Community Dream Becomes A Reality

From one room in the county courthouse to an ultra modern, $116,989.13 building in just seven years is the success story of the Muleshoe Area Public Library which will be dedicated Sunday, April 23, beginning at 2 p.m.

William D. Gooch of Austin, assistant state librarian of the Texas State Library, will give the principal address.

The Rev. J. Frank Peery, of Canyon, former chairman of the Library Board of Trustees, will be the master of ceremonies. Others on the program will be Bailey County Judge Glen Williams; Boy Scout Troop 634; Jeff Smith, vice-president of the Friends of the Library; Joe Harbin, Chairman of the Library Board of Trustees; and Mayor Irvin St. Clair.

During the open house from 2-5 p.m., visiting author Tanner Laine of Lubbock will be present to personally autograph copies of his books. His latest book is "What's In a Name?" and features West Texas postmarks and post offices listed alphabetically with their zip codes and date of establishment plus how they were named. The book takes the reader on a trip to more than 330 West Texas towns including Muleshoe. There are also 53 short stories included in the book.

Laine who is a regional editor of the Lubbock Avalanche-Journal is also author of "Cow Country" and "Campfire Stories." He is a true West Texan who loves his native land and likes to write about it.

During Open House at the library, the Muleshoe Art Association will have an exhibit in the basement of the library. It will feature Western art.

The first library in Muleshoe was established in 1939. It was located in the courthouse by the Muleshoe Study Club and the long since non-existent 1939 Study Club. The first record of a librarian's salary in county employees records was recorded on February 2, 1945. During Judge Cecil Tate's term, the librarian's salary was set at five dollars per month. In 1956, the salary was raised to $30 per month.

In 1963, the public, realizing the deplorable conditions in the one-room library, organized the Friends of the Library Association with the late Mrs. Gilbert Lamb as its first chairman.

The first officers of the Friends of the Library Association included Mrs. T.M. Slemmons as president; J. Frank Peery, first vice-president; David Branson, second vice-president; Mildred Davis, sec-

★ ASCS Deadlines ★

Charles Daniel of the ASCS office in Muleshoe reports that May 1, 1972 is the final date to certify acreages of wheat and barley. If farmers have a wheat allotment and planted no wheat they must certify to a zero acreage if they are participating in the programs. Farms with a barley base must certify to a zero acreage if no barley was planted and the farm is participating in the feed grain program.

Producers who have planted wheat without an allotment must certify this acreage by May 1 to protect feed grain bases.

May 1 is also the deadline to file an intention to leave rye or other small grain standing on set-aside acreage. Any other set-aside acreage must be certified by August 1 (cotton, milo, corn, etc.).

The secretary of agriculture has determined that all of the additional five per cent and 10 per cent set-aside offers of grain sorghum-corn base under Option A and the five per cent set-aside offer under option B have been accepted.

May 14 is the final date that set-aside acres for 1972 can be grazed. Grazing will not be permitted again until October 15, 1972. Harvesting of crops from set-aside is not permitted except for the approved alternate crops.

Farming in a workmanlike manner is in effect again for 1972. The carrying out of all operations normal to production of the crop in this area must be performed to earn program payments. Set-aside acreage will be checked and the farmer will be expected to control weeds, wind erosion, etc.

COTTON TALKS

FROM PLAINS COTTON GROWERS, INC.

"Production, Promotion and People" can be called "the three P's for profit" in the natural fibers industry of West Texas, according to Donald Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lubbock-based Plains Cotton Growers, Inc.

Johnson spoke April 14 in Fort Worth to the 54th annual convention of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce. Theme of the convention was "Economic Opportunities in West Texas" and Johnson's assigned title was "Picking Dollars from Natural Fiber Production."

Noting that the annual farm-level value of natural fiber production in Texas, including cotton lint, cotton seed, wool, mohair and lamb, comes to approximately $1 billion, Johnson said "Our future in this vital industry can be one of stagnancy or growth, depending on what we do about the three P's--Production, Promotion and People."

