

Czech Extremist

Communists in control of Czechoslovakia, alarmed by Moscow's spanking of the Yugoslav Reds for being "anti-Soviet," may reorganize their government, observers say. Alexej Cepicka, above, minister of justice and the most extreme Red in the cabinet, may be given a more important post.

Senate Hopefuls All See Victory Without Runoff

By The Associated Press
Confidence and hope charged the air of the U. S. Senate campaign Thursday.
Lyndon Johnson flew out of the Rio Grande Valley saying he will carry South Texas; Coke Stevenson, at Midland, said this is the most encouraging campaign ever; George Peedy, also in West Texas, figured he might win without a runoff.
"No other candidate in this race has had hundreds of people come out in the hot July sun to stand and listen so attentively," Johnson said at Corpus Christi after the two busiest days of his campaign.
Two of his opponents, Peedy and Stevenson were traveling over West Texas. At Fort Davis Wednesday night, Peedy said it is essential that farm prices be kept equal with other prices as an incentive to greater production to supply a starving and confused world. "I don't believe we will ever have peace in a world where ceaseless hunger is the lot of large populations in one quarter of the earth while food is consumed and wasted in reckless abandon in another."
Two in West Texas
Both Stevenson and Johnson formerly have predicted victory without a runoff in the July 24 primary.
Stevenson, touring from Waco to Midland, was cheered to learn that his home town paper, the Junction Eagle, is endorsing him in Thursday's issue.
Both Stevenson and Peedy visited Midland and Odessa Thursday. Jim Griffin, candidate for commissioner of agriculture, rode around Dallas on a tractor, saying: "I haven't a helicopter so this will have to do."
Caso March, candidate for governor, said at San Antonio Wednesday night that his proposed tax program would save the "ordinary" taxpayers of Texas 100 million dollars a year. Roger Evans, another candidate for the same office, scheduled a 20-station broadcast Thursday night from Corpus Christi.
Gov. Beauford Jester, a candidate for reelection, summarized his record in a broadcast from Austin Wednesday night. Since January, 1947, he said, "the largest programs of expansion and betterment in the history of Texas have been carried out."
Moths love animal fibers. The larvae of the moth or carpet beetle feed upon fur, feathers, hair, wool, bristles and fabrics made from them.

Dutch Car Runs on 'Fiets' Power

In Holland, they call this gadget a "fietsaxi." If you use your "fiets" you "axi" along, because the little car moves on foot power. The Dutch, who are forbidden by law to use regular autos on Sunday, find the "fietsaxi" come in handy. Two GI's in Holland on a vacation, Thomas Kagami of Hawaii, at the wheel, and Elwood Kough of Altoona, Pa., go for a "fietsaxi" spin in Zandvoort.

Of Mice And Men, This Is A Brand New Story

W. M. Howard, sanitarian of the Midland-Ector-Howard County Health Unit, was inspecting a Midland drug store Wednesday when he found a situation that was utterly new, even in his career of finding practices among food vendors.
Opening an electric refrigerator, he discovered a lot of food. Also a mouse trap. It was baited with cheese, ready to go.
The manager of the store explained she really didn't expect to catch a rat in the refrigerator. She was merely saving the cheese, keeping it fresh for mice who might be enticed by it when the trap was put out at night.
"I just hate to put cheese on a dirty old mouse trap," she said.

Red Cross To Offer Water Safety Course

The Midland County chapter of the American National Red Cross will offer a water safety instructor course at Pagoda Pool, July 19-20, it was announced Thursday.
The course is open to men and women 18 years of age or older. Red Cross officials said they are hopeful a large number of Midlanders participate. Courses for beginners and advanced swimmers may be given later, they said. Robert Lucey will conduct the course.
Persons interested in taking the course are asked to phone Red Cross headquarters.

INFLATION REARS HIGHER

LOS ANGELES.—(AP)—Inflation really hit William Barnhill. Arrested on a charge of stealing ham—valued at 91 cents—from a market, he was assessed—and paid—a $100 fine.

Society Matron Milks Cow, Opens Highway

ELGIN, ORE.—(AP)—It was a vacationing California society matron who reopened blocked Looking Glass Creek Road in this Eastern Oregon area.—She did it by milking a cow.
T. Thompson Morganton, retired Los Angeles real estate operator, and his wife, came upon a Jersey cow in the middle of a narrow country road.
The cow wouldn't let the Morgantons by. It wouldn't let the car just behind them by. And the nearest place wide enough to turn a car around was three miles back.
Morganton had never been acquainted with any cows. Mrs. Morganton's only intimate connection with them was a vacation on a Wisconsin farm during her girlhood.
But she remembered enough from that to realize that the cow wouldn't move because it couldn't. It was suffering from having gone un-milked.
She hadn't milked a cow in the 40 years since Wisconsin, but she squatted on her heels in the dusty road and tried it. The milk flowed.
And the relieved cow moved on—opening the road to traffic.

BEAR KILLS CHILD IN MICHIGAN WOODS

SAULT STE. MARIE.—(AP)—A black bear lumbered out of Michigan's north woods Wednesday, carried off the little daughter of a forest ranger and left her mangled body beside a stream.
Minutes after the body of three-year-old Carol Ann Pomrankey was found a quarter-mile from her parents' isolated cabin, an angered posse shot and killed the animal.

Stevenson Reets In Midland Hotel

Former Gov. Coke Stevenson, a candidate for U. S. senator to succeed Sen. W. Lee O'Daniel, said here he has made four political races and this is the best one yet.
"I am receiving more encouragement now than in any of my previous campaigns for public office," the governor commented, when he finally was contacted by a reporter after several unsuccessful attempts.
Stevenson arrived here late Wednesday from Waco to spend the night prior to launching a rapid-fire campaign tour of the Permian Basin.
No Public Speech
No reception or planned party was held here, and his only speech was a radio address over the Lone Star Chytron from KORS at 6:30 a. m. Thursday. He said he is speaking only at special events and before civic and service clubs.
He was scheduled to address the Lions Club at Kermit Thursday night, following morning visits to Odessa and Monahans. He will return to Midland Thursday night after scheduled visits to Mentone and Peecos during the afternoon.
Stevenson said he hoped to return to Midland in time Thursday to visit friends and acquaintances here.
Stevenson said in his Thursday morning radio address that men and women he has talked to are "sick to death" of political promises that are not likely to be kept.
"They say they want a United States Senator who will listen to them when they talk about their problems... not a man who spends all his time telling them what they are going to do and do it," he said.
Fredrick First-Round Win
Stevenson repeated he had never conducted a campaign on a platform of political promises and is not going to in this race.
He predicted again that he would win in the first primary.
"I am convinced that the people of Texas, who are familiar with the Coke Stevenson brand of government economy in Texas, want that same brand of economy applied in Washington, D. C.," he said.
Stevenson stressed need for a reduction in taxes.
"We've got to cut down taxes, or we never will be able to cut down the high cost of living."
"Now, taxes can be cut down... and it can be done without curtailing the necessary functions of government."
"... Don't you believe at least one billion dollars could be squeezed out of the federal budget of forty billion dollars by trimming corners and getting rid of waste? I certainly believe it," Stevenson said.

