51st County Livestock Show opens today

About 195 animals entered; Judging to be held Saturday

The 51st annual Mitchell County Livestock Show gets underway today with the weighing in, between 5 and 7 p.m., of an estimated 195 animals scheduled to be entered by local 4-H and FFA youths from Colorado City, Lorraine, Westbrook and throughout the County. After weigh-in Thursday and on Friday, the junior exhibitors will be at work grooming and preparing their animals for the judging on Saturday, January 23.

The judging will get underway at 8 a.m. for swine with Kenneth Dudensing of Sweetwater, judge; Lamb judging will begin at 1 p.m. by Russell Kott of Sterling City; and Steer judging also at 1 p.m. by Dr. Jerry Gleason of Muleshoe.

With more than $6,000 available in premium awards and expenses, the competition between the exhibitors is expected to be keen. Awards will include showmanship, Herdsman, Champion, Reserve Champion and Best of Breed in each of the divisions. The Awards will be presented by Elmer Martin, assisted by FFA Sweethearts.

Mark Raschke is serving as swine superintendent; Ricky McPhaul, sheep superintendent and Bimbo Steward, cattle superintendent. Officers for the annual show are David Stubblefield, president; George Walker, vice-president; Jim Dockrey, secretary; Tony Turner, treasurer; and Ricky McPhaul, finance chairman.

The 4-H and FFA exhibitors work under the guidance of the County Extension Office and the Vocational Ag Teacher in each community.

Playhouse awards presented

Tim Haynes was named best actor in a major role and Emily Hataway best actress in a major role during the annual awards night Friday of the Colorado City Playhouse.

Haynes won for his role as Henry Higgins in My Fair Lady. He also was nominated for his role as Mortimer Brewster in Arsenic and Old Lace.

Mrs. Hataway won for her role as Eliza Doolittle in My Fair Lady, a role she said she had wanted to play since she was a little girl.

Other awards went to Jeff Capasso and Clayton Finch who ted for best actor in a supporting role and Gwen Wistrand for best actress in a supporting role. Capasso played Dr. Eistein and Finch was Teddy Brewster in Arsenic and Old Lace and Mrs. Wistrand played Mrs. Higgins in My Fair Lady.

Porter Richardson won the honor for best minor role for his part of Officer O'Hara in Arsenic and Old Lace.

My Fair Lady, directed by Carl Moore, was named best production of the 1987 season.

George Womack was named recipient of the President's Award presented by Marie Jackson. Mrs. Jackson cited Womack's dedication to the playhouse and his willingness to assist.

In addition to the awards, officers for 1988 were elected - Carl Moore, president; Linda Hearin, vice president; Connie Penland, secretary; Marian and Jay Craddock, treasurer; Joe Earnest, legal advisor. Board members are John T. Merritt, Donna Starr, Kent Womack, Porter Richardson, Dan Johns, Midge Ledbetter and Marie Jackson, past president.

For The Record...

FROM THE SCRIPTURES— "So God created man in his own image; in the image of God he created him; male and female he created them." Genesis 1:27.

Mark Twain said, "Man is the only animal that blushes. Or needs to."

David E. Trueblood added in his "Philosophy of Religion":

It has been said that man is the only animal who laughs, the only one who weeps, the only one who prays, the only one who can invent, the only one with a written language, the only one who is proud, the only one who can make progress, the only one who guides his own destiny, the only one who is penitent, and the only one who needs to be."

THE LONE WOLF SAYS, "When you think you are arguing with a fool, be sure he's not doing the same thing."

Man is a crazy mixture of connected parts. Take

Gene Dow

this comedy of words, for instance:
Where can a man buy a cap for his knee?
Or a key to a lock of his hair?
Can your eyes be called an academy, because there are two pupils there?
What jewels are in the crown of your head?
Who walked the bridge of your nose?
Can you do the shingling in the roof of your mouth, with nails on the ends of your toes?
Can the crook of your elbow be sent to jail?
If so, what did it do?
Can you sit in the shade of the palm of your hand?
Be darned if I know, do you?
Did you ever sharpen your shoulder blades?
Can you beat the drums in your ears?
Do the calves in your legs eat the corn on your toes?
Then why not grow corn on the ears?

