

One big inning, the seventh, won the game for Boston after Henry Johnson, one-time Yankee flinger, had seen some fine pitching ruined by home runs by Tony Lazzeri and Ben Chapman. Tony walloped his eleventh circuit blow of the season with the sacks vacant in the sixth inning and Chapman smacked one over the fence with Lou Gehrig on base to tie the score at 3-3 in the first half of the seventh.

The Yanks drove Henry Johnson to cover, scoring two runs in the eighth but Bob Weiland checked them.

The Yankees suffered their seventh loss in nine starts on the current road trip.

Braves Score Six In Fourth For Win

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP) — One big inning by the Boston Braves was too much for the Giants today, despite constant hitting and the visitors won the series final, 7-4. With the St. Louis Cardinals idle, the Giants still held the National League lead.

The Braves landed on Freddy Fitzsimmons for six hits and as many runs in the fourth inning to put away the ball game, after the Giants pitcher had bruised his pitching hand knocking down a couple of liners.

CUBS BLANK PIRATES

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—Promoted from the relief pitching department to a starting job, Bud Tinning today responded by holding the Pittsburgh Pirates to four hits as the Cubs won their second shutout victory in two days, 5 to 0.

The contest was finished under a protest lodged by Manager George Gibson of the Pirates after his pitcher, Hal Smith, was made the victim of the hidden ball trick in the fifth inning.

The batting punch was supplied by Frank Demaree, who blasted out a homer in the fourth with two on, and Babe Herman, who connected for his fifth circuit swat of the season in the fifth.

In the fifth Smith doubled. He took the usual short lead off second and as the Cubs gathered around to protest that Babe Herman had caught instead of "trapped" Paul Waner's liner, Bill Jurges obtained possession of the ball. When play was resumed Smith was off base and Jurges touched him out.

DODGERS HAMMER PHILS

PHILADELPHIA, June 15. (AP) — The Brooklyn Dodgers again found the range of Philadelphia pitching and hammered out 21 hits off the offerings of four moundsmen to defeat the Phillies 9-3 in the series final. The teams divided the four games.

Snipe Hansen, victor over Brooklyn Monday, failed to survive the first inning. Hollis Thurston went the route for Brooklyn, giving ten hits, and batted in four runs with a pair of doubles.

Cardinal Staff Ranked With Greatest

Here are the four dazzlers who, with very little help, threaten to overpower the National league and pitch the Cardinals to another pennant. Three of them, Dean, Carleton and Hallahan, are products of the Red Birds' Texas league farm at Houston. Many observers rank them with the greatest mound staffs the game has seen.

Brilliant Pitching Makes Pennant Contender Of Old Sarge's Makeshift Team; Star Trio Hails From Texas

BY GAYLE TALBOT
(Associated Press Sports Writer)

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—In future years, when talk veers around to great pitching staffs of the past, there probably will be a vote or two for the St. Louis Cardinal curving corps of 1933.

It is a little too early to estimate the true greatness of the Red Birds' present staff, but you would be surprised how many keen observers are ready right now to rank Gabby Street's all-star cast with the best in baseball history.

The staff that virtually has strong-armed an otherwise average ball club into a commanding position in the National league perhaps doesn't include a star of the magnitude of Grove, Mathewson, Walsh, Marquard, Plank and other immortals, but it makes up for that in balance.

Vance A Relief Pitcher!

Up to the early days of June, eight pitchers had been on the firing line for the Cards and not one of them had a losing average! All had started at least one game and five were rated good enough to take their regular turn. Here's the staff on which Dazzy Vance, former strikeout king on the National league, has the status of a relief flinger:

Dizzy Dean John "Tex" Carleton, Bill Hallahan, Bill Walker, Bill Mooney, Jess Haines, Sylvester Johnson and Vance. So poison have been the first four to opposing batsmen that the latter quartet, good enough to pitch regularly on almost any other team in the league, have seen only trifling service.

Walker Does Comeback

Dean is the National league's leading strikeout artist. Carleton won six of his first seven starts. Hallahan for several years has been the league's outstanding southpaw. Walker, who two seasons ago led the league's pitchers in effectiveness, has made a great comeback since leaving the Giants.

With those four taking turn the Cards have the drop on any club they meet. And when one of them is batted out, the offending team receives little comfort from the man who takes his place on the hill. Old Jess Haines still is one of the craftiest workmen in the game, and there's still a lot of smoke on Vance's fast one. Mooney and Johnson are capable pitchers.

Among the great mound staffs to which the Card corps is being compared was the brilliant collection that labored for the Red Sox in 1928. It included Babe Ruth, Joe Bush, Dutch Leonard, Carl Mays and Sam Jones.

Take Your Choice

To go further back, there was the White Sox trio of 1906, "Big Ed" Walsh, Doc White and Nick Altrock. Walsh alone pitched over 60 games. There was the famous Coombs-Bender-Plank combine of the Athletics from 1910 to 1914, and the more recent A's "big four" of Grove, Walberg, Mahaffey and Earnshaw.

New York Giant fans always will swear by the starry collection that pitched for McGraw in 1911-13. On that staff were Christy Mathewson, Rube Marquard, Leon Ames, Doc Crandall, "Hooks" Wilts, Jeff Tesreau and Al Demaree.

Possibly the greatest crew of the last decade was that of the Yankees in 1921, '22 and '23, with Waite Hoyt, Herb Pennock, Bob Shawkey, Joe Bush, Sam Jones and Carl Mays.

Memphis Golfer Triumphs Over Sanders Of Childress, 7 And 6, To Succeed Billy Holmes As Champ Of Association

CHILDRESS, June 15. (AP)—Regnal Greenhaw of Memphis, Texas, won the Green Belt golf tournament here this afternoon by defeating C. P. Sanders, jr., of Childress, 7 and 6.

The match ended on the 30th hole of the scheduled 36-hole contest after the 19-year old winner took four consecutive holes. He scored six under par for the 30 holes.

In the morning round he came in five under par. He sank a 5-yard approach shot on No. 1 to win that hole and followed up by taking the next two holes. He was never down at any time during the match.

The afternoon round began ragged for both players, with their drives in traps. They tied with fives on No. 1, one stroke over par. On No. 2 they each took fours. They tied on No. 3 with par fives.

Greenhaw won No. 4 with a four, while Sanders took a five. They tied No. 5 with fours. On No. 6 Sanders was short, losing with a five and going to five down.

Birdie Is Conceded

On the seventh hole Greenhaw's second shot landed in a trap. Sanders' second stuck on the green and Greenhaw conceded Sanders a birdie three. Greenhaw was over the bunker beyond the green on No. 8 with his second. He took a five, losing the hole to Sanders' par four.

Sanders missed a six-foot putt on No. 9 to lose with a five. Greenhaw sank his put from the edge of the green. On No. 10 Sanders was short again on a short putt. Greenhaw won with a birdie four.

Mrs. Lee Wilson To Clash With Santone Women Today For Municipal Golf Title

DALLAS, June 15. (AP)—Mrs. J. Lee Wilson and Mrs. J. A. Durborrow of San Antonio will meet over the 36-hole route tomorrow for the championship of the Texas Women's Municipal golf association.

They advanced to the finals today with close decisions, Mrs. Wilson being forced to the nineteenth hole to win, 1 up, from Mrs. H. V. Cardona of Fort Worth and Mrs. Durborrow eliminating Mrs. E. H. Wolfarth of Dallas 2 up. The Dallas player had led, 1 up, at the turn.

