FINAL COTTON REPORT MADE

Hall County Leads All West Texas; Lamb is Second; Lynn Co. Gins 30,000

The United States Government cotton report issued this week shows that only 3,802,574 bales of cotton of the crop of 1929 were ginned prior to March 20, 1930, counting round as half bales, against 4,941,545 bales produced in 1928. Nueces again leads all the counties of the state with 123,703. Ellis is second with 96,712.

Hall county leads all the counties of West Texas with our own neighboring county of Lamb out here on the South Plains taking the second place. Of all the 188 cotton-producing counties in Texas, only seventeen in the entire state surpassed Lamb. This is a wonderful record for a county that was one vast cattle ranch up till five years ago.

The report shows the following production by South Plains counties:

County	1929	1928
Crosby	25,252	27,995
Dawson	33,500	29,128

Lynn	30,732	34,217

Other West Texas counties are reported for the two years as follows:

School Grounds At Wilson Beautified

County Superintendent H. P. Caveness, County Attorney G. H. Nelson, and C. C. Williams, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, attended a civic improvement program at Wilson Tuesday sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Ass'n. wherein the initial steps were taken for greatly improving and beautifying the school grounds.

A landscape gardener had been employed to lay out the plans and to supervise the work. Concrete sidewalks circling the building were set out in accordance with his directions. Many people of this community were present to do the work and a sumptuous feast was served by the girls of the Home Economics department at the noon hour.

A brief business meeting was also held at which two directors for the Lynn County Fair were chosen in the persons of Mrs. A. L. Faubion and County Commissioner R. E. Finley.

WILSON PLANS CUT IN COTTON

Meeting Held To Encourage Acreage Cut; Number of Local People Attend Session

A number of Tahoka citizens including Prof. Taylor White, C. C. Williams, J. K. Applewhite, B. R. Tate, S. R. Kemp, G. A. Brasfield and G. H. Nelson attended a meeting of farmers and business men at Wilson on Thursday night of last week held for the purpose of discussing the cotton situation. To be exact the purpose of the meeting was to encourage a reduction in cotton acreage during the present year and the planting of a longer staple cotton. There were about sixty in attendance, mostly farmers, and all of them were in full sympathy with the movement. No definite action of any kind was taken, however. R. E. Finley, county commissioner of precinct No. 1, presided at the meeting.

SNOW IS FALLING OVER SOUTH PLAINS

For the first time in many years snow has fallen over the south plains the last week in March.

It began falling about 8 o'clock Wednesday night and by midnight fully an inch of snow had fallen. The fall amounted to possibly an inch and a half during the night, much of which melted as it fell, but the entire surface of the earth is carpeted in white. A fine snow is falling as this is written and the prospects are that there will be much more precipitation in the form of snow or rain before the skies clear.

The lowest temperature registered Wednesday night was 29 degrees.

DECLAIMERS AT KIWANIS CLUB

Local County Winners Furnish Program; Nicklaus Talks On School Athletics

An unusually good program was rendered at the Kiwanis luncheon Wednesday, when several students of the Tahoka schools entertained with their "pieces" given in the declamation contests held in the high school auditorium last Saturday night.

Robert Maddox, who was awarded a first place in the Junior boys' contest but who ranked as one of the best declaimers of the evening, favored the Kiwanians with his recital of "The Boy That Didn't Pass".

James Applewhite recited the declamation with which he won first place in the county Saturday night, "Union and Liberty".

Janice Sanders, who also won first place in her class, representing the Central Ward School, rendered "The Baddest Boy in Town".

Dottie Turrentine gave the piano solo with which she won first place in the music contest at Lubbock recently.

All these numbers were very fine and were enjoyed greatly by the Kiwanians.

G. H. Nelson also led in the singing of some Kiwanis songs, with Miss Binnion at the piano.

Coach W. W. Nicklaus gave a report of the activities and successes of the various athletic teams in the Tahoka High School recently and thanked the Kiwanians and the people of the town for their assistance and encouragement.

C. C. Williams made an announcement about the dairy show soon to be held in Plainview and urged the business men of Tahoka to attend and furnish conveyance for as many farmers as possible.

New Industry Is Doing Big Business

Not much has been said about it in the papers yet, but Happy Smith and Belton Howell have established a new industry here that has already grown to large proportions. We refer to the new Bottling Plant, which they have established but have not yet named. One of their most popular drinks is "Threemot" milk chocolate, composed of milk, chocolate and sugar. It is a most appetizing and wholesome drink and already the demand for it is becoming strong. They manufacture many other palatable drinks also, which are good for the inner man. If you have not visited their plant you should do so and find out about this big new enterprise.

The Lynn County News and The Semi-Weekly Farm News, both papers, only $2.00 a year.

Legion Box Supper Next Tuesday Night

A box supper will be given at the American Legion Home next Tuesday night. Everybody is invited to come and bring a little loose change. Of course all candidates are given a special invitation. The proceeds of the evening will be added to the fund being raised to pay out the building. A large crowd and a great occasion is anticipated.

Stamps Quartet To Sing Here Thursday

Those people who were fortunate enough to hear the Owen Brothers and Ellis when they appeared at the High School about a year ago will be pleased to know that they will again appear in concert on Thursday night of next week. It will be recalled that these fine gentlemen sang for the Kiwanis Club here last year while visiting our city. Mr. Ellis is one of the best bass singers ever to appear in Tahoka. This quartet has gained fame as Columbia recording artists, and their voices are already familiar to many music lovers.

Owen Brothers and Ellis will also give a concert at Dixie on Tuesday night and at New Home Friday night, April 4.

ALL-DAY SERVICES AT GRASSLAND NEXT SUNDAY

We take this method of giving you a special invitation to come to the Church of Christ at Grassland Sunday to enjoy some fine preaching and special congregation singing. Brother Burnette will do the preaching. There will be dinner on the ground for everybody. So don't forget but be there at 10 o'clock for Sunday School; preaching at 11 o'clock and 2 o'clock. Bring a full basket of dinner and we will all enjoy a fine day together.

BURGLARS ARE VISITORS HERE

Enter Number of Houses, Taking Change and Small Articles; Reported Elsewhere

There seems to have been an epidemic of burglaries of residences in this portion of the state last week end.

On Friday night, the store and filling station of H. J. King eight miles north of Tahoka was entered. Two casings, a quantity of cigarettes and tobacco, and other small articles were taken. Entry was effected by prying open a window. A few gallons of gasoline were also stolen.

On the same night several residences in Tahoka were entered. A watch and a small sum of money were taken from W. B. Slaton's home. Two watches were taken from the Dr. Turrentine home, one belonging to the Doctor and the other to Dottie. A small sum of money was also missing. The culprits also entered the home of Elton George and took $2.80 from the trousers of the two boys. The residence of Supt. M. L. H. Baze was entered but no property has been missed.

