Boys Now 18 Will Start Registering Friday, Dec. 11

Local Boys Will Register At Draft Board Office

Young men who have attained their 18th birthday will start registering on Friday, December 11, in the sixth Selective Service Registration. Local boys will register at the draft office, between the hours of 9 a. m. and 5 p. m.

Registration days hereinafter will be carried on as follows:

Those who were born on or after July 1, 1924, but not after August 31, 1924, shall be registered on any day during the week commencing Friday, December 11, 1942, and ending Thursday, December 17, 1942.

Those who were born on or after September 1, 1924, but not after October 31, 1924, shall be registered on any day during the week commencing Saturday, December 26, 1942 and ending Thursday, December 31, 1942.

Those who were born on or after November 1, 1924, shall be registered on any day during the period commencing Saturday, December 26, 1942, and ending Thursday, December 31, 1942.

During the continuance of the present war, those who were born on or after January 1, 1925, shall be registered on the day they attain their eighteenth anniversary of the day of their birth; provided, that if such anniversary falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, their registration shall take place on the day following.

Methodist To Take Offerings For Orphan Home

The annual offering, always made at Christmas time, for the maintenance of the Methodist Home at Waco, will be made next Sunday morning by the worshippers at the First Methodist Church, according to an announcement made by the pastor, Rev. E. D. Landreth.

Through these Christmas offerings the Methodist of Texas and New Mexico provide entirely for the operational expense of the Home. The required budget for operation is $125,000.00 per year.

Four hundred children are being trained in the Home, where every opportunity is given for the child's normal development into a worthy citizen of our country. The atmosphere is not that of an orphanage, but of a real home. Children are admitted into the home on the basis of need with no religious or denominational lines being drawn. There is no uniforms worn, and no second hand clothes are worn by the children, but every child is dressed as individually as you would find on any school campus in the country. Perhaps it would be hard to find four hundred happier children than those that live on the Methodist Home Campus.

Special offering envelopes will be provided Sunday morning for the convenience of the people who contribute to the Christmas offering the pastor said.

G. W. Hyatt Brings In Fine Turnip

G. W. Hyatt, who lives 2 miles north of Lamesa brought to the Courier office Wednesday an extra fine turnip he has raised at his farm.

The turnip weighed 7 1/2 pounds and measured 27 inches around. According to Mr. Hyatt, this turnip is just one of many he raised this year. He said that he planted the seed at the end of cotton rows and never did work them, or water them. The turnip is on display in the Courier office.

First Snow Falls Of 1942 Season

The first snow of the 1942 winter season started falling in Lamesa early last Sunday morning and continued throughout most of the day. An estimated 5 or 6 inches has been reported from the county.

The snow fall will slow up harvesting of the 1942 crops, which in most instances is well on the way to completion. This is the first moisture received in several weeks.

PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, The United States of America for the first time since 1917 is facing a wartime rise in tuberculosis; and

WHEREAS, tuberculosis, the greatest disease enemy of persons between fifteen and forty-five years of age, is one of the worst saboteurs in this country; and

WHEREAS, it is imperative that every individual in Texas learn and practice self-protection; and

WHEREAS, the Texas Tuberculosis Association and its affiliated local units, in order to carry on their expanded programs, should have the full support of the citizens of Texas;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Coke Stevenson, Governor of the State of Texas, urge every man, woman and child to contribute as generously as possible to the Christmas Seal Sale to the end that the so far victorious campaign against tuberculosis may continue unabated throughout this State and Nation.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF, I have hereunto signed my name officially and caused the Seal of State to be affixed hereto at Austin, this the thirtieth day of November, A. D., 1942.

COKE S. STEVENSON, Governor of Texas.

Classified Ad Finds $77 For Mrs. H. M. Meek

Mrs. H. M. Meek, prominent Lamesa lady, reports one of the most phenomenal stories to reach the Courier office in some time.

The first snow fall of the 1942 season brought bad luck to this good lady Sunday, when she lost a purse containing $77.00 in money and other valuables. The situation looked hopeless until she thought of the Classified Section of the Dawson County Courier.

Monday Mrs. Meek placed a small advertisement in the paper and guess what happened then.

The purse was kicked out of the snow by a bunch of Lamesa girls Tuesday and returned to the owner intact. Of course the girls had read all about the misfortune of the lady in the Classified Section of the Courier.

Junior Class To Give Play December 17th

"The Tangled Yarn," a three-act comedy by Dagmar Viola, will be presented by the Junior Class of Lamesa High School in the school auditorium on Thursday evening, December 17, at 8 o'clock.

Mrs. Valeria Sharp Pratt, teacher of speech, is directing the play, which will be produced by special arrangement with the Ivan Bloom Hardin Publishing Company of Des Moines, Iowa.

Camilla Page, played by Marilyn Frazier, is a young lady with ideas; and when she and two friends, Cora and Vivian, (Kathleen King and Betty Pace), are close to the poverty line, she enters a contest for the "ideal mother."

Camilla sends in her own picture, dressed in a "mothers costume," writes a heart-rending story of desertion by her husband and wins the prize! She is forced to dress and make up as an old lady while the other girls enjoy the company of the young editor, Alex Lawton, played by Lon Gene Smith, who comes to award the prize. The stories to the different newspapers conflict; an enterprising impostor (Jimmie Little) arrives on the scene, and complications pile up until Camilla's "yarn" becomes a tangled mess.

Hilarious fun unfolds the plot through the three acts of suspense and gaudy.

Other members of the cast include Katherine Nelson, who plays the part of Sadie Stringer, a meddlesome roomer; Robert Kirk as Mr. Morgan, the landlord; Wanda Tankersley, Mrs. Morgan, the landlady; Raymond Hatch, Stuart Brand, a young writer; Gertrude Murray, Stuart's mother; Christine Tolbert, Camilla's mother; and Douglas Jarrell as "Speed" Martin, a newspaper reporter.

Glider Named 'Pearl Harbor Avenger'

These pilots at the Army glider school near Dalhart, Texas, were bombed and strafed by Jap planes last December 7 in Hawaii. They have named a glider "Pearl Harbor Avenger." Clockwise from bottom left: Staff Sgts. Troy A. Adams, Texarkana, Tex.; John J. Kinney, East Aurora, N. Y.; Carrol A. French, Denison, Tex.; Richard Feak, Channing, Mich.; Harold Kolom, Chicago. French lost brother in the attack. The others lost friends.

Soil Payments Totaling $13,630 Received Here

Sixty more 1943 soil conservation checks were received at the local AAA office Tuesday according to Charles E. Tarter, Administrative Officer. The checks totaled $13,630.63.

This group of checks makes a total of $63,651.02 soil payments received so far and have gone to 348 Dawson County farmers.

It is estimated that 2500 farmers in this county will receive these 1942 conservation checks and will total approximately $800,000.

Methodist To Buy War Bonds

A movement to raise and invest in defense bonds a sufficient amount of money for the eventual finishing of the church building was set going at Wednesday night meeting of the board of stewards of the First Methodist Church. Contributions are now being received by the church treasurer for this bond fund.

Persons desiring to make such contributions before January 1st in order to take allowable deductions on income tax returns may do so, and thus make their money serve their church, and their country at the same time.

Cotton Allotment And War Crops Explained By USDA

During the past few weeks, there have been many questions regarding the planting of War Crops for 1943, and about there being a large penalty if a producer does not plant at least 90 per cent of his Cotton Allotment. Following is a brief, authentic report of just what the "90 per cent or Penalty" means, just as received in a telegram from B. F. Vance, State Administrative Officer.

For 1943, there will be a small per cent of acreage on which must be planted a War Crop (peanuts, soy beans, field peas, etc.). The amount of acreage has not yet been decided upon, but will be announced soon. This acreage must be planted, just as the "20 per cent" had to be in 1942, else the producer will receive a penalty. However, the penalty on cotton works as follows:

If a producer is UNDERPLANTED on cotton, he will NOT receive a penalty. For instance: A producer has a cotton allotment of fifty acres, and a War Crop allotment of fifteen acres. If he plants forty acres of cotton, and twenty-five acres of War Crop, he will not receive a penalty, and he will receive full payment for his cotton.