Re-elected as directors were Bob Reily, Jack Hollis, Mike Burt, Hank Hardwick and Lee Woods.

The new officers for the coming year, elected by the Board, were Ben Lancaster, president; Robert Alford, vice-president; Frank Brownfield, secretary; and Hank Hardwick was re-elected treasurer. Elmer Martin is the outgoing president of the Industrial Team.

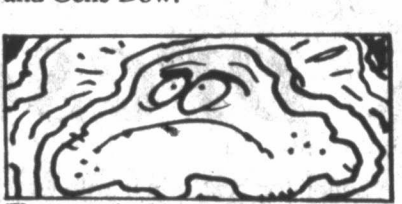

The Colorado City Industrial Team, Inc. was organized as a non-profit corporation in August 1959. Primary purpose of the corporation is for promoting the public interest of Colorado City through seeking and helping new desirable industries, and expanding and improving existing industries, with the capability of purchasing, selling or renting lands, buildings, machinery or other improvements for the promotion of industrial development.

Membership in the Industrial Team is through stock subscription, at $5.00 per share. The general public is invited and encouraged to be share-holders.

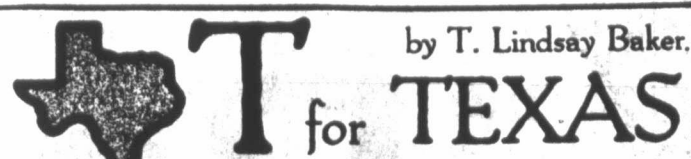

Original incorporators of the Team were C. C. Thompson, G. D. Foster, and Sam L. Majors, Jr. The first directors included J. W. Randle, W. S. Rhode, Phillip Berman, Majors, Thompson, Glen R. Robinson, Frank H. Kelley, Foster, and Eldon Mahon.

Main project of the Industrial Team during the coming year will be efforts to acquire a state prison facility in Mitchell County.

Present for the meetings were Martin, Hardwick, Brownfield, Alford, Woods, Reily, Tandy Curlee, Tom Lovell, Dale Mathis, and Gene Dow.

THE AZTECA INN OF 1932

From time to time, I like to buy boxes full of old letters and papers at flea markets. Maybe it's because I'm naturally nosy about people. I really do enjoy reading through things that people have saved for years, thinking that someday they'd want the stuff. Sometimes there are some real surprises.

One of these came in a shoe box full of dusty, downright dirty papers that I bought for $5 not long ago. All the old greeting cards, mementos and letters belonged to members of a family from North Platte, Nebraska. What does this have to do with Texas, you ask? Well, two items were choice bits of Texana—for me at least.

According to the name on the little tablet, a trip diary I found in the box belonged to Cathryn L. Grady of North Platte. She kept it on a Christmas-time visit to Port Arthur in 1932. The tablet on which she kept her diary advertises the Chenier Business School at 577 Orleans Street in Beaumont.

Her notes show that Cathryn departed Kansas City by train for Port Arthur on the evening of Dec. 19. My guess is that she rode on the Kansas City Southern line.

The next day, December 20, she wrote, "Spent the day on the train ... Arrived in Port Arthur at 1:15. Train 2 hrs. late." Cathryn continued her running narrative with accounts of visiting schools, seeing the jetties, having meals with friends and relatives and going to picture shows.

The high point of the Nebraska girl's Texas trip came on Dec. 23. She and her friends drove to Beaumont, where the architecture impressed the small-town girl. "We roamed around through the business and residential sections ... Beaumont is about the size of Port Arthur and has wonderful buildings."

After seeing the sights, "Then we went to a Mexican cafe and had a real Mexican dinner." She was so impressed that she took home as a souvenir one of the typewritten menus, and that menu also ended up in the shoe box full of papers that I bought.