It is said that several residences in Lamesa were burglarized on the same night. On Saturday night a number of residences in Colorado are reported to have been entered, while eight or ten homes in Sweetwater were visited on Sunday night. Money or jewelry or other small articles were taken in each instance.

Officers are of the opinion that all these thefts were committed by the same parties.

Miss Beverley Wells of O'Donnell spent the week end visiting her cousin, Miss Dede McCoy.

"Blackie" Wheelers Is Caught In Arizona

Sheriff Sam Sanford returned last Thursday from Tombstone, Arizona, to which place he went for Jim "Blackie" Wheeler, charged by indictment with being implicated in the burglary of the Tahoka Drug Store here several months ago. Wheeler has made a signed confession to officers here.

Mrs. "Whitey" Walker was tried here several months ago on a charge growing out of the same offense. She was apprehended in Alabama and Mr. Sanford went to Birmingham for her and brought her back to Texas.

A young man named Fulton is also under indictment for the offense.

GRASSLAND LADY FALLS AND BREAKS LIMB

Mrs. H. Northcutt of Grassland accidentally fell and broke one of her lower limbs Tuesday night, according to reports reaching the News office. A physician was called and the broken bone and the patient is said to be resting nicely.

Weather Station Is Granted By Gov't.

Due to the efforts of C. C. Williams, secretary of the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce, who enlisted the services of our good congressman, Marvin Jones, the editor of The News has been furnished maximum and minimum Government thermometers together with housing for the same. The News has had a Government rain gage for a number of years, but hereafter we shall be able not only to keep a record of the rain fall but also of the daily maximum and minimum temperature. The rain gage measures the precipitation with exact accuracy, of course, and the thermometers are no less accurate in registering the temperature.

CORRECTION

It was reported that Dorothy Turrentine won second place in the music contests at Lubbock a week ago last Saturday. As a matter of fact the little lady won first place, making a grade above 85, the grade necessary to be placed in first place winners.

H. A. Shattuck Died At Lynn Tuesday

H. A. Shattuck, 68, died just before noon Tuesday morning at the home of his brother, Rev. G. F. Shattuck, near New Lynn, and the remains were buried in the City Cemetery here Wednesday afternoon. Harris and Applewhite prepared the body for interment and funeral services were conducted from the Nazarene Church here at 3 p. m. Wednesday, Rev. Thomas Ahern officiating.

Mr. Shattuck became seriously ill of neuritis last Thursday night, death resulting Tuesday. He had been a resident of this county for only about eighteen months but had been visiting here frequently during the past seven or eight years. He had been a mechanic by trade and for twenty years or more was engaged in the business of building bridges for railway companies. Happy To Tell All The World About Konjola

St. Louis Citizen Found New Medicine To Be Only One That Made Good

THOMAS J. BIRGE

After all is said and done, every medicine must meet this test: Does it make good? Konjola has made good in so many cases when all else tried has failed that it is the most talked of medicine in America today. Take the case of Mr. Thomas J. Birge, 2632 Chateau street, St. Louis, for instance. Read what he says about this master medicine:

"I am sixty years old, and most of my life—at least as long as I can remember—I had stomach trouble, and nothing helped me until I found Konjola. Imagine my astonishment when the very first bottle of this wonderful remedy started me on the road to complete recovery. Today I can eat whatever I like, no matter how rich and heavy the food, without the least discomfort. Fact is, I feel like a new man, and many of my friends to whom I recommended Konjola are as enthusiastic about it as I am."

Konjola is sold in Tahoka at the Tahoka Drug Company, and by all the best druggists in all towns throughout this entire section.

(Delayed)

Our sympathy goes to our good neighbors, Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Lee, who lost their ten month old baby boy, Clifford, on Saturday morning, March 8. Death came after a fifteen day fight against pneumonia and complications. Burial was in the O'Donnell cemetery with the Reverend Mr. Braswell officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. S. U. Durham are the proud parents of beautiful twin girls, who arrived on last Thursday morning. These little misses are very similar in appearance, so much so that differentiation is almost impossible. It is still undecided which is Eva Nell and which is Annie Bell. Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cunningham were called to Wewaka, Okla., by the sudden death of their daughter, Mrs. H. B. Butler, who was the victim of a sudden heart attack. Interment was at Wewaka. The late Mrs. Butler is survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Cunningham of Wewaka; and by three sisters and four brothers residing here and in Oklahoma. Our sincerest sympathy is echoed by the many friends of the family at the untimely death of this popular young matron and loved daughter and sister.

Mr. Farmer, the aged father of J. M. Farmer of Joe Bailey, died at the home of the latter at 4:15 p. m., March 13th. Death was the result of a stroke of paralysis coming after several days of illness. The elder Mr. Farmer was 79 years old, and was visiting his son and family when stricken. The body was carried to Purdon, the family home, for burial. Wanda, nine year old daughter of Bill Brewer and grand-daughter of Lee Brewer of Joe Bailey, was fatally injured in a fall from a swing on the school yard at Lovington, New Mexico, on last Wednesday afternoon. Death followed at 7 o'clock that evening. Burial was in the Lovington cemetery.

At a mass meeting at Joe Bailey on Tuesday night Mr. A. R. Kimbrell was elected the local community representative for the Lynn County Fair Association. Mr. Kimbrell succeeds Mr. L. T. (Tom) Brewer who has served Joe Bailey and Lynn county very efficiently for the past two years.

Mr. Albert Williams, an ardent and experienced school man was nominated for the race for the County School Board. Let's elect this man—we need him as do all other schools.

The following nominations have been made from which three vacancies on the local school board will be filled: J. M. Lee, Stewart Schooler (re-election), A. R. Kimbrell (re-election), J. M. Farmer, L. G. (Gene) Warren (re-election), and J. N. Schooler.

The Joe Bailey Independent School District board, in a called meeting, unanimously voted to re-employ the entire teaching force of the Joe Bailey School. Those re-elected are as follows: Primary, Mrs. J. S. Pearson, A. B., Permanent; Intermediate, Miss Minnie Hood, Permanent; Principal and High School, Mr. J. S. Pearson, A. B., Permanent.

WHAT ANN BROUGHT HOME

Would you like to know? You may find out by attending the entertainment at T-Bar school house Friday night, March 28. "What Ann Brought Home" is a three-act comedy and it is said to be a dandy. Given by the T-Bar P. T. A. for the benefit of the school. Also there will be plenty of good music. See this show if you have to walk. Admission only 10 and 15 cents.

