HICO, TEXAS FRIDAY, MARCH 11, 1966.

NUMBER 46.

Residents Sign for Free Vote

New voter registration law, went into effect last Thursday. It has proven one thing in Hico—there is still a number of residents who want to vote in various ways this year.

On Wednesday noon, the Hico City Office, had registered voters.

Residents may register at the City Office or the Specialty Shop now and next Thursday, March 17, the deadline set by the Texas Legislature.

According to some reports, people will register under the new law.

will be eligible to vote in both the school and city elections, slated April 2 and 5, respectively.

Some confusion arose over the 30-day stay as handed down by the courts, but that period expires Mar. 28. Reason for the stay was to allow local option elections slated during March to be held without confusion on the part of both voters and election officials.

Hico Outsiders Oppose Iredell Outsiders in Benefit Cage Game

The Hico men and women outsiders basketball teams will oppose the Iredell outsiders in a benefit basketball game to be played at Hico gym Tuesday night, March 15. The ladies game will begin at 7:30 followed by the men's game. A return match will be played at Iredell the following Tuesday night, March 22.

A nominal admission fee will be charged, with proceeds going to the athletic funds of both schools.

Edon Mahon Issues Formal Statement in Congress Bid

Edon Mahon, Abilene attorney and businessman, has issued the following statement concerning his candidacy for the office of U.S. congressman from the 17th District.

"I feel that there is a definite need for a change in our district's representation in Washington. If I can't feel this way—and if I had found a substantial amount of support among voters with whom I've talked—I wouldn't be making the race.

My reasons for feeling that we need a change are based on my belief that our district has not always been represented in the past by the kind of initiative and enthusiasm I think is required to get results our district needs and deserves.

In announcing my candidacy for Congress, I have personally visited all counties of the new 17th district and have been extremely gratified by the widespread support and encouragement I've encountered. It appears to be many who feel that it is time for a change. I expect, I will start working immediately upon my arrival in Washington to be assigned to those committees which deal with the issues directly affecting our new district, and in this way endeavor to accomplish something concrete and meaningful for it.

The scene of action is now in the Congress. We of the new district must make our voice heard in Washington, stronger than it has been in the past. We need a representative who is truly representative of the people, one who will listen to all the people, then explain their interests in an aggressive, effective manner. If elected, I intend to be that kind of congressman.

Although I have been a Democrat all my life, I will not be a "stamp" Congressman for the administration's programs. Nor on the other hand will I be a rubber-stamp opponent of measures that show real progress—sincere 'no' automatically each time a worthwhile proposal comes up.

I believe that too much control over government's affairs has been put into the hands of Congress and into the hands of the judiciary and administrative agencies. This authority, which has been lost by default, must be reclaimed by the Congress. The trend of surrendering authority to agencies and commissions—who are supposed to administer the laws instead of make them—should be halted. I think it is time that Congress recognize this usurpation of its power and authority for what it is: government by bureaucracy. When Congress loses its authority, then the people lose theirs, for Congress is the voice of the people.

"One of my most important objectives is to get something done about our district's water situation. There is no greater problem facing the new 17th district than the need for adequate water, now and in the future. I will work for and support any feasible legislation that promises to create greater water resources for our area. Such legislation is a must, because we don't have enough water as it is, and to neglect it further would be to compound a tragedy. The problem is of such magnitude that it is going to require great study, imagination and vision to solve it. I, for one, am ready to begin.

"Farming is another area in which something must be done that would be of direct benefit to our district. I believe that the present Omnibus Farm Bill places too much authority in the hands of the Agricultural Department and its Secretary. A glaring example of this is the arbitrary policy ruling by the Department which changes skip-row planting in such a way that it works a great hardship on most of our district's farmers. If elected to Congress, I will start working at once to get skip-row planting rules amended so that our farmers can again engage in the kind of farming that is most productive and profitable for them.

"The oil and gas industry is, of course, vital to all of us in the district—and as a Congressman—I would support legislation aimed toward putting it in a healthier condition. Oil and gas is a prime business—an indispensable business—and contributes heavily to the welfare of the district. I am in full accord with the 27½ percent depletion allowance, and would resist any measure that would seek to change it.

