

Larry Don and Champ

Larry Don Watlington, 9 year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Watlington, Buford Community, holds the lead rope of his 6 month-old calf, Champ. He is raising the calf on the Mitchell County 4-H Calf Feeder Program. The calf will be shown at several area livestock shows. This is the youngster's first show calf. Larry Don's older brother, Charles Ray, is also raising a calf and the two boys have joint ownership of another calf.

IN 4-H PROGRAM

4-H Boys and Girls
Feeding 20 Calves

Twelve Mitchell County boys and girls are in the Mitchell County 4-H Club Calf Feeding program this year, according to Buddy Logsdon, county agriculture agent.

The purpose of the program is to acquaint boys and girls with the livestock industry, said Logsdon.

"Any boy or girl who for 360 days feeds and grooms an individual steer will be naturally closer to the livestock industry than the youth who does not participate," he said. "The climax, or climaxes, to the year-round program, are the various steer shows around Texas."

Logsdon said Friday that the first showing of the children's animals will be at the Mitchell County 4-H and FFA stock show, held January 12 and 13, 1963.

After this show, Logsdon said, "we have to take them to shows where we can sell the animals." He indicated that the shows the 4-H children would go to would probably be the Abilene and Sweetwater shows.

Logsdon said that there were other shows that they might enter, such as those in El Paso, San Antonio, and Houston.

He stated that "Steer shows afford an opportunity for youth to exhibit their animals before judges and an audience. In our day of keen competition... we must have some glamour in order to keep boys and girls interested. Steer shows do a lot to teach our youth sportsmanship."

The 4-H boys and girls with calves this year are Johnny Tiller, son of J. E. Tiller, with 2 Herefords, Robert Cooper, son of W. W. Cooper, with 2 Herefords and 1 Angus, and three of Charles N. Stubblefield's children: Dwayne, with 2 Herefords, David, with 1, and Christie who has 1 Hereford. James Henderson's daughter, Jimmie Sue, also has a Hereford. Larry Don Watlington, son of Raymond Watlington, has an Angus, and a half-interest in a Hereford, and Billy Harlow, W. C. Harlow's son, has a Hereford calf.

ACCORDING TO A. S. C. OFFICE

Crop Predictions
Short of Last Year

Crop possibilities this year are not quite as good as this time last year, according to J. D. Hill at the Mitchell County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation office.

This time last year the county as a whole had much more moisture in comparison with this year's reports. This year it has rained almost too much in areas while in others the farmers have reported barely enough moisture to plant.

Approximately 40,000 bales of cotton were made last year, according to the A. S. C. office. If the crops can be replanted and there is enough rainfall afterwards, the county may be able to produce even more than 40,000 bales. The reason for this is that Mitchell County has more acres this year than last.

The north portion of the county is extremely wet with about 6 1/2 or 7 inches of rainfall in the past week. Most of the rain fell Thursday, June 7, and some of it was reported on Wednesday of this week.

The driest portions of the county, of course, are the south and southwest parts varying in amounts across the area.

Most of the communities within the county reported some rainfall within the past week. Westbrook had only 9/10 of an inch Wednesday morning and has not had any since, whereas Lorraine had about 2 to 2 1/2 inches Wednesday morning.

The last official rain gauge report from the Courthouse showed .35 Tuesday of this week and .69 Wednesday in downtown Colorado City.

Rogers community reported some rain almost every day during the week. They have had a total of about 2 and 9/10 inches. A little hail was also reported in this area Wednesday.

Cuthbert community has had about 3 and 2/10 inches. They also reported some high winds in that community which have done some damage to crops.

China Grove reported over 7 inches of rain since the rains began. There were over 2 inches reported there Wednesday morning. O. N. Lester Jr., who farms 11 miles northeast of the city, said it has rained almost too much in the area.

IN LEVELLAND

Local Youths Go
To 4-H Workshop

Eight Mitchell County "4-Hers" will be in Levelland, June 19 through 21 for a Junior Leadership Workshop, Buddy Logsdon, County Agent, said Friday.

Logsdon said the workshop will be held at South Plains Junior College in Levelland. "The youngsters will get training in 4-H leadership, and learn to work with younger 4-Hers," he stated.