He went on to say that far more progress has been made in production technology and know-how than in the other two areas, stating "We can produce cotton, wool and mohair as well and as efficiently or more efficiently than any other part of the United States or possibly of the world. It is widely recognized," he said, "that farmers and ranchers in West Texas are among the most progressive in the world, and generally lead the way in the adoption of new techniques and practices for improved production efficiency... and there is little doubt that we will continue to lead the world in this area."

Until recently Johnson said "Promotion" of natural fibers through product development, research and advertising had been seriously neglected, but reported that the natural fiber industry is finally coming alive.

With their own aggressive programs of research, product development and promotion the man-made fiber industry over the past 20 years has wrested huge chunks of textile markets from what Johnson described as a "still slumbering natural fiber industry." But he said "I am happy to report today that our industry has taken up the gauntlet and is now in the trenches with programs of our own combat the very effective selling job by the man-made fiber people."

Johnson noted that world consumption of textile fibers is expected to double over the next 20 years, an increase roughly equivalent to 100 million bales of cotton, and said "Our challenge is to get a share of that increase for natural fibers...and I believe we can compete, and win, in this struggle for markets."

He called attention to the recent upswing in demand for jeans, denims, corduroys and other fabrics which consume a lot of cotton. "The move is back to the natural, away from the artificial," he continued, "and this definite trend is more than just a passing fancy conceived in the minds of sales-hungry fashion designers.

The return to the natural, the rejection of false appearances, and the seeking of truth in what they consider to be a world of counterfeit values is at the heart of our young people's philosophy--and it may well be a philosophy that will find increasing favor both here and abroad."

On the "People" of "Public" factor in natural fiber's future in West Texas Johnson said "I am afraid those of us in agriculture have given too little attention to this subject in the past, yet our very survival is becoming more and more dependent upon what the public thinks about us and the public attitude toward our products."

In addition to the well known effect of public opinion on the passage and administration of federal supply control programs for agriculture, Johnson expressed concern about environmental protection laws and over-zealous products safety regulations ' which penalize all responsible people as the means to protecting a few irresponsibles against themselves. Carried far enough, this trend can stifle all innovation and greatly increase the odds against progress and growth in the production of natural fibers in Texas."

Johnson concluded by saying "We have an excellent start in the first two of the three P's vital to a bountiful harvest from natural fiber production in future years.

PIONEER SEEDS

Sign of Good Breeding

Pioneer brand grain sorghum varieties have bred-in yield potential to help farmers get the most from their good management even in the face of adverse weather, insects, or plant disease. Also, the genetic inheritance of every Pioneer hybrid is unique. Each variety is bred to bring out the special traits necessary for maximum performance in the area where it is to be grown.

Your Pioneer dealer has many varieties bred to help farmers on the Plains turn in top yields. Some of these varieties are:

Pioneer Brand 820: shows its potential on irrigated land — performs well under stress — excellent standability — MDM resistant — 144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 828: outstanding yielder — stands and threshes well even after freeze or snow — hard grain holds quality — MDM resistant — 144-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 846: excellent drouth resistance — consistent high yields — MDM resistant — 134-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 833: yields along with 820 — excellent thresher — 140-day maturity

Pioneer Brand 8417: new yellow endosperm variety — full, open heads — good standability — easy thresher — MDM resistant — 135-day maturity

Days to maturity is an averaged figure, which is affected by weather and other variables.

GOOD YEAR OR BAD YEAR, YOU'RE BETTER OFF WITH PIONEER.

R.L. SCOTT, Muleshoe, planted three Pioneer grain sorghum hybrids and reported outstanding yields with each, in spite of below normal temperatures at planting time. Pioneer brand 828 averaged 6600 pounds per acre, 820 yielded an average of 6800 and 845 produced 5800 pounds. Mr. Scott likes the "Standability, yield and easy threshing" of Pioneer hybrids and plans to plant them again this year.

Market Report

COLLEGE STATION--Fresh asparagus is a sign of spring and this vegetable is now more plentiful, according to Houston consumer marketing specialist Mrs. Gwendolyne Clyatt.

