Texans Increase Spending On Local Public Schools Last Year

AUSTIN—Texans increased spending on local public schools by $552 million last year, as trustees in 1,069 school districts adopted school budgets totaling $9.0 billion. That provided more than $200 in additional funds for each of the 2,727,512 students in the state, according to the Texas Research League.

Local property taxpayers were tagged for an additional $327 million to pay for the increase. The remainder was funded by increases in state and federal aid programs and by higher local fees.

The figures come from the latest issue of Bench Marks for 1984-85 School District Budgets in Texas, an annual publication of the Texas Research League, an Austin-based, educational corporation engaged in governmental research.

School budgets adopted for 1983-84 called for spending $2,713 per student for current operations. Cisco ISD's budget provided for $2,010.95 per student based on the 884 students in average daily attendance in 1982-83.

Four of five of these dollars were spent for salaries. Statewide, payroll expense averaged $2,153 per student, as compared to $1,505 in Cisco ISD. Payroll expense is a combination of salary levels and staffing patterns.

The average salary for classroom teachers paid by Cisco ISD in 1982-83 was $16,435 which was 3.7% above the minimum salary prescribed by the state. The average among all school districts in Texas was $19,501 per classroom teacher, or 21.8 percent over the minimum.

There was an average of one teacher for 84 students in Cisco ISD compared to a statewide pupil-teacher ratio of 1 to 16.4. The pupil-teacher ratio is not the same thing as the average class size because teachers and students are not necessarily in class the same number of hours each day.

Statewide, the ratio of teachers to students has remained the same the past three years. The report notes that during the 1980s school officials have used additional payroll dollars to increase salaries beyond the rate of inflation, whereas during the previous decade more dollars were spent to hire additional teachers while average salaries grew less than the rate of inflation.

Local property taxes were increased by $327 million for a total of $3.6 billion last year. Locally, the Cisco ISD's tax levy was increased by 21.8% for 1983-84, as compared to a 10.0 percent increase for the average school district in Texas.

School property tax rates in 1982-83 averaged $0.613 per $100 of market value (selling price). The school tax on a property selling for $100,000 was $613 in the average school district. Locally, the rate on market value in Cisco ISD was $0.448, or $448.00 on a property selling for $100,000.

If the property were a homestead or owned by a senior citizen, the school tax would be less because of various exemptions. Open-space land that qualified would be valued on its productivity value rather than market value.

Revenue lost from exemptions totaled $679 million, which was $125 million more than that exempted the previous year. To balance school budgets, the revenue loss from exemptions was imposed upon other taxpayers in the school district.

Preparing school budgets for next year, the report noted, will be difficult. Not only did the Special Session of the Legislature provide substantial additional funds, but also changed the method for allocating aid to different districts. School officials also must begin implementing a variety of new educational programs including new curriculum standards.

Correction

Cisco Businesses Being Vandalized

Vandals in Cisco have attacked several businesses in Cisco. The flashing neon signs in front of their establishment have been used to spell out obscenities. Several people have thought that the businesses were writing out these obscenities, but the merchants are the victims of juvenile delinquents. These signs are a means of their advertising.

Local merchants have started up a neighborhood watch program and they are asking other merchants and citizens to keep an eye out for these vandals. When the vandals are caught the merchants have said that they will press charges to the full extent of the law.

Neighbors who live around these businesses are asked to watch and if anyone should see a suspicious person or persons around one of these signs removing the letters, or rearranging the letters, please call the Cisco Police Department at 442-1770. You need not leave your house. Or if you are driving by and see someone other than the owner of the business at the signs, please stop at the nearest store to report them. Do not approach the person. If the vandals are in a car, citizens are asked to try to get the vandals license number, make, model and color of the car.

These signs are very expensive and the letters cost a great deal. When the letters are damaged or destroyed, the merchants have to replace them. The merchants in Cisco are trying to make a living here and they will need the help of the citizens and police department to stay in business.

at Kerrville is the biggest project of Texas Lions. Originally built for the benefit of handicapped children, the camp has been expanded to benefit diabetics and serves as a winter-time center to provide training for the blind.

Members of the Cisco Lions Club have been 100 percent in supporting the camp since 1976, according to camp records. Mr. Cook said. Several members of the Cisco club will take part in a district caravan to Kerrville on August 4th to visit the camp.

In addition, Lions support an eye bank, the Cisco Child Care Center with a monthly check, the Eastland County Child Care Fund, the welfare association, white cane and leader dog programs, a runaway hot line, a youth exchange program, a public speaking contest and other events.

Lion O.L. Stamey was in charge of the program and introduced the speaker. President Bob Conner told about a district cabinet meeting in Breckenridge last Saturday. Several members of Cisco clubs attended the event.

Mrs. Jasper Cook was a guest at the luncheon.