Cathryn's real Mexican cafe was the Azteca Inn, located at 918 Railroad Avenue in Beaumont. Then menu tells us much about Mexican cuisine prepared for Anglo diners during the days of the Great Depression.

The "Special Dinner," the most expensive meal listed, consisted of tamales with chili, an enchilada, chili rellenos, taco, fried rice, desert, and choice of coffee, iced tea or milk, all for 75 cents. The more modest "Mexican Dinner" with only tamales, chili, enchilada, rice, tortillas, dessert and drink cost 50 cents.

A note appended at the bottom of the menu advised, "Please ask for hot sauce."

The a la carte section of the menu, a second sheet attached with a straight pin, included such food items as huevos rancheros for 30 cents, bowl of chili for 20 cents, and half a dozen tamales with chili for a quarter. Coffee, iced tea, milk and cokes were a nickel a glass.

Cathryn Grady, coming from the land of plain cooking in Nebraska, concluded her comments on the spicy meal at the Azteca Inn with the observation, "The food had a peculiar taste."

CHS to host speech tournament

Over 200 students from across the area will be in Colorado City Saturday for a speech and drama tournament here to be co-hosted by Colorado High School and Coahoma High School.

Carl Moore, CHS speech and drama teacher, said more than 200 students representing 23 schools will be participating in the event.

Moore said this is the first time for the tournament to be hosted in Colorado City, although Colorado City assisted Coahoma last year with the event.

"This is something we do in conjunction with Coahoma," said Moore.

"We are offering all the speech events that are available for University Interscholastic League (UIL), plus duet acting and several of the academic events," said Moore.

The event will be get underway at 8:30 a.m. Saturday and will last all day, until 6:30-7 p.m.

Moore said townspeople will be utilized as judges in the various events which include prose interpretation, poetry interpretation, informative extemporaneous speaking, persuasive extemporaneous speaking, cross-examination team debate, Lincoln-Douglas debate, junior high poetry, duet acting, ready writing, literary criticisms, number sense, science, accounting, typewriting and spelling.

Fairview Club installs officers

Fairview Extension Homemakers installed new officers Thursday, Jan. 14, in the home of Ginny Moore. D'Dee Morris conducted the installation using the acronym "HOMEMAKERS", relating the duties and privileges of homemaking to those of the club's officers.

Those installed were Peggy Faulkenberry, president; Ginny Moore, vice president; D'Dee Morris, secretary-treasurer; Billie Smith, reporter; Edna Pace, council delegate; and D'Dee Morris, alternate delegate.

Mrs. Faulkenberry welcomed members and guests and conducted a short business session. Plans were discussed for the stockshow and assignments made. Green Stamps were turned into the club to be used on new appliances for the kitchen at the agricultural barn. The new year books were filled in with programs and hostesses for the coming season.

Libbi Garnett, county extension agent, assisted in the installation of officers and expressed her appreciation for the welcome and enthusiasm of the Mitchell County people in supporting the extension program.

Ginny Moore served a colorful salad plate to the following: Lydia Blagg, Lona Cook, Peggy Faulkenberry, Velma Hester, Versie McMillan, D'Dee Morris, Edna Pace, Billie Smith, Muriel Thurman and a new member Fay Farries. Visitors were Libbie Garnett and Belle Smith.

Beeman hosts Self Culture Club

The Self Culture Club met Friday, Jan. 15, in the home of Fannie Beeman.

The prayer and pledge to the flag were led by Eddie Barclay and Dona Reed.

New officers for 1988-89 were elected and include Lil Brown, president; Linnie Williams, first vice president; Elizabeth Elliott, second vice president; Pearl Watson, recording secretary; Ida Keith, corresponding secretary; and Eddie Barclay, treasurer.

Pearl Watson presented the program on "Sam Houston, a Legacy."

She noted that Houston, a Virginian, was already famous when he was sent to Texas in 1832 as a secret agent by President Andrew Jackson. Houston was to try to persuade the Comanches to quit raiding American soil and his assignment kept him somewhat aloof.

Houston was later made commander-in-chief of the Texas forces. He counseled with no one, thus making him unpopular.