If a producer is OVERPLANTED on cotton, he will receive a penalty. For instance: A producer has a cotton allotment of fifty acres, and a War Crop allotment of fifteen acres. If he plants only forty acres of cotton, but has an extra ten acres of Grain Sorghum, he will be considered as being in full compliance. In other words, if a producer has his full amount of War Crop planted, and the rest of his acreage planted in Grain Sorghums and cotton, he cannot receive a penalty for being underplanted on cotton—his essential feed crops and war crops will substitute acre for acre for the underplanted cotton acreage.

The telegram, received from Mr. Vance Wednesday, December 9, read as follows:

"Recent change in 1943 program provides (1) acreage of designated essential feed crops including corn, grain sorghum, oats, tame hay and designated vegetables, above normal acreage such crops can be substituted acre for acre for cotton in meeting 90 per cent cotton allotment requirements."

Courier To Publish Santa Claus Letters

Once again the Courier has made arrangements with Santa Claus to act as a clearing house for the kiddies letters to him, as to what they want for Christmas.

So all you children write your letters to Santa Claus, The Dawson County Courier, Lamesa, and we will see they are delivered to him. Get them written and mailed as early as possible, so that we will have plenty of time to send them on to Santa.

All letters received by the Courier will be published in the annual Christmas edition of the paper and then forwarded on

Tire Inspectors Must Pass OPA Examination

Examinations will be given within the next few days to filing station operators and tire store men and others who wish to become Official Tire Inspectors, according to information coming from the Tire Panel of the Dawson County War Price and Rationing Board.

T. E. Hendrix, District Tire Inspector of the OPA Office in Lubbock was in Lamesa Monday for a meeting with local tire men to explain tire inspectors duties. Examination blanks are due to arrive at the Ration Office this week end. Definite information concerning the examination will be announced later. Those wishing to take it and those who pass it, will be named as government authorized Tire Inspectors for this county, and will be publicly announced, as all automobile owners must have their tires officially inspected before January 31, 1943.

PFC. Wm. H. MEESKS NOW AT PAMPA SCHOOL

Pfc. Wm. H. Meeks, who enlisted at the South Plains Flying School in September has recently been transferred to the Twin-Engine Flying Training School at Pampa, Texas. He has been assigned Assistant Crew Chief of his squadron. Pfc. Meeks is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Meeks of Welch.

Voting Will Take Place At 12 Voting Boxes In County

Dawson County farmers will vote on Saturday, December 12 on whether they favor keeping the production and marketing of cotton under strict governmental control for another year.

Polling places in Dawson County will be open at 8 a. m. and will close at 7 p. m. and will be carried on at the following places, Lamesa, District Court Room; and at school houses at Shumake, Key, Harmony, Hancock, O. K. Welch, Bartlett, Union, Higginbotham, Klondike and Five Mile.

Cotton marketing quotas have been in effect for the past five years, the growers voting each year to the quotas as a means of insuring each grower his fair share of the available market for cotton.

Last December 89.4 per cent of the Texas growers voting favored quotas on the 1942 crop, while 93.9 per cent of the growers voting over the nation favored quotas.

Agricultural officials point out that because of wartime conditions, the number of ballot boxes for this year's referendum will be considerably larger than the number in previous years. This move is intended to make it possible for all growers to get to the polls despite the transportation problem and the rush of war-time food production.

Red Cross Surgical Dressing Room To Close Friday

Mrs. N. H. Price informs the Courier that the Red Cross Surgical Dressing room will close after Friday, December 11, and will not open again until after the first of January, or until additional materials are received.

Mrs. Price asks that everyone read the local paper for new opening dates.

Colored Citizens Want To Buy Land Establish Homes

The regular meeting of the City Commission was held Tuesday afternoon in the Mayors office at the City Hall.

A committee of colored men met with the commission, putting before them a proposition whereby colored citizens might purchase a tract of land near their present quarters, so that colored people might establish their own homes. The commission encouraged the group in their move and colored citizens went to work on the proposition.

The colored group want to establish homes and have access to city facilities. According to Mayor Charlene Jobe, the city cannot furnish water and sewage disposal facilities at this time, due to a shortage of material but hope to be able to do so within the near future. The commission welcomed the idea of a colored section and thought it would be to the advantage to both the colored and white population.

School Holidays To Start Dec. 18

The Christmas holiday season for Lamesa Public Schools will start on Friday, December 18 according to V. Z. Rogers, superintendent. Students will have one week of holidays, with school resuming on Monday, December 28.

It is thought that all teachers, living away from here, will go to their homes for the holidays, but due to gasoline rationing many people will be forced to remain at home.

REV. F. P. GRAHAM PASTOR AT BRYAN STREET CHURCH

Rev. F. P. Graham, new pastor at the Bryan Street Baptist Church, moved to Lamesa six weeks ago from Hillsboro, where he served as pastor of the Walnut Street Baptist Church for four years. Rev. and Mrs. Graham have two daughters, Judith and Genese and are residing at 207 North Bryan Street.

SPARS Is New Service Branch For Women

Would you like to know something more about the Coast Guard SPARS, newest of the three feminine military organizations?

Ensign Marguerite Stuart, procurement officer for North and West Texas, and recent graduate of the Navy WAVES School at Smith College, today supplied these details:

Q Where do you get the name SPARS?

A It is derived from the Coast Guard Motto, Semper Paratus, which means "Always ready."

Q Is it divided into two groups, like the Navy WAVES?

A Yes. The SPARS are divided into two groups—commissioned officers and enlisted personnel.

Q What are the qualifications for an officer candidate?

A The ages are 21 to 50, and it is necessary that you be a graduate of a recognized college or university.

Q How about mathematics courses?

A The WAVES requires two years of high school or college mathematics, but the SPARS do not.

Q May a married woman apply?

A Yes, she may, provided she has no child under 18 and is not married to a man in the Coast Guard service. The wife of a Naval or Army officer is eligible if she can pass the necessary physical and mental test.

Q The SPARS is a sister organization of the WAVES, isn't it?

A Right. Officers will go to the same school—Smith College—for indoctrination. Enlisted personnel will be trained in schools already established by the WAVES. Not only that—the uniforms will be similar to the Women's Reserve of the U. S. Naval Reserve except that the Coast Guard device and insignia will replace the Navy crossed anchors.

Q If I want to become a part of the SPARS enlisted personnel, how much education is required?

A A high school diploma or graduation from a recognized business school, plus business experience. The ages are 20 to 36.

Q May a SPAR be sent overseas?

A No. The bill setting up the organization limits service to the continental limits of the United States. The purpose of enlisting women is to relieve Coast Guardsmen for duty afloat.

Q How many women are needed?

A 4,000.

Q Who heads the organization?

A Lieutenant Commander Dorothy C. Stratton, former dean of women at Purdue University. Incidentally, it's interesting to know she is a veteran of the two other women's organizations. Miss Stratton was appointed to the selection board of the WAACS in the Fifth Corps Area. Later she became a lieutenant in the Women's Reserve, and was assistant to the commanding officer of the radio school at Madison, Wis. U. S. Naval Reserve.

Q Are any types of experience particularly desirable?

A Yes. Yeomen, radio operators and bookkeepers are needed, but the SPARS also can use women for general duty at the same pay rates as Coast Guardsmen.

Q Where must one apply?

A You can get complete information at any Coast Guard station, or at the Office of Naval Officer of Naval Officer Procurement, 1530 Allen Building, Dallas.

Toyland Meets The Ration Board

By DOROTHY ROE

(AP) Features Writer

Hang up the baby's stocking. Also Sister Susie's, Brother Bill's and Grandpa's. Despite priorities, shortages and other minor horrors of war, that jovial old gentleman with the long white whiskers and the unrattled reindeer is right on the job this year.

