Quake Rocks Two States

By LEONARD LEFKOW

RENO (AP)—A rolling earthquake of high intensity shook northern Nevada and California early today but only minor damage was reported.

The quake, described as the heaviest of three that have jarred this area since last July, was felt as far as Elko, Nev., 200 miles east of here, and throughout most of California to the west.

It was timed at 3:07 a.m. in Reno and 3:10 a.m. in San Francisco. A second, minor, tremor was felt here at 3:09.

Fallon, Nev., a small agricultural community approximately 60 miles east of Reno and the center of two recent quakes, was believed to be the center of today's quake.

However, Sheriff George Wilkins said preliminary checks showed only "minor damage with some ceilings cracked and some bricks knocked loose." He said his deputies still were checking the outlying farm areas which took the brunt of other shocks.

Wilkins said today's earthquake was "by far the heaviest of all three." He attributed Fallon's light damage to the fact the "last quake just about knocked everything down that was at all loose."

Parts of Lovelock, Nev., also east of Reno, were blacked out when a section of the city's electric power system failed briefly. However, no other damage was reported. Lovelock police also described today's quake as heavier than the previous ones.

Pacific Gas & Electric Co., giant utility serving most of California, said a check of its system indicated the earthquake was felt almost from the Oregon border to deep in Southern California. A PG&E spokesman said, however, there were no reports of damage.

The temblor was felt as far south as the Los Angeles area, 500-plus miles from the center. San Diego police, another 150 miles away, said that city almost on the Mexican border did not feel any shock.

In Los Angeles chandeliers swayed on the 12th floor of the Pacific Telephone & Telegraph Co. building. Windows rattled in Leimert Park and water sloshed in a swimming pool in west Los Angeles.

The town of Bishop, east of the Sierra Nevada range, reported a three-minute rolling quake at about 3:09 a.m., followed by a 30 second tremblor five minutes later. No damage was reported.

At Visalia and Porterville in California's Tulare County south of Fresno, sheriff's officers reported the quake was felt only slightly. A sheriff's dispatcher at Visalia said "I thought I was getting sick until I looked up and saw the light fixtures waving."

Residents at Hollister southeast of San Francisco timed the quake at 3:10 a.m. and said it lasted one minute or longer. It rattled fixtures in houses.

Apparently few people other than tourists noticed the quake in San Francisco. Police said the few calls they had came mostly from hotels. The city quivered a bit, but there were no reports of damage.

Throughout western Nevada, residents reported they were awakened by a heavy rumbling, rolling motion that culminated in a violent jar. Some people said they felt the quake for as long as four minutes.

Firms Offer To Buy Land From Vets

By MAC ROY RASOR

AUSTIN (AP)—An attorney for three South Texas land development companies told the State Veterans Land Board today the company wants to buy back land they have sold any veteran who is dissatisfied with his purchase.

Everett Looney of Austin appeared before the full board at a meeting called in connection with alleged irregularities in veteran land deals in South Texas.

Looney said he represented the Rio Val Development Co., Winter Garden Development Co., and the Alamo Development Co.

He said if any dissatisfied veteran will convey back his land bought from any of the three corporations, the corporations will assume the obligation of paying all delinquencies and meet all future installments.

A letter was read to the board making the offer specifically in regard to 763.8 acres of land in Maverick County sold to the board Jan. 1, 1951, for $149,969 and conveyed to 21 veteran purchasers. The letter was signed "Rio Development Co., by C.L. Carey, president." The return address was a Yoakum post office box.

"We make this unconditional offer in view of the persistent publicity which seems to question the good faith of the parties to this transaction," the letter said.

Looney said the offer also applied to all lands sold the board by any of the three companies.

Sheppard's Lawyer Raps Authorities

By RELMAN MORIN

CLEVELAND (AP)—Dr. Samuel Sheppard's lawyer, summing up his defense, accused Cleveland authorities today of having used the methods of dictator governments in their handling of the case.

He said they have threatened the democratic processes of America.

Turning toward reporters, William Corrigan said:

"This case signifies the creaking of the ropes behind the scenes. You might consider your colleague, William Oatis of the Associated Press, and how he was forced to confess in Czechoslovakia. You might consider the Czech lawyers and what happened to them."

Corrigan said constitutional rights had been lost in other countries and cried "These things can happen here, too. They are happening."

Corrigan's words, on another point, brought tears to Sheppard's eyes. He lowered his head and held a handkerchief over his face.

The accused man broke down when Corrigan referred to the fact that the body of the Sheppards' unborn child was removed from the body of the murdered Marilyn Sheppard and kept in the morgue, "to show students and curiosity seekers."

He accused the authorities of "looking for publicity," of having "jumped to a conclusion" about Sheppard's guilt, of conducting a "sloppy autopsy, one they should be ashamed of," and of being "crude" in their references in court to some phases of the case.

"They made a mistake," the grey-haired chief lawyer shouted, "and they're not big enough to admit it. They are to be condemned."

Corrigan said the police, the prosecutor's office and the coroner never were able to evolve a believable theory of the motive for the murder.

"So they evolved the theory that Marilyn Sheppard was killed because she was pregnant," he said, his voice bitter and scathing.

He accused Cleveland newspapers of creating an atmosphere of "hysteria." Then naming and pointing at the three prosecution lawyers, he said they all went to the scene of the murder, entered the investigation, and gave out statements.

"They're not a police force," Corrigan cried. "They're not hired for that. But there was publicity to be gained."

Kiwanis Set To Distribute Food, Toys

The Kiwanis Club is readying for its annual Christmas activities, which include distribution of food and toys to the families of underprivileged children.

The club this week is checking its lists of families previously on the needy list to see how many still reside here and are needy. It is also gathering names of any families not included on the list previously.

The club annually distributes groceries for a Christmas dinner to needy families here and makes gifts of toys to the children. Residents have been asked to gather up toys not being used or in need of repair and to take them to the high school shop building, where students will do any necessary repair work and pass them on to the Kiwanians for distribution. There have been many toys already turned in, and students are busy with repair work.

At 10 o'clock Saturday morning, the Palace Theatre will begin a movie for children. The Palace is cooperating with the Kiwanis Club in its project and will charge children one toy or one can of food for admission. These will be included in the club's gifts to needy families here, according to L. A. McClanahan, chairman of the club's committee.

Soviet Note Threatens To Void '44 Pact

MOSCOW (AP) — Russia warned France today that ratification of the Paris Agreements to rearm West Germany "will cross out and annul" the French-Soviet Mutual Assistance Treaty of 1944.

The warning was in a formal note handed by Soviet Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov to the French ambassador, Louis Joxe.

The note charged that the government of Premier Mendes-France has allied itself with "anti-Soviet military groupings headed by the United States."

It was announced Molotov and and the government take a favorable view of recent statements by Foreign Minister Mamoru Shigemitsu of the new government of Japan stating that Japan desires "a normalization" of relations with Russia.

Debate on the Paris pacts is to start next week in the French Parliament.

The note to France charged that recent policies of its government "all bear witness to the fact that ratification of the Paris agreements are aimed at remilitarizing western Germany and therefore will inevitably and seriously complicate the whole situation in Europe.

"Therefore, ratification only serves the purposes of certain states engaged in preparing a new war," it said.

"Under such circumstances the Soviet government considers it its duty to state that the act of ratification of the Paris Agreements will annul the Soviet-Franco Treaty.

"The entire responsibility for this will rest upon the French government."

France has a 20-year treaty of friendship signed with Russia. Its chief purpose was to guard against the rebirth of German aggression.

Molotov in a Moscow address Friday asserted Russia "could not be blamed if it regarded the Western Alliance as a military menace."

Release Of Cardinal Lacks Confirmation

VIENNA, Austria (AP)—The Austrian Catholic news service Kathpress quotes informed circles in Budapest as reporting Josef Cardinal Mindszenty has been released from prison in Hungary. But the agency says there is no confirmation of the report.

The Vatican also said it had no confirmation of similar reports.

Kathpress said it received information from well-informed sources in Budapest that the cardinal had been freed one week ago and had gone to his diocese.

The Catholic news service report said, under a Budapest dateline: "In usually well-informed circles of the Hungarian capital it was reported yesterday that Cardinal Mindszenty, who has been held in prison since 1949, was released a week ago and has gone to his diocese.

"While diplomatic quarters in Budapest know nothing exactly about his release, the archbishop's palace at Esztergom (Mindszenty's Diocese) declared that the primate is not staying in Esztergom.

"The report of the cardinal's release itself was neither confirmed nor denied by the palace."

Endre Marton, Associated Press correspondent in Budapest, said by telephone he had heard nothing to indicate that Cardinal Mindszenty has been released.

The Communists arrested Mindszenty on Dec. 26, 1948, after a long running fight with the cardinal who as an archbishop had been imprisoned by the Nazis for his defiance.

From the time he was raised to the rank of cardinal in February, 1946, Mindszenty had fought the Russian occupation forces and the Hungarian Communists who gradually took over the country. The battle reached a high pitch when the Communists announced plans to nationalize Roman Catholic schools. When the law was instituted, the cardinal ordered church bells throughout Hungary to toll.

In subsequent statements Mindszenty warned against Communist propaganda and urged Catholics to boycott the government.

Mindszenty was sentenced to life imprisonment by a Red court Feb. 8, 1949. The court convicted him of treason, seeking to overthrow the Communist government in favor of the Hapsburg monarchy and illegal trading in dollars from the United States and the Vatican.

The trial and sentence brought a crescendo of indignation from the Western world. President Truman termed the action "infamous."

The Catholic Press Agency reported on Oct. 8 that Mindszenty's jailers were permitting him to see his aged mother once a month and that his health was poor. The news service said then that the prelate had been confined to a villa near Nogradveroce since May and was taken each month to a point near Budapest to see his mother.

At the same time a report circulated in Western Europe that the Hungarian Information Ministry had announced Mindszenty would be released, but the Hungarian legation in Vienna said it knew nothing about this.

Lawmakers Favor Prisoner Exchange

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP)—Several key lawmakers said today they favor efforts to exchange 35 Chinese students in this country for 57 Americans detained in Red China, including 11 airmen imprisoned by the Communists as "spies."

Rep. Joseph W. Martin of Massachusetts, retiring speaker of the House, said that if the students want to go to Red China he would welcome any negotiations that might lead to such an exchange.

But he and Sen. Ferguson (R-Mich), retiring head of the Senate Republican Policy Committee, said there must be no deal which would force the return to his homeland of any Chinese who wished to remain in this country.

The State Department indicated through Press Officer Lincoln White yesterday that the United States might consider any offer forthcoming from Red China to exchange for the Americans Chinese students who have applied for exit permits but thus far have been denied them.

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he knew of no reason why this government should insist on keeping in this country any students who wanted to return to China.

The State Department has said the 35 involved have not been permitted to leave because specialized skills they acquired here might be valuable to the Communists from a military standpoint.

"The fact that these students may have learned some valuable technique does not justify holding them in this country if they wish to return to China," Sparkman said.

Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said that while he doubts the advisability of any "deal" with the Chinese Communists, he is willing to back any decision Eisenhower administration officials make on negotiations.

Dag Hammarskjold, United Nations secretary general, is attempting to arrange a meeting with Communist China's Premier Chou En-lai to discuss the fate of the 11 imprisoned airmen as a followup to the U.N.'s 47-5 vote condemning their sentencing.

In Los Angeles, retiring GOP Senate Leader Knowland of California voiced hope these efforts will be successful, but he added: "I have my doubts."

He told a news conference that if the U.N. efforts do fail, "we can't sit back and let Americans in American uniforms stay in Communist jails." He renewed his suggestion that this country might blockade Red China — a proposal which President Eisenhower has rejected as an act of war.

While the first State Department reaction had been adverse to hints from the Peiping radio that an exchange deal might be acceptable, White said yesterday that consideration of any offer which might be forthcoming "would depend entirely on the nature of the offer and the circumstances as of that moment."

Observing that "our concern is to get our people safely home," White said that 57 Americans still are held in Red China, including the 11 sentenced airmen, 4 other Air Force personnel also in jail, 28 imprisoned civilians, 3 civilians under house arrest and 11 who have been denied exit permits.

He contended that the Chinese students in this country had been treated in a perfectly proper manner, whereas he said the airmen had been held illegally by the Peiping regime.

Yates Goes Before SEC

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eugene Yates, a key figure in the Dixon-Yates Power controversy, went before the Securities and Exchange Commission (Sec) today to testify on plans for financing a new 107-million-dollar power plant near the Tennessee Valley.

Yates, head of the Southern Co., faced questioning also on his conversations with government and utility officials leading to the power contract.

The commission will decide whether to permit the Southern Co., and Middle South Utilities, headed by Edgar Dixon, to buy the 5½ million dollar capital stock of the Mississippi Valley Generating Co. That firm was organized by the two holding companies to construct and operate the proposed plant under a 25-year contract with the Atomic Energy Commission (AEC).

The plant would furnish power to the Tennessee Valley Authority (TVA) in the Memphis area. Some TVA electricity now is used by the AEC.

Joseph Volpe Jr., attorney for Tennessee and some public power organizations who have joined to fight the contract, indicated he will seek an official government statement on the defense purposes of the contract.