McCAMEY.—The City of McCamey has just purchased a new hydraulic garbage truck, a modern compress type, and officials expect it to arrive some time this week.
Mayor E. C. Bone said the city will be sprayed with D.D.T. possibly this week. This work would have been done sooner, but the machine was broken down and had to be repaired.
Officials also announced there will be a street paving bond election early in August.

Peace, Reasonable Prices Possible, Says B&PW Meet Speaker

FORT WORTH (AP)—Economic study can grant women's two most earnest wishes—world peace and reasonable prices—W. Walter Williams of Seattle, Wash., told business and professional women meeting here.

"These two wishes are pretty basic," he said Wednesday. "They are related directly with the kind of an economic system we have. They can be achieved—definitely and positively—providing we come to a better understanding of what makes our economic system tick and then set to work to make it tick better—to make it provide more and more for more and more people."

Williams spoke to the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs convention.

Tired Kidneys Often Bring Sleepless Nights

Doctors say your kidneys contain 15 million tiny tubes or filters which help to purify the blood and keep you healthy. When they get tired and don't work right in the daytime, many people have to get up nights. Frequent or scanty passages with smarting and burning sometimes shows there is something wrong with your kidneys or bladder. Don't neglect this condition and lose valuable, restful sleep.

When disorder of kidney function permits poisonous matter to remain in your blood, it may also cause nagging backache, rheumatic pains, leg pains, loss of pep and energy, swelling, puffiness under the eyes, headache and dizziness.

Don't wait! Ask your druggist for Doan's Pills, a stimulant diuretic, used successfully by millions for over 40 years. Doan's give happy relief and will help the 15 million of kidney tubes flush out poisonous waste from your blood. Get Doan's Pills.

Knit Tricks

By EPSIE KINARD
NEA Fashion Editor

NEW YORK — (NEA) — The fashion which excites the most envy at every beach, boat club or smart resort of the U. S. A. is the hand-knit play suit.

Such outfits which wealthy women buy and pay fabulous prices for can be made for a mere fraction of the cost by the woman who knits.

For the woman who wants to make her own swank outfit, Audrey Gerhart, "big name" designer in the hand-knit field, has created one of the year's outstanding fashions. The three-piece outfit, as shown, includes brief multi-color shorts, matching turban scarf and a back-button bolero of a harmonizing color. The entire ensemble will cost approximately $8.55 to make.

If you are as adept with a crochet hook as with knitting needles, make yourself a beach bag and sandals to complete your ensemble. Patterns for these are as easy to follow as the patterns for the knit-wear. These crocheted accessories, made of candlewick cotton and designed to complete your handsome hand-made outfit, will cost under $2.50 to make.

Golf Course Discussed At Meeting Here

Twenty-five Midland men attended a meeting in the high school auditorium Wednesday night to discuss the proposed construction of an 18-hole public golf course.

The meeting was called by Barnes Milam, chairman of the Chamber of Commerce Sports and Recreation Committee. Frank True was named temporary chairman of the meeting.

Discussion centered around True's plan for a course on the Henry Butler land west of the KORS transmitter. This land, he said, is available for the course at a reasonable cost. The question to be decided, he added, was whether the land was suitable for a course and whether Midland golf fans were numerous and interested enough to finance development of the course.

One of the most logical places in Midland for a municipal course is the Wadley Tract from which the city plans to draw a major part of its water supply, he said. However, voters rejected a municipal golf course in the last bond issue for civic improvement.

Everyone present agreed the city needs a golf course where the public can play merely by paying green fees. Visitors to the city as well as hundreds of residents who are not members of the country club should have access to an 18-hole course, men at the meeting declared.

True appointed J. P. Carson, Jr., Harry Rhodes, Henry G. Krauss and Alan Leeper members of a committee to explore possibilities for building such a course. This committee will report some time next week on their findings regarding possible sites for the course, cost of construction and maintenance, and membership prospects.

Complete up-to-the-minute weather maps now are supplied to ships at sea by means of radio.

DOWN SPORTS LANE

with JIMMY ALLISON,
Pinch-Hitting for Tanager Laine

According to leading sports authorities of the nation, America is on the widest sports-spending spree in history. The main cause for this spending spree is inflation and shorter working hours, plus more persons going on vacations for the first time since the war ended.

All previous attendance records are being forgotten as new ones take their place each year. Hardly an attendance record stands for more than a year.

More equipment is becoming available as the factories, which produce the sporting goods, are reaching peak production. If their plans are not set back, the next year will be a record one for the sale of sporting goods to Americans who are taking more interest in athletics and sports than ever before.

A sport which is seldom heard of in West Texas but which draws tremendous crowds is corn husking. This is one of the main sports in the Mid-Western section of this country. Although no admission is charged, the national husking champion draws one of the greatest single day crowds in the nation. At the annual championship, in 1940, on a farm near Davenport, Iowa, a crowd of more than 150,000 persons attended. More than 50,000 automobiles were parked near the farm.

Ray Wolf, Florida football coach for two years, made his first appearance the other day before his home town Rotary Club. The temperature was pressing 100 but this was not the kind of heat Wolf was worrying about. Wolf was worried about the heat which has been put on him for a top team this coming season. His contract will run out this year, so it is win or don't come back for him. When he was introduced he mopped his brow, pulled his soaked shirt away from his body and exclaimed: "Gentlemen, if my football team is as hot next Fall as I am now, I am positive I will be able to talk to you again in a couple of years."

Five Oilers Selected On TL All-Stars

DALLAS—(AP)—Tulsa's Al Vincent will find five members of his own team among the squad of 19 he will manage next Tuesday night against Fort Worth in the Texas League's eighth annual all-star game at Fort Worth.

Vincent, picked as skipper of the club by vote of the sports writers in the league cities, also will have five players from Houston, four from San Antonio, three from Shreveport and one each from Dallas and Oklahoma City. Beaumont, the other league member, did not land a man.

The all-star squad was announced by Milton Price, league secretary, with the writers giving four players unanimous vote. They were Harry Perkowski of Tulsa, the league's leading pitcher; Tommy Tatum, Tulsa left fielder, who is the leading batter; Sam DiBiasi of Houston, third baseman, and Charley Kress, Tulsa first baseman. Others selected on the squad were: Pitchers—Andy Sierra, San Antonio; Pete Masar, Houston; Cloyd Boyer, Houston; Warren Hacker, Shreveport; Ed Garcia, Oklahoma City, and Procopio Herrera, San Antonio. Catchers—Al Unser, Tulsa; Bob Brady, Dallas, and Tom Jordan, San Antonio. Second base—Bolly Hamus, Houston, Shortstop—Danny Reynolds, Shreveport. Utility infielder—Bill Sommers, San Antonio. Center field—Jim Kirby, Shreveport; right field—Russell Burns, Tulsa. Utility outfielder—Hal Epps, Houston.