"Look for moderate price tags on cabbage, carrots, celery, dry yellow onions and cooking greens," Mrs. Clyatt, who works for the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, said.

Strawberries add choice and color to fruit baskets. Grapefruit and oranges hold good choices of citrus items. Apples, bananas, tangerines, lemons and pineapples are other fruit choices.

Mrs. Clyatt said that eggs, fryers and turkeys are available at prices that should satisfy the budget-conscious food shopper. These products will remain food bargains. The egg supply continues to be large and egg prices will stay low.

"There will most likely be some retail specials on eggs during the coming week to provide some good bargains in this popular protein food," Mrs. Clyatt said.

Milk and cheese continue to be popular stand-bys.

"Quality and food values remain so consistently high that sometimes we don't realize what a bargain we do get when we put milk and cheese in our market basket," she said.

Beef prices are about the same as last week. There are fewer beef cuts in the ads, but features will be found on whole briskets, chuck steaks, Boston roll roasts, standing rib roasts, ground beef and beef liver.

Several pork cuts are featured this week, but these are scattered. They include loins cut into chops and boneless Boston butt roasts. Smoked hams of all kinds, bacon, frankfurters and sausage are also being featured.

"Remember," Mrs. Clyatt said, "a curing solution--salt and water--is injected into hams to produce their familiar color and flavor. Most or all of this added moisture is subsequently lost during the curing and smoking process."

Poor nutrition linked to family life style.

Bookmobile News

by Lorene Sooter

The patrons of the High Plains Bookmobile from the four counties Parmer, Cochran, Lamb and Bailey have reason to be proud. The Bookmobile has always had the latest books and reading material on the shelves for them for eight years as of April 16, 1972.

Eight years ago, April 16, 1964, the Bookmobile began its 38 scheduled stops. These are made every three weeks.

Last year the Bookmobile circulated 52,887 books, but if the patrons continue to check out books in 1972 as they have begun to do they will break all records. In fact, last month, March 1972, the Bookmobile Librarians circulated 5530 books which exceeds any month since the Bookmobile started its rural service in 1964.

Remember to tour the Bookmobile at the Dedication of the Muleshoe Library on April 23. We are very proud of the new facilities the Muleshoe people have provided for us.

Sew For The Men In Your Life

COLLEGE STATION--Everything's just sew-sew this spring.

The modern woman is increasing the amount of sewing she does for the men in her life.

"Ties, shirts, pants and even dress jackets are being sewn," noted Roxanne Schnorr, clothing specialist at Texas A&M University. "The selection of just the right fabric is crucial for a successful garment to please men. Popular fabrics are as important as popular styles."

Whatever a man wears in 1972 needs texture. The fabric must have a sense of touch (in other words--feel appeal).

Select linen, corduroy and velvet in pale, neutral tones for the country homespun look. Fabrics with slubs and nubs add to the rugged effect.

Patterns are everywhere, but more subdued in spring fashion fabrics. Tiny geometrics, pattern on pattern and neat repeats come to the sewing counters. Twills, checks, herringbones and plaids provide suitable choices for jacket, sport pant and tailored slack patterns.

Cool, pale ice cream colors are the big scoop for dress shirts--pistachio, strawberry, butter pecan and boysenberry blue. Vanilla, too, looks fantastic in textured white on whites in subtle patterns.

"If you've decided on a sport shirt pattern, make it in the flora and fauna prints--bold in color and bold in pattern," the specialist suggested.

Really have the sewing fever? Then surprise him with the third or fourth shirt made in a smooth, shiny, glazed plisse' or seersucker. It's a welcome switch from the popular, rough, rugged texture.

"Don't forget to pick up emblems, those special extras, before paying your bill," Miss Schnorr reminded. "Animal, tree and flower motifs spice up the youthful, casual outfits."

So whether the man in your life is eight or 80, today's fabrics and patterns provide unlimited choice for hours of happy man sewing.