Rules Panel May Get Wings Clipped

By WILLIAM F. ARBOGAST

WASHINGTON (AP) — Evidently concerned by a threat of a coalition roadblock in the Rules Committee, House Democratic leaders are considering a plan to curb that committee's power in the new Congress.

When Democrats organize the House Jan. 5, they may propose restoration of the 21-day rule which was in effect in 1949-50. This rule, in practice, limited to 21 calendar days the time the Rules Committee could hold up bills approved by regular legislative committees.

At the expiration of the 21-day period, the chairman of the committee that originally approved the bill could call it up for a House vote.

The 21-day rule was repealed in 1951. The Rules Committee now can block legislation almost indefinitely — a power it has exercised freely in past years.

In the new Congress, the Rules Committee will be composed of eight Democrats and four Republicans. The Republicans will be composed of eight Democrats and four Republicans. The Republicans will be Representatives Allen of Illinois, Clarence Brown of Ohio, Ellsworth of Oregon and Latham of New York, the top Republicans on the committee in the present Congress. Only three of the four Democrats now on the committee will be in the new Congress. They are two Southerners — Representatives Howard Smith of Virginia and Colmer of Mississippi—and Rep. Madden of Indiana.

Smith, by virtue of seniority, will be the new chairman.

That leaves five seats to be filled by Democrats at a party caucus early next month. One is reserved for Rep. Delaney of New York, a Democrat who lost his committee post two years ago when Democrats had to trim their membership from eight down to four as Republicans took over the committee.

In the past, Smith and Colmer have frequently voted with the Republicans on legislation which they label "New Dealish" or "liberal." On the assumption that they will continue to do so on some bills, Democratic leaders figure that at best they will sometimes get only a tie vote in the Rules Committee, even with the addition of four hand-picked new members.

It takes a majority of seven votes to get a bill out of the committee and onto the floor for debate.

Knowland Thinks Reds Will Spread By 1956

LS ANGELES (AP)—Sen. Knowland (R-Calif) predicted last night that under certain circumstances the Soviets in 1955 or 1956 might move into parts of the world they do not now occupy.

He said this could come about if there is "a power vacuum or an indication of weakness," and it might be the Soviets themselves or action through Red China.

He added in a talk sponsored by the American Bureau for Medical Aid for Free China that he expected "great pressure" in 1955 to get Red China into the United Nations. This, he said, would only give prestige to Russia in the eyes of the world and then all of Asia will go down."

Plans Drafted By NATO Supported

PARIS (AP) — The United States feels western Europeans must rely on atomic weapons if they want to be defended against Communist attack instead of being liberated from an occupation later, a reliable source said today.

The American government is thus putting itself squarely behind defense plans drafted by the military committee of the North Atlantic Treaty Organization (NATO), which come up before NATO foreign, defense and finance ministers here tomorrow.

U.S. Secretary of State Dulles, French Premier Pierre Mendes-France and British Foreign Secretary Anthony Eden were to meet on this and other subjects today in advance of the NATO council session. The informant gave this as the American position:

American diplomats will oppose any rigid procedure restricting use of atomic weapons, including small tactical arms, on the ground that this would reduce the deterrent value of allied arms and, to this extent, make aggression more likely.

The political and military thinking which the United States supports is based on two main premises. The first is that western Europeans want to be defended, not liberated.

NATO military leaders have worked out a "new look" plan which they believe can defend Europe. It involves the use of atomic arms.

NATO's military committee — the chiefs of staff of the 14 member countries—agreed yesterday on a report to the ministers basing their future defense plans on the use of such new weapons as the American atomic cannon. Unless such arms can be used to meet a sudden attack, the military experts agreed, the West must raise standing armies much larger than those now planned.

But the NATO chiefs of staff said their government's political leaders, not the military, must decide when a clash constitutes an outbreak of war requiring the more terrifying weapons in the Western arsenal. Many Europeans fear if such a decision is left to the military, a quick - triggered general could touch off World War III by using an atomic weapon in a local frontier clash that otherwise could be mediated.

To counter objections that consultation among all 14 NATO governments would be too lengthy a process in an emergency, French sources said Mendes-France had drafted a proposal that the NATO Council give emergency powers to act for it in a crisis to a new political "standing group" set up in Paris by the United States, Britain and France.

Such a three-man committee would parallel NATO's military standing group which the Big Three maintains in Washington to direct the alliance's military strategy.

S-D Day Here Is Successful

Traffic patrol officers here reported this morning there were no accidents in Scurry County during "Safe-Driving Day" yesterday.

Sheriff Homer Whisnand said that his office answered one complaint about reckless driving during the day, but that when sheriff's officers reached the scene, the car had disappeared.

City police did not issue any traffic violation tickets during the day.

Although "S-D Day" was a success here, it was less successful over the state and nation. There was one traffic-caused death in Texas. A 60-year-old woman was killed when run over in Fort Worth.

Throughout the nation there were 48 traffic fatalities, more than had been hoped for, but fewer than the daily average for the year. Throughout the first 10 months this year automobile accidents killed an average of 97 persons per day over the nation, and the daily average in both 1952 and 1953 was 104 per day.

The Texas fatality was Mrs. Tommie Haas, about 60, killed by a car driven by TCU student Dan Whelan Jr., of Marshall, when she attempted to walk across a busy street.

Surgery For Pope Hinted

VATICAN CITY (AP)—Detailed X-rays of 78-year-old Pope Pius XII showed today that he is suffering from a small hernia in the diaphragm and gastritis, his doctor announced.

Specialists planned to make a detailed study of the X-rays pictures later today, after which a medical bulletin may be issued. It appeared likely that the doctors would decide on an operation to correct the hernia.

Dr. Raffaele Paolucci di Valmaggiore, famous surgeon who has been a consultant on the Pope's case, said last week that such an operation would be a "very minor and local affair" which the seriously ill pontiff could survive.

Dr. Riccardo Galeazzi-Lisi, the Pope's private physician, said after a two-hour examination this morning that the hernia is of "small importance." He said the X-rays did not reveal the presence of a stomach ulcer, which had been feared since the pontiff's grave collapse Dec. 2.

Msgr. Angelo Dell'Acqua, the Vatican's substitute secretary of state, announced following the morning examination that the results of the X-rays "are tranquilizing."

The pontiff was reported somewhat tired by the detailed tests. He had slept longer than usual last night and heard Mass before he was examined.

Norther Heads To Panhandle

By The Associated Press

Another cold front, moving very fast, raced for the Texas Panhandle Thursday and was due to enter Central Texas by nightfall.

Ahead of the front temperatures were rising and strong to fresh southeasterly winds were blowing. A springlike day was in prospect until the front struck and the winds reversed directions to the northwest.

A light freeze was predicted for Thursday night as far south as the Fort Worth area.

Shortly before dawn, temperatures ranged from 58 at Galveston to 45 at Dallas and 31 at Lufkin, and Dalhart.

Boy Scout Banquet Set Here Tonight

The Lone Buffalo Boy Scout district will hold its annual meeting at 7 o'clock tonight in the junior high cafeteria and will install new officers.

Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber of Commerce manager, will be main speaker for the event.

The new officers are W. W. Park, chairman; Stanley Noah, district commissioner; J. T. Merritt, assistant district commissioner; C. E. McGaw, advancement; W. A. Vestel, camping and activities; H. L. Wren, health and safety; Dr. Tom Hartley, organization and extension; T. D. Wiman, training; and Lyle Deffebach, public relations. All are of Snyder except Merritt, who is of Colorado City.

The district covers Scurry, Mitchell, and Borden Counties. Bob Eastus is district executive.

Units represented are:

Troops — 21, Loraine, sponsored by Canaan Baptist Church, Albert Brown, Jr., scoutmaster; 20, Colorado City, First Methodist Church, Bob Quick; 22, Colorado City, First Baptist Church, Pat Shields; 23, Colorado City, Lions Club, R. D. Parrish, Jr.; 45, Colorado City, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Frank Ginzel; 29, Colorado City, Community Club, Hampton Boozier; 23, Colorado City, Presbyterian Church, Clarence Rea; 28, Fluvanna, schools, Sam Bruner; 27, Snyder, First Methodist Church, B. J. Bartels; 34, Snyder, Optimist Club, Clyde Byrd; 35, Snyder, Kiwanis Club, Don Bradley and Rudy Crabtree; 36, Snyder, Rotary Club, Kenneth Wheeler; 38, Snyder, First Baptist Church, Joe Farrar; 77, Hermleigh, Lions Club, W. A. Ervin; 100, Snyder, Lions Club, D. V. Merritt, Jr.; 111, Snyder, St. Elizabeth's Catholic Church, W. J. Mapes. 123, Snyder, VFW, E. G. Garrett; 107, Snyder, Lincoln School, Fred Sanford; and 110, Snyder, American Legion, H. H. Bearden.

Cub packs — 21, Loraine, Canaan Baptist, W. M. Rose; 124, Loraine, First Methodist Church, Martin Dobbs; 8, Colorado City, First Christian Church, Dr. Jene Steakley; 22, Colorado City, First Baptist, Gene Parker; 120, Colorado City, First Methodist, Paul Hunter; 27, Snyder, First Methodist, T. Other units are explorer post 121, Loraine, Canaan Baptist, Artie Griffin; Sea Scout ship 10, Colorado City, American Legion, J. A. Sad[illegible] Jr.; and ship 27, Snyder, Fi[illegible]thodist, Ray McCallum.

AREA OIL ROUNDUP

Devonian Wildcat Slated In Gaines

Republic Natural Gas Co. announced location yesterday for a 12,500-foot Devonian wildcat in Southeast Gaines County. At the same time, Honolulu Oil Corp., Cyrus B. Frost, Jr., and others spotted sites for wildcats in Terry and Garza Counties.

Republic Natural Gas will dig No. 1 Chilton as a one and one-half-mile southwest outpost to the Chilton - Pennsylvanian field 20 miles southeast of Seminole.

The discovery well, lone producer in the field, is Magnolia Petroleum No. 1 Chilton, which drilled to the Devonian where it failed to develop commercial production.

Republic No. 1 Chilton is 6,250 feet from south and east lines of league 288, Gray County School Land survey.

Honolulu will drill No. 1-B Ella Covington as an 8,000-foot wildcat in Northwest Terry County 14 miles north of Tokio. Site is 660 feet from south and 1,980 feet from west lines of section 5-D1-C&M.

Frost and others staked site for a 3,900-foot wildcat inside production in the PHD field of Northwest Garza County which produces above 3,600 feet.

The new test is No. 1 S. M. Lewis, 330 feet from north and west lines of section 1281, BS&SF survey, 10 miles northwest of Post.

KENT FIELD TRY

Honolulu Oil Corp. of Midland has filed application to drill the No. 5 Newman Brothers in the SMS-Canyon sand field of Northwest Kent County. A location has been made 330 feet from south and east lines of the north 219.5 acres of section 2, scrap file 12660½. The company has asked an exception to rule 37.

Contract depth is 6,300 feet.

MITCHELL COUNTY

The Ibex Co. of Breckenridge has asked permission of the Railroad Commission to re-enter for re-completion two wells drilled in 1922 and 1930 in the Westbrook field of Mitchell County.

Ibex No. 2 Tom is 2,411.5 feet from south and 2,853.5 feet from east lines of section 31-28-tln-T&P, four miles northwest of Westbrook. Ibex is to use cable tools to drill out to 2,552 feet for the re-completion try. This well was drilled in 1922 by Sloan & Spradling as the No. 1 Sloan & Spradling.

Ibex No. 1 Tom is 2,743.5 feet from north and 660 feet from east lines of the same acreage. It is to be re-entered to 3,112 feet. It was originally drilled in 1930 by Earl Morrison as the No. 1 Zalpha Morrison.

BORDEN EXTENDER

A quarter of a mile west extension to the Good-Northeast field of Southwest Borden County has been virtually assured with the development of flowing oil on a drill-stem test at Texaco No. 1-C A. M. Clayton.

The well had gas at the surface in three minutes and oil in seven, and flowed 77 barrels of oil in the last 63 minutes of the test. The tool was open 70 minutes. The Pennsylvanian zone tested was from 8,148-172 feet. Pipe was being pulled at last report.

STERLING WILDCAT

W. M. and A. P. Fuller of Midland have announced the site for an 8,000-foot Ellenburger wild in Northeast Sterling County.