"The military experts deemed the defeat of San Jacinto impossible," said Mrs. Watson. "Although out-numbered, the troops were angry and wanted revenge for the slaughter of their comrades a month earlier at the Alamo and Goliad."

Houston retreated repeatedly, at the anguish of President Burnet. After retreating to the San Jacinto River and the Buffalo Bayou, he took position in a grove of live oaks. The Battle of San Jacinto took only 18 minutes, but long enough to create a legend.

"Sam Houston made the right decision," said Mrs. Watson. "He changed the history of the U.S.; without him who would have owned Texas?"

Houston was later banished as a traitor because he opposed the state joining the Confederacy to fight during the Civil War. Houston remained true to the U.S., but refused the U.S. offer to send soldiers to restore his authority.

Mrs. Watson said that Houston was twice president of the Republic and "Margaret, Houston's wife, a poet and a Christian, led her flamboyant husband to religious baptism."

There is a museum at Huntsville named in honor of the father of Texas independence. There is a replica of Houston's law office and a period kitchen on acreage belonging to the Houston's family. The museum and land is now owned by Sam Houston State University.

Those present were Eddie Barclay, Lil Brown, Elizabeth Elliott, Ida Keith, Dona Reed, Jewell Tiller, Pearl Watson and the hostess, Fannie Beeman.

Area livestock auction penalized

Washington, Jan. 15—Big Spring Livestock Auction, Inc. Big Spring, Texas, has agreed to a two-week suspension and a cease and desist order from the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Calvin W. Watkins, deputy administrator of USDA's Packers and Stockyards Administration, said Big Spring agreed to the penalties to settle federal administrative charges that it allowed its weighmaster, a key employee of the market, to purchase livestock out of consignment to fill orders for a meat packer. Watkins said selling agencies are prohibited from allowing key employees to purchase livestock out of consignment for speculation or to fill orders.

In agreeing to the suspension, Big Spring neither admitted nor denied the federal charges filed by USDA under authority of the P&S Act.

The P&S Act is an antitrust, fair trade practice and payment protection law. It is designed to maintain integrity in the marketing of livestock, poultry and meat, and economic law and order in the marketplace.

USDA sets hearing

The U.S. Department of Agriculture has announced a public hearing will begin at 9 a.m. on Feb. 2 at the Holiday Inn, Dallas-Fort Worth Airport-South, Irving, where dairy farmers, milk dealers, and consumers are invited to testify on proposals to amend the Texas federal milk marketing order.

J. Patrick Boyle, administrator of USDA's Agricultural Marketing Service, said the hearing, requested by Associated Milk Producers, Inc. (AMPI), a cooperative representing a substantial number of Texas dairy farmers, centers on proposals to solve a seasonal milk surplus problem. At the hearing, USDA would hear testimony on proposals from AMPI and certain proprietary dairies to reimburse handlers for some milk transportation costs. That plan would furnish credits from pool funds to offset some of the costs of hauling seasonal surplus milk to distant milk product manufacturing plants. The transportation allowance, proposed is between 2.2 cents and 3.6 cents per hundred-weight per 10 miles for such milk movements during March through June, and part or all of December, when production exceeds demand, Boyle said. Other proposals would price surplus milk at the higher price applicable at a local plant where the milk normally would be received, rather than at the lower price at the distant plant to which it is delivered. Proponents say that such pricing would help cover long-distance transportation costs.

Proponents have advanced these amendments to resolve their claim that seasonal excess supply exceeds the capacity of local milk product manufacturing plants and that excess must be transported long distances to other plants for processing.

Roscoe church sets wills, estate planning seminar

ROSCOE - First Salem Lutheran Church will be the host for a Wills and Planning Estate Clinic Thursday, Jan. 21, at 7 p.m.

This will cover the "how to's" of will planning. Ideas will be given on how to inventory, how to determine what you want accomplished, ideas for inheritance tax savings.

A worksheet is provided to help people to plan at home. Ideas will be given as to what to bring to an attorney. This workshop is geared for all ages and any size estate.

