30th Anniversary Of Founding Of Ranger Observed

CITY INCORPORATED, ORGNIZED AS RESULTS OF FABULOUS OIL BOOM

Ranger this year is celebrating its 30th anniversary of the incorporation and formation of a city government and counting its progress following its birth in a stormy oil boom thirty years ago.

Prior to the discovery of oil on October 30, 1917, Ranger had been a community of about 1200 people. But with the coming of oil, the little town was roused from its pleasant orderly way of life and swept into the maddest confusion imaginable. Some authority had to be established so thoughtful citizens set about to get the job done.

The city of Ranger was created by a vote of the people on the third day of April 1919, it having previously been incorporated under the laws of the state of Texas.

Following the incorporation, M. H. Hagaman had been appointed to serve as mayor until an election could be held and M. R. Newnam, now of Longview and father of Morris Newnam of Ranger, and R. M. Davenport, the latter deceased, were named to serve as temporary commissioners. E. N. Dorsey later served with this group.

Prior to the appointment of these men and the incorporation of Ranger, the city which was in the throes of one of the most spectacular oil booms in the history of the oil industry, had been governed by the Chamber of Commerce.

Judge George L. Davenport, now judge of the 91st District Court at Eastland was president of the Chamber of Commerce, and served as the head of Ranger's temporary government.

Other officers of the Chamber of Commerce who served on Ranger's first governing body were J. P. Dreinhofer, deceased, R. R. Patterson, status unknown, L. H. Hagaman, now a resident of Ranger and George T. Hemmingson, now of Dallas. Directors of that powerful Chamber of Commerce were M. H. Hagaman, H. R. Gholson, now of Fort Worth and son of Mrs. John M. Gholson of Ranger and the late John M. Gholson, one time mayor and city father. Edward R. Maher, now of Dallas, Ralph G. Stockman, P. Learned, C. E. Black, deceased, C. S. Heffern, S. C. French and E. A. Ringold.

After the incorporation of the city, the temporary officers took over the business of running the city on February 18, 1919. It was on that day that Mayor Hagaman, Deffebach and Newnam met with Judge Firmin, who had been appointed counsel of the corporation and M. A. Turner, appointed secretary at the "temporary City Hall", which was the Chamber of Commerce.

The first act was to officially appoint Turner secretary, then they approved the incorporation of the town under the statutes of Texas. At the second meeting which was the next day, February 19, 1919, a police system was set up and J. H. Long was made chief deputy to serve with the following M. C. Jay, Tom Haynie and R. L. Faircloth.

The temporary officers, according to city records held a meeting practically every day from the time they were appointed until their elections on April 3. The fundamental structure of the town had been laid before the first election.

A total of 64 votes was cast in Ranger's first city election, and all 64 voters cast their ballots for M. H. Hagaman as mayor. For commissioner of place No. 1, M. R. Newnam received 58 votes; for commissioner of place No. 2, A. Davenport received 58 votes; for commissioner of place No. 3, F. G. Deffebach, was given 58 votes and for commissioner of place No. 4, R. M. Davenport, whose family now live in Dallas, received 59 votes.

While no accurate check was made, it is probably safe to say that that is the only time in the history of elections in Ranger that all candidates came so close to being unanimously elected. The charter for the city of Ranger was also adopted in the election of April 3.

Previously, Mayor Hagaman, acting temporarily, had been authorized by the temporary commissioners on February 20, 1919, to appoint a committee of 15 men to draw up a charter for the city of Ranger.

Those appointed were O. F. Davenport, G. W. Rust, C. E. May, still of Ranger, Thos. Metcalf, H. R. Gholson, S. Jackson, Wm. L. Evans and L. R. Pearson, also still a resident of Ranger. On February 21, 1919 the foregoing committee submitted the charter to the mayor and commissioners with the recommendation that it be submitted to the people of Ranger at an election on April 3 and that at the same time the people be called upon to elect the mayor and commissioners.

After the election was over and the votes counted and declared legal, the new officers lost no time in taking office. The election, as has been pointed out before was on April 3, 1919, and on April 4, 1919 the officers named above declared themselves elected and proceeded to swear themselves into office with the following:

"The said returns (those quoted above) show that M. H. Hagaman was elected without opposition — that M. R. Newnam, A. Davenport, T. G. Deffebach, and R. M. Davenport were duly elected commissioners as above stated: Now, upon the motion of Mr. Davenport and seconded by Mr. Deffebach it is hereby declared that M. H. Hagaman has been elected as mayor of the City of Ranger, M. R. Newnam has been elected as commissioner of place

No. 1, A. Davenport has been elected commissioner of Place No. 2, T. G. Deffebach has been elected commissioner of Place No. 3 and R. M. Davenport has been elected as commissioner of Place No. 4 and are entitled to take possession of their offices as by statute in such case made and provided."

This famous document was signed by M. A. Turner, city secretary and by Mayor Hagaman.

Perhaps a new set of city officials never before in history faced such a complicated task as confronted these men. Less than two years before they took office the McCleskey discovery oil well had been brought in with the consequent mad rush for the "Flowing Gold." The thousands of people that swarmed to Ranger in search of quick riches, brought housing, health and sanitation problems, crime waves and other types of problems that arise where ever a mass of avaricious humanity gathers.

One of the first steps taken was the passage of an ordinance requiring that all vendors of water be licensed. This reflects the time before Ranger had a municipal water supply sufficient to take care of the town and water was sold from wells, springs and hauled in, according to old timers.

The new officers took immediate steps to build a sewage system and by the 10th day of April, 1919 had entered into a contract with an Oklahoma firm to do the work. Contracts were made for an electric supply, and for a telephone franchise in the town. And less essential but evidently of importance at that time was the licensing of a shooting gallery. A detention camp was set up and all persons having a communicable disease were ordered to the camp. Several serious epidemics broke out during the oil rush due to congestion and lack of sanitary facilities.

Additions to the residential sections of the town which were established in early history were Blackwell, Bundick, Burger, Burke, Cooper, Hodges Central, Highland Park, Hill Crest, Hodges Oak Park, Melvin, McDowell, Mountain View, Park Hill, Page, Ranger Heights and Rawls addition.

Streets paving and improvements were undertaken, a fire department was established and equipped. A library board was recommended by the city manager and accepted by the commission and Mrs. Howard Gholson was named chairman. Others on the board were Rev. Peoples, Rev. Wisdom and James Jenkins.

Matters were so pressing for the first commission that meetings were held practically every day and not just once a week as called for in the charter.

In justice a few short months after installation Mayor Hagaman and his commissioners had progress in full swing and the city of Ranger on a well organized basis.

Since the organization of Ranger the following men have served it as mayor, the late John M. Gholson, Dr. R. H. Hodges, John Thurman, Dr. Harry Logsdon, now of Colorado City, Hall Walker, J. J. Kelly, Lee Dockery and Mayor Price Crawley now serving.

tourist courts. The Inn enjoys a consistent trade from Ranger and surrounding territory as well as from travelers.

The neat rock building is located east of Ranger on Highway 80 and perched on a high hill overlooking a beautiful valley. The pleasant interior is a soothing setting for the fine meals served at the Inn which specializes in fried chicken. A cool breeze sweeps through the building making it pleasant at all times.

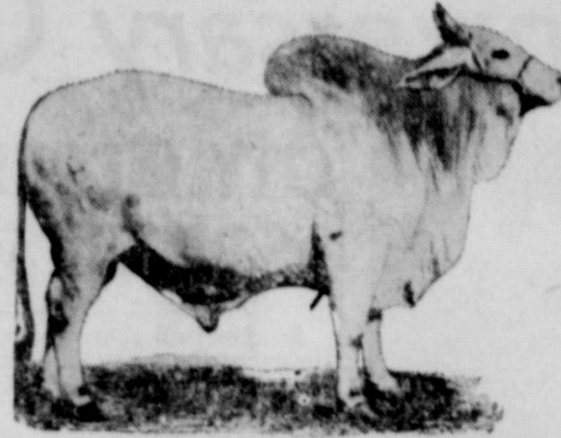

Besides Mr. and Mrs. Wallace personnel of the Inn includes Mary Justice, Christine Wallace, Nita Hill, Leona Cavenger, Edna Hill, and Clara June Sharp.

