Rabies Confirmed In Mitchell County

The first confirmed case of rabies in Mitchell County this year was reported Monday by Dr. Nancy Bozeman, local veterinarian. Since the beginning of 1982, Mitchell County has seen no cases of rabies up until now.

Surrounding areas have reported several outbreaks of rabies. Sweetwater reported two rabid skunks and a cat. Scurry County reported four cases, and Sterling County had three occurrences of rabies.

The incident which confirmed a rabies case in Mitchell County occurred Saturday on the Byrne Ranch in the Landers Community, in the southeast corner of Mitchell County. Mrs. Byrne and her family were eating breakfast when they heard their poodle yelping and could smell a strong skunk odor. They went to the window and saw the poodle and skunk "scrapping" in the front yard. They were alarmed because usually a skunk is not bold enough to fight a dog; they run from dogs.

Mrs. Byrne's son shot the skunk and they took it to the veterinarian. Dr. Bozeman said that rabies was the probable cause of the attack. The head was sent to the Abilene Health District office where it was confirmed that the skunk had been infected with rabies. Kay Safer of the Health District office gave some advice for any other suspected cases of rabid animals.

"First, we advise that the exposed animal(s) be put to sleep; but, this is not enforced. If an animal was currently vaccinated, within the year, it would be wise and safe to give the animal a booster shot and leash and confine the animal for three months. If the inoculation was not given within the year, the quarantine period needs to be at least six months. If the animal was never vaccinated, the safest thing to do is to put the animal to sleep to prevent further spread and further pain to the animal.

Rabies is an acute infectious disease. If it spreads, rabies can cause serious disorders of the nervous system.

An animal may have one of two different types of rabies: furious rabies in which the infected animal may become overly aggressive and want to bite any

City May Purchase New Fire Truck

Colorado City water users will begin paying an extra dollar for water as soon as an ordinance to that effect is drawn up by City Attorney Pete McKinney and passed by the city council.

The dollar is earmarked for the purchase of a new fire truck to replace a 1955 Seagraves pumper. After 1985, Colorado City's fire insurance will go up, unless a new pumper is added to the present fire-fighting equipment.

Several alternatives were presented to the council by City Manager Rick Crowley, including saving the money which will accrue until sufficient funds are available to buy the pumper; or purchasing under a lease purchase agreement. Or, he said, buying now and using $15,000 the City has on hand for a down payment and borrowing the balance from a local bank.

In any case, the city will begin collecting a dollar a month from 2,203 water users to do one of the three things.

City Manager Crowley made it clear that this was not the last raise in rates that water and garbage users would have to face. The improvements to the sewer plant may be paid from this source.

Lee Head of Fort Worth, an engineer with Freese & Nichols, Inc., Fort Worth engineering firm, told the council about three methods of solving the City's sewage disposal crunch.

1. Build a new plant. This would cost a little over $1 million, he said, and would produce treated sewage of a quality which could be discharged directly into the river.

2. Renovate the pre-

J.P. Post Remains Vacant

No action was taken concerning the vacancy of Precinct 1 justice of the peace during a regular slated commissioners court meeting Monday afternoon.

Commissioners discussed the possibility of appointing an interim JP that would serve out the term of deceased JP Henry Doss. They also discussed the contingency of leaving things as they currently are, with the other JPs of the county filling in and covering Precinct 1.

After a lengthy session, they agreed to table the matter until a later date. Although the matter was not settled, the commissioners decided that if a person was interested in the position, Judge Bill Carter would accept a written application and it would be reviewed by the commissioners.

In other business of the meeting, Henry Hoyle of Loraine requested assistance from the commissioners in a diverting of water from his land. He said the soil conservation service had built a waterway into his land in 1952, noting that until two years ago, he had never had any problems with the drainage of the water. He said it now flowed on both sides of the waterway, backing up into his fields and causing serious repercussions. He attributed the malfunction of the waterway to commissioner of Precinct 4, Billy Preston. He said Preston had built a dam and that was the only reason for the problem.