After the picture is filmed, he will report to the Washington Redskins for his twelfth and probably his final season in professional football. . . Stella Walsh, famous Polish women's Olympic star and now one of this nation's outstanding women athletes, announced she probably will retire soon. . . Bicycle racing, a popular sport a few years ago returns to popularity. . . Rodeos drew more than 5,000,000 fans in 1947. . . There are four Hunters and one Fisher in the new Midland phone book. . . The Junior Indians are scheduled to go against the Lamesa Juniors Thursday afternoon. . . The Brooklyn Dodgers were known as the Super-bats and the Bridegrooms in the olden days. . . The old battle cry of "Break up the Yankees" should now be changed to "Break up the Broncs". . . 30 for strays. . . only two more days to go.

VAN HOOZER COMES THROUGH—

Indians Bump Sports 5 To 3

SWEETWATER—Sam Van Hoozer pitched and helped bat the Midland Indians to a 5-3 victory over the Sweetwater Sports here Wednesday night in a Longhorn League tilt.

The lanky Indian twirler subdued Sports batsmen with nine safeties, and contributed an eighth-inning double which drove in what proved to be the winning run. He then raced in with a run himself when Jakes singled behind his two-base out.

Presley led the Tribe batting attack with a double and two bingles, while Jakes, Melillo and Perry each contributed a pair of base knocks.

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10-percentage point bulge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American League race by trouncing the Chicago White Sox 10-2. The A's also won their game, edging out the Yankees at New York 4-3. Bob Feller hurled his ninth victory for the Tribe, pitching shutout ball after the first inning. . . Hank Majeski, a Yankee castoff, was the big guns for the A's, The hard-hitting third baseman, developed a home run and triple drive in three runs against his former-mentor, Tommy Byrne, was the victim.

Trailing 2-4, the Washington Senators suddenly came to life with a five-run rally in the top of the ninth to nip the Red Sox at Boston 7-6. Manager Joe McCarthy, who started with Boo Ferris, used five pitchers in a frantic attempt to halt the bats.

Hal Newhouser twirled a shut-out as the Detroit Tigers blanked the St. Louis Browns 6-0.

Pittsburgh moved past St. Louis into second place in the National League by defeating the Cardinals 2-1.

Larry Jansen limited the Philadelphia Phillies to two hits in pitching the New York Giants to a 7-0 triumph. He had a no-hitter until Richie Ashburn scratched an infield hit in the seventh. Johnny Mize collected four hits off Curt Simmons.

Hopping off to a 3-0 lead in the first inning, the Cincinnati Reds went on the gain an easy 10-3 victory over the Cubs in Chicago.

Major Leagues— Dodgers Ride High With Six Straight Wins

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

The unpredictable Brooklyn Dodgers were riding high Thursday on the wings of a six-game winning streak—and threatening to catch the leaders before the month is out.

Wednesday night's 4-3 victory in 11 innings over the Boston Braves at Ebbets Field left the Dodgers in fifth place, only a game behind the first division New York Giants.

They trail the pace-setting Braves by six and a half games.

The Cleveland Indians maintained their slim 10-percentage point bulge on the Philadelphia Athletics in the American League race by trouncing the Chicago White Sox 10-2.

The A's also won their game, edging out the Yankees at New York 4-3. Bob Feller hurled his ninth victory for the Tribe, pitching shutout ball after the first inning.

Texas League— Rebels Crowd First Division

By The Associated Press

Johnny Logan caught hold of the first pitch Vic Johnson threw him in the seventh inning Wednesday night and sent it out of the park. That tied the score and enabled Dallas to use an eighth-inning rally for a 3-1 decision over Oklahoma City. The victory put the Rebels within one-half game of the first division.

All of the other games were decided by one-run scores. Fort Worth squeaked by Tulsa 2-1; Houston nipped San Antonio 4-3, and Beaumont took an eleven-inning, 10-9 decision from Shreveport.

Olympic Track Team Selection Starts Friday

EVANSTON, ILL.—(AP)—Selection of the American Olympic track team counted on to win ten firsts at London starts Friday at 5 p. m. in Northwestern University's Dyche Stadium and concludes Saturday afternoon.

There was increasing confidence on all hands. With one notable exception, the 200 athletes have come this far without serious injuries. Even Gil Dodds, best of the distance men who has a strained Achilles tendon in his left leg, is rounding back into shape.

Next Monday the track squad of about 65 men will assemble in New York for "processing" before the U. S. America sails on Wednesday with most of the American team.

The exact number in track depends on how many spares are carried to round out the sprint and 1,600-meter relay teams.

House Investigating Body Draws Blanks In Communist Probe NEW YORK—(P)—A House subcommittee has drawn three straight blanks in quizzing New York City labor leaders to find out if they have Communist affiliations. In a tumultuous opening session Wednesday, three union leaders flatly refused to answer when the House investigators asked if they were Communists. One of them, Arthur Osmán, president of Local 66 of the CIO Department Store Union, told committee members: "We are going to take people like you and put you out of Congress." His threat was answered by a burst of applause from spectators that peaked the thirteenth-floor hearing room in the Federal Court-house. Rep. Fred Hartley (R-N.J.), chairman of the House Labor and Education Committee of which the investigating group is a part, said it would be decided later whether contempt charges will be pressed against the three who refused to say if they are Communists. Besides Osmán, those questioned were David Livingston, vice president of the CIO local, and Esther Letz, a unit director.

Arabs— (Continued from Page 1) tions headquarters in Lake Success, N. Y., was that Count Folke Bernadotte, UN Palestine mediator, had told the secretary general he was ready to ask both sides to hold fire three more days until 100 or more truce observers and secretariat members could get out of the country. U. S. Fleet Moves Most of the United States Mediterranean Fleet was moving into the Eastern Mediterranean. Three cruisers, two destroyers, a carrier and an escort carrier were headed that way from Istanbul and Naples. But Secretary of Defense Forrestal told a Washington news conference the movements were according to schedule and had "no significance." While the truce waned, Jewish forces were on a spy hunt in Jerusalem, a Jewish-Arab battleground in the weeks before the cease-fire. Reliable sources there said the Israeli Army convicted a Palestine Jew, who formerly had served as a major in the British Army, of spying for the Arabs. He was allowed to kill himself to escape public execution. The extremist Stern Group announced it had executed a Jewish woman named Rosa Belser after she was convicted on charges of supplying military information to a British intelligence agent in the Holy City.

Hitler's Auto Now Just a Used Car.

Christopher G. Jokus, managing director of a Chicago importing firm, waited two years for a new car, without any luck. Finally, he accepted a car from Sweden in payment for a shipment after Sweden clamped down on exporting dollars. It turned out to be Hitler's custom-built, ornate Mercedes-Benz, in which the Fuehrer rode in parades. It's shown being unloaded in New York.