"As to my position on government, I believe that too much control over government's affairs has been put into the hands of Congress and into the hands of the judiciary and administrative agencies. This authority, which has

AFTER—The Hamilton County Technical Action Panel, on a field trip recently, examines a good cover of coastal and NK-37 bermuda grass on the shaped waterway on the Dr. Johnson farm located about two miles south of Hico. From left to right they are Jake Eubanks, assistant director of the County Neighborhood Youth Corp. Marvin Shaw, Hamilton Chamber of Commerce manager, D. Gordon, County Agent, and George Krupala. Farm Home Administration supervisor, Bomer Harris of the Soil Conservation Service, took the photos. Ed Cloninger, member of the panel, was not present.

Proper Waterways Prevent Gully Washing in Rain Season

By BOMER HARRIS

A few years ago Dr. Melvin Johnson of Fort Worth bought a 138-acre farm located about two miles south of Hico. Bomer Harris of the Soil Conservation Service and D. Gordon, county agent, worked out a soil and water conservation plan with Dr. Johnson that was satisfactory to him.

The cropland fields and rangeland were fairly well covered with mesquites, prickly pear and other brush. A gully, with considerable drainage area, came across the farm. It was considered almost not feasible to establish a grass waterway that was needed.

Late in 1964 and early in 1965 Dr. Johnson and his wife hired a dozer to grub and pile mesquite and shape the 15-acre waterway. Immediately after shaping, he prepared the land and planted about three bushels of oats per acre. He thought he might get a good vegetation cover before it came a big rain. Later, as soon as moisture conditions were right, he shredded the oats and planted the waterway to coastal bermuda grass. On top of that he planted about two pounds of NK-37 bermuda grass seed per acre. The oats, coastal, and NK-37 all came up to a good stand and made a good cover.

This was probably more seed and plantings than was necessary, but too many times waterways are lost between the time they are shaped and the time a good vegetation cover is established. In this case, Dr. Johnson had enough cover to keep his waterway from washing out when a "gully washer" rain came during the spring of 1965. His stand and cover is excellent now.

Dr. Johnson has carried out most of the other soil and water conservation practices that he included in his plan with the Hamilton-Correll Soil and Water Conservation District.

Only four candidates' names will appear on the city election ballot in the April 5 balloting set here.

Two of the candidates are seeking re-election to the council, one new candidate is asking for his first term as an alderman, and a past alderman is seeking the mayor's post.

G. M. Bullard and Jim Jameson are candidates for another term as aldermen, and W. C. Howard is running for the post of mayor. Tommie Pierce is the new face in city politics.

Mr. Howard, who has served as alderman since 1956, submitted his name as a candidate for mayor after D. F. Bulloch declined to run for re-election.

The retiring Mr. Bulloch was first elected to the council in 1955, and won renomination for another two-year term in 1957. In 1958 he resigned his alderman post and ran for mayor. He has served in that capacity since.

Bullard and Jameson were elected aldermen in 1956.

School Balloting

In the April 2 school election, four candidates are seeking the two seats available. Names of Ralph Turner and Dr. R. C. Dayton were the first filed, and Derel Fillmore and F. A. Black beat the March 2 deadline by filing their names. Turner is seeking re-election to the board.

Fairy Community News

By MRS. EUNICE DANIEL

Sunday was a very pretty day following cool windy weather on Friday and Saturday. We had ice here both Saturday and Sunday nights. Today, Monday we have mostly cloudy weather with showers predicted by Tuesday night.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to the parents, grandparents and others who mourn the passing of little four-year-old Lou Anna Spencer, who died in the Hico Hospital last Friday night of pneumonia. She was staying in the home of her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Herrin of Hico when she became ill. The child's mother is a niece of Mrs. Jess Fulton of the Agave community. Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Sunday in Hamilton, with burial in Oakwood Cemetery. Rev. R. E. Tatum of Hico officiated. May God bless the bereaved ones at this time of deep sorrow, also the Hico Hospital staff who did all they could to save her life.