Preston said that he had no choice but build the road up to protect

15% Reduction Necessary

Certify Acres Now At ASCS

The final mandatory planting date is June 20 for cotton and grain sorghum and Mitchell County farmers have 15 days after that to report prevented planted acres to the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service (ASCS) office.

ASCS Executive Director Don Stewart said that farmers interested in taking care of their business at the ASCS office should be keeping in mind reporting failed acres, prevented planting acres and certification.

Stewart expressed his concern that some farmers are still not aware of the requirement that they "must reduce their planting by 15 percent in order to be eligible for program benefits."

"I feel that some are going to have to plow up some cotton because they've exceeded their 85 percent permitted acres," Stewart said.

"I would advise them to certify as quickly as possible," he said. "One reason is to avoid the last minute rush but the most important reason is that if there should be a problem of overplanting they might want to destroy the excess crop back to the permitted acres."

"Also, they need to report any failed acres for history credit," the ASCS executive director said.

Failed acres would be hailed out, washed or blown away, or any natural disaster.

Stewart added that conserving acres, the 15 percent of cropland that is not planted in cash crops this year, can be used for home gardens, or planted in peas or haygrazer and grazed after September 1.

Planting within the 85 percent figure will entitle farmers to take advantage of commodity credit loans and deficiency payments which "with our grade of cotton brings 50 to 52 cents if they should have to place it in the loan and with the deficiency payment and loan rate that means our cotton should earn a minimum of 60 cents per pound for the cotton produced," he explained.

New Principal Hired For Middle School

CISD board of trustees spent the better part of an hour in executive session when they met Monday night interviewing a candidate, James McLean, for the position of Principal of CMS.

Following the executive session, the trustees voted to employ McLean as principal for the 1982-83 school year. McLean has 19 years of teaching experience with his last position as high school principal at Riviera ISD. Seven new appointments were made.

The board also approved resignations from Kimberly Wernicke, fifth grade teacher; Becky Lewis, fourth grade teacher; Trina Taylor, music teacher; Deborah Blair, physical education teacher and Ronnie Blair, industrial arts teacher.

Donna Cook, high school counselor, addressed the board with a report of the TABS testing at CISD schools for third, fifth and ninth grades.

The testing as compared to last year's testing showed a slight decline in scores, stated Mrs. Cook. "This could be," noted Charlie Uselton, superintendent, "due to the fact that the state has changed some of the policies as to who would be taking the test."

He said that he felt if it were the same group of kids taking the test, then the results would have been the same, if not better.

Data will not be available until August to check to see how Colorado City did on a regional or state level, but in the years past, Colorado City's scores showed to be a little under the other regions. Uselton said that several factors had to be considered before reaching a conclusion, such as student body makeup, ethnic breakdown, etc.

Tornado Siren Sounded Here

Local residents were alerted Friday night when the fire alarm sounded a long siren blast, advising persons to take shelter, because a tornado had been spotted in the area.

Although there were numerous reports of tornados all over the county, only two were verified by the National Weather Service out of Abilene. The two picked up on radar were north of Colorado City; one at Hermleigh and one at Ira. Both were reported to be heading southeast.

Rick Crowley, civil defense coordinator, instructed the Volunteer Fire Department to sound the siren at 6:40 p.m., after he was advised by the weather service of the tornado. The alarm was again sounded (three short whistles) at 7:50 p.m. to discontinue the alert.

Mitchell County was kept under a severe thunderstorm watch until 10:30 p.m., stated Crowley.

The Colorado City Police Department received several reports of hail, some estimated to be golf ball size.

Crowley said that in the event of threatening weather, persons should tune in with Channel 6 and KVMC Radio Station for weather broadcasts.

He stated that he would like to discourage persons from phoning the CCPD for information, as the lines need to be kept open for emergency reports.

"The continuous sounding of the fire siren is the warning signal that a tornado has been sighted and confirmed and persons are to take shelter. Three short blasts will indicate when the immediate danger is over," stated Crowley.

City Gets Bigger Check

Colorado City has received a check for $9,411.32 as its share of the statewide sales tax. This is a 28 percent increase over last year's check for $7,300 in June.