Ford Company Defeats News Hounds, 19-3

Second League May Be Formed At Hilton Hotel Meeting Tonight; Chevrolet To Clash With City Hall Today

The Avalanche-Journal hired hands were of the opinion late yesterday that they would henceforth confine their extra curricula activities to walking around the block or gazing at the moon—anything but playing baseball, even the soft ball variety.

Full of confidence and cockiness, the Reporters hurried out to the ball diamond in a rush, and came home in a stupor, having been taught a playground lesson by Mancil Hall's Lubbock Auto company team. The lesson cost a ball game, 19 to 3, and put the Reporters in a tie for second place in the standnigs with Meinecke Bros., West Texas Gas and the loser of today's game between the City Hall force and Kuykendall Chevrolet company.

Formation of a second soft ball baseball league will be discussed tonight when representatives of interested firms or clubs meet at 8:15 o'clock on the mezzanine floor of Hotel Hilton. Since organization of the first league of eight clubs, there has been agitation for a second league.

It was the first league game for either team, and followed two practice games between the teams in which the scoring was reversed, which is the only consolation the Newsies get.

With W. E. Lavender turning in a fine pitching performance and the Reporters hitting the ball into somebody's hand every time they batted, the Ford salesmen had a fine day.

The lineups:

City Hall and Kuykendall Chevrolet meet this afternoon at 6:15 o'clock at the Fair Park field.

Lubbock Country Club Is Planning Big Times For Invitation Joust July 1

Golf Is Just One Of The Attractions At Tourney

The annual invitation tournament at the Lubbock Country club will be held July 1 to 4. Golf will be played the four days on one of West Texas' most beautiful golf courses, and arrangements have been made to conduct a swimming meet and tennis meet for the contestants who desire to compete.

Other events will include a barbecue and horse show at the country club grounds at 7:00 p. m. July 3 and a tournament dance at Hotel Lubbock following the banquet, on the first night.

In golf there will be a championship flight of 32 and as many other flights of 32 as the entry list will justify. Valuable trophies will be awarded the medalist, winners and runner-up in each regular and consolation flight.

Amateurs Only

Quoting John Edmisson, chairman of the tournament: "This tournament has been especially designed to entertain the average golfer as well as the sub-par shooter, and swimming and tennis events have been arranged for those who are interested.

The tournament is open to amateurs only and the fee is $2.00, which includes every event that has been planned for the tournament.

The program is as follows: 18 holes qualifying may be played either June 30 or July 1 (entries will be received up to 3 p. m. July 1); first and second rounds in all flights July 2; quarter-finals and semi-finals July 3; and finals Sunday July 4. The finals in the championship flight will be a tour of 36 holes.

Other Prizes

Prizes other than the ones mentioned will be offered players scoring the most pars and birdies, and winners in the swimming and tennis events.

The committees for the tournament are as follows: John Edmisson, chairman of the tournament; ticket committee, F. M. "Doodle" Bowen, chairman, Lewis Price, and W. D. Girand, Jr.; swimming, Charles C. Crenshaw; tennis, Royce Waters, chairman, "Windy" Watkins and Frazier McCrummen; Calcutta pool, Jo Dick Slaughter; and prizes, Spencer Wells, chairman, Lee Jones and Ross McWhorter.

IT is pretty bad when a man won't play golf, even on the ladder system. From all reports it not only happens at the Meadowbrook but also at the C. C. Carl Nail tried to get W. B. Kelly (who is above him on the ladder) to play him yesterday afternoon, but Kelly didn't show up — come on Kelly, give the boy a chance to take a good beating from your sticks.

The same thing happened at the Country club—Edgar Doherty was pushed down—in a foursome play to fifth place — then he tried to play Sid Thrash but Sid being "out-of-town" couldn't compete. So yesterday afternoon Edgar Doherty, Cotton McAfee, Jo Dick Slaughter and Johnnie Edmisson (who happened to have one of those "business calls" on the fifth hole when Cotton was 3 under par) took a skip over Sid. The results, Edgar is back at number one post, Jo Dick is ni second, Cotton is third and after Johnnie's "business call"—they put him in fifth.

THERE is quite a turmoil at the Meadowbrook; the ladder supervisor — namely "Tosh" — doesn't know what to do with Clint Bussey and Manson Allen — they belong among the first four but by all rights they should be started at the bottom and work up from there. Anyway, the "high-ups" have decided to work the first five into a foursome and threesome—to decide where to place these "unfortunates". You would think "unfortunates" if you could see their brand of golf.

The caddy tournament at the club has been finished and Truman Bradshaw won the highest honors with Rufus Bradshaw second and Guy Minatra third. Now they are ready for the challenge from the Meadowbrook—the date can be set at anytime.

Moreland Wins Way To Finals With Goldman

Gus Overcomes Jinx To Defeat Dennis Lavender In Semi-Final; Goldman Beats O'Hara Watts To Gain Final Tilt

BY BILL PARKER
Associated Press Sports Writer

DALLAS, June 15—Gus Moreland, Texas champion, and David "Spec" Goldman, defending champion, will compete tomorrow in a 36-hole match for the ninth annual Dallas Country club invitation championship. The two Dallasites met last year in the 36-hole finals of the Trans-Mississippi where Moreland won, one up.

Moreland rid himself of a jinx today when he defeated Dennis Lavender of Dallas, one up, 19 holes. It was the first time in Moreland's golf career he had defeated Lavender. In this tournament last year, Lavender vanquished Moreland.

Goldman Features Birdies

Goldman survived semifinal competition by coming home with a rush of birdies and pars to defeat O'Hara Watts of Dallas, former Southwest conference champion, one up. One down through the 12th, Goldman squared the match at the 14th and then went on to win.

In the quarterfinals today, Goldman eliminated Jack Jackson of Dallas, 3 and 2. O'Hara Watts beat Charles Dexter of Dallas, 4 and 3. Lavender beat Reynolds Smith, Dallas champion, 3 and 1. Moreland trimmed Jack Tinnin of Paris 2 and 1. Tinn'n had Moreland two down at the sixth, but Gus rallied and shot a 66 for the seventeen holes he played. He chipped in for a birdie at the 17th to end the match.

Scout Camp Is Well Attended

Fifty-Five Boys And About 20 Leaders Are Represented At Annual Camp Being Staged At Camp Post

Fifty-five boys and about 20 leaders representing 10 Boy Scout troops in four South Plains cities are attending an annual South Plains Area council camp which opened officially late Wednesday at Camp Post, near Post, D. T. Jennings, area executive and camp director, said here Thursday afternoon.

The camp has more leaders than it had last year, he added. Camping on a troop basis having proved satisfactory on trial last season, this year's camp is organized in that way.

Works On Chart

Executive Jennings was working Thursday on a score-chart to be used in judging troops to determine the winner of the McMillan trophy, a silver loving cup posted by W. G. McMillan of Lubbock, now president of the council, when he was camp committee chairman, for the troop having the best camping unit at the annual encampment.

Lubbock, Post, Brownfield, and Lamesa are represented at this year's camp. Troops 22 of Lamesa and No. 4 of Lubbock tied for the trophy last year.