'Guys And Dolls' To Open Thursday At Roof Garden

The final play of the 1984 Summer Dinner Theatre Series at the Roof Garden Theatre will be the musical comedy GUYS AND DOLLS by Frank Loesser, Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows and will run August 2 - 4 and 6 - 11. According to director Philip Craik, "Guys and Dolls presented us with special problems in that the play calls for at least 6 different settings. We solved these problems by adopting the old-fashioned practice of employing roll-drops as well as roll-away scenery."

He continues "Our cost is almost as large as that of last summer's FIDDLER ON THE ROOF and the costuming and scenery are more elaborate. We are also using a percussionist and a couple of brass players as well as a pianist for our orchestra. For the first time we have brought in a dance choreographer, Nicki Harle, and all in all this summer's production of Guys and Dolls promises to be the most spectacular show ever staged at the Roof Garden."

The menu for the dinner consists of Rib Roast, a tossed mixed vegetable salad, au gratin potatoes, green beans in bacon sauce, dinner rolls and cherry cheese cake. Reservations can be made by calling the Roof Garden Box Office at (817) 442-2589. All reservations or cancellations must be made by noon of the day of performance, however several of the performances have already been sold out, so theatre goers are advised not to wait until the last minute to make reservations.

PIPING HOT AND JUICY GOOD - Cooks from 13 of Texas' legendary ranches will pit their skills against one another in an attempt to round up points during the ranch cookin' contest at the Texas Ranch Rounup. The fourth annual competition, scheduled Aug. 17-18 in Wichita Falls, will feature foods and meat, bread and vegetable categories. In this photo, a ranch cowboy adds some delicious seasoning to sizzlin' steaks. Spectators will be able to sample the foods by donating to the charities benefitting from the roundup, which is co-sponsored by Budweiser and the North Texas Rehabilitation Center. This year's roundup will also pit cowboys from 13 of Texas' largest ranches in competitive events patterned after everyday activities on a working ranch. Calf roping is just one of many events designed to test the skills of working cowboys from 13 of Texas' largest ranches during the Roundup.

HOT CHECKS

EASTLAND COUNTY DISTRICT ATTORNEY
629-2659

Clues for Detecting Bad Checks

Be careful of low series numbers on personal checks. About 85% of all uncollected "hot checks" are new account numbers between 101 and 150.

Check the finish of the black magnetic computer numbers on the bottom. Magnetic ink is very dull -- never shiny.

Check the first four magnetic numbers to the left of the account number. Each area of the state has its own bank routing number -- learn yours.

Look for at least one perforated edge. All checks except government or computer-produced will be perforated.

Beware of photocopied checks. The best sign of a photocopied check is shiny, tacky, uneven letters. Also beware of photocopied "color" on multi-color checks from large corporations.

A. PROCEDURE WHEN TAKING A CHECK

It is vital that you stress to your employees the importance of being thorough when accepting a check. If your establishment has set a policy for all customers then no one should have any reason to feel they are being treated unfairly. It is a good idea to have a "checklist" where a cashier can see it easily. It should include at least the following:

- 1. Is it dated today?
Checks must be dated the same day they're given. Post-dated checks are not prosecutable.
- 2. Is the signature legible?
Do NOT accept checks previously signed. Have them signed *in your presence and compare with driver's license or other I.D.
- 3. Is the address complete?
Require a permanent street address, not a P.O. Box number unless you know the writer.
- 4. Can you confirm identity?
Every kind of I.D. can be forged. The most reliable are the ones with physical descriptions, photos, etc. If you are suspicious, ask the writer to hand you the license and while it's in your hand, ask his address and/or birth date. If it is not his license, he may be caught off guard and give the wrong information.
- 5. Do written amounts and numbers correspond?
Banks will not honor checks with discrepancies.
- 6. Is the I.D. used recorded?
Record on the check the type of I.D. and I.D. numbers as well as the clerk's initials who takes the check.

B. PROCEDURE WHEN A CHECK IS RETURNED

There are certain procedures you must follow before this office will accept a returned check for prosecution:

The check must be presented to the bank for payment, even if you know it will not be honored, and stamped by the bank as to the reason for dishonorment.

You must send written notification to the check writer informing him or her of the reason the check was not honored. The written notice must be sent certified, return receipt requested. The following sample letter sets out the information which must be included:

Dear Mr./Mrs. Doe :

Your check $000 dated June 20, 1980, in the amount of $000.00 given for the stereo you purchased on the same date has been returned by the State Bank marked "insufficient funds" (or other reason marked on the check by the bank).

You have ten (10) days from receipt of this letter to bring payment in cash, cashier's check or money order for the amount of the check plus a $00.00 charge for handling or this matter will be turned over to the prosecutor's office.

Sincerely,

Be sure to keep a copy of this letter. If, after 10 days the check has not been paid, you must personally bring it to this office and furnish the following:

1. The original check with the bank flag or notation showing the reason it was not honored;
2. The signed return receipt from the certified letter or the letter (unopened) marked refused or unclaimed;
3. A copy of your letter;
4. The name, address and phone number of the person who accepted the check and who can identify the maker;
5. Specific identification of maker such as driver's license number, date of birth, and physical description. (It will be necessary for you to supply this information on a form when you come in to the office.)