The group will have two sections in the workshop. The first will be "Junior Leader Records and Planning—Year-round Programs." The second, "Functions of a Junior Leader, and How to Work with Younger Members."

Logsdon said 30 counties will be involved, with 10 participants — including 2 chapters — from each. Logsdon and Mrs. C. B. Taylor, home demonstration agent, will accompany the 4-H boys and girls.

The eight Mitchell County participants will be Johnny Tiller, son of J. E. Tiller, Keith Hackfeld, son of Alfred Hackfeld of Lorraine, Robert Cooper, son of W. W. Cooper, and Ronnie Smith, son of J. D. Smith, Jr. The other four participants are girls. They are Dolores Holman, daughter of Charles Holman, Jean Compton, daughter of Sidney Compton, Sharon Byrnes, daughter of Bruce Byrnes, and Ann Blackard, daughter of J. L. Blackard.

Tiller and Holman are on the planning committee, along with council delegates from Borden, Howard and Scurry counties, Logsdon said.

SINCE FIRST WELL

Mitchell County —
42 Years of OilBY PAT BARRY
Record Staff Writer

On 17 June, 1920, the first oil well in the Westbrook field began flowing.

That was exactly 42 years ago — today, Sunday, June 17, 1962.

The well was the No. 1 Abrams, drilled by a wildcatter, S. S. Owens, in affiliation with a company named Underwriters. It was located north of Westbrook and West of Colorado City.

It started a boom. In the early days Colorado City had been West Texas' trading center. It was the biggest shipping point for cattle on the T & P railroad line.

When oil was discovered, Colorado City became the first oil shipping point in the Permian Basin.

In 1922 a refinery was built in Colorado City. It is the Col-Tex Refining Company, now a division of Cosden Petroleum Corporation.

Today, Mitchell County has over 1,000 oil wells, producing from near the surface to over a mile under, from nine different formations.

The shallowest oil is the Sunflower Sand. It produces from just ten feet below the surface just west of Colorado City.

The deepest and the oldest geologically is the Ellenburger, which produces from 8,000 feet — over a mile and a half — underground.

Other horizons in Mitchell County are the Yates, producing from 1,200 feet. The Upper Clear Fork, producing from sand at 2,513 feet, the Clear Fork Dolomite, the biggest producer, at 2,430 feet to 2,880 feet.

Also in Mitchell County are the Canyon, producing from sand 6,045 feet under, the producing from 5,870 to 6,234 feet, the Mississippian, which produces from a limestone formation at 7,777 feet, and finally, the Silurian, which also produces from a limestone formation.

Campaign Will Begin Tuesday

Tuesday the Chamber of Commerce will send several teams of men out to solicit pledges for money for signs which will delineate Colorado City's charms to Interstate 20 travelers, R. L. Kendall, chamber manager, said Friday.

The teams will meet at Civic House at 8:30 Tuesday morning to pick up "pledge cards." The cards will have written on them the amount expected to be pledged by each person contacted by the teams $1.10, $2.00, or $3.00 per month for three years.

The signs are expected to cost $6,700. But interest on the money borrowed to purchase them, will eventually run the price up to around $7,000, Kendall said. Pledges received by the teams will go to pay off the loan.

The campaign will be headed by the chamber's retail committee, and a sub-committee consisting of Charles Freeman, Willy Landau, and Joe Bell will handle the financing of the signs.

A total of 48 signs are to be placed on the Interstate 20 turnoffs to Colorado City. Bob Carver, chamber president said. A large sign (12 by 48 feet), which will be lighted, will be placed at each turnoff — one on the east and one on the west — Carver said.

Six smaller signs will also be used. Three of them will be placed at intervals leading up to the larger sign on each side of town.

The group feels that the signs will be an aid to Colorado City's business. The signs will tell travelers of Colorado City's lakes, museum and historical features, according to Carver.

Concerning the possible effects of the bypass on local business, Jeff Taylor, chairman of the retail committee, said Friday that "any business loss caused by the freeway will be quickly made up by construction of motels and service stations near the freeway."

"With the positive attitude as expressed by our program, we feel that the general business climate will be greatly improved."

Taylor also mentioned the "advantages of less heavy truck traffic in downtown Colorado City, with a corresponding increase in Interstate 20 traffic," a condition which he believes will "improve our business set-up."