Swoveland's One Of Favorite Eating Places

One of the favorite eating places in Ranger is Swoveland's cafe, located at the intersection of Main Street and Highway 80. The cafe has just been moved to this location and into a building that has been completely renovated and redecorated. Kitchen equipment has been improved and added to and more seating capacity has been added.

The business is owned and operated by Mr. and Mrs. Earl Swoveland and employees include Mrs. Gladys Higdon, Cuba Perry, Maxine Cole, Darlene Seay, Mrs. Lillian Bleedsoe, Mrs. Cheaney Jones and Lula Belle Bleedsoe.

The cafe specializes in plate lunches which are well balanced and tasty.

Edwin George Gulf Distributor

The Gulf Oil Refining Company's products are distributed in Ranger and a large area adjacent by Edwin George.

Western Auto Store Has Wide Variety Of Items

Covering a wide variety of auto and household needs, the stock at the Western Auto Store offers shoppers almost any item in these two fields.

The store is owned and operated by Joe Farley and enjoys a good business the year around.

Besides the owner the store employs Earnest Dempsey, Shelby Parnell and Gene Falls.

Richard J. Gatling is chiefly known as the inventor of the rapid-fire gun, but in 1830 he also invented the first wheat-cutting machine in the U. S.

All Gulf products are handled by the distributor whose territory covers Ranger, and goes as far west as Olden, East to Gordon, north from Frankell to Kokomo in the south part of the county.

One tank truck and a pickup make regular deliveries as well as delivering special orders. Claud Hearne handles deliveries and Mrs. Hearne is employed in the office of the company.

MELON-JOLLY BABE — Georgia's Gov. Herman Talmadge puckers up for a kiss from Annette Carver, her payment for the watermelon he sold her. As part of his initiation into the Yarrab Temple during Mystic Shriners' parade in Atlanta, the governor was required to sell the fruit from a huckster's wagon. Other buyers paid cash, which went to Shrine charity fund.

TAKE-OFF TIME—Knowing what's best, sea gull makes a flying retreat as horses take water jump in the Empire Steeplechase at Ellerslie Racetrack in Auckland, New Zealand.

Southern Air To Have Special Rodeo Time Menu

The Southern Air Cafe on Highway 80 west of Ranger has announced that it will feature a special menu for the Jaycee rodeo and visitors are given a cordial invitation to try this fare.

The cafe specializes in hot biscuits and home made pies and includes on its menu such items as fried catfish, T-bone steaks, chicken fried steak, plain steak, hamburger steak, bar-b-q plates, chicken in the basket, and chicken dinners of all-white meat.

The cafe has wide parking space which accommodates any number of cars at the same time.

The cafe is operated by Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Savage and employees Lois Brown, Lillie Gregg and Patsey Harding.

A filling station is operated in connection with the cafe.

H. P. Earnest Veteran Gas, Oil Distributor

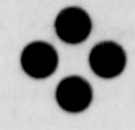

One of Ranger's veteran wholesale distributors of gasoline and oils is H. P. Earnest, known to his friends as "Pop."

Earnest is consignee for Texaco products and serves Ranger and the immediate vicinity. Bob Earnest is associated with his father in the business and the firm also employs Frank Blakney.

Besides being a veteran in his business, Earnest is a veteran at serving as secretary of the Rotary Club, which post he has held for a number of years.

In 1873, Mt. Rainier erupted for a period of seven days. Its last eruption was in 1894.

WARD STORE IN RANGER MOST COMPLETELY STOCKED IN DISTRICT

Ranger proudly boasts what is officially known among Montgomery Ward and Company stores, as the most completely stocked Ward store in this district.

The Ranger Ward store was opened to business in 1927 and expanded in business in such strides that in 1938 the store had to be enlarged. The store offers complete service to a trade territory within a 50 mile radius of Ranger.

A complete line of electrical appliances, furniture, sporting goods, tires, home building supplies, farm supplies, and wearing apparel is carried at all times in this store. A staff of 30 people is required to operate the various departments of the store.

D. C. Cutbirth, a native West Texan who has been with Wards since 1938, was recently transferred to Ranger as manager, commencing his duties on July 15.

W. W. Sikes who has been assistant manager for one and a half years, came to Ranger from the Brownwood store.

Mrs. Roney Jones who has been ing from the store at Sweetwater, with the score for 18 years is credit manager and the store has one of the most satisfactory credit ratings with the company. Mrs. Jones is assisted by Mrs. Lester Crossley.

General Office employees are Mrs. Charlie Hamilton, cashier, Mrs. J. L. Milner, stock records, and Mrs. Carl Heinlen, utility clerk. In the furniture department, under the supervision of Henry Martin, a complete line of living room, bedroom, and kitchen furniture is carried. The department also has a complete line of juvenile furniture.

Marvin Edwards, head of the service department, is regarded by the company as a very capable service repair man and is equipped to do all kinds of service. He is assisted by a service record clerk, Joyce Cole.

Mrs. Clara Johnson heads the catalog order department and is set up in the department to serve all customers with merchandise which the store is unable to carry in the local store. This department gives 24 hour order service to the customers.

The electrical appliance department under A. C. Lebrado carries a complete line of radios, refrigerators, home freezers, ironers, washers, and vacuum cleaners. Four outside salesmen work out of this department to serve the rural area which is served by the REA.

In the tire department under the direction of M. F. Myers, assisted by Bruce Wilkinson, a complete line of tires for trucks, tractors, passenger cars is carried. The department also carries accessories for all makes of cars. Myers also has charge of the sporting goods department.

Norman Dennis heads the home improvement department which carries all types of plumbing supplies and paints. Coolers, attic fans for all types of buildings are also carried in this department. Dennis is qualified to give estimates on plumbing and building materials needed for repairs.

FACTS ABOUT SERIES "E" U. S. SAVINGS BONDS You Should Know

SAFETY: Because they're the obligations of the strongest nation in the world—Uncle Sam.

RISKLESS: They can always be redeemed on an upward scale of value, but never at a loss to the investor. They're non-transferable, and can only be sold back to the Government thus being removed from market fluctuations.

LIQUID: Any bank will convert your Bonds into cash at a moment's notice. In the meantime they accumulate interest equivalent to $4 for every $5 invested if held ten years. In other words, cash plus interest.

RESERVE: When the going gets rough they are available for your distress. And always they are a reserve for your future financial independence.

U. S. ECONOMY: Their purchase helps stabilize the economy by removing surplus funds from the spending channels; they're an investment in your country; sales do not increase the national debt as proceeds are used to retire the less manageable debt held by banks transferring it to individuals.

LOSS-PROOF: Unlike cash, these securities will be replaced if lost or destroyed.

AVAILABILITY: On sale at banks, post offices, building and loan associations, Federal Reserve Banks and branches, local industries maintaining payroll savings plans, Bond-A-Month bank plans, and other issuing agents.

OWNERSHIP: Restricted to individuals, who may purchase up to $10,000 each year, in registered form. A co-owner, or survivor, may be designated.

TAXABLE: Increment subject to Federal income taxes, but exempt from taxes imposed by any State. Federal possessions, or other local taxing authority. Their value not exempt from estate, inheritance, gift or other excise taxes, whether Federal or State.