City Manager Rick Crowley said that the fact that it's up is encouraging.

"There are a number of reasons it could be up," Crowley said. "Business could be selling more things, so it could be a positive indicator of business. It could be due to inflation, as the cost of items is greater than

Mrs. Cook reported that in some areas we were high and some areas showed weaknesses, but with all the three tests; reading, arithmetic and writing, overall the scores were down.

Useton said that TABS results are useful in long-range planning. He said they point out the strengths and weaknesses of the curriculum and they present ideas as to where we have deficiencies and where improvement should be made. Useton said that next year's test results will be the key, as students who were tested last year in third grade, will be tested next year in the fifth grade.

The board approved the migrant and Title I applications. The migrant program is the same as the previous year, with Region 14 Education Service Center for a migrant program.

The Title I application, approved by the trustees, has a new title Standard Application System; Chapter II block grants.

Three board policies were discussed and they agreed to keep the school board policy concerning student insurance with Keystone Insurance Company. Useton noted that the insurance premiums had increased due to the fact the company had paid out 117 percent in claims in CISD.

The increase will be from $15 to $20 for at school coverage, from $37 to $48 for 24 hour coverage and from $50 to $55 for football insurance coverage.

The board also amended a policy updating the school immunization requirements as adopted by the Texas Board of Health.

The final policy reviewed was concerning the teacher retirement benefits. The board added a stipulation to the policy that an employee have six years of experience with CISD before being eligible for Colorado ISD Accumulative Leave Benefits.

In several past board meetings, the trustees discussed theft insurance and Monday night they voted to take coverage out with Ratliff Insurance Company.

Insurance selected was mercantile Open Stock Policy with a $100 deductible at a cost of $1,235, giving the school $100,000 theft coverage.

Mac Morris, president of the board, appointed Eddie Piland to be the 1982 TABS delegate and attend the annual assembly in San Antonio on October 2-4. His alternate named was Joe Kirschbaum.

The board then approved the ESC Media Commitments for 1982-83. Useton stated that the ESC supplied the school with audio visuals, films and film strips, adding that there was a slight increase in cost, but it was done state wide.

The increase from 1982's $1,321.58 will be $263.16 for the new school year for the regional media services, added Useton.

The board approved the advertising for the sale of three Chevrolet school buses; a 1963 bus used to carry instruments for the band, 1966 bus number 12 and 1968 bus number 10.

Useton reported to the board of trustees on the new aluminum bleachers to be placed on the home side of Wolf Stadium. He said they were ordered from Southern Bleacher Company in Graham and cost $22,374. He said two portable bleachers for the CHS tennis courts were also ordered and cost $1,260.

The final item of the meeting was a review of the school budget which the board approved.

Principal Resigns

Loraine Students Do Well In TABS Tests

Acceptance of Principal Mike Hartman's resignation, review of TABS testing results and a decision to continue with the band program were major items on the Loraine school board's agenda for Monday night's meeting.

Hartman, who has been Loraine principal for the past five years, has accepted the job of high school principal at Bronte. "The opportunity came up and I just couldn't turn it down," he said as he explained that he will be working with the superintendent closely with the intention of moving up to that position in two years when the present superintendent retires.

"It was a hard decision to make, mainly because we've enjoyed our life here in Loraine and feel we have a good school system here," he said. Hartman and his wife, Velva, have twin boys, Kirby and Cody, who will be in the seventh grade this fall, and a 15-year-old daughter, Kimberly.

Hartman cautioned against comparing one year's Texas Assessment of Basic Skills (TABS) test results from year to year because "you have a complete different set of kids each year." He did say that overall the Loraine students are improving.

"They are steadily coming up and the reading grades are up considerably. We're just beginning to push our math skills," Hartman explained and added that some schools teach just for the objectives but "we don't do that here in Loraine."

Nineteen third graders were tested, fifteen fifth grade students and nineteen ninth graders. Subject areas tested were math, reading and writing. Also, some students were tested who failed to pass the test last year, Hartman said. "This list includes some who will never master the skills tested," he said.