There are many ways to "stretch" a meat loaf. Many of these "stretchers" will also add flavor and good nutrition to this popular family dish. For instance, an egg or dry milk powder add high-quality protein, tomatoes will add Vitamin A and Vitamin C, chopped parsley Vitamin A, and wheat germ (which can be used instead of bread crumbs) will add important B Vitamins as well as iron.

STATE CAPITAL Highlights AND Sidelights

by Bill Boykin

TEXAS PRESS ASSOCIATION

AUSTIN, Tex.--An ancient legal dispute involving Texas' sovereignty over its tidelands is in court again.

The U.S. Justice Department has filed a suit against Texas, challenging the state's regulation of fishing within the farthermost two leagues (six marleague (nine-marine-mile) boundary.

Atty. Gen. Crawford Martin has requested President Nixon to intervene in the latest federal attack.

The Attorney General further requested an opportunity for the state to present its position to the State Department and Justice Department. The state, he noted in a letter to Nixon, was not notified prior to filing of the action.

Martin claimed the new action is contrary to the position taken by the Eisenhower-Nixon administration in 1953 and 1957.

He submitted to the President excerpts from the state's brief filed in the original boundary suit which was decided in Texas' favor by the U.S. Supreme Court in 1958. He also included a 1957 letter from the late President Dwight D. Eisenhower to then-Gov. Price Daniel. Eisenhower expressed the opinion that Texas should "have the right to explore and exploit the submerged lands extending seaward of (its) coastline for a distance of three marine leagues into the Gulf of Mexico."

Martin urged Nixon to inform him if his position as president is the same as that expressed by President Eisenhower.

COURT REVISION URGED--A Supreme Court justice and president of the Texas Civil Judicial Council says it's time the legislature submits to voters a constitutional amendment on judiciary reform.

Associate Justice Tom Reavley said Texans are demanding "major surgery' on the court SYSTEM. Suggested Reavley:

*The State Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals should be merged into a single court of last resort.

*Fourteen Courts of Civil Appeals should be given jurisdiction over criminal as well as civil cases.

*There should be fewer levels of lower courts with less overlapping jurisdiction.

*Appeal procedure should be "simpler and speedier."

*Judges and cases should be transferred to match resources with needs in keeping with better management of the court system.

The 63rd Legislature, Reavley said, should be asked next year to submit the constitutional amendment proposing court reorganization and modernization.

SPECIAL TRAINING APPROVED--The State Board of Education approved contracts for special training next school year of 2,611 children in non-profit schools.

Largest single group involved is the trainable mentally retarded category, with 1,887 youngsters.

Pupils, from pre-school age through high school level, will attend 12 schools operated under the Texas Department of Mental Health and Mental Retardation and 35 independent non-public schools.

The State Board of Education also reviewed a $1.1 million research program supported by 90 per cent federal and 10 per cent local funds.

Board members voted to uphold orders of Education Commissioner J.W. Edgar sustaining local school board "haircut rules" and dress codes.

COURTS SPEAK--The Court of Criminal Appeals refused to go along with an argument that the aggravated assault law discriminated against men--and concluded it's still worse for a man to hit a woman than the other way around.

Texas Supreme Court held a county judge can't prevent a township incorporation election if 200 residents present the required petition. The decision upheld an Athens district judge and the Tyler Court of Civil Appeals.

The High Court sustained lower courts and refused to knock out of operation an Houston legal aid service for the poor in spite of objections to it by some lawyers who claimed it is costing them money.

APPOINTMENTS--James W. (Jack) Ward of Amarillo has been named by Gov. Preston Smith as a member of the Texas Mass Transportation Commission for a six-year term.

Smith also named eight to the Real Estate Research Advisory Committee. They are Joe W. Loper of San Antonio, Glenn W. Justice of Dallas, Mrs. Katherine Boyd of Arlington, Dr. Walstein Smith Jr. of Waco, John A. Worley of Dallas, George O. Yamini of Dallas, Julio S. Laguarta of Houston and R.L. Pardue of Houston.

HEALTH STUDY LAUNCHED--State, local and federal health officials this week began an intensive study to determine if health hazards exist for workers in the American Smelting and Refining Company plant in being sought at Balch Springs (Dallas County) and Houston.