Firemen Don't See

NEWPORT, R. I. (UP) — Authorities used a novel method to get rid of a swarm of 25,000 bees that settled on a hedge in front of Miss Ruth C. White's grocery store. They called the fire department, which laid hose lines and drove off the bees with streams of water.

Oil Plays Major Role In Ranger Progress

PREMIER OIL REFINING COMPANY ACTIVE AS GATHERER IN THIS AREA

Though the oil boom that put Ranger in the world spotlight in 1917 has subsided, Ranger is still an oil center, not only from the standpoint of exploration and production but from the refining and pipeline angles.

A number of payrolls in Ranger are dependent on the refinery division of the oil business and one of the largest of such payrolls as that on the Premier Oil Refining Company.

Premier maintains a large operation in the Ranger district which supports a payroll of 80 employees.

David D. Pickrell is superintendent of the Ranger district which includes a pump station and residential section at Ranger. A refinery at Baird, a pump station at Novice and a pump station at Mingo. The lines out of Ranger and Mingo service the Fort Worth refinery of the company while the station at Novice serves the Baird Refinery.

Premier began its ninth year of operation in this area on the first of July and in the eight years previous to that much expansion and improvement has taken place in operations and properties.

The Ranger plant and camp is on the west edge of Ranger, situated on a 28 acre tract that has been improved and beautified and many improvements made to all properties.

The Ranger Pipeline Division of Premier serves 750 wells, has 330.40 miles in the Ranger gathering system in field lines; has a main line 73.23 miles long from Mingo to the Fort Worth Refinery and has 96.21 miles of field line in the Thurber Pipeline.

The Ranger division purchased 3,400,492.72 barrels of crude oil in the year 1948 and approximately 2,820,000 barrels were delivered to the Fort Worth refinery which is fed from this area.

Wells from which oil is gathered by Premier are located in the following fields and areas: Kirk Field, Eastland - Comanche counties; Kleiner Mississippi Field in Eastland county; Erath county field; Palo Pinto county field; Gordon Field in Palo Pinto county; Shackelford County field; Kadane - Beaumont, Strawn field in Shackelford; Brownsville field in Stephens county; Chaney field in Stephens county; D. D. Ellenburger field, Stephens county; Hill (Marbel Falls) field, Stephens county; Hill Field, Stephens county; Ibez East Field, Stephens county; Ibez South Field, Stephens county; Loving Field, Stephens county; Manning O'Connor field, Stephens county; Woodley-Thorpe field, Stephens county and Yates County field.

At Novice the company has 31.20 miles of main line and 27.28

Curley's Operated By Father, Sons

Curley's Grocery Store and Conoco Filling Station, on Highway 88 East is truly a father and son partnership. The father, N. M. (Curly) McCollum owns the business and is ably assisted in operating it by his two sons, Stanley and Melvin McCollum.

Curley also says it's handy to have the two sons around to look after his business when his duties as street commissioner of Ranger call him away from the business.

A full line of fresh and cured meats and all types of groceries are carried in the store and in the station, Conoco products rule. The station also offers the various services to travelers.

The owner and his two sons extend to the rodeo visitors a welcome and an invitation to visit their business while in Ranger for the rodeo.

JOSEPH'S CELEBRATING 30TH ANNIVERSARY, TOO

Joseph's Dry Goods Company is going hand in hand with Ranger in the celebration of the 30th anniversary, in as much as this is also the 30th anniversary of the formation of the Joseph business.

D. Joseph, owner of the store, started his business in Ranger on January 19, 1919, only a few weeks before the incorporation of the town and about three months before the first city election in Ranger.

Since that time Joseph has operated his business in Ranger continuously, always handling the best quality merchandise and always offering a courteous service.

At the present time Mr. and Mrs. Joseph are in Syria and the store is being operated by his son Freddie Joseph and Scott Suffody. Other personnel of the store includes Mrs. Ven O. White, Mrs. T. O. Rawls, Mrs. W. S. Adamson and Mrs. L. W. Bowen.

Joseph's merchandise includes such lines as Rothmoor coats and suits, Doris Dodson, Georgianas and Justin McCarty dresses; Vanity Fair, Lorraine, and Artemis Lingerie and Gossard foundation garments.

Other lines are Buster Brown shoes for children, Queen Quality, and Jolene shoes for ladies; Tom Sawyer and Mark Twain apparel for men and boys, Stetson hats; Fowkes gloves for ladies; Phoenix, Berkshire and Claussner hosiery for ladies; Cohama and Gilbrey fabrics, Samsonite Luggage and many other nationally advertised lines, too numerous to mention.

In speaking of the store today, Freddie Joseph stated, "We invite the public to visit the store. They're always welcome, whether they're buying or browsing. Our desire and aim is to sell first class merchandise at reasonable prices. We insist on customers being satisfied and well pleased with their purchases. Joseph's is one of the oldest retail establishments in Ranger, having gone through the boom days and the depression."

Joynor Grocery, Station Welcomes Rodeo Visitors

A welcome sign has been hung out at the Joynor Grocery Store and Service station located at 301 North Austin Street in downtown Ranger.

Owned and operated by J. L. Joynor, the store carries a complete line of fresh and cured meats, lunch meats and staple groceries.

The station handles Premier gasoline and Premier Ranger Oils and offers the usual services to motorists.

Rodeo visitors are extended an invitation to visit the business while here for the four day performance.

COWBOY BAND DIRECTOR WITH BAND FOR 20 YEARS

Marion R. McClure, composer-director of the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band, scheduled to appear in Ranger for the rodeo July 20-23, has been with the internationally famous musicians for 20 years as both member and director of the colorful organization.

McClure became director of the band in 1934, and under his direction, the cowstepping musicians have risen to national recognition giving tours, rodeos, and making stage appearances throughout Texas and the United States. The Cowboy Band played for the late President Roosevelt in 1936 and toured Mexico in the summer of 1938.

The band has traveled more than 40,000 miles the past three years, played for the inauguration of Texas' Governor Jester, led the parade which opened the International Convention of the Junior Chamber of Commerce in Dallas, played for the world championship rodeo in Phoenix, Ariz., the Cattle-King Horse and Colt show in Paducah, Tex., the Stamford Texas Cowboy reunion, the Lion International Convention in San Francisco and New York, the Texas and Arkansas State Fairs, etc., made numerous concert appearances throughout the state.

As the official band for the Lions of Texas the Cowboys have appeared at the Lions International Convention from coast to coast—in San Francisco and New York. In San Francisco they

Fall Out of Summer

To paraphrase the poet: When summer comes, can fall be far behind? Designer Toni Owen has fashioned this dress to be equally comfortable under September starlight or July parasol. The patio skirt is of Juillard Featheroy (three ounces lighter than corduroy), with side zipper and buttoned waist band. Shepherd Knitwear makes the matching T shirt. The ensemble, chosen by Cosmopolitan magazine's Male-Tested Fashion Jury (Kirk Douglas, Robert Sterling and Louis Jourdan) comes in red caviar, taupe and gold. Its price—about $15 for skirt, $2.25 for shirt—leaves budget room for July juleps or autumn apple cider.

night program in the Civic auditorium to leading the state's parade through the streets of the city. In New York it was the same. The band played at Madison Square Garden the Texas parade down Fifth Avenue and appeared at other sessions of the convention.

The band was the champion-ship organization at the Lions International in 1941, 1947, and 1948.

Joining the Cowboy Band as a student in 1927, McClure proved his musical versatility by playing all the percussion instruments, the cornet and the French horn during his four years with the group. During the time McClure was a band member, the organization toured the United States, six countries in Europe, and played before King George V and Queen Mary of England.

After more than four years in military service, McClure returned to Hardin-Simmons in September, 1916, reorganized the band, and resumed the activities which have contributed to the group's phenomenal rise in the entertainment world to make them one of the best known university bands in the nation.