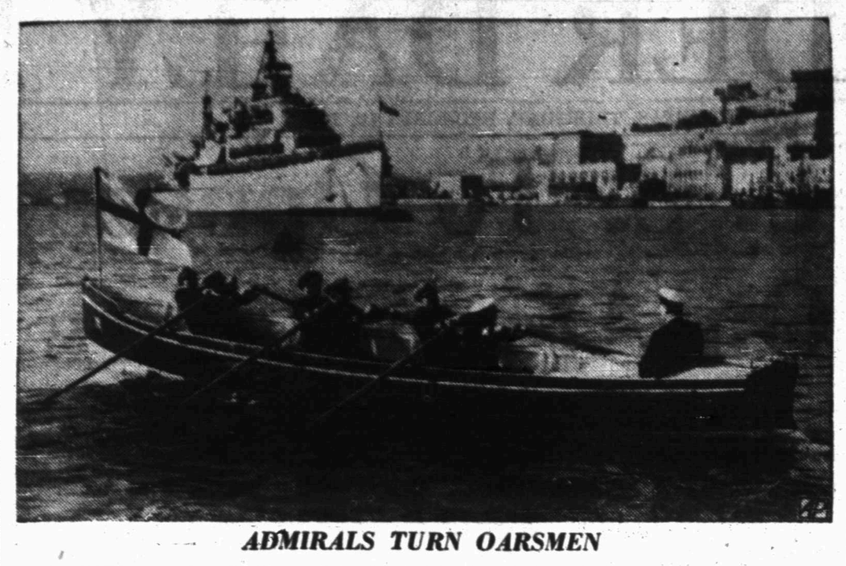
It will be the No. 1 W. R. Davis, 660 feet from south and east lines of section 73-2-H&TC, 15 miles northeast of Sterling City. It is two miles west of the Fuller Coke-Strawn field of Northwest Coke County.

DRILLING REPORT

Forest Oil Corp. No. 1 H. H. Eiland, Southwest Scurry County wildcat, is drilling in lime and shale below 4,705. Hanley Co. No. 1 Yeager is drilling below 3,260 feet in lime.

Tennessee Production No. 1 Fambrough in Borden County is drilling in shale below 6,971 feet.

Shell Oil No. 1 Clayton-Johnson, Borden wildcat, is drilling below 8,475 feet in lime after a 90-minute drillstem test from 8,313-353 feet. The tool was opened with a strong blow of air which continued throughout the test. Recovery was 90 feet of slightly gas-cut and slightly water-cut mud with 3,810 feet of slightly gas-cut salt water. Flowing pressure ranged from 250-1,475 pounds, with 30-minute shutin pressure 3,075 feet.



ADMIRALS TURN OARSMEN

Ike's Attitude Is Pleasing To Critic

By JACK BELL

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Gore (D-Tenn) said today President Eisenhower has only to maintain his present attitude to get more cooperation from the Democratic 84th Congress on foreign and military problems than he received from the Republican 83rd.

Gore, who labeled himself as "one of the severest critics" of some Eisenhower administration domestic policies, said he was impressed with the President's moves toward consultation with Democrats on international and defense matters.

Eisenhower told his news conference yesterday he believes Democrats will give very real cooperation on national security, foreign aid and international diplomatic programs. He said he expects the maximum of support from Republicans on these and domestic proposals he makes.

Observing that the President appeared to be entirely sincere in his intentions to consult with the Democrats before decisions were made, Gore said:

"If he maintains that attitude, he will get general cooperation from us. As one of the severest critics of some of his domestic policies, I will not hesitate to give my wholehearted support to him on international and military problems.

"In fact, if his attitude remains the same, he will get more backing in those fields from the next Congress than he did from the last because there will be fewer Republicans to oppose his foreign policies."

Sen. Sparkman (D-Ala), a member of the Senate Foreign Relations Committee, said he was pleased with Eisenhower's plan to have Cabinet members consult the top Democrats and Republicans on responsible congressional committees before decisions are crystallized on various programs.

Eisenhower gave no indication, however, that such consultation would extend to purely domestic problems, and Democrats, in turn, made it clear that opposition to some of these proposals will be vigorous.

Eisenhower's announcement that he will ask Congress to continue present rates of corporation and excise taxes that otherwise would drop April 1 was met by Gore with a proposal for repeal of the administration-supported cut in dividend taxes voted by the 83rd Congress.

Three Children, Two Adults Perish In Fire

NORTHPORT, Maine (AP)—A flash-fire roared through a fashionable home in this Penobscot Bay community yesterday, killing three young sons of medicine millionaire Edwin Grove III and a middle-aged couple caring for them.

The fire generated such intense heat that it was seven hours before firemen could enter and recover the bodies of Jeffrey, 4, David, 6, and Christopher Grove, 8; Harvey S. Bean, 58, and his wife Madeline, 57, of Vienna, Maine.

The boys' parents were in Boston, where Mrs. Grove is expecting the birth of a fourth child soon.

Gas Fire Due To Burn Out

BEAUMONT (AP)—Flames from a burping 3900-foot ethylene gas storage well were expected to burn out today or tonight, more than 24 hours after an explosion and fire that injured 10 men.

The blast and fire came around 2:30 p.m. yesterday about 15 miles southwest of here in the Fannett Oil Field of the Gulf Oil Corp.

It flowed more than eight hours of attempts to halt a leak discovered in a valve atop the 150,000-barrel storage area.

Those injured were among about 15 or 20 company workers and construction workers standing near the well.

A. C. Abshier of Gulf said the well blew up as one of the men tried to place a tool around the valve where the leak had been discovered.

He said the blaze would have to burn itself out, since efforts of a Halliburton Oil Well Cementing Co. crew to put out the blaze were unsuccessful.

LETTERS TO SANTA

Dear Santa:
I am a little girl eight years old. I would like a tiny tear doll and a cash register. Santa I have been a good little girl.
Don't forget other little children.

Former Model Placed Under Peace Bond

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP)—A 23-year-old former model is under a $500 peace bond to keep her away from Gar Wood, millionaire boat builder.

The 74-year-old Wood told Peace Justice Kenneth Oka yesterday that Lucille Stiglich threatened his life "dozens of times."

The statuesque brunette said she had acquired a gun, Wood testified. He said he hadn't seen the weapon, but told the court "It's a threat I don't want hanging over my head."

Miss Stiglich did not appear for the hearing. She once claimed Wood had promised to marry her and had answered his peace bond suit with a cross complaint charging that he beat her on a Miami Beach street Nov. 17. Her complaint was dropped with approval of her attorney.

Texas Due To Regain Post On Committee

WASHINGTON (AP)—A top Democratic leader in Congress, who doesn't want his name used, said yesterday Texas will regain a spot on the powerful House Ways and Means Committee.

The source said Rep. Frank Ikard of Wichita Falls probably will be assigned to the tax-raising committee.

The last Texan on the group was the late Rep. J. M. Combs of Beaumont. Ikard has been on the Government Operations Committee.

The same Democratic leader said that Rep. Homer Thornberry of Austin probably will be assigned to the House Rules Committee.

Fines Paid Here On Bootlegging Counts

Lemuel Harrison (Shag) Hudson, 51, numerously convicted Snyder bootlegger, paid minimum fines in county court yesterday when he pleaded guilty to two counts of bootlegging. He was fined $100 plus court cost of $23.50 in each case.

The charges, both alleging illegal sale of liquor to a secret agent of the state liquor control board, were filed last month. At the time of his arrest, Hudson was free from imprisonment although he was still under assessment of unserved jail time on previous convictions.

Hudson had been released from the county jail because of medical testimony from a physician that the prisoner had a serious liver disease and could not live long.

Civil Suit At Andrews Settled After One Day

After one day of trial in district court at Andrews, a civil suit of Jeff Woods of Andrews vs. Frank Montgomery of Midland was settled for $41,350.

The plaintiff, represented by Pat Benne, Snyder attorney, and John Watts, Odessa attorney, sued for personal injury. The defendant, a contractor who also has a Snyder office, was represented by Henry Strausburger of Dallas, Martell McDonald of Odessa, and Max Ramsey of Andrews.

Local Science Pupils Take Talent Tests

Six Snyder High School students yesterday took science aptitude tests, participating a science talent search being administered by Science Service for the Westinghouse Science Scholarships.

The search is being made to discover and foster education of students with skill, talent, and creative originality in science. Students taking the tests here, which were given under student counseller Carter Parks, were Leonard Hale, Margaret McPherson, Clare Smith, Paul Nelson, Hubert O'Neal and Eleanor Browning, all seniors.

Forty boys and girls who lead in preliminary exams will be given all-expense-paid trips to Washington to atend the Science Talent Institute for five days early next spring and take final examinations for the scholarships. There are 27 states conducting the preliminary tests. One contestant will be chosen for a Westinghouse grand science scholarship of $700 per year for four years. Nine more will receive scholarships.

As part of the preliminary exams, each must submit a report of about 1,000 words on "My Scientific Project." Clare Smith's report is on diffusion and concentration of phosphorous 32 in the body of a goldfish and preparation of radioautographs, for which she won first place in the physical science division of the Texas Academy of Science last weekend. The report of Margaret McPherson is on "Silica — Our Friend and Foe." Nelson's report is on the relationship of silica to total dissolved solids in subsurface waters in this county. Hale's is on subsurface water here, while O'Neal gave a mineralogical essay on Scurry County ores. Eleanor Browning's project title had not been given given. Students are allowed to continue the projects after the exam is given.

Trial Of Civil Suit Opens In Court Here

Trial began this morning in the civil district court suit of Hester Wallace Baldock and others vs. C. M. Payne and wife, breach of contract.

The suit concerns two lots of land adjacent to the Lubbock highway north of here. The plaintiffs contend that the defendant breached his contract in purchase by installment plan of the lots from the plaintiffs. The defendants claim the contract was voided by the plaintiffs, however, in that the lots were not in a restricted area so far as types of structures in that area were concerned and that the contract had stipulated that the area was restricted.

Attorney for the plaintiffs is Mike Mason of Odessa. The Paynes are represented by the Snyder law firm of Sentell & Rosser.

Gun Blast Kills Mother

WAR, W.Va. (AP) — Raymond Ritchie, 17, was guarding a mine against prowlers when someone suddenly opened the door of his shanty. He fired a shotgun blast. Moments later he discovered he had killed his mother, Mrs. Oscar Bolen, who had come to bring him coffee. Authorities said he was being held on a murder charge.

TRUMAN PRESENTS GIFT

Former President Harry S. Truman, left, presents a portrait of Benjamin Franklin to Secretary of the Interior Douglas McKay in Philadelphia for permanent exhibition at Independence Hall. The canvas, painted by Joseph S. Duplessis around 1885, was given to Truman by Gen. Charles De Gaulle, who said it expressed French gratitude for the liberation from Hitler tyranny.

Employes Are Honored At Christmas Party

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hughes, 3700 Austin Avenue, honored the employes of radio station KSNY and their guests at a buffet dinner Monday evening in their home.

Featured on the buffet table, covered with a cloth of red net over red satin, was an arrangement of Santa Claus and his sleigh with the reindeer ascending on a large wall mirror behind the arrangement.

Guests were seated in the living room at individual tables covered with red and green cloths and centered with miniature Christmas tree arrangements.

Gifts were exchanged at a white Christmas tree. There were 17 guests present.

Scouts To Meet Friday

The Girl Scout Holiday will be observed at 4:15 p.m., Friday, at Towle Memorial Park instead of Thursday as it was previously announced. Members of all troops in Snyder will meet at that time to sing Christmas carols around a campfire.

Hostesses at the Alpha Study Club Christmas dinner Tuesday night were Mrs. F. G. Sears, left, and Mrs. J. E. Sentell. They are shown with the special holiday cranberry salad that they prepared in individual molds and served to the guests along with a turkey dinner. The party was given in Mrs. Sentell's home, 3101 Avenue X. (Lee Watson photograph)

Special Holiday Baking Is An Old American Tradition

By ANITA HALL

Part of the hustle and bustle of Christmas preparations involves that extra special baking that is as familiar in American homes as the Christmas stocking hanging at the mantel. All homemakers seem to put special efforts into their Christmas baking to make the holiday season as successful as possible.

For the next few days some favorite recipes of local cooks for special dishes will be made available to our readers.

Mrs. J. E. Sentell and Mrs. F. G. Sears were co-hostesses at the Alpha Study Club's Christmas dinner Tuesday night in Mrs. Sentell's home at 3101 Avenue X. Along with the traditional turkey and dressing, part of their 'trimmins' was a holiday salad — congealed cranberry salad in individual molds. After making it several different ways, the following recipe became the one of their choice.

CRANBERRY SALAD

3 cups raw cranberries, ground
1 cup orange, ground
2 cups sugar
2 packages lemon-flavored gelatin
2 cups hot water
1 small can crushed pineapple
1 apple, chopped
1 cup celery, chopped
1 cup nuts, chopped

Combine and soak for 30 minutes the ground cranberries and ground orange and sugar. Dissolve the two packages of gelatin in two cups of hot water; add the crushed pineapple, apple, celery and nuts. Add other ingredients, mix well together, let stand until thickened, then chill.

SOPRANO SOLOIST

Mrs. Don Newsom of Big Spring will be soprano soloist for the Snyder Community Choir presentation of Handel's "Messiah" at 3 o'clock Sunday afternoon. Mrs. Newsom is soloist for the Methodist Church in Big Spring, and was among the guest artists presented by the Lubbock Symphony Orchestra at its May concert. She began her voice training at the age of 14 and continued it through a year of study at Texas Christian University. She discontinued her study to attend Harris College of Nursing, and was graduated there in 1950. Her music study was resumed after her marriage and she now studies under Mrs. John Luckie in Lubbock. The program will be presented in Snyder High School auditorium, and is open to the public without charge.

Helps For Homemakers

Send your questions to "Helps for Homemakers," Snyder Daily News, or call 3-5486.