C. PROCEDURE WHEN THE CHECK IS TURNED OVER TO THE PROSECUTOR'S OFFICE

When you bring in a check, it will be logged and a search made to see if the maker has any other hot check offense pending. If there is, yours will be combined with the one previously filed to expedite your restitution.

If not, this office usually notifies check writers that a case is about to be filed against them. If they do not make restitution and pay the prosecutor's processing fee, prosecution procedures will be started.

The Hot Check Fee Act was passed by the Legislature to defray some of the prosecution expense and require the hot check writers to help bear the cost of their misdeeds. The hot check fee may be as much as the amount of the check. After filing a case, there can be the additional expenses of a fine and court costs which can be several hundred dollars.

This pamphlet is intended to explain the importance of your role in getting the necessary information to enable this office to control the check problem and get you the restitution you deserve.

If you have any questions or problems, please contact my staff or me. We will be glad to help in any way.

Dear Merchant:

"It always happens to the other person" is not always true. You could be the victim of one of today's most rampant crimes - hot checks. The purpose of this pamphlet is to alert you, educate you and assure you that this office will do everything possible to prosecute the hot check writer.

I hope the information you are about to read assists you. Alert and knowledgeable citizens are the first defense against all crimes - particularly hot checks.

If you have any questions, contact my office at the number on the front of the pamphlet. Remember, hot checks can be controlled only with your help.

Thank you.

Checks to Avoid

The following checks usually will not be prosecuted as "hot" checks:

- A check marked "refer to maker," "drawn against uncollected funds" or "unable to locate account";
- A post-dated check;
- A stop-payment check;
- A check on an out-of-state bank;
- A two-party check;
- A check more than a year old;
- A check for less than $5;
- A check for which partial payment has been received;
- A check given in exchange for a returned check;
- A check which does not identify who accepted it;
- A check received in the mail;
- A check not passed within this county;
- A check not presented to bank within 30 days of issuance; and
- A check for which no 10-day notice was given.

It is very important to get the information listed above.

This pamphlet was prepared with the cooperation of The Prosecutor Council.

A RED, WHITE AND BLUE GARDEN

Let's go patriotic in our gardens with a red, white and blue garden. Yes, you can have a red, white and blue garden.

The Red Garden will find many plants if you want to create a red hot garden. Dwarf varieties for the edges could include "Prelude Red" begonia, or compact marigolds such as "Red Cherry" or perhaps ornamental peppers. Both "Candlelight and Masquerade" peppers have bright red fruit which also look hot but taste even hotter.

Geraniums would be natural. For a very deep, striking red try "Hollywood Red" or "Smash Hit Red." Petunias can also be included. One of the most popular is "Red Cascade." For a vertical accent include "Red Hot Sally", salvia, whose bright red spikes create a strong focal point. "Red Rocket" snapdragon or "Pulcino Red" zinnia also create a strong central focus, and can be used as cut flowers as well.

If there is some shade, coleus can be used in the bed. The "Wizzard" series has a number of vibrant scarlet and deep red varieties. And don't forget "Sue Elfin" impatiens for a fiery flow in shaded spots. Now the white garden will lend a light, airy carefree feeling around patios, pools, decks or other gathering spots. There are a number of flowers with white colors to choose from.

Alyssum "New Carpet of Snow" would make a perfect border plant (they also set off darker beds well). Try a glistening geranium called "Ice Queen", the most reliable white geranium.

Petunias have some of the purest and brightest white colors and should be included in any white planting. "Crockett's Victory White," Old Glory White, White Magic and White Cascade are varieties with large blooms and heavy flower production. Vinca is very tolerant of heat, drying, insects and pollution. White varieties are new "Snow Carpet," a ground-hugging type and "Morning Mist" with an upright growth habit and many flowers held above the foliage. For an interesting focal point try to perennial Shasta daisy "G Marconi." Its white flowers are held on tall plants providing the garden with a permanent center point. "White Rocket" snapdragons or white zinnas should also be planted nearby for color after the Shasta daisy has finished its bloom.

Lets look at the blue garden. Blue creates a cool feeling and is a welcome sight on a hot day. A perfect choice for a border is "Blue Puffs" ageratum. Plants are very compact and have a soft, fluffy feeling that gently moves in the eye into the bed. Or it could be verbena, "Amythist" a particularly good verbena which spreads very nicely. Or it might be the blue from "Showtime Mix". Some better known plants, such as petunias or pansies or even salvia can also be added. "Old Glory Blue" petunia has a strong blue coloring which looks nice backed by taller varieties. During the cooler months, "Universal Light Blue" or "True Blue" pansies would be attractive. For the backdrop, try salvia. Most people know this plant and its red spikes, but salvia is also available in blue.

SEEDS FROM THE SOWER

By Michael A. Guido, Metter, Georgia

A man was making a flower box, and a duke said, "They'll fill it with dirt. Why take pains to make it perfect?"

"Because," he replied, "I like perfect things."