Toyland, 1942, is well stocked with toys for all ages. What if metal trains and rubber dolls are missing? The new non-priority toys are just as colorful and fascinating, and have the added attribute of being patriotic.

Toy manufacturers have cooperated fully with Uncle Sam in turning to wood, cardboard and certain non-metallic plastics for the wartime toy pack. Stores generally are still stocked with a limited number of pre-war metal and rubber toys, but there will be no replacements of these for the duration.

Toys Of War

Children of all ages are war-conscious this year, and toys are designed accordingly. Biggest sellers in the small-boy toy market are miniatures of Army and Navy equipment from uniforms to jeeps, trucks and battleships.

Children's play suits include WAAC and WAAC uniforms for little girls, correctly styled soldier, sailor, Marine and Commando suits for boys.

Even pre-school lines of wooden push-and-pull toys now include warlike equipment such as tanks, planes and anti-aircraft guns, while the one-time tin soldier now has turned to cardboard.

Dolls Aplenty

The doll situation is well in hand. Mr. S. Claus reports. To take the place of soft rubber baby dolls there are wonderful new stuffed dolls whose bodies are soft and cuddlesome, with lifelike dimples. Composition dolls are present in full force, and human-hair wigs are replaced by cotton and yarn coiffures that are highly decorative. Doll costumes adhere strictly to WPB regulations. Big favorites in the doll lineup are life-size stuffed dolls and mother and daughter dolls dressed alike.

As fascinating for Grandpa as for Junior are the new war games, in which amateur strategists have a chance to prove their military skill on cardboard battlefields.

A big demand for hobby sets and games that all the family enjoy reflects the current trend toward the family fireside. It's an old-fashioned Christmas this year, with modern science working overtime to provide toys for every stocking.

THIS FARMER KNOWS WAR ENDED IN 1918

KNOXVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — The East Tennessee farmer approached a Knox courthouse employee and asked why all the clocks were wrong by an hour.

"Why, that's because of war time; we're an hour faster now," returned Court Deputy Louis Winick.

"That's a lot of bosh," returned the overalled one. "My watch says 11 a. m., yours says 12 noon. I was supposed to meet a man here at 11. Where is he?"

Winick returned to his newspaper.

Nearly 70,000,000 sick persons in the United States lose over one billion days from work or normal activities annually.

Xmas Cards Have A Birthday

By GLADYS DEGENER

(AP) Features Writer

You are sure to find something new in Christmas cards this year. The 100th anniversary of card-exchanging. And more than likely, it will be the patriotic flavor. Although we were at war in 1941, there was no indication of it in last year's cards. Greeting cards had already appeared when Pearl Harbor occurred, and designers were busy working on this year's supply.

You'll find Santa Clause speeding over hill and dale in new vehicles—a jeep or tank—instead of his proverbial sleigh and reindeer. The Stars and Stripes replace to some extent holly and Christmas trees.

Many of the cards you'll send and receive are the work of prominent artists, some worth framing. Men in the armed forces have contributed to this year's Christmas cards, too. They have portrayed a vital, vivid, and inspiring record of their personal experiences, some in a humorous vein. Among these men are: Lieutenant Commander Joseph W. Gollin, Captain Stanley Woodward, Privates Walter de Wolf and Robert C. Burns, Sergeant Bob Majors.

ROSE POINT CRYSTAL

A magic word—a word to conjure! Brides of Today in slender silhouettes! Brides of royal blood, resplendent, glorified, adorned for the altar in bridal veils of Rose Point lace.

Rose Point lace is made entirely by hand by the peasants of Belgium, requiring infinite skill and patience. The younger generation of Belgians have neither the inclination to perform so tedious a task, so Rose Point lace is becoming increasingly rare.

And now there is another Rose Point luxury for the brides, less rare, less costly but beautiful and distinctive and new—Cambridge Rose Point Crystal. This popular Crystal will be found at the Adams' Jewelry Store. New shipment just received.

Merry-Making Is An Art

(AP) Features

How to enjoy a real Merry Christmas this year:

Take it easy—and keep healthy.

Christmas brings excitement and extra work. There's much to be done before Santa comes hustling down the chimney—presents to be bought, cards to be mailed, shopping for the Christmas feast, house-cleaning and decorating.

The only way to do all these chores in time to enable you to enjoy Christmas is to do them early.

By mid-November, most shops have put their Christmas merchandise on sale. It's easy to buy then; stores are less crowded, there a better selection.

With shopping and mailing done early, you'll be able to decorate your home leisurely. Stand on a firm chair or ladder and make sure your support isn't on a slippery, waxy floor.

A balanced diet and plenty of rest will help ward off colds and prevent that weary feeling that creeps on on many around Christmas Eve.

If you intend to light a tree, you'd better proceed with caution—electricity is treacherous. You won't be shocked at what you find if you let an electrician repair the lighting system that always seems to blow

DOING OUR BEST!

To maintain a delivery service for our Customers we realize that it may cause some inconveniences but it seems the best we are able to do with the tire and gas situation what it is.

Therefore beginning Monday, Dec. 14, the town will be divided into three zones for pickup and delivery services. These zones will be serviced as follows:

- ZONE 1 Between North Third and South Third inclusive of both streets—Monday and Thursday.
- ZONE 2 That portion of the town north of North Third—Tuesday and Fridays.
- ZONE 3 That portion of the town south of South Third—Wednesday and Saturdays.

Please have your laundry ready to be picked up by 9 o'clock as the route will be made only once and on specified days.

Our commercial trade will be serviced as usual according to the one stop each day how we have been trying to conform.

We appreciate your friendship and your patronage and thank you for the co-operation we are sure you are going to give.

PENNEY'S Practical Gifts

"MERRY" MAY NOT BE QUITE THE WORD FOR THIS CHRISTMAS

It hardly could be a Merry Christmas this year. But it can still be a good Christmas, if we want to make it so.

We cannot spend so freely, but if we budget intelligently, and spend nothing on frivolous things, we can still do much to make Christmas happy for a lot of people.

Let your gifts be practical... useful, needed things, the kind we, at Penney's, have always been so good at providing. We have always tried to make the hard-earned dollar buy as much as possible in solid value, and whether you are one of our long-time customers or not, we believe that we can help you find the practical gifts, at sensible prices, that THIS Christmas calls for.

Poor Man May Be Lucky In View Of High Income Taxes

Are you a poor man? If you are, you may consider yourself one of the more fortunate creatures of this earth. Because, from here on the more money you make, the harder you are going to be.

Here is the situation: If you are a married man with two dependents, and your gross income is $2,500, your 1942 income tax, assuming that you have $100 in allowable deductions, will be $55. But, if you are a similarly situated married man with a gross income of $3,000 (only $500 more), your 1942 income tax will be $172, more than twice as much as if your income were only $2,500. And, if you are a similarly situated married man with a gross income of $4,000, only $1,500 more than the $2,500-man's, your 1942 income tax will be $356.60, or more than four times as much.

One Quarter Due By March 15
These are the income taxes you must pay on income earned during the calendar year of 1942. At least one-quarter of them are due and payable on or before midnight, March 15, 1943. Following is the schedule for a number of the more representative incomes. In each case, in computing the tax, Lubbock's U. S. Commissioner of Internal Revenue L. B. Barkley, assumed that the taxpayer will have $100 in allowable deductions, in addition to whatever exemption he may or may not have.

Single persons, no dependents: income $600, tax $11; income $2,000, tax $322; income $3,000, tax $431; income $4,000, tax $664.60; income $5,000, tax $994.60; income $6,000, tax $1,148.60; income $7,000, tax $1,418.60; income $8,000, tax $1,712.60; income $9,000, tax $2,002.60.