Convicts Fear Beating Upon Return To Kansas Prison; Call A Reporter In Dallas To Confess Bank Robbery

DALLAS, June 15. (AP) — Billie Woods and Clifford Dopson, two of 11 convicts who escaped from the Kansas state prison at Lansing Memorial Day, told a newspaperman they summoned to their cell today that they had robbed a bank at Forgue, Okla., of $1,500 on either June 6 or 7 in their flight from Kansas to Texas.

Officers who checked their story, however, expressed belief that the men referred to Prague, Okla.

Hope To Break Trip

Both convicts expressed the hope that their trip back to Kansas would be broken in Oklahoma.

"We plead guilty to bank robbery at Forgue," Woods said. "This confession is no sham. We can easily be identified. We are afraid they will beat us to death when we get back to the Kansas prison and that is the reason we are willing to admit this bank robbery job, in the hope they will take us from the train at Muskogee when we go through there tonight."

Scoop Up $1,500

Woods said he and Dopson tied three persons whom they had kidnaped to a tree as they approached Forgue, went into the bank and scooped up $1,500 from the counter.

The convicts were placed in jail here while their prison guards slept. They left Junction, Tex., late yesterday with their prisoners.

Christine Owens Is Winner Of Contest In Lynn County

TAHOKA, June 15 (Special)—With a score of 920 points out of a possible 1,000 Miss Christine Owens of the Edith 4-H girls club won first place in the bedroom improvement contest, Miss El Fleda Harrison, county demonstration agent, announces.

Miss Mollie Cato, Morgan club, with 906 points was second and Miss Myrna Hester of Draw and Miss Loree Barnes of Wells tied for third place. There were five other entries.

Miss Floy Anglin, home economics teacher in the Tahoka schools, was the judge. She complimented the girls on their work.

Building Program Of Navy Outlined

WASHINGTON, June 15 (AP)—A $238,000,000 naval building program intended to put 32 new ships in the water in three years was formally announced today by Secretary Swanson.

President Roosevelt had agreed to allocate the funds out of the $3,300,000,000 public works appropriation and "is anxious to have the work done as soon as possible," Swanson said.

The program: 20 destroyers of which 16 will be in the 1,500-ton class and four in the 850 class.

Two aircraft carriers not exceeding 20,000 tons.

Four 10,000-ton, six-inch cruisers.

Four submarines.

Two gunboats for Chinese waters.

Campaign Damage Suit Is Transferred On Thursday

FORT WORTH, June 15. (AP) — The $100,000 damage suit of Minnie Zapalac against Ernest Alexander, campaign manager last year for former Governor Sterling, growing out of campaign literature alleged to have been circulated on the famous Langhorn case, was transferred to Tarrant county on plea of privilege today.

The case originally was filed in Fayette county and the motion to transfer was filed in ninety-sixth district court here.

The literature was alleged to have given an account of the famous case at LaGrange in which the death penalty of William Langhorn, convicted of criminal assault and murder, was commuted by Governor Ferguson during a previous administration.

Danger In This Sport

WHILE bicycling might ordinarily be called a beneficially healthy sport it also may be called a dangerous one unless care is exercised by the riders and by those who make our laws.

There have been several serious accidents in Dallas—accidents which came on the heels of the bicycling craze that now has hit Lubbock. No one has been killed in Dallas yet, but officials have expressed surprise that a tragedy has not been included in the mishaps and have moved to make the pedaling sport safer for those who indulge in it.

Laws have been passed and are being enforced calling upon bicyclists to carry head and tail lights for night riding and no excuses are being accepted.

"Ride all you want to", say Dallas officials, "but don't take a chance on hurting yourself—or the other fellow."

Bicycling hasn't reached the dangerous point here yet but it is daily becoming more popular, thus offering more threat.

Sooner or later, someone is liable to be seriously hurt—if not killed outright.

Lubbock officialdom will do well to keep a sharp lookout over the cycling situation and be ready to make safety moves as soon as they are needed.

The craze isn't likely to last long—but it may last long enough to cause trouble for hapless riders.

MUST CUT BIG SALARIES

The Reconstruction Finance corporation has laid down the rule that corporations to which it makes loans must reduce excessive salaries paid to their executives or prove that they are not excessive.

This was announced in connection with a loan of $23,200,000 made to the Southern Pacific company. Reductions ranging from 10 to 60 per cent in salaries of executives of that company were ordered and accepted.

"While the Southern Pacific railroad loan is the first in which these salary reductions have been required," said Chairman Jones of the corporation, "it will be the policy of the corporation to impose similar conditions in all future loans to railroads or other corporations paying excessive salaries."

The corporation will require that the cuts remain in effect until the loans are repaid or until the corporations meet fixed charges out of revenues.

The policy is just and sound from a business standpoint. The lower-paid workers of most railroads and other corporations have been cut drastically. The executives also in many cases have had their salaries reduced, but many still are receiving what would be regarded as big pay even in normally prosperous times. These should be brought more into conformity with the wage-cut plans that have been applied to the ordinary workers. If a corporation needs to go to the federal agency for funds, it should first have effected all reasonable economies and these should include salary-reductions for the highly paid executives. To ask aid while paying excessive salaries would be following an unsound principle.

The reconstruction corporation has acted wisely in inaugurating the policy just announced.

TO WIPE OUT DEFICIT

The public will be excusable if it remains a little skeptical of the prediction made by J. C. O'Mahoney, first assistant postmaster general, that the post office department will become a self-sustaining "business unit" in the fiscal year 1934.

Similar optimistic forecasts have been heard before, but the department has been in the red so long and despite, at times, sincere efforts to correct this situation it seems that only a miracle could place it on a self-sustaining basis. Mr. O'Mahoney is in charge of economy plans relating to the department. He declined to reveal how he expects the savings to be effected, but appeared to be confident of the department's ability to become financially independent.

This, he said also, would be accomplished without impairing service to the public.

Estimates of the current year deficit, with more than a month yet to go, are about $125,000,000. Wiping out of this is contemplated in the department's present plans.

The country will await hopefully fulfillment of Mr. O'Mahoney's prediction. Such an accomplishment as that forecast would be one of major importance in the national government.

The National Whirligig

The News Behind The News

WASHINGTON
By Paul Mallon

PRESIDENT ROOSEVELT has a neat way of making a defeat appear to be a victory. That is the kind of generalship he exercised on the Veterans cuts and tariff revision.

From the public announcements you would judge the president had again compromised congress into submission. The true seriousness of the revolt was glossed over by both sides. They were both afraid the country would be disturbed at the news that congress at last was out of hand.

So a deal was worked out inside whereby Mr. Roosevelt got credit for winning and congress got largely what it wanted.

Mr. Roosevelt was largely responsible for his Veterans troubles.

He had won a victory in the senate when they limited him to 25 per cent reductions instead of 15 per cent. He thought he could do better than that. When he tried he found how deep-rooted was the congressional opposition.

The storm had been gathering for weeks. For some reason the veterans held congress and not the president responsible for their reductions. Few wrote to the president to protest his stand. Everyone apparently told the congressmen what was going to happen to them at the next election because they permitted Mr. Roosevelt to make the cuts.

That is the reason they became so excited. They were fighting for their political lives.

TARIFFS: The tariff readjustment program was handled off-stage without getting into the headlines. A better job was done on it.

Mr. Roosevelt casually announced he would not ask for power to adjust tariffs because he wanted to get congress out of town as soon as possible.