Juvenile 'City' Aids Pittsburgh

PITTSBURGH—(AP)—Children in Pittsburgh's "city within a city" are saving the big folk about $25,000 a year. They do it by reducing false fire alarms and by curbing juvenile delinquency in other ways. "Hill City," as the project is known, is nestled deep in Pittsburgh's predominantly negro hill district—referred to in sociological reports as a "blighted area." Governed by the youth of the district, under the supervision of Howard C. McKinney, founder of the agency, the "city" has its own mayor, council, judges, district attorney, police—a counterpart of every department and bureau in Pittsburgh's municipal government. City officials say the self-government process has worked well. For instance, in addition to the $25,000 saved by the reduction in false alarms, shoplifting in Pittsburgh stores has been reduced about 63 per cent, McKinney says. Gang activities have been cut 96 per cent, he adds proudly, and vandalism more than 50 per cent. McKinney, an ex-city detective and a University of Pittsburgh graduate, says the main purpose of Hill City is "to make the children feel they are not outcasts of society and that America offers them a future even though they are negroes." Any neighborhood child can join Hill City for 15 cents a year. No other charges are made. When entertainment is given, admission is never with money, but by some article of food, however small and cheap. If a youngster doesn't care to join Hill City officials don't care to spend his free moments in the workshop. "Much of our success in the past was due to shop work," McKinney said. "By the same means, we were able to raise the living standards in homes with the chairs, tables and other items the children made and took home." Mrs. Eunice W. Cook, assistant to McKinney, aids family hygiene by teaching youngsters home nursing.

Texans Get Record Prices For Livestock

AUSTIN—(AP)—Prices received by Texas farmers for meat animals and livestock products rose to another new high last month. The United States Department of Agriculture reported that during the month ending June 15 prices of livestock and livestock products rose four per cent, more than offsetting the one per cent drop in the average for crops and raising the over-all index about two per cent. Hogs advanced $2.10 to a mid-June average of $23.20 per hundred pounds. Lambs average $21.30, up 30 cents. Beef cattle at $22.50 and veal calves at $22.90 were up 40 cents and 50 cents, respectively. Sheep declined 30 cents to a mid-June average of $11.70 per hundred pounds.

New Locations in Midland District Decline Slightly

There was a slight decline in the number of new locations listed for oil explorations in the Midland district (No. 5) of the oil and gas division of the Railroad Commission of Texas, during the past week period. The total number of new projects this week was 9, as compared with 72 for the previous week.

There were four wildcats on the list—each of which had previously been reported in the Permian Basin Oil & Gas Log. Those ventures were to be drilled one each in Harrison, Gaines, Mitchell and Leakey Counties.

Amended applications were filed for six prospectors which were already being drilled. Two of those developments were in Pecos, and one each in Andrews, Crane, Gaines, and Ector Counties.

Hockley County, with thirteen new prospects, was at the top of the list. Crane County was listed for eight new explorations; Winkler reviewed seven of the new prospects, and Andrews was given six.

Ector County was slated for five of the new projects, and Gaines and Hockley drew four new locations each. Curry County was credited with three new developments, and Mitchell with two.

The other new ventures were spotted one each in Cochran, Culberson, Howard, King, Loving, Martin, Reeves, and Yoakum Counties.

Evans Counts On Rural Vote To Put Him In Office

By TOM STONE
Associated Press Staff

Roger Q. Evans, who lives in a small town, is counting heavily on the support of rural folks to elect him governor of Texas.

The veteran legislator, who comes from Denison, where he owns a farm, says "if I don't get 60 per cent of the votes of the small cities and rural sections I'll be disappointed."

Evans, perhaps best known for his bonus-for-veterans proposals in the State Legislature, says he's banking on the votes of the country people and veterans.

"Ever since I became a state legislator eight years ago," he said, "I've favored legislation that would benefit them."

His program for governor bears out those interests. It includes: An expanded state health program, maximum old-age pension payments, top salaries for school teachers, farm road program expansion, a public sanitation and water supply program and conservation of soil and water.

His program also includes protection by law of Texas labor gains, preservation of states rights, promotion of the tourist industry and higher state salaries.

He takes his fight for the veterans seriously. (He was a sergeant in World War one, serving in France.) Until he entered the governor's race, he was state commander of the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

He believes a veteran of either war is entitled to a state bonus of $10 a month for domestic service and $15 a month for foreign service with a minimum of $300 and a maximum of $600.

His stand on the bonus played a part in his decision to run for governor. Veterans and other citizens of West, a farming community north of Waco in McLennan County, petitioned him to run for governor after Gov. Beauford Jester turned bonuses for veterans "Un-Texan."

When he declined, they petitioned State Democratic Party Chairman Bob Calvert to place Evans' name on the ballot. They paid his $100 filing fee.

From Now On It's Greenbacks; No Dogs

ST. PAUL, MINN. (AP)—Emil Barbeau, taxi company owner here, has forbidden his drivers to accept animals in payment for fares in his cabs hereafter.

When a woman passenger couldn't pay a taxi charge, a dog cab pilot accepted two fox terrier pups in lieu of $7.35 because, the driver explained, "she said they were high class dogs."

After boarding the pups for several days, Barbeau sold one for $3.50, the other for $1.

"High class or not, I'm out $1.35 on the deal, plus the cost of delivering of the dogs by cab," said Barbeau as he posted a bulletin board notice that drivers must turn in greenbacks instead of green frogs—or any other species from the animal kingdom.

British Doctors Ask Help Of Clergymen

LONDON (AP)—The British Medical Association wants greater cooperation between its members and the clergy.

"Health is more than a physical problem," says the association's annual report, "and adjustment to life's negative forces such as fear, resentment, jealousy, indulgence and carelessness play no small part in the level of personal and national health."

The report urges doctors and clergymen to cooperate especially in cases in which the doctor "thinks that religious ministrations will conduce to health and peace of mind."

Party Dish Easy To Prepare

Frozen canned grapefruit sections with mint and blueberries—a cool dessert on a torrid day.

By GAYNOR MADDOX
NEA Staff Writer

On a torrid day, try this for a cool dessert. Place an unopened can of grapefruit sections in freezing compartment of refrigerator for 8 hours. To use, remove both ends from can and slide out fruit. Slice sections to desired size. Arrange on platter garnished with fresh mint leaves and blueberries.

For a salad that ends the meal on a refreshing note, try this:
Florida Hostess Salad Bowl (About 6 Servings)
One No. 2 can grapefruit sections, mixed salad greens (lettuce, water-cress, romaine, endive, chicory), 2/3 cup diced cucumber or 2/3 cup diced celery, French dressing.

Drain grapefruit sections; if desired, cut sections in half; break greens into small pieces. Add celery or cucumber and French dressing. Toss ingredients together lightly.

Variations: For a main course salad, add 1 cup flaked crabmeat, shrimp, diced lobster, chicken or turkey, slivered tongue or ham. One-quarter cup diced green pepper may be added and 1/2 cup diced orange sections may be substituted for 1/2 cup grapefruit sections.

For a labor-saving budget cooler, try this:
Canned Fruit Party Punch (24 Half-cup Servings)
One No. 5 can grapefruit juice, 1 pint golden gingerale, 2 No. 2 cans tangerine juice.
Chill all ingredients thoroughly. Combine grapefruit juice and tangerine juice with gingerale in punch bowl. Add ice cubes.

U.S.'s Vanishing Families Bother Paris Newsman

PARIS, TEXAS —(AP)— Reports that families throughout the nation are getting smaller, bother the editor of The Paris (Texas) News.

The newspaper asked readers to write in about their families.