The teams — made up of two men each — will report back to Civic House at noon Tuesday and give a report on their progress. Carver said. They will have a "Dutch - treat" luncheon there.

At 5 p. m., the teams will return again to Civic House for what is hoped will be a final report — in other words, all pledges filled, Carver indicated.

The team leaders are Ralph Lee, Dick Weststrand, George Witten, Bill Randle, and Willy Landau.

The men on the teams will be Earl Brock, Raymond Fuller, Elaine Morgan, Roy Porter, Eldon Mahon, Dr. Bill Rhode, and A. L. McSpadden.

Also Henry Bilberry, Max Berman, Bob Carver, Wayne Griffin, Sie Hamm, Don Benson, Luke Thomas, Harold Boney, Rev. Darris Egger, Jay Adams, Carl Gary, Jake Merritt, Jimmy Harrison, Bob Ratliff, Charles Godwin, Bill Carter, and R. J. Hoback.

The teams will seek pledges only from businessmen, but, Turner said, "we won't turn down any offers."

The Big and the Little of It

Alvin Byrd, left, and his son, Dale, hold 2 fish taken last week from Lake Colorado City. They were caught on trot line Friday morning between the Richardson Camp and the Sportsman Club on the north side of the lake. Carp was used as bait. The large one weighed in at 36 pounds and the smaller one at 6 pounds.

Young Farmer Meeting Set

The Mitchell County chapter of the Young Farmers is sponsoring a meeting on prevention and control of diseases of livestock and poultry. Royce Beights, president of the organization, announced Friday.

It will be held June 21 at 8 p. m. in the Vocational Agriculture department at Colorado City High School.

The program will be presented by Mr. D. G. Winfree of San Angelo, who is with the American Cyanamid company.

Beights urged all farmers and ranchers in Mitchell County to attend the meeting.

CROWN BOWL TIPS

By Lonnie Bounds

Little Push Means a Lot
A good backswing is important to a bowler, if he wants to improve his game. To get off to a good start for an effective backswing, it is important to push the ball toward the target—the 1-3 pocket—when taking the first step.
Don't push the ball to one side or another, but directly toward the target.
This little starting push gives the ball added momentum and helps it into the backswing naturally.

FOR COLORADO CITY GARDEN CLUB

Mrs. Jackson Is New Club Member

Mrs. A. H. Jackson has been elected president of the Colorado City Garden Club.

WSCS Topic Taken From Luke Eight

Devotion for the Monday afternoon meeting of the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the Westbrook Methodist Church was taken from Luke 8:22-25. The devotion was presented by Mrs. A. L. Young. Her subject was "Steering Through the Storm."

Mrs. Young told the group, "If the 'House of Life' is set in order, a person can sleep through the storms that beset him. These storms may come in various ways. There are the storms of mental testing, of financial reverses, disease, accident or temptation. Our ability to pass through the crisis is largely determined by the preparations we have made before the crisis comes. He is best able to weather the storm of life if he fixed habits of goodness guide him."

The meeting was conducted in the church.

The president, Mrs. L. R. Messimer, had charge of the meeting.

Prayer was led by Mrs. Price Hendrix.

Minutes of the previous meeting were read and approved.

The treasurer, Mrs. J. W. Hawkins, reported that there was $31.65 in the class treasury.

Mrs. Young suggested that the WSCS meet only on the first Monday of the month during July and August and that each member read the book for summer study, "The Churches and Public Affairs," and have that study ready at August meeting, with each member taking part in the discussion.

It was announced that 12 food trays had been set and 4 visitations had been made since the last meeting.

Her installation was made at a ceremony conducted Tuesday night by Mrs. Cricket Taylor, County Home Demonstration Agent. The meeting was in the home of Mrs. G. D. Foster, 805 Vine St.

Other officers installed were Mrs. Ben Elliott, 1st vice president; Mrs. W. C. Hooks, 2nd vice president; Mrs. E. L. Straener, recording secretary; Mrs. Wilson Hrbacek, corresponding secretary; Mrs. L. J. Taylor, treasurer; Mrs. L. L. Comer, parliamentarian; Mrs. Roy D. Coles, reporter and Mrs. R. D. Bridgford, historian.