Third graders had trouble with ordering whole numbers as only 37 percent mastered that concept. They also experienced difficulty with getting the main idea when reading a sample selection as 63 percent mastered that skill. Their handwriting was 100 percent acceptable.

Fifth graders failed at identifying geometric terms, only seven percent passing the mastery level. They also had trouble with dividing whole numbers, 87 percent, solving word problems, 87 percent, identifying equivalent fractions, 73 percent and ordering whole numbers, 87 percent.

Distinguishing facts from non-facts, drawing conclusions and predicting outcomes were reading skills which gave fifth graders trouble and the handwriting of 27 percent of the 15 was hard to read, according to the report.

Totals or a composite for each area was given for ninth graders. Of the total 19 tests, 74 percent mastered math, 78 percent were skilled in reading and 63 percent could master the writing skills tested.

"It could be better but we'll never get to 100 percent, even though we try," Hartman said.

He explained that the band program at Loraine has been undergoing a review and "after a two or three month's discussion, it's the concensus of the school board and administration that we want to strive to keep it."

Interest had lagged, he said, and some of the band students had dropped out, "but I'm presently looking for a good band teacher. I've been talking to someone that I think will be good."

Another interesting matter on the agenda was information that the Loraine average daily attendance (ADA) was at a high level for the past year at 94.77.

"Our enrollment is down but the percentage is up," Hartman said. "We've had a drop in enrollment of from eight to 10 students each year for the past few years but the percentage of attendance is good. It's above Colorado City's," he said.

Loraine Superintendent Glenn Sanders will be going to Austin for information on budget matters and after he returns the school board will probably be setting some special workshop sessions on the budget.

CHECK

the sales tax would be higher. Or it could also be due to more people and more people would mean more trade."

The 28 percent increase seems to be holding up because last month's check was for $9,707.27, up 28 percent over last year's check of $7,833.60 in April.

So far this year the city has received checks totaling $113,962.89, an increase of 28 percent over last year's total at this time of $88,916.06.

Crowley pointed out that last year the city received $190,000 in sales tax rebates from the comptroller's office.

"We've budgeted $195,000 this year as revenue in the general fund," he added. Crowley cautioned against expecting a 28 percent increase for the fiscal year. "This is only the second check we've received this fiscal year and to expect a 28 percent increase for the year might not be the thing to do but the fact that it's up is encouraging," he said.

Loraine received no check in April or June. Payments made to date to Loraine total $3,360.79, up 41 percent over last year's $2,371.62 at this time.

A look at some area towns shows that Ballinger's check was up 12 percent, Coahoma's 18 percent more, Sterling City's down three percent, Sweetwater up five percent and Snyder showed an increase of 24 percent.

thing in sight; or dumb rabies in which the infected animal may become lazy or paralyzed. If paralysis sets in the hind legs usually go first. Then the throat may become paralyzed making it appear that the animal is choking. This is also the stage when an animal with rabies foams at the mouth. The animal cannot swallow its saliva; but, just because an animal foams at the mouth does not necessarily mean it has rabies.

Signs or symptoms you can watch for are any unexpected changes in behavior or especially any unexplained paralysis.

If you suspect rabies in any of your animals, it should be reported immediately to the local veterinarian at 728-3451 or to the Health District office in Abilene at 673-5231.

the roadway. He said the ditches were not wide enough to carry the enormous amount of water that flowed to that central point.

He stated that he requested Hoyle to allow him to widen the ditch which would eliminate the problem, but no agreement was met.

Hoyle requested the county put a large cement dip in the road to help the drainage in the waterway. Carter said it would cost $2,160 for materials alone and this would still not eliminate the problem with the traffic space and water space.

Commissioner Paul Hunter suggested several times that they contact the SCS office and meet with them to get their suggestions. No action was taken on the matter, but it will be looked into further by the commissioners.

Gladys Oden, librarian of the Mitchell County Public Library, made a request to the court to employ a part-time person at the library. The reason for her request, she said, was presently they had a part-time person working through CETA but in September her sponsorship would expire.