A cook book author, writing at the end of the last century, opined: "There must be a proper time to eat so hearty a dish as mince pie, but it certainly is not at the end of a heavy Thanksgiving dinner." If some members of your family agree with these sentiments, offer this refreshing Grapefruit Baked Alaska along with the traditional mince pie and plum pudding.

GRAPEFRUIT BAKED ALASKA

3 grapefruit
Sugar
1 pint pre-packaged vanilla ice cream
Alaska meringue

Cut grapefruit in half; core, cutting out more of the center than usual. Cut around each section with a small sharp knife; sprinkle lightly with sugar; chill thoroughly. When ready to serve, put about two heaping tablespoons of ice cream in the center of each grapefruit. Cover completely with Alaska Meringue. Place on baking sheet and lightly brown meringue in a very hot (550 degrees) oven for 2 to 3 minutes. Makes 6 servings.

ALASKA MERINGUE

2 large egg whites
⅛ teaspoon salt
4 tablespoons sugar
½ teaspoon vanilla

Add salt to egg whites and beat until stiff but still moist. Gradually beat in sugar; continue beating, if necessary, until very stiff. Beat in vanilla.

Program On Traditions Is Given At Meeting

A program on Christmas traditions, their origins and symbols, was given by Mrs. Elroy Miller at the Atheneum Study Club meeting Tuesday with Mrs. Ted Zeck, 509 Thirty-fourth Street. She read four poems: "Merry Christmas," " I Believe in Santa Claus," "Christmas Interlude" and "After Christmas." Along with Mrs. Miller's discussion of the tradition of giving gifts at Christmas, she told the story of "the little black lamb."

During a business session, club members voted to adopt a needy family to aid during Christmas with gifts of food and clothing. Plans were completed for the annual Christmas party to be held Thursday night at the Hilander. Members are to bring gifts that will be sent to Wichita Falls State Hospital for distribution.

Refreshments of English plum pudding and spiced punch were served to 15 members.

Coffee Is Given To Honor Mrs. Arnold

Mrs. Carl B. Arnold, who is moving to San Angelo with her family, was honored at a coffee Wednesday morning in the home of Mrs. Dale Clemmer, 3724 Avenue U.

Gifts were presented to the honoree. A poem, "God Bless You, Friend," by James Metcalf was read by Mrs. Clemmer. Refreshments were served to approximately 20 guests.

Party Is Given By WW Circle

Mrs. Bessie Ramage, 1512 Avenue R, was hostess for the Christmas party of the WW Circle in her home Tuesday night.

Two new members, Mrs. Neva Greenfield and Mrs. Josie Peterson, were introduced. Mrs. Lizzie Cargile was a visitor. A covered dish supper was served and gifts were exchanged.

Trinity WSCS Meets

Gifts were exchanged by members of the WSCS of Trinity Methodist Church at a Christmas luncheon Monday in the home of Mrs. E. B. Boone, 3105 Forty-first Street. Mrs. Dale Clemmer, WSCS president, was presented a gift. Approximately 40 members attended.

Direct Trade Of Surpluses With Russians Considered

NEW YORK (AP) — Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson says the administration is considering direct trade in agricultural surpluses with Russia and its satellites.

At a news conference yesterday, Benson said study would be given both to direct sales of such commodities to Iron Curtain countries and to trade with third party nations which might sell to the Soviet Union.

My feeling is that we should be willing to trade with Iron Curtain countries so long as the trade is in our favor, whether it be butter or anything else," Benson said, adding:

The ... considering some sales to countries which may in turn sell to Iron Curtain countries."

In any event, the agriculture secretary said, it was difficult to police" sales of American goods to Russia.

Last January a U.S. broker was denied a license to buy surplus American butter for export to Russia.

In line with Benson's statement, however, there were reports that the administration would reassess the situation at meetings to be held within a few days.

Benson also said he was giving serious consideration" to revising the entire farm parity formula.

He said revision would include re-weighting" of some of the factors involved in the formula.

Asked if the farmers would get a better shake" out of a contemplated formula revision, Benson replied:

They may, but the end objective is to make the formula up-to-date and as accurate as possible as a measuring rod."

Benson and the Republican administration instituted a flexie" support policy in place of the previous administration's rigid" supports.

Parity is a standard set on farm prices by the government designed to keep the farmer's income in balance with the changing costs of things he buys.

Under rigid" support, farm income was pegged by the government at 90 per cent of parity. Now some products get less than 90 per cent—depending on current conditions affecting a particular product.

Earlier, in a speech before the 26th annual convention of the American Farm Bureau Federation, Benson predicted a bright future" for farmers under present and contemplated administration action.

Maximum progress will come only if agriculture is free and farmers can make their own management decisions on their own farms with a very minimum of government regulation and control," he said.

THUNDERSTREAK'S PUNCH

Kiwanis Club Members Hear Two Speakers

Traffic safety and the National Guard claimed the attention of Snyder Kiwanis Club members at their luncheon meeting Wednesday at the Hilander.

Ross Kemp, safety officer for the Abilene district of the Texas Department of Public Safety, discussed work of the department and urged public cooperation in curtailing traffic accidents.

Only the motoring public can solve the traffic safety problem, Kemp declared.

He said there is a move on to present legislation to provide driver education courses in all schools in Texas. At present, he said the state has over 122,000 pupils in the ninth grade, but only 23,000 of them are provided courses in operation of automobiles.

He said there had been 69 traffic deaths in the Abilene district this year.

In addition to the heavy loss of life, the motoring public must pay heavy penalties on liability insurance as a result of economic losses for traffic mishaps, Kemp reminded.

He said radar speed checking devices have had considerable psychological effect upon speeders, and that the department intends to keep them in use. Kemp displayed a radar unit and explained how highway patrolmen use it in checking the speed of automobiles.

During a 20-minute period in the Snyder area Wednesday morning, half a dozen speeders were caught.

Lt. Col. R. L. Van Hardeveld told Kiwanians that the value of reserve military units, and particularly the National Guard, is related to support each unit received in its respective community.

The cost of national defense would be increased sharply if the country depended full-time soldiers for its protection, Col. Hardeveld reminded. Through the National Guard, he explained, many men are able to get training at the time they can absorb it best, and at the same time the nation gains a standby force which can be called upon when needed, he explained.

Col. Hardeveld, who is senior Army instructor for the 112th Armored Cavalry Regiment, of which Co. D in Snyder is a part, also reminded that the National Guard performs other services. The guard is under control of the governor, and Snyder's own company, in turn, is available to the Mayor to assist the community during disasters, etc.

Maj. Willis F. McDonald of Pecos, battalion advisor, also was a guest of the Kiwanis club at the meeting. Col. Hardeveld was introduced by Maj. William J. Schiebel of Snyder, battalion executive officer.

Bookkeeper Is Found Unconscious In Woods

LUVERNE, Ala. (AP)—An unemployed Montgomery bookkeeper who apparently wandered for a week without food was in critical condition in a hospital today, suffering from pneumonia, shock and malnutrition.

The bookkeeper, Rauden Vann, 37, was found lying face down in dense woods yesterday and has been in a coma since.

Sheriff Green Horn said he apparently lost his direction Dec. 8 when he walked away from a car in which he and a companion had parked off Highway 331 to "sober up."

Freedom Of Negro Asked

AUSTIN (AP)—Oscar Polk, 65, Negro who turned himself in almost 10 years after his escape from a state prison farm, was brought to the attention of the Pardons Board today.

Petitions were filed asking that Polk be granted a full pardon in time to spend Christmas with his wife and son, 3.

Polk spent almost 10 years as a farmer and construction worker after escaping Dec. 21, 1944. He had served six months of a three-year sentence for burglary.

He came to Austin last week, hitch-hiking part of the way and riding a bus the rest, to give himself up with the comment, "A fellow's conscience just doesn't feel clear. Now I feel better than I've felt in 10 years."

Austin businessman S.B. Price started the petitions, which he said "could have gotten 10,000 names if we'd had time."

Blind Child's Sight Returns

BALTIMORE (AP) — Ten-year-old Jane Irving, of Winter Park, Fla., will be able to see the color and lights of Christmas for the first time in seven years.

She began losing her eyesight seven years ago as a result of a serious infection in infancy. She was almost totally blind, could just about tell night from day, her mother Mrs. Muriel Irving said, when the Lions Club of Winter Park financed her trip to Johns Hopkins Hospital here.

Doctors in Hopkins' Wilmer Clinic determined she had no useful vision in either eye" and decided to perform corneal transplants to try to improve her sight.

That was two months ago. The operations have been completed and Jane is seeing better than she has since she was 3.

She can distinguish the colors of passing automobiles, tell the color of her dresses and even make out the reindeer, sled and Santa Claus on her Christmas cards.

The West Baltimore Lions Club, which took Jane's care as its special concern when she arrived in Baltimore, threw a big banquet for her two nights ago.

Gov. Theodore R. McKeldin was there to praise the courage and faith of the brave little girl from Florida."

She'll be going back home soon. It's still too early to define the full results of the operations but doctors say her eyes have shown considerable improvement. She must return to the hospital in six months for another examination.

Six of every 10 cars bought by Americans in 1953 were purchased on the installment plan.

Toys Contributed By Cubs Of Pack No. 35

Cub Scouts of Pack No. 35 contributed toys for underprivileged children at their meeting Tuesday night in the North Elementary School cafeteria. The toys are to be turned over to the fire department.

Each Cub attending the meeting received a Christmas present from the tree, which had been decorated by the boys. Ronnie Malone gave a reading, "The Night Before Christmas In Texas."

Bob Eastus, area Scout field executive, spoke to the Cubs.

Ronnie DeFore will give a talk at the Scout banquet Thursday night.

Next pack meeting will be Jan. 27, and the theme will be railroading. Plans are to be made to take the boys on a train ride from Post to Snyder.

Five Children Die As Fire Destroys Home

HOOSICK FALLS, N.Y. (AP)—Five children burned to death today when fire destroyed a two-story frame house at Walloomsac, about four miles northeast of here.

The fire was believed to have started about 6 a.m. in an oil storage shed near the house.

The children ranged in ages from one to eight years.

It was reported that one of them was asleep with its mother, Mrs. Waldo Grogan, in a first-floor room and that the others were in bed in a second-story room.

Their 30-year-old father was at work nearby in the Walloomsac, Columbia Box Co. at the time.

Neighbors said Mrs. Grogan escaped uninjured.

Walloomsac is near the New York-Vermont state line.

Olympic Star Not Engaged

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Mal Whitfield and Miss Birgit Johansson are in agreement today—they are not engaged to be married.

"There must have been a misunderstanding," she says.

The report that they were engaged appeared in a Stockholm newspaper last Sunday. Whitfield, 29, the Negro two-time Olympic games 800-meter champion, was not then available, being in Pakistan on a good will world tour.

But Miss Johansson, 26, a Swedish girl who came here last year and works in a Los Angeles bank, told reporters here Sunday night that "we intended to keep it a secret until he returns, but Mal must have told someone in Europe. We have not set a date but will do so when he gets home."

Benny In Hospital

HOLLYWOOD (AP) — Comedian Jack Benny is in Cedars of Lebanon Hospital for a physical checkup. The hospital said he probably would be released tomorrow. He let his "annual checkup" go 18 months this time.

Patrons Fight School Zones

AUSTIN (AP) — Testimony continued today in a battle between two groups from Kingsville over charges that a junior high school attendance zoning plan has led to illegal segregation.

Education commissioner J. W. Edgar is hearing an appeal from the zoning plan set up by the Kingsville school board, brought by Mrs. T. R. Rocha and others.

The Latin American group headed by Mrs. Rocha is represented by atty. Gus Garcia of San Antonio and the school board by attorneys John Stafford, Kingsville, and Paul Casseb, San Antonio.

Garcia's group has charged that the school board followed an irregular zigzag pattern in setting up boundaries for the new John Gillett Junior High School and that the result is that it is exclusively Latin American.

School officials countered with a string of witnesses yesterday to back their claim that segregation was not the intent, and that the old Memorial Junior High School now has 20 per cent Latin American enrollment. They said the boundaries were arrived at on the basis of student load and other natural factors.

Death Of Bricklayer Under Investigation

HUNTSVILLE (AP) — Investigation continued today in the death of Clifford Smith, 35, Negro bricklayer, whose body was found on the highway near here Tuesday about 1 a.m.

Douglas Balew, who lives near the scene just west of Huntsville, found Smith's body. His car was in the ditch. A check when dawn came showed Smith apparently put on his brakes suddenly, causing his car to skid.

One Local Man Reports For Military Induction

One Snyder man reported this week for induction into the Armed Forces and two more will be inducted Dec. 27.

William Gilbert Chunn of Snyder was the man inducted. Those to report to the Scurry-Nolan-Fisher County selective service board at Sweetwater Dec. 27 are William Grover Sims, route 2, and Johnny Weldon Overholt, 128 Milburn Street. Also reporting will be Bernard Weems and Winston Ray Smith, both of Rotan and Billy Rowan of Sweetwater.

The board will call nine men for Jan. 11 induction and 20 on that day for physical examinations. New registrants this month included Wayland L. Caldwell, Charles E. Casebolt, David F. Minton, Monty D. Blakely, and Tommy R. Hensley, all of Snyder.