The fact is that house leaders told Mr. Roosevelt he had better not bring up that subject. They whispered in the presidential ear that they could not promise passage of any kind of a tariff resolution. They thought the odds were against them.

Mr. Roosevelt therefore made a graceful virtue of the necessity and forgot the matter.

You may recall that is the same thing which happened on war debts. The president was to have asked authority from congress to conduct negotiations. He found he could not get it through congress and never mentioned the subject.

DOUGLAS: Blame for these veterans' mistakes is being heaped upon the head of Budget Director Douglas. That is because he had more to do with making the general cuts than anyone else.

What heppened backstage was this: Douglas started working out the Roosevelt economy program last January. He went to the veterans administration council and said in a general way what the new administration wanted. The council worked the program out for him.

The Veterans Administrator Hines had a veterans cuts program worked up for Mr. Hoover last summer. This was used only as a basis. Apparently Hines had little to do with the final decision. He is a Republican hold-over.

The natural thing to do now would be to throw most of the blame on Hines and gently ease him out. That may be done.

* * *

NOTES: The date publicly fixed by the administration leaders as a deadline for congressional adjournment was last Saturday but the real deadline was because the debt payments are due. . . . There is no danger of Senators Long and Robinson going into each other's states for political attacks. . . . They just talk that way when they become angry. . . . Long was right when he said: "That man in the White House is a real salesman. Every time I go there he sells me a bill of goods. I don't like to go." . . . And that comes from a man who made a living selling soap and still does considerable selling.

NEW YORK
By James McMullin

NEW YORK insiders convinced themselves that the Industrial Recovery bill is better than its alternatives. It contains the only remedy for a number of shaky situations which are likely to fall apart if they aren't cured soon. The best opinion holds there is no acceptable substitute for government strong-arm influence in curbing further disorder.

It is especially vital in relation to reemployment. Leading companies in several key industries are willing to shorten hours and brace wages providing their competitors do the same. Otherwise nothing doing. And the claim is that no degree of unanimity is possible without external force.

The choice of Alfred Sloan, Walter Teagle and Gerard Swope to help administer the bill from the industrialists' side would be significant in three ways.

First, it would keep the Morgans completely out of the picture. Sloan works with Du Pont interests and Teagle with Rockefeller. Neither of these has any love for the Morgans. Swope used to have close contact with the Morgans but relations are a lot less cordial than they were two years ago.

Second, these men are not likely to get tangled in bitter disputes with labor representatives. They have shown more vision in dealing with labor problems in their own companies than most business executives.

Third, all three of them regard industry control as a temporary expedient to be thrown in the ashcan when the emergency is over. Therefore they can be expected to work in that direction.

STORES: Experts get more encouragement out of the way retail business is holding up than any other factor of recovery.

Five New York department stores did better business in May than they did in the same month a year ago.

They will feel their way carefully on rising retail prices according to consumer demand. They have laid in enough low-cost inventories so they don't have to rush increases.

Improvement in retail business is not confined to New York. Department stores in the Atlanta, Minneapolis, Dallas and San Francisco Federal Reserve districts all show remarkable gains for May.

Chain and mail order stores are doing better, too. J. C. Penney & Co. has just shown its best monthly gain in four years and Montgomery Ward in three.

* * *

HINES: General Frank T. Hines of the Veterans' Bureau will eventually accept the nomination as goat for mistakes in administering the Economy Act. It will be cheap for him at the price. He will keep his job for a year and will then draw an appointment as brigadier-general (which he has wanted for years) so he can retire with pay.

EXPLANATION OF YESTERDAY'S CARTOON

THE NESTOR OF CHURCHES

St. Martin's Church in Canterbury is considered the oldest still existing church in Christendom. According to Bede "there was near the city a church built of old in honor of St. Martin while Romans still inhabited Britain." The Romans left Britain early in the first decade of the 5th century. In historical times, Bertha, wife of Ethelbert, King of Kent, and granddaughter of Clovis, Emperor of the Franks, used this building for her devotions in 597. This would indicate a record of over 1,300 years of uninterrupted religious service within the ancient edifice. Its walls have been hallowed by the personal presence of St. Augustine. Its squat tower, narrow body and weather-beaten surface, certainly look its great age.

A RECORD CHEW

The late Daniel L. Hart, who died in February, 1932, after being mayor of Wilkes Barre, Pa., for four terms (14 years), chewed a special brand of expensive cigar for 40 years. He acquired this habit when a newspaper man, and continued the curious cigar "nursing" without a break for four decades, although he never drew a single puff of smoke.

Injunction On Beer Refused

Federal Judge Refuses To Restrain Kansas Officials In Interference With Sale Of 3.2 Per Cent Beer

KANSAS CITY, Kas., June 15 (AP)—Federal Judge John C. Pollock today denied an injunction to restrain Kansas officials from interfering with the sale of 3.2 per cent beer.

The veteran federal jurist said he assumed state courts would interpret state laws in a fashion which would bring about no conflict with federal statutes.

He first asked if a motion to dismiss and a ruling on the application for an injunction would be included in the same decision without protest. The attorneys gave agreement.

Judge Pollock then said he would sustain the motion of the state to dismiss the injunction suit which would permit sale of 3.2 per cent beer, and at the same time denied the injunction.

"I am not inclined to think a suit can be maintained in this court," Judge Pollock said. "It would be entirely out of line for this court to say to a state that it cannot prosecute anyone whether they are guilty or not."

Wife Of Mattern Showing Anxiety

WALLA WALLA, Wash., June 15 (AP)—Mrs. Jimmie Mattern's stiff upper lip weakened today and she revealed outwardly for the first time keen anxiety for the safety of her husband. Word was lacking of his progress on the hazardous flight between Siberia and Nome.

"Oh, my, but that's a long time," she said when informed of the elapsed time. "And you say there has been no word at all?"

Mrs. Mattern has felt the stretch from Siberia to Nome was the most treacherous of the world flight but she found encouragement in the report of a 1,000-foot ceiling and only light winds over Bering Sea.

"Jimmie often has navigated with much less ceiling than that," she observed, "and he wouldn't be bothered by a six mile wind."

BANKER DIES

COMANCHE, June 15 (AP)—John B. Chilton, 73, for many years president of the Comanche National bank which he helped organize, died today after a heart attack. Funeral services will be held tomorrow. He was survived by his widow and two sons, William C. Chilton of Comanche and J. B. Chilton, jr., of Encinal.

Herd Of 500 Cattle Moved To A Yoakum County Ranch

BROWNFIELD, June 15 (Special)—A herd of 500 head of cattle belonging to Uyless Sawyer, of Cross Roads, N. M., was recently moved from his ranch there to the E. A. Graham ranch just over the Terry county line in Yoakum county, west of here.

Grass in New Mexico was becoming short and Mr. Sawyer decided to move 500 head as his ranch was well stocked. It took Mr. Sawyer several days with his ranch hands to move the herd overland to their new location.

Police Urge That Lights Be Attached To Local Bicycles

Coincident with an increase in bicycle riding here, the Lubbock police department Thursday asked that head and tail-lights be burned on the wheels after nightfall, chiefly for protection of the riders themselves.

A state law requires such illumination, police said, and two lights are required on bicycles in many cities. Two bicycle riding academies, renting the wheels, have been opened here to take advantage of the fad which reached Lubbock after being revived in the east and on the west coast.