Friends and acquaintances of Mrs. Hardy Haught were very sorry to learn last Thursday of her untimely death. The Haughts lived in the Falls Creek community on the former farm home of her late parents, Mr. and Mrs. Willingham. The Willingham family were attending church at the Fairy Church of Christ in January of 1904 when our parents moved here, and we attended the same church for many years. We have a Kodac picture made in the summer of 1922 of three babies sitting on a pallet on the church ground who were all near the same age. They were Billy D. Blakley, Audie Parks and our late son, James Dudley Richardson. Caught also in the picture was the Willingham's horse and buggy, hitched to a post nearby. These pictures are certainly reminders of those days back in the early years of this century. We believe there were six of the children, three of whom are now deceased. We had planned to attend the funeral, but learned Friday afternoon that we had a leak in the fuel pump on our car and didn't get it fixed in time to go. But glad we had gone to the funeral home Friday afternoon. Our deepest sympathy is extended to the bereaved family and others who mourn her passing.

Mrs. Bob Frederick and a friend, Mrs. Pat White of Venus, brought her mother, Mrs. Ruth Cunningham home Monday following a ten-day visit at Venus and Fort Worth with her daughters and families, before coming here they all went to Lamkin and visited Mrs. Fannie Adams.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Lam of Copperas Cove visited Saturday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Scott Blakley. Other visitors in the Blakley home Saturday were Mr. and Mrs. Witt Lacewell of Olton and their daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Edmondson and daughter of Tulsa, Okla., and Mrs. Myrtle Blakley of Hico and her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hutton and daughter Ann and twin daughters, all of Eunice, N.M. Ann's husband teaches in the public schools at Eunice. Other visitors were Mr. Blakley's sister, Mrs. Nettie Bridges of McGregor and her son, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Bridees of Beaumont who, with the Witt Lacewell family visited in the home of Witt's mother and brother, Mrs. Ada Lacewell and Pat.

Mr. and Mrs. Willie Turner and their daughters, Bernice and Mrs. Ray Botkin, Tammy and Patsy of Killeen visited during the weekend at Arlington in the home of their son and brother, Mr. and Mrs. Jackie Turner and family.

Miss Sandra Gardner of Arlington spent the weekend with her father and brother, Mr. Winfred Gardner and Randy. Mrs. Gardner has been in Neches the past week with her daughter and family, Mr. and Mrs. Don Barnett and children. Don had been hospitalized several days with pneumonia. Glad to report him able to resume his teaching duties.

Mrs. Winfred Gardner spent from last Thursday until Tuesday in the Don Barnett home. Her husband went down for her Tuesday afternoon.

The writer attended singing at Indian Gap Sunday afternoon, accompanying us from Hamilton Mrs. M. C. Anderson, Mrs. Hester Woosley and Mrs. Selma Agee and son, Paul.

Rev. and Mrs. Bob Ray and children of Fort Worth were luncheon guests of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mason Sunday. In the afternoon they all attended the singing at Indian Gap.

The next first Sunday at Indian Gap has been called off due to the annual first Sunday weekend singing at Gatesville and also one at Brownwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Hobert Proffitt attended funeral services at Iredell Saturday morning for Mrs. Hardy Haught. They also had known Mrs. Haught for many years.

Mrs. Pauline Palmer of Grand Prairie visited several days last week with her mother, Mrs. Zella Anderson. She and her mother came by the cemetery on Monday and talked with us a short while. Both had had a bout with the flu. Mrs. Palmer stated she was hospitalized for a week.

We never know how the readers are going to take a news item. As one reader asked us last week what we meant by the good name and reputation statement. We thought the statement was self-explanatory but since it didn't seem to be. In that case we will try to explain farther. We had read in the paper the previous week of the home near Iredell being entered, the deep freeze emptied and valuables taken. We also read of those things most every day in various places. Then on the following Sunday while in Carlton we learned such things as wash pots were being picked up from premises, and only a few years ago thieves came through on a Sunday morning just prior to Christmas while families were attending church. Christmas trees were up, decorated and laden with gifts, many nice electric appliances and other valuable gifts were taken from many homes. As we drove down the road between the twin mountains near Agave that day enroute to a singing about 1 p.m. we saw the thieves on the side of the mountain in the Anderson pasture. They were opening the gifts, but we didn't know at the time what was taking place but before the day was over, word had circulated of what had happened. Some of these gifts were later found and recovered in a city store not too far away, of course where they had been sold.