First reply came from Mrs. J. A. Gentry of Petty, west of Paris. Her record is 10 living children and one dead—with all except one married and all living in Texas. Mrs. Gentry adds that she has 15 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

And Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Baty of Paris, write in that they are the parents of 10 children, seven of whom are living. The Baty's have 20 grandchildren and one great-grandchild.

High on the record is the reply of Mrs. Edd Penton of Paris. Range From 10 To 33
"I am next to the oldest of 15 children," she writes "and have 10 of my own." They range from 10 to 33 years of age. And she adds, "I am proud of every one of them."

Brain Waves Give Clues On Some Psychopaths

IOWA CITY—(AP)—Brain waves are giving clues as to why some children and adults often are in social or legal hot water.

The waves are electrical impulses recorded from the brain. Certain abnormal waves are found with greater frequency in children and adults with certain personality disorders, studies here show.

These people were not insane, or deficient in intelligence, nor did they have known diseases of the brain or nervous system. They were the so-called psychopathic personalities and behavior problem children, which include many delinquents, pe'er-do-wells, and "black sheep."

The brain wave study is one phase of the problem of psychopathic personality and behavior disorders in children being studied at the psychopathic hospital and Iowa State University's College of Medicine.

Study of the brain waves of parents of the children in trouble indicates that the patterns often are inherited. If one or both parents had an abnormal pattern, the chances were that their offspring would have a similar one.

Traced To Illness
Sometimes the unusual brain waves could be traced to illnesses or injuries of early childhood, although the child appeared to have recovered. The younger the child at the time, and the more severe the illness or injury, the more likely he was to show the abnormal brain waves and personality problems.

In another phase of the study, characteristic traits of parents and children are being compared through personality tests. Many parents were found to be emotionally immature, having traits similar to those of the patients.

It may be possible to connect the different kinds of unusual and unwanted behavior with certain unusual brain wave patterns and with different personality traits.

The early lives of these patients, it was found, almost always were complicated by disturbing environments, such as broken homes, unstable parents, deaths, desertion and alcoholism. These are being studied in relation to personality and behavior.

Eyes Report To Brain By Electricity

PROVIDENCE, R. I.—The fact that what your eyes see is carried into your brain by electricity is demonstrated in a new way at Brown university.

Psychologists Dr. Lowin A. Riggs and E. Parker Johnson show this by using a contact lens—the eye-glass that fits over the balls of the eye. Such a lens, with a small hole in it, filled with a silver plate, makes a perfect electrode to pick up any electrical currents flowing in an eye.

Wearing one of these lenses, the Brown psychologists flash lights into their own eyes. Each flash causes an electrical current of less than a thousandth of a volt. The current comes from the retina, the curtain of nerves that pick up light and change it into something that the brain can "see."

The electricity of sight usually makes the pattern of a hump, or outline of a cup upside down, when recorded on a graph. One color combination, red-orange, makes a double hump. The Brown scientists do not know why.

DELEGATES TO CONVENTION HAVE SMALL RADIOS

COPENHAGEN—(AP)—Each delegate to the Inter-European Radio Wavelength Congress meeting in Copenhagen, received a tiny three-tube receiving set to wear in a belt from his shoulder. The congress sessions are translated by interpreters and delegates are able to dial in on their own language to follow the discussion, no matter where they are in town.

The congress, expected to last about two months, will distribute the wavelengths of some 300 stations.

Average Salary In 1947 Is $2,920

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The "middle income" of the 42,000,000 families in the United States was $2,920 last year, up $320 from 1946.

The Federal Reserve Board, reporting this recently, said one-half of all incomes were higher than the middle figure, the other half lower.

The $320 rise in the middle income from 1946 to 1947, shown by a sample survey made by the board this year, was much steeper than the $200 increase between 1945 and 1946.

Some 69 per cent or 28,980,000 families had joint incomes of $2,000 or more last year. In the mid-1930s, fewer than 6,500,000 families had income at that level—but a dollar bought more then.

Some Incomes Low

For 21 out of each 100 families, income was above $5,000 last year, with eight of that group getting over $7,500 a year.

Not everybody was in the chips, however. Of each 100 families, 13 had incomes under $1,000 and another 18 got between $1,000 and $2,000.

And not everyone whose income increased was pleased with the way things were going, although roughly half increased their income.

"A considerable number with higher money incomes... felt that because of the high cost of living they were worse off financially," the survey report said.

Who earns the most money? The survey provided these answers:

High Salaries Class

Those who own their own business or manage somebody else's. The middle income was $4,600 for families headed by a "managerial or self-employed person."

Professional workers—doctors, lawyers, dentists, and so on—came next with a middle income of $4,000.

Families headed by skilled and semi-skilled workers followed with $3,000, and those of clerks and sales people had $2,900. For unskilled workers, it was $1,800.

The middle income reported by farmers on a cash basis was only $1,500, but the survey pointed out that farmers are different from others as they have "substantial" nonmoney income, like the food they produce.

Pioneer Rancher Worked 25 Years Without Pay Day

Another chapter in the history of Southwest ranching closed with the recent death of H. E. Cummins, for years a resident of Midland, and owner of extensive ranch and oil properties. He died at his 411 North Main home in Midland June 26.

Cummins was a native Texan, born in Navarro County, November 15, 1869. Seventy years of his life were spent in and around Midland. His business integrity and sturdy ranching programs added much to the development of the area.

When only a lad of eleven, Cummins left his Navarro County home to rough it on his own. He worked on Texas ranches, herding sheep or at any other sort of ranching job he could find as he progressed westward. By the time Cummins reached young manhood, he also had reached the Pecos ranching country. About that year, he met Walter Cochran then ranching in Ector County.

Unusual Deal

Cummins and Cochran made a deal which resulted in what was probably the most unusual arrangement ever made between a cowman and a cowboy.

Cummins went to work for Cochran with the understanding that Cochran was to hold his wages until the end of the year. When he had finished a year's work and the cowboy's tobacco and other incidentals had been charged off, "the amount coming to the puncher, although only an accumulation of the very slim wages of the day, seemed like a fortune to the cowhand who had grown up the hard way."

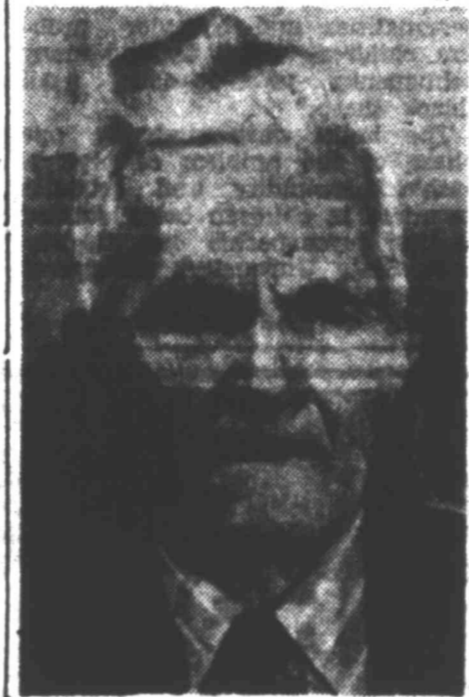

That money was an inspiration to Cummins whose thirty nature had learned to know the real value of a dollar, so he and Cochran repeated the arrangement year after year until 25 years had passed before Cummins drew a dollar of his wages from Cochran. Then Cummins ceased to be a cowhand and became a cowman, investing his 25-years accumulated wages which he now had drawn in a lump sum.