R. C. Forrester of Wilson, who was here Monday, reported that the people of Wilson and contiguous territory met at the cemetery near that place recently and spent the day improving their little city of the Dead. Walks were laid, water pipes were extended throughout the grounds, and trees and shrubs were set out. They expect it to be a beauty spot within the next few years.

MANY TAKE B. Y. P. U. COURSES AT WILSON

There were sixty enrolled in the four B. Y. P. U. courses taught in the Wilson church last week and fifty of them took the examination. Others will take it later.

Rev. Philip McGahey, the pastor, taught the Adult courses; Mrs. McGahey the Seniors; Miss Cora May the Intermediates; and Mrs. R. C. Forrester the Juniors.

It is reported that they are to give some Sunday School courses next week, with prospects of even a larger attendance than they had in the B. Y. P. U. courses.

Deacon R. C. Forrester reports that interest in Sunday School and B. Y. P. U. work at Wilson continues to grow. There are increasing numbers in Sunday School each succeeding Sunday. Every single available Intermediate child in that territory is enlisted in the Sunday School, he states, which is a record that can be duplicated in very few churches.

NEW PASTOR PREACHES FOR FIRST TIME AT O'DONNELL

Rev. Luther S. Jenkins, recently of Goree, preached his first sermon as pastor of the Baptist Church here Sunday morning. He also had charge of the Men's Bible Class during the Sunday School hour.

Rev. Jenkins, in introducing himself, said the initials of his name, L. S. stood for "Lazy Sap." It is doubtful, therefore, if any went away without knowing their new pastor's initials.

The night services were not held on account of the Methodist revival which began Sunday morning.

There will be no preaching services at the Baptist Church Sunday, as the pastor is leaving this week for Goree to bring his family to O'Donnell.

The church in conference Sunday morning set the date of the beginning of its spring revival meeting for March 30. Rev. Jenkins will do the preaching. The summer revival will begin the first Sunday in August, it was also decided.—O'Donnell Index.

Locals

Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Henderson and daughter, Miss Belle, of the Redwin community, were called to Bomarton Baylor county, Tuesday of last week to the bedside of Mrs. Henderson's father, J. E. Harland. Mr. Harland died Friday night, and was buried Saturday afternoon. He was eighty-seven years of age.

C. J. Campbell, who recently removed to his new home near Morton in Cochran county, was here Monday after another load—says he hasn't gotten all his things moved, yet.

Mr. and Mrs. Perry Clayton are the proud parents of a little daughter that arrived at their home on March 14.

Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Collenback of Uvalde were here last Saturday and Sunday visiting the former's brother, J. H. Collenback.

Miss Vivian Campbell, a teacher in the Crosbyton schools and Miss Cora Lee Woody, an expression teacher of that city, spent the week end here as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Travis Davis and Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Tinsley.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Simpson returned to Tahoka Sunday after having spent the winter in Corpus Christi. They enjoyed their visit on the coast very much.

Mr. and Mrs. John N. Garrison

are spending the week here visiting the latter's father, Uncle Frank Stuart, and other relatives. Mr. Garrison has a position with the University Drug Store of Houston but recently underwent a serious operation and is recuperating a few weeks. Mrs. Garrison is better known here as Miss Mary Stuart.

Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Thomas returned Sunday from Strawn, where they visited relatives a few days while Mr. Thomas is recuperating from a stubborn attack of the flu. Mr. Thomas was confined to his room for several weeks and is scarcely able to be out on the streets yet.

New Jersey has had a prison riot. Perhaps a pork-barrel Legislature is telling the Governor how stubborn he is instead of doing something to relieve conditions.—Dallas News.

Rustless Steel

—A Reflection of the Quality built into the Ford Car

THE NEW FORD is a particularly good purchase because it is such an ideal combination of high quality and low cost. Many of its features were formerly thought possible only in an expensive automobile. In addition to the Houdaille hydraulic shock absorbers and Triplex shatter-proof glass windshield, another unusual feature is the Rustless Steel used for the head lamps, radiator shell, cowl finish strip, hub caps, and tail lamp. This will not rust, corrode or tarnish under any conditions and will retain its bright luster for the life of the car. Though expensive to manufacture, it is used on the new Ford without increased cost to you. Throughout the car you see many instances of this EXTRA VALUE made possible by Ford production methods.

Locals

Ruby Wells is one business man who is not worrying over continued dry weather. He says that a good rain would be an actual detriment to the country. A lot of fellows would begin planting at once, he says, and would have to plant over later. He may be right.

Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Holland and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Johnson were among those who visited the Fat Stock Show and visited relatives in Fort Worth. Mr. Holland says the rains had come and the grass was very green down toward cow town, and he is ready for some good rains and warmer weather here.

Mrs. B. N. Shepherd and daughter, Miss Gertrude, of Clarendon visited friends here over the week-end. Mrs. Shepherd reports that Brother Shepherd is delighted with his work at Clarendon.

Orin Ramsey of Grassland was taken to a sanitarium in Lubbock Tuesday, where he underwent a serious operation. It is hoped that he will recover speedily.

A. J. Glasgow made a trip to Rising Star Saturday, where Mrs. Glasgow was visiting relatives. She returned to Tahoka with him Sunday. Mr. Glasgow reports rain from Justiceburg on east.

W. C. Procter, assistant Branch Manager, and Snyder Atwell, Lincoln Branch salesman for the Ford Motor Company, were guests of Chester Connolly, local Ford agent, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Edwards are happy because of the arrival of a fine little eight-pound girl in their home Wednesday at noon. She will bear the beautiful name of Janice.

Miss Lou Woosley, who has been with the Hogan store at Littlefield the past four weeks, has returned to Tahoka and is now a saleslady in the G. E. Hogan store here, where she will be glad to see her many friends.

Mrs. J. P. Hawk of Anson is here visiting her sister Mrs. G. W. Williams. Mrs. Hawk has been reading the News for several years and says she likes it.

Chester Connolly, Jeff Connolly, James Connolly, and Salesman Sam attended a meeting of Ford dealers and salesmen in Lubbock Tuesday night.

George Hogan Jr. and G. E. McMahon left last Friday for the Philippine Islands, where they expect to take employment in a big Commissary operated by a cousin of Mr. Hogan's, George Bevins. They wired back from Los Angeles Tuesday, expecting to take passage soon on a steamer for Manila.

The entire commissioners' court made a trip to Roby Wednesday to inspect some road machinery with a view to purchasing some additional machinery for Lynn county.

County commissioner Walter Florence reports that he has just finished raising the dump across the lake immediately north of Draw. The road bed has been raised approximately 18 inches. Fresnoes were used in the work.