There was a deep silence, and he continued, "Do you suppose that the Carpenter of Nazareth ever made anything less well than He could make it?"

"You deserve a flogging," cried the duke. "What's your name?"

"Michelangelo, sir," he replied.

It is no wonder that he went on to become the most celebrated artist of the Italian Renaissance, and one of the greatest figures in the history of art.

His figures, whether sculpture or painting, seem alive. They burst with strength and beauty; inspiring all who look at them. In the eyes of God, it is a great thing to do a little thing well. For the prophet Isaiah urged, "Learn to do well."

I am going to start today. Care to join?

Fishing Report

Terry Wilson

Graphite rods have become the standards for rods used by anglers across the country. Extremely sensitive, these rods have improved catches by 35% over fiberglass rods. But is your graphite really graphite? A recent study by an individual testing group and manufacturers has shown us, we're not always getting what we pay for. Many rods on your local shelves may say 96% graphite, but contain much less, some even contain 0% graphite.

A complete list of these findings will be available at a later date. The one rod manufactured by Beckley, "The Lightning Rod", is the single rod manufactured today containing 100% graphite. Upon publication of the completed list, we shall notify you of the committee's findings.

Bass and brush are as natural as bisquets and gravy. Bass and brush pile as a haven, protection, and ambush points. Avid anglers have found that by placing brush piles in straight areas they can actually call fish to them rather than trying to track the fish down. As we have mentioned in the past, mesquite is perhaps the fastest attractor one can place. To even further enhance this attractor, try feeding with some rabbit pellets on a regular basis.

These pellets will first attract small bait fish which will in turn attract larger fish. While water levels are down is an excellent time for placing those deep water havens. Crappie, bass and even channel cats will be drawn to these underwater shopping centers.

Area lakes are running consistent, with evening and morning being the best times for bass. Leon's small crappie are doing well evenings and during the night. The baited area at the reflector tree near Lone Cedar slew is turning out a lot of small crappie. Strippers are surfacing in many areas early and late.

Proctors crappie are running a little larger near the dam. Bass are fair, some solid 3 pound fish are being taken early on topwater on main lake points. Channel cats are slowly some, the creek areas are still the best bet.

Thursday, August 2nd, we shall hold our monthly meeting at the Eastland National Bank Bldg. There will be many items discussed, and you the members need to be present to express you ideals on your clubs function. 1984 is a growing year, come express your ideals for our continued growth.

Guys And Dolls To Open Thursday At Roof Garden Dinner Theatre

The final play of the 1984 Summer Dinner Theatre Series at the Roof Garden Theatre will be the musical comedy GUYS AND DOLLS by Frank Loesser, Jo Swerling and Abe Burrows and will run August 24 and 26-27. According to the director Philip Craik, "Guys and Dolls presented us with special problems in that the play calls for at least 6 different settings. We solved these problems by adopting the old-fashioned practice of employing roll-drops as well as roll-away scenery. Our cost is almost as large as that of last summer's FIDDLER ON THE ROOF and the costumes and scenery are more elaborate. We are also using a percussionist and a couple of brass players as well as a pianist for our orchestra. For the first time we have brought in a dance choreographer, Nicki Harle, and all in all this summer's production of Guys and Dolls promises to be the most spectacular show ever staged at the Roof Garden."

The menu for the dinner consists of Rib Roast, a tossed mixed vegetable salad, au gratin potatoes, green beans in bacon sauce, dinner rolls and cheesy cheese cake.

Reservations can be made by calling the Roof Garden Box Office at (817) 442-2589. All reservations or cancellations must be made by noon of the day of the performance, however several of the performances have already been sold out, so theatre goers are advised not to wait until the last minute to make reservations.

Lone Cedar Game Day August 3

Friday, Aug. 3, is the day At Lone Cedar we'll gather to play. So get your partner And maybe more. Join in the fun With prizes galore. We'll start at ten. Then have lunch.

Then back to the table To play our "hunch" It's four dollars each For food and fun. So call your friends. Your invited. EVERYONE Berniece Stephen is Publicity Chairman.

New Law Releases FmHA Housing Funds

A bill signed by President Reagan July 2, enhances the use of funds for the single-family housing program operated by the U.S. Department of Agriculture's Farmers Home Administration, J. Lynn Futch, FmHA State Director, said today. No additional funds are involved.

The new law clears up the division of loan funds that must be allotted to "very" low-income applicants and to those in the next higher bracket, low-income.

The earlier congressional requirement that FmHA housing loans must be made so that 40 percent were constantly going to very-low-income people has been replaced so that now up to 40 percent of the funds available will be used for very-low-income families.

Futch said, "This means that loan applications from both low and very-low-income rural applicants can be processed at the same time without regard to some arbitrary relationship between the two groups."

The new law divides available loan funds into two amounts, up to 40 percent for the very-low-income and the remainder for low-income borrowers. "That will revive our program substantially," Futch said. "We will now be able to process applications for both very-low and low-income people."

Very low-income is defined as now more than 50 percent of an area's median income. The low-income ceiling is 80 percent of the same income base.