Sharing the speaker's podium will be Rev. Gerald Leaf of the Lutheran Foundation of Texas and Maxie Cain, attorney of Roscoe with offices in Colorado City and Roscoe. Mrs. Cain will share topics on how state laws affect distribution of property and an overview of probate.

After a short break and refreshments, there will be a discussion period with both speakers answering questions.

First Salem Lutheran is at 923 S. Main, one block north from Interstate 20 exit 236.

Veteran land tracts to be sold

AUSTIN--Texas Land Commissioner Garry Mauro reminded Texans they have until February 23 to submit bids on land included in a special sale of 357 tracts of land, all of which are available to eligible Texas Veterans and many of them are available to the general public through the Texas Veterans Land Board. Information on the location, size and amenities on each tract can be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-252-VETS.

"This sale is an excellent opportunity to pick up quality acreage with very reasonable terms," Mauro said. "And since the Texas Veterans Land Board offers 95 percent financing, there's always an enormous amount of interest in these sales. So let me encourage you to take a look at the tracts that interest you as soon as possible and get your bids in."

Located in 108 Texas counties, the tracts range in size from 10 acres in several counties to a 64-acre tract in Jones County. All tracts are available for bids from eligible Texas Veterans and 164 tracts are open for bids from the general public as well.

Winning bids from eligible Texas Veterans will receive an 8.75 percent interest rate while the interest rate for the general public will be 10.25 percent. Both will carry a 30-year assumable fixed-rate loan. A $25 non-refundable bid fee for each bid submitted has been set by the board.

The Texas Veterans Land

Board will finance the entire loan amount less a 5 percent downpayment for both eligible Texas Veterans and the general public. There is no limit on the amount loaned or on the number of tracts on which an individual can bid.

A public reading of the bids will be held on February 23, 1988, at 1 p.m. in Room 831 of the Stephen F. Austin Building at 1700 N. Congress in Austin.

The sale will be by sealed bid only, with the minimum bid set by the Texas Veterans Land Board. All bids must be received by the Board no later than February 23, 1988 at 1 p.m. Any and all bids received after that time and date will be rejected.

Details of the sale and a brochure describing each tract and its location can be obtained by calling toll-free 1-800-252-VETS at the Texas Veterans Land Board Monday-Friday 7:30 a.m.-6 p.m. 0390

New AARP officers installed

The Mitchell County American Association of Retired Persons No. 1461 met Monday, Jan. 18, in the C.C. Thompson Room for its regular meeting and luncheon.

Mrs. Dona Reed, president, presided. Invocation was given by Lawrence Ruddick.

The tables were covered with white and held blue runners and white candy dishes were used.

The pledge to the flag was led by Olman Sweat. The song "America" was led by Louise Sweat, accompanied at the piano by Pearl Wood.

Mrs. Reed noted that she hopes the new year will be a pleasant one for everyone.

"This is the day that the Lord has made and this is the year that the Lord has made," she said. "We face new challenges each day and wish for a mind unafraid to work and an understanding heart and the trouble with the future is that it keeps getting closer and closer."

The president also told about "What AARP Is", noting that it is an alliance of individuals who are more concerned with the future than the past.

AARP is non-profit association of the mature that encourages its members to exercise their individual rights as responsible citizens.

AARP is a national organization of nearly a million people who want to keep active and in the mainstream of life.

Thanks was expressed to Raymond and Virginia Fuller for giving Susan B. Anthony dollars to retired persons. Velma Moseley and Faye Spivey presided over the drawing of dollars for 10 lucky persons.

Louise Sweat was installing officer for the new officers for the coming year, using as her theme "Trees". The new officers are Dona Reed, president; Eddie Barclay, vice president; Jessie Mae Merket, secretary; Nelda Garrett, treasurer; Velma Moseley and Faye Spivey, program chairmen; Lonie Pruitt, kitchen chairman; Velma Pond and Corene Wiman, telephone committee.

The nomination committee for year is composed of Addie Smith, Angie Harris and Bill Harris.