Inhaling Of Poison Ivy Dust Is Fatal For Fort Worth Man

FORT WORTH, June 15. (AP) — Internal poison ivy infection contracted from the dust which came from a hay grinding machine resulted in the death yesterday of S. W. Munden, 43, who lived near here.

Munden, who operated a feed store was running alfalfa through a hay grinding machine. Poison ivy, which had become mixed with the alfalfa, was ground in the machine and particles of it were thrown out in the dust which Munden inhaled.

Planes, Boats And Gunners Of National Guard Taking Part In Hunt For Three Men Who Killed Officers

COLUMBIA, Mo., June 15 (AP)—Airplanes, government boats on the Missouri river and national guard machine gunners and artillerymen today joined the search for three men who killed Sheriff Roger Wilson of Boone county and Sgt. Ben Booth of the state patrol in the outskirts of Columbia yesterday, 45 minutes after a bank robbery at Mexico, Mo.

Meanwhile, doubt was expressed at Mexico that the robbers who took $1628.44 from the Farmers and Merchants bank were the same men who killed Wilson and Booth. The officers were slain when they sought to question the fleeing men.

Among the airmen who joined the search was Maj. Phil Love, former airmail associate of Col. Charles A. Lindbergh, who set out from St. Louis in a plane carrying an expert observer and a 2-way radio.

Course In Hand-Weaving Is To Be Offered At College

Texas Technological college, where a hand-loom has been developed for weaving wool cloth, will offer a course in hand-weaving July 17 to 29, classes meeting from 9 a. m. to noon and 1:30 to 4:30 p. m. The fee charged each student will be $5 or 25 pounds of raw wool.

Prof C. D. Brandt, head of the textile department, has outlined the course, The Toreador, student newspaper, reports, to embrace both lectures and laboratory work. The latter will include instruction in setting up and adjusting hand-looms, and weaving with them.

As it is a non-credit course, virtually any person is eligible to enter.

Public Marriage Is Planned Here

Lubbock merchants will sponsor a marriage ceremony to be conducted at 9 o'clock next Tuesday morning in the Lindsey theater, it was announced Thursday.

The Rev. R. C. Campbell, pastor of First Baptist church, is to officiate at the wedding, which is to be real, but the names of the principals will not be revealed until just preceding the marriage, according to the announcement. The wedding ceremony is to be semi-formal. The merchants are to furnish the bride and groom with their home furnishings and wedding clothing. The stage of the theater will be suitably decorated for the occasion.

State Delegation At Nation's Capital; $200,000,000 Is First Sum Asked To Furnish Work In Area

worth of tentative projects had been received as ready to go ahead since the delegation came to Washington for yesterday's relief conference between Hopkins and state relief officials. The Texas program would embrace a wide range of works, including numerous small local-help projects, as well as such well-known proposals as Red river and Brazos flood control and irrigation projects, and in the neighborhood of 8,000,000 each for municipal works in Dallas, Houston and Fort Worth.

"In order to assist the federal administrator of public works to carry out that part of the act which requires him to complete a comprehensive program of public works, the Texas commission is conducting a survey of potential projects in that state and will turn that survey over to the federal administrator when it is complete," said E. J. Hussion, vice-chairman of the delegation.

Conducted On Schedule

"This survey is being conducted on a schedule which it is hoped to finally complete by June 24.

"Surveys involving the possible expenditure of nearly $200,000,000 are being submitted to the federal administrator today, out of which it is hoped may come acceptable applications for a large percentage of this sum. It is believed our surveys will finally disclose a total of more than $400,000,000 in potential projects in Texas.

"The Texas commission created by the last session of the legislature to coordinate federal remedial measures in that state has volunteered its services to the federal administrator of public works and will gladly assume any functions requested of it; and, in the efforts to extend the benefits of the act to the entire state, will assist such of those as request and require assistance."

Westbrook explained that he would talk over with Hopkins the situation in Texas where legislative provision for state appropriation or relief cannot be made until a special session in August, and needs of the state for allocations meanwhile out of the half of the five hundred million dollars relief appropriation which may be distributed as direct grants without requiring state expenditures of $3 to $1 granted by the federal government.

Ballard Case

arguments. Three state and three defense attorneys are to speak. The prosecutors are District Attorney Daniel A. Blair, Burton S. Burks, his assistant, and T. C. Hutchings, a special prosecutor of Mt. Pleasant. The defense attorneys are W. W. Campbell and G. E. Lockhart of Lubbock and James P. Stinson of Abilene.

Two doctors, Dr. J. B. Pirtle of Anton and Dr. D. D. Cross of Lubbock, were first offered by the defense yesterday morning. Doctor Pirtle told of prescribing medicines for Ballard. Doctor Cross described symptoms of pancreatitis, of which previous testimony showed Ballard had been suffering, and also symptoms of strychnine poisoning.

Cross Is On Stand

Doctor Cross, after examining a prescription of medicine which Mr. Ballard had taken, said that sodium bromide and sodium salicylate in the medicine would cause the strychnine in the medicine to precipitate. He said that last doses in a bottle would contain more strychnine, unless the bottle had been shaken, according to the druggist's instructions. The doctor testified that strychnine poisoning victims invariably extended their arms in convulsions.

Other defense witnesses were Robert Newell, a farmer, W. O. Wright of Sudan, and O. V. Alexander, Shallowater store keeper, all of whom testified Ballard had been in ill health; Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Hindman of Spur, whose testimony was that the Ballards had had no domestic difficulties in 1924 and 1925; and Mrs. Bettie Nowlin, sister of the defendant, of Abilene.

Five state witnesses were used to rebut testimony by Autrey Ballard that his father's death was peaceful. All were of some relation to the Ballard family.

Mrs. Oleta Reynolds of Shallowater testified Autrey Ballard on the night his father died said his father's death "was something awful, he died in convulsions, and you could have heard him breathing to the road." Similar testimony was given by G. C. Jenkins, Mrs. R. A. Ballard, Lora Ballard of DeLeon, and Mrs. C. C. Reynolds.

MARKET REPORTS

Stocks

WALL STREET REPORT

BY JOHN L. COOLEY
Associated Press Financial Writer

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—Stocks shied today at the sight of a rapidly rising dollar and took their worst tumble of the spring bull market.

London reports that dollar stabilization, on a temporary basis, was nearing the stage of definite agreement, sharply deflated speculative enthusiasm which had been based to large degree on uncertainties surrounding the position of our currency against others, particularly the British pound. Heavy offerings of shares swamped the stock exchange in the last half hour, bringing losses of 1 to 7 points to scores of recent favorites. The net decline in the standard statistics-Associated Press composite, 5.8 points, was the largest this year. Sales totaled 4,923,340 shares.

Wall street's interest centered exclusively, it seemed, in the reports from London. "Pegging" the dollar, say around $4.05, would mean a discount of about 15 per cent; it would also mean that the decline in our exchange, which has so stimulated speculative imaginations, would come to a halt. Hence traders with fat profits hastened to execute selling orders and prices slid rapidly, touching off bundles of "stop loss" instructions.

Cotton

NEW ORLEANS REPORT

NEW ORLEANS, June 15. (AP)—Cotton, after ruling erratic and nervous in morning trading, turned decidedly weak in the afternoon on lower stocks, easier wheat, continued good weather in the belt and much liquidation by tired longs and closed near the bottom 35 to 39 points net lower.