Cisco Library News

Again, the Cisco Library expresses appreciation to the Cisco Service Club for contribution of additional Bluebonnet Books, those popular and excellent books for children. The new ones are:

"Skinnybones"; "The Legend of the Bluebonnet" (How the Bluebonnet came to be, based on Comanche Indian lore); "The Sign of the Beaver"; "Banjo"; "Cat Walk"; "Long Meg"; "Aldo Ice Cream"; and "Zucchini."

Another gift comes from Mrs. Kirby Thetford honoring her granddaughters, Tami and Kim Blake. "The Work of Her Hands" is a story about a woman veterinarian and her joys and trials as a country doctor in England. This is a warm, humorous story reminiscent of James Herriot's books. Author is Anne Knowles. Thank you, Mrs. Thetford.

New books are: "One More Sunday" by John D. MacDonald, a story of an influential and charismatic TV preacher; "First Lady From Plains - Rosalynn Carter"; "The Wheel of Fortune" by Susan Howatch, and "The Walking Drum"; by Louis L'Amour.

Notice of the death of the artist, Peter Hurd, member of the prominent Wyeth family of artists, and resident of New Mexico, brings attention to the two prints of Peter Hurd paintings at the Library: "The Circus" and "The Red Pickup." Both show two of the familiar characteristics of his paintings-the minute details and the beautiful cloud formations.

Rain is still needed here in Eastland County. However, we can always look around and see other areas that are in worse condition. Maybe the change in the weather last week will bring rain soon.

Cattlemen are feeding cattle now because of the lack of grass due to the drought. Good quality grass hay is in short supply so you may be looking for some alternatives. We can maintain a dry cow on nothing but 16 to 18 pounds of 9 to 10% protein hay per day. But a lactating cow would need 20 pounds of this hay plus 2 to 3 pounds of good breeder cubes or its equivalent.

Suppose we have low quality hay, say 4-5% protein. Then a dry cow would need about 2 pounds of good cubes and the lactating cow 5-6 pounds of cubes to make up the difference. So hay quality makes a big difference, and so does the production status of the cow.

How else could we maintain a dry cow besides 16-18 pounds of average grass hay?

Here are just a few alternatives:

- (1) 15 lbs. of average alfalfa hay;
- (2) 15 lbs. of straw (or stubble or low quality hay or pasture) plus 2-3 lbs. breeder cubes;
- (3) 9 lbs. average hay with 9 lbs. straw, etc., plus 1 lb. cottonseed meal;
- (4) 7 lbs. alfalfa with 11 lbs. straw;
- (5) 7 lbs. average hay with 6 lbs. corn;
- (6) 8 lbs. straw, etc. with 6 lbs. corn plus 1/2 lb. cottonseed meal.

Here are some alternatives to replace the 20 lbs. average grass hay plus 2-3 lbs. cubes for a cow with calf: (1) 21 lbs. of alfalfa hay; (2) 16 lbs. straw, etc., plus 7 lbs. cubes; (3) 9 lbs. average hay with 9 lbs. straw, etc., plus 5 lbs. cubes; (4) 10 lbs. alfalfa with 10 lbs. straw, etc. plus 2-3 lbs. cubes; (5) 9 lbs. average hay with 8 lbs. corn plus 1 lb. cottonseed meal; (6) 10 lbs. straw, etc., with 8 lbs. corn plus 2 lbs. cottonseed meal. Minerals containing 10-12% phosphorus should be supplemented year-round. During extended periods without green grazing, Vitamin A should be provided in combination mineral-vitamin mixes, other prepared foods, or as an injection.

White grub control in lawns is important during the summer season.

May or June beetles have emerged from the soil and have been swarming in late evenings. Females are laying eggs and white grub worms that hatch will soon be feeding on roots of bermudagrass and St. Augustine grass in home lawns. Once grubs begin feeding, control measures should be taken.

Treatment time varies with the particular area of the state and ranges from early July in South Texas to mid-August in the Panhandle. Homeowners in Eastland County will need to treat between now and August 15. Timing of application is critical for adequate control.

White grubs in excessive numbers can heavily damage lawns. Check for white grubs by cutting a square foot section of sod with a shovel and examining the roots and soil to a depth of 4 inches. Examine at least one square foot of sod for 1,000 square feet of lawn area. Chemical treatment is needed if there are more than four grubs per square foot of sod.

Diazinon, Dursban or Dylox provide adequate control and should be used at recommended rates given on the chemical container label. The granular form is easier to apply and to wash into the soil than liquid or spray formulations. After using granules, drag the grass with a tow sack or water hose to knock them down to the soil. Then apply enough water to soak the granules into the soil.

Apply Diazinon sprays at the rate of 25 gallons of water, including insecticide, per 1,000 square feet to wash the insecticide into the soil. Wetting the lawn before spraying also helps. Always keep children and pets off the treated lawn until the grass is dry.

The key to white grub control is home lawns is proper timing of chemical applications and getting the insecticide through the grass to the root zone where grubs are feeding.