The attorney general is being asked for an opinion interpreting the state's nepotism law governing state officials and legislators hiring each others relative in view of new disclosures.

Zack Fisher of Memphis is the assistant state campaign manager for Sen. John Tower.

WATSON AT HELICOPTER COURSE...Major Howard Watson, right, receives some details of a flight plan from Major Douglas Hullum, left, at a UHI (Huey) transition/qualification course which was conducted at Austin. Major Watson is a member of the Guard's 36th Brigade where he is assigned as a pilot. During the course Watson had 24 hours of classroom assignments and more than 20 flying hours.

El Paso.

Air samples will be taken within the plant to discover possible toxic materials, and blood and urine samples will be taken from about 800 employees.

The survey will complement a comprehensive health study to evaluate lead hazards in the plant vicinity which was initiated by local health officials several weeks ago in cooperation with the State Health department, A.S.R.C. is cooperating in the survey.

PARTIES SLOW--Secretary of State Bob Bullock complained about early response to his request that county political party officers submit early estimates of May primary election expenses.

Bullock said a week after he asked for the estimates only 99 (of 254) counties were represented in replies. He warned again no state funds will be allocated to local parties until estimated expenditures are submitted on prescribed forms.

Some county Chairmen explained they were taking their time since the new state primary financing act makes them responsible for inaccuracies in their figures.

JUNE I PUPIL TRANSFER DEADLINE--Texas Education Agency has held parents who want to transfer their children from their home school to a nearby district must submit requests by June 1.

Once approved by the receiving school board, the request must also be cleared by T.E.A. State approval is a term of a U.S. District Court order filed in Tyler relating to desegregation of schools. Under the order, transfers are not to be premitted to reduce or impede desegregation or encourage discrimination.

SHORT SNORTS

Texas cities and counties would get about $202 million this year under a federal revenue-sharing bill before a U.S. House committee.

College teachers in a meeting here endorsed the idea of collective bargaining rights for public employees.

Likely date for the next special session of the legislature on appropriations and taxation appears to be the week of June 12.

The State Treasury, declares Treasurer Jesse James, had a greater net return on its time deposit interest "than any billion dollar bank in Texas."

Texas National Guard units have reached the highest rating level in 10 years, according to Adjutant General Ross Ayers.

New state bank charters are

Steve Spitler, Allen FFA, son of Mr. and Mrs. O.D. Spitler of Allen, Okla., and grandson of Mrs. Frankie Black of Muleshoe, exhibited the grand champion steer at the Pontotoc County Spring Fat Livestock Show in Ada, Okla. The steer was one half Limousine, one fourth Hereford and one fourth Charolais. The grand champion steer was bred by Mr. and Mrs. Carlton Corbin, Stoneybroke Ranch, located at Fittstown, Okla.

The feeding period began with a weigh-in of the steers in Sept. The steers then were fed 150 days. Then in Feb., the steers were brought back and weighed to determine the rate of gain. This steer weighed in 376 lbs. and after 150 days of feeding, the steer weighed 895 lbs., setting its rate of gain to 3.46 lbs. a day.

The steer was then shown in the on-foot judging. This steer placed second in his division.

The next step toward determining the grand champion steer was to slaughter the calves.

The steer shown by Spitler graded a Good, had a 14.3 inch rib-eye with .1 inch of back fat.

ond vice-president; and Opal Boothe, treasurer.

In 1964, the inter-county relations of FLA prepared for the bookmobile program. It was headed by Joe Harbin and assisted by the Chamber of Commerce. The Bailey County Commissioners, Lloyd Stephens, R.P. McCall, Bill Eubanks and Ike Stinson, approved the Bookmobile Program on February 11, 1964, and were followed by the county courts of Parmer, Cochran and Lamb counties.

The bookmobile now makes stops at 30 schools and communities and is housed at the new library. Bookmobile librarians is Mrs. Joe Sooter and driver is Mrs. Bobby Henderson.

Mrs. Georgia Pena was the first Bookmobile Librarians.