Wife Not A Dependent
Married persons, two dependents: income $2,500, tax $85; income $3,000, tax $172; income $4,000, tax $356.60; income $5,000, tax $570.60; income $6,000, tax $784.60; income $7,000, tax $1,038.60; income $8,000, tax $1,292.60; income $9,000, tax $1,546.60; income $10,000, tax $1,800.60.

Married persons, no dependents: income $1,500, tax $34; income $2,500, tax $207; income $3,000, tax $289; income $4,000, tax $510.60; income $5,000, tax $724.60; income $6,000, tax $938.60; income $7,000, tax $1,152.60; income $8,000, tax $1,366.60; income $9,000, tax $1,580.60; income $10,000, tax $1,794.60.

A wife is not a dependent. A married couple is allowed a $1,000 exemption; but wife is not recognized as a dependent of her husband in the United States. Unless a child is physically or mentally defective, he ceases to be a dependent at age 18. Also, the fact that a child of 18 or more is not self-supporting, is a constant cause of expense, is in college, belongs to a fraternity or sorority, drives a car, goes to dances, attends football games, and otherwise constitutes a drain on the family exchequer, does not make him or her a dependent for the purpose of income tax accounting.

1943 Income To Pay 1942 Tax
Of further interest is the question of how much money Mr. John Q. Public will have to spend after he has finished paying taxes. In most cases he will pay his 1942 income tax out of 1943 income. Thus, if he is the married man with two dependents who is earning a gross of $2,500 a year, and has $100 in allowable deductions, he will pay $55 plus a Victory tax of 5 per cent on all but the first $12 of his weekly pay. In his case this will amount to $93.60, making a total of $148.60 in federal taxes, leaving him $2,351.40 with which to negotiate the year 1943, and to prepare for still heavier taxation on his 1943 income, and presumably the equivalent of a still heavier Victory tax in 1944.

The word khaki comes from a Persian word, "khak," meaning dust. American bull elk of the Wapiti species often weigh as much as 1,000 pounds.

Double Announcement Party Given Tuesday Evening For Miss Virginia Lindsey And Miss Carol Jacobs

Mesdames M. C. Lindsey and A. E. Jacobs entertained with a double announcement tea Tuesday evening from 5 until 7 o'clock at the Lamesa Country Club announcing the engagements of their daughters, Miss Virginia Lindsey to Lt. John Butler Pipes of Ft. Sill, Okla., and Miss Carol Jacobs to French S. Pruitt, officer candidate at Miami Beach, Florida.

The date of the marriage of Miss Lindsey and Lt. Pipes, son of Mr. and Mrs. David Pipes of New Orleans, has not been set. The marriage of Miss Jacobs and Officer Candidate Pruitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. D. Pruitt of Austin, will take place sometime this month.

As the guests arrived Mrs. Weldon Lindsey greeted the guests and presented them to the receiving line which was composed of Mrs. Lindsey, Miss Lindsey, Mrs. Max Gray of Seminole, sister of Miss Lindsey, Mrs. Jacobs, Miss Jacobs and Miss Valina Jacobs of Mangum, Oklahoma, paternal grandmother of Miss Jacobs.

Miss Mary Jo Forrest and Mrs. George Weiss of Lubbock presided at the two guest books during the evening where approximately 100 guests registered.

The serving table was laid with a Normandy Lace Cloth and centered with an arrangement of pink roses and blue cornflowers. Tall white tapers in crystal candelabra were on either side of the centerpiece. Presiding at the silver tea services were Mesdames Karl Cayton, and Miss Virginia Ann Hilliard, Assistant in serving were Mesdames E. R. Tinsley, Mrs. R. E. Simpson, and Mrs. Dixie Kilgore.

Others in the house party were Mrs. James Kimmel of Lubbock, Mrs. Raymond Neill, Miss Ramah Eager, Mrs. J. E. Garland, Miss Ruth Tinkler, Miss Ruby Nell Smith, Mrs. Jack Southard, and Mrs. R. T. Bucky of Lubbock.

Musical selections were given during the tea hours by Mesdames Carl Rountree, Noble Price, Matt McCall and A. G. Barnard.

Miss Jacobs, a graduate of Stephens College at Columbia, Mo., was a student at Texas Technological, Lubbock, during the summer of 1940, and a student at the University of Texas, Austin, during 1940-42. Officer Candidate Pruitt is a former student at the University of Texas.

Miss Lindsey was graduated from Baylor University in 1942 and has been a member of the speech department at the institution. Lt. Pipes is a former student of Louisiana State University.

MISS CAROL JACOBS COMPLIMENTED WITH BREAKFAST-SHOWER

Complimenting Miss Carol Jacobs, bride-elect, Mrs. W. K. Crawley, Mrs. R. R. Townsend, and Mrs. A. G. Barnard entertained with a breakfast and kitchen shower Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Crawley.

The Christmas motif was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. The serving table was centered with an arrangement of red carnations and place cards were miniature brides.

After the breakfast the group wrote letters to Lewis Davis who is in Australia. Earl Winter Jacobs who is in Louisiana, Weldon Lindsey and Richard Crawley, who are over seas.

The guest list included the honoree, Miss Carol Jacobs, Miss Virginia Lindsey, Miss Mary Jo Forrest, Miss Ramah Eager, Miss Virginia Ann Hilliard, and Mesdames A. E. Jacobs, Valina Jacobs of Mangum, Oklahoma, George Weiss of Lubbock, M. C. Lindsey, Karl Cayton, A. M. Bennett, S. L. Forrest, W. T. Webb, Raymond Neill, M. Q. Martin, W. D. IN MEMORY OF HOP GROOM

By Mrs. C. W. Grooms
On the third of December
The Death Angel came by and bade our loved fly.
To dwell with Jesus on High.

He suffered many a pain,
This blessed home to gain,
But not too much to sing
as on his death bed he was lain.
He left many relatives dear
Who loved his voice to hear,
But when God's calls came near
He left without a fear.

He had many, many friends
Who helped him to the end;
Now Thanks we wish to send
To each of these dear friends.

We will miss him every day
As we travel on our way;
But we all hope and pray
To meet him some sweet day.

James Anderson Listed In 1943 College Who's Who

James William Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Anderson, formerly of Lamesa, who will receive his B. S. degree from West Texas State Teachers College in May, is among those students who will be listed in the 1942-43 issue of Who's Who among students in American Universities and Colleges. The book will be released in January and February.

This publication is published through the cooperation of over 600 American Universities and Colleges. It is the only means of national recognition for graduates which is devoid of politics, fees, and dues. Several students from accredited colleges are selected each year, by an unprejudiced committee, for their biographies to appear in Who's Who. These books are placed in the hands of hundreds of companies and others who annually recruit outstanding students for employment.

The purpose of Who's Who is to serve as an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers; to serve as a means of compensation to students for what they have already done; as a recommendation to the business world; and as a standard of measurement for students.

Mr. Anderson is a member of the Buffalo T-Club, an organization for men who have earned a letter in a major college sport, is president of the student body and of the Student Council, also on the West Texas State football team. He is enlisted in the VT U. S. Naval Reserve and plans to coach after the war.

Mr. Anderson graduated from Lamesa High School in the class of 1939 and was a member of the Golden Tornado football and basketball teams.

S. S. Number Most Essential For New Employees

The time of year has arrived when many boys and girls will be employed at odd jobs in different lines of work, and many merchants, 5 & 10c stores, drug stores, and cafes will be employing additional help, part time and full time, which means according to Elliott W. Adams, manager of the Big Spring, Texas, Social Security Board field office, that each new worker so employed must have a social security account number.

"One of the reasons this is so essential is that it assures the worker that all wages received by him will be credited to his old-age and survivors insurance account which is kept by the Board according to the social security account number issued to the worker," Adams said.