Further information is provided in the publication, "White Grubs in Texas Turfgrass," available at the County Extension Office.

ANIMAL HEALTH

Duncan Veterinary Clinic

A number of dogs have been treated over the past year for a previously little known disease called Canine Ehrlichiosis. Often the first signs of the disease are fever, appetite loss, and nosebleeds. The disease can show a wide variety of signs from severe life threatening illness to an asymptomatic carrier state.

The disease was first known to occur in Africa in 1935 and was first identified in the U.S. in 1962. It is believed to have entered the U.S. through military dogs returning from Vietnam, where in 1968-1970 over 200 working military dogs were lost to a severe hemorrhagic form of the disease called Tropical Canine Pancytopenia. Studies over the past 6 years indicate a wide geographic distribution and prevalence in the U.S.A.

The disease is caused by a rickettsial organism that is transmitted to dogs by direct inoculation from the common dog tick. Ticks are natural reservoirs as well as the vector, being able to transmit the infection for at least 155 days after feeding on an infected dog. Chronically infected subclinical or asymptomatic carrier dogs and wild canidae such as coyotes, foxes, and wild dogs are the other potential reservoir.

There is no breed, sex or age predilection for the disease, although German Shepherd dogs are often more severely affected than other breeds. The incubation period of 10-14 days is followed by an acute illness. This acute phase is characterized by mild to severe life threatening symptoms. Symptoms of the acute phase include: intermittent high fever, inappetence, weight loss, swelling of the limbs, vomiting, pale membranes, pneumonitis and occasional mild bleeding. This stage of the disease responds well to proper therapy. Survivors enter one of two phases following recovery from the acute phase and are carriers of the disease.

The mild chronic/subclinical phase is characterized by no further signs of illness and the dogs appear recovered. These dogs may show subclinical signs such as sluggishness, selective appetite and weight loss. They may relapse into severe clinical illness when subjected to the stress of malnutrition, pregnancy, surgery, concomitant disease, or environmental stress such as hot Texas summers. The chronic phase dog will remain a reservoir for the disease unless treated successfully to eliminate the carrier state.

Dogs that do not exhibit the mild chronic phase will develop the severe chronic phase 50-100 days after infection with Ehrlichia canis. This state is often fatal. Severe reductions in the white blood cell and platelet counts cause severe bleeding and secondary infection problems. Treatment at this point is usually unrewarding.

The disease can sometimes be diagnosed based on clinical signs alone but often must be diagnosed through laboratory tests. Treatment of the disease is most rewarding to the acute or mild subclinical phase. Tetracycline is the only antibiotic that is effective. Dogs that recover from the disease are not immune to reinfection.

Control recommendations include strict control of ectoparasites especially the brown dog tick and testing of all dogs suspected of having Ehrlichiosis. Prophylactic treatment with low dosages of tetracycline has been successful in preventing infection when vector control was not feasible.

After 66 Years Mobile Oil Leaves Desdemona

Mobil Oil Corporation ceased its oil and gas operations in Desdemona field, effective July 1, 1984 after some 66 years in this area. Known in the "Boom Days," of the early 1900s, as Magnolia Oil Company, now called Mobil Producing Texas & N.M., in this area. The first producing well was brought in on the Joe Duke Property in September (Labor Day) 1918. The Desdemona Gas Plant, the only one of several plants remaining, was built in 1919 by Magnolia.

Many people have called Desdemona home, while being employed by the company, and we wish it were possible to list them all by name. However, since no complete list is available, and space would probably not permit, only the active employees, and their new locations are listed: Gerald Richburg, Bob Tucker, Ed Dixon, Winford Lindley and Dwight Dabbs have been transferred to Breckenridge. Bobby Winkles, Jr. is transferred to offshore operations in Freeport, Texas. Hardy Tidwell is transferred to Gainesville. Marsha (Wisdom) Williams will transfer to Kilgore, after completing a special office assignment at Breckenridge. Wesley Thomas will report to his new assignment, at Electra Gas Plant, August 1.

With this change of ownership to B.J. Greenhaw, the Flying Red Horse will be seen no more in "Hog Town," except at Floyd Moore's Station. Can't keep a good "Horse" down! So long, but not goodbye, to all the wonderful people of this area, from Mobil employees.

Senior Citizens Nutrition Menu

For the past three weeks we have been discussing the definitions of some important nutrients that are in the foods we prepare.

This week we wish to point out to you there are four more nutrients that need to be considered when preparing foods, namely: iron, protein, riboflavin, and thiamine.

The nutrient of iron, a mineral, is found in meat, fish, eggs, fruits and vegetables. It's essential in renewing red blood cells in the body. Protein is a complex compound found in meat, fish, milk, and cereal grains. It is essential to growth and to rebuilding body tissues. Riboflavin is a part of the vitamin B complex. It is found in cheese, live and green leafy vegetables. Finally, thiamine is part of the vitamin B complex and is found in pork, ham and yeast.