Soon after the Bookmobile program was begun, citizens were talking about a permanent library, and plans began to form. Many money making projects were held, headed by various local civic clubs and individuals. The first five businessmen to donate $100 to the permanent library were presented life memberships. They were Fred Johnson, Charles Lenau, Pat Bobo, Sam Fox and June Wagnon.

On March 13, 1964, a $15,000 building was purchased which had formerly housed an electrical company. The deed was signed by Pat R. Bobo, Rev. Peery, Bobby Airhart, Roald Johnson, Roy Davis, Lester Howard and Mrs. T.M. Slemmons.

The library was opened on March 10, 1964, when Mrs. Bernis Camp, the present librarian, was hired. Only 1,065 books were moved from the courthouse where the late Mrs. E.R. Wright was librarian for 22 years. Now over 22,000 books are in the collection. 32,802 books were circulated last year. This represents an average of 3.3 books per person in Bailey County.

On September 10, 1968, the citizens of Muleshoe and Bailey County passed a $40,000 bond issue to construct a new public library. Matching funds of $50,000 were received from the state.

The ground was not broken until May of 1971 when Mayor Irvin St. Clair and Anne Camp officially performed ground breaking ceremonies. Assisting with the ceremonies were Mrs. L.B. Hall, Friends of the Library president and member of the building committee; Joe Harbin, Muleshoe Area Public Library vice-chairman; Jeff Smith, FOL vice-president; and David Sudduth, building committee chairman.

Four lots were purchased for the building of the new library. Bids for the construction of the octagon-shaped structure were opened at 2 p.m. on Tuesday, February 16, 1971 with the City Council approving the negotiated bid of $110,227 from Lubbock contractor Jerry Gailey. Architect of the new library was Bill Cantrell of Lubbock. Library consultant was Ray Janeway, head of the Texas Tech Library.

The council also approved the low bid of $10,691.90. It was given by the Library Bureau of Dallas for equipment. Although over $10,000 was alloted for equipment and furnishings this still was not nearly enough to completely furnish the new library.

This is when the whole community, local civic clubs, sororities and Friends of the Library members came out in full strength to help raise money to furnish the new library.

Since 1964, over $25,000 has been raised by the FOL through individuals, organizations and businesses. Most of this went for building payments, utilities and repairs until public support through the city was increased. Of this, $10,000 was given to purchase memorial books. The avarage donation was $5.

Last year, the FOL, under the president, Mrs. L.B. HAll, raised nearly $5,000 to help pay for the library furnishings for the new building.

Many other individuals also contributed to the library in many different ways.

In October of last year, Epsilon Sigma Alpha Sorority along with the Muleshoe Young Homemakers and the Progress Home Demonstration Club held a huge, city-wide garage sale downtown. It made over $500 all of which, was contributed to the library for furnishings.

Other sororities and clubs helped raise money for the library. Individuals donated from as much as $1,000 to as little as seven cents to the library.

Finally, on December 15, 1971, a community dream became a reality with the opening of the doors to the brand new Muleshoe Area Public Library.

The 6,000 square foot building includes a basement and a patio which can be used for meetings. Mrs. Camp and her assistant, Mrs. Ted Millsap, keep the library open 40 hours a week.

Some of the many services of the library includes: over 22,000 books; filmstrips; records; record player that can be used by the blind; a complete recording of the Bible; books featuring large type that can be loaned out to the aged or other people who have trouble reading. The library loans books to local kindergartens. Books are also sent to the hospital and the nursing home; and books can be secured through the inter-library loan service of the Texas Library Network.

On Sunday, this new building will be dedicated and it is only through the efforts of all of the citizens of Bailey County that Muleshoe can now boast a new library. The public is urged to attend the dedication and open house and view the library that belongs to them.

It was announced to the board that the Annual School Board Workshop will be held at Texas Tech University on May 3, 1972 at 1 p.m.

The report on school enrollment at the end of the fifth six weeks period, April 14, 1972, was 92 less than at the corresponding date last year.