The president closed the meeting with these thoughts for the day:

"Hit the ball over the fence and you can take your time going around the bases" and "Good listeners are not only popular everywhere, but after a while, they know something."

Caution urged when replacing supplement

Older Texans should exercise great care before deciding to replace one Medicare supplement policy with another.

Some agents will urge prospective customers to cancel their existing policies and purchase new ones the agents tout as superior.

The practice of selling replacement coverage to the detriment of the customer is called "twisting."

Twisting can be harmful for consumers because newly issued Medicare supplement policies commonly do not cover pre-existing conditions immediately. A pre-existing condition is an ailment for which a person has obtained medical advice and/or treatment during the preceding six months.

Most new policies will not cover pre-existing conditions for six months after its effective date. (A few policies marketed in Texas have shorter "waiting periods" for coverage of pre-existing conditions.)

Should you decide to purchase a replacement Medicare supplement policy, State Board of Insurance rules require the company or agent to give you a special notice. The notice warns you that the new policy may not cover pre-existing conditions that are fully covered by your present policy. If you buy from an agent, he or she must obtain your signed acknowledgement that you received the notice.

The State Board of Insurance has a toll-free telephone line that consumers may call with their insurance questions. The number is 1-800-252-3439.

Correction

In the listing of cases filed in District Court in the "Public Records" of last Sunday's issue, the personal injury case filed by David L. Barrera should have been against Mitchell County Gin, rather than Mitchell County.

Wylie girls clinch first half title

Abilene Wylie High School clinched a playoff spot and kept alive for another one by winning two district 5AAA basketball games here at Colorado City's Pit Friday night.

Wylie's 80-48 victory in the varsity girls contest gave the Bulldogs a final 6-0 record in the first half of district play while the Lady Wolves dropped to 1-5.

Wylie's 70-47 win in the boys contest kept the Bulldogs alive in first half race. Eighth ranked and 19-0 Ballinger leads the race but has still to face a Merkel team also undefeated in district play. Wylie's lone district loss was to Ballinger but Merkel already owns a non-district win over the Bulldogs.

Colorado City's Lady Wolves made an improved performance against the heavily favored Bulldogs but paid dearly for 46 turnovers.

The Lady Wolves, 4-15, trailed only 18-10 after period of play. "We played better that we had," said Lady Wolves coach Wayne Alexander, "but we turned the ball over in two spurts to their pressure. We were down by four in the second period then all of a sudden they had a sixteen point lead. We did it again in the third period. We did play with a little better intensity."

Junior Monica Hamilton scored a team high 12 points for the Wolves on jump shots and 2 of 5 free throw shooting. Hamilton also made five rebounds.

Also scoring for the Wolves were Denise Lowrance 11 (3 of 3 free throws), Jennifer Monroe 8, Sheila Monroe 4, Brittany Bridgford 4, Mendy Conner 3, Michelle Combs 2, Carla Hammond 2 and Lisa Lamb 2.

Lowrance made 10 rebounds and 2 steals while Bridgford had 5 rebounds and Hammond two assists. The Lady Wolves made 10 of 18 free throws and 6 of 9 in the first half.

Tracy Corn scored 11 points in the third period for Wylie and finished with a game high 21 points. Also for Wylie were Marian Shelton 17 and Teri Brooks 13.

The Wylie Bulldogs led 19-8 after one period of play in the boys contest, 43-19 at halftime and 58-37 after three periods.

A bright spot for the Wolves was the off-the-bench play of Dane Hoover, who scored 10 points in third period to finish with a tea high 18 points.

Also scoring for the Wolves were Ken Woods 9 (including 5 of 6 free throws), Pat Ridge 6 on two three-pointers, Mark Russell 5, Darvin Jackson 4, Gary Jackson 2, Bubba Bailey 2 and Ismael Silva 1.

Leading rebounders for Colorado City were Hoover and Russell with 9 and 8 rebounds, respectively. Ridge and Russell graded highest defensively.

The Wolves made 18 of 56 shots and 9 of 16 free throws with 22 turnovers and 9 assists. Beau Rees made a team high 3 assists.