The nunch bowl was centered on the serving table. The bowl was in the center of an arrangement of multi-colored eladiol and was placed on the table clothed with a white lace cover. An arrangement of 2 cranes, standing on an array of multi-colored pebbles arranged in a white container, accepted one end of the table. Monkey fern grew from the cranes' bodies.

Refreshments of nunch and cookies were served to the following persons: Mrs. Taylor, Hooks, Coles, Comer, Straener, Elliott, Roy Porter, C. S. Martin, C. Taylor and her daughter from California, Mrs. J. A. Carlisle, Mrs. Leon Jenkins and her daughter from California, Margaret Aden, Sims Palmer, John Brown, Jackson, E. M. Owens, J. B. Pritchett, Mayberry Wilbanks and the hostess, Mrs. Foster.

Methodists Plan New Study Series

Rev. Darris Eger of First Methodist Church here, will begin a new series in the morning worship starting Sunday (today). The series will be based on the "Parables of Jesus."

The first parable will deal with the Seeds and Soil from Matthew 13:1-23.

Rev. Eger said that one of his reasons for selecting this parable as the first in the series is the observance of Soil Stewardship today.

He suggested that the congregation study in advance the parable and to study the Book of Acts.

73 In Bible School

Enrollment at Vacation Bible School at First Methodist Church was reported this week at 73 by Mrs. J. P. Lacy, director.

The Bible School study was finished Friday.

The study was directed by Mrs. Lacy and a group of adults and teen-aged workers.

What's A Child Worth?

What's YOUR answer. Suppose it's YOUR child. How often have you said (or heard friends say). "I wouldn't take a million for that kid"? . . . And, then, discover a week later that neither you nor your friends were willing to put out enough effort for that same child's welfare. Doesn't it surprise you to find that the value of a child can vary from priceless to less than a few dollars . . . in just a matter of days. Well, not really, because it actually doesn't. It's just that oftentimes we tend to forget our children . . . their future . . . their faith are pretty closely tied to our own lives. So, let's give of ourselves . . . to your children . . . for the lasting faith, the fullness in live . . .

CONVERSATION CORNER

By RUTH COFFEY

FATHER'S DAY means, of course, whatever your father means—or meant—to you.

We called our father, Daddy. Daddy was a drummer. Mother always refined the term by speaking of him as "A traveling man."

DADDY WAS also what this generation would term "Quite a character." He had the most colorful vocabulary, the most volatile disposition, the gayest soul, and what Mother called "The most diabolical sense of humor" in all our little girl world.

HE LOVED music, new Ford automobiles, good clothes, travel, his home. He loved—and must have bought—one million books. He loved reading law and bought a set of Blackstone just for the heck of it. He loved poetry best. His own letters were as likely as not to gallop along in rhyme for six or eight pages, and he was always making up ridiculous little parodies to popular tunes. He played good piano by ear.

DADDY WAS the most genuinely patriotic man we ever knew. He was an uncompromising Democrat to the day he died. He never shook hands with—nor deigned to so much as speak to—either of the two Republicans in the small town where we lived before Big D. When one Republican got himself appointed postmaster, Daddy just bought stamps at his favorite drug store, rather than "hob-nob" with the enemy.

HE WAS NOT a religious man—as this world labels religion. He went only occasionally to church. But he was always assuring Mother he most certainly was going to Heaven.

"If there's any way to get there, I'll be going," he liked to shock her by saying. "I've already sampled three churches." He was a little boy Presbyterian with his mother; a young man Methodist; and a Baptist after the Lord saw fit to make his fourth child a son!

BEING BAPTIST didn't reform him enough to keep him from eternally pulling his rank on Mother. They had eloped when she was 17, he was thirty-something, and he never let her forget the wisdom of his superior years.

He always told her he had a cinch on Heaven. As precipitantly as he did everything else, he transferred his quicksilver talents there without warning when he was 63. It sometimes confounds and amuses Mother, now, that as this earth reckons time, she's finally "older than Daddy!"

They know who would call him dead! He's in the whispering of stars instead. Colorado part of rhymes and tender songs—him all music still belongs.

In Heaven, he's telling small angels just how Stars and rainbows are hung right now!

RIGHT NOW, this very minute, out in San Francisco, there's one attractive C. Citian headed for a wonderful trip.