Christmas Cards Still Come For Cancer Victim

NEW CASTLE, Pa. (AP)—Christmas cards kept arriving today for a 4½-year-old girl who never will see them.

Susan Haufler died last night of cancer.

Death came little more than 24 hours after Susan was to have been a guest at a Christmas party arranged by her family and friends, who knew she might not live until Christmas. But she was too ill to attend.

Since Susan's plight became generally known less than two weeks ago 6,200 cards have been received from all over America.

Refuses To Salute Flag

EDGEWOOD, Md. (AP)—The Army has charged Pvt. Bruce A. Wallace, 24, of Bridgewood, N.J., a draftee, with refusing to salute the American flag. A court-martial has been recommended by the 2nd Army. In the Army announcement, no reason was given for the refusal.

Snyder Teams Enter Weekend Tourneys

The Snyder Tigers will leave tomorrow for Andrews, where they will play in their first game of a high school cage tournament at 2:15 o'clock tomorrow afternoon.

The Snyder opponent is Alpine. There are sixteen teams in the tourney. Other teams entered are Lamesa, Monahans, Pecos, McCamey, Midland, Andrews, Denver City, Seagraves, Odessa, Kermit, Crane, Fort Stockton, Iraan, and Tahoka.

While the varsity team is playing at Andrews, the B team will be in the Ira tournament. It will play its first game there tomorrow afternoon at 5 o'clock against Gail.

Ten cagers are on the traveling squad of coach J. P. Ward's varsity team going to the tourney. One varsity member who played in his first season game this week, Jimmy Bennett, will not be playing again for a few days. Bennett was late getting started because of a shoulder injury suffered at the last of the football season. He now has doctor's orders to stay off the court until district games start Jan. 7. Don McNew, another injured regular who did not play until this week, will be playing.

The squad going to Andrews includes Steve Blair, Milton Ham, Alan Snead, Joel Tankersley, Jack Spikes, Jerry Taylor, Hubert O'Neal, Robert Dabbs, Bernie Hagins, McNew, and manager Jerry Hale. The remainder will play with the B squad, coached by Jack Dillon.

Play was to start tonight in the Andrews tourney, with Lamesa vs. Monahans, Midland vs. Andrews, and Odessa vs. Kermit set as tonight's games. Tomorrow it will be Pecos vs. McCamey, Denver City vs. Seagraves, Crane vs. Fort Stockton, Iraan vs. Tahoka, and Snyder vs. Alpine.

In the championship division Friday second round games will include the winners of the Lamesa-Monahans game vs. the winners of the Pecos-McCamey bout, Midland-Andrews vs. Denver City-Seagraves, Odessa-Kermit vs. Crane-Fort Stockton. Snyder, if it wins its first game, will meet the winner of the Iraan-Tahoka game Saturday morning at 10:15. Losers of those games will play in the consolation division Friday and Saturday.

Semi-final and final rounds in championship and consolation divisions will all be held Saturday. Losers of the semi-final championship games will meet for third place.

ABOVE THE BLEACHERS

By DALE WALTON

The Snyder school board has officially adopted a letter award program for athletics here, as well as in other fields.

The program, for the most part, has been carried on with the board's approval but with no official ruling. The giving of awards, says the board, has been held to a minimum with the idea that they should be given for outstanding achievement rather than as a bribe to get students to do as they should.

The Interscholastic League allows a student to receive only one $15 award, so a boy receiving a jacket for participation in one sport cannot be awarded one for another.

Awards were set up in this order: A squad lettermen $15 awards, A squad reserves $12.50, B squad lettermen $12.50, B squad reserves $10, freshman and eighth grade lettermen $10, reserves of those teams a silver football, seventh grade lettermen $6.26 and reserves a silver football.

The same procedure will be followed in basketball. For those who have already received an award for playing football, basketball awards will be: A squad lettermen, gold basketball, and all other lettermen and reserves a silver basketball.

For track, baseball, golf, girls and boys tennis, lettermen who have not received jackets in other sports will get $10 jackets. Those who have will receive gold emblems. Junior high track lettermen will receive silver shoes. Awards allowed for girls volleyball may cost $10 for A squad lettermen, $8 for B team lettermen, gold volleyballs for reserves, and silver volleyballs for freshman lettermen.

Reagan White, who graduated from high school here last spring, has received a freshman football letter at Texas Tech as an end. White was an outstanding end on the Snyder grid team, as well as a leading basketball player and trackman. The freshman team at Tech finished the season with a 5-3 record.

The Ira basketball tournament was to get underway today, with Loraine vs. Fluvanna, Ira vs. Roscoe, and Hermleigh vs. Big Spring B team scheduled late this afternoon and tonight. Gail and the Snyder B team will meet at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. One girls game, between Ira and Gail, was to be played today, while Hermleigh and Roscoe meet tomorrow night. Loraine and Fluvanna girls drew a bye in the first round.

NEW YORK (AP)—For the fifth time in its 71-year history—speckled with great teams and brilliant players—Fordham University has decided to drop football, this time perhaps for good.

On the four other occasions it discontinued the sport various reasons were at hand. This time it's the "continued financial loss" the university has suffered through recent years, with no hope of improvement in the future.

The Rev. Laurence J. McGinley, president of the university, nailed the cause in a letter to alumni which was released with the announcement of the end of football at Fordham yesterday.

"Friends and alumni," he wrote, "like to read about (our football) in the Sunday papers. The trouble simply is that so few want to watch it on Saturday—and the tickets are sold for Saturday."

The end of Fordham football, announced by Jack Coffey, graduate manager of athletics, came after a horrible 1954 season for the Rams. They won only one game and tied one while losing seven. They also lost Coach Ed Danowski, an all-time Fordham great and head coach since 1946, who resigned after the past season.

The decision to drop football was judged essential to the university's best interests. In his letter to alumni, McGinley wrote:

"No part of Fordham is conducted for profit. Fordham has a great task to do in preparing its 100,000 students of today intellectually and spiritually to be citizens of tomorrow . . . Among intercollegiate sports football has a special place in American tradition as a means of heightening student spirit and increasing alumni solidarity . . . The unfortunate fact remains that, four years of cooperative endeavors, we have run out of money for football and must balance our books."

Fordham dropped football before in 1894-95, 1910-11, 1919 and the war years of 1943-45. It is the 85th school to give up football since the end of the 1946 season.

Dallas Man Is One Of Most Ardent Tiger Football Fans

One of Snyder's most enthusiastic football fans lives 265 miles from here and has never lived in Snyder nor played football. Yet he traveled 5,500 miles this season to see all the games Snyder played except the one at Levelland and that at Thomas Jefferson, El Paso.

He has two good reasons for his enthusiasm, however. John Conley, Jr., Snyder's football coach, says the main reason for his father's faithfulness to attend the Snyder games is that "he just likes football." Another reason might well be that his son is coach and he wants to keep up with the results of the son's work and kill two birds with one stone, having occasion also to visit the coach at each game.

John Conley, Sr., 57, an official of Magnolia Petroleum Co., drove to all the games he attended except the one at Ysleta, whither he traveled by airplane. The coach's mother is also a football fan and has attended many of the games but not as many as her husband.

Asked whether his father attended most of the games in Kansas, where his son coached before coming to Snyder, the coach said his father attended four of the Kansas games. There not being a great difference in the distance, it seems the senior Conley pretty well likes the Snyder Tigers. No point in Kansas is as far from Dallas as El Paso.

TCU Trying Okies Again

By JOE BENHAM
Associated Press Staff

Texas Christian seeks to repeat an early-season triumph over Oklahoma City University at Fort Worth in Thursday night's only game involving the Southwest Conference.

It's the third light night in a row for the conference, which played only one game Tuesday and Wednesday evenings.

The Wednesday night start was a bad one for the loop as Arkansas dropped a 77-58 decision to Missouri's red-hot Tigers.

The Tigers showed why they're ranked sixth nationally in the Associated Press poll with a fast, accurate game that had Arkansas on the defensive all the way.

The Prokers fell behind early in the game and could get no closer than 14 points the rest of the way. They hit only 30 per cent of their shots in spite of second-half improvement, thanks to first-half shooting that sank only eight of 30 attempts.

Bud Smith led the losers with 22 points. Bob Reiter paced Missouri with 25.

Texas Christian nipped Oklahoma City 68-63 the last time the teams met and would like to repeat the triumph. The Horned Frogs, with sophomore flash Dick O'Neal leading the way with 110 points, hold third place in the preseason standings with a 3-2 mark.

A Wednesday night triumph would deadlock TCU and Southern Methodist for second with 4-2 records.

Warm Springs Gets Funds From Tourney

MIDLAND (AP)—A special golf tournament staged here yesterday by the West Texas Pro-Amateur Assn. netted the Warm Springs-Gonzales Polio Foundation $1,000.

Gene Mitchell of Lubbock headed the winning team in the competition, which drew 109 entries. The tourney was dedicated to Mrs. Gloria Ezell, Midland golfer stricken with polio last summer.

Other members of Mitchell's team were Mary Jo Hardy of Lubbock and Ann Bailey and Bill Lupardis of Midland. They fired a net 113.

Low pro was Dick Turner of San Angelo with 66. Bobby Wright of Big Spring was low amateur with 68.

Odessa Broncs Are Seeking 1954 Game

ODESSA (AP)—Odessa High School needs a Class AAAA opponent for a nonconference game Sept. 23, according to Coach Cooper Robbins.

The Broncs, members of District 1-AAAA, play only three nonconference games per year. They have already lined up Port Arthur for a Sept. 9 season-opener and Dallas Hillcrest Sept. 16.

Olson Batters His French Challenger

By BOB MYERS

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Screams of anguish echoed from one sector of the French boxing front today but the fact remains that America's Carl (Bobo) Olson still holds a firm grip on the world middleweight championship.

Olson, 26, always a cruel but seldom a killing puncher, stopped Pierre Langlois, 29, of France last night after 58 seconds of the 11th round.

Slated for 15 rounds, the nationally televised attraction was halted by Referee Ray Flores because of the unsightly condition of Pierre's left brow and eyelid.

A noisy crowd of 16,543 at the Cow Palace paid a gross of $107,660 which returned a net of $93,369, after taxes.

Olson first ripped open the brow in the best round of the fight, the sixth, and gave it an unmerciful lashing in the torrid 10th.

Langlois, his chance of overtaking the front-punching Olson fast disappearing, came out for the 11th with the cut temporarily mended by his handlers.

It took Olson but a few seconds to start the blood pouring again, and that's when Flores stepped in.

Dr. Robert Laddon, State Athletic Commission physician, examined the cut and advised that to let Langlois continue would be to risk serious eye injury.

There were some boos from the gallery, mainly because they hated to see a fight stopped.

Langlois' manager Jean Bretonnel and his voluble American representative George Kanter of New York were fuming.

Barely in the dressing room, Kanter, who speaks good French, said in plain English:

"The public was cheated.

"Langlois was coasting in the 10th and 11th rounds in order to finish strong.

"The doctors and referees in California are lousy. In New York they are okay."

Langlois, nursing a cut two inches long and a quarter inch wide, said nothing.

Kanter said Olson butted Pierre in the 10th round.

Informed of this, Olson retorted, "If anybody butted in the 10th round, it was Langlois when he weaved and shook his head in the corner."

Olson, shuffling, chopping in one round, standing off and slashing away from long range in another, was far in front at the finish.

Flores and Judge Jack Downey had him in front, under California's 11-point-per-round scoring system, 59½-50½. Judge Vern Bybee scored it 59-51. The Associated Press card read 59½-50½.

Woodward Says Bowl Teams Well-Matched

DALLAS (AP)—His team beat one of the Cotton Bowl participants and lost to the other but Woody Woodard of SMU doesn't think there's enough difference between them to make a choice of the winner Jan. 1.

"Arkansas and Georgia Tech are almost as evenly matched as you could imagine," said Woodard. "They have two different styles of offense—Arkansas using the single wing and Tech the split T—but they both employ the same type defense, that of playing for the breaks.

"It will be a fine ball game and I don't think there'll be many points between them at the finish."

SMU lost to Georgia Tech 10-7 early in the season—"they are a much better ball club now," says Woodard—and beat Arkansas 21-14 late in the campaign. The Methodists dominated the game with Tech about as much as they did with Arkansas. They lost to the Yellow Jackets on a costly fumble in the final minutes.

Mexican Application Is Called Justified

BEAUMONT (AP)—A representative of the National Association of Professional Baseball Clubs told reporters yesterday he had found the Mexican League "quite justified" in its application for membership in the minor league organization.

Robert L. Finch, back from a tour of the Mexican circuit, said his report to the executive committee of the minor leagues would describe Mexico as having:

1. Rich financial backing; 2. people eager to spend money on the project; 3. population equal to Class AA rating; 4. good attendance in the past, when the league was independent; 5. good to excellent ball parks, in which improvements are planned; 6. willingness of the league to operate on the U. S. dollar basis.

Hermleigh Gets Late Start At Basketball

Hermleigh basketballers, getting a late start after the football squad ended a long season, will have only one tournament for practice before entering their district schedule.

Both boys and girls teams from Hermleigh will be in the Ira tournament, which is starting today. The boys are matched with the Big Spring B team, while the girls will meet Roscoe in the first round.