Purchased Land

Cummins purchased 46 sections of land in Ector County and stocked it with cattle. He personally directed his ranching activities for many years, retiring only when his health demanded that he do so. He had been an invalid, confined to his bed most of the time, for seven years before his death.

In 1904, Cummins was married to Miss Myrtle Utley of Midland County. Three children were born to the couple. Mrs. Frank Williamson, a daughter who lives in Midland, is his only surviving child. His first wife died in 1917. In 1920, Cummins was married to Mrs. Rosa Lee Barron of Midland. Mrs. Rosa Lee Cummins died in 1939. Later he was married to Dr. Mae Oberlander, also of Midland, who survives as his widow.

Cummins' Ector County ranch land proved to be located in one of the rich oil territories of the area and at the time of his death, this pioneer Midland rancher commanded one of the largest cattle and oil estates in West Texas.

Cigaret-Using Birds Set Fire To Awning

BELLFLOWER, CALIF.—(AP)—Seen any sparrows smoking cigarettes lately?

Well, sheriff's deputies, at first at a loss to explain the First Federal and Loan Association awning, came up with this explanation: The fire evidently started from a cigarette taken to their nest by sparrows.

For sealing important letters, try a dab of thick nail polish in place of sealing wax. It adheres as well as wax and doesn't have to be warmed in a flame.

Frenchmen, hitting the place, smashed the door with axes, and clipped off one letter of the sign. Now it reads: "Embers Only."

Operation Ends Pain Of Cancer

CHICAGO (AP)—Surgeons at the American Medical Association convention recently showed how to stop pain by disconnecting the imagination from the rest of your brain.

Other doctors demonstrated that headaches while not imaginary, can be prolonged by imagination. The surgeons knife disconnects one or both frontal lobes, sections lying side by side just back of the forehead. These two are credited as the seat of imagination.

The operation is done almost wholly for people dying with cancer, and is not promised for general pain relief. It alters personality; sometimes slows thinking. One surgeon has reported that disconnecting only one lobe does not alter personality but others disagree. All surgeons agree that the pain is still present. For some reason the patients smile and say they don't mind. Two explanations are advanced. One that the surgery has the same effect as a pain-killing drug, the hurt feels less. The other is that when you hurt terribly for a long time, you get into a hurting habit. Anything that can shut off that habit would help. Not All Kinds

The brain surgery does not stop all kinds of pain. Phantom legs—the place where a leg was before amputation—still hurt about as badly as ever. This, strange to say, may not be an imaginary pain. For surgeons by nerve-end operations in a leg stump have sometimes stopped the phantom pains.

More than 500 headaches were reported by Doctors Arnold P. Friedman, Charles Brenner and Sidney Carter, of New York City. The headaches were of two kinds, one caused by mental stress, the other by head injuries. In many cases these people got better when they only imagined the doctors were giving them medicine. The doctors actually gave them something, pretending it was for a headache.

meritme look. It's a party dish that's no extra work.

Ham Loaf With Pineapple

(10-12 Servings)
One and one-half pounds ground ham, 3/4 pound ground fresh pork, 3/4 cup cracker crumbs, 2 eggs, beaten, 3/4 cup milk, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1/4 teaspoon pepper, 2 tablespoons minced onion, 2 tablespoons horseradish, 6 slices pineapple, 7 maraschino cherries.

Mix together thoroughly ground ham, ground pork, cracker crumbs, beaten eggs, milk, salt, pepper, onion and horseradish. Put two slices of pineapple against each long side of a heat-resistant glass loaf pan, two-quart size; set a cherry in center of each pineapple slice. Place ham mixture in loaf pan, pressing against pineapple slices to hold them in place. Cut other two pineapple slices into fifths and arrange with maraschino cherries on top of meat loaf. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) about one hour and 15 minutes.

Here's another protein main dish: Rice And Vegetable Bake

(6-8 Servings)
One-half cup uncooked rice, 1 quart boiling water, 1 teaspoon salt, 1/2 cup milk, 1/2 pound grated cheese, 1 teaspoon salt, few grains cayenne pepper, 2 cups cooked green beans, 2 cups cooked corn.
Add rice to boiling water, to which one teaspoon salt has been added. Cook over low heat until rice is tender; drain. Mix together the rice, milk, one cup of the cheese, one teaspoon salt and the pepper. Place half of rice mixture in bottom of a well-greased two-quart casserole. Place vegetables on top; cover with remaining rice mixture. Sprinkle remainder of grated cheese over top of rice. Bake in moderate oven (350 degrees F.) for about 30 minutes.

37-Year-Old Wichita Falls Horse Is Just 'One Of The Family'

WICHITA FALLS (AP)—J. D. Craft, who lives near Jacksboro, is 37 years old and has a horse the same age.

The horse, old Lightfoot, has no teeth and his legs can hardly support him but he can still get around. He bears no resemblance to the fine Indian pony he was 30 years ago, but Craft considers him "one of the family" and wouldn't sell him for any price.

Old Lightfoot is fed formulas and no one has ridden him for 20 years. When Craft was six years old his father bought the pony for him. The younger Craft saw the pony and "put up such a howl" that his father hardly had an alternative.

From that day on, the man and the horse practically have been inseparable. Glenn Shelton, agriculture editor of the Wichita Times, says:

Craft estimates old Lightfoot has eaten $2,300 worth of feed since he was "pensioned" and the horse must be carted around in a special trailer.

But when old Lightfoot was young, he was a skilled and powerful cutting horse and served his master well.

And Craft is not forgetting.

MUSKRATS NOSE OUT OYSTERS

BALTIMORE (AP)—Maryland's economic fame lies in its oysters, but this is an injustice to muskrats. The State Game and Inland Fish Commission observed in an annual report that the yearly muskrat fur catch often equals or exceeds in value a season's oyster output. In fact, the agency added, the Free State is second only to Louisiana as a producer of valuable fur.

Flakes and balls of naphthalene or paradichlorobenzene are good moth-control compounds.

So You Think You're A Quiz Kid!

By CYNTHIA LOWRY
AP Newsfeatures Writer

People who answer questions—or don't answer them—on radio quiz programs are currently receiving the scorn usually heaped on traitors, spies and political opponents. It's high time somebody defended them.

The housewife who opines Sinclair Lewis wrote "Uncle Tom's Cabin" and the insurance salesman who identifies Jesse James as a former government official aren't as dumb as they sound to the naked ear. They are average citizens in the middle of a nightmare.

It's easy to sit in front of a radio in the living room and sneer. Under those circumstances anybody and everybody knows that Simon Legree authored the book that Jesse James is an orchestra leader.

I know a woman who suffered such ambitions. One fine day she found herself right up there on a platform, faced with a glib master of ceremonies, a howling jealous audience and a ticking clock. This lady is no underprivileged chaste who has spent her life barefoot and digging scorns. She's a daisy-chain lass, who buys—not rents—best-sellers, subscribes to magazines and reads two newspapers a day. She belongs to the League of Women Voters, too.