Dorothy Patton (Mrs. Fred) of 1138 Chestnut St. left here Wednesday, June 13 for San Francisco. Dorothy has a friend in California whose son is in the Peace Corps in the Philippines. He is going to be married there early in July, and Dorothy and his mother are going to the wedding!

The two leave San Francisco June 20 for Hawaii and will spend about 10 days there. Then on to Manila for another 10 days, then to Hong Kong for three days. From Hong Kong, their worldly summer travels will take them to Japan where they will visit for another 10 days.

Returning to The States, Dorothy and her friend will stop in Seattle to take in the World's Fair. They expect to be back in San Francisco about August 2nd. After visiting relatives there in California, Dorothy will pack again and head for Casper, Wyoming, where she'll be guest of her daughter, Mary Lou, who's married to Todd Biggs. The Biggs adopted a baby son, John Thomas, early this year.

From Casper, Dorothy will go to Denver, Colorado, to spend some time with daughter Janet (Mrs. Bob Sackett) and her husband and son Tommy, who's three now.

OUT IN ARIZONA, where she teaches at the Navajo Indian Reservation School, our Margaret Ann Oyler is acting principal for several weeks this vacation season. Her mama Margaret (Mrs. Bill Oyler of TESCO downtown office) is rightfully proud.

June 23, Margaret Ann, who's an A. C. C. grad, will come home for her own vacation. When she returns to Arizona, her mother will make the trip with her to help her pack up for a move to Fort Defiance which is 20 miles north of Gallup, New Mexico. Margaret Ann has been transferred to a post at the Indian School at Fort Defiance as of August 27.

ANOTHER LOCAL LASS is summering near Cloudcroft, New Mexico, one of the loveliest spots in our part of the world. Our Irene Norman, youngest of the three J. D. Norman daughters, left last week for Mayhill, N. M. where she's a counselor in Girl Scout Camp—the Mary White Camp.

Irene is a McMurry College student, and this will be her first whole summer away from home.

MRS. H. L. CROUT JR., who was before her marriage Nina Katherine Quinney, was to have arrived here yesterday (Saturday) from her California home. Driving through with her is her son Don. The two will spend about 10 days in the home of Nina K.'s mother Winnie Quinney (Mrs. Floyd) of 229 East 8th St.

HERE AT HOME—looked up from kabitizing at Rud-dick Park pool to see a sweet, friendly face—familiar during her CCHS days here. 'Twas Gloria Roensch, wife of Shelton Miles, and the couple's three young sons headed for a swim. The Mileses live in Mesquite, he works in Big D, and they're here for a vacation at home of his parents, the E. S. Mileses of Longfellow.

DASHED BY an instant to see this week's lovely little bride, Charlotte Nuckolls, her mama Vernah, and the pretty twin teens, Sharon and Karen, all of 1844 Locust St. Picked up what was 'sposed to be a description of "what the bride wore" which starry-eyed Charlotte was struggling with for the papers. Started to read what was on the sheet—and found some scribbled lines beginning "Sugar, flour, coffee, vanilla, baking powder . . ."

Wrong list, of course. But somehow, it read so exactly right for a bride smart enough to contemplate this eternal truth: the most lasting honeymoons don't really start cooking until the bride changes her tune from "O Promise Me" to "Home, Home On Range . . . where the dear and the recipes stay."

Israel Couple Visit Scout Day Camp

Mr. and Mrs. Yigal Telem paid a surprise visit to the Girl Scout Day Camp in Rud-dick Park this week.

Telem is a former boy scout from a suburb of Tel Aviv, Israel. His wife is a former Girl Guide from England. Girl Scouts in England are called Girl Guides.

The couple live in Los Angeles and were enroute to Boston for the summer. He has been in America for a year and his wife for a year and a half.

They saw the scout flag over the day camp site and joined in the day's closing flag ceremony and discussed scouting in their native countries.

Unit Leaders for the Mitchell County Girl Scout Day Camp are: Mmes. John Russell, M. W. Palmer, W. J. Camp, all of Colorado City; and T. J. Green, Jr., of Lorraine.