The court voted to hire a person that would work approximately 80 hours a month at the pay rate of $4 an hour.

Commissioners agreed to advertise for bids for two small tractors to be used in Precincts 2 and 4, following requests from Commissioners Johnny Shackelford and Billy Preston.

The tractors will be used for pulling pneumatic rollers, shredder and grid roller. Specs are available in the county clerk's office and bids will be reviewed at the July 12th meeting.

Repairs for the elevator in the county jail were approved at a cost of $1,425 from Dover Elevator Company out of Midland. The quoted cost would include labor and materials and there would be a $65 a month service charge to examine the elevator.

The court also approved a request from the Mental Health and Retardation Clinic for a new typewriter. They will advertise for bids that will be opened at the July meeting.

Lonnie Markley, attorney at law, approached the commissioners for approval of a plat for a subdivision on Lake Colorado City, to be placed in the book in the clerk's office. It was approved.

He also requested another phone line be added to the district attorney's office, stating that the one line was insufficient to handle the work load and cost would be $72.15 for installation and $4.95 a month. Along with the request for the additional line, he requested a push button phone be placed in the probation office, along with an intercom system between the two offices. There would be a $119 installation charge and $16 a month.

The court approved the additional line to his office only.

The court received notification from the Texas Court Training Center that Joan Merket, JP of Precinct 4, had successfully completed 20 hours of her required 40 hours in the center. A newly elected JP has to complete 40 hours of training, stated Judge Carter.

L. S. Terry requested the commissioners consider the donation of land for a county road. The donated land, south of Cattleman's Restaurant on FM 1229 and west approximately one mile, was approved by the court.

In the May meeting, the commissioners approved insurance coverage for retired county employees.

Following a lengthy discussion, the court decided that the coverage should read, "making all future retirees and those receiving disability pay eligible to be covered by the TDCRS (Texas Department Coverage Retirement System) to be eligible for county hospital coverage at the retiree's expense and to be reviewed yearly at renewal time.

sent plant and double its capacity. This would cost about $918,000 and would allow the product to be discharged directly into the river.

3. Renovate the present plant at a cost of $568,000 to treat about the present capacity and then discharge the treated sewage into a settling basin and allow it to stand for thirty days before discharging into the river. This will not treat quite as well, Head said, but is the most cost effective (cheapest) method of the three.

Councilmen voted to pursue some variation of number three and to request a discharge permit.

This would probably give contractors a completion date of July 1, 1984, Head said, if issuance of the permit is not delayed in Austin.

Bids were accepted on:

(1) A sanitation truck. The council accepted the low bid of $14,206.15, from Hutchins Ford.

(2) Two fiberglass tanks to be used at the sewage plant. The council accepted the low bid of The Pump Co., Inc., in the amount of $4,170.

(3) Chlorination equipment to be used at the water treatment plant. The council took the low bid of the Atlas Utility Supply Company of $3,621.50.

Scott McKnight McKnight Employed As Deputy

Scott McKnight, 29, formerly of Big Spring has been employed as of June 1 as a deputy with the Mitchell County Sheriff's Department.

McKnight was a patrolman with the Big Spring Police Department before moving to Colorado City. He has five years of experience in the law enforcement field.

He received his training from Howard College and received an associates degree in law enforcement with 85 hours.

He said he moved to Mitchell County to be closer to his wife's family who lives in Lorraine. He and his wife, Terrisa, have a son, Aaron.

In his spare time, McKnight says he enjoys fishing and softball.

"I am very pleased with my job at the sheriff's department. The community is very nice and the county is quiet. I am really enjoying my new position," commented McKnight.

Students from across the United States and several foreign countries are listed on the 1982 spring honor roll at the University of Oklahoma Norman campus.

In most colleges, full-time students must earn a minimum 3.5 grade point average (on a 4.0 scale) to be included on the honor roll. Students in the College of Engineering and the College of Environmental Design, however, are recognized with a 3 grade point average or better.

Marjori Maddox of Colorado City was placed on the honor roll with a 4 grade point average.