C. Leslie McNees and U. M. McNees returned a few days ago from the new oil town of Penwell situated a few miles west of Odessa. The former says that a town as large as Tahoka, in population, has sprung up there within three or four weeks time. The bringing in of a big oil well is the secret of its growth.

F. L. Grider was called to Dallas early this morning by the serious illness of a nephew.

TWO JURIES

The same court room in the Nation's Capital which witnessed the conviction of former Secretary of the Interior Albert B. Fall on a charge of receiving $100,000 from Edward L. Doheny as a bribe in oil land leases witnessed the acquittal of Mr. Doheny on the charge of giving the $100,000 as a bribe. It was a different jury in each case, of course; but the result is a body blow to the tradition of the infallibility of the jury system.

The Fall jury found that the $100, 000 which came from Mr. Doheny to Fall was a bribe, and its acceptance
by Mr. Fall, who was then Secretary of the Interior, constituted a felony.
The Doheny jury found that the $100,000 was a loan, and its giving by Mr. Doheny constituted no felony but, by inference, a praiseworthy action toward a friend in need. No amount of rationalization can reconcile the two verdicts. One of the juries was wrong, and grievously so.
Few such glaring contradictions in decisions of the law have ever been recorded.

It cost the people of the United States a great deal of money to pursue the prosecution of Mr. Doheny, and it cost Mr. Doheny a good deal to defend himself. The jury now says that both the people and Mr. Doheny were imposed upon.—Fort Worth Star-Telegram.

The Star-Telegram is eminently correct. If Fall was guilty of accepting a bribe, Doheny was guilty of giving it. If Doheny was innocent, Fall was innocent. Yet, on practically the same evidence one jury found Fall guilty and another found Doheny not guilty.

If the jury which returned its verdict of "not guilty" last Saturday was right, then this entire nation owes Albert B. Fall an abject apology. If Doheny was innocent, this great government has done Fall an irreparable injury. It has taken from him his good name, branded him as a felon, and subjected him to the deepest humiliation that a man can suffer. If Doheny is innocent, as the jury found, then the whole Democratic party should get down on its knees before Albert B. Fall, acknowledge its sins in vilifying and abus-ing him, beg his pardon in sackcloth and ashes, and offer him the highest honors that it has the power to bestow.

But was Doheny innocent? as the jury found. The American people will never believe so. The facts are too utterly damning. The Government owned an oil field, reserved to supply the U. S. Navy. Fall as Secretary of the Interior leased this oil reserve to Edward Doheny for private exploitation. Soon thereafter Doheny gave Fall a satchel containing $100,000 in currency. Both claimed it was an accommodation loan.
But the Supreme Court of the United States in 1927 held that the lease was fraudulent and void, and a Federal jury in 1928 found Fall guilty of accepting a bribe.

But a jury last Saturday found that Doheny only loaned the money to Fall, and that it was a perfectly honorable transaction. Either the Doheny jury or the Fall jury must have made a terrible blunder.

BOB HENRY DRAWS THE SWORD

Bob Henry has announced as a candidate for the United States Senate against Morris Sheppard. War on Prohibition is the paramount plank in his platform. He declares that "The national prohibition amendment should be repealed or amended. The time has come for action by American people. The dismal farce of prohibition as it now exists should be terminated. The Volstead law should be repealed or modified by congress. I shall stand squarely for such action."

Thus the issue is squarely joined with Morris Sheppard, the author of the eighteenth amendment. If the Democrats of Texas desire that the prohibition amendment and the Volstead Act shall be repealed or nullified, they now have the opportunity to say so. From the standpoint of ability, Bob Henry is no mean foe. He served in congress from the Waco district for twenty years. He was a candidate for the United States Senate eight years ago. He was one of the original supporters of Al
Smith in Texas and led in the preliminary campaign to create Smith entirement in this state. Morris Sheppard favored Al Smith only after he was nominated. Bob Henry favored him from the very start. Morris Sheppard favored Smith in spite of his wet views; Bob Henry favored Smith because of his wet views.
Bob is dripping wet; Morris is bone-dry.

BOOST THOMAS

John N. Thomas of Tahoka has just announced that he will be a candidate for the state legislature,
to take the place which will be vacated by Carl Rountree of this city.

Dawson county is indeed fortunate that such a man as Mr. Thomas, who has at heart the interests of this and the immediately adjoining counties, should offer himself for this office. He knows our problems and our needs probably better than any man save the out-going representative himself.

If for no other reason than that he is Aubrey Thomas' dad, the people of Lamesa and this county should support him. The Reporter is glad to commend his candidacy and trusts that Dawson county will do her best to put him in office.—
Lamesa Reporter.

Possibly three thousand people visited the athletic grounds here Saturday to witness the various contests. Practically every school community in the county was represented. Intense interest in these events was manifest everywhere, and the visitors as well as the people of Ta-hoka greatly enjoyed the day. But to us, the most inspiring feature of the two-days activities was the declaration contests held in the high school auditorium Saturday night,
when thirty-four boys and girls appeared each in turn before the vast audience vying with one another for first honors in oratory. Not one of the thirty-four forgot his or her "piece". Not one seemed to suffer in any marked degree with stage fright. Every one of them did well, some of them exceedingly well. Such contests are fine mental training for them, and the fact that they appeared in these contests is evidence that they are ambitious. Many of these boys and girls will doubtless be heard from in positions of responsibility and honor in after years. We take our hats off to the thirty-four boys and girls who entertained us
for almost three hours Saturday night. It was fine!

Contracts are being let for the paving of the highways in Lubbock county. An election is to be held in Dawson county early in April to vote on bonds in the sum of $600,- 000.00 with little apparent opposition. So, it is a cinch that the highways in the neighboring counties
north and south of Tahoka will be paved in the next two or three years.
We do not know whether the highways in Lynn county will ever be paved or not. We don't know whether the people of the county will ever be willing to vote the necessary bonds or not. We are persuaded that bonds will never be voted unless those communities lying off the main highways are well cared for. It would be futile to undertake to vote bonds without giving Wilson, and such communities as Dixie, New Home, and Draw hard-surfaced roads also, leading out from each of these places in at least two directions.
O'Donnell must be well provided for likewise. What we are trying to say is that it must be a county-wide affair. The lateral roads need not be as expensive as the main highways, because traffic over them will not be so heavy, but roads adequate for the purpose must be built to all these communities. This will require a lot of money, and the people may never be willing to vote the necessary bonds; but we see no hope whatever for a bond issue to pave
the two highways alone.

PAIN ACROSS BACK

Lady Who Took Cardui Says
"It Made All the Difference
in My Health."

Poplar Bluff, Mo.—"For a long time I suffered with pains right across my back," writes Mrs. F. M.
Boatwright, of 831 Park Avenue,
this city.