The market opened easy with Liverpool cables slightly lower than due. Manchester reported here showed no change to 4 points decline but prices soon dropped sharply on numerous over night selling orders and selling based on some traders unfavorable views of the process tax connected with the leasing of cotton acreage.

The market became quite weak in the late trading owing to continued good weather in the belt a slump in wheat and a sharp break in stocks. Prices declined to 9.10 for October and 9.26 for December, down 38 points from the previous close. There was a slight rally at the end on some covering and October closed at 9.13 down 35 points net and December at 9.28 down 36 points net.

Liverpool is due on New Orleans tomorrow 13 to 14 penny points down.

Port receipts 9,172, for week 54,080, for season 8,560,072, last season 9,892,875. Exports 84,496, for week 137,417, for season 7,421,877, last season 8,042,006. Port stock 3,638,647, last year 3,687,573. Combined shipboard stock at New Orleans, Galveston and Houston 106,937, last year 76,446. Spot sales at southern markets 6,718, last year 2,496.

NEW YORK REPORT

NEW YORK, June 15. (AP)—A decline of about $2 a bale in cotton today was attributed chiefly to late weakness in the stock market and uncertainty as to acreage reduction plans in Washington.

Stop orders were uncovered on the late decline which carried October to 9.10 or 43 points net lower and 58 points below the peak of the recent bull movement. That delivery closed at 9.13, with the general market closing easy at net declines of 38 to 44 points.

The opening was 4 to 6 points lower and active months soon showed net losses of 17 to 19 points under liquidation and scattered selling.

The relatively steady showing of the early Liverpool cables was ignored, and the attention of the trade was focused on overnight press reports from Washington that a processing tax would be imposed on cotton under the provisions of the agricultural adjustment act.

Rallies of several points followed the early decline on trade buying and covering, but prices broke in the late trading under active selling.

July dropped to 9.85 and December to 9.25 with closing quotations at about the lowest of the day on most positions.

arillo; Mrs. Noyes Darling Smith, chairman protem, Austin; Mrs. J. E. Watkins, Henderson; F. L. Henderson, Bryan and Thomas T. Garrard, Lubbock, member of the original board and Ernest Alexander, Fort Worth; W. A. Morrison, Cameron and R. S. Bowers, Houston. Mr. Bowers advised Mr. Washer in a letter received yesterday that he might not attend here as he has a law case on hand.

L. A. Woods, state superintendent of public instruction and secretary and ex-officio member of the board is also here. Miss Aline Law, an employe of the state department of education and assigned to the state board of education is also here.

To Attend Program

Following the morning session, the board will attend the feeder's day program at Texas Technological college at noon. Other buildings on the campus will be visited. Following the afternoon session the board will be guests of the home economics division of Texas Tech at a dinner tonight in the home economics building. Tonight a dance is to be given by the Trailers Club in the Uptown Dance palace.

A luncheon is scheduled for Saturday noon for board members.

Besides the board, a large number of state school men are here or expected to arrive this morning. The board hopes to complete its work Saturday.

Last night and yesterday afternoon many officials of Texas Tech and other school men, visited with members of the board to welcome them to Lubbock. The sessions are to be held in the Hotel Lubbock today and tomorrow.

Prime Minister MacDonald was obviously pleased, as were the American delegates, at the early conclusion of the general debate.

Secretary of State Hull, chief of the American delegation, is "more hopeful of substantial progress' by the conference than he has previously been, he told newspapermen tonight.

Grains

FORT WORTH REPORT

FORT WORTH, June 15. (AP)—Good demand for all offerings was reported on the Fort Worth cash grain market Thursday. Prices failed to follow the full decline in contract values at Chicago. Heaviest receipts of new crop wheat to date were reported.

Prices ranged as follows, basis car loads on track at Fort Worth freight paid to destination, delivered Texas Gulf ports, export rate, or Texas common points. Wheat, No. 1 hard 53 3-4@54 3-4. Barley No. 3 nominally 45@46; No. 3 nominally 44@45; sorghums No. 2 milo per 100 pounds 1.15@1.16; No. 3 milo 1.10@1.11. No. 2 kaffir per 100 pounds 1.07@1.10; 3 kaffir 1.05@1.06.

Delivered Texas common points or group three: Corn No. 2 mixed 59@60; No. 3 white 60@61 1-2; No. 2 yellow 59 1-2@60 1-2.

Delivered Texas common points: Oats, No. 2 red 37@38; No. 3 red 36@37.

CHICAGO REPORT

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—Widely divergent views about prospective maximum processing taxes and bonuses to farmers Aug. 1 led to turbulent grain markets today and lower prices for wheat.

A collapse of 3 cents a bushel in wheat values took place at one stage because of uncertainty as to details of proposed exchange were also an unsettling factor, but transient wheat price rallies were numerous owing to predictions of a new heat wave and on account of trade assertions that the ultimate outcome of the tax and bonus plans of the secretary of agriculture would be likely to prove stimulating in the extreme.

Wheat closed nervous, 1 to 1 3-8 under yesterday's finish, corn 1-2 to 3-4 up, oats 1-8 to 1-4 advanced, and provisions varying from 7 cents decline to a rise of 2 cents.

Corn and oats were firm most of the day, dominated by ear of another hot wave. Oats equaled the best prices of the season.

Provisions averaged lower, responsive largely to wheat action.

Closing indemnities: Wheat, July 71 7-8, 72 7-8@73; Sept. 73 5-8@3-4, 73@73 1-8; Dec. 76 5-8@7-8, 80 1-2. Corn, July 43 7-8, 45 3-8; Sept. 46 3-4@7-8, 48 3-4@1-2; Dec. 49 1-2@5-8, 51 5-8.

tial payment, understood to be $180,000. However, Assistant Secretary Moley, who talked with Minister Veverka, was understood to have held out for an even $200,000. The total Czechslovakian installment was $1,500,000.

Finland, the only one of the 13 debtor nations to meet its obligation in full, notified the government it was paying its $148,592 in silver.

French In Default

Ambassador De Laboulaye presented the French government's formal decision to default for a second time. The French payment due today was $40,738,000 and last December the Paris government declined to meet an installment of $19,000,000.

The note which the diplomat handed to Acting Secretary Phillips reiterated the statements then made that the debts should be scaled down to the present level of reparations, about ten cents on the dollar.

Ambassador Patek of Poland brought a notification of default. His country's payment due was $3,559,000. The Warsaw government was already in default to the extent of $4,427,000.

Belgium Is Behind

Belgium several days ago made known informally that she would be unable to meet her obligation of $6,382,000, because reparations payments from Germany had virtually stopped. In December the nation declined to pay an installment of $3,125,000 for the same reason.

Among the other nations, Latvia, owing $118,961 and Estonia $284,322, have no diplomatic representatives here and communications between them and the United States are made either through their consular officers in New York or through the American legations in their capitals.

A secretary of the Lithuanian legation notified Mr. Phillips of a default on that country's $132,073 payment.