Library To Show Films

Films to be shown at the Mitchell County Public Library on Saturday at 2 p.m. will be "Big Henry and the Polka Dot Kid." It is a 32 minute film about an orphaned boy in his new home that wins the battle to save the life of an old, blind dog his uncle is prepared to destroy. The youngster also wins a psychological victory and starts a closer relationship with his uncle, who is more comfortable expressing logic than emotions. It is based on the story "Luke Baldwin's Vow" by Morley Callaghan.

"Dick Whittington and His Cat," is a 15 minute color film. It is about a poor boy's affection for a stray cat leads to wealth and fame. Filmed in an animated puppet technique, the film shows that kindness and generosity are often rewarded.

"The Cow That," is a seven minute color film. It is about a gay little man creating a wonderful little world, embroidering the colorful elements of Bulgarian folklore. A mischievous cow follows the tracks of the little man, untwisting the embroidery and rolling up the thread around its body.

Film presentations are open to the public free of charge.

Assembly Of God To Hold VBS

Classes will be offered for nursery, ages two and three, four through kindergarten, grades first through third and grades fourth through sixth.

Sessions will be held from 9 a.m. until noon.

50th Anniversary Held By Graduating Class

The 50th Anniversary of the graduating class of 1932 of Colorado High School was held Friday and Saturday, June 4th and 5th. Classes of 1931 and 1933 were invited and joined in the celebration.

On Friday afternoon, June 4th, the gathering was from 2 p.m., till 6 p.m. at the Thompson Room at The City National Bank Annex. Refreshments were served and the meeting was a come and go affair. An interesting program was presented by Don Taylor, a member of the class of '32 and at the present time, editor of Oceanography Magazine at Houston, Texas.

His informative and interesting program with use of picture slides presented the technology of drilling and production of off shore oil rigs. There were 81 persons present at the afternoon meeting.

On Saturday morning there were several members that made a tour around the Colorado lake and through the State Park. Many of these persons have been gone for many years and didn't know there was a lake or park.

During the afternoon several of the class members were shown through the local playhouse by Porter Richardson, who is very active in the playhouse operation. From the playhouse, the tour continued to the Mitchell County Museum where the class members spent nearly two hours observing things they had never seen before, as it was their first time in the museum.

On Saturday night at 6 p.m., the class members of 1931-1932 and 1933 and their guests started gathering at the Middle School Cafeteria, which was the Colorado High School in 1932. There were 105 persons served at this banquet and they included different classes: 1929-one person, 1930-one person, 1931-14 persons, 1932-34 persons, 1933-seven persons and 44 mates of class members and four guests.

The class was called to order by Sherman Hart, vice president of class of 1932. Invocation was given by Carroll Smith, class of '32.

Minutes were read for the following years: -1929 - by Pauline Jones Cauble, Hialeah, Florida.

-1930 - Eleanor Henderson Jeffries, Colorado City, Texas.

-1931-32 - Hilma Joyce, El Paso, Texas.

-1978 - LaVada Baze Holman, Auburn, Wash.

A short memorial was held in memory of the deceased and the names of the deceased were read while low music was played. Deceased since entering high school in 1928 were Robert Soensen, James Bodine, Hunt Guitler, James Guitler, J. L. Hamer, Robert Locke, Johnny Prude, Carey Proude, Homer Tiller, A. D. Wilson, J. L. Hart, Richard Howell, Lawton Callison, Wilma Barnett, Mary Bean Henderson, Era Coles, Grlene Gale

Hallman, Laverta Shurtliff Retzliff, Gladys Grissom Robison, Elizabeth McCorkle Knox, Clara Bohanon Mitchell, Nina Lee Rogers Cooper, Loia Burdine Bennett, Lillian McCorkle Van Winkle, Charley Roach Lindsey, Frances Lupton Young and Vivian Cook Watson.

The emcee for the night, Don Taylor, was introduced by Sherman Hart. Porter Richardson of Colorado City, welcomed the out-of-town members and their guests. Frank Bodzin of Dallas, gave the welcome speech from the ones that attended from out-of-town.