"I had nervous headache and sometimes I could not sleep.
"When I began to take Cardui I began to feel better. I was complaining to a friend how bad I felt.
She had been taking Cardui and she told me to try it, so I did. Before that, I just could not relax, and I got very little rest at night."

"I took Cardui for several months and it made all the difference in the world in my health. I felt stronger and better than I had in many a year."

"I recommend Cardui to other women when they suffer from weakness and bad health."
Thousands of other women have taken Cardui to help them to build up their health. The good reports which have been received, telling of the experience of others, should encourage you to try Cardui, for your troubles.

Cardui is a purely vegetable remedy, and contains nothing harmful or injurious. It may be safely taken by women of all ages.

CARDUI

Tahoka people should patronize Ta-hoka business men. We all recognize the wisdom of such a policy in general but many of our people do not practice it. Many thousands of dollars go each year out of Tahoka to Lubbock when most of it could be expended to just as good advantage

Dr. Scott Scores Prison Attitude

Dr. A. C. Scott of Temple, one of the founders of the famous Scott & White Sanitarium and one of the most eminent physicians and surgeons in Texas, is a member of the State Prison Board. The Prison Board recently passed an order instructing the warden to receive no other prisoners into the penitentiary until the crowded conditions are somewhat relieved. This action incensed some members of the legislature and one of them introduced a resolution in that body calling for the resignation of the entire Prison Board on the grounds of "incompetency." This action brought fire from Dr. Scott. He issued a statement last Friday replying to the criticism of the Solons, and his reply makes good reading matter. We publish a portion of it as follows:

Task Is Icksome One
"Regarding the attempt of some members of the Legislature to officially call for the resignation of the board, I am sure that, while it might have been a trifle embarrassing, every member would have given a sigh of relief when his responsibility for the conduct of the disreputable Texas prisons had ended. Personally, my private affairs demand so much of my time that I have repeatedly been tempted to resign, but have deferred the matter with the hope that the legislature would take some action worthy of such a body.

"If it is found that the law prohibits the prison board from taking such steps as its judgment dictates to guard the welfare of the prisoners and the State from the evils of overcrowding, which jeopardize health and invites such troubles as have been enacted in New York, Colorado and other prisons, I shall feel compelled to resign because I am unwilling to be a party to such a crime.

Scores Legislative Attitude
"Concerning charges of the board's incompetency, if I thought the prison board had shown as little ability to manage the prison system as has been shown in the unstatesmanlike manner with which some members of the Legislature have dealt with the same problem, I should advocate the board resign in a body.

"It has been extremely costly and very unfortunate that most members who have blocked prison legislation and contended for patching up of prisons on present owned property now the least about the things essential for the development of a modern prison system. The only apparent sensible reason revealed by them is that present owned properties may have oil under them and are wanted by speculators. If the State wishes to hold those lands for such speculative purposes the prison board has no objection, but as individuals at least some of us believe it is fool-hardy to retain 75,000 acres of land scattered from the Red River to the Gulf, when the sale of some of them might raise enough funds to make a good start toward a modern prison plant. The prison board has never advocated, as some have charged, the sale of all the present property owned.

Not Necessarily Austin
"It is not true that the prison board has taken the position that Austin is the only place where the new prison should be located. Austin was the prison board's choice when asked to recommend a location and there are several other accessible locations near the center of the State that would be far superior to any properties now a part of the system. If those who have raised so much fuss against Austin will quit playing politics and get to work they will have little difficulty in finding a number of places where a prison can be economically and efficiently built in Central Texas.

"I reiterate what Chairman Paddock has said, that the board's action was taken without the knowledge of the Governor and without intent to coerce the Legislature, but because the crowded condition has been tolerated until it had become a menace to the public's interest.

"The Legislature has had knowledge of the crowded and unsanitary conditions and need not make a gesture of surprise. The board has said enough and the investigating committees have found enough to know that conditions are steadily growing worse.

"If the prison board had tolerated the overcrowding until this session of the Legislature had adjourned and after all hope for some remedy had gone, then I wonder what they would have said about coercion?"

IS THERE A PERSONAL DEVIL AND A LITERAL HELL?

There are a great many fallacious statements being made about these subjects. Modernism, Fundamentalism, Liberalism, and many other "isms" are confusing the people as to some sound Bible doctrines that should be understood by every Sunday School pupil. "Is There a Personal Devil and a Literal Hell?" will be the subject for discussion at the Methodist Church Sunday morning at eleven o'clock. The public is urged to attend, and all other church members who have no services at their own places of worship are cordially invited to worship with us on that occasion. We shall try to make the service a little different to the usual hackneyed way of treating the subjects for discussion.

The pastor will be preaching at Sprenburg in a great Methodist reunion at the evening hour, but a worth-while service has been planned for the evening, with the hope that the people will attend and cooperate. A revival meeting will be undertaken within the next few weeks if satisfactory arrangements can be made. Announcements will probably be made Sunday morning.

SICK HEADACHES
Disagreeable Feeling All Went Away Following Use of Black-Draught.

Paducah, Ky.—"For a long time I suffered with severe sick headaches that would unfit me for my work for two or three days at a time," says Mrs. C. H. Hall, of 222 Tennessee Street, this city.

"I would have these headaches if I let myself get constipated. I would also feel very dull and stupid and have a very bad taste in my mouth.

"After I heard of Theodor's Black-Draught and began taking it, all this bad feeling would disappear and I would not have the headache, so that now I just keep a box of Black-Draught on hand, and when I feel the least bit bad I take a dose and it relieves me at once. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, in fact I have done so many times, to friends and neighbors."

Theodor's Black-Draught is a purely vegetable cathartic or laxative medicine, composed of selected medicinal herbs and roots. Black-Draught is finely powdered, which enables the juices of the stomach to extract its medicinal properties in an easy, natural way.

SMASHING ALL SALES RECORDS!

THE new Conoco Germ-Processed Motor Oil is not only the fastest selling oil in Conoco history... it is establishing a new high mark in public acceptance... By a wholly new characteristic, Penetrative Lubricity, this motor oil is attracting motorists from other brands with a quickness unprecedented in the oil world... this would not be possible if this oil were not the finest and safest motor lubricant yet introduced.

It is the Germ Process which gives Conoco the essential points of superiority that make possible these things: 76% less motor wear; reduced carbon formation; lowered operating temperatures; greater gasoline mileage; resistance to dilution; and instant lubrication at the first touch of the starter.

The Germ Process adds to a supremely fine paraffin base oil, a precious oily essence lacking in all other oils. This makes possible the metal-penetrating safety factor that we call "Penetrative Lubricity." Try this new oil today... at the sign of the Red Triangle.