Hermleigh will have its own tournament, with boys and girls divisions, Jan. 13-15. Entered are teams from Colorado City, Ira, Fluvanna, Loraine, Robert Lee, Hobbs, and Hermleigh.

The Hermleigh team last year played in a split district and won its half of the district. It lost to Highland in a playoff for loop championship. It won the Ira tourney and placed second in its own tournament. Ray Isaacs is coaching the boys team.

The girls team, coached by Orville Paty, won about 30 per cent of last year's games.

Isaacs has seven lettermen returning to his squad this season. They are Wendell Goodman, 5-foot-10 senior; Clarence Stahl, 6-foot-7½ senior; Jay Houston, 5-foot-11 senior; Billy Mac Davidson, 5-foot-8 sophomore; Kemp McMillan, 5-foot-8 senior; Neal Wilcox, 6-foot-1 senior; and Robbie Robinson, 5-foot-11½ sophomore.

Other members of Isaacs' first squad are Richard Fritz, 5-foot-8 senior; Dick Etheredge, 6-foot-1 senior; Jackie Roemisch, 5-foot-7 junior; Tom Etheredge, 5-foot-9 sophomore; Morris Light, 5-foot-9 sophomore; Charles Smith, 5-foot-11 senior; and Alvis Tarter, 5-foot-10 senior.

Six lettermen are returning to the girls team. They are guards Jonelle Light and Patsy Davidson and forwards Willene Davis, Patsy Davis, Sandra Sturdivant, and Violet Davis.

Others on the squad; at guard, Ethel Hundsnurcher, Norma Jean Collier, Collene Mason, Brenda Walton, Sandra Darden, Glenda Tate, Eileen Vernon, Anelle Hudnall, Sandra Leech, Jane Kuss, Viola Roemisch, Doris Chitsey, and Nelda Wilcox; at forward, Donnie Spykes, Alma Hillis, Clovis Pettitt, and Twilla Jackson.

Methodist Mustangs' Marshall Makes Mark

DALLAS (AP)—John Marshall, SMU's 195-pound speedster, established a modern Southwest Conference football record when he averaged 8.4 yards each time he carried the ball.

A study by Lester Jordan, SMU publicity man, of the conference records for 10 years, shows no other ball-carrier who has gained as much as 500 yards net rushing in one season has had an average as high as Marshall. Records before 1945 are fragmentary.

Marshall, who started only four games, carried the ball 68 times for 568 yards.

Three other players were in the 500-yard group, averaged as much as seven yards per carry. Dick Moegle of Rice boasted a 7.3 average in 1953, Gil Dawson of Texas had 7.1 in 1951, and Clyde Scott of Arkansas set a 7-yard mark in 1948.

Moegle, Dawson and Scott received All-America recognition. Marshall is expected to be a top candidate for this honor in 1955.

The survey showed 39 players gained 500 or more yards in the conference during the last decade. Kyle Rote of SMU was the only player to make 500 yards or more in each of his three varsity years.

Eleven players were in the 500 circle two years. They were Doak Walker of SMU; Byron Townsend, Gil Dawson and Dick Ochoa of Texas; Bobby Lantrip, Gordon Wyatt, Kosse Johnson and Moegle of Rice; Jerry Coody of Baylor; Bob Smith of Texas A&M and Scott.

A record home crowd of 58,431 saw the Detroit Lions-San Francisco 49ers game in Briggs Stadium in 1954. This was 352 more than saw the 1953 contest.

Wallace To Meet Baker

NEW YORK (AP)—Five years ago Bob Baker was the Golden Glove champion and Rocky Marciano was an obscure kid from Brockton, Mass., who had lost to Coley Wallace in an early elimination.

Now Marciano rules the roost and Baker and Wallace are in the also-ran class.

What happened?

For want of a better word, let's use "desire." Rocky had it. Nothing in the world could stop him whether it was Jersey Joe Walcott's left hook, a cut on the head, a cut eye or a bashed nose.

Neither Baker nor Wallace ever did show that overpowering will to succeed, Baker couldn't bother to train properly. He let himself get fat and adopted the "I don't care" attitude while the money train passed him by.

Wallace became preoccupied with a movie career, posing as a Joe Louis stand-in, instead of concentrating on becoming a good fighter. Although he's been boxing pro since 1950, he's had only 24 fights, just two this year.

Time is fast running out for both these prize prospects of 1949. They met professionally for the first time in Cleveland Oct. 1, (Baker beat Wallace in the '44 Golden Gloves) and Baker gave Wallace a sound beating.

The pair meet again Friday night at Madison Square Garden. Baker is a 3-1 favorite.

Baker claims he is serious now and his recent record of five straight victories backs him up. Since he was stopped by Archie Moore March 9, he has whipped Joe Baksi, Embrel Davidson, Toxie Hall, Wallace and Jimmy Slade.

Gail Boys In District Win

GAIL — Borden County High School's boy cagers took a win in their first district game here, and the girls lost their first loop game.

The boys downed Klondike 53-40. The game remained close the first half, with Gail coming out on top 25-24. In the third period, Klondike got ahead slightly, but about midway in the period Gail edged ahead and ended the quarter in the lead 37-29.

Larry Smith paced the team with 13 points, while Lonnie Doyle had 11, Glen Kingston 10, Donald Reddell nine, and Shorty Farmer eight.

The team's season record is now 6-1.

The girls team lost 38-29 and never led in its game. At the half, Klondike led 22-12.

Judy Doyle led Gail scoring with 12 points, and Glenna Weeks was scoring leader for Klondike with 22. This team now has a 3-4 record.

The girls team will meet Ira in the Ira tournament at 6:15 o'clock tonight. The boys team is matched with the Snyder B squad at 5 o'clock tomorrow afternoon in that event.

Forgotton Lessons Are Of Small Value

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP)—A nation that fails to remember in peace the lessons it learns in war runs the risk of sudden oblivion.

This would be a good time for every American soldier and civilian to get a tablet and write in it 100 times this sentence:

"I won't be afraid of the other guy, but I'll never underestimate him either."

A decade ago today the entire free world awoke to the value of this lesson with shocked dismay. This is the 10th anniversary of the foggy morning when Hitler sprung a German Pearl Harbor by suddenly smashing through Allies' lines in the Ardennes.

The frightening thing about the "Battle of the Bulge" is that the Germans achieved almost as complete a tactical surprise as the Japanese had three years before in their war-opening bombing of our bases in Hawaii.

The bitter lesson of Pearl Harbor—"never low-rate your enemy"—had been almost forgotten, certainly by the people at home and probably even by some of the top brass.

Final victory seemed so near in Europe. The Nazis, suffering terrible attrition on every battlefront, appeared close to crumbling. Some politicians, businessmen, and triple-dome economic crystal gazers were already worrying about a possible postwar depression.

Then Hitler's legions struck, and his waves of Panzers crashed through the thin, stretched U. S. line as if it were an eggshell.

It is only fair to those men at the front to say they never had quite shared the unrestrained optimism of the rear area and home front. The doughboy in the foxhole is rarely given to unrestrained optimism.

After the war it was learned Hitler had secretly been planning the counteroffensive for months, had drained other battlefronts to flesh it with muscle and steel and cover it with the Luftwaffe's wings.

Senior Instructor Visits Guard Unit

Lt. Col. R. L. Van Hardeveld of San Antonio, senior Army instructor for the 112th Armored Cavalry Regiment, National Guard, visited in Snyder yesterday, making a talk to high school students.

Van Hardeveld's talk to the high schoolers concerned advantages of their joining the National Guard unit here. With the officer was Maj. Willis F. McDonald of Pecos, battalion advisor, and Capt. Louis R. Morris of Lamesa, commander of that city's unit. Capt. Weldon Kincaid commands the Snyder unit.

The colonel visited the National Guard armory here and toured the city with Maj. William J. Schiebel of Snyder, battalion executive officer. He also visited the Kiwanis Club in its weekly luncheon.

Mishap Victim Brought To Daughter's Home

Mrs. Cliff Birdwell was brought from a Mangum, Okla., hospital to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Bernice Shearer, 1600 Twenty-seventh Street, yesterday by Bell ambulance. Mrs. Birdwell was injured Sunday in an automobile accident near Chickasha, Okla. Funeral services for her husband, who was killed in the accident, were held here yesterday.

Bowles Finally Wins A Round

DOVER, Del. (AP) — Bryant W. Bowles has won a round in his fight with the state of Delaware, which is trying to convict him of charges of urging violation of school attendance laws.

Judge Arley B. Magee yesterday dismissed two criminal warrants against Bowles, President of the National Assn. for the Advancement of White Poeple, upholding the claim of Bowles' counsel that the state had failed to file required detailed information on the charges. Bowles was arrested Oct. 24.

However, the required information was presented to the court yesterday by a representative of Atty. Gen. H. Albert Young. Judge Magee granted Bowles' counsel the right to file further motions to quash the information.

Bowles remained at liberty under $3,000 bond posted shortly after the initial filing of charges during the furor over assignment of a group of Negro pupils to the previously all-white Milford High School. Bowles was charged with encouraging white pupils to boycott classes.

Four Enlist Here For Navy Service

Four more men signed up this week for enlistments in the Navy, according to recruiter William J. Schenk, engineman first class.

The four are Tommy Baze Johnston, 707 Sixteenth Street; Charles Edward Winkler, Dermott; Jack Ainsworth, Justiceburg; and Billy Grant Hoover, Paris.

Those four men, plus Richard L. Evans, who signed preliminary papers several days before, will leave here Dec. 28 for Dallas, remaining here until after Christmas. They will be eligible to be picked in a group of 50 new enlistees who will be guests of the Navy at the Mississippi-Navy game in the Sugar Bowl at New Orleans Jan. 1, as will others enlisting within the next few days.

Schenk said other interested men may contact him Friday or Saturday, Dec. 22, 23, 27, or 28 at the courthouse here.

Nation Making Progress In Broadening Of Civil Rights

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—At a time when the United States is trying to improve its relations with the non-Communist races of Asia, it is making progress at home in racial relations by broadening the protection of civil rights.

A catalogue of that progress over the past seven years was published this week by the American Jewish Committee in a 30-page pamphlet called "The People Take the Lead."

This week was the 163rd anniversary of the adoption of the Bill of Rights, those first constitutional amendments guaranteeing civil rights to American citizens. The committee issued the report in honor of the anniversary.

At the time the Bill of Rights was added to the Constitution in 1791 its protections extended to only some of the American population. There was slavery then.

In time slavery was abolished. But it wasn't until 1868, with the 14th Amendment, that Negroes were declared citizens of the United States. And it wasn't until the 15th Amendment in 1870 that Negroes were guaranteed the right to vote.

But for more than half a century afterwards civil rights, so far as Negroes were concerned, were more often an abstraction than a reality while the federal government, including the Supreme Court marked time.

Gradually—under the Roosevelt-Truman administrations and then under the Eisenhower administration—the federal government, plus some state legislatures, widened the protection for Negroes' civil rights and in one way or another sought to reduce racial discrimination.

Since 1947, says the Jewish committee report, when the President's Committee on Civil Rights issued its historic report, new gains have repeatedly overshadowed events regarded as epochal when they occurred.

Five years ago, the first edition of this report listed few fair practice laws. Today, 12 states and 32 cities have fair employment laws. Three states have fair education laws. Five states have public accommodation laws with administrative enforcement.

Five years ago, this report listed the first Negro college professor appointed; the first Negro officeholder in the South; the first Negro doctor on the staff of a general hospital. Today such firsts could probably fill an entire book.

Five years ago the National Committee on Segregation in the Nation's Capital scored widespread discrimination in Washington. Today segregation in public facilities in the capital is the exception rather than the rule.

Five years ago Negro students were rarely admitted to Southern state universities. Today some 2,000 Negro students attend integrated college classrooms in the South.

And the most far-reaching advance of all—the U.S. Supreme Court's historic decision on May 17, 1954, banning segregation in the nation's public schools—was only a far-off dream, five years ago.

In every area of American life the gap between ideals and practices is closing—slowly, to be sure, but steadily.

Some birds have claws.

Predicts End Of World To Come Dec. 21

EAST LANSING, Mich. (AP)—Dr. Charles A. Laughead, who college officials say believes the world will end Dec. 21, yesterday resigned his position as a staff member of the Michigan State College hospital.

The State Board of Agriculture, the college governing board, accepted his resignation routinely but asked for an explanation.

MSC President Dr. John A. Hannah reported to the board that Dr. Laughead, a staff physician since 1948, was resigning because of his belief the world will end Dec. 21.

"I first heard about this business when a group of students came to me," Dr. Hannah said. "They told me Dr. Laughead had been holding meetings at his home and preaching the beliefs of some peculiar religious sect."

Dr. Hannah said Dean of Students Tom King and Dr. C. J. Menzies, head of the college hospital, investigated and that Dr. Laughead admitted and talked freely about his beliefs.

Dr. Hannah said the group believes that the world will end Dec. 21 and that flying saucers from Venus or Mars—the MSC president wasn't sure which—would rescue some select survivors from mountain tops.

"We understand he is disposing of his belongings and preparing to move to some mountain top to await the rescue."