Prizes were given for the person that traveled the most miles to the reunion-won by La Vada Baze Holman from Auburn, Wash. The person with the most children won by T. J. Goss of Colorado City. The person with the most grandchildren won by Travis Donald Finch from Clarendon, Texas.

Several persons brought gifts they had made with their own talents and they were given away at a drawing.

The emcee, Don Taylor called for each person to get up and give an accounting of their lives since they left high school in 1932. Every person had this opportunity and most of them accepted the challenge. The revealing stories were quite interesting and informative.

The high school annual of 1930 cost $3 and was the last annual published until the early '40's. Because of the price and bad times, not many of the students could afford to buy one. Don Taylor used a 1930 annual and reproduced 38 of these annuals and gave one to each person at the banquet that didn't have one. Pictures were made of class of '32, and of classes '31 and '33 together. The photographer was T. J. Goss.

The reunion was a success and many class mates expressed their appreciation of the work contributed to it. The success can be attributed to the work of the Reunion Committee, composed of the following: Don Taylor, Charles Root, Eleanor Henderson Jeffries, Erdine Morgan, Velma Rogers Pond, Luther Harrison, Lindley Webb, Rex McKinney, Porter Richardson and Sherman Hart.

John Doe	$ 240.00
John Doe and Mary Doe
*1401038891 0373 6660000

The amount shown is for a 3-ton central electric air conditioner with an SEER of 8.5.

If you replace your central electric air conditioner with one that's more efficient, Texas Electric will pay you a bonus of $80 per ton.

Not only that, you'll save on your electric bill as well. For example, a high-efficiency 3-ton unit will save you up to $160 a year.

This equipment costs more initially, but the bonus from Texas Electric plus the savings on your electric bill will make up the difference in just a few years.

If enough people buy high-efficiency equipment, summer peak load growth will be slowed—and so will the need to build new generating plants. In the long run, this will help hold down everyone's electric bill.

Before you replace your old air conditioner, ask your dealer about central air conditioners, heat pumps, and window units that qualify for this program.

Letters To The Editor

Dear Sir:

You recently printed a letter from a Robert Carroll, Box D 23478-L2, Reidsville, Ga., who stated that he was born in Texas, his parents were William and Evelyn Carroll, and that he lived near Colorado City until he was about four years old, moved to Chicago, IL., was left in a foster home, with a promise that his parents would return for him when financially able. He was serving a 20 year term for burglary, wanted to find his kin, asked that people write and send a stamp so that he could answer as he had no funds.

Please advise your readers that this is a commonly used scam in which a prisoner starts out asking for just a stamp, then when some sympathetic soul sends him a stamp, he asks for a few dollars to buy cigarettes, shaving needs, etc., then he needs to go to a trade school so that when he gets out of prison he can "go straight," but the prison requires that he have $75 or so to attend the school. And it goes on and on, until the sympathetic soul either catches on or runs out of money! I spoke personally with the prison warden of the Georgia State Prison, learned how the scam works, and that there was no William or Evelyn Carroll of Colorado City, his alleged parents. Besides, the prison furnishes stamps, stationery, and other personal needs of its inmates and you and I foot the bill!

Sincerely,
P. A. Carroll

Letter to the Editor,

In your past two copies of the Colorado City Record, I have seen great concern for the old Railroad Depot. As the constant battle goes on for something much older than this old depot which everybody looks over and nobody considers a monument are rivers and streams.

Pollution is still going into our historical stream and I cannot see why a person would take up for a train depot and this river supplies many lakes along the path to the Gulf. I have spent much time and money in several months and I've not heard any comments in a letter to the editor on this subject.

Since I started this, there is progress being made with our recently appointed City Manager Rick Crowley. Mr. Crowley came to this town not aware of the fact of the pollution going into the river. He was made aware of this several months ago and since then has done within all his power and the City Council to correct this problem. And why is so much concern over the old train depot than the river problem?

Dear Editor,

We would like to commend the police force, the sheriff's department, and the voluntary firemen for their time and effort to protect our community, especially during this season of unpredictable and turbulent weather. We appreciate them.