Jay Jones led Wylie with 21 points. Jeff Wood scored 18 for the Bulldogs with 3 three-pointers. John Garner and Mac Tucker scored 11 points for Wylie.

Wylie also won the junior varsity girls contest 34-22. Scoring for the Lady Wolves were Kendra Ritchey 8, Priscilla Mayes 6, Melissa Rivera 2, JoAnn Ornelas 2, Bridgett Bridgford 2 and Jackie Smith 2.

Brown led Wylie with 11 points.

The lone win for the Wolves came in the junior varsity boys contest where Mark Alvidrez' 20 points led the Wolves in a 61-56 win.

Also scoring were Dennis Smith 11, George Rivera 7, Ricky Westbrook 2, Tracy McElvaney 3, Heath Watlington 5, Tracy Ausbie 11 and John Pharris 2.

For Wylie were Belt 14 and Ervin 15.

Card Of Thanks

Card of Thanks

We are truly grateful to the good friends who did so much for us during our recent sorrow. May we take this means of saying thank you for the many comforting expressions of your friendship and affection. And to Dr. Roach and the nursing staff at Mitchell County Hospital whom we cannot give enough praise.

The Family of Leonard Henderson

Foster parents needed

Sometimes area families need help caring for their children...that's where foster families come into the picture.

If you can visualize you and your family being foster parents to a child who has been abused or neglected and if you feel compassion for children in need, the foster parenting program may be for you. If you and your family can offer a child love, if you are willing to share your home you may be about to embark on an extremely happy period of your life.

Foster parenting is not for everyone...but for the select few it can be a rewarding experience beyond imagination, an experience that will strengthen your own family unit and increase your capacity to love.

The Texas Department of Human Services will conduct an orientation meeting for prospective foster parents in Sweetwater on Monday night, February 1st from 7 p.m. until 10 p.m. in the Texas Electric Reddy Room. The meeting will afford prospective foster parents the opportunity to ask questions and have the full foster parenting story outlined.

There are children of all ages who need a temporary home, love, understanding, someone to listen...that need is satisfied by foster parents.

If you think you would like to share yourself and family with a child...plan on attending the foster parent orientation meeting.

Child Abuse is an increasingly critical problem in the United States and around the world. Over 2000 children die each year in the U.S. as a direct result of abuse or neglect and over one half of these children are under the age of 6. In Texas alone over 115 children die due to child abuse annually.

More than 5000 Texas children are in the Child Protective Service's foster care. These are children whom the courts have deemed the home situation to be too dangerous for them to remain.

There is a real need for individuals and families who are willing to provide a temporary home for these children while the Texas Department of Human Services devises a permanent plan for them.

Foster parents are reimbursed at the rate of $8 a day for children under the age of 8; $9 a day for children between the ages of 10 and 17. All medical expenses are paid.

Annual Loraine livestock show draws crowd

Good weather, plenty of exhibitors, and a good crowd in attendance made the annual Loraine Stock Show, held last Saturday, one of the best, Mike Herrington, Vocational Ag
Teacher at Loraine High School reported.

Twenty-one exhibitors entered 54 market pigs, 9 market steers and one pen of rabbits in the show.

Don Ballard, Vocational Agriculture Teacher at Rule served as judge and complimented the quality of all the animals entered and the showmanship displayed by the exhibitors.

Amber Blair's heavy weight Duroc took the grand champion honors of the swine division.
Chris Phillips' Hampshire was judged the reserve grand champion swine.

Swine Showmanship awards went to Christi Blair, high school division; Chris Phillips, junior high; and Craig Finley, elementary.

In the steer division, Bonnie Herrington's middle weight steer, named "BB" was named the grand champion. She also took the reserve champion honors with her light weight steer, "Dink".

Steer showmanship award went to Shelli Webb.

Herrington pointed out that the competition was keen this year with the exhibitors in quest of the belt buckles offered for the grand and reserve champions and the showmanship winners given in each division. Also sacks of feed were awarded to first place winners in each class and small trophies awarded to all participants in the showmanship contest.