After being commissioned, McClure attended special service school at Washington and Lee University, Lexington, and was sent to Guadalcanal after graduation. The majority of his time overseas was spent at bases in the Philippines and other Pacific islands. He was separated from the service with the rank of captain in 1949.

McClure received his Master of Music degree from Vandercook School of Music, Chicago, in August of 1946, after receiving from Hardin-Simmons in 1933, the Bachelor of Music degree.

Chick's Courts, Cafe Welcome Rodeo Visitors

Rodeo visitors this year will get their first introduction to Chick's Courts and Bluebonnet Cafe located on Highway 80, eight blocks out from the Main street intersection with Highway 80.

The recently completed building is all completely air conditioned, new and clean, and the cafe across the highway from the cabins is specializing in good food with pleasant service and reasonable prices.

The new business is owned and operated by John (Chick) Lissack, a rodeo booster, who invites rodeo visitors to visit the cafe and inspect the cabins as a possible lodging place while in Ranger for the big show.

Along with hosting the rodeo, the station is offering Magnolia products, washing, polishing, repair of flat tires while visitors and local people enjoy the rodeo.

The station is located close to the rodeo grounds and offers convenient service to rodeo fans. Besides Merchant, R. C. Buckley is employed at the station.

Attractive Dr.
Pepper Plant A
Ranger Asset

Early in 1943 Ranger became the home of a Dr. Pepper Bottling plant which is one of the most modern in this section of the state. The new plant was built and is now operated by M. L. King and is housed in an attractive white washed brick building on Pine street. The streamlined plant is now turning out 120 cases of cold drinks every hour and has almost doubled its output and staff since going into business in Ranger. The plant also includes a large storage building and garage.

King operates five trucks that are used to carry soft drinks to all parts of Eastland, Stephens, Palo Pinto counties and a part of Esch's county.

Besides King, the personnel of the plant includes Joe Daskevich, production superintendent; Clyde Pollard, production department; Joe E. Daskevich, sales superintendent; W. K. Lyman, J. A. Ownby, Wesley Stiffier, Elize Pruett Jr., and Louis Green Jr., all salesmen; Glenna Weaver, secretary; and Angel Renteria and George Robinson in the production department.

New Vitamin A
Now Available

NEW YORK, (UP) — Synthetic vitamin A—minus the fish odor and taste of the natural product—is now available.

For the first time, the growth vitamin in synthetic form is being sold in capsules. Furthermore, it has been given an odor of violets obtained synthetically from the well-known lemon grass oil.

The first synthesis of vitamin A was announced two years ago by scientists in Switzerland, Holland and the United States. In most cases the nation's laboratories were not prepared to manufacture it on a large scale.

An announcement from the William R. Warner & Co., said today, however, that synthetic vitamin A is now being made in sufficiently large quantities to offer it to the public.

It should be welcome news for those who must take vitamin A because the natural product, obtained from fish liver oils such as halibut, shark and tuna, was characterized by an unpleasant fishy smell and flavor.

In disclosing that synthetic perfumed vitamin A was available, Dr. H. M. West of the Warner Company recalled that scientists NICE RISK—Because she's a dancer by profession and because she has to ride a spirited horse in a new film role, Joan Taylor, 19, now has a pair of $100,000 legs. Her producer had them insured with Lloyd's of London against injury during shooting of the movie. Here, Joan gives a glimpse of her high-priced underpinning. Statistics of the $100,000 risk: Ankle, seven inches; calf, 10 inches; thigh, 17 inches; length of leg, 32 inches.

for years had been attempting to complete the synthesis. Some of the earliest work was done by Dr. Paul Karrer of Switzerland, but he couldn't quite match the complicated molecule that forms the natural vitamin.

Later an English chemist, Dr. Ian Heilbron, carried the work still further, but he, like Karrer, could not produce the complete synthesis.

In the meantime, the vitamin was obtained in concentrated form from fish oils. It was satisfactory, but enormous quantities of fish oils were needed to obtain the concentrate.

Now the Warner scientists, using the knowledge of the earlier workers, have come up with the synthetic substance. It has been obtained in a high state of purity, they reported.

Beck's Service Station on Caddo Highway proudly carries the banner of Humble products and has invited rodeo visitors to the station to secure these much sought after service items.

Besides from offering Humble products, the station carries on normal services for automobiles, and is operated by G. F. Beck.

J. C. PENNEY STORE IN RANGER FOR 22 YEARS

Not far behind the city of Ranger in anniversary years is the J. C. Penney Store which has been doing business in Ranger for 22 years. The store has kept pace with the town and has always had managers and personnel that were interested in the welfare of Ranger.

The local J. C. Penney Store was opened at its present location, 119 Main Street, in Ranger in September of 1927 with Roy Gilbreath as manager. The store was later expanded to include the big till succeeded by Paul Nelson, now deceased, in 1933. When Nelson opened the Midland, Texas store in 1935 Dave Cooper came here as manager. In the fall of 1949 Cooper was transferred to the Kinkville, Texas store and Joe Graham, present manager, came to Ranger.

None of the original employees are still with the store, but Mrs. Novella DeVore remained in the local store for twenty years, leaving in 1947.

During these twenty two years building just back of the bank that faces on South Rusk Street.

Gilbreath remained as manager the local store has kept up to date in merchandise, presentation, and plant equipment. Interior presentation keeps always in mind the convenience of the customer. Last fall the windows were modernized and colored lighting equipment installed which makes the local Penney window lay-out most attractive.

Just completed is the installation of modern air - conditioning equipment to enable customers to shop in cool comfort.

Present personnel is Joe Graham, manager, M. C. Walker, men's wear and shoes; Mrs. Estelle Hise and Mrs. Winnie Cox, piece goods and home furnishings; Eunice Preslar, ready-to-wear; M. R. Ruth Booth, ready-to-wear and alterations; Mrs. Maxine Calver, office. Other members of the sales force are Mrs. Arlene Calhoun, Mrs. Bobby Johnson and Bobby Harper.

"The entire store is eager to serve the public with the best obtainable values in dry goods, shoes, furnishings and ready-to-wear," Graham stated.

Lou Williams Greets Visitors

Lou Williams who has been passing out over the counter good meats to Ranger people for a number of years is operating the market in Pipkin's Piggly - Wiggly Store and extends a welcome to rodeo visitors to visit his market.

Williams carries the best grade of fresh and cured meats, all types of cheeses and barbecue. Besides giving first quality at lowest possible prices, the market is known for its courteous and efficient service.

Latch String Out At Collett Filling Station

Bill Collett's Post Office Service Station, across the street from the post office, offers a full line of Magnolia products for motorists and extends a welcome to rodeo visitors and an invitation to visit his station.

Besides the fine line of products carried at the station, the business does washing and greasing of cars, paint and polish jobs and all types of tire repair work.

Fruits and vegetables may be seriously damaged if left in the hot sun after they are harvested.

RANGER'S FINEST

DOG DAYS—When "Belle" reached New York's LaGuardia Field after flying in from the Arctic he was almost roasted by the heat. So the hot dog jumped into the nearest refrigerator. He figures on staying there until the heat breaks or he takes off for his final destination in Seattle, Wash.

FILLET OF SOLE—One-year-old Mary Ann Coles seems a little doubtful of the intentions of this goat, one of the animals in the pet's corner of the London Zoo. He seems to have his eyes—and teeth—set on Mary Ann's shoes.

Ranger Lumber And Supply Has Finance Plan

The Ranger Lumber and Supply Company, owned and operated by Calvin Brown, currently is advertising a financing plan for remodeling homes, either in the city or farm homes.

The plan requires no down payment and covers everything from the foundation to the finishing of the home. It includes all of the built-in features that you want. For further details of the plan the public is invited to call at the lumber company's office on North Commerce street.