FHA Demand Soars Higher

WASHINGTON (AP)—The demand for FHA home financing in November more than doubled that for November last year and set a new record for the month, the Federal Housing Administration reported today.

It was the fourth straight month for which a new record was set.

Despite the onset of bad construction weather, FHA said, 52,700 home builders and buyers applied for FHA mortgage insurance — only 5,750 fewer than in October. The number was more than twice the 23,700 applications in November of last year, and well above the previous November record of 46,600 in 1947.

FHA credited the activity to the new housing law which reduced down payments and liberalized purchase terms on both new and used dwellings.

As in October, nearly half the applications were for the purchase of older houses — 25,850 for used dwellings, 26,850 for new.

Sugar In Gasoline Tank

BATTLE CREEK, Mich. (AP)—Sugar was dumped into the gas tank of the Salvation Army's pickup truck here. It will take $250 and precious time to get the truck back into working order so it can continue with Christmas aid to the needy.

Tradition says that the Thames River swans are descendants of a pair given Richard the Lion Hearted by Queen Beatrice of Cyprus.

ASSORTED JAMS AND JELLIES IN USEFUL GOBLETS
. . . made in minutes with pectin and prepared fruits

Packaging Is Half The Fun Of Gifts From The Kitchen

The "do it yourself" idea has combined with Christmas and the kitchen in a happy successful sort of way.

From the person who "has everything" to the person who could use "almost anything" gifts from the kitchen will be welcome. And particularly so if they contain that very personal, I-made-it-myself touch.

Unlike most gifts, the containers for Christmas presents from the kitchen are all important. Most of the time the package can be part of the gift. Metal containers, painted and lacquered, will serve as wall decorations, ash trays, snack buckets, or dresser ensembles later. Jams and jellies, poured into useful glass goblets, can be sprinkled with silver glitter over the paraffin. Blend aluminum foil around the top with a pointed edged fluting and make the sweet spreads sparkle more than ever.

Cookie jars, casserole dishes, or other baking dishes will hold assorted pastries, fruit cake or candy. For a new bride or recipe-collector why not give an assortment of cookies and include on the card your recipes for the cookies? Children will be especially delighted with a toy train or truck filled with candy and cookies and tied in bright cellophane and ribbon.

You can hardly ever fail with a good cookie recipe. Using fancy cutters, colorful ingredients and candy toppings practically any recipe would be adaptable to gay Christmas giving. Here is a recipe for basic white dough. It can be changed to dark dough by adding two ounces of melted chocolate and two teaspoons of milk in the first mixing step.

BASIC LIGHT DOUGH

1 cup homogenized shortening
2-3 cup sugar
1¼ teaspoon salt
2 teaspoons vanilla or 1 teaspoon almond extract
2 unbeaten eggs
2½ cups sifted all purpose flour

Combine and beat throughly the shortening, sugar, salt vanilla and eggs. Add sifted flour and mix well. Roll small portions of dough one-eighth or one-fourth inch thick on floured cloth or board. Cut with assorted cookie cutters. Place on greased baking sheets one inch apart. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) eight to 10 minutes. Makes about four dozen. Use bits of raisins, cherries and nuts to make faces and decorations on cookies. Also, sprinkle with multi-colored candies or dragees or frost with confectioners' sugar icing.

Cardomom is a spice not too familiar to American kitchens, but a very favorite of the Balkan countries' cooks. It is particularly popular for festive cakes and cookies.

KRIS KRINGLE SEEDCKAES

¼ cup shortening
2 cups powdered sugar
½ teaspoon salt
1½ teaspoons grated lemon rind
1 tablespoon cinnamon
1 teaspoon cloves
1 teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon black pepper
5 unbeaten eggs
4 cups sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon soda
1 teaspoon aniseed
1 tablespoon crushed cardamom seeds
¼ pound coarsely ground candied orange peel
½ pound coarsely ground citron

Combine and beat thoroughly the shortening, sugar, salt, lemon rind, spices and eggs. Sift together the flour and soda. Stir into the flour the aniseed, cardomom seeds, orange peel and citron. Add one-fourth of flour-fruit mixture to shortening mixture and mix well; add remainder and blend. Chill dough one hour, then shape into small balls about three-fourths of an inch in diameter. Place on waxed paper and let stand, uncovered, overnight at room temperature. In the morning brush balls with smooth mixture of three tablespoons hot milk and one and three-fourth cups sifted confectioners' sugar. Place balls two inches apart on greased baking sheets. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 minutes. Makes seven and one-fourth dozen. For variety, some of the balls can be left uniced and, when baked, rolled in confectioners' sugar. Store in covered container until used.

Refrigerator cookies can be sliced into a variety of different shapes, depending on how the dough was chilled. It can be formed into a roll and sliced into round cookies; or packed into a pan and sliced into squares or oblongs. These sliced gumdrop cookies are particularly colorful.

SLICED GUMDROP COOKIES

½ cup shortening
½ cup granulated sugar
½ cup firmly packed brown sugar
1 unbeaten egg
1 teaspoon grated orange rind
1 teaspoon vanilla
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup sifted all purpose flour
½ teaspoon soda
½ teaspoon baking powder
1 tablespoon water
1 cup rolled oats
½ cup shredded coconut
¾ cup old-fashioned gumdrops, cut fine with scissors
½ cup chopped nuts

Combine and beat throughly shortening, granulated sugar, egg, orange rind, vanilla. Sift together the salt, flour, soda, and baking powder. Add water and mix. Add oats, coconut, gumdrops, and nuts and mix. Divide dough in half and press dough very firmly together into two rolls two inches in diameter. Wrap each roll in double thickeness of waxed paper, twisting ends rather tightly. Chill in refrigerator overnight. Cut in one-fourth inch slices and place on greased baking sheet, allowing space for spreading. Bake in moderately hot oven (375 degrees F.) 10 to 12 minutes. Makes about four and one-half dozen.

In France tiny presents are often baked into cakes and breads. Sometimes the person who finds a specially placed ring in his slice of cake is chosen to hand out the gifts and preside at the festivities. Every one of the cookies in the following recipe contains a surprise. Whole blanched almonds, dates, or candied cherries can be substituted for the pecan halves in the recipe.

COCONUT POM-POMS

1 cup margarine or butter
½ cup sugar
2 teaspoons vanilla
2 cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon salt
½ pound pecan halves
Shredded coconut, chopped

Cream margarine, sugar, and vanilla until fluffy. Sift flour with salt and add to creamed mixture, blending thoroughly. Shape dough around each half pecan to form one inch balls. Roll in shredded coconut. Place on ungreased cookie sheet. Bake in slow oven (325 degrees F.) about 20 minutes. Cool and store in loosely covered container. Yields six dozen.

These apple nutmeg cookies are soft yet spicy and will keep moist and fresh for days. They are quick and easy, too, when made with canned apple slices.

APPLE-NUTMEG COOKIES

½ cup shortening
2-3 cup sugar
2 eggs
1 cup sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1 teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon nutmeg
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup rolled oats
1 cup chopped, canned apple slices, well drained
1 cup chopped walnut meats

Cream together shortening and sugar. Add eggs, one at a time, beating after each. Sift together flour, baking powder, cinnamon, nutmeg and salt; mix with oats. Add alternately with apples to creamed mixture. Add walnuts; mix well. Drop by rounded tablespoons on greased baking sheet. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) 15 to 18 minutes. Yields three dozen cookies.

A holiday loaf cake or bread, gaily wrapped in cellophane on a small cutting board makes a perfect small gift. You might tell the lucky receiver of the gift that the bread tastes especially good with butter or cream cheese.

HOLIDAY ORANGE BREAD

1 medium orange
½ cup dates, finely shopped
½ cup pecans, coarsely chopped
2 tablespoons melted butter or margarine
½ cup orange juice
1 cup sugar
1 egg slightly beaten
2 cups sifted all purpose flour
1 teaspoon baking soda
1 teaspoon baking powder
½ teaspoon salt

Cut whole unpeeled orange into six to eight sections and put through food chopper. Add to dates, pecans, butter, orange juice, sugar and beaten egg. Sift dry ingredients; add to fruit mixture, stir lightly just until ingredients are blended. Pour into greased loaf pan (9x5 inches) and bake at 350 degrees F. for 60 to 70 minutes. Cool thoroughly before slicing. Makes one loaf.

BUTTERMILK NUT BREAD

1¼ cups sifted flour
¾ teaspoon baking soda
1½ teaspoons baking powder
1 cup whole wheat flour
1 cup chopped walnuts
2 eggs, well beaten
½ cup sugar
2 tablespoons butter, melted
1-3 cup molasses
1 cup buttermilk

Sift flour, salt, soda and baking powder together. Add whole wheat flour and walnuts; mix well. Stir together eggs, sugar, melted butter, molasses and buttermilk. Add to dry ingredients and beat until smooth. Pour into buttered 9x4x3 inch loaf pan and bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about 50 to 60 minutes. Makes one loaf.

HONEY PRUNE LOAF

2 cups sifted all purpose flour
2 teaspoons baking powder
1 teaspoon salt
1 teaspoon soda
2 cups bran cereal
1 cup chopped cooked prunes
1 egg
¾ cup honey
¾ cup sour milk or buttermilk
2 tablespoons melted shortening

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt and soda. Stir in bran. Add prunes. Beat egg lightly and combine with honey, sour milk and shortening. Add to first mixture, and stir until all of flour is moistened. Turn into greased loaf pan (about 10x5x3 inches). Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) one to one and one-fourth hours, or until toothpick inserted in center of loaf comes out clean. Makes one loaf.

The days of hours of labor in the kitchen to make homemade jams and jellies are about over. With partly prepared food and fruit pectin the flavor of home-made sweets can be achieved in just a fraction of the time it used to take. Here are recipes for some unusual combinations of fruits and relishes for Christmas giving. Pour them into containers that can be useful after the jam is gone, and, for extra enjoyment, prepare an assortment for one gift.

APPLE RAISIN JAM

4 cups prepared fruit (¼ pound each dried apples and raisins)
5 cups sugar
1 2½ ounce box powdered fruit pectin

First, prepare the fruit. Add four cups of water to one-fourth pound dried apples and one-fourth pound raisins in a saucepan. Simmer, covered, five minutes. Drain, reserving liquid. Grind fruit or chop fine; mix with liquid. Measure four cups into a large saucepan.

Then, make the jam. Measure sugar and set aside. Add powdered fruit pectin to fruit in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for five minutes to cool slightly to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with one-eighth inch hot paraffin. Yields eight medium glasses.

STRAWBERRY DATE JAM

2 cups sugar
2¼ cups ( 2 10-ounce boxes) quick frozen strawberries, thawed
2 tablespoons lemon juice
¾ cup water
½ box powdered fruit pectin
¾ cup diced pitted dates

Measure sugar and set aside. Measure thawed strawberries into a large saucepan. Add lemon juice, water, and powdered fruit pectin and mix well. Place over high heat and stir until mixture comes to a hard boil. At once stir in sugar. Bring to a full rolling boil and boil hard one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and stir in dates; mix thoroughly. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir in and skim by turns for five minutes to cool slightly and to prevent floating fruit. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover jam at once with one-eighth inch hot paraffin. Yields six medium glasses.

SPICY PEPPER RELISH

2 cups prepared peppers (1 dozen peppers)
1½ cups apple vinegar
1 teaspoon powdered turmeric
7 cups sugar
1 bottle liquid fruit pectin
Green coloring (about 10 drops)

Cut open about one dozen medium sized peppers and discard seeds. For best color, use half green and half sweet red peppers. Put through food chopper twice, using finest blade. Drain. Measure two cups chopped peppers into a very large saucepan.

Add vinegar, turmeric and sugar to peppers in saucepan and mix well. Place over high heat, boil hard one minute, stirring constantly. Remove from heat and at once stir in liquid fruit pectin. Skim off foam with metal spoon. Then stir and skim by turns for five minutes to cool slightly, to prevent floating peppers. Add green coloring and mix well. Ladle quickly into glasses. Cover relish at once with one-eighth inch hot paraffin. Makes 10 glasses.

To tuck into a toy or Christmas stocking as something "extra" these apple nut fruit jells are simple and good. They can be made in just a few seconds and allowed to "set" while you're doing other Christmas cooking.

APPLE NUT FRUIT JELLS

1 bottle liquid fruit pectin
½ teaspoon soda
1 cup sugar
1 cup light corn syrup
½ cup chopped walnuts

Pour liquid fruit pectin into two-quart saucepan. Stir in soda. Pectin will foam as soda is added. Mix sugar and corn syrup in another saucepan. Place both saucepans over highest heat. Cook both mixtures, stirring alternately until foam has disappeared from pectin mixture and sugar mixture is boiling rapidly. This takes about three to five minutes.

Pour pectin mixture in a slow steady stream into boiling sugar mixture stirring constantly. Boil and stir one minute longer. Remove from heat. Stir in chopped walnuts. Pour immediately into 8x8 inch pan. Or use eight-inch pie pan or round layer pan. Let stand at room temperature until mixture is firm and cool, about three hours. Cut into three-fourth-inch squares and roll in confectioners' sugar. If candies are to be stored or packaged, let stand overnight at room temperature before storing, to prevent weeping.