So folks, you had better set a metal post in concrete and put a lock and key on your wash pots or lock them up, also your home. If your doors can't be locked better get some new locks or some hasps and locks. We can remember back years ago when butchering hogs at home was very common. That meat would be put on the roof top of some building overnight, and many times part or all would be stolen during the night. The Bible tells us there will be perilous times and seems this time has arrived and will grow worse. There are those who are drawing more wages than they know what to do with, others who draw moderate wages and get by without hardships, then there are those who are unable to get work. Their families are hungry and in need, and even families are occasionally murdered because of financial circumstances, their ill denied treatment because of lack of money to pay the bills and little innocent children die for want of attention.

Recently a father of several children who had lived in a nearby town for 20 years called his pastor and told him he was going to have to move as he couldn't get work to provide for his family. He stated he didn't want to move but was forced to provide for his family. We have right here in this and nearby communities men with families working a 130 to 300 miles away from home trying to make an honest living. It is our young to middle age couples who are hurt worst. Yet much of the land is in the soil bank or reserved in some way. The tenant houses are sitting empty, rotting down or moved out. Only an old cellar, windmill or some outbuilding as evidence there was once a family there. We could write on, and on but some 50 years ago we would never dreamed of living to see such times as now and folks. It is going to get even much worse. It is not safe to live alone any more, or even drive on the highways alone. Crime seems to be a common thing and happens almost daily in cities. So we hope you can see that we had reference to dishonesty in our statement last week and certainly meant no reflection on any news item included or otherwise.

We worked Monday afternoon of last week at the cemetery and the hands came Tuesday and helped us to go over the cemetery and work all lots needing work.

Thanks to the Cone Pattersons of Fort Worth for a donation of $5 for the cemetery. The Pattersons are also among the number of contributors who never have to be reminded of dues. They certainly do their part in the support.

Other birthdates for this month which we have received are Mrs. Ovie Brummett, March 6 and their son, Grant, March 7.

J. C. Canada is here on leave from the Navy. He is stationed at San Diego. He is the son of Mrs. J. B. Cunningham, and made his home at the Justin Bullards before entering the service, and is spending part of his time with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Bullard and children spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Bullard and visited in the Justin Bullard home Sunday afternoon.

Other visitors at the Justin Bullard home Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Bullard of Pleasant Valley community, Miss Francis Leppard of Hico, the writer and J. C. Canada.

Sorry to report Mrs. Walter Abel ill of a virus the first of the week. Hope she is soon better.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie New attended the McGregor Beef Cattle Field Day March 3. They made the tour by bus and had a tour guide who explained the different feed lots and cattle. They stated that all was very interesting and that they saw a lot of good cattle. All enjoyed a barbecue lunch at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Arrant visited Sunday in Dallas in the home of their son and family, Mr. and Mrs.

Garlon Arrant and children. They they could see more improvement in Garlon's condition, who is recovering from recent surgery.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Jackson spent from Thursday to Saturday of last week in Grand Prairie with their children, Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Jackson and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Seymour and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Dorman Vance and family and Mrs. Mary Abel. Mr. Jackson was honored with a birthday dinner on Friday in the home of Mrs. Abel. In the afternoon two of Vernon Jackson's employees carried Mr. Jackson to a nearby lake on a fishing tour. We wish for Mr. Jackson many more such happy birthdays.

Mrs. M. E. Parks and Audie spent Sunday in Fort Worth visiting in the homes of Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Parks and daughters and Mr.

and Mrs. Milford Miller and aid.

I think she made it up right after that little accident (as you called it.) You say you stopped in the hall, turned around and there Joyce was sitting on the floor.

Lonnie has a very sneaky way of passing gum during class. The only thing is, he scares the people so much they aren't able to chew it after they get it.

Love has strange ways of affecting people. But as far as Pat is concerned, we hope she gets over it. All that coughing and missing your mouth with the fork, when he comes in for lunch, will never do.

Wish you could have been with Patty, Joyce and Glenda the other day. They sure did have a lot of fun. The only one who suffered casualties was Joyce. And it wasn't even her fault. It was Glenda's. Joyce climbed up on top of the uh well, we'd better not say, and Glenda wanted up there too, so she got up. Naturally to do this she moved the chair, and Joyce didn't know about it. Shall we tell the rest?