On the air she shuddered and figuratively slipped into a hair shirt.

"I suffered from that common American disease," was her explanation. "I wanted to get something for nothing. I was greedy and it seemed so easy. But never again."

"I suppose the grinning young man asked me a question. Suddenly I heard a strange, high voice coming from my mouth. Then my knees started to shake. The audience, for some unknown and frightening reason, started to whoop and clap."

"Every bit of sense drained out of my head. I don't know what I answered, but I was suddenly off the platform clutching a couple of boxes of the sponsor's product in my clammy hands."

Later she found she'd flunked the preliminary, gag-question.

"I stammered 'England' when he asked me what nations were fighting in the Spanish-American War," she said. "My father was a Rough Rider."

Her performance, it would seem, was a public case of stage-fright. Heaven knows how many wrong answers stem from fear-frozen minds.

There are also the semi-pros, the hardy perennials who make a vocation of traveling from quiz program to quiz program. The MC's must love these characters—and each is a character—for they brighten a dull corner on the clock.

What with the frightened and the foolish, quiz shows have shown the Average American to be a tongue-tied gawk who flounders hopelessly if asked any question other than his name and his home-town. Ladies and gents who are called up in front of the mi-graphone do not represent a fair sampling of Americans. Most of them don't even represent themselves.

There's a moral—two, in fact—in all this. Don't feel superior about your intellect until you've got that gratis washing machine in your own cellar. Secondly, wait until your friends tell you how you looked in that television quiz show.

Moths are plentiful in Palestine and are mentioned in the Bible.

Bitter Reprieve

By Drexel Drake

THE STORY: Playboy Marcus Sterling owes Harry Bindle a gambling debt of $10,000 he cannot pay. His wealthy wife, Miriam, has refused him the money. Bindle calls on Sterling's home late at night to collect. Cornered, Sterling steals his wife's diamond necklace from a wall safe in her room while she sleeps, offers it to Bindle as security. He agrees to pay up by Saturday. Sterling has also taken a sealed packet from the safe. After Bindle leaves, he cuts the stage for robbery. A disconnected electric clock, set ahead to 1:30, will mark the time. Sterling goes to Edgewood Country Club to spend the night. On his arrival, attractive moon-chaser Janet Withers greets him with pleasure. Janet makes no bones about wanting to break up Sterling's marriage. She threatens to "put her cards on the table with Miriam."

HE was still worrying over that ominous threat when, from the porch, he watched the tail-lights of Janet's car until they disappeared. He found the main foyer still deserted. In the grill he went to the bar. He turned when he heard his name called from a nearby table. It was Byron Landis who had called to him . . . a flushed, buoyant man of 30-odd. "We've got our minds on bridge, Marcus, but Walter's running out on us," Landis said, nodding his head disparagingly toward a younger man at his left. "His night at home, or something."

"Little late, isn't it?" Sterling said, walking over to them. Landis laughed boisterously. "I never thought I'd live long enough to hear Marcus Sterling say it was late." He looked at his watch. "Only 1:30."

The mention of that precise time sent a chill along Sterling's spine. One-thirty!

"What say, Marcus?" Landis urged. "Fourth hand?"

As tired as he was, Sterling did not find the invitation unwelcome. So it was nearly 4 o'clock before he finally found himself alone in his room. He still could not contemplate sleep . . . rest. But the same sense of alertness that had guided him earlier still dictated a program of self-preservation.

HE took the package containing the old shoes from his bag. He had no difficulty finding his way through the silent corridor to the narrow stairway at the rear of the clubhouse . . . a direct descent to the locker rooms. In a corner he found a large metal bin, more than half filled with articles discarded by members from their lockers. Shoes were a dominant item . . . another pair added to the collection would not be conspicuous. Sterling removed the paper wrapping and buried the shoes deep into the bin. He thought of the gloves he had wadded and put into his coat pocket. Delving for them, his fingers encountered the small flashlight he had used. He snapped the pencil-like gadget in two, dropped the fragments with the gloves into the bin.

Back in his room, removing his coat, Sterling remembered for the first time the flat packet he had taken from his wife's safe and slipped into his inside pocket.

He took out the packet. It was a brown envelope . . . sealed . . . bearing in the upper left corner the printed address card of Miriam's uptown bank. But what arrested Sterling was the brief flourish of handwriting penned on the face of the envelope: Marcus. Just his name, in Miriam's handwriting.

He tore the envelope open across one end . . . shook out its contents . . . a tightly pressed sheaf of currency held together around the middle by a narrow band of gummed paper. Topmost of the light packet, perhaps a quarter of

McKenney on Bridge

By WILLIAM E. MCKENNEY
America's Card Authority

I would like to predict that it will not be long before tournament bridge will be played in Midland, Texas. Miss Eva Todd, formerly of Cleveland, Ohio, now in Midland, has started duplicate games in many cities throughout the country, and it will not be surprising if some of her players compete and do well in the big Texas tournaments soon.

Safety plays are a favorite topic of mine, and I remember discussing one of them with Miss Todd when I saw her last at Hollywood, Fla. If you hold four trumps, and a good, runnable five-card suit on the side, it does not seem that any safety play is required. That is not true, however. With a four-card trump suit, you must always guard against four trumps being in one hand.

In today's hand, for example, if declarer does not guard against four trumps in one hand, East will interrupt the running of the club suit. The maximum number of tricks can be made by winning the opening lead of the queen of diamonds with the ace, and ruffing a diamond in dummy with the three of spades. Now the four of spades

Army and Air Bases to Be Reopened and Expanded

Map locates Army posts and air bases soon to be reactivated or expanded—some as much as eight times—to meet needs of the draft-expanding U. S. Army and Air Force. For reactivating Army posts, expected strength is given with station name. Both present and proposed new strength are shown for expanding posts. Of the 20 reopened air bases, one is a bombing and gunnery base on Matagorda Island, Tex. Present plans call for the Army to increase from 542,000 to 790,000, by July 1, 1949, and the Air Force from 362,000 to 440,000.

Galloping Gertie, Fallen Bridge, To Be Rebuilt

TAOOMA, WASH. (AP)—The bridge that shook itself to pieces is being put back together again. A new Tacoma Narrows bridge has begun to take shape on the wreck of the old.

Nearly eight years ago the original span—Galloping Gertie, she was called—bucked and buckled in a quartering wind and plunged to the bottom of the bay.

Residents of the region gave the first bridge its nickname because of its tendency to undulate, on gallop, when the wind blew. On her last day she galloped so hard she popped her rivets and ripped her girders.

Her stumps still stand in the tide rip and her empty abutments hang on either shore. They will be used to anchor the new bridge which the Washington toll bridge authority hopes will be more stable.

Crews are at work blasting the concrete pedestals on which the old tower legs stood. They will be replaced with wider ones to carry the new span.

Charles E. Andrew, W.T.B.A. engineer, says three-fifths of the old anchorages will be used. The rest—5,000 yards of concrete—are being blown loose. Each base will measure 110 feet long, ninety feet wide and fifty feet thick. They will be able to stand a pull of 18,000 tons at each end without budging.