Skip Taylor Is Out For District Clerk

Anticipating a separation of the offices of county and district clerk immediately following the taking of the census in April, W. S. (Skip) Taylor this week announces as a candidate for district clerk in and for Lynn county.

The law provides for the separation of these offices in counties having more than 8,000 population. It is a foregone conclusion that the population of Lynn county will far surpass these figures, and upon announcement of census returns, the office of district clerk will be automatically created.

Mr. Taylor is eminently well qualified for the position. For ten years he has been in the abstract business and is thoroughly familiar with the records of the office and with the duties of the district clerk. Furthermore, since he has an office in the court house he can afford to give the necessary time to the duties of the office for the small remuneration that he will receive. It is not anticipated that the fees of this office will amount to more than $500 or $600 per year. Very few persons who are qualified would be willing to take the office for the fees that it will pay.

Mr. Taylor is well known throughout the county. He came to the county in February, 1916, locating first at O'Donnell. From this place he enlisted in the service of Uncle Sam early in 1918 and went to the front in France, serving with the 144th Machine Gun Company, 36th Division. Being discharged in 1919, he returned to O'Donnell, and he remained there a few months, going to Lamesa in January, 1920, in the employ of the Dawson County Abstract Company. He removed to Tahoka in May, 1921, and has been engaged in the abstract business here ever since.

He has been a member of the city council of Tahoka for several years as well as a member of the American Legion and enjoys the utmost confidence of our entire citizenship. He will appreciate your vote and influence in the July primaries.

Swan Announces For Tax Collector

Another of the pioneers of Lynn county throws his hat into the political ring this week and announces as a candidate for tax collector, Mr. W. S. Swan, who has been a resident of the county for 24 years.

Mr. Swan says that he is running because he wants the office. He says that he has not been solicited by a great multitude of friends to make the race but entered the race just because he wanted to. The office pays a pretty good salary and he feels that he is thoroughly competent to fill it and if elected he will fill it to the general satisfaction of the public.

Mr. Swan has had experience in this work. He was sheriff and tax collector of Jones county for a number of years before moving to Lynn county. He also served as a deputy in this office in that county for a number of years. For a number of years, also, he was a special agent for the Texas & Pacific Railway at Big Spring, his residence being here at the time, however, and he gave that Company most efficient and satisfactory service. In fact he has been true to every trust imposed in him.

Mr. Swan is well known to all the old-timers and to most of the newcomers in this county, and he has many friends all over the county. He will appreciate the help of every man, woman and child in the county, and if elected will show his appreciation by giving service.

FORMER TAHOKA BOY MARRIES IN TERRY CO.

Mr. Ocie Christman and Miss Nettie B. Nelson were united in marriage at three o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of the bride in the Foster community in Terry county. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Nelson. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Christman of Brownfield. Mr. Christman was formerly a resident of Tahoka and has many friends here who will wish him many years of happiness.—Contributed.

J. P. Fulton Gets Into Political Ring

J. P. Fulton of New Home announces this week as a candidate for commissioner of Precinct No. 4. He says that he has been solicited by his many good friends to make this race.

Mr. Fulton is a farmer living three miles west of New Home. He is 48 years of age and has a family. He came from Bell county in 1920, lived in Lubbock two years and has been at New Home for eight years.

Announcing his platform, Mr. Fulton said: "I believe in economy and lower taxes. I don't think we need any road bonds at present. I believe in dividing up the road dragging etc., and in using home men for road work I believe in keeping our money at home and patronizing home industry."

"Mr. George is a good man," he stated, "but I think twelve years in office is long enough. Mr. George is well fixed, and has plenty to live on the rest of his life. I am a poor man trying to pay out a little home. This office belongs to the people and I don't believe they will give it to a man for a life time under the above conditions."

Mr. Fulton feels that he is well qualified for the office, and he says that if elected he will do his best. He expects to make a house to house canvass of his precinct. He says his other opponents are also his friends but hopes to beat them all. "I expect to run a fair and square race," he concluded; "if I can't win it fair, I don't want the office."

NEIGHBORS HELP FAMILY IN A TIME OF NEED

Mr. and Mrs. F. P. Cook, who reside several miles north of Tahoka on the Wilson road, wish to express their profound thanks to the neighbors who so kindly listed about 80 acres of their land one day recently. Mr. Cook had been sick for several weeks and had been unable to prepare any of his land for planting. A number of men brought their teams and lists and prepared the land for him. Mr. and Mrs. Cook say that there were 50 mules and horses and eight single-row and three double-row lists in the field at one time. Those performing this neighborly act were: Ray Adams, E. R. Munn, M. L. James, Robert McQuerry, John Benson, Bob Blair, J. L. Means, E. Bartlett, A. B. Hatchell, Hubert Wolforth, and Cecil Spears.

Mrs. Cook was also very much interested in the printing equipment of The Lynn County News. As a mere girl she worked in a country printing office and printed a paper for some time almost without assistance.

T. K. KARD KLUB MEETS

Miss Frankie Wells, was hostess to the T. K. Kard Klub in her attractive home Tuesday evening.

High score was won by Charlotte Barnett.

The club will be entertained next Tuesday night by Miss Allene Taylor and Hazel Stafford as joint hostesses.

Many Planning To Visit Dairy Show

According to reports which are coming into the Tahoka Chamber of Commerce office there will be over 150 Lynn county citizens visit the Panhandle-Plains Dairy Show at Plainview in a body on Thursday, April 10. Some sixty or seventy county citizens visited the show last year and some of those who saw the dairy animals were so well impressed that they purchased while there. Others have purchased pure bred animals since that time.

Every person who is interested in dairying and better dairy stock is invited to join in the party leaving Tahoka Thursday morning, April 10, at about 7:30 o'clock. The trip will do any man good, and to see pure bred dairy stock sell at auction, will perhaps change some one's belief that dairy animals are not worth very much.

County Agent Ray Shaver is a specialist in dairying having specialized in that work at A. & M. College and will be glad to help any one select animals. In fact he wishes to help select all bulls which are intended for use in bull circles in Lynn county. You will not be asked to buy a thing, but you will have an opportunity to see some of the finest dairy stock in Texas and will have a chance to buy it should you so desire.

WRITING CERTIFICATES ARE GIVEN SEVENTH GRADERS

The following have received certificates of excellence in writing during the year in the Seventh grade: Willene Lee, Irma Faye Edwards, Dot Ainsworth, Marie Womack, Geneva Mae Dickson, Elizabeth Crie, Ruth Suddarth, Dama Anglin, Christine Carver, Marie Owens, Eunice Mullins, Cle Francis Powell, Elwayne Redwine, Mary Gene Tippit.