Everyone should have a hobby. Every morning on the bus, Debra makes it a habit to see how the cows in the pastures are standing. It makes her happy, so just forget about it!

Everyone seems to be asking Ronnie L. "did you really?" If you wonder what they are referring to, we'll tell you. He and another boy had a minor accident the other day. Seems like they got into the boat to go fishing, and it turned over with them. It just wasn't your day!

Jennifer, what kind of message is it you have for a certain Hico girl? Something about these boots are made for walking, so watch it. Rita is saving her money these days for a trip to Colorado. Seems that is the only way she is going to be able to get there. Good luck, Rita. We know how much you miss him.

Dickey seems to be awfully lonely in short hand, in English, in history, and in anything the senior class does. How do you manage to handle those girls all by yourself?

Connie and Linda are together so much that Ed seems to think he has two sisters. And when you dress alike it makes it even worse. Connie, what did you think while running through the house?

Caught In The Act—Mike W. and Ronnie L. getting a little something from Mr. Spence; Becky blowing her hand; Everyone laughing; Connie hugging David; Rita becoming a mother (in the play); Sandra buttoning people's blouses; Linda H. saying she is going to Wichita Falls; Crickett being proud of her creases last Friday night; Butch being missed because he is not here; Jennifer being very proud of her new beau; Linda R. teaching the first and second graders; Marvin looking for a blind spot; Mike W. almost learning how to dance; Glenda having a pain in the brain (if she has one).

Important Points to Remember—Senior Girls: Cheer up, things could be worse in volleyball; Jennifer: Don't let unimportant things bother you; Linda R.: Never say yes to the first and second graders, if you don't know what they said. You might end up with an empty room; Lonnie: Watch what you say, you could embarrass someone;

Linda F.: Be a little more cautious about closing your locker door, and you'd be surprised how many more people will have unbattered hands; Ronnie L.: Don't jump up and look around everytime a certain word is mentioned; Dartha: Writing notes to yourself will help you remember things; Dickey: Sometimes people are wrong. You were both wrong. There were 12 of them; Glenda: Sometimes it pays not to get a drink of water; Jeannette: We've heard of exaggerating in letters, but you actually went to the extremes when exaggerating in a letter?

Billy: You'd better be careful who you threaten to kill. She may be bigger than you are; Jimmy D.: No matter how much you insist, the principle parts of a squeeze are not smash and smushed; Becky:

When doors are opened for Crickett, please wait a minute, or brace yourself. Accidents do happen, but twice in a row? Rita, One way to get out of a trap is to trick Crickett into taking your place.

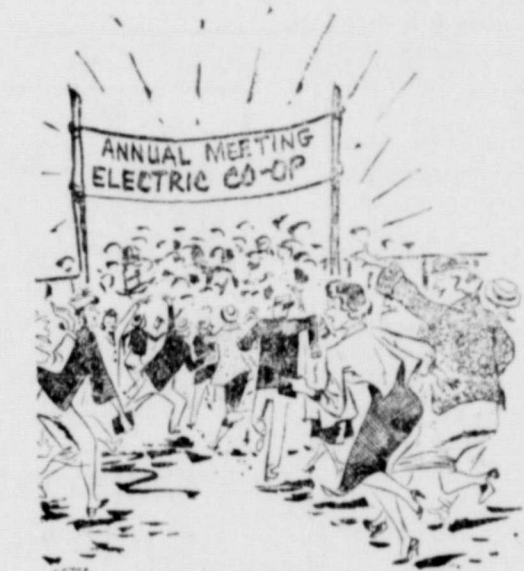

Song Dedications

"Show me a Hardware-Apppliance dealer that really has a heart and I'll eat my hat!"

Hardware stores should be subsidized by the community chest because they are not profit organizations that perform a vital community service. I know because I own one.

Every day dozens of people come in and ask for "just one washer"—they want that little bitty round metal washer with a hole in the middle—not a Frigidaire Jet Action washer. Sometimes they want "a couple of bolts for the baby's high chair." They ask for a few nails or a couple of picture hooks and assure I have them lying around in the odds and ends drawer.

You'd be surprised how many people come in to borrow things they should own—things like hammers, screw drivers, step ladders and monkey-wrenches. They say they are moving in or moving out and that they only need these items for "half an hour."