Brown says that there is no obligation attached to the explanation of the plan.

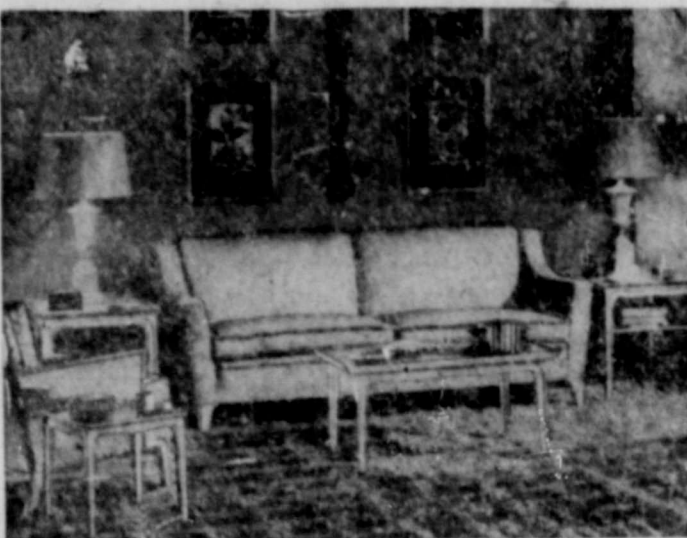

Besides offering this financing plan, Ranger Lumber and Supply, carries a full line of building materials and paints and paper.

OUT OUR WAY

By J. R. Williams

The latest thing in furniture design is illustrated by this group of mobile furniture designed especially for television. Mounted on semi-pneumatic rubber wheels, the furniture is easily wheeled into any position. The unusual fifty-four inch mahogany cocktail table has a sunken brass center for plants, a lift-out sectional device for ice, bottles, etc., drawers and magazine compartments. Sectional upholstered pieces may be used separately or together to form a larger seating unit.

Typifying the trend to more graceful modern design is this charming living-room grouping. While the tables are devoid of carvings and curved legs, a soft, graceful line is achieved through the delicately curved aprons and the finely scaled proportions. The soft Butternut finish is significant of the style trend to the honey-color finishes in today's furniture. Note, too, that arms of the sofa have a pleasing curve and that the base is raised to prevent any suggestion of the old "boxy" look.

The "Totay-Table" is a new combination table and seating unit. Children love it because they can use it as a play table or their very own dining table. Of enameled metal with removable tray.

For "Fun under the Sun" try one of these inexpensive hammocks in a corner of your yard or porch. Mounted on a sturdy white enameled metal frame, the canvas hammock is gaily striped in vivid colors.

Penn And Miller Operate Large Station, Garage

One of Ranger's largest and most thriving downtown garages and filling stations is the Penn & Miller Service Station located at the corner of Pine and South Austin Streets.

The establishment is owned and operated by Frank Penn and A. F. Mike Miller and in addition to having a complete service station has a large storage garage.

The station carries ten leading brands of motor oils, has Texaco products, B. F. Goodrich tires and tubes, Willard batteries, Fram-A-C-Wix oil filters and element replacements.

Washing, greasing, polishing, tire repairing and battery recharging are the services offered by the station.

In addition to the two owners the station employs Dorothy Penn Smith, Betty Jo Penn, Steve Gideon and Raymond Camacho.

A welcome to all rodeo visitors has been extended and an invitation issued to visit the service institution.

A Man Must Eat
SAPULPA, Okla. (UP)—Asked his occupation when he was booked for carrying a gallon jug of whiskey, Ray Wyatt of Mannford, Okla., told officers he "worked as a moonshiner."

FAR FAMED COWBOY BAND FROM HARDIN - SIMMONS DUE AT RODEO

Few groups, if any, of university students travel so many miles to participate in so many varied kind of programs as the Hardin-Simmons University Cowboy Band members who will play at the Ranger rodeo July 20-23.

With a mileage total which approaches the 25,000 mark during the past two years, the "world famous" band, directed by Marion McClure, is in its third year of activity since the war, finding it impossible to accept all the requests for its services.

Capable of parading, playing concert music, or in presenting a stage show, and always appearing in their colorful western regalia, the H-SU musicians have a variety of abilities which is not common to most musical organizations. These four phases of showmanship account, in a large measure, for the nationwide attention which the Cowboys receive.

Probably at no time during the past year was the band more prominent than they were at the Lions International Convention at San Francisco and New York. Here the Cowboys were able to do their entire repertoire — marching, playing, acting and dressing up. Here there was no musical organization which attracted more attention. It was judged the best band of the conventions in 1942, 1947 and 1948.

Praise for the band has not been confined to local persons or organizations. Governor Beauford Jester has spoken of it as "my inaugural band," and praised it for its "superior music and showmanship." Fred W. Smith of California, former Lions International president, has spoken highly of its concert music. A. J. Ackerman, Colorado Springs, has said that the band's appearance at the Colorado Springs Rodeo is one of the major events of that show.

The accomplishments of the band are most remarkable, perhaps, because more than half of the bandmen are freshmen and sophomores. Most of them came from different organizations and have been knitted into a unit under McClure's direction. McClure, with more than 20 years with the Cowboys, both as a player and director, has been able to take the inexperienced musician and make an asset of him to the organization.

During the past two years the band has played in ten states: California, Arizona, Texas, New Mexico, Colorado, Utah, Tennessee, New York, Ohio and Arkansas — but has had to turn down invitations as far west as the state of Washington and as far east as Alabama. It has played also at the National Capitol in Washington, D. C.

The band travels by bus, by train and by airplane. All of the details of moving some 40 to 60

BOSOM BUDDIES—Jumbo, 5-year-old Saint Bernard, and Mabel, 5-week-old fawn, have become bosom buddies. Mabel's mother had wanderlust and abandoned her on a farm near Stockton, N. J., where Jumbo discovered her. The Saint Bernard's owner brought the young deer to a vet for treatment. But Jumbo got so homesick for his new girl friend that Mabel was finally brought home again to keep him company.

HELD BY REDS—The State Department received word that William B. Olive, above, American vice-consul in Shanghai, was "struck and kicked" by Communist-controlled police and is being held incommunicado after his arrest on a traffic charge. The word came from Consul General John Cabot, who said he was trying to get Olive released.

Now, it's "Personalized Furniture"! One of the newest innovations in furniture design is the adaptation of monograms to the drawer pulls or furniture. Made by a nationally known manufacturer and known as the "Monogram Group," it includes 36 pieces for living, dining and bedroom with the drawer pulls so designed that gold initials can be easily slipped on in any combination the customer desires, or they may be omitted entirely. This smart modern group is made of Alvero, a new tropical wood, and may be had in a natural finish or in sophisticated Cordovan men and their instruments, and of providing food and room, fall to the lot of E. W. Ledbetter, business manager of H-SU and of the band. Scheduled, too, is a part of Mr. Ledbetter's job. The band is permitted to be absent from school only a limited time during each semester, making acceptance of an invitation a difficult task.

Backed with the reputation of staging great performances where ever they go, the band members have acquired a feeling of professional pride and confidence unequalled in most college organizations.

In parade the band performs their nationally known "cowstep," a zig-zag step which was originated by the organization. To execute the right foot is placed across and in front of the left. The left is then moved across and in front of the right in a criss-cross manner. As each member executes the movement, a zig-zag or "drunk cowboy" effect is created. After three fast paces forward, all remove their hats and wave them wildly as they spin around in a pivotal motion as they maintain their lines of march. A rebel yell accompanies the whirl.

Showmen with the band are Lloyd Mitchell, trick and fancy

PREMIER-DESIGNATE—Franz Van Cauwelaert, above, 69-year-old Catholic Party leader, was asked by Prince Regent Charles of Belgium to try to form a coalition government following the Belgian elections. Van Cauwelaert, former president of the Chamber of Deputies, was named "informant," a post equivalent to premier-designate.

roper, Sheriff Will W. Watson, and Norma Kniffen.