At least twenty other writing papers will be sent this week. The Seventh Grade plans to be 100 per cent before school closes.

THANKS ASSISTANTS

I wish to take this means of publicly thanking all those who assisted in making the track and field division of the County Interscholastic League meet the success that it was. Without the help of my many assistants the many events could not have been handled.

Ray L. Showalter, Director of Athletics.

KEY MAKES STATEMENT CONCERNING CANDIDACY

Contrary to customary practice in announcing my candidacy for the office of tax collector of Lynn county, I shall not preface this article with "I have been so urgently solicited by my friends, etc."

The attraction is the opportunity to serve and at the same time receive remuneration for such service. I am offering myself for the office of tax collector subject to the July primary this year. If I am elected I shall give the best service of which I am capable, ever mindful that I am a servant of the people.

It would be my plan to have no favorites but to conform to the law. Any person is entitled to courteous treatment. Unqualifiedly, I promise to be courteous to every person at all times and to seek to learn your convenience in the matter of tax collecting. I am willing to give a certain number of days in each voting box for the purpose of collecting taxes in order to save you the trouble and expense of making the trip to your county site for such purpose. Such days will be designated before hand to suit the convenience of the tax payers.

May I impress you that I need your vote and that no person could appreciate your support more than I. If, in the past, I have not demonstrated a willingness to be used in any way which is for the upbuilding of my community or my county, then I do not deserve your support.

R. E. KEY.

MORE DIRECTORS SELECTED

C. C. Williams reports that most of the communities of Lynn county have selected the directors of the Lynn County Fair for the current year. Those reported thus far are as follows: New Lynn, R. W. Barton; Three Lakes, W. E. Sikes; T-Bar, J. C. McCauley; Wells, M. L. Taylor; Draw, Mrs. John Berry; Edith, J. T. Owens; New Home, J. R. F. Ratliff; Midway, R. L. Littlepage; Joe Bailey, A. R. Kimbrell; Wilson, Mrs. A. L. Faubion and R. E. Finley; Tahoka, Taylor White, R. E. Shaver, Miss Thelma Greenwade, S. R. Kemp, T. J. Bovell, B. R. Tate, Bill Burleson, and W. O. Thomas.

A meeting of the directors will be called just as soon as the remaining towns and communities send in the names of their directors, to elect officers and lay plans for the fair next fall.

Ruby Wells says that Tahoka has fine prospects of having the best baseball team this summer it has ever had, most of them home boys. He thinks Tahoka is in great need of a ball park.

Confederate Veteran Relates Life's Story During Civil War

(By R. T. BREEDLOVE)

Romance is a fine, big word that is connected in most of our minds with far away places and great personages and events. But in looking to far away places for romance and interesting people we often miss some really interesting people and their stirring experiences. Some of these people live right here in Tahoka, people whose history is as filled with danger and daring as that of any ancient warrior or plumed knight.

It has been my privilege to visit a man of this character several times and I have found him to be a most interesting neighbor, a good conversationalist, witty and congenial, cheerful in spite of his eighty-five years of strenuous and sometimes hard living. His name is A. O. P. Nicholson, and he lives between Judge B. P. Maddox and Mr. Ben King. It will pay any man very greatly to go and visit him occasionally. Mr. Nicholson is blind, practically confined to his room under the care of his watchful and faithful wife, but he is not a shut-in in spirit at all, for he can talk in the most entertaining way about the questions of the day, including politics and religion, which subjects interest him very much.

Having fought through the long war of secession, he likes to tell of the more than twenty battles in which he participated. When war was declared he volunteered and began his service in Ross' Cavalry.

One of the most interesting experiences he tells in connection with his volunteering for service in the Confederate army. His mother was opposed to his going, but when she finally gave her consent, she said: "My son, I don't want to hear of your getting shot in the back. Keep your face to the front."

His mess-mate who served for some time with him told Mr. Nicholson that when he left for the army his mother had said the same to him. Those mothers had the same intrepid, pioneer spirit that made the best soldiers on earth, and that today goes marching on in the hearts of Southern mothers.

One day Mr. Nicholson and his mess-mate were sitting under a tree reading a paper, a rare treat to Confederate soldiers in those days. As they were reading, being absorbed in what was told in the paper, some Yankee sharpshooters got close enough to fire on the two boys, and Perry Knuckles, Mr. Nicholson's close friend and mess-mate, was struck between the shoulders as he sat with his back to the enemy, the bullet passing through his body and making a bulging knot under the skin on his chest. He lived but a few minutes, just long enough to say, "Tell mother how I died."

It was a long way from McKinney,

Texas, where he enlisted to Franklin, Tennessee, where he was born September 3, 1844, but the fortunes of war carried him back to the old home town, where he participated in the Battle of Franklin, part of the time fighting in and around the yard and house where he was born, and where he had played as a small boy. Here his father's business, a brick store, was converted into a hospital and filled with wounded and dying. Truly, romance is no stranger to an old Confederate soldier.

It was during this battle that the commanding officer, Major General Clayborn, called for volunteers to storm Roper's Hill, which was held by about four thousand Yankees. Nobody would volunteer but the First Texas Rangers, a group of oldiers that the Federals had learned to dread because of their uncanny marksmanship, developed in a land that at that time swarmed with wild game. The Confederate brigade, made up of Texans, had about thirty-five hundred men. Hood's army was stationed over behind the hill from the First Texas Rangers, and when the charge up the hill was made, the Federals had to surrender, for, as Mr. Nicholson says, "There was nowhere for them to go". It was either surrender or face those charging Texans, and they preferred to live. The Texan brigade lost about thirteen hundred men while charging up the open slope.

If there is a living man of that brigade of Texans Mr. Nicholson doesn't know it. He would be more than glad to get in touch with others if there are any survivors, I am sure. These old warriors like to talk the old campaigns over and fight the battles again. It has always been a delight to this writer to sit at the feet of these old soldiers and drink in the glamour and romance, the starvation, the glory of the battles, the marches, the danger and the death suffered by the adherents of a losing cause.

During the war he was wounded twice, the first time at the battle of Chickamauga, where, being stationed in an open field while shells were dropping all around him, he was struck in the face by a fragment of rock which flew from a big boulder that was hit by a solid shot. It was a painful and bloody but superficial wound. The shock knocked him unconscious for a while, and when regaining his senses he heard one of his comrades, Lieutenant Billingsley, say, "Nicholson's killed", which was a natural conclusion, the splinter of rock having smashed the bridge of his nose, and the blood filling his eyes and mouth, and covering up all his face. It must have appeared that half his face had been shot away.