Quotes and bids for an activity bus were studied and discussed but no action was taken. The board will wait for more firm bids before action will be taken.

The board approved a request to have all teachers attend a guided tour and orientation meeting at Region 17 Educational Service Center on the In-Service Training day scheduled for May 30, 1972.

The board of trustees also approved and certified the Superintendent of Schools to represent the local school district on the Joint Committee, Educational Service Center, Region 17, Lubbock.

Provided funds become available under Title I Regular and Title I Migrant ESEA, and/or enough resignations are received, the board gave approval to employ the following personnel who joined the faculty at mid-term this year: Mrs. Sandra Madden, reading station, Richland Hills; Mrs. Sarah Dunaway, third grade, Mary DeShazo; Mrs. Mary Ellen Bennett, reading station, Mary DeShazo; Mrs. Mike Wilcoxson, reading station, Junior High; and Mrs. Justine Parker, special education, Junior High. Contracts cannot be offered until the above mention funds have been allocated and confirmed. The board re-hired Mrs. Nancy Hoover, choir director, at Junior High and High School.

The annual requisition for State Textbooks was approved. The Muleshoe Schools are charged with 26,338 textbooks for grades K-12. The cost to the State for these books is $79,801.08.

The board studied and discussed the budget for the 1972-73 school year. This study included County and School District Economic Index, salaries, and increasing cost of utilities, supplies and maintenance.

The annual projected plan for Vocational Education was studied. This is required each year by Vocational Division, Texas Education Agency.

The "Drug Abuse and Crime Prevention" programs that will be presented in the junior and senior high schools was discussed and studied.

The board's next regular meeting will be Monday, May 15, at 8 p.m.

CONGRESSMAN

Bob Price

18th Congressional District

This week I introduced legislation to amend the Occupational Safety and Health Act of 1970, to relieve small business firms and farms from certain enforcement procedures and requirements which have caused unnecessary hardships. My bill would exempt from the law employers with fewer than 25 employees, both agricultural and non agricultural. For those businesses having more than one plant or establishment, the 25 employee limit would apply to each unit of the business rather than the total number of employees of that company.

In addition, my bill would make numerous other changes in the existing law such as requiring the Secretary of Labor to assist employers in numerous ways to familiarize them with the requirements of the law and to aid them in meeting compliance requirements. Also, employers would be compensated for expenses incurred in having to comply, initially, with one rule, and then having to comply with a different one as a result of changes in administrative procedures. The bill would also relieve employers from absolute liability provisions of the act under certain specified conditions.

It is my belief that we must be concerned about the health and safety of American workers in industry and business, but we cannot enact legislation so restrictive and burdensome in its enforcement such that the "cure" becomes worse than the "ailment." To place the same demands upon a small business or farmer that are required of corporations employing thousands is both unrealistic and unreasonable.

In separate letters to Secretary of Agriculture Earl Butz, Administrator of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service, Kenneth Frick, and Comptroller General of the United States Elmer B. Staats, I have requested that the decision to phase out the shrub control program of the Rural Environmental Assistance Program be reconsidered.

A recent General Accounting Office report has alleged that shrub control funds have been used for purposes other than for controlling undesirable vegetation. While this program may need to be restructured to avoid misuse of the funds in those areas where shrub vegetation is not a serious problem, nevertheless, I believe it is of vital necessity to much of the Northwest Texas region. The control of mesquite brush with the aid of REAP funds often means the difference between productive grazing land and wasteland.

I have written Senator Russell Long, Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee, to furnish him with a copy of a General Accounting Office investigation regarding welfare statistics made at my request.

Senator Long's committee is presently holding hearings on the Family Assistance Bill which would increase our welfare rolls from 14 million to 25 million persons.

The GAO report has uncovered numerous errors in statements about welfare programs made in a pamphlet entitled, "Welfare Myths vs. Facts" distributed by the Department of Health, Education and Welfare.

I believe this information will be helpful to Senator Long and his Committee not to be taken in by HEW officials who are attempting to promote legislation that would put millions of additional people on welfare and would force taxes to be raised even higher.