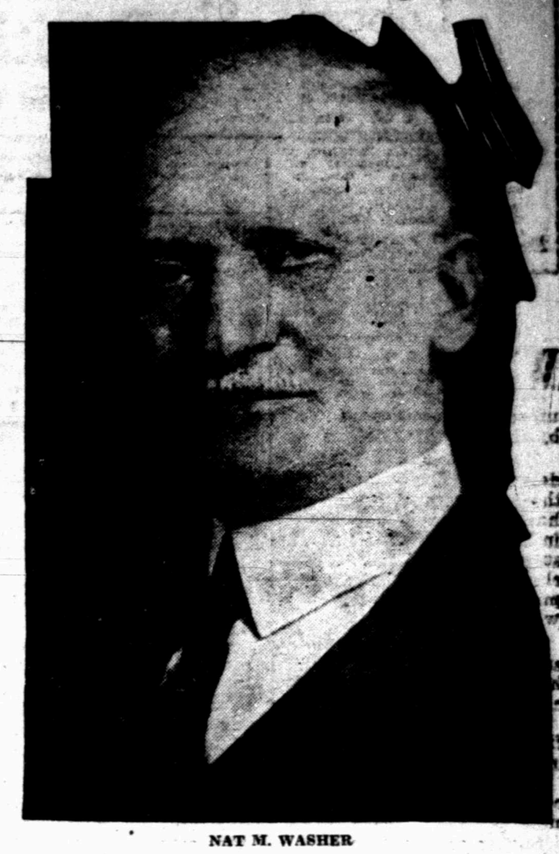

Yugoslavia, owing $275,000, was regarded as certain to default.

Although Minister Davila of Rumania presented a note at the senate department early in the day informing the Washington government his nation would default on its $1,000,000 payment, the legation received a dispatch later from Bucharest saying it had been decided to pay $25,000 on account.

MEXICO CITY, June 15. (AP)—The Mexican presidential train left late today for the Century of Progress exposition in Chicago with the noted $1,000,000 Monte Alban jewel collection and two smaller collections found during the past year.

In charge of the collection was Professor Alfonso Caso, of the Mexican archaelogical department, his two principal assistants, Dr. Daniel De La Borbolla and Martin Bazan, and most of the staff who worked with him at Monte Alban on Oaxaca where the tomb in which the jewels were found was located in January, 1932.

Congress Adjourns Historic Session As Senate Bows To President's Will

than the president would accept.

Back in the house yesterday, the presidential compromise was sustained and the issue thrown back to the senate for another vote. Through long hours of debate, the senators pondered and oratory flowed freely, wrapping itself in flowing words about the last several wars.

In the final voting that came soon after midnight, nine Democratic senators who had voted for the more liberal provisions only yesterday turned back into the presidential fold and recorded themselves for the compromise.

Matter Of Routine

This ended the dispute.

The remainder was but a matter of routine. A messenger took the much discussed bill to the house. Without a record vote the final draft was approved. Speaker Rainey signed it. It went back to the senate. Vice President Garner affixed his name.

The house adopted a resolution calling for sine die adjournment. It went to the senate but Senator Glass (D., Va.), was defending his record from a speech made earlier in the evening by Senator Cutting (R., N.M.), in the veterans debate and a short delay resulted.

Then, adopting the resolution, the senate quit and went home, leaving the house to adjourn after it got word of the adoption of the resolution.

President Roosevelt, remaining up long past his usual bedtime, already had informed leaders of the two houses that they might dispense with the formanity of naming a committee to inform him that they were ready to adjourn.

One other bill besides the independent offices measure still was yet to come down to the White House from Capitol Hill. This had been finished by the senate yesterday while it was waiting for the house to wind up the veterans argument.

The last few days, while words were flowing freely about the woes of former soldiers, had seen some of the most important measures of the entire session clamber past the two supply bills.

Waiting for presidential signature was a railroad measure, vesting in a coordinator the power to make numerous economies in the rail systems in an effort to make them pay; and a bill giving the president power to control industry and launch a $3,300,000,000 public works program in the endeavor to start business to churning again.

A home loan bill, too, had gone down the legislative channels and had been signed into law while the veterans predicament was debated. It set up a two billion dollar organization to aid distressed home owners. There awaited also, the Glass-Steagall banking reform bill with its provisions for insuring bank deposits.

These were but a few of the last minute measures that the extra session had put through. They took their places beside a long roll of statutory dignitaries, many of them, marching into legislative fields that had never been viewed before.

The adjournment, awaited for four days, nevertheless, found well filled galleries in house and senate, awaiting it. Every night since last Saturday many of these spectators had been there, expecting each night to see the gavel fall upon the first session of the seventy-third congress.

Last minute rows over veterans complicated by disputes over the eleventh hour governmental reorganization plan, the industrial bill and the supply bill, had prevented the original adjournment. Most of these were ironed out in the next few days, but in the final rush homeward several times were either left to die in the seclusion of committees or were abandoned openly on the floor.

A resolution by Senator McNary (R., Ore.), seeking to hold up the effectiveness of one part of the president's reorganization order affecting agricultural experimental stations and vocational education—was passed in the senate but died in the house.

A threatened senate filibuster brought the abandonment by senate leaders of a measure requested by the president to allow him to name a non-resident governor of Hawaii.

SHERIFF'S SALE
THE STATE OF TEXAS,
COUNTY OF LUBBOCK.

Notice is hereby given that by virtue of a certain Order of Sale issued out of the Honorable 99th District Court of Lubbock County, on the 29th day of May, 1933, by the Clerk for the sum of One Hundred Ninety-Seven and 2-100 Dollars, and costs of suit, under a Judgment rendered, in favor of Panhandle Construction Company in a certain cause in said Court, No. 5458 and styled Panhandle Construction Company vs. M. S. Acuff and placed in my hands for service I, Tom Abel as Sheriff of Lubbock County, Texas, on the 1st day of June, 1933, levy on certain Real Estate, situated in Lubbock County, Texas, described as follows, to-wit:

Lot No. Nine (9), Block one hundred sixty-eight (168) city of Lubbock, Lubbock County, Texas, and levied upon as the property of M. S. Acuff and that on the first Tuesday in July, 1933, the same being the 4th day of said month, at the Court House, door of Lubbock County, in the City of Lubbock, Texas, between the hours of 10 a. m. and 4 p. m., by virtue of said levy and said Order of Sale, I will sell said above described Real Estate at public vendue, for cash, to the highest bidder, as the property of said M. S. Acuff.

And in compliance with law, I give this notice by publication, in the English language, once a week for three consecutive weeks immediately preceding said day of sale, in the Avalanche-Journal, newspaper published in Lubbock County.

Witness my hand, this 1st day of June, 1933.

TOM ABEL,
Sheriff Lubbock County, Texas.

Suit For $10,000 Damages Filed As Result Of Death

As a result of a collision of a railway motorcar and a motortruck causing the death of Henry Leininger, 62, a railway employe, May 27, 1932, Mrs. Ida Leininger, his widow and administratix of his estate, filed suit in 99th district court Wednesday against the Panhandle and Santa Fe Railway company for $10,000 damages.

The defendant filed an answer, denying the plaintiff's allegations.

Leininger, who had been an employe of the Santa Fe railway 18 years and was receiving $96 a month, operated its water pumpstations at Justiceburg and Dugger, and was en route to Dugger when the collision occurred, his widow's petition states.

The railway is accused of negligence, the plaintiff alleging the track car on which Leininger was riding was not equipped with sufficient brake devices, had insulated wheels so it would not operate block or crossing signals, and a watchman was not at the crossing.

GETS 50 YEARS

COLORADO, June 15. (AP)—Newt Miller has been sentenced to 50 years imprisonment by a district court jury which convicted him of murder for the shooting of N. W. Davis, on April 10, 1932.