The other wound was at Shilo, where ten thousand men were killed or disabled between the hours of ten in the morning and two in the afternoon of a Sunday. His wound here was also received during the shelling of Confederate positions. A fragment of shell entered the front of the left knee, passing through to the back of the leg, where it was removed at the hospital. Six years later a small sharp splinter of bone was taken from the old wound. It was during the battle of Shilo that Grant had one hundred and seventy-five gunboats and transports to help in the attack against him. The Union Army under General Grant was drawn up in a solid square which was charged five times by the fearless Texans before the formation broke. The defeated Yankees swarmed to the gunboats and transports on the river and met the Union officers who stood on the gangplanks and hacked at the panicky soldiers to keep them from running over them and swarming the boats. The Yankees were fed-up again on rebel Texans.

In this battle the Confederates were outnumbered twelve or fifteen to one. General Albert Sidney Johnston was killed. They fought until night, when both withdrew. Had they not suffered the loss of their commanding officer Mr. Nicholson believes they might have defeated the Federals. Perhaps he is right. The Confederate soldier was a remarkable fighter, and was supremely loyal to his superior, especially when that officer was of Johnston's and Jackson's type, whose manhood and courage were a continual inspiration to their soldiers.

Mr. Nicholson tells of going over the old battlefield years afterward and finding that the fire of the Confederate soldiers struck the trees from knee high to six feet high, while that of the Union soldiers ranged from knee high to twenty feet high, a fact which explains the heavy losses of the Union armies in many of the bloody battles of the war. There never have been better marksmen than the American soldiers, and among these the Southerners hold the best records. I have seen the old timers, after the advent of breech loaders, fire a forty-four, stick the shell in the bullet hole, and knock it out at unreasonable distances, which in the interest of my reputation I forbear to approximate.

The smoke of the battle hung in almost motionless air, and the visibility became so poor that it was almost impossible to see ahead at any distance, but on stooping the air was seen to be clear up to about three feet and a half above the ground. One of the officers of the Southern troops gave an order to kneel and fire under the curtain of smoke. Mr. Nicholson says that one could see the brass buttons on the bright blue uniforms of the well dressed Union soldiers. The Confederates took immediate advantage of the situation, and the Union losses were heavy.

Other battles in which he fought are given by Mr. Nicholson as Boston Mountain, Arkansas, also known as Elkhorn and Cross Hollows; Oak Hill, Missouri; Corinth, Holly Springs, and Iuka, Mississippi; Hatcher's Bridge, Thompson Station, and Ewel Springs. Thompson Station, where nine thousand men were killed in nine hours while a pouring rain fell, he says was the hottest battle he was in. If it was worse than Shilo, it must have been some fight.

During this battle a gun big enough to be drawn by eight mules was captured and recaptured five times, remaining in the hands of the Confederates, who on capturing it for the third time, spiked it with a rattail file. This gun seemed to be the center of some particularly vicious fighting.

This huge cannon was presented by the Federal Government to the Daughters of the Confederacy after the war, and was melted down, cast into Crosses of Honor and presented to the Southern soldiers, a fitting end for an engine of destruction, and a promise of other honors he was never to receive no matter how deserving.

When asked to tell of his narrowest escape from death except from the two wounds Mr. Nicholson hesitated for some time, finally giving two instances from among the many battles and adventures of four years of constant campaigning which took him into nearly all the Southern states.

Just before the Battle of Franklin Major General Clayborn called for some young fellow who could not only ride, but who could also take care of himself in an emergency. Mr. Nicholson's captain recommended him for the job which was to go as a courier to General Hood, who was some distance away. The message he carried was one calling on Hood's army to go to the assistance of Clayborn's in the impending ing battle. The paper was sewed in the bottom hem of the young soldier's trousers, a favorite place of his for carrying messages into dangerous territory.

After riding hard nearly all day, he stopped for a drink at a little creek. While lying down drinking he heard: "Hands up, dar. De bottom rail's on top now". And looking up he saw a big black negro in Union army uniform covering him with a pistol, and heard him say he was going to shoot him in a minute. Mr. Nicholson was watching for a chance to get to his horse, and kept talking to the negro, but could not distract his attention.

The story continues like a Wild West book. Just as he had given up all hope of getting away, a shot rang out, and, after a minute a young Confederate lieutenant stepped from behind a big tree and watched the negro Yankee roll into the little creek.

Mr. Nicholson continued with his message to Hood, and succeeded in getting through the lines and in bringing re-enforcements to Clayborn's command in time to win the battle at Franklin.

Another close call occurred during the time he was drafted into espionage service, or rather volunteered. I believe. On one trip with messages, which were also sewed into the bottom hem of his trousers, he and a Lieutenant Garrison were captured by twenty-five Union soldiers, and guarded in a little clearing, inside a woodcutter's hut, just a little one-room affair with no opening except a door. The two were told when being placed in the hut that they would be shot at sunrise next day, and with that threatening certainty in mind, Mr. Nicholson felt around in the dark until he found a weapon he told Lieutenant Garrison he expected to make his escape. Garrison sought to dissuade him, telling him that he would be killed in attempting an escape. "Well", Mr. Nicholson replied, "Better be killed like a man trying to escape, than to be shot like a dog while tied to a tree". But Garrison refused to make the attempt, and presumably was shot at sunrise next morning.

Taking his stand just inside the door and leaping out just as the entry had passed Mr. Nicholson struck with every ounce of strength he possessed, killing him without a sound. He then proceeded to investigate the twenty-four sleeping Yankees and their equipment. He found his own horse, pistols and belts of ammunition and a knife. After this his escape was easy. Garrison stayed helplessly in the hut, had evidently lost his nerve, and with it lost his life.

Despite his long record of service, his heroic sacrifices for his Southland, and his two wounds, this man gets but twenty-five dollars per month as a miserable stipend from the state. It should be said to the everlasting shame of Texas that she lags behind all southern states in paying pensions to the old Confederate soldiers. All the other states pay at least fifty dollars per month.

In 1869 Mr. Nicholson married Miss Annie A. Beakley, who has been a helper and constant inspiration for him from that time. He whimsically says she is still his sweetheart, but I think that under the surface of a pleasant, the old man means every word of it. The years have not been kind to him, but his spirit is as bright and cheerful as that of a youngster of a tenth his age.

These old veterans in Field Gray lie strewn all the way from Bull Run to this good day. Their ranks are thin, and thinning still faster all the while. There can be very few more reunions, and when there are none, the world will be poorer for having lost the most colorful and heroic soldiers of all Southern history, if not of all American history. They lost their battle for their rights, but they won the everlasting admiration of their foes, and they enshrined themselves in the hearts of Southern boys and girls forever.