All of these nutrients that we have been discussing, ranging from vitamin A to thiamine are important to a healthy body and with a little study a well-balanced diet can be prepared every day.

For a well-balanced diet three times a week (Monday, Wednesday, and Friday) why don't you call 442-1557 for a reservation for a luncheon?

The program for the past week included: Janet Thomas stressed in her discussion with the senior center on foods that should be hot should be served hot and those foods that should be served cold must be kept cold; the Hallenebecks from Eastland presented a program; a musical program by Dickie Seider, Jana Jeffcoat, Patrick Qualls, and Missy Holder was given; dinner music was played by Vida Killion, Billie Wood and Marguerite King. The senior citizens band and choir entertained. Game day was held with Eastland seniors as the guests.

The menus for the coming week will be:
Monday: Beef/Brown Gravy, Sliced Beets, Broccoli with cheese sauce.

Pineapple Rasin Slaw, Banana Cake, Bread, Butter, and Drink.

Wednesday: Oven Fried Fish, Cream Coleslaw, Tater Tots, Apricots, Bread, Butter, and Drink.

Friday: Oven Fried Chicken, Macaroni with Cheese, Lettuce-Tomato Salad, Green Beans, Pineapple Tidbits/Jello Topping, Bread, Butter, and Drink.

WORD of GOD

Prophecy [Old Testament]

But I am a worm, and no man; a reproach of men, and despised of the people.

All they that see me laugh me to scorn; they shoot out the lip, they shake the head, saying,

He trusted on the Lord that he would deliver him: let him deliver him, seeing he delighted in him.

CITY PAVING work is continuing in the neighborhood of the Intermediate School, reports Supervisor Frank Young. They've worked over two streets from Ave. L to 9th Street and are doing some cross streets.

Next, the city crew will move to the Chesley Field area and pave streets that are used by football stadium traffic. In all, the city paving crew will do between 60 and 70 blocks of streets this year.

Understand they've now decided that 17th Street, from Hilton Avenue to Avenue M, will be a contract paving job with curb and gutter. Surveying work is going on at this time.

DON'T MENTION rain to Marshall and Dorothy Jones of our town. They're just home from Fayetteville, North Carolina, where they visited their daughter and family, the Lee Wallaces. And it rained nearly 20 inches during the nearly three weeks they were there.

What is more, it was raining along I-40 the route they had planned to use coming home so they could stop at Nashville for a look at the Grand Ole Opry, so they dropped down south and used I-20.

A highlight of their vacation was a couple of weekends at the beach—North Carolina's outer banks. They got home Wednesday night.

DRUGGIST Lloyd McGrew and daughter Mary and DD have about thawed out after returning home Tuesday night from a camping vacation. They made the trip to Yellowstone National Park in the family van, stopping at camp grounds along the way. They were in the park a week or so.

Old Faithful is still sending up geysers for one and all to admire Mr. I.M. reports. But they don't come at 27-minute intervals like they used to. There was a mild earthquake in the park a few months ago and some underground shifting of whatever is underground has disturbed the routine of Old Faithful. Now, it blows once every hour to hour and a half. Irregularly, there's always a big and appreciative crowd, Mr. I.M. says.

Temperatures dropped to around 40 degrees at night, and it felt good to sleep under blankets and wear jackets, they agreed.

HATS OFF to Dr. Chief Brown. He devoted an entire recent Saturday to building a gate with a turnstile at the Cisco Municipal Airport so folks can enter the airport area without having to climb a fence. As you know, the city recently put up a fence with a locked gate to keep stray motorcycles and cars from racing up and down the runways and damaging same.

Dr. Chief, who keeps an airplane out there, used his own equipment and bought the materials to build the metal gate.

OSCAR LOPEZ, young Ciscoan who graduated late spring from the University of Texas in Austin, has accepted a job to teach English in the Austin Public Schools, according to our scouts. He attended the UofT on a Maner Scholarship and spent summers working as a counselor in the Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville.

Oscar is the son of Mr. and Mrs. S. Lopez. His dad, as you know, has been confined to their home since suffering a stroke a couple of years or so ago. Glad to hear that Mr. SL is alert and well, enjoys reading, television and his family.

THE REV. AND Mrs. Frank Williams and son were due home this weekend after a vacation...Mrs. Betty Alford of Olney Savings reports that her daughter, who was seriously injured in a recent auto mishap, is on the mend and her doctors believe she will recover fully. Mrs. B.A. has visited in Ft. Worth with her daughter on two or three occasions since the accident...Mrs. Trixie Whatley of our town is back home after visiting a daughter and family at Hobbs, N.M.

HAVEN'T SEEN anything in the papers about it, but we understand that city police recently caught two youths who were responsible for quite a lot of vandalism around town. They were turned over to juvenile authorities...Bob Bennie and Bennie Nichols, local golfers, will join Bob's brother and partner as a four-man team in a scramble golf tournament of 36 holes in Mineral Wells this weekend...The Lake Cisco Golf Course area received good rain showers Tuesday and Wednesday afternoons.