Mitchell, a sophomore student who has been doing trick roping in rodeos since he was 13, performs some of the most difficult stunts in the books, including the "Texas Wagon Wheel," originated and made popular by the late Will Rogers, a staunch supporter of the band.

Miss Kniffen, twice National VFW twirling champion, has won 19 medals and three trophies during her brief career. She accompanies the band as a special soloist. Sheriff Watson, a former commissioned Texas Ranger, takes pride in the six white horses and the coeds who ride them and carry the six flags under which the Lone Star state has been governed. He is a constant companion of the band, always dressed in a double-sized cowboy hat, cowboy boots, silver shirt, two pearl-handled pistols, and his badge of office. He is the band's parade marshal.

Charles J. Ta'ling is chiefly known as the inventor of the rapid-fire gun, but in 1830 he also invented the first wheat-cutting machine in the U. S.

Calf Scramble To Be Special Rodeo Feature

On Thursday and Friday nights rodeo fans will have an opportunity to see a new development in rodeo entertainment. This year the calf scramble will take the form of "Greased Pigs" but registered Jersey heifers will still be the prize.

Ten numbered pigs will be released in the arena and 20 boys will compete in the wild scramble to capture one of the elusive young swine; for each pig represents a ticket for a $175 heifer. The boys that catch pigs will receive the calves with corresponding numbers. Then on Friday night, the losers of the previous scramble will get to chase the pigs again and the winners can keep the pigs.

However, the calf winners are awarded their heifers with the understanding that the first female offspring is to be returned for future scrambles.

Following are the boys who will enter the calf scramble contest: Eddie Wallace, Ranger; Royce Hatton, Ranger; Maurice Hatton, Ranger; Don Eddleman, Ranger; Floyd Woods, Ranger; Miley Williams, Ranger; Weldon Cunningham, Ranger; Frank Robinson, Ranger; Buddy Aaron, Eastland; Roy Don Harris, Eastland; Bill Herrington, Strawn; Jack Roberson, Strawn; W. G. Reed, Rising Star; Fred Eaves, Gorman; and 2 boys from Cisco.

Following are the sponsors who have financed the calf scramble: Commercial State Bank, Strawn National Bank, T. & M. Railway, Banner Creamery, Texas Electric First National Bank, Crawley Motor Co., Ranger Jaycees, Ranger Times, Ranger Peanut Co., Ranger Junior College, Ratliff Feed Store, Ranger Frozen Food Locker, Dr. Pepper Bottling Co., Leville Motor Co., Anderson Motor Co., Swaney's Pharmacy, Tip Top Feed Store, Globe Clothiers, Crawford's Rexall Drugs, Texas Drug, C. D. Hartnett Co., Taylor Implement Co., Greer Boot Shop, Lloyd Clem Inc., Concho Boot Shop, H. G. Adams Grocery, and H. P. Earnest, Texaco Products.

Many Expected For Homecoming

Indications were today that many former residents in Ranger will start arriving in Ranger simultaneously with the opening of the fourth annual rodeo.

The occasion is the first annual homecoming for former residents and a series of entertainments has been planned for the visitors.

Facilities of the Ranger Country Club's golf course have been thrown open to the visitors as have fishing rights at Lake Hagaman. Both the Tower and Arcadia Theatres are running matinees during the homecoming as well as the usual evening shows. Ladies of the country club are planning a forty two and bridge party for visitors and local people at the club.

Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock there will be a fiddlers contest at Willows Park and immediately after the contest there will be a barbecue at the park. Tickets to the barbecue are $1.00. Those wishing to enter the fiddlers contest should register by 2 o'clock Saturday afternoon either at the Gholsen Hotel or at the Chamber of Commerce. First place winner will be given a $25 prize and second place winner will win $15.

Homecoming visitors are invited to participate in the rodeo parade Wednesday afternoon and to attend the evening performances each night.

In connection with the homecoming, a $25 prize will be given to the largest family at the Friday night performance of the rodeo and a $15 prize will be given to the person that has come the greatest distance to the homecoming and rodeo.

Denies Slack In Army Enlistment

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. July 19 (UP)—Recruiting officials at Fourth Army Headquarters, Fort Sam Houston, spoke today to deny that enlistments in the Armed Forces have declined sharply and that it may be necessary to start drafting personnel.

Col. J. T. Traywick, Jr., pointed out that "recruiting goes in cycles. We were in a slump about the first week in June, but we finished the month with flying colors."

"We did a swell job during the month in all the five states of this area," he said.

The five states are Texas, Oklahoma, Arkansas, Louisiana and New Mexico.

Traywick said there was no indication of any immediate revival of the selective service system, adding that there was no apparent need for it.

If the draft is effected again, he said, it will be on a nationwide basis and "we'll get our orders from Washington."

He pointed out that there has been no quota system for the draft in operation since last January. The problem in Air Force Recruiting, according to Traywick, is keeping enlistments under a ceiling rather than up to a quota.

However, there now is no ceiling on enlistments in the Army.

In Austin, Col. Paul Wakefield, State Director of selective service, said his office had no indication that drafting would be necessary in the near future. He said his office would get a 60-day notice whenever inductions were needed, and no such notice had been received.

Sidewalk Sitters Demand Election

WHITNEY, Tex. July 19 (UP)—Voters in this small Central Texas town will be asked to decide July 30 whether a 29-year-old park bench should be removed from the city square.

The 25-foot long bench was removed from the square recently by police on orders from Mayor Fred Brasham, who said some of the elder citizens who "rested" in the square made fresh remarks to women.

A petition, signed mostly by women, charged the bench was unsightly.

But the town's citizens of 70 and upwards, who liked to sit on the bench and whistle and talk about the days back when, were determined to get it back.

They presented a petition, signed by 54 tax payers, at a hearing by the city council last night.

The council, caught between two fires, saw but one peaceful solution to the problem—to let the voters decide it at the polls.

BIG KICK - OFF PARADE TO BE STAGED WEDNESDAY AFTER NOON AT 4 O'CLOCK

JAYCEE PRESIDENT

Wilson Greer is president of the Ranger Junior Chamber of Commerce, the organization that annually presents the Ranger rodeo. Officials have stated that they expect this year's show to be the biggest and best yet staged.

Wednesday Also Opening Date For First Annual Homecoming Of Former Residents

The Ranger Junior Chamber of Commerce's fourth annual rodeo will open in Ranger Wednesday and will be kicked off to the strains of music by six bands headed by the Hardin-Simmons Cowboy Band. In the big rodeo parade at 4 o'clock Friday afternoon. Wednesday also marks the opening of the annual homecoming for former residents of Ranger.

The opening performance of the rodeo will be at 8 o'clock Wednesday night which will be the first of four big night performances.

A total of $3400 will be offered in prizes for winners in the various contests with $600 going to each of the 5 major contests, calf roping, bareback riding, saddle bronc riding, steer wrestling, and Brahma bull riding. Winners in the cutting horse contest and cowgirl sponsor contest will share $200 for each event.

Aside from the contest events, the rodeo will feature Pete Adams of Tulsa, Oklahoma as the announcer, Vernon Miller in clowning stunts, John Lindsey and his trained

Hatton Buys Blooded Jersey

COLUMBUS, O., July 15, 1949 — J. S. Hatton, Ranger, Tex., has purchased the registered Jersey Noble Sport Shorty, the animal comes from the herd owned by A. F. Beck.

The purchase adds to the steadily growing number in this area. Dairymen buy because of the high quality of the milk produce.

Purebred Jerseys are registered by The American Jersey Cattle Club which has its national headquarters in Columbus, O. Several programs are available through The American Jersey Cattle Club to help breeders get the most profits from their Jerseys.

Sultry Weather Back In Texas

By UNITED PRESS
Sultry weather returned to virtually the entire state today after a brief respite from a heat wave.

Several points reported readings of 100 degrees or more yesterday with Presidio in its usual spot with 107. It was 104 at Salt Flat, 101 at El Paso, Laredo and Wink, and 100 at Fort Worth, Childress, Wichita Falls, Mineral Wells and Dalhart.

Overnight, the low was 63 at El Paso and the high minimum 81 at Galveston. Generally, the minimums were in the middle 70s or higher.

Only showers reported to the Dallas Weather Bureau were .31 inch at Houston; .04 at Beaumont; .03 at Salt Flat and .02 at Galveston.

Stock for the show has already arrived, including, Brahmas, hells, bones and calves and Brown Todd is assisting his brother, Homer, in supervision of the stock at the arena.

A number of features in connection with the annual homecoming will also be presented at evening performances of the rodeo.

Dr. Carl Straley who is chairman of the rodeo parade has asked that all people who intend to ride in the parade and all entries be at the intersection of Walnut and North Marston Streets at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. The parade will form at that location and at 4 o'clock will start to roll. The parade will be headed by the Cowboy band from Hardin-Simmons University with bands from Ranger, Stephenville, Breckenridge, Eastland and Comanche participating.

Among the riders in the parade will be Mayor Edgar Dean of Fort Worth and the Sheriff's Posse from Palo Pinto and Parker counties. Dr. P. M. Kuykendall will enter a chuck wagon and Shelland ponies will be entered by the Thomas Funeral Home of Cisco.

Thousands are expected to witness the parade which has been growing in interest, color and size each year.

Professors Pair Off
BURLINGTON, Vt. (UP) — Prof. Lyman S. Rowell of the University of Vermont was hired to teach a summer zoology session at San Diego (Cal.) State College. Prof. Robert Howard of the San Diego college was asked to lecture at the local university. So the two zoologists solved the potential housing problem by agreeing to swap houses.

STREET FIGHTING FLARES THRU GUATEMALA CITY

GUATEMALA CITY, July 19 (UP)—Street fighting flared through Guatemala City early today when loyal government troops and tanks fought off an attempt to seize the capital by Revolutionary Army Artillery Forces.

Observers heard the constant chatter of automatic weapons and the occasional roar of artillery shells exploding in the streets. Loyal Army planes patrolled overhead. Other explosions, believed to be bombs, were heard.

The government of President Juan Jose Arévalo appeared to be in control of the situation but a group of three loyal political parties issued a statement saying "the government is in serious danger."

The revolution broke out yesterday after the week-end assassination of Col. Francisco Arana, Chief of the Armed Forces, and Col. Jorge Barrios Solares, Secretary of the Army.

Both officers were shot to death at Amatitlan, a resort town 12 miles outside the capital, on Sunday. Congress met in emergency session in the national palace yesterday and proclaimed a state of siege.

The sound of gunfire was heard in the National Palace while Congress acted. The state of siege included suspension of constitutional guarantees.

Government officials said an artillery regiment commanded by Col. Hernandez joined the revolutionary movement and attempted to seize the city.

The air force, police and presidential guard units remained loyal to the government, these sources said. They said government forces still controlled the big Matamoros Military Camp on the outskirts of the city.

At least one person was reported killed in the early stages of street fighting shortly after dark last night.

Mario Monteforte Toledo, President of the Guatemalan Congress, declared the fighting marked a full scale revolt against the regime of President Arévalo.

"A period of attacks against members of the government has begun in Guatemala," he told Congress.

Three political parties issued a joint statement announcing their support of the government. They were the revolutionary action, national renovation and a popular front parties.

The revolt was the 20th since President Arévalo assumed office in March, 1945, for a six year term. He was elected in December, 1944, after a revolutionary Junta overthrew the Government of Gen. Federico Ponce.

SUPREME COURT JUSTICE FRANK MURPHY DIES

DETROIT, July 19 (UP)—Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy, early new dealer and close friend of the late President Roosevelt, died today at Henry Ford Hospital.

He was 59.
The red-headed jurist, who during his political career came to grips as much as man with the ills of civilization, was found dead in his hospital bed at 6:45 A. M. CST.

Death was caused by a heart attack. His body was found by a nurse on her routine morning rounds. Doctors said his condition was "all right" last night.

Murphy, former Michigan Governor and Attorney of the United States, had entered the hospital about four weeks ago for a check-up. He had registered under an assumed name. His presence in the city was not generally known.

Appointed by the late President Roosevelt, his elevation to the High Court Feb. 5, 1940, climaxed a long period of public service that began as an Assistant Federal District Attorney in 1919.

His family was not with him when he died. The medical cause of death was given as coronary thrombosis.

Murphy was one of the first important public officials to espouse the principle that caring for the unemployed was a national responsibility. To him, as Governor of Michigan, fell the responsibility of dealing with a new technique in American labor relations — the sit-down strike.

He had scarcely taken office in 1937 when the sit-down epidemic started in Auto Plants of General Motors. His handling of the strike brought sharp criticism from business. But the Bachelor-Jurist never wavered from his belief that Armed Labor conflict should be avoided at all cost.

President Truman was one of the first to send a message of condolence to George Murphy, his brother and Detroit Recorder's Court Judge.

Automatic Tax Board Meets

AUSTIN, Tex. July 19 (UP)—The State Automatic Tax Board meets today to impose a 30-cent ad valorem tax for general revenue purposes.

State Comptroller Robert S. Calvert yesterday released valuation figures on which the board would impose the property tax. The figures showed a total for 1949 of $5,295,992,054 (B), an increase in valuation of $146,263,199 (M) over the previous year.

The 51st Legislature actually set the 30-cent rate, and today's meeting was described by the Governor's office as "perfunctory."

Since the rate was not set last year, re-levying of the tax meant that the tax rate for 1950 would be higher than at present.

The rate will total 72 cents per $100 valuation, with 30 cents of the 72 cents going to the general revenue fund, 35 cents to the state's school fund, five cents to the college building fund and two cents to the Confederate Pension Fund.

Elks To Issue Courtesy Cards To Visitors

Harlan Phillips, exalted ruler of the Elks Lodge in Ranger, stated today that facilities of the lodge are being made available to rodeo and homecoming visitors in Ranger and the visitors are invited to take advantage of the offer.

Phillips stated that any member of the Lodge will be glad to issue courtesy cards to visitors and the cards will admit them to the club and its facilities.

"All the visitors have to do is ask and the courtesy card will be forthcoming," Phillips stated.

Nebraska has a larger percentage of land area in farms than any other state.

Well, folks here it is that annual rodeo edition of the Ranger Daily Times.

This 34 page edition has been made possible through the cooperation of the people of Ranger and surrounding towns and through the untiring efforts of the Times staff. The staff has worked for weeks on the edition and we hope that you like it.

At least one visitor in Ranger will be seeing his first rodeo at the Jaycees rodeo. He is Roy Jolliffe of Moundsville, W. V. who with Mrs. Jolliffe and their daughter, Virginia, are the guests of Mrs. Jolliffe's sister, Mrs. E. L. McMillan. Jolliffe is the sheriff of his county in West Virginia.

Don't forget to add your bit of rodeo color to the celebration by wearing something of western regalia for the remainder of this week.

What a day! Not only were things humming at the office, but Ranger itself was rather busy with what with parking meters becoming effective today and an election all at the same time.

And the Jaycees were hard at work too and as usual we'll take off our hat to those boys. They have been busy for months for the occasion about to be launched and are to be commended for the fine manner in which they put over their rodeo.

In four short years they have built one of the strongest Jaycee clubs in the state and have built a rodeo that is becoming nationally known and which is regarded as one of the best rodeos anywhere.