Statisticians have figured out that hunting hounds of Santa Barbara county, Cal., ran 10,000 miles in tracking down 26 mountain lions.

TARZAN OF THE APES No. 11

By Edgar Rice Burroughs

In the forest of the table-land a mile back from the ocean old Kerchak the Ape King was on a rampage of rage among his people. The younger and lighter members of his tribe all scattered to the higher tree branches, risking their lives to escape his uncontrolled anger.

The other males scattered in all directions, but not before Kerchak had crushed one between his great foaming jaws. A luckless young female slipped from an insecure hold. With a wild scream he was upon her, striking her viciously with a broken tree limb until her skull was crushed.

Then he spied Kala, returning from a search for food, with her young babe. Ignorant of the state of the King's temper, the shrill warning of her fellows caused her to scamper madly for safety. But Kerchak was close upon her—so close that he had almost grasped her ankle.

She made a furious leap far into space—from one tree to another—made it successfully. But as she grasped the limb of the further tree, the sudden jar loosed the hold of the tiny babe. She saw the little thing hurled—turning, twisting—to the ground 30 feet below.

With a low cry of dismay, Kala rushed to her babe's side, thoughtless now of danger. When she gathered the wee, mangled form to her bosom, life had left it. Nor did Kerchak attempt to molest her. His fit of demoniac rage passed as suddenly as it had seized him.

Oil Industry Is Given Code

Proposal Has Unanimous Approval Of Independent Producers; Submitted To American Petroleum Institute

CHICAGO, June 15. (AP)—A projected code to govern the oil industry was submitted to the American Petroleum Institute today with the unanimous approval of the independent producers.

The code offered by the independents to the producers as a whole, intended to guarantee fair competition under the industrial recovery act, comprehends:

Assurance to labor of the right of collective bargaining.

Control of annual oil production by the president of the United States.

Allotment of production quotas to producer and well by the president.

Drilling new wells limited by presidential decree.

Withdrawal of oil from storage under government control, a maximum of 100,000 barrels daily suggested.

Imports of crude petroleum and products similarly restricted.

Federal limitation of minimum prices.

Exemption of 10 barrel daily wells from restrictions.

The gold mining industry was founded in the British Isles over 2,000 years ago by the Romans, and the metal is still mined in England, Scotland and Wales.

Cowgirls And Even Men Of The Range Now Bow To Dame Fashion's Dictates

Colors, Styles Very Important In All Modern Rodeos

BY HOWARD BARRETT
Central Press Correspondent

SAN ANTONIO.—Dame Fashion has clutched the cattle country with a firm hand. What she shall wear to be always fashionable has become a matter of moment to the girl of the range.

For instance, satins and velvets of the lighter shades will be the thing for Miss Cowgirl in 1933. Black is taboo. If she goes in for trousers and vests of a darker shade than a brilliant red she will be distinctively demi-classe.

The authority for the 1933 fashions for the girls of the saddle, and cowboys, too, for that matter, is none other than Col W. T. Johnson of San Antonio. For the past two years Col. Johnson has held rodeos in the three prize spots of the nation—Madison Square Garden, Chicago stadium and Boston Garden.

Johnson's Word Goes

Those locations, together with the fact that his contract with Madison Square Garden has four years to run and the equally important truth that he will distribute some $100,000 prize money to ambitious bronc-riding cowboys and cowgirls gets him the instant attention of those prospective contestants.

Col. Johnson, since his first venture in rodeos in 1928, has been a stickler for "dressing-up". It's an iron-clad rule that nobody shall compete unless properly attired in cowboy or cowgirl costume.

The rule this year will be even stronger. Johnson has had fashion experts at work. They had reached conclusions, particularly as to colors. And Johnson has made the conclusions final with a decree that cowgirls and cowboys shall observe them.

Color Schemes

For instance, if you are a brunet and wish to be in the height of cowgirl fashion your trousers should be of white, cream, brilliant red, yellow, light blue or tan satin or velvet with a contrasting braid or other decoration along the outer seams of the leg. Sharp-toed boots, usually hand made, are of kid and also should be of the lighter shades. Black is acceptable only for the tie or other ornamentation. Costumes of black do not show well when the wearer is mounted.

Blouse may be any color except black. White or cream-colored silk is preferred.

The cowgirl's thoughts do not run to sable and ermine. She wears a suede vest, preferably of red or tan.

Those Chaps

If you wish to go all the way as a cowgirl you cannot ignore chaps, that woolly covering for the trousers while riding. They are of leather and the outer covering should be of mohair in its natural color. For the ultra-fashionable ostrich feathers are the rage. And a ten-gallon hat, of course. It should be a light gray, almost white.

The rules of fashions apply to horses, too. This year the cowgirl should pay particular attention to that.

If she is ash-blond, then her horse should be ash-blonde with a silvery mane and tail. The platinum blonde gets a silvery gray mount.

Col. Johnson makes provisions for all kinds. A hundred Arabian horses, "paints," of white and brown and white and black are on hand for the brunets and those of brown hair.

Cowboys, Too

Nor are the dictates of rangeland fashion restricted to Miss Cowgirl. The well-dressed cowboy must wear his customary high-heeled boots and they must be well-shined. His trousers should be of brown or gray, with a distinctly visible stripe. The shirt need not be of silk but it should have plenty of color—preferably green, red, blue or yellow with contrasting stripes. He wears the customary neckerchief of bright color and the cowboy hat. There is no restriction as to the crease. Every cattle-growing state has a hat-creasing style of its own, handed down through the years and now a tradition.

Col. Johnson's decree primarily was for the rodeos in the eastern cities. But these draw the outstanding bronc-riding cowgirls and cowboys of the United States and Canada. And what they adopt as the fashion in rangeland garb instantly becomes the fashion for every rider of the range. There is none more meticulous of their regalia than they.

Miss Shelton, San Antonio, Texas, cowgirl, a brunet, finds a horse of contrasting colors to her liking. Miss Lucas, world's champion all-'round cowgirl, of Fort Worth, Texas, wears cream-satin trousers, white silk blouse, beaded light tan suede jacket, gray hat and white boots.

Catholics Are To Meet Here

Bishop R. A. Gerken, Of Amarillo, And Other Leaders Are To Be Here For Services Today And Sunday

The Rt. Rev. Bishop R. A. Gerken of the Amarillo diocese of the Catholic church and ministers from several South Plains towns will be here for services tonight and Saturday morning at St. Joseph's church. Bishop Gerken is archbishop-elect of Santa Fe.

Bishop Gerken will arrive at about 6 o'clock tonight, Father A. E. Robinson of Plainview, Father Charles Dvarak of Littlefield, Father Sheindler of Jayton, and Father Thomas O'Brien of Slaton are expected to be here, said the Rev. Father Gabriel Diamante, Lubbock Catholic minister last night.

Preaches Friday

"His excellency will preach at 7:30 o'clock Friday evening, and the service will be followed by benediction," said Father Diamante. "An informal reception on the lawns of the church then will follow."

Archbishop-elect Gerken will conduct mass at 7 a. m. Saturday, and an hour later he will go to Lamesa, where he will hold a confirmation for a class of 30. There are three persons at Lamesa to be baptised into the church. Bishop Gerken will return to Amarillo Saturday afternoon.

Bishop Gerken is first bishop of the diocese of Amarillo, formed about six years ago. His promotion to the archbishop of Santa Fe came recently, and his successor has not been announced.