"Quality education is the key to our children's future."

"It is unfortunate, that the prospects for better education for our children should be placed within the emotional cloud of the bussing issue. I am opposed to massive, forced bussing for the purpose of reaching an arbitrary and artificial balance of the races. The differences in learning ability are primarily formed in the home, not in the school.

"I do not believe that bussing can materially improve the quality of education for any child in Texas. If I did believe that, I perhaps could support bussing. The types of school bussing that have been ordered in some cities pose an egregious threat to our schools. It is an economic Pandora's Box.

"My position, then, favors expenditures that promote equal education within our existing public schools rather than leaving inferior schools as they are and sending children to them from better schools. I will be the first to concede that every school in Texas is not equal insofar as quality of instruction is concerned.

It is our resources — money, teachers, and curricula — that must be shifted and given equal division if we are to have an equitable educational system for all our children."

Dear Gabby

Dear Gabby,
I have a problem. There is a boy I like and he said he liked me. He tells the other boys he likes me, but he hasn't called me or anything like that. I talk to him but what else can I do? He's liked me about four weeks. What can I do?
Signed, Upset

Upset,
Just keep talking to him, and be patient. I believe if he likes you as much as he says he does, he'll call you or take some other action.

Dear Gabby,
What should you do if you have this crush on this guy, but he likes someone else?
Signed, Anxious

Anxious,
I believe you should find yourself another guy, or find some way to turn him ON.

Dear Gabby,
I like this boy, but I'm not sure he likes me. He acts like he does some of the time, but he doesn't at other times. I'm sort of chubby, and I guess he doesn't notice me. I like him alot, but how can I get him to like me? Oh I'm going on a diet, but what else can I do?
Signed, Fat and Hopeless

Fat and Hopeless,
Go on that diet, and wear clothing attractive to your figure. Make sure you always look your best. Remember, it's not only looks that count, it's mainly your personality.

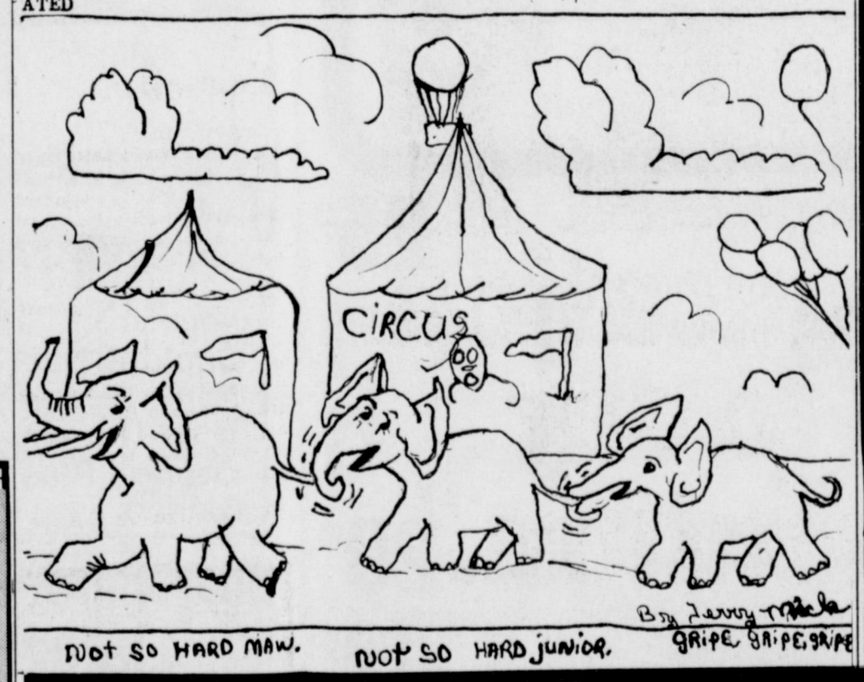

Dear Gabby,
How do you get a guy's attention?
Signed, Worried

Worried,
Look as attractive as possible at all times. Make sure you mind your manners and improve your personality. Always smile, be cheerful, and talk to him sweetly.