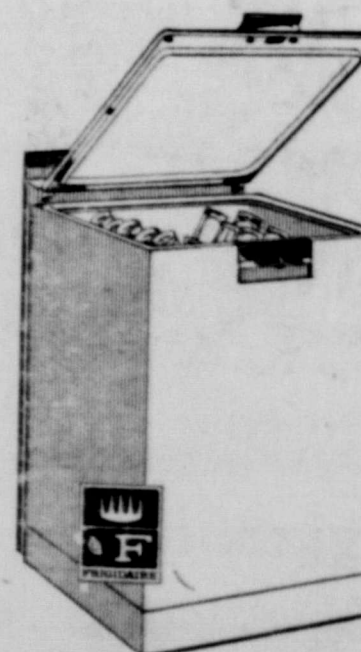

The hardware store is the nearest thing to the old cracker barrel, family-style grocery store left in America.

People think of the small independent hardware dealer as a friend. They forget he or she is in business. So, folks, this is to remind you that your old Aunt Lou may be a prince of a gal but she's got to make a living, so buy something from her. Will you please?

You won't have to borrow our refrigerator trucks to transport this...

To skimp on milk in order to cut family food costs is poor economy. Without enough milk you can hardly provide meals that meet the family's calcium needs. Milk is also a good buy for high-quality protein, the B-vitamins, riboflavin and other vitamins and minerals necessary for healthy growth.

Money can be saved on milk purchases. There are possible ways to save in buying fresh, whole milk:

1. Compare prices. Milk of the same quality from different companies sometimes varies in price.
2. Check to see if milk companies in your area offer discounts on large home deliveries. Check also on cash and carry versus some delivery prices. By carrying milk from the store you may save 1 to 3 cents a quart.
3. Price large containers. In some places milk sells for less in 2-quart and gallon containers than by the quart.

Watch for specials on canned evaporated milk. Evaporated has nutritive values similar to fresh whole milk and often may be used the same way—in infant feeding and cooking, for example. Other less expensive products are skim milk, buttermilk, and non-fat dry milk.

These are lower in calories and in vitamin A than whole milk but are high in protein, minerals and riboflavin.

Non-fat dry milk is the best bargain for calcium and convenience in cooking. It can also be stored on the shelf until needed. Use milk in cooking and include ice cream, cheese and other milk products in the family's meals.

Scrape or sandpaper lead-painted surfaces out of doors or in a well-ventilated room to avoid inhaling the dust, and be sure to wash hands and body promptly afterwards.

Instead of discarding worn white socks, launder them in hot suds and cut off the toes. Then store them with your emergency kit to use as a ready-made bandage for a scraped knee or elbow. Just pull the heel over the joint for a snug protective cover.

This is a fine little girl. Full of love and hope, and so spunky she almost breaks your heart. The world needs people like her. But right now she needs people like you. People who believe in helping people. Her therapy and special training cost more than her folks can afford. The Easter Seals you use pay the difference. So put your hand in your pocket, m'friend. Your share is about $2.

I thank you.

The Easter Seals you use enable the Easter Seal Society, at more than a thousand clinics and centers, to help people fight against the effects of these crippling disorders: crippling accidents, poliomyelitis, strokes, cerebral palsy, multiple sclerosis, muscular dystrophy, arthritis, birth deformities, speech defects and many others. If you know of someone who needs this kind of help, send them to your local Easter Seal Chapter.

ment spending, I might point out that I have always been opposed to excessive federal spending, and see no excuse whatever for the kind of waste in government that we have tolerated in the past. There is no justification for deficit spending except during times of national emergency. These are prosperous times and it is now that we should be paying the national debt, rather than creating more of it. After all, if we don't pay off our debt during good times, when do we pay it?

"Regarding Viet Nam, I will always support an unyielding stand against communism, and I feel that there is no other tenable position for us to take in Asia than that which the President has taken. We simply cannot afford to be soft toward an ideology that has set out to destroy our own way of life. At all times, of course, I believe we should keep the doors open for possible negotiations that would bring about a peaceful solution to open conflicts such as we have in Viet Nam. Our goal there is to stop aggression on the part of the communists toward a peaceful people who have every right to seek their own destiny."