MRS. PAT Sharpe of New Orleans was a recent visitor in the home of her parents, the Douglas Frys...The O.L. Stameys have visited the Lions Camp for Crippled Children at Kerrville more than 70 times. He was a member of the Board of Directors of the camp for a good many years...

Chesley Field, the local football stadium, and the practice areas around Community Gym look nice and green and soft these days.

THE REV. Neal Sheppard, director of the Baptist Encampment at Lueders, will fill the pulpit at First Baptist Church the next two Sundays while Pastor Buddy Sipe and wife and daughter vacation over Fort Worth way...Greg Sipe, son of the Buddy Sipes, is working as a cameraman for Abilene-Sweetwater Television Channel 12 this summer. Understand he'll return to CJC for his sophomore year this fall.

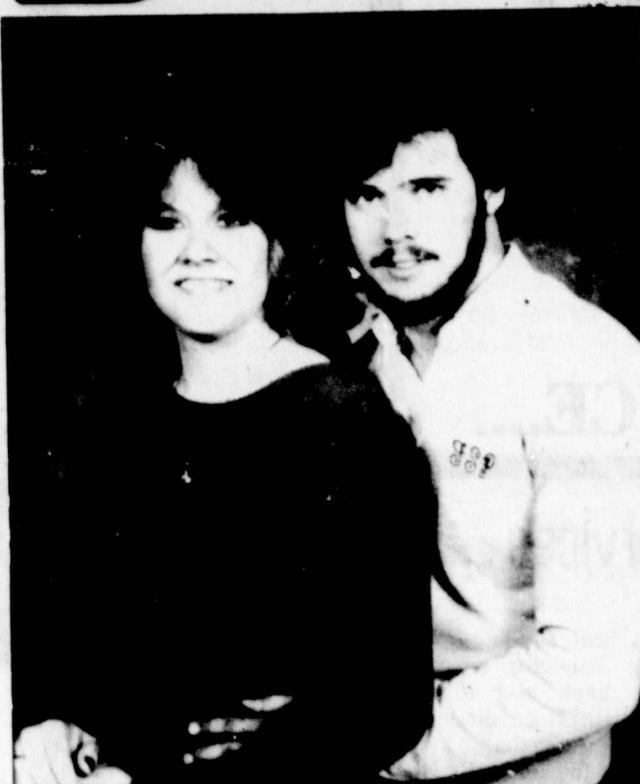

WORD of GOD

Worship the Lord!

And it shall come to pass in that day, that the great trumpet shall be blown, and they shall come which were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and the outcasts in the land of Egypt, and shall worship the Lord in the holy mount at Jerusalem.

Wanda Jackson To Perform August 11

WANDA JACKSON

The Cisco Ministerial Association extends a special invitation to all area residents to join them for a Gospel Concert featuring Wanda Jackson, on August 11th. The concert will be held at Chesley Field in Cisco, and will begin at 7:30 in the evening. There will be no charge for admission; however, a free will offering will be received.

Vivacious and versatile talented and terrific - are the adjectives used to describe the artistry of Wanda Jackson. Wanda, who became a veteran star of Country Music in a relatively short time, has been singing and entertaining fans of Country Music throughout the United States, Canada - even around the world - since her early teens.

A native of Oklahoma, Wanda's talents were discovered by another great entertainer from the Southwest, Hank Thompson. Wanda confesses that much of the stage presence and technique that she possesses was learned from Thompson when she appeared on many shows with him after first entering her career. Wanda has consistently been a best seller for Capitol Records and has thrilled millions of fans throughout the world in her personal appearances.

Aside from being a great favorite at country music shows, fairs, rodeos, and all types of presentations all across the United States and Canada, Wanda is one of the few country music artists who has been so talented as to record her songs in the languages of both German and Japan. In 1971 and 1972 she was voted "THE FAVORITE FEMALE COUNTRY MUSIC SINGER" of the Scandinavian countries and also received a tremendous reception from music fans in Japan, Philippines, Korea and the Far East.

In 1972 Wanda was chosen as one of the country music stars to make the first U.N./CMA sponsored tour of Australia, New Zealand and Japan, where a triumphant reception was received. Wanda has been nominated for the Grammy Award for BEST PERFORMER twice.

In real life, Wanda is a devoted Christian and lives happily with her husband and manager Wendell Goodman and their children in Oklahoma City. Although her preference is performing for the public and her Christian Ministry, she still finds the natural mother's instinct, to be with and care for her family, the most exciting part of her life. A talented and versatile star of television, movies and stage.

that's the best description of Wanda Jackson.

Since 1971, Wanda and her husband (Wendell Goodman) have been serving their Lord full time. The decision to give their lives to full time Christian Ministry cost them 70-80 percent of their income at that time. Since then, they have been filling churches and auditoriums with their fans, and singing and sharing for their Lord.

God has given Wanda and Wendell a unique ministry and the Ministerial Association of Cisco invites you to share in that special ministry on August 11th, at 7:30 p.m., at Chesley Field in Cisco. Come early so that you can get a good seat.