It was emphasized by Adams that unless the individual has a job in view he should not apply for a number. However, as soon as he has a job in sight or expects to go to work at an early date, he should go to the nearest Social Security Board field office and apply for a social security account number. If he lives some distance from the field office," Adams said, "the worker may go to the post office and secure Form SS-5, fill in the blanks, and send it to the Social Security Board and he will receive his account number by mail. If he has lost his account number card, he should use the same form to apply for a duplicate. Before going to work on a job, the number should be given to the employer. The Social Security Board field office in this area is located at Big Spring in the Petroleum Building.

Strict Control Of Whooping Cough Urged By Dr. Cox

Commenting today on the control of communicable diseases, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, said that whooping cough is one of the hardest of the so-called children's diseases to control. This is because it is a highly contagious disease which begins as an ordinary cough and is often not recognized until the child has exposed other neighborhood children. Whooping cough is contagious during the week or ten days preceding the easily recognizable symptoms known as the "whoop." Even when the disease has been recognized, often a physician is not called and children are allowed to play with others when they are known to be sick.

In children under the age of three years, whooping cough can be very dangerous and is often fatal. Frequent spells of coughing and vomiting weaken the child to such an extent that he easily becomes a victim of some complicating disease such as pneumonia. Whooping cough complicated by pneumonia is so dangerous to young children that it

Dehydration Help Answer Feed Question

Cull sweet potatoes which can be sliced dried and stored at little cost may solve a problem for many Texas farmers who face a shortage of livestock feed each spring. Hogs, cows and work stock eat them with relish and do well on them.

A simple process for slicing and drying sweet potatoes has been worked out at the field laboratory of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station at Gilmer. Cull potatoes is advisable to call a doctor as soon as the child becomes sick.

"Do everything you can to protect children from whooping cough," Dr. Cox said. "Keep them away from playmates who have colds, especially when whooping cough is prevalent in the community. Teach children not to put into their mouths objects which have been handled by others and be sure that they wash their hands before eating. If, in spite of your precaution, your child appears to be catching whooping cough, call your doctor at once."

Keep Dairy Cows Comfortable For Best Production

A comfortable cow puts more milk into the bucket!

A shelter shed deep enough to keep cows dry in cold, rainy weather is the best means of providing comfort, says E. R. Eudaly, dairyman for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Good dairy cows need to rest, but they won't lie down in mud unless they are exhausted. Exhaustion lowers milk production about as much as wet and cold do. On that account the floor or earth under the shed should be higher than the ground outside and slope outward so that rain which blows in from the open side will run back into the gutter at the outer edge. To assure dryness the floor should be of sand, gravel or shell. Keep the gutter open.

Eudaly says that it is a good rule to make the depth of the shed twice its height at the front. The length should be regulated by the number of cows and whether they have horns. Exhausted animals need 30 square feet of floor space each, but those with horns should be allowed 45 square feet. Dairy cows require somewhat warmer shelter than fattening steers. They have no protecting fat, their coats are scantier and their hides usually are thinner than those of steers.

"It is not possible to get maximum milk production unless cows are sheltered from cold," Eudaly explains. "It is not necessary to build anything expensive—a shed which will keep the cows dry and warm will do. But it will not do much good to give the cows shelter and no roughage to eat. Cows were made to eat roughage—meaning silage and hay—and best production cannot be had without it. Texas is short of toes are sliced about one-eighth to one-fourth of an inch thick and spread on the grass in the sun for one or two days drying. Then the dried potatoes, which have decreased considerably both in bulk and weight, can be stored in a crib the same as ear corn or heads of maize.

C. E. Bowles of the A. and M. College Extension Service, explains that the average East Texas acre of sweet potatoes yields about 25 bushels of culls. These have little market value and often rot or are fed at a time when other feeds are plentiful. Twenty-five bushels of sweet potatoes when dried are equal in food value to nine bushels of corn, Bowles says.

A potato slicer similar to the one built at the Gilmer laboratory can be built for from $25 to $30 if the materials are bought. Except for the knife, the motor, and possibly the shaft, the machine can be built with materials available on most farms. A blacksmith can make the knife. The Gilmer machine slices potatoes at the rate of a bushel per minute.

Mr. Bowles, who is extension specialist in organization and cooperative marketing, is suggesting that farmers in the sweet potato belt club together in a small cooperative to buy and use a slicer.