SUN WARNING—Streaming into your living room, sunlight is a lovely thing to see... but it can play havoc with your draperies. Constant exposure to strong rays can seriously weaken a fabric after only a few months. By chemical action, sunlight can change the colors of certain dyes. You can minimize these effects by using lined drapes and rotating them from areas of strong to lesser exposure. Vat-dyed fabrics will hold their colors better than those dyed by other processes.

ERASING STAINS—If Junior tries his new-found writing talents on his white shirt, you can often remove the mark (if it's a regular lead pencil) with a soft eraser or artgum. For indelible pencil marks, apply a few drops of ammonia, work detergent into the stain and rinse well. (This ammonia-detergent treatment can also be used for carbon paper stains). For extensive stains, it's best to turn the job over to the professionals.

HOME TOWN

Talk

By PEGGY BELVIN

WITH VACATION PLANS going strong for so many of our local citizens, and so many just starting on trips or just returning from trips... can't help but feel just a little blue and very, very envious...

CAROLYN GEER has just returned from a week in sunny MIAMI BEACH, FLORIDA. She made a romantic boat trip from Miami to NASSAU, on the S. S. Bahama. She's the school-teacher daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. GEER, 316 E. 15th St.

And 14 year-old BECKY PRITCHETT, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. JOE PRITCHETT, is all set to embark on a vacation that would constitute a dream-come-true for anyone. She will visit 13 states on an historical tour with 30 other youngsters. On the agenda for the trip is a visit to the WHITE HOUSE and a star-filled venture to the Big Town... NEW YORK CITY...

Fairly makes me drool... with me being out of our fair state only once... just over the state line into Louisiana...

And MRS. O. L. SIMPSON, who is readying for a visit to the WORLD'S FAIR in Seattle. She'll be gone for 2 weeks on a fun-filled spree that includes a stopover in VANCOUVER, BRITISH COLUMBIA.

And I... have only the gloomy future of a stay-at-home vacation. Even if my present financial status would allow a trip to some pleasure spot afar... my dear but aging Chevy could not take the strain...

THE NEWLY-PAINTED curb markings across the street from this office with the distinct NO PARKING lettering, plus a little friendly persuasion from the local Police Department, has at last discouraged the illegal parking that has run so rampant there lately.

MUST ADMIT that I was one of those guilty. But the half-block sprint to the office in the morning is stimulating. I've learned... it's just the getting to the car at the end of the day that's so hard...

WILL TAKE THIS OPPORTUNITY to officially welcome the new Record staffer. She's cute and energetic JANE DOBBS, another commuter seen going back and forth from LOMAINE.

The auburn-haired miss is the daughter of MR. AND MRS. MARTIN DOBBS and she has 3 years of college to her credit at MIDWESTERN UNIVERSITY in Wichita Falls...

MRS. JOSEPH H. TARTER
nee Brenda Kay Lewis

Ceremonies conducted in the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lewis, 944 E. 12th St., united Miss Brenda Kay Lewis and Joseph H. Tarter in marriage June 7.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tarter, 336 Austin St.

The couple is residing at 304 E. 4th St.

49th Scheduled For Separation

Colorado City members of the 49th Armored Division are now receiving final physical examinations for separation, an Army information bulletin announced Wednesday. The 49th is stationed at Ft. Polk, Louisiana. Units are to be released midnight, August 9.

Te Army hospital at Ft. Polk, which has the job of processing examinations, conducts checkups at the rate of 60 an hour, and will be finished with them by June 30, the bulletin stated.

Present plans call for the 49th, which is made up of 10,000 Texans in 95 units from 74 cities, to begin the trek back to Texas August 6 through 7.

According to the release, training for some 100 men of the 3rd Rocket Howitzer Battalion, 132nd Artillery, called to active duty last fall at the height of the Berlin crisis, is being conducted as usual.

Range firing, Army Training Tests, and an expected Strategic Army Corps mobility test fill the training schedule.

The mobility test will be designed to check the deployment posture of the division which has been assigned to the III STRAC Corps since February, the release said.

Major General Harley B. West, the division commander, has stated that a normal training schedule will be followed until July 15, at which time the men will concentrate on the movement home.

The release said that "a maze of administrative work" required for each man's release now faces personnel sections. They will have to dig through multiple forms on everything from requests for household goods shipment to the individual's service record... 23 separation forms in all.

Those who were members of the division when it was mobilized, the report says, will