Pennies and nickles were much in demand about Ranger this morning and one city official in our office searched his pocket for nickles before taking off up town to transact business.

Comments were pro and con today as patrolmen treaded their beats passing out the unwelcome tickets for violations of the parking meter ordinance.

For good or for bad, we've got 'em and the public has been served notice that the city intends to enforce the law regarding use of the meters. Personally, we think they make the Main street look right up-town and believe that they will eventually win the approval of the few that are still "agin" 'em.

Parking Meters Go Into Effect

Use of Parking meters in Ranger became effective this morning and one of the first tickets given for violation of the parking meter ordinance was handed one of the city commissioners. Commissioner Addie Williams was given a ticket for blocking an alley and will pay a fine at the city hall.

City Secretary Lester Crossley stated that by 10:30 o'clock this morning fourteen tickets had been given by patrolmen for violations of the ordinance, including one to Hall Walker for a violation.

City patrolmen have been given strict instructions as to enforcement of the ordinance and they have no alternative when a car is found in violation of the regulations.

The new parking meters provide 12 minute parking for one penny or one hour parking for five cents.

The meters are on a six months trial basis and will be paid for out of the receipts from the meters.

SANATORIUM HEAD

Dr. N. A. Brown

Cisco Sanatorium Rodeo Booster

One of the staunchest out-of-town boosters for the Jaycees Rodeo is the Brown Sanatorium at Cisco which was established there in 1921 and has operated there ever since.

Head of the sanatorium is Dr. N. A. Brown. It now has accommodations for 42 patients at a time with a hospital with accommodations for 50. The first hospital had 15 beds but since its establishment it has gradually expanded. An average of 800 patients is treated every year with people coming from all over Texas and its bordering states and as far away as New York and Maine.

The attending doctors offer a restoration of health through drugless healing.

Texas Electric Here 30 Years

The Texas Electric Service Company is another one of the businesses in Ranger that this year along with the city is observing its 30th anniversary in Ranger.

Texas Electric came into Ranger in the fall of 1919 after buying out the Green Electric Company which had been supplying Ranger with electricity.

A. N. Larson, manager of the Ranger branch, also will observe his 30th anniversary in Ranger, having come to Ranger as an employee of the electric company in November 1919. He is a member of the Quarter Century Club of the company and wears a handsome watch, a gift from the company in recognition of 25 years of service with the company.

Larson stated today that the Ranger company has been steadily expanding since the middle thirties in order to meet the demands of growth in Ranger. Facilities have been expanded to meet the demands for electric service.

Bruce has won a number of awards for his records made in selling the insurance.

Guard Withdraws From Florida Terror Town

GROVELAND, Fla. July 19 — (UP) — National Guardsmen assigned to protect the negro community here withdrew early today after a night of terror in which three negro houses were burned by armed white mobs.

But it was learned that the 75 Guardsmen bivouacked nearby in an officially undisclosed spot in case rampaging gangs seeking vengeance for the rape of a white woman cause further violence.

Capt. Jimmy Herlong, Commander of the Guard detail that was rushed here last night, said early today that his men were "no longer at the scene."

As the rifle-bearing Guardsmen threw a protective cordon around the negro district last night, a leader of the aroused mob of white men warned Herlong to "get the hell out of town."

Herlong said he and his men withdrew from Groveland about 1:30 A. M. it was reported that they were released by Sheriff W. V. McCall, but Herlong would not confirm this.

He said any other announcement would have to come from McCall, who was not immediately available for comment.

Odd Name Hits Twice
DETROIT (UP)—Gaspar Cucinella sounds like an unusual name. Police learned they had been issuing traffic tickets to one Gaspar Cucinella when they should have gone to a second man with the same name. Trouble began when the second one applied for a driver's license. The state told him he had one and sent him a duplicate of the license of the first Gaspar.

Heads Chevrolet

T. H. Keating, for 33 years a Chevrolet salesman, has been named general manager of the Chevrolet Motor Division, world's largest producer of automobiles. Keating worked his way up through the field organization to his previous post of general sales manager. He succeeds W. F. Armstrong.

"Showcase Neckline," modeled after jewelers' display cases, is worn by Mrs. Billy Rose (Eleanor Halm) to dramatize her palladium-set diamond pendant on palladium chain.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our appreciation to our many friends and neighbors who were so kind and thoughtful during our hour of bereavement in the loss of our Husband and Father.

We specially want to thank those who brought in food and the beautiful floral offering, and to Dr. Kuykendall who was so faithful to come. Also Killingsworth Funeral Home and thanks again to our pastor Rev. Kinsfather, God bless each and every one.

SACRAMENTO, Cal. (UP)—

A state survey showed that about one out of each 100 Californians is living in a trailer coach parked on a licensed trailer court. The study estimated that 100,000 persons are dwelling in the mobile quarters but it didn't learn how many resided in the trailers by choice and how many because of the housing shortage.

News Briefs

By United Press

HOUSTON, Tex., July 19 (UP)—

A nine-months old baby died last night in a fall down two stair steps, while the parents dined with friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Almaraz found their son, Michael, Virgil, at the bottom of two steps leading from a screened porch in to the living room.

A physician said the child had lost its balance, and in falling struck its head on the sharp corner of a step.

The Almarazs are political refugees from Rumania, and arrived in this country nine months ago, shortly before Michael Virgil was born.

GALVESTON, Tex., July 19 (UP)—The U. S. Army Engineers today asked for bids on installing a new instrument landing system at Carswell Air Force Base in Ft. Worth.

August 19 was the tentative date set for receipt of bids on the project, which will include three frame buildings, an access road, and electrical equipment to be installed above and below the ground surface.

HOUSTON, Tex., July 19 (UP)—The Texas Company announced today awarding of a contract to a Fort Worth firm to construct a 131-mile crude oil line in North Central Texas.

R. B. McLaughlin, President of the Texas Pipe Line Company said the Smith Contracting Corp. Fort Worth, would set up the line at Chico, Wise County, to extend

Decatur Intends To Tell Public
About The Town

DECATUR, Tex., July 19 (UP)—Two large signs will be remind tourists passing through this small Texas town that this is where the old craps shooters chant, "Eighter from Decatur" got its start.

The city council voted unanimously to post signs at both ends of town on Highway-81, replacing a battered old sign erected 15 years ago.

The new signs were approved despite objection from ministers and church-goers who didn't think Decatur should be famous far the reason.

Others, however, pointed out that tourists who stopped to have their pictures taken shooting dice in front of the sign often lingered to spending money in Decatur.

One filling-station owner suggested putting it in neon to stop some of the night traffic.

Townfolks explained that the "Eighter from Decatur" business started before the turn of the century when a negro girl named Ada lived in this seat of Wise County.

Local historian Cliff Cates said Ada was a sumptuous girl who brought piercing wolf-whistles from negro cowpunchers.

Whenever they shot for an eight point they'd yell for "Ada from Decatur, the county seat of Wise."

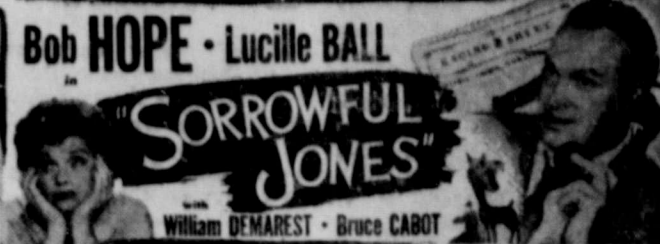

But northerners insisted on pronouncing Decatur the way it was spelled and the chant soon developed into a cry for "Eighter from Decatur."

southwestward to Corsicana. Work on the 12 3-4 inch line was to start immediately.

The Fort Worth corporation's bid was not revealed.