Wartime Rules For Letter Writing

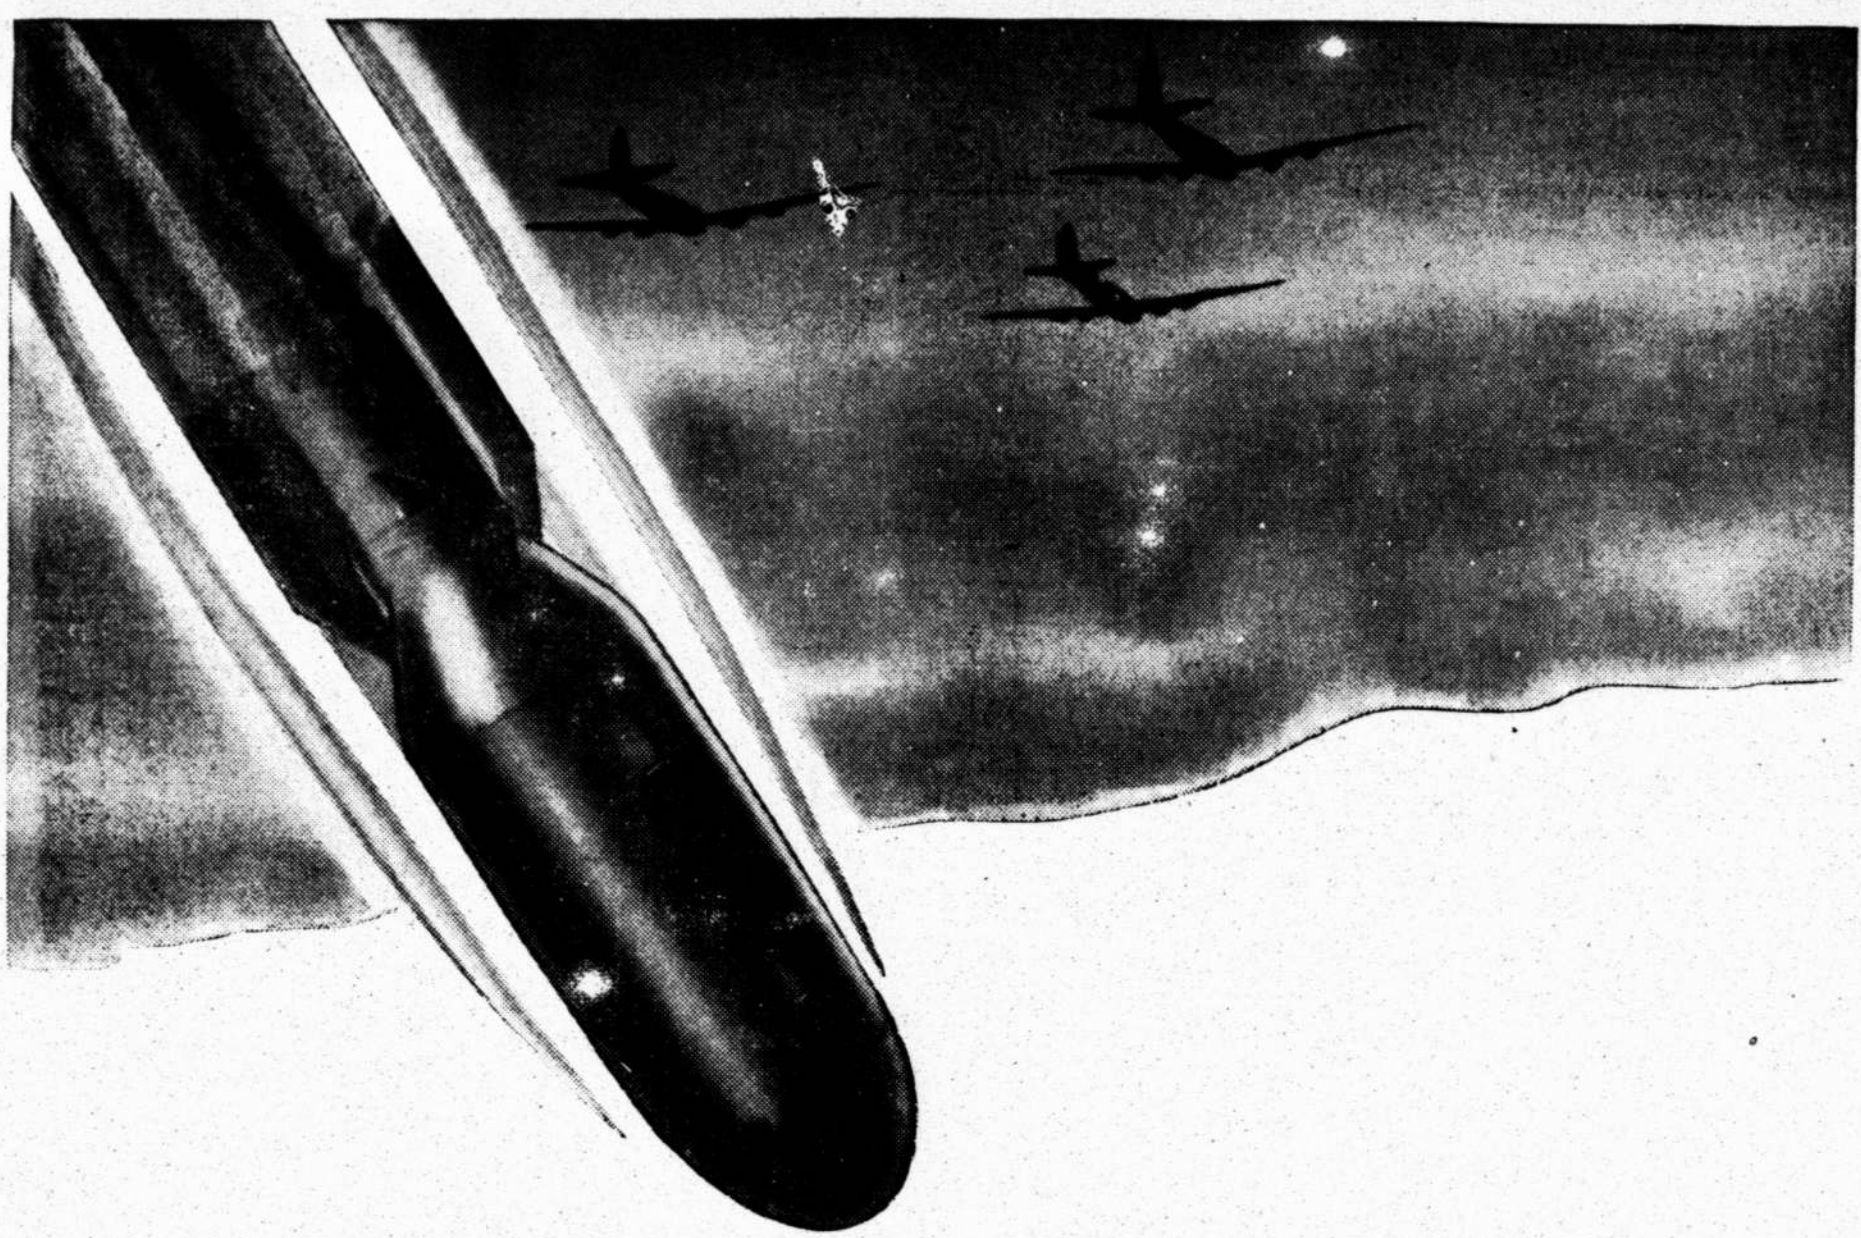

Wide World Features

A Letter from home can make or break the morale of Uncle Sam's fighting forces, says Mrs. Robert S.

Pierie, of the USO national women's committee. Here are some rules she suggests:
Don't write about the war—the service man knows about it.
Don't write about the wonderful party you had last night, or anything that may make men homesick.
Don't tell the family troubles.
Don't repeat rumors.

Don't write about political controversies and community differences.
Do tell the men about pleasant family events.
Send clippings about people the men are interested in.
Tell about local sports events the men are interested in.
Tell about family achievements—sister Susie has become a USO hostess, and brother Johnny is valedictorian of his class.
Make your letters cheerful, make them short and make them frequent.

SEND A LITTLE REMEMBRANCE TO MR. HITLER

And don't leave out his pals, Tojo and Mussolini. They've been dishing it out for three years now. It's about time they were learning what it's like.

Learning what it's like to crawl into the underground in London . . . what it's like to cringe in terror in Chungking.

And they're going to learn. Mister, how they're going to learn!

You may not be there to give it to them. You may not be there in person. But you can be there just the same . . .

You can be there with the bombs you helped buy . . . the planes you helped build . . . the ships you helped put together—through your purchases of War Bonds. Get used to the sound—WAR Bonds.

The big question is, how often will you be there? One bond lets you participate in one raid . . . but it's going to take more than just one encounter with those boys to silence them for keeps and to sweep their gangsters and their gangster methods onto the ash heap of history.

It's going to take one bond regularly from all of us . . . 10% of our salary and wages, pledged to the downfall of these three fiends and all they stand for.

And the sooner you start, the sooner they'll stop. And the sooner we'll all be back to normal again. It's really not so hard. All it needs is a little making up of the mind to do it now. Because, actually, you're not giving a thing. You're lending the money—putting it away for yourself at interest!

Ten years from now you'll get back 4 bucks for every 3 you put into War Bonds today. $300 now will bring you $400 then.

So start putting aside at least 10 percent of your income in War Bonds today—and do it every pay day.

It's worth it!

NIGHT ATTACK!

If you feel this way after reading or working awhile, perhaps you need your eyes examined or perhaps the bulb you're using is the wrong size for safe seeing. A lot of people on the home front are using their eyes as much as one-third more. That's why it's so important to guard your eyes from unnecessary strain . . . keep them fit to do today's vital war work.

TASK FORCE! Your eyes need all the help they can get. Don't handicap them with too little light. Clean reflector bowls and bulbs frequently. You'll get from 25% to 30% more light.

STRATEGIC MANEUVER!

Arrange your furniture and lamps so that you can, if necessary, make each lamp provide good light for more than one person. Be sure you're close enough to the lamp; a difference of 12 inches may cut your light in half.

REINFORCEMENTS! You'll get more help for your eyes when you read, play games or sew, if your lamp shades are light-colored or have white linings. Clean or brush them regularly; or if they are too bad, replace with fresh shades.

FARM NEWS

from
YOUR COUNTY AGENT
TEXAS EXTENSION SERVICE

"The success of a farm orchard is founded on the planting of varieties that are adapted to a given area," states B. J. Baskin, County Agent of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

According to Mr. J. F. Rosborough, Extension Horticulturist of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service, the South Plains area brings out many interesting results based on many years of work. Apples do well in this area, especially the Yellow Transparent, Red June, King David and the Delicatus. Cherries and cherry-plums seem to do better than any fruits, and the Opata, Sapa, the Hybrid Compass, Wanita, Early Richmond and Montmorency.

Better plum varieties for this area are the Six Weeks, Bruce, Botan, Shiro, Gold, America, Pools Pride and Dawson.

The Better grape varieties are the Black Spanish, Beacon, Bailey, Extra and Caco. Peaches, while not as certain as other fruits, are featured by the following varieties: Early, Rose, Early Wheeler, Mamie Ross, J. H. Hale, Dr. Burton, Halehaven, Elberta and Frank.

Some farmers are experiencing the difficulty of putting satisfactory gains on their feeder hogs at this time. States B. J. Baskin, County Agent of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service.

Some of this trouble may be put on the front door of external parasites, but most of it is probably due to internal parasites. There surely is no profit in feeding internal parasites.

Internal parasites may be controlled either by using a capsule or by adding worm powders to the feed. The latter method is as satisfactory in the results obtained, and certainly is a labor saver as well as saving much weight. Handling of the hogs causes weight losses as well as taking lots of the farmers' time. Once the hogs have been wormed they should be moved to clean pens within 6 to 12 hours to prevent re-infection. All feed troughs and water troughs should be scrubbed with 1 can of lye and 15 gallons of hot water to prevent carrying worm eggs to the clean pen.

Give the livestock a chance to produce their best.

Severe winter weather has set in, and the need for adequate protection for all livestock is apparent to Dawson County farmers.

Wind breaks or sheds, which are better, will tend to hold up feed lot gains, milk production, egg production, etc.

An egg is made up of many things, but water is its chief constituent. Pork is made up of all types of proteins, fats, etc., but water is 70 per cent of its weight. Beef is over 70 per cent water.

Hogs, cattle and poultry will not drink enough ice-cold water to put on weight, produce eggs or produce milk and carry on the normal body activities. Temper their water by heating it. Water does not need to be warm. About 70 to 72 degrees is warm enough.

Make a water heater out of an old barrel, and sink it in your water trough. Put in enough old concrete blocks or rocks to hold it down. Pour some crankcase drainings on some old scraps and set it on fire. This will warm your water, and the livestock will drink plenty on these cold days.

Farmers should check all farm machinery at the earliest possible date for repairs, and put in their order for such needed parts at once. Your dealer will experience much difficulty in furnishing parts later on. Parts may be available to the farmer that starts early, but by March much difficulty will be encountered in securing parts.

Our farm machinery plants are building parts, tanks, etc., for the armed forces. Their usual operations are curtailed. Manufacturing of parts for farm machinery is slow. Delivery of such parts is further slowed down by transportation difficulties. Help yourself and help the War Effort by making repairs and repair orders early.

A concrete floor in the milk shed will make the winter milking chores much easier, states B. J. Baskin, County Agent of the Texas A. and M. College Extension Service. A floor 5 inches thick, with a slope of 2 to 3 inches every seven feet and finished with a rough topping, will improve sanitation, improve the quality of the milk as well as make the milking job easier.

"Watch your protein in feeding beef cattle" is a word to the wise in contributing to the War Effort. Be sure that you are feeding sufficient protein (cottonseed meal, etc.), to balance your ration. Do not feed more than the steers body will take in and use to an advantage.

If you are in doubt as to the amount of protein feed needed see your County Agent. Experimental data from all the Experiment Stations is yours for the asking.

Timely Tips For Coffee Drinkers

Arguments that coffee taken black is "better for you" than coffee with cream and sugar has no basis in fact. For coffee is not a food. It can neither build and repair the tissues of the body nor provide energy for the body to run on.

The cream in coffee is food, and the sugar, but not the coffee itself, says Hazel Phipps, specialist in food preparation for A. and M. College Extension Service. She says rationing will cause many people to change their food habits, and they may as well change them for the better.

For example, to "stretch" their coffee allowance, many people may want to try their coffee the French way—half hot coffee and half hot milk. This is a good beverage for making coffee go farther and for getting more milk into the diet. Miss Phipps says, too, that coffee and chocolate are flavors which blend well together. So for a change she suggests a cup of hot chocolate or cocoa with a dash of coffee in it. Instead of a cup of coffee.

Homemakers who have any left-over coffee, can make excellent use of it provided they store it in the refrigerator. It can be used as a flavoring, especially in desserts.

The specialist also suggests serving beverages which fill in the gaps where coffee formerly was served. At lunch or dinner a cup of steaming meat or vegetable broth is good. "The fragrance of that hot cup should give your appetite a lift," Miss Phipps says. With desserts, try a hot spiced fruit juice. Hot grape juice spiced with cloves or stick cinnamon, or hot spiced cider go well with many sugar saving desserts.

BRITISH TO HELP U. S. ARMY DRIVERS

LONDON (AP)—United States truck and automobile drivers who have complained about the difficulty of finding their way about Britain's highways, devoid of signposts and lighting, will hereafter have the help of the British Automobile Association which is placing its services at the disposal of Americans.

The United States Army Headquarters said American drivers could seek the association's advice on the best routes, receive maps with road clearances and convenient stops marked, and would have access to the repair service from Association scouts who patrol the highways on motorcycles.

1943 Will Bring Many And Sundry Changes In Food

During 1943 homemakers can expect to buy many foods in bulk which they formerly bought in more convenient cans. Sauerkraut is one food, for example, which likely will be sold in bulk during the year just ahead, says Louise Bryant, specialist in home management for the A. and M. College Extension Service.

Planning meals by the week and taking war-time adjustments into consideration will increase the homemaker's efficiency the specialist believes. She predicts that before the end of 1943 housewives may make their soup at home or buy it at her neighborhood grocery store and take it home in a jar or bucket.

Manufacture of canned soups has been curtailed because of uneconomical use of tin cans. Miss Bryant says eliminating the frills in packaged foods and other household articles may be expected, too. Soap will have fewer wrappings, and there will not be as many types and sizes of containers on the grocer's shelves.

Looking at adjustments in the clothing field, Miss Bryant says consumers need not expect many major changes in 1943, but 1944 may offer many problems. In the year ahead consumers will find fewer cottons on the market, less rayon and wool goods, and more "blends" of wool and synthetic fabrics. Articles such as galoshes must be "duration goods," that is, they must last for the duration.

"There are some new mixtures, fibers and articles on the market," Miss Bryant says, "but they are still in the experimental stages, so don't believe all the claims made for new articles and materials on the market."

BRITISH MUFFLERS MAKE CAPS FOR AEF

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (AP)—American soldiers in England have devised a new use for British-made woolen mufflers now being issued them. By doubling under one end of the thick olive-drab scarf and rolling the fold to desired head size, the Yanks have converted them into first class stocking caps.

To conserve material the mufflers are little over half the length of those commonly worn by Americans.

Gasoline Board Gives Rules For Using 'A' Ration Book

The Dawson County Gasoline Board members are still hard at work checking supplementary gas applications and issuing extra gas to those eligible. Crowds seeking extra mileage rations have crowded the local office for the past two weeks. J. T. Allen, chairman of the Gas Board, states that supplementary applications are being checked as fast as possible and just as soon as each is checked the applicant will be notified by mail.

Mr. Allen, asks that filling station operators before accepting gasoline coupons, be sure that the owner's name and car license number are written on the back of each coupon. This must be done. All car owners who have not done this must do so before buying gasoline.

Each A Ration Book holder please take note of the following regulations governing the use of the book and use the coupons accordingly:

The A ration book has 4 pages of 8 coupons each. Each coupon is numbered and is good only as follows: No. 3 coupons from Nov. 22, 1942, through Jan. 21, 1943. No. 4 coupons from Jan. 22, 1943, through Mar. 21, 1943. No. 5 coupons from Mar. 22, 1943, through May 21, 1943. No. 6 coupons from May 22, 1943, through July 21, 1943. These coupons are each good for 4 gallons of gasoline, and must be used as specified.

It has been reported to the gasoline board that some filling station operators are not complying with the above rules. Mr. Allen said, "This is important and must be carried out according to law. If people will keep in mind that each page on the A Ration Book is good for a two months supply, for example, the first page of the book has 8 coupons, the first four are for use in December and the second four are for use in January. If these are all used in December no gas can be purchased until after January 21, when the A-4 coupons are good."

According to Mr. Allen the Gasoline Panel of the Dawson County War Price and Rationing Board will be closed each Saturday afternoon, and those having business with the board to please contact them during the week.

Attendance Good In Local Schools

School attendance is good with about as many students now attending as at this time last year, reports V. Z. Rogers, superintendent. At the end of the three month period the Lamesa schools had 1455 students enrolled, this is only 36 pupils fewer than at this time last

Farmers To Get More Equipment

COLLEGE STATION, Dec. 8 (AP)—The USDA war board indicated today that more new farm machinery and equipment than was expected will be available to Texas farmers next year.

The board is now making breakdowns of state quotas which include plows, harrows, cultivators, tractors, mowers and binders.

Quotas to be allocated first, according to the board, are machinery and equipment needed during the fall and winter. Included are 1,720 tractors, 1,470 wagons, 2,948 cultivators and 2,434 spike and spring tooth and disk harrows.

State Quotas Allocated
Other state quotas being allocated now are 1,059 corn and cotton planters, 226 grain drills, 145 tractor drawn disc plows, 951 moldboard plows and 362 one way. Dairy equipment consists of 450 milking machines, 581 separators and 166 milk coolers.

B. F. Vance, chairman of the board, said that the farm machinery and equipment now being released represent only 75 per cent of the expected 1943 production since materials for only this amount are now available.

He explained that if materials for the remaining 25 per cent were available that proportionate increases would be made in some items.

Distribution Planned
He added that plans are being made for manufacturers to distribute the machines through their jobbers, distributors and dealers as close as possible to distributing points in order that the number of machines received would match the number of purchase certificates issued by country farm rationing committees.

Criteria by which the state USDA war board is allocating machinery and equipment to counties include consideration of labor supply, type of crops, and existing supplies of used machinery and equipment. Similar factors will be used by county farm rationing committees in distributing the limited quotas to farmers.

In the Soviet Union 45 per cent of all war workers are women.

Half the physicians in the Soviet Union are women.

Mr. Rogers said quite a few students withdrew about the time gasoline rationing went into effect, this being due to families moving away.

Swaps Cleats For Brogans

Pvt. Albert S. (Abe) Curtis (right), prominent Southwest Conference football referee, changes from cleated grid shoes to Army brogans and reports to Lieut. Geo. Leach, Tarrant Field Athletic officer, for new duties. Curtis, president of the Southwest Conference Official Association, will coach the post basketball team and supervise athletic activities for student officers.

Better Take Care Of Ration Books

The Dawson County War Price and Rationing Board is issuing a warning to local citizens who lose their "sugar ration book," that over two weeks is required to replace these books and during that time no sugar or coffee can be purchased. They state that people are entirely too careless with their ration books and are losing them too often.

District Rotary Governor Visits Local Club This Week

Charles E. Paxton, Governor 127th District Rotary International, made his official visit to the Lamesa Rotary Club Tuesday and Wednesday, December 8 and 9. He held a club assembly with the officers, directors and committee chairmen at the Plaza Hotel Tuesday evening, at which time he outlined the duties of all officers and committee workers. Twelve members were present at this meeting and each left with the loud acclaim that it was the best meeting on Rotary instruction they had ever attended.

On Wednesday noon at the regular meeting of the club, the District Governor delivered an address to the members of the club. In this address, he admonished members of the club to "carry on" even though conditions at times appeared gloomy. He pointed out that at Coventry, England, which had been bombed off the map, only two meetings of Rotary had been missed. Likewise, in other war-stricken countries, Rotary had survived in the face of conditions which looked impossible.

Governor Paxton stated that the need for Rotary was greater than ever before and he insisted upon the clubs of the district doing their part in the development of youth, contributions to relief, and participation in community activities of all kinds. "Our most important job right now is to win the war," he said.

The District Governor has fifty-seven Rotary clubs in West Texas under his supervision. They are scattered over a territory extending from Fort Worth to the line of New Mexico. Governor Paxton has completed his official visits to all clubs except two or three. He has only an "A" card for gasoline and he makes his visits from club to club by what ever means are available when the time comes. He has been dubbed the hitch-hiking Governor of Rotary International.

Governor Paxton is in the refinery business at Sweetwater, Texas.

John H. Ethridge Dies Tuesday

John H. Ethridge, 68, farmer of the Key community passed away on Tuesday, December 8 at his home. Funeral services were held on Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 at the key church with Rev. E. F. Cole officiating. Burial was made in the Lamesa Cemetery.

Mr. Ethridge was born on April 4, 1874 in Missouri. He had lived in Dawson County 25 years. He was not married, and is survived by an half-brother, G. W. Cline.

Lt. Curtis Meeks Has Good Record In U. S. Navy

Lt. Curtis L. Meeks, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Meeks of Welch has been in the Naval Air Corps since June 15, 1942, with his first duty at Pensacola, Fla. where he attended the Naval Air Gunnery Instructors School, graduating in 5th place in a large class of officers.

Lt. Meeks next assignment came in August when he was transferred to the Naval Air Station, Jacksonville, Fla. Reporting at this station for duty as a Naval Air Gunnery Instructor Lt. Meeks has been widely recognized for his ability as an instructor in gunnery and has been recognized by the Bureau of Aeronautics for his developments in new methods of air gunnery. His job is to train the rear seat gunners of dive bombers and torpedo bombers, as well as patrol bombers to become efficient and death dealing fighting men of the air. Realizing that this war is rapidly becoming an air gunners war. He has often made the remark to his men that everyone cannot be a pilot—someone must go along to see that the pilot gets back.

Lt. Meeks is well remembered by his many friends as an outstanding marksman with the rifle and pistol.

Purchasing Officers Wanted

All persons interested in Federal positions as Purchasing Officers ($2,000 to $4,600) should note closing date for receipt of applications will be December 11, 1942, the U. S. Civil Service Commission announces. Applications must be filed with the U. S. Civil Service Commission, Washington, D. C., on or before that date.

Full information as to requirements and application forms may be obtained from Owen C. Taylor, Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at the post office or courthouse in this city, or from the Secretary of the Board of U. S. Civil Service Examiners at first and second class post offices.

Applications are not desired from war workers unless higher skills would be utilized in a change of position. WTCC To Sponsor Work Program

In West Texas Today, the official publication of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce, interesting notations were carried about officers to serve for the ensuing year. The organization is headed by M. C. Ulmer, president of the First National Bank at Midland.

Due to war conditions the WTCC abandoned the idea of an annual convention. The president and officers of the organization met in a business session in Abilene, November 10. Since that time the officers and committee have formed a program of work that embodies ten important commissions.

Lamesa will be interested in knowing that activities recommended by the WTCC work program is the developing of farm-to-market roads, and the completion of Highway 15 in Fisher County.

M. C. Lindsey of Lamesa has been made a member of the War and Post War Industries commission personnel. W. D. Arnett also of this city is a director in the organization from District No. 6.

CHARLES L. BUSBY, JR., PROMOTED TO RANK OF PRIVATE FIRST CLASS

Farm Equipment Outlook Outlined By M. R. Bentley

The primary task immediately ahead of the extension agricultural engineer is to assist farmers in keeping the machinery they possess in condition to render good service at least during 1943. This is the opinion of M. R. Bentley who fills that position for the A. and M. College Extension Service. He adds that this may be the engineer's biggest job for the duration of the war.

Bentley, who attended the recent meeting at Memphis, Tenn., called to plan extension agricultural engineering work for the next year, reports that the work in 1943 will embrace farm machinery reconditioning, conservation and use; maintenance of farm structures and equipment; household equipment; fire prevention and control; and safety in agriculture. As the major element of the program, 40 per cent of the engineers' time was suggested for farm machinery reconditioning during the coming year.

"The important phases of this program," Bentley explained, "involve training of new operators, the 'share use' of machinery, and the use of home-made equipment. To keep old machinery running at full capacity will require an organized action program on reconditioning, care and maintenance of the machinery which farmers have on hand."

He reminded that an order regulating manufacture of all farm machinery and parts from November 1, 1942, through October 31, 1943, restricts new equipment to 23 per cent of the 1940 production, but fixes production of repair parts to 137 per cent of that year's output.

In view of this Bentley says, the first order of business on farms during the winter is to put machinery into condition, make plans for maximum use either by "share" or other neighborhood cooperative method, and leave nothing undone to have all available equipment ready for service when crop time arrives next spring.