Stubborn Hitler Sacrificed Reserves In Battle Of Bulge

Editor's Note — The following anniversary story on the Battle of the Bulge, as seen from the German side, was written by Willy M. Horbach, a member of the Associated Press staff in Bonn who served three years in the German army.

By WILLY M. HORBACH

BONN, Germany (AP)—On a freezing December morning 10 years ago Adolf Hitler made his last desperate gamble to defeat the Allied armies in the West.

He sacrificed virtually all the mobile strategic reserves Germany still possessed in a bid to snatch the victory he had promised his war-weary people.

At dawn on Dec. 16, 1944, two German Panzer armies moved through misty woods to attack the thinly manned positions of the American 1st Army in the Ardennes Mountains along the German-Belgian border.

It was the start of what the Germans called operation "Wacht am Rhein" (watch on the Rhine) —soon dubbed by the Allies "the Battle of the Bulge."

Within hours the German assault battalions had broken through the American lines and were headed for the River Meuse.

In Germany, people were seized by a mixture of hope and fear. Some hoped the offensive would bring victory. Others feared the agony of war would only be prolonged.

In hindsight, the Ardennes offensive clearly stands out to military historians here as one of the most reckless adventures ever undertaken.

The object was to separate the British and American armies by attacking across Belgium and seizing the important harbor of Antwerp. That would cut the British off from their supply base and force a second "Dunkirk," Hitler believed.

Field Marshal Gerd von Rundstedt, German commander in chief in the West, was shocked by Hitler's plan, he told Allied interrogators after the war.

"We had neither the men nor the supplies for such an ambitious plan," he said.

But the Fuehrer had his way and the offensive was hastily prepared.

The tanks of Sepp Dietrich's 6th Panzer S.S. Army were brought across the Rhine. The 5th Panzer Army, under Gen. Hasso von Manteufeel, rumbled into an assembly area in the wooded Eifel Mountains between Bitburg and Kronenburg.

The people there still have vivid memories of that time.

"I have never seen such a lot of tanks and soldiers," says Hans Bosch, a farmer in the Pruem area who lost two sons in the war.

"When I saw all those soldiers that morning I asked them what they were doing. A young officer told me: 'We attack again.'

"I only felt sorry for them. They were so young, as young as my sons were when the army took them."

Many Germans were horrified when word of the offensive reached them. They were the people who had stayed behind in Aachen, Monschau and other border towns when the Americans marched in. They had defied a Nazi order to evacuate their home towns.

Because they had been branded traitors and saboteurs by the Nazi, they had ample cause to fear German recapture of their towns.

The Germans hurled 14 infantry and seven armored division—with 800 tanks—at the weakest section of the long Allied front. "Storm battalions" attacked under covering fire of 2,000 guns.

The American division were outnumbered 4 to 1. But deep snow, steep hills and bad roads slowed down the Germans from the start. Manteuffel—now a member of the West German Parliament—drove his tanks through the night. But the attackers did not gain as much ground as they expected.

In the North the S.S. Panzer army met determined American resistance around Monschau, on the Belgian border. For days Dietrich was stalled there, giving the Allies time to rush reinforcement to the Meuse—Dietrich's objective.

Manteufeel took over from Dietrich the main punch. His tanks headed for Dinant and Namur while Dietrich was still heavily involved around Monschau, Butgenbach and Malmedy.

It was the unshakeable American defense of Bastogne—where Brig. Gen. (now Lt. Gen.) Anthony C. McAuliffe said "nuts" to a German demand he surrender—that finally stopped Manteuffel.

Failing to capture the city immediately, he bypassed the defenders—the 101st Airborne Division. But then Bastogne menaced the German rear and held out until relieved by Patton's 3rd Army on Dec. 26. It was the turning point of the Battle of the Bulge.

Manteuffel had to retreat when his tanks were only a few miles from Dinant.

Hitler's Christmas present for the hard-pressed Germans was a flop. He had pulled all his tricks, including sending 40 jeep-loads of English - speaking Germans in American uniform behind the Allied line to spread confusion and sabotage.

The skeletons of burned farmhouses still loom against the skyline today on the scene of what Von Rundstedt called Germany's "Stalingrad No. 2."

Scientists Attack Veep

CHICAGO (AP)—A group of scientists say that intervention by Vice President Nixon was responsible for the Navy denying security clearance to Dr. Edward U. Condon, at one time chief of the U.S. Bureau of Standards.

Condon on Monday resigned as research director of Corning Glass Works, Corning, N.Y., stating he felt he could not secure "a fair and independent judgment" in a government review of his security status.

The Atomic Scientists of Chicago (ASC), a self-described organization of scientists concerned with the impact of science on public affairs, in a statement yesterday said "political abuse of the personnel security system has finally forced the resignation" of Dr. Condon.

The ASC said Nixon intervened last month with Secretary of the Navy Thomas to overrule a July 1954 security clearance for Condon. The ASC said the Eastern Regional Personnel Security Board had found Condon's clearance "clearly consistent with the national security." The group said it was the fourth time that Condon had been cleared since World War II.

The ASC statement said the personnel security system "has been degraded to such a point that its judgments are almost meaningless except for the damage they do to the individuals affected.

"Vice President Nixon and Secretary of the Navy Thomas owe this country an accounting of their action."

In Riverside, Calif., where Thomas gave a speech last night, he denied to a radio newsman in an interview that Nixon directly or indirectly entered into conversations with him at any time about Condon's security classification.

"I looked at the file and withdrew his clearance," Thomas was quoted. He said he would consider a request for another hearing on the Condon case if Condon requested it.

Nixon was not available in Washington for comment.

Motels Getting Rid Of Their Price Signs

DAYTONA BEACH, Fla (AP)—The motel price war here is all but over.

Thirty-five motor courts advertised free rooms yesterday in protest against price signs displayed by some of the other courts, which were said to have given the area a "honky-tonk" look. The move worked. All except two motels took down their price signs.

Those two courts will now be picketed, said a spokesman for the other motels.

Free By Christmas

SEOUL (AP)—Some 250 South Korean convicts will be freed by Christmas, Justice Ministry sources said today. Women with babies will get first consideration.

Miami Is Gaining 1,000 New Residents Weekly In Boom

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—Greater Miami, scene of boom and bust nearly 30 years ago, is booming again at the rate of about a thousand new residents every week—and this time, the experts say, there won't be another debacle.

Unlike the frenzied land speculation of the '20s, this is a builders' boom. They are building and selling new houses by the thousands.

It wasn't like that in the great Florida land rush which ended with a crash in 1926. Then Miami was overrun by get - rich - quick traders. A single piece of real estate might change hands several times in a day, each time at a skyrocketing price. Shoestring investments pyramided into paper fortunes in a few weeks, only to vanish when the crash came.

"Miami boom" is something of a misnomer for the prodigous present-day growth. Expansion of the city itself was throttled years ago when satellite suburbs formed their own municipalities. Today there are 22 of them forming a "Greater Miami". The growth is spreading even beyond Dade County into neighboring Broward County, where Fort Lauderdale and other communities are growing just as fast.

Greater Miami's population passed the 700,000 mark this fall and kept on rising. That figure was the estimate of the Florida Power and Light Co., based on careful surveys aimed at insuring adequate electricity for the area. The company's statisticians have advised the firm to plan for one million in 1960.

That's a big jump from the 1,681 inhabitants of Miami in 1900.

In neighboring Broward County, Fort Lauderdale has jumped from 2,065 in 1920 to an estimated 57,000 in 1954. Nearby towns have had similarly spectacular gains.

Here is what those increases mean to builders: From 1946 until June 1954, 94,871 one and two-family dwelling units were built in Dade County, along with 34,715 apartment units and 13,095 hotel and motel rooms.

Housing for vacationists has kept pace on famed Miami Beach. Since World War II, 59 new hotels have opened. That is more, the beach folk say, than were built in all the rest of the country. Today Miami Beach has 375 hotels with over 28,000 rooms, and more than 20,000 apartment units.

Where are all these people coming from? Roughly, they're coming from the entire eastern half of the United States. New York, Ohio, New Jersey, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Georgia are among the big contributors.

And why are they coming? Dr. Reinhold P. Wolff, director of economic research at the University of Miami, says:

"This great migration to Miami is part of a worldwide movement to take advantage of what we might call 'amenity of climate.'" Translated into everyday language, that means a lot of people are seeking warm winters and sunshine.

There are other contributing factors. Development of electric refrigeration eliminated the problem of keeping fresh foods in tropical climates, and air conditioning has gone far in popularizing year-round life here.

What supports this great influx of people?

You can get varied answers to that question. Certainly aviation has been a big factor. Miami is the hub of air traffic to the Caribbean and all Latin America.

South Florida yields few raw materials for industry. However, there has been substantial development in light industries. A 60 million dollar a year resort fashions industry has been built from a modest beginning intended to serve vacationists.

Fabricating of aluminum products—mostly windows, jalousies, furniture, etc. — is a comparatively new and increasingly important industry.

All these, of course, are subordinate to the old standby in Florida's economy — serving the tourists. Now nearly all hotels operate on a year-round basis, and few shops close in the summer.

Wilson Gets 2 Crows

BATON ROUGE, La. (AP)—Secretary of Defense Wilson fired twice with a 20-gauge double-barreled shotgun yesterday and brought down two birds during a crow hunt with Louisiana Gov. Robert Kennon.

Because the Barn Owl eats many rodents it is considered one of the most valuable birds of prey.

Refugee Says Reds Robbed His Family

NEW YORK (AP)—A Polish tanker captain who gained asylum in the free world after his ship was seized by the National Chinese off Formosa said yesterday Red authorities in Poland had robbed and evicted his wife and two daughters from their home. Capt. Leonard Wasowski, 41, said similar reprisals were taken against families of the 11 crewmen who fled with him.

Insults To Be Halted

ROME (AP) — Communist Czechoslovakia has offered to stop the war of radio insults between Prague and Rome and asked Italy to do the same. The offer came in a memorandum from the Czechoslovak legation after the Italian Cabinet protested against a long series of anti-Italian broadcasts.

Train Wreck Kills 3

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—Three persons were killed and 12 injured last night when a passenger train rammed a freight train standing in Banaras station, a spokesman for the government railway system said.

Although snow often lies on the ground at the depth of about 10 inches for every inch of percipitation, the type of snow often makes large differences in that figure.

In 1953, 770 Americans were killed and 27,750 injured while trying to cross intersections against the light.

LOW SHELF PRICES?

Through the years, the name of Safeway has become synonymous with "savings" in the minds of smart shoppers. Recently, our reputation for offering only quality foods at the lowest possible prices was further enhanced when we substantially reduced hundreds of regular shelf prices — the items that you buy day in and day out, week in week out. These reductions — 30 of which are listed in this advertisement — have meant greater daily savings than ever before to thousands of smart shoppers in Snyder.

Russian Produces Two-Headed Canine

By STANLEY JOHNSON

MOSCOW (AP)—A Soviet scientist claims he produced a two-headed dog but says it only lived six days after the operation. He's out to bring forth a hardier specimen.

Dr. Vladimir Petrovich Demikhov, of the Moscow Institute of Surgery, told an interviewer he grafted a puppy's head on a mature dog last February as part of a series of experiments in surgical techniques and rejuvenation processes.

The scientist hopes his findings will point the way toward successful methods of replacing vital human organs.

Soviet sources said Demikhov's dog, in its short life with two heads, exhibited some odd traits:

Both heads showed the same desires at the same time. When the older (original) head wanted to eat, so did the younger. When it was hot, both heads panted. But emotions were not always identical. When the old dog, for example, tried to shake off the puppy's head, the unwanted head bit its host.

Dr. Demikhov reported he is planning to produce another two-headed canine, and he expects this experiment to be a success. He said his first such creation died because of imperfections in the operative technique which he believes have been overcome.

Demikhov and his assistants are carrying on other experiments with dogs. They claim to have restored youth to one ancient animal through the transfer of suprarenal glands from the kidney of a young dog. The oldster is reported enjoying the third year of its second youth.

Ogonyok, the nation's most widely circulated magazine, published a photograph purported to be of the two-headed dog, which it described thus:

The head, shoulders and front paws of a puppy were separated from its body—and from heart and lungs—and sewn onto a mature German shepherd dog on its right side, about six inches below the ear. The new head was connected to the old circulatory and respiratory stystems. For two days there were no signs of life, then suddenly both heads yawned simultaneously.

Family Reunion Held In Municipal Court

SPRINGFIELD, Mo. (AP) — There was a little family reunion in Municipal Court when 20-year-old Wayne Niederhuth was brought in on a speeding charge.

The court clerk who called the case was his mother Mrs. Lucile Niederhuth. The judge who took his plea of guilty was his grandfather John Levan, and it was his Grandpa who assessed the $25 fine, plus $8.50 costs.

Man With Life On Sale Finally Has Prospect

TOKYO (AP)—Sad-faced Satoshita Horita, who stood for nearly three days on a downtown Tokyo bridge offering his "life for sale" for about $195, had a prospect today.

He quit his windswept post after a rubber company executive told him to report for an interview tomorrow about getting a job and an advance to pay his debts.