The construction will start on the towers. Wider and higher than the old ones, they will stand 2,900 feet apart. The bridge will be about a mile long, over-all.

Two-Year Job

Giant cables, twenty-one inches through—four more than the old ones—will be spun from tower to tower and from tower to shore. The last step is laying truss deck. Four lanes and two sidewalks wide, it will be laid down from each shore to meet in the middle. Engineers say it will be far more rigid than Gertie's original girder-type deck.

The job is scheduled for completion in a little over two years at a cost of about 15 and one-half million dollars. The old bridge cost about 7 million dollars.

After eight years of probing the problem of what made the first Gertie fail, the engineers think the first bridge, was too narrow, so they have fattened the new one up. And because her eight-foot solid wall girder deck caught too much wind, the new one will be open.

Floridans Plan For Flood Control

MIAMI, FLA. (AP)—Florida will be better prepared this summer than ever before should another great hurricane roar in from the sea.

Stormproof building codes, expert forecasting and improved evacuation and disaster measures already have robbed the great tropical storms of much of their reputation as bone-crushers.

The emphasis now is on flood control. Floods are the natural companions of hurricanes.

An air of urgency prevails in the state as local phases of a projected 300-million-dollar flood and water control program are rushed. This work is part of a master plan drawn up by Army engineers for twenty-one southeast Florida counties. Congress is considering the engineers' plan, which itself will cost some 300 million dollars of the total.

Florida Remembers

Florida remembers two great storms last year which caught the state with its dikes down. Flood waters swirled over rich farmland and into cities.

The toll of the hurricanes of last September and October in Florida was 23 dead, 227 persons injured, 178 homes destroyed, 3,544 buildings damaged, and 4,298 domestic animals killed.

These Red Cross figures do not include the millions in damage from flood waters invading thousands of homes killing half the trees in many citrus groves, digging pot holes in hundreds of miles of highways, or the miseries of families driven into flood refuges.

With the lessons of the violent, 156 M.P.H. hurricane of last September and the deluge-producing storm of October fresh in mind, county boards and the Everglades drainage district have cleaned and deepened drainage canals, constructed miles of dikes to hold back new flood onslaughts, designated areas to which floodwaters will be diverted, and—possibly most important—accepted the Army engineers' master plan for conservation and control.

Beginner's Luck Is Tough On Horses

SHOUX FALLS, S. D. (AP)—Mr. and Mrs. George Scudder, Sioux Falls, never had bet on a horse race.

They arrived at the track in time for the last race. Mr. Scudder placed a bet on one horse, his wife on another.

Scudder's choice was seriously hurt in a fall. Mrs. Scudder's horse hit the fence, breaking both legs. It had to be destroyed.

The Scudders tore up their tickets.

POLISH COURT TO TRY PRE-WAR FASCISTS

GRUDZIADZ, POLAND. (AP)—A district court will shortly try what is described as "the first case of pre-war Fascists."

The defendants are Marian Maszkowski and Mieczyslaw Odnanski. The indictment charges that they, as jailors, in the years 1932 to 1938 administered brutal treatment to Polish prisoners in the Grudziadz jail, particularly members of the Polish Communist Party.

ALL KREMLIN TOWERS TO BE RESTORED

MOSCOW (AP)—Fifteen of the old towers of the Kremlin have been restored and by Autumn, an announcement says, all nineteen towers will have been redone. Work is being carried on at present on the Trotsky, Spassky and Nikolskaya towers. Only one tower—the middle arsenal—has not yet been touched.

RUSSIA TO BUILD DAM ACROSS KAMA RIVER

MOSCOW (AP)—Thirty thousand workers will be building an immense dam across the Kama River in the Northern Ural.

Building a power station which will be the second largest in the Soviet Union and furnish immense quantities of cheap electric power to this important industrial area, the workers will have to move 20,000,000 cubic meters of earth and install 50,000 tons of structural steel.

FIRE CHIEF'S FIRE

MITCHELL, S. D. (AP)—It was a dull afternoon when Fire Chief Asa B. Wheeler responded to a telephone alarm. He dashed out with the fire engine to help extinguish a blaze in his own car.

Try These Tips To Outwit Heat

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Take stock of the heat-drying tricks if hot weather wills. Your spirits, dampens your enthusiasm for Summer fun.

Wear light-colored clothing. Dark colors and black may be the last word in chic, but light-colored clothing which absorbs less heat from the sun will keep you cooler. The more porous a fabric is, the better air-conditioned it will be.

Wear larger shoes. Even those feet which don't expand during hot weather will appreciate roomier quarters. Your reward for giving them simpler space will be a bouncier step.

Take warm baths. You will come out of a tepid bath feeling cooler and claiming a longer lease on freshness than you will from an icy shower.

When the thermometer climbs to a record high, the best-known trick of outwitting discomfort is to thrust your hands, wrist-deep into a basin of cold water.

Vacation Job Is Career Preview

By ALICIA HART
NEA Staff Writer

Many a girl had a pre-taste of various careers to determine the one of her choice by working at part-time Summer jobs.

Summer work also offers an antidote to boredom, which many girls find hard to take after a busy school year.

A job of course, will automatically make specified demands on your time. The girl who is unwilling to have business interests with pleasure will have to reckon with this before she offers herself for a job.

A part-time job, however, usually makes a routine demand of specified hours. A clever girl who wants a vacation job can always plan her fun for the hours that she can salvage from a working day.

By limiting the amount of time on your hands, you are less likely to be surfeited with aimless pleasure. The Summer fun that you enjoy will be sharpened by the smaller margin of time that you have to devote to it. When your part-time job is over, you can count as the benefits gained: actual experience in a field of employment, new contacts and friends and perhaps a toe-hold into the door of a future career.

Begin Sunday dinner with a special fruit cup made of cantaloupe, honeydew and watermelon. Sweeten with simple sugar syrup if desired and top with mint leaves.

New Library Book Presents Houston In Different Light

The Midland County Library has a new addition to its Texas Collection in "Sam Houston and Related Spiritual Forces," by the Rev. Joseph Ellis.

The author is a Houstonian whose family has been connected with Houston since 1820.

Although most biographies concentrate on Houston as a soldier and statesman, Ellis and his daughter have collected material for over 15 years to show that Houston was also a poet, philosopher, teacher and nature lover, and was reared in an atmosphere of religious spirit.

The Midland County Library is located in the basement and on the first floor of the courthouse. It is open weekdays from 9:30 a. m. until 6 p. m.

There are more than 2,500,000 oil-heating installations in the United States.

Well, It's a Place to Live, Isn't It?

Wayne Pritchard certainly has a nice view, even though he may not have too much privacy. Wayne advertised for a place to live, and got a reply from a Sioux Falls, S. D., department store. They offered him a furnished apartment—in their show window. The lucky fellow has running water and a telephone, too. His early morning rising seems to amuse a passer-by.

18-Year-Old Delegate To Attend Convention

Truman V. Williams, from the only state where 18-year-olds may vote, is ready to join the fun in Philadelphia July 12. He is known as "the youthful orator of South Georgia."

He says he will vote against another term for President Truman.

But instead of the usual X's, Fowler found this note at the bottom of the ballot:
